Ochiltree Veterans Rush to Cash Terminal Leave Bonds

Banks Report $22,000 Has Been Paid

Perryton veterans of World War I seem to be in the same mood as veterans all over the nation, judging from the local rush to cash terminal leave bonds Tuesday morning.

Reports from the two banks in Perryton indicate that approximately 100 veterans cashed bonds during the first two days the bonds became redeemable. Bonds ranged from $75 to $225, with the average bond being about $225.

It was estimated that over $225,000 was paid out over the terminal leave bonds day and Wednesday.

There are around 400 World War I veterans in the Perryton area and it would seem that one-half of the county's veterans are ready cash badly enough in their terminal leave as soon as they could.

A recent record-breaking what harvest and the all-high figure in Perryton deposits evidently has little to do with the financial situation.

County Buys Southwestern Industrial Bldg

Announcement was made of the purchase of the Southwestern Industrial building by the county James McGregor. The sale was $30,000 and other conditions.

Plans call for the use of the building for storing and training county machinery equipment. The building also be used for dairy shows and other civic events.

The building is 130 by 156 feet and has 21,000 square feet of space. The lot is 300 by 300 feet.

One Open Date Filled On Ranger Schedule

One of the three open dates on the Ranger football schedule has been filled, with the West Texas High Calves slated to play in Perryton on October 10. This still leaves two open dates in the schedule on October 3 and October 17. School authorities have contacted schools all over the Panhandle, in New Mexico and Oklahoma but have had no success so far in filling these dates. It is hoped to find an opponent for another Ranger home game on at least one of these two open dates.

Plans Being Made to Form A Town Band

All persons interested in playing in a town band are asked to meet in the high school band room Thursday evening, Sept. 11, at 7:30 o'clock, and bring their band instruments.

There are a number of adults in Perryton who have played in the local school band and in college bands in past years, and a number of these musicians have shown an interest in a town band.

J. D. Davis, band director in the Perryton schools, will meet with this group one night a week if sufficient interest is shown to organize a town band. The Perryton schools have offered the use of their band room facilities and music for this organization.

The town band would be primarily for the benefit of the community and for those who wish to play in a band.

"It doesn't matter how long it has been since the individual has played an instrument," stated Davis.

Marriage Licenses

City Hires New Supt. Sept. 1

T. M. Ethridge, formerly of Dalhart, has been hired by the city council as the new city superintendent. He will have charge of the city departments of sanitation, streets, water and sewer.

Members of the council believe that more efficiency will be obtained through having a superintendent to be responsible and coordinate the various activities of the city. It was pointed out that neither the mayor or the council members have sufficient time to devote to the details of city administration and that the need has long been felt for a superintendent.

Ethridge will supervise all city employees and will be directly responsible to the mayor and council.

The new superintendent is no stranger to Perryton, having been in the city for several years.

Wiebe Dies Of Automobile Wreck Injuries

J. B. Wiebe, age 75, Ochiltree county farmer, died Friday, Aug. 29, in a Syracuse, Kansas, hospital of injuries received in an automobile accident August 25. Mrs. Wiebe and their grandson, Leon Balzer of Dallas, Oregon, also died in the crash.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiebe were on their way to Oregon on a vacation trip when the wreck occurred. It is reported that the Wiebe car was traveling on a dirt road and were following a truck. An oncoming car obscured the road just as the truck slowed down and the Wiebe car crashed into the steel edge of the truck bed, shearing the body of the Wiebe car.

Mrs. Wiebe was killed instantly and Balzer died on the way to the hospital.

Ochiltree County is Fourth In Panhandle Automobile Sales

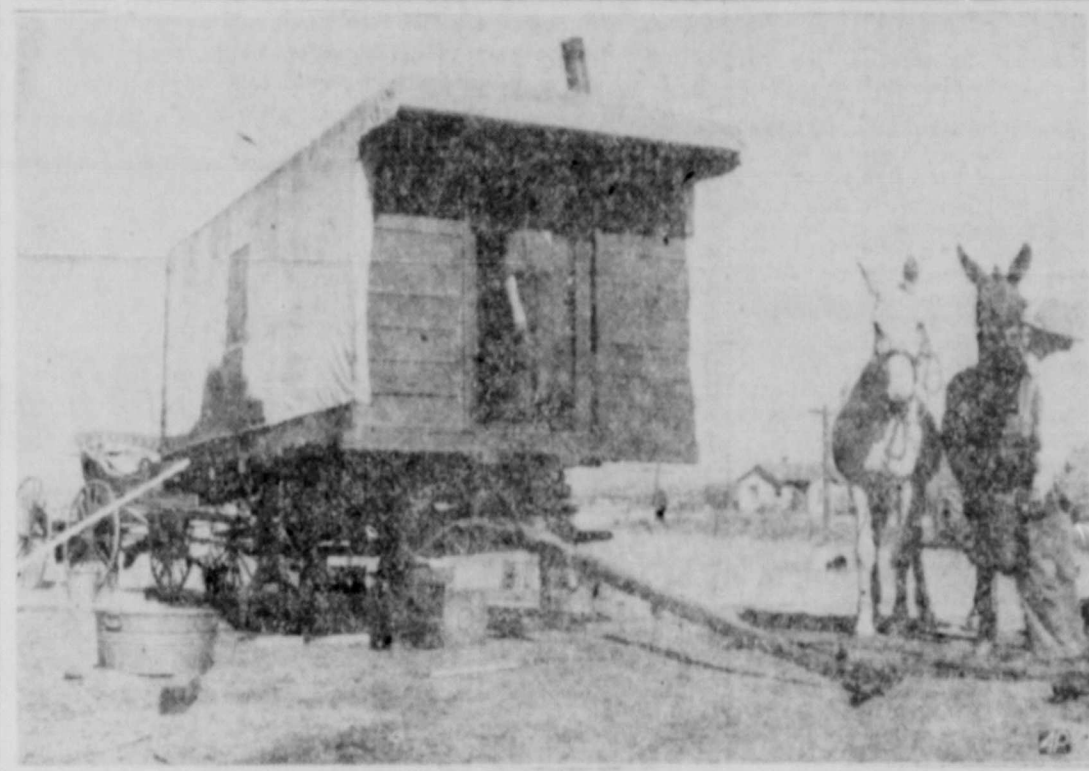

Ochiltree county ranks fourth in the Panhandle in motor vehicle sales, according to records of the Comptroller of Public Accounts, Geo. H. Sheppard. With one per cent motor vehicle tax collections of $5,436.86, Ochiltree ranks just behind Potter, Hutchinson and Gray counties.

This $5,436.86 figure of tax collections means automobile sales of $543,686.00 during the first quarter of the year, including the months of January, February and March.

Reflecting the cash value of the huge wheat crop raised in the county this year, automobile sales have zoomed since harvest started. During the month of July, automobile sales, as reflected in the one per cent motor vehicle tax collections at Sheriff Lance's office, amounted to $255,468.00 and the current quarter will be by far the largest month ever recorded at the local office.

Automobile sales, by counties, as reflected by the motor vehicle tax collections for the first three months of the year are as follows: Potter $2,998,170; Hutchinson 1,022,983; Gray 915,484; Ochiltree 543,686; Deaf Smith 328,018; Moore 305,646; Dallam 281,934; Wheeler 258,454; Collingsworth 250,999; Carson 239,964; Hansford 217,097; Lipscomb 210,623; Sherman 207,817; Hemphill 165,804; Hartley 87,476; Armstrong 81,327; Roberts 48,007; Oldham 42,792.

Fire Engine Chasers Due For Surprise

Perryton's hard riding fire engine chasers are due to get their wings clipped Sept. 5, when the new Texas uniform traffic code becomes law. Fire Chief Tom Waugh and the other members of the Perryton Fire Department will be thankful for this law which gets the spectators out of the fire fighters' hair while they try to put out fires.

The code was enacted at the last session of the Texas Legislature. It was endorsed by the Texas Safety Association, the Texas Department of Public Safety, the Texas Highway Department, the League of Texas Municipalities, the Texas Police Association and 58 other civic groups. It provides uniform and modern standards for state and local traffic laws and regulations.

NEW PIPELINE FIRM HEAD— Election of William C. Kinsolving (above) as president of the Sun Pipeline Company was announced in Philadelphia by John C. Pew, retiring president of that company and vice president in charge of production of the parent Sun Oil Company. Kinsolving, a native of Corsicana, Tex., joined Sun Oil Company as an oil field hand after receiving a degree in electrical engineering from Cornell University in 1923.

Regarding fire engine chasers, of whom there are too many in Perryton, the code specifies: "The driver of any vehicle other than one on official business shall not follow closer than 500 feet any fire apparatus traveling to a fire. Neither shall the driver park within a block from the site of the fire. Violators are subject to a stiff fine."

Driving over an unprotected fire hose stretching into the street can result in a fine of from $1 to $200.

The proper procedure upon the approach of a fire engine, police vehicle, ambulance or other authorized vehicle for a Texas driver is to yield immediately the right of way, stop alongside the right curb and remain there until the vehicle passes.

This new traffic code will be enforced in Perryton, and city police are determined to stop the wild flight of fire engine chasers who only get in the way and add greatly to the confusion at a fire.

Let's Make Next Year's Wheat Crop 100% High Milling Quality

Ochiltree County had more than 95% high milling quality wheat this year, but even this record must be improved if marketing difficulties are to be avoided in the future. Penalties were imposed on poor milling quality wheat this year in several sections of the country, and it has been pointed out that once the current export program is reduced there will be no market at all for poor milling quality wheat.

Help yourself and this area by sowing only high milling quality wheat.

There will be a display of musical instruments in the band room of the local school on Friday afternoon and evening, Sept. 5, for the benefit of students and parents, J. D. Davis, school band director, has announced.

STEEPLECHASE QUEEN—Mrs. F. Ambrose Clark, who breeds horses for steeplechase competition is the outstanding woman horse fancier in the nation. It costs her about $80,000 a year for this hobby.

The school is attempting to stimulate more interest in the band on the part of students, since a good band contributes so much towards the success of school activities. Free band instruction is offered to pupils in the fifth grade through high school.

Davis urges parents of beginning band students to attend the display of instruments, as there will be a representative present to demonstrate new and reconditioned instruments and also quote prices.

The school has a limited number of instruments available on a rental basis, and Davis stated that he would be glad to show these to the students and their parents Friday or any other day after school.

VA Man to End Contact Service in Perryton Area

All Veterans Administration itinerant contact services, as provided through the Borger VA office, will be stopped effective Sept. 15, Robert W. Sisson, VA regional manager, has announced.

Towns affected by the termination of VA contact services in the Borger area include Dumas, Dalhart, Spearman, Perryton, Higgins and Canadian.

The Borger office will not be closed, Sisson said.

Final visit to Perryton by Morgan J. Stacy, VA contact representative, will be September 9, at which time he can be seen in the Chamber of Commerce office between the hours of 1:15 p. m. and 4:00 p. m.

Curtailment of itinerant services has been made necessary in order to stay within the 1947-48 budget, Sisson stated.

VA services will continue to be rendered by direct contact at the Borger VA office or by correspondence with the regional office at Lubbock.

Services Held for Mrs. J. B. Wiebe

Funeral services were held at the Methodist church in Canadian on Thursday, August 28, for Mrs. J. B. Wiebe, who was killed in an automobile wreck near Syracuse, Kansas August 25.

Rev. Joe E. Boyd conducted the final services. Pallbearers were Frank Cole, Hub Hext, Lyman Barbee, M. H. Smith, D. V. Hardin and Ed Little.

Mrs. Wiebe was born on February 10, 1897 at Hillsboro, Tex. She was married to the late Joe Rowley in 1916. Mr. Rowley was killed in 1936 in a highway accident between Glazier and Canadian.

In March, 1943, she married Mr. Wiebe, also dead from injuries received in the accident Aug. 25.

Gertie Wiebe is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. White, Fort Sumner, N. M.; two daughters, Mrs. Helen Van Zant and Mrs. Vivian Webb, both of Borger; five sisters, Mrs. J. Jones, Amarillo, Mrs. Bessie Morris, Canadian, Mrs. Mel Matchen, Portales, N. M., Mrs. Lloyd Boxcov, Clovis, and Miss Pearl White, Ft. Sumner, N. M.; four brothers, John White, Canadian, Charles White, Dumas, Ernest White, Canadian, Melton White, Muleshoe; and five grandchildren.

Interment was in the Canadian cemetery.

Mrs. Cartwright will spend the coming week in Oklahoma City taking special work in personality singing, and will begin classes upon her return.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Kaup, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde McGarraugh, Mr. and Mrs. Earl McGarraugh and family and Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie McGarraugh and family were in Anthony, Kansas, this week-end to attend the Kaup family reunion.

Services Held in Conway for J. H. Calliham's Mother

Final rites honoring the memory of Mrs. Nova Ann Calliham, pioneer Conway resident, were held at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in the Conway Community church, with Rev. Rollo Davidson, pastor of the Claude Methodist church in charge.

Mrs. Calliham, 80 years old, died Monday in Northwest Texas Hospital. She had resided near Conway for 57 years.

She was the mother of J. H. Calliham of Perryton.

Her life met all the specifications for pioneering the Plains country. She first made her home in a half dug-out — fought the droughts, the storms and eventually prospered. In later years, her home was an early-day showplace for the entire region.

She and her husband, the late Lee Calliham, came to the Panhandle in 1890 and homesteaded on a half-section of land one mile west of Conway. Mr. Calliham died in 1916.

The couple had 10 children, 9 of whom reside in the Panhandle, most of them near Conway. These surviving relatives include: four sons, Ray Calliham, Amarillo, J. H. Calliham, Perryton, J. P. Calliham, Conway, and M. F. Calliham, Panhandle; six daughters, Mrs. Margaret E. Sterling, Mrs. Marie Weatherly, Mrs. Willie Sue Ketchum, all of Conway, Mrs. Nova Lee Dowlen, Panhandle, Mrs. Lula Moore, Presidio, and Mrs. Ruby Archer, Amarillo.

Burial was in the Claude cemetery.

BABSON DISCUSSES EUROPE

ROGER W. BABSON, Editor-in-Chief

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Aug. 29 —I am in New York City trying to get the low-down on the real conditions abroad. Truly they are very discouraging. It looks much like the case of our neighbor's house being on fire when, if we do not help him to put his fire out, our house will burn down also.

England's Hard Times
Conditions for the ordinary family in England are as bad as during the war although they now have the satisfaction of having fathers and boys safely at home. The best meat is horse meat from Argentina; the best eggs are powdered eggs from China; the best sausages are filled with oatmeal; and the best coffee is made of burnt beans. People, moreover, have to stand in line for hours to get even these things with a loaf of black bread.

When I see the waste in hotels, restaurants and most U. S. homes, I feel very much ashamed. Today millions of British people are living in the cellars of ruined buildings or in temporary shacks. It is true that carpenters coming to these wrecked cities are demanding high wages, because they themselves find no places to sleep or food to eat.

Building Cost Increases IN TWO ERAS

throughout all Europe as being normal and right; but in Eastern Europe sexual restraint has been thrown aside and millions are running and mixing like wild animals. If a girl can sell her virtue to an Allied or even Russian soldier for food or clothing the parents say "Well done." Here again conditions are worse in the big cities where prostitution is said to be a major industry. This is another reason for bringing up your family in the country or in a small American city.

Japan Best Off of All
Rural Japan is said to be in good shape. The farmers and fishermen have enough to eat. In fact, most of the poor people of Japan are better off today than before the war. Of course, the wealthy families are down and out. Stocks, bonds and bank accounts have been wiped out. In the severely damaged big cities crime, gambling and prostitution still reign. The principal complaint of the Japanese is "the atomic itch" what ever that may mean.

I talked with a person just back from Hiroshima who says that even its people have no grudge against us Americans. They welcome our occupation and speak well for the behavior of our troops. One Japanese said to me, "Really, Mr. Babson, I think Japan won the war." Upon asking for his reason, he replied "Why you have Truman for a leader and we have MacArthur."

What of the Future?
An unconscious question among delegates of these fifty nations is: How long can we in the United States continue to "live the life of Riley," wasting on food, bad entertainment, unneeded clothes, beauty parlors, drinking taverns and strike picketing while the rest of the world is starving? You readers can answer this question as well as I. It seems to me, however, that unless there is a voluntary leveling off, the whole world will someday gang up against us. It is religion that this old world needs and this applies to us in our selfish smugness, as well as to the people of Europe who are hopelessly wandering about.

Thousand Years to Go Shortage Only Temporary

By VERN HAUGLAND

WASHINGTON—We have enough oil and gasoline for 1,000 to 2,000 years, in the opinion of Dr. R. R. Sayers, director of the U. S. Bureau of Mines.

Shortages, which have been freely predicted for the coming years, would be caused by lack of transportation and lack of steel equipment for oil production, according to industry spokesmen.

Research Makes Strides

Bureau of Mines has made substantial strides toward development of a synthetic liquid fuel upon reaching the point in a five-year program of research development to be completed in 1950, Sayers says.

Completion of an oil shale demonstration plant at Rifle, Colo., in 1949, he says, will produce 100 to 125 million barrels of oil a year.

Dr. Sayers says, "The present rate of consumption, and substantially less if used also to make oil and gasoline in large volume. Petroleum reserves would last only 12 more years at the 1945 rate of consumption."

He says it is a mistake for anyone to assume that atomic energy will replace coal.

"We've had tractors for a number of years, yet oxen are still in use in this country. It is likely that we will continue to use all types of energy production—coal, water power, atomic power—that become available."

Bavarian Vote Packs a Wallop

MUNICH (AP)—Spanking was officially reinstated as a punishment for Bavaria's public school pupils after parents voted 60 per cent in favor of it in a statewide referendum.

Ninety-four percent of the parents with school age children participated in the unusual referendum—a higher percentage than has yet turned out for any political election since the war. Spanking, once the rule in German schools, was abolished in Bavaria last year.

Dr. Alois Hudhammer, education minister, said he would issue instructions soon as to how and with what kind of paddle children should be spanked.

The vote for spanking was 368,320 with 425,959 against. Each pupil was given a ballot to take home for his parents to fill out.

GOOD YEAR

Veterans' NEWS

The Veterans Administration has announced it will extend compensation payments to veterans who have been discharged from VA hospitals with arrested pulmonary tuberculosis but who need more time at home in which to recover sufficiently to take a job without endangering their health.

The new plan permits payments to these veterans on a totally disabled basis up to two years from date of discharge from any VA hospital while they remain under close medical supervision. Previously, the payments were reduced by 50 percent within six months of the veteran's discharge.

Under the new plan, these veterans will be examined every six months. If the examination indicates they are unable to resume employment safely, doctors will certify their findings so that VA may determine whether to continue full compensation payments for an additional six months.

VA expects this plan to result in better control of arrested pulmonary tuberculosis among veterans and thus reduce the necessity of hospitalizing them again.

The Veterans Administration will establish diabetic clinics in all its Regional Offices in Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi as the result of an experiment at Dallas which indicated large savings to taxpayers and improved treatment for veterans afflicted with this disability.

The "pilot" project was initiated at Dallas three months ago to provide periodic out-patient treatment for service-connected diabetics instead of putting them in already overcrowded VA hospitals.

VA said one of the biggest advantages of the clinics is that they enable diabetic veterans to continue working to support themselves and their families. Without regular treatments at the clinics, hospitalization of from nine days to one month each year would have been necessary in most cases.

Clinics will be established at Waco, Houston, San Antonio, Lubbock, New Orleans, Shreveport and Jackson. The Dallas clinic will continue to function.

A Sack of Potatoes Go With Berliners To Insure a Vacation Trip in Germany

By IRENE SIMON

Newsfeatures
BERLIN—If you want to have a vacation in Germany, you must take your own potatoes.

A sack of potatoes, sufficient cigarettes, and much initiative ensures an American-sector Berliner of a good time at the Soviet Zone vacation resort Isle of Ruegen.

Pretty Babs W. is a good example of American secretaries who seek and enjoy the cool salt breezes of the Baltic Sea island paradise.

Babs couldn't get permission to buy a ticket for the "fast" train to Ruegen because she works for the Americans. Five cigarettes, though, did the trick. Ten hours later Babs descended from the over-crowded train at beach to the nearest fisherman. For three cigarettes the fisherman rowed Babs over to the island, thus enabling her to get by the Russian guards posted on all bridges.

Berliners who come to the resort with loaded automobiles usually disgorge passengers and food sacks before the bridge, cross the bridge and check point with empty auto, and later pick up their passengers who have crossed over by row-boat. Babs said:

"When I went into a restaurant, the waiter asked if I had potatoes. No potatoes, no meal. When I gave him two pounds of raw potatoes, I usually received one pound of cooked ones on my plate."

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miller and family and Mr. and Mrs. George Dietrich were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Milledge on Monday evening. The group enjoyed a watermelon supper.

Mrs. Emma Jo Nichols of Nacoma, Texas, was a guest the past month in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Milledge.

Little Miss Gwynn Ann Hoskins of Amarillo is visiting with her great grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Conley and other relatives in Perryton.

Mrs. Jerry Hermann, Amarillo, came in Sunday for a visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Conley and other relatives. Mrs. Hermann is the former Miss Peggy Lamb.

Splendor Seen In Gypsy Rites As Queen Dies

Newsfeatures

SYDNEY, Australia—Hundreds of gypsies from all over Australia, including scores of ragged children, came to Sydney recently for the funeral of the queen of the gypsy tribe, 75-year-old Mrs. Mary Sterio.

Amid ceaseless chatter, accompanied by the traditional pouring of wine on the coffin and throwing of silver coins in the grave, the gypsy queen was buried in Sydney's Rookwood Cemetery.

The body of the queen, wrapped in rich silks, had lain in state at a Sydney funeral parlor for eight days in a specially made cedar casket, gold-painted and adorned with silver, colored designs. Funeral officials said the coffin, which was larger than normal size, was one of the most expensive made in Sydney in years.

On the day of the funeral, gypsies packed into the parlor to chant and wail over the body of their queen. One woman smoked a long pipe in between sobs, and a man, while sobbing over the coffin, took long draughts from a bottle.

The funeral procession was led by the local brass band which the gypsies had hired for the occasion. Two of the gypsies, riding automobiles, were the starting point—one with a flat tire, the other with a broken engine.

All the dead woman's trinkets had been placed in the coffin.

As the coffin was being lowered into the grave, a member of the tribe, a bottle of wine over it. At a signal all the others flung coins into the grave, and clambered down to kiss the fin.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dumas, were Sunday with her mother, Mr. and Mrs. Earl West.

Mrs. Mattie Allen and Walter Allen spent Labor Day visiting in the home of Mrs. George Trosper.

AUSTIN, Tex., Aug. 31 (AP)—

State Departmental records are bulging out all over and beyond the capitol premises here, but very little is being done about it.

In the basement of the capitol numerous records, newspaper files and other printed materials are piling up, providing a fine playground for rats and cockroaches.

The debris—which state law says must be kept for record purposes—constitutes a "wonderful fire hazard," says Francis Henshaw, state librarian.

Not that Henshaw thinks a fire in the basement of the state capitol would be a wonderful thing. He mentions it because he has been plugging for months seeking to eliminate the hazard.

Henshaw's real concern is to consolidate the state records. The best method, he says, will be to microfilm the records. The result, in effect, would be to put into a nutshell virtually all the papers relating to the state's past business.

The squeeze play would save money for the state in two big ways, Henshaw advises.

1. Thousands of square feet of space now occupied by records would be cleared, thus giving sorely-crowded departments more working space. This would save payment of rentals for new offices.

2. Concentration of all or most of the record-keeping in the state library would cut down the number of personnel now needed by individual departments. It would also save man-hours spent in those departments solely on the filing of records.

State papers are apt to be found anywhere.

A warehouse at Camp Mabry, a cow barn at the state hospital in Austin, and the Confederate Home are all storage spots.

Open the door of the warehouse or the cow barn and you will see papers stacked almost to the ceiling. Many of the records have toppled from their shelves, cascading into a littered heap.

The saddest part of the story—and Henshaw is indeed sad about this—is that the legislature this year enacted a law authorizing the Texas Library and Historical commission to establish and maintain in the state library a records administration division, but failed to appropriate any money to get the job done.

An initial appropriation of $108,000 a year for the next biennium was recommended to get the program underway, but the money angle was knocked out when it appeared the state might run into over-spending by the end of the legislative session.

The $108,000 figure would have been needed only for the first two years, Henshaw believes. That would have taken care of the initial cost of setting up the records administration division and buying microfilming equipment.

The state librarian is not the only person who foresees the grave threat of fire which could start in the capitol basement and perhaps spread throughout the building.

A legislative committee in 1941 received testimony from a number of architects, all of whom agreed that the accumulation and storage of records in the basement should be absolutely prohibited.

Said the committee report:

"The consensus was that the greatest fire hazard in the building is the accumulation of these records stored in the basement, which, mostly being of paper, could be easily ignited, and would in themselves cause the destruction of the building if once a fire was started."

"They further agreed that the sprinkling system already installed in the basement would damage or destroy practically all of said records in the event the automatic sprinkling system was called into use."

That committee of six years ago recommended that appropriate action be taken without delay to correct the dangerous condition and to remove the archives, records and documents from the basement to a safer place.

Architects estimated it would then cost a minimum of $20,000 to replace the capitol if it were destroyed. This was aside from the value of documents stored in the capitol.

Henshaw is hopeful the next legislature will provide the money to safeguard the state's records.

Meanwhile he is making a small start within his own department toward conserving space.

The new departmental appropriation bill gives the state library an increase of 60 and 70 percent for the next two years, the amounts being $77,324 and $80,724 for 1948 and 1949.

This will permit basic reorganization and an increase in book stock.

microfilming of 16 Texas newspapers which are kept on file, and this will save up to 98 or 99 percent of the space taken by newspapers, which currently fill some 2,000 square feet of floor space in the capitol.

"One standard-size filing case will hold 17 to 20 years of microfilm newspapers," Henshaw points out, as an example of the vast amount of space which can be saved.

It has been estimated that around $80,000 in terminal leave bonds were issued to these former enlisted men.

Most of the veterans stated that they needed the cash to clear up some of their debts, while others had their sights set on clothing, furniture or down payments on automobiles.

Reports from banks all over the nation indicated that the majority of the veterans were cashing bonds in cities, long lines formed around banks and one banker in Dallas remarked that he had never seen such a rush since the early days of the panic-stricken depression when investors crowded the banks to get their money out.

JANICE CAROLYN KOEHN

Local Anesthetist To Speak at First Medical Seminar

Miss Ivy Hoag, anesthetist at the Sanford Hospital, will speak at the initial medical seminar at the Sanford Hospital Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Her subject will be "The Use of Curare."

This will be the first in a series of seminars sponsored by the hospital for the doctors and nurses of Perryton. Other subjects will be covered from time to time, and it is planned to have at least two professional discussions each month.

Curare, long known as the poison with which African natives coat the tips of darts and spears, has been found to be an excellent anesthetic and is used in many hospitals in the United States.

Invitations have been extended to all doctors and nurses in the Perryton area, whether now actively engaged in the profession or not, to attend this and succeeding meetings.

Hummer and J. B. Seago; backs Keith Flowers, Raymond Powell and Vernon Flowers; center Wilbert Seedig; and tackle Gene Stinson. Other lettermen are Larry Slaughter, Dean Slaughter and Edward Merydith.

Squadmen from the 1946 team are tackles Wendell Cook, Bill Stephenson; end Johnnie Revis and back Jerry Key.

The team this year will be loaded with power, and will operate from a single wing formation. The three returning backs are strong runners and the line, while untested in spots, is big and powerful.

While it is too early to name a starting line up at this stage of the game, it would be safe to name the following team on the basis of early practice sessions: ends, Hummer and Seago; tackles, Stinson and Carl Cummings or Larry Slaughter; guards, Gayle Ferguson and Bob Thurston; center, Seedig; backs, Keith Flowers, Vernon Flowers, Powell and either Dean Slaughter or Edward Merydith.

The following boys are showing up well in practice and might break into the starting line-up: tackles, Bill Stephenson and Morrison Osborne; guard, Orvil Brummett; backs, Tommy Pletcher and Jerry Key.

The Ranger coaches are reticent about Perryton's prospects this year, but they admit that there is a chance for a good season, dependent, of course, on the thousand and one wrinkles that must be ironed out as the season progresses.

On the whole, the Rangers this year will be heavier than last year. They are of fairly uniform size, and the team promises to average nearly 170 pounds, quite heavy for a class A team.

The complete squad is as follows:

Ends
David Hummer, J. B. Seago, Sammie Phelps, Earl Johnson, Bill Herndon, Jim Records, Johnnie Revis.

Tackles
Gene Stinson, Larry Slaughter, Carl Cummings, Morrison Osborne, Bill Stephenson.

Guards

Centers

Wilbert Seedig, Bob Dunlavy, Delbert Trew.

Backs

Rover Really Roves, SPCA Complains

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — How well did you provide for that pet you left behind at vacation time?

The San Francisco Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals notes a sudden rise in stray cats and dogs that coincides with the summer vacation season. In April it picked up 1,255 cats and 1,738 dogs. By June the number had risen to 1,616 cats and 2,240 dogs.

"Too often," says Charles Friedrichs, local SPCA secretary, "neighbors who promise to look after Rover are careless. Other vacationers abandon their animals rather than turn them over to the SPCA."

"These wandering cats and dogs, too, eventually reach the SPCA, starved or misused in their search for the home they once knew."

Knock-Knees Fret Australian Doctor

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) — Why do more pre-school age Australian children today have knock-knees than before the war?

The medical officer of the Returned Soldiers' League, Dr. A. P. Derham, says it might be because collapsible wooden "playgrounds" tempted youngsters to stand or walk for long periods. Other causes, he said, might be:

Young children standing with their mothers in shopping queues.

Increased use of concrete and other hard substances in paths. A possible deterioration of diet during the war.

Everything for the business office at Stewart Printing Co.

J. T. Francis, Eureka, came to Perryton this week and Gene, who have been in the past two months. Mrs. Francis was released from an accident in which she broke both arms. Wayne, who also spent time here, remained for week, which he will spend with his aunt and uncle, Mr. Horace Glasgow.

Mrs. M. M. Cudd returned day from an extended stay with her sister in Calif., and her brother-in-law, who spent almost a week on to Oregon, where she also spent a reunion, returning home spending a week there.

BACK TO SCHOOL!

New books...new clothes...but what about LIGHT for home study?

Scientists say that 87% of all that children learn they absorb through their eyes. Their progress in school and their ability to win advancement in later life depend to a large extent upon their eyesight. So don't take chances with your children's eyes. Give them enough light and the right kind of light for safe, easy seeing when they read or study at home.

BETTER LIGHT MEANS BETTER GRADES

Poor light causes drowsiness, fatigue and eyestrain, makes concentration on studies difficult. See that the lamp your children use for home study is equipped with bulbs totaling at least 100 watts and is well-shaded and free from glare. Better light means better grades!

Perryton Youth Enters Training At Randolph Field

Aviation Cadet Hubert E. McCarter of Perryton, Texas, recently entered the primary phase of the pilot training program at Randolph Field, Texas, as a member of the largest aviation cadet class since the end of the war.

Home-Grown Barn Is Not Just Hay

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP)—Forty-two thousand board feet of oak, logged and sawed on the farm, went into the building of a barn on the H. J. Grady farm near Harper's Ferry, believed to be one of the biggest barns in that northeast Iowa area.

A planing mill as well as a saw mill were moved onto the place to prepare the lumber for the structure which measured 100 feet by 36 feet. The basement is concrete blocks. At a barn raising, 68 carpenters and neighbors helped construct the building and the structure was dedicated with a barn dance.

When the second hay cutting is completed, Grady said he expected to have about 100 tons of alfalfa, clover and timothy stored by this winter for his 70 head of purebred Hereford cattle.

Miss Joy Lance came in last week from the Midwestern states where she spent several weeks this summer traveling with a Methodist Youth Caravan. She will leave about Sept. 15 to resume her studies at Texas University, Austin.

Borden Company Offers Prize for New Calf Name

August, it would seem, was "mystery month" for Elsie the Cow, whose Perryton representative is "Pinky" Vineyard, General Manager of The Borden Company. During the first weeks of August, he mystified his fellow citizens by refusing to tell the secret the famous Jersey cow was keeping. Now that the news is out—that she's become the mother of a bull calf—Mr. Vineyard says the calf's name is a mystery.

But this is one he can't solve. As a result, Elsie and her sponsors are offering a total of $25,000 in hundreds of prizes to find a name for the newcomer. For the top prize for the top name, Elsie has set aside the sum of $7,500.

Anyone in the country except Borden Company employees, their families and Borden advertising agencies may enter the contest to find the name that will fit the bill—or bull. The deadline for entries is October 31st, at which time they must be on their way to contest headquarters.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Krause were recent visitors in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Evans, 421 S. W. 4th Street. They are planning to teach in the city schools of Redwood, California this fall and winter. Mrs. Vera Eckhardt, Sylvia, Kans., Mrs. Evins' sister, accompanied them to Perryton for a few days visit.

Christian Science

"Man" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, Sept. 7.
 The Golden Text is: "God said, let us make man in our image after our likeness" (Genesis 1:26).
 Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "This people have I formed for myself: they shall shew forth my praise" (Isaiah 43:21).
 The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Immortal man was and is God's image or idea, even the infinite expression of infinite Mind, and immortal man is coexistent and coeternal with that Mind" (page 336).

The Caribbean area ships 1,350,000 tons of food and other products monthly to Atlantic and Gulf ports, besides 6,000,000 barrels of petroleum.

THE temptation of Jesus is as old as the race and as common as humanity; it is your testing and mine. Why not use one's powers and talents for the satisfying of his physical appetites? Are they not God-given and natural cravings? The answer of Jesus ought to hearten every one of us, "Man shall not live by bread alone." We are animals with basic physical needs, but a man is something more, he is the Son of God, a spiritual person with mental and moral and divine possibilities. To live for the lower physical interests alone, or to put them first in importance, is to forget that there are other words that proceed from the mouth of God. The same God who said that there should be an earth and beasts of the field, said also, "Let there be light." Man has a heaven above him as well as an earth under his feet, and we live by sunlight and starlight and the ministries of the air as truly as by the products of the earth. Jesus refused to use his powers to make bread alone; he devoted his life to producing the fruits of the spirit: "love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control." Our world needs bread but it needs even more these spiritual goods. Besides our daily toil to make material goods, how much are you and I adding to the love and the joy and the peace of this world? Without these "fruits of the spirit" we go to war and destroy the material goods that have been piled up. Even bread itself isn't worth much without faith and hope and love in the hearts of men.

Contest Winner "Brands" His Prize

A pioneer of the auto industry, hunted throughout the nation in a quest to discover the oldest Chevrolet truck in America, turned up, appropriately, in the possession of a Montana homesteader. The venerable vehicle, vintage of 1918, was still serving Rancher Leslie A. Storey, of Jordan, Mont., whose ranch lies 18 miles from a typical "last frontier" town. The award for owning the oldest licensed and operating truck was a new Chevrolet

"advance-design" model, which Storey "brands" here with his distinctive Circle-Heart brand. It was presented to him by J. W. Burke, manager of Chevrolet's truck department, as Mrs. Storey and Montana cowgirl Merle Spears (right) look on. Nearly 7,000 old-time Chevrolet trucks were entered in the contest won by this vehicle, which was one of 384 built by the division in 1918, its first year of truck production.

YOU CAN DO IT BETTER WITH GAS

We have been using this slogan for many years. It is more than a slogan—it is an actual fact. For all your fuel requirements, gas is better.

For cooking—gas is better. It gives you controlled heat with the turn of a valve, just the amount of heat you need, to be turned off again instantly when the cooking is done.

For hot water—gas is better. With an automatic gas water heater, again the turn of a valve gives you all the hot water you need instantly.

For refrigeration—gas is better. The gas refrigerator is silent, efficient and economical.

For temperature control—gas is better. Modern ingenuity has given us equipment for year round air conditioning, operated dependably and economically with gas.

Joan Crawford Portrays Some Heavy Acting With Hefflin in 'Possessed'

Joan Crawford, riding high since her Academy Award performance in "Mildred Pierce," sinks her teeth into a bit of heavy drama again in "Possessed," in which she co-stars with Van Heflin. The film shows at the Ellis on Wed.-Thurs., Sept. 10-11.

Her rare virtuosity as an actress is quite apparent as she performs the role of the emotionally anguished Louise Howell who has the misfortune to fall in love with David Sutton (Van Heflin) a man whose considerable charm is matched only by the chemist-like complexion of his romantic interests.

How Louise endures the pain of his frank rebuffs and, seemingly recovered, marries her wealthy widowed employer (Raymond Massey), only to find herself helplessly bound to David long after he has brought their brief romance to an end, and how she arrives at last at the brutal decision to solve her problems by lethal methods, makes "Possessed" a thoroughly engrossing motion picture, certain to cause wide and lively discussion for some time to come.

Under Curtis Bernhardt's able direction, others in a large supporting company contribute individually expert characterizations. Noteworthy among these are the performances of Raymond Massey, as the wise and patient husband; and of screen newcomer Geraldine Brooks, as the sensitive step-daughter whose unstudied charms eventually provoke the film's exciting climax.

Produced by Jerry Wald (who was also responsible for "Mildred Pierce" and "Humoresque"), "Possessed" achieves the same degree of suspenseful drama and stirring romance that distinguished its predecessors. In addition, the new film boasts an unusually fresh photographic approach, containing a number of remarkable cinematic "firsts."

Durango Kid Goes On Forever as Western Hero

Outlaws come and outlaws go, but the Durango Kid goes on forever, it seems. This shooting champ of the range goes on another rampage at the Pertex on Friday and Saturday, Sept. 5-6 with his old sidekick, Smiley Burnette.

The Durango Kid, as government land agent, has given a young wild horse rancher a lease to range land. When another man lays claim to the land, producing an identical lease, the Durango Kid suspects a forgery. The Durango Kid intercepts the renegade land claimers in the act of taking the young rancher's girl as a hostage, and after a furious gunfight, captures the gang.

Starrett and Smiley are better than ever in a picture that contains plenty of nerve-chilling action and heart-thrilling songs. Nancy Saunders and Robert Scott make an attractive romantic team, while Ozie Waters and his Colorado Rangers pound out the Western rhythms.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Darnell, Joan, Jean and Joyce, Amarillo, spent Saturday and Sunday in the home of Mrs. F. C. Spencer and other relatives.

Mrs. Nora Jolly of Knoxville, Tenn., arrived Friday for an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. Bertie Pribble and other relatives of Gray, Okla. Mrs. Pribble and son, Oliver, met her Friday morning at Liberal.

Taylor and Dunne Co-Star in Film Of Decade Ago

A decade ago, when Robert Taylor and Irene Dunne were younger and less well known in film circles, they co-starred in a movie that launched Taylor on his rise to fame and further entrenched Miss Dunne as a movie actress.

The film, "Magnificent Obsession," was re-released by Universal studios this year and will play at the Pertex on Sunday and Monday, September 7-8. This movie was taken from the famous book by the same title written by Lloyd Douglas.

Robert Taylor plays the role of a young wastrel and spendthrift who is indirectly responsible for the death of a revered physician. The only pulmonologist necessary to save his life had been taken off the premises to be used in reviving Taylor, the irresponsible playboy who had fallen into a lake in a drunken condition.

Irene Dunne plays the grieving widow who loses her eye-sight when she accidentally falls from a speeding motor car while resisting the advances of the young reprobate.

The cumulative affect of these two tragedies and his intense feeling of involvement, cause Taylor to see his mode of life in all its stark futility. That he happens to be deeply in love with the woman he wronged so grievously, greatly intensifies his misery.

To make amends he abandons his pointless existence to throw himself into long years of study and research in eye surgery in order to effect the restoration of the eyesight he so callously destroyed.

The story builds up to a terrific climax with all of the ominous tenseness and unpredictability of an operation of frightening importance. Both Taylor and Irene Dunne handle their assignments with unquestionable competence.

In supporting roles are Charles Butterworth, Betty Furness, Sara Haden, Ralph Morgan and many others.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Witt and family and E. W. Witt returned Saturday from Neosho, Mo., where they visited friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Utz left Saturday evening to spend a week vacationing in Wichita, Kansas, and other points in Kansas and Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McMillen, Mrs. R. T. Correll, Mrs. Ross Thurman and S. P. Whippo were in Liberal Wednesday evening to visit with their cousin, Mrs. Anna Ford, and son, Paul, who were passing through on the train enroute to their home in Bryant, Ind., from El Paso where they had visited their daughter and sister, Mrs. Wanda Hanna.

Cyril Frummelt came in Monday morning from Dubuque, Iowa, where he attended the wedding of his daughter, Dorothy, Mrs. George A. Rupprecht and George Rupprecht Sr., met him in Liberal.

Roger A. Duggess was superintendent; O. A. Bush, principal; E. D. Kelly, junior high principal and Ralph Duke, grade school principal.

Rainfall during August totaled 1.28 inches which was above normal for the preceding few years. An 1.02 inch rain on August 23, 1937, was the heaviest one-day fall during any August for a decade.

About 75 graduates of Perryton high school were making plans to attend college in the fall of 1937. Of this number 22 were to enter college for the first time. The graduating class of 1934, largest in PHS history at that time, formed the bulk of the departing college students.

Arvie Hale and Leroy Hartman, employed at the Perryton post office, were given regular appointments by the U. S. Postal Department. Hale was appointed regular clerk and Hartman was appointed regular carrier.

Classrooms to Be Plentiful At Texas Tech

LUBBOCK, Sept. 2.—Classroom space at Texas Technological College this fall will be increased 50 percent by installation of 33 surplus Army buildings which have been moved in.

The buildings, which will provide laboratories, offices, a cafeteria, student recreation center, health center and other facilities, also, will be kept in temporary use until permanent structures are added. Use will eliminate need of night classes, as during the 1946-47 session.

The only cost of Texas Tech in establishing these temporary facilities was in providing utilities, constructing walks, and other minor necessities.

The health center will include 30 hospital beds and a staff of a physician and four nurses to give emergency care to all students requiring it.

HOMES FOR AMERICANS

THIS three-bedroom house is 58 feet overall and requires a 65-foot inside lot or 50-foot corner lot. It was designed by Walter T. Anicka of Ann Arbor, Mich., as his plan No. 712 and contains 15,720 cubic feet, a figure that can be used to estimate local building costs. Elimination of the basement and use of radiant heat means economy and the sliding closet doors mean ample wall space. The architect recommends frame siding or cinder block painted white with a dark asphalt shingle roof. He calls attention to the built-in breakfast nook and big living area.

Sow Good Milling Wheat

Ochiltree county produced high milling quality wheat on 95% of the seeded acreage in 1947. Let's make it 100% in 1948. The mills want the varieties of wheat listed below.

RECOMMENDED VARIETIES

- Westar
- Triumph
- Pawnee
- Cheyenne
- Comanche
- Wichita
- Tenmarq
- Turkey

DO NOT SOW THESE!

Red Chief

Chiefkan

Early Black Hull

The above varieties are on the mills' black list. They are saleable now for export only. When the export demand eases, there will be no sale for these "black list" poor milling quality varieties of wheat.

We are asking for one-tenth of a cent on each bushel of wheat sold to provide a fund for promoting a greater usage of wheat, increasing the production of the better varieties of wheat for milling and advertising the high quality wheat of this area. Will you please authorize your elevator to make this one-tenth of a cent reduction.
