MAP SHOWS CONCENTRATION POINTS IN COUNTY SCRAP DRIVE

The above map gives Scurry County's 22 consentration centers for Tuesday's all-out scrap metals drive that will touch every community and rural sector in the county. Community committees for the drive were named early this week by Scurry County's scrap salvage committee, and will be found elsewhere in this issue of The Times. Since June 1 Scurry County has contributed in excess of 1,500,000 pounds of scrap iron and steel to the nation-wide drive, and is expected to push the total to the 2,000,000 pound mark by Tuesday night. Let's get in the scrap, Scurry County, and get that iron and steel going to the front.

RALLIES WILL PRIME SPIRITS FOR TUESDAY

Out-of-Town Speakers to Address County Gatherings Saturday P. M. and Monday Night

Hundreds of Snyder and Scurry County people are expected to attend the two rallies here over the week-end which are due to "whoop up" interest in the county's all-out scrap metal drive Tuesday of next week.

First rally to arouse county-wide interest in the scrap iron and steel drive will be staged Saturday afternoon, 4:00 o'clock, on the northwest corner of the courthouse lawn, according to Scurry County's scrap salvage committee.

Saturday afternoon's rally will get underway with a concert by Snyder's Tiger Band, directed by A. M. Martin. Principal speaker will be Joe B. McAdams, assistant executive secretary of the Texas general salvage committee, Dallas. McAdams will have a message for every man, woman and child of Scurry County, and invites the general public to participate in the festivities.

Second county-wide rally to infuse a last-minute touch of enthusiasm in Tuesday's drive will be held Monday evening on the courthouse lawn.

Snyder's Tiger Band, directed by Martin, will give another concert, and principal speaker will be Ed F. Jay of Sweetwater, field representative for the Farm Credit Administration, who saw plenty of action on the front during World War I.

Jay served in World War I under General John J. "Black Jack" Pershing, and with hundreds of other soldiers stood in mud and water knee deep when General Pershing explained to them the terms of the November 11 Armistice.

Jay is well known to Scurry County farmers, and a number of Snyder business men. Monday evening's rally is expected to attract a record crowd, county scrap salvage committee members declare.

Cripple Helps

When Travis Edwards, physically handicapped watch repair man at Williams Jewelry Company, asked what he could best do Tuesday to help the county-wide scrap metals drive, he was immediately given a job.

An infantile paralysis victim, Edwards will have charge of the information desk Tuesday at the Chamber of Commerce. Those who wish information during the day are asked to call Edwards at the Chamber of Commerce.

ALL STORES IN COUNTY CLOSE FOR CAMPAIGN

All-Day County-Wide Collection of Vital Materials Starts at 8:00 O'Clock with Ceremonies

Final plans were mapped late Wednesday for Snyder and Scurry County's all-out scrap metals drive Tuesday—a drive that is expected to be the county's biggest gesture of patriotism during the year.

Scurry County's scrap salvage committee announces that all Snyder businesses and firms will be closed during the day for the drive, which will reach every nook and corner of the county. Snyder Schools will dismiss classes throughout the day to allow students to help in the gigantic drive.

Opening "gun" of the drive will be sounded Tuesday morning, 7:00 o'clock, when Snyder gin whistles, the town's fire siren, and all other types of noise makers will herald formal beginning of the "big push."

At 8:00 o'clock Tuesday morning, Snyder's Tiger Band, directed by A. M. Martin, will play the national anthem and the U. S. flag will be hoisted to the flag pole's top.

Major Jim Byrd and Captain Collie Fish will have charge of assembling the men, women, boys and girls Tuesday morning, and getting started on the drive.

Word received late Wednesday reveals that two demolition trucks from Camp Barkeley, Abilene, will be on hand to assist with the all-out, all-day collection campaign.

All trucks, pick-ups and other vehicles that will take part in the drive will assemble on the square's south side Tuesday morning, where traffic will be cleared. Some 65 trucks, pick-ups and other vehicles will help gather scrap metals in Snyder and other parts of the county.

Men, women, boys and girls assembled on the courthouse lawn will give the pledge of allegiance to the flag, after which Major Byrd will give the final word which will open the far-flung roundup.

All Scurry County's 11,000 inhabitants are asked to be on their toes Tuesday morning, and help community committeemen gather scrap metals from trash piles, around farm buildings and in pastures.

In addition to the 30-minute broadcast that will be given Sunday afternoon, 3:30 to 4:00 o'clock, over KXOX, Sweetwater, W. K. Roberts, operator of "Your Exchange," is plugging Tuesday's scrap drive daily over KXOX, and Sam Williams, operator of Williams Jewelry Company, will give the drive a boost on his Sunday program over KXOX, 12:30 o'clock.

All proceeds from the scrap gathered in Tuesday's drive will be given to the American Red Cross, except where county residents sell the scrap outright to junk dealers.

"Let's go Tuesday, Scurry County," the scrap salvage committee states, "and make the drive one of the biggest in this trade area!"

The WTCC, with headquarters at Abilene, is the first business men's organization to start the post-war ball to rolling by advocating the Atlantic Charter as the basis of peace.

In addition to Mrs. Land, personnel of the office includes Evelyn Clark, stenographer; Burton Nolan and James A. Woods, who have charge of commodities and their issuance from the store room.

No Poll Tax Measure Passes Senate Easily

A measure outlawing the poll tax as a prerequisite for voting was passed overwhelmingly by the House late Tuesday after a bitter sectional fight centering around the issues of states' rights, the bill's constitutionality, and the vote for the negro.

Fiercely but futilely, a Southern bloc battled the measure down to the final 252-84 roll call vote which sent it to the Senate with Representative Colmer of Mississippi assailing his Northern democratic colleagues for their "ingratitude to the Solid South."

Texans to Get More Gasoline Than East

More persons in Scurry, Fisher, Garza and other counties of Texas will receive extra allowances under gasoline rationing in Texas than in other states, Governor Coke R. Stevenson of Texas predicted this week.

35-Mile Speed Limit To Be Strictly Used

The approximate total of 2,400 Scurry County vehicle owners, ranging from owners of passenger cars to trucks and commercial vehicles, had better take note when they see a state highway sign that reads "Speed Limit 35 Miles an Hour."

So advises DeWitt Greer, state highway engineer, who points out the 35-mile an hour speed limit will be effective wherever the signs are placed. They are now being erected in numerous sections of Texas.

Greer has just returned from Washington, where he and highway commissioners conferred with officials concerning the possibility of a more liberal allowance for Texas motorists under the gasoline rationing program. On the success of the Washington trip, Greer has no announcement to make.

Snyder stores and business firms, which will be closed 100 per cent Tuesday for the county's all-out scrap drive, are asked by the county scrap salvage committee to place U. S. flags in front of their firms early Tuesday morning.

FARMERS GET GOOD RETURN FOR 1942 CROPS

Bureau of Research Reveals Texas Producers Have Already Netted 74% More Than in 1941

Texas farmers already have received 74 per cent more money from their 1942 crops than they did during the first two-thirds of 1941, Dr. P. A. Buechel, statistician for the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research, reports.

Agricultural income for the first eight months of 1942 has been $412,000,000 as compared with $237,000,000 during the like period a year ago, he estimates.

During August, farm cash income totaled $78,000,000 compared with $30,000,000 in August a year ago and the average August income of $66,000,000 for the five year period 1928-1932.

"Cash income in the old cotton areas is noteworthy," he points out, "while the western areas are making great strides in all phases of the livestock including dairying, and are thus building their agriculture on a solid foundation."

He estimated a 3,484,000-bale cotton crop, however, larger than any during the past four years, but considerably below the ten-year average for 1928-1937 of 4,077,000 bales.

"From the standpoint of cash income, cotton and cottonseed no longer stand pre-eminent in total agricultural income," he declared, "but instead have yielded priority to livestock and livestock products. Since 1938 the income from livestock and livestock products have been well above that from cotton and cottonseed, and this margin of gain promises to widen sharply in the future."

He cited that in 1927 cotton and cottonseed accounted for $504,960,000 of the state's total farm cash income of $760,695,000, while livestock and livestock products that year amounted to only $182,214,000. In 1941, on the other hand, the state's total agricultural income was $616,237,000, of which $285,560,000 came from livestock and livestock products, while only $250,380,000 came from cotton and cottonseed.

"It is extremely significant and fortunate that for the past several years emphasis in Texas agriculture has been placed upon the expansion of livestock and livestock products," he said. "Such products as meats, milk, dairy manufactured products and eggs will be required in growing amounts during coming months and years; whereas the problem of burdensome surpluses still prevails in such products as cotton, wheat and corn.

Powerful Guns Made in Canada

Passed by Censor

Like other regiments of the modern Canadian Army, the Highland Light Infantry overseas can open, sustain and carry through an action almost within its own resources. In addition to the usual small arms and grenade units, carriers and skilled mortar crews go forward as a part of the assaulting unit, such as Private B. Perkins, of Guelph, holding the light two-inch mortar which he and Private W. T. Shewbridge of Hamilton pack right up to the front. About 821,000 Canadians out of a population of 12,000,000 are now engaged in producing munitions in Canada. At this point it is expected that the Dominion is approaching its visible limit of material and management. An outstanding productive achievement is the delivery so far of more than 200,000 army vehicles, which have seen service in several theatres of war. Hundreds of Canadian-made tanks have been shipped to Russia, with more coming off the production lines every day earmarked for the fighting fronts.

State Health Officer Gives Common Sense Rules About Cold Contraction

With the advent of fall weather in Scurry County, and colds becoming prevalent, Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer, makes the following suggestions as to ways in which Times readers can ward off seasonal illnesses, or at least may be put under control before they do serious damage.

Keep as fit as possible. Dress according to the weather, indoors and out-of-doors. Put on a heavier suit when a cold snap comes. Use a raincoat, overshoes and umbrella on rainy days. Change as quickly as possible into dry clothes if you are caught in a drenching downpour.

With a shortage of fuel facing all of us, our houses are likely to be chillier than usual during the early fall months. Look up your supply of sweaters and have them ready for use on these first chilly days. Get out some other heavy clothing and warm bed coverings at the same time.

Eat plenty of simple nourishing food. Have your meals at regular hours. Drink plenty of water. Take some exercise out-of-doors, every day. Get the necessary amount of rest.

If you are caught in the clutches of a cold, unawares, don't treat it lightly. It may turn into something very serious, if neglected. The quickest way to get over a cold, or to bring it under control, is to go to bed, keep warm, eat lightly, drink plenty of water and fruit juices, and at the slightest sign of fever, send for your doctor and stay in bed until he feels that it is safe for you to get up and get out again.

And remember, colds are very contagious. Cold-producing germs are scattered far and wide whenever the victi mof a cold coughs or sneezes. They are likely to be found on anything the victim touches. If you are the victim, keep your germs to yourself. Have your own towels and wash cloths, your own drinking glass and dishes—and be sure that they are adequately sterilized with hot—very hot—water and soap after you have used them. Keep well supplied with paper handkerchiefs; dispose of them promptly after they have been used.

Revised Roster of Civilian Defense Leaders Named

Since Scurry County's Office of Civilian Defense will have an increasingly important role to play in the county as the war progresses, a complete list of civilian defense officials, brought up to date, is released this week by OCD attaches.

Times readers are urged to clip the following list, and paste it in a handy spot for future reference. Several changes in committees, effective this week, will be noted:

A. B. (Boss) Baze, chairman board of directors; J. D. Pigman, county director; Louise Taylor, secretary; E. O. Wedgeworth, executive secretary; Joe Graham, N. W. Autry, W. D. Fish, A. W. Arnold, C. F. Sentell, F. G. Sears and Henry Rosenberg, members of the board. Mayor H. G. Towle of Snyder and Scurry County Judge Sterling Williams are municipal coordinators, and Governor Coke R. Stevenson is state OCD chairman.

Scurry County committee chairmen follow: Collie Fish, chief air raid warden; J. E. Blakey, blackouts; Mrs. Carrie Line, Red Cross; Mrs. Gaither Bell, canteen and housing; Mrs. R. H. Odom, home nursing; Sheriff John Lynch and City Marshal Simon Best, police auxiliary; W. P. King, messengers;

Dr. H. E. Rosser, health; Rev. Hubert C. Travis, welfare; Mrs. J. C. Dorward, bomb shelters; N. W. Autry, fireman's auxiliary; O. D. McGlaun, transportation; Elmer Taylor, first aid; Mary Louise Taylor, registration; and Paul Williams, communications.

Glovers to California.

Watt Glover, who has been associated with Beadel's Food Store, east side of the square, since last November, and Mrs. Glover left Wednesday morning for San Pedro California, where Glover will be employed in shipyards. Mr. and Mrs. Glover have only one child, Mrs. Foy Wade of Snyder.

Sometimes the finest kind of command of the English language is complete silence.

Farmers Prepare To Harvest Good Yield of Peanuts

The Scurry County AAA office reported Wednesday that two new threshers and balers are now located in the county for harvesting Scurry's 1942 peanut crop. Clyde South of Camp Springs has a new thresher and baling equipment, as has Paul Sawyer of Cuthbert, Ira Route. Either machine can handle several hundred acres of peanuts in a week.

Since Scurry County has 1,323 acres of peanuts planted this year, the AAA office believes producers can realize several hundred extra dollars by following these pointers:

Peanuts should dry 10 days to two weeks before threshing. Best results are obtained if they are pulled up.

Each producer will be given a marketing card for the sale of all peanuts grown by him. Peanuts may be marketed at any designated agency. Winston Feed Store, one block north of the square, has been designated sales agency for Scurry County. Sacks are available for sacking peanuts at 20 cents per sack. Regular peanut sacks will hold approximately 75 pounds. Peanuts should be allowed to dry three or four days before being brought to Winston Feed Store for sale.

The Commodity Credit Corporation is assisting purchasing agencies in holding the prices of peanuts at a firm level, and oil from the peanuts is said to be urgently needed in America's all-out war effort.

Nearly Million Bales Of Cotton Used by Mills Last Month

"Cotton farmers in all sectors of Snyder's trade zone will be interested in the fact total cotton consumption by domestic mills in September totaled 960,000 bales," the weekly cotton market review, issued by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, emphasizes.

"Shippers' demand in Texas and Oklahoma markets continues exceptionally strong for bright strict low middling and better. Even with the relatively high basis being paid for better grades of cotton, farmers continue to hold cotton until the outcome of farm price legislation is determined.

"Cotton bollers are receiving $1 per 100 pounds in most sectors of the state, with picking going at almost unheard of prices—due to the scarcity of hands.

"According to the New York Association of Cotton Textile Merchants," the review concludes, "estimated 1942 production of cotton cloth will reach a new high of 12.5 billion square yards, compared with 11.3 billion yards in 1941."

Although Texas is the leading mineral producing state in the nation, it has comparatively few mines, 90 per cent of its mineral being produced from wells.

Dale Snider Says Times Trails Him To Pacific Islsand

Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Snider, who reside at 2701 Avenue U, received a letter this week from their son, Private Dale Snider, Troop G, 112th Cavalry, U. S. Army, that constituted the first word received from the Snyder boy in many months.

Dale, it will be recalled, was one of the first 13 Scurry County registrants to be drafted in January of 1941. He is now stationed at New Caledonia, a Pacific outpost island that is witnessing plenty of excitement.

"I haven't been able to hear from you," Dale writes, "but I did receive the August 6 issue of The Times, which informed me of my uncle's death. I want my home paper to keep coming to me each week, for it's like a letter from home."

Private Snider describes New Caledonia Island as one of rare beauty and charm. He states even army nurses on the island wear grass skirts.

While en route across the ocean on the transport President Grant, Private Snider was inducted into the mythical organization, Neptunas Rex, as evidenced by the certificate his parents received this week.

Good Delegation of Farmers Slated to Go to Colorado City

C. E. Eastman, president of the Scurry County Farm Bureau Federation chapter, who resides west of Snyder, stated Tuesday that a good sized delegation of county farmers will be in Colorado City Monday afternoon, 2:00 o'clock, to attend a federation meeting. Johnnie M. Ammons, county administrative officer for the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, and other representatives of government agencies plan to attend.

Principal speaker will be J. Walter Hammond, president of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation, who was in Washington when the recent battle over price control legislation was slugged out. Hammond will speak on producing food and fiber for victory, how price control legislation will affect farmers and will discuss problems which affect every farmer of this area.

Plan for Inspection Of Tires Suggested As Rubber Saving

In line with the recommendation of the Baruch committee, it will be necessary for every motorist in this and other areas to have his tires inspected every 60 days by an authorized agency as a measure to conserve critically deficient supply of rubber. The Firestone Tire & Rubber Company, through its nation-wide dealers and stores organization has inaugurated a special tire inspection and extra mileage plan which provides tire protection that helps the car owner to utilize every available mile that his tires now possess.

The Firestone inspection and extra mileage plan incorporates a three-point program which provides every essential service plus two new tire protection features developed especially to prolong tire life during the wartime emergency.

The first point in the program is the removal of tacks, glass and other foreign objects from the tire tread and body. After a thorough-going inspection of the general condition of the tires "on the wheel," they are then rotated scientifically from wheel to wheel at regular mileage intervals to insure even wear and preclude the possibility of the car being forced out of service because of premature failure of any one tire that might have been subjected to more than its share of wear and tear.

Milton Flippin Goes Into Foreign Service

Mr. and Mrs. G. U. Flippin of Portales, New Mexico, former Scurry County residents, received word this week that their son, Corporal Milton "Mutt" Flippin, well known to Scurry County people, has arrived safely at his destination and is safe and well.

Corporal Milton Flippin sailed from the United States September 2. His whereabouts are still unknown, but he is reported to be "in line of action" for Uncle Sam.

SHAW SPEAKS TO GRADUATES AT FIRST AID

Class of 36 Awarded Diplomas at Special Exercises Monday Night At American Legion Hut

Speaking Monday evening to the 36 graduates of the Red Cross first aid course on the subject, "What Are We Fighting?", Rev. Vernon F. Shaw, Snyder Baptist pastor, declared "we are fighting against national socialism, national communism, against infidelity and fascism."

Rev. Shaw pointed out that America is striking out for preservation of homes, freedom, morals and spiritual ideals. He declared it was a fight that would require the united effort of the Allied Nations.

Graduation exercises for the 36 who completed the Red Cross standard first aid course were held in the Will Layne American Legion Post hut, four blocks west of the square on 25th Street.

Following presentation of the colors by a color guard, and group singing, Rev. I. A. Smith, Snyder Methodist pastor, gave the invocation. Elmer Taylor, chairman of Red Cross first aid work, commended those receiving diplomas, and stated first aid was something that would be useful in every day life.

Rose Marie Clawson, head of the speech department, Snyder Schools, gave a musical reading, and presentation of diplomas to the 36 graduates was made by Mrs. C. M. Boren in the absence of Mrs. Carrie Line, county Red Cross chairman.

Rev. Hubert C. Travis, Snyder Presbyterian pastor, pronounced the benediction.

A separate story on the 21 who enrolled Monday evening for the advanced Red Cross first aid course will be found elsewhere in this issue of The Times.

Scrap Metal Drive Staged at Pleasant Hill Nets Six Tons

Climax to the week-long scrap metal drive held in the Pleasant Hill community, southeast of Snyder, was staged Saturday with collection of an estimated 12,000 pounds of scrap iron, steel and other metals.

Men of the community who furnished tractors, wagons and did the hauling were E. E. Hataway, Grady Moore, Cecil Hall and Bill Hudson. Men of the community, in addition to what students and other children picked up, gathered 9,233 pounds of scrap metal in the drive.

As a result of Saturday's collection drive, children of the Pleasant Hill community will receive $16.68 in war saving stamps.

Mrs. S. S. Daugherty, a prominent resident of the community, donated three tons of scrap metal to the Red Cross. To date, Pleasant Hill community leaders report, 4,140 pounds have been hauled and a check for $16.56 given to the Red Cross.

Last week's scrap metal drive, and Saturday's community-wide collection drive were sponsored by the Pleasant Hill Community Club, of which Cecil Hill is chairman. Leonard Lankford is vice chairman and Mrs. I. N. Hataway, secretary-treasurer.

Recruits in Air Corps To Be Sought in City

Major John S. Lorr, major, air corps, acting public relations officer for the Lubbock Army Flying School, announced Tuesday representatives of the school would be in Snyder Saturday and Monday to interview men interested in becoming aviation mechanics and technicians.

Two representatives of the Lubbock Army Flying School stated late Wednesday that a Scurry County youth enrolled in the school would accompany the recruiting officer here Saturday and Monday.

Those who enlist for air force specialist work will receive government transportation to and from Lubbock.

E. O. Wedgeworth, Chamber of Commerce manager, states representatives of the flying school will headquarter at the CC office while in Snyder. All Scurry County men interested in becoming air corps specialists or technicians are urged to contact recruiting officials of the Lubbock school while here Saturday or Monday.

John Blum of Abilene spent the week-end here with his wife and other relatives. Blum is taking a pre-flight course in McMurry College. Mrs. Blum took her husband back to Abilene, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. H. G. Towle, Eunice Smith and Verlaine Smith.

The Weather Man's Gift

Farmers in every section of the county, worried about the general shortage of farm labor, have expressed to thanks to Providence and the weather man for the sunshine that has been hoveing over Scurry County farm lands for the past three weeks. With only two more weeks of pretty weather, farmers believe they will have the bulk of the 1942 cotton crop moved to county gins, and believe they can keep up with "second bolling" after bad weather hits.

The streak of pretty weather with which we've been blessed is described as a "freak heat wave" over the nation, and will, in time, bring a reversal—bitter cold spells with the usual thaws and freezes. We've been blessed with one of the prettiest Septembers witnessed here in years, and October is getting set, it seems, to better the September record. After the harvest is over, a severe winter would do much to rid the county of "gillions" of insect pests, and make farming in 1943 possible without such a large outlay for poisoning.

A Booster Above All

As pointed out almost every day by the Chamber of Commerce, Office of Civilian Defense and other Snyder civic groups, we should, as a community and county, do everything in our power to aid the war effort of our nation, and be "100 Per Centers" for every worthwhile project that will aid Snyder or Scurry County. We should, despite war-time restrictions, be boosters above all, and encourage the bringing of such projects to Snyder as will enrich the county and provide a payroll during the post-war period. With united action, we should be ready to accept any worthwhile enterprise for the county when the chance comes our way—which it will, civic leaders feel, before the war is concluded.

False Economy

One of the most concrete examples of false economy, even during war-time, is indicated right here in Scurry County by the general cheapening of men's, women's and children's clothing—essential goods that must be replaced, war or no war. On men's overalls, for example, triple stitching, bar tacking and other needed items of manufacture have been eliminated—at the cost of the consumer. Clothes still sell just as high, or higher, than before but the quality is missing.

On men's suits, for instance, cuffs have been left off, some of the pockets eliminated entirely and all reinforced stitching left out. These suits sell for as much as previously, and will not wear nearly so long. So it could be mentioned with numerous articles of clothing. This type of poor economy will hit the consumer hard, and unless prices are adjusted to meet the cheapened goods, something should be done to remedy the matter immediately.

Editorial of the Week

As the first railroad was built in the United States on October 4, 1833, our attention at this time is turned to the railroads and their present jobs.

A short time ago, the railroads of the nation asked permission to purchase, with their own money, 80,000 new freight cars of various types and 900 new locomotives. All of this equipment would be used on behalf of the war effort for the carriers already have a surplus of equipment for peacetime needs.

If the railroads are given permission, they will spend some $35,000,000 for the cars and locomotives. Manufacture of the equipment will call for almost 2,000,000 tons of steel. But, as Time said, "This year the railroads will turn back to the steel mills well over 3,500,000 tons of high-grade scrap, enough when mixed with ore to turn out more than three times as much new steel as the railroads are asking for next year's equipment needs." In short, the railroads are giving far more precious steel than they are asking.

It should be remembered that this new railroad equipment budget represents the absolute minimum that the lines need if they are to handle increasing traffic with maximum efficiency and minimum delay. As every informed person knows, the railroads have performed a miracle in moving the war traffic to date. They have made every car, every locomotive and every mile of track provide its fullest possible measure of service. Now the point is near when existing equipment simply cannot provide additional service. The only solution is the modest amount of new equipment the railroads wants.

No industry is more important to the success of the war effort than the railroads. Modern war is a war of movement—and no other agency of domestic transport can move the gigantic war load. The railroads aren't asking for subsidies or favors. They are simply asking permission to buy, with their own money, the basic new equipment which the ever growing war load makes imperative.—The Tulia Herald.

Wisps of gossip in the wind indicate that the scrap metal situation will improve somewhat when the United Nations start heavy fighting on a land front. . . . The U. S. Army is preparing to gather battlefield scrap and dispatch such material home on returning ships once a land front is established. . . . Smelters of the nation are due to be exceptionally short on scrap metals, however, for several months until such a front is actually set up and in motion. . . . Response of rural America to the scrap iron and steel drive is heartening to government officials, and is the one thing keeping the war factories humming.

Current Comment

By LEON GUINN

Editor's Note—Expressions or opinions contained in this column are those of the writer and do not necessarily reflect the opinions or policies of The Times. Current Comment is merely carried as a feature column.

Selective Service Draft Boards over the country, it has been revealed, have lost the records of more than 100,000 registrants in one way or another. . . . Ways and means are now being worked out to locate at least part of the draftees so lost track of, since they will never be drafted unless their records are found. . . . In such a vast undertaking, it is inevitable that records of some registrants would become lost, and draft boards, instead of being roasted over the coals, should be commended for losing only such a small percentage of draftee records.

According to word received from all sources, Germany may well be ready to yell for terms of surrender sometime in 1943, but the Japanese are prepared to fight this war to a bitter and bloody end—if they have to starve half Japan's civilian population to carry on. . . . Jap industry, it will be noted, has not been able to increase industrial output greatly in the past 60 days—because of the shipping shortage—but the Jap war lords, we are amply warned, will be "over the hump, economically, in two years" unless the Allies are able to cut Jap supply routes. . . . Despite the pipe dreams of those who want war to be as "pleasant as possible," Jap industrial centers will have to be bombed into piles of rubble before the Japs will ever think of the Allies' eventual victory.

☆

The food problem in America is assuming increasing importance day by day, since the fact is being brought home that we will have to supply the wants of not only this nation, but of all Allied Nations, insofar as possible, during 1943. . . . Although farm prices have been set at a "stabilized level," rises in numerous foods is expected to be a reality within the next 30 days. . . . When the temporary freezing order is lifted, prices of milk and dairy products will likely go up. . . . On the other hand, bread, fresh vegetables and meat are expected to hold steady, and a slight chance exists that meat prices may decline after fall slaughtering gets underway in full swing.

☆

Remember the publicity given the War Department's "V-Mail" idea several weeks ago? . . . The department is planning to push "V-Mail" to soldiers by stressing the fact that such mail has priority over regular mail and is just as private, since it is filmed and developed in total darkness. . . . As mentioned previously, "V-Mail" when recorded on micro film occupies about one-hundredth of the space required for regular letters, and the resultant saving in shipping and transport space across the ocean will mean a lot for space for guns, ammunition and foods essential to keep our soldiers on the firing line.

☆

That white elephant of censorship, known as the compulsory category, being raised by some officials concerning President Roosevelt's tour of the nation is being haw-hawed by veteran Washington correspondents, . . . Some officials of the federal government would like to see compulsory censorship imposed for the war's duration, but dare not suggest such a plan openly. . . . Truth of the matter is that the governmen thas made such a "bumble" of trying to keep war news releases as unexciting as possible, and in doing so have brought the public to the point where they want the truth of war news—no matter how bad and bitter—to be released day by day. . . . We realize, of course, that the U. S. government must keep certain kinds of war news a military secret, but the rank and file of Americans would prefer, for instance, to know just where their son was lost in action, rather than to receive a message stating their son is "missing in action," or "in line of duty."

☆

Railroads in Germany, best available reports reveal, are getting in a bad state of repair, due to frequent Royal Air Force bombings, and although the railroads of this nation, despite contrary reports, were in good shape at the war's beginning, they are being taxed to the utmost to keep goods of war and soldiers moving to battle fronts. . . . In France, for example, a country that vitally needs every ounce of food on hand, thousands of tons of food is rotting for lacking of transportation. . . . Shipment of coal and other materials to war factories in France is slowing down, too, and little hope remains that even food in destitute France can be shipped in sufficient quantities before 1944 to keep people from starving.

☆

Secretary of the Interior Harold L. Ickes, who gained the reputation before Pearl Harbor of being a "hard boiled Dutchman," is now roundly applauded for having accomplished a bang-up war job. . . . Ickes, prior to Pearl Harbor, jarred both the coal and oil industries out of a long sleep, and even though he was caustically criticized at the time, is now commended for his fuel program and the administration of same. . . . Ickes' action of putting both industries on their own has brought about a great feeling of unity between the coal and oil men, and has put the Department of the Interior high on both groups' "best friend" list.

☆

Say what one may, compulsory savings are a sure thing for the 1943 tax bill. . . . General idea of the compulsory savings plan is to drain away something like $1,000,000,000 a month and make the money repayable after the war—but in small sums. . . . A lot of commercial banking people favor the law in the belief that if the public holds a large volume of government securities it will be disposed to support sound post-war fiscal policies.

Official Ginnings For 1942 Ahead of Last Year Totals

Figures released Tuesday by the Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census, reveal that cotton ginnings in Scurry County, prior to September 16, totaled 218 bales, compared with 58 bales up to the same date in 1941.

The report, indicating that 1942 cotton ginnings were more than three times as much as ginnings through the same day in 1941, shows the county got off to a fine start in harvesting this year's crop.

Work of cotton pests in stripping the leaves from cotton stalks and injuring squares was given as a major reason for early start of the 1942 season.

Ginnings in Scurry and nearby counties through September 16, and comparative totals in 1941 follow:

COUNTY—	1942	1941
Scurry	218	58
Fisher	1,656	295
Dawson	793	7
Stonewall	221	64
Mitchell	1,016	217
Nolan	277	1

Tech Parents Day to Attract County Folks

Despite transportation difficulties, a number of Scurry County people who have sons and daughters enrolled in Texas Technological College, Lubbock, are expected to attend annual Parents' Day festivities at the college Saturday, October 17, Clifford B. Jones, Texas Tech president, reported Tuesday.

A reception for visiting parents of this area will be held the afternoon of October 17 from 3:00 to 5:00 o'clock. They will be especially invited to witness the football game on the same date between Tech Red Raiders and the Baylor Bears.

Boner in Air

Bombadiers and navigators of U. S. Air Corps planes sometimes pull "boners" worthy of mention around all the army air bases, but the prize incident of recent date, related by a navigator out of Big Spring, that happened over Scurry County is almost in a class by itself.

The pilot of an army plane one day last week arrived over Snyder at a high altitude, and after maneuvering over the town attempted to follow Highway 7 out of Snyder to Lubbock.

Low hanging gin smoke over the town, however, plus none too good visibility, resulted in the pilot taking Highway 15 west from Snyder to Gail. The army ship was almost over Lamesa when the pilot and navigator got their true bearings, and changed their course in order to reach Lubbock. As the navigator who related the incident said: "This is almost too rare to repeat."

Future Homemakers At Ira Initiate Group

The Ira Future Homemakers' Club met last Thursday evening for the purpose of initiating 14 new members.

The candle lighting ceremony, under direction of Patsy Hardee, program chairman, and Ruth Wiman, homemaking teacher, was attended by a large crowd.

The club will meet again this (Thursday) evening.—Frances Autry, reporter.

Regular dormitories on the campus of Texas State College for Women, Denton, provide college residence for approximately 1,600 students.

Holidays observed in Texas alone are Texas Independence Day, March 2, and San Jacinto Day, April 21.

Cotton, Wheat and Peanuts Show Gain In Santa Fe Region

October 1 agricultural report of the Santa Fe Railway Company on crop conditions in the area served by the Santa Fe reveals small change has taken place in the crop situation from conditions which prevailed one month ago.

"Crops," the report continues, "showing increases over last year are cotton, 3,484,000 bales for Texas, wheat, 47,280,000 bushels, peanuts, 583,000,000 pounds, corn and rice.

"Cotton made late gains, and ginning is in full sway over the state. There is a serious shortage of labor, and much land will remain idle next year unless some relief is granted by the government. High wages being paid in other lines of work have caused many farm laborers to leave the farms.

"At the present time," the report concludes, "there is quite a large movement of cattle, calves and hogs with a similar movement of feeder sheep and lambs to feed lots. Ranges are in good condition for this time of year and stock water is ample to meet present needs. Heavy turkey marketing for the Thanksgiving market is indicated."

Greers and Rains Go to Angelo Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Greer and daughter, Mrs. Bud Rains, and two children, Jack and Billie, were attendants Sunday at the A. L. Greer family reunion, held in San Angelo.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Greer, who were host and hostess, respectively, for the gathering, staged the reunion in honor of their son, I. V. Greer, who is in the U. S. Navy and is home on a 15-day furlough. Eight of the nine Greer children were present for festivities.

Reunion attendants, besides the Snyder group, included: Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Greer of Ozona, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Greer, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Greer and daughter, Jimmie Fern, all of Aspermont, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Greer and daughters, Billie Faye and Vida Sue, of Clovis, New Mexico; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Capps and sons, Derwood and Doyle Ray, of Melvin, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gray and daughter, Golda, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Poteet and "Mother" Poteet and other friends. Abundant lunch was served at the noon hour.

Flour milling is one of the pioneer industries of Texas.

Texas is well adapted to the manufacture of glass because of its abundance of gas and its ample silica deposits.

Well-Known Cowboy Passes at Paducah

Scurry County members of the Texas Cowboy Reunion have learned of the death Saturday in Paducah of Aug Holmberg, 67, oldest employee of the SMS Ranch in King County, and long-time Texas Cowboy Reunion member. Holmberg died unexpectedly.

Born in Eksjo, Sweden, Holmberg came to this country as a young boy, and began working for the SMS Ranch when 12 years old. He was well known to veteran Scurry County ranchers, and had visited in Snyder a number of times. Funeral services were held Monday at Dumont.

TUESDAY

We want to do our part in every way we possibly can. The whole force will be out next Tuesday gathering strap. That will be only a small part of our contribution to the war effort, but it will help.

'til Johnny Comes Marching Home

All the Johnnys and Franks and Toms of our grand country are depending on us fortunate folks back home to help them fight their best for us at the front. They look to us for guns and tanks and planes and ships. Folks who build these pieces of equipment say they desperately need our scrap metal to help them with the big job. Surely the least we can do is see that those unused articles of steel, rubber, brass, hemp and other materials are placed in the proper channels so that the boys will get the things they need. If we furnish them our scrap NOW, they are more likely to come marching home with victory. If we don't——but let's not think that——WE WILL!

Trainers for War Industries School to Be Enlisted in City

Bill Dawes, manager of the Federal War Industries School, Big Spring, and J. S. Greer were in Snyder Friday explaining the new enrollment program of the school, which has attracted several enrollees from Scurry County.

Dawes reports the school is training welders for work in shipyards at no costs of tuition. Base pay for welders in the shipyards starts at $1.20 per hour.

Dawes is enrolling both men and women for sheet metal work, and states women should be from 18 to 45 years of age. The sheet metal course requires two and one-half weeks for completion.

Federal War Industries School prefers men for welding work who are in Class 3-A. This course requires five weeks for completion, with six-hour classes. Those interested are asked to contact either Dawes or Greer.

Locals Disappointed At Jeffers Statement

Scurry County farmers erpressed keen disappointment Wednesday when William Jeffers, rubber director for the nation, declared no "pressure group" could stop him from substituting rayon for cotton in tires if the U. S. Army wanted rayon.

The South is particularly hard hit by the Jeffers verdict, because Southern senators had hoped to give cotton prices a firm boost by persuading Jeffers to utilize cotton in heavy duty tires for army vehicles.

Price Control Group Meets Wednesdays

The Times wishes to correct a statement made last week as to meeting day of Scurry County price control committee. The group meets each Wednesday morning, 9:00 to 12:00 o'clock, in the ration board office, instead of each Monday, as stated last week.

Personnel of the committee is composed of Hugh Taylor, chairman, W. H. Cauble and Maurice Brownfield.

All Snyder firms which come under the heading of price control regulations are urged to meet with the board each Wednesday, if they have problems they wish "ironed out."

HIGH INCOME TAXES SLATED COMING YEAR

Everybody with Income in Excess of $624 per Year Would Be Liable to Pay 1943 Tax

Snyder and Scurry County people are summarizing, with considerable calmness, the U. S. Senate's proposal this week to clamp the highest tax rates in history upon the incomes of individuals and corporations.

The vote on the record breaking tax bill was unanimous, 77 to 0.

The measure would impose a tax of 19 per cent on the first taxable dollar of every citizen, and add to that a five per cent victory tax on every penny he receives in excess of $624 annually, or $12 weekly. At the other end of the tax ladder it would tax income in excess of $5,000,000 at 88 per cent.

The married man with two dependent children who earns $700 in a year would pay the government $1.13 including the victory tax. On an income of $1,000, his tax would be $10.53. On one of $2,000, he would pay $38.58. The tax on $3,000 would be $221; on $4,000 it would total $414.93, on $5,000 it would be $629. One $5,000,000, he would pay $4,049,988.

Corporations would pay 34 per cent on incomes up to $25,000, 46 per cent on the next $25,000, and corporations with incomes of more than $50,000 would pay 40 per cent on the full amount. All corporations would hand over to the treasury 90 per cent of their excess profits, in excess of $5,000. Excess profits are determined by complicated formula with the aim being to take in taxes virtually all profits beyond a fair return on investment.

The purpose of the new and higher rates is, of course, to finance in part the stupendously costly war effort, and to remove from the people an excess of purchasing power, which has threatened to produce inflationary prices.

Tigers Lose First 6-A Game; Meet Loraine Friday

Snyder High School's Tigers fell temporarily by the wayside Friday evening, so far as District 6-A football competition is concerned, when the Roby Lions trampled over the local boys, 6 to 0.

Dozens of Snyder football fans, who constituted the largest aggregation of sport enthusiasts to follow the Tigers this season, witnessed the Roby-Snyder melee.

Snyder rallied strongly in the second stanza, but was unable to halt line plunges of the wily Roby team.

Out of nine passes attempted by the Tigers, two were completed. Eddie Richerson and Bobby Hicks turned in two of the games best performances.

Considerable interest is being shown in the game Snyder plays against Loraine's Bulldogs here Friday evening. The Tigers are given the nod over the Loraine squad by sports writers.

Coach Frank Weaver states the opening kick-off of the Snyder-Loraine game will get underway, 8:30 o'clock, at Tiger Stadium.

Breakfast to Start Scout Finance Drive

Captains heading the annual financial drive are: I. W. Cox, R. H. Odom, Buddy Martin, Henry Rosenberg and Lyle Deffebach.

Business men assisting the five captains will make a thorough canvass of Snyder's entire business district.

Sure, We'll Be Closed Tuesday

Those fellows across the way who are giving their all in this struggle for Democracy need equipment. And it takes metal to make guns and tanks and planes. Fifty per cent of the metal can be made from scrap. Our giving the scrap around our places is little enough for us to do for the boys. Certainly, we at Piggly Wiggly will do our part in the County-Wide Scrap Drive. our store will be closed all day as our entire force helps with the campaign.

Nutrition Course Will Be Offered At Agent's Office

Mrs. Carrie Line, chairman of the Scurry County Red Cross chapter, announces that Estella Rabel, county home demonstration agent with Texas A. & M. College Extension Service, and a graduate of the University of Texas, will begin a Red Cross nutrition course in the home demonstration agent's office Monday evening.

Interviewed by a Times reporter, Miss Rabel stated classes will be conducted each Monday and Thursday evening, 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock. The class will require 12 hours for completion—total of six classes.

Purpose of the course is to bring to women of Snyder and Scurry County a simple, workable knowledge of what constitutes good nutrition, and to give women of the county practical training in the wise choice and preparation of foods to safeguard the health of the family.

Any woman in Scurry County will be eligible to take the course. There are three kinds of people to deal with when studying nutrition. They are: Those who eat the wrong kinds of food, those who do not know what to eat and those who do not care.

Miss Rabel announces a modified certificate will be issued to women who complete the nutrition course. Mmes. Georgia Bolin, Ethel Eiland and H. T. Sefton were named a committee this week to work out details.

Topics of the six lessons will include: "Are We Strong Enough?," "Why Milk Comes First," "Buying Vitamins the Fruit and Vegetable Way," "Where We Get Energy for Work and Play," "Our Building Foods," and "Planning Meals for Good Health."

Do you know someone who is listless, has aches and pains, ulcers in the mouth, poor eyes, bad teeth, aching joints or who always feels bad? It is doubtless due to wrong eating habits and the wrong food, and the nutrition course intends to correct such maladjustments.

Scurry County women are advised that good nutrition is just as important as wrapping bandages, because a sick soldier is more trouble than a well enemy. Women of the entire county are urged to attend the course.

Our men need tanks, ships and guns. The steel for these must be made from 50 per cent scrap metal. But the Nation's steel mills don't have enough scrap on hand to last even 30 days more!

Keep 'em running. Help build up a huge scrap stockpile—the bigger the better.

GO down into your basement—your storeroom. Climb up to the attic too. Look at the unused stuff you're sure to find, and realize how important these odds and ends can be.

Important to a kid half way around the world. Important to a blue-clad gob—to a flyer, racing to reach the target before some knifing Messerscmitt can find its mark. That old metal means steel for these men. And steel means armor plate for safety—weapons and ships for Victory.

Without it they'll die. They're not afraid of that—but it's better to give a life for a cause than to be sacrificed by thoughtlessness. And it's better yet to live, knowing that the folks back home didn't let them down.

And we won't let them down! We still need metal in our big scrap collection drive—and you're going to help make it a good one. Dno't let up because you see a full junk yard or a brimming salvage depot. That's the way the've got to be to make sure the mills won't run out!

YOUR NEGLECT WILL COST SOME BRAVE BOY'S LIFE!

WAR BABIES NOT DEPENDENTS, SELECTIVE SERVICE HAS RULED

Other Renditions Given by National Draftee System Clarifies Status - Of Exemptions to Calls

"War babies," the Selective Service System informs The Times, have been ruled out as dependents unless conception occurred prior to December 8, 1941.

The ruling means that married men who may now become fathers will not be granted extra deferment from military service on account of the birth of a child but will be drafted along with others without children.

Furthermore, national headquarters explains that a child cannot be claimed as a dependent even where conception occurred before December 8, if the father was married at a time when he had reason to expect an early call to the army.

Pregnancy itself does not affect a man's case in any way.

Under current regulations, a child ceases to be grounds for deferment when it reaches the age of 18, and fathers whose children have attained that age will be regarded as "childless" in the eyes of the draft when reclassification begins.

Draft registrants who married while classed 3-A may claim their wives as dependents if they continue supporting their previous dependents, national Selective Service headquarters reports.

"If," national headquarters said, "the registrant married while deferred because of other dependents and has continued to maintain his original status substantially unaffected by his marriage, then he is absolved of imminence."

Men who married before December 8, 1941, while classed in 1-H, 4-F, 4-C or 4-A also may claim deferment on the basis of such marriage. This ruling has been handed down by state draft headquarters.

However, fen who married while in 1B, 2-A or 2-B cannot claim their wives as dependents, for officials have decreed that such men had ample reason to expect an early call to service.

Under no circumstances can a man claim deferment on the basis of his wife if marriage took place on or after December 8, 1941.

The question of whether youths under 21 (those who registered last February and June) are entitled to claim their wives as dependents if they married before December 8 has yet to be formally decided.

State draft headquarters has expressed the opinion that the selection of such men was not imminent until the day war was declared but considerable doubt still remains on this point and a presidential ruling probably will be necessary before a definite policy can be established.

In the case of a man who was unclassified at the time he was married the draft board must decide whether his selection was imminent on the basis of his order number, whether he had been sent his questionnaire, the state of the national emergency and all other factors that would lead a "reasonable man" to believe he would be called soon by the army. In general, unclassified men and those in 1-B, 2-A and 2-B who married after May 27, 1941, when the president decreed an unlimited national emergency, find it difficult to obtain deferment on account of marriage.

Men who married when their selection wasn't imminent may retain their deferments, regardless of whether their wives are working, so long as they are maintaining a bona fide family relationship.

Crowd Sees Program At Plainview School

A good-sized crowd gathered Friday evening at Plainview School to witness presentation of a community-wide entertainment program and a play, "Boss For a Week."

In addition to the play, directed by Treasea Williams and Mrs. Eupha Shield, Plainview teachers, a number of entertainment numbers were given.

Livestock Owner Urge to Care for Animals in Crisis

Edward S. Hyman, county agricultural agent with Texas A. & M. College Extension Service, issued an appeal Tuesday to Scurry County ranchers and livestock owners to take as good care as possible of their stock, since increasing numbers will be needed during the months ahead for the army, navy and civilians.

"Out of a county population of 22,977 cattle over three months of age, livestock owners declare they intend to sell approximately 9,069 head.

"Prices livestock owners will get for cattle will be increased several dollars per head if they see that no damage is done to hides by ox warbles, or grubs," the county agent declares.

"The parasite known as the grub comes from eggs which the heel fly deposits on the under body of cattle. In the form of grubs, they bore through the skin and work their way to the animal's back where they make hide damaging holes. When it emerges, the grub is ready for transformation into the fly stage.

"The most effective means of reducing the pest is to reduce number of flies. If you can kill the grubs you kill the source of the flies. Best means," Hyman declares, "of destroying the grubs is to apply a wash of rotenone, or cube, with the aid of a stiff brush to the backs of infested animals when the grubs are just under the little holes in the hides. This usually occurs from November through February."

Hyman says we, as a nation, will need all the leather we can get, and conservation of cattle hides will assume a degree of increasing importance as leather supplies get lower. Livestock owners wishing more information on means of controlling cattle grubs are asked to contact Hyman.

REA Checking on Electrical Outlets In Snyder Region

Lon Adams, superintendent of Midwest Electric Cooperative, Inc., Roby, reported Tuesday that Midwest is making a check-up in Scurry, Fisher, Jones, Stonewall and other counties served as part of a nation-wide survey being conducted by the Rural Electrification Administration.

The survey, part of the federal government's post-war planning program, will cover unelectrified farms, schools, churches, stores, service stations, food processing plants and other rural establishments. Numerous farmers of Scurry, Fisher and adjacent counties have applied to Midwest Electric Cooperative for service, according to Adams.

Information obtained from the survey will be used in estimating how many rural consumers can be reached by REA service when the war is over. Post-war extension is being stressed by President Roosevelt and other administration leaders. Adams declares 4,000,000 farms still are without electric service, according to census figures.

Adams cites rural plumbing needs as only one example of the importance of a progressive rural electrification program after the war. It is estimated electric service for plumbing needs alone could provide 656,000,000 man hours of labor.

The Midwest chief declares that his concern, in line with other REA cooperatives, is in sound financial condition, and repayments on REA loans is exceeding maturity dates by a wide margin.

To Recommend County Boy.

Sterling Williams, county judge, announced Wednesday that he has been asked to recommend some Scurry County youth, between 18 and 27 years of age, for enrollment in a naval flying course. The person so recommended must be single, a high school graduate and of good moral character. Those interested should contact Judge Williams immediately.

PEANUT CROP IS READY FOR HARVESTING

Hundreds of Tons Will Be Harested from 1,323 Acres in County—Purchase Station Named

Scurry County's 1942 peanut harvesting season is virtually at hand, the county AAA office reports, and hundreds of tons will be harvested from the 1,323 acres in cultivation.

Johnnie M. Ammons, county administrative officer for the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, says the following suggestions will help county peanut producers receive top prices for the vital food crop:

Peanuts should be dry before they are threshed.

Winston Feed Store, only designated peanut purchasing agency in Scurry County, will not receive peanuts unless they are thoroughly dry. The market for peanuts will open at $85 per ton, minimum price allowed for those who cooperated in this year's "food-for-freedom" program.

Each peanut producer should call at the county AAA office as soon as possible and get his 1942 marketing card.

A peanut crop that measures one acre, or more, cannot be legally sold for any purpose other than for oil. A heavy penalty will be imposed against producers who violate this provision.

Producers may keep seed peanuts necessary to plant the 1943 crop. It is expected, the county AAA office reports, that demands for peanuts will be vastly expanded another year and producers should keep this in mind when saving planting seed.

Clyde South of Camp Springs and Paul Sawyer of Cuthbert each own a new peanut thresher and hay baling equipment. Those who will need a thresher are urged to contact either South or Sawyer, which ever person lives closer.

Attaches at the AAA office believe most peanut producers will want to bale peanut hay for livestock feeding throughout winter months. Peanut hay is rich in proteins, and when fed in balanced rations is especially beneficial for calves on feed, and for dairy cattle.

John Sentells Visit Relatives in Snyder

Lieutenant Colonel John E. Sentell, Mrs. Sentell and three of their children arrived Sunday night from Camp Edwards, Massachusetts, where Sentell has been stationed the past few months with the 36th Division.

Lieutenant Colonel Sentell, Mrs. Sentell, John Sears, Marvin and Joe Wright visited Monday and Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Sears, the C. F. Sentell family, Mrs. J. H. Sears and others. The Sentell's girl, Mary Sue, is attending school at Nashville, Tennessee.

Sentell left Tuesday for Fort Sam Houston, where he was ordered to report Wednesday for immediate military duty. Mrs. Sentell and the three children will remain here for the present.

Soil District News Notes

As definite proof farmers and ranchers in the Upper Colorado Soil Conservation District are determined to carry on with increased production by conservation practices, is emphasized by the fact that numerous requests for immediate assistance are coming to the office of the Soil Conservation Service from those who adopted long-time conservation plans last spring and summer, according to Haskell O. Beard, head of the local SCS work unit. Such interest and determination are particularly encouraging in the face of labor and equipment shortages on the farms, Beard added.

Wartimes always place heavy burdens on agricultural soils and range lands, due to increased demands for agricultural commodities. The great South Plains became known as the great "Dust Bowl" following World War 1 because thousands of acres of sod was put under the plow and little was known then about conservation practices on this land. Local farmers who request assistance fro mthe Upper Colorado Soil Conservation District are aware of the fact that increased production comes not from "more acres under the plow," but from "better and more wisely used acres."

District supervisors last week approved conservation plans on the following farms: O. C. Hess, 164 acres, Pyron Anna W. Harding, 260 acres, Fluvanna; Cecil E. Sears, 1140 acres, Dee Pylant, 408 acres, W. F. Coleman, 640 acres, and Mary E. Clarkson, 640 acres, all of Arah

New applications received and approved by the district supervisors for planning were: C. T. Griffin, 12 sections, Willow Valley community; and D. R. (Buck) Burdine, 2,560 acres, Murphy community, both of Borden County.

Students Show Fine Interest in Posters

Sponsored by the Scurry County scrap salvage committee, the poster contest being conducted this week in Snyder high and junior high school is attracting a record number of entries, scrap salvage committeemen report.

All posters entered in this week's contest will be displayed in Snyder stores, and winning poster will be run in next week's Times, according to Willard Jones, chairman of the publicity committee.

Students are competing for defense stamp prizes of $5, $2.50 and $1, respectively, in each division of students.

The poster contest is being fostered as a means of creating interest in Tuesday's all-out scrap drive.

Tips on How to—
Improve Your Lighting

Eliminate Colored Globes

Amber-orange and flametint bulbs in round or flame shape give a mellow amber lighting effect, but give out less light than white bulbs. Replace the colored bulbs in lighting fixtures with inside-frost bulbs of the same wattage if you want more light from these fixtures without using any more current.

YOUR ELECTRIC TRAFFIC OFFICER

FUSES are like a traffic officer on your electric wiring, and when a fuse burns out and stops the current, it's a signal that something is wrong. Keep spare fuses handy and disconnect the appliance that caused the trouble before screwing in a new fuse.

than to any other dealer organization

Just how important the automotive mechanic's work is to the nation will be clear to all who consider the following facts*:

- Automobiles and trucks form the sole practicable means of transportation for war workers and war materials in many communities throughout America.
- In some sections, 78% to 100% of the workers drive by automobile to vital war plants.
- 2,314 U. S. cities, with a population of 12,524,000, depend on private cars for transportation;
- 54,000 communities depend entirely on motor vehicles.
- Six out of every ten farms use one car or more; 67% of farm car mileage is necessity driving.
- More than 65.2% of all war plants reporting in Michigan (a typical war production state) depend on trucks to haul their incoming and outgoing freight.
- Trucks haul nearly 100% of the milk supply of most large cities—and 58% of all livestock marketed in the U. S.
- Trucks are the sole transportation system serving our 54,000 communities not reached by railroads.

The automotive mechanic—the trained Chevrolet Victory Service Man—is the lifeguard of America's millions of cars and trucks. Help him to help you and America by getting a skilled service check-up at regular intervals.

MORALE... The Will to Win

In time of war much is said about the morale of troops. It is this spirit-confidence-hope-courage-determination and the will to win. Though an intangible thing, it is as necessary for victory as tanks and guns. It is something not easy to define, for it is made up of a lot of little things.

Those of us not at the front render a national service by keeping up civilian morale. For, when hope and courage dies, there can be no progress.

Beware Coughs from common colds That Hang On

Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

HE CAN'T BOMB TOKYO With a Rousing Cheer!

Sure, this fellow can deliver the goods to Tokyo—but he's counting on you to help! All the rousing cheers and parades and well wishes in the world won't help him do it—he needs planes and bombs and guns. These have to be made of metals that are plenty scarce nowadays.

Fighting equipment can be made of 50 per cent scrap metals, and the steel mills are crying for more this very minute. You and I must back up our boys with this small part—it's nothing in comparison with what those brave boys are doing for us at the front.

Scurry County will gather thousands of pounds of scrap next Tuesday in a County-Wide Drive. Of course, we'll be closed for the day so that all our force may take part in the huge campaign.

Eye-strain made me TENSE

I got so that I was beginning to lose all my friends . . .why, at the slightest provocation I was ready to bite a person's head off! One of my mother's friends suggested that I have my eyes examined—and, sure enough, THAT was my whole trouble, eye-strain. I'm wearing glasses now: and do I feel better—and how!

PROTECT YOUR TIRES INSIDE AND OUT with the New Firestone TIRE INSPECTION and EXTRA MILEAGE PLAN

Here's what we do

We Will Inspect and Rotate Your Tires from Wheel to Wheel and Help You Get Extra Mileage

First, we inspect each tire, removing glass, tacks and other foreign particles imbedded in the tread. The tires will then be rotated scientifically from wheel to wheel to assure more even wear. This service helps increase tire mileage.

We Will Apply Firestone Extra Mileage Tire Preservative

Next, the tread and sidewalls of each tire will be thoroughly treated with Firestone Extra Mileage Tire Preservative. This is an entirely new process that seals the cracks in the rubber and protects against oxidation. This service helps protect tire mileage.

We Will Apply Firestone Extra Mileage Puncture Seal

Ideal Stock Watering Arrangement in Range Plan

As pointed out this week by the Snyder unit, Soil Conservation service, permanent stock water has long been the major problem of the average Scurry County farmer and rancher. The stock ponds on county ranches and farms is one of the answers to this problem, and the layout above gives the ideal arrangement of permanent watering facilities, Robert A. Spencer, junior range conservationist with the SCS, states. Note the fence around the pond, and how grass and other vegetation helps to hold back soil and keeps the stock tank from becoming silted.

HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUBS

By Estella Rabel, Scurry County Home Demonstration Agent

Scurry County homemakers won't be likely to capture spies in their own kitchens, like Mrs. Miniver of the movies, but they can be on the alert to outwit saboteurs in the pantry, Estella Rabel, county home demonstration agent, said Tuesday.

These saboteurs include ipsects, mice, mold and dampness. Here are ways Miss Rabel says staple foods should be stored:

Sugar and spice should be kept in clean, tight containers. "When you open your cupboard door and get a spicy whiff of cinnamon or cloves, you've been caught off guard," the specialist says. "You're losing fine flavor along with that fragrance on the kitchen air."

The best place to store flour is in a tight can, jar or bin which will keep out light as well as moisture, mice, bugs and dust. In humid climates, bread will stay fresh longer and keep from molding if it is wrapped in moisture proof paper and put in the refrigerator. In dried climates it can be put in a ventilated box. The specialist advises scalding, airing and sunning cake and bread boxes often. Crackers and crisp cookies should be stored by themselves in clean, air-tight tins or boxes. They get soft if they are kept with bread or cake.

Food canned in glass needs to be protected from heat and light for heat destroys food value, and light destroys food value and vitamin C. Tinned goods should be kept dry to prevent rusting. "Put dried fruits and vegetables in tight, moisture-proof containers and store them in a cool dark place," Miss Rabel suggests.

Mrs. Jim Beavers Is Hostess.

The Camp Springs Home Demonstration Club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Jim Beavers. Nutrition for the betterment of everyone was the theme of the demonstration, which nine women and the agent attended. Dishes with vegetables and a small amount of meat were exhibited to take care of the meat shortage. This club has completed 96 Red Cross shirts.

MORALE... The Will to Win

FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION $5,000 MAXIMUM INSURANCE FOR EACH DEPOSITOR MEMBER

In time of war much is said about the morale of troops. It is this spirit-confidence-hope-courage-determination and the will to win. Though an intangible thing, it is as necessary for victory as tanks and guns. It is something not easy to define, for it is made up of a lot of little things.

Those of us not at the front render a national service by keeping up civilian morale. For, when hope and courage dies, there can be no progress.

HE CAN'T BOMB TOKYO With a Rousing Cheer!

Sure, this fellow can deliver the goods to Tokyo—but he's counting on you to help! All the rousing cheers and parades and well wishes in the world won't help him do it—he needs planes and bombs and guns. These have to be made of metals that are plenty scarce nowadays.

Fighting equipment can be made of 50 per cent scrap metals, and the steel mills are crying for more this very minute. You and I must back up our boys with this small part—it's nothing in comparison with what those brave boys are doing for us at the front.

Scurry County will gather thousands of pounds of scrap next Tuesday in a County-Wide Drive. Of course, we'll be closed for the day so that all our force may take part in the huge campaign.

Ideal Stock Watering Arrangement in Range Plan

As pointed out this week by the Snyder unit, Soil Conservation service, permanent stock water has long been the major problem of the average Scurry County farmer and rancher. The stock ponds on county ranches and farms is one of the answers to this problem, and the layout above gives the ideal arrangement of permanent watering facilities, Robert A. Spencer, junior range conservationist with the SCS, states. Note the fence around the pond, and how grass and other vegetation helps to hold back soil and keeps the stock tank from becoming silted.

HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUBS

By Estella Rabel, Scurry County Home Demonstration Agent

Scurry County homemakers won't be likely to capture spies in their own kitchens, like Mrs. Miniver of the movies, but they can be on the alert to outwit saboteurs in the pantry, Estella Rabel, county home demonstration agent, said Tuesday.

These saboteurs include insects, mice, mold and dampness. Here are ways Miss Rabel says staple foods should be stored:

Sugar and spice should be kept in clean, tight containers. "When you open your cupboard door and get a spicy whiff of cinnamon or cloves, you've been caught off guard," the specialist says. "You're losing fine flavor along with that fragrance on the kitchen air."

The best place to store flour is in a tight can, ar or bin which will keep out light as well as moisture, mice, bugs and dust. In humid climates, bread will stay fresh longer and keep from molding if it is wrapped in moisture proof paper and put in the refrigerator. In dried climates it can be put in a ventilated box. The specialist advises scalding, airing and sunning cake and bread boxes often. Crackers and crisp cookies should be stored by themselves in clean, air-tight tins or boxes. They get soft if they are kept with bread or cake.

Food canned in glass needs to be protected from heat and light for heat destroys food value, and light destroys food value and vitamin C. Tinned goods should be kept dry to prevent rusting. "Put dried fruits and vegetables in tight, moisture-proof containers and store them in a cool dark place," Miss Rabel suggests.

Mrs. Jim Beavers Is Hostess.

The Camp Springs Home Demonstration Club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Jim Beavers. Nutrition for the betterment of everyone was the theme of the demonstration, which nine women and the agent attended. Dishes with vegetables and a small amount of meat were exhibited to take care of the meat shortage. This club has completed 96 Red Cross shirts.
