No drastic changes made

by Jean Ann Behney

The three campuses in the Spearman Independent School District will open their doors next Monday morning to a projected 865 students in grades kindergarten through 12.

Superintendent Larry Butler said, "I think this year will see some minor changes in relation to legislative mandates but overall, I don't see any drastic changes." He added, "We have some very competent teachers and I expect the students to be learning from the first day in class onward."

At the high school, second-year principal Jim Kirkland said he anticipates an enrollment of 59 freshmen, 68 sophomores, 61 juniors, and 51 seniors for a total of 239 students.

New courses being offered to students at the high school include Microcomputer Applications, Keyboarding/Typing, and a special early-morning humanities class for those in the Gifted and Talented Program. Wesley Jarvis will teach the computer-related courses.

The class for the gifted is being taught by Dwayne Mitchell and will meet from 7:20 a.m. to 8:10 a.m. daily. "For a student to receive credit for the course towards graduation, we had to offer it 250 minutes a week," said Kirkland, citing state requirements for the program. Mitchell's course will consist of ninth through 12th graders, all of whom were identified as gifted last year through an involved evaluation.

In another change, the high school will no longer have an "open campus" at lunchtime allowing students to leave for the noonday meal. All students will eat in the school cafeteria, either buying a hot meal there or bringing a bag lunch from home.

In addition to continuing last year's Student of the Month and Teacher of the Month awards, Kirkland plans to implement two new programs. The first of these is the Gold Card.

"The Gold Card is an idea I picked up through discussions with other principals at meetings last year," explained Kirkland. "Any student who achieves or performs something of special merit, whether that be in the classroom or at church or in the community, is eligible to get this card."

Gold Cards, modeled after those credit cards companies offer especially-valued consumers, will reward high school students with items available at local businesses. An example the principal gave was of a student who volunteers several hours a month at the Hansford Manor. If this service is brought to Kirkland's attention by another adult, Kirkland will reward that student with a Gold Card good for a meal at Gordon's Drug or a free movie pass to the Lyric Theatre.

Later, Kirkland plans to display the "cashed in" Gold Cards in a trophy case at the high school. Although he said he is not putting limits on the number of cards given out, he hopes he will award 10 to 20 of them each month.

Kirkland will also be reinstituting Career Day for students in all grades.

This year's winners of the Student and Teacher of the Month awards will receive more recognition than last year's winners did, according to Kirkland, who announced they will be taken out to lunch. Teachers will also receive a complimentary "day off" from classes, with Kirkland himself filling in as instructor. He plans to teach a unit on sociology on these occasions.

"I want to emphasize 'good news' at the high school this year," he summarized. "We will be rewarding positive student behaviors at every moment possible. In this way, Spearman High School will become a more positive aspect of a student's childhood.

Junior High Principal Richard Olsen is anticipating only a slight change from last year's total

New community center planned

Over 75 Spearman residents gathered Wednesday morning, Aug. 15 at the First State Bank Hospitality Room to witness the unveiling of the architectural plans for a new community center.

A new comunity center facility in Spearman has been the goal of the Spearhead Corporation, formed of local citizens two years ago. This organization is headed by President Don Townsen and includes Jackie Pearson, vice president, Brett Whitford, secretary-treasurer, and board members Larry Butler, Mike Cudd, Jim Murray, Bob Pearson, Lenis Simpson and Verna Lee Shirley.

Before the official unveiling of the planned 18,000-square foot community center, Bob Pearson spoke of the Spearhead Corporation's work of the past two years.

"The first thing we found we had to do was to get an IRS tax-exempt status. We kept our work kind of quiet while we got this groundwork done," Pearson explained. With this accomplished, Wednesday's special unveiling marked the beginning of a publicity campaign designed to capture the public's interest and encourage its support of the comunity center.

While the paperwork was being completed for the tax-exempt designation, committees made up of Spearhead Corporation members and other community residents were formed to develop ideas for the building and its floor plans, implement fundraising and work out the financing for the project.

The building commitee, headed by Shirley, toured various community centers in the Panhandle to get ideas, developed priorities and selected architect Chick Lee and Associates. This same firm has designed several other buildings in the Panhandle, including two banks in Perryton.

At the time of Wednesday's unveiling, Pearson said the Spearhead Corporation had $200,000 in cash contributions for the community center and a building site, as well as the support of the City of Spearman, which will supply in-kind services during the community center's construction and eventual operation.

Pearson gave special recognition to Charles and June O'Loughlin for their monetary contribution and to Ralph and Joann Blodgett for the donation of the land, which is located at Eleventh Street and Cotter.

According to Pearson, "This dream is almost a reality. What we need now is moral, monetary and voluntary support." The Spearhead Corporation will need "in the ball park" of $175,000 in contributions to finish the project, Pearson said, as well as monies from several grants. Don Townsen and Pearson applied for a Harrington Foundation grant only last week.

The Spearhead Corporation is using the expertise of a professional, Linda Maxey, in making its grant applications. Pearson reports that Maxey is impressed with the amount of money the corporation has already acquired and believes the community center project will receive several grants.

The community center will be located across the street from the Spearman High School tennis courts. The new building will face to the west. The main room of the large facility will be a multi-purpose room which will have a collapsible stage, large kitchen with outside entrance, and a carpeted walking track.

Men's and women's whirlpools, restrooms, offices, meeting rooms and a physical conditioning and rehabilitation rooms are also included in the community center's floor plans, reported Jackie Pearson.

She emphasized that the community center will benefit the entire town. In addition to providing meeting space and the work-out area, the center will be the site for educational and cultural programs. Pearson said these will range from wellness seminars for senior citizens and others to music appreciation and theater arts programs.

Pearson said groups and organizations which will be able to utilize the facility will include the Spearman police force, fire fighters, Boy and Girl Scouts, Palo Duro Players theatrical troupe, senior citizens, Hansford Manor, Federation of Christian Athletes and local businesses.

"We (the center) will be non-profit, charitable and educational," she summarized.

"We are real excited about our program and ready to get started," Spearhead President Townsen said in closing. He added that all information on the project is available to interested residents and that the corporation welcomes all questions

GISD office prepares for TEA visit

by Jean Ann Behney

As the Gruver Independent School District gears up for the 1990-91 school year, the administrative office is also preparing for a visit by the Texas Education Agency.

The TEA will arrive in September to evaluate the schools in Gruver in terms of their compliance with state mandates. "We're getting everything in order for that visit," reported Superintendent Tommy Cathey.

Total enrollment for the upcoming year in the Gruver ISD is an estimated 555 students. there will be 50 teachers in the three schools.

School will begin on Tuesday, Aug. 28, with registration at the elementary and junior high schools taking place on Monday, Aug. 27.

At Gruver High School, Principal Barry Haenisch approximates the class breakdown to be: 32 freshmen, 32 sophomores, 27 juniors and 31 seniors.

Several curriculum changes will be implemented this year. New courses include an independent study in Speech, Computer Math, Practical Writing, Personal Business Management, Introduction to Psychology, Business Law and Choir.

Haenisch said the new classes were being added for upperclassmen in particular, who have often completed all their requirements for graduation except for English and Government by their third or fourth year of high school.

Choir is being brought back into the curriculum because of student demand, he explained. The class will be taught by Band Director Todd Parker and will participate in extracurricular activities such as UIL and the Greater Southwest Music Festival in Amarillo.

A very exciting addition to the school's resources this year will be the new Computer Lab. Until this year, high school computer students went over to the junior high building to work on Apple computers there.

Now the high school will have its own computers, 15 IBM systems. Accounting and Computer Math classes will use these new IBMs and the Computer Science class will use both the Apples and the IBMs.

Haenisch himself is going from the summer school classroom right into the Principal's Office at Gruver, having completed his superintendent's certification this past July at Sul Ross State University in Alpine, adding 15 credit hours to his Principal's certification.

As for his own professional goals, Haenisch said he wants to become more "computer literate" this year. He hopes to find time to squeeze in a computer course at Panhandle State University.

In terms of his goals for the school, the principal said, "I'd like

Davis remembered with benefit

by Cayla Eaton

Due to a community effort involving a number of close friends and family members, the memory of Brett William Davis, who was killed in an auto accident March 23,1989, was remembered in a special benefit held Monday, Aug. 20.

The benefit featured two rising stars, Joe Barnhill from Nashville Tenn. and Spearman's very own Gwen Benson. The benefit show was held in order to raise money for the Brett Davis Scholarship Fund.

The scholarship fund was set up in May 1989, with the first contribution made by Standard Life Insurance Company. A $500 scholarship is awarded each year to a high school senior on the basis of collegebound merits and financial need.

In an interview conducted Aug. 16, Rich Vaughn of television station KFDA in Amarillo asked Marlene Davis "what she felt the reaction of the town was towards the scholarship fund." She replied, "The people here were really positive towards the fund and felt that it would help keep Brett's memory alive. Spearman is a great place, and I am very fortunate to live here."

She continued, "Brett was a very talented young man who loved everyone and always found the good in everyone. I just wanted to do something special in rememberance of him."

Chad Davis stated in the same interview that Brett was an outstanding athlete, and that he not only wanted him to be remembered as his brother, but as his best friend.

The evening kicked off at 5:30 p.m. with a barbecue dinner catered by Ivey's Hungry Cowboy. Following the dinner, Spearman's Gwen Benson took the stage. Gwen is the 16-year old daughter of Frank and Anna Benson, and will be a sophomore at Spearman High School. Benson performed a variety of songs including, "You Were My Brother's Friend," a song she wrote following Davis's death in 1989.

The featured entertainer, Joe Barnhill, took the stage at 8 p.m. along with his back-up band, The Night Riders. Barnhill has been a featured entertainer at the Nashville Palace and recently recorded his debut album with Capitol Records.

Barnhill, a native of Turkey, Texas, performed a number of songs including Hank Williams Jr.'s "All My Rowdy Friends" and "Ain't Misbehavin'."

A total of 115 people were served barbecue and an estimated 350 people attended the concert itself.

Morse schools undergo changes

When Morse students pass through the school doors Aug. 27 to start a new school year they are going to notice some changes, according to Roy Harris, superintendent of the Pringle-Morse CISD.

Harris indicated there will be changes in the daily schedule of the school, personnel, curriculum and in the building.

Harris said the school day will be six minutes shorter overall. Classes will start at 8:15 a.m. and end at 3:45 p.m. To accomodate the shorter school day, changes in the class schedules of the elementary and junior high were made.

There have been changes in the personnel at the school as well, according to Harris. Three new teachers, an aide and a bus driver were hired this summer, he said. The three new teachers are Leland Skow, Christy Cooper and Gail Etheredge. The new teacher aide is Cindy Knox and the bus driver is Lisa King.

Changes in the curriculum, Harris noted, will include the extension of the gifted and talented program to the elementary grades. This program will be conducted by Kathy Stedje for one hour three days a week in the afternoon. The students will be guided in putting together learning centers and taking field trips to study subjects in which they show an interest. The junior high gifted program will be conducted by Peggy Lewis and meets one day a week for three hours in the afternoon.

Harris indicated that other curriculum changes include the addition of a full time special education class. This class will be taught by Peggy Wilkinson. Fourth grade math will be separated from the elementary curriculum and will be taught by Skow.

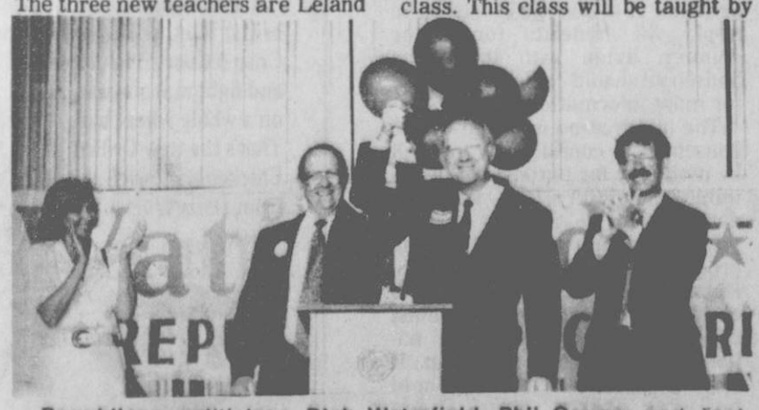

Changes in the building include the addition of a new gas stove and deep fryer in the kitchen. Harris estimated the new equipment cost at about $5500. He also indicated that the kitchen staff is working on changes in the lunch menu to limit the amount of fried foods served at lunch and to generally provide a more healthy lunch to the students.

Harris said that changes in the elementary schedule include elementary students losing 10 minutes of their morning recess time. The elementary will also eat lunch later, at 12:10 p.m.

Finally, Harris indicated the kindergarten class will meet in the afternoon instead of the morning. Kindergarten will start at 12:45 p.m. and last until 3:40 p.m.

Harris says there are changes in the junior high schedule as well. Students will start the day with a

Spiritually Speaking

by John Miller
First Baptist Church, Gruver

"Thus saith the Lord. . ." Many times in the scriptures we see this phrase. Always when we see it, we know that God is speaking through one of His prophets a word that He intends for mankind to heed. In the New Testament, Jesus Christ, the Son of God, and God in the flesh (Luke 1:32, Romans 1:4, John 1:14) speaks freely and with authority as "Thus saith the Lord ..."

It's no surprise that the world attempts to supplant the Word of God with word of man. The fashionable thing to do in many theological circles today is to "explain" what God means as He speaks, or to "contemporize" His work so as to be relevant to modern man. Isn't it amazing that God who created the universe and mankind should need help in communicating to His creation?

Maybe what the world needs more to hear is "Thus saith the Lord ..." and less of "Thus saith man ...!" Consider this very simple statement from Jesus, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father, but through me." (John 14:6 NASB) That is simple enough for all the world to understand, yet so many argue with its truthfulness.

Personally, I intend to listen to God, and ignore man.

Lynx band to have new look for 1990-91 year

The Spearman Lynx band will hit the field with a "new look" for the 1990-91 school year, according to Band Director Jerry Sparks. The band's new look will feature purple and white corps shirts and berets, he said.

He listed some of the other new things happening this school year for the Lynx band, which include the formation of a jazz band and a trip to an out-of-town music festival.

Elaborating, Sparks said the jazz band will probably consist of about 10 to 12 Lynx band members and will include such instruments as a guitar. The jazz band, which will be available to perform at local events, will be organized shortly after the beginning of the school year and will be named by the band members.

"The choir has its own group, 'Celebrate,' which has done the choral department a lot of good," noted Sparks. "We hope the jazz band can do the same for our department by bringing the band some recognition and more community support."

He said a destination for the out-of-town music festival has not been finalized, but two locations, Colorado Springs or San Antonio, could come up for consideration.

Sparks said that for the past two years, the junior high band has been quite small. "But thanks to some schedule juggling by Mr. Olsen, it promises to be about 60 strong this fall!" he predicted.

"Perhaps not too many years into the future, we can see the return of 'The Great White Army,'" Sparks said hopefully. "Keep your fingers crossed!"

High school band students are invited to drop by the band hall Thursday, Aug. 23 and Friday, Aug. 24 to pick up their uniforms. Officers will be chosen Tuesday, Aug. 28, so students need to be thinking about their choice of leaders, the director said.

Kellie McWhirter, a 21 year old senior at Baylor University, was crowned Miss West Texas in a pageant held in Odessa recently. The pageant is a preliminary to the Miss Texas Scholarship Pageant, which will be held in Fort Worth in July 1991. McWhirter won both the interview and swimsuit portions of the pageant. For the talent portion of the contest, she sang "Break It To Me Gently." McWhirter is a 1987 graduate of Spearman High School and was valedictorian of her class. She was Miss Wheatheart 1989 and Miss Hansford 1987. She is a marketing and management major at Baylor, with a 3.83 GPA. She is a member of Beta Gamma Sigma national honor society in business and management, Gamma Beta Phi academic honor society, Phi Beta Lambda business fraternity and Zeta Tau Alpha sorority. She is also the Sweetheart of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity at Baylor. McWhirter is the daughter of Steve and Sheri Benton of Spearman and Lloyd McWhirter of Denver, Colo.

Drivers cautioned about buses

It's that time of year again, when vacations end and it's back to school for school children. "Unfortunately, this also means an increase in traffic accidents involving school children," stated Major Vernon Cawthon, regional commander of the Texas Department of Public Safety. "Most of these accidents are caused by drivers who fail to follow safe operating procedures, as well as laws pertaining to passing a school bus," Major Cawthon stated.

State law requires drivers on the same roadway as a school bus that has stopped to load or unload school children to stop and remain stopped until one of three things happen: the bus driver signals you to go on by; or they turn off the flashing red lights; or the bus itself goes into motion. This law applies whether you are meeting the bus or whether you are going in the same direction as the bus. It also applies inside the city limits, as well as outside the city limits.

The only exception to the law is that drivers on the other side of a divided highway (roadways separated by a physical median) are not required to stop. Motorists who fail to stop for a school bus could be fined up to $200.

"We, as drivers, should realize the dangers involved and do everything possible to prevent these needless deaths and injuries involving our school children," Major Cawthon stated.

TAAS test explained

Texas students in grades three, five, seven, nine and eleven will be taking a new test in October. The TAAS (Texas Assessment of Academic Skills) replaces the TEAMS test, which was given each spring for five years. The TAAS is the new state-mandated test.

Gruver administrators said that the TAAS is not a minimum competency examination, as was the TEAMS, but rather a test evaluating students' higher thinking skills.

"This makes the TAAS more of an achievement test," said Elementary Principal Bob Burgoon. "This new test will give us a new perspective on student achievement," added Junior High Principal Bill Duncan.

All the administrators agree that the earlier testing date in October will put students at a disadvantage since they will have had very little time to review, but they add that since all students in Texas will take it then, that puts Gruver students on an equal footing with every other school district.

Since the TAAS does not merely test for minimum competency skills, Burgoon said a general lowering of statewide scores is predicted. "Nonetheless, we still have very high expectations for our kids," he said.

Telethon head named

Dale Moyer has been named Spearman chairperson of the 1990 Jerry Lewis Telethon to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association (MDA), announced Karen Lane, district director of the national voluntary health agency's Panhandle Chapter.

"We're proud to have caring individuals like Dale Moyer working closely with MDA and its supporters," said Lane. "Our Telethon team is dedicated to making this year's show another record breaker." Telethon '89 was the most successful in the show's history, raising over $42 million in pledges.

The 25th annual Labor Day Telethon will be broadcast by KFDA-TV, starting at 8 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 2 and continuing to 6 p.m. Monday, Sept 3. The 21½ hour extravaganza will originate live from Universal studios in Hollywood, and will be carried through the country by some 200 "Love Network" stations.

Wesley Garcia, 1990 Poster Child for the Panhandle Chapter of MDA, will be just one of the many special guests who will be attending the Jerry Lewis Labor Day Telethon. At this year's telethon, Wesley will be assisting hosts, Kari King and John Hagerty. This year's show is being broadcast live from the Howard Johnson Plaza Hotel.

Children wishing to collect door-to-door for "Jerry's Kids" are asked to come by the pledge center at the Spearman Fire Station, 501 S. Hazelwood, no later than noon on Labor Day to pick up an official badge and canister.

A special phone number, 659-3386, has been assigned for the people of Spearman to phone in their pledges. Anyone wishing to volunteer to answer phones or help at the pledge center in any other way should call Dale Moyer as soon as possible at 659-2630.

Junior high students (grades six, seven and eight) will also report to school at 8:10 a.m. with an 8:15 a.m. instruction bell. Classes will dismiss for the school day at 3:35 p.m.

Kindergartners in the morning session will report to school at 8:15 a.m., as will students in grades one through five. MR. AND MRS. JOHN LYN WILLIAMS

Wright, Williams wed

Kristi Dawn Wright and John Lyn Williams were married July 21 at the First United Methodist Church of Spearman. The Rev. Todd Dyess, pastor, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Omar Sutton of Spearman and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Wright of Mesquite. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Williams of Gruver.

Church decorations featured an arched candelabrum centered between two spiral candelabra, each with arrangements of multicolored flowers accented with primrose and teal bows. Pews in the sanctuary were decorated with primrose and teal bows.

Musical selections for the ceremony were presented by Mrs. Bob Meek, pianist, and Eddie Martin, organist, along with soloists Trevor Williams and Anne Reese.

Rhonda Mathews of Spearman served as maid of honor. Anne Reese of Canyon served as bridesmaid. Ronnie Williams, brother of the groom, was best man and Buster Davis of Gruver was groomsman. Monica Roberson of Lubbock, niece of the groom, and Paige Pittman of Spearman registered wedding guests.

Ryan Winger was ringbearer and Chelsea Wall was the flowergirl. Ushers were Brandon Sutton and Jim Wright, brothers of the bride, and Davin Winger and Darrell Messer. Trent Roberson, nephew of the groom, was the candlelighter.

The bride's gown was fashioned of crystal organza with a high neck, illusion on the shoulders and puffed sleeves that were fitted to the wrist. The neckline, collar, bodice and sleeves were covered with motifs of Chantilly lace scattered with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The full skirt had several motifs of lace, pearls and sequins. The bottom of the skirt had two deep ruffles with lace and pearls along the top of the ruffles.

The back of the dress was covered in illusion. Chantilly lace, pearls and sequins were scattered over the design on the bodice. A large double bow of crystal organza at the waist acted as a topper for two large ruffles running the length of the cathedral train. Between the ruffles were appliques of Chantilly lace scattered with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. Several rows of large lettuce ruffles graced the end of the train.

Her headpiece was a white floral crown intertwined with tiny silk flowers and pearls. From it fell a fingertip veil accented with white lace and ribbon.

The bride's bouquet was a cascade of multicolored flowers with deep pink roses and white babies' breath accented with white lace and ribbon.

She carried a handkerchief belonging to her great-grandmother, Mrs. E.A. Greever, as "something old" and wore a ruby ring belonging to her great aunt, Ruby Miller, as "something borrowed."

The bridal attendants wore teal satin sheaths featuring a sweetheart neckline, puffed sleeves accented with satin bows, and a basque waist with an attached peplum accented in back by a large satin bow. Each carried a bouquet of multicolored flowers with primrose ribbons. The groom's attendants wore black tuxedoes, white pleated shirts, teal bow ties and cummerbunds.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church fellowship hall. Assisting and serving were Teague Winger, Lori Messer and Paula Williams, all of Gruver, and Jana Ivey of Lubbock.

Word of the tragic drowning of Joe Gaither was received by his sister, Nina Hendricks, on Saturday. Joe is a former resident of Spearman and also is a brother of Billy and Johnny Gaither.

Joe and his family live at Kingfisher, Okla. His sister, Clydene and Lyle Bolens, of Perryton were spending the weekend with them at their cabin on Lake Whitlock.

Joe, Lyle and Joe's grown son were running a trot line in the early morning hours when their boat capsized and sank. Neither Joe nor Lyle could swim and the son tried to get both to shore. He succeeded in getting Joe on shore, but he died soon after. Lyle's body was recovered soon after.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Gaither, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Gaither and Nina and Don Hendricks attended the service for Joe on Tuesday. He is survived by a wife and four children.

Services for Lyle were pending as of this writing.

At Whitefish, Henry was delighted that the annual Huckleberry fiesta was being held with huckleberry pie, huckleberry honey, huckleberry fudge and many other items in abundance.

The ruins of Old Fort Fizzle piqued Henry's interest; the simple marker was the only information. Henry, being somewhat of a history buff, found additional information when he returned home. He might share it, upon request.

Their vows were read in a setting highlighted by a 15-point fan candelabrum flanked by two spiral candelabra and a unity candle with a single candle on either side. Other accents included two baskets filled with pink lilies and white daisies.

Music for the event was provided by Gay Unruh of Balko, Okla., organist; Leslie Castor of Woodward, Okla., soloist; Diane Floyd of Woodward, pianist; and the groom's mother, who sang "Turn Around" during the lighting of the unity candle. She was accompanied by Jerry Thompson of Amarillo on the acoustic guitar.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin floor length dress with a lace collar, sheer yoke and fitted bodice trimmed in lace and seed pearls. Tiny pearl buttons ran down the length of the back. Full length sleeves of sheer satin were accented with lace and seed pearls, and featured two miniature sweetheart bows above the elbows. The skirt was accentuated with seed pearls and encircled at the hemline with scalloped lace that continued around the chapel length train. Gracing the train was a cut lace motif centered with a sweetheart bow.

She carried a cascading bouquet of pink lilies and white daisies. In keeping with tradition, she wore a penny in her shoe minted in the year of her birth as "something old;" her dress as "something new;" pearl earrings from her mother as "something borrowed;" and the traditional garter as "something blue."

Her attendants wore pink shimmer satin dresses with Sabrina necklines and French pouf sleeves. The waistlines were V-shaped and the back of the dresses featured keyhole necklines with designer bows.

MR. AND MRS. DOUGLAS ANDREW RAWLINS

The bride's mother wore a tea-length rose colored satin dress with ivory lace overlay, and the mother of the groom chose a silk pink designer dress with a jewel neckline and dropped waist.

All the men in the wedding party wore black tuxedoes with top hats, gloves and canes. The groom also had a penny in his shoe, minted in the year of his birth.

Following the ceremony, a reception and dance were held at the Expo Center in Perryton, which was decorated throughout with pink and white balloon bouquets. On The Go With Joy

by Joy Henderson

I consulted about some inspirational topics for this week's paper. One suggested" rainy weather," another said, "not vegetables," "not back ache," "not tailbone." I am trying not to mention extra cooking and griping about it.

We have already had three stages of breakfast, and it is nearly noon and time to start the next meal. I have hinted several times that I "don't do" three meals a day, but someone's stomach wasn't paying attention and I find myself raiding the "frig" and making a quick trip to the store.

Never mind that we have lots of peaches, pears, peppers, peas, beans, and three kinds of squash. Most of the time I get a "Yuk, that's gross." So, I've told them "next time to bring their money and they can go buy their dinner, but it just fell on deaf ears.

As you can guess from the above paragraph, you will get the idea that I've got company again. Oh well, I've threatened to get even with them when I get old and they have to take care of me. (Heaven forbid).

Yes, the Stovalls from Duncanville are visiting us and really I'm glad they are able to visit us several times a year. I see them more often than some of them who live within 100 miles, and D.S. is getting in the habit of bringing me a surprise "goodie box."

While here, the Stovalls met up with Glen Byars who was in the Gruver area speaking about prison ministry with the Texas Department of Corrections. Another guest speaking at the Church of Christ was Calvin Chapman and his family from Belle Fourche, S. Dakota. Roger Brown accompanied them.

Another quick trip to Abilene was made by Veldon and Elene Green. They must be helping Ron gather up his "stuff" for college because he has been visiting in Gruver again.

Laneida Burnam has completed her summer vacation/work duties and is busy getting ready for school. Cami Shapley is also on the student list getting ready.

Now I'd list Cami as returning to A&M and Laneida as heading for PSU., but from past experiences of my ignorances, they may be going somewhere else.

As reported last week, Faye Blount suffered a broken bone, but her activities have not ceased instead of a cast, etc. she is getting around with some type of air bag or something around her ankle or leg or whatever. So there will be no rest for her, as she is still on kitchen duty for her family.

Bill Goldsmith experienced a heart attack last week and spent several days in the Borger hospital. He will probably be home in Gruver by the time you read this and on his way to a good recovery.

Sandy TeBeest received news recently that her second cousin, Tammie Harrison, received a severe beating from a robber who had entered her home. She is in critical condition. Tammie, 24 years old, had recently moved to Grand Juvetion, Colo. to live with her brother and they were in the process of remodeling some of the living quarters. The intruder used a hammer from nearby and beat her severly on the head resulting in possible extensive damage to the brain.

Ona Fay Watkins has recently had another stroke and her condition is listed as poor. Joe Brock, father of Jody Irwin, is reported as improved after being flown to Houston for heart problems.

Linda Baker reports that her infant daughter Bethany has been transferred to NWTH in Amarillo. She encourages anyone who is able to visit the baby to do so. Also, Linda requests that if anyone going to Amarillo would like to give her a ride, if convenient, to contact her. Linda would like take every opportunity to visit with Beth while in NWTH.

Barry Haenisch has mentioned that there are several former Gruver High School students who may be getting their call to overseas duty due to the Middle East conflict. We should be aware of these and keep them in our prayers.

In addition to Allan Taylor visiting his parents here in Gruver while on leave, Victor and Kathy had a visit from his brother Travis, home on leave. Travis and his wife were here and in the Borger area for only a couple of days when Travis received orders to report back.

Visiting in the home of Dorsey and Lucille Schad are their daughter and family. Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Chapman, Blithe and Caitlin are from Amarillo.

Arnold and Edna Sutton of Howe are enjoying the hospitality of their daughter Camille Miller and Larry Luke, and Yvette Lauren.

1990 Property Tax Rates Palo Duro River Authority

This notice concerns1990 property tax rates for PALO DURO RIVER AUTHORITY. It presents information about three tax rates. Last year's tax rate is the actual rate the taxing unit used to determine property taxes last year. This year's effective tax rate would impose the same total taxes as last year if you compare properties taxed in both years. This year's rollback tax rate is the highest tax rate the taxing unit can set before taxpayer's can start tax rollback procedures. In each case these rates are found by dividing the total amount of taxes by the tax base (the total value of taxable property) with adjustments as required by state law. The rates are given per $100 of property value.

LAST YEAR'S TAX RATE:

Last year's operating taxes	$ 156,604
+ Last year's debt taxes	$ 1,891,836
= Last year's total taxes	$ 2,048,440
÷ Last Year's total tax base	$1,518,938,401
= Last year's total tax rate	$ .13486

THIS YEAR'S EFFECTIVE TAX RATE:

Last year's adjusted taxes (after subracting taxes on lost property)	$ 2,045,114
÷ This year's adjusted tax base (after subtracting taxes on new property)	$1,643,432,124
= This year's effective tax rate	$ .12444
x 1.03 = maximum rate unless unit publishes notices and holds hearing	$ .12817

THIS YEAR'S ROLLBACK TAX RATE:

Last year's adjusted operating taxes (after subtracting taxes on lost property)	$ 157,713
÷ This year's adjusted tax base	$1,643,432,124
= This year's effective operating rate	$ .00959
x 1.08 = this year's maximum operating rate	$ .01036
+ This year's debt rate	$ .11632
= This year's rollback rate	$ .12668

SCHEDULE A: UNENCUMBERED FUND BALANCES

The following balances will probably be left in the unit's property tax accounts at the end of the fiscal year. These balances are not encumbered by a corresponding debt obligation.

TYPE OF PROPERTY TAX FUND	BALANCE
Maintenance & Operation	491,989

SCHEDULE B: 1990 DEBT SERVICE

The unit plans to pay the following amounts for long-term debts that are secured by property taxes. These amounts will be paid from property tax revenues (or additional sales tax revenues, if applicable).

Description of Debt	Principal or Contract Payment to be Paid	Interest to be Paid	Other Amounts to be Paid	Total Payment
Bond	175,000	1,672,380	-0-	1,847,380

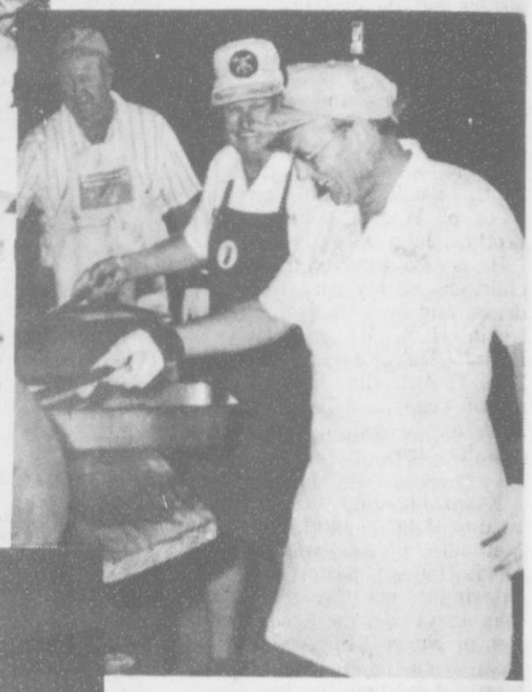

Total required for 1990 debt service	$1,847,380
- Amount (if any) paid from funds listed in Schedule A	$ -0-
- Excess collections last year	$ -0-
= Total to be paid from taxes in 1990	$1,847,380
+ Amount added in anticipation that the unit will collect only 95% of its taxes in 1990	$ 97,231
= Total Debt Service Levy	$1,944,611

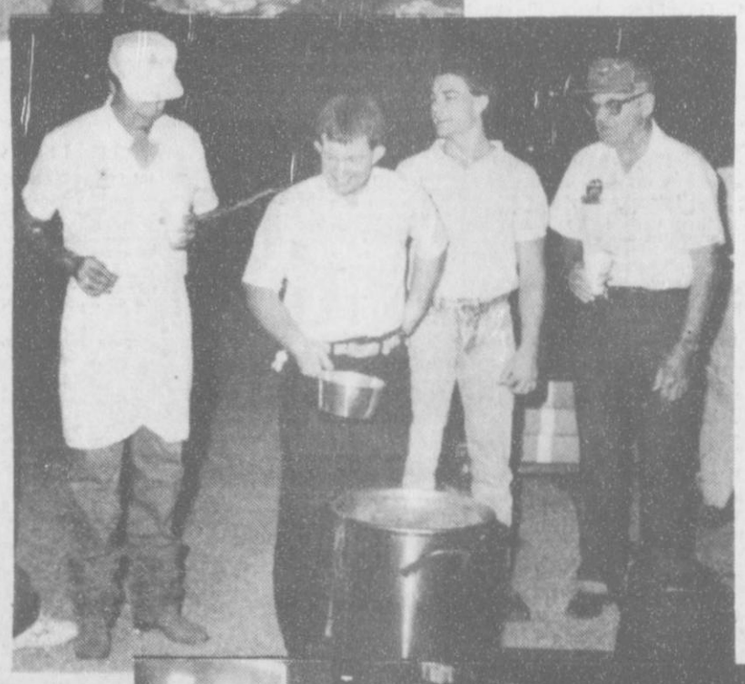

This notice contains a summary of actual effective and rollback tax rate calculations. You can inspect a copy of the full calculations at Palo Duro River Authority Office.

For The Sbort Of It

How many of you saw the Greyhounds and Coach David Steele on television this past week? It seems the Hounds turned out for practice at 12 midnight on the first day that hitting was allowed. One of the local Amarillo television stations got wind of it, and filmed the midnight practice. They also had a shot of the many people in the stands, and one could see clearly Debbie Odom, Mandy Derington and Mindy Davis, among others. It is nice to know that the Hounds are so fired up this early in the season.

I received my "quit smoking" computer this past Monday. It looks to be a fantastic gadget, from what I've seen and read in their guide book. My start date was Tuesday, August 21, and Stage One should take seven days. Then it is on to Stage Two, which will take from two to five weeks. That is when the computer starts cutting down my smoking. Then Stage Three is "Living as an Ex-Smoker," and that is the tricky part. But I will let you know how I do.

"I just think that they shouldn't let daddies go away this long... but they have to, in order to keep the world safe."

Those are the words of an 8-year old girl, after watching her Navy dad deploy for the Persian Gulf.

And that is my column for this week.

New elementary teachers in Gruver are (l-r) Kristi Williams and Janie Steele.

for every student to have a positive experience when they come to school and I want us to be a real student body, where we all care for one another and accept everyone."

Junior High Principal Bill Duncan said students arriving Monday, Aug. 27 should report to the school library, where they will receive their locker assignments and student packs, which include each individual's schedule of classes.

New students to the Gruver ISD will need to bring their immunization records, social security cards and birth certificates if they have never been enrolled in a Texas school.

This year the State will be requiring measles booster shots for all 12-year-olds. Duncan said more information will be available on this soon.

Duncan expects to have 52 fifth graders, 31 sixth graders, 44 seventh graders and 52 eighth graders at the junior high building, a slight increase over last year. Staff changes at the junor high include the addition of John Duncan to teach earth science and to coach junior high football, Laura Blassingame to replace retiring Vireta Knight as a history, English and theater arts instructor, and Mike Banks to teach Texas history and girls' physical education.

In the area of curriculum, Roy Mayhew will teach a pull-out program of gifted and talented students each afternoon from 2:45 to 3:30 p.m. Last year, teachers rotated each six weeks in this assignment. The students involved will range from third to eighth graders.

Several advanced eighth grade students will also have the opportunity to take Algebra instead of regular eighth grade math. Brent Vanderpol, new high school math teacher, will be the instructor.

In athletics, junior high teams will be competing in Class AA instead of Class A for the first time. (This class designation is based on school enrollment.) Gruver Junior High matches will be against Spearman, Sunray, West Texas and Boys Ranch.

In regard to competing against Spearman, Duncan commented, "We appreciated being able to play our friends again, and moving into Class AA also means we won't have to travel such long distances for games."

Duncan said his goals for the year always include fostering a "family atmosphere" in the school. "I don't want any student to be apprehensive about approaching me or a teacher with a problem," he explained. "The door (to his office) is always open."

Other goals include scoring well on achievement tests ("We've always stressed academic excellence") and an emphasis on good student self-concept.

Principal Bob Burgoon said the total enrollment at the elementary level will be "about the same" as last year, 235 students. Forty of these pupils will be kindergartners.

He welcomes two new teachers to his staff: Kristi Williams and Janie Steele. Williams will be the new Resource teacher for the learning disabled, replacing Laura Blassingame, who moved up to the junior high level. Steele replaces Kelly Shapley in Chapter I Reading. Shapley has returned to school full-time to pursue a doctoral degree.

Over the summer, the first, second and special education rooms at the elementary school were carpeted. Now all the classrooms in the school are carpeted. Burgoon said the carpeting cuts down on noise, is more comfortable and practical for classrooms of young children who have many "on the floor" activities, and is probably easier to clean as well. The carpeting is in an "earth tone" color, according to Burgoon.

Burgoon's Campus Improvement Team, a special committee appointed annually to plan, initiate and evaluate areas in need of improvement, met two weeks ago to establish its goals for the school year.

The Campus Improvement Team is designed as site-based management and as such, gives the teachers and parents more responsibility in voicing how the school should be run, Burgoon believes. "These people are an invaluable asset," he commented.

This year's team members are Bob Burgoon, Donna Knoll (Kindergarten teacher), Camille Miller (first grade), Diane Brown (second grade), Dody Banks (third grade), Patricia Overbey (fourth grade), Janie Steele (compensatory education), Carmelita Gage (English as a Second Language), parent Tensha Cazares and community member Corky Chapman.

In one curriculum change, gifted third and fourth graders will be pulled out of class to attend a daily class taught by Roy Mayhew in the junior high building. Last year, various teachers taught these students on a rotating basis. Kathy Potts, the school counselor, will provide special lessons within the kindergarten, first and second grade classrooms for the Gifted and Talented Program.

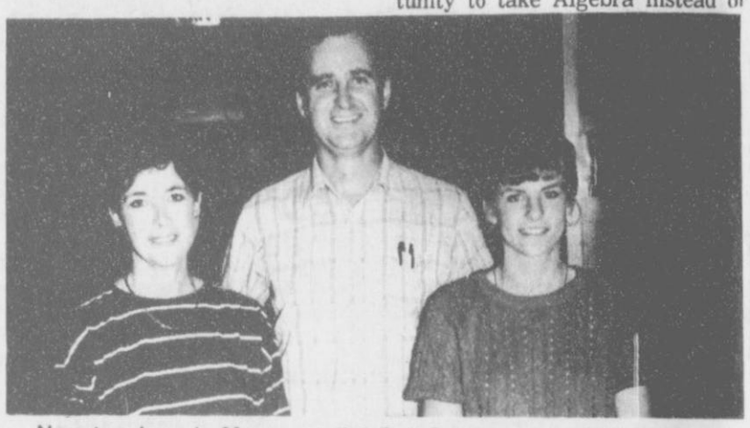

Looking at his goals for the year, Principal Burgoon said, "I think we're good, but I want to be better. We need to find the areas where we can improve, and I want to be a part of that process. Most importantly, I want to help the kids achieve everything they can."

20-minute activity period. Harris indictated that during this period the students will get instruction in leadership and planning. Harris says this instruction will include conducting business meetings and Roberts Rules of Order. The students will then be expected to use these skills to plan their own school social events. The time will also be used to improve the students' study skills and to get ready for UIL competitions.

The junior high will eat lunch earlier this year. Their lunch period will start at 11:45 a.m. In the afternoon the band classes have been moved to the last two periods of the day.

Finally, Harris says that the Pringle-Morse school system will again be offering adult education classes. "I get regular school started and then begin to organize the adult classes," says Harris.

enrollment of 180, with a projected 55 eighth graders, 64 seventh graders and 67 sixth graders.

This year student schedules were all computer-generated for the first time, according to Olsen. He said the students should be "all ready to go to their classes" on the very first day of school.

Curriculum changes at the junior high for the 90-91 year will include the addition of a Life Management course, to be taught by Richard North, and implementation of art into the regular classroom.

In another change, students will be tested this year by a new instrument, the state-mandated TAAS, or Texas Assessment of Academic Skills. The TAAS replaces the TEAMS tests used from 1985-90 and will be administered in October instead of March. Third, fifth, seventh, ninth and 11th graders will take the TAAS.

The TAAS is not a minimum skills competency examination, as was the TEAMS, but rather an instrument which will measure a student's ability to use higher levels of thinking in English and math. Olsen describes the TAAS as "more of an achievement test."

"It's easy to get uptight about a new testing system, because everybody - the teachers, students and administrators - are judged by it, but our TEAMS scores were always great and I'm expecting the TAAS results to be great, too," Olsen commented.

Olsen said his goals for the new school year include spending more time in the classroom than he did last year. "Being in the class gives me a greater awareness of all those good things going on in the school," he said. "I enjoy contact with students. It's why I was a teacher."

New programs at Spearman Junior High this year will include a "ZAPs" type of plan, wherein students having difficulties are spotted early in the year. Olsen gave the example of a student failing to complete homework assignments. "I will see to it that the student completes those assignments, since they let him practice what he is learning in the classroom," he explained. This work would be done under Olsen's supervision during a detention hall type of set-up.

A second new program will be the creation of a Spearman Junior High School Honor Society, operating within the national organization. Seventh and eighth graders will be eligible for membership based on their grades. Olsen said he expects to induct students into the honor society soon after the opening of school, based on last year's performance.

Olsen said he is planning to have a school-wide assembly on the topics of drug abuse and self-esteem later in the school year. Other goals include a more active Student Council and regular meetings with parents.

"My preliminary enrollment number is 440 students, and that may go higher because we've had some inquiries from people moving to Spearman," said Elementary School Principal Eddie Gage.

Gage and his staff welcome two individuals to their ranks at the school: fourth grade teacher Carolyn James and classroom aide Jenny Neff. He said all the other teacher assignments remain unchanged from last year.

In terms of curriculum changes, Gage reported there will be an emphasis on reading, language arts and writing during the 1990-91 school year. After evaluating previous test scores. Gage said he, the school board, the superintendent and others agreed "that we want to have more competent writers." He added, "The schedule will reflect this emphasis."

A very visible and exciting change on the elementary school campus, at least in the eyes of its students, is the new playground equipment. Sporting light colors and everything from slides, chutes and a space age-looking box with bubble windows, this equipment was purchased for $8,386 by the SISD, using only interest monies from the building fund.

Other changes to the school grounds include the tall chain-link fence, which was erected late last spring, and some landscaping. Gage said there will be a tree-planting this fall. A tree will be purchased using the donations elementary school students collected last year on Earth Day. Planned site for this is the corner of Seventh and Townsend, within the schoolyard fence.

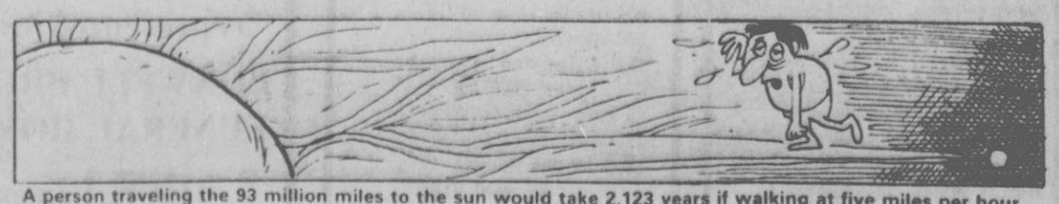

Gage himself spent the summer in the classroom: he completed his superintendent's certification at Sul Ross State University in Alpine, Texas. This certification involves earning 15 additional credit hours to the 36 credit hours of Gage's master's degree and his 12 credit hours of principal certification.

"This schooling made me very optimistic about our goals for the school year," said Gage. "Especially the role I want the office to play in where our students and teachers will be at the end of the year."

House Bill 72 has mandated that the needs of gifted and talented students be addressed at all grades levels by the 1990-91 school year. "We're right on target," Gage said, adding that Wynette Mullins will coordinate the program, to be run by a designated teacher in each grade during reading periods.

This year, Kindergartners must be screened for giftedness and identified by January of 1991, according to Gage. Third and fifth graders at the elementary campus will take the TAAS test in October.

"I am going to stress, as I did last year, the importance of parent-teacher communication, including informal conference," Gage said in summary. "I want parents involved with what we're doing and to know what our objectives are."
