Bond Issue Carries By Large Majority

The $50,000 Road Bond Issue voted upon by the citizens of Dawson County last Saturday, was carried by a large majority with an unofficial tabulation of the votes showing 428 favoring the issuance of the bonds, with only 176 against it.

These bonds, which will be sold immediately are to be issued for the improvement of farm-to-market roads in the county. The Federal Government had already made an allotment for the improvement of these roads, and Dawson county, in order to take advantage of this allotment was forced to issue the bonds to provide their pro rata apportionment.

Dawson County Cotton Oil Co., A Great Asset

Under the astute management of J. Fred Smith, the Dawson County Cotton Oil Co., Inc., owned by the Smith Bros. Refining Co., with home office in McLean, Texas, is proving to be one of the greatest assets of Dawson County.

With an investment that already totalled a large figure, they have this summer again expressed their confidence and faith in the future of this county by an improvement and building campaign that has increased the value of their holdings considerably. Construction is practically completed on one of the largest and most modern seed houses on the South Plains which is located just west of the mill offices.

This seed house is of steel and concrete construction, equipped with the latest in ventilating and drying machinery on the market, and has an unloading suction capable of handling a ton of seed every two minutes. The building has a storage capacity of 3500 tons. This seed house is connected with the old seed house by a conveyor of the blower type that moves the seed at the rate of 30 tons an hour. Approximate cost of this seed house and fixtures was $15,000.

Another $15,000 has been expended on the installing of new and larger machinery in the mill proper, that will increase the capacity of the mill by one-third. Work of installing this equipment was under the supervision of T. J. Trice, superintendent, who has been connected with some of the finest mills in the South.

The mill, equipped to manufacture a large variety of cotton seed products, has an annual payroll of approximately $40,000. This is distributed to around fifty men who work three shifts of eight hours.

The mill has this summer built a large warehouse at Lovington, New Mexico, to care for the demands of the ranchers of that territory for cotton seed products.

With the bumper cotton crop that is expected this year, the Dawson County Cotton Oil Co., Inc., will prove to be a greater asset than ever to this community, being able to handle practically the entire production of cotton seed in Dawson county, and surrounding territory.

Paying top prices for seed at all times the mill assures the farmers of this section a greater farm income, and a higher standard of living.

Lamesa and Dawson County are to be congratulated on having an organization of such progressive nature located here and it is the sincere hope of all that the future will prove as successful for this company as the past few years have been.

TWO MONTH OLD DAUGHTER OF MR. AND MRS. NEWLAND DIES

Wanda Fay Newland, 2-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Newland of Three League Community passed away on Sunday, September 12.

Funeral services were conducted on Monday at 11 o'clock at the Higginbotham Funeral Home with Rev. J. C. Foster, pastor of the Church of Christ officiating. Burial was made in the local cemetery.

Survivors are the parents and five brothers.

Marion Key left Monday for Austin where he will attend State University.

Lamesa Tornadoes To Play Anson High Tigers Friday Night

The Anson High School Tigers, from the capitol of Jones county, are coming to Lamesa Friday night, September 17, to engage the Lamesa High School Golden Tornadoes in the first football game of the season for both teams. The game is scheduled to start at 7:45 with McCollum field being the place.

Sports writers in that section are predicting that Anson will have one of the strongest Class "B" football teams in West Texas, this year, having a team composed of a large number of last year's lettermen, and some husky first year men. The Tigers were strong contenders for regional honors last year, and with the additional years experience and added weight, the Tigers are expected to really go somewhere this year.

It will be remembered that several years back, before class B football was put into districts and regions that the Anson Tigers won state honors in this class football, and it is said that their team this year will be the best since that time.

The Golden clad boys of Caches McCollum, Gregg and Sprabery, have been undergoing intensive training for the past few weeks, preparing for this game and the hard schedule to follow, and are in the peak of condition for the Anson boys. The Tornadoes will place a practically new team on the field this year, with only a few lettermen and squadmen being available for duty, and fans of this territory are expected to be out in force to size up the play and chances of the team for the coming season.

School Enrollment Reaches 1300 Mark

Twelve new pupils were enrolled in the Lamesa Elementary school on Monday of this week, with three new pupils appearing in the high school, which placed the total number of students in the Lamesa schools well above the 1300 mark, an all time attendance record.

High School Pep Squad Elects Leaders

Miss Carol Jacobs was this week elected leader of the Lamesa high school pep-squad, keeping the place she held last season. Miss Jacobs, who is a senior this year, has three assistants this year, one each from the other three classes. They are Lillian Mitchell of the Junior class, Bettye Guy Simpson of the sophomore class, and Sybil Roberts of the freshman class.

Over one hundred girls have appeared for membership in the pep squad this year, and practice has been under way for several days, preparing for the opening football game, which is with the Anson High School Tigers on Friday night of this week.

LUNCHEON CLUB HAS GOOD ATTENDANCE ON TUESDAY

Members of the Business Men's Luncheon Club met in regular session Tuesday at noon at the Plaza Hotel with a good attendance.

Mrs. W. J. Beckham and her accordion choir entertained the group with several numbers.

James Sumpter will have charge of next Tuesday's program and promises that he will have something new. He stated he would organize a fun program and invites all business men to be present.

DANCING CLASSES TO BE STARTED HERE SOON

Mrs. Weldon Stamps of Big Spring will start a class in dancing here within the next few weeks, and has arranged to be in Lamesa on Mondays and Saturdays.

Mrs. Stamps, now teaching in Big Spring, has had six years experience in teaching, and has studied in schools in California, New York and in Europe.

FIRST MAN AND WOMAN TO WIN SALES AWARD

Distinction of being the first man and the first woman to get their application for beautiful Sterling Silver Servel Electrolux belt buckles to the main office of the company, goes to O. C. Speck and Mrs. Lorena Thippen, both representatives of the Yates Hardware Company. The belt buckles are being awarded by the Servel Company for the sale of five rural boxes during July or eight boxes during August.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Dyer visited relatives at Hale Center last Sunday.

Fair Organization Completed; Dates Set for October 14-15-16

In a meeting of the stockholders of the Dawson County Fair Association held last Friday night final plans and organization were adopted.

The constitution and by-laws as drawn by Carl Rountree and the temporary committee were adopted with only minor changes.

Directors elected were: W. K. Crawley, J. M. Peterson, D. L. Adcock, F. L. Grissom, A. W. Matthews, W. J. Beckham, S. L. Forrest, C. A. Hillingsworth, Geo. D. Norman, J. T. Allen, E. V. Wilkes, C. E. Cameron, Caryl Baldwin, Joe M. Peterson and Owen C. Taylor.

Officers elected were: Owen C. Taylor, president; C. E. Cameron, vice-president; and Joe L. Matthews, secretary-treasurer.

An executive committee was appointed by the president and approved by the directors with the power and authority to make trades, purchases, contracts, and all other things necessary to provide grounds and buildings. Members of the committee are W. K. Crawley, chairman; J. T. Allen, J. M. Peterson, C. E. Cameron and Caryl Baldwin.

The executive committee met on Tuesday morning of this week at the county agents office to attend to various matters concerning the fair and its operation.

They decided to accept the offer of Mr. S. L. Forrest for the donation of the fair grounds, the plot of land offered being located between the CCC camp and South Houston Street.

It was decided to print a catalogue and premium list to be made out at the earliest possible moment. It was also decided that an amateur contest similar to that of last year would be held and a contract was signed with the same carnival as was had last year.

Plans for the exhibit building were discussed, and tentative plans drawn up in a tent this year, but the agricultural exhibit will be in the fair building. Committees are urged to arrange at once for exhibit space as only a limited amount of space will be available.

Official dates for the fair were set for October 14-15-16, which is only a month away. Much work remains to be done, but with the cooperation of the entire county, the Fair Association, guarantees the largest and best fair in the history of the county.

ODORANT PLACED IN LOCAL GAS SYSTEM

In compliance with House Bill No. 1017 passed by the 45th Texas Legislature, the West Texas Gas Company will place an odorant in their gas systems on the South Plains, on or about the 21st of September.

If a peculiar odor is noticed in the home or business house, it will be an indication of a gas leak, and occupants are asked to call their plumber at once to have the fault corrected.

A. G. Barnard, local manager for West Texas Gas Co., states that it will not be the responsibility of the company to fix these leaks but the duty of the property owner.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE AT THE FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Considerable improvements have just been completed at the First Christian church. Three Sunday school class rooms have been added, screen partitions in the auditorium, for other classes, and the building completely repainted.

O. B. McGonagill is a patient at a local hospital for medical treatment this week.

Courier To Publish Historical-Fair Edition

As Dawson county has never had a real Historical Edition, we are going to spare no expense nor effort in making our Historical Fair Edition, which will be published just a few days before the fair, serving as the official Fair Program, the largest and most complete single edition for Dawson county.

Within its pages there will be a complete detailed history of the area before the county was organized, the history of the county, town in county, schools and education, churches, lodges, orders, clubs, civic organizations, agriculture and ranching, highways, transportation, old times, and the progress and development pertaining to all phases of business, social and civic life over the county.

The task of gathering the necessary material, pictures data and advertising is great and without the help of those who are in position to aid us, it will be impossible to publish an elaborate edition of this kind. We are going to make photographs and cuts of our

Hancock Home-coming To Be Held Sept. 24th

A gathering and reunion of former residents and ex-students, speeches, music, free barbecue and ball games and races are features of the Hancock Home-Coming that is to be September 24th. Ralph Ranson, director-general, announces that Hon. George H. Mahon has been invited to speak on the night's program beginning at 8:00 o'clock. The afternoon program begins at 1:00 o'clock Friday afternoon when the visitors and former residents will be recognized.

The oldest man and the oldest woman and the person coming the longest distance will be presented with gifts. The person having lived the most consecutive years in the community will be presented a gift. All persons who helped settle the community will be asked to sing, in a group, an old spiritual hymn, and Mrs. W. J. Beckham is arranging several musical numbers. The speech of the afternoon will be made by an ex-student.

Soft ball games, one with the men over 40 years of age playing the girls, and another between the men under 40 years of age and the school boys are being arranged by Charlie Roberts and Sam Hodges. Barbecue and the "fixins" will be served by the community at 6:00 o'clock.

Invitations to former residents have been mailed to as many as six states, and the community extends a special invitation to all former residents and ex-students to attend the home-coming. The addresses of numbers of former residents are unknown, but two hundred invitations were mailed out this week.

Baptist Church To Hold Fall Round-up

Once each year the First Baptist church sells aside a special day in the fall known as "Great Fall Round Up." On this occasion, every member of the Sunday school is urged to be in his place on Sunday morning.

In each of the Sunday school departments, a special assembly program is to be given. In the adult assembly, Mrs. J. W. Beckham will bring her accordion band for the music which will start about 9:30.

Unlike on most occasions, Br. Barron, Sunday school superintendent, has announced no attendance goals, but he is urging every department and every class to try for the very best. Brother Cole, the pastor will preach at the 11 o'clock hour.

LIONS CLUB IN REGULAR MEETING ON TUESDAY

Members of the Lions Club met at their regular meeting place at the Plaza Hotel Wednesday at noon with a good number present.

Mrs. W. J. Beckham and her accordion choir rendered several Spanish numbers for the group.

The members voted to have a contest box in which every Lion would deposit a dime for a vote to see who would attend the Lions International Convention in California next year.

CHANGES MADE IN FARM ADMINISTRATION

Due to recent changes of the Farm Security Administration, (formally Resettlement Administration) Andrews and Borden counties have been added to the local set-up, according to Mr. S. P. Collins local county supervisor. As a result, Lamesa will be headquarters for Andrews, Dawson, Borden and Gaines counties. Mr. J. C. Bell, formerly of Floydada will assist Mr. Collins as assistant county supervisor under this new set-up. This change became effective September 15, 1937.

Dawson County Gins Refuse to Buy Cotton

GROUND BROKEN FOR NEW POST OFFICE

Wednesday morning saw another milestone in the growth and progress of Lamesa passed, when the first shovel of dirt was turned, preparatory to the construction of the new $62,237 Lamesa Federal Building.

W. L. Marr, as mayor of Lamesa, and W. V. P. Baker, as Dawson County's oldest citizen, collaborated on turning up the first soil. A photographer was present to record this momentous event in the history of our town for posterity.

This event marks the end of a long fight of Lamesa citizens to secure this building. A building was promised Lamesa several years ago, but as the years went by nothing was ever accomplished and it was only this summer that the grant was finally approved and the contract let for Lamesa's building.

Contract calls for the building to be erected in 210 working days and the contractor states that with the proper weather conditions that the work will probably be completed before the time limit. Algernon Blair of Montgomery, Alabama, is the contractor, with Mr. Derdon of Montgomery to be in charge of the work.

The building is to be located at the corner of North First and Houston Streets, on the site of the old Skinner home.

LORENZO ORAN HOLLEY PASSED AWAY SEPT. 10

Lorenzo Oran Holley, aged 43 years, passed away at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holley on last Friday, September 10.

Mr. Holley is formerly of this county but had made his home in Mississippi for the past 13 years. He had been ill since early in July and only three weeks ago returned here to live with his parents.

Funeral services were held on Saturday afternoon at the Presbyterian church, with burial made in the local cemetery.

Survivors are his parents, and the following brothers and sisters: C. E. Holley, Lenorah; E. E. Holley, Tracey California; F. L. Holley, California; R. L. Holley, Big Spring; Johnnie Holley, Dallas, Earl Holley, Waco; Woodrow Holley, Lamesa; Mrs. Viola Starr, Quanah; Mrs. Annie Mae Roberts, Lamesa; Mrs. Sallie Fairley, Lamesa; Mrs. Edith Underwood, El Monte, California.

SMALL SON OF MR. AND MRS. J. B. SISK DIES

Jim Sisk Jr. 4-month old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sisk, passed away on Tuesday, September 14 at the family home.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon at 4 p. m. at the Five Mile church with Rev. J. J. Gentry officiating. Burial was made in the Five Mile cemetery.

Survivors are the parents, and the following brothers and sisters, Evon, Bennie, Dennie, Essie Mae and Billy Jo.

SAMPLE SCHOOL BOOK COVER NEWS STORY

All of the 2400 school book covers required for the Klondike, Key and Hancock Schools are being furnished by the Phillips Petroleum Company, according to an announcement made jointly by Mr. Elzie Burelson, the local Phillips agent, and Mr. W. C. McKenzie, superintendent of schools.

State law requires that all text books be covered adequately and the covering of the books ordinarily present quite a problem, both to the schools and to the individual pupils, according to the superintendent. With the Phillips Petroleum Company furnishing the school book covers needed in this locality, free of charge, that problem is solved.

The need for these school book covers has caused the Phillips Petroleum Company to furnish covers similar to these to schools throughout West Texas and the Panhandle, the requirements amounting to over 500,000 covers in addition to this activity. Mr. McKenzie stated that Phillips Petroleum Company contributes several hundred thousand dollars annually to Texas schools through tax payments.

Mrs. Babe Simpson and daughter, Katherine of Seagraves visited relatives here Sunday afternoon.

Clen J. Bostick underwent an operation for appendicitis Sunday night at a local hospital.

Poloists Put On Hot Matches Here Sunday

Lubbock and Lamesa "B" Poloists stole the show from the scheduled "natural" match between Plainview and Lamesa "A" quartet here last Sunday afternoon.

Lubbock won 10 to 8 and the crack Lamesa "A" club, overcoming a handicap of 6 and the hard-riding sharpshooters from Plainview tabbed a 14 to 7 win.

A goal-shelling stalwart who formerly rode under the colors of NMMI, Murphy May, pounded four goals through the uprights to lead the Lubbock contingent. His drives resulted in the main from "setups" of his mates, the No. 3 flash riding down the willow after it had been struck into position by Claude Hurlbut, No. 1 and Bob Hester, No. 2 usually. J. H. Cooper, No. 4 scored once. Hurlbut once, and Hester twice.

Ed Hatch, playing No. 1 for Lamesa "B" scored two or three goals. Lee Barron rode at No. 2, Lynn Parkinson No. 3, and Elmo Smith at No. 4.

There were few fouls as compared with the second and featured game, Eric Barron referred.

The last chucker of the second game also grew into a steam bang affair in which were compounded elements of fast riding, good shooting and free style play. Riding for Lamesa at No. 1, was Eric Barron, No. 2 A. C. Woodward, No. 3 Spencer Barron, and No. 4 Gus White.

Sheriff White probably qualifies for a two or three-goal handicap player, as evidenced by his continually sparkling play, said his opponents.

For Plainview rode Blackie Norris at No. 1, Bradley at No. 2, Marvin Shubert at No. 3, and Lloyd Phillips at No. 4.

NEXT SUNDAY HOME-COMING DAY, FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Next Sunday has been set as Home-Coming Day at the First Christian church and invitations are being sent out to many of its former members to be present. All local members are urged to be in attendance at all services. A number of out of town visitors are expected. Rev. Herbert Dudley of Cisco will preach both morning and evening. A male quartet from Cisco is expected to sing. Everyone has a cordial invitation to attend all services.

Cigars on Phillips!

"Every time the service man says to me, 'Check the oil, Sir!' I give him the high sign to go to it. And I grin to myself because I know he's going to find that indicator right up at the FULL Mark.

"Yes, Sir! since I've been using Phillips 66 Motor Oil, I don't need to add those quarts between drains. By golly, how that oil stands up! And last? Why, I figure that the money I save using Phillips 66 Motor Oil more than pays for my cigars."

"Well, at any rate you'd be willing to do just about anything to save Craig's life. Lovett knows it. He's going to bargain with you. He's going to force you back to Chicago. I don't know the exact terms he'll offer, but I do know he intends to pry you loose from Craig. That's the other barrel of his double-barrel shotgun. Now do you see what he stands to gain by this kidnapping?"

Patricia nodded slowly. Warren's whole deed and purpose were clear to her, after Northup's explanation. Facing defeat, such as she and Craig had faced all winter, Warren had seized a criminal weapon to save himself.

"What are you going to do—to find Craig, Dennis?" she asked, trying hard to keep her voice steady. "He's in danger—his very life—because of Lupe. We've got to find him, free him."

"I've put out a couple lines," Northup said. "Over across the river I've got two Tinneh scouts posted, watching Lovett's place. If any messenger comes or goes between him and the Chiwaughimis, I'll know about it, and I can trail the fellow. If one of Lovett's Bellancas leaves the Bay, I'll have Svidson get into the air, and we'll see where that ship goes. Those are two bets."

"You don't seem—seem hopeful about them."

"I'm not," Northup admitted candidly. "And I'm not banking very much on Poleon and Sam either. Lupe's outfit had a four-hour start; and that strong wind this morning blew the trail shut before Sam and Poleon could have followed very far. They probably got an idea of Lupe's general direction, and they're following across country in hopes of running into him. They've got only an outside chance of doing that."

"Then what are you counting on to save Craig?"

Northup got up, closed the door, came back. "We mustn't let anybody see you and me together," he said. "Remember that. To answer your question, I'm counting on you. I believe you can trap Lovett. I've been thinking around, all afternoon and evening, how to free Craig; and there's just one way—through Lovett. He was the person who ordered Craig kidnapped, and he's the person who'll have to order Craig freed."

"In a couple days—No, don't object to the wait; we don't dare hurry this—in a couple days you ask Lovett over to your cabin. Some excuse; we'll plan that. When he comes, I'll be there unseen. You start talking about Craig. Let Lovett see that you're worried. Give him an opening to spring his bargain on you. He'll be waiting for just that opening. He'll finally tell you that he'll free Craig if you do so and so."

"The minute he says that, the minute he admits he has any connection whatever with this kidnapping, I'll step into the picture, and we'll have him dead to rights."

It was two evenings later that Warren came over to Patricia's cabin, a little after dusk.

"DeCoursey said you wished to see me?"

"Yes, I do, Warren. I—I've got to talk with you. Won't you have a cup of tea with me?"

"I can't stay long. I've got something important on this evening," Patricia poured the tea.

"Did you have something particular in mind that you wanted to talk to me about?" Warren asked as he stirred the sugar in his tea.

"Yes. It's about Craig. I'm worried about him. Terribly worried."

"Why is he ill, or something?" Warren blandly inquired.

"No, no. He's gone, Warren. Three days ago he suddenly disappeared. He didn't tell anybody—Poleon or Corporal Northup or me—that he intended going away."

"Odd," Warren remarked. "Quite odd. Come to think of it, I haven't seen him around here for several days. Where do you suppose he went?"

"I don't know. I've asked everybody, and no one knows. You were the last person to talk with him. He disappeared right after he signed those papers to the radium lake. Did he drop you any hint, Warren, where he might be?"

Warren regarded her, poker-faced. "Tarleton isn't in the habit of confiding his personal business to me. I haven't even a suggestion as to his whereabouts. But why are you so alarmed about a little three-day absence?"

"Because I know that something dreadful has happened to him," Patricia quavered.

"What makes you think he's had some accident?" Warren asked, cruelly indifferent to her misery over Craig.

"I think so because those Chiwaughimis are gone too, Warren. They disappeared at the same time he did. That wasn't any coincidence! Lupe hates Craig. Lupe has been trying half the winter to kill him. Where are those metis now?"

"My dear, I haven't the faintest idea."

"But they're your men. Surely you know where they are?"

"I do not know!" Warren insisted, warily refusing to commit himself.

"They often go away on little trips without consulting me. I presume that they've gone fishing, somewhere or other." He finished his tea, set the cup down. "No, no more, thank you. I have to go now."

"Warren, don't! Listen to me!" Patricia pleaded. His stoniness made her frantic. "You've got to help me, Warren! It's a question of saving Craig's life. Those Chiwaughimis are holding him prisoner somewhere. Lupe will kill him, unless you intervene. I—I'm the cause—Lupe hates him because of me. I brought all this on Craig, and now I've got to save him. Before I'll let him get killed, I'll do anything. I'll go away, I'll go back to Chicago, I'll promise not to see Craig any more. Every time that I've depended on you, Warren, you've let me down. Don't let me down this time!"

Warren looked at her through the smoke of his cigarette. "You say you'll do anything. Just how much of that do you really mean?"

Patricia went taut, quivering. She had broken down Warren's indifference! She had drawn him one step toward the trap.

"I mean all of it! If I leave, Lupe won't have any cause to kill Craig. I'll start for Smith tomorrow morning; I'll get back home as fast as a plane can take me—if you'll only send word to Lupe."

Delphian Club Opens Years Work With Dinner at Jacobs Home

The Delphian Club opened their years work last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. A. E. Jacobs with an eight o'clock dinner.

Invocation was given by Mrs. M. C. Lindsey.

The outgoing president, Miss Pauline Bulsterbaum made her farewell address and introduced the new president, Mrs. Russell Clark, who in turn introduced her officers for the year with a clever rhyme, suited to their duties.

Miss Marguerite Flaniken gave a very realistic reading to start us on our voyage, entitled Bon Voyage.

Mrs. W. J. Beckham accompanied by Mrs. Carl Rountree on the piano sang, Sailing.

Roll call was unusually interesting by responses both serious and humorous on "Where would you go on a trip."

A standing vote of thanks was given Mrs. Averlett for her untiring work on the beautiful new year books.

Two guests were present, Mrs. W. A. Stephens, an old member now from Denver, Colo., and Mrs. Travathan of Wichita Falls. Thirty six members were present for the affair.

Study Club Opens Years Work With Southern Breakfast

The Womens Study club opened its years work with a late Southern breakfast, served at the Williams hotel last Friday morning. Guests were received at the door by Mesdames W. L. Marr, and E. J. Yates, then ushered into the parlor by Mesdames Guy Simpson and Elzie Bursleson where they were received by Mrs. W. A. Wallace.

Club members and guests were entertained with musical number by Miss Quixie B. King, Miss Elizabeth Arnett, and Mrs. A. G. Barnard. Mrs. Clyde Branon read "Mirande on Keeping a Husband" to the delight of her listeners. The principle number on the program was a stimulating talk, given by Superintendent V. Z. Rogers. Mr. Rogers brought out the history of club women and education for adults, what the club woman gains from adult education and what the club woman can do to further adult education.

The officers for the ensuing year were introduced: President, Mrs. W. A. Wallace; vice-president, Mrs. Guy Simpson; second vice-president, Mrs. A. N. Randle; secretary, Mrs. Ervin Bailey; corresponding secretary, Mrs.

E. J. Yates; treasurer, Mrs. Lex Brock; federation counselor, Mrs. Katie Weaver Rose; parliamentarian and critic, Mrs. J. H. Harp; reporter, Mrs. V. O. Key. Mrs. Wallace, president beautifully expressed her thoughts and feelings toward the club in terms of friendship, helpfulness, and mutual seeking after culture.

Mrs. Guy Simpson acted as hostess and Mrs. E. J. Yates as Master of Ceremonies. The breakfast table was decorated with a gorgeous centerpiece of flowers, gold and white dahlias, white petunias, yellow zenias, and golden glow, with nests of lavender, honeysuckle, and fern, centered with yellow zenias, white petunias, and golden glow along the center. Favors were programs made in the form of white owls perched on a limb entitled "Education."

Members present were: Mesdames E. T. Bailey, Lex Brock, C. A. Baldwin, A. G. Barnard, Elize Bursleson, Clyde Branon, W. K. Crawley, Nelson Cope, Cecil Bryant, J. H. Harp, V. O. Key, W. L. Marr, Henry McQueen, Katie Weaver Rose, Guy Simpson, W. A. Wallace, Jud Watson, Guy Weekes, E. J. Yates, Bryant Fulkerson, Walter Jones, W. W. Griffith and Carr Spraberry.

Presbyterian Ladies Entertained Saturday

Ladies of the Presbyterian Missionary Society entertained on last Saturday with a one o'clock luncheon at the home of Mrs. Sam Richardson. Guests for the occasion were young ladies of the church and several new residents of Lamesa.

After the delicious three course luncheon was served, guests were introduced by Mrs. David Murray, president of the Missionary Society.

Those attending were: Mesdames David Murray, Hardy Morgan, C. E. Ault, Howarth, W. B. Collins, R. E. Simpson, Gordon McGuire, Sam Richardson, A. H. Smith, Jack McLaughlin, Louis B. Reed, McNeese, W. H. Collins, Tom Woods, Matt McCall, R. E. Simpson Jr., Henry Stafford, Hunt, Joe Alexander, Gordon McGuire Jr., Bonnie King, Mike Garvin, Misses Florence Thompson, Eleanor Ragle, and Miss McCain.

Delphian Daughters Entertained at Woman's Club House

Complimenting the Delphian Daughters, Mesdames Ralph Stuart, O. H. Morris and M. R. Pail entertained on Tuesday evening at the Woman's Club House.

The club room was beautifully decorated with cut flowers, carrying out a color scheme of red and white.

The new club president, Frances McCollum greeted the guest. Roll call was answered with "echoes from My Vacation." Readings were given by Miss Marguerite Flaniken, and Miss Eleanor Simpson. Miss Marjorie Morris gave a piano solo.

New officers for the coming year were presented with each giving a response.

Mrs. W. P. Averlett explained to the group the new year books.

Gifts from the club were presented to Mrs. Averlett and Mrs. Matt McCall in appreciation of their work.

At the conclusion of the program refreshments of brick ice cream and angel food squares were served. Plate favors were red and white corsages.

Mesdames Key and Gresham Entertain

Mesdames Harris Key and Marvin Gresham entertained on Monday evening of this week at the Key home on South Fifth Street.

Games of 42 and rummy were enjoyed throughout the evening with a delicious refreshment plate of sandwiches, cake, punch and ice cream being served at the conclusion.

Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Lem Gresham, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Kilgore, Mr. and Mrs. Todd, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. Graden Herndon, Marvin Gresham and Harris Key.

Mrs. Tom Woods Honors Guest

Complimenting her house guest, Mrs. Joyce Redwine of Centerville, Texas, Mrs. Tom Wood entertained last Saturday morning with a breakfast served at the Green Hut Cafe.

The guests, met in the lobby of the Dal Pasc hotel at 9:30, going from there to the cafe where a delicious waffle breakfast was served.

The guest list for this in honor affair, included: Mesdames Leon Reagan, Frank Rose, Dan Ogletree, Matt McCall, Jack McLaughlin, Jessie Mae Ownsby, Jack Phinizy, Guy Simpson, A. G. Barnard, G. A. Barnett, Gordon McGuire, Jr., Weidon Lindsey, Mike Garvin, Miss Thelma Lee Norman and the honoree, Mrs. Redwine.

BARBECUE ENJOYED AT COLLINS HOME

Miss Edith Mae Collins and Mr. Dick Collins entertained last Thursday evening at their home on South First Street, with a chicken barbecue.

The delicious barbecue with all the "fixins" was served on the lawn, later the guests going to the Country Club where games of shuffle board and roque were enjoyed.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served at the conclusion of the games to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Weekes, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. Weidon Lindsey, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Koger, Misses Elizabeth Arnett, Van Clark, Jack Hart, Ruth Lee Stuart, Messrs. Seaborn Collins, Lloyd Morgan, Joe Matthews, Stanley Wilkes, Herbert Rule.

Truman Campbell jr., Honored on Birthday

Mrs. Truman Campbell entertained on Friday afternoon, September 3, at her home on North Second Street, honoring her son, Truman Jr., on his third birthday.

All kinds of group games were played with refreshments of ice cream, cones, cake and candy being served at the conclusion.

Mrs. Day Hostess To Pioneer Club

Mrs. D. S. Day was hostess to members and guests of the Pioneer club on Tuesday afternoon at her home.

Games of 84 were enjoyed and at the conclusion of play a delicious refreshment plate of congealed salad, chicken sandwiches, pecan pie, topped with whipped cream and iced tea was served to Mesdames Joe Barron, W. V. Baker, Walter Barfoot, A. M. Bennett, W. H. Bennett, O. Lambeth, O. B. Norman and J. L. Carroll.

W. M. U. To Have Japanese Program

The W. M. U. of the First Baptist church will have a Japanese program and tea, Monday afternoon at 4 p. m. in the home of Mrs. A. E. Jacobs.

All ladies of the church and especially the newcomers are cordially invited to attend.

The following program has been arranged: Hymn, "Christ For the World We Sing," Bible study, "The Crisis of Missions," by Mrs. O. C. Speck. Prayer, Hymn, "Guide Me O Thou Great Jehovah." The Japanese, their characteristics and religions by Mrs. R. F. Nix. Missions among the Japanese by Mrs. M. C. Lindsey. Prayer. News: Flashes, Japanese in the Southland by Mrs. Jacobs. Song, Group of G. A.'s directed by Mrs. Weidon Lindsey. Prayer. The W. M. U. will be assisted by the Girl's Auxiliary, sponsored by Mrs. R. F. Nix.

College Group Entertained Friday

Miss Elizabeth Arnett entertained on last Friday evening at the home of her parents on South Fourth Street with a dinner for a few close friends.

The guest list included Misses Van Clark, Ruth Lee Stuart, Jack Hart, Edith Mae Collins and Mrs. Robert Kover.

Immediately after the dinner the guests went to the Palace Theatre where they saw "Born Reckless."

After the movie the guests went to the home of Miss Jack Hart where a slumber party was enjoyed, with Miss Hart and Miss Van Clark acting as hostesses.

On Saturday morning the guests were served a delicious breakfast at the Green Hut Cafe.

Tuesday Club Met With Mrs. Wallace

Members and guests of the Tuesday afternoon Bridge club met with Mrs. W. A. Wallace this week, at the home of Mrs. Jack Phinizy on North Fifth Street.

GOODRICH COMPANY OVER 67 YEARS OLD

More than sixty-seven years of rubber product manufacture during which it expanded from a small enterprise to one of America's outstanding corporations is the history of The B. F. Goodrich Company, according to Jack McLaughlin, who for four years has been selling Goodrich in Lamesa, Texas.

"The Goodrich Company was founded in Akron, Ohio, its present location by Dr. B. F. Goodrich, a Civil War surgeon," Jack says.

"From a modest beginning during which production consisted of winder rolls, belting, carriage tires and fire hose, the Goodrich Company has grown until today the product list embraces more than 32,000 rubber articles.

"Goodrich was the first rubber company west of the Allegheny Mountains and was America's first tire manufacturing concern. As a pioneer in the industry, Goodrich constantly developed new products, new methods of manufacture and new compounds, many of which have been adopted by the entire rubber industry.

"Dr. Goodrich, when he founded the company, told his employees that 'Goodrich must build goods destined for service,' a policy that has remained the guiding spirit through more than three-score years," Jack McLaughlin says.

The continued development of new products indicates that Goodrich remains a pioneer. The company maintains a large research staff and employs a testing fleet to prove by actual service each new development.

Lamesa Tire and Battery, located at 528 North First St., sells the complete Goodrich line of Silvertown and Cavalier tires, tubes, batteries and accessories.

SOIL CONSERVATION SAVES WIDOWS FARM

Lamesa, Tex. Sept. 14.—Mrs. Ruby Davis, who has only a son to aid with the farming operations, attributes at least a part of her success during the last two years to a fire on a bitterly cold night back in February, 1936. When the Soil Conservation Service camp was established at Lamesa in August, 1935, Mrs. Davis' 160-acre field two miles northwest of here was being damaged by blowing. Although she knew little about wind and water erosion practices, she became a cooperator with the service. However, she was not overly enthusiastic about the "crooked rows" of contour cultivation that were recommended to supplant straight row tillage to conserve moisture. In a mid-afternoon of a February day in 1936, fire threatened to destroy her feed supply of 20,000 bundles of grain sorghums. Volunteers from the Civilian Conservation Corps camp engaged in soil conservation work hurried to the scene and curbed the blaze. But at 9 o'clock that night, the report came to Lamesa that fire again had broken out in Mrs. Davis' feed stacks and that aid was needed. Although the night was extremely cold, between 60 and 70 members of the CCC camp and technicians again volunteered and fought the flames for several hours before the fire was brought under control. Mrs. Davis appreciated the assistance given by the Soil Conservation Service camp workers and became one of the most enthusiastic cooperators in the entire area. In 1936, she cultivated her 160-acre field on the contour and used strip crops. In addition, she leased another 60 acres which were cultivated in straight rows. Soil Conservation practices eliminated blowing on her field, and Mrs. Davis also harvested better yields on the 60 acres farmed in straight rows. This year, she has planted both fields in strips on the contour, 30 rows of cotton being alternated with 20 rows of milo. In addition, she has a border strip of Sudan grass surrounding her fields. "My crops are much better this year than they were in 1936, and I expect to harvest a ton or more of grain and three-fourths of a bale of cotton to the acre," Mrs. Davis says. Next year she plans to rotate the strips to provide more residue in the soil as a precaution against blowing, and will continue to operate the farms with the aid of her son.

KLONDIKE H. D. CLUB

Plans for next year's Rally Day were discussed in the home of Mrs. Clyde Edmonson on August 24. We decided that one day and night would be a greater success than two days and one night. Things we would like to study in club next year were also discussed. The meeting was enjoyed by all. Next meeting will be with Mrs. G. W. Thorpe, September 14.

THE CENTRAL CLUB NOTICE

The Central H. D. club will meet in the home of Mrs. B. M. Boswell, Wednesday afternoon September 15, at 2:30 o'clock. The meeting time has been changed from 3:00 o'clock to 2:30 o'clock.

THE CENTRAL H. D. CLUB NEWS

"The Bible to me is so easy to understand," said Mrs. G. H. ASKILS, leaders of the program on the Women of the Bible, to the club members in the home of Mrs. Emer Walis Wednesday, September 1, and she also prefers the Bible to other books. In studying the Women of the Bible we found they had "brains like a man," quoting some of the remarks made by Mrs. Dingus, who lectured to us at the encampment. Other interesting Bible stories and scriptures were told by Grandmother Childress, Mrs. C. A. Russell, Mrs. E. A. Tweed and Mrs. Elmer Walls.

The roll call was answered with our favorite Bible quotation. Finishing our old business we discussed the fair and the shore. We were buying also made suggestions for a Yearbook for 1938. Fourteen members were present and two visitors.

Film Promises New High in Screen Thrills

The horrible discovery made by a woman who marries a handsome stranger after a whirlwind courtship promises to strike a new high in cinema excitement at the Cole Theatre, when "Love From A Stranger," the thrilling melodrama starring Ann Harding begins a three day engagement there next Saturday midnight.

Basil Rathbone appears opposite the lovely star in this film, which Frances Marion adapted from the same name as a success of the same name, was based on a short story by Agatha Christie.

The story opens with Ann, a pretty London stenographer, winning a fortune in the sweepstakes, and planning to go to Paris and collect the money. This leads to an estrangement between her and her fiance.

A suave, handsome stranger, in the person of Rathbone, comes to subvert her apartment.

Ann is completely captivated by this romantic, worldly creature. He follows her to Paris, and, after a whirlwind courtship, they are married. A blissful honeymoon ensues. Then comes the cruel disillusionment—the terrible discovery and the breath-taking climax which promises to keep Cole Theatre audiences on the edge of their seats.

Basil Hale is featured in the supporting cast which also includes Bruce Seton, Jean Cadell and Donald Calthrop.

"Love From a Stranger" is a Max Schach production, presented by Trafalgar Films. Rowland V. Lee, one of Hollywood's top-notch megaphone-wielders directed the picture. Phillip Tannura is credited with the photography. Frederick Pusey designed the sets and S. Lange created the gorgeous array of costumes worn by Miss Harding in the course of the story. The production is released through United Artists.

AGRICULTURE BUILDING AT FAIRGROUNDS BEING ENLARGED

Lubbock, Sept. 15.—The sound of saws and hammers mixed with the voices of workmen was heard early this week, as work was begun on the enlargement of the Agriculture Building at the Pashandle South Plains fairgrounds. In order to accommodate the overflow of county agricultural exhibits, entries for which have been coming in daily, fair directors at a special meeting this week ordered the work begun at once so that all might be in readiness for the gala opening Monday, September 27.

In addition to the educational features of the fair, directors state that the free entertainment program to be offered will surpass their fondest expectations. A six day race meet with the finest selection of race horses ever to be brought to this section, hand concerts throughout the day and evening, and a dazzling display of fireworks, will be only a portion of the entertainment.

In addition to all of this will be presented J. C. Michaels Big Circus featuring twelve big headline acts of the world's artists, sensational and thrilling cycling, an animal circus featuring trained dogs, ponies and monkeys, aerial artists performing 40 feet in mid-air, trick roller skating and last, but not least Elmer "Daredevil" Medden, the death-defying, human being, on the crashing motorcycle.

CHINESE GIRLS TO ATTEND TEXAS STATE COLLEGE

Denton, Sept. 15.—From Shanghai, the heart of battle-torn China, will come two sixteen year old girls to Texas State College for Women this fall. Miss Mary Ellen Kellhofer arrived in this country the early part of the summer, but Miss Alice Bryan is now on her way, traveling alone across the Euro-Asian route.

In writing to the registrar, Miss Bryan's parents expressed the desire that she would be able to adapt herself easily to living conditions and customs over here. She has lived for a time in Japan too, and will therefore probably be able to bring to her fellow students in Texas a cross section of the view of the warring nationalities. Both students attended the Shanghai American School.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Glover had as their guests Monday, Roy Davis, Bill Minyard, Frances Burton and Ethel Little all of Snyder. Mrs. B. N. Minyard who has been here visiting returned with them to her home in Snyder.

786 PERSONS DIED OF APPENDICITIS IN TEXAS

Austin, Tex., Sept. 15.—During the past year 786 persons died of appendicitis in Texas, according to Vital Statistics compilations of the State Department of Health. Many of these deaths might have been prevented had the patient been more aware of the disease and its symptoms.

There are two forms of appendicitis, acute and chronic. The form that appears suddenly, with great pain and sickness is acute. Chronic appendicitis may extend over a long period of time and consists of slight attacks at intervals, but at some time there will usually occur an attack worse than any before and the disease may then become serious.

"In the presence of abdominal pain, give nothing by mouth. Never give laxatives. Apply an ice pack. Call your family physician. Abdominal pain which persists over a period of six hours is usually serious," advises State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox.

Hospital records show the above advice has reduced appendicitis deaths 75 per cent. When otherwise healthy people are operated upon soon after the beginning of the "pain in the stomach" caused by appendicitis, little danger is experienced, but the surgeon's work is made more difficult and the patient's chance of recovery considerably lessened when there is a long delay in seeking medical help, and especially if a cathartic has been given.

How to prevent appendicitis? Keep the body in perfect health as long as possible. Watch your teeth, your tonsils any place where an infection may occur. Get plenty of good food, and plenty of sleep, plenty of exercise. Have a thorough medical examination at least once a year and have your teeth examined and cleaned by a dentist at least once every six months. This kind of watchfulness will not only help you to avoid appendicitis, it will help you to avoid many other illnesses as well.

New carload of all kinds of new furniture and stoves just received at the Army Store. Your credit is good. adv.

"THE REST OF THE RECORD"

By James V. Allred
Governor of Texas

The past week I met with certain members of the senate committee which has been studying State expenditures. According to some newspaper articles we don't need any new tax money; also, that the Comptroller and Treasurer have said our deficit was only ten million dollars. The State Auditor has fixed it at fifteen million dollars as of September 1st of this year; at approximately twenty million dollars September 1, 1936; and approximately twenty four million dollars September 1, 1937, if no new taxes were levied.

When I met with members of the Senate committee we had the State Auditor and a representative of the State Comptroller with us. It developed that the Comptroller's figures and the Treasurer's figures were based on actual deficit at the time but that they were not taking into consideration appropriations and expenditures that have already been made and not yet charged on the books just because the warrants had not been issued for them.

For instance, they hadn't taken into consideration an appropriation of $821,000.00 for an insane asylum in West Texas. The board of control has already located this hospital at Big Springs, where the people voted a bond issue to furnish the land and water supply; and the board is preparing to let the contract for the building now. Certainly no one could argue that items of this kind are not chargeable against the State for which money should not be raised. At the end of the conference the representative of the Comptroller's Department agreed with the State Auditor's figures, so there is no actual difference.

Some members of the Senate committee have been quoted as saying that we should not cut appropriations down and consolidate departments. I pointed out to them that at the beginning of the Regular Session I recommended increases in appropriations, other than a little over a million dollars for the insane asylums. These recommendations of mine were ignored. Efforts to consolidate certain departments of government were killed in committee, and appropriations were substantially increased without revenues being provided.

The time to cut appropriations was during the Regular Session. The appropriations have now gone into effect. Our schools and colleges, for instance, have acted on these appropriations and entered into contracts with the teachers which are binding on the State. The Board of Control has advertised for bids on buildings authorized in these appropriations. Now, it would be manifestly unfair, in fact I think impossible, for the Legislature to make any substantial savings at this late hour. The trouble is if I should submit any of these matters it would prevent passage of revenue measures, which we must have regardless, during the thirty days to which the Legislature is limited.

This past week the State Mineral Board, of which the Governor is the Chairman and Judge C. V. Terrell of the Railroad Commission and Land Commissioner McDonald are members passed a resolution which will result in $500.00 per day more to the school fund from leases in the Sabine River bed.

These leases were originally made by Governor Sterling, Colonel E. O. Thompson and Land Commissioner J. H. Walker. They provided for a 3-8ths royalty to the State from these river bed leases. Later during Mrs. Ferguson's administration, the price of oil dropped and she together with Railroad Commissioner Lon A. Smith and Mr. Walker, former Land Commissioner, lowered the royalty from 3-8ths to 1-4th. Additional wells were drilled, and there are now 148 wells from which the State receives royalties. Judge Terrell made a motion to restore the royalty from 1-4th to 3-8ths. McDonald and I seconded the motion and it passed unanimously. Judge Terrell and I are quite proud of this additional revenue.

MINI-METHOD NOTES
Welch Charge

Everybody present at Sunday school Sunday. Everybody in fine spirit. All acquainted with our new church. Have you seen it? Why don't you come and worship with us. It must be a fellowship church. Our new superintendent (Kring Preston) started off well Sunday. All want to rally to his leadership. Our goal is 100 regular attendance. We can if we will.

Singing Thursday night was largely attended and all seemed to enjoy it. Singing school started Monday night. It is free to all. Let's all get our part.

Next Sunday we go to Bartlett again. Seems a long time since we were there. We are looking for a good time. Never fail to enjoy our trip to Bartlett.

Preaching at Welch, second and fourth Sundays.—J. G. Walker.

Miss Inez Ross of Crosbyton spent the weekend here, guests of Miss Mildred Medlin.

SAVING MONEY HERE!
MEANS GREATER VALUE HERE!

COLLECTING LIQUID RUBBER ON FIRESTONE PLANTATIONS IN LIBERIA

From these plantations comes an ever-increasing supply of the world's finest rubber. Money saved here and in manufacturing and distribution enable Firestone to sell first-quality tires at lower prices.

PRICES AS LOW AS $6.40

THAT'S WHY YOU GET MORE FOR YOUR MONEY IN FIRESTONE STANDARD TIRES

FIRESTONE builds a first-quality tire made of top grade materials and sells it for less money because Firestone passes savings along to you in the form of extra values. Firestone controls rubber and cotton supplies at their sources, manufactures with greater efficiency and distributes at lower cost. Because of these economies—

YOU GET EXTRA PROTECTION AGAINST BLOWOUTS—eight extra pounds of rubber are added to every 100 pounds of cord by the Firestone patented Gum-Dipping process. By this process every fiber of every cord in every ply is saturated with liquid rubber. This counteracts dangerous internal friction and heat that ordinarily cause blowouts.

YOU GET EXTRA PROTECTION AGAINST PUNCTURES—because under the tread are two extra layers of Gum-Dipped cords.

YOU GET EXTRA PROTECTION AGAINST SKIDDING—because the tread is scientifically designed.

YOU GET LONGER NON-SKID MILEAGE—because of the extra tough, long-wearing tread.

Make your car tire-safe now for fall and winter driving. Join the Firestone SAVE A LIFE Campaign today by equipping your car with a set of new Firestone Standard Tires—today's top tire value.

DON'T RISK YOUR LIFE ON SMOOTH WORN TIRES!

DO YOU KNOW
That last year highway accidents cost the lives of more than 38,000 men, women and children?
That a million more were injured?
That more than 40,000 of these deaths and injuries were caused directly by punctures, blowouts and skidding due to smooth, worn, unsafe tires?

● "A horse is a pretty powerful animal but I've got him beat . . . I'm a third stronger than he is."

"I can do dozens of things in your home . . . I can wash dishes, iron, cook, make swell coffee, sweep the floor, keep your food fresh and wholesome, bring you radio programs from all over the world . . . and all this for only a few cents a day."

"I also make the wheels go around in factories, furnish light and cool comfort in stores and offices. In fact, wherever there are people, you'll find me on the job doing hundreds of important things economically, efficiently, and quickly.

"I don't ever get tired and I work at night as well as in the day time. For what most people spend on cigarettes I'll make your home a better place in which to live and bring you leisure, comfort and convenience."
