Ballard citizens report that hail was stacked ten inches deep on the Ballard School House grounds, late Sunday afternoon. J. M. Peterson, reports that on his farm two miles south of McCarty that hail fell some two or three feet deep.

According to the government test- er, belonging to Sam Moore, two and one half inches of rain has fallen in Lamesa since last week and two and one half to eight inches reported in different sections of the county.

Since the first of September Dawson county has had 6.97 inches of rain according to the tester.

G. V. FULTON

NEW TIRE STORE OPENED HERE THIS WEEK

Shook Tire Company of Lubbock, one of the best known automobile ac- cessories firms on the South Plains, is this week opening a tire store in La- mesa under the management of G. V. Fulton.

Mr. Fulton has already arrived in Lamesa and is fast making himself ac- quainted with the town and her citi- zens. Mrs. Fulton will, he stated yes- terday, join him here in the near fu- ture, and they expect to make Lame- sa their home for an indefinite period.

The local manager has been with the company two years, and has made an enviable record during his associa- tion with the firm. He has lived in West Texas six years, hailing original- ly from the fine little city of Gaines- ville. He declares, however, that he is now a full-fledged West Texan, ap- preciating all the good qualities of the section and quite ready to fight any- one who suggests that there might be some bad ones.

Mr. Fulton wishes to express his ap- preciation of the cordiality shown him and to ask that a share of the patron- age of Lamesa and Dawson county tire business be accorded the best on the market—Seiberlings.

METHODIST CHURCH PLACES BULLETIN BOARD ON CORNER OF COLLIN'S STORE

Rev. Bill Wallace, pastor of the First Methodist Church, announces that this week a large Neon electric sign with an electric clock and church bulletin board has been erect- ed on the north corner of Collin's Dry Goods Store.

The sign is six feet high and four feet wide and has around the outer sides advertising from 30 of the lo- cal merchants. An electric clock is at the top with the Methodist church bulletin board at the bottom. The center section is surrounded by the Neon electric tube.

The bulletin board will be changed each week, and will announce the ac- tivities of the Methodist church. Rev. Bill said Tuesday, "I have erected more expensive signs in Dallas and Houston, but none that look better than the one in Lamesa."

Local advertisers who have co- operated with Brother Bill in plac- ing this attractive sign in Lamesa are: West Texas Dairy Products Co., Barkhurst Beauty Shop, Coco Cola Bottling Company, Jesse Carroll, La- mesa Tailor Shop, Consumers Fuel Association, O. NO FEDERAL TAX ON HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL

Where the proceeds of admission to high school football games go to the schools there will be no federal tax on admission according to ad- vice from the office of the collector of internal revenue at Dallas.

Mrs. P. J. Stanley of Seminole was a Lamesa shopper Tuesday.

The opening football game of the season will be played on the home field Friday afternoon, when the La- mesa Golden Tornadoes meet the Big Spring Steers. This will be one of the most important games played this season, as Big Spring is a class A team, and was the highest scoring team in Texas in 1931. They have practically all their old players back this year.

The Tornadoes lost to Big Spring last year with a score of 13 to 0. This is the closest they were held with the exception of one team, that being Sweetwater who defeated them. The Tornadoes will be defending their championship won in district two last year.

The Lamesa players are in excel- lent shape for the game, they have practiced constantly for one month under the direction of coaches Mc- Collum and Gregg.

Local foot ball fans are urged to come out and see this game and see just what the Tornadoes are capable of doing this year. Three hundred fans from Big Spring are expected here for the game.

High school students will sell tick- ets for this game, and if the fans will buy these they will save at least thirty per cent.

MRS. MORRIS BRADLEY RECEIVES INJURIES WED.

Mrs. Morris Bradley received pain- ful cuts and bruises Wednesday at noon, when her car overturned near Merkel as she was returning from a visit in Dallas.

Mrs. Bradley was hurled some ten or more feet from the car, receiving many cuts about the body, as well as a dis- colored collar bone. Her little daugh- ter, Betty Jean, was also in the car, but was not injured.

Mrs. Bradley was brought to Lame- sa Wednesday night and is now rest- ing well at her home.

The car was considerably damaged.

STANTON AND BROWNFIELD GOLF GAME RAINED OUT LAST SUNDAY

The Kat Klaw golf game to have been played here Sunday between Stanton and Brownfield was rained out when it was about one half thru. The game would have decided the championship of the league. It is not yet known whether they will finish it or not.

Mrs. Earl Esmond of the Mt. Olive community has recently purchased a registered big bone Poland China male from H. G. Tolbert. This is a great grand-son of the Forever An Ace, owned by Ballard Stock Farm, also a great grand-son of New Hope, world grand champion Poland China Boar in 1928.

Mrs. Esmond's hog is a good indi- vidual and if properly developed will make a good show hog.

Next Monday, October 3rd, is La- mesa's big Trades Day, and thousands are expected to come and take advan- tage of the many prizes, games, and bargains offered by Lamesa mer- chants.

The fun program will start at ten o'clock in the morning, and there will be something happening that will en- tertain most of the day. It is expected to have terrapin races, battles royal, foot races, boxing matches, tug of war and many other contests that will match wits and muscles, each with a valuable prize for the winner.

BUT—one of the best contests will be the terrapin races for women. Any woman may enter a terrapin in the various groups, but each woman enters a terrapin must be present at the time her entry runs, and no ter- rapin will be allowed to re-enter the races in any group after losing in an- other group. None except winners of group contests will be allowed to com- pete for the final prize.

TWENTY DOLLARS IN GOLD WILL BE GIVEN TO THE LADY WHOSE TERRAPIN WINS IN THE FINAL CONTEST, AND PRIZES WILL ALSO BE GIVEN TO OWN- ERS OF WINNERS IN THE GROUP RACES. REMEMBER THIS CON- TEST WILL BE IN CHARGE OF COMPETENT JUDGES who will di- rect it and who will have full author- ity.

Frank Robinson will be in charge of contests and games for the day, and he is arranging some- thing worthwhile. You can count on Frank having something good for you. REMEMBER, there will be numerous prizes for all winners in the contests of the day.

BE ON HAND for the fun—but do not forget that Lamesa merchants are offering for the day REAL, HON- EST TO GOODNESS BARGAINS, and come prepared to take advantage of these as well as to enjoy the day and the fun that is sure to take place. Prizes will be given to all who win in the various contests and surely you will be one of the winners—if you are good enough.

LAMESA CEMETERY NEEDS ATTENTION

Reports come to the Courier office this week, that the Lamesa Cemetery is in a very bad condition since the recent rains.

It is said that many of the graves, especially the new ones are sinking in, some already more than one foot. The cemetery has no keeper at the present time, and people should drive out and look it over, and each do all they can to keep it in as good condition as possible.

Lesson for October 2

THE CHRISTIAN'S DEVOTIONAL LIFE

GOLDEN TEXT—But grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory now and for ever.

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 6:5-15; Daniel 6:10; II Timothy 3:14-17.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Talking to God.

JUNIOR TOPIC—What Real Prayer Is.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Christian's Devotional Life.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Means of Christian Growth.

The Christian's growth is by means of his devotional life. It requires the symmetrical development of his understanding and heart. Bible study and prayer go hand in hand. The believer's affections need proper direction and exercise.

I. The Christian's Prayer Life (Matt. 6:8-15).

In Christ's teaching in this passage on prayer we note:

1. False prayer (vv. 5-7). This consists:

a. In one praying to be seen and heard of men (v. 5). Many prayers uttered in public are false, for the supreme consideration is what the people think rather than what God thinks. Men who thus pray get a reward but not from God.

b. In using vain repetitions (vv. 7, 8). This does not mean that we should ask but once for the thing desired, for we have examples of Christ and Paul praying three times for the same thing (Matt. 26:39-46; II Cor. 12:7, 8); but rather that the use of meaningless repetitions, reiterations of empty sentences be avoided.

2. True prayer (v. 6). Real prayer is communion of the child of God with his heavenly Father. Life for its fullest development needs both solitude and companionship. God, our Creator, knew what our natures require. Therefore, he commands both public and private prayer (Heb. 10:25; Matt. 6:8).

3. The model prayer (vv. 9-13). This was given in response to the disciples' request that the Lord would teach them to pray (Luke 11:1).

a. A right relationship—"Our Father" (v. 9). Only those who have become children of God by faith in Jesus Christ can pray aright.

b. A right attitude—"Hallowed be thy name" (vv. 9, 10). When one realizes that he has been delivered from the power of darkness and translated into the kingdom of his dear Son (Col. 1:13) by being a child of God, he cannot help pouring out his soul in gratitude and praise, intensely longing for the kingdom, the righteous rule of Christ on the earth.

c. A right spirit (vv. 11-13). This spirit involves:

(1) Trust which looks to God for the supply of daily need. We are dependent upon him for our daily food. With all man's boasted progress he cannot make a harvest.

(2) The spirit of love which results in forgiveness of others. God will not listen to the prayers of one who has an unforgiving spirit.

(3) That of holiness which moves one to pray and not to be led into temptation and moves him to long to be delivered from the Evil One.

(4) Regular prayer (Dan. 6:10). Though prohibited by royal decree from asking a petition from any god or man except the king, Daniel did not depart from his regular custom of prayer to God three times a day.

II. The Christian's Bible Study (II Tim. 3:14-17).

This scripture exhibits the value of the Holy Scriptures. Devotional life undirected by the Scriptures will develop in a wrong direction. The affections need to be disciplined through the understanding.

1. The Scriptures able to make one wise unto salvation (v. 15). Salvation is in Christ alone. It is secured through faith in his finished work on the cross. True wisdom leads to Christ crucified since "there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved" (Acts 4:12), "and without shedding of blood is no remission" (Heb. 9:22).

2. The Scriptures discipline the life (vv. 16, 17). In the Scriptures doctrine is set forth, the standard of conduct which is absolutely needed. The only place to find God's standard of life is in his Holy Word. It not only exhibits the divine standard, but it reproves; that is, refutes error. The way to deal with error is not denunciation, but the positive presentation of truth. Then, too, it corrects; that is, sets straight many of the dislocations of personal and social conduct. The Word of God not only sets straight, but instructs in righteousness and equips for service.

GEMS OF THOUGHT

If you expect to get to heaven you must go in that direction.

Do not pray for easy lives; pray to be stronger men and women.

If I take care of my character, my reputation will take care of itself.

It is one thing to see the way you should go, and quite another to go the way you see.

TEXAS CHILDREN TO BE EXAMINED FOR T. B.

The executive committee of the Texas Tuberculosis Association met in Waco Tuesday, September 20, to consider a "Five Year Plan for the Study and Eradication of Tuberculosis in Texas", the plan was submitted by Dr. Elva A. Wright, Houston, chairman of a state wide committee appointed last May for the purpose of developing such a program. It was adopted as submitted.

Among other provisions, the plan outlines a suggested procedure for the examination of all school children in Texas for the detection of early or childhood type of tuberculosis. Some 25,000 children in various sections of the state have already received this examination and it is believed that five years of intensive work among children throughout the state will result in greatly reducing death rates from tuberculosis.

FEAR STIFLES INITIATIVE

The only thing that keeps most of us from realizing our own possibilities and of getting the highest satisfaction out of life is fear. There are very few human beings in the world who are not afraid of something, and as long as one is afraid of anything he cannot achieve perfect happiness.

Primitive man must have lived in a state of almost constant terror. He was afraid of wild beasts, afraid of enemies of other tribes, afraid of thunder and lightning, afraid of evil spirits that lurked in the darkness of the forest—of real dangers and of unreal dangers which he imagined. Very few people in these days have the perfectly natural physical fears that surround the lives of our ancestors. But who of us has not some mental fear, fear of something that has not happened but which we think may happen to ourselves or our loved ones?

In the past two or three years the people of the United States have been the prey of a new kind of fear. They have been afraid that, in the popular phrase the bottom has dropped out of everything. They have feared that never again would they have a job, that the factories that have shut down would never start up, that they would never be able to sell the products of their farms—those and a thousands other fears which have no relation to common sense of reality seemed to take possession of perhaps the majority of Americans.

And that is one of the reasons we have been so slow in coming out of the economic crisis. We have been afraid to use our intelligence and common sense and go ahead when everybody else was afraid to do anything but accept conditions as they are and paint them, mentally, much worse than they are.

We see signs that this widespread fear is beginning to disappear. We do not believe it ever had any real foundation, and we believe people are waking up to the fact. If we are right, and hope and courage are beginning to replace fear, then we have made a good start toward the return of good times.—Northern Lyon County Journal, Allen Kan.

GOVERNMENT OR CHARITY MUST FEED 25,000,000 THIS WINTER

Whether or not business has turned the corner, it is conservative to estimate that next winter's relief problem will involve caring for 25,000,000 souls whose income has been totally cut off by the depression.

This statement is made and substantiated by a nation-wide survey of unemployment relief which appears under the heading of "No one has starved" and the sub-head "Which is not true" in the September issue of Fortune Magazine.

Fortune declares that the number of totally unemployed in the U. S. will be 11,000,000 next winter at the present rate of increase. With their dependents, this will mean 27,500,000 whose income will have stopped. Some of these 27,500,000 still have savings and others resources but at least 25,000,000 will require charity or other relief, the magazine says. The Federal allowance of $300,000,000 for loans to the states for unemployment relief works out to only $12 apiece for those who must be supported by public or private charity through the winter, Fortune points out.

"The problem was never honestly attacked as a national problem—the facts were never frankly faced as facts."

FARM PRODUCTS LEAD AUGUST PARADE TOWARD BETTER PRICES, U. S. FINDS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19—Farm products led the Labor department's index of wholesale commodity prices in a "marked increase" from July to August.

In making this announcement, the department gave the weighted index of the 784 commodities included in the study as 65.2 for August, compared with 64.5 for July. The average 1926 prices are taken as 100.

213 Increase Seen
"Between July and August price increases took place in 213 instances and decreases in 135 instances, while in 436 instances no change in price occurred," the department said. "When compared with August, 1931 a decrease of 9 1-2 per cent has been recorded in the twelve months."

The farm products group made the greatest gains, advancing 2 1-2 per cent in the month period. Increases were recorded in the average prices of barley, corn, rye, wheat, calves, poultry, cotton, eggs, hay and peanuts.

"Decreases in the average prices of oats, cows, hogs, fresh apples, lemons, oranges, leaf tobacco, and onions were shown in August."

Food Goes Up
Among food prices, the department reported increases for butter, cheese, rye, and wheat flour, fresh and cured beef, cured pork, veal, coffee, lard, raw and granulated sugar and most canned vegetables.

The textile product group was reported to have moved upward 2 1-2 per cent and metals and metal products to have shown an upward tendency.

The fuel and lighting commodity group was driven downward nearly one-half of one per cent by decreases in bituminous coal and petroleum products.

NOW THE AMENDMENTS

In November at the general election Texas voters are going to decide the fate of several proposed amendments to the state constitution.

Now will everybody who has his mind made up to make a study of these amendments and vote an informed conviction either for or against them, please rise.

TEXAS TO GET HUGE SUM OF FEDERAL FUND FOR HIGHWAYS

Construction of 1500 miles of surfaced roads in Texas is embodied in the $10,000,000 emergency highway program approved by Federal district engineer C. E. Swain of Fort Worth.

A total of $9,864,621 in Federal funds is available for highway construction in Texas, Swain said. The national government set aside $7,646,201 for Texas under the recent unemployment relief act. A total of $2,200,000 remains in the state's regular federal aid fund.

First project of the relief program let by the state highway commission at Austin September 19 and 20. Swain completed examination of the program. His summary follows:

Drainage and drainage projects, to be paved later, 630 miles.

Surfacing, type to depend on traffic conditions, 350 miles.

New grading, drainage and paving, 120 miles.

New grading, drainage and surfacing 125 miles.

Millions of years ago—even before the ancient Brontosaurus lived—Nature formed the Cambro-Ordovician oil pool in Oklahoma. Today this oldest of Mid-continent crudes is piped to the great Sinclair refineries where it is refined, blended, de-waxed, freed from petroleum jelly and made into Sinclair Opaline—a product resulting from 80 million years of filtering and mellowing. THE OLDEST LIVING THING

The oldest living thing known in the world is the redwood tree named General Sherman in Sequoia National Park, California, reports "Boy's Life", the monthly journal of the Boy Scouts of America. This tree
"is as old as history itself, having begun to grow between 4,000 and 5,000 years ago. It was a large tree before the golden age of Greece, before the Egyptian pyramids were built," continues "Boys' Life." "It was at least 2,000 years old when Christ was born."

"This tree is still in its prime.
Despite its age and the damage to its base by forest fires of countless centuries, it has continued to flourish and to day produces thousands of cones from which young plants grow. This tree," continues "Boys Life," "stands 273 feet high and is 102 feet in circumference at the base. At one hundred feet above the ground it is fifty-eight feet around its trunk. There is enough lumber in its trunk to build five hundred five room houses."

EXCAVATIONS IN NORTH PLAINS REVEALS RACE HERE 600 YEARS AGO

An unidentified race, whose advent and departure are unknown, reached a high state of civilization in the Texas Panhandle 600 years ago.

The date is fixed by W. C. Holden, professor of history at Texas Technological College, Lubbock, who with a party of students, has excavated two of the many ruins in the Panhandle. It was announced after Holden had removed some of the pottery found in the ruins to the laboratory of anthropology at Santa Fe, N. M., for close study.

"These people lived in large and substantial communal houses, built of stone, maintained a settled order of municipal life, and made various experiments in agriculture," Holden said.

More than 100 ruins of homes ranging in size from one room to 300 rooms, have been located and mapped by Floyd V. Studer, Amarillo business man and director of archaeology and paleontology of the Panhandle-Plains historical society museum at Canyon. Most of them are found in the Panhandle.

Holden's work was done through the courtesy and under the auspices of the museum.

One of the ruins excavated by Holden contained 29 rooms and the other 83. The first measured 163 feet long and 50 feet wide. He found three types of masonry, elabstone, horizontal and then combination of the two. The walls of horizontal masonry are of smooth and evenly placed stones, reflecting a high-grade of workmanship.

"Their arrowheads, knives and hide scrapers made from flint, and their many bone artifacts were far superior to those of the later plains Indians," Holden said. "Plain methods were used in their pottery construction. Every piece showed fibric impressions. It was tempered with quartz and mica, and was harder than Pueblo pottery."

"They smoked pipes of soapstone and pottery construction. Their many ornaments included inlaid turquoise objects from the mines of south of Santa Fe, N. M. and shell beads from the Pacific coast. They also used local material for ornaments, including bones and polished pebbles.

"Buffalo meat was the chief source of food, but they also ate deer, antelope, bear, turkey, and small wild game. They grew corn on small-irrigated tracts along the streams."

It was the identification of intrusive pottery belonging to the period of about 1350 which enabled Holden to establish the date. He believes these people inhabited the Panhandle. They probably had been here hundreds of years prior.

PULLING OUT THE DEPRESSION

That old negro referred to by the New York Times in a dispatch from Dalton, Ga., must have been a pioneer caddy. According to the story, Thomas S. Shope, editor of the North Georgia Citizen asked the aged colored man what he thought of the depression. 'Depression ain't nothin' but a go'f game, Marse Shope,' the negro replied. 'All it takes to overcome it is three putts. Putt you' faith in Gawd, putt you' Ford in de garage and putt you' women in the fields.'

"Does your wife select your clothes, too?"

"No—she only picks the pockets."

A farmer told his physician that he drank as many as fifteen cups of coffee in one day.

"Doesn't it keep you awake?" asked the doctor.

"It helps," replied the farmer.

Rastus—Ah's sho' advanced in de pas' couple of years.

Mose—How's dat?

Rastus—Well, two years ago ah was called the lazy loafer, and now ah's listed as an unfortunate victim of de unemployment sitchee-ayshun.

An old darky was sent to the hospital and one of the nurses put a thermometer in his mouth to take his temperature. Presently, when the doctor made his rounds, he said: "Well, Mose, have you had any nourishment?"

"A lady done gimme a piece of glass to suck, boss; but I'se still pow-ful hungry."

Nurse—Sir, the stork has just brought you a new son.

Absentminded Professor—Great! But don't tell my wife—I want to surprise her.

Miss Arlene Dyess who spent the summer with Mrs. Cleve Austin in Ruidosa, N. M. is visiting her brother in Lubbock this week.

"Meals cook faster on my electric range"

Meals do cook faster on an electric range—you'll be very much surprised at the speed of the modern electric range oven. Ten minutes or less, depending on the temperature required, is all that is needed before baking begins. Every bit of heat from the two heating coils is concentrated on the food, due to practically perfect insulation.

Likewise, the surface units. These units are in direct contact with the utensils being used and no waste heat is let loose about the room. And, you don't have large quantities of water to boil—electric cookery uses very little water, as you know.

Meals actually cook faster on an electric range.

Long Nights.. More Lights Fill Those Empty Light Sockets NOW

Long winter nights are not far away—already lights are being turned on quite early. Make sure your lighting facilities are in tip-top condition—fill every socket and keep a few bulbs in reserve.

Let the Iron Do the Work

You do the guiding—the electric iron will do the work. Sufficient weight smooths the wrinkles, proper heat does the pressing, a glass-like ironing surface almost glides over clothes without any pushing at all. This is sound advice—let the iron do the work.

MRS. JOE BURLESON HONORED WITH TWO LOVELY SHOWERS

The beautiful home of Mrs. R. A. Stuart was the scene of two lovely showers last Saturday given by Mrs. Raymond Hatch and Mrs. Stuart, honoring Mrs. Joe Burleson, formerly Miss Nadine McMahan.

The decorations consisted of pink rose buds, emblematic of the bride herself. In her gown of black and pink she was indeed as lovely as a rose bud.

As the bride entered the living room Mrs. Matt McCall played softly "Here Comes The Bride". Miss Asalie Key sang, "In the Luxembury Gardens," and Silver Moon. If For Brides," was read by Miss Loretta Rainey. Little Maxine McMahan sister of the bride, sang "Some Body Loves You," Miss Audene Ragan, read "A Gift From Heaven."

Then came the big surprise, Misses Elizabeth Arnett and Audene Ragan dressed as pirates rushed into the room with swords drawn, and knives dangerously close to the bride who was forced to help search all guests on board the ship, and a splendid haul they made too.

On Saturday afternoon three gypsy fortune tellers in the persons of Misses Ruth Lee Stuart, Roberta Lee Hanson and Elizabeth Arnett, appeared carrying a large pack, which they presented to Mrs. Burleson. Many and beautiful gifts were received by the bride.

The guest list was presided over by Misses Miriam Goodloe, Sybil Mitchell and Dorthula Watson.

Iced watermelon was served by Misses Grace Robertson and Nell Goodloe to about forty five guests.

MRS. J. H. HARP HOSTESS TO TUESDAY CLUB

Mrs. J. H. Harp delightedly entertained member of the Tuesday Bridge Club Tuesday afternoon at her home.

Dahlia and Golden Glo were used as decorations in the entertaining rooms. At the conclusion of the afternoon's play Mrs. Lee Hanson held high score, receiving a pair of silk hose as award.

A delicious salad course was served to the following guests, Mesdames A. G. Barnard, Hanson, J. E. Garland, J. L. Sybert, Gordon McGuire, Elzie Burleson, F. T. McCollum, Philip Yonge, Tom Burnside, Truman Campbell, and the hostess. The club will meet next week with Mrs. Roscoe Holton.

ACE HIGH BRIDGE CLUB REORGANIZED

Mrs. T. F. Vaughn delightfully entertained with bridge last Wednesday evening at her home at which time the Ace High Bridge Club was reorganized.

At the conclusion of the bridge games Miss Thelma Guerrant held high score receiving a deck of cards. Miss Myrtis Wright was given a handkerchief for high cut.

A delicious salad course was served to the following guests: Misses Guerrant, Wright, Jewel Towns, Com mie Zell Barnes, Bettye Travis, Mary Roach, Maurine Morgan, Marie McDonald, Thelma Lee and Helen Norman, Nell Goodloe, Allene Graham, Asalie Key, Audrey Faye Bailey, Rhoda Lou Clark and the hostess.

Tom Cutler of Augusta, Houston county, is here visiting his brother, Dr. Hall W. Cutler.

Miss Margaret Morris and Bryan Roquemore attended the South Plains Fair in Lubbock Tuesday.
