HART, TEXAS

VOL. 6 NUMBER 6 HART, CASTRO COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, AUGUST 13, 1970 10 CENTS A COPY

Area Rainfall Totals Vary

The first measurable amount of rain in Hart community since the latter part of May fell Sunday night and Monday. Darrell Davis, who reads the official government rain gauge locally, reported .32 inches had fallen at 8 a. m. Monday.

Varying unofficial amounts have been reported by people in outlying areas. Warren Lemons, who farms two miles south of Hart on the Olton Highway, reported about .75 inches. Worth Jones, who farms about five miles west of town, reported .50 inches.

Farming four miles north of the city, Bud Steiret reported .50 inches, as did Mrs. J. M. Kendrick whose place is located four miles north and two and one-half miles west.

To the east four miles, on the Kress Highway, Theron Morrison reported .50 inches.

Most Farmers In Programs Receive Checks

Most of the farmers who participated in the 1970 wheat, feed grain and cotton programs in Castro County have now received their program payments, according to Jim Elder, Chairman of the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation ASC Committee.

Farmers earn program payments by diverting portions of their cropland to conservation uses and complying with other program requirements, Elder explained. Diverting unneeded cropland helps maintain a balance between supply and demand, preserves the excess acres for future use when they are needed, provides a more orderly supply of farm products to consumers and helps to assure equitable prices to farmers.

Throughout the nation, over three million farmers earned the farm program payments, Elder said. Payments were disbursed during a six-week period beginning July 1. In past years, the payment period has extended over a three-month period from July through September, Elder said.

Compressing the payment period into half the normal time required close cooperation between farmers and ASCS personnel, Elder said, adding: "Speaking for the entire farmer-elected committee, I am proud of the way everyone has cooperated to get the payments out early as we had promised farmers that we would do."

Because of budget restraints, partial payments could not be made this year during the spring signup period for the feed grain program, Elder explained. "When this decision was made, the Department told farmers that full payments would be made as early as possible. That commitment has now been largely fulfilled," Elder said.

ONE OF EIGHT FINALISTS --- Roni Cox, Hart Lions Club entry in the Miss Grain Sorghum, was chosen as one of the top eight contestants after talent competition, swim wear and formal wear competition. Miss Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cox, presented a piano selection from Romeo and Juliet as her talent. Winner of the title of Miss Grain Sorghum was Charlotte Smith of Throckmorton. Treena Bryant of Muleshoe was first runner-up and Sheri Kinzer of Grandfield, Okla. was second runner-up and also talent award winner.

School Begins Here Aug. 24

School begins Monday, Aug. 24 for students in Hart schools but their teachers will have already had a head start with their school year beginning a week earlier.

Faculty members will meet at 9 a. m. Monday, Aug. 17 in the high school library to launch the 1970-71 school year. Teacher orientation is scheduled for Monday with registration Tuesday and Wednesday.

The remainder of the week will be spent in in-service training and making preparations for classes to begin. A number of teachers will attend a migrant workshop Thursday and Friday in Lubbock.

Attention is called again to the registration schedules. Elementary students will register in the elementary gymnasium Tuesday, Aug. 18 from 9 a. m. until 12 noon and 1 p. m. through 4 p. m.

High school students will also register Tuesday with seniors at 9 a. m.; juniors, 10:30 a. m.; sophomores at 1 p. m. and freshmen at 2:30 p. m.

Wednesday, Aug. 19 has been designated as registration date for junior high students. Eighth grade students will register at 9 a. m. with seventh graders coming at 10:30 a. m.

A kindergarten program will be conducted this year for children born after Sept. 1, 1964 and before April 1, 1965 who are educationally handicapped or those whose family income is $3000 or less.

Educationally handicapped has been defined as "a lack of understanding of the English language" (unable to speak, comprehend or read) well enough to do normal first grade work.

Parents who have children who are eligible for this program should come by the elementary principal's or superintendent's offices and fill out registration forms.

Kindergarten and first grade students must bring birth certificates with them to registration.

'Hart Day' Acclaimed A Howling Success

Fun and frolic of another Hart Day has become history with residents earning a resounding "Well done".

Chi Psi and Xi Mu Iota Chapters of Beta Sigma Phi won top laurels with their parade entry, a portrayal of an old-fashioned "shot-gun" wedding.

Second place honors went to Hart Junior Riding Club featuring the club sweetheart, Sharla Carson, who was recently named District One Queen.

Hart Lions, presenting their sweetheart and queen, were named third in the parade. Miss Becky King is Lions Queen. Sandy Bennett is the club sweetheart.

Kress Riding Club took the top honors of the Riding Club division with Lamb County Sheriff's Posse taking second and the Lubbock Rangers placing third.

Bicycle winners were Matt King, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. King; Laurie Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Miller and Bruce McAdams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Doyce McAdams. It was the third year for Miss Miller to take second place honors in that division. Approximately 25 youngsters participated in the decorated bicycle division.

Play Day Activities following the parade drew 240 entries with contestants from Lubbock Saddle Club, Kress Riding Club, Lamb County Sheriff's Posse and Amarillo.

High point trophies were copped by Hart Riding Club members in each division. Pee Wee girl was Sharla Carson with Cary McLain taking Pee Wee boy honors. Eva Bramlet and Harley Malone were junior high point girl and boy and Margaret Swindle and Rex Henderson were named high point winners in the senior division.

Mrs. Oford King was named Best Dressed Woman, complimenting her pioneer costume with a pair of stockings which were 125 years old that had belonged to her grandmother.

Tom McLain was selected Best Dressed Man.

A special category, added for the first time this year, was best dressed Hillbilly boy and girl. Janet Black, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Black and Kevin Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Parker were the winners. The two were presented tickets for carnival rides by members of Beta Sigma Phi.

Mrs. Ira McLain took honors for having lived the longest in Hart. She has been a resident since 1902. Jewel Ray of House, N. M. traveled the farthest distance to attend the event.

Adding to the festivities of Hart Day this year were carnival attractions. The carnival, believed the first for Hart, was sponsored by the Lions Club.

Spray Plane Crashes, Pilot Not Seriously Injured

Ronald Elder, 29, of Dimmitt, narrowly escaped serious injury when the spray plane he was piloting hit a transmission line and crashed northeast of Sunnyside about 9 a. m. Wednesday.

In the process of spraying a crop on the land of Roy Lilley, Elder was reported in satisfactory condition by spokesmen at Plains Memorial Hospital where he was taken following the crash. Receiving only a few minor cuts and bruises, Elder was covered with the insecticide with which he was spraying, and was kept in the hospital for observation.

The plane, a Piper Pawnee, owned by Hart Aerial Sprayers, was almost totally demolished except for the cockpit which remained intact possibly furnishing protection for the pilot, according to a spokesman of the spraying company.

Elder has been doing agricultural flying for the past three years. He is the son of Mrs. Tony Hellman of Miami, and nephew of Mrs. Jim Elder of Dimmitt.

Danger! Check It Out

Don't raid that corn patch!

Those roasting ears may make the mouth water but don't be tempted to indulge in what has become a custom of Southern hospitality - - "helping yourself to a mess of corn".

Some fields of corn have been treated with insecticides and the corn should not be eaten until a safe period of time as specified on the insecticide label.

Extension service personnel also point out that if the corn patch is located near a milo field or cotton field that has been sprayed with systemic insecticides there is danger that the systemic may have drifted in the wind or may have washed into some of the corn in some irrigation tailwater.

This is not only true of corn crops but also may affect any vegetables grown on the farm and, since systemics work inside the plant, cannot be washed away.

Persons are cautioned to not gather and eat any vegetable without knowing whether it has been sprayed and the conditions concerning the spraying.

Some farmers in Hale County have been combating the insect problem with the use of lacewinged flies to control aphids and greenbugs in sorghum crops.

Lacewinged flies eggs are released in fields and then hatch with the larvae then feeding on aphids and greenbugs.

Trichogramma wasps are released in cotton fields to lay eggs in the eggs of the bollworm, thereby causing the bollworm eggs to fail to hatch.

Beneficial insects must be released weekly in order to control the pest insects in crops.

WHAT'S UP?

We've got a two-letter word we use constantly that may have more meaning than any other. The word is UP.

It is easy to understand UP meaning toward the sky or toward the top of a list. But when we waken, why do we wake UP? At a meeting, why does a topic come UP, why do participants speak UP, and why are the officers UP for election? And why is it UP to the secretary to write UP a report?

Often the little word isn't needed ,but we use it anyway. We brighten UP a room, light UP a cigar, polish UP the silver, lock UP the house, and fix UP the old car. At other times, it has special meanings. People stir UP trouble, line UP for tickets, work UP an appetite, think UP excuses, get tied UP in traffic. To be dressed is one thing, but to be dressed UP is special. It may be confusing, but a drain must be opened UP becuase it is stopped UP. We open UP a store in the morning and close it UP at night. We seem to be mixed UP about UP.

To be UP on the proper use of UP look UP the word in your dictionary. In one desk-size dictionary UP takes UP half a page, and listed definitions add UP to about 40. If you are UP to it, you might try building UP a list of the many ways in which UP is used. It will take UP a lot of your time but, if you don't give UP, you may wind UP with a thousand.

GUEST EDITORIAL

Editor Bill Thompson of the Paris (Texas) News ran across an item that he thought worth passing on to his readers. Bill doesn't know who wrote it, and neither do I, but I agree that it describes "growing up" pretty much the way it was with those who shared their school days with me. Read on:

"I didn't have a very happy childhood-

"But nobody worried very much about it. I was too busy, I guess - cutting lawns, shoveling snow, running errands, delivering groceries for 10 cents a load, selling newspapers, doing house chores, going to school. I passed my grades, too. If I hadn't, I'd have had the hide strapped off me.

"No one concerned himself about my amusements. What fun we had, we made. But if we did any damage-like breaking a window in a ball game-we paid for it by working it out.

"I don't suppose people understood me; but if I had said so, my mother would have asked: 'Why should they?' And no one ever gave a thought to my 'problems.' They were mine, weren't they? Mine to solve. Why should I expect anyone else to bother?

"We never heard phrases like 'standard of living,' 'subsistence level' or 'minimum requirements.' Our standard of living was whatever my father earned. If my father was laid off, we stopped spending on anything but food and a lot less of that. My dad spent every waking hour looking for work-any work. We lived on savings and if things became too tight we'd move in with relatives-or the relatives would move in with us. If there had been no relatives, we'd have gone to the only place left- the County Poor House, but that would have been an admission that we couldn't take care of ourselves.

'I guess we didn't have much. But we had something that was infinitely more important; infinitely more rewarding-we had self-respect, because whatever we had, we earned.

"It seems to me that is why America is the strong nation it is today-and it will stay strong only so long as there are enough Americans more interested in earning than getting."

Financial Facts

By Willis A. Hawkins, Jr.

Did you know that we once used paper money in denominations less than one dollar?

Known as Fractional Currency, these small bills were first issued during the Civil War. There was a great financial crisis at the time so the banks suspended specie payments, which put a premium on all coins. People began hoarding the metal currency and soon it all but vanished from circulation.

As you can imagine, the absence of coins for change created havoc for everyone, especially merchants. The situation became so bad that, for a time, we actually reverted somewhat to the barter system and exchanged goods instead of money!

To alleviate the situation, the government finally issued paper money in denominations of 5, 10, 25, and 50 cents. The Fractional Currency was printed from 1862 to 1876.

Moments OF Meditation

Thos. H. Taylor

Do you find it hard to forgive? Many people find it very hard to forgive. The old hurts or injustices they suffer--or imagine they have suffered--stay in their minds to be relived hundreds of times. They are told and retold to others until they become like mountains in the mind. They rankle, irritate, and destroy like a cancer within.

I feel that this is one of the major hinderances to Christian growth and happiness. More people stay away from God's house because of something they have against another person than all the other causes put together. If you are such a person, burdened with the bitterness of an unforgiving spirit, let me quote to you again the words of our Lord, as rendered in the New English Bible in Matthew 6:14,15, "If you forgive others the wrongs they have done, your heavenly Father will also forgive you; but if you do not forgive others, then the wrongs you have done will not be forgiven by your Father." Sound familiar? Yes, they come right from the "Lord's Prayer" and we recite it every Sunday; yet, we do not practice it. "Forgive us....as we forgive."

Forgiveness is a two-way street. As you recognize your own failures, it will be easier to understand those of your neighbor. We are all part of the human situation. We are limited in our understanding. To recognize this is to see the need of a constant flow of forgiveness--both ways. One thing is sure. You can't be right with God unless you get things right with your fellowman. Jesus said, "If, when you are bringing your gift to the altar, you suddenly remember that your brother has a grievance against you, leave your gift where it is before the altar. First go and make your peace with your brother, and only then come back and offer your gift." (Matt. 5: 23,24 NEB) Forgiveness is a way of life. We must forgive and be forgiven. It works both ways and it will not work just one way. It is like the two sides of the same coin.

Jimmy and Johnny were playing in the yard one day. All of a sudden Jimmy came running in the house crying. His mother asked him what was the matter and he said that Johnny had hit him. Jimmy's mother said, "Who did the hitting first?" Jimmy said, "I did, but if Johnny had been the Christian that he should have he would not have hit me back." That is not only a child's opinion but the opinion of many adults. It takes two to have a fued. If either of the two refuses the whole plan is spoiled.

A family bought a new house and moved into the new community. They were out looking over their property when they spotted their neighbor and thought that it would be a good time to get acquainted. They didn't receive the warm welcome that they had expected. The neighbor said, "I guess that you know that you have bought yourself a lawsuit. This fence is two foot over on my property, and I plan to have every inch that is mine. The new owner just waited for him to run down and then said, "I am sorry about that. I was not aware of that fact. I will have a man move it tomorrow morning." The neighbor was so shocked that he didn't know what to say for a moment. Then he replied, "You will do no such thing. A person that is so willing and nice as you are, I could not force him to move the fence. We will leave it just as it is."

There is a new hit song out at the present time that has these words, "Love every body, and every body will love you." I love to hear this song because there is so much truth in it. If you know of someone who has something against you, why not try using kindness to bring back the fellowship?

I received a news letter from one of my fellow ministers the other week and he used the front page to try to straighten out something he had said in the Sunday morning message that had been misunderstood. This is bad but if we will just mean what we say and practice what we preach in the "Lord's Prayer", this will be a better world and community in which to live.

Homemakers Haven

By Mrs. Max Marble

Fresh vegetables are really in season and many homemakers are staying busy filling their extra jars for the pantry and the many plastic bags for the freezer. A few helps are shared today.

Have you tried putting a few lettuce leaves in the blanching water when you are preparing corn on the cob? Blackeyed peas can be kept in the freezer for several weeks simply by putting them in a brown paper sack. A very simple way to prepare corn on the cob is to cut the ends off, shuck and silk it and wrap very quickly in foil. There is no need to blanch. Be sure not to wash it as it has a very fresh flavor if it is not allowed to set very long before wrapping. It is best to prepare about 25 ears at a time.

DILL PICKLES

Wash cucumbers and put them in scalded jars. Mix a mixture of 1 quart water, 2 quarts vinegar, and 1 cup salt. Bring to a boil and pour over pickles. Add 1 teaspoon of dill seed and seal.

MUSTARD DILL PICKLES

1/2 gal. Vinegar, less 1 cup
1/2 c. prepared mustard
1/2 c. salt
Dill to suit taste

Pack cucumbers in jars and boil mixture and pour over cucumbers. Makes about 6 quarts.

SWEET RELISH

Grind, then measure:
1 qt. cabbage
1 qt. onions
1 qt. green tomatoes
2 pods sweet pepper
1 pod hot pepper, if desired
Add 1/2 cup salt and let stand a few hours, then drain. Grind and add 1 quart sour pickles. Mix and add the following:
5 c. sugar
1 T. black pepper
1 T. dry mustard
1 T. tumeric
1 T. flour
1 qt. white vinegar
Cook until ingredients are tender, about 20 minutes. Pack in scalded jars.

TURNABOUT

Folks used to wonder what Grandpa Brown and I had in common. He must have been close to eighty when I was just a kid. But I remember him as one of the best friends I ever had.

He was a wonderful old man, with a simple, native wisdom. We used to go fishing together, and he would talk to me about God and Faith and Love. I remember he said people shouldn't wait until they're in trouble before going to Church. "When you're happy," he told me, "take time out to offer a prayer of thanks."

The Church had acted as a balance for him during good times, and a bulwark during bad times.

Down through the centuries the Church has made great Christians out of unassuming people. They in turn have transmitted the blessings of the Church to oncoming generations. I hope I can bring Grandpa Brown's faith and wisdom to others, as I was impressed by him.
