LARGE ARMS SHIPMENT TO MEXICO HALTED

AS CITY SINKS INTO CAVERN

More than 4,000 persons left homes in Shenandoah, Pa., when a 24-block area of the city sank into mine diggings. Damage is estimated in excess of $1,000,000. Shown above is a resident watching the ever-growing crack in the side of the depot as the ground level slowly changes.

Power Figures Asked By City Commission

In a resolution passed by the city commission at its regular weekly meeting yesterday, the Southwestern Public Service company was requested to permit auditors and engineers appointed by the city to have access to company records with a view toward obtaining information on five points.

This Year's Lions Minstrel Due To Be Talk Of Town

A show crammed with melody that will keep Pampanians humming the tunes for weeks and with jokes that bring a chuckle days afterwards is the annual minstrel of the Pampa Lions club, to be presented on the nights of April 14-15 in the high school auditorium.

I Heard . . .

That a new Pampa resident has been a victim of car license troubles the past six months. It all started when he was transferred from Oklahoma to Colorado and had to buy a Colorado license for his car. Then he was transferred to Pampa and had to buy a Texas license, for two months. Now it's time for him to buy his 1940 license. That's four license tags in six months.

City 'Spanks' News For Its Bond Stories

Commission Denies Truth Of Paper's Statements

Truth of statements made in a series of articles that appeared last week and in an editorial published in The Pampa News last Sunday was denied by Pampa's City Commission in a resolution passed at its regular meeting in City Hall Tuesday afternoon.

The resolution states, in substance, that city officials did not state to the News that the City of Pampa did not have a contract with Crummer & Company, but that it did state that the City is not under contract with Crummer & Company or anyone else to sell bonds at a definite and fixed interest rate.

What the Pampa News had stated was that city officials told The News that the City had no contract, had only a commitment, and was not under obligations of any kind and that Crummer & Company's rate was not in line when the time came, the city would reject its bid.

The resolution states further that city commissioners or officials did not state to the News that there was some kind of deal between Texas bond houses which resulted in a situation where no other bonding houses would bid on Pampa issues.

What the Pampa News had stated was that city officials had told The News that there was believed to be, or that apparently there was some kind of deal. There is a wide difference between that statement and the one the resolution attributes to The News. The files of The News are the best evidence as to that. The News and city commissioners never have discussed interest rates.

The City Commission's resolution is reprinted here in full: WHEREAS, on the 3rd day of March, 1940, and on several days prior thereto, the Pampa News published editorials in which it was stated that City officials had advised The News that the City did not have a contract with Crummer & Company relative to electrical light and power revenue bonds; and

WHEREAS, such editorial statement was apparently based upon a misunderstanding on the part of the Pampa News representative as to what was said by City officials; and it is the opinion of the City Officials of Pampa that such misunderstanding should be clarified;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED That the Pampa News and the citizens of Pampa be and they are hereby notified that City Officials did not state to the Pampa News or any representative thereof, that the City of Pampa did not have a contract of any kind with Crummer & Company; That the statement made by City officials to representatives of The Pampa News was to the effect that the City of Pampa is not under a contract with Crummer & Company or anyone else to sell electrical light and power revenue bonds at a definite and fixed rate of interest.

This statement was true. Contract Made In 1939 Representatives of The News were expressly told that the City of Pampa did have a contract with Crummer & Company which was published in full in The Pampa News on the 24th day of November, 1939, upon the request of the City Commission; which contract is now on file in the City Hall as a public record and has been on file since its execution, and is subject to public inspection and examination. This contract binds Crummer & Company to furnish the City of Pampa with sufficient funds to purchase the facilities of the Southwestern Public Service Company, or to construct a new system. When and if such funds are furnished, Crummer & Company is to receive electric light and power revenue bonds bearing interest at a rate to be agreed upon and determined at the time the bonds are issued, but not to exceed four and one-half percent. This contract is considered most advantageous to the City in view of the present status of the bond market; the maximum rate that can be charged being one and one-half percent below the maximum rate.

THE PAMPA NEWS STILL SAYS: Somebody Is Mistaken!

(An Editorial)

Elsewhere on this page today is a news story dealing with a resolution adopted yesterday afternoon by Pampa's City Commission which denies the truth of statements made in an editorial published last Sunday and in articles published Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of last week in The Pampa News.

The public no doubt realizes that The News and the City Commission, as a result of this resolution, could get into an unending argument in which each might nominate the other as top candidate for Pampa's No. 1 Ananias.

The News had planned today to go into details of the meeting at which statements referred to in the resolution were made. But because it was learned last night that the meeting, which was arranged by members of the fact-finding committee, is considered confidential by certain persons who attended the session, in addition to the three city commissioners, the newspaper refrains from printing the lengthy details of events and circumstances which led up to last week's series of bond articles and last Sunday's editorial.

Suffice it to say that The News still stands by all statements made, and stands by them without any reservations. There were eight men in the room when it happened. They all know the facts. In addition to that, there are other citizens who say they have heard city officials make one of the two statements denied in the resolution.

Standing pat, The News has only this comment to make: Somebody STILL is mistaken!

Lecturers To Be Sponsored By Rotarians

A series of lectures on international relations, sponsored by the Pampa Rotary club, will be held here weekly from March 20 to April 10.

The lectures are a part of Rotary International's plan to acquaint members and the public with the background of current events. Although the plan has been in operation in other places before, it will be the first time the lectures have been given in the 127th Rotary district, which includes Pampa.

Pampa, Borger, Lamesa, Stamford, and Graham, are on the itinerary of the speakers.

First of these will be John A. Morrison, member of the department of geography of the University of Chicago and a specialist in the geography of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the Far East.

Morrison will lecture in Pampa on March 20 on "Developments in Soviet Russia."

A speaker has not yet been selected for March 27. On April 3, Nicholas R. Doman, author and lecturer on international affairs at the University of Budapest, will speak in Pampa on "Central Europe—Battlefield of Imperialism."

For April 10, the speaker will be Allen D. Albert, past president of the International Association of former associate publisher of The Minneapolis Tribune. His topic will be "The Struggle for Raw Materials."

The Pampa High school auditorium will probably be the place the lectures will be held here, although this has not been definitely decided.

Speakers are to address high school assemblies on Wednesday morning, be guests of the local Rotary club at noon on Tuesday, the regular weekly luncheon date of the club, then make the address that night.

Under the plan outlined, the speakers are to appear in Lamesa on Mondays, Borger on Tuesdays, Pampa on Wednesdays, Stamford on Thursdays, and Graham on Fridays.

14 Persons Sue For Old Age Pensions

AUSTIN, March 6 (AP)—Fourteen aged persons have gone to court in an attempt to force payment of old age pensions which had been denied them.

Acting for the plaintiffs, Senator Doss Hardin of Waco and Rep. Ross Hardin of Prairie Hill, liberal pension advocates, filed suit in district court here yesterday seeking a writ of mandamus requiring director Adam R. Johnson of the public welfare department to pay the McLellan, Corvell, Limestone and Denton county residents "a fair, just, reasonable and equitable allocation of aid."

The plaintiffs contended they had been denied the object of discrimination and would have been happy to make special inquiry into any cases of "penalizing them for raising a family of children, who now deprive themselves" that these plaintiffs might live.

Johnson, informed of the suit, said: "We're doing the best we can with a short-handed staff of investigators and would have been happy to make special inquiry into any cases of the Hardin boys called to our attention. We've had interpretation of the statutes by the attorney general for guidance and are carrying out investigations and re-investigations of applicants on the basis of those recommendations."

Band To Lead Delegation To Borger Fete

Pampa's high school band will take part in the Borger Birthday parade Friday morning. The band, under direction of A. C. Cox, will leave at 9 o'clock and will be followed at 9:30 a. m. by a delegation of citizens who will leave from the city hall.

Pampans who can accompany W. A. Bratton and his Chamber of Commerce goodwill committee to the big party are urged to call 383 and register. "We want a large delegation to make the trip," Chairman Bratton said today.

There will be fun and thrills all day long as Borger observes her 14th birthday. The celebration will get under way with a giant parade at 10:30 a. m., and will close with a big dance at night.

Special attraction will be the "Light Crust Doughboys," appearance of Ben Aha Day, strong man against Vignoni had been turned back. The heavy Russian losses were said to have been inflicted in the Vuoksi river sector, south-east of the besieged city, where the Finns said several dozen Soviet tanks had been destroyed.

Complete Program 10:30 a. m.—Gigantic parade and children's parade. 11 a. m.—The Hot Tamale Ramblers, 30 minutes of "red hot" music.

1:30 p. m.—A pair of overalls will be thrown from the roof of a building between Fifth and Sixth streets. The man who succeeds in recovering the overalls and carrying them into any men's wear store will receive FREE $15 in clothing. If two men carry away with them, the prize will be split between the two.

Females Healthier Than Men—Maybe Men Work Harder

BY HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE Associated Press Science Editor NEW YORK, March 6.—American women are growing healthier than the men, and their superiority is so great that in every decade of life, from cradle to old age, fewer females die than men.

A clear-cut surplus of women is in prospect as a result of this trend, figures published today by the Metropolitan Life Insurance company indicate.

The superior ability of the women to escape death covers the present century up to 1937, the last year when data are available.

During this long period, the death rate of white male babies under one year old decreased 61 per cent; of girls, 63. At 20, the young man's death rate dropped 57 per cent; the women, 52. At 60, males experienced a reduction in mortality of less than 7 per cent, against 26 for women.

"In this situation, and in the absence of any substantial immigration," says the report, "it is very likely that the ratio of females to males in our population will show a continuing increase."

Tremendous social trends that may flow from such a female surplus are mentioned in a separate analysis of European nations where, due to the World War, there were for a time surpluses of women of marriageable age with a shortage of husbands.

One result was a serious discussion of permitting polygamy. Another was marriage of older men to young women, with increasing divorce and a drop in child-bearing.

Jaycees Vote To Grow Beards

'Smoothies' Will Be Ducked In Tank

By THE ROVING REPORTER The Jaycees did not shave this morning. At least they were not supposed to.

If they did they'd be subject to a public ducking in a tank of water at the court house.

Yesterday, the Jaycees voted to let their whiskers grow in order to advertise the Top O' Texas Fiesta. Then they voted to put "teeth into the law."

Johnny Wells, chairman of a committee appointed by Vice President Jimmy Dodge of the Jaycees who presided at the regular luncheon-meeting, announced after he had conferred with his committee that a tank would be placed at the courthouse, and that at regular intervals all Jaycees not growing whiskers like those worn by Coronado and his men would be publicly ducked in the tank. Time of ducking the victims will be posted beforehand.

A picture of the kind of beard and whiskers to be grown will be published in the News in a few days.

On Johnny's committee are George Grammas, C. H. Schulky, Charlie Lambka, Ed Pohl, and the Roving Reporter of the News.

Jaycees who refuse to grow whiskers will be ducked once a week Wells announced. He has signed up a strong-arm riot squad to carry out his orders. "No Jaycee who refuses to grow whiskers will get by with one ducking," said the doc. "The riot squad will be on his neck for three long months. Nobody will be exempted. Not even the so-called big shot."

The Jaycees issued a blanket invitation to all men and boys of the community who can grow beards in the Coronado manner. "We are going to set an example this year for other men to follow Wells said. He intimated that last year the Jaycees were decidedly lax in setting a proper hirsute example.

Shamrock Expects Another Pretty 'Colleen' From Pampa This Year

Special To THE NEWS SHAMROCK, March 6.—Shure an Shamrock people are lookin' for a big delegation of their Pampa neighbors to attend the third annual St. Patrick's Day celebration on Monday, March 18. The "Jinny gows" are sprouting in this Irish city as the population jigs toward its biggest holiday. Every able-bodied male is growing one and the barber shops will be doing a land-office business after the festival.

Blit Mayfield is president and high mogul of the Donegal Beard club and will head the whiskered group in the Irish Day parade.

Governor Leon Phillips of Oklahoma will be an honored guest of the city on the big day, along with

Candidate Of Revolutionary Party Jailed

Two Mexicans Indicted For Act Violation

HOUSTON, March 6 (AP)—The Remington arms company was indicted by a federal grand jury today for alleged violation of the neutrality act in the shipment of 27,500 rounds of ammunition to Mexico.

Indicted with the company were two Mexican citizens now jailed at Laredo, Texas.—Lieutenant Colonel Francisco De Valle Arispe and Gregorio Prieto, a retired army major who said he was in the employ of the national revolutionary party of Mexico.

Arispe, 40-year-old self-asserted chief of staff for general Rodrigo Quevedo, was a candidate for representative to the Mexican national Congress on the national revolutionary party ticket, he told United States government investigators.

George John, assistant to the U. S. district attorney, said the government alleged "conspiracy to violate, and violation of, the neutrality act of 1939 by unlawfully exporting, and attempting to export, ammunition to Mexico without obtaining a permit from the secretary of state."

Pair Jailed The exported arms, he said, were 17,500 rounds of Remington 32 caliber ammunition and 9,750 rounds of Remington police service ammunition.

Federal Judge James V. Allred fixed bond for the company at $10,000.

Arispe and Prieto are jailed in lieu of $1,500 bond. They filed a writ of habeas corpus at Laredo Feb. 23, seeking release on the claim that the neutrality act would not be applied to them, but judge Allred denied the petition at that time.

John described the government's contentions thusly:

Arispe ordered the ammunition from the arms company, a Bridgeport, Conn., concern, through Remington's agent in Mexico City. The material was sent to Laredo and stored there.

Warehousemen notified customs agents of the shipment, and on January 19 Arispe and Prieto were arrested at the international bridge immediately after they paid toll on the arms and prepared to depart with them.

"They said at first the ammunition was for target practice, and later they claimed it was for their personal use," John said.

The attorney said Remington was licensed to ship arms but under the neutrality act must obtain a permit before doing so.

The case will be brought up at the See LARGE ARMS, Page 3

Man Who Lived His Life As Woman Dies

REDWOOD CITY, Calif., March 6 (AP)—The body of a 71-year-old man, whose life-long masquerade as a woman was revealed by his death, lay in a mortuary here today while authorities sought to learn if relatives would claim it for burial.

Known as "Mrs. Adele Best," the man died in a hospital here yesterday after a brief illness.

Chief of Police C. L. Collins and other authorities who investigated the strange case said they learned the man had once gone through a marriage ceremony as the "bride" of Albert Best, former San Jose resident, and they had lived together until Best's death 10 years ago.

I Saw . . .

Bridal Shower Given Tuesday For Mrs. Archer

Complimenting Mrs. Quentin Archer, who was Miss Velda Richards before her marriage on February 24, Miss Evelyn Barron, Miss Johnnie Davis, and Mrs. E. E. Shelburner were hostesses to members of the Upsilon chapter of Beta Sigma Phi society at a miscellaneous bridal shower Tuesday night in the home of Miss Barron.

During the evening three accordion selections were played by Miss Ernestine Holmes after which Mrs. T. F. Morton gave a reading.

Gifts were presented to the honoree in a newspaper bag by a messenger boy. Also Mrs. Archer received a corsage of pink and white sweet peas.

Refreshments of pink cake squares topped with tiny white flowers, brick ice cream centered by pink wedding bells, and spiced tea with nuts and pink and white mints were served at a lace covered table centered by a bouquet of pink and white sweet peas in a crystal bowl on a reflector. Encircling the centerpiece was a lei of colonial sweet pea nosegays which were given to each guest. Tall pink tapers in crystal holders lighted the arrangement.

Registering in the hand-painted guest book which was covered with a picture of the bride and bridegroom were Mrs. J. W. Richards, mother of the honoree, Meses Raymond Harrah, Arthur Teed, Delbert Brown, Roy Kay, Fred Thompson, W. G. Gasdins, Earl Gobbie, Robert Curry, W. Postma, T. F. Morton, E. E. Shelburner, Quentin Archer, and Misses Burton Tolbert, Dorothy Jo Taylor, Anne Johnson, Johnnie Hodge, Ernestine Holmes, Evelyn Barron, and Johnnie Davis.

Gifts were sent by Meses Jim Collins, J. B. Massa, D. C. Hartman, R. M. Kilgler, Charles Vauzelle, and Misses Edith Richards, Lois Hinton of Mescon, Cleora Stankard, Louise Smith, Margaret Stockstill, and Minnie Olive Montgomery.

Central Baptists Observe Week Of Prayer With Study

Mrs. C. A. Jones was leader of the program presented by Lotie Moon circle of Central Baptist Women's Missionary society Tuesday afternoon at the church in the second day of the week of prayer for home missions.

Assisting the leader were Meses Edgar Dickey, Noble Brown, Wood Overall, J. L. Barnard, and Frank Jewell. Mary Kathryn Jewell played an accordion solo at the meeting which was attended by 26 members.

The initial program was presented Monday at the church with Mrs. L. B. Scruggs as leader of the program with Lydia Circle in charge.

Mrs. Scruggs was assisted by Meses Harry Dean, T. E. Beckham, G. C. Stark, S. L. Anderson, Ray Riley, and J. B. Cole.

Nineteen members were present. The third session in the week of prayer was planned for this afternoon.

Mrs. Orton Hostess At McCullough WMS Meeting This Week

McCullough-Memorial Women's Missionary society met Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. J. A. Orton with Mrs. L. P. McDaniels as leader of the program on "Living Creativity," taken from Genesis 1:1 and John 5:17.

Waking parts on the program were Meses A. D. Hastens, C. R. Vernon, H. H. Brachter, J. A. Orton, and O. G. Smith.

In the business session, Mrs. H. H. Brachter was elected delegate and Mrs. C. R. Vernon, alternate, at the conference to be held at Plainview, Mrs. Vernon reported on the zone meeting held in McLean last week.

Ten members were present. Next Monday afternoon the society will meet in the home of Mrs. H. H. Brachter.

Methodists Will Have Fellowship Supper Tonight

A monthly fellowship covered dish supper will be served tonight at 7 o'clock in the basement of the First Methodist church.

Officers, teachers, and pupils of the high school departments will be in charge of the program.

A. M. Teed is superintendent of the high school department with Mrs. Carlton Nance as sponsor of the high school Epworth League.

Teachers in the department are Mrs. Raymond Harrah, Mrs. Key-mit Lawson, Mrs. Tom Dean, Miss Johnnie Hodge, Clifton Evans, J. B. White, Tom Herod, and Harold Wright.

The accordion quartet, above, composed of Elaine Carlson, Betty Ann Culbertson, Bill Halsey, and Bill Kenton, will play the closing numbers in the Accor-dition Festival to be held Friday night, March 8, at 8 o'clock in the city auditorium. The quartet will play Stuff and Things, a modern swing composition, written especially for accordion by Tito and Ay. Ay, arranged by Galla-Rinc.

BGK Members-Guests To Attend Supper Club On Easter Sunday

At the meeting of B. G. K. club Tuesday night in the home of Miss Dorothy Brumley, final plans were completed for members and their guests to attend the supper club at the Nat in Amarillo on Easter Sunday evening, March 24.

Reservations are being made for the B. G. K. to enter the supper club as a body and special table arrangements will be provided.

The annual round-up dance to be given preceding the Top O' Texas Fiesta celebration was discussed also. The dance will be open to the public and fiesta costumes will be the only requirements for admission tickets.

Miss Jane Kerbow, recently elected president of the club, presided at the meeting and is also taking an active part in all activities of the organization.

At the close of the session, refreshments were served by the hostesses to Meses McCarty, Freda Barrett, Paul Schneider, James Gotcher, Jack Smith, and Misses Betty Jo Townsend, Claudine Jeffries, Albert Schulkey, Clara Marie Hartell, Idabel Wagon, Jane Kerbow, and Lucille Bell.

The club will meet Tuesday evening at 8:15 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Paul Schneider.

Mrs. Gantt Named Honoree At Meeting Of Sewing Group

Happy Hemmers Sewing club met in the home of Mrs. Evelyn Cooper Tuesday afternoon to present Mrs. Cecil Gantt a farewell gift.

Mrs. Gantt will leave soon with her family to make her home in Oklahoma City.

A handkerchief shower was given for Mrs. Zula Donald, retiring president, and Mrs. H. M. Hewett took charge as vice-president.

Refreshments of cake, ice cream, and coffee were served to Meses Steve Donald, Spencer Matlock, W. S. Kiser, Otto Patton, Dany Campbell, H. M. Stewart, Edgar Barnett, Fred Ferguson, Cecil Gantt, and two visitors, Mrs. Ned Langley and Miss Ina Gantt.

On March 19 the club will meet with Mrs. Steve Donald.

'Kitty Foyle' To Be Reviewed For Literature Group

"Kitty Foyle," current best-selling novel by Christopher Morley, will be reviewed by Mrs. Ned O. Miller of Amarillo at the meeting of the Contemporary Literature group of the American Association of University Women next Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the city club rooms. The review will be open to the public upon payment of a small admission fee.

Mrs. Miller will be remembered for her review of "Rebecca" last spring before one of the largest groups ever to attend a book review in Pampa. She recently reviewed "Kitty Foyle" at the Rose Bowl review room in Amarillo and also for the book review group of the Amarillo A. U. W.

"Even if 'Kitty Foyle' is not perfect as a novel," says one critic, "it is still good." Christopher Morley has written worst faults but loves it anyway. Here are plenty of ideas and more emotions than are usually found in a Morley opus; best of all, the book is stimulating and thought-provoking. It raises questions, instead of settling them, thus making the readers a participant rather than a mere spectator."

Following the review, an informal reception will be held.

Second Program In Week Of Prayer Series Held Tuesday

Members of Woman's Missionary society of First Baptist church met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Ira Westbrook for the second program of the Annie Armstrong week of prayer observance.

"Mission Work in Our Cities" was the topic of the program presented with Mrs. G. H. Covington giving the devotionals to open the study.

Topics discussed were "Missions in Our Modern Cities" by Mrs. L. H. Simpson; "The Call of the City," Mrs. B. E. Bard; "Our Concern for the City," Mrs. O. R. Wasson; and "Offering Named for Annie Armstrong," Mrs. A. L. Prigmore.

Present were Meses C. D. Miller, Clifford Williams, Ella Brake, Frank Hall, Floyd Yeager, J. C. Vollmer, B. E. Bard, L. M. Simpson, Ira Westbrook, J. J. Simmons, R. W. Tucker, B. F. Edwards, Keith Lane, G. H. Covington, Viola Vandover, Joe Hunter, W. E. Bell, L. H. Simpson, C. Gordon Baynes, O. R. Wasson, Charles Kentling, Robert Carr, John Muan, C. S. McKinney, W. M. Voyles, and A. L. Prigmore.

This afternoon the society met at the church for a monthly executive meeting at 12:30 o'clock in the city club with lunch following at 1 o'clock. Featured on the program was the Rev. E. B. Joseph who is conducting a revival at the Kingsmill Baptist church.

Banquet Given As Courtesy To Group By Lodge

A turkey dinner was given by the Rebekah and Oddfellows lodges Tuesday night at the I. O. O. F. hall to honor Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Gantt, Miss Ina Gantt, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Langley, Francis Enwright, and Godron Lansley.

Mr. Gantt, superintendent of Wilcox Oil company, is being transferred to Oklahoma City where the family will be at home.

A past noble grand pin was presented to Mr. Gantt and at the Rebekah lodge meeting last week a similar pin was given to Mrs. Gantt.

The dinner was served by Edna Crisler, Edna Cone, and Flo Spoonmire. The invocation was led by Mrs. John Beverly and after the banquet, games were played with Lois King and Pearl Gustka in charge.

Attending were Meses and Meses E. Goble and family, Fred Poronto and family, Jess Clay, Emory Noblitt and family, J. W. Crisler and family, A. Spoonmire and family, E. C. Hupp, C. H. The poor girl is so wrapped up in cords that she can't manage to pass the brownies. She is so proud of her fine modern electrical appliances, it's too bad to spoil the effect with a maze of cords. What she needs is more conveniently placed electric outlets. Maybe she doesn't know she can have them at little cost, double ones, at that. Outlets enough for six appliances, so placed that the aerial network effect will be a thing of the past. If you get all bound up in electric cords because you need more electric outlets, just telephone your electric contractor and he will send a man right up to put them in for you.

Grand Jury May Deliver Final Report Today

Members of the 31st district court grand jury were to meet this afternoon to give their final report. Although a few jurors assembled yesterday, there was not a quorum present.

At noon today, the jury commissioners met again to select the names of petit grand jurors for the next term of court here which opens May 27.

Judgments filed in 31st district court Tuesday afternoon were:

Ex parte, Mattie Velma Brown, petition for removal of disabilities as minor granted; Vernon R. Stuckey vs. Nina Roy Stuckey, divorce granted; Arthur Lewis vs. Annis Lewis, divorce granted, custody of Arthur, 6, Joe Clifford 4, and Thelma Lee, 3, minor children, to plaintiff; Fairbanks, Morse & Co., vs. E. E. Plank, chattel mortgage lien of March 1, 1938 ordered foreclosed, plaintiff receives $759.32, interest at 8 per cent.

Mrs. Berwick Roby vs. Texas State Life Insurance company, plaintiff recovers $1,000 and attorneys fees, judgment credited with $415.52.

Walker And Reeves Attend Meeting Of Water Authority

Postmaster C. H. Walker, Gray county director of the Panhandle Water Conservation Authority, and Garnet Reeves, manager of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce, attended a meeting of authority directors in Amarillo today. Carl Hinton, association secretary, was to make a report on his work with the lakes program in Washington. County reports by the 24 directors of the association was to be made soon after the meeting got under way at 2 o'clock.

Extra benefits for the plains area under the reclamation program received a setback in Washington Monday when the house appropriations committee rejected requests for $5,000,000 to be used in developing small irrigation projects over the nation.

The action, however, won't affect the regular lake program.

State School Board Must Okay Building

Starting construction of Pampa's new high school building is being delayed because the state school board has not definitely approved plans submitted by Townes and Funk, architects. It was learned here today. The State Works Projects Administration office is ready to issue the order for construction but cannot do so until receiving state school approval.

So sure was the state WPA office that work could start immediately that on Monday they released 55 men from the Lake McClellan job and assigned them to the school project. Then it was learned that an order from the state school board was being held up pending minor changes in the plans.

To save WPA workers from losing time, City Manager W. T. Williamson today said he would place the men on the city park project until a work order for the school job was received.

According to school officials here, the state school engineer failed to approve the plans and suggested minor changes. Townes and Funk of Amarillo, architects, immediately started making necessary changes. According to a member of the firm, he contacted the state engineer and asked that the work order be approved subject to the changes. The architect told Pampa school officials that the engineer had agreed but up to this morning he had failed to make his report to the state board.

Maverick Advocates Abolishing Poll Tax

WASHINGTON, March 6 (AP)—Mauri Maverick, mayor of San Antonio, Texas, asserted today that abolition of the poll tax would permit millions of sharecroppers and urban laborers in southern states to overcome corrupt voting.

Maverick, a former congressman, appeared before a house judiciary subcommittee in behalf of legislation forbidding election officials from requiring evidence of poll tax payments as a prerequisite for voting.

It is a practice in some poll tax states, he said, to vote fictitious persons by having real persons present on poll tax receipts for the non-existent ones.

He said this had been accomplished by political machines teaming up with tax collectors and that negroes sometimes were used to cast the "phantom" ballots.

Chairman Walter (D-Pa.) of the subcommittee inquired how abolition of the poll tax would do away with the "phantom voters."

"There are millions of sharecroppers and urban workers," Maverick replied, "who are not corrupted but just can't vote. They'll overcome this corrupted vote."

The mayor noted that there were eight southern states which still require poll taxes—Alabama, Arkansas, South Carolina, Mississippi, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia.

Canyon Rotarians Give Program Here

The Canyon Rotary club presented the program at an infirmary meeting with Pampa Rotarians today noon.

The program, arranged by Olin E. Hinkle, a member of the Canyon club and former Pampa newspaper man, featured student entertainment. The West Texas State College Girls' Sextet sang two numbers. Members were Mary Nell Scruggs of Wellington, Jane Williams of Clarendon, Marion Miller of Claude, Mestie Routh of Amarillo, Merle Crow of Amarillo, and La Nelle Scheehagen of Hereford. They were accompanied at the piano by Lela Zouderer of Canyon.

George Stokes of Plainview, Darlington, also was present.

Dr. J. A. Hill, president of West Texas State College, made a short address.

Income Questions In Census Opposed

WASHINGTON, March 6 (AP)—The census controversy swept from Capitol Hill to the White House and back today, with President Roosevelt describing efforts to strike out personal income questions as "pollition" and senator Tobey (R-NH) terming that statement a "smoke screen."

Discussing Tobey's resolution to eliminate the queries before the national census begins April 1, the chief executive told reporters late yesterday:

"The whole thing is a political move. Everybody accredited to Congress knows that is the sole motive."

Tobey promptly replied that "as a purveyor and producer of politics, the President is a past master, but in his statement he creates a smoke screen to cover it up." Then he added:

"Angered and incensed, the American people cry out, 'Hold! Enough!'"

The argument even included a jesting comment from the President that the census taker might be the first to learn his third term plans.

Mr. Roosevelt however jovially turned aside direct press conference questions about his political intentions.

Pampa VFW Will Initiate Veterans At Amarillo Meet

The degree team from the Pampa post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will be in charge of initiation work at the district convention in Amarillo March 17, it was reported at last night's meeting. A large delegation of Pampa members will attend the convention.

A committee from the Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce composed of President D. L. Parker, Jack Johnson and Jimmy Dodge visited the post last night and outlined plans for the 1940 Top O' Texas Fiesta. They also presented the post with a check due from the last fiesta.

Tri-City Debate Tournament To Be Held Here Tomorrow

A Tri-City Debate tournament will be held at the Pampa high school tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock. Five debate teams from Barger, Mobeetle and Pampa will participate, three in the boys' division and two in the girls' division.

Topic of debate will be "Resolved that the State of Texas should adopt a system of complete civil care available to all citizens at public expense."

Woodrow Wilson's All-School Revue To Be Tomorrow

Woodrow Wilson's All School Revue will be presented tomorrow night in the high school auditorium, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The revue had to be postponed last month because of unfavorable weather.

"We're going to have the revue tomorrow night, rain or snow or clear weather," declared Principal H. A. Yoder today.

The revue will include numbers by the Woodrow Wilson band, operated by the first and second grades, songs by the glee club, a one-act play and accordion numbers by Wesley Geiger between acts.

The public is invited to attend the revue.

next term of federal court in Laredo, opening April 15.

The indictment alleged a conspiracy to defraud the United States and continuing until the arrests.

John said a carload of customs agents waited on the International bridge in case the Mexicans should attempt an escape. He said they were arrested peacefully.

The arrests came at a time when Mexico was in the throes of a presidential campaign, which was marked by some violence.

The Mexican revolutionary party is the party of President Lazaro Cardenas, whose candidate is Manuel Avila Camacho. The principal opposition candidate is Gen. Juan Andres Almazan.

Attempts on Almazan's life have been reported, and some of his followers have been killed.

Prosecutor John said, however, "as far as the United States is concerned, there are no political ramifications in this case. We allege simply conspiracy to violate and violation of the neutrality act."

Ohio Court Rules Against Picketing

COLUMBUS, O., March 6 (AP)—Ohio's supreme court ruled today picketing is illegal "in the absence of a legitimate trade dispute."

Union spokesmen said immediately the American federation of labor probably will carry the issue to the U. S. Supreme Court.

The decision enjoins the hotel and restaurant employes' alliance (AFL) from picketing Crosby's restaurant at Cleveland where the union had no members, but sought to organize employes.

Other business transacted at the meeting included acceptance of a bid of the Artcraft Printing company on 2,000 tax receipts, in triplicate, and approval of a bill of Ira Hanson, sand and gravel contractor, for $240.

Pampa To Receive Recognition On Kay Kyser Radio Hour

Pampa, according to a letter from Kay Kyser, soon is to be "blasted all over the microphone" on Band-leader Kyser's Wednesday night radio "College of Musical Knowledge."

It may be tonight (from 9 to 10), it may be next Wednesday night—the exact date is uncertain. But, a letter from Mr. Kyser to 'The News' promises that "soon the one time hometown of Ginny Simms, featured vocalist on the program, will get nationwide attention."

Mr. Kyser writes in part: "Ginny gave me your letter of Jan. 30, and I got a big kick out of it. The questions are swell and I'm certainly going to make use of them, and when I do, rest assured we'll blast the name of Pampa all over the microphone."

FCA Trying To Keep Farmers On Land Thru Loan

WASHINGTON, March 6 (AP)—Farm Credit administration told Congress today that it was trying to keep farmers on the land through a loan and payment plan, broadened since the agency was placed under control of the agriculture department last summer.

These plans have been criticized by some C-tractors and farm organizations on the ground that they "mix credit with relief."

The FCA said that each delinquent borrower would be judged by a four-point test of "worthiness" and that if he passed, he would be granted special financial assistance.

The delinquent borrower would have to show that he (1) is doing his best, (2) is applying the plan, (3) his production above necessary living and operating expenses

Speeders Get Warning

Spring is just around the corner, and city officials are preparing to conduct their annual spring warning drive against automobile speeders.

So, it will be a fine thing if every man, woman, and child supports the campaign announced yesterday by City Recorder C. E. McGrew and police Chief J. I. Downs.

Chief Downs warns that his department will haul violators to court for speeding, and Recorder McGrew announces that he will hike the fine for speeding in an effort to cut down on reckless driving through city streets.

The legal limit within the city is 20 miles per hour. A tip to drivers should be sufficient, and violators need not tell the chief or Recorder that they weren't warned. It won't work.

Business men of Pampa will have their opportunity tomorrow night to get thorough understanding of the federal government's farm program in Gray county.

Farmers will play to their city businessmen friends at a banquet in the First Methodist church here. The AAA committee for Gray county want businessmen to come and to ask questions whether they favor the program or not.

It's a good chance to get the lowdown on what Uncle Sam is doing on the nation's farms. On top of that it will give Pampa business and professional men an opportunity to get better acquainted with their neighbors out on the farms and ranches.

Behind The News

WASHINGTON, March 6—Senator McKellar of Tennessee may presently find that he thrust his finger into a hornet's nest when he tried to put it on Ross Eakin, superintendent of Great Smoky National Park. McKellar, who keeps a jealous eye on federal patronage in his state, sought Eakin's removal charging (a) that there were irregularities in his accounts, and (b) that Eakin voted for Landon in 1936. The latter charge was based on a claim that local election officials had marked Eakin's ballot for identification.

McKellar got the Senate to vote an investigation; but the investigation is being run by a sub-committee headed by Senator Carl Hatch, who has no love at all for patronage-addicts. Hatch has a firm of public accountants going into Eakin's accounts (which Interior Department previously announced were okay) and says he doesn't give a hoot how Eakin voted in 1936.

"I am much more concerned," he says, "with the charge that an election official marked his ballot." So he proposes to go into that part of it thoroughly... which wasn't at all what Senator McKellar was after.

NO ONE HOLDS DELEGATE CONTROL

When you hear Presidential Candidate Whoozis' campaign manager say that 300 delegates are already pledged remember this: Not more than a score of the thousand-odd delegates who will convene at the Philadelphia convention in June have actually been elected.

Candidate Whoozis may have 300 delegates pledged to him, but until the primaries and state conventions are held, he won't know how many are going to be in there balloting for him.

The way things look right now, a majority of the delegates will arrive in Philadelphia without any instructions.

The Nation's Press

ARE WE SEVENTEENTH? (Daily Oklahoman)

While ambitious men are searching eagerly for the support that would insure a presidential nomination the Republican board of strategy asks one question that ought to command the most serious consideration by all candidates and all citizens. "Why have we trailed the world in recovery?" The question follows the positive assertion that in national recovery from the world's economic cataclysm the United States ranks seventeenth.

Here is something that is far more important than the nomination of any ambitious citizen—much more important than the electoral triumph of any political party.

This grave question raises a second one of real importance. "Has the United States actually trailed in recovery?" And "Is it strictly true that the United States ranks seventeenth in the measure of recovery achieved?" Americans must know positively that our country has lagged in recovery before they can approach intelligently the solution of a major problem.

If the United States has fallen behind 16 other nations in recovering from economic disaster, it follows that the new deal and its experimentation have been entirely useless or indeed a positive curse. If 16 other nations have recovered more and faster than ours, there is nothing but twaddle and deception in the assertion that the new deal

Sharing The Comforts Of Life

By R. C. Hoiles

B. C. FORBES ON RUGG BOOKS

B. C. Forbes, in his syndicated article, has considerable to say about the Harold Rugg textbooks. It seems that Mr. Forbes is a member of the Board of Education in his community. He says: "After carefully studying various Rugg books shot through, in my judgment, with subtle propaganda. I cannot, as a member of the Board of Education, do other than move that they be eliminated from the schools of my home community."

In my boyhood the textbooks were strictly factual, not opinionative. They did not remotely poison our minds against our native land and those responsible for building it.

Abraham Lincoln revered this nation's immortal document. Is it wise to inculcate in the minds of the coming generation scorn for it and its makers?

The mouthpiece of the Communists in America, the Daily Worker, is the only newspaper which has excoriated me for voicing my views of the Rugg textbooks.

"Tell me who are your friends, and I'll tell you what you are."

Certainly, the man who advocates the Rugg books being taught in the American schools does not believe in the American system; he does not believe in free enterprise; he believes in a form of bureaucratic control. The most important thing in our land is the proper education of our children. If there is anything that miseducates them as to American principles, it is the Harold Rugg textbooks. I am glad the Board of Education of Santa Ana, California, had wisdom and judgment enough to take them out of the Santa Ana schools.

What we need now is a California state educational committee that will not fasten on to the public such books as "America and the New Frontier," which is almost as vicious and un-American and undemocratic and unsozial as the Harold Rugg books.

CONTROVERSY AND NEWSPAPERS

About the only way to arrive at the truth of any controversial question is to have the arguments pro and con presented fearlessly, fairly and impartially. I know of no medium better equipped to do this than the newspaper that freely equips its columns to contributors. The habit of patriotic citizens in writing to the London Times is claimed by good authorities to be one of the causes of the progress and sound government of the British Empire.

The newspaper publisher and editor who has certain views has no advantage in any discussion over his readers, as those people who have sinister motives would have the public believe. Some of these people contend that the newspaper can publish what it wants to and omit what it wants to or even change the copy of an opponent in a controversy.

To either refuse to print or change the copy would be one of the most certain ways by which a newspaper could kill the value of its property. A newspaper's most important asset is confidence and dependability, just as the most important asset of a bank, or a doctor, or an educational institution is confidence. Should a newspaper stoop to unfair tactics in presenting its side of a discussion, the opponent could easily print up bills and circulate them and in this manner show that the newspaper was not presenting both sides fairly and impartially.

No person who is really interested in trying to establish fundamental principles that will promote the greatest possible freedom and liberty for all would hesitate to present both sides, knowing full well that the best method of freeing mankind from tyranny and oppression is to help the public understand the fundamental truths of social, political and economic laws.

So the next time you hear a proponent of some pet shortcut to improve the lot of mankind refuse to defend his position in the newspaper, you may mark it down that he is not really interested in the truth but only interested in trying to hold a relative position in society which he does not merit. The reason these people will not answer questions on what they advocate is because they cannot and it would embarrass them to attempt to do so. Their only outlet is to divert attention and attempt to make the public believe that they would not have a fair chance to present their side in a newspaper controversy.

has saved the republic. Nations without a new deal or anything like a new deal have fared better than we have. The greatest measure of recovery has been achieved by nations that never ever heard of a new deal.

Does the United States actually rank seventeenth in economic recovery? The following facts may be insufficient to prove the case but they are highly interesting and extremely important.

- 1. We have nearly as many unemployed workers as we had in the depth of the depression.
2. The national income is 17 billion less than it was 10 years ago.
3. The deficit for the depression decade ending in 1940 is 27.6 billions. For the war decade ending in 1920 it was only 24.9 billions.
4. Government expenditures are now greater each year than the total wages paid by the manufacturing industry in 1929.
5. Since 1932 world consumption of cotton has increased by three million bales, but our exports of cotton have decreased three million bales.
6. In the last seven years we have had more conflicts between capital and labor than we had during the 30 years between 1900 and 1930.
7. Between 1929 and 1938 Great Britain without any new deal increased employment 8.2 per cent, increased her pay rolls 20 per cent, and increased her industrial production 12 per cent. During the same period the United States under the new deal had a decline in employment of 9 per cent, a decline in pay rolls of 18.5 per cent, and a decline in industrial production of 17 per cent.
8. During the five years ending in 1938 we had an increase in government pay rolls of 85 per cent. The number of civilian federal employees increased from 536,847 in 1933 to the all-time high of 987,538 in 1939.

These undeniable facts and their connotations present something that is far more important than the nomination of a candidate and the triumph of any party.

If actually we rank seventeenth in economic recovery, no candidate should be considered and no party supported unless that candidate and that party presents a definite program for advancing recovery in the United States as rapidly as it is advancing in the world at large.

Instead of perpetuating the new deal, as it votaries are insisting so clamorously, we should vote it out of existence. If it is a fact that we rank seventeenth in economic recovery.

EXPEDITION TO TIBET

Around Hollywood

By PAUL HARRISON

HOLLYWOOD, March 5.—If Representative Martin Dies was looking around for a sucker at which to yell "Communist!" he couldn't have chosen a more timorous one than Hollywood.

Individual members of the film colony are hopping mad about the red charges made by the chairman of the House committee investigating un-American activities. A few of them have popped off with hysterical indignation which must have served only to dignify, in the public's mind, the remarks of Mr. Dies. Collectively the industry responded as it usually does to attacks and criticism—with a profound, uneasy silence.

While Dies' uncontradicted statements were being digested by millions of magazine and newspaper readers, the Producers' Association was agreeing on a policy of silence. The idea of the movie-makers is that Dies already has put his foot in his mouth, and that if his antics are ignored he may swallow it in an effort to win some attention.

WOULD DO NO GOOD TO GO TO HAYS

When I went around wondering audibly why Will Hays, so-called czar of the cinema business, didn't do something in his defense, I drew nothing but horse-laughs. "What did he ever do about censorship or legislation or anything affecting pictures?" asked one executive merrily. Another suggested, "Maybe he's self-conscious in this Communist argument because he's known as a 'czar'."

Hollywood wouldn't feel so badly about the Dies allegations if the legislator hadn't lumped everybody here, at least by inference, as a pack of idiots who have become, willingly or unknowingly, the pawns or Communism.

One skeptic complained a few weeks ago when William Bledsoe, former editor of the Screen Guild Magazine, wrote in the American Mercury about Communism in Hollywood. His article heaped ridicule on the movie colony and described the red invasion as "the goofiest era in cinema legend." He came right out with some names, too, declaring that among many celebrated actors, writers and directors who innocently succumbed to the "Stalin putsch" were Melvyn Douglas, Frederic March, Sylvia Sydney, Lionel Stander, Frances Farmer, Dorothy Park, Lillian Hellman and Donald Ogden Stewart.

RADICAL MOVEMENT WAS FAD FOR FEW

But Bledsoe's article was presented as an obituary of the leftist movement here. He mentioned the emotional restlessness of Hollywood men, and I believe he should have added that people who work all day as Stooges for Dorothy Lamour and Shirley Temple are likely to welcome almost any chance to do some serious thinking. Bledsoe's opinion is the Hollywood merely played with radical notions as it has with many another goofy fad, and that Communism now has gone completely out of style.

I think he's right and that Dies is wrong and unjust in attacking an entire industry which certainly must be acknowledged as the most powerful stimulant of American patriotism. Since the first threat of trouble in Europe, Hollywood has been waving the flag with extra vigor.

There are hundreds of people in the picture business with unimpeachable idealism.

It is estimated that the gross revenues of the American air transport industry during 1939 will be $50,000,000, out of which they will show a net profit of about $2,500,000. This is in comparison to the fact that a loss of a similar amount was experienced during 1939.

Rev. Rep. Gene O'Worley of Shamrock, Mrs. Mickey Conley, Pampa's No. 1 Irish woman, will accept your invitation to attend the Saint Patrick's day celebration in Shamrock, Monday, 18. Her feet are greatly improved and the swelling in them has gone down, and she figures she'll be feeling fine, feet and all, by the time the celebration rolls around. She has been walking with a stick all winter, but she's about ready to throw the stick away. However, it will be necessary for you to come up here and deliver that invitation in person to Mrs. Conley.

The Family Doctor

Dr. Morris Fishbein

In many country districts of the United States there is a superstition about crows that runs like this: "One's unlucky, two's lucky; three is health, four is wealth; five is sickness, six is death."

There are innumerable superstitions about birds—some favorable and others associated with trouble. The crow has always been considered a bird of ill omen.

Most abominable and unlucky bird of all, however, is the owl. When its hoarse and dismal wail is heard, it is believed to be heralding the approach of some dire calamity or some terrible thing. In his writings, Chaucer, the ancient English poet, mentioned the superstition that the hoot of the owl was invariably associated with death. Likewise, the howling of a dog in the stillness of the night has certainly an ominous sound. Shakespeare, in "Henry the Sixth," said:

"The owl shriek'd at thy birth, An evil sign! The night-crow cry'd aboding luckless time! Dogs howl'd and hideous tempests shook down trees."

In an endeavor to explain the phenomenon, a British writer as early as 1798 said, "We cannot determine, but it's probably that out of a sense of sorrow for the sickness or absence of his master or the like, that creature may be so disturbed."

The notion that animals can sense the approach of death prevails strongly among many people. It is known that dogs or horses, approaching a dead body, even at some distance, will show signs of apprehension or terror; yet this is not any evidence that they can anticipate death. It is merely that the sense of smell is so strongly developed in these animals.

One skeptic said that it was not remarkable that anyone should die after the continued howling of a dog. It was remarkable that so many people should live after listening to it.

Editor Sharing Comforts Column:

I always read with a great deal of pleasure and also much profit your "Sharing the Wealth" column, and have finally arrived at the conclusion that you are more than 90 per cent right in your economic deductions and fully 100 per cent wrong in your theological effusions. I trust you will pardon me while I pause here to explain that while this present criticism pertains specifically to your editorial "Keeping Posted"; still that particular contribution does not appear to differ much from the general run of your writings devoted to the subject which you seem to know absolutely nothing at all. It has long been one of the unsolved problems of psychology how the human reason can be as sound and logical as yours seems to be when analyzing subjects political and economic and as utterly absurd as yours always proves itself to be when you venture into the realms of religion. But to return to your editorial of March 1.

You state that you attended a lecture where you were surprised to hear the speaker define a Christian as a follower of Christ. Why the surprise? What do you find amiss in that definition? Can you think of one more apt?

The followers of Christ were first called Christians at Antioch, some nineteen hundred years ago and have been so called ever since. You must concede that this definition has the merit of prescription at least. True, it was at first a term of opprobrium but it evolved into a badge of respect. You assert that you were startled to hear that "Christ was not a Christian and that Saint Paul was of course. Christ was not a Christian! Any Sunday school boy could have told you that. How could he have followed Himself? And if Saul of Tarsus was not a Christian after his conversion on the road to Damascus he was about the most consummate hypocrite in all the annals of history.

You say—"according to this definition it would seem that Christians are worshipping an Individual or a God rather than principles."

Don't you really know? Where in the name of common sense and reason have you been all your life?

Certainly; Christians DO NOT worship a principle. Certainly, DO worship a God; God incarnate, God manifested in the flesh. How could any sane man worship principles anyway? Well at any rate Christians don't. They worship God, as revealed in the person of Jesus the Christ.

They accept principles enunciated by Christ and attempt or at least profess to fashion their lives in conformity to such principles.

There is nothing sacred in the principles of Jesus. It is doubtful if there is anything ungodly. Probably every moral precept of His was promulgated hundreds of years before the man Jesus was born. Christians accept them because they are stamped with the approval of Him who "taught as one having authority;" they do not even profess to comprehend them in their entirety. They accept them on faith. And herein lies the vital distinction between reason and faith, distinction mind you; not conflict, for there can be no possible conflict between the faith of any sane man and the fruits of his reason.

A Christian's reason tells him that heist is Divine and because divine, he has faith in principles taught by the Divine even though their comprehension lies beyond the scope of his own finite reason.

You quote from Matthew Tindal's great book to prove that the principles of Christianity are "as old as creation." It would seem that Tindal was unduly conservative.

Christ said these principles are eternal! You say "Jesus certainly wanted people to be devoted to His principles and not to Him as an individual or a god." Where is your authority for such conclusion? Why didn't He say so?

He wanted to be able to make Himself understood.

He demanded of His followers devotion to Himself and acceptance to His principles because He endorsed them. Here in Jesus is unique. Your statement is probably true of all other known religious leaders but not of Him who claimed to be the Christ.

Buddha, Confucius, Zoroaster, Moses and all of the Prophets did profess to teach Truth: A way of life, but Jesus said "I am the way, the truth and the life." Again you say, "to worship a man or God without defining his principles or his attributes is certainly not enlightening or developing of human understanding; to say the least and then to define his principles is to reverence the principles."

But I say unto you that to worship a man sounds the depths of degradation for the human understanding; while a definition of the attributes of the Infinite on the part of the finite is to say the least presumptuous and to worship principle is im-

Death Payments Under SSA Made In Lump-Sums

The revised old-age and survivors insurance program provides for lump-sum death payments in certain circumstances. If a wage earner who was insured dies after January 1, 1940, and leaves no survivors entitled to a monthly benefit at that time, a lump-sum death payment may be made to the widow or widower or children or parents. It must be remembered that when an insured worker dies leaving a widow who is then 65 years old or over or a younger widow with minor children in her care, she will receive monthly benefits at once, and therefore will not receive the lump-sum death payment. If the insured worker leaves no widow or child, but does leave parents who are then over 65 years of age, and they were dependent upon him for support, the lump-sum death benefits, and therefore no lump-sum death payment will be made.

If there is no relative entitled to monthly benefits, a lump-sum death payment of not more than three times the monthly benefit may be made to certain relatives or to the person paying the funeral expenses. Example: A young woman who has been working in a store for several years dies, leaving a husband as the sole survivor. It is found that her basic monthly benefit would amount to $12.00. Therefore, the widow would receive one check from the Government for $120 (six times $20).

The new provisions for survivors' benefits do not go into effect until January 1, 1940. For wage earners who die before January 1, 1940, the provisions of the original law prevail. In such cases, a lump-sum payment amounting to 3 1/2 percent of all wages credited to the estate security account of the deceased will be paid to the heirs (or estate) of the insured worker.

Stinner Leads To Box LeFors Wins Thrilling Match From Pampa 7 To 6

Harvesters Will Try To Get Revenge

Encouraged after losing only one bout to LeFors last night, the Pampa Harvester boxing team will try to get revenge on the Stinner team here tomorrow night. The bouts, about a dozen of them, will begin at 8 o'clock in the high school gymnasium.

The Pampa sluggers lost 7 to 4 in Stinner last Friday night. LeFors had previously defeated Stinner by a wide margin. Last night's sensational showing by the Pampa youngsters boosted their stock and gave them a chance to beat Stinner.

Coach Oscar Hinger of the Harvesters planned a light workout for this evening to keep his young fighters from getting stiff. He also planned to instill some rough spots that showed up last night, especially in the light weight divisions.

Stinner, coached by Coy Palmer, has a bunch of veterans from last year's top team back again and they'll have experience on their side.

All weights from 65 pounds to the heavyweight division will be represented if Stinner brings enough boys. James (Chief) Carlisle has decided to enter the heavyweight division now that basketball is over.

Raymondville Hopes To Win State Cage Crown

RAYMONDVILLE, March 6 (AP)—In the 20-year history of Texas interscholastic league basketball the Rio Grande Valley never has managed to win a state championship.

Raymondville High school thinks this is a good time to start—in fact, Raymondville rather thinks this may be the time when the Valley does make its start.

Raymondville goes to Austin Friday to battle seven other teams in the play-off. And the first crack out of the box finds the Bearkats pitted against Livingston, the defending state champion and favored to come straight from another title.

So if Raymondville wins that first game, you can just about wrap up the trophy and send it down here to the Rio Grande Valley where it will be proudly displayed.

In the history of Texas schoolboy basketball East Texas has a wide margin with eight championships. North Texas is next with four and South Texas is third with three. West and Central Texas each has won twice.

The margin for East Texas came principally through the great Athens teams that swept to the championship five seasons.

Now, they ask you here: Isn't that breaking the anti-trust law, monopolizing or exceeding the bag limit or something?

Coach Don Hightower has a team of tall, rugged boys paced by a hot-shooting forward in Pampa. He throws them from all angles. Alden Gilliland, lanky center, is rated the best all-around player in the Valley.

Raymondville has encountered many handicaps. One is having to play on an outdoor court most of the time. But that didn't seem to bother the boys because they took 22 of 23 games before going to the regional tournament. The game they lost came after a cold spell which kept them from practicing ten days.

And now they get the toughest break of all: Playing Livingston in the opening round.

But if they win, the victory will be all the sweeter.

And they're a sweet tooth down here in the Valley.

Cubs Battling For Positions At Catalina

By ROBERT MYERS

AYALON, Calif., March 6 (AP)—The Chicago Cubs should have a fighting ball club this year, judging by the battles going on at this Santa Catalina island training camp for most of the positions on the team.

Manager Charles Leo Hartnett, looking more like the Gaby of old as he goes into his 19th year with the National League Bruins, scratched his head and grinned as he pointed out the scraps for jobs.

Only Glen (Rip) Russell, back for his second year at first base, Billy Herman a fixture at second, and Stan Hack at third when he reaches camp and gets into shape from a recent, untimely operation, seem solid choices for regular duty.

Mainstays of the pitching staff—Big Bill Lee, Larry French, Charley Root, Clyde Passau and Clay Bryant, who hopes he'll lose his lead arm of 1939—form the nucleus of this department.

Augie Galan, Hank Leibler, if he reaches a salary agreement with Mr. P. K. Wrigley, and Jimmy Cleson are back for the outfield, but one or all of them may take a back seat if Phil Cavaretta, his broken leg mended, Dominie D'Allesandro or Bill Nicholson, who finished the 1939 season with Chicago after playing with Chattanooga, come through.

Galan looks like a sure thing, and D'Allesandro, who stands 5 feet 6 inches and turned in a terrific 368 season with San Diego to lead the Pacific Coast league last year, may move into the lineup.

Bobby Sturgeon has replaced Reggie Matlock for shortstop, the time being. The position seems very unless the Cubs can find someone before the war starts. Sturgeon lacks experience, although he's a fine fielding prospect. Veteran Billy Rogell will be used as utility man and probably fill in a third until Hack is ready.

Hartnett isn't sure how much catching he'll do, but he has reliable Al Todd and two capable rookies on deck at the moment—Bob Collins, from the Los Angeles Angels, and Clyde McCullough, from Kansas City.

The great Dizzy Dean? He is still a holder at this writing, and there appears to be more pleasure than sadness over the great one's absence.

Ball clubs are hard to figure out, but it does seem the spirit of the Cubs is much better than it was at the end of the 1939 campaign. Mr. Wrigley should be glad to hear this, for there was very little deeper down the morale of the outfit to go before it hit bottom.

Keeps Hot Pace

Sensation at New Orleans is 19-year-old Walter Taylor, former Houston newsboy and champion apprentice of 1939. At the end of 70 days of the meeting Taylor had booted in 78 winners, more than twice as many as his nearest competitor. He leads the national field for the season, as well.

Rideouts Will Lead Team To Laredo Meet

LAREDO, March 6 (AP)—Silent, bespectacled Wayne and Blaine Rideout, the North Texas State Teachers College twins, will lead the nation's first outdoor track and field meet of the 1940 season a dog-fight for college honors.

Entry of the Rideouts in the mile and half mile events, plus the appearance of their world record-holding mile relay teammates—Bryant, McDaniels, Jackson and Rodgers—thrusts the college division into a three-way scrap between Texas University, defending champions, Rice and the North Texas Teachers.

Texas still potent with its Boyce Gatewood, great hurdler and sprinter, and Lonnie Hill, sophomore 100-yard dash marvel, must win the meet to gain permanent possession of the Clyde Littlefield trophy. The Longhorns have won the last two meets.

Myin' Freddie Wolcott, Rice Institute's world record-holding hurdler and ranked the nation's foremost high hurdler, again must contend with Gatewood—a by he barely beat in many races.

The 100-yard dash and the hurdles events stand out on a full program for 15 colleges and 23 high schools arranged by J. I. (Curley) James, athletic director of Laredo high school.

The showwrest's fastest sprinters will enter in the 100-yard dash. They include Wolcott, Hill, "Red" Cecil, Texas Aggies; Earl Wither, East Texas State Teachers; Fletcher Gatewood, James Minor, Howard Payne; Hase and Roseborough of Southwest Texas Teachers; and Sanders of Abilene Christian College.

Wolcott and Gatewood will have fast company in the high hurdle event, especially from Dretis of Texas Aggies, who finished fourth in the Sugar Bowl event at New Orleans several weeks ago.

Boofus Bryan of Texas, who cleared 14 feet, 1 3/8 inches in the pole vault here last season, will be back to defend his title.

LeFors Wins Thrilling Match From Pampa 7 To 6

By ARCHER FULLINGIM

Coach Toby Waggoner's powerful boxing boys still ruled their Panhandle fistic kingdom today but their crowns rested most shakily and insecurely upon their uneasy heads last night.

The Harvester boxing team, dominating the upper weight division, surprised both followers and foes by winning six out of seven bouts with the Pirate dynamites. In their previous meeting in Pampa the LeFors sluggers slaughtered the Pampa lads 7 matches to 3.

The Harvester leather-slingers chalked up the only knockout of the night when Captain Roy Ray kayoed Earhart in the 135-pound class. LeFors won four technical knockouts and Pampa one.

Younger Boys Weak

The Harvesters showed weakness in the divisions below 85 pounds, and superiority in the weights of 135 and 145 pounds. They lost 5 of 6 fights in the divisions below 85, and won 6 out of 7 in the divisions above that weight.

LeFors won the first two fights by technical kayos. In the 65-pound class Palmer and Ferguson completely outclassed Jones and Shields Mitchell and Coach Oscar Hinger threw in the towel. In the third fight Johnny Campbell won over Cooper in the 85-pound class by a good margin. Harold Mitchell lost a close one to Osburn whose nose reddened. Murry McPherson won the first round against McLaughlin but altered in the second and third rounds and lost to McLaughlin who piled up points by boxing nicely.

Gomer of LeFors won a close one from Seals in another 85-pound fight.

Pampa Won Next Five

Pampa won the next five fights on the card, not only even the count but to go one bout ahead of the Pirates.

Both teams were tied when Lefty Pendleton of Pampa and Twigg climbed through the ropes to battle in the 145-pound division. The fight the first minute was close and both boys got in some good hits, but Twigg grabbed the opportunity to land punishing blows when Pendleton ducked, and from that moment on until the end of the round Twigg dominated the bout. Pendleton didn't go back for the second round, Hinger throwing in the towel.

Doug Loveless almost scored a knockout in his fight, Upham taking the count twice.

In their previous meeting, in Pampa, Pendleton and Twigg fought to a three-round decision.

Shipman won over LeRoy Giles by a wide margin of points, landing twice as many blows as the Pampa boy who gamely stayed until the bell. Giles missed but landed numerous punishing blows.

700 Attend

Blood flowed as Charlie Brethauer, catboxer Jeters, The McDonald-Hughes fight was also going; this bout was close but McDonald won it decisively. However, Twigg's and Ray's victories were the most decisive in the upper weight divisions.

More than 700 howling fans packed the LeFors gym to the rafters. Stina Cain officiated.

Despite Pampa's superiority in the upper weights, LeFors boxers on the whole showed the best form; that is they hit straighter, missed fewer blows, and stayed on their feet better. All the Pirates were boxers rather than sluggers, except Twigg who appeared to rely to a great extent on his knockout punch.

Coach Waggoner's boys on the whole displayed an admirable knowledge of boxing and the ability to use it.

All the Pampa boys, except one, who won last night had experience last year. Brethauer, Stevens, Loveless, McDonald, Ray, all boxed on Coach Cliff Chambers team for about three months last year. Pendleton was also on the team. Campbell did not box last year.

Ray, Alon Loveless, Brethauer won numerous fights last year.

Results, Pampa boys named first: 65 pounds—Lloyd Jones lost on a technical knockout to Palmer. 85 pounds—Shields Mitchell lost on a technical knockout to Ferguson. 75 pounds—Johnny Campbell decision over Cooper. 85 pounds—Murry McPherson lost to McLaughlin. 85 pounds—Jack Seals lost to Gomer. 105 pounds—Charles Brethauer decisioned Jeters. 105 pounds—Richard Stephens won from Jones. 115 pounds—Doug Loveless won on a technical knockout from Upham. 125 pounds—L. V. McDonald decisioned Hughes. 135 pounds—Roy Ray kayoed Earhart. 145 pounds—Lefty Pendleton lost on a technical knockout to Twigg. 155 pounds—LeRoy Giles lost to Shipman.

NEW YORK, March 6 (AP)—Dr. F. C. (Phog) Allen of Kansas University could hardly be called a "voice in the wilderness," yet the chairman of the national basketball research committee seems to be a lone and forlorn figure as he demands a drastic revision in basketball rules.

The coaches' consensus, garnered in a nation-wide poll, seemed to be "let the rules alone"—until the Kansas precinct reported.

All Allen wants to do is increase the height of the basket two feet, create a 16-foot "don't-shoot-in-here safety zone" around the basket, restore the center jump, decrease the size of the ball, increase the size of the court and add two players to each team!

If the studious doctor who has made the name Kansas synonymous with good basketball suggests all those changes to the national rules committee, he is liable to get a cold shoulder from the remainder of the coaching fraternity.

Or in the words of Coach Mike Brumblow of Texas Christian, whose teams have finished last in the Southwest conference the last five years, "leave the rules alone—I can't think of any changes that would help us."

Allen does not stand absolutely alone in his amazing plan to partition off part of the court. Ken Loeffler Yale would mark off a semi-circle with a 4-foot diameter under the basket. No player would be permitted to enter this "no man's land" until the ball had touched the hoop or the backboards, and the only foul about three seconds. Diametrically opposed to those "left wingers" was the report of Coach Harold G. Olson of Ohio State.

A questionnaire sent to coaches in this area, including Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Michigan, Kentucky, West Virginia and Pennsylvania, shows that the coaches are well satisfied with the rules as they stand. We feel we have a game full of spectator interest, and we want to keep it that way."

Tallest Team Will Enter K. C. Tournney

CANYON, March 6—"The World's Tallest Team" will journey to Kansas City Friday for the National Intercollegiate Basketball championship tournament March 11-16.

The Buffaloes of West Texas State college will carry with them the prestige of holding the championship of the Alamo conference and the Southwest Intercollegiate tournament of El Paso. They held two victories over the Chihuahua Teachers, champions of Mexico.

Among their victims this season were Drake university of Des Moines, Arizona university, Tulsa university, Hardin-Simmons university, Texas College of Arts and Industries, St. Mary's university, Penn (Mich.) State Teachers, and Stephen F. Austin State college.

They have won 25 games and lost seven.

They have scored 1,814 points to 1,262 for their opponents.

They have averaged 56.8 points per game.

In height, the Buffaloes equal that of their big coach, Al Baggett, who is 6 feet 4 inches tall. In Charles Hinger they have the tallest regular in college basketball at 6 feet 10 inches. He is center and leading scorer. He weighs 215 pounds.

The Buffaloes are going to Kansas City by reason of special invitation from E. S. Ditch, manager of the national tournament. Coach Baggett is a regional director of the tournament, which is a meet for standard four-year colleges and universities.

East Texas State of Commerce is another Texas entry this year.

Officers Named By Boat Club

Organization of the McClellan Boat club was completed last night at a meeting in the city hall when Joe Gordon was elected vice-commodore and O. Boyington rear-commodore. Earl McConnell was named commodore and Bob Craig secretary at a previous meeting.

Directors elected last night were Ed R. Keenan, L. O. Hout, Earl LeFors, A. B. Chunn of White Deer, R. G. Allen and George Berlin of Pampa.

Commodore McConnell named Boyington, Gordon and Berlin members of the executive committee to invite all branches of the federal government, county, city and Chamber of Commerce having a part in building Lake McClellan to have representatives at a mass meeting next Tuesday night in the city auditorium.

The meeting Tuesday night will be open to everyone interested in boating.

A special invitation is extended to people planning to buy sail boats. Owners hope to purchase the same type of boats so that interesting races are now being taken in the club.

NEW YORK, March 6 (AP)—Hot dog league: Detroit is using the "dead" ball exclusively in training and the Tigers are pounding the "lights out of it. The Athletics were flattered no end when a delegation of White Sox drove 40 miles from Pasadena just to watch them practice. If the Red Sox for Cecil Travis deal isn't hot again, why are they betting Hank Greenberg will be back on first 30 days after the season opens?

One Act Play

Tony Galento visited Norfolk and was introduced to the Rev. Ralph Kyle, pastor of the Christian and Missionary Alliance church.

The Rev. Kyle: See this little book, Tony? It says your body is worth only 34 cents.

Galento: Whaddaya mean, 34 cents? (He pulled a huge roll of bills from his pocket and flashed it in Mr. Kyle's face.) ... (It didn't look like 84 cents to me. (It didn't to the minister, either and he made his exit quickly.)

Baseball In The WT-NM League

(From Big Spring)

Indications pointed to an early start on the construction of a new ballpark in Big Spring. The WT-NM league baseball club's plant at West Fifth and San Antonio streets.

Tony Rego, general manager of the local unit, is being assisted by Virgil Smith in drawing up plans for the structure which will replace the one destroyed by fire last September. Smith said a few minor details remained to be worked out before the carpenters could go to work.

Total cost of the project has not been estimated.

Work at the park field Rego canceled a planned trip to San Francisco, California, where he was to attend a baseball school in that city's Pacific Coast league stadium. Rego had been invited to attend the school by Charles Graham, president of the San Francisco club.

Rego is a familiar figure in San Francisco having at one time been under contract to the Seals.

The Big Spring club will be represented at the training camp, however, by Rego's assistant, Pat Patterson. Rego continues to have his hold-over problems. Only Pat Patterson of last year's club has come to terms. Curleue Loyd, first sacker, returned his unsigned contract, Loyd explaining that a spondence he has a promising job with a construction company and deemed it unwise to resign to play for the money he received last year.

However, the famed first sacker hit less than 370 and Tony opened his performance of the 1939 season did not warrant a raise.

Seden Dissatisfied

Johnny Seden, ace right handed pitcher who has had a dozen victories two years ago but who responded with but a brace of triumphs last year, going into voluntary retirement the middle of the season, also of Chicago, is back. Neither has Willard Ramsdell, who won six of seven starts the latter part of the season.

At the present time, the local outfit has seven players under contract, including Patterson, Jim Kerr, the heavy hitting backstop who was obtained in a winter deal with Midland, and Louis Feco, outfielder of Saint Louis, Mo., Paul Donald Oats, outfielder, also of Kenyon, Waldo Schultz, right handed pitcher of Burika, Mo., Buel Culver, and a right handed tosser, will report here already signed.

Others who have indicated they would report here for tryouts are Don Johnson, infielder, Los Angeles, California; B. J. Swif, pitcher, Briome, Texas; Tony Hendrix, outfielder, Chicago; Gene Brown, pitcher, also of Chicago; Red Hood, outfielder, Dallas; W. J. Corcoran, infielder, Priddy, Texas; Mickey Greece, infielder, Colorado City; Bob Thomas, outfielder, Los Angeles; B. Lee, catcher, Dallas; Vernon Moore, outfielder, Coppell, Texas; Clyde Duman, pitcher, San Antonio; Morris Duman, pitcher, also of San Antonio; Cleo Richards, outfielder, Oiltown, Texas; Cotton Gann, infielder, Rosburg, Springs, Texas; Willis James, pitcher, Lubbock; Joe Kelloff, infielder, Los Angeles; Leonard Nazzar, infielder, Los Angeles, and Dennis Burcher, pitcher, Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Finn Champion Maki Easily Wins Three-Mile Race

By RUSS NEWLAND

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6 (AP)—Taisto Maki, who exchanged a soldier's rifle for an athlete's spike to help build up the depleted finances of his native Finland, apparently is not far off the form that carried him to crack running records right and left less than a year ago.

The mud of Finnish trenches, heavy boots and war ordeals are still fresh memories, yet without much training the 140-pound speedster stepped out here last night to win easily a three-mile race. He was timed in 14 minutes, 15.3 seconds, without being pressed.

The American indoor record is 13:46.2 set in New York February 24, 1925 by Willie Ritola, one of Maki's countrymen. Maki is unofficially credited with running the fastest outdoor three miles ever recorded when he lent the distance in 13:42.4 in Finland last June.

Accompanied by Paavo Nurmi, his countryman and world's greatest distance runner of the early '30's, Maki made his first appearance in this country in what will be a series of performances dedicated to the benefit of the Finnish relief fund.

Nurmi, now 43 years old and partly bald, ran an exhibition half mile.

The two endurance stars were given tremendous individual ovations as they raced around the indoor track in civic auditorium. Some 2,500 fans turned out, and the receipts were expected to total approximately $1,500.

Burke And Wood Face Laffon And Metz In Finals

By LARRY ROLLINS

CORAL GABLES, Fla., March 6 (AP)—Billy Burke and Dick Laffon, the golfing headlines very much lately, but from the way he is hammering the ball in the $5,000 international four-ball you'd think he was an eager youngster scenting his first taste of victory.

He and Craig Wood are in the finals against Dick Metz and Ky Laffon today—quite considerably to Burke's wizardry with an approaching iron, the same art that carried him on a memorable 144-hole triumph over George Vln Elm in the 1931 national open.

A trifle thick in the midriff at 38, Burke still hangs the ball on a trolley wire anywhere from 200 yards to the green. Yesterday he and Wood defeated Clayton Heafner and E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, 4 and 3.

For excitement, however, the other semi-final stole the show. In it Horton Smith and Paul Runyan bowed out in as tense a match as you've likely to see.

They lost it to Metz and Laffon, one down, on the 36th green, where Smith—conceded one of the finest putts of all time—missed one that old Aunt Kate could have knocked in with a broomstick.

Metz and Laffon turned back the Harry Cooper-Jimmy Thomson and Stanley Horn-Jules Huei teams in the first two rounds, but Burke and Wood have been the tournament's real surprise.

They knocked over Walter Hagen and Gene Sarazen, then toppled Ralph Guldahl and Sam Snead, the top-seeded entry, on their way to the semi-finals.

Training Camp Briefs

(By The Associated Press)

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—General Manager Branch Rickey to appear for a scheduled contract confab, Sluggers Joe Medwick planned to leave the St. Louis Cardinals' training camp today and fly back to St. Louis. Rickey was scheduled to meet Medwick yesterday, but won't arrive until Friday.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—Joe DiMaggio, who ended his annual hold-out yesterday and agreed to accept about $30,000 for his season's labors, expects to get into the New York Yankees' first exhibition game Friday.

TAMPA, Fla.—Inasmuch as the pitchers still are taking it easy this may not mean much, but a young fellow who has a chance to turn up in the Cincinnati Reds' lineup is Myron (Mike) McCormick, late of Indianapolis. The 200-pound rookie outfielder is hitting the ball to all fields, including the one beyond the fence. He also is capable on defense.

PORT MYERS, Fla.—The Cleveland Indians believe they have a pitching "find" in Paul Calvert, 21-year-old spectacle semi-pro from Montreal. Manager Oscar Vit heard Calvert's fast one singing past the hitters and thought a rough ball made the music. Calvert is a new, shiny ball. It also sang. And Coach Johnny Bassler reported the youngster also has a hook and control.

WINTER HAVEN, Fla.—Carl Hubbell admits his screwball was the cause of all the trouble he has had with his left arm the past few seasons, but the 37-year-old south-paw figure he will be good enough to win 16 or 18 games for the New York Giants this spring. Hub says his arm feels better this year than it has in years, and he's taking care not to try throwing hard too early in the season.

High School Golf Team Practicing

The Pampa high school golf team has started to practice for a hard season of competition with three boys back from last year's team. Lost, however, by age or graduation are two of the few shooting members—Bill Miskimin and Zede Watkins.

Roy Ray, hotshot artist from last year, is captain of the team. Roland and Warner Phillips are boys back again. Joe and Lloyd Blackwood are newcomers.

In a warmup match with Amarillo Saturday the Pampa boys lost three out of four matches. Ray was unable to compete because of illness. Roland Phillips shot low score for the Pampa boys, turning in a 70.

R. B. Nichols is team sponsor.

French Line Alert For German Drive

By JOHN LLOYD

WITH THE FRENCH ARMIES ON THE WESTERN FRONT, March 6 (AP)—The "in between" period—several weeks of rain that will wash away the last traces of snow and the bright spring sun—has enough advertising value to launch an offensive at an unanticipated moment to offset the natural obstacles.

The whole French line, therefore, is on the alert.

French officers familiar with the region say they do not believe the Germans will attempt a frontal attack in this interval, although there is always the possibility the enemy will not follow "the dope." They may be launching an offensive at an unanticipated moment to offset the natural obstacles.

The whole French line, therefore, is on the alert.

HOUSTON, March 6 (AP)—The Rice Owls, not resting on their laurels as Southwest Conference basketball champions, looked forward today to two more major tournaments.

The Owls will go to New York next week to participate in the national intercollegiate invitation tournament and to Kansas City the following week to play in the national collegiate athletic association meet.

City College Upsets Violet Basketballs

NEW YORK, March 6 (AP)—The old adage, "Don't sell a Nat Holman team short in March," still holds good.

The little City College Beavers—beaten thoroughly by Oklahoma Aggies, Marshall, Santa Clara, St. John's, St. Joseph's, Franklin & Marshall, Butler and Springfield—today are the toast of eastern basketball. They humbled mighty New York University last night, 36-24, as 15,000 screaming fans watched in Madison Square Garden's last doubleheader the unraveling of the season's biggest upset.

It was no fluke. City College simply ran the Violets ragged.

Francisco de Portales, not from Portales, N. M., took with him three horses, a buckskin jacket and a special steel helmet when with Coronado in 1540.

Republicans Win In Iowa District

DES MOINES, Ia., March 6 (P)—Eccentric Republicans today hailed the party's victory in the sixth Iowa district congressional election as an indication that the 1938 GOP comeback in the corn belt has carried over into the presidential year of 1940.

Robert K. Goodwin, 35, Redfield, Ia., mayor, farmer and manufacturer, yesterday won the special election to fill the unexpired term of Representative C. G. Dowell, Des Moines Republican, who died Feb. 4.

Goodwin's margin over Byron G. Allen of Des Moines, his new deal opponent, was more than three to two. The winner polled 29,248 votes in 213 of this normally Republican district's 218 precincts. Allen's total was 18,770.

In Washington, Chairman John Hamilton of the Republican National committee declared the GOP tide "was moving higher."

Other States Taking Texas Oil Market?

AUSTIN, March 6 (P)—With about three weeks of the winter doldrums remaining, the oil industry is casting quizzical eyes at its statistical ledger.

Foremost is the question of how gasoline stocks which have pyramided through the cold weather low consumption period will stack up by April 1 when, normally, demand improves.

Some commentators forecast stocks lagged behind the demand requirements on that date. They point to 96,700,000 barrels in storage Feb. 24. This was 14.5 per cent above inventories of approximately the same date last year.

Texas drew criticism by permitting daily crude production in March to begin at 1,490,370 barrels. This has since then boosted to about 1,500,000 barrels, or 170,000 above the requirements of the Federal Bureau of Mines.

In justification, railroad commissioners asserted other states were taking some of Texas' rightful market because of commission, oil regulation in Texas will be being clamped down on production.

This month the commission cast overboard the bureau's estimate, one member declaring the bureau's figures described in Texas will be being clamped down on production.

Of interest to future operations is evidence of war demand for petroleum.

The Texas commission is pondering what member O. Thompson described as the "real tangible reflection of demand resulting from the European war. From agents of allied purchasing commissions, it is a request to lift one of three weekly production days in the plant. East Texas plan in order to supply an additional 65,000 to 70,000 barrels daily for French refineries. The regulatory body is awaiting presentation of contracts and other supporting data.

Sharing interest in the East Texas situation is litigation attacking production methods there.

Police Guard Great Britain's Rome Embassy

ROME, March 6 (P)—Extra police were stationed near the British embassy today as a precaution against possible Italian demonstrations against Britain's seizure of German coal cargoes aboard Italian ships.

The demonstrations, however, failed to take place, following upon rumors that students were planning to organize them.

Seizure of the cargoes by blockaders tends to bring relations between Rome and London to a crisis, authoritative Italians declared.

Italy's industrial life hangs upon imports of coal.

Studying reports that British warships were escorting ship after ship into contraband control in application of the allies' two-way blockade to cover Italian fuel imports from Germany, authoritative quarters declared:

"It has complicated and made the Italian-British dispute more acute."

However, they carefully refrained from making "premature conclusions from the deplorable state of affairs."

Italians also avoided mention of the possibility that Rome might denounce a 1938 agreement with Britain, which re-established normal relations between London and Rome after a diplomatic conflict over the Italian conquest of Ethiopia.

It Messaggero, a Rome newspaper, observed that possible developments appeared still more serious than stated in the Italian protest of Sunday.

"That protest, still to be answered by the British government, declared the blockade was such as to disturb and compromise economic and political relations of the two nations."

Three-Gun Hans May Get Back To Germany

NEW YORK, March 6 (AP)—Hans Wiggers, 15, may get back to Germany, where he was in Brooklyn early today.

Hans, pockets bulging, was strolling along when a radio car halted him. One of the policemen said: "Where are you going?"

Hans, whose knowledge of English is less than elementary, was silent. He tugged at his pocket and handed over a .32 caliber American pistol and a .38 Smith & Wesson. "What the devil are you up to, kid?" asked the other cop.

Hans replied with a third gun—an air pistol.

They took him to the station house where an interpreter found out that Hans came from Germany ten months ago as a mess boy. He missed his ship on its return trip.

He said he found the artillery in the basement of a Brooklyn house, and thought it would be a good idea to take it back to Hitler's army.

Then, he added, he's been forgiven for missing his ship.

The police turned him over to the Children's society.

Ouster Of Detroit Sheriff To Be Asked

DETROIT, March 6 (P)—Ouster proceedings directed against Wayne county sheriff Thomas C. Wilcox, announced today as the next step in Judge Homer Ferguson's one-man grand jury war on gambling and graft.

A petition asking Governor Luren D. Dickenson to institute proceedings against the sheriff, indicted yesterday along with five other public officials on charges of taking bribes to allow the operation of gambling and disorderly houses, was expected to be presented by grand jury officials today or tomorrow.

Ouster action based on similar charges is pending against county prosecutor Duncan C. McCree, named by the grand jury for the second time in the indictments returned yesterday.

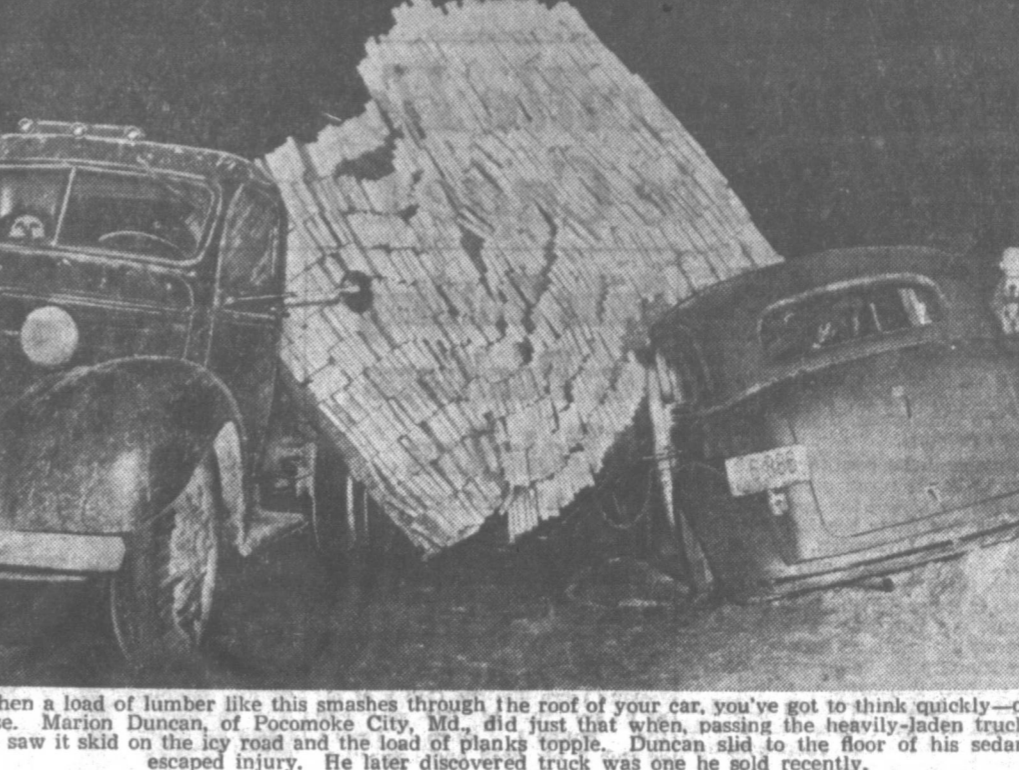

Meanwhile, entrance of the Federal Bureau of Investigation into the Detroit picture was hinted with the disclosure that federal agents had been checking banks in nearby Pontiac for deposits linked with the graft inquiry.

But Quick Thinking Got Driver Out of the Wood

When a load of lumber like this smashes through the roof of your car, you've got to think quickly—or else. Marion Duncan, of Pocomoke City, Md., did just that when, passing the heavily-laden truck, he saw it skid on the icy road and the load of planks topple. Duncan slid to the floor of his sedan, escaped injury. He later discovered truck was one he sold recently.

Market Briefs

NEW YORK, March 6 (AP)—Inspired by indications of improved industrial conditions, Wall Street traders turned to the buying side today and stock prices advanced over a wide area.

The leaders in the upturn were steel, motor and electricals, copper, and petroleum. Industrials also had improved their level near the close.

Transactions, approximately 300,000 shares, were the greatest in one day for a month.

Although the advance was not spectacular, several leading issues reached new highs for the year. Among them was American Telephone and Telegraph, which was up 1 1/2 points to 115 1/2.

Famed U. S. Actress Passes In France

CANNES, France, March 6 (P)—Maxine Elliott, 67, famous American actress who achieved success both in Europe and the United States, died last night at her chateau at Juan Les Pins.

For many years since her retirement from the stage, Miss Elliott had lived on the French Riviera at her Villa L'Horizon where European royalty and other notables were frequent guests.

A famous beauty in the early part of the century, Miss Elliott made her last stage appearance in 1920 at her own theatre in New York after 30 years as an actress.

All attempts to get her to return to the theatre were refused with the assertion that she wished to "grow middle-aged gracefully."

Juan de Cuebas was the chief notary of all mines and reports for the Spanish king in the year 1540 when Coronado started his expedition.

Germans Claim Twenty British Soldiers Killed

BERLIN, March 6 (P)—Twenty British soldiers were killed and 16 taken prisoner on the western front yesterday morning when German shock troops stormed a British dugout in the Moselle sector, the German official news agency, DNB, reported today.

The German high command's daily communique told only of the capture of the 16 prisoners, elucidating DNB told other details of the clash.

A hectic exchange of hand grenades and artillery fire preceded the dugout storming, according to DNB, and the English left 20 dead on the scene, while the Germans lost only one man.

The German shock troops' surprise attack was said to have disclosed that the British apparently were stationed at only one small point of the front line, flanked on both sides by the French.

It was asserted that this was the first time that the Germans had had an actual fight with British troops on the western front since the war began.

Martin de Estepa, one of Coronado's men, wore an armor and only had one horse in 1540.

War Alters Designs Of American Planes

WASHINGTON, March 6 (AP)—Disclosure that the European war has dictated essential changes in the designs of new American army planes was made officially today following the testimony of Major General Henry H. Arnold at a secret House committee session.

Such alterations as equipping bombers with armor and installing fuel tanks which automatically seal bullet holes were expected after a week's conference of experts.

Members of the House military committee said Arnold testified privately yesterday that the cost of planes had mounted about 10 per cent since the air corps $900,000,000 expansion was voted last year.

Earlier, it was learned, Arnold informed a group of army officers that the war lessons were learned "fortuitously in time."

He predicted that despite a delay in the production of some high-powered engines, anticipated delays in construction of some pursuit and bombing craft, and the contemplated design alterations, the goal of 5,500 planes should be reached on time, by July 1, 1941.

Tests are in progress at Wright Field, Dayton, Ohio, on various types of self-sealing fuel tanks, but air corps officials said details were confidential.

Committee members quoted Arnold as saying that a British plane, with about 100 gallons of gasoline, sustained 63 bullet holes in its self-sealing tanks but was able to land safely with the loss of only about 10 gallons.

Negro Communist Causes Turmoil In A Senate Hearing

WASHINGTON, March 6 (AP)—A husky negro Communist, Benjamin Davis of New York City, threw a senate hearing on anti-lynching legislation into turmoil today by terminating senators "stooges" and Vice President Garner an "evil old labor baiter."

Senator Van Nuys (D-Ind.) chairman of the judiciary subcommittee conducting the hearing and co-sponsor of the lynching bill, shouted at the negro witness at one point, "That's an insult," and struck from the committee record Davis' description of the vice president and members of congress.

"You crashed the gates of this committee just to try and send out Communist propaganda," Van Nuys said when the negro concluded after a running argument with committee members.

"You have done more harm to prevent passage of this bill than anyone who has ever appeared."

Davis, who testified he was on the editorial board of the Daily Worker, Communist periodical, protested against questions about freedom of speech and the press in Communist Russia.

He launched into a tirade against senators who have filibustered against anti-lynching bills.

"The shameful tactics of Senator Connally . . ." Davis began. Connally protested, "I do not propose to be slandered by this witness," and Van Nuys warned the witness against derogatory remarks.

"Congress has not been very respectful of the negro people," Davis replied, going on to say that senate opponents of the lynch bill were "stooges for landlords and mill owners who are degrading white womanhood by paying low wages in their mills."
