W. H. BLEDSOE WITHDRAWS FROM SENATE CAMPAIGN

INJURIES FROM AUTO ACCIDENT FORCE HIM OUT

VETERAN OF 12 YEARS IN LEGISLATURE TO TAKE A REST

W. H. Bledsoe, for the past twelve years a member of the state legislature from this district, today withdrew his candidacy for reelection as State Senator from the 30th district. Senator Bledsoe's withdrawal comes but one candidate in the field. He is Pink L. Parrish, former county judge of Crosby county, who last month completed a term as mayor of the City of Lubbock.

Injuries which he received in an automobile accident near Tulla, on April 27, have made his continuance in the political campaign a physical impossibility. Mr. Bledsoe said in his withdrawal statement, "I am glad to have the opportunity to rest and rest in Mineral Wells and additional treatment and rest will be necessary before he returns. Mr. Bledsoe was painfully cut and bruised about the head, legs and back, and received other injuries when the automobile which he was driving picked up a nail in one of the tires and the machine catapulted in the ditch which parallels the highway."

To Take Long Rest.
One of the most widely known attorneys in the state, Mr. Bledsoe plans a retirement from practice which will probably extend throughout this summer. He said, "George Dupree, of Hillsboro, will arrive in Lubbock on June 1st, and will join the law firm of Bledsoe and Crenshaw, giving the senior member of the organization an opportunity to take an extended rest. Mr. Bledsoe said he would probably go north and west to recuperate."

The new member of the law firm was formerly associated with Mr. Bledsoe's present partner, Charles C. Crenshaw, in the firm of Collins, Dupree and Crenshaw, at Hillsboro. In his withdrawal statement Mr. Bledsoe praised the ability of Mr. Parrish, who, he said, will make the district a competent and successful senator. Mr. Bledsoe released the following statement concerning his withdrawal:

Mr. Bledsoe's Statement.
"Owing to injuries sustained by me about one month ago, in an automobile accident, I find that it will be impossible for me to continue in the race for the state senate from the 30th district, and to make the campaign that would be required of me. For twelve years I have represented the people of this section in the house and senate. My record here is one with which all are familiar and I trust that has been satisfactory to the majority of the voters."

Cities Dry Stand.
"Among the many questions coming up, there was one relating to the adoption of the prohibition amendment and the enactment of laws making it effective in Texas. For this I then voted and have never regretted so doing. While the enemies of prohibition have done very thing to discredit it, I feel that it is the one outstanding question of the age, coming before the people and that as time goes on, it will be so recognized by the law abiding."

Mandell, McLarrin Scale 135 Pounds

NEW YORK, May 21 (AP)—Sammy Mandell, champion, and Jimmy McLarrin, challenger, each scaled exactly the class limit of 135 pounds for their 15 round lightweight championship fight tonight at the Polo Grounds. It was the second weighing-in for the bout, three times postponed, and the champion made the weight only after a strenuous three-hour workout. The sun was out as the boxers weighed in and indications were that the weather would permit the such deferred bout to proceed tonight.

WRITES NEW SERIES FOR JOURNAL

ALLENE SUMNER TELLS OF CANDIDATES FOR "FIRST LADY"

When elections are over and Mr. and Mrs. Next President move into the White House, will Mrs. President be dignified or neighborly, beautiful or plain, a woman of the world or a housewife?

A great deal has been written lately about what kind of persons the various candidates are; but their wives have been pretty much neglected.

Tuesday The Journal will begin a series of articles by Allene Sumner, a leading writer on women's topics, who writes for The Journal and NEA Service, describing in chatty, gossip-style these possible "First Ladies" of the Land. Miss Sumner is visiting the wives of leading candidates in both parties in their homes to get the material for this series.

The articles will be full of interesting, human side glances at the women they describe. In many cases they cast a new light on the achievements of the husbands. In all cases they are interesting.

Watch for the first story tomorrow on Mrs. Alfred E. Smith.

NEGRO HANGED BY TEXAS MOB AFTER MURDER

BLACK IS RECAPTURED AFTER JAIL BREAK; GUARD IS SLUGGED

(By Associated Press)
CENTER, Shelby County, Tex., May 21.—"Buddy" Evans, negro, was lynched here about 7:30 o'clock this morning by a mob that took him away from two officers. He was hanged from the same limb of an oak tree in the courthouse yard where another negro was lynched about five years ago for an attack on a white woman. Evans had been charged with murder in a fatal attack on John Wheeler at Canton on May 12.

Evans was arrested May 14 at San Augustine for the Wheeler slaying and charged with murder. A speedy trial was promised. He then was brought to Center and placed in the jail for safe-keeping.

Jailer Beaten, Locked Up.
Saturday at 5:30 p. m. the jailer went to the negro's cell with his evening meal. Evans knocked down the officer with a piece of pipe he had torn from the plumbing in the cell, took the jailer's keys and pistol and locked him in the cell. His escape was not discovered until about daylight Sunday.

Evans immediately started in pursuit of the negro, but did not find him until shortly before daybreak Monday. He was discovered by Owen Wheeler, son of the man Evans was charged with having slain. The negro fired at Wheeler who returned the fire, wounding the negro in the leg.

Evans Taken to Timpon.
Evans was then put in a truck and taken to Timpon where his wound was dressed.

Sheriff H. H. Burns and Constable Barto Giles of Timpon took charge of the negro and started back to Center with him. When they arrived at Center they were overpowered by a mob of between 200 and 300 white men who took the negro and with little ceremony hanged him from the limb of an oak tree in the courthouse yard. No complaints have been made.

Dog Gets Plane Ride For Hearing

WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP)—Peggy, four months old sister of Paget, jr., thoroughbred bulldog, mascot of the marines, is going to be taken for an airplane ride this week in an attempt to restore her hearing.

Hoping the several times successful experiment with humans will have a like effect on Peggy, the owner has consented to let the little chunky canine do a nose dive from the higher to lower altitudes in an effort to cure the deafness.

Fred J. Veeder, owner of Counties the fourth, mother of Peggy and Paget jr., recently shipped the young female to Dr. J. O. Hissell of Oconomowoc, Wis., as a gift. She was returned when she failed to heed her master's call and found to be the only one of a litter of seven pugnacious pups to exhibit a physical defect.

YOUTH HELD IN DUAL SLAYING

ONE OF PAIR SOUGHT IN MURDER OF TWO DEPUTIES CAUGHT

(By Associated Press)
LAFAYETTE, Ind., May 21.—After twelve hours of almost continuous grilling, John Burns, age 20, arrested here early today, admitted that Wallace McClure and John P. Grove, Tippecanoe county deputy sheriffs who were murdered February 7 after they had started with Burns and Samuel Baxter to the Indiana reformatory, had been shot in his presence and revealed details of the murder.

Burns' new story, considerably different from that told earlier this morning, indicated that the murder of the deputies was brought about by three men whose names were given the special prosecutor, A. K. Sills. The names were not revealed pending further investigation.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., May 21.—John Burns, 20, one of two escaped prisoners under indictment for the killing last February of Deputy Sheriffs Wallace McClure and John Grove, was arrested at 1 o'clock this morning at the home here of his uncle, Robert Williamson. Burns denied any connection with the deaths of the officers.

Burns told officers that he had not seen Samuel Baxter, 19, who escaped with him, since early in March.

Officers had no difficulty in taking Burns into custody when they went to the Williamson home after receiving information that the fugitive would be found there.

Claim Slain By Trio.
Burns declared that Grove and McClure were slain by three men called to appear when his case was called for trial in district court here today and his $5,000 bond was ordered forfeited. A capias warrant was issued for his arrest.

BY RUTH DEWEY GROVES

Dearest Mom: You might just as well not try to understand us—the modern generation, I mean, because you can't do it. All your natural sympathy is for those who are unlike you. You're entirely on Betty's side. You think she's wonderful because she is willing to make the same sacrifice for a while that everybody expects Florence to make as a matter of course.

If you really had any use for flappers you would accept us at our own valuation of ourselves. We think we're crusaders, and I ask you, Mom, do you think the older women would be as free as they are if the kids hadn't led them? Who threw away the corsets, the long skirts and got rid of long hair?

Yes, I know that girls are worn and hair is growing again, but never while there is a free soul to ring the tocsin will uncomfortable clothes and horse tails be without their foe. Yet, all we get is abuse. I know a lot of girls who are letting their hair grow but not one of them is willing to go back to hair so long that they can sit on it. When nearly everyone is past the agony of getting the neck hair to stay with the rest, the leaders of fashion will start cooing again.

The way a woman dresses always will be mostly a matter of prevailing style, but thank goodness to one who has broken away from the rule-of-thumb slavery ever will let silly "conventions" grow again. But even our new freedom entails obligations. We admit that one of the first and really the most important, is to know life. We must learn how to live. So long as we are on earth we are living. Why not know what it's all about?

Naturally Florence doesn't know just how she can do the experiences and education she has gained here in the city but we both think they will prove of value to her at some time or other. You really can't know too much.

Deepest love,
MARIE

Social Registerites Interpret The Mode

Mrs. Vincent B. Hubble (left) and Mrs. Hunt Dickinson.

By BETSY SCHUYLER

NEA Service Writer

NEW YORK, May 21.—It's hicc time in Central Park: hurdy-gurdy time on the East Side; the season for putting pansies in the gaily colored window boxes in Greenwich Village and, of course, new clothes time over Gotham.

The question of "what price perpetual chic" in a season of tremendous individuality is apparently solved satisfactorily by many social registerites.

Seeing them up and down Park avenue, in the smart little shops on cross streets and lunching in Marguery's or Pierre's, makes the fundamentals, it seems to me that the union of smartness and usefulness in frocks is the elusive secret.

Darability here. Take Mrs. Paul Abbott, for instance. She wore a green coat that had more chic than can be described—trim of line, smart collar and revers and a novel bow knot of one hip that spread from the hip to the shoulder and hemline—all in neat seaming. It was fashioned of firm, fine fabric that despite its soft look makes one feel it will stand beautifully under wear.

Mrs. James Donahue chooses black moire with an occasional and very tiny oblong dot for a tured frock that featured a sailor collar in the back, all starred and braided in silver.

Red Finds Favor. Mrs. John Fargo took her wire haired terrier for a stroll down the avenue wearing one of the first silk suits to appear this year. It was of firm, felt in grey, and tailored to perfection. Her hat of black and white had a sailor's knot of white.

Blue and White. A stunning blue-white ensemble of lark satin, light lined is a new acquisition of Mrs. Hunt Dickinson. The frock's skirt is circular of the blue satin and the top white satin. The coat of blue has huge revers that lay back clear to the arms showing not silver lining but white.

To top a spring like ensemble, she wore a blue Milan hat with low crown, narrow brim, with two little birds of satin for trimming, one of white, one of blue.

There is no such thing as right this minute as the accepted garb. Each smart woman expresses her own individuality. But, as I said before, it does seem that true chic is smartness, plus usefulness.

Women Win Equality In Art World

The element of a struggle is one thing that is apt to be overlooked when one sees the ever-increasing number of women successes in artistic fields, according to Mabel Conkling, eminent artist and past president of the National Association of Women Painters and Sculptors.

"Women occupy a very important place in the field of art today," Miss Conkling says. "But I often wonder how many people stop to think of the difficulties they have had to overcome to reach that goal. Thirty five years ago, women had no chance in the arts. It was impossible for a woman to have her work accepted in any exhibition."

"Today their work is welcomed everywhere. Prizes and medals are showered on women. There is no sex handicap left today in the field of art. But through the struggle to achieve this condition women artists acquired qualities that have been of tremendous value."

"The fact that today we have women in every branch of art of whom it is said, 'She has no equal,' is the result of the struggle for recognition that made women determined to overcome every obstacle through the sheer quality of their work."

TOWN MENACED BY GAS ATTACK FROM FACTORY

11 DEAD AND 90 UNDER TREATMENT AS MANY FLEE FROM CITY

HAMBURG, Germany, May 21.—Faced with all the grim reality of chemical warfare, the city of Hamburg today was fighting a deluge of phosgene gas—a wartime poison gas—which began escaping from a chemical factory in the Free Harbor district last night, overcoming a large number of persons.

By noon today eleven persons, most of them firemen and who were dead and ninety victims were in hospitals under treatment.

Entire City Menaced. The entire city was menaced but it was hoped that rain which set in would absorb the gas fumes. A needed number of gas masks for the masses reached Hamburg from Berlin after an emergency call had been sent for them. A northeast wind also was carrying the fumes from the city in the direction of the nearby town of Wuhlfeldsburg.

The gas escaped from a tank in the chemical factory of Dr. Hugo Stiehlburg. Phosgene is no longer manufactured there but quantities of it were stated to have been accumulated and stored for exportation to the United States.

Troops Called Out. The first effects of the gas were felt near the harbor driving residents of the district from their homes in panic. Troops were called out and guided men, women and children to other sections of the city and the streets in the menaced district were closed. The emigration sheds of the Hamburg-American line were pressed into service to shelter the homeless while the police requisitioned all available milk as a gas antidote.

So serious was the menace that all the ambulances and fire brigades in Hamburg were mobilized for service, the fire brigades donning gas masks and fighting off the fumes with ammonia.

citizenship of this state. While it at times has looked as though it would be broken down and discredited by the enemies of good government I have faith in its ultimate success.

"Another question coming before the legislature was the one giving to the good women of this country the right of suffrage. I am glad to say that it was my privilege to work and vote for its adoption. Like the prohibition it has been assailed from every side. But it was an act of simple justice and is now a fixed policy of our government and will continue so. I feel that my efforts in the adoption of this amendment to our constitution justifies my efforts as your representative.

"The one great question in which we all have an interest was the passage of the bill providing for the establishment of Texas Technological College at Lubbock. It was my privilege to draft and introduce in the senate, the bill providing for the creation of this school. In connection with Hon. R. M. Chittwood, one of the most loyal and lovable men with whom I ever came in contact, and one whose memory I shall hold most dear, I was enabled to secure the passage of this bill carrying with it an adequate appropriation for the location of this school. The work of locating this school at Lubbock is well known to all. The citizenship of this and the surrounding counties are responsible for its location at Lubbock. The wisdom of the locating board in placing it at Lubbock cannot be questioned and as time goes on I am sure that its location will be more than justified. There are those who would make a political football school and who would see future development in their own hands. This I am not for them to do. This school is a monument to the citizens of Texas and under the direction of its president, Dr. Hartz, will so continue.

"Fink Parrish is a candidate for the senate. He is one of the most efficient and best qualified men in this section of Texas. He is the people of this district an able representative and I try to receive their support.

"Regretting the necessity of withdrawal from this race, being that in so doing I am being unjust to myself I am compelled to withdraw therefrom. Thanking my many friends for kind support and asking to be given to Mr. Parrish I hereby announce my withdrawal from race for senator of the 30th district."

The Yankees continued their monotonous series of crushing victories by overwhelming St. Louis, 9 to 3. George Pipgras being credited with his seventh victory without a defeat.

Three Double Plays
Bob Smith, the converted infielder, was batted hard by the Cubs but the league-leaders were stopped by three double plays. The Braves sewed up the game in the sixth inning when they bunched his off Guy Bush to score three times.

Giants and Cards Divide
The New York Giants and St. Louis Cardinals divided a double header at Spanghan's park. Fifteen hits in the first game gave the Giants a 5 to 3 verdict but the Cards evened it by taking the nightcap 2 to 1, in a tight pitcher's battle between Vic Aldridge, making his first start of the year, and Johnson of the Cards.

Del Bissonette's terrific hitting aided the Robins to coast into a 11-4 victory over the Pirates at Brooklyn. Bissonette scored a run in the second inning after drawing a pass; hit a home run with two on in the third, and tripled with two on in the seventh. All told he scored three times himself and drove in five runs. His homer was his seventh of the season, putting him one ahead of Hack Wilson of the Cubs.

BUFFS DEFEAT WACO CUBS BY HEAVY HITTING

RAIN HALTS DUAL BILL OF SPUDDERS, SPORTS IN LATTERS' CAMP

Up from the depths came the Beaumont Exporters Sunday to break the winning streak of Tink Riviere at seven games and put the cellar dwellers within one game of Dallas, whom the Fort Worth Cats trounced 6 to 5 when Tink was getting his 9 to 2 let-down. Hardly less catastrophic was the 12 to 5 beating handed Bo Molenda of the Cubs by the lordly Houston Buffs. Rain told the tale at Shreveport, whither the Wichita Falls Spudders had gone for a double-header.

Cast-off Beats Bears
Holzhauer, Dallas Steer cast-off, was the hero of Tink's debacle at the gulf port city, going the route for the Exporters and contributing a homer of great psychological value in the fourth. Walter Newman, who relieved Riviere, fielded seven hits, and the Exporters would not be denied their second straight over the fourth place Bears.

Hitting, pure and undefiled, spelled Molenda's downfall at Houston, the Bisons crashing out 16 bingles, 10 of them off Bo himself, the former all-American fullback of Michigan. The Buffs were pretty acute at fielding, too, notably when Heinie Schield, at short, speared Art Shires' drive and double Blackery off second.

Joe Pate Wins Again
Joe Pate added another to his string of victories when shortstop Fred Sweetser was discharged from a tubercular sanitarium. He was cured, but the doctors said he never should play in a championship tournament again.

Eliam Van Gelder won a tight hurling duel from Ted Lyons and the Detroit Tigers ended their losing streak at the expense of the Chicago White Sox, 2 to 1.

Bud Taylor Meets Joe Lucas Tonight

CHICAGO, May 21 (AP)—Bud Taylor, the Terre Haute, Ind., "terror," tonight hopes to convince the world of fistiana he is the real bantamweight champion when he clashes with Joe Lucas, Detroit fatherweight in a ten round bout. ### THREE COURTS OPEN GRIND IN COUNTY TODAY

GRAND JURY CALLED IN 72ND DISTRICT AND OPENS PROBE

"Open season" in the three major courts of the county swung under way today as officials and attaches of the two district bodies and the county court opened their work which will continue through several weeks time. Judge Homer L. Pharr was on the bench in the 72nd district court, Judge Clark M. Mullican in 99th district and Judge Charles Nedyke in county court. All three surveyed civil dockets as starters.

Shortly after 11 o'clock Judge Pharr empaneled a grand jury and issued his charge. Sam C. Arnett, banker, was chosen as foreman, the body organized and announced that it would go into executive session at 1:30 this afternoon. Members are D. H. Hatchett, A. J. Payne, L. B. Wooten, Homer D. Grant, Perry Wolf, R. G. Russ, J. W. Lamb, W. A. Myrick, Jr., F. T. Lea, W. E. Cope, L. Hardy and Foreman Arnett.

Dockets Being Arranged

One-third found the court in action again, arranging the docket and conferring with attorneys. Judge Mullican said that he would meet attorneys tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 to arrange the first week's docket in 72nd court.

Judge Nedyke started the county court off on an eight weeks term with criminal procedure to begin next Monday. Next week has been set aside by County Attorney L. A. Howard as "chicken and turkey" week when several county men charged with theft of fowls will make their defense.

Neither district court will be in session next week, the program of each having been arranged to convene on the 28th. District Judges of Texas and the Texas Bar association. A large attendance of attorneys from Lubbock county is expected at the latter meeting which Judge Mullican and Judge Pharr will attend the session of the judges. The meeting will run concurrently and will be held at Dallas. One of the most important topics to come up before both bodies will be court reform. Judge Pharr said today.

Charge to Grand Jury

In his charge to the grand jury Judge Pharr warned the group not to take up time investigating petty differences and family rows and directed them to spend their time in probing law violations of the grade of felony. "Sometimes at the instance of the sheriff or the county attorney it is necessary that grand jurors deal with the unraveling of facts attendant upon felonies but such is not the case here," he said. He also advised against the inquisitors permitting anyone to make of them a "collecting agency" for the collecting of bad debts.

Conditions Revealed

"The theories of the killing of McSwain presented by public officials to the newspapers revealed conditions as they were in Chicago," the report said. "All the theories in some way or other involved gang war over beer. The most persistent theory was that the O'Donnell-Capone beer war was the motive—the election fraud theories also involved gang war, with the gangs reaching out for beer privileges as the stakes of election."

Failure of the state to convict certain gangsters, the report said, illustrated that "even if the evidence is obtained, at whatever cost, against a gangster chief, even when there are witnesses brave enough to identify him in court, the prosecution fails because the jury is manipulated by the gang."

About sixty people are appearing in this program, which is described as a musical extravaganza.

Avantache-Journal want ads pay

Continuing his discussion of the prohibition question, Judge Pharr said that in his opinion the statement that "prohibition cannot be enforced" is an insult to the nation, state and to the citizenship of Lubbock county. Regardless of the opinions of the grand jurors concerning this part of the law, the judge urged that it be upheld the same as the other laws of the land.

"When a person makes the statement that 'prohibition cannot be enforced,' the judge said, 'you find that one of two things are true. Either the speaker doesn't know what he's talking about or he doesn't want the law upheld.'"

Concluding his charge with the reading of statistics tending to show the efficiency of criminal courts in Texas, the judge appointed Sam C. Arnett as jury foreman and sent members of the group into their first session. He concluded his charge shortly before noon.

Work slightly delayed by the empanelling of the grand jury was delayed slightly more than an hour when four of the sixteen sum-consisted of one and one-half miles south of Clinton. The extension will cost approximately $300,000 per mile, totaling more than $2,900,000 for the 66 miles, Mr. Stewart said.

Business given for the establishment of the line was that it would split up the territory now served by the Texaco-Lubbock cut-off and the new Denver line to Dimmitt; that it shortens through mileage in the territory and that it would serve territory between 85 and 90 per cent mileage.

The new line would draw traffic for about eight miles toward the new Denver line and for about ten miles toward the Texaco-Lubbock cut-off, Stewart said.

One of the deputies attempted to obtain a pistol lying on the floor of the car, Burns continued. The two strangers fired. Near Eidersburg, Ind. the three men transferred McClure and Gerwe, who Burns said still were alive, to their machine. They told Burns and Baxter to take the Indiana car.

The bodies of the deputy sheriffs were found on a farm near Danville, Ill. They had been shot to death.

Burns and Baxter were reported to have visited Otto W. Smith, uncle of Burns, at Danville a few hours after the disappearance of the deputies had been reported. Later the automobile in which the deputies had left Lafayette with the prisoners was found in a garage at Decatur, Ill. Garage attendants said the two men who left the car answered the descriptions of Burns and Baxter.

CRIME REPORT IN CHICAGO IS MADE BY JUDGE

MILLIONAIRES MADE IN "BIG BUSINESS" OF VICE, IS CLAIM

CHICAGO, May 21.—A story of two decades of "big business" that established certain Chicago vice and liquor lords to retire as millionaires and others to reign on unbridled for nearly 20 years is told in the report on "organized crime" published today by the Illinois Association for Criminal Justice.

The chronicle charged the existence of a powerful union of gambling, bootlegging, vice and political interests that five years ago was ending gangsters and their protection by some $13,500,000 a year.

Leaders Reign Long

Not the least interesting disclosure, said Judge Andrew A. Bruce, president of the American institute of criminal law and criminology, in his preface to the report, was that "the reign of power of real leaders of organized crime in the city of Chicago is longer and more secure than that of many of our college presidents—much longer than that of our public officials. Administrations come and go, but the overlords of vice continue in power."

Al Capone was named in the report as "chief of the ruling gang of today" and was described as having been trained with John Torrey "Boss" McSwain, who said that Capone were connected with the late "Big Jim" Colgan, and prior to his New York trial.

Report in Two Chapters

The report is made up of two chapters, one on the rule of the gang, the other asking the question, "who killed McSwain?" The survey was conducted by John Landwehr, criminologist of the American Institute, and his report prepared by Judge Bruce. Eight other chapters, dealing with various phases of Chicago crime, are being prepared.

CRIME REPORT

The machine gun slaying of William McSwain, assistant state's attorney of Cook county, in April 1926, and the futile investigation that is still unfinished, were narrated in detail in the first chapter as constituting "the first direct attack by organized crime upon the government." A coroner's jury, a federal grand jury and five special county grand juries investigated but no one was ever indicted for murder.

Conditions Revealed

"The theories of the killing of McSwain presented by public officials to the newspapers revealed conditions as they were in Chicago," the report said. CANDIDATE PRESIDENT IN RESCUE

(By Assoc. Editor)

BEND, Ore., May 20.—John J. Burns of Portland labor party candidate for president in 1928 was drowned by a train at Astoria on a similar trip.

The youth, Jack, son of Mr. Burns, was riding on the train when he lost his life. The train was carrying a bride over the hills when she lost her life. The bride was Mrs. Burns.

John reached the shore and in a few minutes he was within ten feet of the rescuer. He made a dash for the shore and both went down.

It was said that Burns had been a candidate for president again this year. He had been in Portland about a month or so, and had been a member of the Oregon National Baseball Club of the city. He was arrested for several offenses.

Political Statement To the voters of Lubbock county: When in the early part of January of this year I had my name placed in the announcement column for candidates, for the office of County Tax Assessor, in the Avalanche-Journal, I did so fully realizing that continued earnest effort would be required to succeed in the undertaking. The encouragement I have since then received is very gratifying. I will appreciate my friends and acquaintances telling those who do not know me, about my character and qualifications for this important office. I do not believe in long-time office holding, there are plenty of good men to fill all the offices. It is my intention if my finances and credit permit, to try and see as many of the voters as possible between now and July 28, but I have to work for a living. I have no income other than for services rendered, so the warm summer days may come before I am able to get around to see you, but in the meantime please keep me in mind. I need your vote and influence. If I receive the nomination and then elected, in exchange for the remuneration the office pays, I promise a faithful, conscientious conduct of its affairs. Assuring you that your vote and influence will be sincerely appreciated. I am, yours very truly, A. B. ELLIS. SEA DISCIPLINE STERN Stern discipline of the sea was meted to a bosun of the Commonwealth line vessel Moreton Bay when it docked at the harbor at Sydney, Australia, recently. At a strike meeting of the Seamen's Union the man was charged with "carrying tales" to the mate with regard to certain happenings in the forecastle. The bosun offered an explanation, but the meeting found him guilty, and ordered that he give 24 hours notice of his intention to leave the vessel and further ordered him not to seek re-employment with the Commonwealth line for 12 months. CLEAN SHADES All shades should be cleaned in spring. High grade linen shades should be put flat over a table and washed with warm suds and a sponge. Wipe off with clear water and hang up unrolled to dry.

RESCUE TEAMS GO DEEPER IN WRECKED MINE 39 BODIES RECOVERED AND 159 MEN STILL STRAPPED IN BLAST (By Associated Press) MATHER, Pa., May 21 (AP)—The bodies of 39 miners, victims of an explosion in Mather mine late Saturday, had been recovered up to this afternoon by rescuers, who were pushing past the scene of the blast in an effort to learn the fate of 138 entombed in the far recesses of the workings. Shortly after noon rescuers carried 13 additional bodies from the mine, making the known death toll 60. MATHER, Pa., May 21.—With bodies of 39 miners recovered and taken to the homes of their kin, rescue teams from various sections of the soft coal belt carried on today in an effort to reach the 159 men still entombed in Mather mine, where an explosion Saturday trapped 211 workers behind piles of coal and slate. Thirteen men were rescued alive. A coroner's jury comprising six men and augmented by inspectors from the state bureau of mines, was ordered to delve into the cause of the blast. Relatives are Hopeful Except for crowds of curious Mather today was the usual quiet little mining town. Relatives of miners trapped in the underground workings, while foregoing their usual daily pursuits, did not display any outward emotion. Dry-eyed and hopeful they awaited word of their loved ones. Mine rescue experts gave up hope of returning any men to the surface alive, and while this feeling was secretly shared by wives, mothers and children of the entombed miners, outwardly they buoyed their hopes on other disasters where men were taken alive from mines several days after an explosion. An elderly couple who had stood at the mines' tipple since the news of the blast was broadcast let it be known today that they had four sons inside the mine. Andy Boots and his three brothers obtained work at the Mather mine Saturday morning and reported for their first labor with the ill fated shift. It was their parents who awaited news. Fire Reports Denied The explosion occurred at what is known as the 14th and 15th butts of the main channel. Reports that fire hampered the work of rescuers were found untrue. Bureau of mines authorities refused to advance the exact cause of the blast until further investigation. One theory was that a pocket of gas had been struck at one of the working faces

BIBLE SCHOOL OFFERS GREAT CHILD BENEFIT

COURSE IS TWO FOLD IN NATURE, OPENING ON NEXT MONDAY

The daily vacation Bible school that is to open here May 28 for two weeks with three churches in the city cooperating in the educational move, is primarily of two-fold nature, designed not only to offer a change from the channels of regular school work and un-supervised summer activity but to train the young boys and girls of the city in the ways of Christian living and development of Christian character. H. W. Richardson, educational director of the First Methodist church, who is one of the leaders in the movement said Saturday.

Differs From Other Schools. "A vacation school is different from any other kind of school," Mr. Richardson said, "it is not like a Sunday school or public school. It is vacation time. Vacation means a change but not necessarily going away from home. Vacation means a good time and we expect the boys and girls to have a good time. We do the things they like, with the whole program built to fit the lives of boys and girls and bring them real joy."

Develop Christian Character. "The purpose of the school is to develop Christian character. It brings the boys and girls into close daily contact with teachers who love them and teach them the 'Jesus way of living.' It brings them into living touch with the Bible, and creates a social Christian atmosphere in which to learn to play and to work. It trains in right thinking, right attitudes and right doing, and sends them back into their homes with a spirit of kindness and of service."

The churches are cooperating in the movement here in an effort to be of greater service to the community through the young people, it was said. In addition to the regular study hours of the course, there will be picnics, sunrise breakfasts and other social activities, and at the close of the two weeks commencement exercises are to be held and a program rendered consisting of some of that which was learned during the school. Parents, singing, patriotic drills, salutations of the flag and many other things are included in the course.

Local Men Attend Retailers Session

J. D. Hassell, Jr., secretary of the Hemphill-Woods company and president of the Lubbock Retail Merchants association, and Paul Sherrod, of Sherrod Brothers store, left yesterday for Wichita Falls where they are attending the annual convention of the Texas Retail Merchants association today and tomorrow.

Mr. Sherrod was chairman of the local organization and Mr. Hassell has long been active in its affairs here.

Girl Offered Free Trip To Colorado

A member of the Girls Reserve of Lubbock high school is to get a free trip to the Grand Canyon in Colorado this summer.

A contest was started today among this group in an effort to raise funds to help both the high school band in its summer tour and the girls in their summer camp. Each girl will be given a number of windshield stickers, to be given to each person who votes for her to make the trip. One vote is good for every cent placed into the funds. The stickers will be labeled, "I Helped the Lubbock High School Band to go to the Grand Canyon, did you?"

The winner of the contest will be determined by the girl receiving the largest number of votes. The funds derived from the contest will be given to both organizations. The date of the close of the contest will be announced later. J. C. Brown, business manager of the band, will head the contest and campaign for the funds.

DOCTOR LEAVES NOTE REVEALING SUICIDE REASON

(By Associated Press)

DETROIT, May 21.—A denial that he was guilty of murder and the assertion that his "conscience is clear" was written by Dr. Frank Remington Loomis shortly before he took his own life here Saturday.

The "death note" forecast in a brief note to the police was published under a copyright today by the Detroit News.

The reason for Dr. Loomis' suicide, a year after he was acquitted of the slaying of his wife, was given only inferentially.

"I have endured to my mind the severest kind of humiliation and disrespect for over a year," the note read. "This was all due to cheap political maneuvering on the part of trouble-making office holders."

"My trouble now is terrible loneliness and disrespect and discouragement," the note added.

The remainder of the note was devoted to comment respecting newspaper articles and tribute to

DOCTOR LEAVES NOTE REVEALING SUICIDE REASON

(By Associated Press)

DETROIT, May 21.—A denial that he was guilty of murder and the assertion that his "conscience is clear" was written by Dr. Frank Remington Loomis shortly before he took his own life here Saturday.

The "death note" forecast in a brief note to the police was published under a copyright today by the Detroit News.

The reason for Dr. Loomis' suicide, a year after he was acquitted of the slaying of his wife, was given only inferentially.

"I have endured to my mind the severest kind of humiliation and disrespect for over a year," the note read. "This was all due to cheap political maneuvering on the part of trouble-making office holders."

"My trouble now is terrible loneliness and disrespect and discouragement," the note added.

The remainder of the note was devoted to comment respecting newspaper articles and tribute to

Camp Fire Drive To Be Renewed

With approximately $1,110 already pledged, 25 workers of the annual Camp Fire Girls financial drive were resting today but early tomorrow will take to the streets again in an effort to raise the $1,500 necessary to carry on the work of the organization during the coming year.

J. W. Gammel, in charge of the drive, said he and his co-workers hoped to complete the campaign tomorrow.

No Trace Found Of Saturday Burglars

No trace of the identity of the burglar or burglars, who early Saturday morning robbed the Piggy-Wiggy grocery and the Tech Drug store, on College Avenue between Main street and Broadway, has yet been found, officers said today but efforts were being continued to find the miscreants.

Entrance into the drug store was made via the transom on the front door while the miscreants smashed the front door of the grocery establishment to force their way inside. The grocery store lost $25 in money and the drug store $1 in money and several dollars worth of cigars and cigarettes.

THIS picture is dedicated to the American traveling salesman—and to his hobbed-haired, short-skirted competitor.

Norma Shearer plays that charmingly self-reliant, modern figure, the traveling saleslady, in a picture where love and business meet to the entertainment of everyone. Even better than "His Secretary."
