Watson Named Good Citizen At Lions Club Ladies Night

A capacity crowd of Lions club members and their ladies, and school teachers, administrators, and board members, turned out Tuesday night at the Memorial Building. Fred Watson received his 15-year Monarch Award and was announced as this year's Good Citizen.

The Good Citizen is selected each year by a secret committee who consider contributions made by outstanding local people the past year, and select the one who has done the most for community betterment.

Mr. Watson is a long-time Lion, Mason, Baptist church worker, and has also been active in Boy Scout work.

W. H. Hale, president of the Lions club this year, presented Mr. Watson with his awards. Henry Speck received his 25-year Monarch Award and Curtis Humphries received his membership certificate as the newest member of the club.

Musical entertainment for the evening was rendered by Miss Lynda McGinnes, accompanied by Judy Hext at the piano. Miss McGinnes sang "Green Leaves of Summer" and "Autumn Leaves."

Marshall Formby Speaks

W. R. Bearce, county judge and member of the Lions club, introduced Marshall Formby of Plainview as speaker for the evening. Mr. Formby is expected to announce for the Governor's race in next year's Democratic Primary.

Calling for Americans everywhere to rededicate themselves to their way of life, Mr. Formby pointed out that Communism is being talked everywhere and that it is the greatest foe ever faced by the Free World. The world is now in conflict between freedom and slavery.

He cited a troubled world with the Cuban crisis, the Berlin crisis, 45 million homeless and a third of the world hungry.

Russia has good scientists who have gone all out on the space program, but most of them came from the satellite countries of Poland, Czechoslovakia, and eastern Germany, he stated.

Russia and Communism are a brutal enemy and a godless enemy, he said, who want every man's mind, body, and soul. But Communism offers no solace to man in time of trouble or need, he pointed out.

He discussed Democracy as having originated in Greece, where it was developed for a select few, and was subsequently developed for the many in Israel, also a small country.

Mr. Formby pointed out that in the past 20 great nations have fallen, usually from within when the people wanted too much security, became soft and lazy, and morals became low.

Total security can be found in jail, he said.

Mr. Formby summed up the challenge to Americans today as keeping the proper spirit among our people, telling the story of Democracy, keeping our nation strong, and keeping the Free Enterprise system strong.

Forrest Harding, representative to the State Legislature from San Angelo, was also present as a guest.

Lions Club Holds Bicycle Inspection Day

The annual Bicycle Inspection day was held last Saturday at the Memorial Building.

Prizes were awarded to: Mike Hale, Mike Manning, Eva Stigler, Albert Flores, Ted DuBose, Larry McGinnes, Roy DuBose, David Parker, Danny Ray Boyer, Willie Manning, Mickey Pennington.

In the races, Albert Flores won 24" boys' race, and Mike Hale won 26" race.

Ginning Is Under Way! 115 Bales Processed

At 2:00 p. m., yesterday the Mikeska Gin at Eldorado had processed a total of 115 bales. The close of each day sees a considerable number of trailers converging on the yard, and the above figure was undoubtedly increased a good deal before closing time last night.

By next week braceros will begin making their appearance in the county. Moore & Smith are due to have a bunch here on Monday, and Victor Sauer is scheduled to receive some next Tuesday.

If the present clear, dry weather continues the harvest will come to a head rapidly.

Funeral At Alpine For Gary Lee Bryant, 8

Funeral services were held in the Baptist church at Alpine Sunday for Gary Lee Bryant, eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bryant of Alpine. He was also the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. (Pete) Bryant of Eldorado.

Gary Lee was killed at about 10 o'clock Saturday when a large iron pole fell on him, at his father's service station in Alpine.

Interment was made in the Alpine cemetery.

Gary Lee was born November 22, 1952, in Corpus Christi. In addition to his parents he is survived by three brothers and by his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Curley Davis of Alpine. Also surviving are several uncles and aunts.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryant of Eldorado attended the funeral, and they arrived back home Tuesday.

Murrs Have Car Stolen

The 1956 brown and white two-door Chevrolet belonging to John Murr was stolen sometime Saturday night, and as of press time this week the authorities had no lead on it.

The loss was not discovered until about 10 o'clock Sunday morning by the Murrs. They reported to the sheriff's office, who sent out a state alarm.

Several residents in the north part of town reported seeing a hitchhiker on the highway late in the day Saturday.

Mrs. Rutha Boyer has returned from a visit with her sisters and brothers in Coleman county.

Two Oil-Gas Tests Scheduled In District West of Eldorado

TXL Oil Corp., Midland, will drill the No. 1-A R. L. Henderson on a 1/2-mile southwest outpost to its No. 1 Henderson, opener and lone producer in the Velrex (Canyon sand) field of Schleicher county, 24 miles north of Eldorado. Contract depth is 7,300 feet; ground elevation, 2,467 feet.

Eagles Clobber Eden 20 to 0; Rankin Red Devils Here Friday

The Eldorado Eagles threw down their "upper dog anvil" last Friday night and felt so good about it that they galloped out on Eden's football field and completely overshadowed the heavier Bulldogs by a convincing 20-0 score.

The Bulldogs are big strong boys and are the favorites of sports-writers for their district championship when conference play opens. But the Eagles apparently remembered what a heavy load such news stories sometimes are because they boisterously outlasted the Bulldogs in every department of the game.

They racked up a whopping 17 first downs to the Bulldogs' eight; they piled up a decisive 273 yards rushing to the Bulldogs' 91.

They helped Eagle Quarterback Jim Cheek complete five of the six passes completed by the Eagles while permitting the Bulldogs to connect with only two out of six throws. The Eagles tabbed 55 yards in the air to Eden's two completions totaled 20 yards.

But the Bulldogs tied the Eagles in the fumble department, each presenting the ball to the other twice during the game.

Eagle Sophomore Quarterback and Defensive Back Lynn Meador committed "grand larceny" with Bulldog passes purloining two of their six aerials while another Eagle filched the third for three interceptions while the Bulldogs were unable to intercept a single one of the Eagle missiles.

Penalty-wise, The Eagles lost 35 yards to none for the Bulldogs.

Big difference in the game was provided by the "unsung work-

JIM CHEEK
Eagle Of The Week

horses" up front who blasted a way for Big Donnie Holden who carried 23 times for 103 yards or about four and one-half yards per try. But what was rough on the Bulldogs was that two of Holden's rushes ended in Eagle touchdowns.

Senior Quarterback Jim Cheek had a rollicking night for himself, completing five of the Eldorado pass completions for 41 of the total 55 yards earned. On defense, he made five unassisted tackles along with eight more assists to help throttle the Bulldog running game.

Big Mike Jurecek smashed down four Bulldog carriers unassisted and participated in six other stops.

John McGregor kicked two of the three extra point tries the Eagles earned and nearly discovered a field goal and another three points in his toe with a near miss at a field goal.

But the Eagle line was hard put at times to contain the strong Eden thrusts and it was a good thing indeed for Jim Cheek to stop or help stop 13 Bulldog sorties.

All in all, it was a fine game: good weather, good play, a strong opponent, a convincing victory, no serious injuries, good bands, good music, good shows, no trouble.

There are the factors which justify high school football.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Ratliff Thursday were Mrs. Jimmy McMullens and baby, Ashley, and Miss Sandra Ratliff, both granddaughters of Mr. Ratliff, and daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Ratliff, formerly residents of Ozona but now living in Redwood City, California. The McMullens have returned to Ozona to make their home after his recent discharge from the service. Miss Sandra Ratliff will visit in Texas a month before returning to her home in California.

Rankin Here Tomorrow

The Eldorado Eagles collide with the Rankin Red Devils on the High School field tomorrow night at 8:00 o'clock. The Eagles will again carry the "Upper Dog" handicap and its weight could be dangerous against the Red Devils who would like nothing better than to regain some of their self esteem which they have lost this season by absorbing a licking or so already. To hand the high-flying Eagles a defeat would cheer them greatly and enable them to hold up their heads at home next week as well as create a lot of sport chatter among the neighbors.

Statistically, Rankin is still junior to Eldorado, listing an enrollment of 527 children, an evaluation of $29 1/2 million dollars for school tax purposes, a tax rate of $1.07 for expenses and 33c for debts to total $1.40 for each $100 of that evaluation.

But Rankin is not a member of the Southern Association, while Eldorado is in spite of their greater wealth.

It will be the fourth game for each team. Bands will perform and all will be looking sharp; and it looks like a good night for football.

The Eagles should win but just to make sure they should not slack up on the "Donnie Holden" express and the "Jim Cheek" air transport.

Dealer Shown With Well-Preserved Model A Ford

SHOWN HERE with the 1929 Model A Ford belonging to Walter Pope are Elvis Parker, mechanic, and George Humphrey, owner, of George Humphrey Motors where the elderly auto has been attracting much attention the past two weeks from those who drop in.

The car has served long and well for nearly a third of a century and has recently undergone some sprucing up, which included new paint job, new upholstery, and new roof. Some work remains to be done to bring it up to inspection standards. Mechanics discovered that the car has a rather rare Briggs body. It seems that the company that now makes the well-known Briggs & Stratton engines made a few car bodies back in that period.

Having sold out all of his 1961 Fords a while back, Mr. Humphrey now has the '29 Model A on the show room floor. He plans to park it in front a week from now when he shows the '62 Ford.

After that, Mr. Pope will take the antique back to the ranch where it will continue in service. (Staff Photo)

The sharp, clean lines of Oldsmobile's new F-85 for 1962 are apparent in this front view of the F-85 four-door Deluxe sedan. Styling changes for 1962 include a new hood, grille and headlamp housings. Body side moldings on F-85 Deluxe models are of a different design and are re-positioned to create a smart new styling accent. A re-styled rear section features twin tail lamps mounted on each side. Back-up lamps are now located on the lower body panel, below the rear bumper. Exceptional performance and economy of operation are provided by V-8 aluminum engines with up to 185 horsepower.

Don't get too busy! Don't get so busy doing the regular, routine things that you won't have time to come to the first meeting of the second series of meetings on Civil Defense, tonight, Thursday, at 7:00, in the auditorium of the high school. We should not have to be begged to come to hear a man who is well informed on the one subject which is on everybody's mind today—atomic fallout.

Today I got pre-distribution copies of two new bulletins available soon from the Extension Service, "Modern Pruning Methods," and "Greenhouses for the Texas Gardener." Call 22592 for your copy which you may get when my order is filled. The pruning bulletin covers reasons for pruning, pruning tools, pruning methods, safety rules, and contains a list of suggested reading material plus special sections on pruning shrubs & small trees, hedges, evergreens, and roses.

"Greenhouses" is an excellent source of information on the "what to" and "how to" of that area of gardening or plant growing.

Like to make your own hot peppers? Several have called for this recipe and I figured that others needed some directions but hadn't called.

Hot Peppers

Cut the tops from peppers and slit them half their length from the top down the two sides. Soak from 18 to 24 hours in brine made from ½ cup salt to 1 qt. water. Sterilize jars and place a few cloves of garlic, 1 tablespoon sugar and 1 teaspoon olive oil in each jar. Pack peppers in jars. Make a new solution of brine as directed above, add an equal amount of white vinegar. Bring this solution to boil and pour over the peppers. Put lids on jars and shake well to get solution inside peppers. Unscrew lids and pour enough brine-vinegar solution to cover peppers completely. Seal jars.

And while we are in the recipe department—try this:

Superb For September:
Mocha Bottom Pie

Mocha Bottom Pie is a special dessert for fall entertaining. It is quickly prepared with a mocha crumb crust, and a filling of packaged Dark 'n' Sweet Chocolate pudding.

For that mocha flavor, instant coffee is added to the crumb crust. Topped with whipped cream and chocolate wafer crumbs, you'll find this dessert is as elegant as it is delicious.

Covering shoes these days? We are. Home Demonstration Club members, that is. It's fun, costs virtually nothing and they actually can be covered. Fabric covered shoes are quite the style today and

Mocha Bottom Pie
3/4 cup thin chocolate wafer crumbs
1/4 cup grated or finely chopped pecans
2 tablespoons instant coffee
2 tablespoons sugar
3 tablespoons soft margarine
1 package Dark 'n' Sweet Chocolate Pudding
2 cups milk
1 cup heavy cream, whipped.
With fingers, blend crumbs, nuts, coffee, sugar and margarine. Press on bottom and sides of 8-inch pie plate. Bake in moderate oven (350 F.) 10 minutes. Cool. Combine pudding and milk; cook as directed on the package. Cool slightly; do not stir. Pour into cooled pie shell. Chill. Spread top with whipped cream. If desired, sprinkle with more chocolate wafer crumbs. Make one 8-inch pie.

when the work is done by order I understand the cost ranges from $8 to $12. Besides all that, what better use could you put last summer's white shoes than to cover them and keep right on wearing them?

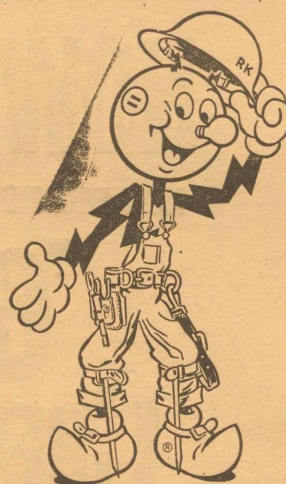

Call me for directions and information about the whole thing; it can be done.

NIMITZ BACK TO A&M

Ernest K. Nimitz returned from Colorado last week and spent a few days with his parents before leaving for Texas A&M college on Thursday.

He has recently been admitted to the Professional School of Veterinary Medicine. He was one of 60 out of 180 applicants to meet requirements for admission. He will also continue his studies in range and forestry.

Mr. and Mrs. John Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin McAngus and Georgeann, and Mrs. Kyle Neill of Midland attended funeral services at Kerrville for Mrs. Arthur Rea, Monday of last week.

GROWTH*Keynote of the Center of the Southwest

West Texas Utilities Company's service facilities are growing as the area we serve grows.

This service area is the Center of the Southwest—the very heart of a five-state region that is growing 25 per cent faster than the Nation.

A multi-million-dollar growth program is now under way, and even more expansion is in the planning stages. Major examples are our new generating, transmission and distribution facilities, where much construction is now going on.

Our continuing growth program is seen also at the local level. Pictured here, for example, are three of our local offices which have been remodeled recently.

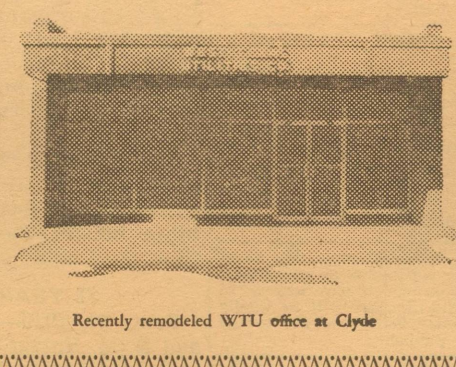

This Company is convinced that we face Growth Unlimited. The money we are spending for expansion today is our INVESTMENT IN THE FUTURE.

Local Reservists Prepare For Inspection Sept. 26

Tuesday night, 19 September, was pay day for Junction-Sonora-Ozona-Eldorado U. S. Army reservists who answered "pay call" as a brief recess from their busy preparations for the annual Command Maintenance inspection slated for the Sonora Army on 26 September. They will spend a full day of work on this preparation Sunday.

Commander of the local USAR unit, Captain Morton M. Skaggs, said Tuesday night that the Reservists were paid on a quarterly basis and that Tuesday night's pay was the first since the unit returned from annual 15-day active duty training at Fort Hood in June. He concluded that the total payroll nicely supplemented the economy in each of the four West Texas cities.

The area reservists when queried concerning a possible call to active duty along with National Guard units, had little to say. Most enlisted men in the unit stated that they had enough to do with preparations for the impending inspection and that they would let tomorrow take care of itself. Unit officers concurred in this sentiment.

CARD OF THANKS

Ground Broken For Two New Boys' Ranch Dorms

Construction contract for the new structures has been awarded Lawrence Black, Odessa building contractor.

Most Texans agree that two generals, both Kentucky-born and Texans by choice, were the state's outstanding heroes during the Civil War. One of these was John Bell Hood. The other was Albert Sidney Johnston.

It was just 100 years ago this month that General Johnston was given command of Confederate Armies in the West, a job that was to cost him his life at a place called Shiloh in western Tennessee.

And on October 2, in ceremonies at the state cemetery in Austin, Texas, will pay tribute to General Johnston during the first of several pilgrimages designed to call attention to the contributions of Texas to the Confederacy.

Sponsored by the Texas Division, United Daughters of the Confederacy, the pilgrimage will proceed from the Driskill hotel to the Confederate monument on a capitol grounds where Mrs. L. J. Gittinger, president of the Texas Division, U.D.C., will lay a wreath in memory of all Texans who served the Confederacy. At the Littlefield Memorial Fountain on the University of Texas campus, Miss Nell Owen, a direct descendant of a member of Terry's Texas Rangers, will place a wreath in memory of Major Littlefield and the members of the Rangers.

At the state cemetery where General Johnston is buried, Ted Gage, Vice-President General of the Children of the Confederacy, will place a wreath at the tomb of General Johnston. The delegation will be greeted by a committee of students from the Albert Sidney Johnston High School of Austin.

General Johnston, best-known for his participation in the Civil War, was also a hero of both the Army of the Republic of Texas and the Army of the United States. He was a West Pointer and graduated about the same time as Robert E. Lee, Jefferson Davis, and Geo. H. Thomas.

When the Texas War for Independence broke out, Johnston came to Texas and enlisted as a private in the Army of the Republic. When his background and experience was discovered, however, promotions came rapidly and he was soon made commander of the entire Texan Army.

When Texas joined the Union, Johnston entered the United States Army and quickly rose to the rank of Colonel. When the Second Cavalry Regiment was organized in 1855 and sent to Texas, Johnston was the commanding officer. His second in command was Robert E. Lee, a lieutenant colonel.

The Second Cavalry became known as "Jeff Davis' Own" because it was later said that Davis, who was then Secretary of War under President Franklin Pierce packed the new regiment with his favorite Southern officers, most of whom went into the Confederate Army and rose to high positions of command.

Some of the officers of the Second Cavalry were Earl Van Dorn of Mississippi, Edmund Kirby Smith of Florida, Theodore O'Hara of Kentucky, Charles E. Travis of Texas, John Bell Hood of Kentucky, and Fitzhugh Lee of Virginia.

When the Civil War broke out, Johnston offered his services to the South. On September 10, 1861, he became commander of the Confederate Armies in the West.

A short seven months later, General Johnston's Confederates met the Union troops of General Ulysses S. Grant at a place called Pittsburg Landing or Shiloh in a battle that nearly destroyed Grant's command and ended one of the most important Union operations of the War.

The Confederates should have won the Battle of Shiloh and were prevented from doing so only by the arrival of Union reinforcements. General Johnston was mortally wounded and thus the Confederacy and Texas lost the service of one of the best-loved heroes of the Civil War.

Mrs. Frances Mund Is In Gonzales Hospital

Mrs. Frances Mund, Eldorado, was admitted to the Texas Rehabilitation Center, Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation, on September 11. At the Center, she will have a program of rehabilitation treatments prescribed for her by the medical director, a specialist in physical medicine and rehabilitation.

The medical program at TRC is made up of physical therapy, occupational therapy, clinical psychology, speech therapy, 24-hour rehabilitation nursing, and recreational therapy. These are prescribed as needed for the individual patient.

In rehabilitation at the Center, the entire person is considered. Church services are offered, there is a school for children, and entertainment programs are held regularly. The goal is maximum rehabilitation—physically, socially, and emotionally—so the person can live and work to the best of his abilities.

TRC is a non-profit, non-sectarian hospital which assures needed care to Texans of all ages who have been disabled by many kinds of accidents and diseases. About 55% of the operating budget must come from contributions of Texas citizens.

Mrs. Mund's mailing address is C/O Rehab. Center, Box 58, Gonzales, Texas.

County Extension News

W. G. Godwin, Co. Agent

October 3, 1961, is an important date for every landowner in Zone 3 of the Eldorado Divide Soil Conservation district. You have the added responsibility of electing a supervisor on October 3 to help administer the affairs of our Soil Conservation district. If you are 21, own land in zone 3 or if you are the wife of a landowner, you are eligible to vote.

Zone 3 is bounded by Highway 33 from Eldorado to the county line; thence by Highway 277 from Eldorado to the county line. All land north and west of these highways comprises Zone 3.

B. E. Moore is the present supervisor. Mr. Moore urges all to remember the date, October 3, 1961. But by all means vote.

Agricultural workers and supervisors can give details of time and place.

Watch the Success for a feature story September 28.

Pink bollworm and boll weevils are present in all cotton fields in Schleicher county. However, the "pinkie" will not present too much of an economic problem this year, while Mr. Bill Weevil has and will cause an economic loss running to the thousands of dollars, by a higher poisoning cost, loss in yield and grade.

The amount of money received will depend upon your judgment more this year than ever before—and not so much on the frost date.

There are some 26 steps that producers of cotton should know—especially from the bloom stage to the grown boll, with Mr. Boll Weevil present. Should I defoliate and strip, or pull? Should I continue to poison Mr. Boll Weevil? The answers are present in the fruiting habits of cotton plants and your defoliation guide, 1-145.

We can't have an ideal national life unless we as individuals have less high life and more home life.

The per capita domestic consumption of oil in the U. S. in 1940 was 10.1 barrels. In 1960 we used 19.5 barrels per capita.

Over the past half century the U. S. has produced over half of the crude oil in the world. Since 1950 her relative position has been declining.

Kuwait, Saudi Arabia, Iraq, and Iran have 60% of all oil reserves in the world; but the U. S. with only 12.5% of the crude reserve produced 33.6% of the world's total production, in 1960. Russia with 11% of the crude production in the world produced 13.9% of the world production. Whereas the oil rich Middle East produced 25% of the world production.

Thirty-nine have signed for the Civil Defense School—to begin tonight, Thursday, September 21, at the high school auditorium at 7:00. This will be the second such school that Mr. Tharp has taught here in Eldorado.

Should you desire to enroll, call 24281 or 22591, Mrs. Helen Carlman, the county judge's secretary, and be present at 7:00 tonight. This first meeting will be well worth your time as it deals with how the Communist thinks, making it possible to interpret the news better than ever before.

With the coming of cold weather there will be many pruning jobs around the house.

Pruning plants is an art that can be acquired through learning certain basic principles and the exceptions to them, and through experience and close observation. The purpose of pruning is to remove unwanted growth, and the cardinal rule to follow is that if you have no good reason to prune, put the tools away.

The publication, B-977, "Modern Pruning Methods" gives a complete discussion on the reasons for pruning, pruning tools, methods, safety rules, and contains a list of suggested reading material plus special sections on pruning shrubs and small trees, hedges, evergreens, and roses.

Copies of this bulletin are available at the county agent's office.

One of the saddest and discouraging situations: to watch ignorance in operation.

buying a new car was not a simple purchase. There was no George Humphrey Motors with "Better Prices and Easier Terms."

You bought direct from the factory in Detroit, sight unseen, as is, and cash on the barrelhead. "Immediate Delivery" meant they would build your auto carriage upon receipt of cash with order.

The 1903 Fordmobile "with detachable tonneau" cost $850, a price which was a little fortune by the standards of that day. And no trade-in to ease the pain.

But Ford was to change all that. Just ten years later there were Ford dealers all over the country, so you no longer had to send to Detroit for a part. Automobiles were surely here to stay. We are proud now to be a part of the Ford family of dealers.

Vincent Southwick Has Antique Chess Set

It's a long time since a day back in 1943 that Vince Southwick, presently associated here with the Eldorado Ice House, became owner of an Oriental chess set several centuries old.

The set has an interesting history. He received the set in 1943 while he was stationed with the U. S. Navy in England.

"I met this old gent in Hinton in Devonshire," Vince said, "and after a few games of chess, we became pretty good friends."

His chess partner was 97 at the time and the only surviving member of an old English family that had owned the set for three generations.

It was purchased in China about 1700 by the owner's great-grandfather, who was a British naval surgeon.

Intricately carved, the chessmen are typical of the traditional chess figures but have Mongolian clothing and faces. The 32 pieces of the complete set are divided into red and white teams.

The upper base of each piece is a small ball, within which are two or more smaller balls.

The bases can be unscrewed from the main figure and the lances of the knight are detachable.

When Vince was preparing to leave England, the aged owner of the set said he wanted him to have it, so Vince purchased it.

In his efforts to establish the history of the antique set, Vince has received statements from some chess authorities who say it was created about 1500 A.D. He has exhibited it at many national chess conventions.

The beauty of the hand-carved pieces dazzles the eye whenever they are laid out.

After the war, Southwick lived in Fargo, North Dakota, and Amarillo, Texas, where he had a job with the Bureau of Apprenticeship, U. S. Department of Labor.

He has learned of only one other chess set like his in existence, and that one was valued at $5,000.

Setting no price on his set, Southwick says he will show the chessmen only by appointment to prospective buyers since he has discovered their possible value.
