Bitter Cold Moves South

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Bitter arctic air swept the eastern half of the nation today and temperatures plunged below zero in a 10-state area from Montana to northern New England.

The mercury in Concord, N.H. dropped to a record 10 below zero. Portland, Maine, posted a record -3. Roseau, in northwest Minnesota, shivered in 25 below zero weather while Houlton Maine, had -22.

The Weather Boreau said hard freezes will reach into northern sections of the Deep South overnight and temperatures in the teens will extend south to the Ohio River and Virginia.

Snow and strong north winds up to 40 miles an hour accompanied the unseasonable cold over the eastern Great Lakes and the Middle Atlantic sections. A late winner snow blew into New York City and threatened to chill the St. Patrick's Day parade. The city had 2 inches of snow and 16 degrees.

Scranton, Pa., collected 4 inches of snow in six hours and Allentown, Pa., had 3 inches. The snow forced down three small planes on a Pennsylvania highway.

Snow cancelled the horse racing at Waterford Park in West Virginia. South Bend, Ind., Binghamton, N.Y. and Harrisburg, Pa., each recorded 2 inch snows in the morning.

Okland, M., recorded 5 inches of snow today on top of Thursday's 4 inch fall. Winds gusted as high as 40 m.p.h. and drifting snow was a hazard, but all roads were open. Highways were icy in the Hagerstown, Md., area. The temperature was 10 degrees in Frostburg, Md.

It was sunny but cool in the southern half of the nation.

Morning temperatures ranged from 19 below zero in International Falls, Minn. to 72 degrees in Key West, Fla.

No Shortage Of Milk Is Noted

By BOB MONROE
Associated Press Writer

Milk dealers saw no shortage of consumer dairy product supplies today despite milk dumping by some dairymen in support of a National Farmers Organization price protest.

Thousands of gallons of milk swirled down drains Thursday in a 25-state holding action called by the NFO. Some dealers were picketed.

Oren Lee Staley, NFO president, said Thursday night, "NFO members are giving tremendous support to the milk holding action and it's gratifying that nonmembers are joining as the only way to fight low farm prices."

But a spokesman for the New Jersey Milk Industry Association, Inc., representing 75 per cent of that state's dealers, said most farmers made their deliveries and he saw "no threat to supplies for consumers."

The NFO campaign is aimed at forcing buyers to pay farmers two cents more a quart. Prices paid farmers in the affected area — ranging from New York to Idaho and from Canada to Florida — are now 8 to 10 cents a quart.

Staley said at Corning, Iowa, reports received at NFO headquarters indicated "we are cutting into the available milk supply." He said "the action is going to be much tighter in the hours ahead."

The Pure Milk Association estimated the flow of milk from farms in its Illinois, Wisconsin and northern Indiana area was down 15 per cent.

Harold Cope, the PMA marketing director, said it could be "substantially worse" today depending upon whether unaffiliated farmers decide to go along with the NFO. He said there was no effect in the Chicago market yet with dealers reporting stocks sufficient for two or three days.

Youths Arrested For Pellet Gun Vandalism

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Two youths, 14 and 15, were arrested by Alamo Heights police Thursday and charged with pellet gun vandalism earlier this week at KLRN-TV, an educational television outlet.

Damage was estimated at $3,000, police said.

Wage Hearing Humdrum Affair

AUSTIN (AP) — A House committee discussed a state minimum wage for three hours Thursday. When they finished, the emotion and clamor of last summer was gone.

Some supporters of the $1.25 per hour bill dozed, their heads tilted sideways; others slept, their legs sprawled in front of them.

Capitol police and Department of Public Safety patrolmen grew restless in the stuffy House chamber. They were there to prevent trouble, although none was expected or materialized.

The hearing followed the second consecutive setback for the minimum wage supporters, some of whom marched 489 miles from the Lower Rio Grande Valley last summer in broiling August and September heat.

They rallied for three hours at the Capitol Wednesday night but were deprived of a Senate committee hearing on the bill after an overnight filibuster on the city sales tax and a quick weekend Senate adjournment Thursday morning.

The bill was assigned to a subcommittee of West Texas legislators.

The House Labor Committee restricted testimony for both sides to one hour but this was exceeded.

Rep. Lauro Cruz, Houston, sponsor of the measure, said, "We don't feel we're hurting anyone by this bill. No consumer in this country has the privilege to be subsidized by human labor."

"Texas has more poor people than any other state," testified H. S. Brown, president of the Texas AFL-CIO. "We are the worst. The last of the 50 states.

"There are more hungry, illiterate people in Texas than any place in the modern world, and we brag about it.

"You don't have to go to the Valley or East Texas to see it. It exists in our city and rural communities in your own districts. Bury this bill not in a subcommittee."

Probe Moves On 2 Fronts

By BILL CRIDER

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — The Kennedy assassination conspiracy probe moved on two fronts today — with legal infighting in the courtroom and secret sessions by the grand jury.

Defense lawyers for Clay L. Shaw accused the state of trying to bulldoze controversial testimony into the preliminary hearing.

The hearing, called by Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison in a rare proceeding, decides only whether Shaw must go to trial on a charge of conspiring to murder President John F. Kennedy.

However, the court record compiled here could automatically go into any subsequent trial. And the trend of testimony kept the defense in a lather of objections and argument.

Shaw, 54, a retired executive, showed signs of weariness as the hearing moved through its third day Thursday. His eyes were bloodshot, his suit rumpled.

"How would you like to swap places with me?" he asked a newsman, with a glum smile.

Free under $10,000 bond, Shaw was booked — but not formally charged — with conspiracy to murder the President. He says he knows nothing about any such plot.

The Orleans Parish (County) grand jury, which has occupied Garrison's full time over the past two days, indicted a puzzling figure from the Warren Commission hearing Thursday — charging Dean A. Andrews Jr., 44, with perjury.

The hefty, jive-talking lawyer posted $1,000 bond Thursday night. He said he had no idea what led to the charge. He testified before the grand jury last week and again Thursday.

"They must think I have some key that turns the lock and unlocks everything," he said, "but I don't even know where the lock is."

Andrews, who said he had advised Lee Harvey Oswald on some minor legal matters in 1963, told the Warren Commission that a man he knew as "Clay Bertrand" telephoned him after the assassination and asked him to represent Oswald in Dallas.

Reds Increasing Antiaircraft Fire

Aboard Carrier Kitty Hawk, Gulf of Tonkin (AP) — The admiral who directs the U.S. Navy's carrier strikes against North Vietnam said today the Communists are throwing up more antiaircraft fire than ever before.

Rear Adm. David C. Richardson also said the North Vietnamese are digging more and more underground storage areas to protect their war supplies from the American planes.

Richardson, commander of the 7th Fleet's Task Force 77, said in an interview: "The quantities of flak our pilots are getting are heavier than ever — about one-third heavier than last summer would be my guess."

In one recent raid, he continued, "We had 15 to 30 tons of ammunition fired at us in a matter of a couple of minutes. I suppose that every North Vietnamese over 4 feet high has a gun and is shooting at us."

U.S. intelligence officers estimate the North Vietnamese have some 6,000 antiaircraft sites spread around the country.

Task Force 77 is built around five aircraft carriers with 400 warplanes and includes 25 cruisers, destroyers and other ships. Usually, three of the carriers at one time are on "Yankee Station," in the Gulf of Tonkin 100 to 150 miles off the North Vietnamese coast.

Carrier bombers so far have concentrated their attacks largely on railroads, boxcars, barges and trucks to cut the flow of supplies and men to the South.

"We highlight transportation," Richardson said. "Once you take out his (North Vietnamese) transport, its gone.

"But they adapt themselves to what we're doing. They build bypass bridges and roads. And they have an endless capacity for repairs.

"But repair requires a lot of effort, doesn't it?"

As for the North Vietnamese "going underground," Richardson said: "It's picked up a great deal. It is a response to our attacks, and it's not at all surprising. They are storing their high- priority materials — ammunition and fuel."

Lone Navy Jet Attacks N. Viet Power Plant

By GEORGE MCARTHUR

SAIGON (AP) — A lone Navy jet bomber dodged a hail of gunfire and four guided missiles Thursday night to attack North Vietnam's newest major power plant only 20 miles from Hanoi.

Intelligence officers said the plant, at Bac Giang, reportedly generates 9 per cent of North Vietnam's power and appears to be the main new unit in the Hanoi area's power system.

The pilot, Cmdr. Ronald J. Hays, 39, of Olla, La., dropped 13,000 pounds of bombs. But he said he could not assess the damage because it was too dark and "too many things were happening."

It was the fifth attack on a major element of North Vietnam's industry within a week and the second on the Bac Giang plant in the same period. Last Friday and Saturday U.S. Air Force planes bombed the Communist regime's only steel-fabricating plant — its largest heavy industry installation — at Thai Nguyen, 38 miles north of Hanoi, and on Sunday an electric power center was hit at Viet Tri, 32 miles from Hanoi.

The Bac Giang plant was attacked on Saturday and U.S. pilots reported heavy damage to the installation.

Hays' all-weather Intruder from the carrier Kitty Hawk zigzagged through darkness and cloudy weather until just before the bomb run. The pilot cut in his radar-controlled guidance system for the final run through antiaircraft fire.

Dodging off the target after unloading his 13 bombs, Hays threw his supersonic jet into violent twists to escape four Soviet- built surface to air missiles thrown up at him. One exploded close below the plane.

"I've had enough excitement for a lifetime," said Hays as he and his bombardier-navigator, Lt. Ted Been of Houghton, Mich., returned to the flight deck of the Kitty Hawk.

The power plant raid was one of 78 missions flown over the North Thursday despite heavy weather. Other strikes concentrated on roads, railroads, bridges, barges and other supply facilities.

There was also bitter ground fighting Thursday. A platoon of about 45 U.S. Marines, operating from an exposed camp near the demilitarized zone, was badly mauled by North Vietnamese regulars. The Marines lost 20 dead and 62 wounded in this and other fights.

The Marine platoon was sweeping out of the camp at Khe San, the westernmost American post south of the demilitarized zone which was put there to guard against Communist infiltration from the North.

The platoon ran into heavy trouble about 10 a.m. while it was in particularly rugged terrain. A second platoon was rushed up and a five-hour battle raged.

Late in the afternoon, Communist gunners shot down a bulky Chinook helicopter bringing in more reinforcements, but the Marines said nobody aboard the aircraft was hit.

Air and artillery rained on the Red force throughout the day. Another Marine company was sent in later, and a sweep of the area was under way today, but there was no report of further action or of what was found.

The exposed camp at Khe Sanh is a thorn in the side of the North Vietnamese forces above and in the demilitarized zone. They are forced to make wide detours to avoid patrols from the camp, but the camp is also a tempting target for Red attacks.

Otis Birch Death Told In Dallas

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—A. Otis Birch, 95, California-Texas multimillionaire whose marriage to an ex-convict a few months ago sent relatives and institutions scurrying to court, died Wednesday, the Dallas Bureau of Vital Statistics reported.

The William D. Brown funeral home at nearby Grand Prairie said the body was entombed at Laurel Land Mausoleum today.

Neither the funeral home nor the bureau of statistics could give the cause of death. A funeral home spokesman said an autopsy was performed at the request of his widow but the results were not available.

At the time of his death, Birch was virtually deaf and blind and required constant care.

He and his wife, the former Pearle Choate, resided in a trailer in Dallas.

President Delays Plan For Merger

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, confronted by labor opposition, told Congress today he is delaying his proposal to merge the departments of Commerce and Labor.

In a special message to Congress, Johnson said he remains convinced the departments should be merged but "further active development of my proposal is necessary before it can be submitted to Congress."

Powell's Lawyer Sounds Warning

NEW YORK (AP) — The attorney for Adam Clayton Powell has warned of the possibility of public disorder if the sheriff arrests the former Harlem representative Sunday should he return to New York.

Powell said earlier in the week from his retreat in the Bahamas that he planned to return Sunday to walk the streets of Harlem and preach in his Abyssinian Baptist Church despite a criminal contempt citation which makes him subject to arrest if he steps foot in the city.

Attorney Henry R. Williams said, however, that he "guessed" Powell would not appear in Harlem Sunday.

Williams added: "I would advise him as a friend of the possibility that the sheriff might create public disorder — something that neither Mr. Powell nor I would want."

Some groups in Harlem were reportedly ready to give Powell a strong bodyguard to prevent his seizure by the sheriff.

Williams said Thursday that if Powell does return and is arrested, he would file a lawsuit against the sheriff. Such an arrest, said Williams, would constitute "false arrest and criminal assault."

Williams claims that under New York State law all Sabbath day arrests are prohibited except in- misdemeanors or felonies.

"This is a civil offense," said Williams. "The judge who issued the arrest order made a mistake."

The arrest order last November 28 was issued by State Supreme Court Justice Arthur Markewich after a jury had found that Powell had deliberately violated two orders calling for his appearance in court after he had lost a defamation of character suit to a Harlem widow.

House Oks Funds For Vietnam War

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has voted overwhelmingly to give President Johnson nearly all the extra money he's asked for the Vietnam war.

By a 385-11 margin, the House passed Thursday and sent to the Senate a $12.19-billion emergency appropriation bill for defense. That was only $79.3 million less than Johnson asked.

The House action came as Johnson signed an authorization bill passed earlier by Congress covering $4.59 billion of the sum voted Thursday for Vietnam fighting.

The President hailed the measure as adding strength to U.S. efforts to attain "an honorable settlement" of the war.

Before approving the appropriation bill, the House crushed 123 to 2 an amendment that would have put it in opposition to a land invasion of North Vietnam.

Final Senate approval of the emergency appropriation would boost to about $71 billion the amount allocated to defense during the current fiscal year. Johnson is asking about $72 billion for defense for the year starting July 1.

In the Senate, Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield suggested that the United States work through the United Nations Security Council to bring nations involved in the war to the peace table for talks.

WITH EYE ON ECONOMY

Income Tax Hike May Be Delayed

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's bill to restore two stimulating tax breaks to businesses is rocketing through Congress.

But it's leaving in its wake doubts as to whether lawmakers — now showing such enthusiasm for one form of tax cut — will turn around in a few weeks and endorse the income tax increase for individuals and businesses that Johnson has advocated.

The House passed the bill to restore the investment credit and depreciation speedup 386 to 2 Thursday, just a week after Johnson asked Congress to act.

The Senate Finance Committee already has set hearings on it for Monday and Tuesday.

The Senate-House Economic Committee advised Congress Thursday to defer judgment on the proposed income tax boost. The panel said optimistic projections about an upturn in the economy at midyear may not come true.

The House, during debate on the investment credit bill, showed every inclination of following this advice.

The Federal Reserve Board reported a substantial drop in industrial production, providing ammunition to opponents of the income tax increase.

The board's announcement of a 2.1 point drop in the index of industrial output during February, the second consecutive monthly decline, followed Wednesday's report of a 15.1 per cent decline in housing starts last month.

Another key economic indicator that could bear on the decision whether the nation could stand a tax increase — the rate of unemployment — was reported unchanged at 3.7 per cent last month. But because of the production decline, weekly earnings of factory workers went down $1.54 to $111.48, reflecting a drop in the average work week.

Congress' stop, look and listen attitude on the tax increase was reflected in a statement made during the House debate Thursday. Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., of the tax-writing Ways and Means Committee, noted that Johnson has sent up no tax-raising legislation yet.

Added Mills: "There is nothing before Congress now except the statement of the President that he would some time ask us to consider some form of surtax. I have no idea what this may indicate as to the desirable thing to do later in the year."

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am both infuriated and amused when I meet women who are divorced (and there are so many of them) and the first thing they ask me is, "Do you know any eligible men?"

If they want a man, why didn't they hang on to the one they had? I get around a lot and know a lot of people, and I will fix up a widow any day of the week with a man, but I refuse to get dates for divorcees. I wouldn't give a dog to a person unless I was sure he'd treat it right. Sign me —

GETS AROUND

DEAR GETS: It's unfair to assume that a woman is a divorcee because she didn't treat her man right. (Maybe HE didn't treat HER right!) And you can't generalize about widows either. How about the women who are widows because their poor husbands worked themselves to death trying to support them? Or drank themselves to death trying to escape them?

DEAR ABBY: My first cousin and I are in love and want to marry each other. Is it against the law for us to marry? Some one told me that if we did marry our children would be crazy. Is that true?

BIG QUESTION

DEAR BIG: It is against the law for first cousins to marry in most states. Consult a lawyer or a clergyman who is familiar with the laws of your state.

Children of such a marriage would not necessarily be "crazy" unless a hereditary-type insanity existed in the family and the children inherited it.

DEAR ABBY: When I hear women complaining because their husbands never tell them they love them, I know all too well how they feel.

My husband is a minister, and he is a wonderful man. He loves the Lord, the brethren of his church, and all mankind. He has the greatest compassion for the weakest sinner, yet he denies his family his love. we have been married for 24 years and have a beautiful family, yet he had never shown me or the children by word or deed that he "loves" us. He has always said he would never let his family stand between him and his God. But, Abby, we are not competing with God, for we love God, too.

I have a confession to make. At times I have been tempted to turn to other men. I was saved only by the knowledge that it was my driving "need" for love—not "love" itself that tempted me. With God's help I was able to overcome the temptation. God pity those who have neither this knowledge nor His help. Please print this.

Rotarians Get Report On Coliseum

Snyder Rotarians got a progress report on the Scurry County Coliseum at their luncheon meeting Thursday.

Presenting the program was J. D. Hinton, supervising architect on the coliseum project. Hinton said the building is scheduled for completion sometime in June. It will provide facilities suitable for staging various events, ranging from rodoes, circuses, basketball tournaments, large banquets, etc., to smaller meetings. The arena is 90 feet wide and 215 feet long and permanent seating will accommodate 3,055. When the arena is not in use there is floor space for an additional 2,000 chairs, making a total capacity of over 5,000 for events not requiring the arena.

For smaller meetings there are two separate community rooms, one 32 feet by 56 feet and the other 32 feet by 45 feet. There are food serving facilities, including steam tables, but no facilities for actual preparation of food.

Rape-Murder Suspect Is Arrested

FORT WORTH (AP) — Police and the District Attorney's office asked more questions Thursday of Robert N. Creamer, 28, a city zoo employe charged with raping a 32-year-old divorcee Jan. 26.

Creamer's apartment is near the home of rape-murder victim Mildred May, whose nude and beaten body was found on a Trinity River levee Feb. 4.

Police said Creamer's apartment contained enough explosives to blow up two city blocks.

Creamer was arrested Wednesday and charged with raping the divorcee, who told the district attorney's office that she had dated Creamer until about three months before the attack.

In County Criminal Court, Creamer, an ex-Marine, has been charged with threatening to take a life because he allegedly told the woman he would blow up her car.

Dist. Atty. Frank Coffee said he received a letter from a former zoo employe during the weekend saying that she was afraid of Creamer.

Police obtained a warrant Tuesday and again Wednesday to search Creamer's apartment. Officers said they found about a dozen hand grenades, 25 dynamite caps, some detonator caps, several thousand rounds of ammunition, six rifles and pistols and some "booby trap devices."

Four strands of short rope were found in a drawer underneath some of his clothing.

Creamer was taken to a hospital for psychiatric examination.

Showdown Set In SWC

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Southern Methodist was playing Texas at Austin and Rice was meeting Texas A&M at College Station today in a resumption of action in the Southwest Conference baseball race.

This made it possible that a four-way tie for second place might be broken.

Rice, Southern Methodist, Texas and Baylor are deadlocked for the runnerup spot with 1-1 records.

Texas Christian, leading the race with a 2-0 record, will play Baylor Saturday at Waco.

Texas Christian played the only league game Thursday, struggling 13 innings to a 1-1 tie with Trinity in a non-conference test. It was Trinity that knocked TCU out of the unbeaten ranks Wednesday, edging the Frogs 7-6.

HAWAII, USA — Mrs. Elizabeth Brinner's third grade communicative arts class of West Elementary have had an extensive study of Hawaii for the past two weeks. Besides their basal stories of Hawaii, they have seen films and have done research work in the library on the main islands of Hawaii in culture, schools, etc. Mrs. Lida Rhoades, who has been to Hawaii, was the research person used for this study. She told the children about Hawaii and showed some slides she took while visiting there. The culminating activity for the Hawaiian study was a play written by the students, entitled "A Dream Come True — Hawaiian Style". The children made grass skirts and leis for this activity.

'Quarry' Sought By Interior Designers

Interior designers these days have a new and fashionable "quarry."

The object of the chase, though, is quite accessible and readily set down.

It's quarry tile, that heavy duty ceramic flooring that only a short while ago, in its traditional red color, was pretty much restricted to commercial and industrial use.

Now, resplendent in dozens of new shapes, sizes, colors and textures, quarries are very much in vogue for foyers, kitchens, dining and living rooms where decorators seek an informal, natural, country or Spanish look.

Colors range from near-white to bluegrass green in unglazed quarries, and many of these can also be varied by "fire-flashing" with subtle rainbow-hued effects. Glazed quarries provide an additional color spectrum.

In addition to squares and rectangles, quarries come in geometric and other shapes that create a wide variety of designs. Particularly popular today are those suggesting Mediterranean motifs. Sizes range from two and three-quarters to nine inches square in standard shapes.

Quarry tile, which withstands extremely hard use, can also be used outside the house on patios, entranceways and terraces. Like all ceramic tile, it is very economical to maintain.

Salmon Squares

(Eight Servings)

2 cups cooked rice
2 eggs, beaten
2 cups (16 oz.) cottage cheese
1 can (1 lb.) salmon, drained and flaked
1 small onion, finely chopped
¼ cup chopped green pepper
2 teaspoons soy sauce
1 cup soda cracker crumbs

Combine all ingredients except cracker crumbs. Spoon into a buttered 12x7½x2-inch baking pan. Sprinkle cracker crumbs over top. Bake at 350 degrees for about 40 minutes or until firm in center. Cut into squares.

Divide And Snack

A ceramic tile snack bar atop a divider unit can be a useful means of separating a kitchen area from an adjoining family room. Not only will it provide snacking youngsters can be served, but it can also be used as a service bar for adult gatherings

Why not display sheaves of pussy willow, sprigs of green foliage, and a few fresh flowers on your front door? They will extended the greetings of spring to callers and passersby.

Stately Easter lilies make a striking arrangement in a milky white container.

Moussaka A Favorite Greek Dish

The Greeks have a word for it. . . .Moussaka. One of their favorite dishes, the meat and eggplant with custard recipe is one of the best known Greek delicacies.

Moussaka will prove most delightful to both you and your guests at your next dinner party.

MOUSSAKA

Ingredients needed: cup of vegetable oil, flour, 4 eggplants

MEAT SAUCE

Grate 2 slices of toast
2 eggs
1 cup of Parmesan, Romano or Kefalotyri cheese
2 tablespoons of butter
1 chopped onion
1-½ pounds of ground chuck beef
2 tablespoons of chopped parsley
1 cup of dry red wine
½ cup of boiling water
3 tablespoons of tomato sauce
½ pound of lean ground pork
1 tablespoon of salt
½ tablespoon of pepper
¼ teaspoon of nutmeg

CREAM SAUCE

2-½ cups of warm milk
3 eggs and 3 yolks
1 cup of half and half cream
2 tablespoons of flour
¼ cup of cold milk
½ cup of butter
1-3 cup of grated cheese like used for meat sauce
1 teaspoon of salt
½ teaspoon of nutmeg

The topping is made of 1-3 of a cup of kefalotyri cheese that is used between the layers and the top.

The purple skin of the eggplant should be removed, then cut the eggplant into slices of about ½ to ¼ inch. Each slice should be salted on both sides and kept for 30 minutes. After 30 minutes, add cold water to the eggplant and allow it to remain for an additional 10 minutes. The water should be removed completely from the eggplant using paper towels to blot each slice.

After the eggplant is completely dry, coat each slice with flour. Fry the eggplant slices in heated vegetable oil until a rich brown. Use paper towels, to drain off excess oil.

The onion should be sauted in butter. Then add ground meat, and brown well. Add salt, pepper, nutmeg, parsley, tomato sauce, wine and boiling water. Cover and cook until the sauce thickens. Beat the eggs and add. Then add cheese and half of the grated toast and mix well.

A baking pan of about a foot square with a 3 inch depth should be greased. Spread the remaining half of the toast crumbs on the bottom. Put half of the egg-plant over the crumbs Cover with meat sauce then sprinkle 2 tablespoons of cheese from the topping over it. Cover this with the remaining eggplant.

For the cream sauce, melt the butter in a saucepan. Make a paste of the flour and cold milk and add the flour paste, warm, milk, and cream to the pan. Simmer about 15 minutes after a smooth blend is obtained. Remove from flame and add beaten eggs while stirring the sauce. Add in the salt, nutmeg, and 1-3 cup of cheese, pour over the eggplant dish. Sprinkle top with remaining cheese. Bake at 375 degrees for 45 minutes. Then allow dish to cool for 20 minutes prior to serving. This amount should serve about 10.

Printing, publishing, and allied industries rank among the top five of the nation's industries in terms of number of employees and weekly earnings; the combined sales volume of the industries is approximately $16 billion annually. The scope and size of the industry demands college-trained executives, and the supply of qualified personnel falls far short of meeting the needs. End Of Hostilities Would Bring More Crises In Asia

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Critical days for the United States come after the shooting stops.

No doubt many Americans would want the United States to pull out of Vietnam altogether after the fighting. It can hardly afford to and isn't likely to.

This country is now helping the South Vietnamese, who have had practically no experience in democracy, to set up a constitutional government.

They won't learn overnight. The country has strong factions. Many of the Viet Cong will choose to remain in South Vietnam when peace is restored.

If the United States withdraws in a hurry, one of several things will probably happen.

The new government will succeed, it will degenerate into a dictatorship, or under factional disputes will collapse into a chaos, making it possible for the Viet Cong to take over, with or without guns.

Viet Cong control in the end would make a bitter farce of all the American sacrifices in men, money and supplies.

President Johnson this week repeated one of the "basic objectives" for the American part in the war.

It is to give the world a "concrete demonstration that aggression across international frontiers is no longer an acceptable means of political change."

Would-be aggressors of the future can take that to mean war with the United States if they try what the North Vietnamese Communists tried on South Vietnam.

But — if the United States pulls out of South Vietnam too quickly, and the Viet Cong take over, two American reactions and predictable.

One is a feeling that all the American effort in Vietnam was in vain; the other is a reluctance to get involved in a similar episode anywhere.

Communism itself, if the South Vietnamese government collapsed from its own inadequacy or lack of American stand-by help, might conclude subversion, even though slower, would be better and less expensive than direct attack.

It is hardly an accident that the communique Johnson agreed to at the Manila conference last fall was vague on the American pull-out.

It said "when the aggression has stopped. . .the people of South Vietnam will ask their allies to remove their forces and evacuate their installations as the military and subversive forces of North Vietnam are withdrawn, infiltration ceases, and the level of violence thus subsides."

The communique did not put a time limit on when South Vietnam should decide it was out of danger and safe enough to ask the Americans to leave.

The North Vietnamese have had their minds on the American stay, too.

Knowing the erratic and unreliable history of previous regimes in South Vietnam, the North Vietnamese have demanded in the past that American forces must be withdrawn before there can even be peace talks.

North Vietnam hasn't stressed that point lately. But the United States has ignored it, just as it has ignored French President Charles de Gaulle's suggestion that the United States must announce in advance that it will withdraw its forces before a peace settlement is reached.

Unless too crushed to argue, it is unlikely the North Vietnamese would agree to any peace terms that did not include a time-limit on the American stay in the South.

Yet, this country will be rendered self-conscious before the world if it tries to hang around very long in South Vietnam after peace.

The Manila communique said Asian and Pacific nations must be free of domination by any nation.

What Is It Like To Be Irish?

EDITOR's NOTE — Arm in arm with a leprechaun, Hal Boyle headed for the St. Patrick's Day parade early this morning, leaving behind in his typewriter a fresh sprig of shamrock and the following message, which may have a similar ring to some:

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — What is it to be Irish?

On 364 days of the year being Irish isn't visibly different from being Scotch, French, Italian, Jewish, Serbian, Dutch, or — yes — even English.

The Irishman pays his bills, complains against his taxes, does his work, and listens to hs wife like the man of any other race.

But on this one day of the year — holy St. Patrick's Day — the Irishman becomes an Irishman.

And on this day you have to be Irish to know what it is to be Irish.

The outer signs, of course, can be seen by all. The Irishman overnight grows a foot taller and stalks the earth a giant. All traffic lights turn green before him, and if they don't he sees red.

But this air of majesty is only token evidence of interior change. The men of other races who envy the Irishman his bearing of St. Patrick's Day would envy him far more if they could look inside the Irishman's soul.

What is it to b Irish?

How can you put the wonder of it into words? If a psyshiatrist stretched himself out on his own warm couch after his last customer had gone home, and he dreamed of the man he himself would most like to be — well, he might be perfect, but he'd still be only half an Irishman on St. Patrick's Day.

What is it to be Irish?

Oh, on this day it is music. Not just the cornet in the parading high school band, but the deep, deep music of living, the low, sad rhythms of eternity.

What is it to be Irish?

It is to live the whole history of his race between a dawn and a dawn — the long wrongs, the bird-swift joys, the endless hurt of his ancestors since the morning of time in a forgotten forest, the knock at his heart that is part of his religion.

What is to to be Irish?

It isn't only the realization that he is descended from kings. It is the realization that he is a king himself, an empire on two feet striding in power, a strolling continent of awe.

What is to to be Irish?

Why, on St. Patrick's Day, to be Irish is to know more glory, adventure, magic, victory, exultation, gratitude and gladness than any ordinary man can experience in a lifetime.

What is to be Irish?

It is to walk in complete mystic understanding with God for 24 wonderful hours.

Some chimpanzees have achieved considerable fame. A London chimp named "Congo" became a television personality between 1956 and 1959 by painting 384 pictures, some with a brush.

Junior Editors Quiz on DAVY CROCKETT

QUESTION: Why are there so many legends about Davy Crockett?

ANSWER: Davy Crockett and Daniel Boone were both famous frontiersmen. Because of their knowledge of the wilderness and of Indian ways, they helped American settlers to advance westward into new territory. Boone, born in 1734, pioneered the Wilderness Road which led from Tennessee across Kentucky. Crockett, born in 1786, became a famous hunter in Tennessee and a colonel in the Tennessee militia. Then he ran for Congress. He claimed he was elected because the crickets were all chirping "Crockett, Crockett, Crockett." He was a dead shot. This, together with his strong sense of humor, led to many tall tales being told about him, such as that of the raccoon giving himself up, which we illustrate. He had hunted in Texas and believed it should be independent from Mexico, so after his term in Congress, he joined the Texan army. Crockett died alongside Jim Bowie and other brave men in the heroic defense of the Alamo, a fort in San Antonio, Texas. Only a few years ago American children honored this wilderness hero, as a Davy Crockett craze swept America.

Tigers Test Big Spring Saturday

The Snyder Tiger baseball team journeys to Big Spring Saturday for a doubleheader with a smooth - operating Steer nine. First pitch in the first game will cross the plate at 1 p.m.

The Bengals are 5-2 for the season and appear to have the talent to hold their own with any foe on any given day. Big Spring, a Class AAAA club, whacked Lubbock, 5-2, last week for its second win in three outings behind the pitching of David Mitchell and James Norman. Both will be ready for action against the Tigers.

Except for a shaky experience at Odessa Permian Tuesday, the Tiger defense has looked good all year. The mound corp is of adequate strength and the hitting has been better than average.

Coach Speedy Moffett sent the boys through a lengthy practice session Thursday in preparation for the doubleheader. The infield worked on double play combinations, and all of the boys took a turn at the plate.

Moffett said he will go with Lane McMillan on the mound in the opener. Probable starters, in order of the appearance at bat, are Richey Thompson 3b, Larry Wadzeck 2b, David Cadena lf, Buddy Powell cf, Dink Foree c, Roy Hunter rf, Kenny Ragland 1b, Terry Holt ss, and Lane McMillan p.

The lineup for the second tilt was listed, as follows: Richey Thompson 3b, Steve Moffett 2b, Mickey Almond ss, Buddy Powell cf, David Cadena lf, David McGinnis 1b, Dink Foree c, Lane McMillan rf, and Rob Golden p.

Big guns in the Steer attack are shortstop Bill Burchett and second sacker Felix Martinez.

Miners Meet Pacific In NCAA Playoffs

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Hardly anyone expected Wyoming to qualify for the NCAA post season championship tournament when the college basketball season opened last December. Yet the Cowboys from Laramie did and tonight they have the chance to do what no other team has done, beat UCLA and its Player of the Year, Lew Alcindor.

The Cowboys, with the poorest record of any team in the NCAA tourney, 15-12, but with a seven-game winning streak, go against the team with the best, 26-0, in the semifinals of the Far West Regional at Corvallis, Ore.

The NCAA, with eight games at four regional sites, moves into the national spotlight following the triumphs of Southern Illinois and Marquette in the semifinals of the NIT Thursday night.

A capacity turnout of 18,499 at New York's Madison Square Garden saw Southern Illinois come from 11 points back to beat Rutgers 79-70 after Marquette had whipped Marshall 83-78.

Southern Illinois, now 23-2 with an 18-game winning streak, battles Marquette, 21-8, in the nationally televised final game Saturday afternoon.

Winston-Salem State from North Carolina surprised Kentucky Wesleyan 82-73 and Southwest Missouri routed Illinois State 93-76 in the semifinals of the NCAA small college tournament at Evansville, Ind. Winston-Salem, 30-1, and Southwest Missouri, 23-4, play tonight for the championship.

Oklahoma Baptist, the defending champion, St. Benedict's, Morris Harvey and Central Washington won in the NAIA quarter-finals at Kansas City to round out Thursday's action.

Oklahoma Baptist edged Southwestern Louisiana 66-65, St. Benedict's beat St. Mary's, Tex., 88-73, Morris Harvey downed Tennessee Wesleyan 75-58 and Central Washington squeaked by Eastern New Mexico 60-58.

St. Benedict's, 25-2, meets Morris Harvey, 28-3, and Oklahoma Baptist, 24-6, battles Central Washington, 26-3, in the NAIA semifinals tonight.

Nine of the Top Ten teams in the final Associated Press poll of the season play in the NCAA regionals tonight. Western Kentucky is the only team missing. The sixth-ranked Hilltoppers were upset in overtime by Dayton in the NCAA first round last Saturday.

The unranked Dayton Flyers, 22-5, go against eighth-ranked Tennessee, 21-5, in the Mideast regional at Evanston, Ill., where Virginia Tech, 19-6, and Indiana, 17-7, also tangle.

Second-ranked Louisville, 23-3, faces Southern Methodist, 19-5, and third-ranked Kansas, 22-3, battles seventh-ranked Houston, 24-3, in the Midwest regional at Lawrence, kan.

Fourth-ranked North Carolina, 24-4, and fifth-ranked Princeton, 24-2, meet in the East regional at College Park, Md., after ninth-ranked Boston College, 20-2, encounters St. John's of New York, 23-3.

University of Pacific, 23-3, risks its 20-game winning streak against the 10th ranked and defending national champions, Texas Western, 21-5 at Corvallis before top-ranked UCLA takes the floor against Wyoming.

Walt Frazier, with 26 points, sparked the comeback of Southern Illinois against Rutgers in the NIT after the Salukis had trailed at 32-21. Bob Lloyd and Jim Valvano, Rutgers' stars, were held to four points each in the second half. Valvano finished with 24, Lloyd 20.

George Thompson threw in 28 points to lead Marquette over Marshall. The Warriors pulled away with a 10-2 burst in the second half after Marshall had rallied to within one point at 57-56. Geoge Stone led the Thundering Herd from West Virginia with 25 points.

Eugene Smiley, with 27, and Earl Monroe, with 24, combined for 51 points to pace the Winston-Salem Rams in their upset of Kentucky Wesleyan. Danny Bolden's 27 led Southwest Missouri over Illinois State.

Phillips Top Cager

AMARILLO (AP) — The Amarillo Chamber of Commerce, which honors Texas schoolboy athletes, has picked Gene Phillips of Houston Jones as outstanding basketball player of year.

He follows the selection of Monty Johnson, Amarillo Tascosa quarterback, as the top football player.

Jones averaged 20.4 points per game in 105 games over a three-year period and set a state scoring record when he made 81 points in a game with Houston Madison.

Thirty Teams In West Texas Meet

ODESSA, Tex. (AP) — The West Texas Relays swing open today with athletes of 30 high schools going through preliminaries in running events and finals in the field. Collegians see first action Saturday.

A smattering of records was in the offing with San Angelo aiming at two relay marks while shooting at the championship of the division for the larger high schools.

San Angelo's 440 - yard relay team has done 41.7 and the mile relay quartet 3:18.8 against records of 42.4 and 3:18.1.

The division for smaller schools had McCamey aiming at a repeat as champion and few records indicated. Danny Lord of Jal, N.M., seemed to be the most likely individual. He has thrown the discus farther than the record of 161 feet 4 inches.

Abilene Christian is favored to again win the championship of the university class. It has Texas, Baylor, Houston, Southern Methodist, North Texas State and Texas Tech as competition.

East Texas State, powered by sprinter John Carlos who has a wind-aided 9.2 in the 100-yard dash to his credit, is a strong choice to win the college division title. Lamar Tech is not back to defend the championship.

Hardin-Simmons, Texas A&I, McMurry, Texas Western, Sul Ross, Howard Payne and Eastern New Mexico are other college division entries.

Records aren't expected to be numerous among the collegians and only Mark King, Texas pole vaulter, poses a threat in the university class. He twice has exceeded the record of 15-7½ this year.

Carlos will be after the 9.4 overall record in the 100 and several of the college marks are within reach of other athletes.

Roger Kirkwood of East Texas State and Al Lee of Howard Payne could tumble the mile mark of 4:24.0 and Gregory Glynn of Texas Western is after the javelin mark of 214-6. He has thrown the spear 221 feet this year.

University and college preliminaries and finals in most field events are scheduled Saturday morning. All other finals are Saturday afternoon.

Bengal Thinclads In Permian Relays

With another impressive performance tucked away in the record books, the Snyder High School track team will enter the Permian Basin Relays at Kermit this weekend.

Coach Bob Carter's crew has won three crowns and placed fifth at the Border Olympics in Laredo last week against some of the toughest competition in the state.

Many of the top track teams in West Texas are entered in the Kermit affair, and if the Bengals can win this one, they will emerge as favorites to win the District 3-AAA title and cop most of the laurels at regional.

Perhaps the most impressive individual performance last week was registered by senior Jerry Simons. He heaved the roundball more than 55 feet to capture second place. The sprint and mile relay teams comprised of Leon Riggins, M. C. Powell, Teddy Brown and Curtis Clay also raised a few eyebrows. The mile unit finished third behind two of the best Class AAAA teams in the state, and the sprint unit came in fifth.

The time of 3:20 registered by the mile relay team is the third best in the state, and the sprint clocking of 42.5 is among the better ones posted anywhere this season.

Clay, Brown and Riggins also are strong in the 220, 440 and intermediate hurdles respectively and will be a threat again Saturday.

Prelims are set for 9 a.m. with the finals due to get underway at 1 p.m.

Coach Carter listed probable Bengal entries, as follows:

high jump — John Schiebel, Drake Snyder and Dewey Grinslade.

shot put — Jerry Simons, Joe Breeden and Ray Ellis.

discus— Simons, Breeden and Ellis.

broad jump — M. C. Powell, Leon Riggins and C. B. Sanders.

pole vault — Snyder, Steve Burney and Howard Newsome.

440 relay — Riggins, Powell, Teddy Brown and Curtis Clay.

120 high hurdles — Dwaine Boydstun, Riggins and Tommy Hollis.

330 intermediate hurdles — Boydstun, Riggins and Hollis.

440 yard dash — Brown, Morris Smith and Larry Lofton.

880 yard dash — Tommy Bullard, Roy Lee and Gary Foster.

100 yard dash — Powell, Schiebel and Donald Howarton.

220 yard dash — Clay, Kent Noble and Howarton.

mile run — Freddie Benitez, Tommy McDorman.

mile relay — Riggins, Brown, Powell and Clay.

440 relay (Sophomore) — C. B. Sanders, Tommy Hollis, Preston Lane and Donald Howarton.

mile relay (Sophomore) — Larry Lofton, Kent Noble, John Schiebel and Roy Lee.

Too Short For Pros?

DALLAS (AP) — John LaGrone, Southern Methodist's all-Southwest Conference guard, wasn't drafted by pro football because he's too short of stature although no one questions his ability.

LaGrone is only 5-10 and 225. The pro scouts have said he has everything except the height they wanted and that height is very important for a linebacker being blocked by tall offensive linemen.

Glenn Gossett, former SMU defensive coach who worked with LaGrone, said the scouts didn't realize that LaGrone's great strength should make up for a deficit in height.

But Gossett suggested that it is to LaGrone's advantage that he not be drafted.

"Now as a free agent, he's in position to bargain with more than one team," his former coach pointed out.

LaGrone said he had talked with several teams in the Canadian League.

"Nothing definite you know," he declared. "really, I'd like to play. If I get much of a chance I'll probably try to play with a Canadian team."

Wayland In Semifinals

GALLUP, N.M. (AP) — It will be first-seeded Nashville, Tenn., against third-seeded Taytown, Mo., and second-seeded Plainview, Tex., against unseeded Long Beach, Calif., in tonight's semifinals of the Women's National AAU Basketball Tournament.

The Nashville Business College girls are going after their sixth straight championship.

In Thursday's quarter-final round, Nashville coasted over John F. Kennedy Junior College of Wahoo, Neb., 93-47; Plainview stopped Des Moines, Iowa, 52-33; Raytown rallied in the fourth quarter for a 57-50 victory over Ouachita Baptist College of Arkadelphia, Ark., and Long Beach beat Stratford, Conn., 47-32.

Nashville, whose only loss this year was to Plainview, looked every bit a champion as it raced to a 28-5 first quarter lead, increased it to 49-16 at the half and then ran in its reserves to finish out the game.

The Wayland Baptist College girls from Plainview whipped a Look magazine team from Des Moines, exploding for 20 points in the final period. Betty Courtney had 22 for Plainview. Glenda Rogers scored 12 for Des Moines.

Scottish Rite To Present 'The Last Supper' Sunday

A very unusual and most effective program appropriate for the Easter season will be presented at the Snyder High School Auditorium Sunday, March 19, at 3 p.m. The Scurry County Scottish Rite Association is sponsoring a presentation of "The Last Supper" by a group of Scottish Rite Masons from Odessa. Music of Easter will be furnished by the Snyder High School A Cappella Choir.

An important occasion to the future of Christianity and the world was the final meeting of Christ with his disciples in the upper room of an inn in the city of Jerusalem. Here these twelve met with their Master for the final observance of the traditional Feast of the Passover before Christ was to spend the agonizing hours of prayer in the Garden of Gethsemane and to be tried before Pilate and be nailed to the cross.

The meeting in the upper room was permeated with the love and compassion that Christ felt for those who had followed Him through the short years of his earthly ministry. This warm companionship was disturbed only by the shocking revelation that one of the twelve was to betray Him into the hands of his enemies, and by the seeming needless reassurances and admonitions the Master had to give his followers regarding the work He was leaving unfinished in their hands.

From this historic "Last Supper" came many words of love that have been passed down through these many generations to guide the Christian in his efforts to live in morality and right. From this meeting came Christ's own "new commandment" of love.

It is in recognition of the importance of this eventful occasion that the program Sunday afternoon will be presented. The events portrayed will be taken directly from the record in the New Testament; it will be a reminder to the people of the life and death of Christ, and of the influence of his life on the world today.

Be still

"Seek ye the Lord while He may be found, call ye upon him while He is near. "Isaiah 55:6.
Though close to a church, we may still be far from God,
And from our favorite pew can answer evil's nod.
And even while we sing of heaven's golden strand,
We contemplate temptation that seems on nearer hand.
Oh Father, help us know as we come to church to pray–
That we shall find You near,
and near You'll always stay!

Birth Watch For Lioness Is A Flop!

By KELLY SMITH

WASHINGTON (AP) — A round the clock maternity watch of the National Zoo's ranking lioness has flopped. She isn't pregnant.

The lioness, Princess, was mated four months ago to Caesar. Simultaneously, the National Zoo initiated a program to televise zoo births and create a library of animal birth on video tape.

Princess was a natural for the pilot program. She is 14 years old and has had 24 cubs. She's familiar with the lying-in den and her keepers.

Last week the 105-day period of gestation was almost up. Zoo officials organized. Thirty three friends of the zoo — including Mrs. Nicholas Katzenbach, wife of the undersecretary of state — volunteered for a 24-hour watch in the lion house.

They sat in a nearby office with a television monitor beamed on Princess. At the first indication of labor pains, the volunteer was to flick on a recording device, then notify the zoo police who would call the zoo veterinarian.

Some of the volunteers thought it was a little spooky sitting in the lion house at night. They read. Some played crossword puzzles. There were two false alarms over labor pains.

"Just when it seemed the most peaceful at night," said Mrs. Peter Grogan, "one of the cats roared." She and Lydia Katzenbach shared a 4 a.m. to 6 a.m. watch.

"I spent part of the time playing with Dennis and petting two chetahs," said Warren J. Illiff, 30, an airline executive. Dennis is an orangutan.

After eight days of focusing in on Princess' every move, the zoo's animal department head, Donald R. Dietlein, has called off the watch.

"She's just a mishapen lion," he said. "She's not pregnant."

Michigan State is the first team to win successive Big Ten football titles since Ohio State did it in 1955.

To VICTORY

...that is the cry of the multitude. Today we join the happy throngs around the earth as we shout together, "Hosanna"! Whatever the morrow may hold of suffering, today we declare to the world... "Christ has come." Because we are in His company, we know that God ultimately will be sovereign over all the world. We are confident that goodness is stronger than evil. We are sure love will triumph over hate. Whatever a Friday of crucifixion may bring of temporary defeat, we know life will triumph over death, and the Christian way will resolve itself supremely in the final destiny. Then Palm Sunday is a day to celebrate and set up our banner of hope. "For right is right as God is and right the day must win." This hope will convert, for us, spiritual defeat into eternal victory.
