County Cuts 1980 Budget

Two employees and an additional county road were approved to be cut from the proposed 1980 budget by County Commissioners Tuesday morning.

The budget which is divided to allow 47 per cent of funds allotted for precincts (roads and bridges), 20 per cent for officers salaries, 1.5 per cent for jury funds, 2.3 per cent to permanent improvements, 3.3 per cent for miscellaneous and 3.1 per cent for library was cut to bare minimums, commissioners noted.

Sixteen persons representing the county library greeted commissioners as they appeared to support the library in what was the fourth in a series of budget workshops.

During the session, which lasted until noon, commissioners cut $2,250 from the jury fund which Commissioner Paul Hunter noted was overbudgeted.

Roads and bridges fund took the greatest cut with a total $66,000 deleted.

General fund was cut back $22,250 and permanent improvements were cut by $20,000.

The lateral road fund was cut by $50,000.

A report given to commissioners by Roy Byrd, president of the Library Board, indicated one person from the library staff could be cut and still have a county library that could function on a five day a week schedule at an efficient level.

Byrd noted this cut was indicative of a recurring trend to allot the library less and less funding. He indicated it was his hope and the hope of the board that this trend did not lead to the eventual deletion of the library fund entirely.

Byrd also stated it was not in the best interest of the library to have the remaining staff take over janitorial services since their regular duties would be increased substantially due to the cut in the staff.

Commissioners agreed to the cut in staff and cut the budget in salaries by more than $7,428.

The County Clerks office was cut one deputy, as was the Sheriff's Department, amounting to about $19,992 in savings.

These savings total $187,920 to be shaved from the deficit. Including the increased revenue in some departments and the additional expense of the assistant DA and his secretary, commissioners arrived at a new deficit figure of $113,624.

Hunter noted the interest on invested funds which will be received in January will total more than $76,000 leaving $37,624 deficit. Hunter indicated it was quite possible this figure would be cut even further by interest funds.

"I have a plan which I hope to propose whereby the current 90 day investment program, in cipates, will be cut to a 30 day rotation plan.

Loraine City Council Meets

The Loraine City Council met Tuesday evening in City Hall in a short meeting.

Street repair was discussed for the City of Loraine. Repairs are needed on several streets with washed out holes in them including the street running in front of the nursing home. The council agreed to look into the matter of repairing those streets with washed out

The Colorado High School Wolf Band had a record setting first day Tuesday in their annual fund raising sale of Colorado City Record subscriptions.

The sale of subscriptions goes into its final day today (Thursday). Results of Wednesday's effort was not known at press time.

The band earns cash commissions for each sale of subscriptions as well as bonuses for total sales. In addition, band members working in teams of no more than three also are vying for cash bonuses.

will not reflect in revenues and will remain unspent, according to commissioners.

"It's a matter of priority," Shackelford commented.

"Before we spend this much on a project we would like to have more input from the citizens. If it is what they want and feel they need it is certainly what we will do. But until that time we will keep the money and draw interest off its investment to help keep taxes to a minimum," Hunter stated.

Before officially adopting the budget commissioners will meet in their regular business session on Monday and again for a public budget hearing August 20.

State officials and commissioners will meet on August 23 to discuss health problems at the lake.

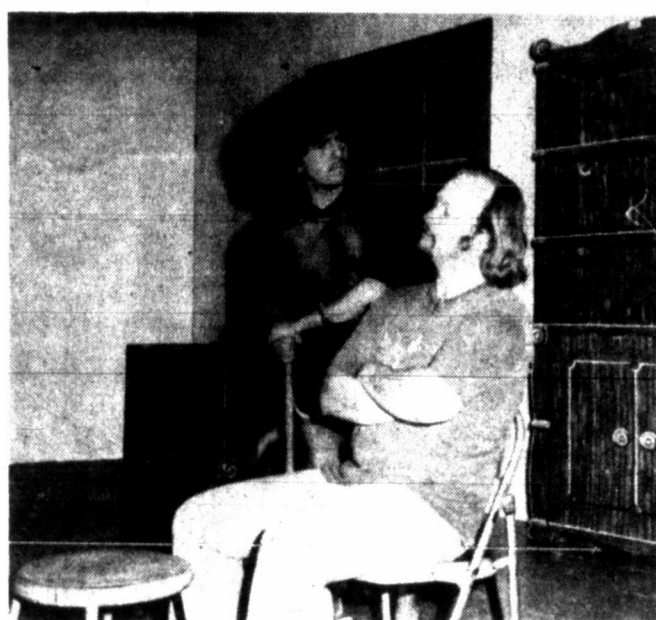

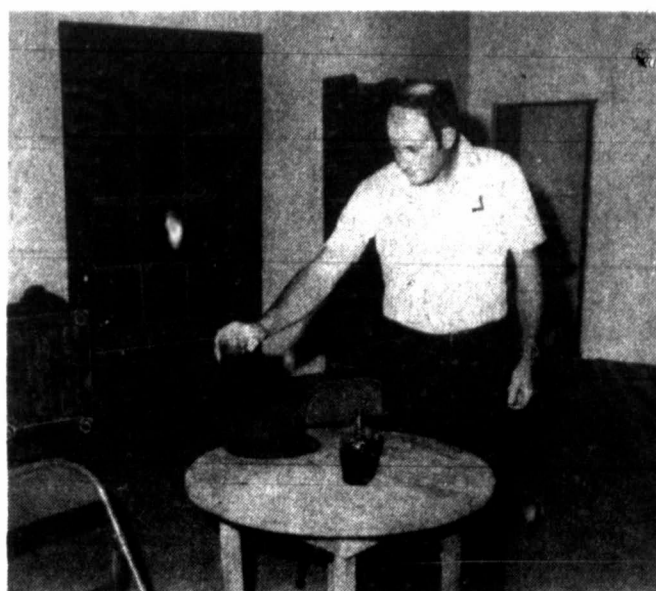

holes and try to put some oil on the street in front of the nursing home to cut down on the dust from the street which already has caliche on it.

A letter was read from the Health Department regarding the landfill and stated that the City of Loraine was in some violations with the Health Department. They recommended that a trench be built to accommodate some of the waste. The council then decided to have a trench dug.

The landfill is open to the public on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday from 1-5 p.m.

Payment of bills was approved.

With only three council members present, the council gave approval to Rev. Witta to talk to the FHA about housing for those over 62 years of age.

"HARVEY" the classic comedy about a 6-foot, 3 1/2-inch rabbit who to some people is invisible, will go on stage for the final three nights (tonight) Thursday, Friday and Saturday at Colorado City Playhouse. Above are two of the scenes taken during rehearsal of the play which has received rave reviews. In top picture, Kent Womack, playing the part of Elwood P. Dowd, offers Harvey a drink. In bottom picture, Judge Gaffney, portrayed by David Galvan, standing, has a serious talk with Dr. Chumley, played by Bill Martin.

Harvey In Final Week

"Harvey," opens tonight for its final three nights at the Colorado City Opera House.

The play has been enthusiastically received during its first three performances and the talented cast gives hope of more of the same.

The play revolves around a man named Elwood P. Dowd who has the ability to see a rabbit named Harvey that no one else can see.

As a result of this talent, he is committed to Chumley's Rest, a place where people who really don't have everything together anymore are sent.

"Harvey," will open at 8 p.m. tonight through Saturday.

Tickets are $3.50 per persons and can be reserved by calling Opera House at 728-3491 or by going by the Opera House anytime from 1 p.m. to 8 p.m.

The play stars Kent Womack as Elwood P. Dowd and is being directed by Marsha Moore.

Three Young Vandals Ravage Kelley School

Vandals and thieves have been busy in Colorado City this week.

places such as schools, a local filling station, the city swimming pool hit for the second time this year and a resident's automobile.

Colorado City Officer William Williamson was on duty at about 4:45 p.m. Sunday when he observed an open door on the north side of the Colorado Middle School and a bicycle nearby.

Williamson went in and found three youngsters, ages 12, 10 and 7 emptying fire extinguishers in the dressing rooms in the gymnasium.

Investigation and further questioning of the youngsters revealed that the damage to the gym was only the beginning. They had also entered

Kelley Elementary School and had ravaged the place, breaking some 30 windows, emptying 10 fire extinguishers, covering the walls of the hallways with scribbling from magic markers and emptying cans of dry paint over the floors of the hallways.

Entering the bookroom, they had piled books and supplies on the floor and left it in shambles as they did the reading room in which supplies were also littered on the floor.

An IBM typewriter had also been destroyed.

The cafeteria was in much the same condition as boxes of straws were scattered all over the floor, bottles of bleach were poured on the floor and the refrigerator doors were left open.

Board Ponders School Budget

The Colorado School Board, meeting in the budget workshop session Monday night, was informed two things they already knew: Expenses are rising faster than the school's average daily attendance dropped significantly this past year from 1977-78.

The budget itself wasn't adopted and will not be until the regular monthly meeting this coming Monday.

Superintendent Charlie Uselton presented the board members with a fact sheet comparing the 1978-79 budget revenues and expenditures with the proposed 1979-80 budget revenues and expenditures.

The 1978-79 budget had expenditures of $2,649,818.79. The proposed 1979-80 budget has expenditures of $2,968,887.10 for an increase of $318,068.40 over 1978-79.

The greater part of this $318,068.40 increase comes from a $149,719.23 increase in instructional services and a $73,104.42 rise in the costs of plant maintenance.

This increase in expenditures will further increase the cost of education per pupil per year which has risen significantly not only because of rising costs but also because the school's average daily attendance has been dropping.

Uselton presented the board with an example. In 1977-78, the school had an average daily attendance of 1,426.46 students per day and an average cost per pupil per year of $1,388.20.

In 1978-79, the average daily attendance dropped to 1,341.11 students per day and the average cost per pupil rose to $1,630.13.

The average cost per pupil 1979-80 is expected to rise to something like $1,848.41.

Uselton noted that these decreases in the number of students have been spread out evenly over the entire 12 grades and there wasn't enough drop in any one grade to consider cutting personnel.

The $1,630.13 figure given above for education each student here in 1978-79 was above the state average of $1,501.89.

Revenues for the proposed 1979-80 budget are also expected to increase over 1978-79 by an amount of $295,456.73.

Proposed revenues for this coming school year amount to $3,288,887.10 less a debt service fund of $120,000 for a total figure of $3,288,887.10.

The figures for the 1978-79 budget were revenues of $2,992,118.37 less a debt service fund of $118,688 for a total figure of $2,873,430.37.

The 1979-80 budget revenue figure includes $2,928.29 from local sources. The majority of this figure is made up of local real estate and personal property taxes which will come to $1,450,459.676. The debt service tax will bring in another $203,064.36 of revenue.

State sources will bring $1,233,692.89 into the school in 1979-80. Per capita and foundation revenue will bring in $907,728 of state funds. See SCHOOL Page 3

1980 Rodeo Plans Set

The third annual Colorado City American Junior Rodeo Association sanctioned rodeo will be held here again July 23, 24, 25 and 26 1980. The Colorado City Area Chamber of Commerce & Agriculture board of directors decided Monday night.

In the monthly meeting of the board, it was decided to have the rodeo on that date as that is when the announcer and rodeo secretary will be available.

Travis Cawthron has been appointed director for the rodeo for next year and Kenneth Beasley will be the Chairman.

Those two were appointed along with Directors Pete McKinney and Jerry Putman to meet with the Western Riding Club to work out a long term agreement on the use of the Club's arena and also regarding a master plan for renovation of the arena.

The Chamber voted to set aside $3,000 for improvements and there has been a pledge by one man to match whatever the Chamber puts up and another individual has pledged to match whatever everybody else puts up combined, thus giving $12,000 altogether. See RODEO Page 3

DALE DICKARD of 1008 E. 16th Street was presented the Chamber of Commerce Yard of the Month award for July by Chamber Manager Larry Winders last week.

THE READING ROOM of Kelley Elementary School was left a shambles by three young vandals Sunday afternoon as was a large part of the rest of the school. Damage at Kelley has been estimated at some $12,000.

The weekend Renewal Service at the First Methodist Church Loraine closed with the Sunday morning service.

Large crowds were on hand each service to hear messages brought by Rev. Bob Ford and music by Johnny Ray Watson.

After the Saturday night service Johnny Ray met with the young people in the fellowship hall for fellowship hour and sandwiches, cookies and drinks.

Johnny Ray told them how his life was changed when he accepted Christ into his heart, and challenged them to dedicate their life to Christ while they are young and "you will have one who will help and be present with you in bad and good times, make you strong when you are tempted and a happy wonderful life you will have with God as your partner".

Baptist Women Discuss 'Bridging The Gap'

Loraine Baptist Women met at the church at 9:30 a.m. Monday for a mission program and business session.

Mrs. T. L. Holman presided over the meeting which opened with song and prayer.

Mrs. Holman introduced the program topic "Bridging the Gap". This lesson brought out the question "Just where do I stand in the business of building bridges of racial reconciliation?" and "What about the race question?"

Mrs. Lynne Compton read scriptures telling what God says about this question. The Bible shows God is no respecter of persons. He sent His son to die for all races and colors. Because our color is white is no reason to say God is partial to us. Only the love of Christ in one's heart can take the prejudice away and make us love our neighbor though he be another race. These thoughts were discussed by Mmes. Baird, Leach and Henderson.

Mrs. L. E. Crutcher brought the prayer calendar and Mrs. Clara Butler led the prayer for missionaries.

In the business meeting, Mrs. Butler read minutes of the last meeting and Mrs. Charlie Harris gave the Treasurers report. A nominating committee composed of Mmes. Leach, Bernice Hallmark and Butler was appointed to recommend officers for the new year.

Mrs. Holman led the closing prayer.

ready for the renovation project. Reports were also heard on the tremendous success of the rodeo as well as the fly-in last month and all that was just part of a long agenda for the meeting that lasted more than two hours. Before the board meeting started, there was a general membership meeting of the Chamber of Commerce to consider a completely revised set of bylaws for the operation of the Chamber. The bylaws were passed by a unanimous vote. The main purpose of the revision was to make the bylaws more streamlined, easier to work with and to be in accordance with recommendations with the National Chamber of Commerce and requirements of the Internal Revenue Service.

The Chamber board named Jack Perkins of Perkins' Apothecary and Mercantile to complete the term of Larry Blasingame on the board. The term ends in January 1981. Director Bobby Lemons was named to succeed Blasingame as board treasurer.

In other business, a donation of $100 to help finance the annual old-timers' reunion was approved as well as an expenditure of $250 to help the Industrial Team put up a sign at the Sequoia building saying that industrial sites are for sale and rent here.

The purchase of permanent membership plaques made of plastic and bearing the new Chamber emblem was also approved. The plaques are due to be received within six to eight weeks and will be distributed before the end of the year.

The purchase of patches bearing the Chamber's new emblem also was approved. A total of 100 of the patches will be secured along with 40 embroidered Ambassadors' flags for use by the Ambassador's Club. The patches will also be used on vests used by Chamber workers at special events.

One other major item was the approval of a newsletter to members to be issued periodically informing members about what is happening at the Chamber and how the organization is working for the betterment of the community.

After their apprehension and questioning, they led the officer to an automobile at 625 E. 13th Street from which the box and tapes valued at about $134 had been taken.

The tapes belonged to Mike Brooks. The youngsters were ages 17, 16 and 15. The 16 and 15 year-olds were released to the custody of their parents. Charges were expected to be filed against the 17 year-old.

The rash of incidents continued on into Monday as the police department received a call at 7:35 a.m. from James Parker, owner of Mobil Service Station at Interstate 20 and Texas 208.

The east window of the station had been broken with a rock and merchandise valued at $191.75 had been taken from inside, including a case of oil, a tire and rim and candy, gum and soft drinks.

The burglar had used a tire tool to break into the candy and soft drink machines.

About $1,620 worth of damage was reported to the building and machines.

The police have no suspects in the case at present. It was estimated that the burglary took place sometime between 3 a.m. and 6 a.m. since the station had been checked at 3 a.m.

Finally, the Colorado City Swimming Pool was vandalized for the second time this summer.

Pool Manager Johnny Molina reported to the police Monday morning that someone had thrown irrigation pipes into the pool and had turned over a number of trash cans in the area.

Girls On All-Star Squad

Colorado City's Girls' Softball League placed five girls on the all-tournament teams in all-star state tournament action last weekend in Abilene.

Sara Salazar was the only representative on the Division I all-tournament team for ages 8, 9, and 10. The Colorado City Division I team placed third in the tournament, winning two games and losing two games. The tournament was won by Sweetwater with a 23-2 win over Graham. Seven teams were involved in the competition.

In Division II, ages 11-13, Rebecca Erwin and Tracy Blackwell of Colorado City were named to the all-tournament team. Division II winner in the tournament was Breckenridge with the Colorado City team winning one and losing two games. There were seven teams in Division II.

Colorado City also had two all-tournament players in Division III for girls 14-16 with Gabby Gaona and Angie Neff being accorded those honors. Division III also was won by Breckenridge. The Colorado City team lost their first two games in the double elimination tournament. There were five teams in Division III.

The Red Hots, Division III Squad, were also awarded the sportsmanship trophy for the tournament.

Transportation revenue will amount to $64,606 and Title I revenues will come to $156,384.08.

Revenue from federal sources will amount to $29,650.

Not included in the 1979-80 budget were estimated carry-over funds of $200,000. In 1978-79 this carry-over figure was $214,000.

After an examination of the proposed budget, Uselson asked the board members for any suggestions or input concerning any changes or revisions that might need to be made.

Dr. Billy Bridgford said that he thought the school should watch carefully its transportation expenses with the ever increasing cost of gasoline.

He noted the significant increase in the 1979-80 budget for transportation over 1978-79, some $22,000 and added that he thought school personnel plan their trips to out-of-town meetings carefully.

Board President Tom Rees then asked Uselson, "Do you feel you've cut every corner you can with the budget?"

Uselson replied, "It's a budget we can live with."

The superintendent went on to add that the majority of the increase in expenditures had been in teacher's salaries.

He further stated, "If our enrollment continues to drop, we won't have any choice but to cut back on teachers."

Mojica, Hubbard Exchange Vows In Church Ceremony

Delfina Mojica became the bride of Marvin Leon Hubbard Saturday evening in the Christian Temple.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Lupe Swanson of Houston and Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Hubbard of Colorado City.

Rev. George Flores read the single ring wedding vows, before an altar centered with an archway entwined in greenery accented with bows in wine and white. The couple knelt on a white kneeling bench covered in white.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Joe Mojica, was attired in a formal length traditional gown of white chiffon with long sheer sleeves accented with daisies along the cuffs and shoulders to the elbow where the sleeves were overlaid with chiffon flowing into a short train down the back edged with white daisies. The skirt was softly gathered at the waist and flowed into a train at the back. Her elbow length veil of bridal illusion was attached to a bandeau of daisies. Her dress belonged to her sister. She wore a blue garter and her shoes were new.

She carried a bouquet of white daisies, wine and pink carnations accented with baby's breath and streamers of wine and white.

Organ wedding music was provided. "Wedding March" and "How Sweet."

Brenda S. Matlock was matron of honor and Karen Stephens served as bridesmaid. Heather Lynn Matlock and Deanna Mojica were flower girls. They wore wine colored dresses with pleated skirts and lace ruffles. Each wore a flower in her hair.

Best man was F. L. Hubbard. Groomsman was Randy L. Matlock and Forest Hubbard, Jr. was ringbearer. They wore black tuxedos.

A reception was held in the community room following the ceremony. The table was laid in an ivory cloth of crocheted lace, accented with pink, wine and white flowers with baby's breath. A three tiered wedding cake topped with two doves holding a ring with bells and streamers of yellow ribbon was served.

The couple will live in Colorado City.

Out of town guests were Lupe Swanson, mother of the bride from Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Swanson and family of Okla., Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mojica and family from Temple and Richard Hubbard and family of Converse, La.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional gown of white organza with Venice lace trim. The empire bodice was covered with lace and the sheer yoke and wedding band neckline were overlaid with lace. Lace trimmed long illusion sleeves and a full skirt with a chapel length train completed her gown. Her veil of illusion was trimmed with seed pearls and Venice lace. She carried a bridal bouquet of daisies and white satin ribbons.

Inflation affects your electric bill even more than your grocery bill.

Every time you go to the grocery store you can see what inflation's doing to your food bill. But because you don't buy electricity by the can, you probably don't realize how inflation affects the cost of electricity.

Fuel costs are up, particularly natural gas. Equipment costs are up. Power lines, transformers and poles cost us more every day. Just like milk costs you more every day.

The millions of dollars we must borrow to build plants to ensure your electricity needs in the future are costing us more.

The cost of building these plants is higher, too, because of inflation. And because of the time and money it takes to comply with an ever-increasing number of government regulations. The longer it takes to build, the more inflation takes its toll.

Inflation, overregulation and rising fuel costs are all making your electricity cost you more. But by using electricity wisely you can do your part in keeping that cost down in your home.

At Texas Electric, we want you to know what you're paying for.

Fugate Wins Sweepstakes

Robert Fugate of Colorado City won a Friedrich room air conditioner according to David Hutchins of Hutchins Ford Sales, Colorado City. Fugate was one of twenty who won Friedrich room air conditioners, the runner-up prizes in the Great Ford Sweepstakes sponsored by 170 Texas Ford Dealers in the north Texas area. First prize was the use of a Ford LTD for a year.

Over 16,000 registered for the contest. According to Jim Bass of San Angelo, "we gave away the use of nine Ford LTD's for a year and drew the winners from entrants in nine Texas locales to give everyone the best possible chance of winning the LTD's and the Friedrich air conditioners."

Bass added, "Bob Lilly, the former Cowboy star told folks about the Great Ford Sweepstakes in newspapers, and on radio and TV and they really poured out. It has been one of the most successful contests we've ever run. I congratulate all the winners."

Card Of Thanks

May I please express my sincere appreciation to the Hospital and Lodge personnel, Staff Doctors, and to the many thoughtful friends in our community who express concern in my behalf during my recent illness by gifts, flowers, food, cards, visits, and phone calls.

Your concern and assistance was also very helpful to Maxie Lee and she wishes to express her appreciation, also.

BILL MACK

Super singer Connie Smith has retired from country music.

Quite a bit of news to chew on and, although it was not a last-minute decision by the little lady, her announcement did catch some of the Nashville-based industry and practically all of her fans off guard. She made her official announcement by the way, at the beginning of Fan Fair Week in Nashville a few weeks back while presenting an award on nationwide television.

Rumors had been circulating for some time that Connie was beginning to tire of a business that had been good to her.

Or was it good to her? Back in 1964 her very first RCA release, "One Day," zoomed to Number One on the national best-seller charts and won her the Female Vocalist of the Year Award. Almost unheard of during that era. But during her 15-year tenure as one of the most talented girls behind a mike, Connie was to suffer through two divorces, several unsuccessful visits to psychiatrists and a calloused attitude toward life.

The money was good. The life was bad.

Following my first professional tour, I realized I was miserable after having to leave my baby boy. She told me during a recent interview. "I knew back then that I wouldn't find happiness in country music."

Is she bitter toward the brand of music that did place a lot of coins in her "checking account"? No. She "hastily" said that she loves the people she has performed with on countless tours and on the famous Grand Ole Opry during the past many years. And she added, country music is still her music.

Facts of news have made the inner circles of Nashville during the past 19 years that Connie was performing, switching to gospel music. Since she became a born-again Christian back in 1969. It was after her decision for Christ that things began looking up for her. She began living her life with an inner peace and although it was a gradual process, discovered happiness for the first time.

The Connie Smith story would make a good book. An interesting book, at least. Her story reflects true hardship from the beginning. She was raised in near poverty, abused by an alcoholic father, and later met with two black deaths in life in the form of marriage. One marriage was a disaster from the beginning, and a second marriage consisted of a husband whose life was governed by narcotics, producing an almost daily expectancy of brutality and discouragement for her and her two sons.

Although the musical career of Connie Smith returned its strength, her emotional and physical strength began to dwindle. "My heart was no longer in my performing," she said. "I decided it was time to devote more of myself to my family. I was tired of leaving Marshall home with the kids while I hit the road as a singer."

Her husband, Marshall Hanes, has brought her a great part of the happiness she has prayed for. They have three beautiful daughters via their marriage in addition to the two fine boys by former marriages who Connie raised solo for a number of years.

What will Connie Smith do now that she is no longer a country music entertainer? She plans to remain with "The Grand Ole Opry," at least for awhile, singing gospel songs. The rest is uncertain.

Two things are certain. According to Connie, she will be happier. As for her fans, she will be missed.
