

AIRPORT SHOW & DEDICATION SET FOR SUNDAY

The Sonora and Sutton County airport will be officially opened and dedicated at special ceremonies beginning at 12:15 Sunday afternoon, October 12. The opening comes just 12 months after the date the strip was first in use and marks initial completion of 3,900 feet of paved runway, automatically lighted. Other improvements now complete include an office building, tie-down cables, hangar space, UNICOM, wind instruments, lighted wind Tee, and fuel service.

Festivities will get underway with barbecue lunch served at $1.00 per plate. Fly-in guests will be registered as they arrive.

A flight of jets will fly over during the celebration, according to Randolph Field authorities, and there will be demonstrations of spraying and helicopter demonstrations.

Perhaps the highlight of the afternoon will be an exhibition of aerial acrobatics by one of the nation's top stunt fliers, and a free-fall parachute jump. Various makes of planes will be on exhibit also.

AIR TOUR GUESTS

A large number of fly-in guests are expected, many of them returning to Sonora en route home from the All Texas Air Tour which put down here for lunch Monday as guests of the Lions Club. At that time some 92 persons signed registers, arriving in 43 planes.

Texas registering came from all parts of the state and were from Dallas, Houston, San Antonio, Fort Worth, Miami, Edinburg, Pearland, Brackettville, McAllen, Del Rio, San Angelo, Saginaw, Anahuac, Harlingen, Harper and Austin.

Out-of-town guests registered from Cincinnati, Ohio, Vero Beach, Fla., Pasadena, Redlands, Stockton, Lynwood, and Compton, Cal., Anioch, Springfield and Raymond, Ill., Jackson, Miss., Emporia, Va., Abilene and Wichita, Kan., Indianapolis, Ind., Mexico City, Mexico and Geraldton, Ontario, Canada.

Attendance prizes were awarded by local merchants and ranchmen and included woolen material for a pair of slacks, shopmade boots, and all-wool blanket, bags of wool and mohair, a purse and stole made of mohair, a bag of Sutton County game, a bag of Sutton County beef, lamb and cabrito, thermos bottles, a gasoline fillup, a case of oil.

All guests were presented with souvenir bandannas.

Monday's luncheon for members of the All Texas Air Tour was unanimously declared a success. Pilots and passengers on the tour were high in their praises both of Sonora's hospitality and its airport. Without exception every guest exclaimed on the airfield and its accommodations. Scenes from the Lions Club-sponsored barbecue as shown above include (top) a view of a portion of the 43 planes which flew in for the affair.

The lower picture shows Chuck Browne, son of Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Browne as he prepares to draw a prize-winning number for the guests. Gay Copeland, center, acted as master of ceremonies. Vestel Askew, right, holds the container of registry numbers.

3 Angelo Youths Apprehended Here

Three San Angelo juveniles were apprehended here early Saturday morning by Deputy Sheriff Earl Clark. The trio were picked up by Clark just in front of Artie Joy's service station following a call from the Schleicher County Sheriff's Department that they were wanted for breaking into three coin vending machines in Eldorado.

Two of the youths have long juvenile records in Tom Green County. One had no previous record. The three were turned over to Schleicher County law officers.

George H. (Jack) Neill Appointed To Texas Industrial Commission

George H. (Jack) Neill has been appointed to the Advisory Board of the Texas Industrial Commission by Governor Price Daniel.

Neill attended a meeting of the Advisory Board in Austin Tuesday to which all members of the Legislature had been invited. Manley Head, executive Director of the Texas Motor Bus Association, pointed out that Texas is more than 10 years behind the rest of the nation in the exploitation of her great industrial and tourist potential. Those present were urged to unite November 4 on adoption of Constitutional Amendment No. 7 and untie the hands of Texas in order that the tremendous resources of the state can be developed on a state level.

Following the meeting Neill was a guest of Governor Daniel at a luncheon and heard Governor Daniel strongly endorse Amendment No. 7.

NOTICE- The Hospital Auxiliary will meet in regular session Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Methodist Church.

PROCLAMATION

STATE OF TEXAS
COUNTY OF SUTTON
CITY OF SONORA

WHEREAS, aviation is becoming more and more an essential factor in our economy; and,
WHEREAS, the citizens of Sonora and Sutton County are aware of the importance of aviation at present and in the future; and,

WHEREAS, these citizens and their local governments have united to secure for their community and airport worthy of our pride and support; and,

WHEREAS, said airport is ready for dedication to the betterment of Sonora and Sutton County,
NOW, THEREFORE, I, Alfred Schwiening, Mayor of the City of Sonora, Texas, do declare this week beginning Sunday October 12, 1958, Sonora Municipal Airport Week, and urge all citizens to attend the ceremonies contingent to the dedication.

Alfred Schwiening
Mayor, City of Sonora, Texas.

The formation of a Chamber of Commerce for Sonora and Sutton County has reached an even more concrete stage during the past week as a preliminary canvass neared completion. Most local businessmen have been contacted on their interest in a plan whereby they would share on a 50-50 basis with the City of Sonora the expense of hiring H. V. (Buzzie) Stokes as City Manager and Chamber of Commerce Head.

Merchants Pledge Over $500
97% of the businessmen contacted have indicated their wholehearted support as four two-man teams conducted the canvass. Over $500 monthly has been pledged by local merchants, each of whom was asked to set the amount of his own dues. As the canvass neared completion Thursday, only two of 65 businessmen contacted refused to support the plan.

City Postpones Action

The City Commission met in regular session Monday night with City Attorney L. W. Elliott, Superintendent of City Utilities R. M. McCarver and Stokes. The Commission, with A. B. Hightower acting as Mayor pro-tem in the absence of Mayor Alfred Schwiening who is ill, and Commissioner Gay Copeland postponed voting on the proposal at Schwiening's request.

In addressing the commission, City Attorney L. W. Elliott emphasized the importance of such a move, calling it long overdue and recommended that the plan be enacted immediately. Elliott also reported the overwhelming support the plan is receiving from businessmen.

Stokes outlined the plan and told the Commission there would be no conflict between the two offices since both would be working in the public interest.

Decision Pending

A vote on the issue will be taken as soon as Schwiening is well enough to attend a meeting. It is expected that a favorable decision will be forthcoming since all members of the Commission as well as McCarver have indicated privately on several occasions their complete approval of the plan.

Broncos Ready For Battle With Mason Slated For Friday

Sonora High School's Broncos will travel to Mason tomorrow to face the Mason Cowpunchers, one of the state's top-ranked Class A teams. The Punchers have a record of five wins in five games this season and have only been scored on once—that by San Saba last week.

The Broncos will be out to stop the Mason winning streak in spite of illnesses early in the week which saw two Sonora players hospitalized and several others ill at home.

School will be dismissed at 2:30 Friday afternoon to allow students to attend the game. Game time is 8:00 at Mason.

Mrs. D. T. Briggs Buried Friday In Lampasas

Mrs. Briggs, who had been in ill health several years, died at her home in Lampasas Thursday afternoon, October 2.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Joe B. Ross of Sonora; four sons; nine grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Sonora Downs Alpine 6-0 In Last Week's Grid Game

The Sonora Broncos downed the visiting Alpine Bucks 6 to 0 here Friday night in a defensive battle which saw the Broncos only touchdown coming in the second period of play after the Sonora team recovered a Buck fumble in their own 25 yard line.

Backs Eddie Sosa, Sam Galindo and Alfred Sykes then carried in a series of plays which reaped four first downs and found the Broncos on the Alpine one yard-line from which point Sykes literally jumped the line for the six points. Galindo's attempt to convert was stopped by the Alpine line and the score remained 6 to 0 from that point on.

Alpine was never able to score against the Sonora line which featured some excellent defensive and offensive play by Center Wallace Anthony. But the Buck line was also capable of holding the Broncos to their slim lead.

Dallas Man Held Here After Armed Robbery

Three words whispered to Cashier Clayton Hamilton at his desk in the First National Bank here Tuesday afternoon set off a three and a half hour manhunt which ended in the apprehension of a Dallas man being held without bail here on a charge of armed robbery.

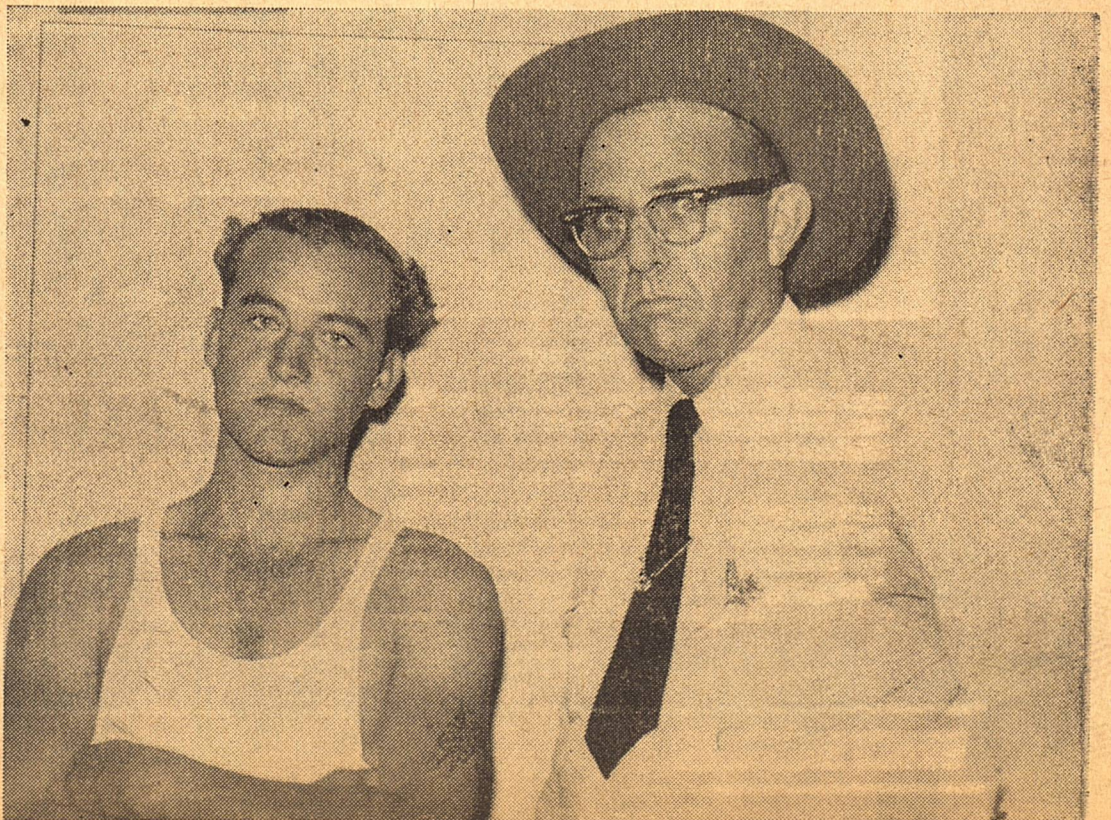

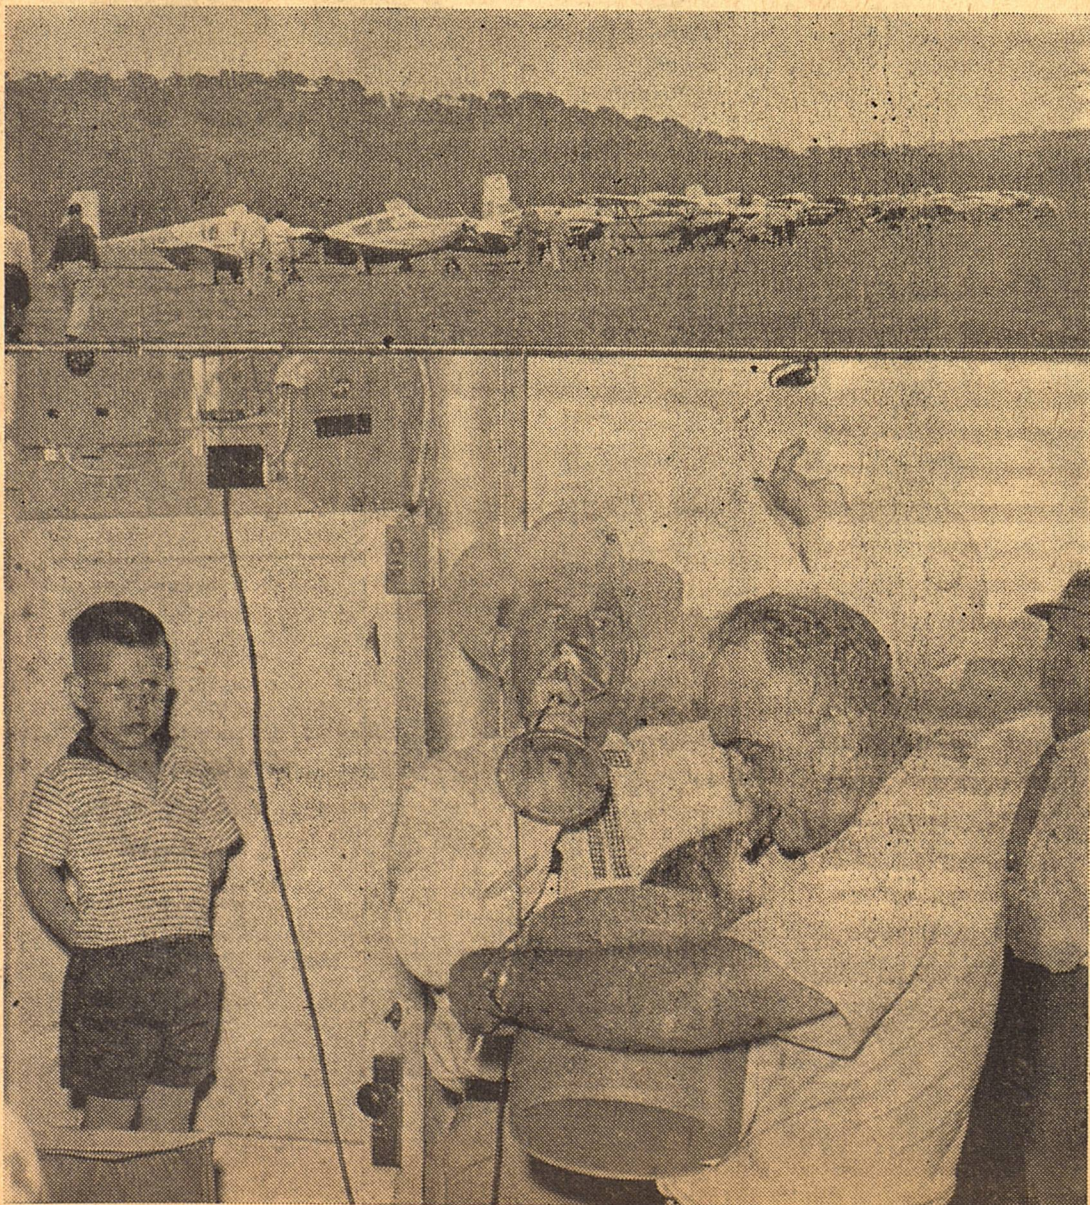

The action began when R. M. Lee, a San Angelo salesman for Hinkley Leather Goods Co. of Dallas, stopped at Hamilton's desk and asked to cash a check for $50. As he wrote out the check he whispered to Hamilton,

Devil's River Philosopher Amazed To Find Out Russian People Like Money The Same As Rest Of Us

Editor's Note: The Devil's Philosopher on his bitterweed ranch on Devil's River believes he has found out something new about Russia, his letter this week indicates.

Dear editor:

When it comes to Russia, I don't know any more about it than the foreign policy experts in Washington, but I was reading an article in a newspaper last night that has me stumped.

According to it, the Communist bosses in Russia have discovered that they get more production from individual workers when they give them a pay boost for extra work or for taking on more responsibilities.

"It is now maintained here that more and more problems can be settled with offers of cash rewards," Premier Krushchey announced.

This bowled me over, or would have if I hadn't been stretched out on a couch when I read it.

You mean to tell me that the Russian people are after all human? You mean to say they like money the same as us capitalist Americans?

Up to now, I had been led to believe that the Russians worked strictly for the satisfaction of seeing a five-year plan completed, and as soon as they got one finished they were miserable until their bosses announced another one. As I understood it, a Russian wasn't interested in getting his hands on any money of his own, all he wanted was a place to work, a picture of his dictator hanging on the shop wall, and a pallet to sleep on at night, where he could dream happily about how much bigger their satellite was than ours.

But if the Communists are finding out money talks in Russia like it does around here, this opens up a brand new field of speculation. You start letting people have money, and the first thing you know the women will be going to beauty shops and swapping gossip, families will be demanding bath tubs and hot water, boys will start playing football, girls will start getting style-conscious, men will start buying fishing tackle, and before long somebody will turn up in the neighborhood with an automobile and then the dam has busted.

If the Communists ever let the people get a taste of money and the advantages of getting ahead, the game is up. Scientific production is fine, but living is more fun.

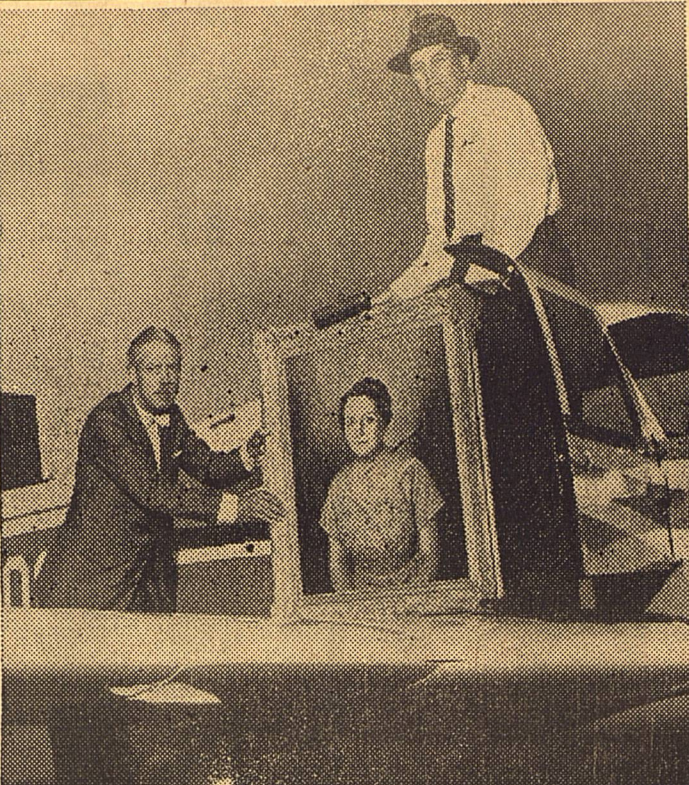

And to tell you the truth, despite how hard the Russian farmers worked the state land, I've always suspected most Russian farmers would swap all the satellites Russia will ever launch for one piece of land they could call their own.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Allison and Gail Espy of Abilene were the guests of their grandparents, Mrs. Thelma Espy and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Allison, during last weekend.

Lt. and Mrs. Oscar Lee Carpenter arrived for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Carpenter, Sr. Lt. and Mrs. Carpenter are enroute from Fort Bliss, El Paso to San Marcos flight base.

Mrs. Ellen Ray spent last week-end in San Angelo, the guest of her brother, Wilson Owens, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Briant.

Claire Jones Named 1958 Recipient Of Texas Sheep And Goat Raisers Award

A young woman with a love for livestock and the great outdoors, Alice Claire Jones of Sonora, is the 1958 winner of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Award. According to the announcement from the state 4-H Club office, she will receive an all-expense trip to National 4-H Club Congress, Chicago, November 30 through December 4, and has earned the title of the state's outstanding sheep and wool producer for the year.

The annual award is provided by the TSGRA which also provides a medal for the county winner in the program. The award has been offered for many years and was established to recognize the work of outstanding 4-H club members in sheep and goat work. Claire has excelled not only in the procedure of fat and breeding sheep and prize winning wool exhibits but also as a judge of wool, mohair, livestock, grass and rangeland as well.

The 1957 Sutton County 4-H Range Judging Team went all the way, but had to borrow a few months out of 1958 for the team to finish the job started the year before. They were district, state and international champions. The big one was won in Oklahoma when teams from 28 states and 13 foreign entries vied for top honors. The name of Claire Jones appeared as the second ranking individual in the International contest and as the high individual in the state contest.

The county grass judging team of which she was a member likewise won many honors and in 1957 she was the overall high individual in the judging contests held in connection with the Sonora Wool Show.

Her record on sheep and wool production has also been impressive. She and her brother, Cleve T., are partners with their range flock of 50 breeding sheep. From this flock have come the fleeces which have won several awards at the Sonora Wool Show including the grand champion bag of wool in 1955. She has been a consistent winner in the county show with her lambs and has also placed well at Houston, Kerrville and San Angelo. Her beef calves have won awards in the county show and at San Antonio.

Claire is the daughter of Mrs. Cleve Jones, Jr., and granddaughter of Mrs. E. E. Sawyer and the late E. E. Sawyer and Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Jones Sr. is a junior in Sonora High School where she is active in sports and in many school clubs and organizations. Likewise, she is active in church and other youth groups in Sonora. She was a "Miss Mohair Duchess" in 1958.

In commenting upon her experiences, she says, "Gradually, I have increased my knowledge of feeding and can now advise others. My interest in the ranch led me to study grasses, livestock, wool and mohair judging and range management. I have had much encouragement and assistance from friends and leaders and feel that I can now repay those for their help by assisting younger 4-H members with their demonstrations. I believe my 4-H training will help us not only to improve our sheep but the ranch.

Claire gives special credit to her mother and brother for their help and to Fred T. Earwood for his encouragement and to E. B. Keng, SCS, and G. O. Hoffman, extension range specialist for their help in grass and range training and to her local adult leaders Harold Friess and Edgar Glasscock for their many words of encouragement and invaluable assistance throughout her five year 4-H career. an outstanding member who has moved to the top because she was willing to work and study until she reached her goals. Earwood adds that she is a credit to Sutton County and to the 4-H.

This is the smallest of 14 sizes of Jensen Jacks, but it's engineered to lift a lot of water from surprisingly deep wells with mighty little power. For example: With 1/3 h. p. motor it will handle a 215-ft. well having a 20-40 pressure system with a 2-in. cylinder. Even deeper with a smaller cylinder or open discharge. Before you equip a new well or re-equip your present well - talk to us about JENSEN JACKS or JENSEN AUTOMATIC WATER SYSTEMS.

Edwards Plateau Soil Conservation District News

By E. B. Keng
Soil Conservation Service

The current year has been a favorable vine-growing year. Dead liveoak thickets, brush piles, and fences are favorite places to find a heavy vine growth of the vines that are good livestock feed, and were formerly more common on rangeland.

In order that ranchmen may identify the various vines, several will be briefly described. Three common vines are members of the grape family and may be easily identified by having a tendril opposite each leaf and seed that are produced in clusters resembling grapes. One vine has seven pointed leaflets in each cluster and is called Teyas creeper. The third member of the grape family has a fleshy leaf divided into three parts and is called ivy treebush. This plant is often incorrectly called poison-oak. All three vines are non-poisonous, climb in trees and are eaten by livestock.

Grandfather's whiskers or clematis is common now, and is producing its typical long feathery seed. It is eaten by livestock, and is found principally in protected places or above the reach of sheep and goats.

Many trees are covered with a climbing milkweed which has heart shaped leaves, milky juice, and large seed pods filled with a "cottony" material. This plant is poisonous to livestock, but is rarely eaten.

Other less common "shrubby" vines include slimlobe globeberry, a toothed wavyleaf vine producing little red gourds. The common wild gourds are also abundant.

SCS personnel will be glad to assist ranchmen to identify vines and other vegetation growing on rangeland at the present time.

Mrs. Charlie Bishop of Junction was in Sonora visiting relatives and friends.

• 'Round and 'round our dollars go . . . building local trade volume with every turnover . . . when we spend them with our own home stores and service establishments.

And every added dollar of trade volume in our community means a little better jobs for us . . . increased business profits, better property values . . . a little better support for our churches, schools and other civic facilities . . . a little better service to meet our daily and emergency needs.

Just a single dollar . . . spent at home instead of being used to "pick up" some article in the city . . . may account for $5 or $6 or more of additional home trade volume as it goes 'round and 'round among us.

Each such dollar put on the home trade merry-go-round is an investment in enlightened selfishness . . . as it comes around and back into our own hands again from time to time.

30 YEARS AGO

Friday, September 5, 1930

The Devil's River News, now entering its fortieth year and until three years ago printed with a George Washington hand press, is a modern newspaper and printing plant. The old press, used years ago when the San Angelo Standard was founded, is now used on the Aldwell Bros. ranch for printing wool sacks. An advertisement for Charles Schreiner Bank at Kerrville, appeared in the Devil's River News for a period of 37 years without changing type. This hand-set type had been in use so long that it could hardly be chiseled apart.

Local ranchmen last spring subscribed $40,000 to build a wool and mohair warehouse that will hold 1,500,000 pounds of the fleecy product. The first solid train load of wool was shipped from Sonora to Boston immediately after the Santa Fe ran its first official train into Sonora July first. The building is said to be one of the most substantial and attractive of its kind in West Texas.

Alfred Sykes and his would-be tackler are caught in mid-air here as Sykes leaped over the Alpine line to score Sonora's only touchdown against the Bucks here Friday night. Eddie Sosa, Number 55, has provided Sykes's block.

More Armed Robbery

bound was set on the fugitive's trail and Clark called other law enforcement officers to set up roadblocks surrounding Sonora.

Local airplane owners were contacted and planes aided the search from the air, with F. L. McKinney, Vestel Askew, and Stanley Mayfield in one plane, Carl J. Cahill and R. S. Teaff in another. G. M. Owens in a third, and Robert Kelley, Jr., in a fourth. Officers credited the planes with keeping the fugitive pinned down and unable to escape until his apprehension.

Glenn was captured about 7:40 by Jack Jones, Schleicher County Deputy Sheriff, who was informed by a car stopped at his roadblock 4 miles north of town, that a man had been seen in the borrow ditch 3 miles back. Jones picked Glenn up and returned to Sonora with him where he was turned over to local authorities.

The victim of Glenn's attempted holdup told of stopping at the Del Rio city limits and giving him a ride. About 15 miles north of Del Rio Glenn pulled a .32 Iver Johnson and told Lee he wanted his money. He forced the salesman to drive him on toward Sonora and told him if he would give him $50.00 and take him across the Mexican border he would not harm him.

Lee, who calls on several Sonora business houses, first tried to cash a check at the Ratliff Store after being warned by Glenn that if he tried anything both he and the clerk would be killed. Store Manager Jack Kerbow could not cash the check and Glenn then forced Lee to go to the bank.

Lee, who was a minister for many years, four and a half years of which time was spent as an Army chaplain, expressed his gratitude to local citizens and officers. He also advised everyone never to pick up strangers.

A Sutton County grand jury panel will be called for October 22 to consider charges against Glenn, 18, against whom another charge is pending in Dallas. Sheriff Wess Hill and Deputy Clark expressed their thanks for the cooperation of citizens and special thanks for the help given by local pilots, officers from neighboring towns and Ranger Rohatch of San Angelo.

If Glenn is found guilty he faces a minimum sentence of two years in the State Penitentiary or a maximum sentence of death.
