Signs Of A New Season

Two Colorado High grid candidates manhandle a blocking dummy under the watchful eye of Assistant Coach Doug Chitsey in preparation for a scrimmage Friday evening here against Floydada High. At right are 1969 Wolf captains -- Larry Holder, David Garcia and Wesley Smith.

WITH FANFARE FRIDAY

Wolves Scrimmage

Football candidates for all Colorado City public school teams will be introduced to fans Friday as Colorado High Wolves test their '69 wares in a scrimmage against Floydada High.

It will be the official nod to the new season.

Colorado High's Wolf Band, the Black Knights of Precision, will join in the event as will Wolverines.

Starting time will be 6 p.m. and the scrimmage, first test for Coach Truman Nix's 3-AAA club against opposition, will follow at approximately 7 p.m.

Football players will be introduced by units, starting with Junior High's seventh graders and followed by eighth grade team, Colorado freshmen and right on up through varsity.

Officers and members of Wolverines will be introduced also and Wolf Bank will perform under direction of Dwight Tomb.

Only five lettermen are the nucleus of Coach Nix's Wolf team for the severe 10-game district schedule.

But a batch of youngsters moving up from the ranks of freshman and B-team will bolster the few veterans. Reading this group is Steve Vest, junior, who is expected to be an outstanding passing quarterback.

In the line-up of returning regulars are big Carl Devorce, 250 pound lineman; Tommy

'Save Red Cross' Gains

$232.50 More In New Contributions

More citizens are coming to the rescue of Mitchell County's Red Cross Chapter.

And these "save the chapter" donations are continuing to swell the emergency fund which could keep the Red Cross operating here at least until Jan. 1.

Mrs. Bonnie Burt, executive secretary of the chapter, reported new donations during the last week total $232.50.

If the contributions continue at the recent rate, then they are sure the Mitchell County office will remain open.

"There is no question - no doubt at all - that our chapter will continue to operate," said Tom Jay Goss II, new Red Cross county chairman.

"Our outgoing county chairman, Jack Walker," Goss continued, "told us that if the citizens of Mitchell County knew the troubles we were having trying to keep our office open and our program operating, they would respond."

"They've certainly done that."

Although the Red Cross is linked into the international organization which administers in emergencies all around the world and areas such as the hurricane damages southern U. S., much of its work is right here at home.

A major part of this Red Cross work at home deals with U. S. military personnel and their families.

Mitchell County has 276 citizens on active duty with the military right now and 50 of these are in Vietnam.

During the 12 month period from July 1968 through June 1969, the local Red Cross was busy just about every day assisting either these servicemen or their families.

With 17 woulded and three killed in Vietnam, special responsibility has been placed upon the local office.

One hundred forty-nine telegrams and phone calls were made in the Vietnam - Mitchell County communications.

Reports and letters for local families were obtained from 46 Red Cross field directors in military installations around the world and into the battle areas of Vietnam.

Seventy-eight reports were prepared in behalf of allotments for local military families. And, just in the U. S., the local office made 98 long distance phone calls in the interest of the military and their families.

That's just one phase of the Red Cross operation. It doesn't include the food, shelter and clothing assistance for emergency needs here.

Neither does it include the six water safety courses and the first aid class taught by trained Red Cross supervisors.

"This is the valuable program which these save-the-chapter contributions are seeking to maintain and keep alive," Goss said.

The latest donations include: City National Bank $50; Mr. and

REV. PARSE, moving Monday.

New Pastor Here

Odessan To First Presbyterian Church

John C. (Jack) Parse, who has been minister of Christian education for First Presbyterian Church in Odessa, is the new pastor for Colorado City's First Presbyterian Church.

He will begin duties here Monday, Sept. 1.

Parse will fill the pastorate vacant since the resignation of Rev. Fred Brewton and served during the interim summer months by Charles (Chuck) Moore, theology student.

The new minister is the son of the pastor of Westminister Presbyterian Church in San Antonio.

In addition to the position he is leaving in Odessa, Parse also has served as minister of Christian education in First Presbyterian Church of Shreveport, La.

He was graduated in 1956 from Sam Houston State College in Huntsville, in 1960 from Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary in Austin and in 1964 received the master degree in Christian education from Presbyterian School of Christian Education in Richmond, Va.

His wife, Kathy, was also a student at the Presbyterian School of Christian Education. They are the parents of a son, Andrew, seven months.

The minister was reared in Arkansas and Pasadena, Tex.

Colorado City's First Presbyterian is a member of Presbytery of the Southwest, of which Parse served on the Presbytery's camp and conference committee.

Mrs. Parse is youth subcommittee chairman for the Presbytery's convenant life committee.

The couple enjoy tennis, chess and camping.

27 Candidates For Community Ballots

Community committeemen for Mitchell County's Agricultural Stabilization & Conservation Committee will come from 27 nominees.

The nominees -- equally distributed among the three county ASCS communities -- were approved for ballots Wednesday by the county committee.

Each community will have the choice of selecting its individual committee personnel from a ballot listing both incumbent committee members and other candidates.

Here is the complete list by communities:

Community A (all the county area west of Colorado River) J. B. Autry, J. K. Williamson, Jimmie C. Moore, Linden Solomen, Henry Webb, D. M. Smith and current members Rex McKenney, A. Preston Morris and Harry L. Dockrey.

Community B (area north of Interstate 20 and east of Colorado River) Henry Hoyle, Morris W. Hammond, Dickie White, Hubert Meadows, Abraham Castro, James Stewart, and current members Warren Anderson, A. K. McCarley and A. M. Beights Jr.

Community C (area south of Interstate 20 and east of Colorado River) Leroy Cornutt, Tommy Fuller, Travis Branch, Fred E. Warner, W. H. Redwine, Alfred Hackfeld and current members John T. Vest, Lester Finley and A. J. Barron.

Ballots for the community elections, which will name delegates for the Mitchell County ASCS convention, will be mailed Sept. 5, according to Eddie Braswell, ASCS office manager.

Ballots must be returned either in person or postmarked not later than Sept. 17. Votes will be tabulated Sept. 19 and community delegates will name the county ASCS committee Sept. 24.

Serving now on the county committee are Curtis Latimer, Ed Roach and Jack Linam.

Dedication Ceremony

Four principals in the dedication of Frank Kelley Elementary School pause for a chat beneath the plaque honoring the late business and civic leader. Left to right are son, daughter and widow of Kelley -- James Kelley, Mrs. Austin McCloud and Mrs. Frank Kelley -- and Ed Williams, former superintendent here and dedicatory speaker.

Crash Driver Faces Charge

A misdemeanor DWI charge has been filed in County Court here in connections with a wreck near Westbrook which seriously injured a Big Spring youth.

Named in the complaint is John Franklin Tabor, 23, of Big Spring.

He is accused of being under the influence of intoxicants while driving the sedan which crashed into a steel highway standard on FM 670 at intersection of Interstate 20.

Severely hurt in the accident was Richard Blackmon, 16, of Big Spring. Tabor and two others were treated at Root Memorial Hospital but did not require hospitalization.

A felony charge of DWI second offense has been filed in Precinct 1 Justice of Peace Leonard Henderson's Court against Shelby Chester Shannon, 53, Colorado City.

He is accused of the offense Saturday after being convicted of an earlier DWI charge here in 1944.

Casey Ruiz Casares of Loraine received one-year probation from a 10-day jail sentence and was fined $75 plus $37 court costs after pleading guilty in County Court to misdemeanor DWI. He committed the offense Aug. 19.

Two persons have been charged with bootlegging -- possession of beer for sale -- after raids Saturday.

They are Sylvester Rose and Domingo Salazar, each accused in separate County Court complaints.

Two persons charged in County Court with aggravated assault are Roland Bramble and C. E. Bailes.

Growers Nominee

For New 3-Year Directorate Term

Stanton Hutchins, who farms in the far southeast area of Mitchell County, is nominated for another three-year term on the board of directors for Rolling Plains Cotton Growers, Inc.

His current term expires Dec. 31 and the new term will begin Jan. 1, 1970.

Hutchins is one of 64 members of the board. His nomination will be voted upon when the association conducts the annual membership meeting in September.

Rolling Plains is a non-profit organization chartered in Texas to promote and to protect the interests of cotton producers in a 32-county area of West Texas which includes Mitchell County.

Although the RPGG's by-laws do not specify that a director must live in a particular county the association has attempted to maintain a policy for electing two directors from each of the 32 Rolling Plains counties.

By-laws, however, do require that directors be due paying members of RPGG, bonafide cotton growers and willing to serve if elected to the directorship.

Members of the committee nominating Hutchins was Linden Solomon, Preston Morris, Pete Hester, W. H. Norrell, Willis Cornutt and R. B. Bruce, all of Mitchell County.

More Repair Funds Asked

Request for Mitchell County's $34,910 emergency agricultural repair funds exceeded the amount a day and a half after applications began.

So, Wednesday Mitchell County ASCS County Committee hurriedly prepared a new request for additional alllocation. request for additional allocation.

The County ASCS Office began taking applications for the flood and rain damage funds Monday morning. By mid-day Tuesday, the applications exceeded the available money by several thousand dollars.

At noon Wednesday the number of applications totaled 94.

Mitchell County's new request will be for $15,000 additional to assist farmers and ranchers make emergency repairs, mostly to terraces.

County ASCS officials were optimistic the new request would be approved.

Originally $186,000 was asked for Mitchell County repair work, but Washington earmarked only $200,00 for five area counties, including Mitchell.

Applications will be checked, Soil Conservation Service personnel will make on-the-site appraisals and cost estimates before the local requests are approved or disapproved.

Making The Farm Tour

CONVERSATION CORNER

TIME WAS when nobody under 75 years old ever thought of retiring from active participation in whatever his business or profession was.

Time was when family doctors still made house calls after they were in their 80's. . .and preachers told the gospel as long as they lived and were able to stand and speak.

Best math teacher I ever had was still at the task of trying to explain algebra when she was in her middle 70's.

Time was when nearly everybody—men, especially—worked on and on and on until their name was called on the roll "up yonder."

LIKE so many other things, all that has changed. And this particular change is very much for the better!

Now you take Colorado City. This town is full of lively, interested and interesting, good citizens who have seen fit to retire in their prime.

It is also full of company men retired by corporation rules and regulations and of teachers who have completed their tenure requirements and want to live a little for a change. . . travel, sleep late, use their experience and energies for church and civic affairs, indulge their hobbies. . .or spend more time with children and grandchildren.

THEY ARE, almost without exception, a real addition to Colorado City. Theirs is a special, relaxed sort of charm.

You'll find them at the library, at the bank, or leisurely lunching together. . .working in their yards. . .or getting ready to take off for another tour of Mexico, Hawaii, California, Canada, or Europe.

They are the ones who have time to pause and talk to people—something gainfully employed people rarely have time to do.

They are the ones who can watch all the soap operas if they want to, see the late "talk" shows if they want to, and throw away the alarm clock, if they want to.

NAMES of people who have retired from business or profession in time to enjoy just living, here in C-City, would fill this whole column space. Good names they are, too.

Nearly all of them have a new sparkle in the eyes, once they decide to be done with the daily battle in whatever was their chosen field of constant endeavor.

Philip and Minna Berman, for instance, sold their store several years ago, went into early retirement, and stated living pretty much as they like. They like most to travel, so they do.

They recently sold their home on Chestnut St. to Charles and Carolyn Walker. The Bermans are moving into a Berman duplex apartment with the possessions they cherished enough to keep. That's home-base.

NEWEST additions to the ranks of the lively retired ranks here are the J. V. Glovers.

The Glovers have moved back from McCamey to their home at 428 East 8th St.

Former principal at Junior High, Mr. Glover left teaching for a position with Shell Pipeline and has now retired after 26 years with Shell.

There is something about Colorado City, Texas, that makes it home to practically everybody who ever lived here long enough to give this good town a chance.

This is a first name town. This is a town with a heart. . .and with a daily friendly hello.

You may come here as a stranger. But nobody has to stay a stranger here for long.

ASKED about the Glover only daughter, Ellen Ann, who is another graduate of MCK (Mrs. Coffey's Kindergarten.)

Ellen Ann is now Mrs. B. G. Steel and lives with her husband and children in Bryan.

Her husband is with the State office of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASCS) program.

The Steels have three daughters—Elizabeth Ann, who is 9, Sharon, 6, and Carolyn, who is 2 years-old.

SEEN LATELYS this time were Bill Holbert and his glamorous wife Jean.

Jean was saying that Pvt. Mike Hart, husband of the Holbert daughter Jennifer, is home on leave. Mike has been assigned to duty in Alaska after his leave. He is son of the Homer C. Harts and before military service was a most popular teacher at Junior High here. Jennifer hopes to join him in Alaska later.

Saw the Dennis Waldings coffee breaking together. . .PFC Weems Dykes with friends. (That PFC stands for Pastor First Christian.)

FAMILIAR FACES also included Winnie Quinney, retired Hutchinson Elementary principal, at Corner Drug. . .Ruth Dozier at the library. . .Attractive Eleanor Cowan, arms full of library books, too. Eleanor was talking the football season, just around the corner now. She's our one woman school board member.

That display of knives in the library lobby, by the way, is from the collection of young Bill Reily, second son of Charlene and Bob. It's worth a long look-see. Among the collection are a head hunter's terrible looking weapon!

DID YOU KNOW that the Hubert Howell family, Betty, Hubert, Susan, Andy, and Beth, are just back from a vacation?

The family visited St. Louis and Chicago and numerous places along the route to and from Chicago.

Did you know that Bille and Nettie Doss are in Temple this week? Nettie is scheduled for a medical checkup at Scott-White.

The Doss daughter Grace (Mrs. Bob Shelton of Tyler) is meeting her parents and is with them in Temple. Grace, by the way, has been in the process of acquiring her master's degree at East Texas State University in Commerce this summer. She teaches in Tyler.

BRIEF ENCOUNTERS brought friendly hello's from Inez (Mrs. Graydon) Howell. . .Mattie (Mrs. Witt) Hines and granddaughters blond Doris and brunet Janie who are children of Ralph Hines.

Saw Clorene Stewart and Pearl Northcutt. . .Mildred Mann Boyd in becoming green slacks. . .Lillian Thomas, wife of Glenn and mother of Dick.

Virginia Fuller, wife of Raymond, was a symphony in summer orange—orange frock, slippers, handbag, and ear loops. Those exaggerated sun shades she's sporting are a birthday gift from daughter Terry and her husband Larry Smith of Austin.

Jake Northcutt and Luke Thomas were exchanging greetings at City National. . .Martha Earnest was doing her banking, too. Spied Trevlyn Kelley, bank VP. . .Avilene Hallmark, and Peggy (Mrs. Hulen) Bagwell.

OFF THE CUFF—Paul Steward of the LTNS (long time no see) department was on the downtown scene. . .Ditto Johnnie (Mrs. B. W.) Tartt.

John Billings, his pretty wife, and their cute little girl, were having doughnuts, coffee, and milk at the new Roger's Sweet Shop on Walnut St.

Craig Bell, son of Joe and Madge Bell, was graduated from Marine Reserve platoon leadership training at Quantico, Va., Officers Candidate School, last week. He flew from Washington, D. C. to Abilene Friday night and will attend University of Texas at Austin again, come September.

P. S. That thundering applause in the living room at the house on East 9th St. was for the Texas House of Representatives, Monday evening.

No matter what they do next, defeat of the sales tax on food (groceries) is the finest thing that's happened lately—unless you care to count the rain.

Nominated as the heroine of the week is the Texas homemaker who got so fired up over the prospect of a sales tax on milk and bread and meat and potatoes that she threatened the State Legislature with another and newer version of the Boston Tea Party.

Know, personally, any number of C-City women willing to join forces with her if it should come to that.

DEAR TEMPLE DICKSON and also SENATOR DAVID RATLIFF:

We like you, we love you, but this bears repeating--
Tax what you must. Just please don't tax eating.

Rev. Capps Assumes Post Pastorate

WESTBROOK - Rev. and Mrs. Warren H. Capps have moved to Post where he will be pastor of Calvary Baptist Church.

They moved from their Westbrook home Monday.

The Capps came to Westbrook in April from Denver City.

Coach and Mrs. L. M. (Sam) Scroggins and children, Stuart and Stephanie, have moved to Hale Center where he will be coach and teacher in schools there.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ranne Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Royce Feaster of Brownfield.

Their sons, Tracy and Scott, who had visited several days with their grandparents, returned home with their parents.

Mrs. Kenneth Johnson and baby of Pecos are visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Moody and with Mrs. Johnson's grandmother, Mrs. Bobbie Henderson in Colorado City.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Dye and children of Odom are guests of the J. A. Moodys. Jay and Greg Jones have returned to their home in El Paso following a visit with the Moodys.

TOPS IN STATE

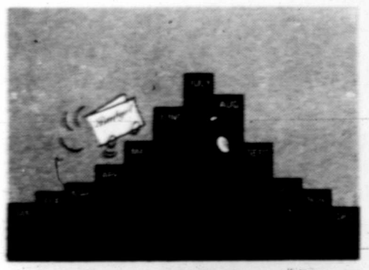

August issue of "Industrial Expansion," publication of University of Texas Bureau of Business Research, reveals a proud point for Colorado City.

Of all the manufacturing plant expansions and new locations within the state, outside of Dallas-Houston-Fort Worth, Colorado City's Jeonne manufacturing plant has the largest numbe. of employees for all cities within the state.

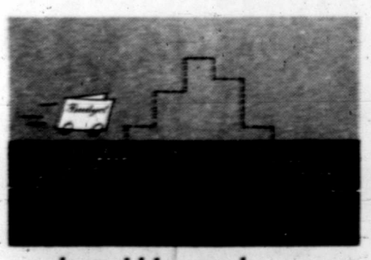

That's something pecial from any angle you view it. And it is evidence tha. we can do the job. . .attract industry just as well as the next town when we apply ourselves.

hot weather reminds us to remind you...

electric service bills varying from month to month...

can be paid in equal amounts like this.

With so many of our customers having unusually high electric bills because of the scorching heat this summer, it reminds us that we should again mention our Level Payment Plan for residential electric service customers.

This plan, which can be started now or anytime, was introduced several years ago for those of our customers who prefer to "level out" their electric bill payments over the period of a year.

Level Pay customers pay the same total amount for electric service used during the year, but pay it in 12 equal monthly payments.

This avoids monthly bill variations caused by seasonal uses, such as for air conditioning which has been high this summer because of the unusual heat.

Our Level Payment Plan doesn't mean anyone will pay any less for electric service, but it won't cost anything additional either, because there are no charges for this service.

If you think you might be interested, just telephone or come by our office for complete information.

Fourth on Bestseller List

Thursday Program Features Book Review by Mrs. Reily

Mrs. Bob Reily will review "The Making of the President - 1968" by Theordore H. White Thursday evening at eight o'clock in Mitchell County Public Library.

The August book review, sponsored by Cultural Activities Committee of Chamber of Commerce, will feature White's new book currently fourth on the non-fiction bestseller list.

"The Making of the President - 1968" is the third of White's narrative histories of American politics in action and it tells the story of the year in which American politics came unhinged.

Excerpts from the book explain that "All was different in American politics in 1968. What was different was the entire nature of American life-not only the bursting condition of prosperity, not only the grind of unending war, not only the change in manners, not only the explosion of education, but all those movements of mind gathered together under the phrase 'culture'."

"Within this new culture was not only much good and elegance and concern, but also new ingredients of hate in the air and all-stamine cynicism.

"The marvel of American politics previously had been its ability to channel passion into peaceful choice of directions."

"In 1968, hate burst out of the channel, and hate, whether from student ideologues, unabashed white racists or black extremists, incubated further hate; loosing lunatics, gunmen, rock-throwers and club-wielders."

"Overlaid with the concern and agony of the American people - the death of their sons in far-off war, the fear that haunted the streets, the violence of mugging and murder, of police clubs and mace - 1968 became grotesque."

"Against this scene, American leaders still seemed as worthy as, or more so than, most of their contemporaries abroad. They risked their lives and two were killed in 1968, to make life for their fellow men better."

There were, as always, a goodly company of crooks, scoundrels and hypocrites among them, but those who came to the top were deeply concerned men, trying their best to offer directions to peace and good will."

Mrs. Reily reported that she "will be discussing not individual candidates, but two of the major issues of the campaign: the war in Vietnam and the issue of law and order."

Mrs. Reily, mother of two teen-age sons, Pat and Bill, is a former teacher in Colorado City schools and is active in church and civic affairs of the community.

She is a member of Zetagathian Study Club, Chamber's Cultural Activities Committee and has served on City Park and Recreation Committee for several years.

At First United Methodist Church Mrs. Reily works with youth and is social concerns chairman for council of ministries.

She was named outstanding Chamber of Commerce member in 1966, the same year she headed the Chamber's education committee.

A graduate of Abilene High School and McMurry College in Abilene, she is now working toward a masters degree at Hardin-Simmons University.

Bringing New Life to the Country

Two years ago this plant site was a lonesome stretch of barren land with little to recommend it. But it had low cost electricity from a rural electric cooperative and when a road made the land accessible the building began.

All over Texas this story is being repeated nearly every month. The first question is the availability of low cost electric power. When it is furnished by Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative the answer is a dependable yes.

The first class service offered by the Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative is Helping Texas Grow.

We're Expanding. . .
And It's All Because Of You, Colorado City!

Yes, Sam L. Majors is expanding. . .opening a new Sam L. Majors Jewelers For Generations store in Odessa. Our aim is for the Odessa store to be just as splendidly successful as our home store in Colorado City.

The fine citizens of Colorado City. . . Mitchell County. . .and surrounding area, are the reason for this major expansion. Your respect for quality. . .your patronage. . . your recommendations to your friends. . .have caused Sam L. Majors' business to grow and grow until now this expansion into Odessa is possible.

Sam L. Majors jewelry is not leaving its home, Colorado City. On the contrary, it is expanding from its home base and will continue to maintain its headquarters store in Colorado City.

The same trusted personnel will continue to operate Colorado City's Sam L. Majors. The same dedication to quality merchandise and faithful service will be maintained. And Sam L. (Buzz) Majors Jr. personally will be in the Colorado City store several days each week.

Sam L. Majors is another example of the "New Colorado City On The Go". The growth in our business here enables us to move a Colorado City trademark into another thriving area. And we pledge to keep Sam L. Majors Jewelers for more Generations here at home.

Bollworm Control Warning

Bollworms are being found in many cotton fields throughout Mitchell County reports Dr. Bill Clymer, Extension Service entomologist, and producers should pay particular attention to avoid economic damage from this insect.

However, he cautions against spraying if not needed as an application of insecticide will kill the beneficial insects and probably necessitate continuation of spraying at 5 day intervals.

Bollworm adults or moths tend to be more active in lush growth and after the recent rains cotton will be in better condition and more vulnerable to attack. Also, damage may be greater in the younger June planted cotton.

According to past research, one bollworn can destroy 8 squares and about 2 bolls, says Clymer. This can be quite an expensive pest when heavy populations are present. Research has shown 2,000 - 2,500 worms per acre are of economic importance. This is about 1.5 to 2 bollworms per 10 feet of row.

Producers are urged to check their fields closely by carefully examining plants in several areas across the field. If an average of 2 bollworms per 10 feet of row is found, control should be considered. Clymer points out, however, that worms over 1/2" in length are most difficult to control.

Your local county agricultural agent has available insect control guides which give the latest information on when to spray and what chemicals to use.

WOLVES

Quarterback Club members, in the middle of their annual membership drive, announced that Lubbock Estacado and San Angelo, both AAAA, will journey into Colorado City Friday, Sept. 5, for scrimmage.

Starting time will be 7 p.m. and Quarterback Club will man the concession stand.

Don Benson, QB president, said the club is aiming for 200 members this season. Seventy-five had paid their dues Wednesday.

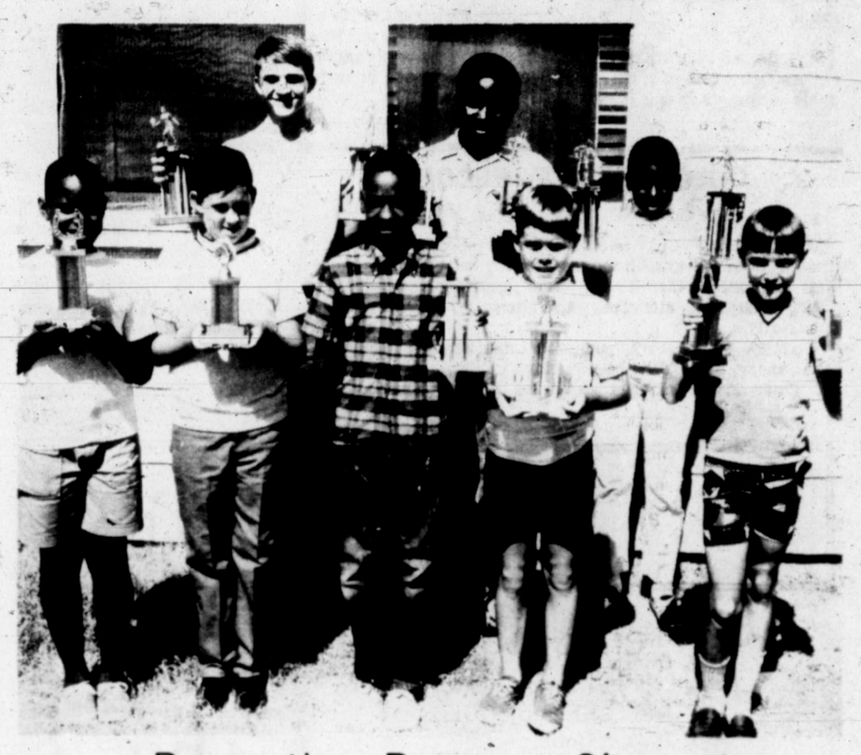

Free tickets to the Dallas Cowboys and Washington Redskins pro game in Dallas will be awarded to the members hustling the most memberships.

No. 2 prize will be two season tickets to all Wolves' home games.

Benson said photos already are being made of Colorado High players and will be placed in local businesses at cost of $10 per firm.

The photo display is another project of the Quarterbacks and photos will be gifted to parents of players at the season's end.

Raking In The Bargains With Value. . .

Sure, rake in all the savings you can get. Read the advertisements and make your dollars last longer, buy more.

This is the day of free coupons, saving stamps, extra bargains and discount prices.

These are all important, at least, in relationship to your job or home or family. Even to your future.

There is more, though. Something that is lasting . . . that keeps on going even when coupons and price tags become yellowed and out of date.

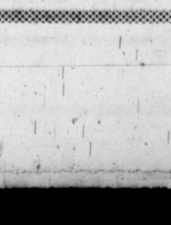

This is the thing called religion -- that one special relationship a person has just himself with God.

It outlasts everything, through good times and bad, through happy times and sad. It is that lasting ingredient for true strength and peace.

See if you can't latch on to it for the sake of your and your family. You can find it in church, if you seek.
