This bicycling fad ought to satisfy those who think automobiles are too expensive but who like to sit down to walk.

Grasshoppers have just about wiped out our garden. Truly, this is one of the most perverse periods we have ever experienced.

Mr. Roosevelt studied for 20 years what he would do if he were to become president. That ought to quiet the complaints of those who think political holders should not be men with political ambitions.

We hear much commendation of the idea that sub-machine guns be furnished our officers. Not that it is hard to find men with nerve enough to face machine guns in the hands of bandits, but that equality of arms is fair play in any man's country.

Formerly, it was charged that Uncle Sam was manipulated by big business; now Uncle is getting ready to sign a partnership agreement with every farmer.

Mrs. Gushaway would like to ride a bicycle but no models have been found which will accommodate her dimensions.

NOT POLITICAL
T. A. Landers in McLean News: Henry Ford, in commenting on the government's mammoth, pending industrial recovery bill, said: "I was always under the impression that to manage a business properly you ought to know something about it." How many times have we seen the truth of this in all governmental affairs from national to local. If officials know nothing about the business they are trying to regulate, there should be no wonder at the mistakes made.

(And for that reason it is dangerous to distribute important jobs in federal recovery act projects on a patronage basis. Ability to produce votes is no proof of ability to regulate private business.)

GOOD OLD DAYS
J. C. Estlack in Donkey County Leader: Nothing contains quite so much error as the statement that "people are getting worse all the time." If such a statement were true, one might consider God a myth and religion a mockery.

Reading from the Dallas News in '50 years ago' column recently an item appeared that recalls conditions pretty much as they existed in Texas in the "good old days" of fifty years ago. Here is the reference: "State troops were sent to Llano when court convened there last week. The troops were needed to preserve the peace because thirty murder cases are on the docket and serious trouble is anticipated in consequence of the conviction of any of them."

In those days it was a difficult matter to convict an outlaw on any form of evidence because of the fact that court officials were frequently intimidated and witnesses harassed to the point of death. Most every man represented an arsenal bedecked as he was with a liberal supply of the latest patterns of artillery.

Great respect was shown "bullies" and private cemeteries were the rule rather than the exception. Crime was rampant though confined mostly to murder and cattle thefts. When the country became more thickly populated, murder became unpopular as the bad men drifted west. The organization of the Texas Cattle Raisers' association made cattle stealing just as unpopular as murder.

DECLARES INDIVIDUALS' DEBT BURDENS MUST BE LIGHTENED: RAISE OF PRICES ADVOCATED

CANNOT RAISE PRICES BY MONETARY MEANS ALONE

LONDON, June 26 (AP)—Senator James Couzens of Michigan, American delegate, stirred the world economic conference today by declaring in a speech that the world's debt structure must be adjusted. He urged world-wide action to raise prices and to increase the demand for raw materials in his address, made before the subcommittee on immediate measures for financial reconstruction.

The senator asserted he did not believe "that prices can be raised by monetary means alone."

He emphasized the necessity of organizing creditors throughout the world and of establishing some form of permanent body to act in an advisory capacity between organized creditors and organized debtors.

The republican senator did not mention war debts but referred to indebtedness in general. He warned that "this is in no sense to be construed as an invitation to debtors able to pay to scale down their obligations."

"Certainly it is not an invitation to default," he said.

He asserted an increased demand for raw materials, as contemplated by the American program, offers in his opinion "far more hope for world recovery than can possibly be expected merely from a reduction in tariff duties on a number of manufactured articles which are highly competitive between nations."

The lone republican in the American delegation spoke in elaboration of the resolution the Americans have introduced on expansion of credit and synchronized programs of public works to again start the wheels of industry. In direct fashion the senator expressed the belief that debate has reached a point where various views can be drafted into concrete resolutions for adoption.

India indicated to the world economic conference her willingness to cooperate in the rehabilitation of silver, as projected in the resolution of Senator Key Pittman.

This was authoritatively disclosed after a meeting of the conference silver committee, at which Sir Geo. Shuster, secretary of the treasury for India, was present.

Americans and others interested in the rehabilitation of silver said this was the most important event which could have happened to force the program to a successful conclusion.

India is the world's largest holder of silver, having on hand some 400 million ounces.

The country south and east of Pampa was visited by terrific rains and some hail yesterday afternoon but no moisture fell in or around Pampa although lightning was visible and black clouds passed over the city.

Hail damage was not considered serious although a heavy fall was reported in the breaks south of the city. The river at Phillips camp was filled from bank to bank from a fall between 2 and 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Several showers fell between Mobeetie and a few miles east of Pampa.

The sky today was overcast but no moisture was reported near.

'ALL KIWANIS NIGHT' TO BE THIS EVENING

Local Club Is Among 1850 Which Will Meet Simultaneously Tonight

PAMPA Kiwanis and their wives will observe "All Kiwanis Night" at the Schneider hotel at 8:30 o'clock tonight. All of the clubs in the United States and Canada will meet simultaneously.

The program will include a radio address by the International president from Los Angeles where the International convention is now being held. Kiwanians Raeburn Thompson and Paul LeBeuf are representing the Pampa club.

There will be no meeting Friday as tonight will count as a regular meeting.

LOS ANGELES, June 26 (AP)—Kiwanians from Texas here for the 17th annual convention of Kiwanis International participated in sessions today for the study of assistance to underprivileged children, unemployment aid, urban-rural relations, child welfare and civic betterment activities. The convention is to last four days.

The Texas delegation is in charge of Walter L. Morris of Fort Worth, governor of the Texas-Oklahoma Kiwanis district. Lieutenant governors in Texas are: Hubert Jones, Austin; Harry C. Ritchie, Weslaco; Frank W. Nason, Beaumont; William R. Hicks, Denton; Dr. Ralph H. Peterson, Wichita Falls; S. Joyner Cole, Amarillo; in Oklahoma, Joseph Miller, Ponca City; D. S. Pooser, Mangum; F. O. Seymour, Edmund; T. G. Napier, Collinsville.

Urging all clubs to become active in community and public affairs, Carl E. Endicott, of Huntington, Ind., president of the service organization, in an address prepared for delivery declared that the four special objectives should be a part of every club's program. These objectives are unemployment relief, employment stabilization, maintenance of adequate educational facilities and business-like methods in administrative government.

Fred C. W. Parker, of Chicago, secretary, warned that Kiwanis should not engage in politics nor take partisan action. He expressed the belief that the organization can promote discussions and public meetings to hear both sides of agitated problems. "Current problems are basically social and economic and the politics excuse does not apply as a basis for Kiwanis inaction," he declared.

From coast to coast, over 1,850 clubs in the U. S. and Canada meet simultaneously tonight (8:15 p. m., Pacific standard time), to express gratitude for the accomplishments of Kiwanis during the past year.

CALIFORNIA AND WEST VIRGINIA TO VOTE ON REPEAL TOMORROW

By The Associated Press
THE old "get-out-the-vote" plea today wound up campaigning in the two states—California and West Virginia—which will decide tomorrow what they want done about the prohibition amendment. For once the wets and dries claimed a common objective. In an argument over whether heavier votes have changed the results in the 14 states that already have endorsed repeal, their leaders agreed, in Washington, that everybody should ballot in tomorrow's elections.

Said F. Scott McBride, superintendent of the anti-saloon league: "Returns so far in elections on repeal show that the dry vote is strong enough to win every remaining state if the dries succeed in getting out as large a proportion of dry voters as the wets have gotten out in states that voted for repeal."

Replied J. J. Shouse, president of the association against the prohibition amendment: "Cheerfully we welcome (Dr. McBride's) appeal for a larger popular participation in prohibition repeal election. Out of every 1,000 additional votes Dr. McBride helps us to get to the polls, 60 to 80 per cent you will cast for repeal."

Today also was the day for Indiana's 329 delegates in convention to express formally their state's decision, recorded in the June 6 election. Two hundred and forty six delegates were pledged to vote for repeal, 83 against.

NEW HIKE IN OIL OUTPUT IS PROPOSED

Panhandle Oil Company Representatives Are Against Proposed Potential Tests

AMARILLO, June 26 (AP)—Panhandle oil men here today for a railroad commission hearing told R. D. Parker, supervisor of the oil and gas division that they were opposed to the proposed 10-day potential tests to determine new production allowances.

Representatives of the Texas, Empire, Mangolia, Gulf and Danciger companies testified that there were no inequities in the field, that the wells would have to be conditioned for potential tests at considerable expense and that the present price of crude was not favorable for a 10-day open flow.

Parker expressed the opinion after the hearing was concluded that the tests would not be taken now unless the attorney general held that the runs should be made to determine any inequities that might exist.

W. B. Hamilton, Pampa, deputy supervisor, offered testimony favorable to a 6,000-barrel hike in the daily allowable, which is now 44,000 barrels. He expressed belief there would be an increase in market demand and that a new allowable of 50,000 barrels would not lead to wastes.

Parker also heard applications of the Texas and Stanolind companies for permits to extract gasoline from natural gas. The testimony offered was in opposition to extraction but the applicants testified that they must "strip" for protection against those who now have permits.

TWO DETROIT BANKS FORCED TO CLOSE SO 'WALL STREET' COULD 'GET' HENRY FORD, JURY TOLD

Banker Says Plot To Break Ford Was Executed

DETROIT, June 26 (AP)—Herbert R. Wilkin, Detroit banker, told the one-man grand jury today that the closing of two national banks here today that "the sole reason for the closing of the banks, was, in my opinion, to 'get' Henry Ford."

Wilkin, former executive vice-president of the Guardian Detroit Union Group, Inc., holding company for a number of banks, declared he was of the opinion that "Wall Street believed it had a chance, by tying up Ford's deposits in the banks, to

Course In Life Saving To Begin At Pool Today

Death by drowning increased in 1931, and the Red Cross has decided to take a hand in cutting the drowning fatalities through life-saving courses. It is estimated that 6,200 deaths were attributed to drowning in 1931.

The purpose of life saving is to eliminate preventable drownings by universal training in swimming and in water rescue and resuscitation, and in making water sports safe. Leaders are being trained over the nation.

Beginning today and lasting three weeks, the American Red Cross in cooperation with the Pampa chapter of the Red Cross, and the Boy Scouts, are sponsoring a program of the Red Cross swimming institute. From 9 a. m. until 10 a. m. on Mondays and Thursdays will be for beginners.

The instructions are free of charge, to be given by the official instructor, Harry Kelley and his staff.

The examinations will be given the 14th and 15th of July by A. T. McCue, the national Red Cross representative.

Every one interested may enroll at the Boy Scout office in the city hall, at once.

A. A. Clark, Scout executive of Adobe Walls council, is general chairman and Harry Kelley is instructor-in-chief. Other members of the committee in charge are Art Swanson, Don Conley, Clyde Fatheree, Dr. W. Purviance, Bill Wibel, and C. L. Stine. Alex Schneider, as president of the local Red Cross chapter, is an ex-officio member.

FERGUSON TO MEET NORRIS IN ARGUMENT

Whether Eighteenth Amendment Should Be Repealed Will Be The Subject

AUSTIN, June 26 (AP)—Former Governor James E. Ferguson today announced he had accepted a challenge of the Rev. J. Frank Norris of Fort Worth to debate tonight the question of whether the eighteenth amendment should be repealed.

Arrangements for the debate were made for Woodbridge park. It will be preliminary to repeal and anti-repeal conventions to be held here tomorrow.

When the Ferguson-Norris debate is in progress the state democratic executive committee will be in session in a hotel. The nature of the business the committee expects to transact was not known. The call for the meeting was made by Maury Hughes of Dallas, chairman.

Many delegates were arriving. Rival camps were set up in Austin for the renewal of the controversy between prohibitionists and anti-prohibitionists over the eighteenth amendment.

On tomorrow, prohibitionists and anti-prohibitionists plan to hold conventions to select a list of candidates for delegates to a state convention to cast Texas' vote on repeal of the eighteenth amendment and outline campaign plans.

The main event will come August 26 when the electorate chooses between the prohibition and anti-prohibition delegates. The winning state will be seated in the convention November 24 and will formally vote the will of the majority as expressed in the August 26 balloting.

Cotton Growers Will Decide On Acreage Slash

Cotton growers in the Pampa area will meet at 8 o'clock tomorrow night in the county court room in the court house and will discuss the abandonment of from 25 to 45 per cent of their acreage.

County Agent Ralph Thomas and George Briggs, manager of the Board of City Development, went to McLean this afternoon to attend a county-wide meeting of leaders. Community meeting will start tomorrow with the first meeting set for 2 o'clock at McLean.

Gray county has nearly 16,000 acres in cotton this year. The amount last year was only 11,000 acres. In order to lease cotton acreage to the government, it is not necessary to have planted cotton the year previously.

AIMEE SENT FAKE TELEGRAM TO FIND LEAK; HUTTON IS SKEPTICAL

PARIS, June 26 (AP)—Mrs. Aimee Semple McPherson Hutton, an American evangelist, may not receive visitors or communications for at least three weeks because of a serious illness necessitating an operation ten days ago to remove an intestinal obstruction.

Her physician, Dr. Charles Bove, said the seriousness of her condition makes absolute quiet essential, although she is slowly improving and is expected to get well steadily.

Dr. Bove, a well known gynecologist and surgeon, was quoted in published statements as saying he personally sent a telegram to David L. Hutton, the evangelist's husband in Los Angeles, Saturday as a hoax telling of the birth of a son to Mrs. Hutton. He was quoted further as saying the message was sent at the

'MAJOR AGRICULTURAL CATASTROPHE' IS PRICE FACTOR

CHICAGO, June 26 (AP)—A spectacular seven-cent advance today carried wheat prices to within whispering distance of the dollar a bushel line. The May (1934) delivery sold at 99 1/4 cents a bushel a few minutes before the close with the December up to 94 7/8. Crop damage news from districts suffering from heat and drought sent prices skyward from the start. All grains reached new peak prices for the season in one of the wildest buying movements seen in a long time.

Widespread conditions approaching crop failure seldom equaled in the United States were reported as a result of three weeks of abnormal heat and drought. Approximately 150,000,000 bushels of all grains changed hands here today as prices shot skyward.

The wild buying continued up to the close, the day's heaviest prices being recorded just as the gong sounded. The advances in wheat ranged 6 5/8 to 8 3/8 cents a bushel, the maximum gain being shared by both the September and December deliveries.

With the huge trading in the wheat pits slopping over into the other grain pits as well, corn prices advanced as much as 3 1/2 cents, oats 5 3/8, rye about 4 cents and barley almost 6.

The December delivery of corn reached 61 5/8 cents, the first time that corn has sold above 60 cents for 30 months, and the close was 60 7/8. Oats pushed along to 45 1/4 cents, paid to rise December which contrasts with 15 cents current for December oats about the first of the year. Rye pushed over the 80 cent line with the December closed at 82 1/4. Barley was well above 50 cents and December reached 56 1/2.

The trade who concentrated on the steadily growing news of what one authority called a "major agricultural catastrophe."

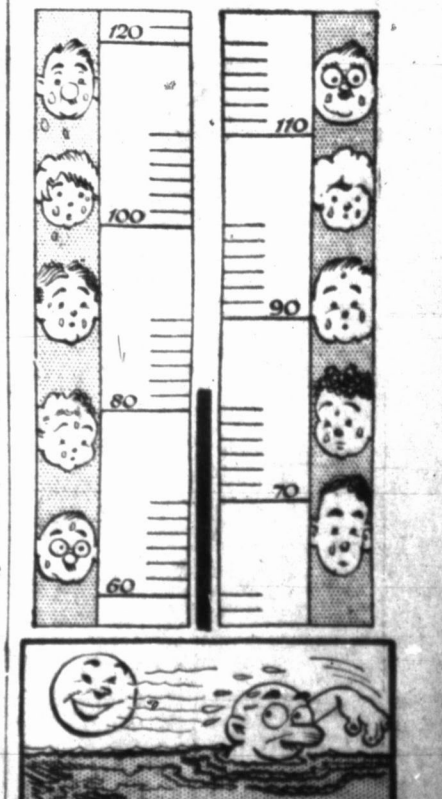

KANSAS CITY, June 26 (AP)—Prof. M. L. Wilson, wheat administrator under the new agricultural adjustment act, said here today the administration intends to pay farmers a bonus for reducing their acreage the approaching season, regardless of skyward rocketing prices for wheat.

NEW YORK, June 26 (AP)—Sensational buoyancy of grains at Chicago was accompanied by a sweeping rise in cotton and advances of $1 to more than $4 in stocks here today.

With wheat jumping 6 to 7 cents a bushel and cotton making extreme gains of better than $3 a bale, Wall Street traders rushed to buy the so-called commodity and "farm belt" issues, most of which rose vigorously.

WALL STREET ABUSES MUST BE CURBED

Wall Street probably never was the focus for more public disapproval than has been the case this year.

If left to fritter itself out in sporadic attacks on individuals, this wave of disapproval will eventually waste itself. If it turns on the Wall Street system as a whole, however, it can be made one of the most useful bits of public sentiment the country ever displayed.

And in speaking of the "Wall Street system," it is worth while to quote from a recent article in Harper's Magazine by John T. Flynn, a noted financial writer. Mr. Flynn declares bluntly that the stock exchanges nowadays are chiefly "devices for creating excessive debts"; and he goes on to explain just how the job is done.

As a sample, he cites the organization of the United States and Foreign Securities Co., an investment trust organized by a Wall Street banking firm.

The concern was capitalized at $30,000,000. Bonds worth $25,000,000 were sold to the general public. Preferred stock worth $5,000,000 was issued and sold to the bankers themselves. In addition, 750,000 shares of common stock were issued and assigned to the bankers as a bonus for buying the preferred.

Thus the corporation got its $30,000,000. But that was only half the story. The bankers took their common stock, which had cost them nothing, and had it listed on the exchange. Very soon it was valued at $50 a share.

"How much of this common stock issue was sold it is not possible to say," remarks Mr. Flynn. "It is conceivable that $50,000,000 worth was sold before the market broke, in which case it is clear that this enterprise would draw $80,000,000 from the public investor through only $30,000,000 actually went into the business."

This little anecdote speaks volumes. And no one who is familiar with the Wall Street system will say that it is an isolated way of floating securities—and it also, as Mr. Flynn says, represents a sure-fire way of creating excessive debts.

No one would deny that Wall Street has an important and useful function to perform in the economic life of the country. But it is pretty clear that some way must be found of curbing its debt-creating proclivities.

From our observation, those snappy beach pajamas that the girls are wearing this summer are used more for posing than for dozing.

Thermometer tests in capitol at Washington showed the House chamber was two degrees warmer than that of the Senate, which seems to indicate that the House has the most hot air although we had always believed the honors were about even.

Apparently, that Hollywood movie actor who says "When it comes to marriage, actresses should be limited to actor husbands" completely overlooks the fact that at the rate movie actresses marry here wouldn't be enough actor husbands to go around.

"They hired the money, didn't they?" said Mr. Coolidge in his famous observation about the war debts owed us by European nations. Looks like now they have decided to give it a permanent job.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, June 26 (AP)—Cotton had a very active and strong opening today. July notices totaled 6800 bales. First trades here showed gains of 16 to 21 points and the market continued to advance on heavy buying orders and on buying induced by continued dry weather in the western belt.

The market continued active all morning. Before the beginning of the second hour there was very heavy general buying based on an optimistic view of the government's acreage-control program. July traded up to 10.01, October to 10.29 and December to 10.42, or 53 to 58 points above Saturday's close at new high levels for 1933.

Around mid-morning the market reacted 14 to 15 points from the top, October dropping to 10.15 on profit-taking but later prices rallied and October moved back to 10.20.

At mid-session July traded at 9.90, October at 10.18 and December at 10.33, or 9 to 11 points under the highs of the morning but 44 to 47 points above Saturday's close.

Mrs. R. H. Smith was dismissed Saturday from the Pampa hospital, after an operation.

so deplete his working capital that he must deal with them or go broke," Ford, he said, had more than $65,000,000 on deposit in Detroit banks at that time.

Just before he made the statement regarding Ford, Wilkin had started the open grand jury session by declaring more than $4,000,000 had been cleared through the Detroit clearing house between the time of actual declaration of the state banking holiday, Tuesday, Feb. 14, and the following Thursday.

Withdrawals, he said, were made on behalf of Mrs. James Couzens, wife of the Michigan senator, and the Second National bank of Houston, Texas.

"The first man to spring the idea that the two old banks (the First National Bank-Detroit and the Guardian National Bank of Commerce) must be closed to give way to one in New York was George W. Davison, of the Central Hanover Bank and Trust company of Port Worth," Wilkin testified.

"Davison told a group of Detroiters at the Detroit club on the morning he arrived that Detroit must have one new bank. The Detroit bankers, after hearing him, came away with the idea that through Davison Wall Street was trying to control the credit of the whole state of Michigan."

Wichita Falls
Officers Seek
Insane Criminal

WICHITA FALLS, June 26 (AP)—North Texas officers today were hunting Carl Deimenger, criminally insane patient who escaped from the Wichita Falls state hospital after slugging an attendant with an iron bar and freeing five other inmates. Deimenger, 24, faces two charges of assault with intent to murder at Dallas.

The attendant, A. D. Jones, was knocked unconscious. At a hospital where he was under treatment his condition was reported to be serious.

Officers recaptured five of the fugitives. Two of them were found on the hospital grounds shortly after the break Saturday night. Henry T. McDonald, 21, of Dallas, charged with robbing seven Dallas chain stores, was caught on the outskirts of Wichita Falls. Sam Chowling, 23, of Dallas, and Jack Ledbetter, of Fort Worth, were located in their home cities.

THE WAY OF A WOMAN!

A New Serial by Ruby M. Ayres

SYNOPSIS: Mrs. Lovelock, housekeeper for George Bancroft's uncle, is dangerously ill and has been sent to the hospital. The uncle, furious at this interruption of his routine, has found George against the stairs and bruised her face. She is struggling with the housework when Nicholas Boyd, formerly a movie star, arrives. She has been romantically attracted to Nicholas since she met him on a ship returning from America, his face scarred and his career ruined. White, Nicholas is talking with George the doctor brings word of Mrs. Lovelock's death.

Chapter 20

"LET ME SEE YOU"

GEORGE did not cry; she stood looking at Boyd in a puzzled helpless sort of way that seemed to ask for explanations. Surely it was not really possible for people to be well and strong one moment, and the next to be quite dead?

Boyd asked gently: "Where is your uncle now?"

"At the Board's Head, I suppose."

"Would you like me to go and fetch him?"

"Oh no!"

Then suddenly George gave a little smothered cry. "Oh! I feel so queer! I'm afraid I'm going to faint."

She put out her hands, groping blindly for support, and Boyd caught her in his own, gently guiding her to Lovelock's chair.

"It's all right... hold on to me. Shut your eyes—you'll be all right in a minute."

George obeyed helplessly, holding on to him as if his life depended on it, then presently she let go.

"I'm all right now," she said faintly.

He fetched water for her and made her drink some.

"You want someone to look after you," he said angrily.

"Do I?" she pushed the heavy hair back from her forehead with a trembling hand. "Whom do you suggest?" she asked with a faint attempt at mirth. "I seem to be a nuisance all round as far as I can make out. Then suddenly she broke down, turning aside and sobbing with her face buried on her arms.

"Oh, go away, go away."

Nicholas stood looking helplessly at her, then suddenly he laid a hand on her shoulder.

"Stop crying, George, do you hear? Stop crying at once."

But it was some time before she could control herself, and even then she kept sobbing and wiping away tears that absolutely refused to stop falling.

And presently Boyd said: "Is there anything I can do for you?"

"Would you?" she asked.

"Of course; it's all wrong that a child like you should be so neglected."

"I'm not really a child."

"Tell me what I can do for you?" he urged.

She stood up suddenly, holding to the arm of the chair for support.

"Let me see you sometimes," she said in a quick, eager way. "I know can't be any harm in it. I know you're married and all that, and I don't want you, not in that way."

He smiled faintly. "In what way?" he asked.

"In the way you're afraid I do," she said bravely. "I mean, I'm lost in love with you. Do you think I am?"

"I hope I am not such an egoist. There's not much in me to love at the moment."

The hot color beat into her face and she bit her lip; then she said, with a return of her old eagerness: "Then can't we friends! I could go for a walk with you sometimes, couldn't I? If I'm only a child, as you say, there couldn't possibly be any harm in my going for a walk with you. You said once that people would talk; well, do you think matters what people say about anyone like me?"

He asked with quick anger: "What do you mean 'anyone like you?'"

GEORGE shrugged her slim shoulders.

"Well, we've got such a bad name in the village that nobody wants to know us," she protested.

Boyd's face softened.

"Poor little kid," he said.

The ready tears rushed to her eyes.

"Do you want me to cry again?" she demanded fiercely.

"I do not," he answered fervently; he walked away from her and stood looking out of the window at the neglected overgrown garden.

"The pleasure is mine," Boyd answered; he raised his hat and walked away.

George went back to the kitchen. For a moment she had forgotten the sudden tragedy which had brushed itself into her life, but now it came back to her overwhelmingly.

Lovelock was dead; she felt as if the bottom of the world were falling slowly from beneath her feet.

Lovelock had been an institution. George looked at the empty chair with its red cushion, and the slow tears coursed down her cheeks.

Chicago park board is all stirred up as to how high the fences should be around a proposed beach for nude sun-bathers. . . . Well, just how high are the neighbors' step-ladders?

Upon reading that a gas explosion in a western town tore up the street, we are inclined to believe that a lot of startled bystanders did the same thing.

JOHNSON, INDUSTRY DICTATOR, BARS PRICE-LIFTING SCHEMES

TARDINESS IN
SIGNING PACTS
IRKS OFFICIALADMINISTRATOR WARNS
BIG INDUSTRIES
IN ADDRESS

WASHINGTON, June 26 (P)—The administration wants to mold public opinion into a prod for big industries that seem a little slow about agreeing on how they shall increase wages and purchasing power.

And that same weapon will be used to see that these industries do not stray toward any "wild-cat price lifting" schemes.

Hugh S. Johnson, recovery administrator, inaugurated the direct appeal campaign because he was slightly ruffled at the fact that the rest of the 10 big industries apparently are waiting to see what happens to the cotton textile trade agreement before presenting their own.

His thesis in the plea to the people, and to business, was that the program "can succeed only if the whole nation gets behind it with both zeal and determination—every man and woman."

Already he has received proposed codes of fair competition from around 30 small industries, but except for cotton textiles the other big ones haven't come through. One reason, he said, was "ill-informed conjecture" that labor first should organize or that industry should form company unions to cut off labor organizations.

"Both sayings are wrong and very harmful," he summarized.

To forestall possible "peace profiteering," he added:

"This is a deadly serious matter—this danger of run-away prices."

Minimum Pay Of Teachers In High
Schools Is Set

AUSTIN, June 26 (P)—The state committee of classified and accredited high schools, in annual session here Saturday, ruled that all high school teachers in other than classified state aid schools shall be paid a salary of not less than $90 monthly or $810 a year. Salaries of teachers in elementary grades of such that have taught, less than $75 monthly, or $675 annually.

The committee decided schools that have taught less than 160 days in 1932-33, shall be dropped from the list of classified schools and those that have taught less than 170 days, but more than 160, shall be suspended, and be dropped if they do not increase their terms to the required minimum of 170 days in 1933-34.

Standard four-year high schools were instructed in filling vacancies beginning with the session of 1934-35, to employ only teachers who have had "a successful class room experience or professional training, and who are graduates of universities, colleges, or state teachers colleges, with class room assignment in their respective fields of preparation, and whose principal and superintendent shall hold the baccalaureate degree from a reputable, standard college or university, and shall have successfully completed at least eighteen semester hours in the field of educational administration." It was noted that "these increased requirements shall, however, not apply to teachers or administration employees who have served satisfactorily in the system for a period of five or more years."

But let them produce a senator, a great brass band, a noted municipal chorus, or achieve some similar distinction and they can stand out from the rest regardless of size.

Army Man Named
Congressman In
Seventh District

GALVESTON, June 26 (P)—Returns from the seventh congressional district of Texas indicated today that Clark W. Thompson, Galveston business man, had been elected to the office left vacant by the death of Representative Clay Stone Briggs. Thompson is a democrat.

Indications were that final tabulation of votes would give Thompson a lead of more than 1,000 votes over Thomas D. Pickett of Palestine, his closest opponent.

Thomas H. Dent, negro attorney from Galveston, received 679 votes in Galveston county and a scattering vote in the other counties, leaving him far behind.

Thompson, who was born 36 years ago at La Crosse, Wis., came to Galveston during a war as a member of the Marine corps. Later he was sent to Quantico and commissioned as a lieutenant. After the war he returned to Galveston to establish permanent residence. He holds a reserve commission in the Marine corps and takes a keen interest in military affairs. This was his first venture into politics and he ran as a "business man" candidate, advocating support of President Roosevelt's economic program and repeal of the eighteenth amendment.

Different Kinds of Tobaccos Make a Difference in Taste and Aroma

... Take Chesterfields, for Instance

SOME cigarettes are made out of only one kind of tobacco ... while others are made from several different kinds.

And everyone can understand that different tobaccos make a difference in taste and aroma. Chesterfields are a good example of this difference.

You see it's not easy to make Chesterfield's milder taste. It takes three distinct kinds of Domestic tobaccos. Then these must be seasoned with the right amount of Turkish. And they must be blended and cross-blended until their flavors are welded together ... to make a cigarette that has character and yet is not too strong ... to make a cigarette that's milder, a cigarette that tastes better.

Choice Turkish Tobaccos come to Chesterfield warehouses in bales like these.

Air Race Lid Is Off For Lady Birds

THEIR PLANES WILL SOAR ON TERMS WITH MEN'S

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Woman's place in the aviation sun, cramped in others years, draws a front row seat at the national air races, which will be run at the municipal airport here, July 1-2-3-4.

If there was reason in the past for a feminine complaint about lack of opportunity to win cash, glory and whatever else goes with triumphs in aerial speed, 1933 comes forward with a broad welcome to women as contenders.

Abundant Chances This Year
The races this year will allow Miss Flier to enter, with one exception, every event on the four-day program. Possibly opportunity will be premature for her ability, but the chance will be there.

As race time draws near, two women stand out as the likely leaders of the dashes against time and men. Mae Hazlip, wife of the cross-country speed champion, Jimmie Hazlip, of St. Louis, and Gladys O'Donnell, air school owner of Long Beach, Cal., graduated from the novice class so long ago that their ranking with the men has come to be accepted.

Flew 255 Miles An Hour
Few followers of aviation will forget the dazzling speed which Mrs. Hazlip established at the races in Cleveland last September when she gave a tiny speed ship the gun and flew down a straightaway course at 255 miles an hour. And if she could have found a plane, no doubt she would have challenged the men and precedent in the super closed course classic, the Thompson trophy race.

This year Mrs. Hazlip will have the flying equipment to do all the speeding she desires. Jimmie Hazlip, who grew almost overnight into an outstanding designer and pilot, by sweeping all three places in the transcontinental dash with his planes, taking one of them himself, last year, has given her the blackbodied "CW" in which her husband flew in 1932 to victory in the cross-country event.

Gladys O'Donnell Likely Entrant
Gladys O'Donnell, winner of the women's classic last year, the Aero trophy race with a purse of $3,000, which she walked away with at a speed of 185.476 miles an hour, has kept her plans for 1933 to herself, as in the past, but she will be present to worry the men fliers.

FIFTH AVENUE FASHIONS

By ELLEN WORTH

The Smart Small Set Goes in for Frills

The younger set is never too young to set a fashion. Novelty and youth are inseparable. That's why designers try out some of the newest of the new quaint tricks on the small fry, and it's surprising how quickly older sisters and even mothers snatch ideas straight from the cradle.

This fashion-wise young miss, for instance, is launching a fashion that will take the formal mode by storm as the season advances. You've guessed it—the frills at the hem to match the frills on her shoulders. And isn't she proud, too, of the square neckline and the velvet sash! The demure fabric is sheer dotted Swiss that will find its way to grown-up dances as well as children's parties all summer long.

If you've ever made a frock before, this is an ideal model to begin with. It will teach you just how easy sewing can be. Make it for all the little girls you know, and you'll soon graduate to more elaborate dressmaking. For fabric requirements see pattern envelope.

Cleveland races, and Mrs. Mae Hazlip (right) who in the same meet attained a speed of 255 miles an hour, likely will be among the contenders at Los Angeles.

ANNE LINDBERGH WILL ASSIST HUSBAND IN BLAZING NEW SKY TRAILS IN NORTH THIS SUMMER

Flight Will Be To Greenland And Northeast

NEW YORK, June 26 (AP)—Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh is going sky-trail blazing this summer with her husband, to Greenland, and perhaps to Iceland and Denmark.

Colonel Lindbergh's job will be to determine for Pan American Airways whether an America-to-Europe route by way of Greenland is feasible. His wife, who accompanied him on the flight to the Orient plane is best suited for such flights, provided it is decided to inaugurate regular trans-ocean passenger and mail schedules. He is technical adviser for the Pan-American Airways.

A ship which will be used as a base for the fliers is to sail from Philadelphia Tuesday. The Lindbergh itinerary has not been announced. It is understood the flight to Greenland is planned with as few stops as possible en route. The plane equipped with pontoons, will be the same one used in the flight to Japan and China.

Mrs. Alva Phillips entered the Pampa hospital this morning for treatment.

SPANIARD HELD IN BOMB EXPLOSION IN ST. PETER'S AT ROME

SPAIN'S BREAK WITH VATICAN IS STRESSED

EXPLOSION IS RESULT OF DISRUPTED RELATIONS

By ANDRUE BERDING, Associated Press Staff Correspondent.

VATICAN CITY, June 26 (AP)—The bomb which exploded yesterday in the portico of St. Peter's was manufactured in Spain and brought here by Demetrio Solamon, who carried a Spanish passport, the police declared today after they had arrested Solamon, charging him with planting the explosive.

The authorities asserted the explosion was the result of the present strained relations between the Vatican and Spain following the Pope's encyclical of June 3 and the latest tentative communications of members of the Spanish government.

The bomb caused a panic in a crowd of Holy Year pilgrims. Four persons were injured but there was little property damage. Solamon was born at Alexandria, Egypt, later became a Greek citizen and finally a Spaniard. He left Spain, the police said, on Thursday night and came directly to Rome, arriving yesterday morning. He went straight to St. Peter's where he deposited the bomb, the authorities asserted, in a heavy cardboard package.

His arrest came about in a curious fashion. Police related that Solamon stood in the middle of St. Peter's square near the ancient Egyptian obelisk until the bomb exploded, whereupon he began to run away.

A Fascist militia officer in civilian clothes started after him. He had passed the huge fountains to the left of the plaza when he put his hand inside his coat and threw something into one of the fountains, the police said, and then dashed on, eluding the pursuer by darting through the Bernini colonnade to narrow side streets.

The officer, thinking of the object tossed into the fountain, returned to the square and fished out a water-soaked Spanish passport which he turned over to the police.

The police presented the passport to Giovanni Secchi, a checking booth attendant, who identified the photograph as that of the man who had deposited the bomb package with him an hour before the explosion. A check of outgoing trains failed to reveal Solamon and the police then searched the hotels. The arrest was made early this morning, the authorities immediately notifying the Vatican and the Spanish embassy.

Whether Solamon made any statement was not divulged. According to the Lateran treaty he will be tried in Italy. Police said the bomb was only moderately powerful. The Pope was in his private library at the time of the explosion and, thinking that it was the cannons which are fired daily to announce the noon hour, he went on with his work.

U. S. Court May Reopen Texas Ports Dispute

The court, in a five to four decision last May, set aside an order of the interstate commerce commission requiring railroads reaching New Orleans to increase rates on such transportation when the distance hauled was 100 miles or over and 25 per cent greater to and from New Orleans than to Texas ports.

Justice Roberts, who delivered the opinion, today issued an order staying the mandate of the court carrying into effect its decision until the court can act in October on a petition for rehearing filed by the Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas interests. He also issued an order granting permission until August 15 to file a brief in support of the petition.

The Texas and Pacific and other railroads and commercial activities interested in shipping through New Orleans, which appealed the case to the supreme court, winning its decision, opposed the staying of the mandate.

The action taken by Justice Roberts will continue the controversy in such form that the high court, when it meets in October, will be in a position to reopen the case should it find the showing made in support of the petition for rehearing is sufficient to warrant such action.

MAGS ROUT MCLEAN 14-8, WINNING FIRST HALF OF COTTON-OIL LOOP RACE

PAMPANS HIT 4 HOMERS TO CLINCH GAME

MCLEAN GETS 17 HITS OFF THREE MAG PITCHERS

The Pampa Magnolia baseball team won the first half of the Cotton-Oil league race yesterday afternoon at Magnolia park with a 14 to 8 win over McLean, despite the fact that the other Gray county entry in the league imported four star players from other teams in the league in an effort to topple the "Mags" from first place.

Pampa made their runs on 13 hits and six McLean miscues, coupled with four home runs, while McLean got 17 hits off three Pampa pitchers. Rogers started the game and went strong until the sixth inning when he weakened. Simmons took the mound in the seventh but a barrage of base hits and three runs sent him to the showers and Stewart went to the mound with two men on and none out. He also was met by base hits but his support got him out of trouble and he finished the game. "Boss" Wagner caught the full game.

B. McCabe started in the box for McLean but lasted only three and a half innings as the "Mags" made nine runs. Morgan of Twitty took the mound and he also was hit rather freely. Other imported players were Davis, shortstop from Shamrock, Pike, third baseman from Magic City, and Neely, catcher from Wheeler.

Lorrie Warren led the hitting for Pampa with three hits, one a home run. Coburn, Hipps and Wagner followed with two each. Home runs went to Hipps, Newsome, Warren and Rogers. Warren crossed the plate four times and Hipps three times. "Pop" Cahill hit what should have been a home run but got only as far as third base when he stopped to rest.

Smith and Brawley were the McLean sluggers with four hits each. Davis connected with three safe singles. Brawley also scored three times. The McLean hits were worked by between second and shortstop and of the clean variety. Eight of the McLean hits went through that hole and Coburn and Baldwin were on the hop all afternoon.

Only two balls were caught in the outfield during the game. One by each team. The local team played nearly errorless ball and looked like winners from the first. They started scoring in the first inning and only failed to count in one inning. Newsome's home run scored Hipps ahead of him but the others were made when the bases were clear. Rogers had seven strikeouts during the six innings he was on the mound. The work of Baldwin, Coburn and Marshall, the three "Jimmies" on the Magnolia infield, was outstanding.

TWO TEXANS IN NET PLAY

National Intercollegiate Tennis Tournament Will Commence Today

HAVERFORD, Pa., June 26. (AP)—From the four corners of the country, 27 college net stars representing 44 institutions begin play at Merion Cricket club today in the annual national intercollegiate tennis championship tournament.

Topped by Jack Tidball, of the University of California at Los Angeles, the seeded list contains eight players. Behind Tidball in order are Karl Kamrath of Texas; Dick Murphy of Hamilton; Martin Buxby of Texas; Al Horton of Williams; C. Elliott Loughlin of Navy; Joe Coughlin of Stanford and Wilmer Hines of North Carolina.

The slow-stroking Cliff Sutter, Tulane's twice intercollegiate net king, is not defending his crown but the race for the honor includes Jacques Wadsworth from Princeton, Yale, Pennsylvania College, Haverford, New York university, Southern California, Minnesota, Syracuse, Loyola, Army, Columbia, Fordham, Duke, Virginia, Tulane, Michigan Normal, and numerous others.

Tidball, with a first round bye gets into action in the second bracket against W. E. Weld, of Hamilton. Kamrath's first round opponent is Stuart Taylor, of Virginia, and Murphy, also with a first round bye, faces Robert P. Hastings, of Yale, in his opening encounter.

First round matches of other seeded players are Buxby against Francis Moore of Abilene; Loughlin opposing Richard Rosheim of Williams; and Hines facing Kendall Cram of Tulane. Horton and Coughlin, having drawn first round byes, meet Bill Mandy of Yale, and Julius Axelrod of Penn. respectively, in second round engagements.

SENATORS AND GIANTS BOOST THEIR MARGIN

DOUBLE HEADERS WON BY BOTH CLUBS SUNDAY

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr., Associated Press Sports Writer.

The two second place clubs in the major leagues are learning by painful experience that if they give the New York Giants or Washington Senators an inch in the pennant races they'll take a mile.

The Giants, after picking up a half game Saturday, stepped out yesterday while St. Louis' Cards were having a day off and added another full game to their margin by taking two decisions from the Cincinnati Reds. The Senators, also winning twice, pulled out a game and a half in front of the New York Yankees got only an even break with Detroit.

Bill Terry's highly efficient pitching staff played its usual important part in downing the Reds 7-1 and 6-3 but improved hitting went along with it.

Washington took two games from the Cleveland Indians, 9-0 and 10-1, in its usual slugging style. The Senators battered out 29 hits while Earl Whitehill helped out with five-hit flinging in the opener.

The Yanks carried on the opening battle against Detroit for 12 innings before an error by Frank Crosetti opened the way for the Tigers to win, 6-5. The second game was halted by darkness after six innings and in that time Russell Van Atta gave only two hits and fanned seven to win 3-0.

The St. Louis Browns were the day's other double winners, taking two games from Boston to draw up a half game behind the seventh place Red Sox. A six-run rally in the eighth won the opener 10-6 and further heavy hitting brought a 6-4 triumph in the second game.

The Philadelphia Athletics registered a half-game gain on Cleveland by splitting a twin bill with the Chicago White Sox. Jimmie Fox clouted his sixteenth home run in the eighth inning to win the second game for the A's 5-3 after an eighth inning outburst had brought the Sox all their runs for a 3-2 victory in the opener.

Chicago's Cubs found their batting eyes in the first game against Boston and pounded their way to a 12-3 triumph with 18 hits, but they couldn't keep it up and Boston put over a ninth inning run against Charley Root to win the nightcap, 4-3. Two neat mound performances enabled Pittsburgh and Brooklyn to divide two games. Leon Chagnon limited the Dodgers to six hits while the Pirates won 5-2 then Walter Back came back with a four-hit job and Brooklyn triumphed 9-1.

Track Stars To Race In A.A. U. Meet This Week

CHICAGO, June 26. (AP)—A host of stars including Glenn Cunningham, Ralph Metcalfe, Charles Hornbostel, Ralph Metcalfe, Charles Hornbostel, others will take their farewell cracks of the season at the already badly battered track and field record book this week-end at Soldier Field in the annual A. A. U. championship meets.

Every record breaker in the country is entered in the 46th renewal of the meet, and another more or less complete revision of the book probably will be necessary after they finish their exercises. There are standouts in every event, but outside of possibly Metcalfe in the 100 and 200 meter races, there appears to be no reason for making any of them odds-on favorites.

Coach Is Offering Prizes For Putting Balls In Barrels

Odus Mitchell has a new idea at his driving course on North Frost street and it is proving popular. He has placed two barrels in the fairway, one about 50 yards and the other 75 yards, from the tee boxes, and the golfer who puts iron shots into the barrels gets prizes. It is an excellent way to get direction and distance, golfers say.

Business is good, the Harvester coach reports. With two more tournaments coming up he expects a big play and now has more than 300 golf balls. Many local golfers are taking advantage of the driving range, putting green and approach fairway.

Texas Scenic Beauties Sketched On Travelax Route

Take the word of a widely known Texas artist, Guy F. Cahoon, the highways of the Lone Star State afford a variety of scenic beauties not excelled by any other section of these United States. Mr. Cahoon has made travel sketches illustrating many parts of the world, but finds sufficient subjects at home to make him especially enthusiastic regarding the natural beauties of his own state.

"In Western Texas the motoring vacationist and his family can revel in the inspiring grandeur of rugged mountains," says Mr. Cahoon. "In Northern Texas they find long stretches of straight, smooth highway to intrigue them onward, mile after mile, over level, picturesque plains. In East Texas the traveler thrills to the peace and beauty of the wooded country as he motors through stately pines. To the south, he enjoys a wealth of luxuriant, sub-tropical plant life as he travels through the palm-bordered roads of South Texas and the Gulf Coast country. Truly, a variety of scenery as wide as the range of sports and interests which they lead."

The above illustrations were sketched by Mr. Cahoon for the Portland Cement Association and show typical scenes along the Travelax Route. Maps showing concrete highways in Texas (The Travelax Route) are now being distributed by the Association and may be obtained by writing their offices at Dallas.

DALLAS, June 26. (AP)—All Texas league clubs are meeting their pay-rolls promptly.

Taking everything in consideration, Guy F. Cahoon in the league is playing to substantial attendance. Indianapolis still owns 51 per cent of the Fort Worth baseball club and will continue to operate the Fort Worth franchise.

Pittsburgh has withdrawn support of the Tulsa Oilers, but a baseball civic organization was formed at Tulsa Friday night, and the club will be operated by Tulsa business men with Art Griggs in charge. Tulsa is one of the best cities in the league where attendance is concerned, and is not an orphan organization as many think.

Oklahoma City, in the league cellar, is out-drawing any city in the league in strictly paid attendance.

President J. Alvin Gardner of the Texas league returned from his West Texas oil wells and exploded the above "bombshell" concerning his league which many critics and most all fans believed was on the rocks and ready to fold up.

Gardner said the only trouble was that too many sports writers wrote too much about the business offices of the clubs instead of colorful stories of plays and players.

"The story that Indianapolis had turned Fort Worth back to the league is wrong. Norman Perry still operates the club, is meeting the twice-a-month payroll promptly, and I have definite assurance from him that he will support the Cats thru the season."

"I want it firmly understood that there is nothing wrong with the Texas league," continued Gardner. "Tulsa is in fine shape. Oklahoma City has been a pleasant surprise in attendance. Houston fans were a bit peeved because prices were not lowered there, but everybody there is again in a good humor and the Buffaloes are clicking. San Antonio is doing extremely well in attendance. Beaumont isn't up to last year's pennant stride but the turnstiles are still clicking for the Exporters. Galveston is in fine shape. The crowds are attending but there is too much free paper. Some of the clubs may even make a small profit through sale of players. My league is O. K., and we'll all still be O. K. when the Dixie series starts."

Mr. and Mrs. F. Byrd of Dallas were week-end visitors here.

MISSIONS LOSE TO BUFFS 6-0 IN 5 INNINGS

CAT CLOUTER EQUALS TEXAS LEAGUE HIT RECORD

By The Associated Press.

Breaking loose before the startled San Antonio Missions could get set, Carey Selph's league-leading Houston club subjected them to a 6 to 0 trouncing Sunday. The enthusiastic Buffs scored five runs in the first inning and another in the second.

A heavy rainstorm which broke up the game at the end of the fifth inning eliminated whatever chance the dangerous Missions might have had to overtake their opponents. The victory gave the Buffs an eight-game margin in league standings.

Heavy slugging by the Dallas Steers gave them a 10 to 7 victory over the Fort Worth Panthers in the first game of a double header. Fort Worth came back in the second game to win 4 to 1.

George Washington, Fort Worth's potent right fielder, equalled the Texas league's consecutive hit record of 11, set in 1921 by Tex McDonald of Wichita Falls. The burly slugger accomplished this by driving out a pair of singles in the first game again Dallas.

At Tulsa the Oklahoma City Indians played tight baseball to nose out the Oilers in the ninth inning, 3 to 2.

The Indians picked up a run in the fifth inning and another in the sixth, but the Oilers scored twice in the eighth to tie things up. A series of walks of Matuzak combined with a single and an error, gave the Oilers their scores.

JACK SHARKEY FAVORITE TO BEAT CARNERA

ALTHOUGH ODDS HAVE DROPPED TO SEVEN TO FIVE

By HERBERT W. BARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer.

NEW YORK, June 26. (AP)—If boxing matches were decided on the basis of bulk, Jack Sharkey could concede his heavyweight championship to Primo Carnera and go home to Boston.

But there's more to it than that and, unless Jack has turned overnight into one of those well-known "hollow shells," then he should be rated a strong favorite for his 15-round title defense against the big Italian in Madison Square Garden's outdoor bowl in Long Island City Thursday night.

One of the most puzzling aspects of pre-fight speculation has revolved around the betting odds. Where Sharkey was a 4 to 1 shot when he fought Carnera for the first time two years ago, the odds now have dropped to 7 to 5 with a possibility of a further shortening before the champion and challenger climb thru the ropes about 8:30 (E. S. T.) Thursday evening.

Sharkey, nearing 31, undoubtedly has lost some of his speed and by the same token Carnera has improved amazingly in the last two years, but the champion still looks like much the better fighting man. He'll have to concede 60 pounds in weight and seven inches in height, but he did it before and gave Carnera a beating over the same long 15-round route.

At his best, Sharkey comes close to being invincible. At his worst he still is a cagey, experienced ring veteran, hard to hit squarely, with plenty of strength and stamina. His chief problem against Carnera will be the vital one of conserving strength for the last five rounds. The mammoth Italian still is not a knock-out puncher, pushing rather than snapping his punches, but he wears down opponents by bulk alone and the cumulative effect of the blows he fires with his tremendous arms spell considerable punishment over a stretch of 15 rounds.

Sharkey will be out to win for if he does he will have a lucrative title match with Max Baer to look forward to in September when he plans to hang up his gloves forever, win, lose or draw.

William F. Carey, president of the Garden, has announced there will be no broadcast of the bout.

H. N. Drain of Tulsa was in Pampa last week.

ROADRUNNERS BEAT SHOPS

Lefty Thomas Strikes Out Nine, Hits Six Times And Scores Three Runs

The Danciger Roadrunners hit the ball hard and often to defeat the Cabot Shops 15 to 7 on the Cabot diamond yesterday afternoon. The Roadrunners hopped on the offerings of Meek and Lassiter for 19 hits.

Lefty Thomas, Roadrunner pitcher, was the hero of the game. Besides hurling good ball for the eight innings he was in the box, he struck out nine of the Cabot batters, hit six times on six trips to the plate and scored three runs. The left-hander hit four singles and two doubles. Godwin finished the game for the Pampa team and Ike Lister was behind the bat.

The Cabot hits were scattered with Raul getting two. The big bats of Danciger were in the hands of Nix and Herrin with three each and Ballew and Gossett with two each. Every man on the team hit safely. Home runs went to Nix and Miller.

The Roadrunners are looking for a game next Sunday. Any team in this section desiring a game should get in touch with Earl C. Roff at the Danciger Refinery, Pampa. The Roadrunners will play the Clemmons Brothers at Phillips camp, 11 miles south of Pampa, on July 4.
