VOLUME 3 — WELLINGTON, (Collingsworth County,) TEXAS, FRIDAY, MAY 10, 1912. — NUMBER 41

GOV. O. B. COLQUITT TO SPEAK HERE NEXT TUESDAY, MAY 14 AT 3 P. M.

Our Citizens Will Make Appropriate and Necessary Arrangements to Royally Entertain the Governor of Our Great State.

A Big Attendance is Expected—Come.

On next Tuesday May the 14th at 3 o'clock p. m., the people of Wellington and Collingsworth county will have the pleasure of hearing Governor Colquitt deliver an address upon the political issues of the day. He is making a tour of this section, and will arrive here from Memphis about 2 p. m. It matters not whether you are favorable to Gov. Colquitt for re-election to the most high position which he holds or not, you should be fairminded enough to come out and hear what he has to say. And then he is the Governor of this, the grandest state in the union; he is our governor, and besides will be the first Governor of Texas to visit Wellington and Collingsworth county, and for this reason alone we should all come together for the purpose of meeting and hearing what our Governor has to say. We therefore urge every man in this county to be on hand and assist in giving this most distinguished guest a royal reception. In fact we feel so sure that every man, woman and child in this county who can, be on hand, that we predict the largest gathering in this city at that time, ever before witnessed.

Rail Road Officials Here.

Our city was paid a visit one day this week by quite a number of officials of the Wichita & Northwestern and the M. K. & T., including E. P. Swenson, a New York millionaire. In the praty were J. A. Kemp and Frank Kell of the North Western, C. E. Schaff, the new president of the M. K. & T., Frank Trumbull of the M. K. & T., C. L. Fontaine general gassenger agent of the Northwestern.

These men, especially Mr. Swenson spoke in glowing terms of our splendid country; making the declaration that he had seen no better country, and that the opportunities here were indeed great.

Mother's Day.

Wear a white flower next Sunday. Or should you be away from your mother, do more; write her a letter of love and endearment. It will cheer and do her good. Should it happen that the mother has passed to her reward, why do homage to to her memory and wear the White flower. It was a happy thought that advanced the idea of inaugurating one day in the year to be observed at "Mother's Day" and even more fitting that the selection of this day should be the Sabbath. The white flower signifies purity, and he who wears it in observing this day evidences his heart and sentiments are right and it is to be hoped that the day will be observed in Wellington and the coat lappel of every mother's son will be adorned with the emblem of purity.

Married at Eldorado.

Mr. Harve Wiles of this city and Miss Ollie Butler of Eldorado, Oklahoma, were happily united in marriage at the home of the latter on April 25th, and after a lengthy honey-moon trip arrived in this city on last Sunday. The bride is a sister to Mrs. Dr. Wilkins, and has visited in Wellington quite a little, and has made many admiring friends here. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wiles formerly of this city, and has been reared to manhood among the people of this city, and has a host of friends who congratulate him on his success in winning for a life partner the hand of one so fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiles upon their arrival here, immediately went to house keeping in the handsomely furnished home in the east part of the city, which the groom had previously prepared. We extend best wishes to this most happy couple.

A Fine Rain.

A splendid rain fell at Wellington Thursday afternoon, and from all reports seem to have been pretty general all over the county. The precipitation here was about two inches. Some hail accompanied the rain but was not sufficients to do damage to growing crops. While the country was not suffering for the want of moisture, yet the rain came at an opporutne time to keep all manner of vegetation booming and the crop prospects here were never better at this season of the year. Childress reports the best rain in three years.

A Statement.

In the issue of the Wellington Leader of May 3rd, there was a statement by the editor to the effect that he was informed that I have stated that the editor of the Leader was supporting me privately and publicly. I wish to state to the public that I made no such statement and the only statement I ever made about the matter was in the following exact and identical words.

"There are only three papers in the entire district that are not supporting me. One of these papers is published in the home of my opponent, but the editor of that paper is not unfriendly to my race." You see that I did not say that the editor was supporting me.

That statement was made in the plain hearing of my opponent at Lipscomb, Texas, on Monday night, April 22nd.

Respectfully
W. A. Palmer,
Canadian, Texas.

A Boy and a Girl.

Our friend J. W. Spencer, who resides a few miles northeast, was in the city one day this week and we noticed that he seemed to be a little more jolly than usual, and upon inquiry as to the cause, was informed that it was all because of the late arrivals of twins, a boy and a girl, at his home, and after being thus informed we were not surprised at his unusual manner.

A Bad Accident.

While handling an old discarded pistol Wednesday of this week, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Thomas, who reside a short distance east of town, lost an eye by the explosion of a cartridge which the young man was endeavoring to place in the old gun. On Thursday morning the young man was brought to town and physicians removed the eye which was badly torn and damaged by the explosion. We deeply regret this sad occurance and it should certainly be a lesson to other youngsters to let such old weapons alone. At last reports the young man was resting nicely, and we sincerely trust he will soon recover.

Died in Mineral Wells.

I. U. Taber, for a number of years a citizen of this county, who has been in bad health most of the past winter, and who had gone to Mineral Wells a few weeks ago, thinking that he might get relief from his sufferings, died in that city last Sunday. The deceased's remains were shipped to this city for burial, arriving Tuesday, and the funeral taking place Wednesday afternoon at the new cemetery, in the presence of a host of friends and loved ones. A widow and several children are left to mourn his taking away, and to whom we extend deepest sympathy in this their saddest hour of bereavement.

Married at Early Dawn.

It was on last Sunday promptly at 5:00 o'clock, a. m. that Rev. A. L. Bowman, pastor of the Methodist church of this city pronounced the solemn words that bound together in holy wedlock, Mr. Dewitt Talmage Fears, of Altus, and Miss Ada Lee Bailey of this city, the wedding taking place at the home of the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bailey, in East Wellington. The groom is one of Altus' promising and hustling young business men and is indeed fortunate in winning for a life partner, the hand of one so fair and accomplished. The bride, although she has not resided in Wellington but a short time, has the esteem and good will of all with wnom she has become acquainted. The ceremonies were witnessed by the family and only a few close friends, and immediately after-which, the happy couple took the early morning train for Altus, their future home. We join a host of friends in wishing them much happiness and for perity through lifes jourr pros-ey.

A Nice Home.

Geo. W. McCauley of the Famous, let the contract last week to Messrs Glass and Davis for the erection of a splendid modern five-room residence located on his splendid building site northwest of the square. The contract calls for the best of workmanship as well as the best material, and when completed, will be one of the best and nicest homes in the city. It will be plastered throughout, finished in most excellent manner. We are indeed glad to see the number of new homes that are going up built, and that good work may contin rest the ue.

ACCORDING TO PRECINCT AND GOUNTY CONVENTIONS WILSON IS TEXAS' CHOICE

In Collingsworth County the Delegates to Both County and State Conventions Were Instructed for Woodrow Wilson, First, Last and all the Time. No Second Choice.

There were only two precincts in this county that held Presidential Preference conventions on last Saturday, and which were Wellington and Lillie, and each sent Wilson delegates to the county convention which met at the court house in this city Tuesday at 2:00 p. m. In the convention at Wellington Saturday, a hard effort was made by capable supporters of Hon. Champ Clark to capture the convention for him, but the Wilson men were too much in the majority and after a hard fought battle the delegates were all instructed for the New Jersey man.

In the county convention Tuesday, the delegates were instructed for Wilson first last and all the time. The delegates elected to the state convention were; R. H. Cocke Jr., and C. C. Small, with R. L. Templeton and T. F. McMillan as Alternates.

The results over the state as reported by the daily papers show a decided victory for Woodrow Wilson, and is about as follows:

Returns from Democratic county convention received and tabulated by The News up to 2 o'clock this morning bear out the indication of the precinct conventions by disclosing an overwhelming victory for Gov. Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey in the preferential csntest which closed in Texas yesterday.

Gov. Wilson will enter the State convention with more votes than enough to control the selection of the National delegates and to determine their instructions. It does not appear that combination of Harmon and Clark forces would or could affect this situation.

The vote at 2 o'clock this morning stood:

|---|---|
| Wilson | 333 5-6 |
| Harmon | 121 5-6 |
| Clark | 39 1-2 |
| Counties reporting | 184 |
| Counties yet to report | 61 |
| Necessary to control | 312 |

More About Dr. Norris.

Rev. J. Frank Norris, pastor of the First Baptist Church recently acquitted of perjusy in connection with testimony concerning the burning of his church building, is the victim of persons who are endeavoring to "put up a job on him," and the jury service of Tarrant county is in need of a rigid investigation, according to the charge which Judge Swayne of the Seventeenth district court gave to his grand jury, which began its deliberations Monday afternoon.

In his charge, which contains instructions of a sensational character, Judge Swayne declares that certain firms of attorneys are reputed to control juries of this county by means of influence and money. He instructs his jury to "investigate the lawyers here and see whether they are trying to do any such chicanery with the jurymen of Tarrant county," charging them if such is found to be the case, to return indictments against the offending attorneys. —Star Telegram

A Cattle Deal.

We are informed that W. D. Bailey & Son sold to E. W. Cocke this week, 100 head of cows and calves at satisfactory prices.

Rebuilding Home.

E. M. Hix who recently lost his home by fire is preparing to rebuild on the former site, a new and more commodious home. We are informed that the new structure is to be about five rooms, modernly constructed and well finished. We are glad to see this new home going up.

At M. E. Tabernacle.

The fifth grade of the Wellington High School will give an entertainment at the Methodist Tabernacle, Saturday night, May 11, 1912. A small admission of ten cents will be charged to pay for books and pictures.

Making Improvements.

Mr. J. C. Skaggs, is continueing to make more improvements on his already finely equipped and commodious wagon yard, and which when completed, will be one of the best in this part of the country; one that will be a credit to our town.

To Kansas City.

W. J. Seale and son, Robert, accompanied by H. A. Jones, of the Famous, left this week for Kansas City, where they will consult a specialist, in regard to the health of the young Mr. Seale.

Sheriff's Sale.

State of Texas, county of Collingsworth.

By virtue of a certain order of sale issued out of the Honorable District court of Collingsworth county, on the first day of May 1912. by Geo. W. Lee Clerk of said court against J. A. Barr for the sum of two thousand seventy six and 80-100 ($2,076.80) dollars and costs of suit, in cause No. 270 in said court, styled E. B. Blair et al versus J. A. Barr and placed in my hands for service, I, L. T. Sullivan as Sheriff of Collingsworth county, Texas, did. on the third day of May 1912 levy on certain Real Estate, situated in Collingsworth county, described as follows, to wit:

All the south-west 1-4 of section No. 57 in block No. 15 of the H. & G. N. Ry. Co. survey, in Collingsworth county, Texas, abstract 219, certificate 6—1077 and levied upon as the property of said J. A. Barr and on Tuesday, the 4th day of June 1912, at the Court House door of Collingsworth county, in the city of Wellington, Texas, between the hour of ten A. M. and four P. M. I will said real estate at puplic vendue, for cash, to the highest bidder, as the property of said J. A. Barr by virtue of said levy and said order of sale. And in compliance with law, I give this notice by publication, in the English language, once a week for three consecutive weeks immediately preceding said day of sale, in the Wellington Leader a newspaper published in Collingsworth county.

Witness my hand, this 3rd day of May 1912.

L. T. Sullivan
Sheriff Collingsworth county, Texas.

By J. G. Neece Deputy.

Notes on City Building.

Starting a business without capital is commencing something for some one else to finish.

Faith in your city will carry you over the rough places.

City knockers are nothing but pessimistic boosters.

Boosters accomplish at least two things; they increase the population and attract the attention of capital.

The growth of a city depends on several things. One is confidence.

A city may not become a big one but it can become a clean one.

Men ask of a city "Can I find work?" Capital ask "Can I find paying investments?"

600 Mexican Rebels.

Mexico City, May 6.—Fifteen hundred rebels who on last Friday occupied Cuatero Cienegas, were met and defeated by 400 Federals under Lieut. Col. Pablo Gonzales, between Cuatero Cienegas and Monolova yesterday.

The rebel dead numbered 600. The rebels fled in disorder toward Cuatero Cienegas.

The above is the substance of reports to President Madero today from the field of battle. The Federal loss was not made public.

Gen. Trucy Aubert, with forces said to number 3,000, is in Monclova and will take command of an attack to be made upon the rebels at Cuatero Cienegas.

OTHER HEAVY REBEL LOSSES.

Engagements with the rebels at Sinaloa are reported from Mocorito and Comadero. At Mocorito 800 rebels were defeated by the Federals and lost fifty-four dead and sixty-four prisoners. The Federal losses were small.

At Comadero the rebels lost over 100 dead and a large amount of ammunition.

Saving the Country.

Though low and humble is my station, I'll help to save this ailing nation. I wan't stir up a revolution by means of frenzied elocution, or load myself with facts and labor to bring conviction to my neighbor, or on the street do verbal capers, or write long letters to the papers. I'll do my task appointed daily, and do it cheerfully and gaily; I'll waste no time in idle raving, but carry to the bank my savings and pay my bills when they're presented and wear a mug serene, contented. I'll my shack supply with bacon, and waste no precious hours in quakin' o'er perils dark and dire that threatens, my little bungalow forgettin'. Some patriots on sidewalks sitting, may watch me tending to my knitting and say I'm full of sordid notions, incapable of high emotions. I ought to spend the day a-yelling, the loud blatant chorus swelling; I ought to whoop for Bill, already, or bust a gallus for our Teddy, but I'll just tear around the harder and rustle for my private larder, for that's one way to save the nation that should receive your admiration. —Walt Mason.

No candidate's name will be carried longer than thirty days, who has not paid his announcement fee.

Whenever a homesick easterner begins to think West Texas has a monopoly on the wind he needs to read a little about the sandstorms and cyclones that are occurring back in the tall timber. Some people are too ready, anyhow, to think they have more of this world's ills than anybody else. And if you will also notice carefully you will find that the very people who spend their very time in trying to corner the dood things of life are the ones who are most unhappy. Which reminds us of the old legend of the knight who searched the world over for happiness and when his life was spent found it at last near his own door. Don't put off being happy. The gems of life may be at our feet while our eyes are fixed on distant objects which prove disappointing in their attainment. Happiness is a plant that must be cultivated and one one cannot pluck its fruit who has not labored in the production.—Baylor Banner.

Teaching and the Taught.

Beaumont Journal: How many of our school children's parents ever visit the schools or even know the teachers when they meet them on the street? How many know what their children are studying, or how they are progressing? Is there any of you who have a building to make or a fence to build: dress to make; a house to paint, or whatever the job may be, that say to the one you have employed: "Here are the tools and material, go ahead and do it to suit yourself, and it will suit me?" Is not that what many of you are doing with your children? You say by your actions: "Here is my child, with its books, paper and pencil. I've furnished material and tools; educate him as you like." How we hear some of you say: "The teacher knows better what they ought to study than I do." While that may be in part true, the carpenter or a dressmaker, or a painter knows better how to do the work than you do, yet you do not leave it all to them.

It is well enough to leave a good deal of the work of education to the educators, just as it is wise to put carpentry into the hands of carpenters. Mother is good and kind and hopeful, of course, and her interest in her Willie and her Sallie Ann is acute; but usually she isn't quite fitted to teach them competently. In the first place, she hasn't the time. In the next place, things have changed since she was a girl and methods and ideas that were new when she was learning her a-b ads are now outworn and wholly discountenanced. In her day the main idea was to teach a child to read and write properly and "figger" with reasonable accuracy. Now the main thing is to push him through the grades below high school as fast as time can be made to fly and land him in the graduating class before he is big enough to wear galluses. Of course this hurry-up plan conduces to family pride. It is no mean distinction to have a boy graduating from his school. And if it developes after he has graduated that he doesn't know b from bull foot he still has plenty of time to learn something. —State Press.

Sheriff's Sale.

The State of Texas, county of Collingsworth.

By virtue of a certain order of sale issued out of the Honorable District Court of Collingsworth county, on the first day of May 1912 by Geo. W. Lee, Clerk of said court against T. B. Lyster for the sum of two thousand one hundred eighty eight and 25-100 (2,188.25) dollars and cost of suit, in cause No. 260 in said court, styled L. R. Jeffers versus T. B. Lyster and placed in my hands for service, I, L. T. Sullivan as Sheriff of Collingsworth county, Texas, did on the third day of May 1912 levy on certain Real Estate, situated in Collingsworth county, described as follows, to-wit

The north east one fourth of section No. one hundred and three in block No. 21 of the H. & G. N. Ry. Co. survey in Collingsworth county, Texas, abstract No. 380 certificate 7—2105 and levied upon as the property of said T. B. Lyster and on Tuesday, the 4th day of June 1912, at the Court House door of Collingsworth county, in the city of Wellington, Texas, between the hours of ten A. M. and four P. M. I will sell said real estate at public vendue, for cash, to the highest bidder as the property of said T. R. Lyster by virtue of said levy and said order of sale. And in compliance with law, I give this notice by publication, in the English language, once a week for three consecutive weeks immediately preceding said day of sale, in the Wellington Leader a newspaper published in Collingsworth county.

Witness my hand, this 3rd day of May 1912.

L. T. Sullivan

are mosquitos. As they sting they put deadly malaria germs in the blood. Then follows the icy chills and the fires of fever. The appetite flies and the strength fails; also malaria often paves the way for deadly typhoid. But Electric Bitters kill and cast out the malaria germs from the blood; give you a fine appetite and renew your strength. "After long suffering," wrote Wm. Frewell of Lucama, N.C., "three bottles drove all the malaria from my system, and I've had good health ever since." Best for all stomach, liver and kidney ills. 50 cts. at all dealers.

City Building Notes.

Find the weak point in your city then apply a remedy.

When capital sees the smoke pouring fourth from many high smokestacks he promptly pulls out his bank roll.

If you wait until you see what the other fellow is going to do, you wont get anywhere.

If you cant interest your home people in the city, don't expect outsiders to take notice.

Look after the little enterprise, the large ones usually look after themselves.

It isn't always the skyscraper that makes the city, a factory with a big pay roll will do twice the good.

Be on friendly terms with your competitors, even if you expect him to steal a march on you the next day.

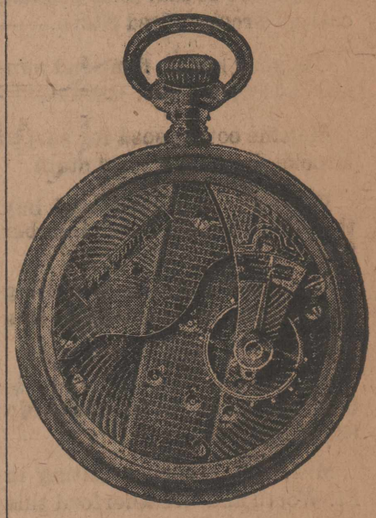

To abuse an investor is to lose him.

Be sure you have something to talk about when you boost your city.

Boosting and boasting are two different things, but both may be used to advantage in building a city.

Jas. C. Dahlmann, serving his third term as mayor, Omaha, Neb., again was successful in receiving the overwhelming support of the voters in the primary election. He also successfully rid himself of a bad case of kidney trouble by the aid of Foley Kidney Pills, and writes: "I have taken Foley Kidney Pills and they have given me a great deal of relief, so I cheerfully recommend them." What Foley Kidney Pills have done for Mayor Dahlmann they will do for any other person bothered with backache, rheumatism, or any other form of kidney or bladder trouble. Just try them for quick and permanent results.

Study Club Notes.

Mrs. Street delighrfully entertained the Womans Study Club on Wednesday afternoon of this week. The afternoon being a beautiful one a large number of the members took advantage of same and a good attendance was had. Our President, Mrs. Mooney was again able to be with us and presided over the meeting.

Quite a lengthy business session was held. Mrs. Howell, chairman of the play committee reported the characters all selected and were waiting on the books which they expected to come very soon. The picnic which was dated for May 15 was postponed to the following week on May 22. A committee with Mrs. Joyner chairman was appointed to select a place for the picnic. The club was indeed glad to receive three new members at this meeting; being Mrs. Cora Martin, Mrs. Hardy and Mrs. Bowman.

After the business session a short program was rendered. Following the program our hostess passed pencil and paper to each member also slips of paper on which was written an expression which would call to mind the name of some city which we would like to visit if we were traveling. These seemed to be very hard for a number of us but seemed equally easy when told by our hostess what each one meant. After this contest we were asked to take pencil and paper and pass into the next room where we were shown a number of leaves from shrubs, trees and plants each bearing a number. We were then asked to write opposite coresponding numbers the name of the plant, tree or shrub from which these had been gathered. These contests proved very interesting and provoked much fun as well as some brain work. After this we were invited back to the parlor where delicious refreshments of sandwiches, olives, fruit salad ice cream and cake were served. Mrs. Street is indeed an excellent hostess and each one present thanked her for a very pleasant afternoon.

The program for May 22 be will rendered next week May 15 and the meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Mooney.

School Trustees.

Last Saturday was election day for trustees of the Wellinton Independent School District and which resulted in the election of the following gentlemen, who will hold over for two years: H. C. Wells, R. T. Nunn, J. T. Litchfield and T. B. Starkey. The three trustees who hold over this year are as follows: Dr. J. S. Wilkins, John Williamson and W, P. Moore. These men, both the old and new trustees, are interested, and capable of serving the patrons of the Wellington High school in a most efficient and satisfcctory manner and we urge for them, by the patrons of the district, the united and hearty co-operation of the latter. To have a good school in any community, there must be a united action by the patrons and board, and we believe all our people are thusly interested, and therefore feel confident of good results for the work of the board.

Percy Leggitt and Miss Bertha Strickland were out driving Sunday afternoon.

Quite a crowd of Plymouth people attended memorial services at Dozier Sunday. They report a big dinner and indeed a pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Neece of Wellington were pleasant visitors to Plymouth and Dozier Saturday and Sunday. Their many friends are always very glad to see them.

J. D. Thomas of Wellington, a candidate for tax assess was out to his excellent farm first of the week.

The Literary is progressing nicely. Friday night we will have two great debators, let every body come. Shall we insist on Mr. McCarty to come out from under the buzzards roost now and join us again, we will assure you no danger.

Clarence Stevens of Wellington was a visitor in Plymouth Sunday.

Arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Berry on May 6, a beautiful baby girl. Mother and baby doing nicely.

RED, WHITE AND BLUE.

J. E. McKeen, 1301 Cleveland St., Wichita, Kansas, reports: "I suffered from kidney trouble, had severe pains across my back and was all played out. I began taking Foley Kidney Pills and soon there was a decided improvement. Finally the pain left entirely and I am fully cured of all my kidney trouble."

Notic to School Trustees.

The county board of education met in regular session Monday May 6th and reorganized. The board is now ready to confer with trustees of districts relative to establishing high schools. The county board believes that the provisions of the rural high school law are wise, and will be very helpful if rightly understood and applied. It is the opinion of this board that high schools could be maintained at several places in the county. All schools that employ two or more teachers might employ at least one teacher who is qualified to teach high school subjects and do work that would be recognized by the State Department of Education.

Under the provisions of the law small districts may be consolidated or arrangements may be made whereby the high school pupils living in adjoining districts can attend the high school free of tuition.

In order to get this matter before the people, the county board asks the local trustees of the county to attend a meeting of the county board at the office of the County Judge Saturday May 18th. Be there at 10 o'clock If you do not believe that the Rural High School Law will help your school come and tell what is wrong with it. Teachers and patrons are also invited to attend this meeting.

Jno. Williamson
President of County Board of Education.

Sheriff's Sale.

The State of Texas, county of Collingsworth.

By virtue of a certain order of sale issued out of the Honorable District court of Collingsworth county, on the first day of May 1912, by Geo W. Lee clerk of said Court against J. E. Everett and Lee Tucker for the sum of six hundred twenty seven and 65-100 (627.65) dollars and costs of suit, in cause No. 259 in said court styled C. W. Boles, vs J. E. Everett, J. H. Hodges and Lee Tucker and placed in my hands for service, I, L. T. Sullivan as Sheriff of Collingsworth county, Texas, did, on the third day of May 1912 levy on certain real estate, situated in Collingsworth county, described as follows, to wit:

All the north east 200 acres of land out of section No. 39 in block No. 15 of the H. & G. N. Ry. Co survey in Collingsworth county, Texas, abstract 210, certificate 2—433 and levied upon as the property of said Lee Tucker and on Tuesday, the 4th day of June 1912 at the Court House doors of Collingsworth county in the city of Wellington, Texas, between the hours of ten A. M. and four P. M. I will sell said real estate at public vendue, for cash, to the highest bidder, as the property of said Lee Tucker by virtue of said levy and said order of sale. And in compliance with law, I give this notice by publication, in the English language, once a week for three consecutive weeks immediately preceding said day of sale, in the Wellington Leader, a newspaper published in Collingsworth county.

Witness my hand, this 3rd day of May 1912.

L. T. Sullivan
Sheriff Collingeworth county, Texas
By J. G. Neece Deputy.

The Silent Drama.

There are some thirty moving picture studios in America, and they supply 250,000,000 feet of film annually to more than 17,000 theatres. More than one film production has $25,000; several have cost $75,000. One is known to have cost $200,000; it represents a spectacle from the "Odyssey," and is the work of an Italian firm. This play is from the pen of Jules Lemaitre, a French academician and is entitled "The Return of Ulysses." More than 2000 persons appear in these films.

Robert Grau foresees a time when for a dime one may enjoy opera, tragedy, comedy, concert, or whatever form of stage production you will, presented with perfect fidelity of form and sound by mechanical means alone. The motion picture seems to have scarcely more than begun its work of civilization.—New York World.

Escapes an awful Fate.

A thousand tongues could not express the gratitude of Mrs. J. E. Cox, of Joliet, Ill., for her wonderful deliverance from an awful fate. "Typhoid pneumonia had left a dreadful cough," she writes. "Sometimes I had such awful coughing spells I thought I would die. I could get no help from doctor's treatments or other medicines till I used Dr. King's New Discovery. But I owe my life to the wonderful remedy for I scarcely cough at all now.'. Quick, safe and reliable for all throat and lung troubles. Every bottle guaranteed. 50c and $1.00 Trial bottle free at all dealers.

Texas Needs More Hogs.

Fort Worth Texas. April—The new town of Camargo, just over the Texas line in Oklahoma, recently celebrated the opening of the Wichita Falls & North Western, the first railroad in that town, by shipping a full trainload of Oklahoma hogs to the Texas Packing House markets.

So great has the demand for pork become in the Lone Star State that shipments from all parts of the United States are being received daily at the Fort Worth markets. Our annual consumption of pork in Texas exceeds the production by $24,450,000, which is a good argument for more hog clubs.

Mrs. Wm. A. Allen, Chacon, New mexico, had so sever a cough that it nearly choked her to death. Mr. Allen says: "We tried many things without helping her, when by good luck I got a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. It helped her at once and finally cured her. It is the best medicine we ever used." Joe Hardy Drug Co.

Another Ship Crippled by Ice.

Halifax, N. S., May 5.—Another trans-Atlantic liner has been damaged in the ice fields which crowd the entrance to the Gulf of St. Lawrence. The Gunard liner Ultonia from Southampton, bound to Montreal, arrived here tonight in a disabled condition, and reported the loss of one propeller. The Ultonia has twin screws, but Capt. Prothero decided not to risk further ice perils of the Gulf and proceeded to Halifax, the nearest port.

This is the Ultonea's first trip to Canadian ports this season. She has 1,200 passengers on board, and they will be debarked tomorrow and forwarded to their destinations in Canada and the United States.

Helps A Judge in Bad Fix.

Justice Eli Cherry, of Gillis Mills, Tenn., was plainly worried. A bad sore on his leg had baffled the doctors and long resisted all remedies. "I thought it was a cancer," he wrote. "At last I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and was completely cured. Cures burns, boils, ulcers, cuts, bruises and piles. 25 cents at all dealers.

Money saved by having that suit cleaned and pressed. Take it to Robertson, at the Keep-U-Neat.

THE FAMOUS

Adds a Line Car.

The Memphis-Wellington Auto Transfer Co., have put on a new 40 hp. Cadillac car of this years model. This addition was made necessary by the increasing volume of traffic between the two towns. Mr. Milam who brought the car over Thursday on its initial trip gave out information to the effect that another car of exactly the same type will be added presently. This will make their equipment consist of three large passenger cars. The car heretofore used is also a Cadillac and has been in constant use over fourteen months making an average of over twenty round trips each month. The excellence of the car itself combined with the expert care to which it has been subject have brought it through this strenous test in the best of conditions.

The new car however is a marvel of beauty, strength and efficiency. The hood over the motor on this car is panneled with glass leaving its working parts in view. In addition to the features of the ordinary car it is self cranking electric lighted and the body of the car is constructed on the torpedo plan which is very popular as it shuts out a vast amount of dirt and dust.

Life.

Let us see what the word life means. There is nobody that can tell you what life is any better than you really know, nobody knows all of life, but just merely for a definition to the word, we all, I believe agree with Daniel Webster that it is the time from birth to death; course of living, in regard to happiness and misery.

This leaves room for the question: Is life what it seems. Just a few thoughts on this question and we will at once answer, no. Life may seem all joy, or it may seem all misery, but it is not all of neither but both combined. Don't we sometime when we get discouraged and disappointed feel like life is misery and has no joys for us, and sometime wish that we could leave this life? Then again when our hopes are bright and we have courage we feel glad we are living; but by study we can see in some people—back of all this—a little strugle against opposition and inefficiency, but they are contented and happy. We know life is not what it seems by the life of Christ. It seems there would be no joy in going through the hardships, trials and temptations he withstood, but he was happy, we know, because he never complained. He was doing good to others and obeying his Father.

Life, to a great extent, is what we make it. By practice we can be cheerful, or we can be sorrowful, can be a blessing or be a curse. Rev. J. A. Allen says, "Life is, for the most part, the mirror of our own individual selves. If our trials of life be elevated, if we regard it as a share of useful efforts, of high living and high thinking of working for others good as well as our own, it will be joyful, hopeful and blessed. If on the contrary, we regard it as affording opportunities for self seeking, pleasure and aggrandizement, it will be full of toil, anxiety and disappointment."

How to improve life should be the study of all. But how are we going to improve life? We can not live over the past again, and don't know what the future has in store for us, so what are we to do? Now, right here we have it. It is the present we must work on. Don't think and weary over the mistakes of the past, we can not correct them—I mean we can not remove them. I don't mean to dismiss them from our minds at once, but do not weary over them a life time. Think of them long enough to find out how one made our mistake, and to learn a lesson from it, not to do it again. As we do not know that the future has in store for us, we will have to prepare in the present for the future. Prepare by geting an education that will enable us to fill any place, do good to others, and don't wait until some other time to do the things we ought to do now. Try to speak the right word at the right time and do the right thing at the right time. Some of us hasn't as yet found out what piace there is for us to fill. We may see we must fill the presidency or some other high public place, or it may only be to be kind and helpful at home, or in the community in which we live. Never be contented to be in the same notch all the time but keep climbing. The more we do the more we see to do.

We all, or the most of us have an aim in life, and that is to do good. Some may have another aim along with this one such as teaching school, music, bookkeeping or something of this kind. While there are some who have not found their place or talent, but we all have a place to fill. The maker of all things sees a place for us, he is too wise to put somethings in the world that is of no use, and we will find our place sooner or later if we keep seeking.

Influence of life. We are not living to ourselves, we are having an influence over others. Our acts, our words, and even our features are influencing. The influencer or the one being influenced the former in particular, may not be concious of the fact at the time, but the latter will soon find himself thinking of, and being impressed by the other. How careful then we should be as to how we entertain our desires. We should be careful as to company we keep, if we keep good company they will draw our ideas and aims higher, if we keep bad company they will not help us to have higher aims but are more likely to draw us their way, unless we are stronger and more determined than they. Our influence whether good or evil will live years after we have left this world.

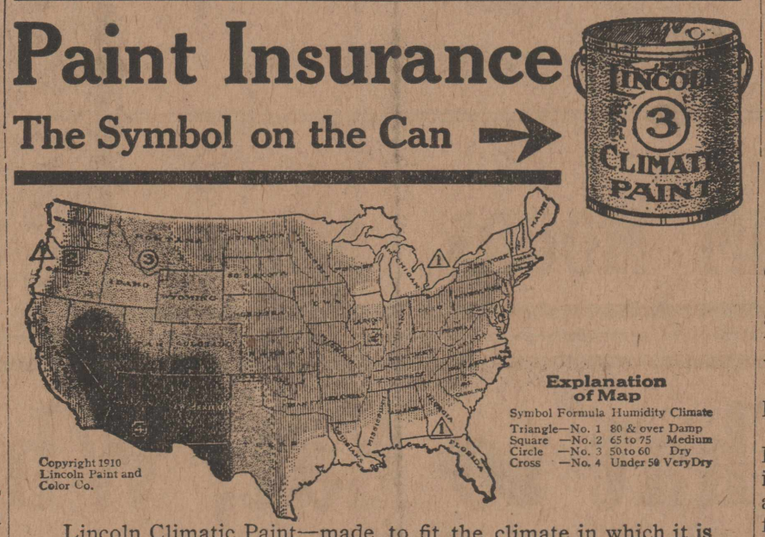

Are we living the real life or is this just a time in which to prepare for real life? We all know there is a life after this that is more important than this, as this seemingly will end, and the other will never. Christ came and lived with man, taught, and showed him how to prepare for the life to come, He has done his part, now, it is our duty to do our own part; follow his example, and leave as he did, an influence that will do others good after we have passed from this life to enter into a life of joy and happiness, but if we refuse his way we will leave an influence just the same, but not for good and we will have to suffer a life of misery in the life to come.

The end of this life is death, here we realize that life is not what it seems and is what we have made it and we cannot undo it. If we have improved life as much as was in our power, if we have had a high and holy aim so that our influence has been for good, death will be hapiness, if not, it will be misery. It is not all of life nor all of death to die.

The Symbol on the Can →

Copyright 1910 Lincoln Paint and Color Co.

Lincoln Climatic Paint—made to fit the climate in which it is used—solves the paint problem for all time.

No need to guess, or take someone's else say-so for it—the proof is here. The map shows you what the climate is in which we live—how damp or how dry it is. Paint to last must be made to fit the climate in which it is used and there is but one paint that you can ever be sure of being right climatically. That is Lincoln Climatic Paint, for which we are the sole agents.

Lincoln Climatic Paint is made on four separate formulas—to fit the four different climates, or degrees of dampness and dryness. Paint troubles, such as cracking, peeling and chalking are due largely to the fact that other manufacturers have made all their paint the same—thinking one formula good enough for the whole country.

With Lincoln Climatic Paint—machine mixed and ground—you can always be absolutely certain of selecting the rightly adjusted formula; the paint prepared for the exact weather conditions in which we live—and the symbol on the can is your guide.

Call as soon as you can and examine our elaborate and detailed climatic map of the United States—and we will give you an interesting 32-page book revealing the true secret of how Climatic Paint was originated.
