WTC rodeo due for four-day run

An estimated 250 contestants from 18 colleges and universities will be on hand at Scurry County Coliseum beginning Thursday for the Western Texas College NIRA Rodeo.

The first of five performances for the annual event will get underway at 8 p.m.

The rodeo will continue through the weekend with performances at 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday and at 2 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

Thursday's opening performance will include the crowning of the 1985 WTC Rodeo Queen.

Students from Hermleigh, Ira and Borden County schools will be admitted free on Saturday afternoon. Tickets are available at their respective school campuses but will not be offered at the door.

Snyder students who picked up tickets will be admitted free Thursday.

Senior Citizens will be admitted to the Saturday afternoon rodeo for $2.

Tickets for each rodeo performance are $4 for adults, $3 for students and $6 for box seats. Advance tickets can be purchased at Bar-H-Bar Western Wear, from rodeo club members or rodeo queen candidates or by calling the WTC Student Activities office at 573-8511, extension 275.

At stake in the rodeo are points for individuals and teams which will be used at the end of the season to determine who advances to the College National Finals Rodeo.

They have been selling rodeo tickets and the one who raises the most money for the WTC event will be crowned.

Youth arrested here said murder suspect

A 16-year-old youth was arrested here Wednesday night and is currently being held in Scurry County Jail as a suspect in a homicide reported last weekend in Dallas.

Since the suspect is still of juvenile age, his name has not been released.

Local law enforcement agencies were notified shortly after 8:30 p.m. Wednesday that warrants for the arrest of the suspect had been issued out of 304th District Court in Dallas.

Scurry County sheriff's office personnel — acting on information provided by Dallas authorities — went to an east Snyder residence thought to be that of the suspect's aunt.

The arrest was made at 9:35 p.m.

Local authorities have few details about the incident prompting the arrest. They report the charges apparently stem from a shooting incident last Saturday in which a Dallas man was killed.

Dallas County officers were expected to arrive in Snyder sometime Thursday afternoon to transfer the suspect back to their county.

One-act schedule given...

Locals to UIL regional

The regional literary competition for area AAAA high school students is Saturday in Brownwood, and Snyder will be represented by its one-act play entry and one student in the individual events.

SHS drama students will be vying for another trip to the UIL one-act state finals. Also representing Snyder will be sophomore Robyn Fambro, competing in the prose interpretation contest.

Snyder one-act play entries have appeared at the state meet 14 times and have won the event nine times. Regarding district competiton in 2-AAAA, SHS has won the title the past 19 years.

This year's UIL regionals — traditionally a two-day event — have been changed to one day only and the one-act play portion of the contest won't begin until 6 p.m.

Snyder's production of "Romeo and Juliet" — which has advanced to the regional level by winning in zone, district and area contests — will be the first of four performed Saturday. The play's performance is set for 6 p.m. in the Brownwood High School Auditorium.

The Austin Westlake High theatre department will follow Snyder presenting their production of Euripides' classic "Medea" at approximately 7 p.m.

Levelland High's production of "Close Ties" by Elizabeth Duggs — a co-winner with Snyder at last Friday's area contest here — is third on the program with an approximate curtain time of 7:50 p.m.

Drama students from Fort Worth Crowley High will finish off the evening's festivities with their performance of William Inge's "Picnic" at 8:45 p.m.

Critic-judge Dr. David Buratti of Hardin-Simmons University will choose two of the four plays performed Saturday to advance to the Class AAAA State Finals in Austin, scheduled April 26-27.

Senior Center will recognize workers

The sixth annual Senior Citizens Center volunteer recognition banquet begins at 6:30 p.m. Thursday at the center. Numerous volunteers will be recognized for their contributions during the past year.

Special recognition will be given to the top 15 volunteers — those who have contributed 500 or more hours. A pin will be presented to these workers.

Volunteers who have amassed from 50-499 hours will receive a certificate and volunteers with up to 50 hours will be acknowledged publicly.

Several special awards will also be presented. VIVA stations and others who have assisted the center throughout the year will receive certificates.

Several plaques will also be presented to volunteers under 60 years of age.

Mort Ewing, chamber of commerce manager, will act as the master of ceremonies. He will also introduce special guests. Entertainment will be provided by the Swingers from Snyder High School. They are under the director Bill Lyon.

Dr. Ben Brock, executive vice-president of Western Texas College, will give the invocation and Gay Hickman, WTC vice president for business and a member of the center's advisory council, will give the welcome.

A slide presentation highlighting activities at the center will be presented also.

A door prize drawing will close the evening.

The meal will consist of filet mignon, broccoli pastry puff, stuffed baked potato, avacado/-pineapple salad with poppy seed dressing, cherry sundae and sourdough rolls.

New vacation policy detailed for county

To clarify the question of payment for vacation time not taken, Scurry County has now implemented a new policy related to both accrual of vacation days and when these days must be used.

The new policy — drawn up by County Auditor Bernhard Bartels — specifies this vacation time cannot be carried over and must be taken in the calendar year accrued.

Time is accrued from the first month of employment at the rate of one working day for each full month worked.

For employees with from 1-10 years experience with the county, a maximum of 10 working days may be accrued during the year. After 10 years, employees are entitled to a maximum of 15 working days vacation.

An employee who has been on the full-time payroll for less than 12 months can only take vacation time up to the amount that has accrued and only in the calendar year in which it was accrued.

The new policy also clarifies vacation time paid by the county if employment is terminated for any reason.

For those falling into the under 10-year category, they will be paid one day's pay for each month worked after Jan. 1. The 10-day maximum again applies.

Those with more than 10 years experience will be paid at the

The feller on Deep Creek says, "A good executive never puts off until tomorrow what he can get someone else to do today."

Before Joe Cushing packs his coaches whistle and heads for Panola, a story has to be told. Being a male coach for an all-girls basketball team seems like the ideal setup for a number of humorous situations.

Duster Coach Cushing has handled the situation real well. In fact, the WTC mentor says the only problem he can think of is time--it takes girls longer to get dressed than it does a boys team.

Cushing can recall one time when he was red-faced--but it had nothing to do with his job. The situation involved leisure time--one of those weekend outings you dream about for months.

Cushing bought a new boat from insurance man Joe Fowler and Cushing was waiting for the day when he could put the rig into the water.

Cushing's excitement reached that likened to a three-point play that Sunday as he neared Lake Colorado City. Joe backed the boat to the ramp and eased the expensive rig into the cool, inviting waters.

Cushing jumped into the boat as it drifted from shore. It wasn't long before Cushing realized he had a serious problem. He had failed to replace the drain plug, and the shiny new rig was sinking.

Cushing yelled for help. Someone on the bank finally understood the problem. Fortunately there were others waiting to put their boat in the water, and they came to the rescue.

Cushing saved the boat, but now he really knows what it's like to be a rookie.

Henry Clark, who recently retired from Texas Electric, called in sick on his last day of work. It was legitimate, however, and Clark missed a reception planned in his honor.

Clark likes retirement, however. "I like waking up in the morning with nothing to do and going to bed at night with it only half done."

Ask Us

Q. — Does a teacher have to apply for career ladder in Snyder to receive it and if they don't apply, will this hurt their chances to be considered in the future?

A. — Teachers do have to apply. Some, for example a first year teacher, would know they would not be considered. For these, there is a stipulation on the application they may check which states they are interested in being considered but realize that at this time they do not qualify.

In Brief

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — A drug-processing machine aboard space shuttle Discovery sprang a leak today, raising the possibility that one of the seven crew members might be removed from the mission scheduled for launch Friday.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said workers discovered fluid seeping from the machine, which Charles Walker, an engineer for McDonnell Douglas Corp., would operate during the flight.

James T. Rose, director of the project for McDonnell Douglas, said engineers were trying to determine the source of the leak and whether it could be fixed in time for launch.

"We're optimistic," he said. "We've fixed leaks before."

Okay given

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas House has given its tentative OK to requiring farmers and ranchers to pay unemployment taxes that will be used to pay benefits to out-of-work farm workers.

The compromise bill, which won support from some agriculture orgahizations, faces a final House vote today. Wednesday's tentative approval came in an 86-54 vote.

Judge revokes teen's probation

HOUSTON (AP) — A teen-age girl who said she only robbed people to help support her 18-month-old brother violated her probation one time too many and must serve eight years in prison, a judge says.

"She was given ample opportunity," State District Judge Ted Poe said. "People cannot be forced to change."

Robin Marie Herod, 16, violated just about every term of her probation by drinking liquor, using drugs and ignoring her curfew, probation officers said at a hearing Tuesday.

"I got quite a few chances," Ms. Herod said. "I guess I messed up."

Ms. Herod, now 18, pleaded guilty in April 1983 to five counts of aggravated robbery. Testimony indicated she and two other teen-agers robbed several pedestrians at gunpoint in late September 1982.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY
DOSSIE ALEXANDER

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren
© 1985 by Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: I am a strong, healthy woman of 34. I just had a complete physical examination and passed with flying colors, so after my doctor gave me a clean bill of health, I went to the Red Cross blood donor center to build up a blood bank for my family. Guess what? I was turned down. Why? Because I don't weigh enough. I weigh 99 pounds and I'm 4 foot 11. I am not underweight for my height.

I have four children, and I wanted so much to build up a blood bank in case someone in my family needs a transfusion. I'd feel so much better knowing it was my blood they were getting. Doesn't that make sense to you, Abby?

Please print this. Maybe the Red Cross will change the rules about donating blood. Thanks from ...

CHARLESTON, W.VA.

DEAR W.VA.: It makes sense to me, and so does the idea of giving one's own blood to store at the blood bank in case a family member needs a transfusion. But, please be aware that stored blood is not "good" indefinitely. I am informed that 35 days is the time limit.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I have a dinner date riding on your answer. If someone says, "I don't like spinach," would you say, "Me neither" or "Me either"?

My husband grew up saying it one way, and I grew up saying it the other way.

QUIBBLING IN MADISON

DEAR QUIBBLING: I would say, "Neither do I." Unless, of course, I liked spinach.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: It's high time this subject had a good airing. I refer to fragrance pollution!

Now that men as well as women are using perfume and cologne, the commingling of fragrances in enclosed places such as elevators and offices can be nauseating.

Years ago, a lady applied a little dab of perfume behind each ear, and as she passed, the subtle scent of gardenia, orange blossom or lilac followed her. Today, fragrances are about as subtle as a meat cleaver. They're heavy, overpowering, and frequently used in suffocating quantities.

The first perfumer who comes out with a fragrance that smells like good old-fashioned soap and water is going to get my business.

ALL CHOKED UP

DEAR CHOKED: Well said. Here's a plea for those who are fond of using scents: Use some common sense, please; and a little dab will do ya.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: Voter registration may not be necessary in North Dakota, but there are valid reasons why registration is important in other states.

In Ohio, we have 7.8 million people of voting age—that's 15 times the number in North Dakota.

In our state, registration is necessary to prevent voting fraud and maintain an orderly electoral system. We have a long record of fair and efficient elections. In Ohio, citizens can register everywhere from state park campgrounds to fast-food restaurants! Our system works for us.

Obviously, states with large populations have to take precautions that smaller states may not need. Doesn't that seem logical, Abby?

SHERROD BROWN,
OHIO SECRETARY OF STATE

DEAR SHERROD BROWN: I'll vote for that!

Tougher penalty is urged for hazing

AUSTIN (AP) — Hazing of high school and college students is a crime, not a prank, and should be treated as such, state lawmakers have been told.

TRAVIS FLOWERS
1906 37th
573-9379

Testifying before the Senate Education Committee on Wednesday, University of Texas student Scott Cobb reminded lawmakers that Texas A&M cadet Bruce Goodrich, 20, died last August after being forced to do rigorous "motivational exercises."

"Texas A&M foisted all the blame for Goodrich's death on the three juniors who actually conducted the hazing. The real fault lies not with the students carrying on tradition though, it lies with the system that told them everyone did it and everyone has always done it," Cobb said.

"It lies with the system that treats hazing as the games of schoolboys and not as the crimes of adults," he said, adding that five students have died from hazing in Texas since 1968.

Sen. Gonzalo Barrientos, D-Austin, has introduced a bill that would increase penalties for hazing by students and expand anti-hazing laws to cover alumni.

"It's not my intent to limit the good times of being in college or school. It's my intent to save someone from suffering or dying or suffering permanent injury," Barrientos said.

His bill defines as hazing activities subjecting a student to physical brutality or extreme mental stress, or requiring him to break the law.

It would be punishable by a $500 to $1,000 fine, 90 to 180 days in jail or both. If injury results, the maximum punishment would be a $5,000 fine and a year in jail. If a student dies, the penalty would be up to a $10,000 fine and two years in jail.

Current law calls for a $50 to $250 fine and up to 90 days in jail.

Barrientos' bill would send "a strong signal to the fraternities and the Corps of Cadets at Texas A&M that they will have to change or face the possibility of joining a new fraternity at the county jail," Cobb said.

Woman saves kids from fire in home

He was just glad he was there to lend a helping hand when a Greenville woman was forced to toss her 6-week-old baby and two other children from a second-story window to save them from a fire.

"It sure was getting hot up there, and I felt sorry for her. She was just screaming and hollering and I was worried about the little baby," said Wolf, a self-employed contractor, after he was credited Wednesday with helping save the children.

"Thank God. That's all I can say. He was watching after us," said Lora Hungerford, 22, as she watched firefighters snuff out the fire that gutted her apartment house on the city's north side.

Mrs. Hungerford said she was feeding her baby, Randy, when she became aware of the fire. She said she could not make her way down the stairway.

"I went to the front window and started yelling," Mrs. Hungerford told the Greenville Herald-Banner.

She dropped the baby, the feeding bottle, and her two older children, Chad, 6, and Amber, 2, to Wolf and Reagan Robertson.

Woman of the Year named by local club

Members of the Scurry Charter Chapter of the American Business Women's Association elected Barbara Williamson their "Woman of the Year."

The award was presented during the group's regular meeting March 28. This year marks the first time the members themselves have chosen the honoree. In the past, persons in the community were asked to review the individuals' qualifications and to make the decision.

Each ABWA chapter honors one of its members for this award annually. Selection is based on the member's achievements in her field of business, education, community activities and her participation in the organization.

Williamson is secretary-bookkeeper and co-owner of Williamson Auto Supply. She and her husband Troy have three sons. A member of Colonial Hill Baptist Church, she teaches Sunday School in the third grade department.

She is a member of the Snyder Garden Club and a member and past president of the Snyder Kiwanianne Club. As a representative from ABWA on the Martha Ann Woman's Club Board of Directors, she served as first vice president and activity director in 1983-84. During the 1984-85 club year, she served as president. She was recently reelected to that position for 1985-86.

As a member of the Scurry Charter Chapter since 1975, Williamson's leadership positions in the organization have included bulletin chairman, ways and means committee, Woman of the Year committee, public relations chairman, treasurer, MAWC representative and hospitality chairman. She served as president of the chapter in 1984.

She is also eligible to compete for the 1985 Top Ten Business Women of ABWA and American Business Woman of ABWA awards. Announcement of the national honorees will be made at ABWA's 1985 National Convention set for Oct. 9-13 in San Antonio.

COW'S MOUTH CUTS TREES

AHOSKIE, N.C. (AP) — How does a cow's mouth help a woodsman fell a tree?

According to Georgia-Pacific Corp. — a forest products firm — "cow's mouth" is the name given by loggers to the notch that is cut in a tree trunk to direct the fall of the tree.

North's jump to three diamonds increased the value of South's hand. South cue-bid the heart ace and, after North's cue-bid of the club ace, went right to six diamonds. This forthright auction resulted in a reasonable contract, but declarer had to play as if the backs of the cards were transparent to bring it home.

The opening lead of the spade jack was covered by dummy's queen, East's king, and declarer's ace. Declarer could see that there would be no problem if diamonds divided 2-2. If they didn't, how could the slam be made? If hearts were 3-3 and a friendly defender never ruffed in, South could throw his spade losers on dummy's hearts. But these defenders didn't look that friendly. No, what he needed was some layout of the opposing cards that would let him jettison his losing spades before an opponent could trump in. The magic holding was the long diamond and four hearts in one opponent's hand. If that holding existed, it was odds-on that those four hearts would include the jack. And so, to work!

At trick two, South cashed his ace of diamonds and played to dummy's diamond king. As he feared, West showed out.

Extension homemakers make national week plans

The first week in May is National Extension Homemakers Week. In recognition, members of the Patchwork Squares Extension Homemakers Club voted to make a cash donation to the Noah Project.

The action was taken during the group's meeting Tuesday in the home of Vivian Cochran. President Joyce McCoy led the session attended by eleven women.

In addition to the donation, the club made plans to entertain Knapp Extension Homemakers on May 14 in the home of Gingah Williamson.

The group also discussed projects for the fall bazaar.

During the meeting, Kathryn Roberts, county extension agent, presented an informative program on making wardrobe items using the "blooming" or "slashing" technique.

The group welcomed two new members, Elodia Melott and Louise Miller.

Salutes

A 21-gun salute on arrival and departure, with four ruffles and flourishes, is rendered to the president of the United States and to a president-elect. The national anthem or "Hail to the Chief," as appropriate, is played for the president.

MR. MEN™ AND LITTLE MISS™ by Hargreaves & Sellers

DENNIS THE MENACE

Radar installation retaliation likely

QUEENSTOWN, Md. (AP) — Reagan administration officials say if the Soviet Union refuses to dismantle a suspicious Siberian radar installation, the United States may consider exceeding limitations on nuclear missiles when a new Trident submarine begins sea trials next fall.

The warning that Soviet retention of the Krasnoyarsk radar was aired at a conference on U.S. arms control policy at the Aspen Institute here on Maryland's Eastern Shore.

American negotiators plan to confront the Soviets about the radar, which many administration officials claim violates the 1972 Anti-Ballistic Missile Treaty, in a new round of talks on compliance questions opening today in Geneva.

The talks are being conducted by the Standing Consultative Commission, set up in 1972. They are separate from the negotiations in the Swiss city on limiting offensive nuclear weapons and space-based defense systems.

Former Defense Secretary James R. Schlesinger, in a speech here Wednesday night, sharply challenged U.S. strategy in the negotiations and urged the administration to put the "Star Wars" program on the table.

"I see little sign the United States is prepared to negotiate," Schlesinger said. "Change may come later."

He said President Reagan has "fallen in love" with the idea of using futuristic technology to try to shield the United States and its allies from Soviet missiles. Schlesinger said the program would cost $100 billion and would not work.

"For the rest of our lifetime we are going to remain vulnerable to the Soviet Union," he said.

Schlesinger said Star Wars "scares the bejesus out of the Soviets" and they may be prepared to cut back their heavy land-based missiles in exchange for limits on U.S. space efforts.

But, Schlesinger said, the administration is urging the Soviets to reduce the offensive missiles the Soviets will want to keep if Star Wars went ahead. He called this approach "inherently inconsistent."

The Reagan administration has tried for two years to get the Soviets to acknowledge the Krasnoyarsk radar violates limits on missile defenses imposed by the 1972 ABM treaty.

Your Birthday

April 12, 1985

Considerable opportunity is in the offing for you in the year ahead. Much of what will develop will come from friends who have your best interests at heart.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) In your involvements with friends today, do not try to pry into their personal affairs. If there's anything they want you to know, they'll tell you themselves. Major changes are in store for Aries in the coming year. Send for your Astro-Graph predictions today. Mail $1 to Astro-Graph, Box 489, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019. Be sure to state your zodiac sign.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Common objectives cannot be achieved today unless you and your mate are in harmony. Pull together, not in separate directions.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Your ideas will have merit today but there is you may not present them to others with enough clarity to gain their cooperation and support.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) You must use your smarts in business situations today in order to get value received. If you're lackadaisical or indifferent, you may be put upon.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) It will be a mistake on your behalf today to say or do something in front of others that could present your mate in an unfavorable light. Be considerate.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) You'll be a rather good self-starter today but if you run into an obstacle you might use this as an excuse to put way your tools and leave what needs doing until tomorrow.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) To be on the safe side, it's best you do not become too deeply involved at this time nor lend money to a person you've recently met. Get to know this individual better.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Today, be willing to share what you have with a friend who was helpful to you in the past. Later, you'll harbor regrets if you could have helped and didn't.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Usually you're a rather optimistic person but today if you're around negative individuals, they could easily alter your attitude to one of self-doubt.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) If you're socializing with friends today, plan in advance how much you intend to spend. Once you have reached your limit, call it a day.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) It might not work out too well today if you try to pressure an influential contact you've recently met to help you in furthering one of your personal ambitions.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Usually it doesn't pay to act on impulse. However, today it may be better to move swiftly because the more you analyze situations, the less assertive you're apt to be.

White House explains difference in terms

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (AP) — President Reagan, stepping back from a full-scale superpower summit, is ready to hold merely a get-acquainted "meeting" with Soviet chief Mikhail Gorbachev, probably at the U.N. General Assembly this fall, White House officials say.

In a sudden shift, the administration drew a sharp distinction Wednesday between a "meeting" and a "summit" — two terms that top White House officials had used interchangeably for weeks.

Robert C. McFarlane, the president's national security adviser, said a "summit" would have to await more progress toward resolving U.S.-Soviet differences, while a "meeting" could occur any time.

The new tactic clearly was intended to dampen expectations that a Reagan-Gorbachev conference would produce any breakthrough in U.S.-Soviet relations or agreement on major problems, such as arms control. In reality, any Reagan-Gorbachev meeting is certain to be called a summit.

"Based upon a somewhat romanticized portrayal of certain summits of past generations, the very term 'summit' has taken on an inflated meaning," McFarlane said.

"If asked, I expect that most Americans would say summits make things better," he added. "Well, the truth is that some have and some haven't."

Not good idea to ignore IRS

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Internal Revenue Service is embarrassed by computer foulups and angered by allegations that some employees have destroyed tax returns. But, says its boss, don't think it's a good time to skip filing a tax return.

"If they do, they'll do it at their peril," says IRS Commissioner Roscoe L. Egger Jr.

"I am not concerned" that the agency's image as an efficient tax collector might be scarred so badly that people have little fear of getting caught if they cheat or don't file, Egger told a news conference Wednesday.

Public Notice

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, in accordance with the rules of the Public Utility Commission of Texas, hereby gives notice of the Company's intent to implement a new schedule of telephone rates in Texas, effective May 6, 1985, unless otherwise determined by the Commission. The Public Utility Commission of Texas has received the application as Docket 6200.

While proposals as to specific rates vary, it is expected that the requested rate schedule will furnish a 10.5 percent increase in the Company's unadjusted test year intrastate revenues or a 9.7% increase in test year revenues as adjusted for test year customer growth and annualization of test year rate increases. The rate application seeks an annual increase of $323.9 million in revenues. All customers and classes of customers of Southwestern Bell Telephone Company within Texas will be affected by the proposed changes.

Most rates proposed for increase would increase by about 18.5 percent, including local exchange rates. However, there are some exceptions. For example, those customers residing in cities that will be reclassified into larger rate groups will experience local exchange rate increases greater than 18.5 percent. Also, the rate increases proposed for private line services in El Paso, due to a proposal to restructure such rates, are greater than 18.5 percent.

A complete copy of the new rate schedule is on file with the Public Utility Commission at Austin, Texas and with each affected incorporated municipality served by Southwestern Bell Telephone Company. The Commission staff has contended in the past that all rates are subject to change as a result of Southwestern Bell Telephone Company's rate application. This filing includes, but is not limited to, proposals to increase rates for local exchange service, intraLATA long distance, intraLATA interexchange private line service (which includes foreign exchange service) and to decrease certain access service rates.

Notice to Customers of Other Telephone Companies

This filing includes, but is not limited to, proposals to increase rates for intraLATA long distance and for intraLATA, interexchange private line service (which includes foreign exchange service) and to decrease certain access service rates. Changes in such rates would also affect customers of other telephone companies because such companies provide certain services in accordance with rates specified in Southwestern Bell Telephone Company's tariffs.

Notice to All Customers Concerning Access Charges and Certain New Service Charges

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, as a part of this filing, is also proposing to reduce certain access rates charged such customers as AT&T Communications, Inc., MCI and other carriers. The resulting reduction in revenues is proposed to be offset by revenues from two new service charges, late payment charges applicable to business customers only and for certain operator services such as busy line verification, plus stimulation of access service charge revenues. Since this portion of the filing, if granted, would have essentially a zero net revenue effect on Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, Southwestern Bell Telephone Company is proposing that this portion of the filing be expeditiously handled by the Commission and not await Final Order.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible. A request to intervene, participate, or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Consumer Affairs Division at (512) 458-0223 or (512) 458-0227, or (512) 458-0221 teletypewriter for the deaf.

Aviso Público

En conformidad con las disposiciones de la Comisión de Servicios Publicos de Texas, Southwestern Bell Telephone Company anuncia mediante el presente aviso su intencion de establecer un nuevo arancel de tarifas telefonicas en Texas, con vigencia a partir del 6 de mayo de 1985, salvo disposición en contrario de la Comision. La Comisión de Servicios Publicos de Texas a registrado esta solicitud bajo el Docket 6200.

Si bien existe variación entre las propuestas en cuanto a las tarifas precisas, se anticipa que el arancel tarifario solicitado aumentará en un 10.5% los ingresos intraestatales no ajustados de Southwestern Bell Telephone Company durante el ano de prueba, o sea, un aumento del 9.7 por ciento en los ingresos del año de prueba, despues de realizar el ajuste por la expansión de los usuarios y por la anualización del aumento de tarifas para el ano de prueba. El objeto de esta solicitud de tarifas es lograr un aumento anual en los ingresos de $323.9 millones. Los cambios propuestos afectaran a todos los usuarios y grupos de usuarios de Southwestern Bell Telephone Company en el estado de Texas.

La mayoria de las tarifas que resultarian afectadas por el propuesto aumento aumentarian aproximadamente en un 18.5 por ciento, incluyendo las tarifas de centrales locales. Sin embargo, existen algunas excepciones. Por ejemplo, los usuarios que residen en ciudades que se reclasificaran para formar parte de grupos tarifarios mayores experimentaran aumentos mas elevados del 18.5 por ciento. Por otra parte, los aumentos de las tarifas propuestas para servicios de linea privada en El Paso aumentarian en mas de 18.5 por ciento, como resultado de una propuesta para reestructurar tales tarifas.

Una copia completa del nuevo arancel de tarifas se halla archivada en las oficinas de la Comisión de Servicios Publicos en Austin, Texas, asi como en cada municipalidad incorporada afectada que tenga servicio de Southwestern Bell Telephone Company. En el pasado, la Comisión ha sostenido que toda tarifa se halla sujeta a cambio toda vez que Southwestern Bell Telephone Company solicite nuevas tarifas. El registro de esta tarifa incluye, pero no en forma limitativa, las propuestas de aumentar las tarifas por servicios de centrales locales, de larga distancia intraLATA y por servicios de linea privada interLATA entre centrales (incluyendo servicios de centrales externas) asi como las propuestas de reducir ciertas tarifas de servicio de acceso.

El registro de esta tarifa incluye, pero no en forma limitativa, las propuestas de aumentar las tarifas por servicios de larga distancia intraLATA y por servicios de linea privada intraLATA entre centrales (incluyendo servicios de centrales externas) asi como las propuestas de reducir ciertas tarifas de servicio de acceso. Los cambios en dichas tarifas tambien afectarian a los clientes de otras compañias de telefono, puesto que dichas compañias proporcionan ciertos servicios de acuerdo con las tarifas especificadas en los aranceles tarifarios de Southwestern Bell Telephone Company.

Aviso a todos los clientes con respecto a los cargos de acceso y a determinados cargos nuevos de servicio

Al registrar esta tarifa, Southwestern Bell Telephone Company también propone reducir ciertas tarifas de acceso que se les cobran a clientes como AT&T Communications, Inc., MCI y otras compañias de larga distancia. La consecuente reducción de ingresos se piensa compensar por medio de dos cargos nuevos de servicio (cargos por pago atrasado que se aplicarían solamente a usuarios comerciales, y cargos por ciertos servicios de operadora, tales como verificación de linea ocupada) además de la estimulación de los ingresos por cargos por servicios de acceso. En vista de que, en caso de otorgarse esta parte del arancel tarifario registrado, su efecto real en los ingresos de Southwestern Bell Telephone Company sería igual a cero, ésta propone que la Comisión tramite dicha parte de la tarifa en forma expeditiva sin esperar la Orden Definitiva.

Toda persona que desee intervenir o participar en el presente proceso debe notificar a la Comisión lo antes posible. Las solicitudes de intervención, participación o información deben dirigirse a: Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Para obtener mayor información debe llamar a Public Utility Commission Consumer Affairs Division, (512) 458-0223, o (512) 458-0227, o al (512) 458-0221 si requiere teletipo para personas con impedimentos de audición.

Tiger netters getting ready for 2-4A tournament Friday

ODESSA -- Snyder tennis players are scheduled to appear in the District 2-4A Tournament which begins here Friday morning.

The two-day tourney was slated at Midland College, but a switch in the district schedule led to a conflict with the courts and the tournament has been moved to Odessa College.

Competing for Snyder in the varsity division will be Toby Hinshaw and Brad Hart in boys singles; Mike McWilliams, Michael Risenhoover, Geoffery Chamblee and Bob Spikes in boys doubles, Shawna Chrane in girls singles and Shana Hart, Michelle Killian, Terri Holley and Michelle Osborn in girls doubles.

"We have a strong district this year and both doubles brackets have the stronger players. We'll have to have our best performances to qualify for the finals which would allow them to go on to regionals," said Coach Charlie Chrane.

Top seeds in boys singles are Gary Peters of Pecos and Chris Harris of Sweetwater. Hinshaw is scheduled against Sweetwater's Chad Glover in first-round action at noon Friday. Hart will take on Abel Garcia of Fort Stockton, also at noon.

McWilliams and Risenhoover are seeded fourth in boys doubles and after a bye, will play either Mike Langley and Richard Patrick of Andrews or Robbie Rubio and Mike Molsbee of Lake View at 3. Chamblee and Spikes are scheduled at noon against Danny Aguilar and Juan Aguilar from Sweetwater.

Shawna Chrane, Snyder's only girls singles representive, will play Mary Jane Gesin of Sweetwater at 9 a.m. Coach Charlie Chrane is playing Snyder's other top singles girl, Deone Farmer, in the freshman division.

Seeded first and second in girls singles are Bernadette Portillo of Pecos and Mary Warren of Lake View.

Top girls doubles are Mandy Kniffen and Martha Barrera of Andrews and Janda Lopez and Manda Lopez of Lake View.

Snyder's Hart and Michelle Killian play Karen Farris and Thresa Grothe of Lake View at 9 a.m. Osborn and Holley play Jan Smith and Susan Moore of Lamesa at 9 a.m.

Girls quarterfinal rounds begin at 1:30 Friday. Boys play second-round matches at 3. Semifinals are slated Saturday at 9-10:30 and finals at 1:30.

In the freshman divison for Snyder, Farmer received a bye and will play at noon. In 9 a.m. matches, Meredith Reed is slated against Stacy Rogers, Lamesa; Robbie Morales and Mary Ann Suarez will play a doubles team from Andrews; and Andrea Veazy and Tammi Srna will play a team from Lake View.

House panel okays budget

AUSTIN (AP) — After weeks of whittling, House budget writers have proposed a $36 billion two-year budget that would avoid higher taxes by cutting some services.

"This is not a growth budget," Appropriations Chairman Jim Rudd said when the work was done late Wednesday. "The people will feel the cut."

The final hours were spent on public schools (a 10 percent cut for the Texas Education Agency), state employees (a possible 3 percent annual raise) and one last, wide-ranging $42.8 million slash.

It added up to $38.8 million in the black, assuming approval of a $120 million fee hike bill, a $275 college tuition hike bill and several other money-makers.

"It's a very delicate balance," said Rudd, D-Brownfield. "I don't know who we hit the most. Some Department of Human Resources programs were hit. Higher education is going to feel the hit."

A final committee vote on the budget is set for Monday. House debate is scheduled for April 23. The final 1986-87 budget probably will be written by House-Senate conferees.

The 1985 Legislature approved a $30.8 billion bi-annual budget, but last year's special session added $4.8 billion in new taxes.

Major hikes in the proposed budget cover court-ordered improvements in state prisons and mental health care.

The $38.8 million surplus anticipates the full House will restore funds for the University of Texas of the Permian Basin and Texas A&M at Galveston. Committee members ended funds for both schools, but later changed their minds.

Rudd pushed the bill over the break-even point by winning quick approval for $42.8 million in cuts late Wednesday, including $8.8 million from the UT and Texas A&M system administrations and $21.4 million in interest the junior colleges had been told they could keep.

State employees were the last considered by the panel, which OK'd a 3 percent annual pay hike if six proposed revenue-raisers are approved and raise revenue.

"Everyone's been to the pantry and taken all the groceries," Richardson Rep. Bill Ceverha said of the employee pay hike plan. "Now we're saying, 'Here's the scraps.'" rate of 1½ days up to a 15 day maximum. This accumulated vacation time, less any vacation time taken that year, will be paid at the time of termination.

But Gary Hughes, director of the Texas Public Employees Association, said he was "extremely grateful" for the action.

The court also included a paragraph for department heads stating that since most heads are elected officials, the vacation policy is not binding for them.

"Although this policy cannot be enforced in their case except where the spending of money is concerned, it is hoped that they will use this policy as a guide to set a good example for the other employees of the county."

Total of six arrests noted

Police officers logged six misdemeanor arrests Wednesday.

Two persons were jailed for public intoxication and two others for outstanding traffic violations. One man was jailed for disorderly conduct and the sixth suspect was arrested for driving with a suspended license.

One of the public intoxication suspects was also charged with an additional count of disorderly conduct.

Committee contemplates raising age

AUSTIN (AP) — The House Liquor Regulation Committee is considering whether to meet a federal mandate of raising the drinking age to 21 or risk the state losing $100 million in highway funds.

Louisiana Rep. Margaret Welsh Lowenthal said Texas' problem with raising the age isn't as tough as it'll be in her state.

"Our problem is more blatant. We allow 18-year-olds to drink," Ms. Lowenthal told the committee Wednesday.

The Senate has already passed a bill by Sen. Bill Sarpalius, D-Canyon, that would up the age to 21 but included in the bill is a provision that may set the drinking age back to 19 if the federal requirement is ruled unconstitutional.

South Dakota has filed suit against the Department of Transportation claiming the federal mandate goes against the 21st amendment, which allows states to regulate their own liquor laws.

States not complying with the federal regulation stand to lose 10 percent of federal highway funds.

"The federal government does have us where they want us," Ms. Lowenthal said. "I believe in state rights but I also believe in saving lives."

She will introduce the bill to raise the drinking in Louisiana. Her state stands to lose $33 million in federal monies.

Rodney Schlosser, former student body president at the University of Texas, said lawmakers have been mislead to believe the state will lose money.

"A 21-year-old drinking age may prevent the withholding of about $100 million in federal highway monies, but the state treasury stands to lose millions more in alcoholic beverage tax, state and local sales tax, increased enforcement costs and economic vitality," he said.

Schlosser said the state could lose $66 million by 1987 and as much as $200 million by 1995 if the drinking age is raised.

The House bills to up the drinking age is being sponsored by Reps. Gary Thompson, D-Abilene, David Hudson, D-Tyler, Gene Green, D-Houston, and Billy Hall, D-Laredo.

Hall said, "We'll do want Congress wants because of the highway money but we, the Legislature, ought to make up our own minds on this issue without the threat of federal blackmail hanging over our heads."

Surgery helps end sweating

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB — Your column recently discussed sweating problems. My problem is the palms of my hands. I actually can make them sweat by thinking about it. I know it's just my nerves, but what can I do?

Just before I shake hands with someone, I think how embarrassing it would be if my hands were sweaty. Just that thought automatically causes wet hands within a few seconds, which is really embarrassing.

Can I take medicine or have a nerve or gland cut to stop this embarrassing problem?

DEAR READER — Many people with sweaty palms are nervous, which seems to make matters worse. However, others seem fairly calm and have no apparent anxieties, although they may become anxious just from having to cope with the problem.

The sweat glands in the palms are stimulated by nerve fibers. This particular type of fiber (cholinergic) can be blocked by some medicines. These atropine-like medicines are used to block the nerve that stimulates the stomach to produce excess stomach acid. They also dry the mouth.

Anxiety produces sweating by causing the release of adrenaline, which stimulates sweating. Therefore, medicines that neutralize the adrenaline effect, such as Inderal, help some people.

Have a medical examination, since some medical problems aggravate excessive sweating. An overactive thyroid gland is one example.

If all else fails and the problem is bad enough, the nerve fibers that induce sweating can be severed surgically.

I have discussed the various methods used to try to control sweating in The Health Letter 18-2, Sweating, Antiperspirants and Deodorants, which I am sending you. Others who want this issue can send 75 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it to me in care of this newspaper, P.o. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

DEAR DR. LAMB — I am a 58-year-old woman and use a makeup with a sunscreen to help ward off wrinkles. I read that it is important to absorb some of the sun's rays for vitamin D and the proper use of calcium. I walk for an hour each day, but in the cold weather, only my face is uncovered. Does the sunscreen in my makeup eliminate the beneficial aspects of the sun's rays?

DEAR READER — Vitamin D deficiency, which causes rickets, was once common in cities without much winter sun. However, that was before vitamin D was included in or added to many foods. Commercially sold milk has had vitamins A and D included or added, and this vitamin D is enough to help one absorb calcium and avoid rickets. Milk provides both the calcium and the vitamin D that one requires.

The sun's ultraviolet rays do stimulate the skin to form vitamin D. There are enough chemicals in just three square inches of skin to fulfill one's daily requirement for vitamin D. Sunscreens are effective in preventing sunburn, but they will not block the production of vitamin D during an hour's exposure to the sun.
