Mao's Foes Expand Bid For Backers

By EUGENE LEVIN

TOKYO (AP) — Followers of Mao Tse-tung disclosed today that his opponents have extended their "counteroffensive" from the cities to the countryside in a bid to win over Red China's 500-million peasants.

It was a direct challenge to Mao, who in the past has managed to hold the support of the peasants who make up two thirds of the mainland population.

Supporters of Mao's chief foe, President Liu Shao-chi, were reported trying to influence the peasants the same way they did workers in the industrial centers — through economic benefits.

A Japanese correspondent in Peking reported bloody clashes took place between followers of Mao and Liu in Shenyang, Harbin and Dairen in Manchuria and Chengchow in central China. He said wall posters reported 58 persons were injured Dec. 21 when about 3,000 Red Guards who had swung over to Liu's side clashed with 600 Maoists in Dairen, major port and gateway to Manchuria.

The correspondent said anti-Mao textile workers and their supporters clashed with pro-Mao Red Guards on Jan. 7-8 in Chengchow. One person was reported killed and 23 seriously injured he said.

Six persons were reported seriously injured and scores slightly hurt Jan. 6 in similar clashes in Shenyang, the report added.

A Chinese woman arriving in Hong Kong from Canton said about 100 Chinese burned Mao in effigy in that southern city Wednesday. Hundreds of bystanders cheered and applauded, the woman said.

The New China News Agency, in Chinese-language reports broadcast by Peking Radio, indicated that Mao's opponents were trying to win over the peasants by giving them bigger individual shares of the traditional year-end distribution of produce.

This produce is usually apportioned to the state, the commune, and individual members of the commune.

During the turmoil since New Year's Day, Communist China's official news outlets have repeatedly accused Mao's opponents of trying to win workers with "economism" — promises of higher wages and other economic benefits.

Search Yields No Trace Of Heiress

By LOUIS UCHITELLE

SAN JUAN, P.R. (AP) — Planes are searching between Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands for the only daughter of one of the world's richest women, missing in a small twin-engine plane with her husband and a pilot.

Audrey Bruce Currier, a granddaughter of Andrew W. Mellon, and her husband, Stephen R. Currier, were last heard from Tuesday night 30 minutes after the Piper Apache took off from San Juan for a 70-mile hop to St. Thomas, in the Virgin Islands. The pilot was John D. Watson, 52, of Airplane Charters Inc., the owner of the plane.

More than 20 planes and ships spent all Wednesday fanning over the eastern Caribbean. But they found no trace of the heiress to an estimated $700-million share of the vast Mellon financial empire or her husband, 36, a philanthropist and sponsor of civil rights causes.

Planes kept up the hunt throughout the night and the air-sea search was to resume at daylight.

Mrs. Currier, 33, is the daughter of David K.E. Bruce, U.S. ambassador to Britain, and Ailsa Mellon Bruce, the only daughter of the Pittsburgh tycoon who was U.S. secretary of the treasury from 1921 until 1932.

Blasts Kills 19 Miners

WELLINGTON, New Zealand (AP) — An explosion in the government's Strongman coal mine near Greymouth killed 19 men today, Deputy Mines Minister S. A. O'Neill announced.

Rescue squads, fighting heavy gas and threatened with more explosions, had recovered eight bodies some 12 hours after the blast at 10 a.m.

The men were killed about three quarters of a mile from the mine mouth and 400 feet underground. The section in which they were trapped was not usually worked and they had been sent there only for today.

"There is no one alive to give us any clue to what happened," said O'Neill.

Bitter Cold To Moderate

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Subzero cold along the nation's northern border states produced New England's coldest morning of the winter today, then continued a retreat as new storms drove eastward off the Pacific and northeastward through the Appalachians.

The day's bitterest cold, in New York's northern Adirondacks and interior New England, included 14 below zero at Lebanon, N.H.; 18 below at Montpelier, Vt.; 23 below at Houlton, Maine; and 35 below at Wanakena, N.Y.

"You can tell it's getting cold when the trees snap," said a spokesman at the New York Ranger school at Wanakena, "but we're accustomed to it. It's not bad at all."

He explained the cold freezes and expands moisture in tree trunks, causing the wood to crack.

There was no such complacency about a snowstorm that struck Washington, D.C., bedeviling the morning rush-hour traffic, and prompting Weather Bureau warnings of a 3- to 6-inch accumulation.

The eastern storm began during the night as freezing rain that glazed the streets and highways in northern and central Louisiana, southeastern Arkansas and central Mississippi. It deposited 5 inches of snow at London, Ky. and in the eastern Tennessee mountains, and 4 inches at Wytheville, Va., Crossville, Tenn.; and in North Carolina's Great Smoky Mountains National Park.

There were lighter accumulations in Maryland, parts of Tennessee, Delaware, West Virginia and the Carolinas, but the Weather Bureau warned that the continuing snow may become as deep as 3 to 6 inches all through and to the east of the Appalachians.

Hazardous driving warnings were in effect all through that territory.

The storm in the West poured close to 1½ inches of rain on Quillayute, Wash., during early morning hours and as much as 4 inches of snow in Idaho's mountains. Motorists were being advised to use chains to travel the mountain passes. Spokane, Wash., got 1 inch of snow.

Welfare Employees Return To Work

NEW YORK (AP) — Striking Welfare Department employes returned to work today after voting to accept a mediator's proposal for fact-finding on the critical issue of wages.

The union and city both were unable to supply figures on how many workers were on the job, but it seemed to be a general return.

Tax Hike Avoidable Claims GOP Leader

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford said today "Congress can cut the President's budget sufficiently to avoid a tax increase." But until Congress gets the budget, he added "it is impossible to be specific about budget cuts."

In reply to questions submitted by The Associated Press, Ford said his opposition to the President's proposal for a 6 per cent surcharge on corporate and most individual income taxes "is based on the economic indicators as they presently exist."

"Balancing the economy is more important than balancing State of the Union message. The the budget," he said.

Ford's views were given in advance of tonight's Republican response to President Johnson's State of the Union message. The Michigan Republican will outline the GOP domestic program and Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen will discuss foreign affairs.

Dirksen told a reporter it was fair to say that he would give Johnson's Vietnam course a general endorsement but reserve the right to criticize particulars. He added he will have a great deal to say about other international actions.

Ford said that if Johnson had "set a ceiling of $130 billion or less on his budget," rather than putting it at $135 billion, "he then might not have been compelled to request a tax increase."

In the Republican Congressional Committee "Newsletter" last week, Ford called the tax proposal a "tragic mistake" and said "the President has yet to present solid evidence that it is necessary."

Johnson said the surtax would bring in $4.5 billion in the fiscal year starting July 1, holding the estimated deficit in that year to $8.1 billion.

But Ford said "it seems clear that the proposed income tax increase is advanced as the vehicle for $4.5 billion in increased domestic spending."

And he said his opposition to what Johnson says is a tax intended to reduce the deficit does not mean he is "advocating a large deficit."

The senior Republican member of the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee took a more flexible position on the tax proposal.

"I just don't have enough facts to make a judgment," Rep. John W. Byrnes of Wisconsin said in an interview.

"It would be hard to tolerate a 12-15-18-20-billion dollar deficit," Byrnes added. "On the other hand, it might be better if the economy is shaky to tolerate a deficit of $6-7 billion than have a tax increase because of the effect it might have on the economy."

Like Byrnes, Rep. Frank T. Bow of Ohio, the senior Republican on the House Appropriations Committee, declined to give specific estimates on possible budget cuts until he has a chance to examine the President's budget.

He did list as possible areas for "careful examination" the antipoverty, space and model cities programs.

"Obviously you're not going to be able to balance the budget this year," Bow said. "What is at question is how large the deficit will be."

Many Republicans — and Democrats too — have issued statements criticizing the President's surtax proposal. Virtually all have contended that domestic spending cuts should come before Congress considers the tax hike. Few have said outright they will vote against the tax increase.

Pentagon Reveals Economy Moves

By SEYMOUR M. HERSH

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon aims to save more than $37 million yearly by merging or phasing out 33 military bases and activities in the United States and 6 overseas facilities, it was learned today. More than 1,400 civilian jobs would be eliminated.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara tells a news conference today about the new consolidation move, his sixth since 1961.

Informed sources said the new cutbacks also will involve the transfer of 3,000 other civilian employes and 1,700 military workers. The informants added, however, that all career civilian employes whose jobs will be eliminated by the new actions will be immediately offered different positions by the Defense Department.

The 33 cutbacks in the United States are spread unevenly across the nation, with Alabama, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Texas and Washington each losing three facilities. California, Massachusetts, New York and Ohio each will lose two facilities.

Here is how the move will affect Texas bases:

Red River Army Depot, Texarkana—Certain classified activities to be terminated. Eliminates 87 of the present 5,633 civilian positions. Annual saving $700,000. To be completed by September, 1967.

VIII U. S. Army Corps, Austin — To be deactivated with remaining functions transferred to 4th U.S. Army and Army Reserve sector commands. Transfers 94 civilian and 27 military positions to Army. Eliminates 3 civilian postions, frees 58 military positions for other requirements. Annual saving $343,900. To be completed by December, 1968.

Subsistence regional headquarters defense personnel support center, Fort Worth — to be consolidated at New Orleans, La., and Kansas City, Mo. Transfers 13 civilian positions to New Orleans and 24 to Kansas City. Eliminates 29 civilian positions, frees 9 military positions for other requirements. Annual saving $300,000. To be completed by July, 1967.

Demand For Tickets To Banquet Up

Demands increased this morning for tickets to the annual banquet of the Snyder Chamber of Commerce.

The banquet is scheduled for Friday night and tickets are priced at $3 each. The banquet meal will be served in the high school cafeteria and the formal program will be presented in the auditorium.

Entertainment will feature the Snyder High School Championship Stage Band, under direction of Melvin Montgomery. The guest speaker at the banquet will be Joe Kilgore, Austin Attorney and former Congressman.

Both the Chamber of Commerce and the Jaycees will present awards during the program. The Chamber will present its annual "outstanding citizen" award while the Jaycees will present their "outstanding young farmer" award.

Banquet tickets are being sold by members of the Chamber's Producers Club, and they also may be reserved by calling the Chamber office at HI 3-3558.

Connally Makes Tax Decisions

By GART JONES
Associated Press Writer

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. John Connally has made his tax decisions and probably will present them to the legislature next week, sources close to the governor said today.

Connally laid out most of his legislative work program in a message Wednesday. He said he later would recommend ways of raising the $125 million needed to balance his budget.

A highly placed source said Connally knows now what taxes he would recommend, and another aide said "we hope to do it next week."

As described by a key legislator in the fiscal process, these are Connally's choices:

1. Boost in the oil production tax from 4.6 per cent of value to 5 per cent—$11 million a year.

2. Increase the natural gas production tax from 7 to 8 cent—$9 million.

3. Raise the franchise tax on corporations—$12.5 million.

4. Increase the liquor tax from $1.68 to $2.07 per gallon—$4 million.

5. Boost the beer tax—$2.8 million, or place beer and liquor under the 2 per cent sales tax $11 million.

6. Raise the state gasoline tax from 4 to 5 cents a gallon—$12.5 million.

If the beer tax is left the same and beer and liquor are brought under the sales tax, total revenue would be $60 million a year or $120 million for the coming two-year fiscal period.

If the beer tax is left the same and beer and liquor remain immune to the sales tax, total revenue would be $51.8 million a year or $103.6 million for the 1968-69 biennium.

Legislaturs turned their attention to specific proposals today.

Look Magazine Seeks Damages

NEW YORK (AP) — Look magazine is seeking damages in excess of $200,000 from the Chicago Daily News in a court suit charging the newspaper with unfair competition and infringement of copyright in publishing excerpts of the book, "The Death of a President."

Look filed separate lawsuits Wednesday against the Chicago Daily News, in U.S. District Court in Chicago, and the German magazine Stern, in Hamburg, Germany, asking for damages and an injunction against both publications over the serialization of the brook.

Look claimed that it had embargoed until Jan. 10 its press release detailing some aspects of the first installment of the book and that the Chicago Daily News prematurely published on Jan. 7 an "excessive amount of material" from the first installment.

Stern was accused in the suit of breach of contract. Unlike the suit against Stern, the action against the Chicago Daily News is not based on breach of contract, since Look had no agreement with the newspaper.

Roy Fisher, editor of the Chicago Daily News, issued a statement Wednesday night saying: "The story was published consistent with the newspaper's responsibility to report news of national significance. We are confident that in doing so we violated no release and infringed no rights. We regret, nevertheless, that there is a mutual misunderstanding with Look."

HELICOPTER SWALLOWS OX CART — A South Vietnamese ox cart is loaded in the hold of a U.S. Army Chinook helicopter near the village of Ben Suc located in the Iron Triangle about 30 miles northwest of Saigon. About 3,800 people and their belongings have been evacuated from the area to a refugee center near Phu Cuong to isolate them from the Viet Cong. The million dollar helicopter carried three ox carts, worth about 40 U.S. dollars each, on the 20-minute flight to Phu Cuong. (AP Wirephoto)

SCOUT EXECUTIVE IS TRANSFERRED

David Parkhill, Boy Scout Executive for the Lone Buffalo District, is being transferred to Fort Worth.

He has been executive for this district of the Buffalo Trail Council since July of 1965. He will be assigned a district in the Longhorn Council at Fort Worth.

Parkhill said he likely would leave for Fort Worth early in February.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am 16 and I am ready to run away from home. My problem is my mother. To begin with I am overweight, which I know I am, but my mother doesn't let me forget it for a minute. I've been on several diets but none of them has been any good for me. Well, my mother watches every bite I put into my mouth. I am not on a diet now because the doctor told my mother not to throw out any more money on pills and office calls for me because I wasn't "Mature" enough to stay on a diet.

Well, when I get good and ready to go on a diet, I will, but right now I am resting, so will you please print this so my mother may see it and maybe she'll let me enjoy a meal once. Thank you.

RESTING

DEAR RESTING: All right. I printed your letter for your mother to see. Now, a word to you: Don't "rest" too long because the more weight you pile on while you're "resting," the more difficult it will be to lose. Your mother is trying to spare you misery later on, so shape up.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: My husband is very generous about money matters, but he thinks everything I buy for the house, large or small, should have his approval. He wants to be consulted about paint color, drapery fabric, every little inexpensive light fixture, ash tray, etc. He says he lives here, too, and should have his say about the furnishings.

He never consults me about the thousands of dollars worth of sports equipment he buys. Or his office furnishings, or even his car. He says these things concern only him. It is not a matter of taste, because he admits that mine is better. His father was a tyrant who had his mother completely cowed and took the spirit out of her. This situation is getting on my nerves. How would you handle it?

CALIFORNIAN

DEAR CALIFORNIAN: Dutifully consult your husband about each item you wish to buy for your home. Then buy what you want.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I hope you won't think I'm some kind of a nut, but I want to share this with someone and you are elected: I work for a real estate company, and whenever business is bad, I wear an old green skirt that has been cut off at the bottom with a pinking shears, and business picks up immediately!

I try not to overdo it, and I never wear my "good luck" skirt unless business is really in a slump. I suppose it is only a coincidence, but that old green skirt has never failed me.

I wonder if there are other people who have a good luck charm that works for them like mine does for me?

Sends Bobby Price Of A Haircut

By KELLY SMITH

WASHINGTON (AP)—A New Yorker — concerned about the image of the Empire State—has sent Sen. Robert F. Kennedy $2 for a haircut.

Emanuel F. Manheimer, 25, Ossining, N.Y., said Kennedy's bushy head had bothered him for some time. But seeing the senator on television last week on the night of President Johnson's State of the Union message really was the last straw, he said.

"It is irrelevant whether I am a registered Democrat or Republican," Manheimer wrote the New York Democrat Wednesday. "The only point is that I am and have been all my life a resident of the state of New York.

"I am enclosing a check in the amount of $2," he said, "to maintain an image that the country might have of the Empire State." He said that when he once worked as a state park employe his boss "wouldn't allow us to report to work like that."

Kennedy apparently was unconcerned.

"I got a haircut Monday. Tell Mr. Manheimer to watch me at my next public appearance," he said through an office spokesman.

The clip was anything but close.

Manheimer, president of EBM Associates—an investment and real estate firm, is not the first to suggest scissors. Kennedy's office readily admits he gets a "fair amount of mail on the subject, particularly after a public or television appearance." Mail is both pro and con. Money that some other letter-writers have sent for haircuts has been turned over to charities, a Kennedy aide said. He said Manheimer's letter had not arrived.

Kennedy's bushy hair also draws some barbs from fellow senators.

When Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen arrived one day with his locks tousled more than usual, a colleague in the Senate chamber said, "You're looking more like Bobby every day!"

Quipped Dirksen: "Well, I thought we might as well have Beatles on each side of the aisle."

Prosecution Rests In Baker Trial

WASHINGTON (AP) — The prosecution rested today in the trial of Bobby Baker, accused of income tax evasion, converting senatorial campaign contributions to his own use, conspiracy and other offenses.

Lawyers for Baker, former secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority, were ready to start their defense.

The chief defense attorney, Edward Bennett Williams, spent much of the morning cross-examining a tax expert with the Internal Revenue Service.

Dr. Sam Sheppard Applies For License

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard says he has applied for a license to practice neurosurgery in California.

Sheppard, recently acquited in Cleveland, Ohio, in the murder of his first wife, Marilyn, after serving nearly 10 years in prison, greeted his son, Samuel Jr., 19, a student at Boston University, who arrived by air Wednesday to spend a vacation with his father.

Sheppard said he has been living in nearby Glendale.

Baptists Name Elite Committee

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The Baptist General Convention has named its elite "Committee of 100" and elected a Houston pastor, the Rev. E. Hermond Westmoreland, to head the group.

Other officers of the committee announced by the BGCT Wednesday included:

Jarman Bass, Dallas layman, vice chairman; Jack McCreary, Austin layman, secretary, and T. A. Patterson, BGCT executive secretary, an ex officio member.

Westmoreland said the committee would be divided into four subcommittees to work in such areas as Christian education, state missions, human welfare institutions, and—in one group—the church loan department, Baptist Foundation, and Baptist Standard.

The committee, composed of 50 laymen and 90 pastors, will "make a careful review of the BGCT's boards, agencies, commissions, committees and institutions" and explore ways of enlisting total resources of Texas Baptists in the implementation of the Great Commission."

The "Committee of 100" will make its report to the convention in Lubbock in November.

Reading Cookbooks Is Fun

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

SOME WOMEN regularly ask for cookbooks as holiday, anniversary or birthday gifts. Some constantly borrow cookbooks from public libraries.

Some women try recipes from the books. Some are perfectly content just to read culinary compilations.

But nowadays most cookbook fans are fascinated by a variety of cuisines. Here then, chosen from the year's pulications, are cookbooks devoted to the fare of half a dozen countries.

"The Spanish Cookbook" by Barbara Norman (Atheneum, $5.95) is a fine introduction to the cooking of Spain, researched and written with rare care. It bears the pleasant mark of its author's thorough familiarity with her subject. A first chapter describes the cooking in the different regions of Spain; other chapters go on to dishes featured in the courses of a meal. A discussion of tortillas and other egg dishes and one of paella and other rice dishes is most worthwhile.

"The Chatelaine Cookbook" by Elaine Collett (Doubleday, $6.95) should interest anyone who wants to see what Canada has been cooking up over the years. For the recipes included were chosen from 10,000 that appeared in Chatelaine, the Canadian women's magazine. Although this is a competent comprehensive compilation, its most interesting feature is its inclusion of some regional specialties and some drawn from Canada's many ethnic groups.

"The Best of Swedish Cooking" and Baking" by Marianne Gronwall van der Tuuk (Rand McNally, $4.95) is a welcome combination of two previous books, "Swedish Cooking At Its Best" and "Swedish Baking At Its Best." Carefully tested by the Swedish - born author who has lived in the United States for some years, these recipes are delightfully authentic and clearly written. They would be of help in preparing Scandinavian-type buffets and in varying everyday family meals.

"House of India Cookbook" by Syed Abdullah (Follett, $4.95) is a relief! It is neither too complicated nor too sketchy for non-Indian cooks. Colonel Abdullah's contribution strikes us as being quite serviceable — probably because he operates a Chicago restaurant that serves Indian food and his resulting practical experience has guided him in writing his book.

"Japanese Cuisine—A Culinary Tour" by John D. Keys is an interesting compilation because it not only features special regional dishes but includes a brief description of the localities from which they come. Half of this book is devoted to modern Tokyo cuisine which, the author says, consists of recipes that are basically Japanese but show strong traces of Chinese, European and American influences. The California - born author collected his material in Japan and anyone who plans to visit that country would find this book a good culinary guide. According to Mr. Keys, his recipes call for ingredients available, for the most part, in cosmopolitan super - markets, and any specific ingredients not available in this way may be obtained from the markets in about two dozen states listed in "Japanese Cuisine."

"Modern French Culinary Art" by Henri-Paul Pellaprat (World, $22.50) is one of the handsomest books to appear recently because it contains many fascinating color photographs of artfully arranged dishes. It is a revised verson of a book originally published in 1935, written by a well-known French chef after his retirement from the school in Paris. Like most revisions of famous cookbooks, this present edition is a far cry from the original—it is much more specific than M. Pellaprat cared to be or thought necessary. Mrs. Avanelle Day, one of the wisest and most talented of all American home economists, worked on this present volume, and she has used her many years of experience in attempting to make the book practicable for present - day cooks.

Use your freezer for storing chicken parts, then make up a good quantity of chicken stock at one time. After the stock is made it, too, should be stored in the freezer (in individual 1-cup portions) for use when needed. Wing tips, giblets and bony back parts make excellent chicken stock when coupled with seasonings.

School Menu

FRIDAY

School Out for Teachers' Work Shop.

Sweet Fennel Bread

1 package active dry yeast
¼ cup warm water
1 cup milk, scalded
2 tablespoons each light brown sugar and dark molasses
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
½ teaspoon salt
1½ cups unsifted stoneground rye flour (on coarse side)
1 teaspoon fennel seeds
2 cups (about) unsifted regular flour

In small bowl, dissolve yeast in water. In large bowl, stir together the scalded milk, sugar, molasses, butter and salt; cool to lukewarm. Stir in yeast, then rye flour and fennel, mixing well. With a spoon, work in enough regular flour (about 1½ cups) to make a soft but sticky dough. Turn out on floured surface and, working in remaining flour (about ½ cup), knead until elastic — about 10 minutes. Place in greased bowl; turn to grease top; cover. Let rise in warm draftfree place until doubled — about 1 hour. Shape into a loaf; place in pan (9 by 5 by 3 inches); cover. Let rise as previously until doubled — about 45 minutes. Bake at 350 degrees about 45 minutes. Turn out on wire rack to cool.

Canned garbanzos (chick peas) are convenient to serve as a salad. Drain the beans, let them stand in a spicy marinade made with oil and vinegar and serve them on lettuce.

Wholewheat and rye flours may be stoneground or roller-ground. The stoneground flours are rougher in texture than the rollerground flours If you want to make yeast bread, from wholewheat or rye flour, and have a smooth even texture in the finished product, use the rollerground flour.

Poage Trims Panel Budget

By ROBERT A. HUNT

WASHINGTON (P) — The Texas Democrat who's in line to head the House Agriculture Committee is cutting its budget.

Rep. W. R. Poage said today he has trimmed the size of the committee staff and reduced top salaries.

"I'm just trying to run the committee like I'd run my own business, that's all," Poage said in an interview.

He said his action was not intended as any criticism of Rep. Harold Cooley, D-N.C., who served as committee chairmen until his defeat in the last election.

Poage, starting his fourth decade in Congress, is in line to succeed Cooley under the congressional seniority system. He will do so officially when the committee is organized for the 90th Congress.

"Anybody has a tendency to build these things up," Poage said. "Salaries were moving a little higher and higher. I'd be taking over at the point where he quit with a full-grown outfit and I can't see where I would be justified in doing that."

Poage said he was trying to reduce the staff to what he called a "more manageable size." He said there were 25 employes on the committee under Cooley and he planned to start with about 13 but he hasn't fired anyone.

Four staff employes have been paid the maximum of $25,980 a year. This will be cut to $22,500, he said, but no cuts were made in salaries under $20,000.

The committee payroll was in the neighborhood of $200,000 annually.

"We'll be running this thing with a saving in salaries of about $75,000 a year," Poage said.

Poage said he felt the House Democratic leadership "made a mistake" in keeping the committee's size at 35 members.

"I tried to convince them that it should have been smaller," he said.

Suits Make Comeback In Italian Fashions

By LEONORA DODSWORTH

ROME (AP) — The suit — almost a dirty word in fashion these days — made a determined comeback Wednesday night as showings of Italian spring and summer fashions continued.

Dress and jacket outfits might be getting more than their fair share of the limelight elsewhere, but designer Pino Lancetti holds that the suit, with a blouse, has a place in every woman's wardrobe.

Among others, he showed a pink wool suit, finely striped in yellow, teamed with a cuff-collared blouse in yellow striped with pink.

A city slicker suit in navy with a checked chiffon blouse was tied at the neck with a scarf. Classic jackets with pressed lapels were very short. So were skirts.

Lancetti has always liked very correct little coats, cut with an almost military precision. As usual, they appeared very prim and very proper in bright meltons with well designed waists by way of a bow of gentle gathers.

A second coat shape was a back-flaring tent fitted in front. Some of these swingbacks had belts which held only at the front.

Lancetti used a firm silk in an attractive shraw-like weave for shirt dresses that looked a little like uniforms with businesslike patch pockets and tabbed shoulders.

Colors were bright and singing — sunny yellows, coral reds, shrimp, lobster and masses of grass green.

Delicious little short chiffons for long summer evenings had bare arms and were light as thistledown in barely perceptible prints. here were tent dresses, too sleeveless and long in gauzy silks and organzas. Some were printed and some were in solid colors trimmed with rosettes.

The planet Venus, earth's closest neighbor, hides its face beneath a sea of clouds. At intervals of about a year and a half, however, the planet draws close to earth and becomes the evening star, bright enough to cast a shadow.

Six Teams Entered Lamar Tournament

Six teams are entered in the annual 9th grade basketball tournament to be held this year at Lamar Junior High School Friday and Saturday.

Upper bracket teams are Travis, Sweetwater, and Colorado City. Lower bracket foes are Lamar, Post and Stamford.

Travis 9th grade drew a bye in the first round while Lamar 9th grade is slated for a 6:30 p.m. tilt Friday with Post providing the opposition. At 5 p.m. Friday, the tourney gets underway with a match between Sweetwater and Colorado City. Stamford also drew a first round bye.

Thus Stamford will meet the Lamar-Post winner at 9 a.m. Saturday, in the second round, and Travis will tangle with the Sweetwater-Colorado City winner at 10:30 a.m. Saturday. The battle for third place is set for 5:30 p.m. Saturday with the championship game slated to begin at 7 p.m. Saturday. The Consolation championship is set for 4 p.m. Saturday.

On the local scene today, Travis White meets Lamar Red and Travis Blue tests Lamar Gray at 4:30 p.m. and 5:30 p.m. tilts involving 7th grade teams.

SPORTS

All-Star Alignments Are Given

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—Two teams will furnish 18 of the 22 Western Division starters Saturday in the sixth annual American Football League All Star Game, at Oakland Coliseum.

This was disclosed Wednesday with the release of the starting lineups for both the Western and Eastern squads, after the daily workouts.

Kansas City, which went on to win the AFL title, will contribute 10 of its 12 All Star participants to the starting lineups. Oakland, which also has 12 players in the game, will have eight starters.

All three Kansas City linebackers will start, head coach John Rauch of Oakland said.

The East team is dominated by Buffalo. The division champion Bills will have nine starters among the 2.

Fans Tell Ross Goodbye

CHICAGO (AP) — The great and the small, the old and the young, people of all faiths and races will begin saying the last goodby to Barney Ross tonight.

Visitations at the chapel where his body lay in state were to be for three hours. Funeral services will be Friday with burial in Chicago's Rosemont Park Cemetery.

Barney Ross, 57, lost his last fight to throat cancer Wednesday.

He had never known the meaning of defeat in his battles as a boxer, a Marine and against narcotics.

He won the lightweight, junior welterweight and welterweight boxing titles in the 1930's. He won the silver star for gallantry in action on Guadalcanal in 1942.

Strong 76ers Rip Detroit, 113-105

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Billy Cunningham and Luke Jackson took turns — almost — and the Philadelphia 76ers rolled again.

That was the latest chapter in the Philadelphia story as the visiting 76ers whipped Detroit 113-105 Wednesday night for their sixth straight National Basketball Association victory and 43rd in 47 starts.

Cunningham scored 11 points in the first quarter to keep the 76ers close as Detroit took a 29-27 lead. Then Jackson took over in the second, scoring 17 to give the 76ers a 61-49 halftime margin.

After Detroit went ahead by a point in the third, Cunningham came on again for nine points as Philadelphia moved to an 83-74 lead at the end of the period. Cunningham then stepped out of turn and scored 11 more in the final period.

The Boston Celtics outdid Oscar Robertson by getting double-figure scoring from seven players to beat host Cincinnati 119-106, Chicago held Rick Barry to 13 points in beating San Francisco 111-107 at Evansville, Ind., and the St. Louis Hawks outlasted the Lakers 123-121 in overtime at Los Angeles.

Robertson popped in 36 points in an effort to run the Royals' winning streak to six, but the Celtics' balanced scoring attack was just too much. John Havlicek led Boston with 20, Bailey Howell and Sam Jones added 19 each and Bill Russell was next with 18.

Chicago's Don Kojis did the good defensive job on Barry in the game at Evansville, Ind. Barry, the NBA's leading scorer, made only four of 21 field goal attempts. Three straight field goals by Jim Washington helped put Chicago ahead 106-103 with less than three minutes remaining.

Clutch-shooting by Zelmo Beaty triggered St. Louis' victory over Los Angeles as the Hawks' tightened their grip on second place in the Western Division.

Jerry West's jump shot in the final seconds of regulation time enabled the Lakers to tie the game 112-all. Beaty, who wound up with 32 points and Lennie Wilkens sparked the Hawks in the extra period.

Alcindor Soars Again

NEW YORK (AP)—Lew Alcindor of UCLA regained the scoring lead, but Wesley Unseld of Louisville, another top-rated center, lost his rebound lead, this week's National Collegiate Athletic Bureau statistics showed today.

Alcindor collected 91 points in three games last week to bring his average to 29.8 points a game, overtaking Jim Walker of Providence. Walker, who had led for two weeks, scored 41 points in two contests and now averages 29.5.

Dick Cunningham of Murray State recovered 12 rebounds in four games last week and replaced Unseld, the season-long leader. Cunningham has averaged 22.3 rebounds a game to 21.7 for Unseld. Alcindor was seventh at 16.0.

Bob Lloyd of Rutgers, who ranks third in scoring with a 29.3 average, tops the free throw percentage leaders at 94.3 per cent. Alcindor is the field goal percentage leader at 67.9 per cent.

Northwestern and Memphis State retained their leadership as the nation's top offensive and defensive teams. Northwestern has averaged 96.7 points a game and Memphis State has allowed only 50.2 per contest. UCLA is only .9 of a point behind Northwestern, but Memphis State enjoys almost a six-point lead over Tennessee.

MICKEY MAKES IT — Mickey Almond, 5-11 Tiger junior, has been a sparkplug for the Snyder High School basketball team this season. He's among the top 10 scorers in the district. Here, Mickey displays his winning style on layup shots at the expense of Sweetwater. The Bengals open the second round here Tuesday night with Lamesa providing the opposition.

Coaches Pan New Gridiron Rules

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

There will be changes in college football rules for 1967 and at least two Southwest Conference coaches do not like some of them.

The rules committee of the National Collegiate Athletic Association, meeting in Phoenix, Ariz., decided to ban the use of electronic coaching aids, especially video tape replays, and to give the receiving team more opportunity to return punts.

On punt situations, the new rule requires the five interior linemen to hold their positions until the ball is kicked. In effect this would give only the ends a chance to get down field quickly.

Coach Gene Stallings of Tex A&M said Wednesday night: 'Lots of teams take great pride in their punt overage. Now that rule takes all of that away."

Stallings, in Amarillo on a recruiting trip, added: "It looks like the rule was put in to please the fans. I just don't think a rule like that is good for football."

Coach J. T. King of Texas Tech, who pioneered the use of video tape replays during a game, said Wednesday night he regretted that the committee did not leave it up to individual conferences to decide the use of electronic deyices.

King first used video tape in 1965 and credited it with helping Tech to an 8-2 won-lost record.

Salukis In Limelight

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Southern Illinois, conqueror of major power Louisville, strengthened its lead on first place in The Associated Press weekly small college basketball today.

Of the 18 experts voting, 17 of them picked the Salukis first, with Kentucky Wesleyan second. Southern Illinois got 179 points, while Kentucky Wesleyan, which received the other first place vote, got 149.

Southern Illinois defeated Kentucky Wesleyan 82-81 last Monday, but the poll is based only on games through last Saturday.

The only change in the Top Ten saw No. 6 Pan American and No. 9 Tennessee State exchanging places. Tennessee State moved up by beating No. 10 Lincoln, Mo., 92-88, while Pan American dropped because of defeats by Midwestern, Tex., 81-68, and the Phillips Oilers, 82-60.

Cheney State held on to third place, followed by Akron and Grambling in the first five.

Indiana State is seventh, then San Diego State, Pan American and Lincoln.

The Top Ten, with first-place votes in parentheses and total points on a 10-9-etc. basis:

1.	Southern Illinois (17)	179
2.	Kentucky Wesleyan (1)	149
3.	Cheyney State	115
4.	Akron	109
5.	Grambling	69
6.	Tennessee State	57
7.	Indiana State	56
8.	San Diego State	49
9.	Pan American	44
10.	Lincoln, Mo.	24

Seven Texans Named To Prep All-America

NEW YORK (AP) — Seven Texans, including two each from San Angelo and Houston, were selected on the 16th All-American High School football team.

The team, made up of 97 players from 39 states, was announced Wednesday by Scholastic Magazines, a chain of national education publications.

The selections from Texas were Freshie Hodge, Carrollton, end; Bill Atessis, Houston, and Randy Stout, San Angelo, interior linemen; Jim Achilles, Houston, center-linebacker; Gary Mullins, San Angelo, and Arthur Butler, Beaumont, quarterback; and Steve Worster, Bridge City, running back.

Mood Of 90th Congress Leans Toward Conservatism

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — The liberal impulse in this new 90th Congress already looks puffed-out. Not that it won't keep trying to prevail. But the odds are against it.

The mood of liberalism had its most shining hour, perhaps for years to come, in the 89th Congress. There the Democrats completely dominated, thanks to the 1964 elections which swept in a wave of liberals.

But in this 90th Congress, this time thanks to the 1966 elections, the mood and the people are more conservative.

Three recent events show it.

The vote to keep the playboy-preacher-politician Democrat from Harlem, Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, from taking his House seat until he can be investigated; the vote making it tougher to get action from the House Rules Committee; and the obvious defeat of an attempt to make it easier to kill a Senate filibuster.

Emerging now is a revived coalition of Republicans and Southern Democrats who had been the tycoons of Congress for generations until the 89th moved in.

That Congress, extending over 1965 and 1966, gave President Johnson a honeymoon, the kind he may never see again even if he serves two terms. It set a record for passing major legislation.

In the 1966 elections the Republicans gained 47 House seats and three in the Senate where Democrats outnumber them 64 to 36.

Although they still look vastly outnumbered there, the Republicans' leader there, Sen. Everett M. Dirksen is a powerful voice and influence, both of them highly conservative.

Wednesday Dirksen was in the forefront — although in this case Mansfield was by his side —in all but polishing off a liberal attempt to make it simpler to throttle a filibuster.

As the year goes on Dirksen will be the dominant conservative force in the Senate where a coalition of Republicans and Southern Democrats could stymie a lot of Johnson programs.

But in the House that coalition has already been in operation. After viewing what the House did on its opening day, Jan. 10, A New York liberal Democrat, Rep. Emanuel Celler, said "what happened today is a forerunner of what you can expect in this Congress. The Republicans and Dixiecrats are going to kill all liberal legislation. They will be entirely reactionary."

On that opening day the coalition deprived Powell of his seat, which he had held 22 years, until a special committee investigates his qualifications. This action did not specifically spell out the complaint against him.

But the argument related to two main questions: The findings of a House committee that he had many personal trips at taxpayers' expense; and a criminal contempt of court charge against him in New York after a verdict against him for defamation of character.

On the key vote 126 Democrats, almost all outside the South, and no Republicans were on his side. Against him were 119 Democrats, mostly from the South, and 186 Republicans, for a total of 305.

Then the coalition of Republicans and Southern Democrats teamed up to abolish a rule requiring the House Rules Committee, often a bottleneck for liberal legislation, to report out a bill within reasonable time.

Junior Editors Quiz on PIZZA

QUESTION: Did pizza originate in Italy or America?

• • •

ANSWER: In Italy, each province is apt to have its own food specialties. Pizza originated as such a specialty of the area around the city of Naples. Some say American soldiers stationed in Italy liked it and brought the idea of it back to America. People often speak of pizza pie, but it is not a pie, since its shell is made not of pie crust but bread dough. There are many fillings for pizza, but here is one widely popular: a layer of tomato sauce is spread first, then come pieces of mushroom or sausage, with oregano spice added. Now olive oil is applied, the filling is sprinkled with grated Italian cheese and strips of solid Mozzarella cheese are laid on top. The pizza is baked and served hot.

Why is pizza so popular, especially with the younger set? We interviewed some pizza fans. Jack said: "It's neat to eat. You can pick it up by the crust and the gooey stuff doesn't drip on you." Cathy: "It's exciting. There are so many different kinds." Jerry: "It's companionable. A gang can surround a pizza and have fun while eating it."

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: Have a pizza party and check on some other reasons for eating it. Maybe you'll find it just tastes good!

Publisher Won't Print Best-Seller

By EDDY GILMORE

LONDON (AP) — A British publisher who claims he has a novel that possesses every ingredient of a worldwide best seller says he does not plan to print it.

With an obvious reference to some recent American big-selling, many-paged novels, Peter Wolfe said that if the makeup of the ultimate in best-selling books are:

Sex, money, violence, drugs, drink, perversion, espionage, religion, sado-sexchism, racial prejudice, politics, royalty, mystery, excess, animals, obscurity, exotic locations, topical references, sheer bulk, then he has the book.

He added that with all the above it could not fail to sell in the millions.

In a red-and-white-colored printed announcement of this book that he is not going to publish, he lifted eight paragraphs from it which he said contains all of the above ingredients.

The eight paragraphs were:

"The Rev. Hereward Pingweed opened his eyes slowly and painfully. The room was unfamiliar. The bed was a strange one. He could feel a soft bulk of femininity beside him. A voice cut through the purple mists.

" 'Hereward, beloved, are you unwell?'

"It was his wife Lavinia."

" 'Ah, Lavinia, my love. My head is positively thumping. For a moment I could not think where I was.'

" 'I shall get you an aspirin, beloved. You really should not have had that glass of port on an empty stomach last night. It was so strange for you — you normally drink sherry. I hope it doesn't spoil the first day of our week in Bognor Regis, especially after we have saved so hard for a holiday.'

" 'It was intemperate of me, my pet. But I did not need to calm my nerves after what I overhead that awful Irishman say about the late King William.'

" 'Yes, beloved. Perhaps the Conservative Club would have been a wiser choice than O'Rafferty's Bar. But do not torture yourself. On the first night in a strange town we had to spy out the land a little. Would you like the morning papers? The weather forecast says that today will be showery with bright intervals.

" 'Thank you, my dear,' replied the Rev. Pingweed, whipping round."

Furnishing a key of 36 references to the above paragraph, Wolfe said it contained every ingredient now supposed to make up the best selling novel.

"Just check them over," said Wolfe. "Everything's there."

Wolfe is regarded as London's most off-beat publisher — but a highly successful one.

RACIAL CLASH AVERTED

Violence Erupts At San Quentin

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (AP) — Guards firing rifles, shotguns and tear-gas canisters prevented a racial clash between 2,800 white and Negro convicts in the San Quentin Prison yard Wednesday night as the two groups came to within 50 feet of each other.

Eight convicts suffered gunshot wounds during the tense hours following a glaring face-down of the two groups. Five others suffered head wounds from beatings by other convicts. Two men incurred heart attacks.

The confrontation included one group of more than 1,000 whites and Mexican-Americans and another group of about 1,800 Negroes.

Officials said the turmoil grew out of the fatal beating and stabing of a white prisoner last Monday.

Trouble started after lunch Wednesday, said Associate Warden James W. L. Park, when inmates entered the football field-sized yard. Whites and Mexican-Americans gathered on one side, Negroes on the other. They drew closer, hurling curses across the no-man's-land. Elsewhere on the grounds of the 40-acre prison, another 1,200 inmates tended to their duties.

With the angry convicts separated by only 50 feet, Warden Lawrence E. Wilson mounted the gunwall surrounding the yard and ordered, "Knock it off and go back to your cells."

There was silence, and no one moved.

Park said many of the men had armed themselves with pipes from plumbing ripped from prison facilities, and clubs from benches torn apart in the yard. A temporary classroom building made of wood was set ablaze.

Guards were ready to throw up a "wall of fire" with bullets if the factions got any closer, but it wasn't necessary, Park said.

The two groups surged. Messhall windows shattered. Guards fired warning shots into the air. By this time 500 prison guards and personnel took up posts, aided by a contingent of 65 men from the Marin County sheriff's office and the California Highway Patrol. Gov. Ronald Reagan made more than 200 other highway patrolmen available.

For nearly three hours the two groups refused to obey orders.

"No one seemed to want to make the first move," Wilson said.

Finally, tear-gas canisters were thrown and the Negroes, prodded by warning shots whining through the air, let themselves be herded back to their cells.

The remaining group of whites and Mexican-Americans stayed in the lower yard for about seven hours. Smoke billowed out of the yard as they burned benches to keep warm in a chilling fog that moved in.

They wore only dungarees and light shirts. In the late afternoon, one man was hit in the mouth by a richocheting bullet, Park said. Below the main gate, as Wilson gave a news conference, a flurry of shots were heard.

"Some of the men probably went where they weren't supposed to go," he said.

At 7:15 p.m., another staccato burst of shots rang out. Four men were wounded in this, it was explained, mostly around the legs. At about 8:30 p.m., guards began moving menback into their cells in groups of 25. And 2½ hours later all had been returned to cells and the prison was pronounced "secure."

Veteran Pilot Proves Copter Versatile

By RALPH DIGHTON
AP Science Writer

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — Sam Mason was hanging by his seat belt for a while Wednesday.

For him, that's not too unusual. Although white-haired at 49 and a grandfather, Mason is a test pilot.

What was unusual, even for Mason, was that he was in a helicopter at the time flying upside down, and helicopters are not supposed to fly that way.

Mason's feat was performed before several hundred veteran helicopter pilots here for the annual convention of the Helicopter Association of America.

Among the 20-odd rotor craft on exhibit at the Palm Springs airport, Mason's was unique. Its four blades had no hinges.

Most helicopter blades are hinged so they can be swung up or down while whirling to point the rudderless craft in a certain direction without tilting the cabin, suspended beneath them like a pendulum.

The blades of Mason's helicopter were fixed rigidly to the central rotating shaft. This meant that when he tilted the blades he tilted his cabin too. But it also meant that he could roll, loop and fly upside down.

If a conventional helicopter were flown upside down there would be danger of damaging the engine. The blades might fold and the wingless craft would fall like a rock. But Mason's blades couldn't fold — they had no hinges.

A spokesman for Lockheed California Co., for which Mason works and which built the rigid-rotor helicopter, said the hingeless concept means the craft could outmaneuver a fighter plane in a dogfight.

Mason set out to prove it. For 15 minutes he performed loops, rolls, rotor-overs (these would be wing-overs in an airplane — a maneuver which stops just short of a full roll), and sundry aerobatics which would leave a fighter pilot dizzy. And all at a height of 500 to 1,500 feet.

Dairymen Seek Price Stability

By OVID A. MARTIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Dairymen in the Midwest and Southwest want to see greater stability in producer and consumer prices of bottling milk.

Under federal milk marketing orders, minimum producer prices are established to assure consumers adequate supplies and producer adequate returns. But both producer and retail prices fluctuate during the year in relations to ups and downs in milk production.

Dairymen supplying 32 federal milk marketing order areas in Arkansas, Colorado, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Minnesota, Missouri, New Mexico, Ohio, Oklahoma, Tennessee, Texas and Wisconsin will present arguments for elimination of the seasonal changes in prices at an Agriculture Department hearing in Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 26.

Under the pricing systems, producer prices tend to go down during the spring and early summer season of flush production and to go up during fall and winter seasons of lower production.

These changes in producer prices often make it necessary for retail prices to be changed.

What the dairymen would like to see is a price system that would give producers a uniform price through the year which would reflect the current seasonal reductions and advances in producer prices.

In 1966, for example, producer prices for Class I fluid or bottling milk in 165 American milk markets ranged from an average of $5.60 to $6.19 a hundred pounds. This was a variation equivalent to a little more than a cent a quart in the wholesale price. Retail prices for home delivered milk ranged from an average of 28.9 to 31 cents a quart during 1966.

Services Held For Spearman Publisher

SPEARMAN, Tex. (AP) — Funeral services were held Wednesday for William J. Miller, 71, publisher of the Spearman Reporter for 35 years.

Miller died Monday, after a long illness.

He had been associated with news publishing for 60 years, working on weeklies in Panhandle, Quitaque, White Deer and Skellytown before moving to Spearman.

Survivors included his widow, a daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Hicks of Topeka, Kan.; a son, Bill Miller of Spearman; and a brother, Joe T. Miller of Austin.

Return To Refinery Jobs

PORT ARTHUR, Tex. (AP)—Some 4,000 striking workers made ready to return to work at the huge Texaco refinery today after two-year contracts specifying wage hikes were signed Wednesday.

The refinery has been idled for 11 days. Members of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers (OCAW) and of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (IBEW) union walked off the job when contract negotiations broke down.

The contracts call for a pattern wage hike of 14 cents an hour at once and four per cent effective Jan. 1, 1968. Current wage scales average about $3.57 an hour.

Plant manager F. D. Dorr said the refinery was being returned to full operation, a process that takes some three days as a rule.

Midland Soldier Killed In Action

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department said a Midland, Tex., soldier was among 12 American servicemen killed in action in Vietnam.

He was identified as Sgt. Irby Dyer III, the husband of Mrs. Bonnie K. Dyer.

The home address given was 1200 Bedford Drive, Midland.

Attorney Plans DeSalvo Appeal

By SID HURLBURT

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — Attorney F. Lee Bailey, charging that "Massachusetts just burned another witch," says he'll challenge the state's criminal insanity law in appealing the assault conviction of Albert DeSalvo, the man who claims to be the Boston strangler.

DeSalvo, 35, was sentenced Wednesday night to 10-years-plus-life after an all-male jury convicted the mental patient on charges of robbery and attacking four women in their suburban Boston homes in 1964.

None of the charges was connected with the series of killings attributed to the strangler.

"It is the fault of no one but the law," Bailey told newsmen as he left Middlesex County Superior Court.

The attorney, who successfully defended Dr. Samuel Sheppard of Cleveland, Ohio, in his second murder trial, and Dr. Carl Coppolino in his New Jersey murder trial, said he did not regard the verdict in the DeSalvo case as a defeat.

"I haven't lost it yet," he said, citing his plans for an appeal to the Massachusetts Supreme Court.

Bailey had asked for verdicts of not guilty by reason of insanity and had not contested the charges against DeSalvo.

Bailey challenged the definition of insanity in the Massachusetts penal code several times during the seven-day trial.

He had questioned psychiatric witnesses repeatedly on the subject, including their views on the language of a proposed model definition of criminal insanity as proposed by the American Law Institute.

In his final argument to the jury, Bailey referred to the witch trials which took place in Massachusetts in the 17th century, comparing a guilty verdict against DeSalvo with the ignorance of mental illness which he said was shown in the witchcraft era.

The jury deliberated three hours and 45 minutes before returning its verdicts on the 10 indictments, which included armed robbery, assault and battery, breaking and entering and sex offenses.

DeSalvo was sentenced to life imprisonment for armed robbery, with the sentence to begin after a 10-year sentence and other shorter concurrent terms for the other offenses.

Judge Cornelius J. Moynihan stayed the sentences pending the appeal and ordered DeSalvo returned to the Massachusetts State Hospital at Bridgeport, where he has been confined for most of the past 26 months.

Testimony was given during the trial that DeSalvo had insisted to psychiatrists he killed 13 women in eastern Massachusetts, 11 of them by strangling, between June 1962 and January 1964.

Grains Held To Await Price Hike

By OVID A. MARTIN

WASHINGTON (AP)— Many farmers are using federal mechanisms to speculate on the grain markets.

They are storing more than $750 million worth of wheat, corn, rice, other grains and soybeans under Agriculture Department price support loans as a means of holding title to these commodities while at the same time obtaining money to finance their farm operations.

They're expecting to redeem the crops when prices rise even higher than current levels.

It has ben normal for farmers to put extra crops under such loans, particularly when the loans were in line with market prices or above those prices.

But 1966 market prices have been running considerably above loan rates. This reflects the fact that price-depressing surpluses of the past no longer exist and possibilities that supplies may become tight before new crops are harvested.

By placing grains under loans, the farmer is able to take advantage of later advances in prices. There is a general feeling in agriculture that prices of most grains and of soybeans will rise considerably above present levels during the spring and early summer. If and when prices advance, the farmer can pay off his loan and cash in on the advance.

Amarillo Students Find Substitute For LSD

AMARILO, Tex. (AP) — Amarillo police said Wednesday that some college students in the Panhandle area were producing LSD effects on themselves with stolen morning glory seeds.

Police asked chemistry teachers if students had brought morning glory seeds to school laboratories after a nursery near the Amarillo College campus had been burglarized several times.

Principal loot has been morning glory seeds, the officers said, but money was taken in addition to the seeds when the nursery was burglarized a third time.

Officers said some varieties of morning glory seeds can produce hallucinations similar to those induced by LSD, peyote and jimson weed.

When asked by a reporter, an Amarillo College student said he knew of instances in which students held parties using morning glory seeds "for kicks."

Carol Burnett Gives Birth To Daughter

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Comedienne Carol Burnett is the mother of an 8-pound 7-ounce daughter. She gave birth Wednesday at St. John's Hospital.

She and her husband, television producer Joe Hamilton, have one other girl, Carrie, 3.

The temperature once dropped to 81 degrees below zero in a town called Snag in the Yukon, the National Geographic says. No colder temperature has ever been recorded in Canada.

Vacancies For WAFs

Sgt. Jack Townsley, the Air Force Recruiting representative for this area, announced today the Air Force has an urgent requirement for WAF (Women in the Air Force).

Numerous vacancies are now available in 15 career fields such as communications, administration, personnel and medical and dental specialists. Single girls who are high school graduates between the ages 18-27 are eligible to apply.

Selected girls will be working in important positions alongside their male counterparts. In addition to performing in a job contributing to the national defense they also enjoy travel, 30 days paid vacation annually, free medical and dental care, social activities plus countless other benefits.

Complete information regarding the WAF program for Women may be obtained by contacting Sgt. Townsley at The Federal Bldg. Rm. 2111, Abilene, telephone OR 2-8949.

Historical Panel Meets In Borden

GAIL — Committee chairmen for 1967 were appointed Tuesday at the first session of the new year for the Borden County Historical Survey Committee.

County Judge C. C. Nunnally read Gov. John Connally's proclamation to open the meeting.

Committee appointments, announced by Mrs. Frank Miller, 1967-68 chairman, are as follows:

Mrs. Rich Anderson of Gail, historical marker chairman; Mrs. Vivian Clark of Gail, reappointed research and museum chairman; Mrs. J. W. Holmes of Gail, membership and correspondence chairman; Mrs Bert Dennis of Gail, reappointed historical research and newsletters chairman; Mrs. Ben Weathers of Ira, secretary-treasurer and publicity chairman.

Regular meeting date of the county committee will be at 2 p.m. the first Tuesday of each month. The committee voted to name John Ben Shepperd of Odessa, retiring state president, an honorary member of the Borden County Historical Society. Also it was announced that in addition to $3 per year for the Borden County Historical Society Newsletter, contributions to the museum and memorials will be acknowledged.

Rules In Birch Case

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)— A judge has ruled that evidence relating to Mrs. Pearl Choate Birch's mental condition may be introduced into a hearing on administration of the estate of her husband, 95-year-old multimillionaire Albert Otis Birch.

Superior Judge Frank Wickhem held Wednesday that evidence concerning Mrs. Birch's mental stability is "of importance in this case."

The 59-year-old nurse married Birch last October. They have been living in Texas.

Lawyers for the Pasadena branch of the Security First National Bank, which is conservator of the estate, introduced letters which, they claim, show Mrs. Birch has expressed fears about her sanity.

A physician testified earlier that Birch is not capable of making decisions about his estate.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a 55-year-old Mama's boy who gave his girl friend an engagement ring in 1959, but she can't show it to anybody because he doesn't want his mother to find out?

Well, I am the girl friend. I have gone with Wendell for 10 years and I am pretty sick of this setup. I met his mother just once, when Wendell carried her to the foot doctor. He let me go along for the ride. He never told her I was his girl friend, tho. The problem is, Wendell's mother has money and she says if he marries she will leave it all to the church.

He was so confused two years ago he wrote to you, and you told him to talk to his pastor. He said he did and the pastor told him he was lucky to have such a wonderful mother.

What am I supposed to do now? I am 48 and not getting any younger.

WENDELL'S GIRL

DEAR GIRL: Put the ring through Wendell's nose and send him to his mother.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I am 22, have been working for four years and feel that I am ready to settle down. I have been dating a successful 28-year-old business man. He owns his own home, car, boat, and seems to have plenty of spending money. We have dated for more than a year and his family tells me I am the only girl he has dated more than once.

He says he "cares" for me, but he has never said, "I love you." He seems to enjoy my company, but he has never spoken in terms of the future as far as "we" are concerned. My mother says I am wasting my time with him. Should I pin him down and ask him what his intentions are?

PUZZLED

DEAR PUZZLED: No! If his intentions are to marry you, he doesn't need any prompting. If his intentions are to go with you as long as you'll go with him without committing himself, he'll drop you before he admits it. Don't count on this one. And don't pass up any other good bets if they appear.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I love my parents very much, but here is my problem. When they ask me to baby sit with my younger sisters and brothers they never tell me where they can be reached in case of emergency. I have baby sat for others, but they always leave a number where I can reach them. Sometimes my parents will leave on Friday and stay away until Sunday night and I never know where they've been until they come back and tell me.

I have asked them many times to please give me some idea of where they are going, but they say, "We don't know. If anything happens, call the ambulance." My parents have been married for 20 years and I think they deserve a good time, but don't you think they should at least call in or something?

WORRIED

DEAR WORRIED: Yes, I do, but if your parents are not sufficiently concerned about possible emergencies, there is nothing you can do but keep your eye on the little ones and pray you never have to call the ambulance. It may take an emergency to change their attitudes. Let's hope their luck holds out.

New Vistas Opened By Brain Study

DALLAS (AP) — Researchers have isolated eight brain hormones which may open new vistas for regulating human growth and overcome female sterility, a medical scientist said Thursday.

These hormones control the pituitary gland and their separation from a section of the brain called the hypothalamus was reported by Dr. Anand P. S. Dhariwal of Southwestern Medical School in Dallas.

He credited the first purification of four such hormones to a team led by Dr. Samuel McCann, head of the school's physiology department in which Dhariwal works. The research was done here and previously at the University of Pennsylvania.

Adding that the research still is in an experimental stage, he said: "There is no hope of using the brain hormones in humans until their structure is determined and until they can be obtained synthetically."

Dhariwal noted that hormones in the pituitary formerly were believed to exercise master control of functions related to growth, ovulation, stress, pigmentation, milk production and thyroid gland secretion.

Now it has been determined that the newly discovered hormones in the brain actually "tell the hormones in the pituitary what to do," he said.

He suggested the discovery raises possibilities for controlling human growth and sterility in women.

Dhariwal said a lack of ovulation, a frequent cause of female sterility, likely could be overcome by injecting brain hormones that would stimulate the pituitary to release ovulatory hormones.

Such a procedure conceivably could eliminate a danger of multiple births created by direct injection of pituitary hormones.

Experiments have demonstrated that growth hormones from the brains of sheep function in the pituitary glands of monkeys, he said, "so now we are reasonably sure that the same thing will work in humans

"Since there is always a shortage of the human growth hormone, it would be extremely helpful if we could use brain hormones from lower animals to control human growth.

Installation Held By Kiwanis Club

Serving others and not prestige-seeking is the goal of the Snyder Kiwanis Club, observed Don Adams in his acceptance speech as new president of the Kiwanis Club for 1967. He spoke Thursday night at the Phillips 66 Cafe during the 19th annual Installation banquet.

Other new officers are Arel Faver, first vice president; Jeral Beard, second vice president; and Roy J. McCloskey, secretary. The Rev. Ward Jackson, pastor of the Church of God in Big Spring and Lieutenant Governor of Kiwanis Division 22, conducted the installation ceremonies.

Reminding his fellow Kiwanians that Kiwanis is an Indian word that means "self expression," he urged them to continue to work for the betterment of the community, state and country in which they live.

Rev. Jackson also urged the Kiwanians to attend the International Convention June 25 - 29 in Houston. "Quality leadership is the key to the future," he said.

The installing officer told several jokes, including one about a Big Spring rancher who "wrote a check so big that the bank bounced."

Roy McCloskey of Snyder, immediate past lieutenant governor of the division, introduced the main speaker, and Bob Crowell acted as master of ceremonies.

Special recognition was given to Frank Stephenson, local Kiwanian, for having completed 17 years of perfect attendance. Other Rotarians recognized for faithful work and service were Roy Meador and Roy McCloskey, both with 11 years perfect attendance: Hubert Cargile (10 years), and Ford Caperton (7 years).

Three new members were inducted into the Club in ceremonies conducted by Cargile. The new members are A. L. (Shorty) Bryom, C. S. (Buck) Cochran and James (Dutch) Stehley. Cargile noted that the three are proficient in the use of the fiddle, banjo and organ.

Joe Williamson, immediate past president, introduced Don Adams, the new president, after reviewing activities of the club for the past year. Williamson pointed out the Kiwanis Club has been active in civic work. Included among Club projects were sponsorship of a baseball team, a Boy Scout troop, and work on behalf of the Goodfellows, the American Field Service and students in the local school system.

New members of the board of directors also were installed by Rev. Jackson. They are Charles Breedlove, Garth Austin, H. W. Cargile, Robert Harber, Ford Caperton, Norman Faulks and I. E. Martin. Outgoing officers include Joe Williamson, president; Don Adams, first vice president; Arel Faver, second vice president; and Roy J. McCloskey, secretary.

The Madrigal Singers of Snyder High School, under the direction of Jim Casey, presented a musical program. Piano music was provided by Wayla Walton, Club Sweetheart.

Several guests from Andrews and Big Spring were introduced. Frank Stephenson led the Pledge of Allegiance; Roy Meador led singing of "America"; Norman Fulks gave the invocation; and I. E. Martin gave the benediction.

Pie Throwing Relieves Examination Jitters

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — The University of Arizona's Alpha Phi sorority has its own way of relieving exam jitters.

The girls formed two lines on their parking lot this week and on signal began hurling whipped-cream pies at each other. Sorority leaders said it not nly eases th the girls work butm akes tensione z bb bb er. Sorority leaders said it not only eases the tension but makes the girls work harder.

How does it relate to studying?

The girls said it takes two weeks to get the sticky cream out of their hair and clothes. During that time, they stick to their dorms and study.

Physics Grants Go To Trinity U

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Trinity University's physics department and the National Science Foundation have announced that two grants have been awarded the University in support of physics programs.

The first grant is for $39,000 in support of a summer institute for high school teachers. The second grant is in support of a research program for three high school physics teachers.

Guests Advised Not To Pet The Pet

LUBBOCK (AP) — Guests at the Robert Craft home are advised not to pet the pet. The Craft's housepet is Conrad, a five-inch piranha whose lunch consists of several goldfish. The Crafts acquired Conrad several months ago after Conrad nipped the finger of a former owner. The South American fish is classified as a man-eating variety. Mrs. Craft is a Texas Tech coed.

The word "gauze" evolved from Gaza, the great trade center in Biblical Palestine and a city famous for its light textiles.

Heiress, Husband Still Missing

SAN JUAN, P.R. (AP) — Planes and ships continued to search the eastern Caribean today but there was still no clue to the disappearance of the wealthy daughter of the U.S. ambassador to Britain, her husband, and their pilot on a charter flight Tuesday from San Juan to the Virgin Islands.

Commercial DC7s of Caribbean Atlantic Airlines joined military and civilian search planes Thursday, flying a few hundred feet over the water to look for Mr. and Mrs. Stephen R. Currier of New York, and John D. Watson, the pilot.

Ambassador David K. E. Bruce, arriving in New York Thursday from London, said the hunt for his 33-year-old daughter seemed "pretty hopeless."

Currier, 36, is well known as a philanthropist and civil rights advocate.

The pilot, a 52-year-old Air Force veteran, left San Juan at 7:11 p.m. Tuesday for the one-hour, 70-mile flight to St. Thomas. Friends of the Curriers on St. Thomas became concerned and notified the Federal Aviation Agency about 1 a.m. Wednesday.

The FAA said a search would normally have been started 30 minutes after the Curriers' scheduled landing time but that it had no record of the pilot filing a flight plan.

The Curriers had left their three children in New York and had flown to Puerto Rico from Miami for a 10-day vacation cruise in the West Indies.

Trustees Back McCall

WACO (AP)—Baylor University President Abner V. McCall got support Thursday from school trustees in his move to maintain current tuition rates.

McCall noted that other universities have raised tuition rates or are planning to do so, but said he hoped to "hold the line as long as possible" at Baylor.

The current tuition charge is $25 per semester hour.

The Baylor trustees voted to give McCall authority to adjust fees to cost levels in departments where students must pay for laboratory supplies. A committee also recommended that planning begin for a new $250,000 physical education building and a $150,000 building for the Baylor Press here.

NAIA Meet Set Saturday

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Eight Olympians from three countries, headed by indoor record holders John Thomas and Tom Farrell, are in an outstanding field for the second annual NAIA Indoor Track Championships Saturday night.

Farrell, formerly of St. John's, New York City, will put his world indoor 880 mark of 1:49.8 on the line against West Germany's Franz-Josef Kemper, holder of the European 800-meter record of 1:44.9, outdoors.

Thomas holds the American indoor record of 7-3 in the high jump and the American outdoor record of 7-3¾. He was the first man to clear 7 feet and he's done it 176 times including a week ago at the Boston games.

Despite a mangled foot and a hernia operation Thomas has been beaten only 14 times in his entire seven-year career. He competed for Boston University.

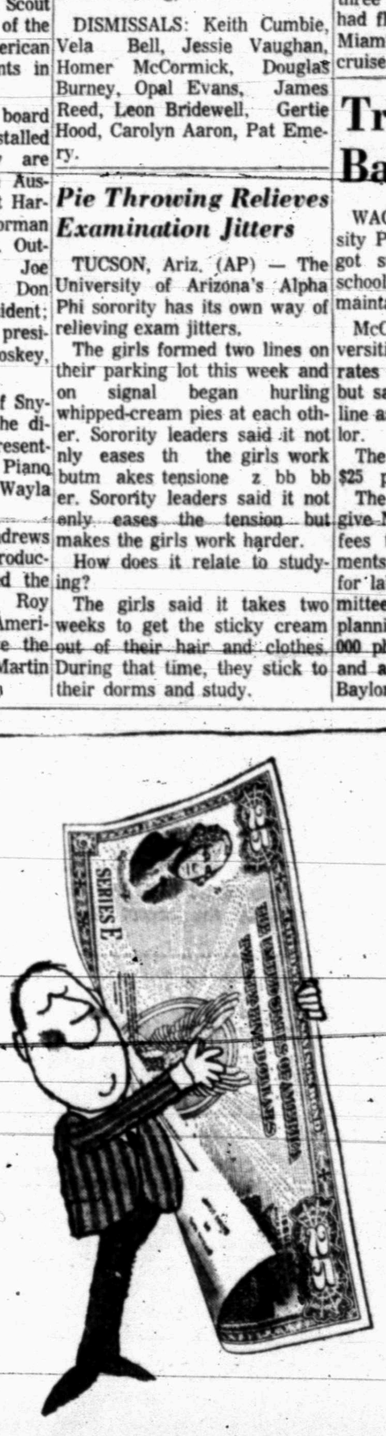

The other U.S. Olympians in the meet are Willie Davenport of Southern University, Baton Rouge, La., currently considered the world's fastest hurdler; sprinter Mel Pender, an Army career man; and two women stars — Janell Smith of Fredonia, Kan., and Willye White of Chicago.

Miler Ergas Leps of Canada and hurdler Arnaldo Bristol of Puerto Rico, competing for Texas Southern, complete the list of Olympians.

Grants To NTSU

DENTON, Tex. (AP)—North Texas State University has received grants totaling $80,298 to conduct summer institutes for elementary school librarians and English teachers under the National Defense Education Act.

Norell Shows Slit Skirts, Tiny Waists

BY JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
AP Fashion Editor

NEW YORK (AP) — Slit skirts and cinched waistlines are as sexy as short skirts.

That was the lesson Norman Norell had for his fashion cult at his spring collection opening this week.

The dean of American couturiers, one of the few feared by the French, chose to introduce his style ideas more than two months after most U.S. designers, and in the midst of the European style presentations.

At first the audience which included sultry-voiced Lauren Bacall, was startled over the possibility that Norell had sacked his perennial ladylike look and had joined the mini mob.

However, his show openers, those higher-than-thigh belted middy dresses on white-legged lasses, were just a spoof by the most copied and the most expensive of this country's style-makers. Hemlines are a mere inch or two above his model's knees.

Instead Norell presented the womanly body with wide contour belts that inched the natural waistline, and shifts that did not quite hug but skimmed closer to figures than Norell clothes have in nearly a decade.

Far more provocative than a sliced-off skirt was a slither of a sheath slashed vertically, exposing startling amounts of stemwork. Oriental - inspired crepe mandarin dresses in jewel colors were open to the hip on either side, or almost as high in front.

There were also belted trench coats, double-breasted and in bold horizontal stripes worn over pure white or soft pastel dresses.

There were hip-length jackets in racing checks, as well as gray flannels and deep naives worn with round-collared jersey blouses tucked into tight-fitting waistbands.

For glittering formal occasions there were fisherman's trousers, skirts or fabric that looped at the ankles and gathered at the cinched waistline of the bodice back and front — all showered with blinking mirror-like sequins.

To remove the seeds from tomatoes, cut each tomato in half crosswise and gently squeeze out the seeds just as you would hand-squeeze lemon juice from half of a lemon.
