Immunization Clinic Set At Bank Saturday

The third monthly clinic for migrant children will be held in the Community Room of the First National Bank beginning at 2:00 p.m. Saturday, August 22, according to Mrs. Wesley Car.

Purpose of the clinic is to immunize the children whose parents can't afford to pay for the Polio, DPT, and Small Pox shots or vaccinations.

This is a perfect opportunity for those who haven't yet had their pre-school shots to get this done, for it is necessary before the children can enter school.

The State of Texas is furnishing the vaccine, and it is being

PERMIT SIGNING PUSHED

Weevil Control Program Target Date Reset For September 10

According to assistant County Agent Darrel Smith, a new target date for the Boll Weevil Spraying Program has been set for the program to begin.

Originally the deadline for having permits signed by all farmers in the seven county area directly affected by the spraying was August 15, but to date only between 200-300 of the 1500 farmers in this county alone have signed permits allowing the program to be carried out.

During the past two weeks, there were four different meetings set up by the Extension Service whereby farmers could attend, learn a little more about the program and sign the permits allowing spraying to take place on their particular farms.

According to Smith, only about 30-50 people attended each of these meetings.

"Permits to spray, signed by every farmer with cotton in these seven counties, is a must if the Boll Weevil Control Program is to be successful," Smith said.

RECEIVE AWARDS

Annual And Whirl Staff Members Attend Workshop

At the final session of Texas Tech's High School Journalism Workshop, which ended Thursday (August 13) afternoon, the Floydada Annual Staff received two awards, one in the sports division and one in the title page division.

The members attending the workshop made up dummy pages in title pages, faculty section and sports sections. The local students placed first in the title pages, and second in the sports section. Both these awards were for schools having less than 750 students.

Hambright Heads 1964 QB Club

The members of the Quarterback Club will be calling on several merchants in the next few days to get the OK on ads that ran last year in the program and to seek new firms who may want space in the football programs.

Also, at the first meeting of the year held Tuesday night at Wester Field, a new set of officers was elected to serve during the coming football season. They are: Gordon Hambright, president; Starks Green, vice-president; Jedd Blessing, secretary; and Weldon Harris, Treasurer.

New members of the board of directors are: Doyle Moore, outgoing president, Don Barrov, Fred Cardinal, Floyd Bradford, and Bill Cagel.

It was decided that the club will again film the games as it has done in the past. About eight members will be used at each home game to sell the programs as people come in the gates.

Meeting times for this year, will be Monday night following each home game, and will be at the same hour as the game. The non-conference games begin at 8 p. m. and the conference games begin at 7:30 p. m.

About 50 members attended the meeting.

Sixty-Five Report For Grid Work

According to Coach Bill Curry, sixty-five prospects hit the grid-iron last Monday for the first workout of the 1964 season.

The first contact work was started Wednesday morning, while most of the team members were still quite sore from the conditioning exercises of the past two days.

CLAUDE B. PATTON
Claude B. Patton, farmer of the Lakeview community for some 40 years before retiring eight years ago, died Monday morning at 3:15 in the family home at 119 W. Jeffie. He had been in ill health for the past 15 months. Death was attributed to a stroke and complications.

Claud B. Patton Dies Of Stroke

Funeral rites were conducted Tuesday in the First Baptist Church in Floydada with Rev. Floyd C. Bradley, officiating. Interment was in the family plot in Lakeview cemetery under the direction of Moore Funeral Home. Nephews of the deceased were pallbearers.

Mr. Patton was born in Mirian County, Ark., on August 1, 1883. He came to Texas at the age of 17 with his parents and to Floyd County in December of 1916. His parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Miles Patton moved here in later years. Mr. Patton was preceded in death by his parents and two sisters.

Judge Bean Slates August 28 Hearing

District judge Robert Bean of Lubbock will hear a suit known as Edd Muncy et al vs. Ralph C. Johnston et al at 10 a.m. August 28 in the district courtroom in Floydada.

Muncy heads a group of taxpayers who are bringing suit against the Floydada school board, tax-assessor-collector and board of equalization.

This is the second such suit brought against the school officials since they decided to raise property evaluations in the school district to build a new grade school building, a new cafeteria, repair present structures and add facilities to other school buildings.

Although an $800,000 bond had been voted by the taxpayers of the school district for the above items, the school board has been unable to sell the bonds because of a pending suit.

Softball Tournament Underway

Floydada's annual double elimination Softball Tournament got underway here last Monday night with eight teams entered. The event is expected to last until next Monday or Tuesday night with two games scheduled each night.

The first suit sought to hold up collection of the 1963 school taxes alleging that property valuations were incorrect and that all personal property had not been duly rendered for taxation.

Lubbock Post Office won the first game over Crosbyton 10-2. Neither pitcher, Bob Incer the winning pitcher for Lubbock nor Bill Boyd the losing pitcher of Crosbyton allowed the opposing team a walk.

In the meantime, Judge E. A. Bills of Littlefield released the 1963 tax roll for collection in order for the schools to have enough money to operate last year. The plaintiffs promptly appealed to the court of civil appeals in Amarillo and that court dismissed the appeal, upheld Judge Bills' ruling. This decision was appealed by the plaintiffs and is now on docket in the Amarillo court.

In the second game Lubbock Service Station defeated Fields and Company of Lubbock 8-7. Each pitcher, Max Harrison, the winning pitcher, and Jim Jordan, the losing pitcher allowed the opposing players ten hits.

The taxpayers paid their taxes on the new higher rendition and since the school board could not use the extra money to build new schools, it has been applied to repair work and for the construction of temporary classrooms near the Andrews Ward grade school.

The only game played Tuesday night, matched the Second Baptist and the Calvary Baptist of Lubbock. The Second Baptist downed their Calvary brethren 9-0. The winning pitcher, Victor Bond allowed one hit, and one walk while striking out 19. Willie Turner was the losing pitcher.

NEW SUIT
The suit filed this week and which will be heard at 10 a.m. August 28 is brought by Muncy and the following taxpayers: W. A. Massie, Frank Probasco, Edward Baird, Claude Fawver, D. M. Cogdell, Jr., Calvin Steen, R. Fred Brown, D. S. Batten, W. E. Lacey, Robin Fortenberry, (See SCHOOLS, Page 2)

Wednesday night Crosbyton and Calvary Baptist were scheduled to play in the first game, followed by Floydada Seed and Delinting vs. Lockney.

BULLETIN
Word was received here late yesterday that the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Stansell, ill with encephalitis, had taken a turn for the worse.

The Floydada Seed and Delinting team finished second in the Lockney Invitational Tournament which ended last Saturday night. The winning team was the Second Baptist Church of Lubbock.

The grandmother, Mrs. Stansell, was summoned to Plainview about 9:30 yesterday morning when word came of the baby's condition.

The two teams played for the best two out of three in the final Saturday night, and the locals fell at the hands of the Lubbock team 2-0 and 6-0.

Victor Bond, the winning pitcher, in four games of tournament play struck out 52 players. Losing pitcher for Floydada was Cliff Niles.

LHE Runner Up At Regional Tournament Held In Haskell

The Lighthouse Electric Baseball team, coached by Junior Bearden and Dee Adams traveled to Haskell the weekend of August 6, 7 and 8 and won second place in the regional meet there.

IT DOESN'T hurt at all to "count your many blessings" and after spending a couple of weeks in Slaton, it is evident that Floydada folk should be thankful for plenty of water for home and industry.

Here we have six or seven good irrigation wells furnishing all the water we need. On the other hand the city of Slaton has a total of 23 small wells and needs land on which to drill more.

True, Slaton voted to get on the Canadian River water plan and might be receiving this water in a couple of years. It is noteworthy that "dam" water isn't necessarily cheap. Slaton will pay some seven million dollars for Canadian river water and will receive a daily allowance of only half what it will need . . . wells must continue to furnish the other half.

It is understandable that Floydada would like to continue to pump underground water for its needs . . . but we know that it won't last forever. We know that "dam" water will be expensive . . . but, what other course is there besides gainwater?

HERE'S an interesting little report from the Lyman County News:

Preacher's Qualifications

The other day a member of the pastoral relations committee in a certain church read a letter purporting to have come from an applicant. The letter was as follows: "I have many qualifications. I've been a preacher with much success and also had some success as a writer. Some say I'm a good organizer. I've been a leader most places I've been. I am 50 years of age. I have never preached in one place more than three years. In some places I have left town after my work has caused riots and disturbances. I must admit I have been in jail three or four times, but not because of any real wrong doing. My health is not too good, though I still get a great deal done. The churches I have preached in have been small, though located in several large cities. I've not got along well with religious leaders in towns where I have preached. In fact, some have threatened me and even attacked me physically. I'm not good at keeping records. I have been known to forget whom I have baptized. However, if you can use me, I shall do my best for you."

After reading the letter, the committee member looked at his fellow members and said, "Well, what do you think? Shall we hire him? The others were aghast. Hire an unhealthy, trouble-making, absent-minded, ex-jailbird? Was the man who read the letter crazy? Who would have such colossal nerve? "Oh," said the man who had just read the letter, "It's just signed, 'The Apostle Paul.'"

24-8 margin, but lost a heart-breaker to Haskell in the final game of the tournament.

According to Bearden, the locals were leading the Haskell team 4-3 going into the top of the seventh inning. At that point one of the few rallies of the tournament occurred, and the host team managed to push across four runs. During the last of the seventh the locals couldn't muster another run, so lost the game 7-4.

Guesten started the first game and was relieved by Bearden after four innings. The second game saw the same pitching combination.

The only home run hit was by Joe Christian, and it was inside the park against Stamford.

A number of the players were outstanding. Leading the list is Ronnie Hill, who went to bat 12 times during the tournament and connected for 9 hits. Kerry Bearden got 6 hits as did Steve Marler. Bob Marler got 3 hits against Stamford.

Three players were taken that were not regular members of the LHE team, two from the VFW and one from Matador. They were Larry Hunter, Sam DeLeon and Dickie Garrison, respectively.

Couch Bearden said he wished to express his appreciation to Lighthouse Electric for their sponsoring this team this year.

Rev.-Mrs. Roland Killed In Tennessee Collision

Rev. Bill Rowland, 38, and his 37 year old wife, the former Maurine Blaylock of South Plains, were killed instantly Saturday in a five-car pile-up at Rogersville, Tenn.

Slightly injured in the wreck but since dismissed from a hospital were Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Mulder of Plainview, daughter and son-in-law of the Rowlands. The family had been to the wedding of another daughter of the Rowlands, Linda, at West Virginia.

Bearden mentioned he was losing some of his boys to the senior league next year, but added prospects are good for another fine team next year.

Defendants in the suit are the school board: Ralph Johnston, president; L. D. Simpson, Jack Stansell, Howard Gregory, Ernest Lee Thomas, Dennis Dempsey and W. L. Davis; tax assessor-collector David Eaton, board of equalization members: Dorris W. Jones, Malvin A. Jarboe and Marion Tucker.

Attorneys for the plaintiffs are Ed O'Connor III of Lubbock and W. C. Hancock, Pittsburg, Texas. Local attorney Ben Ayres and Lubbock attorney James Milam represent the defendants.

In the suit filed by the plaintiffs they allege that the appraisers who evaluated real property "placed arbitrary values on it" . . . "have reason to believe and do believe that the board of equalization will meet in the near future and after such meeting and without notice will approve the tax rolls as submitted by the tax assessor-collector, said board having determined that they would leave the value of the property at the arbitrary figure so set by the so-called outside experts" . . . "further in this connection, plaintiffs would show that the said tax collector, and authorities have adopted a plan, preconceived, whereby many and various items of personal property, including but not limited to deposits in banks, household furniture, stocks, bonds, mortgages, boats, motors, motor boats, grain in storage, and jewelry, are not placed on the tax rolls and are not taxed at all."

The plaintiffs also petitioned for a temporary restraining order on the 1964 tax rolls and this has been granted by Judge Ben until after the suit is heard.

Judge Ben was appointed to hear the case, after district Judge L. D. Ratliff disqualified himself.

Clinic

All registered nurses in the area are urged to be on hand to help with the job.

According to Superintendent of Schools A. E. Baker, the children starting to school this fall must show proof of having had the Tetanus, Diphtheria, Whooping Cough (DPT) shots and the Small Pox and Polio vaccinations.

"In addition to these," Baker said, "the students need to have a TB Patch Test, however, we can give these at school if they haven't already had them."

This will be the final clinic before school starts. Three more clinics are scheduled, one in September, one in October, and one in November.

THE FLOYD COUNTY HESPERIAN

THURSDAY, AUGUST 20, 1964

FLOYD COUNTY HESPERIAN

Valuable Crops Should Be Grown Expensive Land With Irrigation

The following is an opinion by Mr. L. A. Marshall, in his opinion that should be considered as such. It is very easy to raise ones own plants, by broadcasting a strip on top of beds.

Man's Opinion

I have not tried vetch but think probably this would be a good winter protector for onion plants, and one could plow it under in the spring making an excellent fertilizer. Vetch is used as a plow under fertilizer in other places, like California by all farmers.

Here is a thought, I have planted onion seed in September, they harvest as early as maybe 10 days earlier than plants. They are reset, if the plants are to be reset. It is very easy to raise ones own plants, by broadcasting a strip on top of beds.

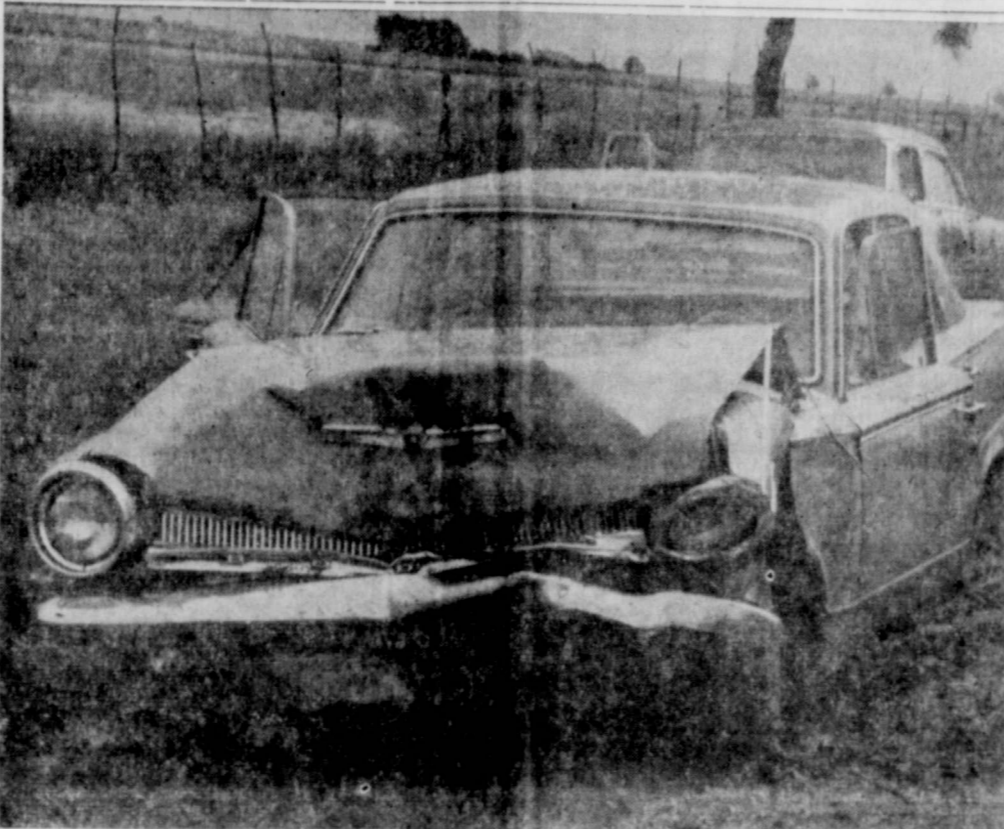

Sometimes with severe winters some onion plants are killed, these may be protected with Sulfur planted in the middles and, thus, protect the onions from winter winds.

Also, ask your broker about a few acres of turnips. You have chances on marketing dates. When they are around an inch they can be sold in bunches with tops, and when they are about two and one-half inches, the tops can be cut, and the crop sold in sacks.

I knew a farmer at Hereford, Texas, that made some folding money on 15 acres of turnips.

Summing up, we must get more money for this irrigation water. It grows more valuable each year. Our creator is certainly smiling on the South Plains when he runs our crop of prosperity ever, as he has been doing. We should certainly say "Thank You" again and again every day of our lives.

More than 300 years ago, Benjamin Franklin used a kite to prove that lightning is electricity.

More than 25 years ago when the rural people of this area tried to get electric service, they were told in effect to "go fly a kite." But with the same pioneering spirit that fostered our great nation, these people borrowed money at interest and built the Lighthouse Electric Cooperative. Lighthouse Electric Cooperative today is a model of efficiency and economy. This "do-it-yourself" electric system offers a dependable service second to none. The member-owners of the Lighthouse Electric Cooperative are at one and the same time pioneers and specialists in rural electrification. Rural electrification is good for all Texans.

Keith Stansell Baby Ill With Encephalitis

The two months old infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Stansell of Lockney is hospitalized in Plainview with encephalitis according to information on Tuesday from the baby's grandmother, Mrs. Troye Stansell in Floydada.

Mrs. Stansell said the baby became ill on Wednesday of last week but her illness was not diagnosed as encephalitis until Friday. Her condition was improving this week and she may be able to go home within ten days, Mrs. Stansell said.

The Stansells eight year old daughter is in Floydada staying with her grandmother during this time.

13 Cases in Plainview Three At Lockney PLAINVIEW (Special) —Thirteen cases of encephalitis have been diagnosed or suspected in this area in the past ten days.

Dr. Joseph T. Marshall, Plainview, director of Plainview-Hale County Health Department, said six such cases had been diagnosed over the past several days.

Physicians at Lockney General Hospital have diagnosed three cases of encephalitis since last week.

Illness of a Latin-American man at Lockney was diagnosed Monday as encephalitis. Dr.

Marshall said most of the cases in this county were among children. The health director emphasized that in some instances laboratory and other tests are not yet complete. He said the county was behind at this time in the number of encephalitis cases diagnosed at mid-August last year.

The disease seems to be getting a late start. This is the hatching season of the encephalitis-bearing mosquitoes, and recent rains have provided more standing water.

Dr. Marshall pointed out that, so far, reports and diagnosis of the suspected cases are incomplete.

Four year old Jill Poage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Poage, is learning to use her left hand and arm this week following an accident at the home that put her right one out of circulation for some time.

Jill took a bad spill Wednesday of last week and after examination at Lockney was found to have both bones broken just above the wrist of her right arm. She was taken the following morning to Methodist Hospital in Lubbock and remained overnight after it was set and placed in the cast there according to the mother.

Jill is doing nicely at this time.

WARNING!
PLAYHOUSE - DEATHTRAP
In spite of all the warnings that have been widely and frequently publicized, children still occasionally crawl into abandoned refrigerators and suffocate. The hazard grows as more and more people buy new refrigerators and discard old ones.

How do you make an abandoned refrigerator harmless? Best bet is not to abandon it where children can find it; have it hauled away for scrap. If you have to keep it around temporarily, remove the door. Or wrap metal strapping around it, or use another foolproof means to keep the door locked shut.

Among Friday visitors at the Lighthouse were: Mrs. Trudy Taylor and daughter Katie, Mrs. Sam Spence, Mrs. Helen Bertland, Mrs. Thelma Jones, Mrs. Wayne Bennett and Lee Batley, Mrs. Blanch Conway, of Plainview, and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Miller and children, Marty, Joyce, Janet, Sarah and the baby Gene, Jr., of Tulsa. These along with many others dropped in to see the new demonstration kitchen and apused for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyce Smalley, of Gallup, New Mexico, over the weekend with Mrs. Patterson's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Smalley of Garland, Texas, were also guests of the Patterson's. Mrs. Sari Smalley is also a sister of Mr. Patterson.

Wiley Rogers accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Foster to Portales, New Mexico, last Sunday to visit Mrs. Foster's father, Jim Warren and his wife. Mr. Warren underwent major surgery recently.

Mrs. J. H. Hutchins of Ralls visited Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hutchins.

Mrs. Travis Larry and children of Midland spent the weekend with Mrs. Larry's sister, Mrs. Wiley Rogers.

David Hutchins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hutchins, is now in the National Guard, and stationed at Fort Polk, Louisiana.

Mrs. Jerry Bourland had a tonsilectomy last Tuesday at Taylor Clinic in Lubbock. She and Jerry came over on Friday to spend the weekend at her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Hickerson. Pat is still here but Jerry returned to Lubbock; he works for Bolinger Segars and Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Henry, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Ratheal and Mr. and Mrs. Herman King and children attended the state meeting of Texas Electric Cooperatives at Austin last week.

Dale Hutchins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hutchins, returned Saturday afternoon from spending a week at Boy Scout Camp near Creed, Colorado.

Mrs. Don Daley, the former Cagerlene Carmack and her daughters, Doni, Jeri and Juni, were by to see us on Monday morning. They have been living in California but are moving to Michigan to make their home, where her husband has been transferred.

WHAT IS A SALAD?
A salad, according to a purely academic definition, is a cold dish of green vegetables, fruit, meat, or shellfish, served singly or in combination with a dressing.

Where this only knowledge of salads, how quickly they would pass from the scene, for it brings to the mind none of the excitement and imagination created by color, form, texture, and flavor.

We like to think of salads in terms of the purpose they serve in the meal. Just as accessories create the center of interest for a costume, so do salads accent the meal, helping to lift it out of the ordinary into the realm of fine food.

Salads may be classified in several ways, according to main ingredients, such as vegetable, fruit, meat, or seafood; according to the manner of preparation, such as tossed, molded, or according to place in the meal, such as appetizer, accompaniment, main course, and dessert or refreshment salads.

Regardless of classification, a salad should always be so tempting that one dare not omit it for fear of missing something truly fine. This can be true, not just from the standpoint of sight, aroma and taste, but also from a nutritional standpoint. All salads contribute calories in varying amounts through their basic ingredients and the dressings used. But most important of all they are valuable sources of vitamins and minerals, and in the case of meat, fish, egg and cheese salads, they are valuable sources of protein.

Is it not wonderful that any so good to eat is so good for us!

Water Cut-Off Date Vital In Production Of Cotton

Stick to the recommended water cut-off date for your area and come out dollars ahead in the long run. This is what reasearch at the South Plains Research and Extension Center shows.

Based on research findings by Shelby Newman, Agronomist at the Center, application of irrigation water late in the season has several bad effects. One of these is lowering of quality—that results in a decrease in net returns per acre. Though total yield per acre may be increased in some years with late irrigation, the resultant lowering of cotton quality usually means decreased net returns, plus added costs of late irrigation. Late watering also encourages rank cotton growth—which delays maturity and decreases the efficiency of one-cotter stripper harvesting.

County Agent Richard Miller says results of many years research at the Center shows cotton grown in the Lubbock, Plainview, and Brownfield area have different responses to late irrigation.

In the Plainview area, tests show August 20 as the most optimal salt and pepper to taste. Cut the cold macaroni in small pieces. Chill and serve on crisp lettuce, water cress or endive. (3 hard boiled eggs—chopped, may be added).

"RAINBOW CAKE" SALAD
3 packages of Jello (cubes)
2½ cups graham cracker crumbs
¼ cup powdered sugar
½ cup softened butter
1 cup pineapple juice
1 package lemon jello
¼ cup sugar

Prepare jello by using 1½ cups of liquid per package (this makes a firmer jello than the two cups of liquid ordinarily used). Different flavors and colors of Jello may be used. Dissolve each flavor separately. Combine crumbs, ¼ cup sugar, and butter. Mix and press into a large size pyrex dish. Heat pineapple juice to boiling, add lemon jelo and ¼ cup sugar. Cool until it begins to thicken; add cream that has been whipped and the Jello that has been cut into cubes. Pour into crumb crust and put into refrigerator until set. Cut into squares when ready to serve.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT
Will Rogers when asked "What's wrong with the world?" scratched his head and replied: "I reckon it must be the people".

tinum cut-off date. For the Lubbock area, August 25 has been shown the best water cut-off date. In the Brownfield area, no adverse effects have been shown when the water cut-off date is as late as August 28.

The County Agent points out that late irrigation in combination with excessive nitrogen tends to aggravate the excessive growth problem. This is all the more reason for strict attention to a cut-off date for your farming area. Irrigating late in the season will also contribute to increased boll set. These bolls, in normal years, haven't matured by frost (or harvest) and thus cause a lowering in cotton quality.

With the pricing program for cotton partially based on micronaire, plus the critical need for increasing the areas overall staple length, this means producers should be more conscious of water cut-off dates than ever before.

Explanation of New Math Given By 8th Grade Teacher

Many of you have already shown a healthy interest in wanting to hear and understand more about this topic. Your schools would like to give you a sneak preview of this year's changes in its math curriculum. Grades seven and eight make the change this 1964-1965 school year. High school texts have already been in use prior to this year.

Excellent texts have been chosen for your seventh and eighth grades. The Math consultant for the publishers is Dr. Gundlach; one who is considered to be an outstanding world authority in math teaching methods. Dr. Gundlach spoke to a large group of educators last March in the Lubbock High School Auditorium. Several members of the Floydada school staff attended this important session.

Dr. Gundlach summed up the reason why we should change our math program when he reminded us, "The traditional approach has lost a lot of kids we shouldn't have lost." The new approach does not change our numeration system, but provides for continuous growth, as an onion adds layers to its shell. Start with the inner shell and add other shells as the student is able to progress. Each subsequent shell is based on the knowledge learned in previous shells. The new approach incorporates the best ideas of math teaching. These ideas and methods have been in use through the years in one form or another by the better math teachers. Space-age math will call for a more radical change in elementary math teaching than in the intermediate and upper grades. The theme of new math is to let the student come to understand the basic structure of mathematics through experience with, and appreciation of abstract concepts.

You parents of seventh and eighth graders will appreciate the easy to use "Handbook" in the back of the student's textbook. Many of your questions about modern mathematics can be answered by your referring to this alphabetically arranged section.

We who will be teaching your boys and girls in seventh and eighth grade math are excited about the challenge of space-age math, and look forward to the chance of better preparing our students for this new era. We depend on your help as patrons to make this needed change as smoothly and harmoniously as possible. Later we will arrange a parents' study group for a few nights if enough of you desire to do so. Excellent filmstrips are available for use in such a project.

Sports For You

One of the greatest unrecognized killers in our time is lack of exercise and sports, which so many couples are guilty of after they begin married life and find themselves in the hardworking, early years of marriage.

The constant lack of proper, regular, exercise tell heavily on the man's heart. The woman is luckier than the man for she must do household chores which require physical exertion.

The American male more often dies of heart attack than the men of any other country in the world. This is because American men work harder and faster, also because so many of them do not get regular and proper exercise.

The experts advise males to devote some time every day or so to exercise. The important things to remember is that one cannot begin regular and strenuous exercise at middle or advanced age without working up to it.

GUEST EDITORIAL Sureness Can Cure Ills

Spending before a church conference in Glorieta, N. M., not long ago, a Baptist minister from Tennessee called attention to a characteristic of this age which may help to explain some of the restlessness now so widely prevalent.

"The world is very unsure today," said Dr. H. Franklin Paschall, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Nashville, Tenn., in addressing the meeting. "There are many people in the world who do not seem to be sure of the Bible or of Jesus and His Gospel. They wonder if it is adequate and relevant to our time. There is an increasing number in our churches who do not seem to be sure of anything."

"Throughout the centuries," he continued, "man has searched for something which is sure. We are scanning the skies, searching for a sure star. Philosophy has failed us and science also has failed. It has given us means without ends. The Bible is our sure rule of authority. All else may be relative or false, but the Word of God is true."

A message as positive as this one is encouraging in a time of doubt and skepticism. And Doctor Paschall has put his finger on the true problem of this age. It is this: Men are seeking sureness in an unsure world. Failing to find it—or, at least, failing to accept the assurance offered by religious faith—they have become bitter and confused. This confusion is reflected in the attitudes which prevail today, which have made our tormented period one of untrammeled violence and disrespect for law and decency.

Faith has been the anchor of men's souls through the ages, and when faith declines human society becomes like a ship adrift upon an uncharted sea. That is the condition of today's world. We have broken loose from our old moorings and are headed into a future which may hold either hope, or disaster, for mankind. And at the present moment, it

Its Got To Be Stylish

It has got to be stylish, in recent years, for American citizens to sound off frequently and in terms of alarm about how we are "losing our freedoms." If you've never said it, or thought it, this doesn't apply to you... but if you have, name one!

Just which of the many freedoms guaranteed you by the Constitution of the United States have you lost lately... or been deprived of? Freedom of worship? or not to worship? Has anybody in the government tried to forbid you to pray in public... or tried to force you to pray in public? Well, speak up, man!

How about your right to own property? Has anybody been interfering with that (besides, maybe, the fellow who owns the mortgage?) or has anybody searched your home (leaving without a warrant or ever with one)... or seized your bank account... or told you you can't own a car or buy a TV set or have a telephone?

Have you been denied the right to own a gun? The Constitution says you can keep and bear arms... but it doesn't say you have a right to conceal 'em or to use 'em in defiance of law... be-

Prayer For A Rainier Day

Back in 1935 when dust storms were rolling across the plains and it was really dry, William Allen White, the almost-legendary editor of the Kansas' famed Emporia Gazette, published a prayer for rain which has become a classic.

William Allen White was obviously a man who was an easy speaking terms with his God, and when he asked for rain, he did so in the most glowing and graphic language which his versatile pen could command. We pass his prayer on here for the benefit of some of you who might like to include Bill White's impassioned plea in your own prayers one of these days:

"O Lord, in Thy mercy grant us rain and by that we don't mean a shower. We want to go out and watch the lightning rip across the southwestern sky in hot blue forks as the fat clouds roll in on us. We want to hurry home to close the house with the first fat drops the size of marbles, on a suddenly rising wind, chasing us and plunking on the car hood. We want to scramble all over the house just as the first sheets descend, frantically slamming down the windows."

"O Lord of Hosts, we want to look out of the windows and see us in the case of beef and other meat products, textiles, oil, glass, coal, lumber and steel. Continued tax support to encourage exploration and development of domestic sources of minerals and metals, with reasonable depletion allowances."

Senator Tower continued: "The concern of the Republican Party and its candidates for the problems of domestic industry are matter of record. I hope President Johnson will evidence the same concern during his meetings with oil men and will initiate the import restrictions recommended by Republicans."

Following is the text of Senator John Tower's weekly radio report to Texas constituents. Tower stressed the need of Americans to learn more about Red China, "its motivations and its intentions," in light of the continuing crisis in Southeast Asia.

Events of the past few weeks in Southeast Asia have turned the eyes of Americans once again to the Orient. We do not like much of what we see there, but more important, few Americans understand what is happening there.

Although we have fought two recent wars with Oriental powers, Americans have traditionally turned their interest and attention toward Europe and Latin America. Yet it appears obvious that a very major threat to world peace and to our American view of liberty lies today in the Orient; in Communist China.

There is no topic more pressing, more urgent more significant or more important for America today than the subject of the so-called People's Republic of China. Since the Communists came to power in 1949, great changes have taken place inside China, and the Communist regime there has asserted itself so strongly that the whole world balance between freedom and tyranny has shifted and changed.

Floyd Philosopher Explains, Not Very Satisfactorily, Where He Gets His Ideas

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass—farm discusses a personal matter this week. We guess that's what he's doing.

Dear editor: A man out here the other day stopped me, well he really didn't stop me, I was already sitting down resting under a shade tree, and got to talking and finally said he wanted to know how I get my ideas for these letters to The Hesperian.

"How do you do it?" he asked. "I mean, how do you know where to start and when to quit?" Well, I'll tell you, it's simple, and I've always found it just as easy to stop as start. You come out of the house and look around and see all the physical labor there is to do on this Johnson grass farm and confronted by that any thinking man will start thinking.

Some people don't realize we're living in critical times, have been ever since I can remember, and what's a slogging gate compared to the situation in Viet Nam? How can a man patch his roof when the Turks and Greeks may start fighting again, not that they haven't been doing it since recorded history?

How can I be bothered about cutting weeds when at the moment I don't even know who's going to be Lyndon Johnson's running mate? I know how to get rid of weeds, that's been discovered for hundreds of years, but who knows

God of Israel, Isaac and Jacob, let it come down so hard that the streets and sidewalks seem covered with a six inch fog of spatter drops. Then let it just keep up for a while, then begin to taper off, and then turn right round and get a lot worse, swishing, pounding, splattering, pouting, drenching, the thunder coming—Crakity—BAM—and the lightning flashing so fast and furious you can't tell which flash goes with which peal of thunder. So that all the women will get scared and climb on top of the beds and scream at you not to get too close to that window.

And then, O jealous God, repeat the whole act about three times, and in the middle of the second time we will climb the attic stairs and put the wash pan under that tiny leak in the roof which usually you can't even notice in an ordinary rain. And after a couple of hours kind of taper it down, O Lord, to a good steady rain—not a drizzle, but a businesslike one that keeps up until just about dawn and then spits a few drops occasionally during the morning from a gray sky.

Kansas is indeed the Promised Land, O Lord, and if it gets a break it will flow with milk and money. But we can't live much longer on promises. So in Thine own way and in Thine own time, make up Thy mind O Lord and we will bow before Thy judgment, and praise Thine everlasting name.

(Canadian Record) SENATOR DODD: First of all let me say this. This bill will require the manufacturers and producers and sellers, retail and wholesale, of these dangerous addictive drugs to keep a record of how many they produce, to whom they sell them and where they sell them. Now this may seem strange to you. You say, "I assume this has been going on all the time." Well it hasn't been.

Under this bill Narcotics Bureau inspectors can go in and check the records. This I think will be a salutary thing. Up to now you know, these drugs have not been under this kind of control, and millions of them are sold to young people, to some adults, with the result that they're becoming addicts and on the threshold of addiction—many of them have proceeded from the threshold to real addiction—to heroin, to opium, to cocaine.

SENATOR YARBOROUGH: Does the use of these dangerous drugs—goof balls, pep pills—often lead to the use of narcotics if they're used for a long time?

SENATOR DODD: Ninety-nine out of 100 times it does.

SENATOR YARBOROUGH: I was astonished to learn that out of the nine billion of these dangerous pills sold in the United States a year, half of them, 4 1/2 billion, were sold on the black market. Are there any controls now to stop this black market sale of 4 1/2 billion?

SENATOR DODD: No, and that's why we are so interested in getting legislation of this kind on the statute books. We've got to get it there. Unless we do, it's going to get worse and worse all the time.

SENATOR YARBOROUGH: Some of the other testimony that you brought shows that people use these pep pills while driving when they are fatigued. They think their judgment is good, but it is not and this is causing terrible collisions on the highway.

SENATOR DODD: Of course it is. Use of these drugs is causing not only collisions on the highway. These drugs make ordinarily quiet people aggressive, ag-how to keep Russia contained? I know some people say I ought to work harder, that the way to solve the world's problems is to start with your own, but it doesn't work out that way. Twenty-five years ago I was minding my own business and looked up to find Hitler wasn't.

Working for yourself is a fine idea, but very few people achieve the goal. Most of them, the way it looks to me, spend at least half their time working for Ford and

General Motors. They have 36 months to pay for a car, then 36 more to pay for the next one. The average life-time of the average man now is about 8 or 10 cars.

This may not explain where I get my ideas for these letters, or even if I do, but I've outlasted my slogging gate, another week. It's just like the international situation. You don't solve international problems, you just outlast them.

Yours faithfully, J. A.

Educational Assistance Available Through VA

On July 7, 1964, the War Orphans Educational Assistance Act was amended so as to provide benefits not only to sons and daughters of deceased veterans but also to sons and daughters of living veterans who have disabilities which are considered to be total and permanent in nature.

The veterans must have died or become disabled as a result of service in the Armed Forces during the Spanish - American War, World War I, or since September 16, 1900 and must have been discharged under conditions other than dishonorable.

Generally, a young person (man or woman) must be between 18 and 23 years of age to attend school under the program. In certain instances, it is possible to begin school under age 18 and continue after age 23. Marriage is not a bar to this benefit.

A young person eligible for schooling may not enroll while he is a member in the Armed Forces.

The benefits include counseling, training and financial support. Each eligible young person is provided help by a professional counselor in deciding upon a suitable educational or vocational goal.

The eligible young person may receive up to 36 months of education. This program of education must be pointed toward a definite educational or vocational goal.

The VA will pay $110 for every month spent in school if training full time. Rates for part-time study are lower.

To apply a person should file an application with the nearest VA office. Application blanks are available at any VA office.

If the young man or woman is under legal age, his living parent or guardian must apply for him. If he is of age, he can act for himself.

Upon approval of the application by the VA, the student is ready to begin school.

These are just the highlights of the Educational Assistance Program. For further information, or for answers to your specific questions, see your VA office. Or write to the nearest VA Regional Office, which is located at Lubbock in the South Plains area.

Former Area Family Arrives At World's Fair

LOCKNEY (Special) — A former Lockney family has arrived at the World's Fair in New York completing a 2,800-mile wagon trip.

Charley Prickett, 43, his wife Jettie 42, and their 17-year-old daughter, Carol, took turns driving a wagon pulled by a pair of mules. They started the trip from Amarillo, April 27, 1963.

Worked Along Route

The family financed the journey by doing "odd jobs" along the way. They wintered in Illinois. Enroute to New York, the Prickett's Collie dog gave birth to a litter of pups. Two of the brood were sold and three others ended the trip. Also aboard the wagon were a rooster, five hens and four baby chicks.

The trip was planned after Mrs. Prickett, a waitress, arrived home one afternoon explaining that she was "tired of it all."

Daughter Homesick
 Daughter Carol pretty well summed up the trios feeling my explaining that she enjoyed the trip and would like to tackle it again in two or three years, but "I want to go home now, I'm real homesick."

Prickett, a Lockney native, and his family made their home here before moving to Amarillo. His mother, Mrs. Pearl Prickett, and late father were pioneers of this area. The elder Mrs. Prickett moved to Abilene several weeks ago.

Farmers Union Accuses Farm Bureau Of "Distortion"

Statement by Jay Naman, President of Texas Farmers Union:

"The officials of the Texas Farm Bureau who have attempted to saddle this administration with the blame for low cattle prices are guilty of shameful distortion. It appears that they are more interested in discrediting a Democratic administration and a Texas president than they are in presenting the factors that have contributed to a depressed livestock industry.

"Those Farm Bureau 'research' people who would blame cattle overproduction on the feed grain program and the shift of land from crops to grass should be aware that studies show that an acre of cropland shifted to grass and used by beef cattle produces about one-third as many calories of food as when it is in a grain crop and fed to concentrate-consuming livestock. Therefore, production can be reduced as much as two-thirds by shifting cropland to grass and using the grass."

"The charge of feed grain 'dumping' against this administration is also false. The facts are that this administration inherited gigantic stocks of grain from the previous administration. This grain was accumulated and stored at great cost to government under a program supported by the

In order to understand the new despotism of mainland China, it is necessary to have some familiarity with the traditional concepts that underlie the Red Chinese approach to the outside world.

The Chinese name for their country means "The Central Kingdom." They never have visualized anyone else as really influencing them on matters that counted.

This attitude—that China is the center of all learning and the only right way—has given the Chinese a real sense of destiny. This sense of destiny fits well into the Communist design for conquest and was readily adopted and exploited by Mao Tse-tung.

Mao also has appropriated for his own uses a Chinese tradition of authoritarian rule. He is, in effect, a new emperor in a new dynasty. Just as ancient emperors interpreted Confucian learning, Mao today feels he is the embodiment of — and the only true interpretation of — Marxism and Leninism.

Yet another Chinese precept, which Americans must consider, is that the Red Chinese judge the outside world in terms of what happens in China. History influences the Red Chinese strongly. And that history shows them that China is the center of the universe, that it is the seat of all learning and knowledge, that its interpretation is the only true interpretation, and that authoritarian rule is quite acceptable.

The Red China which confronts the free world today is centered in a land which has not known peace since the Opium War of 1839. Violence has been the order of the day in China for a century.

To this violence, the Red Chinese have added a new nationalism. They sense a great mission for their country, and they believe their teeming masses can be organized to accomplish their mission.

And the Red Chinese mission is to interpret Communism as they see fit, and extend Communism across the face of the earth.

Mao has started his initial policies for China in two ways. First, he says all former Chinese territory should be regained, and all Chinese anywhere in the world should be brought under the control of his regime. Simply stated, this long-term goal is, "First China, then the Chinese, then the World."

Since the United States stands between him and his goal, Mao must consider it necessary to somehow eliminate the American roadblock. His "Hate America" campaign is graphic evidence.

Perhaps several conclusions are possible. First, Red China is a major threat to world peace.

Secondly, Red China has created despotism unmatched in history.

Thirdly, any accommodation or concession to China will be viewed by Mao as proof of his view that Chinese domination is inevitable. For every concession, he will press for another victory. But whether or not the Red Chinese will battle Americans again in Viet Nam as they did in Korea, we cannot say today. But we may be certain that more Americans — particularly our students — need to learn much more about the Orient, and specifically, much more about Red China, and the Red Chinese design on that part of the world.

I think it is essential that we pursue a course of victory in Southeast China.

Farm Bureau. In spite of this burdensome inheritance, this administration has been able to substantially reduce stocks and at the same time increase net farm income 800 million dollars in its first three years in office. This compares with a loss in net farm income of 1.6 billion dollars between 1953 — 1960 under the program supported by Farm Bureau."

"The Farm Bureau's cheap feed-high production policies of the 1950's is largely responsible for the serious livestock situation we find ourselves in today. Its campaign to transfer blame to this administration is sheer demagoguery."

Are Sunflowers Profitable Crop On The South Plains

Will sunflowers be a profitable crop on the High Plains of Texas? Scientists at the High Plains Research Foundation, near Plainview, Texas, believe that sunflowers will be a cash crop for many areas of Texas and the Southwest within five years. The Foundation is conducting research to find out. A sunflower breeding program was started at the Foundation in 1957.

Several hundred strains have been selected which show considerable promise for sunflower production. The objectives of the program are to investigate sunflowers as a crop that could be profitably grown under existing conditions of soil, available water, and climate of the High Plains; and to develop improved varieties of sunflowers adapted to mechanized harvesting.

The search is for a sunflower variety that will have: (1) high yielding ability with a large single head with good seed set; (2) a short, sturdy plant that can produce a maximum amount of grain with a minimum amount of water; (3) disease resistant; and (4) exhibit a high degree of insect resistance, especially to the larval stage of the sunflower head moth. This insect has been the number one menace to sunflower seed production.

There were 700 strains of sunflowers in the 1963 breeding program — 440 of these were original strains received from all over the world on a private exchange basis. To initiate this program, twenty four strains were imported. Two hundred and twenty strains were obtained from the Plant Introduction Service of the U.S.D.A.

Two hundred and thirty open-pollinated heads were selected for planting, and a number of self-pollinated heads were selected for the 1964 breeding program. The entire row of two strains were harvested to obtain seed for planting this year for the purpose of increasing seed. When sufficient seed is available, these strains will be subjected to further testing.

The sunflower is valuable as a food for livestock and people. It has a good quality protein and oil. It is a profitable crop in Canada and several areas in the United States.

The modern sunflower has a large head, one to the plant, with bent head that prevents bird damage. A yield of 3,500 to 4,000 pounds per acre is being sought to produce a profitable crop. The sunflower plant desired has a strong stock resistant to early wind damage and can be produced with less irrigation water than other crops.
