In a statement Andresen said:

"I have introduced a bill which fixes a minimum price on certain basic agricultural products. If its provisions are properly administered by the secretary of agriculture, it will not take long before prosperity is again restored in this country.

"I have established the following minimum prices: wheat at $1.25 per bushel; cotton at .15 per pound; corn at .75 per bushel; rye at .70 per bushel; barley at .65 per bushel; hogs and cattle at .10 per pound, and butter at .33 per pound."

ALLOWABLE FLOW GIVEN INCREASE

OKLAHOMA CITY, March 25 (AP)—More oil to sell for more money—the oil man's dream—will become an actuality here next month.

Just after three large companies had joined in giving notice they would pay a top price of $1 a barrel for crude oil beginning April 1, the Oklahoma corporation commission responded to the urgent demand of purchasers by increasing the daily allowable flow of the great Oklahoma City field 10,000 barrels to a maximum of 115,000 barrels.

Now the mid continent is peering into its gazing globes and declaring it sees a 2 per cent gallon increase in retail gasoline prices just around the corner.

Scout Honor Court Scheduled Tonight

Merit badge presentations and compilation of the attendance total will be effected first tonight at a monthly Boy Scout court of honor, so patrons can attend the senior play at Lubbock High school, D. SOUTH PLAINS IS TO RECEIVE FIRST TASTE OF BIG-TIME WHEN 75 MEMBERS OF FRED STONE'S "SMILING FACES" COME HERE

Lubbock amusement lovers are all agog over the announcement, made this morning, that Fred Stone, the famous Broadway stage star will show in Lubbock on Friday night, April 15, in his latest musical comedy hit, "Smiling Faces".

"The Prince of Entertainers," as Stone has long been called, will bring his company of 75 theatrical luminaries here from Dallas as a part of a transcontinental tour which includes the most important cities in the land. Lubbock secured a stop on Stone's tour—thanks to "the open spaces" which make the jumps so long in West Texas and New Mexico.

Newspaper readers will remember Fred Stone in numerous New York hits and will remember his recent come-back after an airplane accident in which he was seriously injured. Will Rogers, close personal friend of Stone, cancelled his own engagements, at a tremendous personal loss, to take Stone's place after the mishap, giving the reason that "he is my friend."

Advance ticket sales will be arranged within the next week or ten days, expectations being that the house will be a "sell out" several days before the showing.

Indian "God-Man" Will Make American Crusade

(By The Associated Press)

BOMBAY, India, Mar. 25.—Meher Baba, the Indian spiritual leader whose disciples call him "the Messiah" and "the God-Man," left here today for a new crusade in America.

He intends, he said, to break down all religious barriers, destroy America's materialism and amalgamate all creed into a common element of love.

For eight years Meher Baba has been observing a vow of silence, which he said he would break upon his arrival at Harmon, N. Y., where he plans to establish a spiritual retreat similar to Mahatma Gandhi's in India.

Giving his first interview to an Associated Press correspondent by means of a blackboard, Meher Baba, who in the eyes of his followers has performed many miracles, said Gandhi had promised to come with him to the United States as soon as his political works has been finished a year hence.

Is Gandhi's Adviser

Many Indians regard Meher Baba as Gandhi's duru, or spiritual adviser.

Meher Baba is a parsee (priest) of the Zoroastrian faith, and says he is God and man. He explained that he attained a super-conscious state in which he merged into God and returned again to the universe to carry out his mission of redeeming the world.

MAN-A-BLOCK JOB DRIVE IS PLANNED

The Lubbock American Business club is to sponsor a "Man-A-Block" employment campaign in the near future as the result of action taken at the club's luncheon program at the Hilton today. The club voted to sponsor the movement and to ask the aid of other civic organizations in conducting the work during the next two months.

The plan, as presented to the club by W. M. Peticolas, is to organize the residential districts of Lubbock into blocks and hire a man to work in each block for a period of eight weeks. Each home owner will contribute fifty cents a week toward the man-a-block's pay and he will be required to do at least two hours work on that man's premises. A block captain is to be appointed to supervise the work and a block treasurer will be named to collect the fees from the various citizens residing in the block.

The plan is working successfully in many other cities of the United States, Mr. Peticolas told the club in advocating its operation here. The board of governors of the club will announce organization of the campaign next week.

C. J. Long, negro, entertained during the program with ukelele and vocal selections. Claude Roberts was in charge of the program.

Col. Zack Miller Will Face Charge

MARLAND, Okla., March 25 (AP)—Colonel Zack Miller faced criminal prosecution today for his armed defiance of the auctioneer's hammer as it was lifted over his beloved empire of the old west—the 101 ranch.

Bruce Potter, Kay county attorney, said a charge of assault with a deadly weapon would be filed against Miller, last of the three brothers who developed the great ranch into a show place, for firing a shotgun as attorneys for the ranch receiver sought a conference with him yesterday.

CATHOLICS OF ENTIRE WORLD TODAY OBSERVE GOOD FRIDAY ANNIVERSARY

(By The Associated Press)

ROME, March 25—Prone at the altars of Rome's 400 churches, black-robed Catholic priests today commemorated Good Friday, the anniversary of the death of Christ.

In America, Europe, Asia and Africa, priests and bishops and churchmen of the highest rank prostrated themselves at that point in the ritual which recorded the death of their spiritual leader.

Processions of the faithful here went this morning to the churches of St. Peter's, St. John's and Holy Cross, where relics of Christ's passion and death were on display.

Thousands crowded the holy stairs next to St. John Lateran church. These they believed were the stairs Christ ascended in Pontius Pilate's house after he had been crowned with thorns.

Organs and church bells were silent today.

Between noon and 3 p. m., the hours when Christ hung on the cross, Rome was like a dead city, most every one being either at church or at home.

Big Excise Tax Plan Advocated

REVENUE BILL STANDS AS HULK AFTER ITS SMASHING DEFEAT

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 25—Stripped of its general sales tax by overwhelming vote of the house, the one-time billion dollar revenue bill today was a mere hulk, but the defeated leaders rushed to repair the damage with an alternative program that still would balance the budget.

They fell back on the original treasury proposals for heavy excise on automobiles and radios; for a one-cent tax on gasoline; stamp taxes on checks and drafts; three-cent postage and similar levies. Acting Chairman Crisp of the ways and means committee doggedly called his group back to work this morning.

The new taxes will have to produce nearly $600,000,000 to take the place of the general sales tax and to re-establish financial stability for the government. Several proposals offered in the treasury program are expected to meet a hard fight but leaders of the forces which defeated the sales tax joined in calling for a balanced budget.

From callers at the White House came word that President Hoover, deeply disturbed at the 223 to 153 defeat given the sales tax, believed the bill should be entirely rewritten by the ways and means committee, rather than undergo a patching-up process on the floor.

RUMORS TODAY PROMISE MORE RACE ENTRANTS

Unofficial talk at City hall this morning indicated additional candidates for mayor and city commissioner were expected to file formal notice before the deadline at midnight tonight. The election will be April 5.

Four candidates had filed. They were J. J. Clements, seeking re-election as mayor; J. F. Bacon, re-election for a second time as commissioner of place No. 4, George W. Foster, a candidate also for No. 4 commissioner, and J. C. Royalty, a candidate for commissioner of place No. 2 to succeed D. N. Leaverton, police commissioner, who is not a candidate.

S. D. Hunter, Lubbock realtor, Thursday afternoon obtained four file blanks, one to be filled by a candidate for mayor and three by candidates for commission seats. Although all conjecture aired at City hall and in other quarters was not related openly to the move by Hunter, who said he was obtaining the blanks for four other men, his action evidently renewed talk of more candidates.

YOUNG WOMAN BACK HOME AFTER ABSENCE OF TWO DAYS

(By The Associated Press)

CENTRAL CITY, Neb., March 25—Miss Laurel Morrison, 30-year-old Aurora beauty parlor operator, was back home with her parents here today after being missing two days. She told authorities she had been kidnaped and held captive in Lincoln.

George Gohde, operator of a Lincoln cosmetology school, told police there, however, that Miss Morrison had been attending classes at the school and that he recognized her from pictures published in Lincoln newspapers.

Sheriff J. H. Mohr of Merrick county said he planned to question her later. He said he would turn over a $1,000 ransom note, which was not complied with, to postal authorities after he had photostatic copies of it made.

FORMER UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS STAR NOW BEING HELD FOR BANK ROBBERY

(By The Associated Press)

NAVASOTA, March 25—Clayton Carter, 24-year-old school teacher and former University of Texas athlete who allegedly turned bank robber, was held today while Washington county authorities prepared to file charges against him at Brenham.

Carter was arrested in connection with the $1705 robbery of the Burton State bank at Burton, Washington county, March 3. A lone man held up two employes of the bank and took all the money in sight.

Officers captured Carter at Nacogdoches yesterday after firing eleven shots into his automobile when he refused to stop. Authorities said the automobile was stolen.

Carter was under a charge of felony theft in Nacogdoches county and under bond in Polk county on a charge of forgery. He was taken to Burton to be viewed by bank officials there. Officers said he made a statement.

KIDNAP SCARE IS SWEEPING WASHINGTON

ALICE LONGWORTH AND BEN LYON INCLUDED IN VICTIM LIST

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 25.—A kidnap scare swept the capital today after police disclosed that extortion notes, accompanied by threats, had been received by Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth, Sir Willmott Lewis, the London Times correspondent, Ben Lyon of the movies, and others.

Police, however, predicted an early arrest. They were working on the theory that one man was responsible for several if not all of the threats, which involved promise of kidnaping Sir Willmot's young son unless $1,500 were paid.

Police Guard Homes

A police guard was placed at his home and detectives also are watching Mrs. Longworth's. She too was told to pay $1,500 but Paulina, her seven-year old daughter, was not threatened directly. Definite instructions were received by her twice as to how to pay the money. An agent followed the instructions, driving slowly in a taxi by the chosen spot for depositing the amount, but the promised signal from the extortionist did not develop and the affair fell through. The Lewis case bothered police most as the threats have been direct and to the point, with two letters and a telephone call.

In the case of Ben Lyon, a note demanding $500 and threatening the safety of his child was received by him recently while at a local hotel with his wife, Bebe Daniels. The child was in California.

This note and several others, police believe, were the work of cranks.

Upton Sheriff Is Freed In Slaying

SONORA, March 25 (AP)—After deliberating less than an hour, a district court jury last night decided that Sheriff W. C. Fowler of Upton county was justified in killing Graham Barnett of Alpine.

Barnett, an expert marksman with pistol or rifle and a former Texas ranger, was slain with a machine gun Dec. 6 on one of the principal streets of Rankin. Fowler was tried for murder.

RELIEF GIVEN STORM AREA

GRAVE PROBLEM FACES RED CROSS WORKERS IN THREE STATES

(By The Associated Press)

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 25—The gravity of the south's tornado aftermath became more apparent today as field workers for relief forces discovered additional dead injured and homeless.

C. H. McFarland, American Red Cross field director for north Alabama, said the devastation brought about by the storms in five southern states early this week had been "vastly under-estimated" and announced establishment of central relief headquarters here.

To Handle Relief

The new set-up, he explained, will handle relief and rehabilitation operations in 13 Alabama counties, ten in Georgia and six in Tennessee, the states hardest hit.

Today the total known dead stood at 362 divided between Alabama with 299, Georgia with 40, Tennessee with 18, South Carolina with 3 and Kentucky with 2.

Unofficial estimates placed the number of injured above 3,000 and the homeless at 8,500. Property damage estimates ranged from $3,000,000 to $5,000,000.

ONE KILLED BY SEVERE STORMS

SEATTLE, March 25 (AP)—Severe gales which damaged Washington property and caused at least one death were followed by storm conditions in other parts of the northwest today.

A spring blizzard swept across western Wyoming. The Wyoming highway department reported roads west from Granger into Idaho were closed. The wind subsided in Washington.

Roy Williams, 30, was injured fatally when a tree crashed through a building where he was sleeping. Jack Diehl and Arthur Lee, 18-year-old Everett youths who started a canoe trip across Puget Sound in the face of the storm, were missing.

GAIN IS SHOWN

WASHINGTON, Mar. 25. (AP)—Income tax receipts for March 23 showed a slight gain over the comparative date a year ago with collections of $2,925,794 as against $2,611,693 last year.

Let's Talk ABOUT EASTER HATS

There are just two ways about hats. They are either brim or brimless. Brims win by a "Touchdown."

"Touchdown"
Is Unconditionally The Hat Of The Moment

It is popular in various widths of brim, all of which have a little dip over the right eye. In the color field, black is still predominating—navy is also strong—and pastels are coming to the front very quickly, with white as a dominating shade. Other popular shades are sand, red, green and two-tone combination.

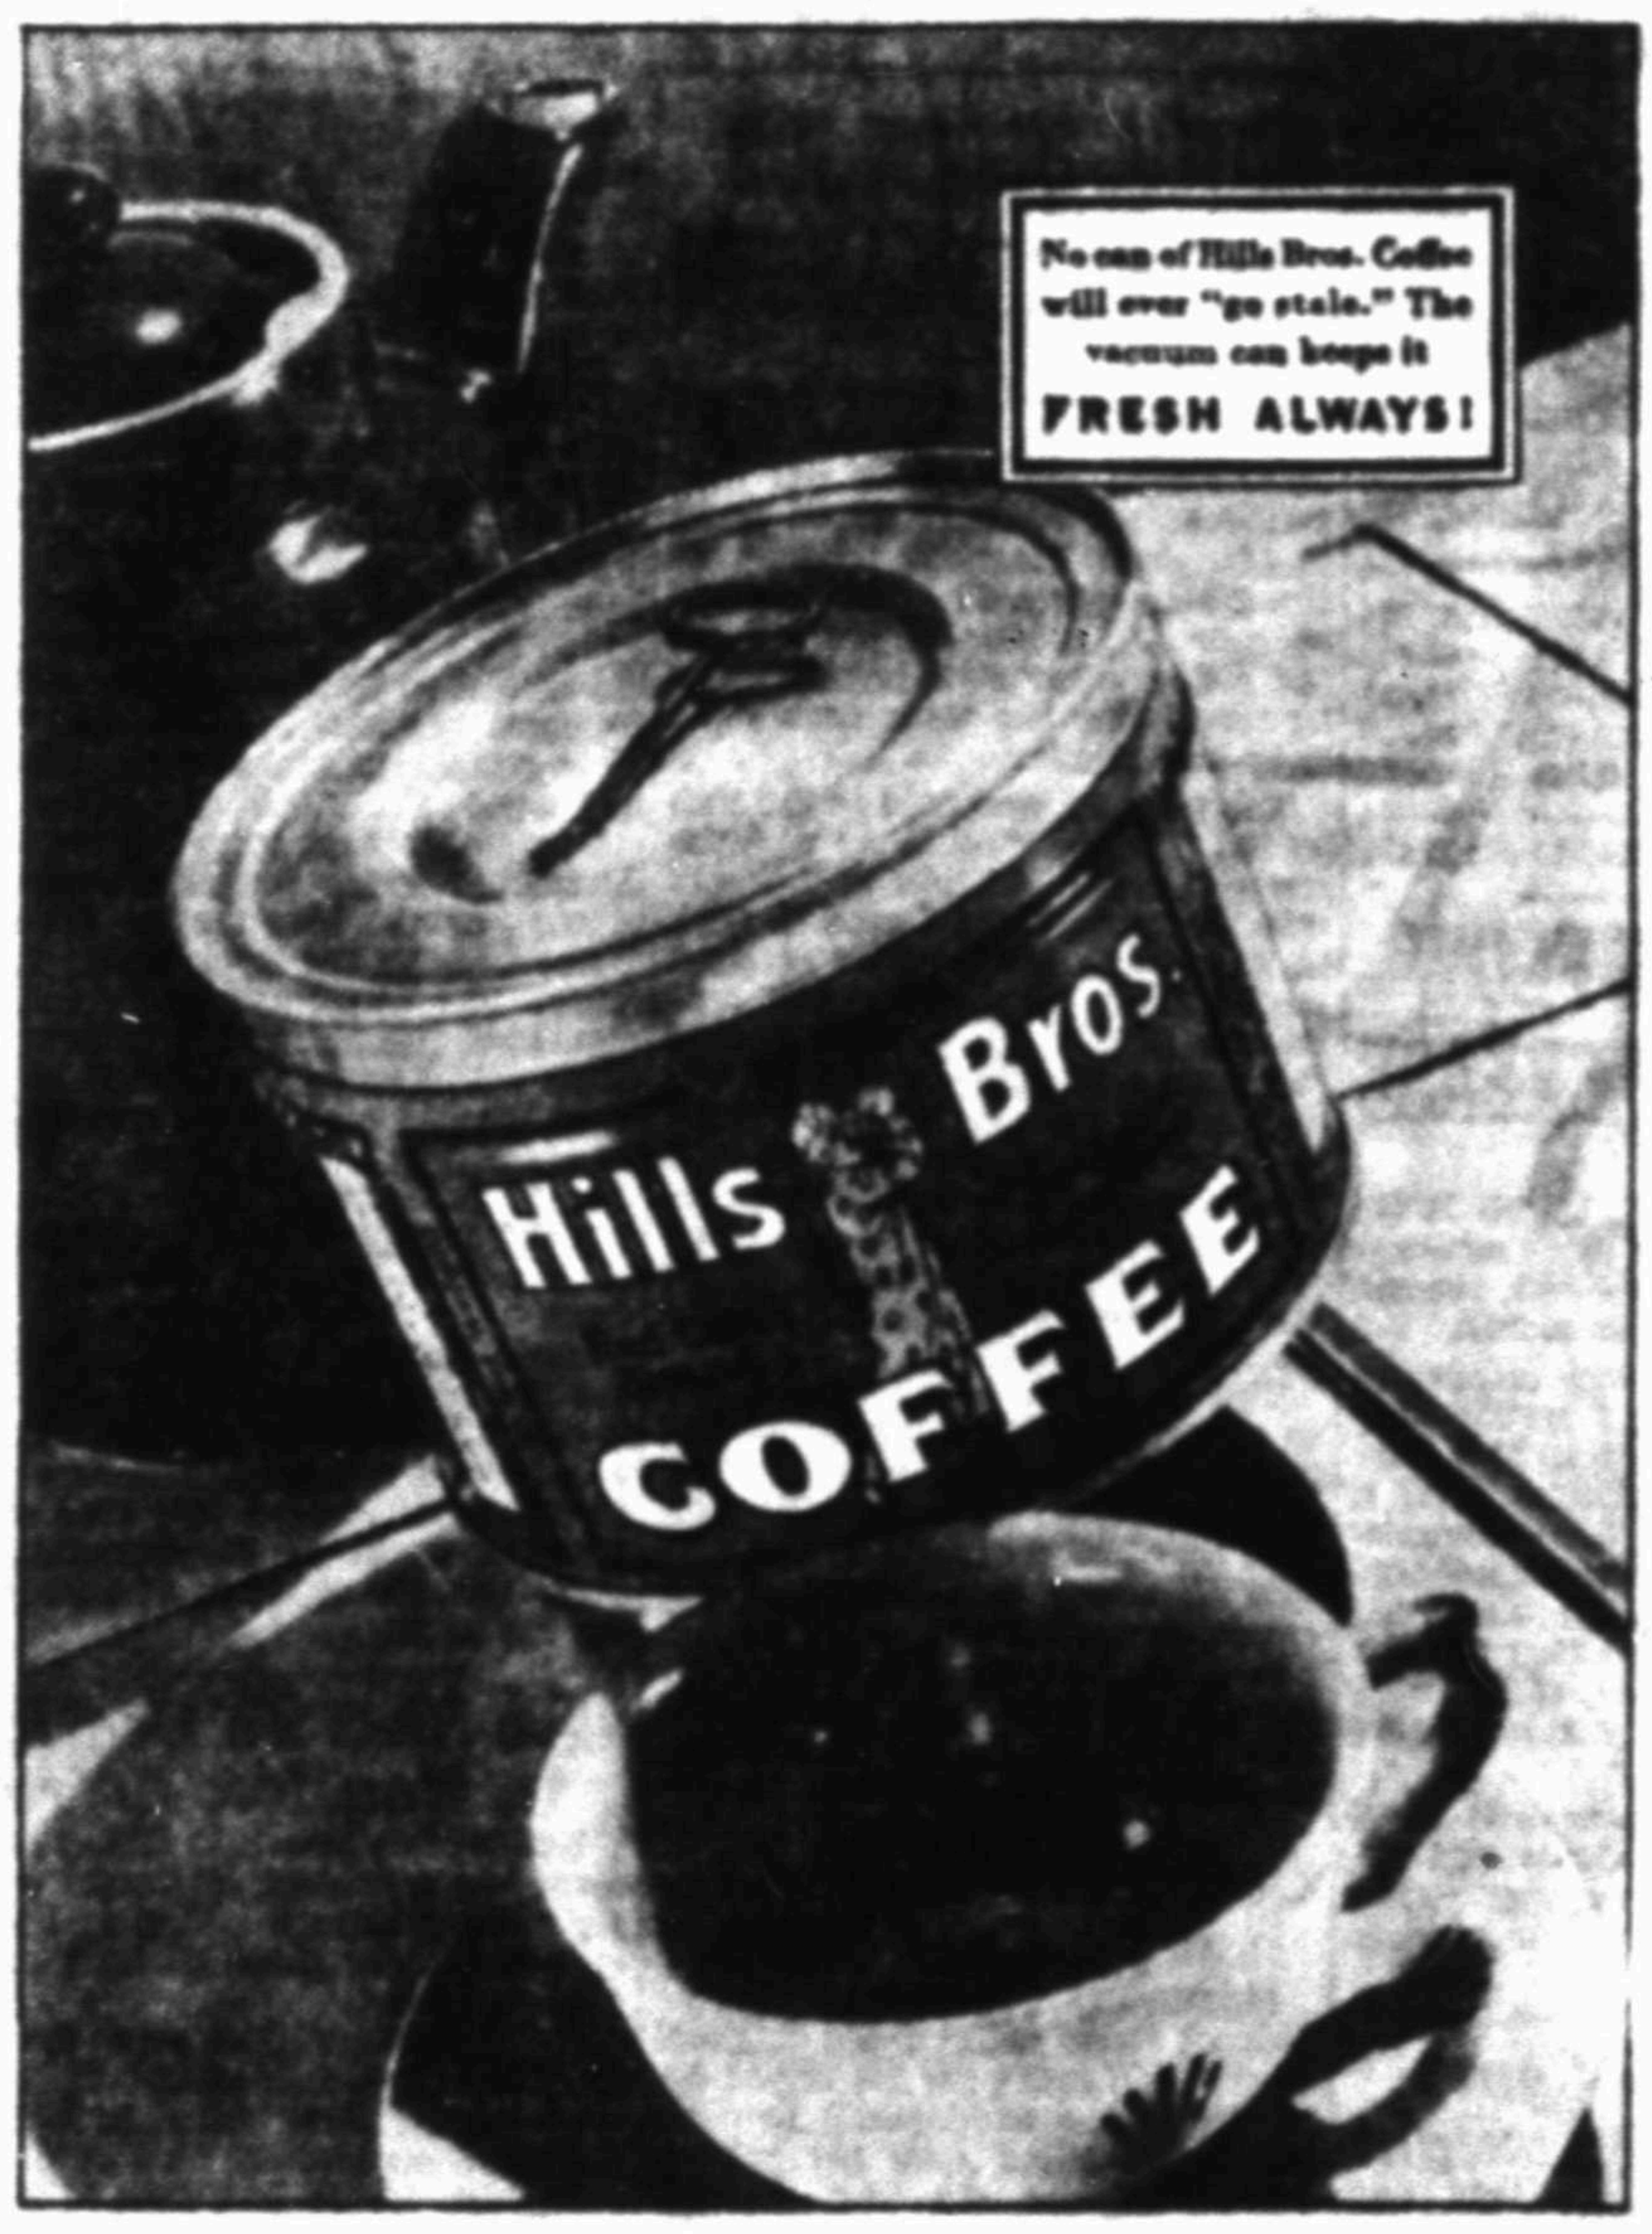
TAKE A DEEP BREATH OF THAT RICH AROMA FLOATING UP FROM A CUP OF HILLS BROS COFFEE



No can of Hills Bros. Coffee will ever "go stale." The vacuum can keeps it FRESH ALWAYS!
Hills Bros COFFEE

Controlled Roasting—Hills Bros' patented process—produces a fragrance and flavor no other coffee has

Roasting "a little at a time" . . . instead of in bulk . . . gives absolute protection against under-roasting and over-roasting

As the accuracy of the hour glass depends upon an even, continuous flow . . .

a little at a time

. . . so the uniform flavor of Hills Bros. Coffee is produced by Controlled Roasting—the patented process that roasts evenly, continuously . . . "a little at a time."

You simply can't keep away from a steaming, fragrant cup of Hills Bros. Coffee! You sip and drink and drain the cup—and fill it again and again.

That marvelous flavor is due to Hills Bros.' patented Controlled Roasting process. Instead of roasting in bulk, Hills Bros. roast a little at a time . . . as the coffee flows evenly, continuously, through the roasters.

No berry is underdone nor overdone! They have just the roasting required to develop their choicest flavor. And the flavor never varies!

Hills Bros. Coffee is vacuum-packed, and can't go stale. The vacuum process of packing coffee is the only method that fully preserves coffee freshness—the air is removed from the can and kept out. It was originated by Hills Bros. over thirty years ago. There is no magic about a vacuum can—it will not make poor coffee good, but it will keep good coffee fresh.

You may doubt that Hills Bros. Coffee tastes so good. But a cupful will convince you that Controlled Roasting does make a finer flavor! Order Hills Bros. Coffee today. Ask for it by name, and look for the Arab trade-mark on the can.

COFFIN HIS BED

LONDON, —Thomas Thompson, 75-year-old hermit of Derwent Valley, would rather sleep in his coffin than in his bed. Thirty-five years ago he left his wife and family after a quarrel and set himself up a cabin in the woods, where he has lived by himself. Fifteen years ago he thought he was going to die, so he bought himself a coffin. He now spends much of his time reading a Bible and sleeping in the coffin.

Ordinance Found

BROWNSVILLE, Pa.—Swimming between sunup and sundown without benefit of clothing has been proscribed here. The council held that men and boys who went swimming in status quo were "shameless." Someone just found out about the ordinance which was passed July 21, 1820.

Dog To Be Queen

GRANVILLE, O. — What's this? A dog's to be queen of the May, mother? Insurgent male students at Denison university, not satisfied with any of the seven feminine candidates for the throne, announce they will write in on their ballots the name of Woogs, the mascot of Beta Theta Pi fraternity unless the queen committee grants them a wider choice of young lady candidates.

DETROIT—Judge Skillman wanted to do the right thing by the four men before him for robbery armed. "I'll place you on probation," he said, "provided you go to work, keep regular hours, avoid bad company, and report regularly to the probation department."

"That's no kind of life for we'uns," said the four. "Send us to the hoosegow."

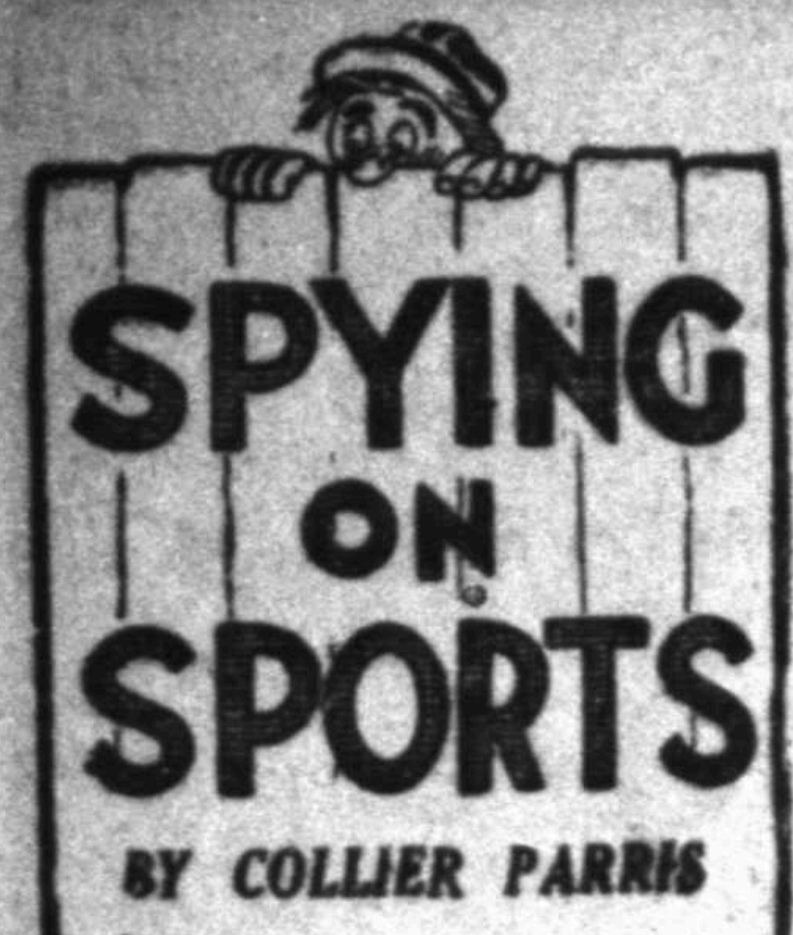
BEST OF ATHLETES OF COUNTY WILL COMPETE HERE



Tomorrow we have with us the various track, field, chin-the-bar, volleyball, tennis and playground baseball teams of the surrounding territory here to compete in the county athletic meet. Please don't crowd! There are plenty of seats down front! Anyway, please refrain from rushing out on the field. We hope County Athletic Director Paul Wright stations guards with loaded clubs around the park to keep spectators off the field. Really, it's a mess when all the fans jam the sides of the track and crowd around the sand pits and discuss courses, allowing barely enough room for the contestants to contest.

Lubbock's Westerners will not be in the county meet tomorrow, and it's just as well for Coach Chapman's reputation that they aren't maybe. Instead they will go to Plainview to compete with Pampa Amarillo and Plainview in a quadrangular meet. Lubbock is assured, at least, of fourth place before they get there. Seriously, this lad Vester Ritchie may show 'em something of flashing heels in the dashes and a few of the field events. He looked good against Brownfield, winning four first places and one second place. An individual is limited to only five contests, at that.

How many in the class are reading Major J. J. Gene Tunney's "A Man Must Fight" in a certain weekly mag? Hold your hands high for a moment; one, two, three, four—no, only three. Alright. How many started the series and got disgusted after the first one or two? Oh, it's practically unanimous. Well, to how many of you was it a bolt out of the blue when you read in one installment how Gene went about getting publicity, how he bribed sports writers, offered them a "cut" and paid them cash just to do a little press agenting. As another critic has commented, wasn't THAT a revelation!

Several sports scribes happened to be reading the article, or heard someone else tell about it, and maybe they haven't been giving Mr Tunney plenty of t'under and tarnation! Gene has rapped the sports writers rather eloquently in his articles—made it plain that they don't rate so highly with him. But it's a good bet in anybody's money that Gene is no more popular among the sports writers than the scribes are with Gene. He got off on the wrong foot and stayed there a long time, but not until lately did he come out in the open and bite the hands which have been feeding him all this time. True, too true, and not to be denied, is the fact that there are sports writers of unscrupulous and questionable characters just as there are shyster lawyers, quack doctors and crooked promoters, diving boxers and swimming wrestlers. Tunney took in too much territory when he made the assertion that scribes were crooked and easy to subsidize, and he's brought down the wrath of the profession upon his well covered head

The spyer couldn't keep from getting inspired out at Matador Field yesterday, but inspired articles are usually the bunk so we destroyed the original manuscript for today's colm. There was plenty of fire and fury out there yesterday and Coach Cawthon was wearing a grin that made you think for a moment he had forgotten that there were only 40 candidates out of an expected 75, and that some of the men he had depended upon most were not even enrolled in school.

Shorty France, the sparkplug of the last two Texas Tech football teams and counted on as one of the main guys in the 1932 struggle, was among the missing. France has withdrawn and, apparently, skipped out. There is only the slightest of chances and hopes that he will return to take over his co-captainship and direct the course of many footballs up and down the Tech field this fall. He's been in school a long time, but still had another year of eligibility. Seeking greener pastures where the kopeks jingle a little louder and more often, France probably will tie up with some baseball club. He will be missed, sorely.

Edward "Slick" Close, the other halfback on the team last year and one of the best passers local fans have ever seen, is another who is long lost to Tech. He has been gone a long time, withdrawing early last winter to take over one of his mother's farms near Shamrock. It was known then that he wouldn't be back, but not until the others were working out yesterday was it felt so forcefully. Maybe there'll be somebody to take his place; maybe not.

COUNTY FIELD MEET CARDED TOMORROW

ONE HUNDRED OR MORE ASPIRANTS WILL BE ON TECH FIELD

Texas Tech campus, track and field, will be the scene of much juvenile activity tomorrow when about one hundred or more athletes gather there to participate in track and field events, tennis, playground baseball and volleyball. It is the Lubbock county interscholastic meet.

The county athletic meet will get underway at 9 o'clock Saturday morning when the junior division engages in the initial track meet. In connection with this department County Athletic Director Paul Wright of Slaton has announced a correction in the official program mailed out to probable entrants. Six events composed the junior track division, and there will be no 440-yard dashes, as printed in the program. The events, in order of their running, are: 50-yard dash, 100-yash dash, 440-yard relay, chin-the-bar, high jump and broad jump.

Slaten vs. Idalou

Also scheduled for Saturday morning is the Class A meet between Slaton and Idalou track teams, the winner of which will automatically become eligible to compete in the district meet here.

The Class B track meet, winners of which will take part in the Denton meet for Class B teams, will start at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Tennis finals for the county championship will be played Saturday morning and, if necessary, Saturday afternoon. Jimmie Gammill will be in charge of the netters.

Coach Wright will be in charge of all track and field events, girls volleyball and playground baseball. Playground ball is scheduled to start at 9 o'clock Saturday morning with one semi-final game between the girls grammar teams of County Line and McClung prefacing the final matches in four divisions.

Steer Hurlers Are Not So Impressive

DALLAS, March 25 (AP)—The veteran hurlers on the Dallas baseball roster continue to look anything but impressive. Grady Adkins, the Arkansas butcher, was pounded all over the lot yesterday in an intraclub contest. Skipper moundsmen work from now on, giving them long assignments so they will be ready to go the full route by the time the season opens.

Houston Semi-Pro Hits Opportunely

GALVESTON, March 25 (AP)—Russel Keith, Houston semi-pro catcher, has been hitting opportunely in Galveston's intraclub games. As a pinch hitter yesterday he doubled to drive in two runs which helped the ryes beat the pratts, 9-6. His batting has made him a favorite for the second string berth.

Tech Matadors Are Down To Work On Spring Grid

FORTY CANDIDATES OF SCARLET AND BLACK IN FIRST SESSION

Another round of "pepper passing," some more calesthenics and then a look-in into the football bluebook as explained by Head Coach Cawthon and his assistants, Del Morgan and Dutchy Smith, is in store for the Texas Tech Matador football candidates of 1932 when they assemble for the second of a long series of spring training workouts this afternoon.

With the railbirds looking on in what seemed gratifying pleasure and with Coach Cawthon appearing fairly well satisfied with the showing, forty prospective wearers of the scarlet and black bounded out on the field yesterday for the first workout of the year. There was plenty of enthusiasm, pepper and excitement on the work field.

After a roundelay of shagging short forward passes the candidates for the 1932 Matador lineup closed in about Head Coach Cawthon and heard an eloquent pariance relative to the merits of spring training with emphasis on the "training" feature. He was enthusiastic, and happy enough to incorporate a few mild anecdotes in his initial instructions, the gist of which was as follows:

In Other Words

"We're going to have practice every day, rain or shine, snow or sand; if the pebbles in the air get so big that eyes and lives are threatened, or if it comes a cloudburst and washes the ground away, we'll resort to the gymnasium and indulge in skull practice. Now, I would suggest that each and all of you avail yourself of the opportunity which hereby offers itself to ambitious football players. You will square away now for some calisthentics, s'il vous plait."

After which Captain Ross Ayers the Wheelock Whiz, took the lead in a round of limbering exercises. When he tired, Yancy Price and Milton Moffitt took turns at calling calisthenic signals.

The squad was divided, then, into three squads. Cawthon took charge of Center Tribble and the backfield candidates, of which there was a large number but among which were not some familiar figures. Assistant Coach Dutchy Smith took the wingmen to one corner and the other linemen went elsewhere at the heels of Del Morgan. There followed a session of fundamental drills and instructions designed to let each man know something of the game he hopes to play.

Two great backs were not among Coach Cawthon's group yesterday. They are Lawrence "Shorty" France of Levelland and Slick Close of Shamrock. Both have dropped out of school, perhaps permanently. They were the regular halfbacks last year, and much more. France did practically all of the punting and a large share of the passing while Close did the rest of the passing and both accomplished more than fifty per cent of the running power.

Training will continue for a period of at least six weeks, perhaps two months, all depending "on the way you soak it up and learn something about this game," as Coach Cawthon advised.

ATHLETICS FAVORED TO COP LEAGUE FLAG THIS SEASON; YANKS AND SENS LOOM AS THEIR ONLY REAL TROUBLE

BY ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., March 25 (AP)—Faith in the New York Yankees, hope in the Washington Senators and a charitable belief in the potency of precedent may combine to make things tough for the Philadelphia Athletics in this year's League pennant race.

Even so, it is extremely difficult to figure just how Connie Mack's formidable cast can be stopped from making it four in a row, and a league record, unless the opposition has some novel plans, hitherto concealed, to check Grove, Earnshaw, Walberg, Simmons, Cochrane and Foxx.

Strong Favorites

So long as the A's have this six-play backbone, they cannot be regarded otherwise than as strong favorites again to win the American League flag. Their pitching outclasses that of any other club in the league. They have the punch to slug it out with any rival and Connie Mack's reserve strength, on which he rode down the stretch last season, looks to be even better.

Mack is the only American League manager who has ever held a championship combination virtually intact more than three seasons. In the past three years of rulership, Mack has made only one alteration in the regular lineup, at shortstop. Except for a reversible infield feature the Athletics will start the 1932 season with the same lineup that dropped the world series to the Cardinals.

Mack admits real fear of the Yankees and their "murderers' row" but it is difficult to see how the New Yorkers can displace the A's without big improvement in the pitching corps. The club was the biggest run maker in the majors last season but wound up in second place, 13 1-2 games back of the Mack men.

Although the rest of the American League clubs manifest improvement, especially the Browns and White Sox, Washington is the only other one justifiably considered a pennant possibility. The Senators couldn't stand the pace last year but they have speed, pitching and defensive strength, to which has been added the punch of Outfielder Cary Reynolds.

Defense Is Spotty

If Cleveland could combine its best features with those of Washington, this would be a different story. The Indians carry a real sock but their defense is spotty and they still lack a first class shortstop.

The Browns, best of the second division clubs, have an outside chance to crash the first four, with the aid of excellent pitching and a fast, aggressive attack developed by Bill Killefer.

The Boston Red Sox, who surprised even themselves by finishing sixth last season, rely on pitching to keep them there, despite the death of Big Ed Morris. To combat them, Detroit and Chicago both have conducted major shakeups.

Bucky Harris pins the Tiger hopes on improved hurling, plus the return to form of Charley Gehringer at second base, and fresh outfield punch. The White Sox, newly in charge of Lew Fonseca, depend on a revamped infield, the return of Ted Lyons to a place among the game's great right handers and the conversion of Big Smead Jolley from an outfielder to a catcher.

Wrestling Champs Are After Honors

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., March 25 (AP)—Wrestling champions from Collegiate and A. A. U. groups in all sections of the country except the south and far west, engaged today in the opening tests of their Olympic hopes, at the national intercollegiate championship meet here. Indiana university was host to the 88 wrestlers, among whom were champions of the Western, Big Six, Ohio, Rocky Mountain and Eastern Intercollegiate conferences.

PETROLLE CUTS BATTALINO DOWN IN TWELFTH WITH HIS VICIOUS ATTACK

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, March 25—Perhaps he doesn't care for that sort of thing but it seems an undoubted injustice that Billy Petrolle never gets a whack at a fistic championship.

Considered in many quarters the greatest fighting man now in the ring, a logical contender for either the lightweight or welterweight title, the Duluth veteran is just as far away from a championship as he ever was.

Adds Another Victory

To his string of victories over Jimmy McLarnin, Justo Suarez, Eddie Ran and Billy Townsend, Petrolle added another last night—a onesided triumph over Christopher (Bat) Battalino, of Hartford, Conn., former world's featherweight champion, and called recently the modern "Battling Nelson."

A near-capacity crowd of 18,000 spectators looked on uneasily as Petrolle cut Battalino to pieces with vicious rights and lefts to the head, brought blood streaming from a dozen cuts and finally stopped him after one minute and 31 seconds of the 12th and final round.

Petrolle weighed 139 pounds; Battalino 135.

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK—Billy Petrolle, Fargo, N. D., stopped Christopher (Bat) Battalino, Hartford, Conn., (12). Ralph Lenny, Jersey City, outpointed Jay Mecadon, South Orange, N. J., (10). Yale Okun, New York, outpointed Harry Smith, New York, (10).

LAMB WINS IN CURED MEAT

HALE COUNTY TAKES 2 PLACES AND OTHERS GET ONE EACH

Winning 15 of a possible 21 places, Lamb county captured five firsts in the cured meat division of the second annual 'Panhandle-South Plains Fat Calf-Pig-Meat show. Hale county won two places and Lubbock, Hockley, Bailey, and Floyd counties one each.

There were 166 entries this year, compared to 112 last year, Roy Snyder, superintendent, announced. Entries were 53 hams, 41 bacons, 22 shoulders, 13 sausages and 37 lard.

K. F. Warner, meat inspector for the U. S. Department of agriculture at Washington and judge of the show, in announcing his decisions, said the work done by the farm men and women of the district was very good and that the products this year were much better and of a higher quality than those in the first show.

"The judge was hard put to select 12 hams for consideration this year, because of the uniformly high quality," Mr. Snyder said. "I would say that 85 per cent of the exhibits in this division were of such quality that it took rare discrimination and close study to differentiate as to placings. The people of this section have certainly made wonderful strides in their work."

Placings by contests in the five sections were:

NOW SCIENCE TELLS WHY BRAN IS SO GOOD FOR HEALTH

Kellogg's ALL BRAN Has "Bulk" and Vitamin B; Also Healthful Iron

By using Kellogg's ALL-BRAN, millions of people have overcome common constipation, and the headaches, loss of appetite and energy that so frequently result.

New laboratory tests show ALL-BRAN supplies two things needed to overcome temporary and recurring constipation: "Bulk" to exercise the intestines. Vitamin B to help tone the intestinal tract.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of lettuce. Within the body, it forms a soft mass. Gently it clears the intestines of wastes.

Further experiments prove ALL-BRAN provides twice as much blood-building iron as an equal amount by weight of beef liver.

Eat this delicious cereal and avoid pills and drugs. They cause artificial action, and often lead to harmful habits.

Try two tablespoonfuls of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN daily — sufficient to overcome most types of constipation. If your intestinal trouble is not relieved this way, see your doctor.

ALL-BRAN has a delicious, nut-sweet flavor. Enjoy as a cereal with milk or cream, or use in making fluffy bran muffins, breads, omelets, etc. Recipes on the red-and-green package. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

FOUR-H CLUB BOYS AND GIRLS PAY VISIT TO PACKING PLANT; UNIT TO HAVE OPEN HOUSE THIS WEEK-END

Four-H club boys and girls and other visitors to the meat show were given an insight on the slaughtering, preparing and packing of meats Thursday afternoon when they visited the plant of the McDonald Packing company just east of the city. More than 800 inspected the plant yesterday afternoon and the company plans to hold open house this afternoon, Saturday and Sunday.

Recent improvements to the plant now makes it one of the leading small packing plants in the southwest.

Sales Increasing

Alex McDonald, manager, reports that more meat has been sold through the plant this year than during the first three months of 1931.

A chilling room and a storage room for meats are the recent additions to the plant. In the storage room, 110 animals may be stored at one time. The temperature is always maintained at 32 degrees.

About 100 head of hogs and 40 head of cattle per day is now the capacity of the plant and Mr. McDonald reported that since last fall they had been running ahead on orders and at one time were forced to run the smoking room day and night in order to meet the demand for cured meats. Three tons of meat may be cured daily in the smoking rooms. About 100,000 pounds of cured meats may be stored in the plant at one time.

Two tons of sausage is the capacity of the sausage kitchen which is operated in connection with the plant and in which pork, baloney, hot dog, hamburger meat and other sausages are prepared.

Plant Kept Sanitary

The plant is kept sanitary throughout and every working room is throughly drained. No odors are prevalent throughout the structure except in the tankage unit separate from the other plant. In the tankage unit, eight thousand pounds can be turned out per day. Here all the inedible meats are put into the tankage compounds.

Forty to fifty thousand pounds of soap greases are shipped out from the plant every three months to the leading soap manufacturers of the country.

A five-thousand pound capacity refrigerator truck makes trips daily to every town in a radius of sixty miles of Lubbock delivering products of the plant.

All stock killed in the plant is bought from local people and therefore all meats are "homegrown".

Boy Is Dismissed Following Injury

Eleven-year-old Eugene Mohr, who suffered skull fractures and brain concussion in a bicycle-truck crash here Tuesday night, was dismissed from West Texas hospital late Thursday. He lives here.

Presley White, 13, of near Wilson, who received a skull fracture and brain lacerations in a fall from a horse, also was dismissed from the hospital late Thursday.

Leap Year Affair Is Scheduled Tonight

Among the amusing features for the evening will be a matrimonial bureau. Various stunts will be given.

Easter Program Is Carded On Sunday

Featuring a special Easter program at the Downtown Bible class Sunday at the Lindsey theater, Mrs. L. J. Von Tungeln will play a short organ recital followed by a song-service and a special song by Miss Nell Parmley. Rev. R. C. Campbell, teacher of the class, will speak on "The Resurrection Morn".

Class leaders are attempting to exceed the 250 attendance record of the 1931 Easter program.

Shipping Of Wool Clip Is High Here

A total of 1,500,000 pounds of wool clip was shipped from the South Plains from Hale county south to Snyder, a large portion being sent to New Mexico, J. F. Baker, field representative of the Lone Star Wool-Mohair Cooperative association, of San Angelo said here Thursday.

"Our association handled about 250,000 pounds," he added. "The greater portion of the rest of the shipments went to New Mexico.

"The lambing season is starting now around San Angelo. There will be more lambs this year than ever, I believe, in West Texas."

Mr. Baker is here to secure a concentration location for wool around Lubbock. He says there are a large number of farmers with small farm flocks and that if a concentration point can be established here, a substantial market can be built up for South Plains sheep raisers.

Levelland Steer Is High In Percentage

The highest dressing percentage of stock cattle sold after the recent Southwestern exposition and Fat Stock show at Fort Worth was credited to a Hereford steer shown by Claude Tucker of Levelland at the Panhandle-South Plains Fat Calf-Pig-Meat show here last year. Roscoe Wilson of Lubbock bought the steer, it was fed by the Texas Technological college livestock department, and it dressed 69.2 per cent.

The calf, when shown here at the meat show by the Four-H club member, did not win a prize. Finished on corn chops, barley, wheat bran, oats, wheat, milo maize and alfalfa and prairie hays at Tech, the animal won second junior yearling Hereford rating at the Fort Worth exposition. The Tech steer dressed out 2.5 per cent better than the animal winning that division, W. L. Stangel of Tech pointed out.

The steer weighed 800 pounds when bought here last year; when sold at Fort Worth it weighed 1,470, a difference of 670 pounds. Dressing percentages mean a great deal to buyers when they are putting in their supplies of cattle for slaughter. A feeder who is able to establish himself with a herd of cattle as good dresses will often draw bids that appear high as compared with other loads of cattle. Mr. Stangel said he believed 69.9 per cent dressing was the record now held.

Thought For Today

Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed.—Genesis 9:6.

Get Civilized!

The authorities in British East Africa, who have ordered the execution of 60 natives for the murder of an old woman who was supposed to be a witch, evidently believe that untutored tribesmen can be civilized by sheer force.

Sixty scaffolds in a row ought to make an imposing spectacle. The surviving natives, whatever their private emotions about the affair may be, will at least be impressed by the fact that the old custom of killing witches is not approved by the government.

So, in the course of time, it will happen that no more witches are killed in British East Africa. And the natives—whose mental processes will still find nothing wrong in the idea of killing witches—will, in spite of themselves, take on one more attribute of civilization.

This is all rather interesting to meditate upon, especially since all the rest of us are more or less in the same boat.

We have managed, without intending to, to get ourselves into a spot in which we must very speedily take on the customs of a higher civilization or perish.

First we mechanized the world. We made possible the production of goods on a scale infinitely greater than anything previously dreamed of. We improved transportation, so that all distances shrank to a fiftieth of their old length. We improved communication systems, so that every man had the world for a neighbor. We erected an enormously intricate and complicated financial-industrial system, so that the whole world has to stand or fall together.

Having done this, we failed to understand that a civilization of that sort could not be conducted by men and women whose mental outlook was just about what the mental outlook of their great-grandparents had been.

Our troubles today come chiefly from the fact that we have not yet been able to live up to this glittering new civilization. Our minds, for instance, still accept such things as ignorance, poverty, prejudice, international rivalry and war as natural features of human society—although our new civilization must inevitably go to pot unless such things are eliminated.

We stand pretty much where the African natives stand. We must get civilized or perish.

World Police

Senator Borah is undoubtedly entirely correct in saying that no government will give serious consideration to the French proposal for the establishment of a powerful international police force.

One need only recall the shudders that the mention of "Article X" aroused in the United States during the 1920 campaign to imagine how that proposal would be received on this side of the Atlantic. And there is little chance that people would be much more hospitable to it.

And yet, when you stop to think about it—isn't it, in its essentials, extremely logical? We want disarmament, we want some system of settling international disputes that everyone will accept, we want to "outlaw war"; isn't it, after all, perfectly sensible to propose a powerful international organization that can compel acceptance of these ideas? The French proposal is doubtless utterly impractical; but it deserves consideration, just the same.

That Girl on Broadway says the vows of a candidate for a woman's heart should be taken with the same grain of salt that's taken with a politician's campaign promises.

It isn't necessary to own an auto to run down your neighbors.

THE Plainsman has been particularly interested in the calf, pig and meat show that the chamber of commerce has been putting on out at the fairground today and yesterday. He's interested in it because he's interested in livestock and because he believes stock-raising is one of the foundation stones of this country.

But he's also interested in it from the standpoint of its patrons.

If you went out to the show at all, you probably noticed that there weren't enough Lubbock people there to wad a shotgun with. (Pardon the poor construction.)

There were people there from our neighboring towns and particularly from the rural communities of this area.

But the town folks weren't there—which doesn't make any difference but which is a fact.

WHAT interested The Plainsman was the fact that Lubbock, in sponsoring the fat calf, pig and meat show is doing something definitely for rural people.

Town folk are invited, to be sure. But the show is by, of and for the rural citizenship, which is—if you'll be fair enough to admit it—the backbone of this territory.

Lubbock has a lot of features throughout a twelve-month which appeal to the general rank and file of South Plains people—rural and urban.

But the meat, calf and pig show, plus a program or so at Texas Tech, is or will be the high spot of the South Plains rural year.

The Plainsman never lived on a farm, can't milk, doesn't know wheat from barley and never followed old Jim and Beck down a rich furrow of South Plains loam—or any other loam.

But he's glad to see the rural folks get a break in Lubbock because they deserve it and we're depending on them, in the final analysis, to put this town over.

MEBBE you're a pretty smart guy—and mebbe not. How should The Plainsman know? But you may be like the motorman and conductor of this column found out he was. You may think you're smarter than you are.

As a basis for figuring, take the 48 states—and remember the district of Columbia doesn't count.

See if you can name 'em all in 20 minutes.

It sounds easy, but try it.

For a good many years The Plainsman sat in the slot of a newspaper telegraph desk, handling news items from every state as well as from foreign points.

When a friend hazarded that he couldn't name the 48 states in 20 minutes The Plainsman whooped in derision.

Shucks! That would be a cinch. It would be right down his alley!

But to make a long story short The Plainsman named all of em in about 11 minutes—that is, all but two. When the 20 minutes was up he was still forgetting all about Alabama!

THE gentleman who suggested this stunt—he asked that his name be kept a deep dark secret on account of the fact that Scotland Yard is looking for him—says you'd be surprised how many people can't name the 48 states in 20 minutes.

He says only a very, very few can do it and that he has picked up quite a little small change on the proposition.

Can you do it? Try.

Turning to our daily puzzle, the answer to yesterday's cerebral knot was 30 cents per lady. Each of the three got 9 cents per dozen for her eggs and three cents for each egg over a dozen.

The Plainsman is sure enough up a stump on this puzzle business. He doesn't know whether to keep 'em up or not.

Every mail brings a bunch of letters and they're fairly well divided with people sending in puzzle answers and calling for more—and other people howling to cut 'em out. What do you say?

THIS column strives to please its readers in-so-far as using material which is interesting to the greatest number.

The Plainsman doesn't particularly care whether readers agree with what he says, or not, but he does care whether they're interested enough, one way or another, to read what he writes.

And that's his only interest in the puzzles.

Miss Nell Chandler, of O'Donnell for instance, says "let's have more and more puzzles" and has submitted this one:

The price of a can of coffee is $1.05 and the coffee costs a dollar more than the can.

How much does the can cost? That's an easy one—or is it?

Everybody Is Happy After Wet-Dry Showdown; All Excited As Members Throng House; Wets Congratulate Themselves

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

Dutcher

WASHINGTON, March 25—Notes left over from the day of the wet-dry vote in the House. . . Never saw so many members on the floor—except on opening day, so many cars parked on the Capitol grounds so many folks trying to jam into the galleries so many newspapermen working in the gallery.

It's the noon hour, but the House restaurant downstairs is empty. Here's one issue everyone gets excited about. Not many members would want to miss the show and few dared miss the vote.

Everyone laughs with and at everyone else. You know, that spirit of good clean fun. One four-minute speaker staggers toward his seat after a great effort, tries to find it. His inebriety, one imagines, is only pretense. . . Old Jim Beck of Pennsylvania, co-author of the repeal resolution, sits behind the big minority table with big-bearded George Tinkham of Massachusetts, the wettest of all, and pretty Ruth Pratt of New York. They giggle together, having what seems to be no less than a dandy time.

Linthicum of Maryland the other co-author is alongside Appropriations Chairman Joe Byrns of Tennessee who slumps and whose jutting brows almost meet his up-curling chin just off his nose. Mobley of Georgia the new "baby member" is beside [illegible] Delegate Guevara who has less cause for worry than anyone else because he isn't allowed to vote. . . Sol Bloom of New York the big Bicentennial boss wearing his George Washington button and nose glasses on a cord, bends eagerly forward from a front seat his mouth half open.

Several visiting senators—Bingham of Connecticut, Barkley of Kentucky, Barbour of New Jersey among them.

Now They're Voting!

Suddenly they're voting, after demand for "yeas" and "nays." . . . Bald, round little Abernathy of North Carolina is the first. He's the one who recently blurted from the floor that he only voted dry because he had to. He votes "No!" with a shout.

Other early voters shout, too, but soon it becomes monotonous, with only an occasional shout, which still makes everybody laugh. . . Gallery doors are opened so that as many people as possible can stick their heads through. . . Beck almost forgets to vote when his turn comes and emits his "Aye" in obvious breathless haste. Another big laugh.

When the clerk reads one of the few absentees he reads the name twice to make sure. And he repeats each member's "Aye" or "No" inadvertently but quickly corrects himself.

Garner's Name Missing

Nearly half the members, especially wets, follow the vote on roll call sheets, as we do in the press gallery. Some lose track at one stage or another and quit. . . Suddenly you notice that Speaker Garner's name isn't on the roll call. It never is, however. It's a lot easier for him, consequently.

There's no embarrassing silence or mere exclamation of "Present!" . . . Members can't smoke, but several chew unlighted cigars, as if nervous. . . Suddenly a few newspaper boys dash to wires to flash the news that the drys have 218 votes, a majority blocking the resolution beyond question.

And Everybody's Happy

Names of absentees are read after the clerk gets a "No" from Tom Yon of Florida at the end of the list. Two or three have now come in and they vote. . . The official announcement is made quickly: 227 Noes to 187 Ayes. The House breaks into general applause.

Everyone seems delighted—drys because they won, wets because they got such an extraordinary vote, a defeat only by about five to four. . . Montague of Virginia is recognized to talk about something else, but the post-mortem buzz is so loud that no one ever learns what it is. Garner finally gives up demanding order.

Order comes after awhile because nearly everyone at last piles out of the chamber for lunch. But all through the corridors you can hear only the noise of wets congratulating themselves.

Diet and Health

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D., Author of "THE HUMAN BODY"

EDITOR'S NOTE: Six pamphlets and six articles by Dr. Clendening can now be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin for each pamphlet and 3 cents in coin for each article, with a self-addressed, stamped envelope, to Dr. Logan Clendening, in care of this paper, or Central Press Association, 1435 East Twelfth street, Cleveland, O. The pamphlets are: "Reducing and Gaining," "Diet of the [illegible]mal Diet," "List of Books on," "The Care of the Hair and Skin," "Feminine Hygiene" and "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes." The articles are: "Nor-[illegible]" "Indigestion and Constipation for Mothers," "Bed Wet and Skin," "Infant Feeding, Expectant Mother," "Ear Troubles" and "Tuberculosis."

INFORMATION ON GOUT

TWO REQUESTS for an article on gout have been repeated, so here it is.

It is strange that such requests should come in at all, for gout is, today, a very rare disease. It must have been much more common 150 years ago to judge from the many references to it in eighteenth century literature and representations of old men with the gout in art and caricature of that period. The only other explanations of its rarity—either that in eighteenth century physicians called every pain in the toe, gout, or that we do not recognize it today—hardly seem reasonable; gout is such a painful and characteristic disease that it hardly can be mistaken.

Dr. Clendening

The idea that gout is much more prevalent in England than America is not borne out by statistics. There were only one-third fewer cases of gout admitted to Johns Hopkins hospital during a given time than to St. Bartholomew's hospital, London. The disease seems to be disappearing as much in England as here.

The cause of gout appears to be the accumulation of uric acid in the body. Man is of all animals the least able to destroy uric acid in the body. In gouty patients this is excessive and deposits of sodium biurate are laid down in the joints, particularly the joint of the big toe.

The pain of an acute attack of gout is of the most exquisitely excruciating character. It insinuates itself into all the crevices of the toes and ligaments around them. Sydenham, the greatest of English physicians, who was himself a sufferer from the gout, speaks of its "cruelty."

Gouty deposits not always are confined to the great toe but may be in nearly every joint. In nearly every case there are little nodules of them, called tophi, in the cartilage of the shell of the ear. The final diagnosis is usually made by extracting these ear deposits and putting them under the microscope for identification. The blood also contains an excess of uric acid.

There is also a condition known as chronic gout, with deformities of the joints. The older physicians also described "irregular gout," describing gout of the skin, liver, heart, kidneys, etc. This view has, I think, been largely discredited.

The treatment of gout consists in reducing the sources of uric acid in the diet. These sources are the nucleo-proteins, particularly meats, and most especially, bouillon, beef extracts, sweetbreads, liver, kidneys and brains. Starchy dishes, probably on account of the content of vegetable protein from the flour and peas, beans, are usually restricted. Alcoholic beverages, particularly wines, are well known enemies of the gouty.

General bodily hygiene is important—regular hours, exercise, fresh air, and moderate eating. In the famous old dialogue of the gout the character of the Gout says:

"I take no pleasure in these hard, rough, rough kind of people, who are never at rest but always exercise their bodies with hard labors, and are ever moyling and toyling and are content with a slender diet."

Next: A Well-balanced Diet Maintained at Low Cost.

Spring poems are responsible for much editorial cynicism, a critic says. But we still have to find out what is responsible for the spring poems.

Slim Days, Waistlines

NEW YORK, Mar. 25.—Notes from a ringside seat at the big town show—Encountered the almost sylph-like Paul Whiteman strolling the New York trails and could not but think that the Broadway to which he has returned seems on a diet more severe than that which shrunk the famous Whiteman waistline . . .

Just a few years ago, night spots were fighting to get his band and bidding stiff prices. He even had his own place . . . Today there's not a cabaret, club or late resort in Manhattan that could afford so expensive an attraction . . . And so Paul appears at the Palace Theater . . .

Odd that Chicago can produce the $3000 weekly that Whiteman gets for dance music! He gets $5000 to $6000 for stage appearances . . . He explained the reason . . . in Chicago he appears at the Edgewater Beach Hotel . . . the dance hall holds a couple of thousand or more in summer season. . .

Naughty—But Nice!

It seems that Chicago, with all its advertised gangs and vices, is most particular about the prohibition law in its "nice" places . . . The spot where Whiteman has been playing tosses the lads out if a flask or bottle is observed or if anything on the table suggests a highball . . . only a year or more ago were women allowed to smoke . . . Yet a few minutes away from this resort, you can hire a firstrate murder for a small sum . . .

Useful, Yes Sir!

Al Zugsmith, who is Paul's publicity representative, told a yarn about one of the biggest radio figures in New York who paid a visit to the dance resort . . . The visitor, who rates the title of president of a certain concern, took a goodly supply of post-war brew along for a party of friends . . . Despite his status, the New Yorker was all but thrown out . . .

Whiteman, by the way, has determined to use more college talent in connection with his bands . . . When, next summer he returns to Chicago, he expects to have an entire chorus of girls selected from college students . . . Jane Vance, the girl artist who now appears with his act, was one of his college selections . . . He has turned up a dozen other successful performers as the result of his radio and dance floor auditions . . .

"College boys and girls are the best bets in America today for orchestra and bands," says Whiteman. "I'm going after them more than ever and am going to use more of them as entertainers."

Broadway on the Bum

But Whiteman isn't likely to be seen or heard outside of the big show houses for some time . . . The key dance orchestras of New York continue to be Lopez at the St. Regis, George Olsen in his own club, the Lombardos at the Roosevelt, Coon-Saunders and a couple more.

For Broadway is fast becoming a two-bit street. Where lobster and champagne palaces once flourished, lunch counters and cafes now slash prices to get the trade. For a lone dollar, a young man can set forth, get a meal and see a movie. For a few dollars he can show his best gal a big time.

It's this nickle and dime business that has been fast turning the main stem into a Coney Island, with scores of catch-penny resorts springing up each week. Meals, from three to seven courses, can be had from 25 cents to 75 cents.

Meanwhile, Reuben still gets more for a sandwich than most places do for an eight-course dinner!

Returning to Whiteman, he says that his loss of 100 pounds or more has increased his capacity for work; he needs less sleep and can work harder.

FARM FILM DRAWS BIG CROWD TODAY

Approximately five hundred farmers and stockmen attending the free program given by the Foxworth-Galbraith lumber company and the Keystone Steel and Wire company at the Lyric theater this morning.

A film, "Health, Happiness and Hogs", a comedy picture and an industrial picture showing the manufacture of steel from the raw material, were given on the program together with a short speech on diversified farming, rotation of crops and stock raising by F. C. McKnight, district manager of the Keystone organization.

Highway Program Including Plains

A highway building program outlined Thursday by the state highway department included bids on projects in two South Plains counties. The additional improvements, estimated to cost $900,000, increased to $1,662,500 the total estimated cost of projects scheduled to be placed under contract at the April meeting of the highway commission.

The South Plains work included Gaines county, 13.3 miles from Andrews county line to Seminole on highway No. 137; Cochran county 12.1 miles from Hockley county line to Morton on No. 24.

The Tinies watched the town tots run up to them. "Gee, this will be fun," cried Windy. "I hope all these tots have pennies they can spend. They know what this is all about. We'll sell a lot of things, no doubt. No wonder Mister Bakerman tells us he is their friend."

Then, when the bakery wagon stopped, out to the ground the Tinies hopped. "Don't be impatient, youngsters," shouted Scouty with a grin. "We have enough for all of you. If you'll do what we tell you to, we all will have a fine time. Are you ready to begin?"

One of the wee tots cried, "You bet! Some nice cupcakes we want to get." Then Scouty, to the other Tinies, said, "Bring all the baskets out. Be sure that they are filled up high with good things, so the tots can buy." This pleased the tots. They all joined in a very merry shout.

Kind Coppy was the first to sell some of the goods. How he could yell! "Nice pies and cakes!" he shouted. "They are from the baker's store. I'll sell you all that you can eat and you will find they are a treat. Buy all you can and eat until you can't eat any more."

Then Duncy said, "I've doughnuts, round. The best that ever you have found. A penny each, I sell them for. How many would you like?" "A half a dozen," said one tot. "Oh, my," cried Duncy, "that's a lot! But, here they are. You surely must be quite a hungry tike."

'Course Windy also walked around and in a little while he found a lad whose mother sent him down to get ten loaves of bread. "I won't eat all of it myself. My mom will put it on the shelf and serve it to my father, too," the little youngster said.

SIDELIGHTS AT THE MEAT SHOW

IS FIRST EXPERIENCE

One of the three girls showing hogs at the swine show was Flora Cates, of Hurlwood, a 14-year-old seventh grade girl in the school there. This is Flora's first experience in a show and also in feeding. She had a litter of eight Poland China pigs and raised them, bringing seven to the show. "I feed and take care of the hogs and it has been very interesting work. I like it very much," she said.

DOUG WAS HAPPY

When LaVerne Pounds, son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Pounds, was grand champion in the pig show Doug was so elated he shouted as loud as he does at experience meeting. "Good for you, son," he said as he slapped LaVerne on the back.

FATHERS VISIT HERE

Hale county farmers and business men, some of them fathers of club boys with calves in the show, visited here yesterday afternoon. The men without boys as competitors, came along, they said, to help their friends. In the party were: John C. McGarr, W. P. Buntin, Fred Weyl, Frank Weil, James Churchwell, Claude Fletcher, Frank Webb and Ira Ratcliff. County Agent W. W. Evans came along to act as escort.

UNCLE JOHN HERE

One of the popular visitors at the show is John M. Gist, better known as "Uncle John" dean of Hereford breeders of this area and past president of the state association of Hereford breeders. Some of the boys steered a group of candidates against Uncle John and he made quite a collection of cards. Then he proceeded to try and sell some calves.

BRINGS NEW CAMERA

W. H. Darrow, editor of the extension news service, brought along a new type of camera, of German make, for some pictures. Mr. Darrow, called "Scoop" by his associates, is making pictures for his own service and also two state and Southwestern magazines.

LUBBOCK WOMEN ATTEND

The club women of Lubbock were among the interested visitors at the cured meat show. The women were out in full force and as they talked with their friends in the home demonstration clubs it was noted that the work was given great encouragement. Lubbock club women have always been hearty supporters of the work and Miss Myrtle Murray says much of the progress made in the county has been because of the encouragement given by Lubbock women.

COMMITTEE NAMED

An investigation committee of Hereford breeders was named yesterday as a secret group to ascertain the "why" of the presence outside the barn of a Jersey cow. The animal was tied up and several of the show officials stated that she was being used as a "mother cow." No one seemed to know the owner or where she came from.

TWO CONCESSIONS

In the new livestock pavilion there are two concessions, one serving soft drinks and peanuts and popcorn and the other sandwiches, soft drinks and coffee. Both have been well patronized by visitors at the show.

TAKE ON NEW LIFE

Bailey county another year will have a large group of calves and pigs in the show according to R. F. McPatridge, county agent. Club work in the county is taking on new life. The agent brought three club boys and two girls with him, each with a calf. He also had two pigs entered in the show.

CLUB LEADER

NEIL H. WRIGHT

The President of the South Plains Scottish Rite club now is Neil Wright, named at the annual Maundy Thursday ceremony Thursday afternoon at the Hilton hotel to succeed Dr. Millard F. Swart, who was chosen as secretary.

Other officers elected are: R. L. Durham of Lorenzo and Sam G. Arnett of Lubbock, vice-presidents; the Rev. Jack M. Lewis, almonery. Attending were B. D. Parker, J. M. Sickels, James H. Goodman, Ed. D. Allen, W. E. Humphries, J. H. Whiteside, A. Schwart, Sam Koretsky, John Dalrymple, George M. Roach, R. D. Moxley, Vaughn E. Wilson, Dean J. M. Gordon and Dr. Swart. Dean Gordon directed the ceremony.

Jim Crow Law Does Not Apply To Bus

DALLAS, Mar. 25. (AP)—Dallas officials of bus lines said that custom would continue to bring about segregation of white and negro motor bus passengers notwithstanding yesterday's ruling of the state court of criminal appeals at Austin.

The court held that the Jim Crow law, which provides for separate riding places for members of the two races on street cars, railroads and interurbans, does not apply to busses.

FRED STONE

in Lubbock.

"Smiling Faces" is a musical comedy in which Stone is featured, but which boasts other principals that should make it an outstanding hit. One of Stone's three beautiful daughters, Paula, still in her teens, heads the supporting cast. Lotti Loder, queen of the London musical comedy stage, Roy Royston and Billy Taylor also are programmed.

But aside from Stone, perhaps the outstanding feature is the Albertina Rasch Girls, those famous Broadway dancers who are all the rage this season.

Every Fred Stone show is clean and wholesome. "I refuse to appear in any show that I can't take my own kids to see", is the way he puts it. Shortly after his old dancing partner, Dave Montgomery, died, Stone became converted to Christianity. It happened in a little church in Butte, Mont., where his show was playing. Since then he has been giving a tenth of his income to religious philanthropy.

In the summer of 1928 Stone crashed while flying his plane, breaking both legs. After months of weary convalescence, in the face of predictions that he would never dance again, he returned to Broadway in a new musical comedy, "Ripples," that was the outstanding success of the early 1930 season. With him in "Ripples" were his wife and two of his daughters, Dorothy and Paula. He was the same old dancing clown with the most supple legs and body the musical comedy stage has ever known.

Here From Dallas

In spite of his wide travels as a performer, Stone has never before been to West Texas. And when he appears at the High School Auditorium, the audience will see the same man that was a sensation in "The Wizard of Oz," "The Red Mill," "Chin Chin," and "Jack o' Lantern." Old-timers who saw "The Wizard of Oz" will tell you there never was a show quite like it, and it was Fred Stone's characterization of the scarecrow that made it the triumph it was. "Chin Chin," probably would have been running yet, had not Dave Montgomery died at the height of its success.

"Smiling Faces," with the same cast that played in New York, Philadelphia, Detroit and Chicago, will come to Lubbock from Dallas by special train. From here the company will go to Amarillo, Oklahoma City, Tulsa, Wichita, Kan., then to Kansas City for a week's run.

Valuable Liquors Taken Aboard Ship

STAMFORD, Conn., March 25 (AP)—Liquor valued by officials at $250,000 was seized today aboard the seagoing tug William H. Moody of Rockport, Maine, berthed at a Stamford dock, during a raid in which fifty men were arrested.

CHARGES FILED

Eight charges of train riding were filed in county court late Thursday. A man this morning was returned to county jail, in lieu of payment of about $14, or $1 and costs, assessed by Justice of the Peace H. K. Porter for petty theft.

YOUTH SENTENCED

EASTLAND, Mar. 25. (AP)—Oscar Privett, Goldthwaite youth, was convicted of murder in connection with the shooting of Melvin Dunsor, 18, at Ranger in May, 1930, and sentenced to 50 years in prison by a jury in 91st district court here this morning.

Do you realize that the price of tailoring work in Lubbock is too high? Just think, two-dry-bits for a suit cleaned and pressed and 49c for a hat cleaned and blocked. These tailor shops ought to get rich . . . we made $14,000.00 ourselves last week, but we gave it to the home for blind mice. Let "Mule" Bray and his veteran clinic of Hoss Doctors clean your rags, we say rags . . . why shouldn't we say rags . . . Allright that's settled, so much for that.

TRUSTEES ARE CONSIDERED

EIGHTY-TWO WILL BE CHOSEN FROM LIST OF 173 APRIL 2

Lubbock County voters Saturday, April 2, will elect 82 trustees from a group of at least 173 candidates to fill vacancies on the boards of school districts.

Persons not satisfied with candidates who qualified for the ballots before the deadline this week are privileged to write in the names of their favorites.

In addition to the election in each district, three members of the county school board will be selected — one each from precincts 4 and 3 and one member-at-large. Name of J. A. Hughes of Lubbock, present member-at-large and chairman of the board, has been placed on the ballot by his friends. Names of W. C. Grimes and Alex Weaver, from precinct 3, were placed on the ballot by petition, as was that of A R. Shipp, for re-election, from No. 4. T. L. Holt of Idalou now is trustee from No. 3.

Thirteen In Race

Idalou, which elects four new board members, has the largest number of would-be trustees. Thirteen men qualified for the election there, said W. F. Pruit, secretary. Trustees whose terms expire, W. T Dowdy, A. H. Turner and J. A. Wood are candidates for re-election. F. H. Cannon, fourth out-going trustee, is not seeking to be returned. Holdovrs are J. N. Sowder, E. C. DeBusk and J. F. Courtney.

Two Slaton men are seeking each of the four vacancies to be filled. They include J. E. Rucker, Joe Walker, H. C. Maxey and W. C Foutz, for re-election. Three of Lubbock's out-going trustees are candidates for re-election, and five others have qualified for places on the ballots.

The county judge's office Thursday prepared ballots for 17 independent and five common school districts. Of this group only one, Caldwell, has no candidates, said Judge E. L. Pitts. The voters in that district will write in the names of their choices to fill the one vacancy there. Election officials are urged to come to Lubbock for the necessary supplies, said Judge Pitts.

Corn Meal Donated To Stricken Group

MEADOW, March 24 (Special)—A 64-year-old Meadow man, unemployed, in ill health, and whose family did not have bread because the man did not have money to pay for milling his corn, recently found five 20-pound sacks of corn meal at his home.

Some time ago the man had offered between 70 and 80 pounds of corn to a miller to be ground. The miller refused to grind the corn because the man could not pay for it. "Well, we'll drink our milk without bread," the man remarked. The next morning he found the sacks of meal, and he still has his own corn.

MANY FEATURES FOR NEW SHREDDED BISCUIT

Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuit Set New Standard for This Type of Cereal

Local grocers are featuring a new shredded biscuit developed by the Kellogg Company of Battle Creek, Michigan, which is a decided improvement in many ways. The improved Kellogg biscuit is "pressure-cooked" by a special process that retains the complete food value of the whole wheat. At the same time, delightful flavor is baked in.

Other improvements are a biscuit of more convenient, economical size. Two of these new biscuits just fit the cereal bowl. You get 15 to the package instead of the usual dozen. And every biscuit is toasted a rich golden brown on both top and bottom—not just one side. This makes them exceptionally crisp.

These new biscuits have been analyzed by the Medical Arts Laboratory of Philadelphia and found to be so rich in food value that every package is certified. Any mother can now be certain her family is getting a well-balanced food with these new Kellogg biscuits.

Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuits are tasty for breakfast, lunch, children's suppers. Extra good with fruits or sweetened with honey—in addition to the milk or cream.

You can identify these new biscuits by the name, Kellogg's, and the familiar red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.
