MITCHELL COUNTY COMMISSIONER Paul Logsdon examines this bridge in the southwestern section of the county after a vote by commissioners court to apply for federal funding to repair or replace the structure. Located nine miles north of Highway 208, the road connects Highways 163 and 208. If the application is accepted, government funding will be available on an 80 per cent basis, with the county paying 20 per cent of the cost of the estimated $360,000 necessary to reconstruct the bridge.

Fact & Fiction
By Donna Watson

City Water Superintendent Buzz Rich and his two-man crew have at last begun to make some headway in the project to replace ancient water lines throughout the city.

The first breakthrough came when they were able to replace 800 feet of the original two inch cast iron line on Cypress, which was 100 years old. Now, they are replacing 1,500 feet of the old line on Seventh Street.

Next, they plan to begin work in the Sands, which covers an area five blocks long and six blocks wide and will include about 3,500 feet of new water lines.

The advent of extremely cold weather slowed the replacement project considerably as trouble calls mounted and more and more time was required to solve emergency problems before planned work could be achieved.

Rich found his job doubly complicated and more time consuming when numerous residents had no cut off valve on their property, as required by city ordinance, and the main line of water had to be shut off before repairs could be made.

The current replacement project on Seventh Street, which extends down to the city park, is anticipated to be completed within the next three days, weather permitting.

Rich will also install three new fire hydrants in the Sands Area to insure adequate water for fighting fires.

The plugs will be placed at 500 foot intervals.

The next project will be to replace the old four inch cast iron lines on Cypress, between Fourth and Tenth Streets, with all new five inch line.

An interesting side note to this project will be the replacement of three fire hydrants which date back to 1880.

A special crew is being called in to make a six inch tap (cut a hole) on the 16 inch water main at Fourth and Cypress Streets to add a new water main. This will increase the flow within the whole system.

Persons who use the banking facilities of Homestate Savings and Loan located at 2205 Hickory and the 22nd and Austin Streets Church of Christ will be experiencing some relief from a very odorous problem in the very near future, if they have not already done so.

According to Rich, these two buildings have been experiencing a backup of sewerage gas which has permeated the building with extremely foul and noxious odors.

From testing the system above and below the locations of these buildings, Rich determined either one of two problems exists within the system itself. Either a swag (upward curve) exists in the line which extends under Interstate 20 across to the Dairy Queen or one of the two manholes in a direct line from each other are so constructed as to make one at a higher elevation than the other.

The basic problem is the sewage moves by the force of gravity and 14 inches of sewage stands in one of the manholes because of the incline.

This sewage turns septic and as the gas is pushed on down the line, it escapes into the two structures.

Rich plans to first check the line and if the swag exists, replace that portion of the line. If a swag does not exist and the problem stems from the fact that one manhole is higher than the other, Rich plans to extend the hole so it will retain all the flow and then install a pump to push the affluent until it moves beyond that point and gravity takes over and the flow continues naturally.

Either way, the gas backup and odor should be eliminated.

It's that time of year again when the city must take an advanced look and try to establish a workable budget for the coming year.

Mrs. Tarter gave a tentative budget to city council members Tuesday which indicates a salary increase

Kiwanians To Serve Pancakes

Kiwanis Club will hold the annual Pancake Supper Feb. 27 in Kelley Elementary School Cafeteria.

Kiwanians will begin serving a meal of pancakes, bacon and beverage at 5 p.m. and will continue through 8 p.m.

Background music will be furnished for the listening pleasure of all who attend by Addie V. Payne.

Tickets are on sale for $2.50 for adults and $1.25 for children. Tickets will be available at the door.

ORIGINALLY INSTALLED IN 1880, this ancient fire hydrant, located at Fourth and Locust Streets, will soon be replaced by a modern new hydrant as a part of an overall city project to upgrade the water system.

Gazebo Project To Get Underway Downtown

A bright new feature will soon be added to the downtown area when the Wallace Community Advisory Council constructs a gazebo in Friendly Park.

The idea for the gazebo was born last Fall when the advisory council made application to the Levi Straus Company for a $400 grant to be used to improve community relations.

A grant committee consisting of Brenda Tarter, chairwoman; Mildred Free; Ray Anne Carlock; Ann Gregory and Charlie Uselton succeeded in obtaining the Levi Straus grant.

A fund was established at the City National Bank to finance the project and advisory council members began to solicit donations from clubs, organizations and individuals.

Brian Bassham and Tandy Curlee were placed in charge of the building committee and are currently looking for carpenters to assist in construction of the gazebo.

Limestone, discarded from the original jail, will be used as a foundation for the gazebo.

The structure will be octagon shaped with cedar shakes, gingerbread trim and be 12 feet in diameter.

The gazebo will be constructed with as many materials of historical interest to Mitchell County as possible.

Ground breaking for the project will take place March 2 and completion date is set for June 1.

To date, $1,211 has

Landau Selected To Fill Vacancy

Willie Landau has been appointed to fill the board position left vacated by the resignation of W.D. Crockett of the Colorado City Savings and Loan.

Landau and his wife, Selma, reside at 725 Marshall. A longtime resident of Colorado City, Landau owned and managed Landau's Clothing Store for more than 30 years before retiring in 1979.

Landau is also a member of the Mitchell County Tax Appraisal District Board and the Mitchell County Hospital District Board of Directors.

President of Colorado City Savings and Loan Charles Root announced Wednesday that Max Shaw, vice president of American Bank in Denison, has been selected as the new general manager and executive vice president of Colorado City Savings and Loan, both in Colorado City and Sweetwater.

Shaw will begin his new duties March 16.

Shaw is a native of Snyder and wished to return to this area, Root said.

Ambassadors Undecided On Possible Point System

A possible point system may be added to the requirements for the Colorado City Ambassadors Club.

Members discussed this possibility Wednesday afternoon when holding their monthly meeting in the Villa Restaurant.

This point system has been observed in other neighboring cities.

The point system would set certain requirements on the Ambassadors so they can remain in or join the club according to participation.

Each ambassador would have to receive a total of 125 points a year in order to remain in the club.

Five points a year would be credited automatically toward that particular year's total requirement of 125 points just for being an Ambassador.

The manager of the Chamber will keep points on a tally sheet for each ambassador. These points will be cal-

Mac Morris Will Seek Reelection

Mac Morris, vice-president of the Colorado Independent School District Board of Trustees, announced Friday he will seek reelection for that office April 4.

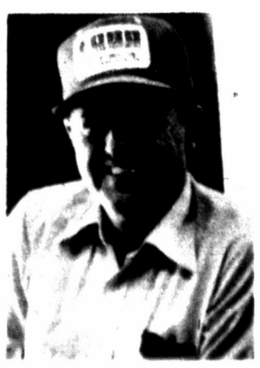

Morris, owner and operator of Costin Implement Company, said he is seeking reelection because there are projects such as curriculum changes, new tennis courts, bus barn, better salaries for CISD employees and a new tax rate system that he wants to see completed.

Morris stated, "I also feel the boys and girls of CISD deserve the best educational opportunities that the taxpayers of their district can afford."

Morris has served on the board for nine years, "all of which were very enjoyable and educational," he said.

While serving on the board, Morris served as a member of the Governor's Advisory Committee on Education for two years.

He also served on the Superintendent's Selection Committee.

Bale Count

Mitchell County ginning season is almost complete with only three gins, Mitchell County Gin, Buford Co-Op and Westbrook Gin, reporting further cotton intake.

Buford Co-Op reported 2,601 bales ginned and 30 on the yard.

Mitchell County Gin reported 2,300 bales ginned with none on the yard.

Loraine Co-Op Gin Company reported a final count of 4,471 bales ginned.

Colorado Gin Company reported a final bale count of 1,040 bales ginned.

China Grove Co-Op Gin reported a final count of 3,745 bales. Half of this amount was produced in Mitchell County.

Westbrook Gin reported 1,458 bales ginned with none on the yard.

The final bale count for Producers Co-Op Gin was 3,653 bales.

The final count for Farmers Gin was 1,120 bales ginned.

This brings the total ginned bale count to 20,388, with 30 bales on the yard, making the total Mitchell County bale count 18,545.

Incumbent Dickie White To Seek Additional Year

Incumbent school trustee Dickie White of the China Grove Community became the first candidate Monday evening to file for one of the three positions open on the Colorado Independent School District Board.

White, a farmer in both Mitchell and Scurry Counties, said he is running because he is concerned that the system continue to furnish the best possible education for children in the community at the least possible cost to taxpayers.

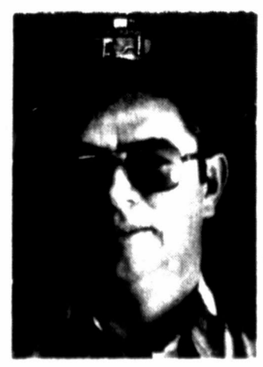

"I have children in this system, however, I am not only interested in their well-being and education, but also in that of all other children in the community. I am a property owner and taxpayer and am interested in seeing that adequate, but not excessive, funding is available for the operation of the system," White said.

White was appointed to the board in July, 1980 to fill the position vacated by Gene Blassingame, who resigned due to conflict of business interests.

White is seeking election to the one year remaining term, which will be the last year of Blassingame's three-year term.

"Serving on the school board was something I had not planned or considered previous to being appointed. I have found the experience

Workshops Set

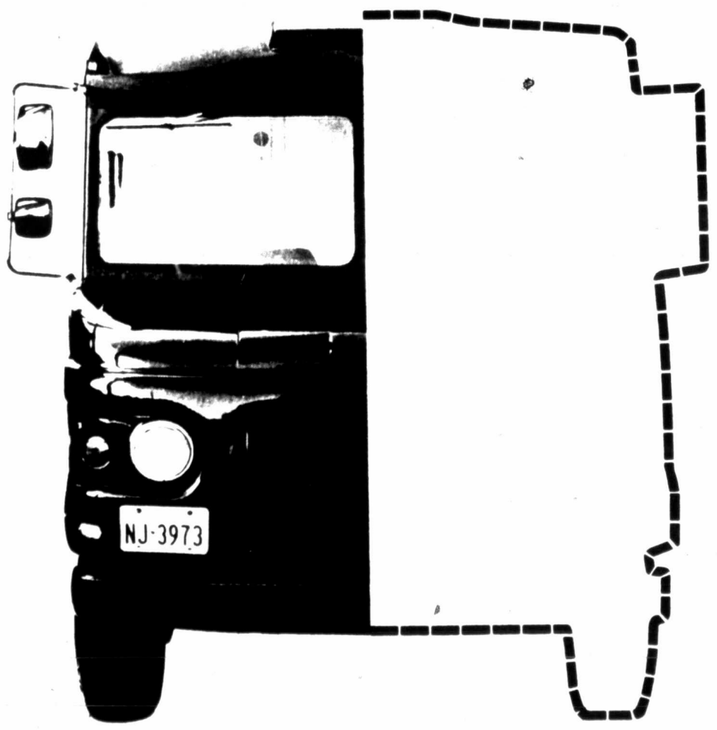

Gene Rowe has announced that she will be teaching "Creating with Stained Glass" at the Wallace Center on two Thursdays (Feb. 19 and 26) and two Saturdays (Feb. 20 and 28).

She said that she plans to have these two workshops in order that working persons could have the opportunity to take them.

The cost of her class will be $35 plus supplies, which she said would be available for purchase at the center.

Interested persons can contact Mrs. Rowe at 728-5703 or sign up at the Wallace Center located on the Robert Lee Highway.

Texas is getting half the UPS service it should.

If you live in Texas, you can send a package by UPS to any address in the continental United States—except to another address in Texas.

The reason is, UPS does not now have what's known as intrastate operating authority in Texas.

Our 5000 people and 2300 vehicles here are permitted to handle parcels coming into or leaving the state, but not parcels from one point in Texas to another.

This is a serious handicap for thousands of Texans, particularly businesspeople, who depend on prompt, economical parcel transportation. It deprives them of a service that's available to their competitors in other states.

The Texas Legislature is now discussing a bill which would clarify the authority of the Texas Railroad Commission (the agency that regulates transportation matters) to consider requests such as ours to provide service from and to all points in Texas.

We feel this bill would be a step forward. We'd like to see it pass, and we'd appreciate your support. If you agree with us, a note to your Senator and Representative in the Texas Legislature could be very helpful.

for all city employees of 10 per cent and a total $500,000 payroll figure. The general fund is anticipated to show $918,750 in revenue and Water and Sewer Fund revenues are set at $622,000.

This includes a $3 to $6 increase in charges to water and sewer users and a three per cent tax increase.

The new budget includes $20,000 to be set aside in a fund to purchase equipment in the future.

Several radios and base communication systems must be replaced in the coming year for the fire, police, water and sewer departments because the old ones have become inoperative.

A fund for the landfill has been established consisting of $30,000.

Two new pickups and one new police car are provided for under the new budget.

A capital improvements fund, including $19,000, $27,000 and $30,000, for water and sewer projects is included in the budget.

Last year, $27,500 was spent for new pipes, fittings and clamps by the department and City Manager Brenda Tarter said enough pipe remains to complete the water system project in the coming year.

both rewarding and educational," White said.

"I consider it a great honor to have been asked to serve on the board and have learned to respect and appreciate the teachers and administrators who face daily the problem of educating our children.

"While I have served on the board, we have tried to improve both the standards and facilities at a minimum cost to the taxpayer. I believe the board has done a good job in both areas and at the same time maintained a sound financial structure, White said.

"If elected, I will continue in these efforts," he stated.

culated from April 1 to March 31.

Failure of a member to obtain the required 125 points would result in the automatic termination of the membership. The dismissed member would have the right to appear at the next regular meeting to present their reason for not having obtained their required points and the members would vote by secret ballot to reinstate the member or not.

Points would be obtained by attending various chamber activities.

Ten points would be credited for each quarterly ambassador meeting.

Fifteen points would be credited for out-of-town banquets attended only when dressed in ambassador attire with five additional points to be credited if their spouse attends.

Ten points would be credited for each new member secured.

Fifteen points would be credited for each ribbon cutting, special functions or other activities if the ambassador is dressed in designated attire, but only five points if ambassador is not so dressed.

At the end of ten years of service in good standing, any such member would, at his option, be entitled to maintain active membership in the Ambassadors Club with all rights and privileges without being required to obtain the yearly quota of 125 points for continued membership.

Ambassador President J.O. Dockrey stated that he is in favor of the point system, but he would agree with the final decision of the ambassadors.

A committee was appointed to study other cities clubs to determine whether or not the club should adopt the point system.

Anne Lindsey was appointed chairman of the committee which includes Monte Jones, Carolyn Smith, Vickie Weaver and Brenda Tarter.

League Baseball Planning Meet Set

Texas Teen League will meet Wednesday night at 7:30 p.m. in the Reddy Room in the Texas Electric Building.

The TTL consists of Junior and Senior High students wanting to participate in baseball.

There will be a total of five teams; four junior teams and one senior team.

All managers and interested persons are urged to attend," stated TTL President Jack Phariss.

SPORTS SCHEDULE

TUESDAY

–5 p.m.-Wolves' JV girls vs. Breckenridge, there.

–6:30 p.m.-Wolves' varsity girls vs. Breckenridge, there.

–8 p.m.-Wolves' varsity boys vs. Breckenridge, there.

–6:30 p.m.-Loraine varsity vs. Westbrook, in Loraine.

Loraine Takes Divide

"I was very pleased with the way the game turned out Tuesday night when we played against Divide," stated Coach Jimmy Fine.

Loraine Girls' varsity basketball team slaughtered Divide with a final score of 85 to 32.

Lessie Rose was the leading scorer with a total of 26 points.

Others scoring were: Sarah Munoz, 23 points; Sylvia Barrera, 19 points; Linda Moreno, 13 points and Tracy Beights and Janie Barrera, two points each.

Fine stated the girls have been working on their running game all week and this helped in the game. He also stressed the fact that most of the scores were made by layup shots.

Cagers Meeting Is Set This Afternoon

According to Rev. Bob Grayson, pastor at Calvary Baptist Church, there will be an organizational meeting for the Church League Basketball.

The meeting is set for today (Sunday) at 2 p.m. in Calvary Baptist Church. All interested persons are urged to attend.

He stated that the league will begin Feb. 23 and this will be the deadline to enter a team in the competition.

Any church in Mitchell County is eligible to participate, added Rev. Grayson.

Rev. Grayson stated, "I expect an average league this year with probably eight to 10 teams entered."

The games will be held in the old Middle School Gym across from Lazy Day Drive-In.

C.C. Varsity Boys Go Down By One

"Colorado City varsity boys' basketball team led the game until the last two minutes of the game when Stamford's offensive plays took the best of the Wolves," commented Coach Mike Hart.

The Wolves had chances to score until the last two seconds of the game but just didn't take advantage of the opportunities, noted Hart.

Halftime score was 30-24 and third quarter score was 44-29 in the Wolves' favor. The final score was 55-54.

Randy Uselton was the leading scorer with 12 points and 11 rebounds.

Others scoring and making other outstanding plays were: Victor Jackson, 10 points and nine defensive plays; Mark Carter and Stacy Tarter, six points each and Carter with six defensive plays and Tarter with five rebounds; Jay Green, four points and six rebounds and Mike Scott, two points and one rebound.

"We're just lacking that killer instinct and just putting ourselves in that position where we can't catch up," stated Coach Hart. "We're not treating every game or play like a do or die situation."

Hart stated that free throws were excellent but they were just too inconsistant in everything else.

Wolves' Girls Team Blasts The Bulldogs

Tuesday night the Colorado City varsity girls' basketball team blasted Stamford with a final score of 80-25.

The score at halftime was 43-5 in the Wolves' favor.

Karla Herm led off the scoring with 16 points.

Following scores were: Laura Baum, 14 points; Darlene Mitchell and Tomika Randle, eight points; Sareesa Mitchell, Tracy Gassiot, Kim Feaster and Angi Neff, seven points each; Stacy Hamrick, four points and Loretta Morris, two points.

Angi Neff was leading rebounder with 10 rebounds.

Coach George Martin stated, "The game was generally a good one with the team retrieving 48 rebounds, making five assists and 20 interceptions.

The Wolves also made 49 per cent of their free throw attempts.

Overall, the girls did a good job. Everyone played and the girls were very enthusiastic about the game," stated Martin.

Happy Valentine!

M. Ronald Hamby
Pastor
First United Methodist Church
Colorado City

According to early Christian tradition, Valentine was a priest in Rome who ministered to Christian martyrs in the time of Claudius. The early list of Christian martyrs shows that St. Valentine himself was beheaded by order of Claudius on February 14, in about the year 270 A.D. Thus, the feast of St. Valentine fell in early Spring, about the time the birds began to mate and became a time in which lovers celebrated. St. Valentine became the patron saint of lovers.

Many of our contemporary holidays have their roots and origins in early religious celebrations, but time and tradition have too often obscured some of the earliest meanings and content. It is helpful many times, as in the case of St. Valentine, to discover that heritage.

We all need special times, along with our regular and ordinary times, to express love and affection for others. How often have we waited too late to say or show an "I love you!" to a parent or child or spouse or special friend? Many of us have difficulty showing affection to those whom we love. We are afraid of our feelings--hesitate to express them--to one another. The bumper sticker that asks "Have you hugged your child today?" is an appropriate reminder of the importance of love, affection and physical contact between human beings.

Don't let the Valentine's Day spirit deteriorate into mushy sentimentality! Rather, let it be the occasion for expressions of genuine love, respect and admiration. Christians are able to love others and show their love because they have experienced so meaningfully the love of God in Christ. It is good to express that love in response to God and to each other, especially in the spirit of self-giving which we see in the martyr St. Valentine! Happy Valentine!

Suburban Crashes On Morgan Creek Bridge

J.K. Matthews of Odessa narrowly escaped serious injury Tuesday when the 1980 Suburban Chevrolet he was driving left the highway and overturned on the Morgan Creek Bridge.

Matthews, 71, was eastbound about 8:40 p.m. when the Suburban and 14 foot stock trailer he was pulling ran into the guard railing and overturned, leaving the Suburban and trailer dangling over the edge of the bridge railing.

Colorado City Chief of Police Jimmy Roundtree, Officers Billy Ray Williamson and Johnny Slough were the first law enforcement officials on the scene of the accident.

Texas Highway Patrolman James Burson, who investigated the accident, arrived shortly after the other officers.

He stated Matthews had been removed uninjured but cold from the scene and taken to a motel for the night.

Members of the Texas Department of Highways were contacted and assisted in diverting traffic for about two hours before the wreckage could be cleared by Dossey Wrecker Service, Burson said.

Attention is called to the fact that the contractor must comply with all Federal, State and Local Labor Laws.

The successful bidder will be required to enter into a contract with the Colorado ISD, Colorado City, Texas and furnish a Performance and Payment Bond in the amount of not less than 100 per cent of the contract price, conditioned upon the performance of the contract.

Attention is called to the fact that the Owner is exempt from the payment of the State Sales Tax normally levied against material costs. In order to take advantage of this exemption, material and labor costs must be identified by the successful bidder. In developing this division of labor and material costs, the bidders are cautioned to include all costs and allowances not representing direct material costs with labor. The contract sum, as identified by the Base Bid, shall not include any allowance for the payment of State Sales Tax on materials required to complete the work. The successful bidder, upon award of the contract, will be furnished with a permit number which will enable him to purchase the required materials without payment of such taxes. Specifications and plans may be obtained from the architects in accordance with the stipulations set forth under Deposits and Refunds.

The bidder acknowledges the right of the owner to reject any or all bids and to waive any informality or irregularity in any bid received. In addition, the bidder recognizes the right of the owner to reject a bid if the bidder failed to furnish any required bid security or to submit the data required by the bidding documents or if the bid is in any way incomplete or irregular.
