PREACHES ON DEVIL'S GOSPEL

REV. HAM DECLARES IT IS WRONG FOR SUNDAY SCHOOLS TO REPEAT LORD'S PRAYER.

THE EXERCISE OF FAITH

In Christ Jesus Only Makes Us Sons of God, the Evangelist Declares.

In his sermon on the Devil's Gospel last night Rev. Ham severely criticised the practice of children praying the Lord's prayer and Sunday schools repeating the prayer in unison as is the custom in many schools. As his basis for this criticim he quoted Galatian 3:26—"We are only sons of God through faith in Jesus Christ."

"Parents do wrong in teaching their children to pray the Lord's prayer, for when they say 'Our Father' they are deceiving themselves for they are not God's children until they exercise faith in Christ Jesus," he said.

Sunday schools do wrong in praying the prayer in unison for many who pray are not Christians and may be led to believe they are saved when they are not.

And lodges also are responsible for the devils lie in the universal fatherhood of God and the universal brotherhood of man.

Rev. Ham took as his leading text the third chapter of Genesis, where the devil spoke to Eve, "Ye shall not surely die, but ye shall be as gods."

He said the devil did three things. He slandered God; deceived Eve and enthroned himself. The two things that Eve did were that she took from God's work and added to God's word.

"Good men often quote Acts 17:28 which says: 'We are also his offspring, as scripture, when the Bible clearly says it is a quotation from the Greek poets."

"We are all Gods creatures. I ate a piece of an old cow for supper tonight who was created of God, but she was not my sister for we are only sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus and everytime a man who isn't a Christian prays the Lord's prayer he tells a lie for he says, 'Our Father,' when he is a child of the devil. John 8:44 'Ye are your father the devil,' said Christ to the man who refused to follow him.

At the conclusion of the service an old man came forward and cried "If you can do anything for me, get busy I want it finished tonight." At the same time he handed one of the ministers at the altar a flask half full of whiskey. Before he left the tent he had confessed his sins and had professed his faith in Christ Jesus.

CHAMPION WOLGAST HAS APPENDICITIS

By Associated Press.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 29.—Ad Wolgast, who was scheduled to defend his title against the British boer, Freddie Welsh, tomorrow, was stricken with appendicitis at 3 o'clock this morning in his training quarters. An operation will be performed to save his life.

The little champion showed symptoms of an attack last night. Slight pains caused him to complain but he went to bed at 10:30 apparently all right again. At 2 o'clock Tom Jones, Wolgast's manager, says he awakened Jones with his screams. Physicians diagnosed the case as acute appendicitis and declared an immediate operation necessary.

Over one hundred sewer cases have been prosecuted so far by the city authorities, and more are being tried every day. All of the property owners so far summoned have promised to connect within the legal limit of sixty days from the date of notification, and the cases have been dismissed pending the fulfillment of this promise. The work of notifying the property owners of the city to connect with the sewer has now extended over town as far as Broad street, about three-fourths of the property owners involved having already been notified, and City Sanitary Officer Brown says that the rest will receive notice to connect as soon as he can ge to them. The present campaign will not be completed until every owner of property close to the sewer line in this city has complied with the law, and Mr. Brown says that it is his business to see that they do so in the shortest possible time.

Wiley Blair left this morning for Fort Worth, where he goes on business.

U. S. TROOPS ARE OFFERED

GOVERNMENT TENDERS SERVICES OF SOLDIERS IN PHILIPPINES TO AID IN KEEPING OPEN CHINESE RAILWAY.

IS NOT INTERVENTION

Offer of Troops Is Discharge of Obligation and Rights Under Protocol of 1901.

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 29.—The United States has formally offered China the services of 2,500 American troops now in the Phillipines to aid in keeping open the railway from Pekin to the sea and for the protection of foreigners in China.

American Minister Calhoun was instructed by the State Department to explain to his colleagues in the diplomatic corps at Pekin that the United States Government in recognition of its obligations and rights secured by the treaty following the boxer troubles, is holding in constant readiness a force of from 500 to 2,500 men. This is in no way to be considered a force of intervention, but merely the United States part in carryin gout with other powers the provisions of the 1901 protocol for maintaining railway communication from Pekin to the sea.

STRAY HORSES HAVE ALL BEEN RECOVERED

All of the remaining ten head of horses at large out of the bunch of twenty-six which escaped from the stock pens last Sunday, have been recovered, and all of the consignment have now been shipped to Tyler, their original destination, in good condition.

Those which were caught yesterday ewer found several miles below the Noble ranch, near the Clay county line, northeast of the city, and were rounded by by Frank Barnett, chief special agent for the Denver railroad in this city.

A good deal of trouble was caused to the Denver by the escape of this stock, and detectives are still investigating the theory that the gate to the stockpens was opened maliciously.

EX-PRESIDENT FACES CHARGE

FINANCIER TELLS COMMITTEE HIS REASONS FOR BELIEVING ROOSEVELT BARGAINED WITH INTERESTS.

HOLLERING WAS ALLOWED

Former Executive Knew of Approaching Panic in 1907 and Took No Steps to Prevent It.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 29.—W. Barker, a retired banker of Philadelphia, sprang a sensation on the senate committee on interstate commerce Tuesday when he alleged that a New York financier told him in 1904 that the financial interests would support Theodore Roosevelt for President because Roosevelt had made a bargain with them on the railroad question.

Mr. Barker's statement came in the midst of a vigorous attack on the money trust, in which he alleges also that President Roosevelt had been given the details of the impending panic of 1907, several months before it happened, but took no action to prevent it.

Mr. Barker also declared that the Aldrich currency plan was the handiwork, not of former Senator Aldrich, but of a Mr. Warburg of of the banking firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Company of New York, and that a fund of $1,000,000 had been started to insure its adoption.

"Three or four weeks before the election in 1904," said Mr. Barker, "I was walking down Broadway when I met one of the most distinguished money kings in New York, a man now dead. He said to me, 'We are going to elect Roosevelt.' I expressed surprise and asked if he had given up the support of Parker. He said yes and that they had frightened Roosevelt so he had made a bargain with them."

Members of the committee looked somewhat incredulous and Mr. Barker added:

"I wish Mr. Roosevelt were here.

"I wish he were," said Senator Townsend, "It would be interesting."

Mr. Barker said the financial giant, whom he declined to name told him that Roosevelt had made a bargain on the railroad question.

Mr. Barker continued:

"He is to holler all he wants to, he told me, but by and by a railroad bill will be brought in by recommendation of the President, cutting off rebates and free passes, which suits us, who own the railroads, permitting the railroads to make pooling arrangements and providing for maximum rates."

The railroad man added, said Mr. Barker that under the latter authority it would be possible to add from $330,000,000 to $400,000,000 to the total freight charges paid by the American public.

"I told him I did not believe Roosevelt had made any such agreement," said Mr. Barker, "but when the annual message of 1905 went to congress he recommended most of those things. I wrote to President Roosevelt and told him what I had heard and that I had thought the man lied, but now I must believe he had not. It was the only letter of mine Mr. Roosevelt ever failed to answer."

Members of the committee asked Mr. Barker to give the name of the financial man who had told him that Roosvelt was to be elected.

"I cannot do it, but subsequently somebody was alleged to have stolen some correspondence between Mr. Harriman and the President, telling of $250,000 put up for election expenses in the city of New York."

Referring to the panic of 1907, Mr. Barker said a man who was present at a conference at J. P. Morgan's house in May came to him in Philadelphia and wanted him to use his influence with President Roosevelt to stop a plan that had been mapped out, he alleged, by the financial leaders. This man was a captain in the Rough Riders, he said, and had used his influence with the President, but without avail.

Mr. Barker said that in October when the financial upheaval reached its crisis he urged President Roosevelt to distribute the $145,000,000 of cash in the treasury among the banks of Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston and other large cities.

"He wanted to do it," he said, "but he called Mr. Knox and Mr. Cortelyou and Mr. Root, and instead of depositing in the outside cities, he plunged the whole amount into Wall street. It broke the country, but it saved the gamblers."

The Philadelphia man, whose bank-

An Interview With the New Pastor of the Methodist Church

Dr. J. W. Hill, the new pastor of the First Methodist Church, South, of this city, in an interview, said: "Yes, I was reared in Texas—in Lamar county.' I have never served in any other save the North Texas Conference. Transfers have been offred me repeatedly. Bishop Duncan wished to send me to our great Central Church at Galveston. Bishop Key tried to get my consent to go to El Paso; Bishop Hoss asked me to transfer to the Central Texas Conference; Bishop Murrah at the conference held in this city one year ago, tried to get me to go to New Orleans, and when I turned that proposition down, he offered me the First Church, Shreveport, which is paying the present pastor $3000. I turned that down also, begging the privilege of remaining in my own conference and among my own people.

"No, I have not been always in the pastorate. I was associated two years with Dr. James Campbell as editor of the Texas Christian Advocate. Yes, I am the author of two or three books. I published 'The North Texas Pulpit,' over twenty years ago. Later on I published a book entitled 'Texas Characters and Else,' and last year, I was employed by the Parent Board of Church Extension to write the history of that institution, covering a period of 30 years. Twenty-eight years of that history is now in manuscript; and I shall write the finishing chapters this year. The book will appear sometime next summer. It will contain, including illustrations, about six hundred pages. No, I am not a university man. I was educated in the common schools. I hired a man to teach me Greek, and another—two others, really—to teach me German. History has been my specialty, and for the last seven years I have held the chair of church history in our summer school of theology at the Southwestern University. I was recently re-elected for a term of three years longer. Yes, that is the school of which Dr. C. M. Bishop is president. He is an able man, and the powers that be could not have made a better choice when they elected him to that place. I am a great admirer of Dr. Bishop, and am glad to count him among by best friends.

"I have been repeatedly elected to the General Conference. It meets every four years and is the congress of our church. I was for four years a member of our Parent Board of Missions, the headquarters of which is in our publishing house at Nashville, Tenn. No, I have never been presiding elder. I have filled most all the leading churches of the conference, reaching the highest point with a four years' pastorate in the First Church, Dallas. I served Wesley Church, Greenville, first and last, 8 years. Fact, is I spent sixteen years in only three churches—Wesley, Waples Memorial, Denison; and First Church, Dallas. Yes, I started out here. That is, the first work I ever had—when I was not of age—was called the Montague and Clay mission, and included all the country where people could be found between St. Jo and New Mexico. I preached to the cowboys, and to everybody I could find in all this western country. I never have been in these parts as pastor since then. Yes, I am delighted with Wichita Falls, and I expect to do the greatest year's work of my life during 1912. I can make a friend of any man who is not all hog. If a man is willing to be at all friendly he will be my friend. No, I never have any trouble with other denominations. As a Methodist, I believe in the Holy Catholic Church—that is, in the great General Church, composed of all real Christians. I love all men whether in the church or out of it. I love men. I have no pets. I try to treat all alike. I expect the prayers and cooperation of all good people."

SAFE IS BLOWN MONEY TAKEN

ROBBERS ROLL SAFE AT SMITH & TAYLOR'S GROCERY INTO MEAT REFRIGERATOR AND BLOW IT.

$45 IN CASH IS GONE

Robbers Escape Without Arousing Neighborhood—Robbery Discovered When Store Is Opened.

Robbers early this morning rolled a small iron safe in Smith & Taylor's grocery store, corner Burwise and Mississippi, into a meat refrigerator at the rear of the store, where they blew it to pieces with nitro glycerin, and secured about forty-five dollars in cash. The refrigerator hadpractically sound proof walls so that the explosion was not heard outside of the building. The night watchman at the Cotton Oil Mill reported to have heard a faint sound of the explosion but did not suspect a safe blowing. The refrigerator had one small window and over this the robbers hung a cushion, and safety hidden within they worked without fear of detection.

The refrigerator was badly damaged by the explosion.

The robbers gained entrance to the store by prying open a window with a switch key. On the floor of the refrigerator this morning was found a small bottle from which it is believed the men poured the "soup."

The robbery was not discovered until this morning when the store was opened and the safe was found moved from its accustomed place.

NO VERDICT YET IN DENVER CASE

Mrs. Patterson Spent Restless Night and This Morning Her Face Was Pallid.

By Associated Press.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 29.—Judge Allen this morning said no announcement of a verdict in the Patterson case even if reached would be made before noon as he could not be in the court till that hour.

Mrs. Patterson spent a restless night. Her brother and sister remained with her till midnight. At this hour she told the matron she was glad the actual trial was over. From time to time during the remainder of the night the matron looked in the cell to find the prisoner was either awake, tossing fitfully or moaning in her sleep. It was nearly 8 o'clock this morning when Mrs. Patterson arose. The pallor noticeable yesterday was still apparent on her face.

As the members of the jury that is trying her for the murder of her husband filed beneath the window of Mrs Patterson in the jail, she softly cried "Oh, you dear men—if you only would look up here."

The jury was on its way into the court building after a late breakfast. None looked up.

J. Frank Smith, stenographer in the office of the superintendent of the Wichita Falls Route, has purchased the interests of Mr. Taylor in Smith & Taylor's grocery and on December 1st, will quit the railroad office to go into the grocery business. His brother Zack owns the other interest in the grocery. Both are well known and popular young men and ought to get their share of the trade.

TRUST ISSUE MADE FEATURE

TAFT WILL KEEP TARIFF REVISION IN THE BACK GROUND IS BELIEF.

FEDERAL INCORPORATION

Understand President Will Recommend Licensing of Large Concerns, Following Advocated Scheme.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 29.—Apparently not with the assistance of the President will Congress be permitted to make the tariff the paramount issue this session. At least Mr. Taft told his callers today that his message for the opening of Congress will deal almost exclusively with the trust issue, and that he proposes to leave to treatment in separate messages, as opportunity arises, the question of the tariff, Panama Canal and other important legisaltion demanding attention this session.

At the conclusion of the Cabinet meeting at which several hours were spent going over the final draft of the message, President Taft told the newspaper correspondents the character of the document, which is between 5,000 and 6,000 words in length. He explained that he devoted it exclusively to trust discussion because the report of the tariff board on the wool industry will not be ready until Dec. 12 and therefore the time has not arrived for him to take up with Congress the subject of revision of the tariff. He is not ready to take up State Department affairs, including the arbitration treaties, because a reorganization of the State Department that is under way has not been completed. Foreign affairs, like the tariff are to be treated in separate messages to Congress from time to time, as will the report of the Hadley commission on control of railroad capitalization, the report of the Hughes postal commission on postal rates, the development of Alaskan resources, conservation, etc.

The main feature of the supplemental legislation that the President recommends to Congress for enactment is understood to be Federal incorporation or licensing of all large concerns engaged in interstate commerce, following broadly the scheme he has repeatedly advocated in this connection in previous messages.

The whole tenor of the message is understood to be of a charter to Congress on the people that control of the trusts is the great and burning issue of the day while revision of the tariff is kept in the background.

Y.M.C.A. WILL MOVE INTO TABERNACLE

It has been decided by the directors of the Y. M. C. A. to close the doors of the present quarters of that association next Friday night, and not to reopen them until the job of moving into the new tabernacle on Tenth street has been finished. This decision was reached owing to the fact that the rent for the present quarters of the Y. M. C. A. will be due for another month in a few days, and as it will not be long before the quarters in the tabernacle will be ready, the directors do not feel like paying rent for another full month, when they could be using the room in the new building free of charge.

Temporary headquarters for business purposes have been installed at the rooms of the Wichita Business College, and any one who desires to transact any business with the secretary of the Y. M. C. A. will find a representative of the association in the rooms of the business college at any time during the day for the next two weeks.

It is expected to be moved and in full possession of the Y. M. C. A. quarters in the new tabernacle by at least the fifteenth of this month, and perhaps even sooner. All that is now delaying the matter is the fact that the new structure is not yet fully completed and as soon as the tabernacle is ready for occupancy by the Y. M. C. A. that organization is ready to move into it.

TEXAS PASSES MISSOURI

LONE STAR STATE NOW LEADS IN MULE RAISING ACCORDING TO U. S. CENSUS.

VALUED AT $73,781,000

Georgia Comes Next With Mules Worth $43,362,000—Missouri Lands Third.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 29.—Texas has captured the championship honor from Missouri in the race for the honor as the real home of the mule. Not only has Texas distanced the show me State, but she tops the list throughout the country and the meek and lowly mule is entitled to have his name in upper case type when it comes to listing the real resources of the State. The mule is a great asset.

Director Durand of the census bureau has chased the mule from Maine to California and has accorded him a niche in the big racks where the little cards, all punched full of holes, are kept, reciting the record of his discoveries. And according to the census man, Ollie James' impassioned tribute to the patient, plodding mule contained no exaggeration whatever.

The dweller in the larger cities of Texas who dodged a mule hitched to a wagon and urged forward by the shrill whistle of the negro driver has failed to appreciate the value of the quadruped, but the Texas farmer and the man who uses draft animals well knows the worth of the long-eared Texas canary bird.

In summing up the products of great value in Texas, there are few who would list the mule in this category, and yet the total value of these animals in the Lone Star State reaches the surprising figures of $73,781,000. This is exactly one-seventh of the total value of all the mules in ehe entire Uunited States. Texas, not Missouri, is the greatest mule State in the Union, despite the abundance of advertising the latter State received through the suggestion that Speaker Champ Clark drive down Pennsylvania avenue behind a team of Missouri mules on the day that he was installed as speaker of the house of representatives. Indeed, Georgia excells Missouri as a mule center. The mule crop of Georgie was valued at a total of $43,873,000 last year while the best Missouri could do was to land third with a total valuation of $43,362,000.

Following Texas and the two States mentioned above, come the following States in order in which they are named: Tennessee, $35,060,000; Mississippi, $31,803,000; Alabama, $31,559,000; Arkansas, $27,052,000; Oklahoma, $26,782,000; Kentucky, $26,381,000, and Kansas, $25,589,000. These figures also disclose the fact that the South has not yielded the palm as the habitat of the vigorous and sonorous voiced mule. The value of the mules in these ten States alone is $365,251,000, or 70 per cent of the total for all the farms of the country.

Getting down to totals, the figures are somewhat amazing. Texas has a grand total of 672,781 mules. In massed chorus what melody they would make! These census figures disclose the interesting fact that the Georgia mule is more valuable than the Missouri mule, for the former State with a total of 279,720 animals values them at $43,872,651 as compared with a total of 342,086 mules for Missouri, which are reputed to be worth but $43,362,102.

Report on Horses.

Texas is famous as the home of the bronco but the Lone Star State is not the leader in horses, despite the great size of the State, but if the advise of Champ Clark was taken and the territory cut up into five States there are doubtless sections that would be crowding for the head of the list in equine production. Iowa, with 1,546,201 horses valued at $185,465,967 is the great horse center of the country. Good horse sense is a term well understood in that State. Illinois ranks second, with 1,600,970 horses valued at $181,754,555. Missouri is third, with a total of 1,425,856 horses valued at $160,115,256. These figures serve to indicate the necessity of the development of a higher grade of horses in Texas for that State reports the highest grand total in the United States, 1,849,111, but when it comes to fixing their value the total drops to $156,010,062, which forces Texas into fourth place.

A glance over the census reports serves to set at rest the claim that the automobile is swiftly driving the horse out of business. The automobile statistics show an enormous increase in the output of the buzz wagons, but as yet they are largely the toys of the wealthy and the use of the auto truck and heavy vehicles of that class has not grown to the point where it can be predicted with safety or assurance that the horse will have to go.

Where Texas Shines.

When it comes to the census reports on cattle on farms, Texas easily distances the field. She is in a class all to herself. The valuation placed on the cattle in the State of Texas is $128,000,000, or considerably more than three times the total for all the New England States combined.

Second to Texas is the State of Iowa, her wealth in cattle being put down as $119,000,000. Then come the other States reporting more than fifty million dollars worth as follows: New York, $83,016,000; Kansas $80,184,000; Illinois, $73,378,000; Nebraska, $73,049,000.

A BRAIN WORKER.

Must Have the Kind of Food That Nourishes Brain.

"I am a literary man whose nervous energy is a great part of my stock in trade and ordinarily I have little patience with breakfast food and the extravagant claims made of them. But I cannot withhold my acknowledgment of the debt that I owe to Grape Nuts food.

"I discovered long ago that the very bulkiness of the ordinary diet was not calculated to give one a clear head, the power of sustained, accurate thinking. I always felt heavy and sluggish in mind as well as body after eating the ordinary meal, which diverted the blood from the brain to the digestive apparatus.

"I tried foods easy of digestion, but found them usually deficient in nutriment. I experimented with many breakfast foods and they, too, proved unsatisfactory, till I reached Grape Nuts. And then the problem was solved.

"Grape Nuts agreed with me perfectly from the beginning, satisfying my hunger and supplying the nutriment that so many other prepared foods lack.

"I had not been using it very long before I found that I was turning out an unusual quantity and quality of work. Continued use has demonstrated to my entire satisfaction that Grape Nuts food contains the elements needed by the brain and nervous system of the hard working public writer." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

"There's a reason," and it is explained in the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

Mark Wendell Phillips Centenary

Boston, Mass., Nov. 29.—The regard in which the memory of Wendell Phillips is held was given expression in Boston and vicinity today by notable exercises commemorating the 100th anniversary of the birth of the celebrated orator and reformer. The all-day observance began at sunrise with a pilgrimage to the Phillips tomb in the Milton cemetery. Later in the day exercises were held at the site of Phillips' birthplace in Beacon street, at his old home in Phillips Square, and in Faneuil Hall, where his silver tongued oratory was often heard in behalf of abolition, Irish home rule and other reform movements which he advocated.

Fighters in the "Pink."

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 29.—Ad Wolgast and Freddie Welsh, who are to box for the lightweight championship in the Vernon arena tomorrow afternoon, have ceased training and are ready for the timekeeper's signal to start them on their 20-round contest. Each fighter expressed himself today as certain of victory. The consensus of opinion of fight followers is that the contest is likely to go the full limit.

OIL LOTS FOR SALE

ELECTRA OIL FIELD

$10.00 EACH

The Powell Oil and Development Company owns in fee simple 311 acres of land situated about three miles south, 63 degrees east from the Electra Oil Fields. This company is putting 87 acres of this land on the market for the purpose of developing holdings.

The land is a part of the H. & G. N. R. R. Survey of land located in Wichita County, Texas, Survey No. 21, Abstract No. 142.

Oil men of experience consider holdings as being in the heart of the oil bearing territory for the reason that the geological survey marked by the government shows that the oil strata runs northwest and southeast from the town of Electra.

The first shallow oil encountered is about three and a half miles southeast from our holdings. This 87 acres of land is near enough the railroad to afford shipping facilities. It is also within one mile of a two hundred acre tract bought by the Fordyce Oil Company for tankage purposes.

OUR PLAN.

There are 6188 oil lots as shown by plat on file with the county clerk of Wichita County. Each lot contains 600 square feet. The purchaser of each lot is entitled to one share of capital stock of the company, when same is finally organized. When one half of the lots are sold we will at once begin operations on a deep well to be put down to a depth of 2,000 feet, unless oil or gas in paying quantities is found at a less depth, and when well is completed it will be turned over to the stockholders to be managed by a Board of Directors. 100 lots in the center of the field will be reserved for the deep well. The price of these lots is $10 cash in hand.

LOS ANGELES VOTERS WILL SELECT MAYOR ON DECEMBER 5TH

The Situation In Brief.

If a majority of the voters at the primary election had voted for any candidate, no election would have been required.

Job Harriman, Socialist, had a substantial plurality, but not a majority over Mayor George Alexander, and one of them will be elected Mayor December 5.

Women will vote for the first time, and more than 85,000 of them have registered.

The female vote, suddenly thrust into the campaign, has become an overwhelming factor, and both sides made the most strenuous efforts to win favor with the women of all classes.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 29.—The most strenuous and most interesting municipal campaign ever known in the history of Los Angeles is rapidly drawing to a close. Only a few days more of hard campaign work and the deciding battle will be fought at the polls, on December 5. What the result will be, nobody can tell; but whatever the decision may be, it will be made by the vote of women.

For years the women have been working assiduously to gain political recognition and the right to vote in this State. At last, at the State election a little more than a month ago, their urgent wish was fulfilled and the franchise was granted to them by an amendment to the State constitution. That the women have now actually entered the political arena in this State and are a power to be reckoned with in the future is no longer a debatable question. The campaign in this city, now drawing to its close, is an argument which cannot fail to convince even those scoffers who belittled the importance of the votes for women movement a few months ago. This campaign, which will go down in history as the first positive manifestation of woman's political power in California, was a battle royal fought by women.

It was granted to the women of Los Angeles to undergo the first test of their political fitness in a campaign of unparalleled fierceness and, on December 5, the day of election, they will be the first among the women of California not only to use their newly granted franchise but to decide the result of the election. There is not the slightest doubt that the women of Los Angeles hold the balance of power and that the outcome of the election depends entirely upon the vote of the women, of whom more than 85,000 have been registered.

At the recent primaries an exceedingly small vote was cast. Job Harriman the Socialist candidate for mayor who is associated with the defense of the McNamaras, defeated George Alexander, the present mayor, who is running on the good government ticket, by more than 3,000 votes, but his plurality fell short of a majority by more than 4,000 votes and for this reason it was left for the coming election to make the final decision.

In the mean time, however, the right to vote was granted to women and the women of Los Angeles, fully aware of their power, were not slow in availing themselves of their rights by registering for the coming municipal election. After the fizzle of the primaries the male voters of the city too realized that they would have to bestir themselves and the result was that since the primaries more than 191,000 voters have been registered.

Job Harriman, who has a strong following among the laboring classes, received financial support from Socialists in all parts of the country and carried on an energetic campaign. Mayor Alexander, realizing how critical the situation was and that the decision rested with the women, appealed to the latter, especially those of the wealthy classes and they responded bravely. Traveling in automobiles scores of society women made a thorough canvas among the laboring women, urging them to use their votes and influence against the Socialist candidate. The Harriman party also had women electioneering among the women of the poorer classes and only the election will show which side was more successful in its efforts.

Wichita Falls, Texas, Nov. 29th, 1911.

In these days of high cost of living, and the cost of high living, the thing that is most puzzling to the average editor is how he is going to manage on the size of his pay envelope to have on his table tomorrow, (Thanksgiving), a nice, fat juicy turkey without causing suspicion of larceny.

Grayson County is soon to vote on the question of voting $400,000 worth of good road bonds. Grayson is one of the best agricultural counties in state though the drouth this year has cut crops short. The corn crop was practically a failure, and there was not much of any other crops raised. As a result hard times are prevailing in that section and the tax-payers realize that if they expect to keep Grayson County at the head of the list of Texas counties they must do something in the way of building good roads. There some opposition to the proposition, but the chances are that it will carry, as it should.

The Abilene Reporter has purchased the Abilene Morning News, and the two papers will be issued from the office of the Daily Reporter from now on under the management of Mr. Geo. Anderson, manager of the Reporter. The reason for this consolidation was simple: Abilene, while it is a good town, was not large enough to give decent support to two daily newspapers under two separate managements, and the Times doubts seriously if the town is large enough to support both an afternoon and a morning paper under one management, though Mr. Anderson may have figured it out differently. It was the sensible thing to do, at any rate, and it will be better for Abilene to give her solid support to one paper, whether it is issued once or twice each day, rather than attempt to support two dailies under two separate managements. The three of four daily papers at Lawton have also consolidated and this will give to Lawton one real first-class paper which will be better than four that have had a half-starved to death appearance for the past four or five years.

HIGH SCHOOL TEAM GO TO FREDERICK

The members of the High School football team left this afternoon over the Northwestern for Frederick, where they will play tomorrow afternoon. Negotiations for this game have been going on for a long time, but it was understood by the high school boys that a game could not be secured, and the news that Frederick had decided to play the game after all came in the nature of a surprise.

Karl Hammon, captain of the High School team, received a telephone message about forty-five minutes before train time this afternoon from the manager of the Frederick football team, saying that if possible, a game with the High School was wanted for tomorrow, and Hammon answered that if all of the members of his team could get ready in time to catch the train, he would play them a game. All of the members but one or two reached the train in time, and those who left will leave for Frederick on a night train, and will be there tomorrow in time to play in the game.

The line up as it was announced they will begin play tomorrow is as follows:

Eustis Hickman—Center.
Karl Hammon—Right Guard.
Laverne Somerville—Right Tackle.
Joe Ward—Right End.
John Tevis—Right Half Bac.
Leonard Smith—Full Back.
Substitutes—William Dorsey and George Goodnight.

The Frederick team which the High School eleven will play tomorrow is the same with which the Y. M. C. A. team has been trying to get a game for some time, and in case the High School is defeated in tomorrow's game, another attempt to match a game with the Frederick team will be made by Manager Huff of the Y. M. C. A.

STOKES BEING GRILLED ON WITNESS STAND

New York, Nov. 29.—Attorneys for Lillian Graham and Ethel Conrad are expected to finish the cross examination of W. E. D. Stokes, whom the girls are charged with attempting to kill. The cross examination thus far has been mainly an attack on his character.

The counsel for the girls is trying to prove that when they shot Stokes in Miss Graham's apartment last June they fired in self-defense. Besides attacking his character by the cross examination, an effort is being made to show that in the case of Miss Graham he was the pursuer and not as Stokes declared, the pursued.

The convention will be called to order at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. The program for the opening day is brief, consisting for the most part of welcome addresses and responses. Baldwin will welcome the visitors on behalf of the city Superintendent Horn for the educational interests and State of Texas, Mrs. Marguerite Matlock, of Ensley, Ala., has been chosen to respond.

ing house at one time was fiscal agent for the Russian government, declared that those who backed the Aldrich money plan had begun a propaganada in which it was proposoed to spend $1,000,000 to secure the indorsement of the proposed currency legislation.

"Yesterday a banker in Philadelphia started to collect that city's share of the money, $1,000,000," he said.

He declared that the great money oligarchy of New York controlled all the lines of finance, industry and transportation and that no legislation designed to break up the trusts would strike at the root of the trouble.

"Few people appreciate how, by control of the money of trust companies, savings banks and national and state banks, this money trust has throttled individual enterprise," he said.

He urged a law that would compel national banks to hold their legal reserve in cash instead of having the power to redeposit part of it in the banks of New York.

"Nothing but those immense reserves, varying from $250,000,000 to $350,000,000, makes New York the money power it is said," said Mr. Barker, insisting that the Aldrich plan would strengthen this financial force by enabling the banks to use public credit for their own ends.

William A. Royall of Richmond, told the committee Tuesday that the decree to dissolve the American Tobacco Company was a roaring farce He also asserted that the Sherman anti-trust law, if strictly interpreted was unconstitutional and needed amendment.

New Baggage Rules.

E. A. Kellond, general baggage agent for the Katy, has returned from St. Louis, where he went to attend a meeting with reference to the size of trunks and other receptacles in which baggage is shipped on passanger trains.

The new baggage rulings are that trunks shall not be over 45 inches in length, effective July 1, 1912, and on July 1, 1914, the size of trunks will be cut down to 40 inches in length. These rules were adopted at a recent meeting in Chicago and many of the trunk manufacturers are advertising the new size trunks, which they claim are much better than the old sizes which in many cases were too large to handle with ease.

When firms handling a large number of traveling men bought their sample trunks they usually bought the largest that could be had not thinking of the handling in trains, but merely of reducing the number of trunks to be carried by their man to as small number as possible.

The main object that kept the size of the trunks down to what they are was the sample room doors of hotels, which would not allow trunks to be made any larger than they have been in the past few years. By cutting down the number of trunks to be carried on the road the traveling man would save quite a bit on drayage as the transfer companies usually charge by he piece and not by weight or size.

The 40 inch trunk will be much easier handled in baggage rooms, on trains and by transfer men. Besides they can be so arranged that they will give as good satisfaction as the larger trunks that are now carried.

Some of the manufacturers of trunks are fighting the new rule.—Denison Herald.

Pcoceedings of the Wichita County Teachers' Institute

This cool crisp morning air seems to have aroused the already enthusastic spirits of the teachers. After a song by the institute, the teachers listened to an address by Rev. R. R. Hamlin. His subject was "The Country School House." Rev. Hamlin lingered lovingly upon the sweet memories, beautiful surroundings and great influence of an East Tennessee log school house. His talk was greatly appreciated by the institute, and made some of the teachers wish that they had spent part of their school years in a log house in the hills of Kentucky or Tennessee.

"Geography and Nature Study," was discussed by Miss Myrtle Lowry. Next the institute was favored by an ideal recitation in agriculture, conducted by Prof. Heaton. This recitation proved to be very interesting and nearly every teacher participated.

After recess Supt. Crane of Electra, talked upon "Democracy in the School.' This brought about varied amount of discussion upon the duties of the teacher during play hours.

"The Disposition of the Teacher's Time," by Mrs. Belle Holder, proved to be an interesting paper and added some good points to the previous discussion.

Tuesday Afternoon's Session.

After a few appropriate remarks by the superintendent, the institute began its regular work by an instructive paper upon "Language and Composition," by Miss Eva Green. This was commented upon by Miss Bullock of Petrolia, after a wrangle over the use or manner use of the older slang expressions.

J. Sid Stone gave an extensive and forcible discussion of "Elementary Mathematics." This discussion was continued by a number of the teachers. Mr. Blankenship, an ex-teacher spoke of the inefficient teaching of arithmetic, sustaining Supt. Fairchild in his position that the schools are turning out inefficient mathmaticians.

An excellent paper on "Art and Industry," was read by Miss Fay Scott. She spoke of the training that the pupil received from this as well as the ethical value.

Our time was getting short so the superintendent left some of the discussions out and hurried on with the program.

Miss Lelia Heaton read a very good paper on "Ureserving Hygenic Conditions in the School Room." She showed how much more easy the work could be done in class preparations and class recitation if these things were looked after first.

"School Penalties" was the next subject brought before the teachers. This discussion was led by W. F. Lewis with a strong paper. He gave a deep and broad discussion of corporal punishment which was commented upon by a number of the teachers.

Some entering the discussion that had not spoken in the institute before. Some took the stand that corporal punishment should be abolished, some are great believers in using the rod, and some believe in using it only in rare cases. Some good points were made by each of the three factions.

Thanksgiving

THANKSGIVING Day has become our peculiar American holiday. Is "holiday" the right word? Whatis the difinition of "holiday"? Is it not a day set apart for rest or recreation—a festival of the church and hence a holy day? Certainly this solemn feast of thanksgiving should be sacred to every true American.

If we are sane and sensible we will recognize the fact that we have not enough holidays, not enough recreation. We need this annual reminder to be thankful for the good things that have come to us whose lines have fallen in the pleasant places of this wide western continent where the very air we breathe is Freedom.

If those lonely Pilgrims who had within the first year of their stay in America buried half their number, who had suffered untold privations and many hardships, could raise their hearts and voices in fervent thanksgiving and prepare a glad feast in remembrance of their blessings, how much even the humblest and poorest of us ought to thank the Lord for His manifold mercies to us here in Sunny Texas and are surrounded by peace and prosperity.

In the Northern-states Thanksgiving is, in a way, the most sacred season of the year, the time for family reunions and much feasting and merriment. In fact they of New England feel about Thanksgiving as we do about Christmas.

Well, while we cling to all that is tender and true and beautiful in our sweet old Christmas customs, let us learn of our Northern cousins more of their Thanksgiving cheer, and adopt as our own the beautiful holiday set aside for rest, recreation and Thanksgiving. Let us give thanks!

We are thankful to our friends and patrons for the business we have enjoyed, this year as well as in the past years we are thankful that we are operating right here in the City of Wichita Falls, the largest retail department store between Fort Worth and Denver. We are more than thankful to each and every customer who has patronized us since we have been in Wichita Falls, for to you the success we have attained while here is yours. Again we thank you.

News From the Oil Fields

Lee Johnson who was here from Waurika yesterday reports that another driller has been employed to sink the well at Sugden near Waurika deeper. The hole is now down about seventeen hundred feet and the first driller is unable to go deeper and has abandoned drilling.

Mr. Heppler, field foreman of the Corsicana Oil Company is convalescing from a case of fever. He has been in the Wichita Falls Sanitarium for the past ten days.

Drilling progress on the test well for the Culberson Oil Company, which well is being drilled near Bacon Siding about six miles north of town, is progressing in a most satisfatocry manner, the hole already being drilled to a depth of over one hundred feet, and the drillers have not yet been at work a full week. The nature of the earth formation so far encountered has been red mud and rock, a circumstance which has rendered drilling comparatively easy, although a strata may soon be pierced through which progress will not be very rapid The well is expected to be completed within the next ninety days.

KATY STRIKE BREAKERS HAVE WALKED OUT

Conditions in Denison Shops Assigned As a Reason—Many Bought Tickets to St. Louis.

(Denison Herald)

Working twelve hours per day and drawing ten hours' pay for the day's work, besides other conditions as they are in the local Katy car shops, caused about seventy of the strikebreakers to walk out yesterday making in all about 125 men that have left the shops since pay day.

The men were seen to come from the car shops at different times yesterday afternoon in bunches, and quite a few congregated at the Union Station, many buying tickets to St. Louis, while others bought tickets south. Some of the men caught interurban cars near the car shops and left for the south.

The majority of those that bought tickets to return to St. Louis were Americans, while many of those that bought tickets to Fort Worth and Dallas were foreigners.

Two of the men were passenger train inspectors and have been employed on the job for over a month. They claimed that they had tried several times to quit work, but could not get their money. In giving the reason for leaving the work the men told different tales. Some stated that they had come to Denison not knowing that there was a strike on, others said they were on the bum and needed some change and came here to get it but they did not know anything about car work or cars, except on the inside as they had ridden in many of them.

Giving as their reasons for leaving the job a number of the strikebreakers who had been in Denison several weeks, said that they were doing 12 hours work a day and were receiving only ten hours pay for same. The men all said that they did very little work and that all were inexperienced at the business.

There are said to be about 100 strikebreakers left at the shops, but the men leaving yesterday stated that many of those who were left would quit in the next few days. Among the strikebreakers, it is said, are many foreigners who do not understand the English language and who did not understand that there is a strike on, any more than they understand about repairing cars. The men leaving for S. Louis claimed that they were going to pay for advertisements to be run in St. Louis papers notifying men to stay away from Denison car shops of the Katy.

Two strikebreakers and one guard on the H. & T. C. quit yesterday, stating that they were going to cut out the strike breaking business and help the strikers all they could Probably a Lot of Your Troubles Wouldn't Trouble a Want Advertiser at All!

Want advertisers and answerers of want advertisements ACCOMPLISH THINGS that other people simply "worry about," and hope that they "will work out somehow, sometime."

With want advertising, the property owner finds either buyers or tenants, while the non-advertiser WAITS for someone to "come along" and search for him and for his property.

With want advertising, the worker finds work—the employers finds workers—and the machinery of daily life does not slip a cog.

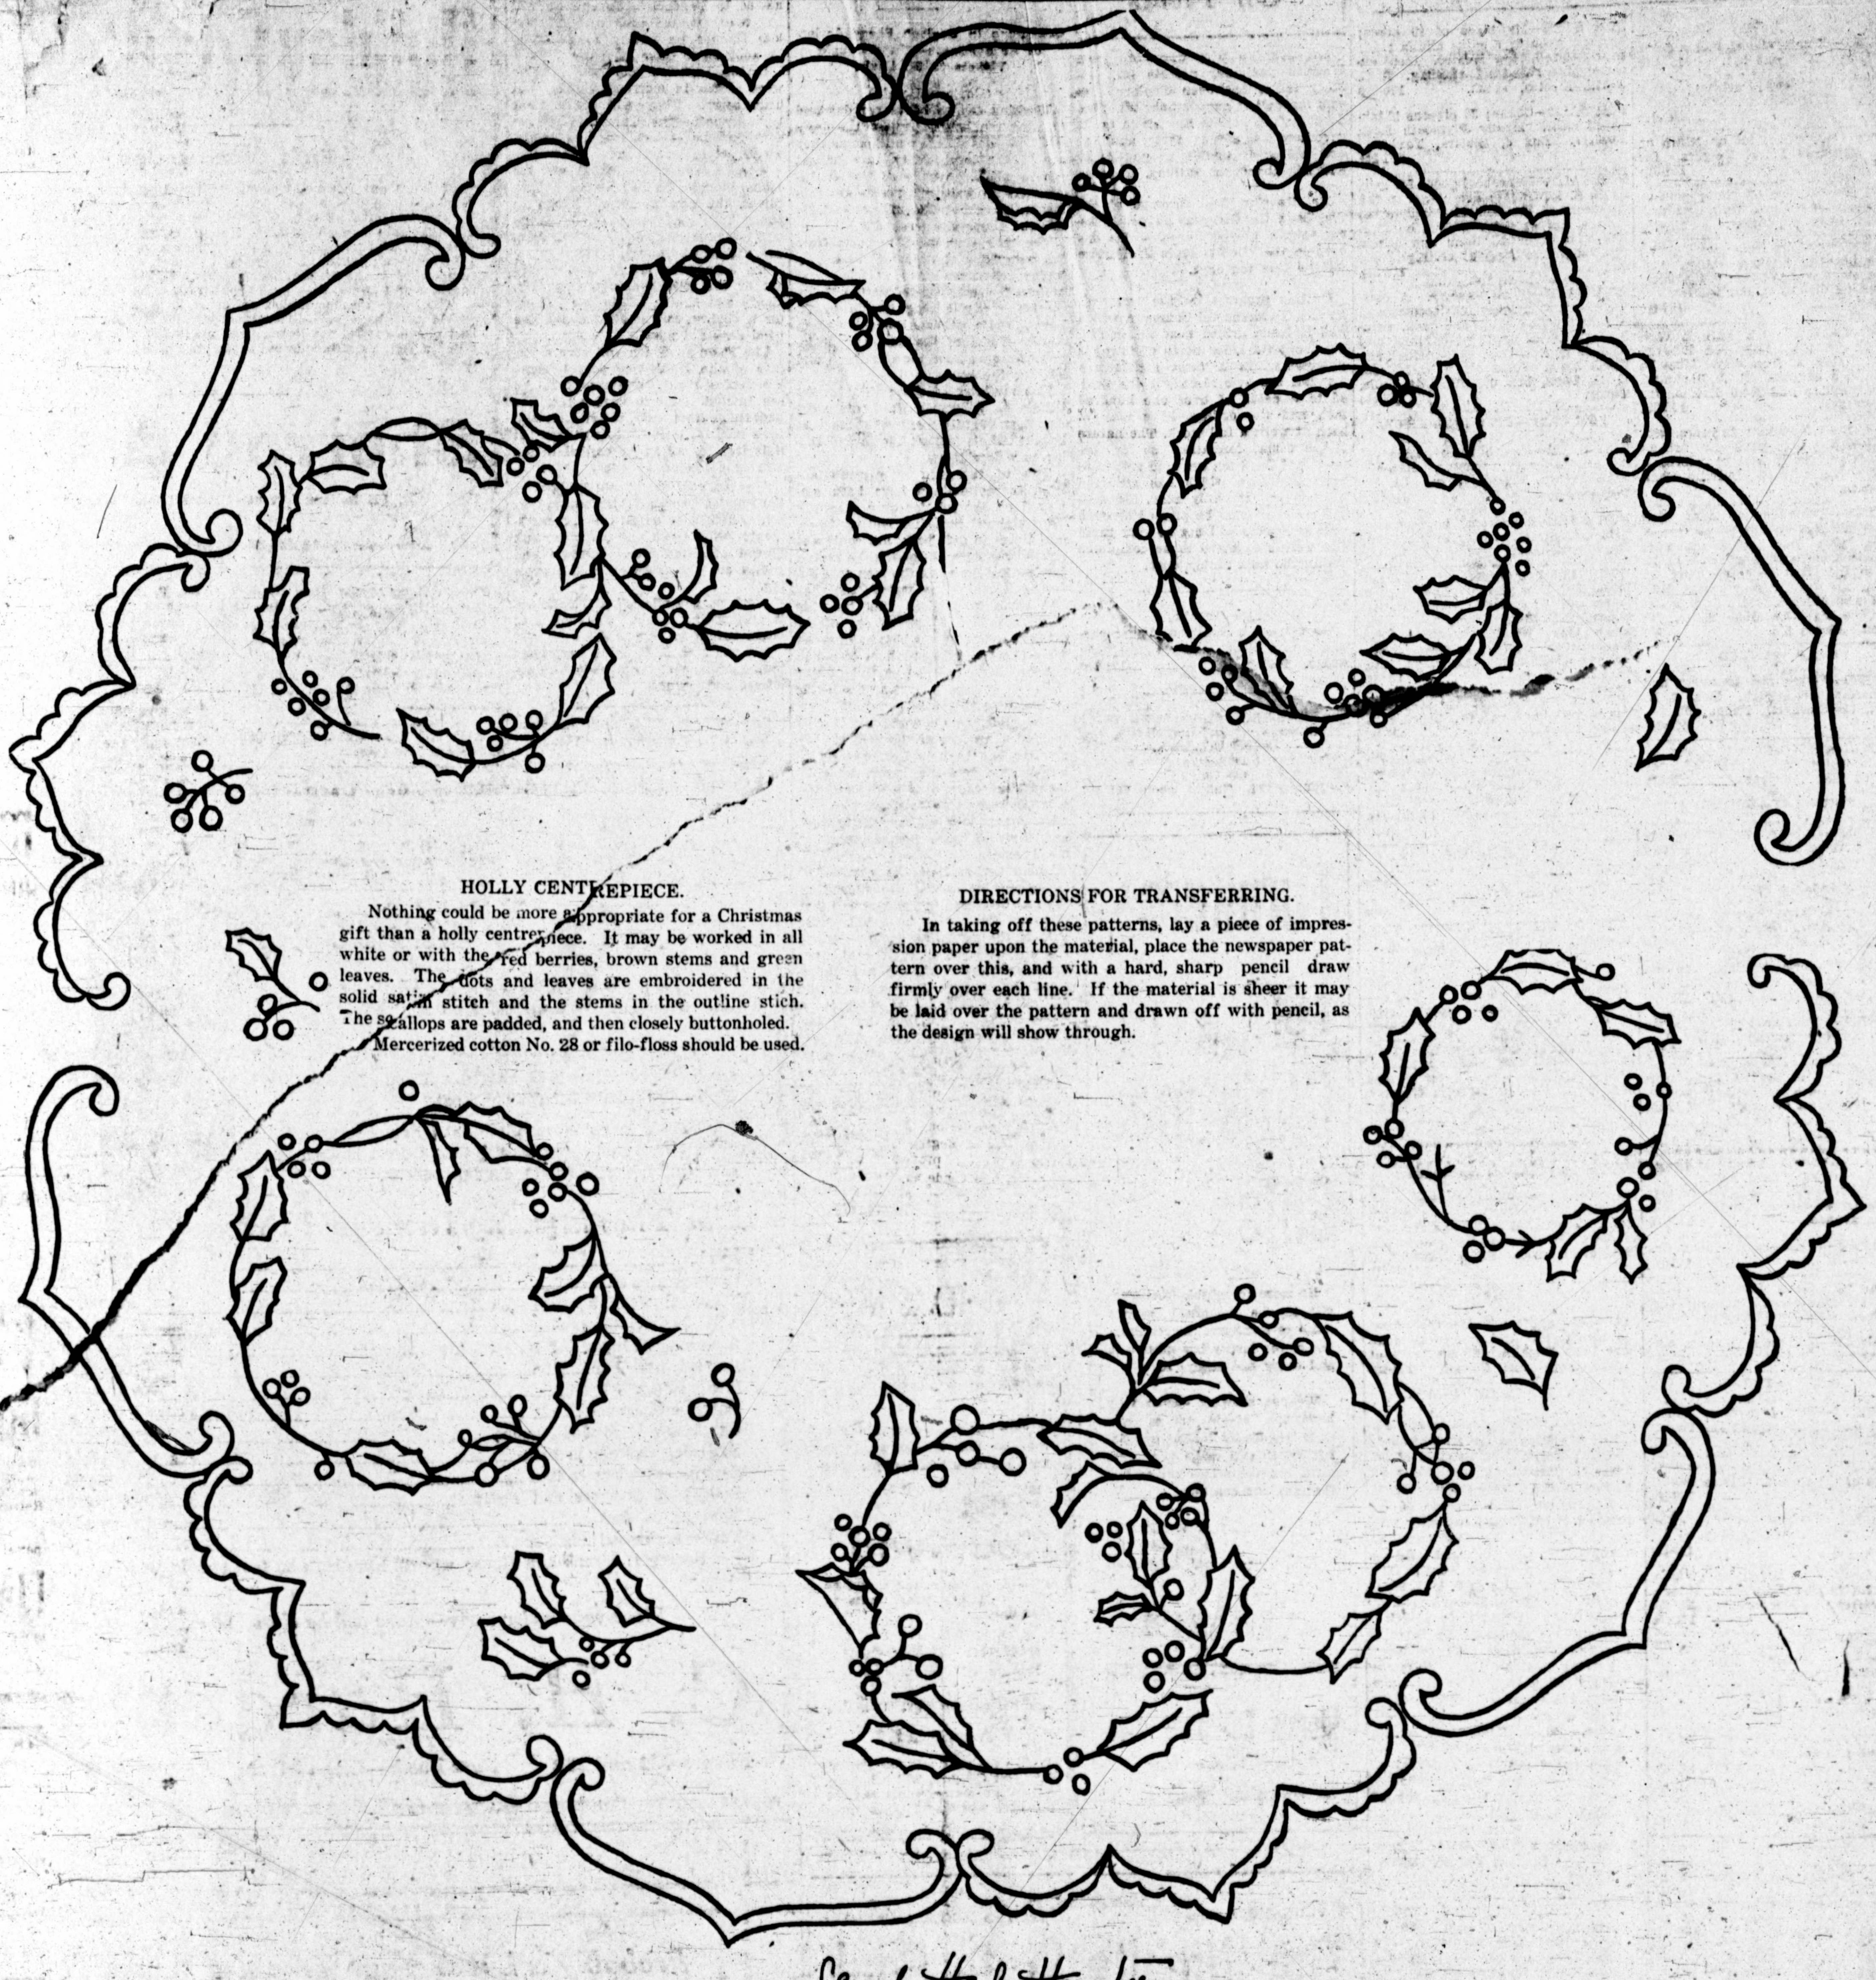
With want advertising, the used articles are sold to advantage—the business plan finds a "backer"—the buyer and seller discovers each other without any "blind searches," and people come to manage their affairs with the smallest possible amount of vexation, worry or delays.

There's not much noursihment for the "trouble-germ" in any of your affairs if you utilize want advertising to the fullest possible extent.

WICHITA DAILY TIMES

Times' Embroidery Patterns

By Sarah Hale Hunter



HOLLY CENTREPIECE.

Nothing could be more appropriate for a Christmas gift than a holly centrepiece. It may be worked in all white or with the red berries, brown stems and green leaves. The dots and leaves are embroidered in the solid satin stitch and the stems in the outline stich. The scallops are padded, and then closely buttonholed. Mercerized cotton No. 28 or filo-floss should be used.

DIRECTIONS FOR TRANSFERRING.

In taking off these patterns, lay a piece of impression paper upon the material, place the newspaper pattern over this, and with a hard, sharp pencil draw firmly over each line. If the material is sheer it may be laid over the pattern and drawn off with pencil, as the design will show through.

BASEBALL NOTES

Charles Klein, owner of the Clinton team, has been elected president of the Illinois-Missouri league.

A Chicago story has it that no less than six of the Cub regulars are to be placed on the market this winter.

Because he failed to get a safe tap in the world's series Jack Murray, of the Giants, is tagged to go on the block.

The South Bend Club, of the Central league, has signed a second baseman named Andrew Spycholski. Did you get it?

From all accounts Messrs. Ebbets, of Brooklyn, Fogel, of Philadelphia and Murphy, of Chiacgo, made a big hit with the minor league magnates at the recent meeting in San Antonio.

WITH THE BOXERS.

Alf Lynch, the Canadian bantam, and Joe Shea have signed to meet in New Haven, Dec. 14.

The defeat of K. O. Brown by One Round Hogan has boosted Hogan's stock about fifty per cent.

Notice.

All notes and accounts due the Panhandle Implement Co. are payable to J. P. Jackson, office moved to 608 8th street, next door to Western Union office, Kemp and Kell building.

168-5tp J. P. JACKSON.

FOOTBALL NOTES.

The Dartmouth eleven made a fine showing this season, but was not quite strong enough to down Princeton or Harvard.

Penn and Cornell are hard at work preparing for their last game of the season, which will take place Thanksgiving Day.

Jimmy Thorpe, of the Carlisle eleven, is one of the wonders of the athletic world. Coming to Carlisle in 1908 with no knowledge whatever of athletics, he has since then accomplished a marvelous variety of athletic feats on floor, gridiron, diamond, track and field.

EASILY DECIDED

This Question Should Be Answered Easily by Wichita Falls People.

Which is wiser—to have confidence in the opinions of your fellow-citizens, of people you know, or depend on statements made by utter strangers residing in far-away places? Read the following:

Mrs. Charles Irwin, 704 Burnett avenue, Wichita Falls, Texas, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have proven themselves worthy of my praise and I am glad of this opportunity to recommend them. I had such severe attacks of backache that I could hardly endure them and it seemed as if a heavy weight were tied to me. There were bearing down pains in my hips and I also had much soreness through my kidneys. Last spring I was confined to my bed for four months and during that time I was in great pain. When I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills I got a box from the Wichita Drug House and they helped me beyond my expectations. Since I used them, I have been in much better health. One of my relatives has also taken Doan's Kidney Pills and has found them very reliable." (Statement given June 16, 1908).

A Second Endorsement.

Mrs. Irwin was interviewed on December 9, 1910, and she said: "I have no hesitation whatever in confirming the statement I gave over two years ago in which I told of my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills. Since that time I have taken this remedy occasionally and it has always brought prompt relief."

Mrs. George Berry, of Sturgeon, Ky., is in the city on a few days visit to her aunt, Mrs. W. M. Fuller, who lives at 1600 Bluff.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Barwise of Fort Worth, and J. H. Barwise, Sr., will be the guests of Judge and Mrs. A. H. Carrigan at a Thanksgiving dinner tomorrow.

Miss Mary Kuteman, of Weatherford, Miss Foster and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hughes, of Dallas, will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Blair Thanksgiving Day.

The double wedding of the Misses Lysaght will take place on the evening of Wednesday, December 6th, instead of the 7th as a typographical error made The Times say yesterday.

Mrs. P. J. Kinne, 504 Austin street, entertained this afternoon in honor of Mrs. S. H. Willard, who will also spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Kinne, before leaving for her new home in Muskogee, Okla.

The local lodge B. P. O. E. will give an informal dance at the lodge hall next Thursday evening, and a large number of visiting Elks are expected to be present. Music for the occasion will be furnished by the Katz Orchestra, and a most enjoyable time is being anticipated by all who are expecting to attend.

The Firing Line.

The Augusta, Ga., Chronicle has the following to say concerning Robert W. Chambers in "The Firing Line" to be presented at the Wichita soon:

"The dramatic version of Robert W. Chambers novel 'The Firing Line' as Richard Walton Tully has framed it for the stage is an unusual production. It opens entirely out of the ordinary, and takes a last curtain on an even more unusual situation. As the piece progresses it holds more and more strongly, until when it has gotten well under way, the audience shows its appreciation.

"There was a degree of pleasant surprise in what it proved to be and the way it was rendered by a very good company and the leading characters are amply strong.

Advance seats will be on sale at O. F. Marchman Drug Store.

is highly recommended by physicians and patrons who have tested its merits, for indigestion, catarrh of the stomach, kidney and bladder trouble. TEXAS NEEDS GREAT MEN

XI. ENTERTAINMENT

WHEN Themistocles was asked by his host at a dinner party to entertain the guests by playing the lute, he replied that he "could not play the fiddle, but that he could make a small town a great city." We have in Texas many politicians who are good "fiddlers," but they cannot make a small town a great city. We are overrun with orators who can play upon the passions of the people, but they can't put brick and mortar together. We need builders.

A FAVORITE PASTIME OF POLITICIANS

Let those who hunger and thirst for power understand that the highest glory of the statesman is to construct, and that it is better for a man that he should build a public highway than that he should become Governor of the State, and that he start a plow than that he become the author of a law. The true test of statesmanship is the plow and the hammer, and let those who would govern first build. Texas needs great men.

SOON

comes the day when the stately American gobbler places his majestic head beneath the guillotine, the cranberry merchant gets as busy as a prairie dog with two holes, and the small boy begins to make mental measurements of his stomach capacity, wondering if it will hold more than it did last year. The good housewife busies herself preparing all the highly palatable indigestion promoters that have tickled the tastes of the epicurean kings since Methusalem got out of the Castoria division. Everybody seems glad, even the town dog adds an extra wag of cheer to his caudel appendage on which has hung so many tomato cans and even the grouch so far forgets himself as to smile and admit that the sun has a perfect right to rise and set. All this is occasioned by the fact that the foremost nation of earth worships at the shrine of the Prince of Peace, who in Gethsemane paid the greatest debt that mankind ever owed and is about to give thanks to Him who tempers the wind to the shorn lamb and at whose beck and call this system of worlds and myriad of men move. But there is a pain for every pleasure, a grief for every gladness, and an awakening to every dream—in the cold gray dawn of the morning after—Don't forget we have what you will want. The sequel to the story is mustard plasters, dyspepsia tablets, headache stoppers and Epsom salts. Our delivery service is ball bearing.

$10.00—Reward—$10.00

We want every family in Wichita Falls to test our fresh roasted coffee, and see the difference between it and goods roasted out of town. We know that one pound means repeat orders, and are willing to pay something for that first order. ¶Have hit upon the following plan—Commencing Wednesday, November 15th until December 1st we will take orders for a special blend at 35c per pound. This coffee to be roasted by us and delivered the same day it is roasted. Each pound purchased entitles the purchaser to submit a name for this particular blend and we will pay the party who submits the most appropriate name (which we will adopt for this blend) the sum of Ten Dollars. ¶We are to be the sole judge, but the Ten Dollars will be paid to someone who submits a name for the coffee. The coffee will be delivered and award made as soon as possible after December 1st.—which will be within the first five days of the month. ¶Our solicitors will make a canvas of the city but that no one may miss the opportunity we will accept telephone and mail orders and orders may be left at the store. Now we promise you will get more than full value for your 35c and in addition you get a chance at the $10.00. If the coffee don't make good we are the loser as we are staking our reputation as roasters on this deal. All coffee sold by us under the name adopted will be exactly like the first pound. As these orders will be small will expect to collect on delivery.
