J. P. Sikes, a veteran of 23 years fighting fires, was re-elected chief of the Wellington Volunteer Fire Department in the annual election of officers Tuesday night, Oct. 12.

Mr. Sikes served first with the Shamrock Department and for 18 years at Wellington.

Most of the men who will serve with him were also returned to office. David Peters is first assistant chief; Buster Hughs, second assistant; Don Settle, president of the department; Bill Anders, secretary; J. D. Baker, hose captain No. 1; Jerry Lowe, hose captain No. 2; Ray Collins, chaplain, and Dr. Carter Holcomb, department doctor.

The firemen voted to make repairs on the emergency generator at St. Joseph's Hospital, and Mr. Peters was appointed to work out a plan for running the generator for short periods to keep it operational.

Rodney Porter was voted to permanent membership and Keith Derryberry to probationary membership. This brings the strength of the department to 19.

Services Held Sunday for Joe Hemphill

Joe Hemphill, 67, of 2601 Abbey Road, Oklahoma City, died in St. Joseph's Hospital at 8:52 a.m. Friday, Oct. 9. The brother of Mrs. A. L. Cochran and uncle of Jimmy Cochran, he and his wife had come home three weeks ago so that he might convalesce from an illness of several months.

Mr. Hemphill had lived in Wellington, coming in 1924 with his brother-in-law, Mr. Cochran. After working in Cochran Drug for a year, he returned to the University of Oklahoma, where he received his degree in geology. Throughout his life, however, he retained close ties with Wellington.

For his entire professional life of more than 40 years, he was in the land department of Mobil Oil Company. He had retired about a year and a half ago.

Joseph Calloway Hemphill was born Oct. 20, 1902 in Barbersville, Ky., the son of J. L. and Lillie Brittain Hemphill. He grew up in Madill, Okla.

He was married to Miss Irene Moore of Wellington on Sept. 18, 1928. He was a member of the Baptist Church.

Funeral services were conducted at First Baptist Church at 2:00 p.m. Sunday, with the Rev. Roy Collins, pastor, officiating. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery under the direction of Kelso Funeral Home.

Basketball Opens for Norwood October 16

The Samnorwood Eagles and Eaglettes open their basketball season Friday, Oct. 16 in a double header at Mobeetie.

The teams will play their first game at home against Lakeview the following Friday, Oct. 23.

All games will begin at 7:00 p.m. except one against McLean on Nov. 17, which is scheduled at 6:30.

Samnorwood and Quail have moved into a new Interscholastic League District, 3-B, Zone 2, this year, along with Lefors and Groom. Each team will meet only the other three in conference play.

District 3-B, Zone 1 teams are Allison, Briscoe, Miami and Mobeetie. At the end of the round robin season, the winning team will be seeded No. 1 in the district tournament at Lefors. All eight teams will play in the tournament.

Complete Survey

Accreditation Team To Visit St. Joseph's Hospital Oct. 20

A team from the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals will visit St. Joseph's Hospital Tuesday, Oct. 20, to conduct a survey which will determine if the hospital meets the standards for accreditation. St. Joseph's Hospital has been accredited since 1950, and is one of the few hospitals, large or small, of the Panhandle to have this honor.

Members of the accreditation team will be Dr. George W. Bascom, a medical doctor, and A. Kent Schafer, an administrator. Both work out of the Commission's Chicago office.

Surveys of accredited hospitals are made each three years. Standards by which hospitals are surveyed are changing, Sister Perpetua, administrator, has pointed out.

In the past, major emphasis was on a hospital's medical services and medical programs. This is now being much enlarged.

Dr. Bascom and Mr. Schafer will meet with the Hospital Board, the Medical Staff, and the heads of departments of the hospital, according to Sister Perpetua.

Also on Tuesday morning, the team will survey the physical plant, and go over the fire disaster plan.

It will review the governing body bylaws and minutes of meetings, the medical staff bylaws, rules and regulations, as well as documented evidence of the performance and an analysis of the clinical work done in the hospital.

The team will conduct a medical records workshop. A summation conference will close the visit.

In the past, hospitals have had to meet minimum standards in order to receive accreditation. In the future, emphasis will be put on optimal achievable standards which the hospital can meet. These will go into effect about Jan. 1.

"Upon completion of the survey, the report will be forwarded to the central office for review. An appraisal and evaluation of the findings will be made by the staff of the Commission and a recommendation made to the Board of Commissioners. After the Board has acted, you will be advised of the decision," Dr. Otto Arndal, program director, has told Sister Perpetua.

DEDICATE CHURCH UNIT

These three participated in the recent dedication of the education building of First United Methodist Church. From left, they are the Rev. Ted Dotts, Pampa district superintendent, the Rev. R. T. Dyess, pastor, and Bishop Alsie H. Carleton, of the Northwest Texas-New Mexico Conference.

Rockets Open Dist. Play Against Irish

Wellington Skyrockets, riddled with both old and new injuries, will go into conference play against the Shamrock Irish Friday night, Oct. 16, at 8:00 p.m. It may be some advantage to the Rockets that the game is played at home.

Coach Thayne Amonett doubts if Denny Carter, second quarterback, will see much action if any in the Shamrock game. He has been crippled a little bit all season, and his injuries have become aggravated during recent days.

With this development, Wellington coaches will depend on a freshman, Randall Hodges, and a sophomore, Bruce Oney to carry the quarterbacking duties. Hodges played junior high football last year and Oney was on the B team.

Fullback Ted McLain, who hurt an ankle in the Memphis game, is much better, his coach said, but it is doubtful if he will see action, either. That position will be filled by Lindy Norman or Rozell Outley.

Lineman Billy Henard got a back sprain in the Chillicothe game, and Elsie Molina received a shoulder separation in workout Monday afternoon.

All of these leave coaches Amonett, Forrester and Hamilton with not more than 15 physically fit men on their varsity, the smallest number since any of the trio has been in Wellington.

Their opponent this week is somewhat formidable. "In my estimation, it is probably the top ball club in the district," said Coach Amonett.

The Irish are undefeated in their ranging from Guyton in

ASC State Executive Director Visits County

D. W. McElwrath, state executive director of the Texas State ASCS office, toured Collingsworth County Tuesday, Oct. 13, to see first hand its drought-stricken crops in an attempt to see what can be done on yields for future cotton program payments. With him here were Leonard White, program specialist from College Station, and Albert Marshall, district director.

Bob Weatherly, ASC county executive, arranged the tour. "I shall certainly take this back to the State Committee," Mr. McElwrath said of crop conditions after he had completed the tour and met with farm leaders and representatives of the county's lending agencies.

To preserve the future of cotton yields as set up for ASCS program payments, he cited the recommendations of Congressman Bob Price on Oct. 9, and USDA-ASC recommendations that farmers harvest all the cotton crop they can profitably.

This means to pay the cost of harvesting and ginning, with a little profit left.

Congressman Price said Friday:

"The Department of Agriculture has assured me that those farmers whose cotton is affected by adverse weather, that future program payment rates will not be reduced if they elect to harvest a marginal crop rather than abandon it."

Future projected yields are determined by the cotton harvest from allotted acres in designated years. The 1970 crop projected yield is 289 pounds.

The executive director recommended all cotton growers to come by the county ASCS office and declare their intent before destroying any acreage.

While in Wellington, Mr. McElwrath was in contact with the state office concerning passage of the Farm Bill in Congress, but at the end of his visit, the House had not.

The tour group visited representative cotton growing communities of the county. "It is worse than I had quite visualized," he told The Wellington Leader Wednesday morning.

Tuesday evening, City State Bank and Wellington State Bank hosted a steak dinner for the tour group, and representatives from Wheeler and Childress counties. The food was prepared by Henry Sullivan, Barney Glenn, Lloyd Woolbridge and R. L. Mabery.

Those attending were Mr. McElwrath, Mr. White, Mr. Marshall, Mr. Weatherly, Lefty Thomas, Roy Canada, and Troy Thomason of the ASC committee; Raymond Hodges of FHA, and Louis Alford, Pete Nipper, Dub Marchant, Earl Lynn Bartlett, Fred Covey, Lloyd Woolbridge, R. L. Mabery, Earl Hunter, Jeff Wilson, Carthel Lewis, David Baumgardner, Gus Barton, also Norbert Schlegal, Charles Shields, T. Henderson and Jack Harris of Wheeler County; W. J. Boykin, Leonard King and Gene Frisby of Childress county.

Scout Fund Drives Scheduled in County

The annual Boy Scout Fund Raising Campaign to support the Scouting program is under way in two communities of Collingsworth County.

Paul Hawkins is chairman of the general solicitation of the Wellington drive, assisted by James Sullivan, who will be in charge of special and advanced gifts. Final plans are being drawn up this week so that within the next two weeks, this campaign can be undertaken. The quota is $1,000.

Douglas Coleman heads the drive at Samnorwood, with a $300 quota.

The two drives are separate, although they serve the same purpose in their respective communities.

Monies raised in the campaign are directly spent in supporting the Scouting program locally and in the area, explained Dave Agnew, Comanche District executive.

These funds cover such items as:

—The professional salary and traveling expenses of the District Scout Executive.

—Promotion and organization of new units.

—Maintenance of the present units.

—Training adult volunteer personnel.

—Financing the advancement program, which is returned directly to the boys. An example are the advancements made at the Court of Honor held by Electric powers users in Collingsworth and adjoining counties were without lights for 35 minutes Sunday evening, Oct. 11.

Paul Hawkins, manager of West Texas Utilities Company, said the malfunction of a regulator at the Childress substation in turn caused trouble at the main WTU plant at Lake Pauline. ## Deskins Wells Critically Hurt in Accident

Deskins Wells, editor and publisher of The Wellington Leader, is listed in critical condition in Baylor Hospital, Dallas, where he is under treatment for injuries he received when he was struck by a car in Dallas Saturday evening, Oct. 9.

He and Mrs. Wells were crossing a street two blocks from their hotel when the accident occurred. She received emergency treatment, but was not admitted to the hospital.

Mr. Wells has internal injuries which did not become apparent until Monday, and emergency surgery was performed. This is the injury of major concern.

Mrs. Wells told the newspaper staff by telephone Wednesday morning that he came through the surgery all right, and is in the intensive care unit at Baylor. Doctors have not given the family an indication as to how long he will be kept in that unit.

After seeing him Wednesday morning, she said the family is encouraged.

Coleman Ranch Plans New Grazing System

Ranchers in all part of the Texas Panhandle are developing planned grazing systems, says Doug Sellars, Area Range Conservationist, Pampa. In the 12 counties in the Pampa area there are 43 systems that have been in effect two years or longer. Since April 1, nine more systems have been planned and will be in effect within the near future.

The most recently planned systems were on the Dr. John D. Coleman Ranch near McLean. Coleman, also a veterinarian specializing in animal health and nutrition problems, has planned three two-pasture systems. The systems are based on rotating four-month rest periods and will be grazed by steers. Many of the systems are being modified to fit stocker operations, says Sellars.

There are nine systems in Salt Fork SCD, says Gary Reed of SCS.

There are 119 systems in the Vernon, Big Spring, Abilene and Stephenville areas. There is one simple reason why ranchers throughout the Panhandle and across the state are showing an interest in grazing systems having planned periods of rest. That is increased net profit. Reported increases of $10, $15 and up to $18 per cow have been reported by ranchers and research stations across the state.

In most instances the carrying capacity of the systems have increased, making it possible to add more cows or steers to the system. The McQuiddy Ranch at Canadian for example, reports improvement allowing the reduction from 22 acres per cow to only 17 acres per cow.

In four years with systematic rotating rest periods and a good spray program, McQuiddy increased his cow herd

Junior High Wins Over Childress 22-6

Wellington Firecrackers defeated the Childress Junior High team 22 to 6, in a surprise victory here Thursday evening, Oct. 8.

Neither team was able to score during the first period, nor could they cross the goal line until just before half time. Then Childress drove the ball downfield and scored with only two minutes of play left.

Wellington received the second half kickoff and Bobby Joe Shrubs went 70 yards for the by 20% and at the same time increased the weaning weights of his calves by 67 pounds per head. This was all a result of growing more pounds of forage per acre under a grazing system with regular planned rest periods.

Anyone desiring information on organizing a planned grazing system may contact the Soil Conservation Service.

touchdown. A pass from George Brewer to Larry Wright was good for two points and Wellington led 8-6.

Shrubs broke again in the fourth quarter and scored on an end run of 65 yards. The try for the extra point failed, but Wellington had boosted its lead to 14-6.

Childress moved the ball downfield well and was threatening from 30 yards out when Brewer intercepted a Childress pass.

The Firecrackers were unable to score, either, and the ball went over on downs.

Childress drove to the Wellington 4-yard line, but a strong defense held for four plays and Wellington took possession on its own 1-yard line.

On the next play, Bobby Joe Shrubs swept right end for 99 yards and the final tally.

The try for extra points was good on a pass from Brewer to right and the game ended 22-6.

"The defense looked especially good in the second half, shutting Childress out and stopping two crucial drives without giving up any points," praised Junior High Coach Carroll Nunneley.

"Our offense also looked improved. Childress had a well-balanced, big, strong ball club. Our entire team effort was good."

Texas Has Big Accidents, Too

The cost of Texas vehicle accidents comes high. A 10-mile-an-hour front-end crash with one of the "Big Four" standard size sedans can average $541.56. A front end crash at the same speed with one of the "Big Four" pony cars can average $487.95.

Church Government

BY GAYLORD COOK

Each congregation of the church that we read about in the Bible was autonomous (i. e. without outside control). Where there were qualified men, each congregation had bishops to oversee it, and deacons to serve. There was a plurality of bishops in each congregation that had bishops (Titus 1: 5-9; Acts 14:23). The qualifications of bishops, or elders, are given in Titus I and I Timothy 3. The terms "elders", "presbyter", "bishop", "overseer" and "pastor" are used in the New Testament to refer to the same person. These terms did not designate different offices. There is no authority in the Word of God for one man being THE bishop or THE elder or THE pastor over a congregation of God's people. Instead, each congregation had a plurality of men to serve as the bishops over it. It ought to be the same now.

Highest Draft Number Called To Date 141

Local Board No. 20 Executive Secretary Mrs. Frances Starkey announced today that random selection number 141 is the highest lottery selection number reached in 1970.

However, the board spokesman said, it may be necessary to go to a higher random selection number than the previous high number in order to satisfy the remaining 1970 draft calls.

Mrs. Starkey said that in compliance with the White House Executive Order announced recently, all registrants of Local Board No. 20 who hold the highest reached number and who have not been issued orders for induction due to any circumstance, will be considered for carryover into the extended priority selection group if they are classified I-A as of Dec. 31, 1970. Such young men will have their liability extended for the first three months of 1971.

The local board spokesman said that the Executive Order states that registrants who held numbers above the highest reached number of Board No. 20 and are classified I-A on Dec. 31, will be placed in a lower draft priority group on Jan. 1.

Texan of 7,000 Years Ago Subject of Investigation

Scientific investigation co-sponsored by Trinity University and the Witte Museum has verified the existence 7,000 years ago in Texas of one of the oldest populations of modern man in the New World. The investigation was performed on the skeletal remains of some 20 individuals unearthed near Pecos, on the 1933 expedition sponsored by George C. Martin of San Antonio. Trinity graduate student Jay Wise performed the painstaking measurement and analysis in Trinity's physical anthropology laboratory, using the skeletons provided by the Witte. The investigation included meticulous examination and identification of hundreds of bones—measuring length, width, weight, etc.—and recording them in great detail, piece by piece, for each of the 20 individuals in the group. Called Trans-Pecos Archaic Man, the ancient Texans are believed to be the southeasternmost extension of semi-nomadic cave dwellers who lived in the Southwest around 5,000 B.C. and are known archaeologically as the Archaic of the Desert West.

Although he does not yet have his master's degree, Wise, 27, is an experienced archaeologist. He has led many archaeological digs, was formerly director of anthropology at the Dayton (Ohio) Museum of Natural History, and attended medical school to broaden his anthropological background. His medical studies aided him in another discovery concerning one of the Trans-Pecos group, whose skeletal development indicated that it belonged to an adult male who lived to be more than 40 years old. Wise noted a severe arthritic condition of the bone, which indicated that it would have been physically impossible for this particular man to take part in the far-ranging hunting activity necessary to sustain life. Wise points out that, although Trans-Pecos Man was a cave dweller and had little if any agriculture, he was far from a savage. "This man," says Wise, "for whatever reason, despite his severe handicap, was cared for by the group for most of his adult life."

The office, which Mr. Boyle believes is unique on campuses across the nation, is designed to give students legal advice and help in consumer, employment and rental problems. The young attorney holds high hopes for his job, saying that students should have "ready access to the courts rather than being forced to take their complaints to the streets."

Marketing Key to Farm Survival

COLLEGE STATION. — The market is the basis of survival in the "farming game", and many farmers are becoming increasingly aware of this fact.

"Farmers are becoming much more aware that they must pay more attention to the market," Dr. William E. Black, Extension agricultural economist, says. "They are realizing that the market can't be ignored if they are to stay in farming."

"They are realizing too that agriculture is marked NOT by a scarcity of goods but rather by a scarcity of markets."

As a result of this realization, some farmers see agriculture gaining more by being oriented outward toward the market, instead of inward toward the commodity, he said. The purpose of agriculture must be to satisfy people, not to produce endless piles of food and fibers, he said. "Producers are finding that only through marketing are they able to measure the real worth of their effort," he said. "Gone are the days when the farmer considered his success during a growing season by the fullness of the grainery or barn at the end of the year."

"The real measure of success, now, is how much money was put in the bank and how much of this money was in excess of costs."

SLAIN OFFICERS

Of the 86 police officers slain in the U.S. last year, all but three died from gunfire, and handguns were used to commit 81% of the murders by guns, according to the FBI.

Plant the Seed

where you expect to Reap

It's what you might call a commonly recognized agricultural principle that if you want to do your harvesting on a particular piece of ground, that's the place to sow your seed.

Using the same general type of reasoning, it is obvious that if you want to harvest a nice crop of prosperity... in the form of better business, a better job, a better community in which to live... it's advisable to plant your trade dollars where they will produce growth for you, rather than for somebody else.

The homes we live in... the jobs and businesses which support us... the schools and churches that teach our children and enrich our lives... the convenient stores and service establishments that supply our everyday and emergency needs... none of these were built, nor are they supported by the dollars that are spent in some other community or city.

To Restore Fertility

Thomason Researches Cereal Protein at WT

(Dr. Ron Thomason, whose research in cereal protein is described here, was reared in Wellington and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Thomason. He is a graduate of Wellington High School.)

By DALE PAGE
Amarillo Globe News

CANYON — Proteins instead of prizes may soon show up in cereals if the work of a West Texas State University plant scientist proves his theories regarding proteins in wheat.

Dr. Ron Thomason is currently seeking hybrids which would restore fertility to the grain. The current problem is that wheat, unlike corn and sorghum, is not 100 percent restorable when crossed with other varieties.

"The study is one of sterility," the researcher said.

Proteins found in the developing wheat heads, are responsible for the restoring of fertility. Each variety may have a specific protein with which it will restore best, he said.

If the variety is a good restorer and is high in a specific protein, it may be that the protein is actually a restoring element, Dr. Thomason postulated.

"We know quite a bit about external inheritance," he said, "but little about protein inheritance."

His work, therefore, deals with the detection of protein inheritance.

The procedure is to cross a pure-line variety with an experimental variety. Then, with the aid of gel electrophoresis, the individual proteins of each variety are measured.

Therefore, the researcher can detect proteins which are indicators of good restoring ability.

The knowledge, in addition to increasing yields, also makes available the facts concerning which proteins are lacking in the variety.

Since man, a nonruminant, needs 10 different kinds of amino acids, varieties can be cultivated which supply more of certain amino acids.

In the case of corn, a South American variety was found which contains more than the usual amounts of lysine, found in milk, beans and meat.

Countries which have a one-grain diet may develop a protein-deficiency. Therefore, said Dr. Thomason, cereals which are a combination of grains offer more useable proteins than those made of one grain. One makes up for what another lacks.

Dr. Thomason pointed out that percentage of protein contained in a cereal is not the deciding factor in how much usable protein is present, since the body needs many different kinds of proteins.

Additives have been used which make up for a grain's protein deficit. However, he said, it is more desirable to put the proteins into the genes rather than supplement the grains with additives.

Dr. Thomason summed up his work in two objectives: (1) developing high-protein grains; (2) developing better fertility-restoring lines.

Kenneth Wyatt Receives WTCC Cultural Achievement Award

The husband of a former Wellington girl is among the five West Texans who will be honored at the fifth annual Cultural Achievement Awards banquet sponsored by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at the Denton Country Club on Thursday evening, Oct. 15.

He is Kenneth Wyatt, whose wife is the former Veda Mae Kiker. He visits in Wellington frequently in the home of her mother, Mrs. O. A. Kiker.

Announcement of his selection was made by Tom Barnett of Fort Worth, chairman of the WTCC Cultural Affairs Committee.

Kenneth Wyatt is a name that is becoming known in all parts of the nation for the oil paintings of the early West. Wyatt is an ordained minister of the Methodist Church and developed an interest in art as a child. Although his schedule is filled with evangelistic work, speaking at numerous civic and church functions, a few rounds of golf occasionally, he finds time to depict the wholesome cowboy life of an earlier day. His paintings are in many collections throughout the United States.

Others selected to receive the awards for 1970 are C. T. McLaughlin of Snyder, founder of the Diamond M Foundation which purchases and displays paintings and sculpture of many Southwestern artists; Mrs. Kay Kimbell, who with her late husband founded the Kimbell Art Foundation at Fort Worth; Bob Patterson, photographer, and James Avery of Kerrville, designer of jewelry.

INVENTOR FORGETS

The hand-cranked ice cream freezer was invented in 1846 by a woman named Nancy Johnson. But she failed to patent her invention, so the recognition went to a Mr. Young who brought out his version of a freezer two years later.

I grew up on work. Starting with odd jobs while a youngster in Phillips, I continued by working my way through Baylor and the University of Texas Law School waiting tables, selling Bibles and working in the oil fields. Since graduation, I've been a practicing attorney.

At the beginning of this campaign I went to each county to file for the office of State Senator. Since then my wife and I have traveled over 16,000 miles meeting and talking with people throughout the district... listen-

I have worked long hours as a candidate but I have enjoyed every minute of it. Elect me State Senator and I promise I won't let you down. I'll be back in your town just as often to listen to you and learn how you want to be represented in Austin.

I want to be your State Senator and will appreciate your vote.

This year, the band has already played in the West Texas Fair Parade and four rodeo performances.

C. B. Carter Family Honored With Housewarming in Their New Home

Friday night, October 9, brought a real surprise to the C. B. Carters at 423 West Eula in Hollis. At eight o'clock the doorbell rang and the Carters found the porch and yard overflowing with wonderful friends from the Arnett-Westview community to wish them happiness in their new home.

They brought their own entertainment, gifts and refreshments.

It was a complete surprise because Mrs. Carter had already "gone to bed" and other members of the family were watching TV.

The Sikes Sisters, accompanied by Alice Whitson, sang several numbers. Gladys and Gene Robertson gave several piano duets, Merie Ellis two solos and also "It Takes a Heap of Living in a House to Make It a Home." Roy Ginn gave several jokes as also did his daughter, Sherri. Mina Ginn presented the gifts to the astonished family. Rev. Smith gave a prayer of thanksgiving then followed several hilarious games directed by Myrtle Molloy and Ralph Word.

The hour of good fellowship followed, with this group present: Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ginn and Sherri, Wayne and Myrtle Molloy, Mrs. Howard Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McDowell.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Kitchen, Ann Bennett and Merle, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Argo and family, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Bogle, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Holder, Danny and Nancy, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Gilly Grubs, Mr. and Mrs. Q. D. Jackson,

Rev. and Mrs. Hoyt Ellis, Dorothy Abercrombie, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Crow and Suzanne, Mr. and Mrs. Kenny McDowell, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Robertson, Mrs. Claude White,

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Anders, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Word, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Bartlett and Leslie, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Powers, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sikes and the Sikes Sisters,

At Home

Family days at home this year call for softly feminine, romantic fashions for milady's presiding. For the occasion, high fashion culotte lounge-wear of washable acetate is the thing. The long, graceful easy fitting gowns feature bursts of festive shades befitting the season's activities.

Instrument Tests Meat Tenderness

STILLWATER, Okla. — An electronic instrument that measures the tenderness of meat is now being used in the meat research program at Oklahoma State University.

The portable instrument, known as a "tenderometer", is used on beef front quarters as they hang on the rail. The measurement is taken after a 24-hour chill.

A 10-point probe is pressed two inches into the exposed rib-eye surface, and a gauge on the attached device records the amount of force required to do this. The force correlates with the degree of tenderness that will be evident when the meat has been cooked.

A reading of approximately 14 pounds indicates the meat is acceptably tender, says Dr. Robert Henrickson of the OSU animal sciences and industries department. Choice or prime grade meat gives a higher reading.

Earth temperature increases one degree with each 100 feet depth.

The lovely opal, rich in value and of ancient heritage, has suffered most from superstition, Mrs. Graham said.

It is this stone that many believed caused the tragedy of Empress Carlotta and Emperor Maximilian in Mexico.

Diamonds powdered were fed to a mad Spanish king and were supposed to have cured his illness, she continued.

percent over conventional fence can be expected, said W. S. Allen, Extension agricultural engineer, Texas A&M University.

With a suspension fence, the number of line posts required is reduced approximately 80 percent as compared to conventional fencing, Allen explained, thus reducing the cost. This special fencing is generally satisfactory for cattle, however, there are certain limitations on its use.

The general practice is to use four to six strands of barbed wire. It is similar to conventional barbed wire fencing, except the line posts are placed up to 100 feet apart. Wire stays, spaced approximately 16 feet apart, are used to hold the strands at proper spacing says the engineer.

Because of the wire's resilience, animals are not likely to run through it or break a strand, and because of its whipping action, bulls are discouraged from fighting through it.

The suspension fence cannot be used on a contour, Allen pointed out. It must be straight between the brace assemblies.

The nature of the fence requires strong brace assemblies at convenient stretch points. Wood posts, four to five inches top diameter and 6 1/2 feet long set two to two and one-half feet into the ground are recommended for the line posts, he added. The recommended spacing is 100 feet. Terrain, however, may make closer spacing necessary. This will be satisfactory, but they should be set at distances permit the spacing of wire stays at the 15 to 16.5 foot intervals.

The barbed wire should be stretched to permit a three-inch sag between posts spaced 100 feet apart when the temperature is 40 to 70 degrees. To secure the wire to the brace assemblies, wrap it around the anchor post and splice it. Do this at the beginning and end of each stretch section, said Allen.

Local extension agricultural agents can supply additional information on farm fencing.

Tech Speaking Team Available

LUBBOCK.— A three-man team of "problem-solution" specialists from Texas Tech University announced recently that it will be available as a panel of speakers or consultants for area agencies and civic groups interested in West Texas development.

The team makes no charge for its services.

Its members are Dr. Frank B. Conselman, director of the International Center for Arid and Semi-Arid Land Studies, Dr. Arnold J. Gully, associate dean of the College of Engineering, and Dr. Samuel E. Curl, interim dean of the College of Agricultural Sciences.

"Texas Tech University is doing a great deal of research—for instance in the areas of textile research, brush control studies and water quality investigations," Dr. Conselman explained.

"The university stands at the forefront of knowledge which should be readily available to decision-making bodies. We three don't pretend to know all the answers to all the questions concerning the future of this area," he said, "but we can—through discussion—help West Texas groups find within the university extremely useful information for making good decisions."

HOW TO BUY FURNITURE

Do you know how to buy furniture so you get your money's worth?

When buying an upholstered piece of furniture there is not too much you can tell by visually inspecting the piece because everything is covered up. Here are a few things that might determine the value of the article.

If the cushions don't fit tightly, it indicates poor workmanship and sloppy construction. Are the buttons tight? Are there any untrimmed threads on the cushions? If the furniture doesn't pass these inspections don't buy it. It is poorly constructed.

If it passes the visual tests, try it for comfort. Sit in it as you would if you were at home. Needless to say, if it doesn't feel right, shop around some more.

High IQ, Like Cheese

That nasty question—"Are you a man or a mouse?" may not have too much point any more. It begins to appear that mice are a lot like people. Or is it vice-versa?

Anyway, studies at the University of California reveal that, when given a choice between running around in different kinds of wheels, mice chose the one offering the most challenge.

Specifically, they preferred a round wheel that had hurdles spaced inside it. Next to that, they like a square wheel which required that they jump skilfully across the corners as it spun around.

Apparently the mice used the wheels for something more than just exercise.

The researchers also detected a streak of obstinacy in the animals. When a wheel was rigged with levers which the mice could depress to stop or start the wheel, it was found that when the wheel was started by a human the mice would immediately stop it.

But when a mouse had started the wheel itself and a human stopped it, the mouse would promptly start it back up again.

Evidently, mice are not as "mousy" as some people are. —Thorp (Wis.) Courier

Ride Out the Storm

Electrical storms can come up quickly, and you should know what to do if caught out in such a storm.

Here are some facts and safety tips from the Division of Physical Health:

The most threatening time for lightning is just before a storm breaks. If you are out in the open, go to the nearest building. If there are no buildings near you, lie down until the storm passes. The highest object in the area is the natural target for lightning.

If you are at home, do not stand in the doorway or near an open window. Avoid using the telephone, electrical appliances or taking a bath during the electrical storm.

If you are in a car, stay in it. A hard-topped automobile is one of the safest places to be in a storm.

Never run under a tree, because trees attract lightning. The lightning bolt runs down the moist interior of the tree, building up extreme heat and pressure which can cause the tree to split or explode. Small "streamers" of lightning may jump to nearby persons or animals.

If caught swimming or boating during an electrical storm, get to shore immediately. Water is an excellent carrier of electricity, and a swimmer need not be hit directly by lightning to be electrocuted. The electrical current can be carried several hundred feet through water.

Stay away from long hilltops, poles, towers, overhead wires, fences and steel rails. Be especially wary of fences attached to trees. When lightning threatens, get off a horse, tractor, bicycle or motorcycle.

Glory Be!

There's talk afoot to the effect that some food retailers may turn away from sales gimmickry and attempt to lure customers on a hold-the-line price basis. Most folks, we imagine, are willing to be lured on these grounds any time.

AUSTIN. — State employees want a 17% pay raise within the next two years. They served notice of their desire at the annual meeting of the Texas Public Employees Association.

TPEA's legislative program for 1971 seeks a three-step (10.2%) raise effective next September; and a two-step (6.8%) hike the following September; plus a 3.4% merit raise for half of the employees. Also requested are "career incentive" benefits—a $10 a month automatic raise after three years of service, ranging up to a $60 a month supplement for employees with 30 years' service.

Substantial pension benefits also were included in TPEA's far-reaching legislative package which would give retired employees with 30 years' service 50% of their base pay.

State employees also want their travel allowances boosted to $16 a day per diem and 12 cents a mile.

Social Welfare Changes

Continuing growth of welfare rolls will bring changes in basic operating methods of the State Department of Public Welfare after Jan. 2.

Welfare Commissioner Burton G. Hackney says that the key procedural change would require welfare applicants to fill out their own "declaration forms." This would replace the face-to-face interviews with overworked caseworkers. This method already has been tested in Corpus Christi, Austin and Nacogdoches areas.

Another change would reduce social services to that which can be quickly provided and for which specific goals can be defined.

Hackney predicts that legislators will be called on for $96 million annually in state funds, just to keep the financial assistance programs at present levels. This is $16 million above the constitutional ceiling. Some $291 million in federal funds would match the state outlay.

Insurance Laws Pushed

State Insurance Board is pushing four new laws to protect both the policy holders and the ailing insurance industry.

Insurance Board told the House probing committee that it is becoming increasingly difficult to get home and auto protection in disaster-hit areas. Therefore it will advocate these changes in the law:

Stiff regulation of holding companies, assessment of all companies to protect citizens against insolvencies, a mandatory pool to provide fire and windstorm insurance in areas subject to catastrophes and a provision for identifying and segregating company assets.

Board members said they are unanimously opposed to the "no-fault" auto insurance plan now before Congress and in effect in Massachusetts.

Drillers Warned

Three deaths in a new water well near Queen City in Cass County brought warning to water well drillers in Northeast Texas, Arkansas and Louisiana to beware of escaping nitrogen gas.

Texas Water Development Board issued a warning that a high concentration of nitrogen gas and a lack of oxygen

CROSSROADS REPORT

I see where many lawmakers and hordes of other city people are bent on cutting out all of the farm subsidies.

And when they do, with production costs trebled and the prices of farm products at the 1950 or so level, most farmers will be out of business, and the grocery store shelves will be bare of bread, meat and potatoes.

Then we would see how fat our highly-paid lawmakers, and other anti-farm people could get on barbecued pay checks and friscasseed $100 bills.

The professional peoplekeepers these days are demanding laws to protect us consumer types from our neighbors who sell stuff to us.

Like if the hair goo we buy don't smother us in women, or if Joe Namath still keeps his job after we eat a bowl of super cereal, the sellers of this merchandise should be lawed to give us our money back and pay us vast reparations.

To insure justice, of course, these laws would have to give us a money-back-plus guarantee on the politicians we buy who don't perform as advertised.

Courts Speak

Interest on debts after the death of the borrower may not be deducted in computing the net taxable value of an estate, says the Texas Supreme Court.

In other recent opinions the Supreme Court decided: —Kentucky Fried Chicken distributors don't have to pay Texas' chain store tax.

—An Odessa woman is entitled to $3,750 damages due to a fall at a drive-in grocery store.

—Distributorships of a Florida-based cosmetic firm are not subject to state securities registration because investors must work for profits.

—Whether a Fort Worth judge should have postponed a Sunday closing suit until similar cases have been decided will be reviewed Nov. 18.

—Voters signing a petition to get a new party nominee on the general election ballot are entitled to know who the candidate is in advance of signing.

Decision was in a case where the High Court ruled La Raza Unida candidates off the ballot in Dimmit, LaSalle and Zavala counties.

—Appeal of a Ward County attorney to prevent the county's participation in a retirement system for employees was dismissed for want of jurisdiction.

Attorney General Opinions

Mobile homes or trailers owned by non-resident servicemen are not subject to ad valorem taxation, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin has held.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded that:

—A junior college district has the power of eminent domain to acquire buildings, lands for building, campus sites or other property the board of trustees determines is needed to carry out its functions.

—A minor's driving license automatically is suspended when finally convicted for driving while intoxicated.

—County Commissioners Court can order publication of information relating to redistricting of the county into voting precincts in addition to the minimum publication required by the election code.

—It is not a violation for a motorist to make a left hand turn off a four-lane highway across a double yellow stripe into an alley, a private road or a driveway.

—Nursing home administrators must pass an examination by the Texas Board for Licensure for Nursing Home Administrators in order to get a license. However, the Board may not establish additional training requirements for those with sufficient experience.

Drinks Passage Predicted

Sen. Joe Christie of El Paso, head of the committee campaigning for passage of the local option liquor-by-the-drink amendment, predicts its passage at the election on Nov. 3.

Christie says that sponsors of the amendment hope to dry up bogus private clubs in areas which vote against liquor-by-the-drink. "Hypocrisy" of present liquor laws, argued Christie, contributes to the "generation gap" and promotes disrespect for all laws.

Opponents contend that passage would increase liquor consumption.

New Parks Land

Parks and Wildlife Department has acquired new park land tracts in Hardeman, Clay, Burleson and Lee counties.

1,931 acres cost $143,862 and a Clay County tract of 524 acres on Lake Arrowhead $50,000.

Southeast Texas lands near Somerville Reservoir in Lee County were leased from the U.S. Corps of Engineers.

Quail Season Dates Released for County

Dates for the quail hunting season in the Panhandle Regulatory District, of which Collingsworth is a part, were set recently by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission. The 1970-71 quail season will open Saturday, Nov. 14, and continue through Jan. 31. Again, this is two weeks earlier than the seasons approved in three of the counties touching on Collingsworth, a fact which many landowners in the county feel is unfair. Counties where the open season starts Dec. 1 are Briscoe, Childress, Cottle, Hall, Hardeman, Motley and Wheeler. Bag limit and possession throughout the Panhandle Regulatory District is 12 per day and 36 in possession.

Rehabilitation of Cancer Patient Conference Subject

"Progress in the Rehabilitation of the Cancer Patient" will be the subject of the 15th Annual Clinical Conference sponsored by The University of Texas M. D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute at Houston, Nov. 19-20. The Shamrock-Hilton Hotel will be the site of the two-day conference, co-sponsored by the Division of Continuing Education of the UT Graduate School of Biomedical Sciences at Houston.

The conference will be the first major medical meeting to offer an interdisciplinary approach to rehabilitation of cancer patients. Sessions will be devoted to problems of patients with cancer of specific sites, problems of amputees, techniques in nursing and physical therapy and aspects of psychological and social adjustments and vocational training. Speakers representing about 20 medical and educational institutions and organizations, as well as government agencies, will participate in the program, according to Drs. John E. Healey, Jr., chairman, and Joe B. Drane, co-chairman.

The Heath Memorial Award will be presented on Nov. 19. Established in 1966, the award is conferred annually on a physician or scientist who has made an outstanding contribution to the better care of cancer patients through clinical application of basic research knowledge.

On Nov. 21 a symposium on bone tumors will be held in conjunction with the Clinical Conference. The Anderson department of anatomical pathology and the Texas Society of Pathologists will host the meeting, beginning at 9 a.m. in M. D. Anderson Hospital auditorium in the Texas Medical Center.

Soil Chemist Advises Against Cutting Back on Fertilizers

COLLEGE STATION.—Farmers should not risk low production in 1970 by not fertilizing, advises C. D. Welch, Extension soil chemist.

"Low yields in 1969, the high cost of credit, uncertain weather conditions and other conditions affecting the uncertainty of agricultural programs have probably influenced the decision of farmers to wait and fertilize near planting time," Welch said.

During October, November and December 1969, a total of only 398,777 tons of fertilizer were spread on Texas farms. This compares with totals for the fourth quarter of 1968 when 606,334 tons were used. The 1969 fourth quarter total is approximately 35% less than the 1968 total, Welch said.

Soil samples submitted during the fourth quarter of 1969 were comparable to 1968 numbers for the same period, said Welch. However, both were down from previous years, he continued.

Total soil samples submitted during the Oct.-Dec. 1969 period totaled 5,071. The highest number of samples submitted was in December with a total of 1,913.

The five leading counties in number of samples submitted during the fourth quarter of 1969 were Wharton, Washington, Bell, Harris and Lamb. In addition, 66 water and 102 soil samples were analyzed for salinity.

"Farmers should try to fertilize before planting, whether soil samples have been taken or not," Welch urged. "Soil samples may then be submitted and side dressings can be applied if needed."

Shamrock Next Opponent of the Firecrackers

With a 3-1 record behind them, the Wellington Junior High Firecrackers will have Shamrock Junior High as their next opponent. The game will be played at Shamrock Thursday, Oct. 15, at 7:00 p.m.

Miss Langford in Tech Drama

LUBBOCK.—Mary Helen Langford, Texas Tech University senior from Wellington, will play the role of a woman from Sparta in "Lysistrata," Tech's first theatrical production of the fall semester.

Performances are scheduled Oct. 9, 10, 11, 15 and 16 in the University Theatre, with a special performance on Oct. 29 for delegates to the Southwest Theatre Conference at Tech.

The rollicking comedy by Aristophanes centers attention on the women of ancient Greece and their unique method of bringing about peace between the embattled citizen states of Athens and Sparta.

Miss Langford, a theatre arts major, played the part of Louise in last summer's repertory theatre production of "The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie" and also served on production crews for "The Taming of the Shrew," "The Chalk Garden" and "Amphytrion 38."

She is the daughter of Mrs. Rosemary J. Langford of Wellington.

Gold Sunfish Really Green

AUSTIN.—All that glitters is not gold—it's a green sunfish, at least at the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department's Jasper Fish Hatchery.

Hatchery Supt. George White decided to investigate when he noticed some flashing gold in the channel catfish ponds. What he found was later verified as green sunfish, placed in the ponds as feed for the catfish.

But the fish were gold, a probable mutation which biologists in Texas and elsewhere had never encountered.

The find promises to be a veritable gold mine of study material for biologists.

Chillicothe Smothers Rockets 51-0 Friday

By STAN PARKER
The Eagles of Chillicothe outscored the Wellington Skyrockets by a score of 51-0 at Powell Field Friday night, Oct. 9.
The opening kickoff was received by the Eagles on the 15 and Grammer picked up 20 more yards before being brought down on his own 35. After one minor infraction during this series of downs, the Rocket defense powered by Taylor, Hendard, Sango, Long, Harris and Martin forced the Eagles to give up the ball on the Chillicothe 43.
One carry by Pendleton and another by Mark Killian was not enough for a Rocket first down, forcing a punt to the Eagles allowing them to take over on their own 10.
The Rockets' defense again contained the Eagle attack, demanding a punt that was taken by Rocket Denny Carter on his own 44, where he drove 8 yards to the 48 before being brought down. Coach Thayne Amonett's Rockets picked up three first downs on a drive which ended on the Eagles' 7 where a fumble gave possession to Chillicothe.
Quarterback Ricky Bivins used a ground attack with runs by Norice and Richardson for a march to the Rockets' 22. The Eagles' first score came on a 38-yard field goal by Barry Justice. It was 3-0 for Chillicothe.
Cantu received the kickoff for the Rockets on the 31, picking up 17 yards before being halted on his own 48. Running plays by Pendleton and Killian and an incomplete pass were not good enough for a first down, forcing the Rockets to punt to the Eagles, allowing them to take over on their own 8 yard line.
It was on the eighth play of this drive that Richardson broke for 46 yards to score Chillicothe's first touchdown. Justice kicked the conversion, making the score 10-0.
The second TD came late in the second quarter on a 21-yard aerial from Bivins to Baker. Justice made it 17-0 with his 1-point conversion kick.
It was on the third play of the second half when Eagle Tabor intercepted a Carter pass giving possession of the ball to Chillicothe. Five running plays later resulted in no substantial gain and the Eagles gave possession on the Rockets' 20.
Carter again went to the air but failed to make connection, forcing the Rockets to punt where the Eagles took over on their own 44.
Using the speed of Norice and Richardson, Chillicothe drove 48 yards in 10 plays before Norice carried the ball through the middle on an 8-yard play putting 6 more points on the board for the Eagles. Justice's own conversion attempt was blocked by Rocket David Hodges. It was 23-0 for Chillicothe.
Denny Carter made a connection with Hodges after Norman had picked up 7 yards on the kickoff return. The Rockets drove to the opponents' 32 before giving up the ball.
It was a confusing fourth quarter—the first play saw Charlie Taylor recovering an Eagle fumble; the second play, the Eagles recovering a Rocket fumble; the fourth play, Harris recovering another Eagle fumble, and finally on the ninth play, Bivins intercepted a Rocket pass, giving Chillicothe possession on the Wellington 49.

After a 13-yard gain up the middle by Richardson, Bivins danced around the right end 36 yards to score another TD. Justice's kick brought the score to 30-0.
The Eagles chalked up 21 more points in the fourth quarter on two running plays by Norice and a 75-yard pass play from Bivins to Norice, making the final score 51-0.

PRPC Seeks Upgrading of Area Law Enforcement

A comprehensive multi-year plan for upgrading law enforcement and criminal justice in the 24-county Panhandle Regional Planning Commission was received today by Governor Preston Smith's Criminal Justice Council.
Judge Joe Frazier Brown, executive director of the Criminal Justice Council, said it was among the first such plans to be received from a regional council. Each of the state's 24 regional councils will submit similar documents.

The Panhandle plan, along with those from the other 24 regional councils, will provide input for the 1971 Criminal Justice Plan for Texas, scheduled to go to the printer in December.
Included in the Panhandle plan is an evaluation of the criminal justice system, including problems, needs, resources, and priorities, of the entire region, which is made up of the counties of Collingsworth, Lipscomb, Potter, Randall, Armstrong, Briscoe, Carson, Castro, Dallam, Deaf Smith, Donley, Gray, Hall, Hansford, Hartley, Hemphill, Hutchinson, Moore, Ochiltree, Oldham, Parmer,

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Dear Deck:

Thanks for sending me the wonderful recipe for cabbage pie. Mrs. Regie Lewis from near Hollis, Okla., made me a fine dish and several ladies around Dodson have also promised me to make the same. It was so good that I have canned several jars for this winter. I labeled it the Wells, Rainier, Reid and McAfee cabbage pie. I will serve this pie only as a delicacy. I am also glad you specified hen eggs in your letter to me since there are so many others I might have used.

I also made your original cabbage cobbler filling. I cannot tell you exactly what happened, but when I poured your mix into my pastry and started the cooking process there was a series of small explosions much louder than the sound of milk poured over rice krispies. When my wife and I started to eat some of it we noticed a lot of green bubbles rising to the surface. My wife told me she wouldn't touch it with a ten-foot pole. I am so sorry, but we just had to pour it out.

You must remember, Mr. Wells, that Thomas Edison experimented many times before he could harness electricity, and I would beg you to keep trying until you have accomplished this worthwhile task.

I didn't intend to write such a long letter, but I wanted to thank you for making my life more tasteful. Because of your kindness, I trust that there will be stars in your crown.

Your eternal friend,
Garland Hightower

Scouts Receive Awards During Court of Honor

A near capacity crowd at First Christian Church watched while Boy Scouts of Troop 32 received awards and honors in the Court of Honor Monday evening, Oct. 5.

Three young men received the Eagle Award, highest earned award in Scouting. They were Ted McLain, Bobby Saied and Earl Hartman. Dave Agnew, district Scout executive, was chairman of the ceremony.

It is unusual that so many Eagle Awards should be presented at one time in a troop of this size, pointed out Glenn McLain, Scoutmaster, and father of one of the new Eagle Scouts.

Two boys, Randall Sims and Richard Sims, became Life Scouts, receiving the second highest award from Sandy Parsons, Jr. Two also became Star Scouts. They were Neal Cochran and Jimmy Saied. Zook Thomas made the presentation.

Six youths received First Class Scout awards, presented by Sam Adams. They were Tony Martinez, Tony Cox, Don Allred, Joe Baumgardner, Larry Adams and Grant Gragson.

Ten Scouts received Merit Badge awards from Assistant Scoutmaster Bill Long. Leading in the number received was Neal Cochran with five. Others were Donnie Settle, Steve Hartman, Richard Sims, Randall Sims, Jim Bob Nall, Dana Bell, Barry Long and Jimmy Saied.

Robert Dwight, superintendent of the Samnorwood School and chairman of the Comanche District, Boy Scouts of America, was the guest speaker.

Scouting has something of value to offer manhood, he pointed out. Through it, he can learn trust in God, trust in country, and trust in self.

"You have capable people in Scouting, but you can work a good horse to death. You can run them off," he told the Wellington group as he stressed the need for more adult leaders in the Scouting movement.

"Turning to the young Eagle Scouts, he concluded his talk. "Once the Eagle Badge is pinned on you, you are an Eagle forever," he declared.

The master of ceremonies was Marvin Garrison, minister of First Christian Church, which sponsors Troop 32. Committee Chairman Zook Thomas gave the call to order and Senior Patrol Leader Jim Bob Nall led the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

Promotion and maintenance of the camping program.

"While it is true that the boys pay their campers' fees, this in no sense of the word is enough to maintain the Adobe Walls Council Camp," said Mr. Agnew.

Wellington supports the most units of any community in the four-county Comanche District of Collingsworth, Hall, Donley, and Wheeler counties. However there was only one Boy Scout Troop five years ago. Now there are two organized Scout Troops, No. 32, sponsored by the First Christian Church with Glenn McLain as Scoutmaster and Bill Long as assistant, and No. 75, sponsored by the Community Action Program, with Jimmy Lee Barber as Scoutmaster.

There are two Cub Packs, No. 31, sponsored by the Wellington Kiwanis Club with Bill Anders as Cubmaster, and Pack 75 with Community Action as sponsor.

A new Explorer Post 32 is now being organized with the First Christian Church as the sponsor. Charles Carter will be the advisor and Bill Lindsey the associate advisor.

Samnorwood has three units, all sponsored by the Lions Club. These are Troop 39, Pack 39 and Post 39.

Currently finance drives are under way also at Clarendon, Kelton and Mobeetie. Drives will be launched about Nov. 1 in Shamrock, McLean and Hedley, Wheeler and Memphis put on drives in the spring.

In Gregg, the Irish have probably the outstanding back in the district, Amoneit believes. "Shamrock has good size, not big but with a lot of 175-pound boys. They are quick and they have quite a bit of speed. Altogether, they are well-balanced," said the Wellington head coach.

Rocket Youth Conference Has Annual Election

Members of the Skyrocket Youth Conference met recently in the high school auditorium to discuss a "Youth Drive Friendly Contest" for the student body. The conference will give an award to the friendliest driver.

Also discussed during the meeting was the collecting and selling of glass bottles and aluminum cans.

The following new officers were installed: Connie Bearden, president; Stan Parker, executive vice president; Nancy Shumate, secretary and treasurer; Katie Sullivan, public relations; Jan McGill, vice president of A&R; Cathy Singley, program chairman.

Attending the meeting were Carlos Hatch, Carole Cochran, Connie Bearden, Nancy Shumate, Judy Jones, Mitzi Pendleton, Katy Sullivan, Cathy Singley and Stan Parker.

New members were Edi Watkins, Phyllis Sullivan, Lennie Morgan, Sharron Robertson, Dian Brooks, Tina Nunnelle, Patti McAlister, Gwen Lewis, Nancy Graham, Dickie Johnson, Brent Wade, Debra Long and the sponsor, Mrs. John Coleman.

Dallas Man Killed Sat.

Ernest Hamilton of Dallas, brother of Mrs. O. E. Dodson, and twin brother of Mrs. O. E. Hilger, was killed when he was struck by a car Saturday night, Oct. 10.

The accident occurred as he got out of a pickup driven by his son.

Funeral services were held in Dallas Monday, Oct. 12. Mrs. Dodson and Mrs. Hilger went from here.

Firemen at Butane Fire Control Meet

Six members of the Wellington Volunteer Fire Department were guests of Ralph Owens, butane dealer, at a meeting and demonstration on control of butane fires in Altus, Okla., Monday, Oct. 12.

Attending were Chief Jim Sikes, Glen Norman, J. D. Baker, Jim Lowe, Bill Anders and Hurshel Pruitt.

The meeting was sponsored by an Altus insurance company.

The firemen were told that if the flow of butane from a burning tank cannot be controlled or shut off, then the fire should be allowed to burn itself out.

If the fire is put out and the flow is not controlled, then butane escaping from the tank, being heavier than air, will settle in low places and may set off a far more damaging and dangerous fire than the original one, speakers pointed out.

Draft Board to Induct Four

Texas Local Board No. 20 will send four men for induction Thursday, Oct. 15.

At the same time, five men are called for physical examination.

The October draft call for Texas is 674 and no man will be selected and ordered for induction with a random sequence number higher than 195, Col. Charles M. Duncan, acting state selective service director, said.

The state quota for pre-induction physical and mental examinations in October is 4,285, down from 7,171 in September. Men sent for these examinations will be limited to those with random sequence numbers 1 through 195 from the drawing in December 1969 and numbers 1 through 100, from the July 1970 drawing for those born in 1951. Col. Duncan said that approximately 4,100 men of the 1951 age group will be examined along with 185 older men.

In filling this call for examination, draft boards will order I-A, I-A-O, and I-O men of the 1970 random selection group before men born in 1951.

No registrant who is maintaining a bona fide family relationship with a child or children, and who qualifies for class III-A, will be ordered to report for examination.

All volunteers at the draft boards must be inducted ahead of the non-volunteers selected and ordered to report for induction by random sequence number.

FARM CREDIT

Texas banks were providing farmers and ranchers with more credit and other financial services than any other lenders at the beginning of this year, according to Tom Frost, Jr., of San Antonio, president of Texas Bankers Association.
