47,913 Jam Fair For New Attendance Mark

Area Children Guests Today

By H. I. KIEFER
Avalanche Staff Writer

THE greatest one-day crowd in history jammed the fairgrounds Wednesday for Circus and Lubbock School day at the 31st annual Panhandle-South Plains fair.

The attendance of 47,913 as reported early this morning by Earl Kerr, who supervises ticket sales, exceeded the previous record for any day during the 31 years of fair history by 2,176.

The old record was 45,737 set on Children's day Sept. 28, 1938. Since that time, Panhandle-South Plains fairs have provided two children's days each year to divide up the crowd. The first this year will be today and the second tomorrow.

TODAY'S PROGRAM

Amherst, Anton, Bledsoe, Crosbyton, Levelland, Lorenzo, Morton, Olton, Petersburg, Plainview, Ralls, Sudan, Sundown, Whiteface and Wolfforth Children's Day.

8:30 a. m.—Gates and exhibit buildings open.

10 a. m.—Three-day second annual South Plains Rabbit and Cavy show begins in the Livestock Judging arena; judging starts.

10 a. m. until midnight—Forsythe and Dowis Carnival midway in operation.

2:15 and 8:15 p. m.—"Water Follies of 1948" at the grandstand.

5 p. m.—Concert by the Whiteface High school band on the midway at the Seldon Stratosphere act site.

Circus Draws Big Crowds

Chief credit for the broken record was given the Ringling Brothers-Barnum & Bailey circus, which presented afternoon and night performances inside the fairgrounds gate to change a rarely broken custom. But the fact that Wednesday was Lubbock School day, with classes at recess, was scored with an important assist in producing the huge turnout.

The circus played to a virtually capacity crowd Wednesday afternoon and to a "sitting-room-only" audience at the night performance. The total circus attendance was estimated at somewhat more than 20,000. Spectators apparently were delighted with the performances.

Despite Wednesday's huge gate, prospects are not bright for a new attendance record for the entire week. The record is 145,273 set in 1935 and attendance during the first three days this year has totaled only 70,569. It is possible for a new record to be set. But the chances are very much against it.

Fair association officials, however, have made preparations for two of the largest crowds of the Capacity Crowds Attend Circus

Bulging with some of the greatest acts in its history Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey's colorful extravaganza played to two capacity crowds totaling 20,000 persons at the Panhandle-South Plains fairgrounds Wednesday—and left the majority of them gaping in awe.

A couple of "impossible" performances which did happen and an array of human and animal talent surpassing anything ever presented to a South Plains audience spun out two-hour afternoon and night programs that lived up to all advance billing.

Playing inside fairgrounds for one of the few times in its existence, the world-famous Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey circus ran the gamut from aerialists who defied death or certain injury to a little man in violet who amazed the crowd with a series of balancing performances, including that of balancing himself on one finger on a lighted globe and turning completely around while doing so. Sharing top billing was one of the top jugglers in the world today.

Only a few seats in the general admission section were unfilled for the afternoon show but the night performance was a sellout with the crowd jamming every available space.

In addition to the specialty acts, several of which have been imported from Europe and are show-

Traffic Jams City's Streets

ALTHOUGH traffic in Lubbock and approaching the Panhandle-South Plains fairgrounds kept pace with the all-time record attendance for the exposition Wednesday, no serious accidents or injuries were reported by police and sheriff's authorities at a late hour last night.

Traffic which was backed all the way into downtown Lubbock during the early afternoon and night Wednesday was untangled with a minimum of trouble and expected delay. The traffic was probably the heaviest in the history of the city and the fact that it moved as smoothly as it did was something of a surprise.

Meanwhile, officers suggested that some of the traffic use roads other than Broadway to reach the main fairgrounds to alleviate some of the traffic crush.

Shooting Is Probed

Patrolmen at the fairgrounds said that more than 4,000 cars were turned away from the immediate grounds Wednesday afternoon for lack of parking space but with the circus jam over, space should be readily available the remainder of the fair.

The rest of the police front also was somewhat quiet, authorities, said, in comparison with previous fall fair weeks, a shooting in the negro section of the city being the only major disturbance reported up until a late hour.

Thelma Silas, a negro woman, remained in serious condition in Chatman hospital last night with a gunshot wound in the abdomen, the injury being the result of what investigators termed a "rather general fight" in the Queen City negro section shortly before noon yesterday.

Louis Pearl Clark, 17-year-old mother, was held by the sheriff's department for questioning in connection with the case.

A revolver that fires .32-.20 ammunition was held by investigators. It contained one exploded shell and several live ones, it was said.

Fight Is Described

W. E. Renfrow of the Texas Ranagaers, Dept. Sheriff Earl Horton and Police Patrolmen Doyle Clark and V. P. Stephens said they were informed the trouble resulted from a quarrel and a fight between Louis Pearl Clark and a daughter of Luke Silas, Thelma Silas' husband.

The two fought it out with sticks, officials said. Thelma Silas and then Luke Silas took a hand, with the result that Louis Pearl Clark was knocked down in a mudhole, investigators said. The victim went into her apartment. Her cousin Alma Gene Mason knocked at her door for admittance and Louis Pearl Clark, seeing Thelma Silas standing a few yards off, fired one shot, it was related.

A suspect was sought by Abernathy and Lubbock officials Wednesday in connection with charges of Mrs. Roxie Robinson of Idalou that someone had burglarized her residence and taken a .38-.40 pistol and $1.50.

Levelland authorities also enlisted aid of officials here in search for a youth, perhaps, 16, who allegedly fled after his arrest for speeding in an automobile that subsequently was found to have two pistols in it.

The youth, believed en route

Moscow Paper Claims Allied Plea To Fail

UN Action Asked To Halt Soviet Threats

By FRANCIS W. CARPENTER
Associated Press Staff Writer

PARIS, Sept. 29 — The western powers asked the United Nations Security Council today to step into the Berlin crisis on the grounds that ruthless Soviet action threatens world peace.

The Moscow New Times predicted failure for the appeal which was presented to the council under the UN charter's most drastic provisions.

Informed sources said the council would take up the issue on Monday.

The United States, France and Britain handed in the hottest case in UN history on the tenth anniversary of the Munich pact—a forerunner to World War Two.

Charges Are Filed

But where appeasement was the key in Munich, determination to resist Soviet pressure was apparent in Paris.

The western powers said they would reserve to themselves the full right to take whatever measures were necessary to maintain their position in Berlin while referring the case to the U. N.

Informed sources said this was a definite warning the three powers would not be forced out of Berlin.

The United States, France and Britain had announced last Sunday their decision to go to the council. Today they filed their charges, with 30 pages of notes and documents supporting them, under chapter VII of the United Nations charter.

Charter Is Cited

This chapter is the strongest in the charter.

The 800-word note sent to UN Secretary-General Trygve Lie without fanfare did not cite any article of chapter VII, but authoritative sources said the three powers would base their case on article 39.

This says the council shall determine the existence of any threat to the peace, breach of the peace, or act of aggression and make recommendations or decide which of its severest penalties it wants to invoke.

The council has the right to impose a land, sea and air blockade around a guilty country. If neces-

Fast Talking Cigar Fancier Walks Off With 'Stale' Stogies

(By The Associated Press)

WESTFIELD, N. J., Sept. 29.—Peter Cappatella is looking for a distinguished, gray-haired man, impeccably dressed and most officious.

The impressive gentleman came up to Cappatella's sweet shoppe last night, examined the cigar counter, sniffed significantly at the stogies and then handed down the decision:

"The cigars in four of these boxes have gone stale. They must be replaced."

As Cappatella looked on wide-eyed, the distinguished one explained he would be right back with fresh ones. The cigar fancier then walked out of the shoppe with the four boxes of "stale" stogies under his arm.

He hasn't been seen since.

Wallace Egged At Houston Rally

HOUSTON, Sept. 29 (AP)—Henry Wallace was greeted with a shower of eggs and a mingled roar of cheers and boos when he appeared on the platform to address a mixed crowd of whites and negroes here tonight.

Three eggs and one tomato all missed the Progressive party presidential candidate, some of them breaking on the microphone in front of him.

The missiles all came from one direction and police promptly ejected a burly man from the city auditorium.

They released him outside and he told reporters he threw all the missiles and that he is John Staskiel, a sailor from Pennsylvania.

Wallace Is Booed

The non-segregated crowd was estimated by police at 3,500. It was by far the biggest and noisiest audience he has addressed on his trans-continental tour which began a week ago.

Then, as Wallace began to Critically Injured Boy Is Rescued From Wrecked Plane

EDMONTON, Alta. Sept. 29. (AP)—A critically injured 12-year-old boy was rescued today from the snow-mantled wreckage of a light plane in which his mother was killed on flight from Alaska to the United States.

The boy is Michael Lintner, son of Lt. Col. and Mrs. A. L. Lintner of Anchorage, Alaska. Mrs. Lintner was flying him to school in Washington, D. C., when the plane crashed 45 miles west of Fort Nelson, B. C., and 1½ miles from the Alaska highway which she had been following.

Montgomery Slated To Become Western Union Command Chief

By KINGSBURY SMITH
European General Manager INS

PARIS, Sept. 29. — Authoritative British sources said tonight that Field Marshall Viscount Montgomery, chief of the British imperial general staff, is slated to become commander-in-chief of the western union's defense command.

At the same time, diplomatic sources predicted the immediate strengthening of American and British fighter plane squadrons in western Germany in another protective move against Russia.

It is understood also that the British army is sending units of royal engineers to Germany to reactivate motorized units, including a considerable number of tanks and armored cars which have been lying idle alongside the autobahn between Bremen and Hamburg since the end of the war.

The decision to increase air strength in Germany was understood to have been considered by the American, British and French foreign ministers in connection with the decision to send the Berlin problem to the UN Security Council.

The American and British governments were said to have decided on precautionary measures because of the uncertainty of

Nine Arrests Slow Amarillo Crime Wave

AMARILLO, Sept. 29. (AP)—Five boys and two girls were arrested here today as police surrounded a small Amarillo grocery on a burglary call.

Two other boys were arrested last night. Police said the arrests are the result of a week-end orgy of car thefts and burglaries.

Four of the nine arrested were juveniles.

Police detectives said four Amarillo boys and two girls left Amarillo in a stolen car last Friday night and burglarized service stations, grocery stores and taverns in St. Francis, White Deer, Panhandle, Borger, Stinnett and Amarillo.

Three stolen cars were used yesterday afternoon, detectives said, to rob an Amarillo service station.

Three of the boys were reported as residents of Fort Worth.

One of the girls told police she is a fugitive from an Arkansas reformatory.

Dewey Calls For 'Peace With Honor'

Soviets Warned GOP Drive Is For Unity

(By The Associated Press)

SPEAKING to Russia, Gov Thomas E. Dewey said Wednesday night that the Republican campaign is for unity in America and "no dictator or trigger-happy militarist anywhere" should mistake it.

As the GOP presidential candidate pushed eastward through Montana, President Truman was traveling across Oklahoma into Missouri at a speech-an-hour rate and accusing the Republicans of dodging issues.

"I'm going to smoke 'em out," the Democratic nominee said. "They know very well that if the people understand what the issues are they haven't got a chance to win on Nov. 2."

Dewey, speaking at Great Falls, Mont., said he was sending his message to Paris, where the United Nations is striving for peace, and "beyond Paris through the iron curtain."

"The Republican party," he said in a prepared text, "is engaged in this campaign for the express purpose of bringing our people closer together so they can realize their great future and find peace with honor in the world."

It must be made clear to other nations, he said, that the American people are united.

At Helena, Mont., Dewey said he wants to establish a foreign policy "so clear and so consistent" that "no longer will any dictator regard us as weak and wobbly."

"We are a united people in standing firmly like a rock in our

Fighters May Guard Air Lift

BERLIN, Sept. 29.—Nine Soviet fighter planes buzzed perilously close to two U. S. transports outside Berlin today amid indications the Americans might dispatch fighter protection.

The Soviet Yak fighters swept within 100 feet of the C-54 planes carrying coal to Berlin from the western British base of Fassberg.

U. S. military officials said if this harassment continues the Americans would have no choice except to provide fighter escorts.

"It is time we took action," said one spokesman. "With the type of thing which has been going on for the last ten days, and with bad flying weather coming on, it is inevitable that there will be a collision.

Protest Planned

"And it won't be the same as the Yak-Viking crash at Gatow airport."

The spokesman referred to the April 5 crash in the air of a British transport and a Soviet fighter in which 15 persons were killed, including the Soviet pilot and two Americans aboard the British Viking craft.

That crash shocked and angered the western nations shortly after Russia began her blockade restrictions.

The Russians hastily apologized, but later accused the British crewmen of "diving on" the Soviet fighter.

The spokesman said a written protest of today's incidents will be sent to the Russians.

More Trucks Halted

A Soviet twin-engined plane yesterday crossed the U. S. base of Tempelhof directly in the "traffic pattern" of the airport, but fortunately no planes were landing at the moment.

U. S. airmen in a 24-hour period ending tonight landed 3,880 tons of supplies in 469 flights.

On the ground German police in the U. S. sector seized 30 more trucks, enroute from the Soviet occupation zone to the Russian city sector.

This made a total of more than 80 in two days in the western counter-blockade.

German Workers Escape

Twenty-five of 52 German youths aboard a Soviet train said to be taking them to forced labor in Russian - operated uranium mines escaped in the British sector when the train paused at the zoo station.

The British later disclosed they

Sentence Cuts Of Nazis Probed

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29 (AP)—Senate investigators sought "the whole story" today on the easing of punishments meted out to at least 13 Germans in the Buchenwald horror camp case.

A Senate investigating committee was reported to have asked the Army particularly why prison terms were reduced for "four or five big shots" convicted of crimes against humanity at Buchenwald.

The so-called "big shots" are in addition to Mrs. Ilse Koch, widow of the prison commandant, whose commutation of sentence from life to four years imprisonment drew angry protests.

Sentence Cut Scored

Mrs. Koch is eligible for parole next year. Among other things, she was accused of making lampshades and wall plaques from the skin of human victims.

William Denson, who prosecuted the Buchenwald cases, termed the cutting of Mrs. Koch's sentence "a shocking travesty on justice."

Senate investigators said 12 other Buchenwald defendants were known to have received a reduction of their sentences.

Denson said two of these were:

1. Dr. Edwin Katzenellenbogen, life sentence reduced to 15 years. Katzenellenbogen was once an

Defeated Candidate Threatens Write-In Drive, Court Action

DALLAS, Sept. 29. (AP)—Jim Griffin, who lost his race for Democratic nomination for agriculture commissioner, said tonight he might stage a write-in campaign. He also threatened court action.

He charged that the man who defeated him, incumbent J. E. McDonald, was supporting the Republican party.

Griffin announced his tentative plans to campaign in a telephone conversation from his home at Mission.

Griffin said he planned to investigate further and that if McDonald did support the GOP, he probably would conduct a write-in campaign against the veteran agriculture commissioner.

COURT HEARING SET TODAY

County Judges Told To Place Johnson's Name On Ballot

(By The Associated Press)

COUNTY judges over Texas today held telegraphed orders to place the name of Lyndon B. Johnson on the general ballot as U. S. senatorial nominee for the Democratic party.

Wednesday Johnson won two smashing victories in his bitter fight against his opponent, former Texas Governor Coke R. Stevenson:

1. Paul H. Brown, Texas secretary of state, certified Johnson's name for printing on the general election ballot. The election is Nov. 2.

2. Judge T. Whitfield Davidson of the federal district court of North Texas called off an investigation of alleged vote fraud in Jim Wells, Zapata and Duval counties. Davidson had ordered an investigation of second Democratic primary votes in the counties when he, last week, granted Stevenson a temporary injunction holding Johnson's name off the ballot.

Injunction Nullified

Stevenson had charged that fraudulent votes in the three counties had deprived him of the Democratic nomination. The state Democratic convention certified Johnson winner of the nomination by 87 votes.

Davidson notified Brown that the temporary injunction he had issued against Johnson was without force because of a stay granted Tuesday by Justice Hugo L. Black of the U. S. Supreme court.

As a result of this, assistant secretary of State Kirk R. Mallory filed the following telegram to each county judge in Texas:

"I certify that the Democratic party of Texas has certified to the secretary of state as its nominee for United States senator Lyndon B. Johnson, and you are hereby notified that he is entitled to have his name printed on the official ballot for the general election to be held Nov. 2, 1948."

Action To Be Pushed

Attorneys for Johnson said Mallory's action would not halt their prosecution of a mandamus action in state Supreme court today. They have asked the state court for permission to file a mandamus petition seeking to force Secretary of State Paul Brown to certify Johnson's name, to force county election boards to print his name on the ballot, and to restrain Stevenson from further action "in any court" at-

Federal Court Halts Investigation Into Alleged Vote Frauds

By MAX B. SKELTON
Associated Press Staff Writer

ALICE, Sept. 29.—A crowded courtroom today witnessed the abrupt end of a federal investigation into alleged charges of fraud in Jim Wells county voting in the Aug. 28 U. S. senatorial race.

Special Master W. R. Smith, jr., after spending most of the day opening 20 ballot boxes terminated the proceedings on order of Federal Judge T. Whitfield Davidson of Dallas.

Davidson had set the investigation into motion by granting a temporary injunction to Coke Stevenson restraining Lyndon Johnson's name from going on the November general election ballot.

No Findings Filed

Today's action resulted from a stay of execution of the injunction by Justice Hugo Black of the U. S. Supreme court.

Smith said he will make a report on the investigation to Davidson by Saturday.

"I hardly see how I can file any findings or conclusions on this wholly incomplete hearing," Smith explained. "The plaintiff had just begun developing the case when we adjourned."

Smith, a San Antonio attorney, announced Davidson's

126th District Court Judge Is Appointed

AUSTIN, Sept. 29. (AP) — Gov Beauford H. Jester today announced the resignation of Judge Roy C. Archer as judge of the 126th district court and the appointment of Jack Roberts, Travis county district attorney, to the vacancy.

Judge Archer is Democratic nominee for chief justice of the third court of civil appeals.

Gov. Jester named R. J. (Bob) Long, present assistant district attorney, to succeed Roberts as district attorney.

COMMUNIST TIEUPS SUSPECTED

Two Labor Unions Barred From Work In Nation's Atomic Plants

By FRANCIS J. KELLY
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—The nation's atomic plants were barred today to labor unions with leaders suspected of Communist tieups.

The order came from the Atomic Energy commission, coinciding with these other developments:

1. The Department of Justice told the House un-American Activities committee it won't engage in "witch hunts" or institute prosecutions "to justify the publicity seekers." The committee has accused the department of failing to prosecute atomic espionage suspects.

2. Rep. J. Parnell Thomas (R-NJ) chairman of that committee, made public a letter to President Truman declaring that "you and your attorney general have attempted to obstruct and thwart our pursuit of the facts." He challenged Mr. Truman to back up his recent criticism of the committee with facts."

3. Two more high ranking officials of the CIO United Electrical workers refused to tell a House Labor subcommittee whether they are or have been Communist party members.

SUPREME COURT REJECTS PLEA

Negro Loses In New Action To Force Admission To Texas U.

AUSTIN, Sept. 29 (AP)—Herman Marion Sweatt today was turned away from the supreme court.

The high court refused to grant a writ of error on lower court findings which have blocked efforts of the Houston negro to force his admission to the University of Texas law school.

The refusal left undisturbed the third court of civil appeals judgment that the state has made available to Sweatt a first-year law course substantially equivalent to that provided at the University's law school.

Segregation Scored

There was no written opinion in the supreme court decision. It said simply: "Writ of error refused."

Sweatt's attorneys had said previously they would carry their case to the United States supreme court if they lost their fight in the state courts.

Sweatt began his efforts to get into the university two years ago. He was refused admission because of his race and went immediately to the courts.

Attorneys for Sweatt contended that separate public schools for negroes and white made equal education for negroes impossible. The suit questioned the constitutionality of the state's school segregation laws.

The 126th district court twice rejected Sweatt's plea. After the first decision, the third court of civil appeals sent Sweatt back to the trial court when the 50th legislature established the Texas State university for negroes, with a law school. Sweatt was turned down on his appeal from the second ruling and went to the supreme court.

BARRING OF OKLAHOMAN IS HELD UNCONSTITUTIONAL

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 29 (AP) — Barring of a negro graduate student from the University of Oklahoma was held unconstitutional today.

A three-judge federal court did not order his immediate admission, however.

Instead it gave the state time to amend its segregation laws to permit all negroes to enroll for courses not available in separate schools.

Governor Roy J. Turner promised the court in a letter this will be done.

Barred Because of Race

The negro graduate who appealed to the court is G. W. McLaurin.

A retired professor, he tried to enter the university to complete work on a doctor's degree in education.

University officials admitted he was barred solely because he is a negro.

Langston university, the state's only negro college, does not provide the degree he seeks.

"In so far as the Oklahoma statutes deny or deprive admission of the plaintiff to the university they are unconstitutional and void," said the federal court opinion.

It was read by U. S. Circuit Judge A. P. Murrah, concurred in by Bower Broaddus and Edgar S. Vaught.

All three are Oklahomans.

"We refrain at this time from granting injunction relief on the assumption that the state will follow the law," the judges said.

McLaurin asked for an injunction restraining the university from enforcing the state racial segregation laws barring him from the school.

"The plaintiff," the court ruled, "is entitled to secure a post graduate education in this state by a state institution.

"To this he has been denied and deprived, although his application has been duly made.

"At the same time the education was afforded by the state to other groups.

"The state is under constitutional duties to provide the plaintiff with equal facilities as soon as to other students."

Mexican Party May Oust Solon Who Scored U.S. Ambassador

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 29. (UP) —Gen. Adolfo Sanchez Taboada, president of the official party of revolutionary institutions, said today the party would "consider the case of Congressman Braulio Maldonado."

Maldonado recently made a speech in Los Angeles attacking U. S. Ambassador Walter Thurston's action in denying an entrance visa to left wing labor leader Toledamo.

TAX BUT NO PROFIT

COLUMBUS, O. (AP) — Franklin County came out two cents in the red when it settled the inheritance tax on the estate of the late Ira D. Lester. The settlement added up to one cent, and it cost the county three cents to mail the penny check to the Marion, O., city auditor.

don't get that anti-freeze

...until you read this message from Du Pont

The first freeze may strike any day. Now is the time to get your anti-freeze. But for your car's protection—no matter whose brand of anti-freeze you buy . . .

Have your cooling system checked before you put in any anti-freeze

Anti-freeze can do two important jobs: Protect your motor against a freeze-up and help it run more efficiently by keeping the cooling system free from rust.

But if your anti-freeze leaks out, you have NO protection from a freeze-up . . . maybe a ruined engine block. (And you've lost the anti-freeze your good money bought.)

So, before installing anti-freeze have your serviceman give the cooling system a thorough check-up. No repairs may be needed at all—but even a simple inspection is worth what it may cost. In any case, see your dealer early. He needs time to do the job right.

Here's what a cooling system check-up includes:

1. INSPECT RADIATOR—If it's rust-clogged, it should be drained and cleaned. (Du Pont Cooling System Cleaner is one of the best for the job.)

2. CHECK FOR LEAKS—Radiator hose, hose clamps, pump, and cylinder head bolts should be tight. Your serviceman has the tools and know-how.

3. CHECK FAN, BELT, AND HEATER—Slipping belts should be adjusted—replaced if worn. Heater hoses should drain properly and not trap air.

4. PUT IN ANTI-FREEZE—A "Zerone"-"Zerex" chart shows amount needed. Radiator tag identifies anti-freeze, warns against draining.

Hopes For Future Of UN Shaken By Latest East-West Dispute

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.
Associated Press Staff Writer

PARIS—There are more causes of pessimism in United Nations corridors than the mere prospect of a knockdown-dragout fight over Berlin.

Herbert Evatt is a doughty fighter for the principle of settling issues on the basis of what is right rather than who is right. When he says that he is not too optimistic over the future of the world peace organization, as he said here today, you can be sure there is real trouble in the air.

One of the fundamental causes of worry here is that, when the Allied charges against Russia were filed today, a solid block was formally kicked out of the U. N.'s very foundations.

Agreed To Settle Disputes

Everyone understood at San Francisco in 1945 that agreement among the great powers was the keystone of the whole thing. The small nations agreed to the Big Five veto system in the security council with that understanding, knowing that without a united Big Five there was no United Nations. In return the big powers agreed to settle their own disputes amicably.

Everyone knew they hadn't done it, but the cold war, insofar as it involved the U. N., was being waged more or less indirectly. Admitting that the big powers are in a position which could lead to hot war formalizes the inefficacy of the U. N. in world affairs. Yet actually the organization is being called upon to make peace whereas in original conception it was designed only to keep the peace once it was made.

Another cause for worry is the visible strain being placed on the relations of the three great powers —France, England and America. While formally standing together, they still are operating from bases of opinion which differ widely in some particulars.

French Hold Back

It is obvious that France, and Britain to a lesser degree, are standing before the Security Council as formal accusers of Russia principally because of pressure from the United States. They would have preferred a less particularized stand before the General Assembly, and would have been glad to avoid that if possible. French officials have indicated clearly to me that they would really have preferred to "negotiate all night," keeping the ball in the air indefinitely regardless of the absence of any hope for agreement, rather than invoke critical processes.

The truth of the matter is that France still considers Germany her number one enemy. There is also a doubt in official circles here that Russia is prepared to make war, or that she would wish to do so if she were prepared.

In Britain I found a different and somewhat strange attitude. Fearful of their front-line position, still fighting the war's postlude battle as no other victor nation is doing, they would prefer not to meet issues head-on. One official seemed to express a rather general attitude when I asked him what would happen in Anglo-American relations if the United States decided that, to keep the peace, it was necessary to risk war, perhaps by putting up fighter escorts for the Berlin airlift.

"Oh," he said, "we haven't thought about that. We can't bring ourselves to think about it."

I am not implying that Britain and France are not good and reliable allies, but it would be foolish not to recognize that the strains to which world peace are being subjected are not all exerted on a direct line between Paris and Moscow.

Hedy Lamarr Forced To Drop Suit Against Magazine Before Signing New Film Contract

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS
INS Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 29—During those golden days when Shirley Temple was the most famous little girl in movies, her picture making was done on the 20th Century-Fox lot. For a long time she was one of the big money makers. Then Shirley started growing up, and like all growing girls she lost some of that childish appeal, so after "Bluebird," in 1940, she and 20th parted company.

Now Shirley is a charming girl of twenty and she's as lovely a young girl as she was a baby—so 20th would like to borrow her for "Mr. Belvedere Goes To College." Such an offer has gone to David Selznick.

Suit Is Dropped

C. B. De Mille's insistence that Hedy Lamarr withdraw her suit against Look magazine, before she signed the contract to play "Delilah" for him, is almost without precedent.

It's surprising that C. B. insisted that Hedy drop her suit, inasmuch as he fought a suit through every court in the country for what he believed was right. Hedy alleged that the story that she had undergone plastic surgery on her nose was untrue. Jerry Geisler had worked for days on the case, and an answer already had been filed by the magazine.

Jerry, who seldom says anything, gave a look that was far more expressive than words when I talked with him. Hedy had forgotten to tell him she had changed her mind about the suit.

A flash from New York that June Duprez, motion picture actress, is marrying George Moffat, Jr., food executive, this week, didn't exactly come as a surprise. June has known Moffat for a long time, but she wasn't free until her tangled matrimonial troubles with Charles Boone Smith were straightened out.

Smith had his marriage to June annulled, claiming that the ceremony they went through in Juarez, in 1945, was illegal, inasmuch as he already had a wife.

Disciples Will Push Unification Efforts

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29 (U.P.)—Delegates to the international convention of the Disciples of Christ today refused to halt unification efforts between their 1,600,000 members and 1,500,000 followers of the Northern Baptist church.

After the 4,500 delegates heard a report on the progress of unification yesterday, the Rev. Arthur Fleming, minister of the Christian church at Kingman, Kans., submitted a resolution to halt the activities of the unity commission.

Fleming's resolution urged that the commission stop work until a "straw ballot" could be taken among the Disciples' congregations. It was defeated by a voice vote.

After rejecting the resolution, the convention approved a statement reaffirming "deep convictions and hopes as to the reunion of Baptists and Disciples."

BORDERLINE ANEMIA*
CAN BE A BAR TO BEAUTY!
When good looks fade and vitality falters—when you feel spent and look pale and drawn—it may be because your red blood cells are too faded and weak. You may have a Borderline Anemia, due to a ferro-nutritional blood deficiency. Medical studies say up to 60% of women—many men and children—are the weary, dreary victims of this Borderline Anemia.
If you have this Borderline Anemia, you need Ironized Yeast Tablets! They are specially formulated to help build up faded, puny red blood cells to healthy redness and size, and thus permit your color and vitality to come surging back. Of course, continuing tiredness and pallor may come from other causes—see your doctor regularly. But in this Borderline Anemia, take Ironized Yeast Tablets. Take them to reclaim your lost energy, your healthy color, your enjoyment of life!
*Due to a ferro-nutritional blood deficiency, a condition for which Ironized Yeast is specially formulated.

ON SQUARE DANCING

LOVERS of square dancing will be interested in the revised and reprinted edition of Jimmy Clossin's and Carl Hertzog's "Cowboy Square Dances" a handbook based on the fact that square dancing is not difficult but is fun and good exercise.

Clossin is one of the foremost square dance teachers in the southwest and is well known here, having taught classes at Tech college for several years. He lived on a ranch as a young man and rode the range along the New Mexico-Texas border in the Panhandle country. He has taught "squares" from New York to Mexico since 1935.

According to the book only three things are required to bear in mind when one is learning to square dance: "Which is your left hand and which is your right; which is your corner and which is your partner and listen to the caller at all times."

The books are published in El Paso.

PRECIOUS SOIL

"GREEN Grasses Grow in the Golden Soil of our Fertile Red River Valley Under Blue Skies" reads an overline on the soil edition of The Paris News which came to the desk. The 48-page special is printed in blue, red green and yellow and features include articles written by Gene Howe, Louis Bromfield and Homer H. Harris of Shreveport, La., president of the Red River Valley association.

As is pointed out in the articles, dirt is far from cheap and whoever coined the expression, "cheap as dirt," did the world an injustice and a disservice.

IS dirt cheap? Listen:

You can't buy topsoil (dirt) anywhere at any price.

Topsoil is precious.

Nations go to war to get more of it to feed, clothe and shelter their people.

Civilizations have perished for want of it. Ruins of once glorious nations lie buried deep in the sand washed down from eroding farm land.

AND we don't have any too much soil. We have lost huge quantities of indispensable, irreplacable topsoil already and are still losing it at an alarming rate. But this loss is wanton and it can be stopped.

It has been proved time and again since soil and water conservation was made a national policy 15 years ago that a sound, carefully-planned conservation program not only controls erosion; it also makes tilling of the soil easier and cheaper, increases crop yields per acre, puts idle land to work, nets the farmer more income and enhances the value of his farm.

LIKES AND DISLIKES

LIKES and dislikes were gleaned by the Boys Athletic league of New York in cooperation with 102 children's social and welfare agencies in 23 states in a survey of boys and girls from ten to sixteen. Here's what they discovered:

Joe Louis and Joe DiMaggio are their favorite athletes, Jack Benny their favorite comedian and $2.10 their average weekly allowance.

The widest difference of opinion between boys and girls was in choosing movie stars. Roy Rogers was tops for the boys but way down on the list for the girls. They favored Alan Ladd and Margaret O'Brien was second for both with Betty Grable third choice for boys.

THE youngsters enjoy reading books and both boys and girls agreed they liked the company of their own sex. And they chose sports, stamp collecting, arts and crafts and swimming as their favorite hobbies.

That might be a good way to have some fun at your next party. Have the kids fill out a questionnaire on likes and dislikes and if it is interesting, pass is along to us. We'd like to reveal what Lubbock youngsters are like.

LOST BILLFOLD

SHIRLEY Jo Adams, 2316 Fourteenth, Tech sophomore, whose telephone is 2-1719 or 2-1552, is distressed over the loss of an expensive hand-carved, multi-colored billfold. She lost it in the vicinity of Broadway and College Ave. It has a sentimental value and she had had it only one day. There is no identification but it contains twelve or 13 dollars which will go as a reward to the finder if only Shirley Jo gets the wallet back.

TFWC President Is Speaker At Dinner For Slaton Clubs

SLATON, Sept. 29 (Special) — "The American club woman of today has become a citizen of the world; she has a responsibility to face and a leadership she must assume," stated Mrs. John J. Perry of Sweetwater, president of Texas Federation of Women's clubs, at an annual Tri-Club dinner held at Slaton club house Tuesday night.

Clubs participating in the event were Civil and Culture, Junior Civic and Culture and Daughters of the pioneers.

Mrs. Perry was introduced by Mrs. D. J. Neill. Other program numbers included the invocation by Mrs. Edwin Forrest; trio numbers by Mesdames J. P. Haliburton, James Watkins and R. M. Shephard; and a piano selection, "The Hunitng Song," by Mrs. James Wright.

Places for the 60 women attending were laid on white linen covered tables which were decorated with pink and white chrysanthemums and tall pink tapers.

Paula Maxey, Maybelle Pemberr, Mary Ann Cudd, Josephine Shephard, Frances Hunter, Phyllis Hunter, Daunita Dowell and Peggy Tudor, daughters of the club women, served tables. They wore caps and aprons of pastel colored crepe paper.

Committee members were: Mesdames J. W. Chenoweth, W. T. Cherry, Virgie Hunter, Curtis Dowell, J. C. Watkins and Miss Cora Sealey; and program, Mesdames Nat Heaton, W. K. Lovett, Leroy Holt, W. T. Davis, Cecil Scott and J. P. Haliburton.

Former Tech Student, Betty Sue Lindsey, Marries In Memphis

Announcement is being made of the marriage of Miss Betty Sue Lindsey, former student of Texas Technological college, and Arlis Andrew McBee, both of Memphis. Rev. Clifton R. Tennison, pastor of Memphis First Baptist church, read the service Sunday, Sept. 19, in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Lindsey. Mr. McBee is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McBee. Baskets of pink and white mums and an archway of greenery decorated the altar.

Mrs. Norma Heath of Lubbock, sister of the bride, pianist, and Mrs. Gladys Power, vocalist, offered wedding music.

Miss Elizabeth Benson of Hereford, maid of honor, wore a beige suit of wool gabardine with a gladioli corsage. Ted Swift served as best man.

Bride Wears White

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white wool suit with a halo hat of white feathers and velling and accessories of bronze kid. Her bouquet of brown orchids was carried on a white Bible.

At a reception which was held following the ceremony, the bride's table was laid with a white cut work cloth over pink and decorated with a three-tiered wedding cake and two orchids placed on fern at the base of the cake.

For a wedding trip to New Mexico, the bride wore a blue wool suit with brown accessories and an orchid corsage. Mrs. McBee attended Tech the past two years. Mr. McBee served two years with the Navy and attended West Texas State Teachers college. He is a nephew of Mesdames C. B. Moore, Francis Sezell and Fannie Miller all of Lubbock.

A South African fish has been discovered to be a cannibal before it is born. Unborn larval fish taken from their mother's body were found to have eaten members of the same brood.

Today's Town Talk

All of the chills at the Fair this week haven't been caused by the thrills of the acts. Among the cold night spectators attending this week have been Messrs. and Mesdames C. B. Bray, W. C. Boyd and Tommy Starnes and daughter, Bette Jo.

Excited little shirt-sleeved boys haven't given up their snow cones and ice cream, but coat-clad adults have been crowding the coffee and chocolate booths.

The diving and stunt swimming perfection of the Tuesday night Water Follies was not impaired by the South Plains' autumn chill, and an already entertaining script was supplemented by some very good weather ad libs. Fans in the "wind-cooled" grandstands even forgot and untucked their frosty hands from warm pockets to applaud each act. But "blue with cold spectators" were unable to understand how the slightly clad performers carried on without any visible shivering.

Area 4-H girls have set up an exhibit in the Women's building representing a busy season for them in poultry raising, sewing, canning and crafts. Unusual glazed ceramics in varied tones of green make an attractive pottery display by Texas Tech commercial art students, also in the Women's building.

A tailored gold gabardine dress with a royal blue hat complimented the always striking appearance of Mrs. Bernice Carnahan at the Wednesday luncheon of the Lubbock Business and Professional Women's club. A guest of the group, Mrs. W. C. Pryor, wore a smart gray tweed number with a matching plumed hat.

Sunday a District 9 B & PW picnic will be held at the Amarillo home of Mrs. Iris Graham with the Amarillo club as host. The time will probably be 4 p. m., according to Mrs. June Woodrum, president of the Lubbock group.

A silver tea to be given in Dallas on Oct. 10 will open National B & PW week and will honor Dr. Minnie L. Maffett, who was responsible for starting a loan fund for women medical students which will eventually reach $25,000. Dr. Maffett is past national president of the club and has been outstanding in its service work for many years.

Mrs. J. J. Tipps of 1919 Ave. Q, one of the five finalists on the "Queen for a Day" program Tuesday received two gifts for which she has no use. She was presented with a lighter and a carton of cigarettes. Neither Mrs. Tipps nor her husband smokes.

Eddie Warren, editor of the Post Dispatch, who says he "hasn't missed a circus since he was a kid"; Mrs. Warren; Mrs. Sherrill Boyd, of the Dispatch's editorial department and Mr. Boyd, Post Chamber of Commerce secretary, were among the thousands who saw the circus last night.

Pledges of Las Chaparritas club to be initiated as members tonight in a candlelight service at 6:30 in the Hilton hotel Yaqui room are: Mary Roe and Betty Wright of Anton; Jackie Spurlock, Richland Springs; Dotsie Stephenson, Fort Stockton; Thelma Dee Keck, Levelland; Janet Hightower, Garden City; and Frances Carpenter, Sue Thompson and Clarice Martin, all of Lubbock.

Following the membership service, thirteen young women will take their pledge oath, select "big sisters," and receive pledge pins and placards.

Wednesday at 6:30 p. m., club members, pledges and new pledges held an informal picnic-outing in Mackenzie State park.

Willis Bledsoe, who is in law school at the University of Texas, has written that he is delighted with his courses and he, his wife and their seven-month-old daughter, Bronwen, are comfortably situated in a nice apartment. Willis is continuing a tradition of lawyers for his family, since his father, the late Senator Bledsoe, and his mother, who lives at 1812 Broadway, both practiced law.

Turkey Dinner Held For Martha Class

A turkey dinner was served for Calvary Baptist Martha class Wednesday in the home of Mrs. M. T. Alexander at 1915 Ave. M.

Guests were Rev. and Mrs. C. J. McCarty, Mrs. Thornton, Mrs. Charley Rhodes and Mrs. J. F. Nix.

Members attending were Mesdames T. A. Brown, J. T. Jones, J. C. Newton, H. W. Hollyfield, A. F. Emerson, J. S. Waller, A. H. Kelly, H. R. Sprawls, H. H. Perser, E. B. Hendrix, Ruby Hodges, Overfelt, J. E. Brown, W. M. Gaston and E. Gibson.

Family Night To Be Observed At Club

Family night will be observed at Lubbock Country club Saturday with a buffet dinner at 7 o'clock in the new club house.

Reservations are to be made by 9 p. m. Friday with Mrs. Blanche Baker, 2-3711, it was announced.

B-PW Conference Meeting Reported

The Business and Professional Women's club conference held for District 9 in Plainview recently was reported by Mrs. Mabel Chapman and Miss Jo Flack at a luncheon meeting of the Lubbock club Wednesday at Hilton hotel.

Mrs. June Woodrum, president, presided.

Guests were Mesdames Lloyd Ross, D. Watkins, L. Ada McDowell, W. C. Pryor and Esther Snell.

Officers Installed By Monroe Class

Newly elected officers in the Monroe Baptist Bykota Sunday school class were installed Monday night with Mrs. Henry Heck of Idalou as installant.

Taking office were: Mesdames B. M. Hays, teacher; D .D. Webster, assistant teacher; M. F. Thurman, president; L. B. Teal, first vice president; A. J. Jenkins, second vice president; W. B. Nicholson, third vice president; J C. Bumpass, fourth vice president: J. O. Boyd, secretary and Guy Young, treasurer. A theme of keys was carried out in the service.

Refreshments were served to 27 class members and the following guests: Mesdames H. G. Winningham, Joe Bush, B. E. Gentry, W K. Clements, W. O. Fortenberry, J. I. Exum, A. L. Faubion, A. L Acker, Chester Gilmore, L. C Crews, M. R. Howe, G. E. Brownlow, A. C. Bumpass, Jack Phipps, Henry Heck, Rev. J. S. Rankin and Miss Rose Dunlap.

A gauge for measuring the thickness of thin rubber and other thin films of continuous production equipment, has at its heart a radioactive isotope, byproduct of the nation's atomic energy plants. It is capable of measuring material as thin as one-thousandth of an inch.

Mother Of Seven Is 'Queen For Day'

Mrs. L. E. Brown Of Lubbock Awarded Caribbean Cruise

A steamship cruise in the Caribbean will be the chief gift for Mrs. L. E. Brown of 2802 Thirtieth, mother of seven sons who was named "Queen for a Day" at the final performance of Jack Bailey's national radio show at the Panhandle-South Plains fair Wednesday afternoon.

Numerous other gifts, including a wardrobe, a washing machine and wrist watch also went to Mrs. Brown, whose oldest son is a midshipman at the U. S. Naval academy at Annapolis, Md., and whose youngest are twin boys four months old. Her husband operates a pest control service.

Runner-up on the program was Mrs. Lena Ross of Littlefield route 1, who will receive a radio-phonograph combination as her gift.

Others on Wednesday's program were Mrs. Lucille Mullins of 2108 Ave. X, Mrs. Ethel Sugg, a Wellington widow, and Mrs. Ruth Pinkerton of Olton route, Plainview, Mrs. Mullins asked for advice, Mrs. Ross for a refrigerator, Mrs. Sugg for new glasses, Mrs. Pinkerton for a flood light for her back yard. Mrs. Brown had requested a washing machine.

On Wednesday's program, Wayne Henly, president of the Lions club which sponsored the show's appearance at the fair, spoke briefly expressing his thanks of the program sponsors and the crowd attending.

Mrs. Brown told Bailey, she "couldn't possibly leave" to take the Caribbean cruise on the Standard Fruit and Steamship liner. Bailey replied, "We can take care of everything. We've handled lots of problems worse than this."

Bruce, 18, her oldest son, is a plebe in the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, having graduated last spring from Lubbock Senior High school.

John, 16, is a junior in Lubbock Senior High and the other two boys in school are Vince, 8, a second grader, and Leo, 6, a first-year pupil at Roscoe Wilson school. Michael, the fifth son, is three years old and the twins, Tim and Tom, are four months old.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown moved to Lubbock from Albuquerque, N. M., slightly more than four years ago.

The program, staged in front of the grandstand at the fair, was witnessed by approximately 3,000 persons, the majority of them women. It was broadcast nationally over the Mutual Broadcasting company through its local outlet, KCBD.

Jesse James Claimant Meets Relative Of Man Outlaw Shot

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 29 (INS)—The man who claims he's Jesse James met today the man who claims he's the great-grandson of a man Jesse shot a few decades back in a Russellville, Ky., bank robbery.

The old-timer is 101 years old and has been passing as J. Frank Dalton. The descendant of Nimrod Long, the victim of the Kentucky robbery, is J. B. Browder.

James has been positively identified as having participated in the robbery. But the old-timer says that isn't so. He says he was recovering from a bullet wound in his shoulder and didn't even know the robbery was being planned.

Experiment Station Superintendent Talks At Rotary Meeting

Don L. Jones, superintendent of Lubbock experiment station, urged Rotarians to "extend the welcome mat" for those who will attend the Mechanization conference here next month when he addressed the Rotary club in Hilton hotel at noon Wednesday.

The conference, to be attended by top flight industrial leaders and agriculture specialists, is scheduled for Oct. 14 to 16. It was set here, Jones said, by the sponsoring National Cotton council, because this area is the most highly mechanized agricultural territory in the world, and efforts will be made to show equipment manufacturers and others that machinery suitable for one part of the nation will not give maximum efficiency in another.

Investment Greater

Jones told the club that in Texas the average capital structure investment by the farmers is greater than that in business, and that in the last 15 years, efficiency of the farmers in production has increased more than industrial efficiency.

The speaker was introduced by D. . Sherrill, program chairman, who cited the interdependence of agriculture and business, particularly in this area.

James Block of Fort Neches, commercial art student, was introduced as junior Rotarian for the month from Texas Tech college. Three new members were introduced. They were Dr. E. N. Jones, vice president of Texas Tech; Ishmael Hill, who has returned to the public school system here; and Paul Branom, band instructor at the high school.

Visitors Are Named

Visiting Rotarians included James F. Potts of Floydada, Morris Gottlieb of Perry, Okla., Clements Von Roeder of Snyder, Henry W. Taylor of Birmingham, Sol R. Gayle of Fort Worth, W. L. Pratt of Fort Worth, Olen P. Davis of Sweetwater, M. W. Waldron of Mercedes, Bill Blakney of Abilene, Mabry Beard of Taft, Nat D. Heaton and Louis Hollingsworth of Slaton.

Club President Irving Jones announced that the film "My Home Town, Lubbock" will be shown at next week's luncheon. Invocation was by Floyd Honey.

Highway Board Hears Requests For Causeway, Canadian Bridge

AUSTIN, Sept. 29. (AP)—Requests for a new Lavaca Bay causeway and a bridge replacement at Canadian were presented to the State Highway commission here today.

A Calhoun county delegation headed by Chamber of Commerce President W. H. Bauer told the commission immediate relief is necessary for both navigation and motor transportation seriously handicapped by the present structure at Port Lavaca.

The commission tentatively accepted invitation of the delegation to visit Port Lavaca to inspect conditions there.

A Hemphill county delegation told the commission the Canadian river bridge replacement is urgently needed to relieve congested interstate travel between Texas and states to the north.

Sears-Roebuck May Enter Car Field, Reports Indicate

DETROIT, Sept. 28. (INS)—An alliance between Sears-Roebuck and Company and auto builder Henry J. Kaiser—which may result in production of a car to be distributed by Sears—came to light today.

The mail order company is reported to have purchased a "substantial interest in Kaiser Fleetwings, Inc., of Bristol, Pa.

This division of the Kaiser interests will produce sinks, bathtubs and other porcelainware for Sears an arrangement which T. V. Houser, the mail order firm's vice president, confirms.

Plant Working At Capacity

A report that the Kaiser-Sears combine may eventually enter the automobile business persists despite lack of confirmation from either quarter.

It is known that Sears, which already is distributor for vehicle accessories, desires to market an automobile. But plans in this direction appear remote at present since the Kaiser - Frazer corporation plant at Willow Run, Mich., already is operating at capacity.

Veteran students of the auto industry believe that the projected low-price car to be produced by Kaiser-Frazer when the buyers' market arrives will not be the one to be distributed by Sears.

They believe, instead, that a new division will be established. Everything depends on the steel situation, which currently would not permit Kaiser to implement any plans for producing for Sears.

Britain-Based B-29s To Be Replaced By Other Groups

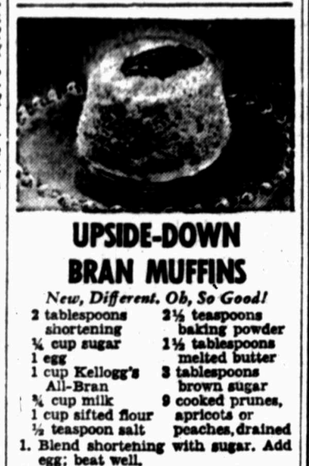

FORT WORTH, Sept. 29. (UP)—Superfortresses now based in England will be returned to the U. S. and replaced with other B-29 bombers, it was announced by Eighth Air force headquarters here today.

Ninety planes, comprising three bombardment wings of the Strategic Air command, will be returned. One is an Eighth Air force wing from Tucson, Ariz.

Units which will be sent to England as replacements were not announced. There are no B-29 wings stationed at Carswell Air Force base here, since the field shifted to the B-36 Superbombers.

The United States has about 50,000 distributors of fluid milk, according to estimates.

Crucial Conference Games Feature Area Class A Grid Schedule

Lockney Favored Over Abernathy

The Abernathy Antelopes, hopelessly out of the picture in District 3-A last year, will face the strong Lockney Longhorns Friday night in what is tabbed as one of the top conference games of the season.

Another tilt running closely behind the Antelope-Steer clash is the meeting of the Paducah Dragons and the Crosbyton Chiefs. Paducah won the conference title last year, after ending in a tie with Lockney, and indications are that the Dragons will be hard to stop again this year.

Other conference games pit Ralls at Floydada and Spur at Matador.

Abernathy has the hardest task in going to Lockney for their battle. The Antelopes have a pair of wins to their credit, opening the season with a 6-0 defeat of the strong New Deal Lions of District 3-B and continuing with a 13-6 victory over the Petersburg Golden Buffaloes, also a strong contender in District 3-B.

Antelopes Have Developed

Coach Boyce Box of WTSTC, heading the Antelope hopes for the first year, has a strong array of gridiron talent, mainly developed since last year's disastrous season. If he can direct the Antelopes through this game safely, Abernathy may be on its way to a conference title.

But Coach Curtis Kelley at Lockney seems to have him outmanned and outgunned. The former Buffalo star has a hefty line that averages just ounces under 200 pounds. Starring in the forward wall are tackles Delbert Shearer at 280 pounds and Ewell Dee Kelley at 230 pounds. There also are other hefty boys around the 200-pound mark and the backfield is fast and experienced.

So far this season the Longhorns have rolled to a 20-6 victory over the Tulia eleven, played the strong District B Kress Kangaroos to a 13-13 tie and then stormed Dumas for a 25-12 victory last week.

Paducah's Dragons haven't exactly been standing still this year. The defending District champs, building over again from the remains of last year's eleven, nosed out Chillicothe 13-12 in their opening tilt, then dropped a close 21-18 game to Crowell, also a strong District B power. Last week Paducah was dropped 31-13 by a powerful Wellington crew and the Dragons will be after blood this week at home.

Crosbyton hasn't exactly been showing weakness in its first three games. They opened the season with a 9-0 licking of Hale Center and then upset the powerful Tahoka Bulldogs 13-0 in a classy fashion. Last week they fought O'Donnell to a 13-13 tie.

Both elevens have their share of power and this rates as one of the top clashes in District 3-A.

Ralls Is Outmanned

Ralls' Jackrabbits, outmanned all down the line and badly beaten in every game this year, don't look like a team that is going anywhere. And in Floydada's Whirlwinds they appear to have bitten off more than they can chew. Ralls was licked by Post, 40-6, took a 32-0 drubbing from Levelland and last week was easily edged by Tahoka 19-6.

Floydada hasn't shown too much power either, but they still should have enough to down Ralls. Slaton opened the Whirlwind schedule with a 21-12 defeat and Tulia added to it with a 19-12 licking. Last week Phillips also rolled over them easily, 31-6. But this should be the week end when Floydada finds itself.

There isn't much to choose between Matador's Matadors and Spur's Bulldogs, either. Matador opened the season with a 19-0 defeat by Turkey and then held Estelline to a 19-13 victory. Last week the powerful Amarillo B squad rolled over the Matadors.

Spur opened its season bowing to Haskell 26-6 and then held Post to a 13-6 victory. Last week they met Hamlin and romped to their first win of the season, 28-6 On the basis of their improvement, Spur should win, even though the game is at Matador.

Hialeah—Florida's oldest and largest race track—has been assigned January 17 through March 3 for its 1949 horse racing period.

SMU Favored In Clash With Tech

Texas Tech's Red Raiders continued to go through their preparation for the clash with Southern Methodist university at Dallas Saturday afternoon, despite the fact that they have been made 26 point underdogs against the Mustangs.

Coach Dell Morgan apparently was unperturbed by the odds offered by the betting fraternity and continued to drive his football squad through a long, hard afternoon. This isn't the first time the Techsans have looked down the end of a barrel, even though this seems to be a multiple-barrel this week.

The varsity continued to emphasize defense against SMU plays and to work on their own offensive. The coaches have been working overtime to devise an offense that will shake some of the backfield speedsters loose against the Ponies. And forward passing also was given a stiff combing to get the best out of this weapon.

Scrimmage was on the schedule yesterday and the line was given special attention. It will be up to the forward wall to stop the Mustangs, who have a way of going around the ends and through tackle for good gains. The Ponies have a versatile double wing, inverted wing and "Y" offense, which shakes any number of backfield men off on any number of possible plays.

Pass Defense Stressed

But pass defense still was given the most attention. Gil Johnson and Doak Walker are respected and their performance against Pitt last week, attempting 13 and completing 12, shows that it is a potent weapon. Four of SMU's five touchdowns came through the air and the Tech secondary is being drilled intensively on breaking up the Mustangs' favorite attack.

The Tech eleven will be without the services of Guard Milburn Haydon and Center Bud Henderson Saturday, barring miracles, and Fullback Bud Conley and Halfback Tim Hatch probably will see little action. All four men suffered knee injuries in the bruising clash against Texas Aggies last week and the Raiders definitely will not be at full strength.

Despite the dour prospects at Dallas this week, no one at Texas Tech is downhearted. The practice sessions are spirited and the players are keyed up for this game. Most observers rate the Raiders well under the Mustangs, but they also expect them to play the heavily favored Mustangs a rough, unrelenting game.

STAGS SIGN SPEARS

CHICAGO, Sept. 29. (INS)—The Chicago Stags announced tonight the signing of Marion Spears, 6' 5" former Western Kentucky star. Spears, who is 25 and hails from Adolphus, Ky., is the seventh man to be signed so far this season by the Basketball Association of America team.

Seminole Meets Wildcat Eleven

Non-conference clashes will hold the South Plains grid spotlight this weekend in Districts 4-A and 5-A, although five title battles are on tap in the two loops.

Seminole's powerful Indians of 5-A, undefeated and untied, will tangle with Littlefield of 4-A at the Wildcats' home field in one of the top settos in West Texas schoolboy ranks. Seminole is ranked one of the two favorites in the 5-A championship race, along with highly-rated Monahans, and Littlefield looms as the top challenger to Levelland's Lobos in the north half 4-A circuit tussle.

A victory by Coach Gordon Wood's Indians would boost Seminole's rating in the Class A bracket, but a Wildcat triumph would throw the 4-A race wide open. Seminole will enter the important tilt as a two-touchdown favorite, on the basis of early season games and backfield strength.

Muleshoe Meets Sudan

One important conference battle will be unreeled in north 4-A with the improving Muleshoe Yellowjackets clashing with the Sudan Hornets. Muleshoe, one of the favorites in the district in the pre-season predictions, has shown increasing strength after a slow start and may move into the top trio with a win over the scrappy Hornets.

The final winner in the south half of District 4-A may be determined Friday night at Slaton, when the strong Tahoka Bulldogs tangle with the surprising Tigers. The Bulldogs won a district title last season, and are rated as a "dark horse" eleven this year. Coach Jim Faust's crew will be a decided favorite to trim Coach Clarence Tillery's youngsters, but the Tigers may make it a close battle.

O'Donnell To Play

O'Donnell plays host to New Deal of 4-B in the only other tilt including a south 4-A eleven.

Three district games are slated in the big 5-A loop, with mighty Monahans invading Fort Stockton in a feature tilt. Monahans is moving relentlessly toward the district championship, which will probably be determined when the Green Wave meets the Seminole Indians early in November. In other conference games Denver City's Mustangs journey to McCamey for a rough tilt against the Badgers, and Kermit plays strong Pecos at Pecos.

Two non-title settos are scheduled, as Andrews plays host to Merkel and Wink travels to Jal. N. M.

Getz Hands Marvel First City Defeat

Tough Al Getz of Pittsburgh handed the Masked Marvel his first Lubbock defeat in the feature bout of a triple main event Wednesday night at Sled Allen's arena.

Getz took the first fall of the clash in 12 minutes, using a double jack-knife, then took the second and deciding fall in six minutes when Referee Olan Boynton—who was knocked down by the Marvel—awarded the decision to Getz.

Boston Billy Weidner, the Southwestern junior heavyweight titleholder, protected his record by defeating Rex Mobley of Borger in two straight falls. Weidner took the first setto in 22 minutes with a full nelson, then applied a clinching shoulder pin in 23 minutes of the second fall.

Sailor Parker returned to the local arena in the second main event against Sammy Kohen of New York City, chalking up a disputed victory over the rowdy grappler from the east. Kohen won the first fall in 14 minutes with a surfboard, but Parker bounced back to take the second fall in seven minutes with a toe hold. Parker was awarded the third fall when he was thrown out of the ring by Kohen.

Sports Study

By Earl Sendday

Since we "lucked out" on our grid predictions last week, connecting on 28 of 36 tilts for a 77 per cent right tally, we face the chore today with more courage. If the schoolboys will just read the dope charts and forget about upsets, maybe we will get half of them right this week. But, with that Brownwood-Sweetwater-Kerrville trio around, more surprises are probably just around the corner. Here's how the games look:

District 13-AA

LUBBOCK over Austin . . . but it would be nice to have an easier opponent for a change. If the Westerners can hold those Maroon sprinters, they should win by one point or one touchdown.

District 1-AA

BORGER over Albuquerque . . . Bulldogs are better than you think.
PAMPA over Vernon . . . the Harvesters will have to hustle.
LEVELLAND over Brownfield . . . Lobos have a better offense.

District 3-AA

PLAINVIEW over Midland . . . just counting on wily Dub Harris.
WICHITA FALLS over Abilene . . . Eagles play all the tough ones.
SWEETWATER over Amon Carter (Fort Worth) . . . should be easy.
ODESSA over Big Spring . . . a warm-up for the Red Hosses.

District 3-A

LOCKNEY over Abernathy . . . a loud vote for the Longhorns.
FLOYDADA over Ralls . . . Whirlwinds must win sometime.
PADUCAH over Crosbyton . . . looking in the crystal ball.
SPUR over Matador . . . the form sheet says it's true.

District 4-A (North)

MULESHOE over Sudan . . . Yellowjackets look better and better.
SEMINOLE over Littlefield . . . Indians on the warpath.

District 4-A (South)

TAHOKA over Slaton . . . too much Bulldog power.
NEW DEAL over O'Donnell . . . just a hunch.

District 5-A

ANDREWS over Merkel . . . Andrews keeps winning.
DENVER CITY over McCamey . . . could be wrong here.
PECOS over Kermit . . . this is easy.
MONAHANS over Fort Stockton . . . so is this.
WINK over Jal, N. M. . . . the coin came up heads.

State Specials

AMARILLO over Paschal (Fort Worth) . . . Sandies won't even get a good workout. About 27-7.
ARLINGTON HEIGHTS (Fort Worth) over Jeff Davis (Houston) . . . the Cowtown crew should win by a touchdown.
ADAMSON (Dallas) over Marshall . . . another close one.
BAYTOWN over Orange . . . they're really rough this week.
BRACKENRIDGE (San Antonio) over Lanier (S.A.) . . . Brackenridge by four or more touchdowns.
STEPHENVILLE over Cisco . . . Stephenville is moving up fast.
WAXAHACHIE over Ennis . . . on the basis of backfield strength.
DENISON over Kilgore . . . Even with Marvin Vincent out of action.
WACO over Tyler . . . Waco is big and rugged.
CORPUS CHRISTI over Thomas Jefferson (San Antonio) . . . by two touchdowns.
NORTH SIDE (Fort Worth) over Childress . . . that Hooper boy is powerful.
HIGHLAND PARK over Sherman . . . the Scotties are good enough to win.
KERRVILLE over Temple . . . unless the Antlers have lost their fight.
TEXARKANA over Nacogdoches . . . not even close.
PORT ARTHUR over Dallas Sunset (Saturday) . . . old Murder, Inc., again.

Two Cub Regulars Out Of Action Because Of Injuries, Illness

BROWNFIELD, Sept. 29 (Special) — Tracy Kellow, Brownfield High grid mentor, announced this afternoon that at least two of the Cub regulars will not see action in the Brownfield-Levelland clash here Friday night because of injuries and illness.

Bill Tankersley, regular halfback, is out of the lineup with a leg injury and Billy Anderson, regular quarterback, is sidelined with influenza. Lineman Jim Billings will probably see little, if any action, Kellow reported.

Doctors Advise Aggie's Taylor To Wait Before Rejoining Team

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. 29. (AP)—Sophomore Blanton Taylor of Hondo will know in three weeks whether he can rejoin the Texas Aggie football squad or give up the gridiron sport for good and concentrate entirely on baseball.

Doctors have advised the rangy, 195-pound reserve fullback to wait at least 21 days before undergoing an examination, which will determine whether or not he can resume football drills.

Kilgore Drops Gold Sox, 7-4, In Playoff

KILGORE, Sept. 29. (AP)—The Kilgore Drillers edged within a game of Amarillo tonight in the Little Dixie series, taking a 7-4 victory.

Amarillo now leads the series between the champions of the Class -C West Texas-New Mexico and Lone Star leagues, three games to two.

Fred Baczewski limited the West Texans to eight hits, struck out eight and walked four. Ronald Murphy and manager Joe Kracher each hit homers for Kilgore.

The clubs play here again tomorrow night, with Willis Chamness opposing Roy Parker, probable Amarillo starting pitcher.

RAADIK DECISIONS HORNE

CHICAGO, Sept. 29. (AP)—Anton Raadik, rough and durable Estonian middleweight, tonight registered his eighth victory in his last nine fights by decisively outpointing George "Sonny" Horne, Niles, O.

Meadow, Cooper In 4-B Tussle

Activity flourishes again in District 4-B Friday night, when eight teams continue their torrid schedules against conference and non-conference foes.

On tap for the conference will be Meadow's Broncos at Cooper, the only conference game of the week, along with such non-conference tussles as New Deal at O'Donnell, Ropesville at Frenship, Whiteface at Plains, and on Saturday night, Idalou at Lubbock's Pioneers.

The lone conference tilt shouldn't extend the Broncs too much. They have shown enough in pre-season non-conference battles to indicate that they will be hard to beat on any given week end. They opened with a 13-0 licking of Ropes and were barely edged out by O'Donnell 6-0, before trouncing the Lubbock Pioneers 20-7 last week.

Cooper Is Building

Cooper has been the doormat so far and probably will continue so. They lost their opener to a powerful Idalou eleven, 46-0, and last week scored a moral victory in holding Abernathy to 32-13. The Cooper team is building and this doesn't seem to be their year.

In the other battles, Idalou will be favored Saturday night on the basis of their weekly early games. They beat Cooper easily and last week committed two errors that cost them a victory over Kress, the Kangaroos tying the Wildcats 13-13.

New Deal, on the march after a 12-0 victory over Whiteface last Friday, might surprise O'Donnell, but it doesn't seem to be in the books. Ropes shouldn't have too much trouble with Frenship and the classic battle takes Whiteface to Plains.

Plains, playing an independent schedule, has shown a world of strength in licking the Lubbock Pioneers 12-7, the Denver City B squad 44-0 and the Littlefield B squad 25-20. Coach Bill Adams has brought his Cowboys along in fine style and they seem to be one of the stronger area teams. Incidentally, the Cowboys are seeking games for Oct. 21, Nov. 4 and Nov. 11 and any coach interested can reach Mr. Adams at Plains High school.

BOWLING SCORES

Bluebonnet Laundry and Glassman's moved into a deadlock for the lead position in the Ladies' Commercial Bowling league Wednesday night, with Glassman's winning two of three games in a series against the Hemphill-Wells keglers. Artie Galloway of the Hemphill-Wells quint grabbed top individual honors with a single game tally of 277 and a series total of 563.

Bluebonnet Laundry, paced by Silver Behrens' 183-508 series, swept three straight games from Penrod's. Ariys Womble topped the losers with a 163-458.

Lubbock Tailoring won two of three games from the Russell Hardin cleaners, as Vera Cleary rolled a 147-466 series. In the other match, Southwestern Public service took two of three games from the Home Lumber and Supply pin-toppers. Norma Crossland led the Service crew with a 171-475.

The league standings.

Teams	Won	Lost
Bluebonnet Laundry	7	5
Glassman's	7	5
Penrod's	6	6
Hemphill-Wells	6	6
Russell Hardin	6	6
Southwestern P. S.	6	6

BOBCATS HAVE SUPERIOR TEAM

Dimmitt Invades Springlake For District 3-B Tilt Friday

Lonnie Rice, one of the outstanding quarterbacks in District B circles, is expected to have an easy night's work Friday, when Dimmitt invades Springlake for another District 3-B conference football game.

And like Rice and the Dimmitt Bobcats, other easy victories are expected by Olton over Amherst, Anton over Petersburg and Hale Center over Friona.

This marks the second week of conference play and the district is beginning to shape up as a rough, rugged race between Dimmitt and the rest of the field. The Bobcats stand so far as superior to the other teams as sirloin steak to horse meat. Barring accidents, always possible in high school football, the Cats are a shoo-in.

But the rest of the loop shapes up as a regular battle, with no holds barred. Olton probably has the easiest task this week in going to Amherst, where the home eleven is smarting from a 53-0 shellacking at the hands of Dimmitt. Olton came through its tough fight with the strong Petersburg Golden Buffaloes, which it won 14-0, in good shape.

Anton's Bulldogs invade Petersburg and although they will be favored to win their first conference game, it should be a fine battle. Petersburg has shown strength, even in losing their first game to Farwell 24-0, and to Abernathy 13-6 in their second try, and to Olton's Mustangs 14-0 in last week's clash.

Hale Center would seem to have enough to get by Friona. The Owls held Crosbyton to a 9-0 victory in their first game and then was stormed by the powerful Sundown eleven 26-0. Last week the Owls opened their conference schedule with a 27-7 victory over Anton to indicate power. They should take Friona this week for conference win No. 2.

Juniors Face Tough Battles

Leaders in the South Plains Junior High football league face rough opponents tonight in a four-game loop slate.

One of the top tilts will be unreeled at 7:30 o'clock at Chapman field, when the Littlefield juniors tangle with the strong Carroll Thompson gridders of Lubbock. The Thompson crew was a pre-season favorite to cop the league championship and a victory tonight would give the Hub city youngsters three consecutive triumphs. Littlefield lost an encounter with Plainview in an opening tussle.

Another loop favorite, O. L. Slaton of Lubbock, journeys to Plainview to battle the undefeated Plainview juniors. The O. L. Slaton squad boasts one of the top backfields of the circuit, but will face the problem of stopping Plainview's tricky T-formation offense.

J. T. Hutchinson of Lubbock goes to Levelland for a tussle with the strong Lobo juniors to wind up the slate for the Hub city representatives. Levelland will be favored to trounce the Hutchinson gridders by three or four touchdowns as a result of their fine showing against the Thompson eleven last week.

In the final loop game Brownfield's improving juniors will clash with Lamesa at Lamesa.

BROOKLYN, Sept. 29 (AP) — Johnny Sain hung up his 23rd victory of the season for the pennant winning Boston Braves today as he stopped the runner-up Brooklyn Dodgers, 4-3. Sibby Sisti singled home Phil Masi from second base with two down in the ninth inning.

It was a costly victory as hard-hitting Jeff Heath injured his left ankle. First reports had the Brave outfielder suffering a fracture, but later it was said it may be just a dislocation. X-rays will be taken to determine the extent of the hurt.

JOHNSON IS DEADLY PASSER

Fred Wendt Of Texas Mines Is Top Ground-Gainer In Nation

NEW YORK, Sept. 29. (AP)—Although he hasn't thrown a single forward pass, Fred Wendt of Texas Mines is the leading ground gainer among the nation's collegiate football players at this early stage of the 1948 season.

In two games Wendt has carried the ball 26 times and covered a total of 367 yards. That not only makes him the leading ball carrier but also the top man in yardage gained by both running and passing.

The National Collegiate Athletic Bureau, in releasing the first compilation of individual statistics for 1948 today, said it was the first time in the history of the establishment that a player assumed the total offensive lead without some help from aerial yardage.

Holding second place behind Wendt is California's crack fullback, Jackie Jensen, who has accounted for 324 yards on 30 plays in two games. He also is second in the rushing department, with 304 yards on 25 plays. His 20 yards in the air enabled him to become the overall runner-up.

The top forward passer at the moment is Auburn Lambeth of Davidson, who has completed 24 of 41 throws in two games, gaining 256 yards and accounting for two touchdowns.

While he ranks only 20th on the list of successful completions, Gil Johnson of Southern Methodist leads in percentage with a perfect nine for nine in his one game against Pittsburgh.

The top pass receivers are Ben Procter of Texas and Buddy Cheek of Davidson. Each has caught ten passes in two games. Procter's receptions have netted 141 yards and two touchdowns, while Cheek has accounted for 96 yards and three touchdowns.

Ross Nagel of St. Louis university leads the punters at the moment. In two games he has punted eight times and averaged 46.4 yards.

Citation Captures $29,250 Sysonby Mile Race Easily

NEW YORK, Sept. 29. (AP)—Citation won the $29,250 Sysonby Mile today easily, Jockey Eddie Arcaro having the Calumet champion almost pulled up to a trot at the finish.

Citation defeated First Flight by four lengths, while another Calumet colt, Coaltown, wound up third.

With win and place wagering only, the Calumet entry paid $2.20 and $2.10 for $2.

Citation won $20,000, shooting his 1948 earnings to $516,170.

Bobby Brown Suffers Injured Ankle

Westerners Leave For Austin Today

Lubbock Westerners hopes for a non-conference triumph over the speedy Austin Maroons of District 13-AA Friday night at Austin took a sharp drop Wednesday afternoon when Bobby Brown, triple-threat tailback, reported for practice with an injured ankle that will probably keep him out of action this weekend.

Hospital examination did not reveal any broken bones in Brown's ankle, Head Coach Pat Pattison said last night, but the muscles are badly strained and Brown will see little—if any—action against the Austin eleven.

The injury was not caused by a practice session workout, officials revealed, but resulted from a schoolground game of "touch-pass."

Coach Pattison is expected to shift stocky Malcolm Young, speedy 165-pounder who has been running from the fullback slot, to the tailback post against the Maroons. Bill Bridge, powerful 177-pounder, will probably take over the fullback duties, with Don Decker remaining at wingback and Charley Williams or Norman Bantz at blocking back.

Squad Leaves Today

The 34-player Westerner squad, accompanied by Mentors Pattison, Bill Floyd and Fred Taylor, is scheduled to leave at 7 o'clock this morning by chartered bus for Brownwood and Austin. The Lubbock gridders are slated to arrive in Brownwood early this afternoon, and will hold a light workout at the field there. The group will spend the night in Brownwood, then journey to Austin Friday morning.

The two Class AA elevens were rated an even 50-50 choice until today, but Brown's injury is certain to make the Maroons a one-touchdown favorite in the setto.

Both elevens are shooting for the second win of the season, after a stiff early season slate against some of the top teams in the state.

Dallas Nine Acquires New Players In $20,000 Deal

DALLAS, Sept. 29 (AP) — The Dallas club of the Texas league today acquired first baseman Jerry Witte and second baseman L. D. Meyer from the Louisville Colonels of the American association in a transaction involving $20,000, general manager Bobby Goff announced.

Dallas gave three promising youngsters, pitcher Bob Ramsey and catcher Floyd Walker, farmed to Lubbock of the West Texas-New Mexico League last season, and first baseman J. H. Moody, farmed to Odessa of the Longhorn league. A $10,000 valuation was placed on the trio and a like amount of cash went along in the deal.

Earlier this week Dallas bough Leo Wells, shortstop with San Diego of the Pacific Coast league; catcher Leonard Rice with the same club, and Otho Nicholas, veteran pitcher from Tyler of the Lone Star league.

More than 200 cowboys have entered the various contests to be held at the 23rd annual Madison Square Garden rodeo, Sept. 29-Oct. 24.

Tentative Arrangements Made For 1948 Dixie Series Games

DALLAS, Sept. 29 (AP)—Tentative arrangements for the 1948 Dixie Series were completed today in a long-distance telephone conversation between officials of the Texas league and the Southern association. They call for the autumn classic for the Class AA championship to begin Saturday night in Southern association territory, Milton E. Price, secretary of the Texas league, announced.

Mrs. Eisenberg, Mrs. McCoy Share Honors In Ladies Meet

Mrs. W. F. Eisenberg and Mrs. O. D. McCoy shared top honors in the 18-hole flight of the women's golf tourney Wednesday at Lubbock Country club. Mrs. Eisenberg chalked up the low net score, while Mrs. McCoy was low on putts.

In the nine-hole flight Mrs. Horace Humphries took low net honors, with Mrs. M. M. Brown low on putts.

New Attendance Record Is Set

week for the Children's days to be observed today and tomorrow.

School children of the area are to be admitted to the grounds upon payment of the federal amusement taxes on their complimentary tickets—amounting to 5 cents for children under 12 years of age and 10 cents for those older than that.

Scores of school buses are expected to be used in bringing students from all parts of the area to the fair. The buses will use the parking area on the west side of the fairgrounds as usual.

In recognition of the Children's days, the Forsythe & Dowis carnival has agreed to reduce ride prices for the youngsters to one-half the usual fare. The reduction is a specific stipulation in the contract under which the carnival operates on the midway. Kid rides are to be 5 cents, the merry-go-round six cents and others in similarly reduced proportion.

Band Concert Planned

Operators of the carnival announced they will be ready to go when the children arrive. The expectation is that the festivities will begin around 10 a. m.

The whole fair will get back upon a normal schedule today following the climaxing circus attractions Wednesday.

The "Water Follies of 1948" will be presented at the grandstand at 2:30 and 8 p. m. daily during each of the three remaining days of the fair. Performances were canceled yesterday because of the circus.

Seldon's free "stratosphere act," one of the most spectacular ever to show at a Panhandle-South Plains fair, will go on at about 5:30 and 11 p. m. each day.

Today's visitors are expected to include the Whiteface High school band—one of the best in the area—and plans are to play a concert at the stratosphere pole just before Seldon presents his afternoon performance.

Rabbit, Cavy Show Opens

Also of especial interest to three-day second annual South youthful visitors should be the Plains rabbit and cavy show which will begin this morning in the Livestock Judging arena. Hundreds of entries are expected.

All exhibit buildings will be open today and tonight, and will be well worth visiting. The displays are outstanding.

The final "Queen for a Day" broadcast here was presented Wednesday before a crowd which filled the grandstand almost to capacity. Mrs. L. E. Brown, of 2802 Thirtieth street, was chosen Wednesday's "queen."

Wednesday's record throngs resulted in some of the worst traffic jams Lubbock ever has experienced. In advance of the scheduled beginnings of both circus performances, automobiles headed toward the fairgrounds were almost bumper-to-bumper in two lanes from to the ground entrances.

Traffic Is Heavy

The situation was almost equally bad when spectators attempted to leave the grounds after the performances. Many motorists had to wait more than an hour to get from their parking place to the one exit the fairgrounds provides. The experience demonstrated an urgent need for additional exit gates in the fences bordering the parking areas, to be available for use when throngs like those of Wednesday visit the grounds.

However, no serious traffic accidents due to the fairgrounds traffic jam were reported. Lubbock traffic police were credited generally with doing a good job in keeping cars moving under the almost impossible conditions with which they had to deal.

South Plains Furniture Dealers Hold District Meeting Here

When furniture dealers from over the South Plains gathered Wednesday night at Hilton hotel for a regional meeting, mutual problems of the furniture business were discussed.

F. W. Groce, Lubbock furniture man and a director of the Retail Furniture association of Texas, was in charge of arrangements.

Others attending the meeting were Bob Lindsey of Borger, president of the Texas association; J. Frank Heath, Amarillo, vice president; and H. E. Dill, secretary-manager of the state office in Dallas.

Committeemen from the South Plains area who assisted with arrangements were R. L. Bain of Plainview, Clarence McWilliams of Brownfield, I. D. Onstead of Littlefield, and Harold Griffith of Lubbock.

Rites Not Set For Seagraves Infant; Grandparents Sought

SEAGRAVES, Sept. 29 (Special)—Mary Linda Rushing, one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Rushing of Seagraves, died in a Seminole hospital about 6:30 p. m. Tuesday after a short illness.

Funeral rites are pending contact with the child's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Guynes, who are believed to be between here and Knox City with a group of cotton pullers, Joe H. Webb Funeral home here said tonight. Webb said he had appealed for aid in locating the grandparents, who were driving a blue 1941 Ford sedan, with both Texas and New Mexico license plates, and a two-wheel trailer.

The child became ill at 7:30 a. m. Tuesday and died 11 hours later. Cause of death was reported as influenza-meningitis.

JAPS END HUNGER STRIKE

TOKYO, Sept. 29 (INS)—Several hundred Japanese ended a 72-hour hunger strike in Tokyo tonight. They left their gathering place near the Imperial palace where they had met to protest by fasting Russia's action in holding some half million Japanese prisoners of war more than three years after the end of hostilities.

Dewey Warns Reds

position for peace, but peace with honor," he said.

HST Plans New Trip

Giving himself only a three-day break in his campaigning, President Truman will set out again next Wednesday on a tour through the populous east.

A schedule including 29 stops in New York, Delaware, Pennsylvania and New Jersey, keeping him busy the rest of next week, was announced Wednesday. The Democratic nominee gets back to Washington this Saturday from his current 16-day western tour.

In less strenuous fashion, Gov Thomas E. Dewey was winding up a series of talks in Montana and pointing toward a major pronouncement on foreign policy tonight at Salt Lake City.

GOP Farm Policy Hit

The Republican candidate kept in touch with his advisers at Paris and was prepared to make any dlate revisions which world developments might make necessary. Dewey has declared this nation's unity behind our Paris delegation in the Berlin crisis. But he has been critical of competence of the present administration in foreign affairs.

Mr. Truman told an estimated 20,000 to 25,000 persons at McAlester, Okla., that the GOP is afraid to take an open stand on campaign issues but "I'm going to smoke 'em out."

He assailed Republicans on farm policy at Shawnee, Okla., asserting that GOP congressional leaders have a "to hell with the farmer attitude."

Warren Calls For Unity

He also said Senator Taft (R-Ohio), could have gotten the Taft-Ellender-Wagner long range housing bill passed "if he had wanted to."

Both Mr. Truman and Democratic National Chairman J. Howard McGrath predicted victory. "I believe the Democratic party has won the election," McGrath told Wyoming party leaders.

The major party vice presidential candidates hustled for votes in the east. Gov. Earl Warren, for the Republicans, moved to New Jersey after speeches in Connecticutt, Rhode Island and New York. At Hartford, Conn., Tuesday night he called for thrift in government and curbs on its spending.

At Providence, R. I., yesterday he said unity is what the American people need.

Senator Barkley, the Democratic nominee, was busy in Buffalo and Niagara Falls, N. Y. At Rochester, N. Y., Tuesday night he accused Dewey of embarrassing foreign relations at a time of delicate world talks. He said the Republican nominee had indicated favor of turning atomic energy development to private hands, and had advocated return of former Italian colonies to Italy.

Henry Wallace headed for Houston with his Progressive party appeal after saying at Dallas that "recurring war scares" are due to intention of American corporations to keep prices high.

American citizen, Denson said. He was a lecturer at Harvard and a practicing psychiatrist in New York City before World War I.

Katzenellenbogen was a prisoner himself in charge of the Buchenwald camp hospital. Denson said he was accused of sadism and was responsible for the death of a Frenchman.

2. Helmut Roscher, death sentence reduced to life imprisonment. Roscher was a so-called block leader in Buchenwald in charge of Dutch internees. Denson said he was convicted of killing inmates with brutal, inhuman treatment.

R. L. Taylor, 48, Injured In Flash Blaze At Mill

R. L. Taylor, 48, of 209 Thirtieth, who Wednesday morning was taken to West Texas hospital for treatment of burns suffered when he started to light a burner under a gas boiler at Plains Cooperative Oil mill, was reported by hospital attendants Wednesday night to be "resting very well."

He had first and second degree burns on his face and both hands and a burn on his ankle. He was not in serious condition, it was reported.

Taylor had lighted newspapers and thrust them into the burner. Gas apparently had escaped and flames flashed out.

Funeral Services Set Today For Wife Of Tech Professor

Funeral services are to be conducted at 4 p. m. today in Rix Fnueral home chapel for Mrs. Gertrude Sullivan Jones, 51, wife of Dr. P. T. Jones of the Texas Technological college faculty, who died at 12:30 p. m., Wednesday in St. Mary's hospital after a short illness.

Dr. J. Ralph Grant, pastor of First Baptist church, will officiate. Burial will follow in Tech Memorial Park cemetery under direction of Rix Funeral home.

Dr. and Mrs. Jones moved here recently from Boston. He began his duties this month as associate professor of chemistry at Texas Tech.

Survivors in addition to the husband include her mother, Mrs. Gertrude S. Sullivan of route 5, and two brothers, Frank Sullivan of Boston and Steve Sullivan of Washington.

Labor Unions Barred

ed letters ordering the United Electrical Workers and the CIO United Public Workers of America to stay out of the atomic installations.

In each case, he said, information is available concerning "alleged Communist affiliation or association" of certain union officers.

Viewed in connection with the failure of the labor organizations' officers to sign non-Communist affidavits under the Taft-Hartley act, he said, there is "a very serious question" whether the representation of atomic workers by such unions would be consistent with "that full and unqualified loyalty" to the interests of the United States required by the atomic energy act.

Operators Notified

The notification went out in letters from Lilienthal to Charles E. Wilson, president of the General Electric Co., and William B. Harrell, business manager of the University of Chicago. The company and the university each operate atomic plants under government contracts.

Lilienthal's letter to Wilson directed GE not to recognize the electrical workers union at the new Knolls II atomic power plant at Schenectady, N. Y.

At the University of Chicago's Argonne atomic project, Lilienthal wrote, the commission has been advised that a number of labor organizations, including the UPW, have been active in organizational work. As far as the UPW is concerned, he told the university to "continue to refrain from recognition."

Reds Claimed Dominant

In New York, Lawrence Kammet, publicity director for the UPW, said his union has not organized atomic energy workers "and we don't intend to."

In the same city, L. R. Boulware, GE vice president in charge of employe relations, complained that the commission's move was inadequate but said the company would "comply fully."

Both the United Public Workers and the United Electrical Workers have been under recent congressional scrutiny.

Yesterday, and again today, the House Labor subcommittee which is looking into the reported infiltration of Communists into labor organizations heard the electrical workers union described as the biggest Communist - dominated labor organization.

Justice Department Scored

James J. Conroy, who identified himself as a former Communist and former UE member, made the statement yesterday. It was repeated today by J. B. Mathews, former investigator for the House un-American Activities committee.

The subcommittee, headed by Rep. Kersten (R-Wis), is slated to hold hearings in Schenectady, N. Y., tomorrow.

The Justice department's announcement that it will not institute proceedings "to justify the publicity seekers" was made in a statement which accused the un-American Activities committee of "incompetence" and "political gymnastics."

The committee, in a progress report Tuesday, had criticized the Justice department for not prosecuting four persons the committee said had conspired to divulge atomic secrets to Russia.

The statement added that as soon as the department receives a transcript of the committee hearings, it will study them in detail.

toward Lubbock when officials called from Levelland early Wednesday, also will be questioned, it was indicated, into whether he stole an automobile in Levelland after abandoning his own.

The missing car was described as a dark green 1940 Ford coach with license AM 3446.

License number of the youth's abandoned car was traced to another Texas town, and officials indicated belief the suspect sought had given them a fictitious name.

Negro Returned Here

D. S. Spriggs, 27, an Amarillo negro who had been convicted of burglary in Potter county, was returned to Lubbock county jail from Lynn county, which assessed two years for burglary. He will face a burglary indictment here, officials said.

A red two-wheel push cart owned by the Coca-Cola Bottling Co., was stolen from the alley in 900-block Broadway, after cases of "empties" had been removed from it, it was reported by G. W. Brusnon of 2622 Twenty-third. It was valued at $18.

Trailer Just Borrowed

County court officials said Cecil Alton Trammel had pleaded guilty of a drunk driving charge recently filed and had been fined $50 and court costs.

Mrs. A. C. Webb told the sheriff's department that a two-wheel trailer said stolen three days ago, in a report of J. H. Webb of Lubbock route 4, had been found. It had not been stolen, but a friend had borrowed it, it was learned.

J. A. Hampton, 32, pleaded guilty of check law violation and was fined $1 and county court costs.

Mattie Wright, 42-year-old negro woman, was charged with "keeping a gambling house" and bond of $1,000 was set in the court of Justice of the Peace D. W. Robertson, binding the case over to grand jury investigation.

A verdict of not guilty was returned by a county court jury in the trial of Earl Marvin Howell, charged Sept. 22 with liquor law violation.

C. C. Burkholder, 2218 Sixteenth, reported to police that two chrome auto wheels valued at $7.50 each had been stolen from him.

A black 1940 Ford coach, license AN4844, was stolen from Tech campus sometime Wednesday, Woodrow Allen of dormitory No. 2 reported.

TEXAS ENROLLMENT DROPS

AUSTIN, Sept. 29 (AP)—A drop of 600 in the net fall term enrollment, compared with 1947, was expected today by University of Texas officials.

Rev. David L. Zacharias, pastor of Westminster Presbyterian church, will be in charge of a preparatory service at 8 p. m. tonight, and another at the same time Friday, prior to Sunday Communion. The services will be held at the church manse, located at Thirty-third street and Tyler Ave. Rev. Zacharias has asked that those whose names begin with A through K attend tonight's service, and those L through Z be present at the Friday night service.

Mrs. Thomas C. Jensen of Austin, state secretary of the Womens Christian Temperance union, met Wednesday afternoon with the executive board of the Nannie B. Curtis WCTU at the home of Mrs. C. M. Kaigler, local president, 1402 Ave. T. A business session, with Mrs. Jensen presiding, was the motive for the meeting. Announcement was made of the state WCTU convention at Corsicana on October 24, 25 and 26. Mrs. Jensen and a sister, Mrs. M. E. Routte, left Lubbock at 4 p. m. for Amarillo, where the former was scheduled to speak to another WCTU group last night.

Allies Appeal To UN

sary, it can call on U N members to supply armed forces for military operations against the offender.

Veto Appears Certain

Delegates agreed generally that the Russians would veto any decision against them, however. This would probably result in the western powers taking the case to the General Assembly.

The Russians were silent in Paris as the charges were circulated but in Moscow the weekly publication New Times said the appeal to the council would be unsuccessful. It charged Secretary Marshall and British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin with directing a campaign for the "further ignition of war hysteria."

A Soviet spokesman here said Russia will be present when the case is opened before the council. Jakob A. Malik, dputy minister for foreign affairs who is acting delegate to the council, will sit for Russia instead of Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky, the spokesman added.

Reds Create Threat

He said Malik is acting representative while Andrei A. Gromyko, the permanent delegate, is on vacation. This raised the possibility that Gromyko might come here later for the Berlin debate.

The notes from the three western powers wre identical. They said this conflicted with the rights of the British, French and Americans regarding the occupation of Germany, violated the U. N. charter and created a threat to peace.

The western powers added it is clear after their long exchange with the Russians that they have made every effort to settle the case among the disputants.

Then they repeated the summary of the note sent to Russia last Sunday telling the Kremlin that the case was headed for the Security council.

Illegal Measures Hit

In this section the western powers charged that Russia is attempting by illegal and coercive measures to secure political objectives to which it it not entitled and which it could not achieve by peaceful means.

"It (Russia) has resorted to blockade measures; it has threatened the Berlin population with starvation, disease and economic ruin; it has tolerated disorders and attempted to overthrow the duly elected municipal government of Berlin," the notes said.

"The attitude and conduct of the Soviet government reveal sharply its purpose to continue to reduce the status of the United States, the United Kingdom and France as occupying powers in Berlin to one of complete subordination to Soviet rule, and thus to obtain absolute authority over the economic, political and social life of the people of Berlin and to incorporate the city in the Soviet zone."

Early Consideration Asked

The three powers repeated the declaration that Russia has the sole responsibility for creating the threat to international peace and security.

They asked the council to consider the issue "at the earliest opportunity." There had been reports that the three govenments would put an "urgent" tag on the case demanding immediate action, but an authoritative source said it did not wish to put pressure on the council.

Sir Alexander Cadogan of Britain, who signed his government's note as permanent delegate to the U. N. is council President until tomorrow night.

Informed sources said the U. S. would stand aside from the chairmanship when the Berlin issue comes up. This would leave the post for the Argentine delegate, Dr. Jose Arce.

Defense Plans Laid

reaction to presentation of the Berlin problem to the UN.

The decision as to the extent of the increase in fighter strength was left up to the defense chiefs.

Military Aid Seen

There were reports that some British fighter squadrons already have left the United Kingdom for advance German bases.

American reinforcements are expected to be flown to Germany from bases in the United States.

Informed sources said that the agreement reached by defense chiefs of the western union for protection against Russia is expected to pave the way for American military aid to the union.

It was said this aid would not take the form of American entry into the military alliance, but rather of financial and other assistance.

Florida Flood Danger Grows

MIAMI, Fla., Sept. 29 (INS)—Scattered showers in southern Florida today increased the flood danger in the Everglades and farm regions around Lake Okeechobee.

The rains were lighter than those of the past week, however, and engineers hoped the high water would stay at a controllable level.

Although waters have receded in some sections, large areas of the southern part of the state are still inundated and the flood threat is considered a direct menace to south Florida's big farming, cattle and sugar cane industries.

Water Covers Big Area

The latest reports show that the flood, which was started by the hurricane, now spreads out over a region about 200 miles long and 50 miles wide in the heart of the southern peninsula.

In most places the water is not as deep as it was in the 1947 flood disaster, which affected 15,000 square miles.

Army engineers and officials of the Everglades drainage district said that a slackening in rainfall the next few days may avert widespread losses from the floods.

Conner's highway, linking West Palm Beach and the farmlands, remained partly under water today and was closed to traffic.

Vote Probe Halted

order at 2:35 p. m. and then spent an hour restoring the county ballot boxes to local officials.

Stevenson left Alice within an hour after the hearing ended, indicating he was going to Austin.

Coke To Continue Fight

With the assistance of Gail Hine, Alice locksmith, the special master had opened all of the county's boxes but had not located, at the conclusion of the hearing, the poll lists, tally sheets and other documents from controversial precinct 13.

It was this precinct which led Stevenson to seek the injunction and ask that he be named the senatorial nominee after the case had been heard on its merits.

Stevenson, who had watched the proceedings while surrounded by a battery of attorneys, had little comment.

"We will continue with everything possible," he said. "I don't care to make a statement until we know the actual status of the situation."

Probe Still Sought

Meanwhile, one local resident said efforts will be continued to have the election investigated. Charles Wesley Price, Alice oil company employe and a witness at the hearing, said "we are not giving up."

He said termination of the investigation means increased efforts to ask U. S. Atty. Gen. Tom Clark, the U. S. Senate and the Federal Bureau of Investigation to make an inquiry.

"We want this gone into thoroughly," Price said. "It is not a fight against Lyndon Johnson but a fight against a local political machine." He added that it is a fight "we feel not only should have the backing of the people of Jim Wells county but also the people of Texas."

Petitions asking the three federal agencies to investigate have been in circulation here about two weeks.

Poll Lists Missing

Only two witnesses were heard today.

Luis Salas, precinct 13 election judge, denied he had told the Alice News on the night of the election that Johnson, on the basis of final and complete returns, had received 765 votes to Stevenson's 60 in the precinct.

Price said he had heard Salas give these figures to the News shortly after the polls closed.

Stevenson earlier had said the final returns gave Johnson 965 to 61 for himself.

Salas yesterday identified two boxes which he said had been used in precinct 13.

The first box opened contained a marked ballot cast in the precinct but the three sets of poll lists and tally sheets were missing.

The second box identified proved to be from precinct 6.

Salas said marked ballots and one set of documents had been placed in one box and one set of documents addressed to former county Democratic chairman Clarence Martens placed in the other.

The third copy of the papers was held by Salas.

Zapata Returns Gone

The precinct judge yesterday said he had acquired a marked copy of the poll list to check against his own list but that both copies were stolen from his automobile several days after the election.

The only precinct 13 material found during the two-day investigation here were the marked ballots and a typed list of poll tax receipts as issued for the precinct.

In Zapata, Mrs. Josefa M. Gutierrez, chairman of the Zapata county Democratic executive committee, testified that returns from one of the county's four precincts were missing. She said she had placed the precinct 13 returns on the desk of County Judge M. B. Bravo after the vote was canvassed Sept. 2 and hadn't been able to find it since. The canvass of votes in precinct 13 had given Stevenson 40 less votes than the previous unofficial Texas election bureau returns had given him.

J. M. Burnett presided at hearings in Duval county Tuesday and Zapata county Wednesday.

The vote investigations were called off because Justice Black's ruling found the federal district court without jurisdiction in the case.

Congratulations

Crowds Jam Circus

ing in this country for the first time, were colorful "extra" spectacles, including the holiday extravaganza, "'Twas The Night Before Christmas," the 60-girl mid-air show, "The Monte Carlo Aerial Ballet," a touch of the old South in "Dixie," and "The Circus Ball," along with high-hatted dancing elephants.

Costuming in the show would do justice to any play on Broadway—the performers were clean-cut, their dress was neat, the music was good, and everything went off without a noticeable bobble.

Highlights of the two performances easily were:

Unus, the upside-down, gravity defying equilibristic wonder who has amazed audiences from New York's Madison Square garden across the continent and half way back again. Unus, who joined the circus from Europe, is a small man who, as mentioned, balanced himself on one finger, then made a complete turn of his body while balanced in that manner. He equalled this feat a few minutes later by balancing himself on another globe on his walking cane while twirling juggler's discs.

Juggler Makes Hit

The Alzanas, high wire daredevils, also thrilled the crowd with a display of balance and skill which brought a hush to the huge crowd.

Francis Brunn, hailed by the show MC as the "greatest juggler of all times," lived up to his reputation as far as most people were concerned. Brunn, another European importation, did things with a ball that would have turned a seal green with jealousy.

Also making a hit were the Italian Zoeppes, bareback riding experts, with Cucciola, midget clown; Alberty, who performed atop a lofty swaying reed; the Mandos Sisters, novel aerial performers; Rose Gould, aerial star; the Flying Behees, mid-air somersaulters; Claude de Valois and Jose Moeser and their performing horses, and numerous others.

Topping this off was the usual menagerie features with Gargantua the Great and Toto and along with the largest travelling zoo.

The circus loaded late last night with the same smooth efficiency with which it arrived in Lubbock Wednesday morning and left for Amarillo where another two performances will be presented today.

U. S. Planes Buzzed

will protect the youths who escaped. Some volunteered to work in the Ruhr coal mines, the others will stay with Berlin relatives.

The German news agency Dena reported without confirmation that the Communists will set up a "rump city assembly" tomorrow at a city hall meeting in the Soviet sector.

Communist mob action aided by the Russians recently forced the freely-elected assembly to flee to the western sctor.

An investigating committee of the Berlin city assembly voted to oust Waldemar Schmidt, Communist labor chief, because he refused to recognize the anti-Communist Ugo labor group.

Schmidt had termed the group "a tool of American monopolistic capitalism."

Schmidt refused to appear before the committee. Instead he held a news conference and warned barbed-wire barricades soon will be erected along the East-West sector boundaries. Asked which side would erect them Schmidt said cryptically, "The side which wants isolation."

Johnson Certified

tempting to prevent certification of Johnson.

John Cofer, a Johnson attorney, who filed the mandamus motion last night, said the case would be pressed because "we want the state Supreme court to retain jurisdiction" even if the matter was moot in respect to the secretary of state.

Cofer also said the action of Davidson in calling off federal investigations into alleged vote frauds in South Texas counties would have no effect on the mandamus effort.

To Hear Motion Today

The Supreme court will hear the motion for leave to file the mandamus at 9 a. m. It must grant permission for filing the petition before it can act on the mandamus and the requested order restraining Stevenson from further efforts to block Johnson's certification.

Mallory said the telegraphed certification to county election boards would be followed by a letter confirming the certification. Oct. 3 is the deadline set by law for secretary of state to have election supplies in the hands of county judges. County election boards are made up of the county judge, the county clerk and the sheriff.

Sample ballots, with the space for the Democratic nominee for U. S. senator blank, were mailed by the secretary of state's office Tuesday. Mallory said then he would take no action on certification of Johnson until formally notified of Justice Black's order lifting the restraining order.

This was received at 11:53 a.m. from Charles Elmore Cropley, clerk of the U. S. Supreme court. Mallory—acting secretary of state in Brown's absence—telephoned Judge Davidson, who told him the restraining order was no longer in effect. The telegraphed certification followed.

Eggs Are Thrown

speak, he was interrupted by booing and loud cries of "go back to Russia."

The scene was reminiscent of Wallace's recent tour through the southeast when he was splattered by eggs and fruit several times.

The sailor who showed this reporter an identification card, said he was from Kulpmont, Penn., and had been in Houston about two weeks. He said he was a member of the CIO National Maritime union and was planning to ship out on the first vessel leaving Houston.

Police filed no charges. About 75 officers guarded the hall.

Negro Singer Cheered

As the crowd awaited the arrival of the Progressive party's presidential candidate, it cheered lustily for Paul Robeson, negro singer, as he sang several songs and made a speech in which he shouted:

"I will challenge and fight fascism, whatever kind it may happen to be."

Wallace in his speech attacked racial segregation.

The candidate also reopened his ancient feud with Houston's Jesse Jones.

He also renewed his demand for an unofficial fact-finding commission of citizens to investigate "war scares," saying he is not convinced the United Nations has the necessary facts to get to the bottom of the present Berlin crisis.

In his speech Wallace recalled that he "used to tangle pretty often" with Jesse Jones, Houston business and financial leader, when Wallace was vice president and Jones was secretary of commerce.

Wallace said he resented, and still resents, the fact that Jones told President Roosevelt in 1945 that he was an impractical dreamer, inexperienced in business.

"I am a business man," Wallace said. "I am the only business man running for the presidency."

He said "they tell me Jesse is a Republican now." (Jones' newspaper, the Houston Chronicle, recently came out for Thomas E. Dewey.) Then Wallace took occasion to say there is no difference between the Democratic and Republican parties anyhow.

Funeral Services To Be Held In Matador For Wreck Victim

MATADOR, Sept. 29 (Special)—Funeral services will be held at 3:30 p. m. Thursday in the Matador Methodist church for Norman R. Martin, 34, of Flomot, who was killed in an automobile-pickup truck collision at a rural road intersection near Lockney Tuesday afternoon.

Rev. C. W. Parmenter and Rev. Bob Jameson will officiate. Interment will be in Matador cemetery. McDonald Funeral home is in charge of services.

WALLACE ALSO IS BLASTED

Royall Says War Not Immediate Danger If U. S. Remains Strong

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 29 (INS)—Army Secretary Kenneth C. Royall declared tonight that he does not forsee war in the near future "if we remain strong and prepared."

However, he warned in a St. Louis speech before the National Guard association:

"We must realize that the determination of war is not in our hands but in the hands of a few despotic and powerful men. They may, or may not be representative of their nations. And it is the timing only, and not the ultimate purpose of these men that is uncertain."

Takes Blast At Wallace

Royall accused Henry Wallace of impeding progress toward settlement of the Berlin crisis. Without naming the former vice president, he declared:

"There can be no doubt in the minds of any reasonable man the preachments of one of the candidates for the presidency have strengthened the hands and wills of our enemies and has added to the difficulties in Berlin and elsewhere."

The secretary said the decision of the State department and President Truman—"often made after consultation with representatives of both great political parties"—have been "wise and courageous."

Royall expressed the opinion that "these high officials have performed a truly remarkable task in averting war for ourselves and others . . . without sacrificing rights or principles."

Strong Defense Urged

He pointed out how the Russians have captured many formerly independent, democratic nations of Europe and are now trying to force the Western Allies out of Berlin. He compared the Communist heirarchy to "an international shyster lawyer" for its lack of sincerity, recognition of obligations and truthfulness.

Royall reviewed the work of the U. S. occupation forces and said that in addition to these, the Army needs a strong national military establishment for defense, both outside the continental borders and at home.

He said the Soviet today are maintaining more than four million men under arms "for future purpose other than defense."

In contrast, he added, the American army is to be built around 900,000 regulars, a figure which will be reached by next June.

He said this proposed regular army, even when supplemented by the presently foreseeable National Guard and organized reserve, is "not a guarantee of full protection" and "we are taking a calculated risk, for wise financial and economic reasons."

Widely Known Houston Oilman Dies At Jacksonville, Fla.

HOUSTON, Sept. 29 (AP) — Robert Cullem Briggs, 85, widely-known Houston oilman whose oil interests dated back to Spindletop days, died last night in Jacksonville, Fla.

He also was a civic leader, attorney and a church leader.

Briggs died at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Marion Keith Ford.

Most of his active life was spent in Houston and on the Gulf coast, where he traded in land and oil. He was founder of the Taylor-Dayton Oil Co., now dissolved.

Besides Mrs. Ford, Briggs is survived by two sons, Robert Curtis Briggs of Houston and Judge Cullen Wright Briggs of Corpus Christi.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 3:30 p.m. in Austin.

Famed Pacific Liner Used As Transport Changes Registry

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29. (AP)—The famed Pacific liner Matsonia, which carried thousands of fighting men overseas during World War II, will no longer fly the American flag, the Wartime commission disclosed today.

It said it has approved a request to transfer the 17,000 ton ship from United States to Panamanian registry. The request was made by the Matson Navigation company of San Francisco, the commission stated, so that the prewar luxury liner could be sold to the Panamanian Lines, Inc.

A spokesman for the commission said approval of the transfer of registry was based on agreement with the Panama company that the U. S. could have the use of the large passenger-cargo vessel in case of national emergency.

He said it was the commission's understanding that final details of the transaction between Matson and the Panamanian lines had not been completed.

Any further information such as the price for the ship, the spokesman said, would come from the steamship lines.

Railroad Commission Plans Several Hearings In October

AUSTIN, Sept. 29. (AP)—The Railroad commission today announced the following hearings:

Oct. 13, application of Allen Guiberson for discovery allowable, new field designation and field rules for his Jack Lassiter well No. 1, Arledge field, Cooke county.

Oct. 13, application of the Magnolia Petroleum Co. for discovery allowable and new field designation for its H. B. Barrera well No. 2, La Gloria field, Brooks and Jim Wells counties.

Oct. 20, application of the Delta Drilling Co. for adoption of special field rules applying to the Bacon Gas zone, Winnsboro field, Wood county.

Oct. 21, application of J. C. Hawkins for dual completion and discovery allowable rights for his Hooks et al well No. 3, New Batson field, Hardin county.

Oct. 21, application of Smith and Donkin for discovery allowable and new field designation for their J. C. Allen well No. 1, Magnet Withers field, Wharton county.

Midget Auto Driver Killed When Racer Rams Into Tree

OLKAHOMA CITY, Sept. 29 (U.P.)—Death struck down a midget auto racer here yesterday shortly before President Truman arrived to address almost 20,000 persons gathered around the racetrack.

George Dinnie, Kansas City, Mo., was killed when he crashed his midget auto into a tree rather than ram a fence lined with men, women and children waiting to hear the President's speech.

Binnie was making his first appearance at the Oklahoma fair. Last week he was top money winner at the Kansas Free fair at Hutchinson.

Student And General Admission Tickets For Little Theater Play Monday Night Go On Sale

Student tickets and general admission tickets for "You Can't Take It With You," to be presented at 8 p. m. Monday in Senior High school auditorium by Lubbock Little Theater, went on sale Wednesday.

Already on sale were season tickets for the four productions to be presented this season by the Little Theater and reserved seat tickets for Monday night's play.

"Better seats are going rapidly," said G. V. Pardue, jr., member of the board of directors of the Little Theater. He described ticket sales as "very satisfactory."

Good Seats Available

Many seats remain, but those wishing to choose where they will sit were urged to get tickets early.

Tickets are on sale at Wylie's Drug store, Musson's Studio in Green Acres and Bray's Cleaners in Park Place. Prices are $5 for season tickets for reserved seats; $1.80 for reserved seat for the one play; 60 cents for student tickets, and $1.20 for general admission.

Student tickets are available to public school and Texas Technological college students.

Approximately 35 persons have become patrons giving a minimum of $25 in order to foster the Little Theater movement. They received two season reserved tickets.

HAS DANCER'S ROLE—Mrs. John Robert Moxley, above, who has appeared in numerous productions in Lubbock, will have the role of Essie, the dancer, in "You Can't Take It With You." She has been active in the Little Theater organization since its formation and had the romantic lead in last spring's first production of the group, "The Man Who Came to Dinner." She is a member of the Little Theater board of directors.

Cutback In Reclamation Bureau Personnel Ordered By Official

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29. (AP)—Reclamation Commissioner Michael W. Straus said today the reclamation bureau is discharging 2,882 of its 18,000 employes in the West to comply with a Congressional limitation on funds for salaries.

The firing of 2,882, he said, will save an estimated $5,893,200 during the remainder of the year ending next July 1.

This brings bureau operations within one percent of the $48,000,000 limitation placed on personal services in the 1949 Interior department appropriation act, Straus told a news conference.

The commissioner said it is anticipated that normal resignations will make up the one percent "without further brutal firings."

However, he added, another budgetary study will be made January 1 to determine whether additional cuts are required.

Straus listed the following breakdown of the number of employes dismissed or in the process of being dismissed in the various regional offices: Region 5, Amarillo, 99.

Three Questioned In Colorado Red Probe

DENVER, Sept. 29. (INS)—Three key witnesses testified before the federal grand jury investigating Communism as sessions were resumed in Denver today.

Appearing before the jury were Arthur Bary, Communist party chairman for Colorado; Paul Kleinbord, former party worker; and Tracy Rogers, former state party secretary.

All three were cited for contempt of court last week on charges they had refused to answer questions put to them by the grand jury.

Federal Judge J. Foster Symes delayed sentencing on the contempt citation, after a court hearing. It was made plain in that further refusal to cooperate with the grand jury at today's session would lead to new contempt charges.

Conducting the questioning today was assistant U. S. Attorney Edward V. Nevans, jr. Max H. Goldscheim, special assistant to the attorney general, participated in sessions last week before returning to Washington to confer with Justice department officials.

Goldscheim was expected to return to Denver next week when the case is re-opened.

Bary remained in the jury room three-quarters of an hour, Kleinbord about 35 minutes and Rogers' stay was shorter. All proceedings of the grand jury are secret, but Bary last week promised Judge Symes he would provide all requested information on Communist activities in Colorado "to the best of his knowledge."

The grand jury will hear evidence in other cases beginning tomorrow.

New Farm Price Drop Reported

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29. (INS)—The Department of Agriculture reported another one per cent decline in farm prices today. It said the support price for this year's huge corn crop will be $1.44 a bushel.

The price drop was the second consecutive monthly decline, and brought the index for all farm commodities to 290, or nine per cent below a year ago.

At the same time, the department reported, prices of things the farmer buys remained virtually the same.

Prices On Downward Trend

The support price for corn was based on a parity price of $1.60 a bushel, determined on the basis of market prices Sept. 15. The law fixes the price support level at 90 per cent of parity.

Prices for livestock and livestock products were still nine per cent above a year ago on Sept. 15, but they showed a downward trend along with grains and cotton seed, the department stated.

Hay, milk, hogs, eggs and cotton showed slight increases, but the reporter noted that a number of these commodities were already below the level of a year ago.

Experts at the department estimated that total farm income this year may be within one per cent of last year.

Decision Expected This Week On Brown Election Contest

EASTLAND, Sept. 29. (AP)—A decision on a contest of the county judge's race in Brown county is expected before Saturday, two appeals judges who heard the case here today announced.

The contest was brought by the incumbent, A. E. Wilson. He claimed election irregularities. District Judge R. B. Cross at Gatesville ordered six ballot boxes thrown out. This gave Wilson a victory.

His opponent, F. A. Loudermilk, who was the winner until the boxes were thrown out, appealed to the 11th court of civil appeals here.

Arguments today were on technicalities, particularly as to whether Judge Cross had the authority to throw out the six boxes.

Hearing the case were Chief Justice Clyde Grissom and Associate Justice Milton Long. The case was completed about noon.

Although it was not an issue here, Judge Cross' action could affect the senatorial race between Lyndon Johnson and Coke Stevenson. Indications are that Johnson could gain 466 votes if the appeals court upholds the district court and if Johnson wishes to press the issue.

Court Orders Picketing Of Motor Freight Line Halted

DALLAS, Sept. 29. (AP)—AFL General Drivers, Warehousemen and Helpers local 745 has been ordered for the second time in ten days to stop picketing the offices of the two-week-old Fast Motor Freight, Inc., in Dallas and Tyler.

District Judge W. L. Thornton yesterday ordered again that the picketing be stopped and in a temporary injunction ordered Southern Express company and 15 other trucking firms to resume their contractual agreements with Fast Motor.

The injunction extended indefinitely a restraining order the judge granted Sept. 15, three days after Fast Motor began operations.

Judge Thornton ruled that the union was guilty of secondary boycott by refusing to handle Fast Motor's merchandise.

The judge refuted defense attorneys' arguments that a labor dispute existed between the union and Fast Motor.

GOP Candidate Opens Campaign For Senate

WEATHERFORD, Sept. 29. (UP)—H. J. Porter, Houston oilman and Republican U. S. senatorial nominee, called today for a two-party government in Texas in order to give the people of this state influence in national affairs.

Speaking before some 350 persons, the oilman said he would oppose any weakening of provisions of the Taft-Hartley act and said he believed in the right of workers to organize for collective bargaining purposes with labor officials freely chosen and of unquestioned patriotism.

Fire Interrupts Talk

A fire at the Sinclair Oil refinery warehouse, which called out all the fire-fighting equipment interfered with his talk, which was carried by a state-wide radio network.

Porter said he would oppose, if elected:

Enactment by Congress of any civil rights program; enactment of a law creating a national Federal Employment Practices commission; and confiscation of tidelands of the State of Texas.

He said he favored decentralization of the federal government and reduction of government costs; support of the House Un-American Activities committee and a strong nation, militarily, economically and spiritually.

He was introduced by Mayor Willard Sadler and escorted into the city by a mile-long motorcade.

New Study Set At Cotton Meet

The question of how rapidly cotton production in the United States is being mechanized is expected to be at least partially answered during the second annual Beltwide Cotton Mechanization conference, to be held here Oct. 14-16, according to an announcement from the Memphis office of the National Cotton council, primary sponsor of the conference.

Council officials, in close touch with the cotton research and production situation, estimate that approximately five per cent, or one-twentieth of the anticipated bumper crop of the year will be produced mechanically from planting to harvesting.

Partial Mechanization Noted

This, however, is only a part of the mechanization picture, council officials hastened to add, because millions of additional bales will be produced this year under conditions of partial mechanization.

The council, looking to further and more rapid advances, anticipates that the conference here, which will bring many of the nation's industrial leaders and agricultural specialists, will reveal a great deal of previously unannounced progress in lifting the production burden from human hands to machinery.

"On the basis of production of harvesting equipment during the year, we estimate that about five per cent of the crop will be gathered by the spindle type picker or by ripper type harvesters," a cotton council spokesman said.

"It is impossible to estimate accurately the portion of the crop which was tractor planted and cultivated, but undoubtedly greater acreages were tilled by machine this year than ever before."

Tractors To Increase

Semi-official estimates reveal that from 1945 to 1948, the number of farm tractors in the eleven cotton producing states increased from 420,000 to 589,000, an increase of forty per cent in the past three years. Census figures show that tractors on cotton farms increased from 29,000 to 420,000 in 1945. At present, there is approximately one tractor for every three farms.

Number of tractors likely will increase on small farms as well as on large operations, the council believed. The small farmer

NEW VICE-PRESIDENT SPEAKS

Students Told They Can Make Texas Tech Leading College

By COTTON FANNING
Avalanche Staff Writer

Approximately 2,000 students of Texas Technological college heard three speakers discuss school spirit, friendliness on the campus and participation in campus activities Wednesday morning when the first convocation of the year was held in the gymnasium.

Speaking were Dr. E. N. Jones, vice-president, who was appearing before the student body for the first time; Clint Formby, senior from McAdoo and president of the Student Council, and Curtis Sterling, senior from Snyder and president of Saddle Tramps.

Students Hold Key

Dr. Jones, who assumed duties at the college Sept. 1, referred to himself as "just another freshman" as he expressed his belief that Texas Technological college has potentialities of becoming one of the leading colleges in Texas and the nation.

"The student body at this school can do more to advance Tech than the administrative or any other faction of the college, and it is the things that the student carries home with him that will put Tech over and carry the gospel of Tech into the business world," he said, going on to emphasize the importance of making every new student and visitor to the campus feel as if he were among friends.

Dr. Jones said that he felt sure that he was speaking for Dr. D. M. Wiggins, president, as well as for the rest of the administrators of the college in saying:

"The purpose of the administration on this campus is to work with the student body ever and always for the furtherance of the institution and the welfare of the students."

Co-Operation Is Urged

Dr. Wiggins was absent due to a previous speaking engagment in Dallas.

Formby, speaking as president of the Student Council, sought to impress on the students' minds that the Student Council was a student organization, and that without the co-operation, suggestions and complaints of the students individually, it would be impossible for the organization to serve the students to the greatest degree of satisfaction.

Formby then introduced the two new girl cheer leaders, Glena Winston and Daina McElroy, both of whom are Journalism students from Brownfield, and the student council officers for the year, George Wilmouth of Claude, vice-president, Bill Reid of Goodnight, business manager, and Margaret Clark of Van Horn, secretary.

Class Officials Named

Sterling, who was a freshman at Tech in the pre-war years, told the group that there was more school spirit on the campus than there had been since 1943 and attributed the jump in enthusiasm largely to the large group of freshmen enrolled this year.

Convocation was closed with the Texas Tech band playing the Matador song, after which the students were divided by classes and sent to separate gathering places for the primary election of the years class officers. This election will be supplemented by a run-off to be held later, except in cases where a student receives a majority of the class votes or is unopposed for office. These ar-

Two Girls Get 'Water Follies' Roles Through Swimming Skill

By ROGER SOUTHALL
Avalanche Staff Writer

Margery Luty and Sallie "Rusty" Evans of Needham, Mass. both aquabelles in the "Water Follies of 1948," currently playing at the Panhandle-South Plains fair, manifest the well-known fact that one does best what he does with experience.

Both love to swim, and have been swimming since they were three years of age. Both come from families with whom swimming is second nature. And both are from the sea coast of Massachusetts, where swimming is a routine part of life.

Both Were Students

Hence, with swimming an inherent part of their lives, it's not hard to realize why Misses Luty and Evans would be a part of the colorful, precision - trained "Water Follies." As compared to some of the other performers, however, they are little more than rank amateurs in the Follies, however skilled they may be in swimming.

Last year the girls were students at the Massachusetts School of Art in Boston. A friend of Sallie's told her about the Follies, and she in turn told her friend Margery. Neither, however, gave the matter serious thought at the time.

This past spring, they made inquiries into the matter, and decided to apply for parts in the 1948 show, which then was in the midst of preliminary rehearsals. They were interviewed by Sam Snyder, owner of the show, and a short time later, with other contestants, took a series of rigid swimming tests, which included rhythm swimming, as well as swimming a number of different lengths and with various strokes.

Rehearsals Began In March

They were accepted to the cast, and began rehearsals in Boston in mid March. The show opened a month and a half later—on May 1—in Salt Lake City.

The show's itinerary from there included St. Jo, Mo., Norfolk, Va., Nashville and Knoxville, Tenn., Tulsa, Oklahoma City, Toledo, Ohio, Reading, Pa., and Westboro and New Bedford, Mass., in that order.

Then the troupe came to San Angelo, and from there to Lubbock. They will go from here to Columbus, Ohio, and from there to other points in the United States. The Follies will play several engagements in Cuba in February.

The performers travel in a private train coach, with a baggage car for their equipment. Travelling expenses are furnished by

TB Patch Tests To Get Underway In Lubbock Schools On Monday

Tuberculosis patch testing will open Monday in Lubbock public schools and a meeting of health chairmen of all Parent-Teacher association units for purpose of making plans is to be conducted at 9:30 o'clock Friday morning at the Lubbock County Tuberculosis association office, 1003 1-2 Sixteenth.

Mrs. Ralph Bedford, health chairman of the Parent-Teacher council, which is co-operating with the Tuberculosis association in giving tests, said Mrs. Roy Sanford, registered nurse with the Tuberculosis association, would give information on the tests at the meeting.

Permission To Be Sought

Parents' permission sheets already have been distributed in Lubbock public schools, for students to take home to parents. They are to be returned to schools Friday. Explanation on the sheets state that the tests will be given to those whose parents give permission and that the test is harmless, indicating whether or not a person is infected with tuberculosis, but not showing whether or not the disease is active. If a student's reaction to the test is positive, an x-ray examination would be necessary to determine extent of the infection.

Patch tests will be given without charge. Parents will be advised of results.

The Parent-Teacher council cooperates with the Tuberculosis association in giving tests. The health chairman of the unit in each school will be responsible for tests in each school. Patches will be applied Monday. They are to be removed Wednesday. Doctors will cooperate by reading results Friday, October 8. Approximately 3,000 students are expected to receive the tests, said Mrs. Bedford.

All teachers, janitors and cafeteria workers will be asked to take the tests, she said.

WATER USAGE

More than twice as much water is used per capita in cities where water is not metered as in cities where it is metered, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Galveston Pickets Seek To Halt Work On Two West Coast Ships

GALVESTON, Sept. 29 (AP) — The Galveston Metal Trades council today pondered action to be taken on a picket line aimed at just two ships in the Todd Galveston dry docks.

The picket line was thrown up at 3 p. m. Tuesday by the Marine Firemen, Oilers, Watertenders and Wipers, an independent union, and the Marine Cooks and Stewards, a CIO affiliate, in protest against work on the Joe E. Brown and the James E. Weaver, both owned by Pacific coast operators.

Work continued on the process of recommissioning the two ships yesterday, but two meetings were scheduled today by members of the boilermakers union to discuss the situation.

Although the pickets were aimed at stopping work only on the west coast ships, other workers refused to cross the lines.

District Chairmen Named Over State

AUSTIN, Sept. 29 (AP)—Chairman Tom Miller of the Texas Turman-Barkley club today announced appointment of six senatorial district club chairmen.

Members of the state Democratic executive committee in each senatorial district will be honorary co-chairmen of the club in that district. They will organize a Truman-Barkley club in each county in their senatorial district.

The clubs will enlist Democrats as members, with a $1 contribution entitling a Democrat to membership in the club.

District Truman-Barkley chairmen and honorary co-chairmen designated today by Miller:

Dallas district: Former Mayor George Sergeant, chairman; Dick Hatfield and Mrs. W. S. Bramlett, co-chairmen.

Fort Worth district: Executive committeeman Jack Carter, chairman, Mrs. J. W. Douglas, co-chairman.

Amarillo district: Executive committeeman Charlie C. Gibson, chairman; Mrs. Willie O'Neal of Panhandle, co-chairman.

Waco district: Caso March of Waco, chairman; Dr. W. L. Crosthwaite of Waco and Mrs. N. E. Alford of Rockdale, co-chairmen.

Houston district: Executive committeeman Arthur Combs, chairman; Mrs. E. Edwin Smith, co-chairman.

South Texas district: Jimmie Kazen of Laredo, chairman; E. G. Lloyd of Alice and Mrs. E. A. McDaniel of McAllen, co-chairmen.

Mitchum, Two Others Plead Innocent To Drug Charges

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 29. (AP)—Robert Mitchum and two of his co-dependants pleaded innocent today to narcotics charges after his attorney failed in an attempt to have the indictment dismissed on a legal technicality.

Jerry Giesler, noted criminal lawyer representing Mitchum, asked dismissal with the argument that a portion of the indictment is not in the English language and is therefore unconstitutional.

He referred to the section which charged the defendants with possession and conspiracy to possess "flowering tops and leaves of Indian hemp (cannabis sativa)."

Mitchum, 31, acress Lila Leeds, 20, dancer Vicki Evans, 25, and Robin Ford, 31, real estate man, are charged with possessing a drug weed popularly known as marijuana.

The four were arrested shortly after midnight last Sept. 1, at a secluded cottage in Laurel Canyon, north of Hollywood.

Mitchum, well-groomed and wearing a blue sports coat and slacks, spoke a clear "not guilty" after his lawyer's arguments failed. Ford and the blonde Miss Leeds also pleaded innocent. Trial for the three was set for Nov. 22.

U. S. Oilmen Tell Of Harrowing Experience Behind Iron Curtain

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
INS Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Sept. 29. — Two American oil men returned to the United States by plane today and told first hand of their harrowing experience behind the "iron curtain."

For one week Paul Ruedemann, of Hartsdale, N. Y., and his deputy, George A. Bannantine of St. Louis, Mo., were imprisoned in a Hungarian dungeon, grilled mercilessly by Hungarian police and finally compelled to sign false "confession" that they were guilty of industrial sabotage.

Ruedemann and Bannantine then were expelled on one-hour notice from Communist-controlled Hungary. At La Guardia field, both men emphasized that all the charges against them were spurious and trumped up.

Ruedemann admitted to newsmen that his experience was quite an unexpected ordeal. Bannantine characterized the experience as "humiliating" because they had to sign documents they knew were false.

Ruedemann, 56, is president of MAORT, the Hungarian oil producing affiliate of Standard Oil company (New Jersey) and Bannantine, 51, is a director of MAORT and producing adviser to Ruedemann.

The two American oil men were arrested Sept. 18 on charges of slowing down Hungarian oil production by sabotaging their own firm.

"This charge was ridiculous," said Ruedemann.

Ruedemann told reporters that the Hungarian police gave them a thorough going over, that they were subjected "to a combination of mental and physical torture."

"I was put in a solitary dungeon," Ruedemann related. "George was put elsewhere and we were not allowed to communicate with each other, or to contact any Americans.

"It was cold down there. They grilled us relentlessly. I was questioned for 15 hours at one stretch, after having had no food the day before. I had to sleep on a wooden platform.

"Once I was forced to face the wall and hold my hands above my head. This I did until finally I keeled over. George had a similar experience.

"During the first three or four days in prison we got about four meals altogether.

"The Hungarian police confronted us with documents—statements made by half a dozen of our firm's Hungarian employes. These statements admitted sabotage and the men who made them were under arrest.

"They wanted us to concur in these false statements.

"We denied everything until the fourth day. Finally, I came to my senses. I decided it would make no difference what we said.

"I allowed them to write my 'confession.' I signed it. They had rejected several I had written myself."

Ruedemann praised the work of the American legation in getting him out of prison. He said when the Hungarian police told them to leave they were given only an hour to pack up.

"We were ordered over the frontier into Austria at the point of a gun," he asserted.

Ruedemann left for his home in Hartsdale, N. Y., for a rest and then will report to his company Bannantine plans to fly to his home in St. Louis tomorrow.

Jap Cabinet Threatened By Scandal Involving Member

TOKYO, Sept. 29 (INS) — The Japanese cabinet was threatened tonight with a scandal involving one of its members that could cause the cabinet's fall.

The ministers discussed in extraordinary session the possibility that Minister of State Takeo Kurusu may be arrested as the result of an investigation of a govment fertilizer loan deal.

Reliable American sources reported he may be arrested within 24 hours.

Kurusu was finance minister when the Showa Denka fertilizer company was awarded the major portion of a reconstruction finance bank loan of nearly three billion yen.

General Toshie Suzuki, Japanese equivalent of the attorney general, said he plans to investigate loans totaling 80 billion yen made by the government-owned bank.

Amarilloan Namd To To Liquor Board

AUSTIN, Sept. 29. (AP)—Gov. Beauford H. Jester today announced the resignation of Texas Liquor Control board chairman Fred H. Minor of Denton.

G. H. (Jack) Little of Amarillo was named by the governor to replace Minor as a member of the board. No new chairman was immediately designated. Summers A. Norman of Rusk and Leonard B. Brown of Kerrville are the other members.

Jester said Minor told him the pressure of private business left him no time to serve the board.

Little's appointment to Minor's unexpired term ends Nov. 15, 1949. An attorney, Little served as representative in five legislatures, the 45th through 49th.

Denver, Vet Setup Accused Of Illegal Surplus Sales

DENVER, Sept. 29 (INS)—The city of Denver and the Buckley field veterans village were accused of illegally selling $29,000 worth of government property today.

The charge grew out of the sale of barracks, plumbing equipment, refrigerators and building materials in what officials said was a violation of the operating contract between the Federal Public Housing authority and the Buckley housing project.

Marshall W. Amis, regional director of the FPHA, said a bill for $29,384.29 was presented to the city. He declared:

"We were supposed to pass on all sales of excess property from the project. We were not informed and if we had been, we would not have permitted the sale of complete barracks units. These were to have been used for housing at the site."

Georgia Senate Okays Watered Down 'Free' Election Measure

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 29. (UP) —The Georgia Senate today passed a watered-down version of a "free" election bill after amending it to prevent the binding of presidential electors to party nominees.

Led by supporters of Gov. Nominate Herman Talmadge, a majority of the senators refused to guarantee by law that presidential electors would vote for their party's standard bearers.

As it now stands, the measure, which goes on to the House, permits all parties to get on the presidential ballot in Georgia. But it does not guarantee that the state's electors will vote for President Truman, even if that slate carries the state.

The vote was 27 to 20 for striking mandatory party vote provisions from Gov. M. E. Thompson's proposed bill.

The Senate recessed until 11 a. m. Friday. The measure now goes to the House.

The Senate also beat down an attempt to amend the present law that requires an electorial slate to have a clear majority of the votes.

When you buy Barcentrate, you buy a preparation for taking off weight. You do not pay for any printed diet nor for vitamins to fortify you against weakness while on a starvation diet. You need never know a hungry moment while taking this preparation. Barcentrate is the original grapefruit juice recipe to take off ugly fat.

Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take just two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to take off ugly fat, return the empty bottle for your money back.

Lost 30 Pounds

"I wish to state that I lost 30 pounds taking Barcentrate. I didn't starve myself and I feel better than I have in years. I am sure that the easy, safe way to lose weight is by taking Barcentrate."—Mrs. Florence Chadwell, Route 1, Box 660, San Antonio, Texas.

25 Pounds Lost

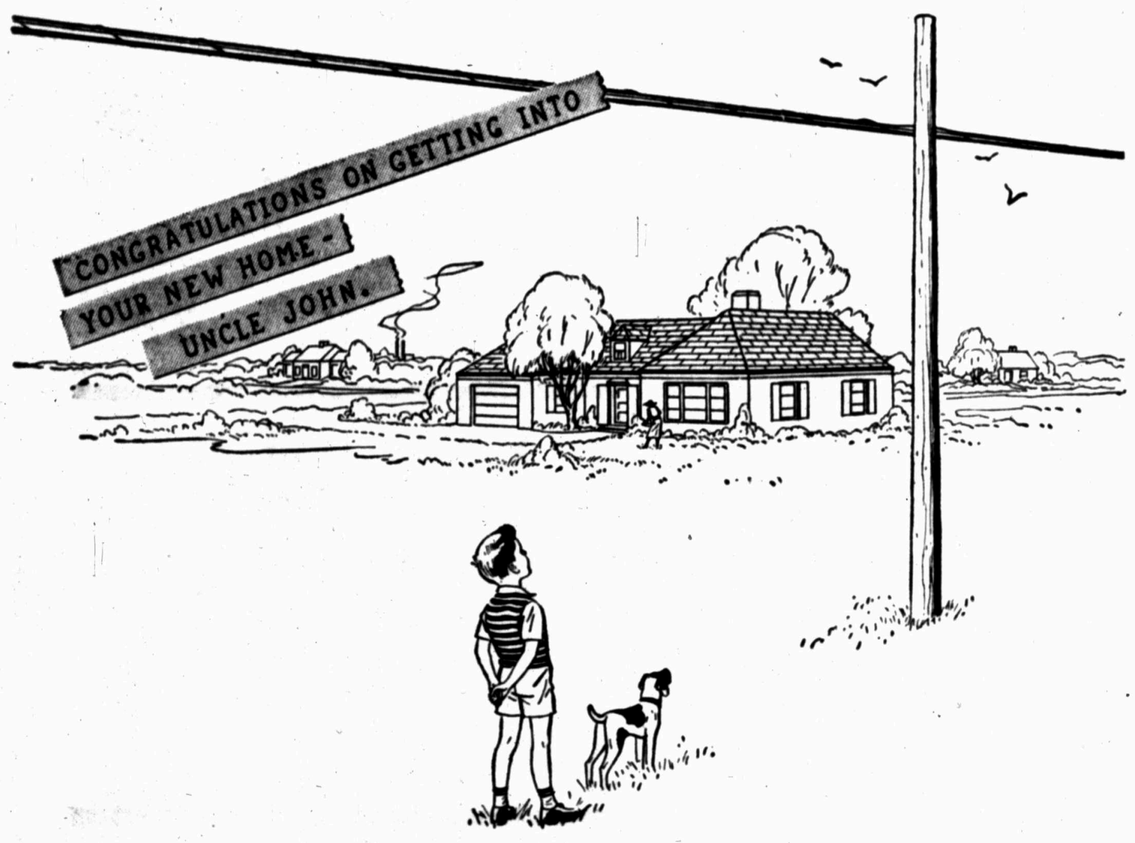

"When I started taking Barcentrate I weighed 195 pounds. I now weigh 170. I certainly praise Barcentrate."—G. W. Miller, Weatherford, Texas.

Housing for your telephone voice is scarce, too

Like new houses, telephone cable is not yet plentiful. It takes telephone cable to "house" your telephone voice as it travels.

Perhaps telephone poles near your house carry a telephone cable (the thick, lead-covered carrier for a bundle of wires strung from pole to pole). Why can't we connect a telephone for you to this cable?

Ordinarily we could. But today most of these cables have no idle wires in them.

So new telephones take new cable.

That new cable is being made as you read these words. It is spinning out of telephone factories twice as fast as prewar. It is hurried to wherever we need it. There we hustle it into place—at the rate of a million miles of wire in cable this year alone.

Compared with normal production, telephone cable isn't scarce—it's abundant. But when 50,000 more people order telephones each month in the Southwest—as they do—even yesterday's abundance is today's shortage.

We're closing the gap, however, and we owe a lot to your patience and trust that we'll get the job done. For we're just as anxious to get you a telephone as you are to get one.

Cotton Council Meet

especially will benefit from the recent development and commercial production of the new small tractors, economically suited to use on the two-mule farm.

With the increase in tractors, the amount of tractor powered equipment on cotton farms is increasing by leaps and bounds. In 1947, 214,124 tractor mounted or drawn corn and cotton cultivators were sold. Estimates are that the number of spindle type pickers will increase from about 285 in 1947 to as many as 1,200 in 1948. Strippers jumped from 1,500 in 1945 to 5,000 in 1947. Though stripper production figures are not available for 1948, it is known that considerable gains are being registered.

Weed Controls Sought

Back of the actual machine production and sales figures are long hours, months and years of research and development work. Research projects now in operation point the way to greater efficiencies in cotton production.

At the Missisippi agricultural experiment stations intensive efforts are being made to determine chemical weed sprays which will eliminate the necessity for chopping out weed and grass growths by hand. Both pre-emergence and post-emergence tests are being conducted.

Perfection of a chemical weed killer which will do away with weeds without injuring the cotton will cut to a bare fraction one of the peak labor periods of the cotton production cycle.

Other experiments look to a combination of chemical control with flame cultivation. The flame cultivator can be used safely after cotton has reached a height of about seven inches. Tests made at a time when human choppers received $5 per acre for weeding cotton showed the same control was achieved with flame cultivators for 50 cents and acre.

Agricultural scientists also are seeking improvements in cotton defoliants. Plant physiologists at the University of Arkansas are conducting lengthy experiments on better defoliants. In arid and semi-arid areas, tests are being run with sodium cyanamid, a chemical which can be applied to cotton plants in spray form—a necesity where dewfall is extremely light or almost non-existent.

Water Follies

the show, as are costumes, but each cast member pays his own hotel and eating expenses.

Unusual Incidents Recalled

There are 16 dancers and 16 swimmers in the Follies, which has its headquarters in New York City and which is produced by Noel Sherman. The average age of cast members is around 21 or 22, and while many of the performers remain only one year with the show, others come back for another year. Some have been with the show for as long as three years, and a few have been with it for five years.

As in any occupation or profession, the Follies has experienced a number of unusual incidents, which, though perhaps momentarily disconcerting, remain a source of amusement for the performers.

Sallie and Margery recall that while the show was playing its engagement in Tulsa, a rainstorm came up shortly before the performance one evening. It happened that the performance was in a football stadium, and it rained so hard that the performers couldn't see their spectators a few dozen feet away.

The musicians, except for a trumpet player who was slightly under the weather, left in a body, and the girls recall that this one remaining man hit all the notes wrong. "He didn't keep the beat at all," they said, "so there we were without music to swim to."

"The audience was wonderful," they added. "They were every bit as receptive, even in all that rain, as any we've had in a regular performance."

Lubbock More "Eastern"

And what do they think of West Texas? Both agreed that they liked it "very much" except for one thing—no nearby ocean. They thought San Angelo very western indeed, and liked that city because of its western flavor. Lubbock, they agreed, seemed much more "eastern."

The girls think their tour with the Follies has been "a tremendous experience," and very educational. And while both agreed that their time with the Follies has been well-spent, neither plans to be with the show next season. Miss Evans will go back to Massachusetts School of Art as a junior student, and Miss Luty, a graduate of the school, will become Mrs. Donald McLaughlin) she wants her fiancee's name in a western paper) and live on a schooner on the Massachusetts coast.

They'll stick with their swimming, they say, but hereafter in the ocean.

Plans Talked For $20 Million Television Center In New York

By BOB CONSIDINE
INS Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Sept. 29—A $20,000,000 "Video City," the combination radio city and Hollywood of television, is in the works for New York, at a site near the old world's fair grounds.

Its ambitious promoters see a day, "six or seven years hence," when television will have forced the big spenders to buy their radio time during the day, rather than try to buck the big night-time television network shows.

They believe that Hollywood has missed the bus on television, and working on that premise they have made blueprint provisions for sound stages and film laboratories on a Hollywood scale. "Live" shows will be filmed as they progress and the film will be leased to small television independents throughout the country. Casting offices and a dramatic school are planned for the enterprise.

Longer Programs Planned

The television revolution—which is what it has become—is too big for even its fondest dreamers to encompass. Its fathers are still groping for the groove which every other medium of entertainment and enlightenment has found. Right now the video boys, who are finding it difficult to fill their screens for an evening, are watching the Dumont people with the eye of a hawk. Dumont will soon begin day-long (and almost night-long) television broadcasts.

The standard stars of radio are shopping for toupees and wondering if they shouldn't do something about their spare chins. And inside the industry there is taking place a seething change in the outlook on some of the top stars. Edgar Bergen, we understand, has been offered $1,500,000 to move his amiable dummies to another net.

Garner Back In News

The return of John Nance Garner to the newspage—via a breakfast of gigantic proportions which he gave to President Truman the other morning—comes at just the right moment for his long-time friend and biographer, Bascom N. Timmons.

In Timmons' freshly published "Garner of Texas—A Personal History" (Harper, $3), the crusty ex-vice president sums up "the outstanding achievement of my life" in this manner:

"For many years I thought if a person had wronged me, I never cared for that person any more or rested easily until I got even with him. I realized my weakness and fought against it through the years before I overcame it. I have nothing but the kindliest feeling for everyone. That to me is my life's greatest achievement."

Just before the book went to press Timmons asked the old man if he still felt that way.

"Well, it has been a long time since I did anything in spleen," Garner answered. "I have liked most of the people I have met and most of the people with whom I have worked. I have nothing but the kindliest feelings for everyone. "But," he added, "of course, I like some people better than others."

Manila Still Devastated

Philippine Ambassador Joaquin "Mike" Elizalde, good friend of Gen. MacArthur and certainly one of the most popular diplomats Washington ever had, is returning to the islands shortly to assume the more difficult task of foreign minister.

He reported on Evie Robert's program the other night that Manila is still so devastated that the city must continue using the seagoing electrical power plant which Army engineers sailed into Manila bay and anchored during the liberation turmoil.

One of these fine nights Bill Veeck, president of the Cleveland Indians ball club, will go too far.

He saw an item in the reader's column of a Cleveland newspaper not long ago. It was a gripe by an Indian fan which went something like this: Nobody ever gives a baseball customer a "day." Veeck decided to give a "day" or rather a "night" to the squawker, 34-year-old ex-GI Joe Earley.

Joe got a lot of assorted livestock, a car, a bundle of dough, a couple of lifetime passes and his picture in the paper.

Another move like that and the 15 other big league team owners will ride young Mr. Veeck right out of baseball, on the serious charge of setting ugly precedents.

Shell Oil Company Decides To Ignore Crude Price Hike

HOUSTON, Sept. 29 (AP)—Another major oil company decided today to ignore a price hike in crude oil announced this week by Phillips Petroleum company of Bartlesville, Okla.

Alexander Fraser, president of the Shell Union Oil corporation, said in a formal statement today:

"Shell is surprised at the announced advance in crude oil prices, particularly as the industry supply position is more favorable than it has been for some time.

"We do not consider that it is in the long-range interest of the industry or overall economy to increase prices at this time."

The Phillips announcement said a 35-cents-per-barrel boost was essential to offset rising costs in the oil industry.

Events Leading Up To East-West Dispute In Past Months Given

(By The International News Service)

Here is a chronology of the principal events this year leading up to the East-West crisis of Berlin which has resulted in a decision by the United States, Great Britain and France to refer it to the United Nations Security Council:

March 31, 1948: The Russians begin the "Blockade of Berlin," halting and inspecting Allied road and rail traffic in alleged hunt for spies and black market operators.

April 1, 1948: First U. S. "air lift" bringing essential supplies to Berlin's western-held sectors begins.

Seek Control Of Air

April 7, 1948: Soviet authorities claim exclusive right to supervise all traffic entering Berlin.

April 15, 1948: The Russians bar Americans and British from relay stations controlling telephone and telegraph communication to the western occupation zones.

June 18, 1948: The three Western Allies announce a new currency for the western occupation zones, including Berlin, and Russia bans all passenger traffic—except air—from the West.

June 22, 1948: Soviet Commander Sokolovsky "walks out" of the Inter-Allied Control council, following failure of agreement on currency for Berlin.

All Shipments Banned

June 24, 1948: Soviet authorities ban all western shipments to Berlin beginning the "starvation siege," after the Western Allies announce the new western currency will be introduced into the former German capital.

June 26, 1948: Gen. Clay, announcing the "all out" air lift, says that "nothing short of war" will drive the Western Allies from Berlin.

July 30, 1948: The three Western Allied representatives begin talks on the German situation with Soviet representatives in Moscow.

Aug. 2, 1948: The three western envoys are received by Premier Stalin following talks with Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov.

Aug. 16—The western envoys again meet with Molotov in the longest session since Moscow negotiations got under way.

German Police Stoned

Aug. 19—German policemen in Soviet sector of Berlin are stoned by German black market operators.

Aug. 21—U. S. military policemen are assigned to Potsdamerplatz near the East-West sector boundary line.

Aug. 26—Communists smash their way into Berlin city hall demanding Berlin magistrat or City Assembly surrender its tasks to a Communist regime.

Aug. 31—Four military governors meet in Berlin in a new attempt to settle the issue whether Soviet currency would be recognized and trade placed under four-power control and the blockade lifted.

Sept. 5—Communists again invade the Berlin city hall and Soviet-backed German police smash down the door of American Army liaison officers.

Sept. 9—One person killed and at least 15 injured in riot following anti-Communist demonstration in British sector; Red flag hauled down from Brandenburg gate.

Sept. 22—Three western powers deliver notes to Russia demanding an unequivocal Soviet reply to matters under dispute.

Sept. 25—Russian reply delivered; Soviet news agency Tass says peaceful solution is up to the West.

Five Steamship Lines Face Anti-Trust Suit

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 29 (AP)—A suit charging violation of the Sherman anti-trust laws and asking millions in damages has been filed in federal district court by Seatrain Lines, Inc., against five steamship companies.

Named defendants are the Lykes Brothers Steamship company, Standard Fruit and Steamship company; United Fruit company, West India Fruit and Steamship company, all United States firms, and Empress Naviera De Cuba, S. A., of Cuba.

Seatrain asks immediate payment of $1,000,000 for damages allegedly sustained and payment at the rate of $21,000,000 a year as long as the alleged violations continue.

The suit charges that the companies, as members of the Gulf and South Atlantic-Havana Steamship conference, have contracts with shippers under which the shippers can be penalized if they use any water carrier not authorized by the contracts. The penalties range from 15 to 25 per cent of the freight rates on a shipper's traffic for a year, the petition said.

The suit charges the shipping companies with "an unlawful attempt . . . to monopolize and . . . to restrain trade and commerce of the United States with a foreign nation."

$40,500 In Funds Granted For Fort Stockton Airport

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29. (AP)—Federal funds totaling $7,628,488 were granted to local sponsors for airport construction and development during the month ended Sept. 15, the Civil Aeronautics administration announced today.

The grants are matched approximately 50-50 by local funds.

Federal funds granted for airport work between Aug. 15 and Sept. 15 include:

Texas—Pecos county airport (Biggs Field), Fort Stockton, $40,500.

Leslie Jackson Resigns As Dean Of Baylor Law School

WACO, Sept. 29. (AP)—Resignation of Leslie Jackson as dean of Baylor university school of law effective Oct. 1 and appointment of Abner McCall as acting dean were announced today by President W. R. White of Baylor.

Jackson, who came to Baylor in 1941 from Dallas, said he regretted leaving the school but felt impelled by necessity to return to Dallas and resume private practice of law.

The school of law now enrolls 432 students. It has 23 faculty members, 11 of them full time.

McCall got his law degree at Baylor before the war and has been on the faculty several years.

'Bambuco' Is Hit As New Dance Step

CHICAGO, Sept. 29 (INS)—The "Bambuco" took Chicago by storm today.

The new dance craze, introduced by the team of Veloz and Yolanda, ballroom veterans, was described by Frank Veloz as:

"It's a waltz with the accent on 2-4 time. You don't dance on the first beat of the bar and it gives the odd effect of a little bob."

The "Bambuco" originally was a Colombian folk dance until given a going over by Veloz.

Alexander the Great shaved clean, and started a fashion among the Greeks and Romans that lasted for the next 500 years.

New Orleans Firm Is Sued For Non-Delivery Of Lumber

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 29. (AP)—The Port Iron and Supply Company, Inc., of Port Arthur, filed suit in federal district court today asking damages of $30,000 from the A and D Hardware Company, Inc., of New Orleans.

The Port Arthur firm contended that the hardware company offered to sell it a half million to a million feet of lumber but failed to go through with the agreement.

The petition charged further that the New Orleans company sold the lumber to another firm at a price in excess of the amount proposed to the Port Arthur company.

WORLD COURT ACTION THREATENED

U. S. Again Demands Return Of 31 Naval Vessels Loaned Reds

By GEORGE DURNO
INS Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29—The U. S. has again demanded that Russia return 31 naval vessels loaned during the war and indicated the case will be taken before the Intternational court if the Soviets refuse.

The vessels—three ice-breakers and 28 frigates—were loaned independently of the main Russian 11 billion dollar lend-lease account. It was revealed Tuesday that the Soviets have been called on again to settle that account.

The latest American demand for the naval vessels was disclosed by Acting Secretary of State Lovett.

Eight Ships Returned

Lovett said the lend-lease negotiations, begun last spring, are still proceeding in desultory fashion, with agreement reached on some categories.

The United States wants its naval craft back under Article Five of the master lend-lease agreement with Russia, whereby title of those vessels has remained with this government.

Lovett said the U. S. is negotiating with the Soviets over 87 merchant vessels loaned Russia during the war. The ships are being used by the Russians as cargo carriers.

Russia returned eight of the lend-lease cargo vessels. The United States is now trying to obtain agreement on a purchase price for the 87 still in Soviet hands.

Soviets Make No Reply

A formal note concerning return of the Navy ships was handed Soviet Ambassador Panyushkin about two weeks ago. It was not made public for fear of disturbing discussions of the Berlin crisis which at that time had not been broken off.

Much earlier this year this demand was first made. To date there has been no reply from the Russians.

Overall lend-lease negotiations actually began April 30, 1947, but soon lapsed. Then Panyushkin arrived in Washington as Moscow's ambassador in December 1947. He returned to Moscow briefly last spring to receive new instructions on lend-lease.

Upon his return, he held several conferences with State department officials, beginning in June.

Since then, U. S. officials have been attempting to achieve a settlement of the 11 billion dollar account under the standard pattern laid down in settlements with Great Britain and other wartime Allies.

Under such terms, all expendable military equipment is written off and repayment requested only for items the borrowing country continues to use for peacetime purposes. Such a settlement involves only a few cents on the original dollar investment.

During the few across-the-table talks that have transpired this year, it was agreed that the account should be taken up one category at a time. As agreement was reached on each, they were to be set aside until such time as there is an overall agreement.

Churchman Attacks College Programs

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29.(AP)—The modern college graduate is a man without morals "riding across the earth in a cap and gown with an electronic computer in one hand and a cyclotron in the other," a speaker told a church convention today.

The speaker John E. McCaw of Indianapolis told the international convention of Disciples of Christ that "youth are no longer being educated but are being trained." He is director of students work for the church.

D. Ray Lindley of Fort Worth, dean of Brite College of the Bible, noted that: "If you ask your schools for the ministry what kind of products we are turning out for you, the answer is clear. We are turning out the kind of boys and girls you send us, with the kind of training you make possible for us."

Religious education has lagged behind secular education, said Mrs. R. O. Pearson of Abilene, Texas, vice chairman of the United Christian Missionary Society Board of Managers. Adults in the United States now average almost eight years' schooling, she said. "The level of religious education is far below that."

WELLESLEY FIRST

Wellesley, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica, was the first women's college to open scientific laboratories for student experimentation.

Anton Man Is Fined On Charge Of Theft

Harry J. Bell, 34, of Anton, was fined $50, county court costs and sent to jail for one day after he had pleaded guilty of theft of a $7.50 rifle from Gene Pope, of Abernathy.

Bell was arrested by police Tuesday night at the fairgrounds, after Pope had complained of the prowling in his car of a man answering Bell's description. Police said that, in addition to the rifle, a tire and tube were restored to the victim.

Bell also had a special police officer's badge once reputedly worn by a relative, a former policeman, officials said.

J. A. Hampton, 32, pleaded guilty of check law violation and was fined $1 and county court costs.

A Mississippian was fined $25 and county court costs that morning in connection with his alleged attempts to recruit South Plains cotton pickers and remove them to Mississippi, where $3 a hundred pounds is said to be paid for picking, County Attorney John Steele said.

W. M. Thompson, about 60, was charged under oath of T. L. Barnes, a labor commissioner, with soliciting labor without first having obtained a license as an agent from the labor commission.

The assessment was made by County Judge Walter Davies.

She was 55 years old. Services will be tomorrow in Dallas with burial in Granbury, Tex.

Immediate survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Doty of Medford, Ore.; a son, Gene Dabney, Dallas; her mother, Mrs. Lula Aingell, Longview; a brother, Marshall Aingell, Longview and two sisters, Mrs. Frank Munsch, Longview, and Mrs. R. D. Lafferty, Fort Worth.

Texans On Assistance Rolls Can Count On Larger Checks

AUSTIN, Sept. 29. (UP)—Texans on state assistance rolls can count on an average increase of about $2 on Oct. 1, executive secretary John Winters of the Department of Public Welfare said today.

He said the boost in assistance checks was a result of recent changes in the federal social security act.

Old age assistance checks will average about $33.57, Winters said, compared to $31.57 on Sept. 1. At that time there were 207,143 old age assistance checks mailed out, and he anticipated a slight increase.

Average payments to the needy blind will run about $38, some $3 above Sept. 1, Winters reported, and payments to dependent children will avegare about $18, an increase of close to $3.

IN WASHINGTON:

'Break' For Johnson

ACTION of Supreme Court Justice Hugo Black in staying the injunction granted Coke Stevenson by Federal District Judge T. W. Davidson makes Lyndon Johnson's chances for final victory in the Texas Democratic Senate race considerably better.

Even though the entire Supreme court likely will review the matter, Mr. Johnson's position is, technically, much stronger than it has been since the Stevenson forces secured the Davidson ruling in the hotly fought primary election of August 28.

Johnson and Stevenson "pounded down to the wire" neck-and-neck on August 28, with Johnson being declared the winner by the bare margin of 87 votes. But since Coke Stevenson and his powerful backers have started their "dog-in-the-manger" play, literally thousands of Texans who voted for Stevenson, and other thousands who didn't take the trouble to vote at all, have gone over to the Johnson camp.

The Princes of Privilege of Big Business in Texas— fronted for, as usual, by Dan Moody and Clint Small who themselves have been soundly repudiated at the polls — have thrown everything they've got into the effort to keep Lyndon Johnson's name from going on the ballot as the Democratic nominee for the U. S. Senate. They know—they have known all the time—that they can't put Stevenson into the Senate now, because he is the deadest political duck in Texas. All they have hoped for—all they glimmeringly hope for now—is to keep Lyndon Johnson's name off the November ballot, and in order to do so they are perfectly willing to let a Republican unknown represent this state in the Upper House.

Texans who believe in sportsmanship and fair play have been sickened by the antics of Texas Big Business and, especially, by their "ambassadors," Dan Moody and Clint Small and their regiments of legal assistants who have taken the attitude that they have the divine right to decide elections in Texas.

Texans, a whacking majority of them now, not only want Lyndon Johnson's name on the Democratic side of the November ballot, they also want him in the U. S. Senate, knowing for certain that he won't be a pawn of the predatory interests seeking to control the next junior Senator from this state.

Yoo-hoo, Pollytix!

"WHAT a whale of a difference election year makes!"

That thought must have been running through the mind of Associated Press Reporter Bill Barnard in Bonham the other night when President Truman was "good, old Harry" to one and all and no secret service men, or other officers, "pushed the folks around" in an effort to keep admirers away from the President.

More than a year ago, it was a different story when President Truman visited in Waco. His guards were pretty tough with everybody about everything. Boyishly handsome AP Man Barnard, himself, fell afoul of the gendarmes and almost got tossed into the clink.

But there were no votes at stake in Waco. There were when Mr. Truman was in Bonham. Ergo, the President was permitted to be a "regular guy."

Ain't pollytix marvelous?

Tricks Or Treats

Tryst

By ELSWYTH THANE

Distributed By NEA Service, Inc.

(THE STORY: A mysterious locked room on the top floor of Nunns Farthing, a rented country house, fascinates dreamy 17-year-old Sabrina. Father and Aunt Effie tell her the room belongs to one of the owner's sons and they are not to have the use of it. Sabrina questions Mrs. Pilton, the housekeeper, who says the room is always kept locked when "he" is not at home. She evades Sabrina's request to be shown the room. Curiosity overpowers Sabrina and one rainy day she manages to pick the lock.)

III

IT was a livable, used-looking, comfortable, self-contained room of majestic proportions, with nothing of the garret about it. It was essentially a private room, for he was a man who kept himself to himself.

It was L-shaped, for a wall had been knocked out between two smaller rooms. From the door you faced the large carved oak mantlepiece, with a modern chintz-covered chesterfield at right angles to it, and a smoking-table with a lamp and ashtray at its right hand. The wall on your left and the space either side of the mantlepiece were filled with open bookshelves. Opposite the chesterfield the wall, which ran the length of both rooms, had two casement windows opening above the garden to the south, with a cushioned window seat beneath each of them, and the ceiling, though high revealed the slope of two gables. The big practical knee-hole desk stood at an angle to the near window. This, with a couple of chintz armchairs and the low fireside hassock, made the living-room end.

THE fading of the short spring day when the page gradually got too dim to be read without a light, reminded her that she would be missed from downstairs as tea time came on. She unfolded herself from the chesterfield, replaced the book on the shelf, and started hastily downstairs.

At the bottom of the upper flight Mrs. Pilton stood, her hand on the newel-post—waiting. Sabrina went scarlet, and caught at the bannister.

"You've been inside," said Mrs. Pilton.

"I'm afraid I picked the lock," confessed Sabrina. "With a hairpin and a button-hook."

"You knew I had a key," said the woman, immovable.

"I knew you wouldn't lend it to me." Sabrina hurried down the last few steps and laid an impulsive hand on Mrs. Pelton's sleeve. "Please don't lock the door again!" she begged. "Please let me go in sometimes!"

The woman looked down at her remotely, without smiling, and Sabrina took her hand off the black-clad arm and fell back a step.

"I—I'm sorry," she faltered. "I know it was wrong, but I—didn't mean to pry—." Her eyes filled with tears. "It's much the nicest room in the house," she added in her own defense, and turned away blindly.

"If you feel that way about it," the woman's quiet voice came after her, "I'll leave the door as it is."

Sabrina swung around incredulously to thank her and saw only Mrs. Pilton's back receding towards the servants' stairs.

FOR several weeks Sabrina and Mrs. Pilton shared the secret between them. But an afternoon naturally had to come when aunt Effie called and got no reply, went to Sabrina's room and found it empty, called again, urgently, and was answered at last by a very small voice from the top floor.

Aunt Effie was aghast. Leases were leases, and there was a clause. If the intrusion were known, they could be forced to leave the house. She stood halfway up the stairs, arguing, while Sabrina hung on to the bannister at the top, defending herself tearfully.

In the midst of it Mrs. Pilton's low-pitched voice came up to them from the passage.

"I don't think there'd be any objection," she was saying, "so long as she takes nothing out of the room."

"Did you know she had got into it?" demanded Aunt Effie.

"Yes, I knew," said the housekeeper.

"You should have told me at once," scolded Aunt Effie. "I could have put a stop to it."

"I was willing to take the responsibility," she said, and went away.

But Aunt Effie was not. She ordered Sabrina to close the door at once and come down.

Sabrina obeyed meekly, but the next afternoon while Aunt Effie drove into Wells for some shopping, Sabrina set her square little jaw and went back to the top floor room.

So, with Father still in ignorance, Aunt Effie deceived, and Mrs. Pilton looking the other way, her visits to the secret sanctuary continued, until she knew the room and its visible contents by heart.

Sometimes it almost seemed as though she knew the owner, too. Sometimes it was almost as though he himself was there in the room—waiting for her to come back to him.

Looking At Life - - By Erich Brandeis

ANOTHER railroad has announced that it will install telephones on its crack trains so that businessmen who haven't a minute to spare may not lose any of their precious minutes because of lack facilities to speed to their eventual destiny.

BRANDEIS

The latest road to put in telephones is the New Haven R.R. And the run on which it will do so is the one from New York to Boston which takes a little more than four hours.

I have nothing against the New Haven Railroad. On the contrary it is my favorite road. I used to commute on it, but I don't have to any more, and you all know how wonderful a pain is when it stops hurting.

So now no businessman going from New York to Boston on the New Haven will have to be out of reach of a telephone for four long hours.

That would be awful, wouldn't it?

Four hours without being able to make that big deal in International Gadgets, Inc.!

Four hours without being able to dictate that letter to your secretary telling the plumber the faucet in the powder room is leaking!

Four hours without feeling the importance of being a big executive who can't rest a bit for four hours!

Every once in a while I look at my fellow humans and get the full meaning of that old saying "What fools ye mortals be."

It is not only this terrific consciousness of the importance of speed. It is a lot of other little vanities and pretensions that seem so funny and so futile when you see them in the light of an observer or spectator rather than as a participant.

ALL these vanities and pretensions and futilities seem so much funnier to me now because I too, once upon a time indulged in many of them.

I had three or four telephones on my desk. I had pushbuttons, assistants and secretaries.

I also had great social ambitions. We entertained not because we liked the people who were our guzzling guests but because they were important people, people with whom to be seen and by whom to be invited was good business and good politics.

We did just what the great majority of us do nowadays—tried not only to keep up with the Joneses but go the Joneses one better.

I shouldn't really say "we". Because my wife could never see the good sense of this mad race for power and recognition.

And finally she and the doctors convinced me.

I discovered that people really are not racing anybody else. In a race with someone else you can win.

But this modern race for success is a race with yourself. And that's one competitor you can't beat. No matter how fast you run—you are still always right where you were—with yourself.

I shall not use that train telephone. I'll wait till I get there.

"Ya got hospitalization?"

FOR SEVERAL YEARS

No Slump Indicated

By RAY TUCKER
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON — Government and private economic experts are generally agreed that the United States faces no severe depression or even a serious slump for several years, despite bumper crops, increasing production, a growing sales resistance, a spotty price situation and unsettled conditions abroad.

In the order of their importance and immediate impact on the average American, they look for the following developments:

TUCKER

(1). Continued inflationary times for possibly six months, with no real drop in price levels, especially meat, until next spring for hogs and next fall for beef. Poultry and dairy stuff may decline within a few months, although the Thanksgiving and Christmas holiday season may give them temporary, artificial support.

(2). The return of a buyers' market in such lines as cottons, certain wearing apparel, shoes, house furnishings, radios, stoves, refrigerators. Factory-to-store pipelines are filling up, inventories are mounting, and sales are declining in some of these fields.

NEEDS: (3). Wages will remain at present levels, but there should be no fourth round of increases as the cost of living goes down and gives more value to the pay envelope.

(4). Farm income on major crops is guaranteed at 90 per cent of parity through 1949, and greater volume (wheat, corn, cotton etc.) will compensate partially for lower prices per unit.

(5). The still unsatisfied demand for steel, oil, coal, automobiles, houses, heavy machinery and factory expansion furnishes a foundation of prosperity solid enough to withstand price disturbances and other pressures that brought on the 1920-1922 dip aftetr World War I. It is generally believed that it will require at least two years to meet most of these needs.

SATISFACTORY: (6). Marshall Plan and rearmament expenditures, which may total $75,000,000,000 in the next five years, constitute further reinforcement for current and prospective good times, virtually full employment, and an even better balance betwewen the individual's income and outgo.

(7). If the Marshall Plan should rehabilitate Europe and revive world commerce, that would be another and more normal factor in bolstering and maintaining the American economy.

Thus, barring a war, it is the consensus that the United States may have from five to ten years of satisfactory economic conditions, although some shorten that period to five.

As to what will happen when the customers' wants are filled, and the replacement market cannot absorb the output of an increasingly efficient industrial and agricultural plan, nobody ventures a guess because there are so many unforeseeables.

Politically, such an outlook augurs well for Governor Thomas E. Dewey, provided he is elected in November. No bust-up is looked for during what may be his first term in the White House, a fact which might insure his reelection.

STORMS: The experts at the Federal Reserve Board, around the White House and at the Treasury obviously figure that the next twelve months will be vital and difficult in determining our chances to weather inflationary storms so dangerous that they could darken the long-time outlook.

That is the reason for the controversy-provoking decisions to reinstall consumer credit regulations, to hike the interest rates on certain Treasury issues, and to force member banks to lay aside an additional $3,500,000,000 in cash against deposits.

In the interim before expected price breaks on the industrial and agricultural fronts, the money bosses at Washington do not want spending and private debt to get out of hand. Such a happening could defer or destroy chances of the anticipated stabilization of the wage-price relationship on a sounder basis than it rests now.

They decided to act, for one reason, because the statistical study so frequently cited by President Truman in his campaign speeches showed that millions of Americans were spending more than they earned.

This discovery led to the further belief that the customers had about exhausted their wartime savings and were headed for excessive borrowing or dependence on to easy credit.

TIMING: Banker critics, however, question the wisdom or need of these controls from the standpoint of their timing. They have poured their complaints to friends on Capitol Hill, the White House, the Treasury and the Reserve Board.

With so many consumer goods beginning to catch up with demand, they dread lest tightening of money may have too sudden and deflationary an effect. These include the very men who sided with Governor Marriner S. Eccles when, almost a year ago, he piqued both President Truman and Secretary Snyder with his demands for credit curbs.

Many banks, now deprived of the income on the $3,500,000,000 worth of federal securities they had to sell to meet the increased reserve requirements of cash, have already jacked up real estate and other loan rates from four-and-a-half to six per cent.

SPENDING: Prices and purchases of used cars as well as the demand for the heavier household goods and equipment, have started to soften because of their higher charges for money.

Still another school challenges these controls in the face of vast government spending. In their opinion, Washington's long-delayed drive against monetary inflation, although it may have a depressing, psychological effect, does not attack the basic cause of peak prices, which make the 1939 dollar worth about fifty cents at the present time.

A writer says that angels don't eat. But ask the man who thought he married one.

One thing can be said for old-fashioned art. Most anyone could tell what the subject was on the canvas.

There is always an emergency to cover an emergency fund.

A telephone is an instrument to which a person is always called while eating.

A man is an animal who doesn't think he is important unless he can jingle a bunch of keys.

Things could be worse. The candid camera fields could be more active.

Utopia must be the place where the inhabitants don't get into an argument as to which was the hottest summer.

It is said the government mint turns out more than four billion coins a year. Or just enough to keep the juke boxes and slot machines going.

MORE SPECIFIC PROGRAM URGED

Dewey Campaign Too General

By THOMAS L. STOKES
Special Correspondent

WITH GOVERNOR DEWEY—

After you watch and listen to Governor Dewey for awhile, and as you observe the reaction of the crowds which hear him, it suddenly dawns upon you how clever is this campaign of good will and pretty generalities that he is conducting for the presidency.

As has been pointed out often lately, it is based on the confidence that Governor Dewey is as good as elected. The strategy, therefore, is to play it safe, to go easy, to be careful not to offend anybody or start any unnecessary controversies within or without his party, and so to coast in.

STOKES

But beyond that, whether by design or not, you find this sort of soothing syrup campaign fits into the present mood of the American people. There is a feeling of uncertainty and insecurity abroad in our land. The people want to be reassured. They want to believe in a fairy tale. They don't want to have to bother their heads about those problems that stare them in the face on the front pages of newspapers every day and about which President Truman talks—troubles in Berlin and Paris; continued high prices here at home and little bits of evidence all around of a boom before a bust; and that "do-nothing 80th Congress" that the President raises up and shakes before them every day.

Two Campaigns Clash

Governor Dewey reassures them and flatters them where President Truman scares them and lectures them. Wherever the Republican candidate goes it is "you good people" and "your great country out here." If you'll only have "faith in yourselves" and "faith in America" and be of "stout purpose and a full heart" and "move forward shoulder to shoulder" then everything will be fine. For we know "that every single individual is of priceless importance and that free men against whatever odds have an unbeatable quality" and so forth and so on.

Day after day, on every hand, he passes out these pills that are bromides in the real sense of the word, that is, they calm jumpy nerves. The people reach eagerly for them and gulp them down.

He says he has "no trick answers and no easy solutions," but he makes it all look so easy, particularly to a people who want it to be easy. Inflation? Labor troubles? International tensions and friction? Why just put competent and honest men in the government and give us "unity" and "unity of purpose" and all those things vanish. There'll be prosperity in the land and peace with all mankind.

Trouble with Congress? Why not at all—just work together as a team, in harmony. Team work will do it, along with "unity." (Boy, page the farmers and the CIO and AFL and the NAM and the Progressives and conservaand radicals, and the nationalists and internationalists.)

The way he hammers away at the need of competent and honest men in government, you'd think there hadn't been no such in Washington in 16 years. This Diogenes act pleases many who hear him for it justifies their still rankling bitterness over high taxes and regimentation such as OPA and all those things which can now be bundled up and lightly dismissed as, after all, the bungling of incompetent men.

Want Return To Normal

You'll have, he promises, more tax reduction and economy in government and along with it continued price supports for farmers and high wages for labor and money for the European recovery program and for irrigation and reclamation and increased social security and all those things.

And also plenty of free enterprise.

What so many people seem to want is a sort of streamlined normalcy. They know the other sort of normalcy, the Warren G. Harding kind, is old fashioned and not to be mentioned in polite society any more. But there must be a streamlined normalcy that doesn't cost too much.

And the fresh-faced, smiling young man up there who is so confident and cocky why he looks just like the smart young man to give it to us. He's the Alger boy, 1948 model, the symbol—or so some seem to imagine him—of streamlined normalcy. He's the sort of white collar young man, or so they conjure him up, who works hard, minds his manners, speaks softly to his elders and thus, in time, moves up to the front office as so many of his prosperous hearers imagine that they did. He'll not betray that class, oh no. He just couldn't.

But they are deluding themselves. The young man is tough and a realist and knows that the world has changed. Any one who knows him knows that the sweet nothings of this campaign have no relation at all to what he will do once he gets in Washington.

Is it too much to ask then, even in a political campaign, that he give us a few of the hard facts of life today?

MARKET CONTINUES RISE
NEW YORK, Sept. 29. (AP)—Continuing its second day of recovery, the stock market today gained fractions to beyond a point in a dull session.
Rails and oils provided the most active interest and the best advances, while steels and motors were among the favorites with smaller plus signs.
Airlines and utilities were narrowly mixed. The airlines were under the influence of a Civil Aeronautics board inquiry into distribution of routes of national airlines. It was described as an exploratory measure scheduled for Dec. 1.
Rails again basked in the sun of good August net operating income reports. Pennsylvania declared a 50-cent dividend bringing payments this year to $1 against a total of 50 cents in all of last year.
Oils advanced yesterday after one company raised crude prices, and the advance continued, although major companies intimated they would not immediately follow the move. London oil stocks advanced on the theory that increased American prices would be reflected around the world.
The Associated Press average of 60 stocks advanced .6 of a point to 67.1. Industrials led with a rise of .8 of a point. Utilities and rails each added .3 of a point.
With 947 issues traded, the market was not as broad as yesterday's 1003 issues but the advances of 601 were greater than the day before and the declines at 178 were under yesterday's 201.
The volume at $10,000 shares compared with yesterday's 910,000. It was noted that during intermediate rallies volume expanded, although the final hour was the busiest of the session when there was some last minute profit taking. The day's total was boosted heavily, however, by the sale of a block of 50,000 Commonwealth and Southern followed by another block of 8,100 shares, each up ⅛ from the previous close.
Both National Airlines, which closed at 8, and American Airlines, closing at 6⅞, reached new lows for 1948 during the day. Santa Fe dropped 2⅜ to 115⅜. Directors yesterday declared a $2 extra dividend but there was some disappointment expressed in Wall Street when no action was forthcoming on a widely-rumored stock split.

CHICAGO REPORT
CHICAGO, Sept. 29. (AP)—Grain futures failed to make much progress at today's board of trade session. Some soft spots were in evidence after yesterday's advance. The cash corn market was easy.
At the close wheat was ⅝ higher to 1 cent lower than the previous close, December $2.24¾-⅞. Corn was ⅛ to ¼ lower, December $1.38⅝-39. Oats were unchanged to ⅛ lower, December 73⅝. Rye was ¾ to 1¼ lower, December $1.60¾. Soybeans were 1 cent to 1⅛ higher, November $2.41⅝-½.

Ancient Greek boxing was quite similar to the modern sport except that contestants wore the caetus, a device similar to modern "brass knuckles" rather than boxing gloves.

Ankle Injury Brings Luck To Irving Youth

DENTON, Sept. 29. (UP)—Donald Grubb of Irving sprained his ankle—and it brought him luck.
Grubb was the 5,000th student to register at North Texas State college here and won a "treasure chest" of merchandise contributed by Denton merchants.
His registration had been delayed by his injury, which occurred at his home two weeks ago.
