The first accident was reported on Sunday at about 8 p.m. on Highway 35 near King Street. Mrs. Dora Thomas, of Corpus Christi, braked her car to avoid hitting a dog in her path and skidded on the wet pavement, hitting a mail box. She did approximately $150 worth of damage to her car.

According to Assistant Chief Stautzenberger's report, the second accident was at 10:45 p.m. the same day at the intersection of Church and Laurel Streets. Miss Rosie Wolfram backed her vehicle into a parked automobile belonging to John Tanner of Ingleside. There was $85.00 worth of damage done to the Tanner car and no damage to the Wolfram car. First National Bank Celebrates 75th Anniversary

The First National is celebrating its 75th Anniversary today with an all-day Open House, from 9:30 a.m. to 12:00 and 1:00 to 2:30 p.m., to which the public is cordially invited.

to its present location in March, 1958. One of the oldest in the Coastal Bend, it is a "Full Service Bank" whose officers and directors are: F. W. Heldenfels, President; Jas. H. Sorenson, Jr., Executive Vice-President; Charles LaBounty, Vice-President and Cashier; Fred A. Bracht, Vice-President; A. C. Glass, Vice-President; F. W. Heldenfels, Jr., James R. Heldenfels, Travis Johnson, T. D. Picton and Mrs. Margaret Touchstone, Assistant Cashier.

P&WL REGIONAL DIRECTOR DISCUSSES SOUTH TEXAS PROBLEMS AND PROJECTS

Robert G. Mauermann, Regional Director of the Parks and Wildlife Department in South Texas, spoke to the Rockport Conservation Association on Tuesday, Sept. 21. Mr. Mauermann discussed the prospects for the coming hunting season in South Texas, the Department's plans and the problems faced by the Department in the conservation of natural resources in the coastal areas.

"During the last three and a half years," Mauermann said, "we have come a long way in our efforts to conserve the natural resources of the bays in this area. What was mere conversation then, is now law. We are grateful for progressive people who have helped us in our endeavor to provide increased harvest opportunities for both the commercial interests and the sportsman and, at the same time, protect our resources from depletion."

The white-winged dove season in the Rio Grande Valley was discussed and, though not considered a complete success, the hunters were moderately successful and the prospects for next year are exceedingly bright.

The quail prospects for South Texas haven't been better since 1958, according to Mauermann. Although a few areas may have had no significant quail increase, both "Bobwhites" and "Blues" are to be found in large numbers in most sections.

Conditions have been such that the deer in South Texas should be bigger, fatter, and have better antler development than at any time in recent years. Counties under regulatory responsibility of the Department again have the deer season opening on the second Saturday of November. This year this falls on the 13th of November while the traditional opening day under general law is the 16th.

Duck season opens Nov. 24, but goose shooting begins Oct. 30. The bag limit on ducks is again only four a day and this limit may contain only one pintail and one mallard. Redheads have prospered to the extent that the entire limit may be redheads if the hunter wishes. The limit may include not more than two canvasbacks nor more than two wood ducks.

The bag limit of geese remains at five per day and may not include more than one Ross's goose, two Canada geese or one Canada goose and one white-fronted goose, or one white-fronted goose.

Mauermann went on to discuss shell dredging and pollution in our bays. The dredging of 100,000 cubic yards of shell from designated sites in Copano Bay has been completed and the dredges removed from the bay. During this operation, a P&WL biologist continually checked on the results of the dredging and found no adverse results. Had any harmful effects been noted the dredges would have

1500 Pounds Of Clothing Collected

Bob Hewes, Adjutant of the local VFW post, advised today that approximately 1500 pounds of clothing has been collected by VFW members since last Saturday. Many various items of clothing, both men's and women's, were donated by the citizens of Aransas County for the disaster relief program which the local post is carrying on. The town of Triumph, La., has been selected by the post as the disaster town to be the recipient of the clothing from Rockport.

Hewes stated that the people evidently did not just rid their closets of clothing that was no longer useable, but that almost every item of clothing collected was good and usable. The local VFW post wishes to thank each and every person who donated clothing so that they might send it on and help these people in their time of need.

14-Year-Old Apprehended After Wild Chase

A 14-year-old boy was apprehended by the local unit of the Texas Department of Public Safety after a wild chase Saturday afternoon.

As the patrol unit was going through Rockport on routine patrol, the patrol car driver, R. R. L. Brown, noticed a young boy at the wheel of a 1965 model automobile coming off Church Street onto Liberty Street. When the patrol car slowed down to turn around and check the driver, the boy sped away. Patrolman Brown pursued the vehicle and stated that the boy ran at least three stop signs, with speeds up to 90 miles per hour near the Elementary School and at one point almost overturned the car he was driving.

The boy was finally apprehended near Judge E. B. Crawford's residence on Laurel Street. Charges were filed in Judge Crawford's Justice of the Peace court and the boy was fined a total of $60.00 plus court costs on two cases.

Upon questioning, the boy admitted stealing the car from the Sacred Heart Catholic Church. After being tried in Justice court, he was placed in the Juvenile Shelter at the county jail by Police Chief Bob Hewes to appear before the County Juvenile Officer, Judge John Wendell.

Later on Saturday, the boy was released to his parents. He is to appear in Juvenile Court on Friday at 10 a.m. to answer a Juvenile Delinquency charge. The teenager stated that he had had a key made for the car earlier in the week but this was his first try at driving it.

More Hot Checks Show Up In City

Chief of Police Bob Hewes warned today that more and more hot checks are showing up in local business houses. He states that this is the time of the year that law enforcement agencies are plagued with calls on checks.

Hewes stated that if business people would take more precautions with identification procedures, the number of hot checks would be cut drastically. If the person is not known locally, get positive identification, take driver's license number, automobile license number, if possible, and write them on the check. This will help expedite the identification and apprehension of these hot check writers.

POEM WRITTEN ON WEATHER

In studying a unit on weather, the class of Mrs. Lucille Schultz collected poems about weather. As a result of this project, one of the students in the class, Edward Ernst, wrote an original ode to the weather:

It's hot in the sun
When it's 101;
When the temperature's up
And the barometer's down,
You can be sure
Rain will come down.
When there is a hurricane,
There is a lot of rain.
When there's a tornado,
We pick up our dough—
and go.

MRS. ODES GILLEY'S CLASS HEARS TALK ON RATTLESNAKES

Mrs. Odes Gilley's class at Rockport Elementary School had the pleasure of listening to a very interesting talk about "rattlesnakes" Tuesday afternoon, by Charles Hargrove, employee of Rockport Yacht and Supply Co.

Mr. Hargrove brought a number of rattles which he had collected from snakes he killed, to show the children.

The students are beginning work on a paper mache snake, which they will enter in the art exhibit at the TSTA Convention held in Corpus Christi this next month.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sutherland of Corpus Christi spent the weekend as guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Cochran.

LIBRARY CLUB OF HIGH SCHOOL MEETS

The Library Club of Aransas County High School has elected the following officers for the new school year. Those elected were:

President, Bobbie Lynn Lynn Taylor; vice president, Pam Novosad; secretary, Ann Crickenberger; treasurer, Pat Falk; historian, Steven Harry, and T. W. Armstrong; parliamentarian, Betty Bauer and Jackie Taylor; reporters, Sarah Eason and Lola Kelso.

Sponsor the club is Mrs. Lloyd Branch.

Library News

The most recent addition to the Reference section of the library is the definitive Biography of George Washington, by Douglas Southall Freeman, in seven volumes, published by Charles Scribner's sons.

Volumes I and II deal with the life of young George, 1731-1759. Volume II treats of the Planter and the Patriot, 1759-1778. Volume IV continues in this same area. Volume V presents the years 1777-1781 and Volume VI gives us much of the same Presidential Travels in the North, 1789-1790. Volume VII, completing the Biography by Douglas Southall Freeman and gratefully devoted to his memory, was written by John Alexander Carroll and Mary Wells Ashworth.

This volume begins with Washington's 61st birthday and covers the remaining seven years. The author's (Freeman) objective—to make his subject come alive for present day Americans and for posterity—was achieved and made to become a definitive biography by the completion of Volume VII.

The reference shelf of the library is very well stocked with books of valuable information, dealing with General Works, Natural Science, Philology, some German, French, Italian, Spanish, etc. dictionaries, history and numerous subjects of interest to young and old alike.

The general public is invited to come in and browse. The library is open on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday from 2 to 5 p.m. and on Saturday morning from 9 until 12 a.m.

VFW HOLDS MEETING TUESDAY

The Commander in Chief of the VFW sent a letter to all posts asking for donations to the Louisiana relief fund. It was decided that a check be sent to this fund.

J. W. Hunt reported that he attended a four day school for Veterans Service Officers and that he obtained much good information from the school.

It was decided to continue the $1,000.00 accidental death insurance policy for this year. Each active, paid up member receives this insurance.

The clothing that was collected is due to be packed Wednesday night and shipped to Louisiana as soon as possible.

IMPROVISED TOASTER

Toast in camp usually is either clammy or burned to a crisp. Either way, it is far from appetizing.

But the camp cook who will place a piece of metal plastering lath on top of the camp stove, or set it in the bottom of a skillet to serve as a toaster, will have the fellows standing in line for seconds.

TWO TRUCKS RAISED FROM ARANSAS BAY

Two Gulf Research and Development Company ton and a half panel trucks came from the bottom of the bay covered with mud and sand and with $10,000 worth of recording instruments ruined by salt water.

The trucks sank below water level Monday morning beyond the Intracoastal Canal, when a barge on which the trucks were loaded, crossing to St. Joseph's Island, began taking water. T. H. Ratliff and a crew of men from Rockport Boat Works took a derrick barge out to the point in the bay where the trucks sank, worked for nine hours getting lines on the trucks and lifted them to the edge of the barge. Four shrimp boats towed in the barge.

During a very destructive hurricane which struck the area several weeks previous to the incident, most of the company trucks were badly damaged when their garage blew down, but the recording trucks had stood in the middle of the wreckage with no more damage than could have been done by a man with a hammer.

been shut down or moved at once. Heldenfels Brothers, Inc. have been granted a new permit to dredge a "plug" of shell from the mouth of St. Charles Bay. This was done at the request of biologists who believe this will assist in water circulation of the bay, thus making it more productive as a nursery grounds for fish, shrimp, crabs, etc.

"Pollution of our bays is now our No. 1 problem," Mauermann said, "and the help of every interested citizen is needed."

Pollution by some drilling companies has become so serious that the General Land Office has been asked to help with the problem. The Land Commissioner has responded in a very favorable manner and drastic action to stop this type pollution may be expected in the future.

"You may be assured," Mauermann concluded, "that the Parks and Wildlife Department is going to continue to do everything in its power to conserve the natural resources of the bays while still allowing the maximum harvest permissible under good management practices."

HOMEcoming BARBECUE FOR CONGRESSMAN AND MRS. JOHN YOUNG SET FOR OCTOBER 13, IN SINTON

Sinton—A homecoming barbecue for Congressman and Mrs. John Young is in the planning stage following a committee meeting of area friends here last week. Tickets are being distributed throughout the 14th Congressional District for the affair which will be held at the Rob and Bessie Welder Park on Wednesday evening, Oct. 13, at 7 p.m.

G. A. "Dick" Gerdes of Sinton is overall chairman and will be assisted by Dr. J. E. Bauer of Refugio in supervising all arrangements for the affair. Gerdes presided at a meeting of last week when preliminary planning was outlined for the barbecue.

Over 5,000 friends and supporters of John Young are expected to converge on this centrally located district site. The spacious Rob and Bessie Welder Park, under the oak trees, proves to be a popular spot for such affairs. The location is some three miles north of Sinton on U. S. 181.

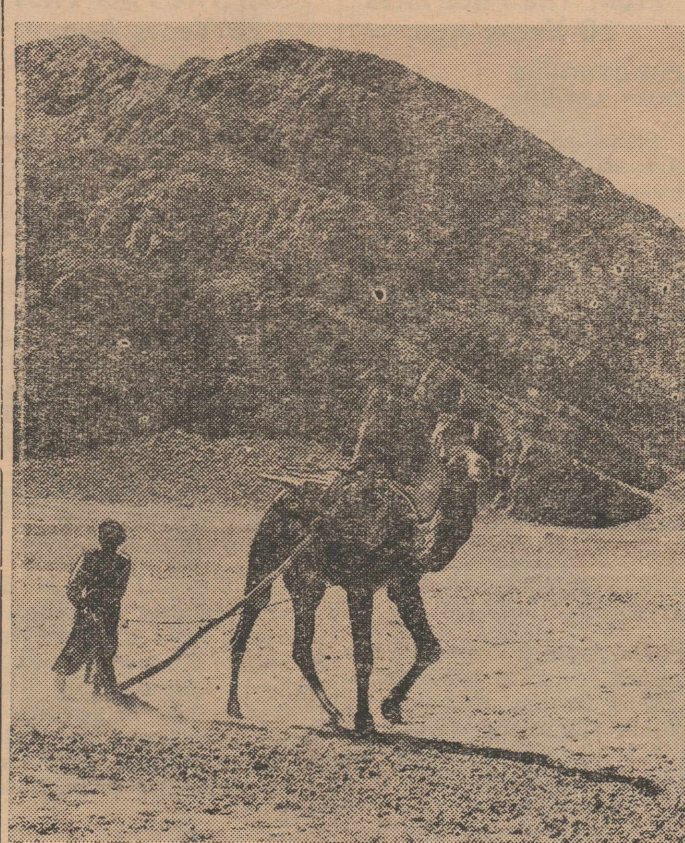

Gerdes said that the ladies are especially invited to attend the old fashioned barbecue, which will include barbecued beef, entertainment, refreshments and all the trimmings. Cong. Young, who has served the district since 1956, has become a very popular figure throughout the 18-county area especially due to his loyal and dedicated service to the people of South Texas. OF WAR AND PEACE. When Pakistanis clashed with Indian troops over Kashmir, both sides used the most modern of weapons, such as tanks and jet fighter planes. Ironically, their tools of peace are less modern. 75 YEARS ago a small group of businessmen with foresight and energy banded together to found one of the first banking institutions in the great Coastal Bend. The original charter for the bank that was to become the First National Bank of Rockport was granted in September of 1890.

Through good times and depressions . . . bountiful years and drought . . . peace and war . . . balmy sunshine and hurricane the bank both suffered and prospered with the community. Through able leadership and an intimate understanding of the specific requirements of the community and the business in the region, the bank grew in resources and prestige. Today, as a FULL SERVICE BANK, its officers look to the past with pride and to the future with confidence.

Far North Hides Fate of Whoopers

Austin. — The far north nesting bastion of the eccentric Whooping Cranes has just added another mysterious chapter to the summer season, according to the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Advices from the Canadian Wildlife Service at Edmonton to the Whooper Network, and monitored by the Texas Department, indicate concern over two young previously observed in the Sass River area of the Wood Buffalo National Park.

Tom Wood, Canadian Wildlife Service technical officer, reported from his Fort Smith Northwest Territory headquarters:

"Ten adult birds and one young were the only whoopers sighted during the last aerial survey. It is hoped that the two other young observed on the previous survey have already moved southward with their parents but we will have to await further sighting along the flyway for confirmation."

This adds further negative angles to the last crane count earlier this month when it was reported only three of the previously observed six young whoopers were accounted for.

High hopes were held by naturalists everywhere that the previous survey might reflect a repeat of last year's nesting successes which sent ten young whoopers southward to their wintering ground at the Aransas National Wildlife Refuge on the Texas coast. These ten, plus 32 adults, left the refuge for the northland last spring.

Ornithologists, familiar with the chronic secrecy associated with whooper movements, still believe the 1965 hatch will produce another substantial addition for the giant cranes which have bordered on the verge of extinction almost since the turn of the century.

They point to the areas in the Canadian wilds, reaching close to the Arctic Circle, where the whoopers long have defied human observation.

Woodsboro Batters Rockport 45-0

The Woodsboro Eagles of District 31-A smashed the Rockport Pirates of District 30-AA, 45-0, here Friday night.

The Eagles scored in all four quarters, with the defensive unit setting up the first two touchdowns. Eddie Havel recovered a fumble in the end-zone to begin the scoring parade. Then Havel scored on a quarterback keeper after Woodsboro took over on the one-yard line following a blocked punt.

In the second period Mifflin Ivy crashed over from the two to cap a long drive. William Tolliver kicked the point.

The last score in the first half came on a 40-yard pass from Havel to Tolliver.

In the third quarter Robert Goynes passed to Phillip Lewis for a score from the 20. In the final quarter Elijah Temell plunged over from the one. In the last two seconds of the game Larry Hodges took the ball on a double reverse and scampered 65 yards for a score.

HOSPITAL AND MEDICAL INSURANCE UNDER SOCIAL SECURITY

The enactment of a health insurance program gave new meaning to Social Security for thousands of South Texans. H. M. Cleveland, Social Security district manager in Corpus Christi says.

Health insurance protection becomes effective July 1, 1966. For that reason, older persons should not drop private health insurance policies before next July. Some policies will be revised to consider medicare by then.

"Almost everyone who is now 65 before 1968 will be eligible for the health insurance which is in two parts," according to Cleveland.

The two parts are: "Hospital insurance" and "medicare insurance." Together, the two will go a long way toward paying the cost of health care for most older persons.

"Medicare information kits are now being mailed to all over 65 social security beneficiaries," the manager said. "The kits explain that old age insurance beneficiaries will have hospital insurance protection. However, they must sign and return a simple application form to get the medical insurance benefits."

All workers over 65 who have not applied for their retirement insurance must sign up before April 1, to get the health protection. Even those who are still working and earn too much to receive the cash retirement benefits will be eligible for medicare.

Plans are being made to sign up recipients of state old age assistance. They should not call on the social security office now. All other 65 year olds should apply before April 1, 1966, Cleveland emphasized.

Further information can be secured from the social security Administration, 1802 South Staples Street, Corpus Christi, Texas.

VICE-PRESIDENT

A. C. Glass

During the 75th anniversary of the First National Bank this week, A. C. Glass, who retired from active management in February 1948, recalled his early banking days in Rockport.

"When I came to Rockport in 1922," he said, "Cyrus B. Lucas was president and chief stockholder. On his invitation to join his staff, I left the bank at Angleton, where I was assistant cashier."

"At that time the wreckage of the storm of 1919 was still evident along the waterfront and in certain areas of the town. The old three story bank building showed effects of the holocaust. Water had been about waist deep in the structure and a mark in the vault about three feet above the floor depicted the highest point attained by the flood waters."

"There were only about 800 or 900 people in Rockport during those years," Glass continued, "and the business was commercial fishing and oystering. There was practically no tourist business and it was about 1926 before shrimping started."

"By 1930 there were about 20 shrimp boats working out of Rockport, the largest about 36 feet long. The fish houses would send the boats out only when they needed shrimp. The shrimp had to be shipped green and the boats would bring in only the amount the houses could use."

"In the early years, the bank was not in very good shape. It had been founded in 1890 and later taken over by Lucas, who was ranching on St. Joseph Island. At that time there were only about $80,000 in deposits. But the people were nice, and practically all of the businessmen pitched in, with the result that we had the bank in good shape in a very few years."

"F. W. Heldenfels became interested in the bank and during the depression years acquired the interest held by Lucas."

The bank weathered the depression years under the guidance of Glass and Heldenfels. The deposits grew from $80,000 to $450,000. At the end of World War II when Glass (today a vice president) retired after 26 years as cashier, deposits had reached $800,000.

He says that in 1933 the bank was capitalized at $25,000, with a $10,000 surplus. In 1956, although the capital was still set at $25,000, the surplus and reserve had grown to $175,000. The same year, its capital was increased by the sale of additional stock.

When Glass retired, James H. Sorenson, Jr., now executive vice president, became head of the operation and under his leadership during the past 20 years, the bank has continued to grow.

At the June 30th call this year, it was capitalized at $150,000, with 3,000 shares of
