WHAT A PAGE AD COSTS --

Readers of the larger magazines of national circulation often wonder just what a page advertisement costs and often the guess runs into fabulous figures. As a matter of fact the most expensive advertisement from the cost per page is the Delineator at $8,000 for a single page in black. Colored pages cost considerably more. The Saturday Eveing Post is next in cost at $7,000. These costs seem outrageous to some people, yet they are good investments made by the smartest business men in America, men who know by experience that it pays to advertise.

The page cost of a number of leading periodicals given below:

Good Housekeeping,	$2,500
Delineator	8,000
Woman's Home Companion	6,300
People's Popular Monthly	2,000
Saturday Evening Post	7,000
Literary Digest,	4,000
McCall's Magazine,	6,000
Collier's	3,000

The Tahoka eleven won their second victory of the season last Friday afternoon when they trampled over Lamesa to the tune of 38 to 0. The defense work of Robert Nobles and Julian Ewing stood out throughout the game. Jess Key and Frank Larkin were the Bull Dogs strongest offensive men. Coach Peeples was only partially satisfied with the work of the team in Friday's contest and is planning strenuous workouts before the Slaton contest next Friday, at Slaton. The lineup:

Vernon Davis—Right Guard.
Ewing—Right End.

Edwards—Quarter Back.

AMERICAN LEGION SUBMIT PLANS FOR BLDG.

Doubtless everyone recalls that the Tahoka Post of the American Legion made a drive throughout the County last summer to raise funds to erect a home in Tahoka for the benefit of ex-service men of Lynn County. We were partially succesful in our undertaking then in that we have secured enough cash to purchase an excellent building lot. At that time many could not aid us in our enterprise but assured us that they would lend us all possible assistance this fall. The time is at hand, and we wish to announce to the public that we are now ready to begin actual construction whenever sufficient funds have been obtained.

In a discussion of our building program Thursday night Oct. 4th, at a call meeting of the Legion in the County Court Room a novel,(at least in this immediate section,) plan that has been successful for other organizations in other parts of the country was unanimously adopted. A brief out line of this plan follows: A certain day is selected to put over the drive. All merchants and business houses are to subscribe a preagreed per cent of their profits accruing from the day's business. Then every farmer who brings a bale of cotton to the gin on that day will give, for example, let us say 50 cents for each bale ginned, and the buyer the same amount for each bale bought.

We submit this plan to the business men and farmers of Lynn County. You'll agee that there is no better time to put this thing over, and if you want us to have a home to perpetuate American ideals and 100 percent Americanism which was put to the acid test during the World War, and if you want to help us simply mention the fact to some ex-service man. If the majority favor this plan the Legion Post will meet and come to a working agreement with them at once.

NEW FARMS

The inability of many good farmers in Kent county to secure farm land for next year is forcing them to go west to the plains, where much new land is being put under cultivation. At the same time there is tens of thousands of acres of as good farm land as the world affords in this county devoted to the growing of Jack Rabbits, the most worthless animal known.—Jayton Chronicle.

Some day every foot of the tillable land in Texas is going to be put under the plow. How far distance that day is, none can tell, but it is not believed far away. New farms are being opened up and planted in West Texas every day and recently several thousands acres was opened on the Plains. As soon as irrigation can be made universal, there is no reason why farming should not be carried on in Western Texas on an even more extensive scale than ever before.

A County Demonstration agent is the next real need for Lynn County. A county agent has proven to be highly successful in other counties on the South Plains.

MEMBER TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Don't forget that Lynn County needs that County Agent. Keep talking it up, and we will surely get it. See your county commissioner and impress upon him the importance of such a man to the county.

A giant still was captured recently north of Amarillo on the main highway. A woman was taken into custody The man escaped. The still was said to have been in operation for months. It was of 200 gallon capacity.

A man remarked to us yesterday that he wished he didn't have anything more to do than we did. We didn't try to explain to him the amount of work we turn off every day, for, to him, it would not sound like work anyway, besides, we long since discovered that you can't convince the average person that it requires any labor whatsoever to edit a newspaper. —Mineral Wells Index.

The advertising merchant assumes responsibility for the quality of the goods he sells, and they must make good in every instance. Unless your goods will do this, you certainly cannot afford to advertise, and conversely, if they will, you cannot afford to not advertise.—Ex.

Lynn County is greatly in need of a County agent. This was clearly manifested during the recent county fair held in Tahoka. If we had a county agent more than two of the twenty five communities in Lynn county would have been represented with exhibits. We would have probably have have taken more than sixth prize at the South Plains Fair in Lubbock last week. The county commissioners will surely have one employed before another fair date rolls around. We surely need the services of a county agent.

The Lubbock Daily Avalanche has been changed back from an afternoon paper to a morning edition. The news of this change is gladly received by Tahoka people since we get the late news on the same day it is published. The Avalanche has also added a full leased wire of the United News Service, making it one of the best dailies in this section of the state. The News extends congratulations to the Avalanche for the wonderful advancement the paper has made in newspaperdom.

DAZZLING AUTO HEADLIGHTS.

Driving into the dazzling lights of an oncoming car is dangerous business—dangerous alike to the dazzler and the dazzled. And it is so unnecessary. To dim the lights of a car is so simple, and easy a task, that it seems that the danger involved by not doing so would compel the motorist approaching another car at night to take this simple precaution against the possiblity of accident to his own car as well as the cars of others. It should not take a law to bring about the dimming of headlights. Common decency demands that a motorist practice this simple rule of night driving etiquette, for it is etiquette, and good manners are just as essential on the road as in the ballroom. —Exchange.

It's a great pleasure to anticipate pleasure until we get it and find that it is anything but a pleasure.

It's all right to say what you think, provided you think of the right thing to say.

If you have money to burn you have at least one friend. The coal man wants it.

Some women abuse their husbands and then become furious when their friends agree with them.

All other means having failed to curb the speed manias, we are reminded that the hangman and the undertaker still remain.

FIRE DAMAGES BRICK BUILDING AND STOCK

Last evening about 9 o'clock fire broke out in the brick building on Main street occupied by the Rix Furniture & Undertaking Co., the City Pressing Parlor and the City Barber Shop. The fire department soon had the flames under control. It is not learned how the fire originated, but was first discovered in the rear of the building. The damage to the stock of furniture and the equipment of the Tailor and Barber Shop has not been estimated early this Friday morning. It is known that the damage will amount to several hundred dollars.

EVERY CITY OVER 1000 SHOULD HAVE BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION

Every town in West Texas with as many as one thousand inhabitants, or in some cases even less, ought to have a local Building & Loan Association. The Texas laws are not difficult to comply with and are liberal. The house shortage continues, and a remarakble feature of this shortage is that it is just as acute in the small town of 1,000 inhabitants as it is in the larger places. It is contended with ample argument, by lumber and contracting companies, that the Homestead Laws of Texas operate against securing of cheap money from outside loaning companies for housing purposes, and again these large companies as a rule refuse to loan money in towns of less than 5,000 inhabitants.

Ordinarily the building of as many as a dozen new homes a year thru the operation of a local Building & Loan Association materially helps the local situation.

This organization is in position to advise towns that may be interested exactly how to proceed. Money invested in properly organized Building & Loan Association is a good investment. If 100 persons pay in $10.00 a month to an ordinary small town association, the local association would have $1,000.00 per month to loan. The operating expenses are extremely light.

If interested kindly advise Service Bureau of West Texas Chamber of Commerce.—West Texas Today.

THE FRIENDLESS CHILD

By Phebe K. Warner

Can you think of anything more pathetic in this world than a friendless child? A little human being born into this world without either its own knowledge or consent. Had nothing to do in selecting its parents or its home into which it was born. Had nothing to do with its own origin. Planted none of the seed of its own nature with it. A little human being born into a world of love and plenty but naturally inheriting only hate and poverty. A homeless, helpless, friendless child with a body to get cold and hungry and no one to clothe or feed it. With a heart to ache and no one to love it. A mind to develop and no one to develop it; a character to mold and no one to mold it.

There are thousands and thousands of these little friendless folks scattered about over our land and nobody seems to want them. But they are not entirely friendless or forgotten for somebody, somewhere is thinking of them and planning ways for their care and happiness and education. And some day when the heart of the whole world gets a little bigger and a little warmer there will be no homeless, friendless children. As poof of this faith there is one more new home for children being made ready now.

This home is already built, and paid for. It is the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Early and their children, to the children of the Panhandle and Texas. This beautiful home is located in the city of Amarillo. Some of you may know it as the Lowry-Phillips Military College which was built in Amarillo about twelve years ago. It is well located with plenty of playground and many big, well lighted rooms. It is the home where the military students were housed as well as educated. It is built for public service with beautiful living rooms and a good auditorium and firstclass rooms for childrens play rooms and sleeping rooms and sick rooms when there must be a sick room.

For several years this fine piece of property has been standing idle much of the time while scores of little children needed a home, and a place to sleep and play and to be clothed and fed. It was Mr. and Mrs. Allen Early of Amarillo who saw the children going to waste and who also saw this beautiful building and grounds going to waste and a real opportunity for service to humanity going to waste. And a few months ago Mr. and Mrs. Earley purchased the Lowry-Phillips property and presented it to the Presbyterian church of Amarillo as a home for children.

The gift was accepted by the church with all the obligations that must necessarily go with such a great work. But it is the desire of both the givers and the church that received the gift to make the home more than a Presbyterian Home for children. There is no such home in all the Panhandle or surrounding country. For this reason the Presbyterian church of Amarillo and the Panhandle is planning to make a Panhandle Home of this gift, where all children regard less of creeds will be welcomed into a real home.

The amount already invested in this home by Mr. and Mrs. Earley is $25,000, which covers the entire purchasing price of the property including more than 100 lots and all the improvements on the ground. The same building if erected today would cost more than twice as much money and if the ground were on the market today it would be many times the amount paid for it at the time of the transfer. The property as it stands represents an investment of from $50,000 to $75,000. And it is so located that additions can be made whenever the demand appears.

But it takes more than a building and ground to complete a home for children. It takes furniture. It takes food. It takes clothing. And it takes men and women trained for the service. And all these things create a demand for an endowment fund from the very start. But here again Mr. and Mrs. Earley are ready to go farther and they have already pledged $10,000 more on the endowment fund of $50,000, providing the city of Amarillo will complete the $50,000.

Then comes the current expense which must be met day by day, but there are scores of folks writing to know what they can do and in just a few more days you will all be notified how you can help most in this great new work of caring for the homeless children of the Panhandle and other parts of the State.

It is the plan of the board of managers of this new home to open its doors to the children as a New Year Gift to them. Can you think of any better way to start the New Year off than this? But before that can be done all things must be made ready for this wonderful home coming. That the home may be opened and ready to receive the children by January 1, 1924, it is necessary to put over a financial campaign for the cause.

The time set for this campaign is the second week in October. And it is the hope of the fiance committee to have every dollar necessary for the operation of this new home provided or promised by November 1st. Unless this can be done the opening on January 1st will not be possibe.

The business management of this new home has been assigned to the First Presbyterian Church of Amarillo. But as proof of their desire to share this gift with all the churches and all the people of the Panhandle the Board of Directors has been selected both within and without the Presbyterian church and within and without the city of Amarillo. Everybody who appreciates this gift to the homeless children of our country is invited to help in any and everyway they can to make this one of the happiest homes in all Texas for little children.

A special effort will be made in all the Presbyterian churches the last Sunday in October to help prepare the home for use. Every church in the whole country is invited to take part in this day's observations and send any amount they can to help the work The Panhandle has stood for everything good in the past. It has lead the State in building new homes, fine schools and beautiful churches in the past quarter of a century. But what will the Good Lord think of us if we build and support a million beautiful churches in His name and neglect His homeless children?

The teacher had asked for the correct translation of a passage in Latin, and my hand shot up.

"No, Marie, I don't want to call on you," she said. "I am sure you know it, for you always have your lesson."

This she did, but not getting the correct answer, came back to me. Imagine my chagrin and the secret joy of the other pupils when I, too, failed to give the right translation! I decided then and there that a good reputation is not always desirable.—Exchange.

The Ford.

George F. Baker, the New York financier, said at a farewell luncheon before his departure for Italy:

"Only fools would make terms with the Bolsheviks. Those who counsel such a course remind me of Nutty Noonan.

"Nutty Noonan, the village half-wit, was loafing by the creek one morning when the doctor appeared. The creek was much swollen, for it had rained overnight. Furthermore, there was no bridge, but only a ford.

"The doctor pulled up. He studied the ford uneasily. It had a dangerous look. Then he turned to Nutty.

"'Has anything got across the ford this morning, Nutty?' he asked.

"'Sure, Doc. Surest thing you know,' said Nutty, and he nodded and grinned in a reassuring way. 'Higginson's ducks went over not ten minutes ago.'"

We understand now why so many people talk so much. It is their way of telling the world how little they know.

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 14

ISRAEL, A MISSIONARY NATION

LESSON TEXT—Exod. 19:1-6; Isa. 43:9-11; Isa. 45:20-22.

GOLDEN TEXT—"Ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests and an holy nation."—Exod. 19:6.

PRIMARY TOPIC—God's Kindness to His People.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Why God Chose Israel.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Mission of the Chosen People.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Israel's Missionary Call.

I. Israel's Exalted Position (Exod. 19:1-6).

The descendants of Abraham had now become a multitude and the time had come to organize them into a nation. In order to enable them to see what a wonderful privilege was theirs, God displayed His majesty on Mount Sinai. In His message to them, He gave them a look backward and forward.

1. A Review of Their Past History (v. 4). He reminds them of what He had done to the Egyptians when He brought them out of their cruel bondage, and that His divine care over them had been as that of an eagle over her young. He had not merely brought them out of Egyptian bondage, but unto Himself. God's salvation is not merely deliverance from sin, but a union with Himself.

2. Promises of Future Greatness (vv. 5, 6). On condition of obedience to His voice, and faithfulness to their covenant obligations, He promised them a peculiar relationship to Him. This relationship is three-fold:

(1) The Lord's Peculiar Treasure Above All People. This is the treasure of Matt. 13:44. If this is recognized, the parable is quite clear. Failure to allow Scripture to interpret Scripture results in confusion.

(2) A Kingdom of Priests. "A Kingdom whose citizens are all priests living wholly in God's service and ever enjoying the right of access to Him." In this kingdom there is united sacerdotal privilege and royal dignity.

(3) A Holy Nation. A nation set apart for the work of God. Realizing this, they would be impelled to a standard of living which would be worthy of their high calling. Separation from sin and a positive stand for the right would always be demanded. The failure of this chosen nation is largely the explanation of the world's distress. Had Israel shown the nations the way to go, they would not have gone so far into sin.

II. Israel's Pressing Obligation (Isa. 43:9-11).

1. God's Challenge to the Heathen Nations (v. 9). They were asked to assemble their witnesses to see if they were able to make known the future as God had done through the prophets of Israel. They are either to make good their predictions or to acknowledge the truth as declared by God's prophets, namely, that God is the only God.

2. Israel, God's Witness (v. 10). This nation had been brought so clearly into touch with God, had so many times experienced His mighty hand to deliver, that they were competent witnesses. Not only the nation was a witness, but the prophets from that nation had so many times witnessed and their predictions were so completely fulfilled that the whole world knew that God was the one and only God and Savior. The only way the world can know that God is a forgiving God is through the witnessing of His redeemed people. How sorely this testimony is needed! How miserable has been Israel's failure!

III. Israel's Message (Isa. 45:20-22).

The message which Israel was to give was that God was the Savior of all the nations. Israel misinterpreted and misapplied this message. They claimed Him as their God and denied Him to the heathen. Though they have thus failed and the world is in darkness because of it, one day they shall go to the ends of the earth with it, and the result will be the ushering in of the Golden Age of which men of all ages have dreamed.

1. The Idolatrous Nations Are Invited to Draw In.

2. They Are Challenged to Bring Their Reasons for Worshiping Idols in the Light of the Fact That God the Savior Was the Only God.

3. They Are Given an Invitation to Look Unto God. They were not asked to do something to be saved, but to look to the Savior. Sinners today need only to look to Christ. What a wonderful day when Israel shall declare this message to all nations in the power of the Holy Spirit!

God's Promise.

God hath promised pardon to him that repenteth, but he hath not promised repentance to him that sinneth.—St. Anselm.

Friendship.

Friendship is the nearest thing we know to what religion is. God is love.—Henry Drummond.

A Fool's Coat.

A fool may have his coat embroidered with gold, but it is a fool's coat still.—Rivarol.

HAD A NIGHT OF TROUBLE

Story Told in Chicago Newspaper Will Be Declared a Libel by the Loyal Scot.

A Scottish laird and his servant, Sandy, were on their way home on horseback late at night. Both had been partaking liberally of a spirit which enjoys a certain measure of popularity in their country. At a ford where the bank was steep the laird fell head-first into the creek. He scrambled up and shouted to his servant:

"Hold on, Sandy! Something fell off—I heard it splash!"

Sandy climbed down from the saddle and waded about blindly in the shallow water. At last he seized on the laird.

"Why, it's yerself, mon!"

"No, Sandy," the master declared, stoutly. "It can't be me—here I am." Then he added: "But if it is me get me back on the horse."

Sandy helped the laird to the horse and hoisted him up. In the dark the rider was faced the wrong way round.

"Gie me the reins," the master ordered.

Sandy felt about the horse's rump, and then cried out, clutching the tail: "It waur the horse's head as fell off—nothin's left but the mane!"

"Gie me the mane, then," the laird directed, stolidly.

So presently, when he had the tail grasped firmly in both hands and Sandy had mounted, the procession began to move. Whereat the laird shouted in dismay: "Haud on, Sandy! It's gaein' the wrang way!"—Chicago Daily News.

LACK THE "WILL TO LIVE"

Cree Tribe of Canadian Indians Will Soon Have Disappeared From the Earth.

The Cree Indians are wards of the Canadian government. When Canada took their country she became responsible for their future. In particular, she pays each one yearly $5 in cash and, in the words of the treaty, this will be paid "while the sun shines and water flows."

But they are dying out. They have "not the will to live." In a certain district within recent times there were 30,000 Indians. Today there are 3,000. They drink tea to excess. They smoke tobacco to excess. The women and the little children smoke. Some are tubercular. And they keep dying.

They are honest and good natured, but their moral fiber has weakened. They loaf and slouch around the posts and have the mentality of emotional children and their delicate, weathered faces will soon be but a memory, writes a Hudson Bay correspondent of the London Times.

Just Like Uncle.

Big sister's beau was a college athlete. And because her seven-year-old brother admired ball players so much, she permitted him to come into the library and chat with the beau a while. Like two pals they talked together about football and basketball. "If you expect to grow up and make a basketball player," the athlete winked at sister as he said it, "you will have to learn to chew tobacco. All athletes chew tobacco."

"Do you?" little brother asked.

The beau nodded. Then little brother turned to sister. "You better lay off him right now," he warned, "'cause it made you sick when you had to kiss Uncle Bob when he was here because he chewed tobacco. I'll run and tell dad he needn't worry over you ever marrying this fellow."

And just then little brother was banished from the room.

Concerning Moonlight.

It is probable that very few persons are aware of the fact that the full moon gives several times more than twice the light of the half moon. They may be still more surprised to learn that the ratio is approximately as nine to one.

Stebbins and Brown, taking advantage of the extreme sensitiveness to light of a selenium cell, measured the amount of light coming from the moon at different phases, with the result above mentioned. The reason for the remarkable difference shown is to be found in the varying angles of reflection presented by the roughened surfaces of our satellite to the sun. The moon is brighter between first quarter and full than between full and last quarter.—New York Herald.

Used to It.

His automobile had balked, as automobiles will, and even if he was Robert Lee Morrell, chairman of the Automobile association, he couldn't persuade it to go. Fruitlessly he labored, with oilcan and monkey wrench, until he was hot, dirty and disgusted, and only the presence of a crowd of children prevented him from expressing himself as the situation demanded. But at last he must speak or explode. Near him was a sweet little maiden with golden hair and deep blue eyes.

"Run away, little girl," he said, "there are a few things I would like to say."

"Go right ahead," said the child; "my pa has an auto, too."—Exchange.

The High School students, with the seventh grade pupils met in the auditorium on Wednesday, Oct. 10, to nominate and elect the editor-in-chief, and business manager of their annual, which they have in contemplation.

Miss Addie Mae Carmack, from the Senior class was almost unanimously elected for editor-in chief of the annual, with Miss Floy Anglin of the Junor class, as her assistant.

A. P. Edwards was elected as business manager, with Vernon Davis as his assistant.

An editor was elected for the school column in the "Lynn County News." Miss Mary Link was elected for this position.

The next appearance of the "Bull Dogs" on the local gridiron will be on Saturday, October 20th, when the Crosbyton eleven visits Tahoka. The strength of the visiting team is unknown, but as their coach made a splendid record in Football at Tarlton, A. & M. it suffices to say that they will come expectant of victory.

As only a few more games are scheduled for the home grounds, do not miss the opportunity of seeing the Bull Dogs in action Saturday, Oct. 20th.

The Freshman Class are giving a picnic at the Sand Hill, Saturday afternoon, October 13. The Class will meet at the home of Mr. J. L. Sharman.

The Junior Class has begun interior decoration in their room.

It has been discoverd that "Slim" and "Cheesy" take advantage of the teachers' absence for developing their vocal talents.

Berta indulges in her daily exercise of vaulting from one seat to another upon the appearance of the superintendent in the room during the last period in the afternoon.

Wayne is overjoyed with his unanimous election for "water carrier" for the "Bull Dogs", and his prominent position on the front seat in the school room.

Damp weather agrees with A. P's. curly locks.

Frank is doing his utmost to display his ability in doing caribatures.

PANHANDLE FLOODED

The man who is devoid of courage is fortunate in a way. He is in no danger of being hung for murder.

We once heard of a fellow who claimed that nothing on earth could make him laugh. But he had never seen an old man ogle a young girl.

Time was when they considered it better to be an old man's darling than a young man's slave, but the modern girl prefers to be neither.

People who worry over little things never have any time in which to create big ones.

Don't expect to win in everything you undertake. If you were to do so you'd soon become so greedy you'd shove everybody else off the earth, and then you'd be too lonesome to live

"I HAVE TAKEN Cardui for run-down, worn-out condition, nervousness and sleeplessness, and I was weak too," says Mrs. Silvie Estes, of Jennings, Okla. "Cardui did me just lots of good—so much that I gave it to my daughter. She complained of a soreness in her sides and back. She took three bottles of Cardui and her condition was much better.

"We have lived here, near Jennings, for 26 years, and now we have our own home in town. I have had to work pretty hard, as this country wasn't built up, and it made it hard on us.

"I WISH I could tell weak women of Cardui—the medicine that helped give me the strength to go on and do my work." This card fulfils her wish.

CRANE LIBRARY PRESENTED TO SIMMONS COLLEGE

Abilene, Texas, Sept. 30.— Through the interest of Judge R. C. Crane of Sweetwater Simmons College has just come into possession of the valuable Crane Library and Collection, the latter including rare documents on Texas history and especially the history of the Western part of the state. Rare newspaper files and unusual and very complete collection of coin and paper money dating back several centuries before Christ are also in the group. Letters signed by almost all of the prominet men of American history and other items of the Crane Collection can not be duplicated. Of special interest is Mr. Crane's assemblage of bank checks covering all phases of the check in the history of American banking.

Judge Crane is a pioneer citizen of West Texas; he is the son of Dr. William Carey Crane, prominent in the state for many years, president of Baylor University for a long period. Judge Crane was for several years a member of the Board of Trustees of Simmons. He has spent the greater part of his lifetime and gone to much trouble in making the collection; it has long been his intention that the Crane Library should eventually become the property of Simmons. Recently through the efforts of the trustees and President J. D. Sandefer, the Library was obtained for a small consideration, being principally the gift of Judge Crane to Simmons.

The collection has already been shipped to the College and is being assembled in a room of the new fireproof Caldwell Fine Arts Building. The room will be especially equipped to accommodate the Library and Crane Collection.

Radio and World Enlightment

Since Gutenberg devised his rude wooden type blocks and made printing possible nearly five centuries ago, there has been no single invention so closely touching human interest and human welfare as radio, the latest miracle of the ages, says James G. Harbord, presidet of the Radio Corporation of America.

Its messages are flashed over land and sea with the speed of light; the enemy submarine cannot cut the cables of the wireless, the winter storms cannot weight it down with sleet or summer suns expand it to slackness. It potentially includes utility and recreation; it charms the ear with strains of music, it saves life and property on stormy seas, it annihilates distance and penetrates the cottage of the farm as easily as it does the mansion of the millionaire. It is the cottage of and the inspiration of the world's splendid prime.
