Search Continues For Train Blast Victims

By PERRY MULLEN

MELDRIM, Ga. (AP) — Rescue teams renewed dragging operations in the Ogeechee River today searching for more victims of a freak butane gas explosion that already apparently has claimed 19 lives. Many other persons were burned, at least 10 critically.

The blast occurred about 3:30 Sunday afternoon. Two railroad tanker cars spewed flaming death on some 175 fun-seekers in a recreation area beneath a 30-foot river trestle which the Seaboard Air Line train was crossing.

No one could say whether all bodies had been recovered, but Coroner Harold M. Smith said reports that dozens were unaccounted for were greatly overdrawn.

Smith said at the time he had accounted for 17 dead.

Since then two children died of burns in a Savannah hospital. They were listed as Wayne Smith, 3, and Terry Lane, 9.

A complete casualty list was not available but 14 dead have been identified. Some bodies were so badly burned that identification was difficult.

The railroad said the explosion of one butane tanker set off a second loaded with 10,000 gallons of the cooking and heating fuel. Two trainmen were injured in the blast and the pileup of freight cars near the end of the long train.

The blast turned the Ogeechee River bank into blackened ruins several hundred yards from the trestle. It caught some of the victims in the water, others on the bank. Children seared by the flames floundered in the river or ran screaming from the spot.

A second but lesser explosion came after rescuers reached the scene near this East Georgia town about 18 miles northwest of Savannah.

Most of the 124 cars in the Seaboard Air Line Railroad freight had cleared the 30-foot high trestle before the crash at 3:30 p.m. None fell in the water, but several piled up on the bank and burned through the night. Some of the cars were telescoped. Flat cars dangled from a 75-foot long break at the end of the 250-yard span.

First reports said the journal on one of the cars apparently broke. Some observers thought the trestle gave way.

Sparks caused by the wreck may have ignited the gas, turning the area into an inferno, or the escaping gas may have been ignited by a riverbank campfire.

"The explosion came over the water with a big boom, and after that you could hear children screaming and yelling," David Parker, one of the injured, said. "It was awful after it happened not to be able to save the children, but there was just nothing to do."

The scene of the explosion is five miles or more from a paved highway, and about two miles from Meldrim. The area is reached by a bumpy, dusty one-lane road which is little more than a logging trail.

The freight was en route from Montgomery, Ala., to Savannah.

Long Plans To Get Divorce; Continues Political Purge

By ERNEST BARTON

WINNFIELD, La. (AP) — Gov. K. Long, refreshed after a weekend at his beloved "Pea Patch Farm," heads across state to Covington today to place himself under a team of psychiatrists.

Long is also extending his political purge, divorcing his wife, planning a special session of the Legislature and starting his campaign for re-election.

"I'm going to get a divorce just as fast as I can," he said of his wife, who twice committed him for psychiatric treatment. Mrs. Long has left the state.

Long plans to remain at Covington until Friday night. Then he will go to Baton Rouge for the first time since his commitment to Southeast Louisiana State mental Hospital at Mandeville on June 18.

The 63-year-old governor discussed his plans Sunday in a 15-minute news conference on the back porch of the frame farm house his estranged wife, Blanche, calls "Earl's shack."

The governor, clad in pajamas and a bathrobe, did most of the talking. Only about two or three questions were asked before the governor's advisors and psychiatrist, Dr. Paul Pratt, decided the conference had lasted long enough.

The governor told newsmen he had been considering a divorce from his wife for some time.

"I would have got a divorce a long time ago if I hadn't been in politics," the governor said. "Without causing any scandal and no trouble I'm going to get a divorce just as fast as I can."

He plans a cleanup in the state Welfare Department.

"If what I heard about Mrs. Dickerson (Mary Evelyn Dickerson Parker, director of welfare) is true, she's a bum director."

If he can, he is going to get rid of Theo Cangelosi, chairman of the Louisiana State University Board of Supervisors and long-time friend and legal advisor of the governor.

City Jury Clears Man

A corporation court jury today found John Jackson Holt of Lubbock not guilty of a city traffic violation.

A jury trial is fairly unusual in the city court, and this is the first here in several months.

The jury deliberated almost three hours after arguments were completed.

Holt, a Lubbock trucker, was issued a traffic citation for illegally passing through a traffic light here June 19. Paul Bailey was the officer who issued the ticket.

The Lubbock man denied running the red light and entered a plea of not guilty, which resulted in the jury trial. Holt had been driving a truck loaded with watermelons at the time of the alleged offense.

There was one witness on each side of the case, Bailey for the prosecution and a man who had been riding with Holt for the defense.

Holt was represented in the case by Gene Dulaney. W. W. Park, city attorney, was prosecutor. Presiding was Arthur Blanchard, corporation court judge.

Jurors were R. L. Grimmett, Mrs. Marionette Baze, Tommy Deffebach, Mrs. Bob Dupree, Mrs. Ethel Sowell and Bob Crowell.

Censorship Ruled Out

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court today struck down the New York State movie censorship law as unconstitutional.

The ruling set aside a ban on the film "Lady Chatterley's Lover."

All nine justices agreed in holding that the ban was improper.

However, four justices said the court moved too swiftly in striking down the New York law. They were Justices Harlan, Whittaker, Clark and Frankfurter.

Justice Stewart delivered the court's main opinion.

New York Police Dismayed When Kozlov Takes A Walk

NEW YORK (AP)—The First Deputy Premier of the Soviet Union, Frol R. Kozlov, took a walk today—to the vast dismay of police.

Passing up arrangements for an elaborate motorcade across town, Kozlov at the last minute set off afoot on the one-mile hike between his country's diplomatic headquarters and the Coliseum where a Soviet cultural and scientific exhibition is being held.

A dozen aides accompanied him while surprised police brass hustled along as escort. The chauffeurs of waiting limousines just scratched their heads. Motorcycle police circled a few city blocks along the route then gave up.

The group strolled without incident from Park Avenue and 68th Street, where the Soviet United Nations delegation resides, and through Central Park to the exhibit hall at 60th Street and Broadway.

Kozlov arrived from Russia Sunday to preside at the opening tonight.

President Eisenhower flies here today to get a preview of the display, and presumably will meet Kozlov briefly. Vice President Nixon is taking part in the formal ceremonies.

The show opens to the public Tuesday.

The affable, gray-haired Kozlov—called the No. 3 man in the Kremlin—will go to Washington Tuesday to talk with Eisenhower and Secretary of State Christian A. Herter.

Kozlov arrived in the world's biggest airliner, a Soviet turbojet TU114, which set a record for flying time between New York and Moscow.

It was the first nonstop flight between the two capitals. The flying time was 11 hours and 6 minutes for the 5,092-mile trip. That's an average speed of 460 miles an hour.

Kozlov is a square-faced man of 50 with a ready smile and a loud voice. He smiled often and made several jokes after his arrival.

During a three-hour boat ride around Manhattan, the view of the skyline prompted him to say "those who created this city certainly chose a very good site."

He chatted amiably with two pretty American models on the trip. They will display fashions later at the American exhibition in Moscow. Smilingly Kozlov told one of them: "I hope you like Moscow but you'd better not keep saying 'da.'" ("da" means "yes" in Russian).

Senate Has No Business

AUSTIN (AP)—House tax compromisers studied a new give-and-take proposal today in effort to unkink the 163-day deadlock on taxing and spending.

The compromise committee of 16 named by Speaker Waggoner Carr after Saturday night's unsuccessful struggle to pass a general tax bill met for 1½ hours. The group scheduled another meeting later in the day.

Rep. Dick Cory of Victoria, reportedly gave the group an over-all tax plan including a 2 per cent increase in natural gas production taxes, but no severance beneficiary tax, and increased selective sales taxes, but no general sales tax.

"No definite decisions were made," said Rep. Robert Hughes of Dallas.

"We're still just feeling around," said Rep. Max Smith of San Marcos. "I still feel we'll get some sort of a bill out this session."

Rep. W. T. Oliver of Port Neches said he still had pending a resolution calling for final adjournment of the second special session at noon Tuesday. "I'm not pushing it," he said, "until we see how these talks come out."

Carr said today that he wouldn't say a compromise was a sure thing but it looks very promising.

After the first meeting of the compromise group today Carr had a talk with Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey.

Afterward Carr said he had asked the compromisers "if they are able to agree on anything to come out with it today so I can put it before the House today or Wednesday."

Sen. Charles Herring of Austin, Senate sponsor of Gov. Price Daniel's tax proposal in the first special session, said he still hoped the house would get another tax bill to the Senate by Wednesday.

The second special session, powerless thus far to find the money for 1960-61 state operations, reaches the midway point Wednesday.

The House tried all day and agree on a tax measure, but split on a basic dispute over whether late into the night Saturday to a sales tax or a levy on natural gas should bear the larger burden.

The Senate, waiting for the House to send it a revenue measure, was in recess over the weekend. It has no major business to transact until the House votes a tax bill. Such measures must originate in the House.

Carr earlier had named the 16-member committee representing various factions in an effort to find a middle ground in the tax dispute. Its efforts were to no avail.

After the long, fruitless session Saturday, the speaker again summoned the conferees.

Yesterday he said he thought some progress had been made despite the negative votes.

Carr said he believes both the opposing factions now see that there is a no-tax-at-all group in the House that will team with either to defeat any tax measure. He said this led him to believe there would be some giving on both sides in order to achieve a revenue bill.

Meanwhile, most legislators seemed convinced that the deadlock will continue. There was more third special session talk than ever before after the House failed to write a tax measure Saturday.

Queen Gets Big Ovation In Toronto

TORONTO (AP) — Queen Elizabeth II received the biggest, noisiest reception of her Canadian tour on her arrival in Toronto today.

More than 6,000 people overflowed a temporary grandstand erected on the pier where the royal yacht Britannia tied up. Several thousand others were standing around a huge enclosure.

In the harbor, hundreds of boats, large and small, were lined up. Flags and streamers fluttered from masts and rigging. As the Britannia approached, she blew three deep-throated blasts and the harbor became a bedlam of noise as the small craft responded.

It was a warm sunshiny morning.

After a reception on the usual red carpet on the dock, the Queen and her husband, Prince Philip, set out on a tightly knit program that will not end until 10 p.m.

Tuesday the Queen breaks the routine of formal ceremonies for two of her favorite diversions, horse racing and the theater.

Canada's top racing event, the Queen's Plate, will be run here with the Queen and Philip watching.

At nearby Stratford, the Shakespearean Festival group gives a command performance of "As You Like It" for the royal couple.

More Rains Are Forecast

By The Associated Press

Light rain fell on the Palacios area of the Gulf Coast Monday as cloudy skies made showers possible for much of the rest of the state.

Only the lower Texas coast and sections of West and Northwest Texas reported clear skies.

The weather picture developed after a cool front moved into the Panhandle Sunday, then faded.

Forecasts call for partly cloudy weather with occasional showers in East and Central Texas and isolated thunderstorms in the rest of the state through Tuesday.

The only rainfall report for Sunday came from Van Horn, where .68 inch fell. Scattered thundershowers were reported over the Panhandle, South Plains, Pecos Valley and mountain sections Sunday night.

Sunday's high temperature was 109 at Presidio on the Rio Grande. Wink had 105 and Laredo and Lubbock 100. Corpus Christi and Beeville's 88s were the low maximums.

West Germans Push Election Despite Reds

BERLIN (AP)—West Germany pushed ahead today with plans for a presidential election in isolated Berlin despite Soviet warnings such a move will be viewed as a provocative act.

Officials remained alert as Communist East German officials said they would look the election 110 miles behind the Iron Curtain with "great seriousness." But there was no expectation of any real trouble when the Electoral College meets Wednesday.

The U. S. State Department brushed aside Soviet notes to the Western Big Three protesting the holding of the election in West Berlin. Officials in Washington termed the notes a new effort to meddle in Germany's internal affairs.

The Soviet note to the United States said the Soviet Union considered holding the elections in Berlin "a new attempt to use the current abnormal situation in the city in order to inflame even more the situation in Germany."

State Department press officer Lincoln White said the decision to hold the election in Berlin "merely represents a continuation of a tradition begun with the presidential election in Berlin in July 1954." That election was held in Berlin without Red protest.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko declared in Moscow that holding the election in Berlin was another example of an effort to create tension.

The Soviet Union and East Germany insist West Berlin is a part of East Germany. The State Department holds that the Red-girdled city is "held in trust by the principal Allied powers as the capital of a reunited Germany."

The 1,038-member Electoral College will choose a successor to 75-year-old President Theodor Heuss, who is ineligible to run for a third five-year term.

Court Moves To Get Right-Of-Way

Condemnation proceedings were authorized by the county commissioners court this morning on one tract of land included in the county's needed right-of-way for the future widening of east Thirty-seventh Street.

The court passed an order directing the county attorney, George Killam, to file condemnation proceedings against the J. M. Doak Estate. The strip of Doak Estate property is on the south side of Thirty-seventh Street near the east end.

The county failed to reach an agreement with property owners on the right-of-way, which brought on the condemnation.

This is the first condemnation in connection with the county's acquisition of right-of-way on east Thirty-seventh Street. The State Highway Department is to widen the street when the funds for the widening can be budgeted.

J. C. Massingill, commissioner of precinct 4, in which the portion of the street to be widened lies, said the right-of-way is 90 per cent acquired for the street. Of the 38 tracts along the street from the Big Spring highway to the East Highway, 90 per cent is either bought or in the process of signing.

The county is still negotiating with four parties for the reminder of right-of-way.

In other action this morning, the court authorized Sheriff Earl Abercrombie to employ two additional temporary deputies for use during the annual Scurry County Rodeo.

The court also approved the standards of eligibility for needy persons to receive surplus commodities of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The standard must be approved annually by the court. Distribution of the commodities is administered by the county welfare department.

A preliminary meeting was held by the court with Mrs. Hilda McCrary of Hugh Boren & Sons Insurance Agency, the county's servicing agent on insurance, and Tom Brooks of General Adjustment Bureau, Inc., on wind and water damage to the courthouse and Boys Club building several weeks ago.

NEA Renews Demand For Big Federal School Aid Program

By G. K. HODENFIELD

Associated Press Education Writer

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The National Education Assn. today renewed its demand for a massive program of federal aid to education. It said failure to finance adequate schooling is "a tragedy for the undereducated, a menace to the society, and an incongruity in the world's richest nation."

A statement issued by the Education Policies Commission of the NEA and the American Assn. of School Administrators said ignorance and poverty go hand-in-hand. This is a national problem, it said, because ignorance and poverty cannot be quarantined.

It said Americans are spending just over 10½ billion dollars annually to operate public schools. Quality education requires more than 18 billion dollars a year, the statement said, adding that the average expenditure per pupil should be raised from $310 a year to a minimum of $540.

The 18 billion dollars recommended, the commission said, does not include reducing the present shortage of school facilities and classrooms, and takes no account of school enrollment, which is increasing by one million pupils per year.

Many states and the local communities do not have the resources to finance adequate education, the commission said.

It said that Mississippi, for instance, in 1955 spent only $132 per pupil. But that figure represented a greater effort on the part of Mississippi than did New York's expenditure of $365 that year, the commission said.

It said the extra money should go toward hiring more teachers and increasing teacher's salaries. Higher salaries in industry, it said, are luring many potential teachers into other fields.

The commission said the federal government is the only tax collecting agency able to raise the money needed for quality education.

The NEA Sunday announced plans for a long-range study of the nation's educational needs and problems.

Dr. Ruth A. Stout, NEA president, said the study would deal with every facet of education. Some $50,000 has been set aside for the first year of the study, which is expected to take three or four years to complete.

Steel Talks Are Recessed

NEW YORK (AP) — Steel industry contract negotiations are recessed until Wednesday. A strike deadline has been postponed for two weeks, until midnight July 14.

President Eisenhower's intervention Saturday paved the way for the postponement. The strike had been scheduled for Tuesday night, barring a sudden settlement, which nobody expected.

David J. McDonald, head of the United Steelworkers, scheduled meetings today with his 33-man executive board and 171-member international wage policy committee. Both sessions were expected to be routine.

The industry position against granting any labor cost increases still stands. This was made clear in a statement by R. Conrad Cooper, chief industry negotiator, and by Thomas Patton, president of Republic Steel Corp.

Patton said on a nationwide television broadcast Sunday night that his firm is unwilling to grant any labor cost increases without compensating price increases. Asked about record 1959 progit reports, Patton said the long-range expectation is what must be considered.

Three Airmen Face Action

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP)—Three airmen who caused authorities all sorts of trouble by faking a kidnaping may learn today what disciplinary action they face.

City police, sheriff's officers, highway patrolmen and 40 Air Force police fanned out Saturday night in a search for a getaway car.

Maj. Theodore Newnam, provost marshal, identified the Amarillo Air Force Base trio as Airmen Charles J. Moore, 20, Tucson, Ariz.; Clarence Marcuarela, 22, Matagorda, Tex.; and Raymond L. Watson, Jr., 26, Nashville, Tenn.

Watson played the victim as the others forced his hands behind his back and took him from the base service club into a car outside.

An airman who witnessed the incident supplied a description of the trip and the car.

Arrested at their barracks, the men admitted the prank but gave no reason for it, Maj. Newnam said.

Mass Slaying Of Family Is Discovered

STETTLER, Alta. (AP) — The mass slaying of a father, mother and their five children came to light with discovery Sunday of the seven battered bodies at this quiet central Alberta town. Robert Raymond Cook, 22, son of the slain man, was charged with murder.

The victims were Raymond Cook, 53, a garage mechanic; his wife, Daisy Mae, 37; and their three sons and two daughters ranging in age from 9 to 3.

Police found a blood-stained shotgun stuffed under a mattress in the Cook's neatly kept green and white house, but the bodies were so badly battered investigators could not tell whether the victims had been shot before they were clubbed.

The bodies were found in the garage under a pile of old tires, boxes, blankets and other articles. The discovery shocked this town of 3,000, eighty miles southeast of Edmonton.

Police went to the home to inform the father that Robert Raymond had been arrested Saturday on a charge involving the father's car. When neighbors told police none of the Cooks had been seen since Thursday, the officers entered the house and found blood stains on the floor and mattresses.

Employe Of Boys Home Is Arrested

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — William Washington, 52, an employe of the Negro Boys Parental Home, was arrested at the institution on charges of contributing to the delinquency of minors.

Supt. Dozell Varner told officers Washington was teaching the boys how to shoot craps.

Grandfather Beater Held

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Police have arrested Harry Gross, 44, a New Yorker accused of beating his wife's elderly grandfather.

Gross was identified by officers as chief of a 20-million-dollar bookmaking ring in New York 10 years ago.

Police said Harry Black, 81, is in critical condition at General Hospital with head and neck wounds.

Gross booked Saturday on suspicion of assault with intent to commit murder, denied the charge. He said, "The old man and I are good friends."

Black told officers Gross attacked him after an argument over $2,000 which he said he loaned the ex-bookmaker and his wife.

Gross was sent to prison in 1951 after pleading guilty to 66 counts of bookmaking and conspiracy.

Problem Blamed On High Interest Policy

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Inflation and the recent increase in the national debt ceiling were blamed Sunday by Rep. Wright Patman (D-Tex.) on a high interest policy instituted in 1953.

Patman, member of the House Banking and Currency Committee, was a guest on the weekly radio and TV program of Sen. Ralph Yarborough (D-Tex.).

"If the administration in 1953 had not increased interest rates they would not have asked Congress to increase the national debt limit six times as they have," Patman said.

"And Congress has increased it six times. We've been paying interest on interest," Patman added.

The firm said the ethylene capacity of the Sweeny plant will be expanded 75 million pounds a year, increasing annual capacity to 255 million pounds.

Junior Editors Quiz on MEDICINE

QUESTION: What does Rx on a prescription mean?

• • •

ANSWER: The prescription the doctor gives you when you are ill is a recipe, something like a recipe in your mother's cookbook. It tells the druggist how to make the medicine the doctor wishes you to have. A cookbook recipe often begins with the word "Take", such as "Take two cups of sugar, etc." That is the meaning of the Rx symbol in the upper left-hand corner of the doctor's prescription: "Take". The symbol is believed to have come from the symbol the ancient Romans used for Jupiter, who was king of their gods. Chemists in Rome used the symbol on their medicines as a sort of prayer to Jupiter that the compound would work a cure.

FOR YOU TO DO: The history of medicine is an old one. The oath taken by every doctor when he graduates from medical school was written by Hippocrates, the early Greek who is known as the "father of medical science." Look up the Hippocratic Oath in an encyclopedia.

LIBRARY NOTES

July 4th — what does it mean to us? A day of parades, picnics and the popping of "fireworks"? certainly these traditions, some of which have been handed down from that first anniversary celebration in 1777, and much, much more. Check with the Scurry County Library for books covering the era of American history that brought about our great document THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE.

The story behind the DECLARATION is told in FOUR DAYS IN JULY by Cornel Langyel, published last year by Doubleday.

THE STORY OF THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE by Malone, pictures by Milhollen and Kaplan, is the life story of this human document that has inspired Americans to their noblest actions and exists today as the finest expression of hope in the free world.

THE AMERICAN BOOK OF DAYS by Douglas tells of the 1777 celebration in Philadelphia when bells rang all day, there were bonfires and fireworks, war ships in the river were dressed in flags, and a dinner was followed by a military parade. This book also describes the first celebration in Boston, the 1819 observances, the most elaborate celebration in Washington, and the unusual celebration in Greeley, Colorado.

S. E. Morison has selected and edited SOURCES AND DOCUMENTS ILLUSTRATING THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION, 1764-1788, AND THE FORMATION OF THE FEDERAL CONSTITUTION. Carl van Doren's SECRET HISTORY OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION is an account of the conspiracies of Benedict Arnold and numerous others, drawn from the secret service papers of the British Headquarters in North America.

REBELS AND REDCOATS by Scheer and Rankin is a vivid history. Two expert craftsmen, Henry Steele Commander and Richard B. Morris, have given unity, pace, and drama to the multi-faceted story of the revolution in their two volume edition of THE SPIRIT OF SEVENTY-SIX, the story as told by participants.

The library's youngest readers will enjoy the story of GEORGE WASHINGTON by Ingri and Edgar D'Aulaire. There is also a Washington biography written especially for the 10-12 year-olds. These patrons will also want to read F. van Wyck Mason's THE WINTER AT VALLEY FORGE and SCOUTING FOR WASHINGTON by Donaldson. THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION by Bruce Lancaster is a vivid account of the struggle for liberty and Lee J. Ames's illustrations add dramatic action to the text.

For the Jr. High group there is PAUL REVERE AND THE MINUTE MEN and THEY SIGNED FOR US, the dramatic story of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. An outstanding series in this teen-age section of your library is by Chester S. Williams, specialist in conference planning, U. S. Office of Education. Mr. Williams's books concern our freedoms and are RELIGIOUS LIBERTY, RIGHT OF FREE SPEECH, LIBERTY OF THE PRESS, and FAIR TRIAL.

Exercise your right to read-visit Scurry County Library often.

OUR VIEW

British Labor Party

THE CORPUS CHRISTI TIMES

Most American criticism of the British Labor Party has centered on its socialistic views on domestic affairs. Actually it differs little in that respect from the Conservative Party now in power, which is considerably to the left of the Democratic Party in the United States.

Those responsible for American foreign policy, both in Congress and the administration, are far more justifiably concerned over the strong pacifist element in the British Labor Party. It is feared that a Labor Party victory in the coming general elections in Britain would swing that major U. S. ally toward peace-at-any price appeasement to weaken the whole NATO structure.

That anxiety will not be greatly relieved by the recent party-policy victory of Hugh Gaitskell, Labor's premier designate, and Nye Bevan, who would be foreign secretary in a Labor government. They have, at least temporarily, overcome the groups in the trades unions and the parliamentary Labor minority who blindly insist that Britain should end nuclear tests and undertake nuclear disarmament alone if international agreement in that direction cannot be obtained.

The Labor pacifists' demands, however idealistic, are blindly reckless, but their influence has been strong enough to move the Conservative Macmillan government to be more conciliatory toward the Soviet Union than appears safe in the general American view. Their influence would be even stronger on a Labor government, even though they did not dominate it. That is why Washington will no doubt lean in hope toward a Conservative election.

Economic Panel Aids In Politics

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—The President's Cabinet committee on price stability for economic growth may serve an economic purpose. It also has a very useful political value for the Republican party.

This group, appointed by President Eisenhower last Jan. 31, produced a report Sunday after months of meditation. It cautioned against the dangers of inflation and made some recommendations for fighting it.

What it proposed was what Eisenhower himself already had proposed to Congress earlier in the year.

This was hardly unusual. The President's committee, made up of his own hand-picked right-hand men, would hardly have made recommendations contrary to his own.

The group, headed by Vice President Richard M. Nixon, is composed of members of his Cabinet, plus his top economic adviser Raymond J. Saulnier, plus one outside economist, W. Allen Wallis.

Wallis himself described the report as "no bombshell." He is dean of the Business School of the University of Chicago and is the Cabinet committee's executive director.

It is questionable whether any could be considered as objective and nonpolitical as recommendations by a committee of outside economists.

Eisenhower, ever since the 1958 election campaign in which the Democrats in Congress won one of their biggest victories, has hammered away at the dangers of inflation and big spending that would unbalance the budget.

He resumed the theme the day after the elections and has pursued it steadily. At the beginning of this Congress the Democrats sounded as if they contemplated much bigger programs than Eisenhower had in mind.

Either they came around to his thinking or his anti-inflation crusade made the congressional Democrats self-conscious. Whatever the reason, they have been trimming their programs more or less to meet his desires.

As Eisenhower pointed out in a foreword to the committee's report, what it recommends is what he has already suggested. Nevertheless, the report serves a purpose.

By echoing Eisenhower, it provides just that much more publicity for his ideas. It gives him the benefit of the Cabinet's public approval, although he hardly needed that, and it is added pressure on the Democrats to follow Eisenhower.

If inflation gets out of hand, the repeated Republican warnings against it will give them a political issue in the presidential elections of 1960. The Democrats, of course, will have something to say about Republican anti-inflation practices as opposed to theory.

By that time the voter—caught up in the economic arguments of both sides—should be completely confused.

Briefly, the presidential committee called for balancing the budget, removing the interest ceiling on government bonds, and making price stability "an explicit goal of federal economic policy."

The committee so closely followed the presidential line that it lifted the quoted phrase in the preceding paragraph right out of the President's economic report to Congress last January.

Like the President, the Cabinet is against price controls as such, pointing out that in time this would lead to wage controls, too.

Perhaps the most interesting part of the report is not what it said but what it promised the committee would look into in later reports.

For instance, it will explore proposals to use the federal government's antitrust powers against monopolies in both labor and management, as well as the breaking down of wage bargaining into smaller units.

Big Firms Have Bigger Problems

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Do the biggest companies fare better in bad times than the small ones? Most persons probably think so. Certainly the giants seem to have the better staying power. And their rebound in good times is likely to be more impressive.

But records of the biggest corporations during 1958—year both of recession and recovery—show their sales and profits shrank by a greater percentage than the average and by more than the smallest. The big boys had farther to fall and many of them tumbled quite a way down the slope.

Also, none of the 10 industrial firms with the largest sales and profits was among the 10 companies with highest return on invested capital or with highest sales per dollar of invested capital, and only two were among the top 10 in return on sales.

Revenues of the 50 biggest industrials fell 8.2 per cent in 1958 from 1957 and net profits were off 20.8 per cent. By comparison, sales of the 500 largest industrials were down 6.1 per cent and profits off 17.8 per cent, while all other industrial firms showed a combined decline in sales of 3.6 per cent, although profits slipped 20 per cent.

Compiling these figures, Fortune magazine asks and answers this question: "Is corporate bigness a moderating force during major swings in the economy? The answer, apparently, is no."

In profits the 10 top industrials, in order, are General Motors, Jersey Standard, Oil, Du Pont, Gulf Oil, Texaco, U.S. Steel, California Standard Oil, General Electric, Socony Mobil Oil and Bethlehem Steel. But if communications are included, American Telephone & Telegraph would top GM.

In sales the top 10 industrials are, in order, GM, Jersey Standard, Ford, GE, U.S. Steel, Socony Mobil, Gulf, Swift, Texaco and Western Electric. Again, if communications and merchandizing firms are included, A T & T would be third, A & P fourth, and Sears, Roebuck eighth.

In assets A T & T outrins the industrials. The top 10 of the latter alone in order: Jersey Standard, GM, U.S. Steel, Gulf, Socony Mobil, Texaco, GE, Du Pont, Indiana Standard Oil and California Standard Oil.

By adding merchandizing and communication companies to industrials listed on its board, the New York Stock Exchange reports that 46 firms in 1958 had sales of one billion dollars or more. Two on this list in 1957 fell off, but two additions balanced it out.

Looking at the top 500 industrials, Fortune finds three that increased net profits more than fourfold last year (Morrell, Oliver Corp., and Solar Aircraft). Fifty gained by 25 per cent or more. Higher sales were reported by 216.

Industrial groups doing particularly well last year were: Food, up 4.1 per cent in sales and 8.2 per cent in profits; and tobacco, up 10.2 per cent in sales and 20.7 per cent in profits.

Auto, aircraft and shipbuilding companies taken as a group tumbled the most in profits, down 37.3 per cent, with sales off 13.9 per cent.

Columnist's Mail Still Productive

Cultural note: Americans bought more new books in 1958 than the entire human race owned 100 years ago. For some reason more people will buy a book in a yellow cover than in any other color. But I prefer red jackets myself.

'Tain't so that most opera stars are sissies. Elaine Malbin, the petite soprano, works out in a gym almost daily. She can do 25 push-ups without a pause. Most sopranos of previous generations couldn't do five push-ups, even with the help of a baritone and two tenors.

Sunday Punch Keeps White Sox Near Top

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

What a difference a day makes—especially if the day is Sunday.

Ask the Chicago White Sox who have won 12 out of 17 on the first day of the week. Because of Sunday, they're in second place, only one game behind the American League-leading Cleveland Indians. Without Sunday, they'd be in sixth place with a .500 percentage.

Ask the New York Yankees who have won only seven out of 21 on that day. Because of Sunday, they're in fifth place, four games off the pace. Without Sunday, they'd be in first place with a .580 percentage.

The Sunday sign prevailed again Sunday as the White Sox inflicted a double defeat on the Yankees, 9-2 and 4-2 to capture the series three game to one.

Despite the double victory, Chicago failed to pick up ground on the Indians, who swept a pair from Boston 5-4 and 1-0. Detroit climbed past the Yankees into fourth place with a 7-2 triumph over Baltimore and Washington climbed into sixth place with a 7-3 victory over the Kansas City Athletics.

In the National League, Milwaukee protected its one-game margin over Los Angeles, nipping Chicago's Cubs 2-1 while the Dodgers won their seventh straight, 9-4 over Pittsburgh. San Francisco whipped Philadelphia 4-0 and the St. Louis Cardinals dumped Cincinnati twice, 9-7 and 11-8.

A pair of veteran right-handers, Early Wynn and Dick Donovan pitched the White Sox to their two triumphs over the Yankees. Wynn went the distance, spacing nine hits in the opener for his 11th victory of the year and the 260th of his career. The Sox supported him with a four-homer barrage against Whitey Ford and Jim Coates. The four-baggers were hit by Al Smith, Sherm Lollar, Earl Battey and Bubba Phillip.

Lollar also hit a home run in the second game, a three-run blast off loser Don Larsen in the first inning. That was sufficient for Donovan to register his fifth victory although he needed help from Turk Lown in the ninth.

It was the fifth Sunday this year that the Yankees have been dealt a double defeat and the third in a row.

Sunday also has been a big day for Charlie Maxwell of Detroit. The left-handed hitting outfielder clubbed his 16th home run with a man on base in the third inning. It was the ninth time Maxwell has homered on Sunday and it helped the Tigers overcome an early Baltimore lead.

Don Mossi pitched a six-hitter for his sixth victory. The loss, charged to Milt Pappas, dropped the third-place Orioles 2½ games off the pace.

Yanks, Cats Tied For Lead In GPL

A win by the second place Yanks and loss by the first place Cats threw the Graduate Pony League lead into a two-way tie for first between the two teams Saturday night as the league had its first no-hitter.

The Cats were shut out by the third place Buffs 2-0, while the Yankees downed the Braves 4-2.

Freddie Miller gave up three hits and three walks while striking out three of the Cats in the win for the Buffs. Loser Ben Greenfield allowed five hits, walked eight and fanned four.

The two Buff runs came in the fourth when Jerry Bullard and Miller both walked. Another walk by David Kee loaded the bases, and Skip Franklin singled to drive the first two in.

A no-hitter was hurled at the Braves by Yankee pitcher John Weaver, who struck out nine and walked eight. Weaver walked in the first run for the Braves in the first, and a walk in the fifth resulted in another run.

Jerry Fleming struck out six and gave up six bases on balls in the game.

The score was knotted 2-2 in the bottom of the sixth when the Yanks got their last two runs. Fleming walked in those runs by Patterson and Charles Gladson.

Dodgers Hike Lead In Pony

The Dodgers added strength to their Pony League lead in a Saturday makeup game by knocking down the third place Phillies 5-3.

The Dodgers came from behind late in the game for the win. They were behind 3-2 when, in the sixth inning, Lupe Lopez doubled and Malcolm Bolger walked, getting home on errors.

Lopez again doubled in the seventh, bringing in Benny Minor. The Phillies also got one extra-base hit, a double by Luke Nigliazzo in the third.

Kenny Wellborn, winning hurler, went the last four innings of the game, giving up one hit while walking one and striking out three. Keith Moreland had started the game, allowing three hits and four walks, striking out five.

Loser Pat LaFountain went the route for five hits, five bases on balls and four strikeouts.

Phils Tired Of Antonelli

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Don't be surprised if the Philadelphia Phils pull a disappearing act the next time they're scheduled to face Johnny Antonelli.

The San Francisco Giant southpaw thrives on them. His 7-hitter Sunday was good for a 6-0 victory, seventh straight over the Phils. They haven't whipped him since Aug. 11, 1957, and it took a three-hitter by Jack Sanford, now a Giant, to do it. Antonelli beat the Phils earlier this month, 2-1 on another 7-hitter.

The shutout was the fifth for San Francisco over the last place Phils this season. It left the Giants in third place, two games behind league-leading Milwaukee, one game behind second place Los Angeles. It was Antonelli's 11th victory.

Antonelli's 11-4 record contrasts with an 8-5 mark at the same time last year. He's gone the distance in seven victories.

He was 16-13 last season and has had two 20 game seasons, in 1954 and 1956.

American LL Race Tightens Up Here

The last place team closed the gap a little more in the standing of the already-tight American Little League race here Saturday night in a makeup game.

The Yankees, last place team in the league, scalped the Indians, 5-4 to knock the Indians, who had been out front alone, into a tie with the White Sox for first place.

In the National League, the Cubs continued to dominate with a 3-0 shutout of the last place Giants.

The Indians, after gaining a 2-1 lead during the first full inning, were behind when the Yanks exploded with four runs in the second. The Yanks got their first run in the first when David Pace got on base with a double and was brought on home Leslie Brown's single. Their four runs in the second included one on David Pace's single, one on Rayburn White's single, and two on Brown's single.

Blake Roberts brought in all the Indian runs, two of them on his single in the first. There was one on base when he homered in the fifth. Jerry Smedley doubled in the sixth for the Indians, but the team's try fizzled out with Smedley on base.

Danny Stokes pitched the win. Going four innings, he gave up three hits, walked one and struck out two. His relief, Ronny Bates, allowed three hits, walked none and struck out two. Loser was Ramon Valdez, who went three innings for six hits, one base on balls and four strikeouts. Roberts, hurling the last two, allowed two hits and no walks while fanning five.

Jerry Vestal held the Giants to two hits in the Cubs' shutout while the winners were collecting five hits off Eddie Greenfield. Vestal also walked only one and struck out seven. Greenfield fanned nine and walked none.

There was only one extra base hit in the game, that a double by Tom Kincaid in the first, which was not responsible for any runs. The Cub scoring came in the third when Drew Bullard got home on a passed ball, Vestal on a single by Kincaid, and Kincaid on Bill Atwood's single.

AA Leaders Widen Gaps

By The Associated Press

Minneapolis and Fort Worth extended their division leads in the American Association by sweeping doubleheaders Sunday night.

Nipping last-place Charleston 3-2 and 5-4, the Minneapolis Millers pulled six full games ahead of Louisville and Indianapolis in the Eastern Division. Fort Worth clawed Houston 4-0 and 7-2.

Indianapolis and St. Paul had little trouble winning both ends of their doubleheaders. The Indians wallopped Denver 15-0 and 9-4 while the Saints used good pitching and hitting to humble 7-5, 8-2.

Omaha spoiled Dallas' evening by blanking the Rangers 4-0 and 2-0 as Frank Barnes and Dean Stone hurled 3-hitters. The losses dropped Dallas into third place in the Western Division standings.

Johansson's Win Revitalizes Boxing

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Ingemar Johansson's brilliant conquest of the world heavyweight championship has brought a refreshing change to boxing.

It's as welcome as a cool breeze on a hot, humid night.

For the first time in years, the heavyweight champion is a man who calls his own shots, knows his own mind, makes decisions and won't tolerate dictation.

Rocky Marciano and Floyd Patterson were gripped in Svengali-trilby relationships by their managers, Al Weill and Cus D'Amato. Rocky resented and finally rebelled against his portly manager's dictatorial methods and that finally led to their break.

Patterson, up to now, has expressed gratitude and unswerving loyalty to D'Amato for guiding him to the title.

Johansson relies heavily on the opinions of Edwin Ahlquist, Swedish promoter and Dr. Gosta Karlsson, his personal physician. But Ingo has the final word.

His father, Jens, a 55-year-old stonecutter and street laborer, is listed as his manager in Europe. Ingemar signed his own contract in New York for the Patterson fight after the New York Athletic Commission refused to permit Harry Davidow, a close friend of D'Amato, to be his 10 per cent manager.

Johansson said he had to cut in Davidow to get his chance at the title. He was delighted when the commission took him off the spot.

Ingemar's independence and toughness are not evidenced by his casual, affible exterior.

He came up the hard way. One of six children of a humble family, Ingo quit school and went to work on street construction gangs at 15. He entered amateur boxing about the same time, and rose to his nation's amateur heavyweight championship at 17. He became the European heavyweight champion in 1956, and three years later won the world crown.

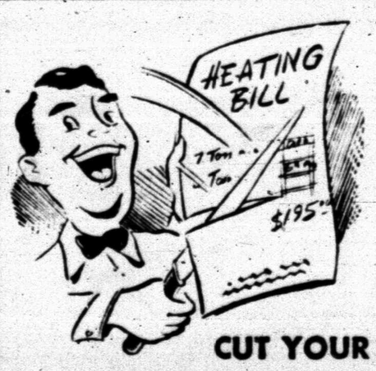

While he was moving up in the pro ranks, Ingo put his ring earnings into an earth-moving, gravel and dirt selling business. As he moved up in the pro ranks, his business grew bigger.

But always, he says, "boxing game first. That's where I got my money."

Democrats See Victory In Hawaii

By [illegible]

[illegible] (AP) — Democrats [illegible] of Hawaii's primary [illegible] next month.

They contended that the big Democratic vote was the forerunner of a sweep that would send three of their four to Congress and elect a Democratic governor and Legislature.

Republicans were quick to answer that GOP candidates ran unopposed in the nominating primary Saturday while Democrats engaged in vote-drawing contests. Thus, said the Democratic outpouring was expected.

Some GOP leaders nevertheless conceded that the party would be the underdog in the Aloha State's first election July 28.

Both parties turned to campaigning in the wake of the primary and a simultaneous statehood plebiscite in which Hawaiians voted approval of statehood by a whopping 17 to 1 margin.

The 132,938 yes votes so dwarfed the 7,854 votes against statehood that [illegible] exceeded even the most optimistic predictions.

The primary voting produced three candidates of Japanese or Chinese ancestry out of the six nominated for Hawaii's two Senate seats and one in the House of Representatives. At least one of the trio appears certain to go to Congress.

Democrats nominated Frank F. Fasi, 38, and former Hawaii governor Oren E. Long, 70, for the Senate.

Fasi, a territorial senator, scored a major upset by beating Chinese-American William H. Heen, 76, who had served 32 years in the territorial Senate and had come out retirement to seek the nomination.

Fasi polled 46,868 votes to 31,307 for Heen.

Hiram L. Fong, 52, a wealthy businessman of Chinese descent, ran unopposed for the Republican nomination and drew 42,396 votes. He will oppose Fasi for one Senate seat.

Long registered 61,625 votes to overwhelm two Democratic aspirants in the nominating contest.

His Republican opponent for the other Senate seat will be Japanese American Wilfred C. Tsukiyama, 62, veteran territorial senator who gathered 30,700 votes running unopposed in the primary.

For Hawaii's lone House seat Democrats nominated territorial Senator Daniel K. Inouye, 34, a decorated war veteran and lawyer who lost an arm serving with the famed "go for broke" all-Nisei regimental combat team in World War II.

Inouye received 36,787 votes to outdistance another Japanese American, Mrs. Patsy Takemoto Mink, 31, who trailed with 21,802.

Inouye will be opposed by Republican Charles H. Silva, Hawaii Department of Institutions director, who collected 38,315 votes running unopposed for the Republican nomination.

The Democratic camp drew much of its optimism from the showing of John A. Burns, delegate to Congress, in winning the party nomination for governor. Burns, 50, amassed 69,152 votes to 7,828 for Edward J. Hitchcock. His vote total was well ahead of the 49,431 received by Eisenhower-appointed Governor William F. Quinn, running unopposed for the Republican nomination.

John Osborne Rated Britain's Top Rogue

LONDON (AP) — In this kingdom of convention, cold toast, pageantry and polite manners, playwright John Osborne stands out like a young rogue camel running amok in a peaceful oasis.

With his long upper lip, supercilious smile and snooty tilt to his handsome head, Osborne even looks like a dromedary.

Not surprisingly, he drives the natives nuts with his literary thrashing.

Listen to the 29-year-old Osborne on several subjects:

The Church—"During the past 50 years the Church has repeatedly ducked every moral issue that has been thrown at its head — poverty, unemployment, fascism, war, South Africa, the H-bomb and so on. It has lived in an atmosphere of calm, casual funk."

On the Royal Family—"Nobody can seriously pretend that the royal round of gracious boredom —the ancient fatuity—is politically useful or morally stimulating."

The British Broadcasting Corp. —"Staffed by highly trained palace lackeys with graveyard voices and ponderous language, as nourishing and useful as wax fruit under a glass case."

Prime Minister Harold MacMillan's Conservative party — "A class of inept deceivers, full of arrogance, whose testing of the H-bomb was the most debased criminal swindle in British history."

On the Labor party—"Socialism is about people living together, and the sooner the leaders of the Labor party stop arguing about sugar and cement and wake up to the fact the better."

On Britain, his homeland — "We live in an island of sanctimony, without any vital culture of our own — this we are forced to borrow from America — without any moral dynamic of our own, and still responding to the same tired, grubby symbols handed out to us by the deadheads who write political manifestos, make films and produce plays."

When Osborne's latest and most ambitious play, "The World of Paul Slickey," dropped its curtain on opening night, it was booed, hissed—and applauded.

As the elegantly dressed Osborne left the theater by a side door, he as greeted by a blast of boos.

"I must be the first English playwright to have been booed in the streets," he observed.

John Osborne is a highly sensitive young man of considerable talent with a knack for stinging dissent.

His father was a commercial artist who died when John was quite young. The boy and his mother were very poor. At one time they existed on less than $3 a week.

When a schoolmaster slapped young Osborne for what he thought was insolence, the lad slapped him back. He was kicked out of school.

Three years ago he was a wifeless, out-of-work actor, the author of several plays which few had liked and none had accepted.

Then he hit with a bundle of bitterness called "Look Back in Anger."

It made a big noise in London. In New York the play also enjoyed success.

Osborne followed this up with "The Entertainer." Sir Laurence Olivier actually asked to play the role of Archie Rice in the play.

This was followed by "Epitaph for George Dillon" and finally "The World of Paul Slickey."

In the three years since "Look Back," Osborne became a relatively rich man with a beautiful actress wife, Mary Ure. He lives in luxurious rooms and drives a long, sleek sportscar.

In his plays, moneymaking is one of the most destructive habits his characters can acquire. But he's making it so fast that he has five companies.

"Of course I enjoy money," he says. "Anyone who says he doesn't is a fool."

Osborne says he's tired of being called an angry young man.

"They're just sitting around waiting for me to become corrupted. They even criticize me for wearing better clothes than when I was penniless."

Honeymoon In Bomb Shelter

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A couple to wed Sunday will spend a sheltered honeymoon — in an underground bomb shelter — for the greater glory of civil defense and shelter manufacturers.

Then they'll have a more orthodox wedding trip at the expense of bomb shelter manufacturers who induced them to spend their first two weeks together 10 feet below North Miami.

Kelley Geiger, 25, a University of Miami Russian major, and Nancy Bellmyre, 23, a dance band singer, plan to climb down through the hatch of the 8-by-14-foot steel and concrete shelter after their wedding and reception.

The comforts of home below will include beds, a variety of canned food, powdered milk, drink-flavoring tablets, checkers and cards.

Geiger said something has to be done to dramatize civil defense.

Driver Killed When Truck Explodes

ST. MARY, Mont. (AP) — A huge gasoline truck hurled out of control down a mountain highway for a half-mile Sunday, crashing at the edge of this resort town in a spectacular explosion.

The truck's driver, Floyd B. Cole, 28, was killed.

Both trailers of the 36-ton truck, carrying 6,850 gallons of diesel fuel, exploded as it smashed into a row of gasoline pumps.

Deputy Sheriff W. E. Stillwell said the truck's brakes apparently failed.

Find Marker Near Mystery Bomber

WIESBADEN, Germany (AP) — Discovery of a marker trail pointing north over the Libyan Desert has spurred the search for the remains of nine crewmen of a U. S. bomber which crashed in World War II.

The trail was found by a U. S. Army mortuary team which has searched across some 200 square miles of sand in the past three weeks. The team's next objective was the remains of about 10 persons several miles beyond the end of the trail.

The search was launched after a team of British geologists found the almost undamaged B24 Liberator on hard-packed sand. The bomber, identified as the "Lady Be Good" from Bengasi, apparently had made an unmanned belly landing on its return from a bombing raid against Naples, Italy, April 3, 1943.

The logbook recounting the flight, flight gear, fatigue clothing and full water jugs were in their original places inside the plane. It was believed the plane was damaged in the raid and the crew parachuted into the desert, then perished in an attempt to walk to civilization.

The mortuary team found the marker trail about 20 miles north of the plane. It ran another 24 miles northward, ending at a crossing of old desert tracks.

The trail was made of boots, parachutes and other flight equipment weighted down with small stones and pointing carefully north. After more than 16 years in the hot, dry Libyan Desert, the gear was virtually intact.

The tracks at the crossing were made by five Italian vehicles which tried to cross the desert during the war. Three were abandoned and two made it to the coast.

Reports from Bengasi said the remains of about 10 persons lie near the abandoned vehicles. It had been assumed they were Italian soldiers, but the mortuary crew said they could be the American bomber crewmen who are still carried on U. S. records as missing in action.

Kansas City Papers Back In Operation

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — A 10-day strike against the Kansas City Star and the Kansas City Kansan ended Sunday when striking printers accepted two-year contracts.

The Star resumed publication today with an 18-page edition of its morning Times. The newspaper, which contained no paid advertising, summarized news events since the paper was shut down June 18 and brought readers up to date on comic strips.

Members of local 80 of the international typographical union voted 285-94 to accept the contract, which replaces agreements that expired last Sept. 30.

Key issue in the strike was a union demand for higher holiday pay. The printers had sought 7½ hours of double time pay for 5 hours work on six recognized holidays. Under the new contract, they will work a 5-hour holiday at double time. Printers whose normal days off fall on any of the holidays, and who do not work, will receive 5 hours pay at straight time.

The work week will remain at 37½ hours. The union had sought a reduction to 36¼ hours.

Pay increase of $3 weekly retroactive to Oct. 1, 1958, will boost the scale to $123.50 a week for day workers and $129 for night workers. A $4-a-week increase will go into effect next Oct. 1.

Another clause provides that printers required to serve on juries will receive from the company the difference between jury pay and their regular wage.

Terry Moore Honeymoons

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actress Terry Moore and her third husband, wealthy socialite businessman Stuart Cramer III, began a honeymoon today aboard his yacht off the California coast.

They were married Sunday night at the Church of the Hills in Forest Lawn Memorial Park. About 100 friends of both families attended the ceremony.

Bishop John Bernhardt of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints officiated.

Miss Moore is 29 and Cramer 34.

Following a reception at the home of her parents, the couple left form Cramer's 55-foot yacht, Kirawan. They plan to live in Beverly Hills.

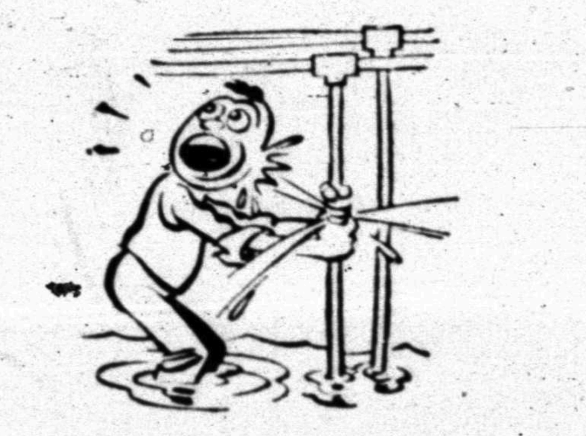

Miss Moore was previously married to West Point football star Glenn Davis and Panamanian businessman Eugene McGrath. Cramer was married briefly to actress Jean Peters.

The surprise ceremony caught most of the Hollywood colony off guard. No film notables were present.

SNYDER BUSINESS NEWS

BONUS IN RCA WHIRLPOOL—There is a bonus for anyone who chooses a piece of household furnishings from the display above at Mixon Tire & Supply Co., Twenty-fifth Street and Avenue J. It is in the quality and price of the RCA Whirlpool appliances for the home. The high standards of quality in RCA Whirlpool is enhanced by the fact that Jim Mixon, owner, is offering special reductions in price now. (Lee Watson photograph)

Mixon's Displays Top Appliances

Do you need a new refrigerator or range?

That's a question which leaves almost any housewife at a loss for an answer — except when she has recently viewed the wide array of appliances including all sizes of refrigerators in the RCA Whirlpool line of appliances on display in Mixon Tire & Supply Co., Twenty-fifth Street at Avenue J.

Featured in Mixon's display is the RCA Whirlpool line of appliances including all sizes of refrigerators in both gas and electric models.

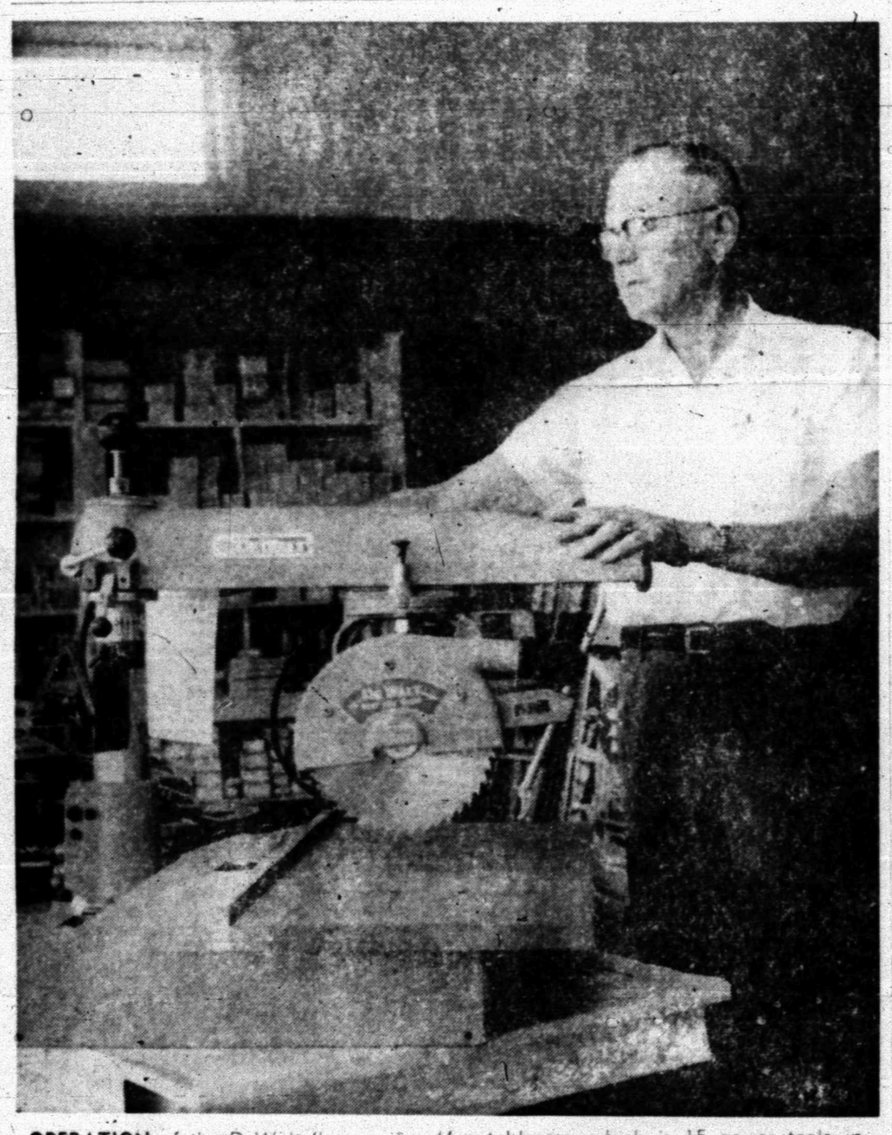

Another featured line is the RCA Whirlpool line of ranges in both gas and electric with the "burner with a brain."

Those are not the only featured lines. Mixon is also featuring the RCA Whirlpool washer and dryer units at a price of only $469 with a washer tradein.

These are only a few of the items Mixon is now offering in this area. An exceptional — and unusual — item is the portable yard light which regularly sells for $7.69, but is now selling for only $5.99. The light is exceptional in that it may be used as a stationary light to illuminate the front or back yard, or be moved to any spot desired merely by pulling the pole from the ground. The light is mounted on a slim pole that sticks into the ground at any desired spot.

However, if you are thinking more of an inside type appliance, Mixon's RCA Whirlpool refrigerators are now offered at prices any budget can afford. For instance, the 10-foot refrigerator is selling for only $239 plus an old refrigerator as trade in.

But probably the most enticing item in the entire line is the RCA Whirlpool Ice-Magic refrigerators which produce ice cubes automatically, always supplying a full tray, and with a built-in ice water spiggot.

OPERATION of the DeWalt "power shop," a table saw which is 15 power tools in one, is easy, and even the inexperienced person can do perfect jobs easily, says Turner Beard, manager of Forrest Builders Supply. Forrest, selling the DeWalt for the regular price of $239, is offering $50 in materials free with the saw. (Lee Watson photograph)

Power Tools Featured At Forrest Builders Supply

When a special value is offered by Forrest Builders Supply, 210 Twenty-fifth Street, you can be sure it is a value.

Latest of the specials of Forrest is one beginning this week. The firm is putting a limited number of the well-known and much wanted DeWalt three-quarter horse power all-purpose table saws in a special sale.

Sold everywhere for $239, the saw is being sold now by Forrest Builders for the same amount but with the purchase of the saw Forrest will offer more than $50 in the saw. Each customer buying one of the saws will get $50 worth of material at Forrest Builders of his own choosing.

These will be sold on a first come, first-served basis," Turner Beard, manager of the firm, said.

Beard said the special is being offered so the saws can be moved out to make room for new DeWalt saws. DeWalt, long far ahead of other saws on the market, seldom changes models because the saws are so well perfected, but the company is coming out this year with an improved model.

The DeWalt power saw is one to be desired both by the carpenter and the do-it-yourself fan. It is the one versatile power tool that will do perfect work every time.

The saw will cross-cut, miter, rip, bevel cut, bevel miter, bevel rip, dado, plough, rabbet, shape, route and tenon.

It is 15 power tools in one. A radial power saw, it outmodes any single-purpose swing saw. A tilt arbor saw, it moves when the builder wants to change the type of cut and the material always stays straight. It is unlimited in the shaping work it will do.

The tool can be used as a disc sander, as a horizontal drill, as a surfacer, as a grinder, a metal cutter, a drum sander or as a buffer polisher.

The tool is also a 12-inch lathe with four different turning speeds and giving a 36-inch capacity between centers. A jointer, it puts a straight edge on lumber up to two inches thick. As a saber saw, it does accurate inside or outside curve work on wood and many other materials.

Every DeWalt is "job tested" at the factory before shipment so it will be delivered in perfect working condition. It is so packaged that the buyer can set up and start work within 10 minutes after uncrating.

The DeWalt "power shop" is the home owner's model of the world-famous DeWalt woodworking machine which has been on the market since 1922. DeWalt has brought the benefits and precision of professional woodworking to the point where it can be in every home at low cost.

Beard invited residents of this area to stop by Forrest Builders and try the saw before buying. Every move of the saw will prove you can do perfect work every time.

Pair Praised By Johnson

DALLAS (AP) — Democratic Reps. Joe Kilgore and Frank Ikard of Texas are playing a large part in bettering relations with our neighbors in the north and south, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) said yesterday.

Johnson praised the men on his weekly radio broadcast over Texas stations.

Kilgore, from McAllen, is one of 24 Congressmen and 24 members of the Mexican Congress named to a commission which will discuss what Johnson called "significant common problems of both countries."

Ikard, of Wichita Falls, is a member of a Senate-House commission appointed to work on what Johnson said are "economic problems now existing in this nation and Canada."

"It would be easy to forget the opportunities and responsibilities that await to the north and the south," Johnson said. "Frank Ikard and Joe Kilgore are two members of Congress who have recognized this fact."

Johnson said the two men "know that the future growth and economic security of our nation is tied to expanding trade with two g-r-e-a-t neighboring countries — Canada and Mexico."

Kilgore, he noted, sponsored the bill while a member of the Legislature which made the Texas Good Neighbor Commission a permanent state agency.
