Five Firms Indicted In Vaccine Fix

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Rogers today announced the indictment of five big drug companies on charges of antitrust violations in the sale of polio vaccine to federal, state and local governments.

He said the indictment was returned by a federal grand jury at Trenton, N.J.

The firms were named as:

Eli Lilly & Co., Indianapolis; Allied Laboratories, Inc., Kansas City, Mo.; American Home Products Corp., New York City; Merck & Co., Rahway, N.J., and Parke, Davis & Co., Detroit.

The companies were described as the sole producers of polio vaccine in this country from the time the success of the Salk formula was announced in April 1955.

They were accused of conspiring to fix prices and eliminate competition in sales of the vaccine to governmental agencies which were large purchasers of the vaccine.

The indictment said the total production of polio vaccine through the end of 1957 was slightly more than 205 million cubic centimeters having a value of 125 million dollars.

Of this total, about 104 million cc. were sold to public authorities. The bulk of these purchases were under the Poliomyelitis Vaccination Assistance Act of 1955. This act provided for allocation of $33,600,000 of federal funds to the states for vaccination programs.

Asst. Atty. Gen. Victor R. Hansen, in charge of the antitrust division, said in a statement:

"The indictment returned today charges that vaccine producers have combined to submit uniform bids to public agencies, to adopt noncompetitive terms and conditions of sale, and to establish uniform pricing methods. Price-fixing activities involving such a significant industry and such substantial sales require criminal action by the department."

The antitrust laws provide fines up to $50,000 in the case of violations by corporations. The five drug companies were charged with violating two sections of the Sherman Antitrust Act.

Daughter Of Iran Delegate Is Attacked

NEW YORK (AP)—The 16-year-old daughter of Iran's chief United Nations delegate was cut on the hand with a penknife in an attack by two teen-age girls in Bronx Park.

The girl's dress was ripped in the attack, which occurred Saturday evening, police disclosed Sunday night.

Police said Frieda Abdoh was walking with a sister, Masty, 12, in the park while their father, Dr. Djalal Abdoh, and his wife sat in a restaurant.

Frieda and Masty decided to walk along a brook and climb a hill. Frieda told police that as she helped Musty up the steep incline she noticed two Negro girls staring at them. The girls were about 16 or 17. One had a knife strapped to her leg.

One girl tossed a light bulb on the ground. It exploded near Frieda and her sister.

Frieda turned to remonstrate. After an exchange of words, the knife wielder began ripping at Frieda's skirt.

When Frieda and her sister began to cry, the girls fled. Masty was not hurt.

Hike Asked In FHA Fund

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Eisenhower administration today asked Congress for a four-billion-dollar increase in the FHA housing loan insurance program.

Albert M. Cole, housing and home finance administrator, presented the request to a Senate banking subcommittee.

Cole said the extra billions are needed to meet a spurt in the demand for Federal Housing Administration insurance loans.

It would boost from three billions to seven billions the amount of insurance the FHA could issue in the period from now to June 30, 1959.

Lubbock Menaced By Storm Clouds

By The Associated Press

Tornado threats broke into the slumbers of hundreds of West Texans early Monday.

Severe thunderstorms, accompanied by hail as large as baseballs, continued through the night. Daylight brought no word of any twister damage however.

Lubbock turned on its new civil defense sirens for the first time at a special alert from the Weather Bureau. Forecasters warned an approaching squall line might contain deadly funnels after the state Highway Patrol confirmed a report of one being sighted in the air 18 miles to the southwest.

The tornado menace also sent some families seeking shelter at the courthouse in Littlefield, 30 miles northwest of Lubbock. Others huddled in storm cellars there.

Sightings of up to half a dozen funnel clouds, all in the same general South Plains area, were reported.

From late evening until 3 a.m. Monday, a broad sector of West Texas also kept watch for more of the severe thunderstorms against which forecasters warned in an earlier advisory.

This alert made no mention of tornadoes but cautioned against destructive hail and winds in an area 60 miles each side of a line from 60 miles southwest of Midland to 40 miles southeast of Amarillo.

Shortly before dawn thunderstorms crackled in the area between Abilene and Stamford, in the vicinity of Wink, southwest of Amarillo and around Dalhart.

Lubbock's tornado warning was issued at 12:25 a.m. and the sirens wailed. The alert was lifted at 1:21 a.m.

Observers said no funnel was sighted in the city as a squall line swept through from the southwest. It added only a sprinkle to the .43 inch of rain falling in Lubbock three hours earlier, along with hail.

As late as 2 a.m. the Ground Observer Corps logged a report of a twister funnel being sighted between Ralls and Crosbyton, about 35 miles east of Lubbock.

The tornado scares started as early as 10:30 p.m. Sunday, when the Weather Bureau got word a funnel had been spotted near Idalou, 12 miles east of Lubbock.

The heaviest reported rain was at Patricia, 15 miles southwest of Lamesa, where 1.50 inches fell. Cotton Center, 10 miles south of Lamesa, had hail as large as Golf balls. Smaller hail fell west of Lamesa.

Other rain included Midland 1.36 inches, Dalhart .11, Wink .03, and traces at Big Spring, El Paso, Abilene and Del Rio.

Plainview reported .83 inch of rain with damaging winds, which tore down part of an outdoor movie screen. At Lockney, 15 miles east, rainfall was .80 inch, and a farmer in the vicinity reported one inch.

Father Accidentally Shot By 6-Year-Old

ONTONAGON, Mich. (AP)—A 6-year-old boy accidentally shot his father to death yesterday on a family target practice outing.

Frank Stork, 47, Ontonagon father of four children, was killed by a revolver bullet.

Sheriff Mike Livingston said Stork gave his son, Jerry, the gun to hold while he changed a target and suddenly it fired.

COYA QUESTIONED ON HUSBAND'S UTLIMATUM—Rep. Coya Knuston (D-Minn) tells in an interview at Minneapolis, Minn., that she will seek a third term and definitely will not fire her executive secretary, William Kjeldahl, 29. She met reporters after her husband, Andrew, 50, asked that his wife dismiss Kjeldahl and "pay more attention to her home life." Mrs. Knuston said her husband's demands were motivated by politics. Seated with the congresswoman is J. A. Michaels of Breckenridge, Democratic chairman in the 9th Minnesota District. (AP Wirephoto)

Ike, Dulles Confer On Soviet Letter

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles confer today on a new Russian note agreeing to talk about ways of policing any ban on nuclear tests.

In an initial reaction the White House welcomed that part of a note from Russian Premier Khrushchev but expressed hope any talks could be broadened to include a study of a wider range of disarmament problems.

The note was delivered to the State Department Saturday. Moscow radio broadcast a summary of it Sunday.

Moscow radio quoted the note as saying Russia would agree to the limited talks "in spite of its serious doubts." At the same time, Khrushchev called again for the United States and Russia to halt their own nuclear tests and rejected Eisenhower's proposal for an arctic inspection zone.

Eisenhower and Dulles were expected to confer after Dulles' afternoon return to Washington. He spoke in Minneapolis Sunday after a week-long round of diplomatic conferences in Europe.

In that speech, Dulles reasserted U. S. interest in a polar inspection system "so that none need fear that these new polar routes will be traveled by bombers or by missiles unleashing surprise attack."

But Khrushchev said the polar proposal "is designed to gain advantages for the U. S. A." and does not spring from any desire for peace.

Khrushchev, while voicing doubts, said Russia would agree to technical talks on how to police a test suspension agreement because, as the Moscow radio summary put it, "the President regards (such talks), as very important." But he added that "work should be completed in the shortest term agreed upon beforehand."

James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, followed that up with a statement saying Khrushchev's note "seems to constitute recognition of the validity" of a position long held by the United States and many others "that examination of the technical aspects of disarmament measures should begin as soon as possible and might serve as the basis for progress toward agreement on disarmament."

Hagerty noted that the Russian acceptance was limited to the one issue and added:

"It is to be hoped that this acceptance presages agreement to begin similar discussions on other measures of disarmament."

Library To Open Doors On June 2

Scurry County's public library will open for a "trial run" on June 2, the commissioners court and library board announced today.

The officials hope that the new facility will be put to use as much as possible by county residents during the summer months, and that suggestions for services will be made.

A formal opening event will be delayed until fall, and by that time it is hoped that the library will be able to provide full service to the county, said Mrs. Arthur Blanchard, chairman of the library board.

The library has approximately 7,000 books now, and the library board felt that it was advisable to open the doors during the summer months so that residents could begin using it as soon as possible.

There will be a suggestion box in the library building, and patrons will be encouraged to use it to assist the librarian and staff in determining the type of service desired from the library. A schedule of opening and closing hours will be announced within the next few days.

Two C-C Committees Schedule Meetings

Two Chamber of Commerce committees have scheduled meetings for this week.

The chamber industrial committee, headed by Fred Auforth, is to meet at 3 p.m. tomorrow.

At 5 p.m. the same day will be a meeting of the recreation committee, headed by R. L. Blakely.

Both meetings will be at the chamber office.

Unknown Soldier Of WWII Selected By U. S. General

By GEORGE MCARTHUR

EPINAL, France (AP)—A moist-eyed general solemnly marched past 13 flag-draped caskets today and chose one symbolizing American servicemen who died unidentified in Europe and North Africa in World War II.

The casket was borne away to a rendevous at sea to join a similarly selected American who died in the Pacific. One of these nameless men will be the Unknown Soldier of World War II. The other will be buried at sea off Norfolk, Va.

Gen. Edward O'Neill of St. Albans, Vt., a scholarly greying man with battle decorations for three assault landings, stood with head bowed for a full minute before choosing one of the 13. Then he marched forward and placed a red and white wreath on the casket fifth from the left.

An honor guard of living comrades saluted as a bugler sounded "Taps" and a second bugler far away sounded the sad, nostalgic echo.

A grey mist hung over the cemetery where 5,000 American dead are buried in the Vosges Mountains overlooking the winding Moselle River.

About 500 people, many of them Frenchmen wearing wartime ribbons in their lapels, stood silent as the flag-draped casket was borne away. A bird sang in the surrounding woods, a baby cried, and the sound of a jet plane could be heard far overhead in the mist.

Three military chaplains — a Jew, a Roman Catholic and a Protestant — asked God's grace for the unidentified soldier.

The 13 soldiers in their last silent formation here were drawn from all the American cemeteries in Europe and Africa. They symbolized the nation's dead from World War II, but more specifically the 7,500 whose bodies cannot be identified and another 75,000 still listed simply as missing in action.

The ceremony took place on a hillside where 5,000 Americans are buried. It was originally a temporary cemetery for those men killed forcing the Vosges Mountains in 1944. France now has granted it to the United States. Its simple white marble memorial, before which the ceremony took place, bears the inscription, "This is, Their Memorial — the Whole Earth is Their Sepulcher."

Lebanese Rioters Burn Another USIA Library

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Rioters sacked and burned the U.S. Information Agency library in Beirut today. It was the second USIA library to suffer at the hand of antigovernment demonstrators in three days.

Rioters stirred up by foes of Lebanon's pro-Western government burned the USIA library many books and furniture Saturday in the north coast city of Tripoli.

A general strike called by the government's opponents crippled this capital and major ports in the north and south today.

One person was reported killed in brief, sporadic firing that security forces quickly halted.

In Bejrut today, a mob smashed through police guarding the library, hurled more than 1,000 books and furniture into the street and set the pile ablaze. Then the rioters set fire to the inside of the library and destroyed it.

The library consisted of three reading rooms and storage rooms on the ground floor of the building, which suffered severe damage.

The USIA library here was the target of stones in another demonstration in 1952. Eight students were arrested for that assault.

There was another outburst of fighting later today in the heart of the city but security forces quickly dispersed the demonstrators. There was no immediate indication of whether anyone had been hurt in this flurry, but reports from Basta, the Moslem section, said two were dead there in fighting.

(Damascus reported that Lebanon had sealed its borders with Syria early in the day and that all travelers were turned back at frontier posts. The Lebanese government is a frequent target for hostile blasts from Damascus and Cairo radios.)

Americans were warned to stay off the streets as the pro-Western government grappled with the violent wave of Arab nationalism.

Virtually all public transportation came to a stop.

Reinforced security forces were stationed at strategic spots throughout the city. Strong patrols moved continuously through the streets.

The general strike spread quickly in Beirut and in Tripoli, the north Lebanon seaport.

Months of mounting political tension erupted over the weekend with the burning of the U.S. Information Agency's library in Tripoli. The rioters destroyed every book and piece of furniture.

Rival political gangs went into action there Saturday. Reports said they stole guns from a shop and turned them on each other. The library was swept up in the rioting which killed at least four persons and injured 30.

The groups said to be involved were the Communists, the small Bagth party and the outlawed Syrian Social Nationalist party.

The shooting broke out again yesterday, but security police quickly re-established tight control. Patrols moved through the city, enforcing a dusk-to-dawn curfew.

Antigovernment forces also tossed bombs here in the capital but they caused little damage. Isolated bombings have plagued Beirut for months.

The Tripoli rioting was touched off by a call for a general strike to protest the assassination last Thursday of Nasib Matni, Beirut publisher who opposed President Camille Chamoun and backed the policies of President Nasser of the United Arab Republic.

Nasser's radio stations in Cairo and Damascus meanwhile broadcast appeals for an open rebellion in Lebanon.

Chamoun is known to be seeking another six-year term in September — and he has the votes in Parliament to amend the constitution and stay in power. The president is pro-Western and Christian. His party swamped a generally Moslem, pro-Nasser opposition in the 1957 parliamentary elections.

G. F. Wilson Service Set

Funeral services will be held at 3 p.m. tomorrow for George Franklin Wilson, 78, of 1308 Twenty-third Street, who died at 7:25 p.m. yesterday in Snyder Clinic-Hospital.

Mr. Wilson had been ill for about four years and had been in the hospital about two weeks.

He was born June 16, 1879, in Mississippi. He was a retired carpenter and had worked several years here for Forrest Builders Supply. He moved to Snyder in 1921 from Greenville. On Jan. 5, he and Mrs. Wilson celebrated their golden wedding anniversary.

The Rev. Lennol Hester, pastor, will officiate at services at the First Methodist Church. Burial will be in Snyder Cemetery under direction of Bolger Funeral Home.

Pallbearers will be Buck Wylie, Newt Morton, Ira Nolan, Jack Adams, Newt Thompson, and Buster McDowell.

Survivors include the widow, one daughter, Mrs. Bonnie Lynch of Snyder; one son, Raymond Wilson of Snyder; four grandchildren, Donald Smith of Snyder, Mrs. Laverne Armstrong and Mrs. Neal Woods of Salina, Kan., and Vickie Marie Lynch of Snyder; four great - grandchildren, Mike Smith and Bert Smith of Snyder, and Donna Jean Armstrong and Jean Woods of Salina, Kan.; and one brother, the Rev. Monroe Wilson of Sulphur Springs.

Two Cars Damaged By Crashing Jet

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP)—A crashing Navy jet, the ninth to fall in the area in the last 15 months, did slight damage to two parked cars and a rooftop and narrowly missed two restaurants yesterday.

The pilot, Lt. Derek Wilson, 26, Los Altos, bailed out without injury. His F8U-1 Crusader went out of control as it approached for a landing at Moffett Naval Air Station, the Navy said.

The jet skimmed by a hamburger stand and crashed in flames 100 feet from a restaurant filled with Mothers' Day customers, eight miles west of San Jose.

European Says High Tariff On U.S. Oil Imports Needed

By MAX B. SKELTON

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—An oil economist from Europe said today there is need for a high United States tariff on petroleum imports.

B. N. Darbyshire of Geneva, Switzerland, said such a tariff would cause oil prices in the rest of the world to fall to more reasonable levels.

A Canadian oil executive suggested, however, that the United States, in considering mandatory controls, should exempt Canadian imports.

J. A. Cogan, vice president of Imperial Oil Co. in Toronto, said Canadian oil is not likely to have adverse effects on the United States industry.

Darbyshire and Cogan took part in a foreign trade forum at the opening of the 12th annual convention of the Texas Independent Producers & Royalty Owners Assn. The 5,000-member association supports congressional proposals for mandatory controls of oil imports.

Darbyshire, a consulting economist, told the independent operators their industry is gravely menaced by imports from "dirt cheap" sources of production.

"I do believe most wholeheartedly in the necessity of a high American tariff on petroleum imports today," he said.

"I am absolutely convinced it is essential that you should maintain a healthy, active, self-sufficient domestic industry with reserves readily accessible for export so long as the world we live in remains menaced by the threat of further international strife."

He predicted Middle East producers would have to lower their posted prices for crude oil by an amount equal to any United States tariff increase.

"This would be the healthiest thing that could happen in the world petroleum industry," he said. "Middle East oil prices have been far too high for far too long.

"Yet it has not been possible to lower them without destroying the United States high-cost industry until you insulate yourself with some form of tariff.

"If you will do that, prices of oil reaching the rest of the world will fall to more reasonable levels and consumption will grow faster in the parts of the world that desperately need low-cost energy."

Cogan said national security and the health of a strategically vital industry are the primary arguments behind proposed mandatory controls in the United States.

"Dealing first with the compelling national security problem, it would appear that the concern with regard to vulnerability of imported oil should not apply to Canadian oil, particularly when imported by pipe line," he said, "since under the concept of continental defense this oil is strategically as secure as domestic United States production."

Six Scurry Youths To Boys State

Six Scurry County High School junior boys have been selected as delegates to the American Legion Boys State this summer in Austin, and one of last year's delegates from Snyder has been chosen to return as a junior counsellor.

Frank D. Stephenson, commander of the American Legion post, here said that the Boy's State will be held this year from June 8 through June 14.

About 500 Texas high school junior boys attend each year.

Scurry County delegates are to be Don Brewer, Bo Brown and Richard Mahan, from Snyder high school, Orville Paty Jr., Hermleigh, Miles Eckert, Fluvanna, and Carson Clayton, Ira.

Two alternates, Jimmy Guy, first alternate, and Stan Hulen, second, have been named to go to the convention if other delegates are unable to attend.

The selections were made by a committee composed of Stephenson, Hilton C. Lambert, and Clois D. Henry, assistant principal of the Snyder High School.

The boy selected to return to Austin this year, as a junior counsellor is Bill Jennings, one of the delegates from Snyder last year.

He was selected by officials of Boy's State in Austin.

A total of 84 boys were first considered, as possible delegates, then the number was trimmed down to 17 principal candidates, Stephenson said. From those 17, the six delegates and two alternates were finally selected.

The Scurry County delegation will leave June 7, and will board a special bus in Big Spring for their trip to Austin.

H. W. Sullivan Dies Sunday

Services are pending here for Herman Wesley Sullivan, 52, of Route 3, who died at 2 a.m. Sunday at Ward Memorial Hospital in Monahans.

Mr. Sullivan, a farmer, lived three miles northeast of Snyder. He had been a resident of Scurry County since 1948, moving here from Fisher County, where he had lived since 1934. He was born Jan. 26, 1906, at Walnut Ridge, Ark., and he married Mary Jones on July 4, 1923, at Pocahontas, Ark. He was a member and trustee of the Northside Assembly of God.

Funeral arrangements are being made at Bell Funeral Home.

Survivors include the widow, one sister, Mrs. Minnie Davis of St. Louis, Mo., four brothers, Clay A. Sullivan of Snyder, Dan Sullivan of Sedgewick, Ark., Gus Hall of Portia, Ark., and Johnny Hall of Kerman, Cal.

Soviet-Yugoslav Rift Is Deepening

By The Associated Press

The Soviet line against Yugoslavia continued to harden today amid reports that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev is trying to stave off an effort by Stalinists and Communist Chinese to oust him.

Communist sources in Warsaw reported last Thursday that members of the party's Central Committee in the Soviet Union are pressing Khrushchev to be tougher with Yugoslavia's President Tito. Informants in Belgrade now say Khrushchev is doing just that.

Soviet Ambassador Ivan Zamchevsky returned to Belgrade from Moscow Saturday, bringing word that Soviet President Klementi Voroshilov has postponed indefinitely his visit to Yugoslavia. Sources close to the Soviet embassy in Belgrade said the ambassador relayed word from Khrushchev that Tito must get in line lest he undermine the unity of the Communist world.

The Soviet Communist party newspaper Pravda has hinted that Russian economic aid to Yugoslavia may be halted unless Tito abandons his independence from Moscow dictation.

Warsaw Communist sources reported last week that Khrushchev ran headon into opposition from party leaders Mikhail Suslov and Piotr Pospelov when he returned from his visit to Hungary. The sources said Khrushchev called a central committee meeting to lay down the law on Soviet foreign policy and to bring pressure against Suslov and Pospelov.

Polish Communists interpreted Red Chinese and Czechoslovakian assaults on Yugoslav Communist policy as a rap at Khrushchev.

Khrushchev said Friday night at a Czechoslovak embassy reception in Moscow that "relations in the whole Socialist—Communist—camp are very solid . . . solid as never before." But he added they could be better.

Nixon Prepares To Talk With Workers

By STANFORD BRADSHAW

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP)—Shrugging off Communist hecklers, Vice President Nixon prepared to carry his liberty message direct to Colombia's workers today as crowds continued their enthusiastic welcome.

Police kept a tight rein on Colombia's 5,000-member Communist party, which obviously was determined to create as much of a disturbance as possible. Authorities arrested at least 12 demonstrators yesterday after police dispersed some 200 jeering, hooting students in a crowd of 2,000 and another group of about 80 youths in the crowd of 1,000 which watched Nixon put a wreath on the statue of Simon Bolivar.

Generally, however, the Colombian crowds were friendly or enthusiastic.

Communist-led students reportedly had planned to pelt Nixon with coffee beans and rotten fruit, but the best they managed was to chant anti-U.S. slogans while a military band played the Star Spangled Banner. Mounted police with drawn sabers scattered the troublemakers.

Encouraged by his reception in Bogota, Nixon observed later that the Communists seemed a little confused.

He sidestepped one Red demonstration at Santander by taking a car there instead of walking as he planned. He arrived before the noisy crowd realized what had happened.

Nixon met one worker group yesterday. Presenting Colombia's Popular Cultural Action group with 300 volumes on trade union matters, he said the free trade movement "is one of the best guarantees against dictatorship either from the right or left."

Later Nixon visited the home of President-elect Alberto Lleras Camargo and congratulated him on the new period of political stability he said Colombia was entering.

Nixon leaves tomorrow for Caracas, Venezuela, where dictator Marcos Perez Jimenez was recently ousted.

Snyder Students Capture 35 First Places In Contests

Thirty-five out of a possible 55 first places were taken Saturday by the Snyder school industrial education department in the annual area industrial arts field day held on the campus of Abilene Christian College.

The Snyder students also took a number of second and third places. All the first place winners were given a prize of some value beside the ribbons, such a stools used in their arts and crafts work.

Fifteen towns in this area were represented in the contest. The area ran from Odessa and Crane on the west to Abilene and Brownwood on the east, Graham on the north, and Ballinger on the south.

Top projects of those shown by the several hundred students will be sent to Dearborn, Mich., to the national industrial arts contest sponsored by Ford Motor Co.

Places won by Snyder students by areas and teachers:

Drafting, taught by W. A. Mayfield. Carroll Leech, first with architectural presentation, group C; James Newton, first with architectural presentation, group D; Carroll Leech, first with architectural model, group C; Jimmy Don Hardy, second with architectural presentation, group C; James Newton, second in drafting contest and second in architectural working drawing, group D; Carroll Leech, second with architectural working drawing, group C; Jimmy Don Rohinson, second with mechanical drawing, group B; and second in drawing contest, group B; James McKinnon, third with architectural model, group C; Carroll Cox, third with architectural working drawing, group C.

High school woodwork, taught by Jiggs Falls, Jerry Davis, third with sewing machine cabinet, group C.

High school general metals, Frank Miller, teacher, Tommy Cronk, first in wrought iron metal work, group C, with table and chairs; Jesse Allen, first in machine shop projects, group B, with plumb bob; Henry Lowery, second in wrought iron metal work, group B, with candle holders; Mike Keenan, third in machine shop projects, group B, with anvil; George Holder, third in electrical, group B, with radio.

High school general crafts, taught by Ed Raborn, Lucy Blacksher, first in ceramics 1C with hand painted TV snack sets; Betty Alexander, first in jewelry 1C with enameled tie clip and cufflink set; Charles Gregory, first in leather 1C with Bible cover; Morris Noah, first in plastic 2C with pen and ink set; Vy Hinojos, first in wrought metal 1C with cigarette holder; Kay Keller, first in wrought metal 2B with engraved aluminum tier tray; Patsy House, first in wrought metal 2C with etched tray; Ronnie Richie, first in crafts judging; Jerry Hatfield, second in ceramics 1C with clock base with works; Jerry Mitchell, second in jewelry 1B with belt buckle; Carron Leech, second in jewelry 1C with plastic earscrews and pendant; Bob Carpenter, second in leather 1C with rifle holder; Larry Devers, second in plastics 1B with carved pen set; Vy Hinojos, second in plastics 2C with salad set; Ann Taylor, second in wrought metal 1C with cigarette holder; Annette Hock, second in wrought metal 2C with engraved tray; Billy Hodge, second in crafts judging; Dixie Rogers, third in ceramics 1C with handpainted set of dishes; Bill Smith, third in jewelry 1C with belt buckle; Jeannie Griffith, third in open division 1B with gondola copper tooling; Pat Dunn, third in plastics 1B with carved paper weight; Douglas Green, third in plastics 2B with novelty flower rack; Lucy Blacksher, third in wrought metal 2C with etched engraved tier tray.

Junior high general shop, Joe Harwell, teacher, first places Frances Martin with turned fruit bowl, Ronnie Benton with wrought iron dining room set with six chairs, David Gann with butterfly chair of wrought iron, Jerry Frank with standard guitar, John Greene with Stradivarius model violin, James McCormick with Spanish electric mandolin and guitar combination, Jackie Evans, with electric guitar, Nicki Killian with electric guitar and case, Keith Moreland with maple chest, Janet Carpenter with bookcase, Sam Casey with mechanical drawing, Ron Dupree with coffee table, Ronnie Banton in wood identification and in crafts judging, Sam Casey in mechanical drawing contest; second places, John Goodson with chrystal set radio, Bill Weaver with steel guitar, Roger Williams with lathe-turned aluminum candle holders, Bill Weaver in crafts judging, Jerry Franks with mahogony table and lamps, Patricia Havnie with maple chest, Ida Mae Collinsworth with free-form table, Jerry Rogers with table with wrought iron legs, Tommy Boothe in wood working, third places, John Greene in crafts judging, Bill Weaver with fruit bowl, Jo Etta Bourgoyne with French curve lamp, and Tommy Boothe with desk.

Boy Admits Slaying Tot

EAST HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—Police said a 13-year-old boy admitted today the sex slaying of 6-year-old Cathy Palumbo last night near a spot known to children as Murder Hill."

Authorities identified the boy as Dana Bragdon, who lived in the neighborhood and had helped search for Cathy when she was reported lost in dense woods near her home.

Cathy's nearly nude body — so savagely beaten that veteran policemen wept when they saw it — was found in swampy, foggy woods near her home.

Nothing Missing In Breakin Here

The sheriff's office this morning was investigating a breakin which occurred during the weekend at Lamb Chevrolet Co., east Twenty-fifth Street.

The breakin occurred Saturday night or early Sunday morning. Entry was gained by breaking a glass near the southwest door of the building and opening the door from the inside.

Nothing was known to be missing.

WHAT AM I BID? — With actor-singer Dean Martin playing the part of the auctioneer, Gypsy Rose Lee completes a "strip-tease" act by selling her bathing suit. It was all part of the show at Hollywood, Calif., a benefit for a child guidance center staged by the folks in movieland. As Gypsy disrobed, the clothes were sold. But she decorously slipped into a robe before taking off the bathing suit and handing it to the lucky purchaser. The whiskers Dean is sporting are real. He said he's growing 'em for a movie part. ## Bids Opened By County On Vehicles

The county commissioners court this morning opened bids for two county vehicles but had not accepted a bid on either by late this morning.

One of the vehicles was a car for precinct 3, the other a bookmobile for the county library.

On the precinct 3 car, differences between the new car and the 1955 Plymouth to be traded in included $1,973.20 on a ford Fairline 500 by Wilson Motors, $2,273.25 on a Mercury by Wilson Motors $2,560 on a Buick by Canyon Buick-Pontiac, Inc., and $2,560 on an Oldsmobile by Eiland Motor Co. The court was checking the bids against specifications.

On the bookmobile, bids by specifications were $10,618.80 by Wilson Motors and $11,881.75 by Snyder Truck & Tractor Co. Snyder Truck and Tractor also submitted another bid of $8,655.67 for a bookmobile without air conditioning and with some other equipment.

The court voted to transfer $30,000 from the general fund to the park operating fund.

Midwest Electric Cooperative was chosen to furnish electrical service to the Hermleigh baseball park, now under construction, and the women's softball field in Towle Memorial Park. Both Midwest and Texas Electric Service Co. refused to submit bids.

Cullen Toombs, commissioner of precinct 2, was appointed as agent for the court for negotiations for right-of-way on a road scheduled for a two-mile paving project in that precinct. The road runs from the Cottonstalk Road, now paved, west to the Union-Dermott road, also paved.

The court appointed itself as county board of equalization.

NEW YORK (AP—Selected stocks were in demand as the stock market was mixed in active trading early this afternoon.

Most key stocks showed fractional changes. Wider moves were made by a few issues.

The market backed away from its latest 1958 high and was generally lower in early trading. Improvement set in before midday, leaving the general pattern irregular.

American Motors continued to race ahead as investors looked kindly on reports of expanding production and sales of its Rambler car. It looked as if this stock would top the most active list for the fourth straight session.

Over-all background for the market included an upturn in retail sales, a rise in housing starts for April and a decline in the number of workers drawing unemployment benefits.

American Motors rose ⅛ at 13⅞ on an opener of 9,000 shares, increased its gain on a succession of sizable blocks and showed a net rise of more than a point by afternoon.

Gains of around two points or more were made by Lockheed and Outboard Marine while Lorillard rose around a point. Corn Products refining was up ⅛ at 41⅝ on a large block of 11,300 shares.

U.S. Steel, General Motors and Standard Oil (New Jersey) were firm. Du Pont was off a fraction. Santa Fe rose a bit.

Solon Opposed To Lifting Debt Limit

WASHINGTON (AP—Sen. Joseph C. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo) said today he does not believe Congress should lift all restrictions from the federal debt.

O'Mahoney, a member of the Senate-House Economic Committee, said declines in tax income make it almost inevitable the Eisenhower administration will have to ask Congress for an increase above the 180 billion dollar level to which Congress recently raised the debt limit.

"There has been a great deal of speculation that there may be a request to take the limit entirely off the debt," O'Mahoney said. "But I do not believe it would be wise for Congress to make any move of that kind. Congress ought to keep restraints on the government's fiscal policies."

Sen. Robert S. Kerr (D-Okla), a member of the Senate Finance Committee, has predicted a new request for increasing the debt limit will be forthcoming. An advocate of higher government spending to counter the recession, Kerr said he would support an increase.

Chairman Harry F. Byrd (D-Va) of the Finance Committee has predicted revenues would fall four billion dollars below estimates for the fiscal year beginning July 1. With higherspending he said he expects a deficit of 10 billion dollars in that period, even if there are no tax cuts, which he opposes.

O'Mahoney said revenues are likely to fall substantially below estimates. He said a recent report of 596 manufacturing firms indicated they expect an average decrease of 30 per cent in their revenues. He added that this is bound to be reflected in declining Treasury receipts.

O'Mahoney seconded a proposal by Sen. Arthur V. Watkins (R-Utah) that the nation's auto manufacturers pass up model changes this year and pass the savings along to their customers.

Detroit experts said the companies expect to exceed this year the 1½ billion dollars they spent in last year's changeover. If all this could be saved, it would represent about $250 per car on six million autos.

The Ford Foundation granted $242,000 recently to the University of Illinois for research to increase the effectiveness of the Federal prison system.

Beautiful Table

One of a homemaker's best ways to keep the family enthusiastic over a meal time is to serve food so attractively they can't resist. Margaret Spader, home service editor suggests the use of baskets of fresh fruit, vegetables or eggs as centerpieces. A birthday cake or a glamorous dessert such as fruit in a crystal compote makes an attractive centerpiece, too. Garnishes such as wedges of lemon, slices of hard cooked egg, water cress, bright colored pickles and relishes make everyday foods look extra special.

Girls Glow When Dad Sheds Reserve, Joins In Gaiety

By VIVIAN BROWN

AP Newsfeatures

Are you a Real Dad or a Slouch?

You can tell which by whether you accept an invitation to be daughter's date for a weekend and shake the rheumatiz out of your old brief case.

Sumner Rider, New York business executive, responded to daughter's plea to attend Dad's weekend at Wells College, Aurora, N. Y., as a fatherly good deed. Now her can't wait for return engagements.

"I've been to two of these events," says Rider, whose 20-year-old daughter Lynn is a junior, "and it's better therapy than a vacation at a health farm. The girls have every minute planned, there are a million laughs, and a lot of regrets that it can't last longer."

A father who has never been inveigled into the inner sanctums of a girl's school doesn't know what he's missing, Rider says.

"It isn't just the fun the Dads have that counts either," he explains. "Girls spend a good deal of their early years with their mothers, and at college age need to be acquainted with their fathers. It gives them a chance to know each other and for Dad to know daughter's companions."

When Lynn's friends come to the Rider's home, they are known by their first names, and Rider has met their fathers at the college gals.

"That too, is one of the interesting aspects of these weekends," he says. "The fathers become good friends, see each other socially, and have a whale of a good time when they get together at the school."

One sad feature of these weekends is that some Dads just don't show, Rider adds.

"When a father doesn't put in an appearance, his daughter is very disappointed, usually leaves the campus for the weekend, rather than face up to the gaiety."

Girls who do not have Dads sometimes share a father with another girl.

"After you are aware of the 'Importance of Being a Father to a College Daughter,' you are likely to become conscience-stricken that Mom isn't invited to these soirees," says Rider. "I was. So I suggested that the girls have a Mother's Weekend: But they didn't go for it, replying:

"What would we ever do with our mothers?"

Soup Kettle Suppers

Modern condensed soups can be combnied and blended with other ingredients to produce a delicious extra, or the main dish of the evening meal. Here are some good flavor combinations: mushroom and asparagus soups with slivers of ham, tomato and bean soup with slices of frankfurters, turtle soup and green pea soup with a garnish of salted whipped cream. Tomato soup with minced clams, and cream of chicken soup with cream style corn. The soups are best when they are heated thoroughly over a medium flame for 15 to 20 minutes. Covering the soup kettle helps to develop the flavor.

Promotion Of A Fallacy

Intentionally or not, recent comments by Arthur Summerfield, Postmaster General of The United States, apparently has created a misunderstanding or false impression among the American people.

Mr. Summerfield said that thousands of new post office buildings could be constructed and other needed improvements to service could be made by the Post Office Dept. if Congress would approve the five-cent stamp.

The impression we would get from that statement, if we didn't know better, is that the Post Office department's fund would automatically be increased by the aggregate realized from hiking letter charges from three cents to five cents.

That is not the case at all. The Post Office Dept. does not get the money it takes in from the sale of stamps. Instead the postal revenues go to the U. S. Treasury.

In turn, the Post Office Dept. gets its operating funds by appropriation from the Congress. Consequently, a five-cent letter would not guarantee that Congress would increase the Post Office Dept. appropriation in an amount equal to that realized from the postal rate increase, although considerable pressure likely would be exerted by the people for such action.

In fact, we suspect that many people have only a hazy knowledge of the Post Office Dept. financial problem, and at that they may be as well informed as some of the officials in Washington. We doubt that anybody knows how much money our postal service "loses" each year. Some of the "loss" most certainly could be justly charged to other departments and agencies of the Federal government which enjoy "free" mail service. If these agencies were charged for their mail service as individuals or private business firms, a substantial chunk of the deficit might disappear, or at least the deficit would spread over various departments and agencies.

Sometimes our government shows symptoms of acute allergy to simple economics.

Daughter Of Five Is Major Mystery

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—She breaks into the room, glowing with the health of almost-five. No energy higher.

Or the sags into the room, like something pushed into our family light from outer dark. At almost-five—her own age and the hour—she has 10-o'clock shadow.

She melts upon the doorstep, worn out human butter, yells for the bathroom, then, later, at the entrance to her bedroom pleads against the indignity of a night that seals a day.

As a father I never am quite sure whether she has been drained by Dracula or whether she is Dracula. Are all children like this? Other parents say yes. I still wonder.

The bread I earn by my sweat to bring home to make her stronger she often leaves by her plate. But to her I am the boy who may have gum in his pockets when he arrives at twilight. This is a hero?

It is one of the great titanic struggles of my life to deal with this thing, this spawn of time, this one-hearted, two-legged, half-shelled egg, this creature that weeps and laughs and cries and plots and is my daughter.

It is called and answers to the name of Tracy. It was optimistically labeled at baptism Margaret Tracy Ann Kathleen Boyle. In play it refers to itself as Susan. In wistful moments it says, "I'm Margaret." This is the name of its paternal grandmother.

Ask a kiss from it, and you get none. Insist you won't take any, and get a wet face.

It must be around four feet or so tall, weighs about 50 pounds, unless you lift it. Then it is eight feet tall and weighs 1,617,312½ pounds.

It is also known by other aliases. A favorite is Cinderella, in which disguise, when asked to pick up its clothing, is has a set answer, plaintive but genteel, "Well, I can't be everywhere."

One who knows her wonders whether this isn't an understatement. In dealing with a child of this age a grownup has only two worries—what she is up to if you can see her, what she might be up to if you can't see her.

By almost-five you feel you can put some faith in her. You feel she has a sense of caution and won't do these things: Taste medicine, stand in a window, step into the street.

And yet what will she do in a single day? She will hold medicine to her mouth and ask, "Shall I?" She'll climb to the window. She'll run to the street and hold a foot over the pavement or maybe even put it down. But all before your eye.

You know she's daring you and herself. You know she's exploring your authority and why. Again you tell her the reasons for the rules, and you put a hardness and a softness into your voice. You tell her that if she ever breaks these few rules she'll hurt herself and that if she hurts herself she'll hurt you.

By this slender string of faith all your discipline hangs on if you aren't there—that the child will self but you, the home of love.

Confidence is a hard thing to put in any human being at any age, and it's always a matter of timing—when and to whom. But you have to.

At almost-five Tracy Ann, like a field dog, strains the outer limits of the leash one moment, the next comes back and chews at the thongs of the love she would not be without. All cubs play at life and freedom until . . .

Trade Act Passage Not Vital In '58

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—What happens if Congress ignores President Eisenhower's request to continue the Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act and lets it die? Not much—for awhile, anyway.

For example: Eisenhower couldn't then agree to lower any more tariffs on goods imported from abroad. But all the present agreements with 43 countries—under which various tariffs have been lowered—would stand unchanged.

Bit by bit, over a period of time, he might be pushed into raising tariffs, thus beginning the wreckage of all the good will built up over 24 years. There would be a diminishing confidence abroad in American trade policies.

But Eisenhower might actually prefer to see the act die this year—in the hope of getting it renewed next year—than to have Congress extend it for a year but put in changes that would start ripping trade agreements apart in a hurry.

This is the background:

The Smoot-Hawley tariff law which Congress passed in 1930 not only raised American tariffs to the highest point in history but—since other countries retaliated—contributed to the depression here and abroad in the 1930s.

To get world trade going again Congress in 1934 passed the Reciprocal Trade Act.

It gave the President authority to lower tariffs on certain goods imported from other countries if they agreed to lower their tariffs on certain items imported from us.

In these agreements there was an escape clause which either side could use.

For example: If an American manufacturer felt he was being injured because a tariff had been lowered on some particular import which competed in the American market he could appeal to the United States Tariff Commission.

The commission would hold hearings, make an investigation, and perhaps recommend to the President that he use the escape clause to raise the tariff on an import which, in agreement with another country, he had lowered.

Under the act the President was free to suit himself: raise the tariff or reject the commission's recommendations and let the tariff stand untouched.

That brings us up to now. The Trade Act never was permanent law. Over 24 years it has been repeatedly renewed by Congress for a specified period of time. Otherwise it would have died.

It will die automatically June 30 unless Congress renews it. Eisenhower asked for it to be extended five more years. As explained, if it dies, present agreements remain unchanged. The escape clause remains unchanged, too.

If the law dies a manufacturer can appeal to the Tariff Commission: It can recommend to Eisenhower that an agreed-on tariff be raised. He'd still be free to raise it or let it stand as is. But he couldn't lower any more tariffs.

But this is a recession year. A number of businesses complain that some imports—whose tariffs are now part of agreements with other countries — are hurting them. So the Trade Act has many foes inside and outside Congress.

If the act dies, there will be increasing pressure on Eisenhower to use the escape clause to raise tariffs. If he does so, other countries will retaliate by using the escape clause to raise tariffs against us.

But if the law dies he can still reject the increases and in another year—particularly in the recession recedes—can go back and ask with better hope of success that the law be renewed again.

The act's enemies might do the whole trade program more damage by renewing it this year with crippling changes.

They might include a provision giving Eisenhower no choice but to raise tariffs if the Tariff Commission recommended the action to protect an injured American industry.

Don't Cut Highway Fund, Devall Urges

AUSTIN (AP)—Highway construction in Texas should not be cut as a means of easing the predicted state deficit, Kilgore publisher Charles K. Devall said last night.

"We must not short-change our highways through false economy," Devall said in his executive committee report as president of the privately-financed Texas Good Roads Assn.

"There can be no toleration of expedient politicians who would throw our highway progress into the pork barrel for the sake of votes."

The annual membership meeting of the association started today.

Devall urged that the tradition of keeping politics out of the state highway program be continued.

"This is a tradition all Texans should seek to perpetuate," he said. "In a political year such as this, Texans should certainly demand of all who seek public office a responsible regard for constructive discussion of highway matters."

Devall said the highway program has a money problem and exclusive of the federal interstate system, Texas needs 2.2 billion dollars for the next 10 years.

"Yet the present rate of revenue from existing sources is only half enough to meet this need," he said. "With the state seeking new sources of revenue to overcome the general fund deficit, it would certainly be unsound to undertake separate efforts to meet the highway fund needs."

Devall said a serious cutback in highway construction could occur, if the program is not watched.

BUCKIN' THE LINE

By BUCK FRANCIS

THREE-TWO GAMES seemingly were the order of the day in Tiger games last week.

Of the four games the Tiger baseballers played last week, three of 'em ended in a 3-2 score.

Unfortunately the Tigers were on the short end of the score in two of those games.

Abilene "eked" out a 3-2 win over the Tigers Tuesday and then Levelland scored two unearned runs in top of the seventh for a 3-2 win over the Bengals Friday in the opening game of the District 1-AAA playoff series.

Then Saturday the Tigers won the second game of a doubleheader with Big Spring, 3-2.

Broncs Come Alive Too Late

With the pressure off, the Odessa Broncs Saturday finally showed the power they were supposed to show throughout the District 2-AAAA race this season.

The Broncs whammed Abilene, the newly crowned champions, 10-5, in the district finale Saturday.

Many observers still believe the Broncs were the best team in 2-AAAA but the Broncs seemingly "choked" in the games that meant something earlier in the season.

From our viewpoint Odessa looked far and away better than any other 2-AAAA outfit.

But, unless a team can play under pressure, it won't get far in a conference race.

Odessa, with power to burn, could muster only one run in two games with Midland, losing 3-0 and 8-1.

If this isn't folding under pressure then we don't know what to call it.

Odessa beat the Tigers four straight times while the Tigers won both starts from Midland yet the Broncs couldn't beat Midland.

Stan's Big Hit May Come On Road

It looks like Stan Musial is going to reach the 3,000-hit milestone on the road.

Stan The Man rapped out five hits yesterday to boost his total to 2,998 during his brilliant career.

more more more more

The Cardinals now hit the road for a two-game series with the Chicago Cubs before returning home again.

It isn't like Stan not to pick up a couple of hits in two games. Inasmuch as the Cardinal fans are wanting Stan to reach the 3,000 milestone, they probably would rather Stan to wait until the Cards to return home to reach that mark.

About the only way that could be prevented, though is for Manager Freddy Hutchinson to remove Stan from the lineup in the Cub series.

All who can possibly do so are urged to follow the Tigers to Levelland tomorrow for the second game of their 1-AAA playoff series.

As you know the Bengals are one down in the series and they will need all the encouragement you can give them to get back in the running.

Game time tomorrow is 4 p.m.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — The 36-hole grind was hard on 38-year-old Julius Boros, but the phlegmatic links workman from Mid Pines, N. C., saved a little bit for when he needed it and won the $20,000 Hot Springs Open Golf Tournament Sunday.

Boros took his first tournament victory since he won the world championship at Tam O'Shanter in 1955.

PONY LEAGUE TRYOUTS BEGIN

Pony League tryouts will be held this week, according to league president Bill Zimmerman.

Three tryout sessions are set with the first on tap today at 6:30. The other sessions will be held Tuesday and Thursday. All tryouts will be held at Towle Park, scene of Pony League games.

All boys ages 13-14 and who are not already a member of a Pony League team, are eligible to take part in the tryouts.

After Thursday's tryouts, managers of the four teams will get together and select the boys trying out to fill their respective rosters.

Concentration will be on the 13 year olds in the tryouts today and tomorrow and the 14-year olds Thursday.

Texas League Race Tightens

By The Associated Press

The Texas League race gets tighter by the day. It must be tough when a club has to play .750 ball to stay on top, and then by only 28 points.

That's what Austin has done the past week — win six out of eight. Yet the Senators are tied with San Antonio on the basis of games although boasting a percentage edge.

Austin split with Tulsa and maintained its slim lead Sunday because San Antonio also could do no better than break even with Victoria.

Norman Camp hurled a 3-hitter, not allowing an Austin player past second base, as Tulsa won the opener 4-0. Jim Davis hit a grand-slam homer for the Oiler Runs.

Austin came back to cop the nightcap, using just four hits. Their own Winston Brown also pitched a 4-hitter and the Senators won 3-2. Dick Sinovic homered.

Victoria beat San Antonio 6-1 as Christ Nicolosi hurled a 5-hitter. It broke the Missions' 5-game winnins streak over Victoria.

San Antonio won the second game 2-1, using two Victoria errors and two sacrifice bunts for a run in the last inning.

Houston moved within half a game of fourth - place Corpus Christi by beating the Giants 3-1. George Moton pitched a 5-hitter. errors to win after Jim McKnight hit a homer.

Manager Lou Klein was the Hero as Fort Worth beat Dallas 3-2 in a game that went 15 innings, the longest contest of the year.

Morgan, Wilson Flooded With College Offers

Bud Morgan and Rex Wilson, Snyder High School's outstanding trackmen the past two seasons, ran their last schoolboy race nine days ago in the State Meet at Austin and since that time they've each received numerous track scholarship offers from various colleges throughout the southwest.

The Tiger duo, who won honor after honor during their schoolboy careers, caught the eye of the college coaches on hand for the state meet with sensational performances in the state finals.

Both electried the state meet crowd of 6,500 with tremendous times in the two hurdles races, Morgan in the lows and Wilson in the highs. Morgan captured the low hurdle title in 18.8 while Wilson sped to a 14.1 in the highs.

Morgan had lost only one low hurdle race his senior year going into the state while Wilson had lost just twice in the highs. On each occasion when they didn't finish first they placed second.

At the moment it looks like both Morgan and Wilson will continue their track careers at the University of Texas. Each has been offered scholarships at UT and both are leaning toward the Longhorns at present.

Tigers, Lobos Resume Series Tomorrow At 4

The Tiger baseballers will be gunning to even up their series with the Levelland Lobos in the District 1-AAA playoff tomorrow at Levelland.

Levelland took the series lead with a hair-thin 3-2 decision here Friday, scoring two unearned runs in top of the seventh to turn the trick.

Coach Speedy Moffett of the Tigers is expected to call on either Norman Gladson or Tim Roberts for tomorrow's game.

Gladson hurled the first game of the series and although beaten, didn't give up an earned run.

Levelland is sure to come back with Roger Brown, a slow curveballer, for tomorrow's second game. Brown turned back the Tigers on two hits in the series opener.

Tomorrow's game will start at 4 p.m. in Babe Ruth Park in Levelland.

If a third game is necessary, it will be played at Lubbock this weekend.

Stan The Man Bangs 5 Hits As Cardinals Sweep Twinbill

By JOE RECIHLER

Stan (The Man) Musial is still shy two hits of becoming the eighth player in major league history to reach the 3,000-hit pinnacle but anyone who says he isn't the greatest star ever spwaned by the National League is certain to get an argument.

The brilliant St. Louis Cardinal first baseman almost made it Sunday. He rapped five hits as the Redbirds came from behind with ninth inning rallies to overcome the Chicago Cubs twice 8-7 and 6-5 for a sweep of the four game series. One of his hits was his fifth home run of the campaign.

Stan needed a perfect five for five in the nightcap for his 3,000 hits. He singled his first three times at bat. But in his final two appearances, the 37-year-old batting specialist struck out and grounded out, and he had to settle for a mere .494 season average, exactly 107 points higher than his nearest competitor.

Musial ranks first in the league in lifetime total bases (5,106), first in long hits (1,171), second in extra bases (2,108), second in runs batted in (1,589), second in home runs (386), second in doubles (620), fifth in runs scored (1,677) and fourth in hits.

Milwaukee ran its winning streak to seven straight with a 7-6 triumph over Cincinnati. Pittsburgh moved into a second place tie with San Francisco, one game behind the Braves, sweeping a twin bill from Philadelphia 10-4 and 1-0 in 11 innings. Rain forced postponement of the Giants-Los Angeles game in San Francisco.

Irv Noren and Hobie Landrith delivered game-winning ninth inning hits as the Cards won their third and fourth in a row after seven straight losses. Noren's drive off the right field screen scored Curt Flood after Del Ennis had singled in the tying run in the opener. Landrith drove in two with a bases loaded single and a third run, the winning tally, crossed the plate when Bobby Thomson fumbled the ball in center.

Bob Porterfield, a waiver purchase from Boston, pitched a brilliant 11-inning shutout in a duel with Philadelphia's Curt Simmons as the Pirates swept a four-game series with the Phillies. The 33-year-old righthander allowed eight hits for his first victory of the year. R. C. Stevens, thrice a strikeout victim of Simmons, singled in the winning run, after Dick Groat opened the 11th with a single and advanced to second on a sacrifice.

Del Crandall's three-run double in the eighth overcame a 5-4 Cincinnati lead and gave the Braves their fourth victory in five games with the Reds.

Reversal Of Form Features AL Slate

By JOE REICHLER
The Associated Press

American League managers learned Sunday they no longer can rely on pitchers' previous performances against a particular team. Those who were supposed to win were beaten and those who figured to lose were successful.

The most pronounced examples were Arnold Portocarrere, Camilo Pascual, Jack Urban, Jim Wilson, Bobby Shantz and Billy Pierce.

Portocarrero, making his first start since Baltimore obtained him from Kansas City, combined with George Zuverink to shut out Boston as the Orioles swept a doubleheader from the Red Sox 3-2 and 4-0. The big right-hander had never beaten the Red Sox.

Pascual, with only one previous victory over New York in 12 decisions, shut out the Yankees 4-0 after the American League leaders had beaten Washington 4-3 in the first game of the doubleheader. Bobby Shantz beat the Senators, to whom he had bowed 12 previous times in 22 decisions.

Detroit handed Kansas City its sixth straight defeat, 10-3, clubbing Urban for eight runs before they shelled him out in the eighth. The Athletics' right-hander had never before been beaten by the Tigers.

Jim Wilson pitched the Chicago White Sox to a 5-2 triumph over Cleveland after the Indians had won the first game 4-2. Wilson had a 4-9 lifetime record against the Tribe. On the other hand Billy Pierce, whom the Indians whipped in the opener, for his third loss without a victory this season, has beaten Cleveland 27 times.

Billy O'Dell, in relief, gained credit for Baltimore's first game triumph as the Orioles moved to within a half game of the second place Senators. Gus Triandos' home run in the eighth, his fourth of the season, broke a 2-2 tie in the first game. Billy Gardner and Jim Marshall homered for the Birds in the second game.

Pascual throttled the Yankees with five hits as he became the first pitcher to shut out the league leaders this season. The Senators routed Johnny Kucks with a three run assault in the fourth. Shantz gave up one hit through six innings in the opener but needed help from Ryne Duren in ninth.

New York's Bill Skowron and Washington's Roy sievers suffered injuries in the nightcap. Skowron tore a back muscle, landed in a hospital, and is expected to be sidelined for at least two weeks. Sievers pulled a muscle in his left leg and will be out from three to six days.

Carroll Hardy's two-run single featured a three-run uprising in the seventh that carried Cleveland to its first game victory. Jim Rivera hit his first home run of the season, drove in two runs and scored twice in the White Sox second game triumph.

Rookie Bob Shaw gained his first major league victory as the Tigers exploded for seven runs in the eighth to snap a 3-3 deadlock. Bob Cerv clouted his 10th home run for the A's but Charlie Maxwell and Billy Martin homered to drive in five runs for the winners.

Houston New MVC Champs

DES MOINES (AP)—The Missouri Valley Conference had a new track and field team champion today for the first time in 18 years.

Oklahoma State, which abdicated the title after holding it for 17 consecutive years, was succeeded as champion by Houston Saturday night. State is now a member of the Big Eight Conference.

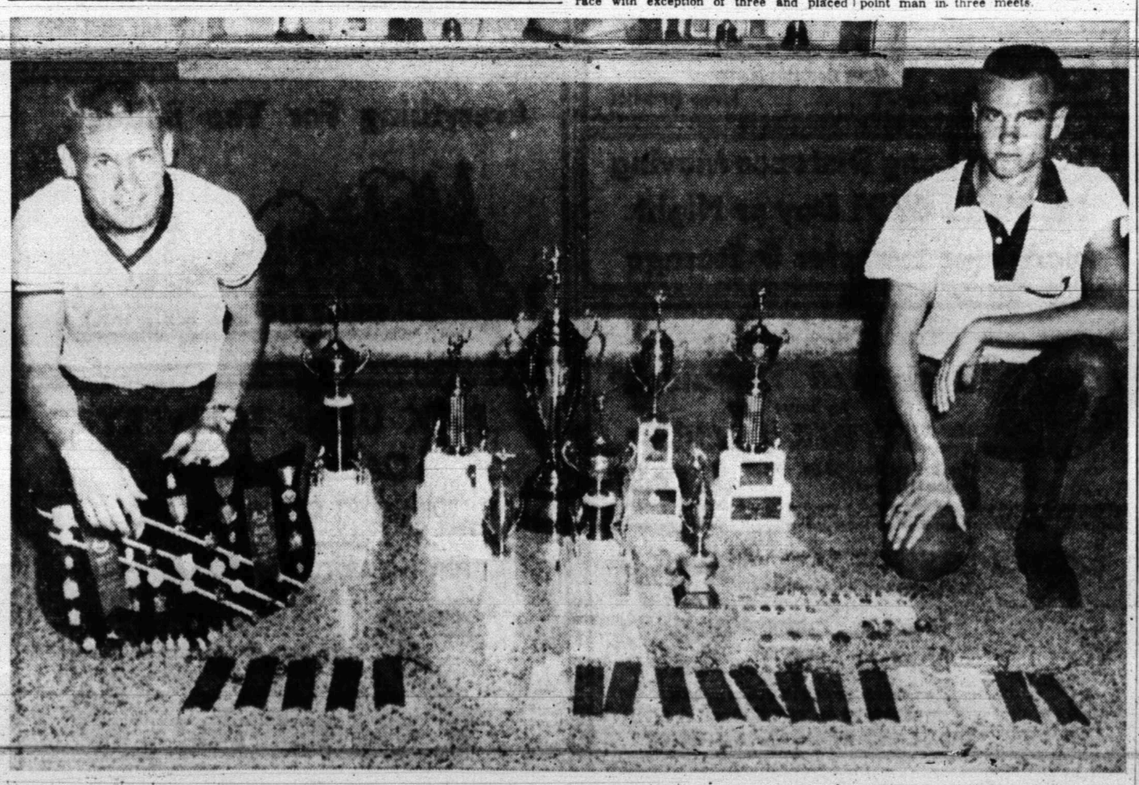

Only two records were broken and one was equalled in the meet run under ideal nighttime weather conditions.

No Guesswork In Repairs At M&M Service Shop In Snyder

"Every customer has the complete right to expect expert service and first grade parts when he places his television, radio or electronics equipment in a repair shop," Bill Butler, owner and operator of M & M Radio, TV & Electronics, 1910 Twenty-seventh Street, said.

"There is no room for guess work in maintaining electronics equipment and the technicians at M & M are highly trained, well experienced and are kept abreast of all current changes and improvements in all types of electronics equipment through service schools and factory trade journals," he said.

"It is the pledge of M & M Radio, TV & Electronics, to always offer the very best service to the people of Scurry County," he added.

All customers are invited to visit the service department of the firm so they can see for themselves one of the most completely equipped modern shops in West Texas.

At M & M electronics service and repair is not a sideline business, but a major part of the constantly expanding firm, Butler said.

"We use only nationally known, field tested and laboratory approved replacement parts, thereby eliminating almost all of the necessity to re-do service jobs," he said.

M & M gives expert repair service on all makes of television, radios and all other electronics equipment from public address systems to the finest high-fidelity units.

Leroy Thrower, shop mafiager and head technician, is always happy to discuss any problems you may have with your television, radio or other electronic equipment.

Car radio repair is also a big business with M & M Radio, TV & Electronics. Any car radio taken to the firm gets immediate attention with no unnecessary waiting for repair.

M & M is the Delco warranty service dealer for Snyder. Delco radio equipment is used in all General Motors and some Ford Motor Co. automobiles.

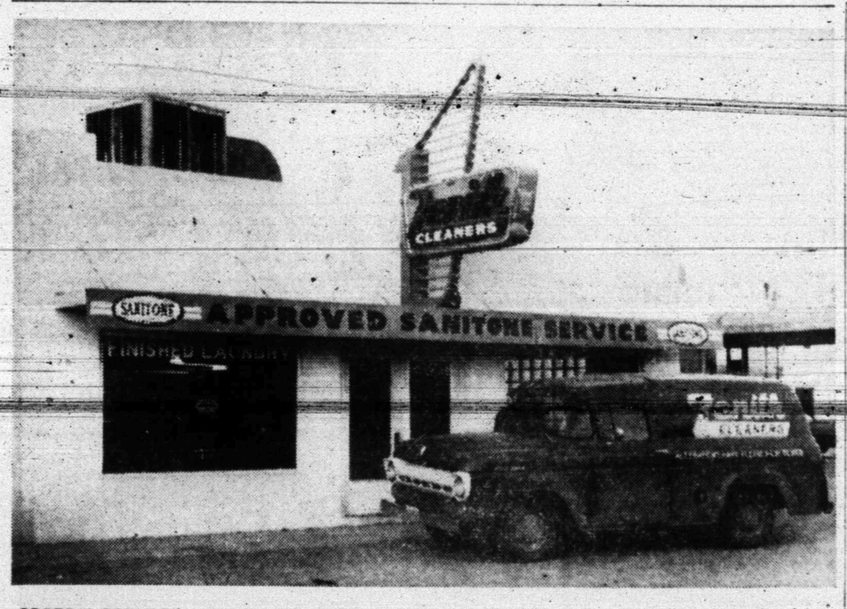

The installation and maintenance of television antenna towers is another service offered by the firm. The firm is equipped to supply and service all makes of towers, antenna and rotators with the same type purchase terms offered on towers and equipment that is offered on television and radio sets.

Garland Williams, field manager for the firm, oversees all tower installation and maintenance, and all tower installations by the firm done with the utmost care.

"Any tower we install, we will insure," Butler said.

WINNING SALES STAFF—Three of the four members of the Snyder store of Montgomery Ward Co. are pictured above in the appliance department of the order office. They are, from left: Helen Breeden, credit manager, Donna Wilson, sales clerk, and Dorothy Bonner, manager. A fourth member of the staff, Virginia Johnson, inventory clerk, was not present. The staff has won three sales contests put on by the company this year. (Lee Watson photograph)

SPEEDY SERVICE, along with deodorized cleaning and extra care for the more difficult cleaning jobs are things for which Zenith Cleaners, East Highway, are known. Zenith is Snyder's authorized Sanitone cleaner.

Zenith Cleaners Use Latest Features To Please Public

One cleaning shop in Snyder which is not "just another cleaner" is Zenith Cleaners, East Highway.

That's because Zenith has always remembered that a satisfied customer is a steady one and has geared all its operation to that thought.

Zenith Cleaners has gone to great lengths to have well-satisfied customers, even when it meant extra cost to the establishment.

Probably the best known feature at Zenith is its use of deodorized cleaning solvent, which means the customer gets his cleaning back without the old well-known smell.

Zenith, the first in this area to use Deodorized Apco. 125, instituted this process at extra expense to itself, since the deodorized solvent is the most expensive petroleum drycleaning solvent produced for the cleaning industry. But it was done, at no extra cost to the customer.

Another service well-known at Zenith and a big help in having satisfied customers is Zenith's specialty in doing the difficult cleaning jobs. These are done with great care by Zenith's employes, who are specialists at their trade.

"We care for the clothing as if it were our own," Shelby Coker, manager of the firm, said.

Zenith has long been a Sanitone cleaner here, using the nationally-advertised Sanitone soap, which is advertised in all the leading magazines and can be used by only one cleaner in each city.

Expert craftsmen at Zenith clean and block hats, giving them the factory-new look with new linings and bands.

Fast cleaning service and rapid delivery, along with special care, are among the things which make Zenith Cleaners one of the outstanding service-selling businesses in Snyder.

Ward Staff Wins Three Contests

The staff of the Montgomery Ward Co. store here has won three successive sales contests held by the firm, Mrs. Dorothy Bonner, manager said.

"Our customers were the persons who actually won the contests for us—all we had to do was wait on them when they came or called in an order," Mrs. Bonner said.

"We wish it were possible to personally thank each of our customers and to express our appreciation for their business," she said.

"It is a real pleasure to serve customers who are as pleasant as our customers have been to us," she added.

In the contests a total of $225 in merit bonuses were earned by the staff of the store.

Mrs. Bonner, personally won a $50 prize for being the best store manager in the district, the entire staff won a $100 prize for the most sales in the entire Montogomery Ward Co. region and the staff won another $75 prize for having the most sales in the district.

The district includes 15 stores. The region covers all the territory served by Montgomery Ward.

The average worker in Great Britain works just under 46 hours a week.

Arab Treaties With Israel Are Urged

WASHINGTON (AP) — Thomas K. Finletter said today the United States should insist that the Arab countries sign peace treaties with Israel. He also urged an embargo against further shipment of arms into the Middle East.

Finletter, who was secretary of the Air Force in the Truman administration, gave his views to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. The committee is engaged in a review of U.S. foreign policy.

Finletter said the state of belligerency by the Arab states against Israel creates tensions which help the Soviet Union to perpetuate and extend influence in the area.

Fishermen in Israel, casting their nets off Caesarea, the city from which Paul of Tarsus sailed in chains to Rome, have been bringing up jugs, vases and other items which date back to 1500 B. C.

Junior Editors Quiz on DOGS

QUESTION: Where did dachshunds come from?

• • •

ANSWER: Because of their long body and short legs, dachshunds sometimes are called "half a dog high and a dog and a half long." They are strong, hardy dogs with a good sense of smell that enables them to find game hiding in holes.

The Germans once used these dogs to hunt badgers, and this practice gave them the name dachshund, which is German for "badger hound." The dachshund also is the national dog of Germany, but it did not originate there, apparently it first appeared in France about 700 years ago.

The dachshund is rarely used for hunting today. Its friendliness and alertness have made it popular as a pet and watch dog.

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: Here are a German boy and his dachshund coming out of a kuchen (cake) shop with a bag of pretzels. Paste the picture on cardboard, color it and cut it out.

• • •

Lawrence Is Heavy Favorite In Race

By LEONARD A. UNGER

HARRISBURG, PA. (AP) — David L. Lawrence, Pittsburgh's longtime mayor and the power behind the throne in the only two Democratic reigns Pennsylvania has had in 50 years, is now out to be governor himself.

As the state's Mr. Democrat for more than 20 years, Lawrence, 68, is picked by most experts to run away with the party's nomination in the May 20 primary.

His principal opponent is Lt. Gov. Roy E. Furman, 57, who broke with the Leader administration when the governor tried unsuccessfully to block a Republican Legislature from passing a three per cent sales tax.

Furman looks on his underdog role as somewhat of an advantage. He likens his chances to those of Harry S. Truman in 1948.

For all his popularity Lawrence was a compromise choice for the nomination.

Some Democratic leaders wanted Mayor Richardson Dilworth of Philadelphia to run. But some of Dilworth's views, especially his advocacy of U.S. recognition of Red China, were considered too unorthodox. So Dilworth withdrew, saying he wanted to run for mayor again anyway.

As an active Roman Catholic layman, Lawrence is aware that a member of his faith never has been elected governor of the state that Quaker William Penn founded as "Penn's Woods" in 1681.

Lawrence served as secretary of the commonwealth in the administration of Democratic Gov. George H. Earle in 1935-38 and was regarded as one of Earle's closest advisors. He also worked closely with Gov. George M. Leader in the present Democratic administration. Leader is seeking the Democratic senatorial nomination.

In the Republican camp, a three-way fight is being waged for the GOP gubernatorial nomination.

Arthur McGonigle, a Reading pretzel manufacturer, has the support of the organization. William S. Livengood Jr., a former organization stalwart, is making an independent bid for the party's nomination. So is Harold E. Stassen, who resigned as President Eisenhower's disarmament aid to enter the race.

Stassen has been the organization's main target in the campaign. The organization has labeled the former governor of Minnesota a carpetbagger and says one of his aims is to block Vice President Nixon's presumed presidential aspirations in 1960.

Another Test Blast Fired

WASHINGTON (AP)—U. S. scientists set off another nuclear test explosion yesterday in the mid-Pacific. It was at least the second blast in the current series.

A joint announcement by the Atomic Energy Commission and the Defense Department said yesterday's nuclear test detonation took place at the Bikini Atoll. The announcement provided no other details.

Last Wednesday, the AEC confirmed a congressman's report of a nuclear test explosion on April 28.

AEC Chairman Lewis L. Strauss told a National Press Club luncheon last Thursday that official announcements will be made whenever there are nuclear tests "of any significant nature as they occur" during the test series. There was no indication in yesterday's announcement of what was significant about the blast it reported.

ZSA ZSA AND HER FANCY CAR—Actress Zsa Gabor stands beside the expensive foreign sports car given to her as a Christmas gift last year by Lt. Gen. Rafael Trujillo, Jr., son of the Dominican Republic strong man. A similar car was given to actress Kim Novak, but she said in San Francisco she thought she merely was to take care of it for him, and that she would return it if it was a gift. (AP Wirephoto)

Zsa Zsa Decides Coat Was A Gift

NEW YORK (AP) — On second thought, says Zsa Zsa Gabor, Lt. Gen. Rafael Trujillo Jr., son of the Dominican Republic dictator, did pay for her $17,000 chinchilla coat.

Miss Gabor had flatly denied a first report that the coat was a gift from the 29-year-old Trujillo.

"It was a present from me to me," she first said. "From Zsa Zsa to Zsa to Zsa."

She said yesterday, that Trujillo had paid for the coat as a sort of thank-you gift for giving a party in his honor in Los Angeles some weeks ago.

Miss Gabor said she had mentioned to Trujillot that she was getting a chinchilla coat.

Trujillo, she said, picked up the tab without telling her.

"I couldn't be more surprised," exclaimed the thrice-married actress.

Miss Gabor described Trujillo, married and the father of six, as a very generous man . . . very nice and polite.

Her mother, Jolie Gabor, admitted she wasn't surprised by the gift.

"So what do you expect—for him to send flowers to a girl like Zsa Zsa? she asked.

Over the weekend it was disclosed that the dictator's son had bought a $5,600 foreign car for Miss Gabor and an $8,400 model for actress Kim Novak.

Trujillo dated the actresses while on medical leave from the U. S. Army Command and General Staff College at Leavenworth, Kan. He will be graduated May 20.

Mrs. Brando New Mother

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Mrs. Marlon Brando observed Mothers Day by giving birth to a 7-pound, 10-ounce son in Cedars of Lebanon Hospital.

Attendants said the mother, actress Anna Kashfi, the baby—and Brando—all came through in fine shape.

At the couple's surprise wedding last October, Miss Kashfi listed her nationality as Indian.

William Patrick O'Callaghan and his wife, Melinda, of Cardiff, Wales, said later, however, that the actress is their daughter, Joanna. Immigration officials said their records also listed her as Joanna O'Callaghan.

Skeltons Hopeful Illness Of Son To Aid Future Victims

By JAMES BACON

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Comedian Red Skelton and his wife, Georgia, today found some solace in the belief that the international publicity on their son's valiant but losing fight with leukemia may help future victims of the cancer-like disease of the blood.

"I want the thousands of people who have written us that they prayed for Richard during his illness to have faith that God will answer their prayers," said Skelton.

"I believe that good comes out of everything, even tragedy such as ours. Maybe the world will know now that this disease must be licked. I think it is the beginning of all cancer."

The 9-year-old boy died Saturday night after a 16-month fight with the disease. Only blood transfusions had kept the child alive in recent weeks.

A final brain hemorrhage sent the boy into a coma that lasted an hour. he awoke briefly and whispered:

"I can't see. Everything is fuzzy."

A doctor turned off the light in the UCLA Medical Center room five minutes later and told the parents that the boy had died.

It was a moment the Skeltons had dreaded for more than a year. When it came, they were too stunned to move. Mrs. Skelton said she and Red sat quietly weeping beside the boy's frail body for a half-hour.

His father knew earlier in the day that Richard had little longer to live.

"He and I watched television in the morning and then leafed through the Sears-Roebuck catalogue," Red said. He wanted a tent and a camping outfit for his birthday (May 20). He picked a Mother's Day blanket for his mother, too."

The funeral will be held tomorrow at Forest Lawn's Church of the Recessional at 2 p.m. Richard will be buried in the Forest Lawn Mausoleum's Sanctuary of Prayer. The rites will be Protestant, a family friend said.

Entombed with him will be a crucifix blessed only Saturday by Pope Pius XII. Last year the Skelton family had a private audience with the Pope.

"It was a highlight of the boy's life," Skelton told a reporter.

On Saturday the boy asked his father if he could get a crucifix blessed by the Pope. It arrived after the boy's death.

The Skeltons are not Catholics but both Richard and Valentina, 11, attended parochial school at St Martin of Tours Roman Catholic church. The boy was unusually religious. His room was filled with religious statues and pictures.

The funeral comes on the day Red's show is seen on the CBS-TV network. He told an associate to notify the network and the sponsors he did not want even a filmed show on the air that day.

"People understand how I feel," he said.

28 Violent Deaths Recorded In State

By The Associated Press

At least 28 deaths from violence occurred in Texas during the weekend.

Nine persons died of gunshot wounds, compared to eight in traffic accidents—usually the biggest killer. Five drowned and six others from various causes.

Denison police killed John Miller, 49, a Negro, in a gun battle Sunday night after his wife, 45, was stabbed to death with an ice pick at their home.

Richard Karnes, 18, of San Antonio drowned trying to swim across a slough at Lake Travis near Austin Sunday. Two boys in a boat rescued his girl companion, Beverly Dawson, 15, also of San Antonio.

Robert Sullivan, 30, Dallas, was found shot to death at the home of a relative in Denison Sunday. A pistol was beside the body.

Leonard Robinson Jr., 14, Waxahachie, died Sunday of a rifle wound received while hunting with friends Saturday.

Lt. Cmdr. Billie Wilson, 36, Arlington, perished in a plane crash Sunday afternoon. His F9F Cougar jet crashed and burned near Midlothian.

David Elmore, 18, Eastland, drowned in Lake Ringling. Three others in the boat with Elmore swam to safety after it overturned Sunday.

Juan Orosco, 56, was found shot to death at his San Antonio home Sunday. A shotgun was by his side.

Billy Johnson, 18, Marshall Negro, drowned in Caddo Lake Sunday when his boat was swamped by the wake of another.

Fussie Miracle, 52, Greenville, drowned Sunday in the Greenville city reservoir after his motor boat overturned.

Commodore D. Kimbro, 50, Dublin, Tex., was killed when his car crashed on a U.S. 80 curve east of Ranger.

A Big Spring man shot and killed himself and another man and wounded a woman with a shotgun Saturday night. Police Chief C. L. Rogers said W. F. Caine, about 65, killed G. W. Hampton, 60, and severely wounded Mrs. Mamie Wright, about 55, in her apartment, then ran to his own apartment and shot himself.

Albert Miller, 35, Denton, was [illegible] Saturday when his model airplane guided by a control cable struck a power line.

Robert Sullivan, Denison, was found fatally shot Saturday. Suicide was ruled.

Mrs. America Starts Her Tour Today

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) Mrs. Helen Giesse, a slender, 34-year-old housewife from Cleveland, Ohio, today started a series of personal appearances as "Mrs. America 1958."

Mrs. Giesse, brown-haired, hazel-eyed mother of three, was chosen Saturday night in competition with women from the 48 states and District of Columbia.

Judging was based on domestic skills, grooming, cultural accomplishments, poise and attractiveness.

Mrs. Giesse's husband, William, served the customary breakfast in bed yesterday, then flew to Cleveland where he is an advertising executive.

"I was not surprised," said Giesse, 38.

Mrs. Giesse said she never entered a contest before and only went into this one at the urging of her sister—Mrs. Mary Jo Barkley of Chagrin Falls, herself a finalist twice in the Ohio contest.

A baby sitter will care for the Giesse children—Billy, 8, Susan, 4, and Bobby, 11 months while Mrs. Giesse appears at homemaking shows all over the nation.

Mrs. Giesse said she hoped to emphasize the place of the home and family life.

With the title went $15,000 in prizes, including a Fort Lauderdale vacation, a trip to Hawaii, a swimming pool, silver service and numerous household appliances.

Mrs. Irene Runkle of Nampa, Idaho, was runner-up and Mrs. Betty Bach of Columbia Heights, Minn., took third. Other finalists were Mrs. Elizabeth Stroupe of Mount Holly, N.C.; Mrs. Alice Hill of Muskogee, Okla., and Mrs. Ginger Carlson of Pittsburgh.

Chavez Faces A Challenge

ALBUQUQRQUE (AP)—Sen. Dennis Chavez, an old campaigner, faces a challenge for renomination in the New Mexico primary elections tomorrow, his sixth quest of the Senate post.

Opposing him for the Democratic nomination is Johnny Walker, 46, former state land commissioner and a self-described rough and tumble campaigner himself.

Gov. Edwin Mechem is unopposed for the Republican nomination. Democrats are determined to give him a battle. Six candidates are contesting in the primary for the Democratic nomination to challenge Mechem, the only Republican elected to state office in three decades.

The Democrats are expected to cast around 100,000 votes, and the Republicans — heavily outnumbered in registrations — may tally 19,000 or so, observers estimate.

Each year in the United States 1,250,000 acres of farmland are taken out of cultivation for housing developments, factories and highways, reports the Department of Agriculture.

Son Dies As Man Arrives

DALLAS (AP)—An airliner bringing Navy Cmdr. Leonard Robinson from Boston set down at Fort Worth yesterday at 2:55 p.m.

His son, Leonard Jr., 14, died at almost the same minute in a Dallas hospital, 25 miles away. He was shot in the head accidentally Saturday while bird hunting with two youthful companions near Waxahachie.

The father, assigned to the aircraft carrier Wasp, had started a cross-country dash in hope of arriving before the boy died.

Another son, Jimmy, 8, is at Boston's Children's Hospital to await surgery for a tumor behind his eyes.

The boys' mother died of a brain hemorrhage two years ago, and Robinson has remarried. Leonard Jr. was staying with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar McElroy, at Waxahachie.

Youth Is Happy Over Scout Award

KANSAS CITY (AP) — There was special satisfaction for Stephen Leroy Smith, 13, in the certificate of merit he received yesterday from the National Court of Honor of the Boy Scouts of America.

Last summer Stephen failed to get a Boy Scout merit badge in life saving. The examiners said he passed all the tests but lacked confidence.

Two weeks later, vacationing with his parents near Cassville, Mo., Stephen jumped into a swimming pool and rescued a 3-year-old girl.

Stephen got his merit badge after that. Yesterday's honor was for heroism.
