By H. N. F.

Representative Morris of Medina is happy. He accepted the substitute for the Morris bill amending to Dean law. Governor Neff will sign the bill, as amended and sent to the governor, the bill provides that it is unlawful for any person to directly or indirectly manufacture, sell, barter, exchange, transport or possess or receive any intoxicating liquor for the purpose of the sale of any such liquors. Thus, if the liquor is not for sale its possession would be lawful. It further makes it unlawful to make, sell, transport, etc., liquor containing over 1 per cent of alcohol by volume for the purpose of sale. The usual exceptions are incorporated for medicinal, mechanical, scientific and sacramental purposes, but permit is required to operate under the latter. The substitute sets for that upon trial for violation of the law, the purchaser, transporter or possessor of any of the liquors prohibited by this law shall not be held in law or in fact to be an accomplice when a witness in any such trial. It finally provides that no person over 25 years of age convicted under the provisions of the act shall have the benefit of the suspended sentence law. H. N. F. has a warm personal friend in this city who will be delighted when Governor Neff approves this bill which re-constructs the provisions of the Dean law. He was in Illinois just before the eighteenth amendment became effective. He purchased eighteen cases of the real stuff, paying one dollar and a half a quart for the blossom of the rye and boquet of the corn confined in glass containers. He placed it in the cellar of a friend and instead of shipping it to Texas for his own personal use he fell asleep at the switch while Senator Dean of Huntsville was putting over the somewhat notorious law that bears his name. It has been in the Illinois cellar ever since. He may be happy yet. He did not purchase the stuff for sale. He purchased it for personal use and now if he can get himself a permit he may be able to transport it from the Illinois cellar in the city of Wichita Falls without fear of prosecution. H. N. F. speaks for a case in advance if this should happen for medicinal purposes only, not for himself but for his family and friends. Personally in "the good old days," he is free to confess that he looked upon a prime article of Belle of Nelson as yet only for drinking purposes and considered it a wanton outrage as well as a rank waste to use it for industrial, or mechanical or medicinal purposes. It was never intended for camouflage exhibition or exhaustion.

Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts has been designated by President Harding as a member of the American elevation to the disarmament conference. Woodrow Wilson had taken Henry Cabot Lodge to Paris as a delegate to the Versailles peace conference, the treaty would not have been rejected by the senate and the League of Nations would have been a reality. And this is history made.

Texas lawmakers appropriated one-million five hundred thousand dollars to aid the rural schools for the first year and one million dollars for the second year. This bill has been sent to the governor. Governor Neff vetoed the bill of the regular session carrying two million each year or a total of four million dollars. Now what action will the governor take on the amended or pruned appropriation? Miss Blanton would like to know. She is fearful that the world will come to an unhappy end unless all her ideas or policies are crystalized into laws and appropriations—mostly appropriations.

Secretary Mellon has indicated that the vast stocks of liquor seized by the government agents from rum-runners and now stored in warehouses, may be converted for industrial uses if they are found unfit for medical purposes. Secretary Mellon made the discovery that five million dollars worth of liquor is stored in New York warehouses. All this is government loot taken from violaters of the eighteenth amendment. Why destroy it? Why not use it for industrial purposes? Of course it can not be used for thirst irrigating purposes but it is a shame to permit it to run into the East River.

Senator Paul Page of Bastrop killed the representative redistricting bill on a point of order. This bill had passed the House. It increased the present membership of 142 members to the constitutional maximum of 150 members. It would be the part of wisdom on the part of the people as well as on the part of the lawmakers to reduce the house membership to one hundred or under. It is impossible to reduce the senate membership of thirty-one as it is a constitutional provision.

Senator Bledsoe of Lubbock and Representative Hill of Wheeler are to be congratulated. They put over the senatorial redistricting bill, they won two senators for the west which was entitled to four, they forced the best compromise they could get out of the East Texas standpatters and now the thirty-eighth legislature will be asked to amend the bill as the progressives may see fit. Full text of the bill and districts has appeared in these columns. Dallas and Harris and Tarrant are the only single counties to become separate senatorial districts. Bexar is placed with four other counties, not withstanding that San Antonio is the largest of Texas cities and the population of the new district is beyond the two-hundred thousand mark. Senator Harry Hertzberg of San Antonio is one

DENIES U. S. SENDS THREAT TO OBREGON

Hughes Tells Garner That America Is Not Trying to Dictate Mexico's Internal Policies.

Letter to Texas Solon in Reply to Resolution by Legislature Asking Recognition of Government.

By BASCOM N. TIMMONS
Record News Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—Secretary of State Hughes, in a letter to Representative John Garner of Texas, denied that the government has presented an ultimatum or that it is attempting to dictate in the internal affairs of Mexico. The letter from Secretary Hughes was in reply to the resolution of the Texas legislature urging recognition of President Obregon which was forwarded to the secretary by Representative Garner.

Referring to his statement of June 7, proposing a treaty of amity and commerce with Mexico under which the Mexican nation would agree to safeguard the rights of property which rights had attached before the constitution of 1917 was adopted, Hughes indicated this position had been assumed without regard to any particular administration in Mexico.

"I might add," he said, "that in proposing the discussion of a treaty with Mexico which would clarify the situation and remove at once and for all the causes of misunderstanding, which have existed since the revolution, and especially the adoption of the Queretaro constitution, this government has presented no ultimatum nor is it attempting to dictate in the internal affairs of Mexico.

"The question of a recognition of a foreign government is purely a domestic one for the United States, to be decided by the executive, which, in this instance, is merely seeking the common ground of a clear understanding which will assure to its citizens in Mexico that security and protection which they are justly entitled to receive."

LEGISLATURE SPENDS FIRST DAY OF SPECIAL SESSION IN WORK OF RE-ORGANIZATION

By Associated Press.

AUSTIN, Aug. 17.—On the first day of the second called session of the thirty-seventh legislature very little work was done. At 10 o'clock this morning Speaker Thomas called the house to order and Lieutenant Governor Lynch Davidson called the senate to order.

The house roll call showed that there were only 87 members and no quorum present. The work of organization could not proceed until a quorum assembled and after an hour of deliberation a call of the house was ordered and the absentees in the city ordered brought in. Reconvening for the afternoon session found a bare quorum, ninety-five members present.

The initial roll call of the senate showed twenty-one senators present, an exact quorum. The senate proceeded to get busy and on motion of Senator Dudley and under suspension of the constitutional rule the senate educational bill originally submitted by the finance committees was engrossed and passed finally. This was done to expedite the bill and send it to the house.

The pedlem appropriation bill and the contingent expense appropriation was also passed finally.

Deliberate Procedure.

In the house the day was devoted to deliberating on the method of procedure on the educational bill. An insufficient number of members was present to suspend any constitutional rules and the deliberation finally ended by the house adjourning until two o'clock Friday afternoon with promise of the speaker to wire the absent members instructing them to be present at that time.

In the meanwhile the house appropriations committee is to prepare the bill to be presented to the house and have it printed in order that the house may proceed.

The resolution by Miller of Dallas introduced at the last called session proposed an investigation of large oil corporations in Texas as to violation of the anti-trust laws was again adopted in the house. The senate referred it to the committee on commerce and manufacture.

Senator Woods of Navarro county, was elected president pro tem.

Elect Woods President.

Senator Woods of Navarro county was elected president pro tem of the senate for the second called session. Senator Parr of Duval was elected president ad interim late yesterday and served in that capacity only twelve hours, the governor's call cutting short his term.

In his call for the second session Governor Neff submitted the subject of providing appropriations for the support and maintenance of state institutions and any other matters of vital importance that he might deem fit to submit.

Talk among the legislators today was to the effect that the governor might veto the departmental appropriations bill and resubmit it for consideration. Also it is understood that the governor will veto the senatorial redistricting bill and resubmit it. He has expressed himself as displeased with the senate amendment deferring effectiveness until April 1, 1924.

Th prevalent desire among the legislators to get through and go home. In the house this is especially noticeable and during the day was uttered by more than one speaker.

DEMOCRATS WILL FIGHT TAX PROGRAM

House Caucus Decides to Launch Offensive Against Administration's Proposed Revision.

Adopt Resolution Charging Bill Relieves Profiteers and Large Taxpayers of Their Just Share.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—Democratic members of the house at a caucus pledged themselves to vote against the republican tax revision bill and adopted a resolution declaring that the measure was subversive of the principle that should govern taxation for the support of this government."

The decision was reached at the fourth meeting which had been held since yesterday in an effort to chart a course for the minority. The caucus also instructed the democratic members of the ways and means committee to offer a motion to recommit the bill immediately before the final vote, scheduled for 3 p. m. Saturday. A resolution charges that the bill "relieves profitters and taxpayers of large incomes from their just share of the load of taxation and leaves an unfair portion of the burden to be borne by the people of moderate means.

"It violates," the resolution continued, "the promise of all parties to reform and revise the system of taxation so that all citizens and corporations shall bear a just portion of the tax load."

REPULICANS DEFEND; DEMOCRATS ASSAULT

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—The republican defense of and the democratic assault of the next tax bill got under way today in the house. Discussion, however, was not confined to the bill itself, ranging all the way from the numbers of coops President Wilson took to Paris to the question of social justice.

Chairman Fordney of the ways and means committee in charge of the measure, opened the four-hour debate after the house had adopted, on a strict party vote, 223 to 115, a rule providing for a final vote at 3 p. m. Saturday. Most of his speech of an hour, as he said in closing was a little about the bill and a whole lot about the democratic party."

Reviewing what he described as extravagances under the last administration, Mr. Fordney charged that

DISARMAMENT MEETING PLANS CAUSE DEBATE

By Associated Press.

The outburst was short-lived and failed to develop any general expression of senate opinion on the subject of public or closed sessions.

IRISH SOLONS MEET SECRETLY ON PROPOSALS

Dail Eireann Will Go Into Executive Session Thursday to Consider England's Peace Offer.

Eamonn de Valera, President of "Republic" Declares Ireland Cannot Accept Dominion Rule.

By Associated Press.

DUBLIN, Aug. 17.—The Dail Eireann will go into secret session tomorrow to discuss the British government's proposals for peace with the reiterated words of Eamonn De Valera still fresh in the minds of its members: "The Dail Eireann cannot and will not on behalf of Ireland accept the terms offered."

At the second session of the parliament, held today in the mansion house, Mr. DeValera again dealt with the British offer. Again he insisted that nothing less than independence for Ireland was in the minds of the Irish leaders. He stressed his viewpoint that the status of a dominion government had not been made to Ireland. The statement that such a government had been offered contained two falsehoods. There was no Ireland mentioned in the terms, only two broken pieces of Ireland. Dominions had the right to secede, but the Irish republic must stay within the empire whether it desired to do so or not, he said.

During his address Mr. DeValera held out the olive branch to Ulster by declaring that entering with negotiations for a settlement of the controversy northern Ireland need not give up its own point of view. He said he would be willing to suggest that the Irish give up a good deal in order that Ireland might be able to view the future "without anticipating distracting internal problems."

Mr. De Valera declared again that the claims of the minority in Ireland as represented by the Ulsterites were wrong but added that he for one, would be ready to go a long way to give in to Ulster, "if we could get them to come with us and consider the interests of their own country and not be allying themselves with foreigners."

Everywhere these words of Mr. De Valera with regard to Ulster were received as an indication that events were transpiring behind the scenes having as their purpose the bringing of Sir James Craig, the Ulster premier, into touch with the Sinn Fein leaders in the hope of evolving some means of surmounting the present impasse.

GULF COMPANY OFFICE MOVED TO THIS CITY

100 families to Wichita Falls, most of them holding executive or important positions.

In addition to this the move of the company is expected to result in the enlargement of the offices of many of the large companies here, to say nothing of the removal of a number of smaller companies who follow the larger ones, expected to run the total acquisition to several hundred families.

The offices of the Gulf here will be on the fifth, sixth and seventh floors of the Bob Waggoner building, a part of the sixth of which is now occupied by their district office here.

Arrangements have been worked out for concerns and individuals occupying these offices now, many of whom had long time leases, for office room in others of the local office buildings.

In addition to making arrangements for the office rooms, a large number of houses had to be secured to take care of the newcomers. This, according to local business men who have worked on these details, proved the hardest task of all, the problem being to secure the houses for employes at rents which the company felt it's employes could afford.

The making of this announcement confirms a news story published in the Record News early last spring to the effect that the Gulf Company was contemplating this move, and telling of the importance to Wichita Falls. Except for one Dallas newspaper, which carried the story two days later, this story was not published in any other north or northwest Texas daily newspaper.

Steady progress has been made in this direction from that time on, but it was not until Wednesday afternoon that final and definite agreements were entered into. Gulf officials and local people working on the matter have been close to a final agreement for several weeks.

Agreements for necessary office quarters and housing was worked out largely by G. Clint Wood and R. O. Harvey, with the assistance of T. B. Noble, president of the Chamber of Commerce, and of J. W. Chatham Jr., secretary.

Pyron Moves Here.

Officials who will come here by reason of the Gulf's move will include W. B. Pyron, the executive in charge of all operations in this part of Texas, and third vice president of the corporation. Mr. Pyron is one of the best known oil men in the Mid-continent field. Previous to coming to Wichita Falls he has been stationed at Shreveport and at Fort Worth. At both places he was an active civic worker, serving at one time as president of the Shreveport Chamber of Commerce, and being a member of the board of drectors of the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce. H. A. Melat, general superintendent of the production department, is another of the officials who will move here.

The offices of the Gulf here will direct the operations in Wichita, Young, Stephens, Eastland and adjoining counties, as well as the operations being carried on in the Panhandle. The pipe line office here will have jurisdiction over the lines of the company running from the northwest and the central west Texas fields through their junctions with the Oklahoma lines to a point about midway to the Gulf coast, where the Houston office assumes jurisdiction.

Results From Railroad.

The movement of the Gulf offices is a direct result of the completing of the Wichita Falls and Southern extension to connect the northwest Texas fields with those in ceneral west Texas. The Gulf officials were quick to see the logical location offered here with this new railroad line. Frank Kell, J. A. Kemp, G. Clint Wood, W. D. Cline and R. O. Harvey were among those who were active in making the move possible. Mr. Wood and Mr. Kemp made a trip to the head offices of the company at Pittsburg in the interest of the move early in the year.

The Gulf Corporation is the holding company which controls the Gulf Production Company, a Texas company which was the genesis of the organization, the Gulf Refining Company, the Gulf Refining Company of Louisiana, and the Gypsy Oil Company of Oklahoma, the principal subsidiaries. The Gulf Oil Corporation is owned by the Mellons of Pittsburg, with A. W. Mellon, now secretary of the treasury as the largest single owner.

THEY SAID THAT OPERATION WAS HER ONLY HOPE

"Eevrybody who knows me knows the wonderful good Tanlac has done me, but I'm glad to make a public statement, too, for the benefit of others who may suffer as I did," said Miss A. E. Dixon, 1102 Meadow street, Houston, Texas.

"I had a complete nervous breakdown, followed by catarrh of the stomach. I don't believe anybody ever suffered more than I did. I suffered agony all the time from my neck down to my hips, and my stomach got in such bad condition I couldn't retain even milk or water. I didn't average two hours' sleep at night and was losing weight and strength every day. I was told an operation was my only hope, but the very thought of this made me more nervous and sicker than ever.

"That I am a well and strong woman today I owe to Tanlac and nothing else. I had been taking it only a few days when I felt myself being relieved. I sleep splendidly every night, all the pain has left my back and I can digest anything, even the heaviest pies or pastries. I have regained my lost weight and just feel like a different person altogether. No matter how long I live I will always have a good word to say for Tanlac, for it was a friend in need to me."

Tanlac is sold in Wichita Falls by Miller Drug Store; in Electra by Tarlton Drug Store; in Burkburnett by West End Drug Store, and by all leading druggists.—Adv.

DEMOCRATS WILL FIGHT TAX PROGRAM

President Wilson had taken over the railroads "for political purposes only" and had placed in charge of them "his son-in-law, McAdoo, whom he was grooming for the presidency."

Asked from the democratic side why he had voted for the bill authorizing federal control of the carriers, the speaker said:

"Put President in Hole."

"I voted to put the president in a hole and we did it.'

Later Mr. Fordney said he had made his statement about taking over the railroads jokingly, but his declaration was greeted with jeers from the democrats.

The committee chairman went into details about shipping board operations and war purchases as well as operations of the railroads and the telephone lines and declared that now the republican administration had "to go to the country and ask for money to pay for these extravagances."

He then gave some figures about the number of people President Wilson carried with him to Paris and the money spent while there, adding:

"The fiddler wants his pay now; we danced then."

Turning to the bill itself, the chairman discussed briefly the changes in tax levies proposed and declared the committee had made an honest effort to reduce taxes and believed it had given to the house "as equitable a measure as was possible under the circumstances."

Mr. Fordney was given a demonstration by his republican colleagues and some democrats who stood and applauded him for several minutes.

Garner Opens Fight.

Representative Garner, of Texas, ranking minority member of the ways and means committee, opening the democratic fight on the bill, replied at some length to Mr. Fordney's statements about federal railroad operation. Asserting that democratic and republican congress had voted $2,600,000,000 to the railroads, he declared that the end was not yet.

"You are called upon," he said, addressing the republicans, "to vote $500,000,000 more which the president recommended the other day. Why do your leaders want to vote on this proposition before congress takes a recess? They dare not let you go home and meet your constituency on the proposition of giving the railroads $500,000,000 more."

Turning to the tax bill, Mr. Garner said he believed and hoped his party would say that the law put on the statute books should provide that those most able to pay should pay. He added that the republican proposal was for a lifting of the tax burden from the classes and placing it on the masses.

Urging repeal of all of the minor war taxes, the Texas member said he would propose as a peace time policy the obtaining of all government revenue from five sources—inheritance taxes, individual income and corporation taxes, tobacco taxes, customs receipts and postoffice and miscellaneous receipts.

Mr. Garner charged Secretary Mellon in proposing tax revisions had only one object—"the relieving of the rich and the taking off the poor." He also declared that in the light of the treasury decommendations it was only fair to assume that the administrative changes in the new bill "had been drawn always in favor of those who now high taxes and against those who pay small taxes."

The provision in the new bill giving the secretary of the treasury authority to settle $1,500,000,000 claims involving back taxes was declared by the speaker to be a dangerous one. He urged that a quasi-judicial tribunal be set up to wind up the claims.

The member received an ovation from the democratic side of the house when he concluded after criticising the republican proposal to repeal the taxes on the salaries of the president and the judges of the federal courts.

COMMERCE CHAMBER ASKS ABOLITION OF TRANSPORTATION TAX

Special to the Record News.

STAMFORD, Aug. 17.—The West Texas Chamber of Commerce through its Washington office has filed with the finance committee of the senate a petition asking that the ways and means committee bill of the house, abolishing the war tax on freight, express, passenger and pullman fares, be passed by them. This action by the organization follows the earlier requests made to the ways and means committee to include express war tax in their bill doing away with these additional charges on freight and passenger rates.

The attitude of shippers throughout west Texas has been that the early proposal of the house to do away with war tax on freight but not on express shipments would result in an additional burden on the merchants and ultimately the consumer for the express business in west Texas includes all forms of perishable foods and much that the merchants buy. The great difference between the freight rates less the war tax and express with the war tax retained would place the shippers at a great disadvantage, and for the purpose of equalizing conditions the west Texas chamber of commerce has used its efforts in securing the abolishment of the war tax on express.

MYSTERIOUS CALL BRINGS STOLEN FURS

A mysterious telephone call was reported Wednesday night by M. H. Chenault, 1208 Filmore street to have led to the recovery of a seal skin throw and Russian sable fur coat, missing since the night of August 7, when fire broke out in the Chenault home.

Mr. Chenault said that he was unable to repeat the exact words of the man, who called, but that he was advised that he could recover the articles by the payment of $50, which he must leave where the clothing was hidden.

Declaring to his mysterious caller that he was without funds, Mr. Chenault then asked for time to go to the city and cash a check. The request, according to Mr. Chenault, was granted with the condition that he promise faithfully to bring the money. He was then told, he said, that the clothing could be found at the end of the pavement on Eleventh street.

The call was immediately reported to police and Mr. Chenault, accompanied by plain clothes officers George Hawkins and J. E. Glenn proceeded to the spot. The furs, slightly damaged from exposure, were found hidden in weeds on the left side of the street and near the 2300 block.

The fire which broke out in the Chenault home on the night of August 7, was declared by fireman and Mr. Chenault to have evidently been of incendiary origin. The fire was discovered during the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Chenault. Shortly after their return they reported the loss of the furs to police, expressing the belief that unknown persons had stolen the articles and attempted to burn the home.

Half burned kindling and pieces of soft pine were found by firemen in a clothes closet in the home, in which the fire had its origin. A gallon bottle, which had contained coal oil also was found in the closet.

THREE BILLS SEEK BAN ON BOGUS MILK

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—War against the "menace of bogus milk" has been declared in congress.

Three bills are pending in the house to make illegal the manufacture and sale of swimmed milk and cocoanut oil compounds, which are made to simulate evaporated milk.

One of these measures, introduced by Representative Voight, of Wisconsin, seeks to prohibit interstate commerce in these compounds while the others, offered by Representatives J. D. Beck, of Wisconsin and Joseph W. Fordney, of Michigan, provide for the prevention of milk counterfeiting by taxation, so as to take the profit incentive away from manufacturers and dealers.

Experts Urge Enactment.

Various associations of milk producers and dairymen have urged the passage of the bills and in support of their arguments against milk compounds they have secured and presented testimony from Dr. E. V. Collum, the nutrition expert of Johns Hopkins University; Prof. Oscar Elf, of Ono State University; A. J. Glover, editor of Hoard's Dairyman; Prof. Hart of the University of Wisconsin, and Prof. H. C. Sherman, of Columbia University. Opposition to the bills has been voiced by the milk manufacturers, who introduced a statement by Professor Mendel, of Yale University, to prove that there are vitamines in skim milk and that vegetble fats are wholesome products.

One of the most interesting of the statements given before the House committee which is considering the milk bills was that of Prof. Lif, of the University of Ohio.

"Bogus Milk Not Recent."

Bogus milk, or filled milk, is not a recent product, Elf told the committee. "Skim milk and oil, both animal and vegetable, have been combined for culinary purposes for more than thirty years. Calves have been fed on mixtures of lard and skim milk for experimental purposes for an equal length of time.

"In 1917, however, a so-called scientifically-mixed and prepared animal fat and skim milk compound was put upon the market as an infant food and to replace condensed milk. This product was supposed to have superior merit, but the fact of the case was that after some time the experiments showed that the food was actually deleterious to infants. These facts were the primary motive for our investigation to show the comparative value of the compound with condensed milk.

Concoction Stunts Growth.

"A number of cages of white mice were subjected to nutritive tests. One lot was fed on condensed milk and after four months of growth weighed 182 grams, while another lot was fed on this compound and weighed 40 grams after the same period of time and kept under the same conditions otherwise.

The manufacturer claims that with every case of milk sold special directions are given as to the use of the material. The fact nevertheless remains that the fnial consumer is deceived in many instances in that he is trying to buy condensed milk which has the intrinsic constituents, namely, vitamines, which do not exist anywhere else, and instead gets a compound which is entirely deprived of them. An alloy of gold might pass just as well as pure gold; nevertheless, it does not have the intrinsic value and therefore becomes a counterfeit.

Standard Is Required.

"The United States government, in its maintenance regulations, provided for condensed milk, which reads to the effect that condensed milk for army and navy purposes shall be pure, unadulterated, fresh, wholesome milk with water removed. And yet these compounds have been found in the United States army camp, and were used until attention was called to the fact that they were not consuming condensed milk, but rather a compound.

"There is no doubt but what the arties that were reasonable for putting this material into the camps were innocent. It therefore becomes doubly important that the government protect its people in such a way that it would not be possible to perpetrate a fraud without perfect knowledge of the same."

Opponents of the bills admitted during the hearings that approximately 85,000,000 pounds of milk compounds had been manufactured in 1920.

"BIVOUAC OF DEAD" KEPT BY HEROES TO COMPEL RESPECT

CANTON, Ohio, Aug. 17.—"The bivouac of the dead" has become a reality in Canton and promises to remain for some time, unless Westlawn Cemetery Association trustees relent from their order that no more burials will be made there on Sunday.

The Canton Post of the American Legion has become embroiled in a contest with the cemetery officials and is carrying the matter to the attention of state and national officers.

Bodies of Canton soldiers, killed or dying from injury and disease overseas, are beginning to arrive with frequent regularity and the local post of the legion sees to it that each has a military funeral as a final tribute to the supreme sacrifice. These funerals have always been held on Sundays, because more of the ex-soldiers can turn out on that day, and the funerals are always larger. The cemetery order hit the legion hard; but the old army resourcefulness came into play. They held the funeral for Corporal Walter Griffith, killed at the Marne and it was a large one. Full ceremonies took place at the spot where the grave was to be, then the casket was lowered to the ground, and an armed guard was tolled off. Reliefs were formed, and two sentinels stood erect keeping vigil through the night and on Monday morning until cemetery sextons came to dig the grave and lower the coffin into it.

"Our buddies went overseas on Sundays, fought and died on Sundays, so why shouldn't they be buried on this day, when more of their comrades can turn out?" asks Ben J. Daugherty, a former major, and commander of Canton Post.

This "bivouac of the dead" will be the policy of the legion until the cemetery trustees relent.

PLANS EXTINCTION OF POTTER'S FIELD

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Aug. 17.—One well-known institution connected with every city of any size in the United States will soon disappear if plans of William Fleeman, a young undertaker of this city, are successfully carried through. The institution, which young Fleeman plans to wipe out of existence is the Potter's Field. There will be no more unidentified dead buried if his plans work out.

Fleeman has organized an identification bureau. It's members are all undertakers. The bureau plans to have a representative in every community in the country. The death of every unidentified person, man woman or child, will be reported immediately by members and the description of the body and of all the clues with it will be sent out to every other member. Fleeman believes that in nine cases out of ten the bureal will be able to identify the dead person, and the body can be recovered by relatives or friends.

The number of persons who are killed and are never identified at present runs into the thousands yearly.

FIRST WICHITAN DEAD IN ACTION BURIED SUNDAY

Funeral ceremonies for Lieut. James A. Manahan, the first soldier from Wichita Falls to meet death in action, will be held at his former home in Gainesville Sunday, according to word received by friends here.

Lieut. Manahan was killed by machine gun fire while leading his platoon in an assault on the first day of the St. Mihiel offensive—Sept. 12, 1918. He was a member of the 357th Infantry, 90th Division. This soldier was one of the first here to offer his services after war was declared. He was designated for the first officers training camp, Camp Funston, Leon Springs, Texas, where he was a member of the 8th company. Immediatey after the conclusion of the training period, he was assigned to the 90th division and to the 357th Infantry, with which he served constantly until his death. During the training period in this country, as well as during the period after his organization entered the zone of operations, the young Wichitan gained a real regard both among his fellow and senior officers and the men of his organization for efficiency and fine real character.

Former service men in Gainesville are making plans to accord him full military honors at the funeral. Friends gained during his residence here, where he was an employe of the Miller Drug store, as well as his comrades in the service who reside here are, many of them, planning to attend the funeral at Gainesville, with others to be remembered by floral tributes.

A WIFE IN THE MAKING

BY PHYLLIS PHILLIPS

CHERRY UNBURDENS HER SOUL

Afraid that she would lose her reason if left to her own sad thoughts that night, Cherry slipped out of the house, all unnoticed, after reading Arline's letter, and walked over to her kind friend, Laura King.

Arrived there, she found that lady deep in her third cup of tea and telling the cards, as she often did to fill in the hours of her solitude. At sight of Cherry, of whom she was very fond, Mrs. King bustled about, happily, pulling up a chair for the pale faced girl and making her comfortable in the way that was an art with her.

"Now, dearie, you sit right down here next to your Aunty Laura, get your breath and then tell me all about it. Don't dare to keep one single thing back, either, you understand?" she said, warningly, as she kissed Cherry on the forehead tenderly.

For several minutes after this, however, Cherry sat very still, with the mournful look in her eyes that made kind Mrs. King's heart ache. Tactfully the lady of the house went on playing her cards, waiting for the moment when Cherry would feel inclined to unburden her heart to her.

"Miss Laura, I just had to come over and see you tonight. Ned went away to Chicago for two weeks and the house seemed so deserted with him out of it that I couldn't stand it another minute. So here I am."

"You did the right thing, too, little girl. I told you to always come to your Aunty Laura whenever you felt blue or in trouble. It's she who can find a way out. Now smile a wee bit and tell us all about it."

And through her tears Cherry did as she was bid. When it came to the part about the letter finding her emotions overcame her and she broke down completely, silently handing the pink note to her friend.

Miss Laura read it through to the end with a grim tightening of the lips. Her voice was a bit trembly as she said, "Well."

Then, catching herself in time, she took the unhappy Cherry into her arms and held her close while she sobbed out all her grief and disappointment.

"Now, Cherry, child. You've cried enough. Your pretty eyes are just so red, dear. This will never do. Red eyes never kept a husband loving one yet. Hold up your head and remember that it's you, Cherry, he wanted badly enough to marry, not this bold Arline. And it's you that can hold him against all the world of Arlines, too. Why, that girl isn't worth wasting a tear over. She's a designing little creature, that's all. Same as I always knew she was. Oh! Your Aunty Laura's not been blind, no, indeed. And I've seen a thing or two. But, Cherry, it's not Ned, it is Arline that's to blame for most of it, anyhow. She's run after that boy for three years now. She doesn't seem to know when she's not wanted. Thinks her money can buy anything. Well, we'll show her what is what."

WOMAN-I-TORIALS

Why Save Our Money?

Not what we earn, but what we save, is the important matter after all. This is shown by the following facts:

Sixty-five per cent of the widows of the United States are left with less than $3000.

If a mother has to go to work and leave her child, he stands only half the chance in life with the child whose mother can stay at home and look after him.

There are nearly 200 charitable institutions in the United States caring for normal but dependent children.

There are 1,250,000 people in the United States too old to work who are penendent upon charity.

Begin to save money the day you begin to earn it!

WHAT A PITY.

In Poland, the universities are so crowded that many who are trying to get an education are denied. From thirty to forty per cent of the applicants are women and many Polish authorities are of the opinion that the women had better be refused until all the men are provided for, "since the women are likely to get married anyway and not use their education which was obtained at so great sacrifice." What do you think of that for reasoning?

THE "MORAL DRESS."

Fifteen ministers in Philadelphia have gone Dame Fashion one better by inventing the "moral dress." It is an attractive garment, easy and girlish, made of non-diaphanous material, reaching within three inches of the wearer's throat and seven and a half inches from the ground, and does not fit closely at any point.

For the first time, women are admitted to study architecture in the Institute of Architecture, in Sydney, Australia. A number of enthusiastic women are taking advantage of the opportunity.

JUNIOR B. Y. P. U. ENTERTAINED TUESDAY.

Members of the Junior B. Y. P. U. of the First Baptist church were entertained Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer McGregor, 1715 Elizabeth street.

Music and games furnished diversion until a late hour, when dainty refreshments were served to Misses Herma Pounds, Jewell White, Elizabeth Cole, Pauline Hubnell, Ines Carter, Eileen Williams, Ellen Hooker, Ina Parker, Louise Scott, May Bartlett, Gladys Nelson and Masters Horace Priddy, William Powers, Edgar Smith, Lindell Stone, Guy Taylor, Welch Wyatt and John Akin.

CONQUER THE BAD HABITS.

Suttering, lisping, stammering, poor enunciation and all speech defects are bad habits in either old or young. There are high priced specialists whose practice is devoted exclusively to correcting the bad speech habits of adults whose faults were not corrected in childhood. Baby talk is neither attractive nor desirable. The child whose speech faculties are just developing had better be trained into clear enunciation by hearing good English from his associates. There is nothing lost by escaping baby talk and everything to gain. Any physical defect that interferes with enunciation like tongue-tie, should be corrected. Biting the finger nails is a failing that requires the individual's own determination only. The child may be reproved for biting the finger nails and the mother's constant correction will help. But a sympathetic and loving building up of his own will to stop is the final and only cure. He may be helped in the ordeal by such material aids as will interrupt the unconscious act. One boy wore glove fingers on one hand until he had conquered the habit and another stained his finger nails with ink so his eye was attracted by the black color every time his fingers moved unconsciously to his lips.

Bad habit of posture may be most happily eradicated by making a game of the correct posture. Two little girls who "toed-in" most ungracefully, were provided with stilts by their father, who encouraged them to emulate all his boyhood feats. No child can toe-in and successfully manipulate stilts. A summer vacation with those useful toys may effect a permanent cure.

Stoop-shouldered children may be trained into a military bearing by encouraging them to play daily the game of emulating those races whose heads are literally the burden bearers. The movies and the children's picture books abound in pictures of those peoples and races who carry everything on the head. The small boy, whose ambition to carry everything from freight cars to pencils on his head may make tragedy with the milk bottle and the dinner dishes before his skull is assured. But he will walk like an Apollo and he will face the world with a "Hail, the Conquering Hero Comes" attitude, instead of his former drooping shoulder slouch.—Kansas City Star.

LOVE'S CALL.

Love came outside my window pane
And tapping lightly called to me,
But spring was young and flowers were gay—
I let him cry unheedingly.

But after all the blooms were dead
And winter's chill was in the air
I sought his place, but found, alas!
That love no longer lingered there.

GIRLS! WHITEN SKIN WITH LEMON JUICE

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of harmless and delightful lemon bleach. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day, then shortly note the beauty and whiteness of your skin.

Famous stage beauties use this lemon lotion to bleach and bring that soft, clear, rosy-white complexion, also as a freckle, sunburn, and tan bleach because it doesn't irritate.—Adv.

SUFFERED ALL A WOMAN COULD

Mrs. Meyer Finally Found Relief and Health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Orange, Cal.—"I always feel very grateful to you, as some twenty years ago three doctors said I had to have a serious operation. I had a tumor, and ulcers which would gather and break. I had displacement so badly that I could hardly sit down at times, and it seemed as if I suffered everything that a woman could suffer. Then some one advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I took it until I was cured and saved from the operation. I have told women of your wonderful medicine times without number, and I am willing that you should use these facts and my name if you like. I also used your Compound during the Change, and I can do all my own work but the heavy part, and can walk miles every day as I help my husband in the office."—Mrs. J. H. MEYER, 412 South Orange St., Orange, California.

A great many women who suffered like this have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

With the Women of Today

Dr. Ma Saw Sa.

The first woman in Burma to receive a degree from a university has come to the United States to continue her studies of medicine. She is Dr. Ma Saw Sa, a noted physician of Burma, India. Dr. Sa tells of the great progress of the women of her country, and she wants to study western methods that she may take back to her country all the new ideas recently advanced in medical and surgical practice to help them advance further along hygienic lines.

Dr. Sa is also a member of the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Dublin, Ireland, by honorary declaration. She plans to continue her studies at Johns Hopkins university in Baltimore, specializing in medicine. She adds another to the already long list of foreign women who are entering American colleges for specialised study.

WOMAN'S BILL PASSES.

The bill of the national woman's party removing all legal restrictions governing sex, has passed both houses of the Wisconsin legislature.

WOULD TAKE FATHER'S PLACE.

Mrs. Winifred Mason Houck of Chicago, daughter of the late Representative William E. Mason, is continuing her efforts to interest republicans in her desire to succeed her father as congressman at large from Illinois.

After President Harding recently told Mrs. Houck to "go to it" when she talked to him of her political ambition. Mrs. Houck began a roundup of the republican delegation from Illinois. She completed that roundup and announced it to be a complete success.

"All the republican members from Illinois are for me," she said. "I am going to run for member at large for my father's unexpired term and after that for the regular term."

PLANS FOR NATIONAL WOMAN'S BUREAU.

At a meeting in Salt Lake City a plan to establish a national woman's bureau, to give publicity to the activities of women, was proposed by Mrs. Ida Clyde Clark, contributing editor of the Pictorial Review, and started with stock subscriptions from club women from twenty states. The company will be incorporated with a capital stock of $100,000 and will consist entirely of women. Chicago will be the headquarters.

HERE AND THERE.

Miss Mary Belle Perkins, candidate for nomination to the Virginia legislature, declares that if elected she will work for "a modified blue law."

The first English woman to obtain a first class in the mechanical sciences tripos, which deals with engineering subjects in the very highest branches, is Miss L. Chitty of Newnham college, Cambridge.

For work in delicate dye tests it has been found that women are more valuable than men.

Chinese women are certainly going the limit in their endeavor to appear westernized. Not only are the women of fashion adopting the western skirt and high-heeled shoes, but a report comes from Canton that to have the hair "bobbed" is the very latest sign of a progressive spirit.

Miss Annie Martin has been appointed assayer in charge of the United States mint at Carson City, Nev.

RECIPES FOR A DAY

Halibut Turbans—Two thick slices of halibut, one teaspoon salt, one-quarter teaspoon pepper, one small onion, eight cloves, two cups stewed tomatoes, one lemon.

Remove the skin and bone from the halibut, which will separate each slice of fish into four strips. Roll them up and fasten with toothpicks or skewers. Sprinkle with salt and pepper and dredge with a little flour. Place in roasting pan. On each turban place a slice of onion, a slice of lemon and a clove. Over all pour the tomato and bake twenty minutes.

Peach Delight—One and one-half cups flour, three teaspoons baking powder, one-half teaspoon salt, one tablespoon sugar, two tablespoons fat, one-half cup milk, peach halves.

Mix and sift dry ingredients, cut in the fat with a knife or rub in with tips of fingers. Add the milk and mix with a knife to keep the dough very light. In the bottoms of ramekins place halves of peaches, canned or fresh.

On each put a tablespoon of the mixture and bake fifteen minutes. Turn out and serve hot with cream or milk, if fresh peaches are used. If the peaches are canned serve with peach syrup.

Nut Bread—Three cups flour, one-quarter cup sugar, one-half teaspoon salt, three teaspoons baking powder, one cup walnut meats, one egg, one cup of milk.

Mix and sift dry ingredients, mix in nuts; add eggs (well beaten) and milk, bake about three-quarters of an hour in a moderate oven.

Bran Muffins—These are very good and easy to make. One-half cup flour, one-half teaspoon soda, one-quarter teaspoon salt, one cup bran, one-half cup milk, two and one-half tablespoons molasses, one egg. Sift dry ingredients, add the bran, add liquids mixed together; bake in moderate oven one-half hour. This recipe makes five muffins.

The Spuds Have Won 27 and Lost 11, Percentage .711—With All Those "Naturals" on Their Dice, They Ought to Clean Up Handsomely Today!!

TOO MUCH "MUTT" WILLIAMS, TOO MUCH BROCK; RESULT, SPUDS LOSE IN TENTH 2-3

By C. F. CARTER

Mutt Williams is a poor, old wreck,
A discard from Ham Patt,
But Mutt knows how to separate
A baseball from a bat.
I doubt if I could hit Mutt's curves—
And I'm pretty good, at that!!

In mixing up a baseball stew, the chef should always get the proportions exactly right; never too much of this and too little of that, as was the caes yesterday in San Antonio—too much Mutt Williams, not enough Rube Marshall, too much Brock, not enough Clark. And the result was that the stew had a distinctly sour flavor in the mouths of local fans.

The Bruins tucked the second game away, 3 to 2, after a ten-inning tustle. Catcher Brock did the dirty work in the tenth when he lifted one of Rube Marshall's fast ones over the left field wall for the circuit, thereby spilling what up to that moment had been a perfect day for Red Phillips and Pete Carrier.

Danny Clark also made a home run, but it wasn't enough. Danny should have made two home runs—rotten judgment. Rube Marshall allowed ten hits. That wasn't enough, either. He should have allowed 11 hits, but he should have seen carefully to it that they were all singles—rotten judgment again.

Too Much Williams.

Too much Mutt Williams comes mighty near to telling the entire tale. Mutt held the Spudders to four lonely bingles, two singles by Jake Miller, a single by Tex McDonald and Clark's homer. Mutt declined to issue any free transportation to first base, and he forced eight Spudders to whiff the ozone—and all of those little things put together combine to create what is known in the best baseball circles as faultless twirling.

Although hit freely, Rube managed to keep the Bears' blows fairly well scattered, while fast fielding by the Spudders pulled the Reuben out of several mean excavations.

Santone took the lead early, scoring in the third frame after Davis had led off with a single to left. Brock forced him at second on an attempted sacrifice, and Rube struck out Williams. With two down, Brock got away with a succcessful steal of the second sack, an unnecessary steal, it developed, as Marshall walked Frankie Fuller. Tullos placed a single in right that scored Brock and sent Fuller to third. On an attempted double steal, Frankie was nailed at the plate, Kitchens to Tanner to Kitchens.

Another Bruin marker was registered in the fourth, on a double, a single and a bad peg by Cecil Griggs.

Spuds Tie It Up.

In the meantime Mutt Williams had been twirling unbeatable ball. In the fifth inning Jake Miller beat out a flukey hit past Johnny Nee, and Jake was the first Spudder to set his foot on the initial cushion. The Spudders were unable, however, to push a tally across until the famous "lucky seventh," when with McDonald on first by virtue of a left field single, Danny Clark pasted the pellet over the right field fence and tied the score.

Mutt and Rube both tightened up again, and the battle moved into the ninth and through the ninth with neither team able to break the deadlock. Catcher Brock spilled the beans completely in the tenth, however, when he "gotta holt" of the second ball Rube served, and sent it singing over the barrier in left—and there went your old ball game.

It can't last forever, you know. The boys will get started on the right foot soon, and tear into some of those south Texas clubs with a ferocity equalled only by that of the blood-sweating Behemoth of Holy Writ, laydees 'n' gen'men! Don't weaken, fans. Pour it on 'em, team.

YOU GOTTA RESPECT THE UMPIRE IN THE AMERICAN ASS'N

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 17.—Manager Otto Knabe of the local American Association club was fined $100 and indefinitely suspended by President Hickey of the association for an argument with Umpire Mullen here last Tuesday, it was announced here today. Knabe was not in uniform today. He and Wilbur Good, local outfielder, who also was fined $25, protested the action of the umpire in calling the second game of a double-header with Minneapolis at the end of the seventh inning with Kansas City one run behind. Knabe was also accused of urging the crowd to heckle the arbiter.

LENGLEN MAY YET PLAY U. S. TITLE HOLDER

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Aug. 17.—Suzanne Lenglen returned to the West Side Tennis Club courts today as a spectator, and when she met her conqueror of yesterday, Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, she expressed the hope that she would have an opportunity to play the American title holder again before going back to France. Mrs. Mallory said she too would be pleased to encounter Mademoiselle under more conclusive circumstances.

Those who overheard the conversation in the veranda box which the French tennis expert occupied, believed it indicated arrangements for a special match between the world champion and the United States title holder would soon be started.

Mlle. Lenglen still suffered today from the recurrent attack of bronchitis which caused her to abandon play against Mrs. Mallory. She appeared in a warm plush coat and muffler and coughed frequently.

One sided matches were the outstanding feature of the thirty-fourth annual women's lawn tennis championship tournament here today. Of the eight contests scheduled seven were completed in rapid fire fashion and the eighth was postponed by rain late in the afternoon.

With the exception of Miss Mary K. Browne, of Santa Monica California, who was unable to complete her match against Miss Edith Sigourney of Boston, due to rain, the past and present women champions came through in the fourth round without particularly strenuous opposition. Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, the present title holder eliminated Miss Florence Sheldon of Mount Claire, N. J., 6-0; 6-1. Mrs. May Sutton Bundy of Los Angeles defeated Mrs. Edward Raymond of New York, 6-3; 6-2.

STAMFORD ROTARY CLUB TO HAVE SON AND FATHER DAY

Special to the Record News.

STAMFORD, Aug. 17.—At a meeting of the Stamford Rotary Club held today it was decided to have a father and son "get-to-gether meeting" in the city of Stamford on September 6. The boys between the ages of ten and sixteen in the Stamford independent school district will be invited to attend this affair and those who have fathers will be expected to accompany them. The men who have no boys will be invited to play daddy to the boys with the fathers.

The high school auditorium has been selected for the meeting place and efforts will be made in the direction of having several hundred boys in attendance.

The Rotarians have also decided to have an outdoor picnic for the membership and their ladies, to be held on the west side of the College Lake on August 30.

THIEVES TAKE AUTO CLOCK AND BATTERY

Auto thieves early Tuesday night took a storage battery and a clock from two automobiles parked in front of the home of J. C. Straus, 1001 Fillmore street, according to reports filed early Wednesday with police.

The theft of two suits of clothing and other wearing apparel from a negro servants house in the 1900 block on Eighth street also was reported Wednesday.

BABE CLOUTS FORTY-FIFTH CIRCUIT HIT

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—Babe Ruth of the Yankees, cracking out his 45th home run of the season and his 148th circuit drive since being in the American league today registered the longest hit ever made in White Sox park. The ball cleared the right centerfield bleacher wall about ten feet and landed on the outside, a distance, approximately 475 feet from the plate, according to ground officials. After striking the ground in an adjoining field the ball bounded a distance of 200 feet or more being stopped by a boy, making the traveling distance of the ball approximately 675 feet.

Incidentally New York easily defeated Chicago 11 to 3, in a game curtailed on account of rain in the eighth. Score:

WISDOM and WORSE

By C. F. C.

For the luvva Mike, who's been feeding those Bears raw meat again?

Lay off, Johnny Nee, lay off.

If this don't stop pretty soon, we'll have to start the old cry for more pitchers. Holly was the punk Tuesday and Rube off color yesterday. Wish them twirlers would show the fans in other cities some of the hurling they showed the home spectators.

Oh, well, let's forget it, and make a fresh start today. Thank heaven the boys are through with "Mutt" Williams for some time. Mutt used to be a marine, but he was a Bear yesterday for sure!

Following the fortunes of the Spudders when they're away from home will turn any man's hair gray, and make him simple-minded. Sut's beginning to feel the strain; gone so darn daffy he is now advertising "postage stamps for sale at cost" and urging his customers to make their own change and let conscience guide 'em right—or wrong—That's what we call the squeessence of nuttism. But Sut don't care about expense; he says the war's over.

Independent ball club here in Wichita Falls calls itself the NIGHT OWLS—got a bunch of STARS, a pitcher named Moon and is trying to match a game with some club in the TWILIGHT LEAGUE. Wonder if they ever call any games on account of darkness, huh?

Ignacio Della Borbella, of Mexico, has notified officials of his desire to enter the American national tennis singles championships next month. He's got the "deuce" of a name, we'll say.

Eastern scribe says one of the troubles with British boxers is that they train on beer. The more frequently we lamp Joe Art's thermometer these days, the more sincere becomes our longing to be a British boxer.

The City League of Wichita Falls appears to be a "blowed-up sucker." No scheduled games have been played for weeks, and a number of clubs, according to report, has disbanded. The Twilight Leaguers, however, are still going strong, with a hot three-cornered battle for the leadership being staged by the Methodists, University Club and Super-Sixes.

Where the City League officials pulled a boner was in attempting to run a ten-club circuit. It became too unwieldly, and when in the middle of the season one or two clubs dropped out, the entire schedule became a general mess.

The bonus fund for the Spudders appears to be an unknown quantity. At last reports $100 had been added by fans to the $2,500 with which the baseball management started the fund—but no progress has been reported in the last three or four days. Loosen up, gang; dont lose your nerve because the boys dropped a couple of ball games; plenty of timeto win a lot more. Kick in. If the Spuds don't win the second half, you'll get your money back.

While score of 15 to 8, 11 to 3, and such, were being recorded in the American league, every team in the Texas loop was putting up a big league battle with an honest to goodness big league score. Three clubs went down to defeat by one run, one game being lost in the tenth inning—while Dallas and Galveston battled into the twelfth on even terms and had to quit on account of darkness.

Dan Tipple certainly served a wicked dose of shoots and slants at the Crabs yesterday, striking out 15 and allowing only 6 hits in twelve innings. While Dan set a new Texas league record for the season with that string of strikeouts, Lefty Swartz' blow still is decorated with the laurel as Lefty succeeded in fanning 13 in a regular nine-inning contest. Tipple whiffed 10 in nine frames and scalped 5 more Crabs in the last three innings.

TEXAS COMPANY BEATS BANKERS NINE 13 TO 8

The Texas Company nine defeated the American National Bankers 13 to 8 in a battle of bats yesterday evening. Heavy hitting was the order of the day, and the wallops were many and long. Batteries: Texas Company, Lowry and Davis; American National Bank, Brown and Brown.

ALIEN LAND LAW PREVENTS CAPITAL COMING TO TEXAS

Special to the Record News.

STAMFORD, Aug. 17.—The failure of the legislature to consider the alien land law will have its effect in preventing large sums of English capital from being invested in Texas, according to reports that have reached the west Texas chamber of commerce. Several large projects which have been under consideration by foreign capitalists have been held up awaiting some change in this law.

The alien land law is having its effect upon the independent oil operator as well as the foreign capitalist who would finance the development of land, water projects of various kinds and other forms of expansion.

FIND VETERAN DEAD IN HOME AT SEYMOUR

SEYMOUR, Texas, Aug. 17.—J. H. Reger, 82, ex-Confederate and old settler, was found dead in his room here this morning. It is thought heart trouble was the cause of his death.

For many years he has been a familiar figure in Seymour and was well known in Knox and King counties, where he had formerly resided. He was a captain in the Confederate army and served throughout the war.

His wife died a number of years ago and he had no children. His brother-in-law, Bud Arnett of the Eight ranch in King county, is expected this afternoon to take charge of the body.

NEW YORK SUGAR.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—The raw sugar market was easier again today for uncontrollable sugars and prices were lower to the basis of 4.61 for centrifugal with sales of 3500 bags of St. Croix in port to a local refiner at that level. No sales of Cubas were reported and prices were unchanged at 3¼ for Cubas, cost and freight, equal to 4.86 for centrifugal.

There was renewed selling pressure in raw sugar futures and closing prices were 5 to 7 points net lower owing to the bore liberal offerings in the spot market. September closed at 2.98; December, 2.77; March, 2.60 and May, 2.67.

There were no changes in refined sugar with fine granulated listed at from 6.00 to 6.15. The demand, however, was small.

Business in refined futures was confined to one lot of August at 5.90, a decline of 5 points from the previous night. Other months were neglected with closing bids 5 to 13 points net lower. September closed at 5.80; December at 5.60 and March 5.50.

NEW YORK COFFEE.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—A slight further advance met realizing sales in the market for coffee futures today, while some selling was also reported against purchases of Victoria 7s, and 8s in the cost and freight market and there was a little near month liquidation. After opening unchanged to 4 points higher, prices eased off in consequence, December selling down from 7.20 to 7.05 or 11 points lower. The market closed at a net decline of 8 to 10 points. Sales were estimated at about 31,000 bags. September, 6.67; October, 6.81; December, 7.08; January, 7.21; March, 7.47; May, 7.66; July, 7.85.

Spot coffee was reported in fair demand with the better grades of Santos commanding increased premiums. Quotations were on the basis of 7⅛ to 7¼ for Rio 7s and 10¼ to 11 for Santos 4s.

STOCK MARKET GOES UNDER SOME CHANGE

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—Conditions in the stock market today underwent some alteration from their recent reactionary trend. Numerous speculative issues established new low records for the year, but these were recovered in the vigorous rebound of the last hour.

Apart from a favorable forecast of Mexican Petroleum's earnings and some activity in the steel trade there was no specific news to account for the sudden reversal.

Prices were lower by one to four points in the first half of the session. Bears made capital of further dividend reductions and omissions and the retention of the six cent rate for call money, that rate holding throughout the day.

Oils were the outstanding features, especially foreign issues. Prior to publication of Mexican petroleum's prospective financial returns, that stock, as well as Pan-American, Shell Transport and Royal Dutch were under constant pressure.

Independent steels and secondary equipments also suffered variable setbacks with motor, chemical, fertilizer and food issues.

A brisk rally in marks featured the foreign exchange. London and most continental rates, notably Dutch bills were inclined to react.

Trading in bonds was more diversified and a steadier tone ruled in the more important domestic and foreign issues.

RAIN CAUSES INCREASE IN COTTON PRICE

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—Complaints of too much rain in central and eastern sections of the belt caused moderate advances in the cotton market early today, but prices weakened later under liquidation and southern selling prompted by a more favorable week crop report than expected. December contracts broke from 13.50 to 13.16, or into new low ground for the movement and closed at 13.19 compared with 13.41 the previous day. The general market closed steady at a net decline of 21 to 24 points.

The opening was steady in response to rather better cables and the unfavorable weather map. First prices were one point lower to two points higher and the market showed net advances of about 8 to 10 points during the middle of the morning with October selling at 13.08 and January at 13.54. Crop complaints continued to reach here from the southwest.

Mail advices stated that almost the whole crop of Texas will be open by August 28, while there was bullish comment on the wet weather east of the river and some scattered buying on expectations of a bullish weekly report from the weather bureau. Reports that the demand for cotton goods was becoming less active owing to the recent advance in prices and the irregularity of raw material markets, had a tendency to restrict buying, however, and offerings increased during the early afternoon. Evidently the weekly report of the weather bureau was a disappointmnt to early buyers and stop orders were uncovered on the decline which carried October off to 12.75 and January to 13.20 or 20 to 25 points net lower and to the lowest prices touched since the advance on the end-July crop indication. Last prices were within 2 or 3 points of the lowest. There were reports of inquiries in the ocean freight market for room for shipment from local stocks to China, but nothing definite developed in that connection and some traders considered the irregularity of foreign exchange as an obstacle to export business. Port receipts today, 13,604, United States port stocks, 1,340,703. Exports 12,575, making 168,815 for far this season against 88,725 last year.

The Mystery of the Cook's Pet Parrot

A FUNNY paper recently
SLIPPED ME a good laugh
WITH A wheeze about
A FAMOUS ventriloquist
AND WHY he had quit
THE VAUDEVILLE stage
IT SAID he discovered
HE COULD make more jack
SELLING WOODEN parrots
SO WHEN I got home
I PASSED the joke
TO OUR cook, who owns
BOTH A speechless parrot
AND A sense of humor
BUT SHE muffed it
BECAUSE SHE didn't know
WHAT A ventriloquist was
SO I had to explain it
AND ON the way out
I BLEW just a whiff
OF CIGARETTE smoke
AT HER amusing old
FOOL OF a parrot
WHICH NEVER talks
AND I said, "Poll
HOW D'YOU like it?"
AND TO this day
IT'S GOT me guessing
WHETHER IT was cook
OR THE blamed bird
WHICH SQUAWKED back
"THEY SATISFY."

CHESTERFIELDS speak for themselves. They let you know you're smoking. They "satisfy" and yet, they're mild. An impossible combination, you say? Sure—everywhere but in Chesterfields. The blend does it and the blend can't be copied!

BUSINESS SENTIMENT CONTINUED TO IMPROVE.

Business sentiment improves but business is still backward, according to the latest review of the large mercantile agencies. Dunn's Review says that readjustment in important basic departments has made further progress, and this is aided by increasing resistance to further lowering of values, notably in cotton, woolens and silk goods, whose prices now apparently are on a stable basis, and in hides and leather, which have benefited through somewhat better demand for manufacturers. Advices from New England show further resumption of activity in shoe manufacturing, some plants operating at full capacity and production in others increasing.

In other industrial centres a tendency to extend operations is noted. The improvement is slight, in view of the season, but it is believed the prospect for the Fall and Winter is decidedly more confident. Buying of iron and steel continues on a restricted scale, but inquiries are received and the expectation is that the railroads soon must become liberal purchasers.

The gradual realization by labor that it must accept its share in the deflation, is making progress and will be followed with active resumption of building, thus stimulating demands for materials. Retail trade, aided by substantial price reductions and measured by bulk rather than values, is well sustained. The reduction in stocks is reflected in the presence of many buyers at leading wholesale centres.

"The feeling in the agricultural sections, notably in the South and West is better than it was," says Bradstreet's. "Reports from the lumber trade are a trifle better, too, a solid basis for this being seen in expansion shown in new building in July over June and over July a year ago. It is probable that July will prove to have been the third most important month in the country's history, so far as value of building permitted for is concerned. * * * There are enough evidences of improvement visible to rob the general trade and industrial situation of some of its formerly depressing elements."

The business reviewer of the New York Times notes that export demand for copper has not been particularly good of late, but shipments are being made regularly to European countries at prices equivalent to those prevailing in this market. The situation, however, appears strong, according to the Engineering and Mining Journal, and the market is ripe for an upward movement. As regards the local market, the paper says that although there has been only a slight improvement in trading during the past week, a much more favorable sentiment is noticeable, both among consumers and producers. All the metals share in the better tone.

WEALTH OF JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER.

John D. Rockefeller never had a billion at any one time. John D. Rockefeller Jr., says so. If he had a billion at one time, it has been greatly reduced by gifts, John D. Rockefeller Jr. says so. Henry A. Klein is deputy commissioner of accounts of the city of New York. He is a noted publicist and economist and his latest boom is "Dynastic America and Those Who Own It." In an article summarizing the book which appeared in the New York Times. The Wichita Falls Record News and other American newspapers, Author Klein estimated the wealth of John D. Rockefeller at $2,400,000,000 and he included in his summary the sums transferred by Mr. Rockefeller to the various foundations he has instituted. The Times of recent date printed the following:

To the Editor of The New York Times:

In an article entitled "Sees Great Peril in Amassed Wealth," which appeared in The Times of August 7, the statement is made that my father's estate is estimated at $2,400,000,000.

In this connection, may I say that my father's estate has never reached $1,000,000,000, and has been materially reduced by the large gifts from principal which he has made during recent years.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER JR.

Of course it goes without saying that figures never lie. John D. Rockefeller is reported to be the wealthiest living American and one of the six richest men in the world. He has distributed more than six hundred million dollars through his foundations, to his favorite church and charities, to college and seminaries and the superannuated preachers of his own denomination. He expended millions for Red Cross work before and after the war and the medical research work conducted by the Rockefeller Foundation has been a blessing to humanity in every country under the sun.

CANADA'S ECONOMIC OUTLOOK IS VERY BRIGHT.

Greater New York has a population nearly as large as that of the Dominion of Canada. Canada sent overseas more than five hundred thousand soldiers and Canadian losses were frightful in many of the bloody battles of the world war. In treasure Canada was prodigal in extending financial aid as well as in the giving of her sons in defense of her mother country. Now Canada is coming back. The history of the world shows no more well balanced development of a great country than has been true of Canada, says the National City Bank of New York in a survey of conditions in the Dominion. With distances so great that only the United States, Russia and Brazil can readily be compared with it, and with natural resources that requires the hardiest kind of pioneers to bring them to the service of the world, it has steadily forged ahead in working out its own salvation, it is pointed out, until it is today in a position to solidly withstand the great strain which the post-war period has brought. Canada has been compelled in the last three years, it is said, to face an unprecedented series of economic problems, but its people have met every one of them in a spirit that has assured their successful ending.

With the present year half gone, says the bank, it is possible to review the Canadian situation for the balance of 1921 and for next year with some assurance. Crop reports from all parts of the Dominion show that conditions for a huge crop are favorable to an almost unprecedented degree. The acreage sown to cereals is practically equal to that of last year and the year before, while growing conditions at present seem to assure larger yields in either of those years. "Canadian prosperity revolves, of course, around the plight of agriculture, the country's main industry," continues the bank, "and while the farmers in all of the provinces have been placed in a difficult situation similar to that of the farmers of the United States because of the great drop in the market value of all farm products, it must be remembered that the present crop is being made on a radically different level of costs from that of last year or any of the war years."

Farm labor is abundant in Canada this year, and extra help is costing the farmers not more than half that of last year. Buying by the farming population has been sharply curtailed in Canada, during the last six months, just as it has been in this country, but the manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers know that when the coming crop has been harvested, the scale of purchases will be resumed on a normal level.

There are many factors which will reduce to a considerably reduced cost of living in Canada during the coming Fall and Winter, and one of the most potent will be the emergency tariff which the United States has imposed on goods entering this country. During the year ended with January, 1921, Canada exported products to the total value of $1,239,492,000 of which about $550,000,000 was made up of agricultural products. More than half of this last-named export figure represents goods that were sent to the United States. It is now estimated that the stiff charges imposed on foreign foodstuffs by the Emergency Tariff act will reduce Canadian exports of foodstuffs to this country by from one-half to two-thirds. These products cannot be sold to Europe, and must largely find a market in Canada, with results that are already apparent in widespread reductions of food prices.

It is estimated that more than five hundred American companies have established branch factories in Canada or are in a position quickly to establish them if the desirability for such an action arises. It might easily happen that such firms would see the advisability of diverting their export orders to their Canadian branches, a state of affairs which would be of direct benefit to Canada, but which would create havoc with American foreign trade figures, reads the survey. The Canadian farmer of course, views the new tariff act with great distate, because its adverse effect on him has been quickly demonstrated. The charge of 35 cents a bushel on wheat has probably had little effect on the price Canadian farmers get for their grain, because the price of wheat is a world affair which tariffs have little to do with, but this does not extend to many other products, notably in the case of butter, milk, cream, cheese, potatoes and other perishable farm products.

The steadily growing development of manufacturing in Canada, by which it is hoped eventually to supply practically all the requirements of the home markets, is shown by the fact that while in 1880 more than 65 per cent of the Dominion's exports consisted of raw materials and foodstuffs, in 1920 this proportion had been steadily decreased until the percentages stood at 67 for raw products and agricultural products and 33 for exports of manufactured goods. Export trade has been steadily sought by Canadian manufacturers and a system of preferential tariff arrangements with other British areas gives promise that the basis for a steadily progressing export movement has been erected. This is particularly true of British possessions in the West Indies and Cuba. It is interesting to note that while Canada has but one-half of 1 per cent. of the world's population, it produces 90 per cent. of all the cobalt in the world, 88 per cent. of the asbestos, 85 per cent. of the nickel, 32 per cent. of the pupwood, 20 per cent. of the lumber, 20 per cent. of the cured fish, 18 per cent. of the oats, 15 per cent. of the potatoes, 12 per cent of the silver, 11 1-2 per cent. of the wheat, 11 per cent of the barley, 4 per cent. of the gold and 4 per cent. of the copper.

This is a remarkable showing when the comparatively slight development so far achieved is considered. There is scarcely any part of the earth's surface, resources considered, with the slight development that has so far taken place in Canada. Great coal, gas and petroleum resources still remain to be worked. Huge torpages of low grade metal ore are known to exist that merely require more stable world conditions to allow of their being workers.

Canada's foreign trade will prove a good deal of an eye-opener to many persons who have not realized the great strides that have been made. The variety of goods which it exports to other countries, the United States in particular, is greater than would be expected from a country with such great natural resources capable of being turned into cash with a minimum of handling or labor cost. For instance, in the year ending with last September, Canada exported goods in the following values: Wheat, $182,000,000; paper, $89,000,000; iron and steel $62,000,000; flour, $61,000,000; lumber, etc., $124,000,000; pulp, $73,000,000; animals, living, $42,000,000; fish, $40,000,000; bacon and ham, $42,000,000; butter, $18,000,000; cheese, $40,000,000; coal, $18,000,000; furs, $18,000,000; textiles, $19,000,000; vegetables, $16,000,000 and automobiles, $18,000,000. That is an extremely creditable showing for a compartively sparsely settled country covering half a continent and with a population of only 8,370,000 scattered over its 3,730,000 square miles.

Geographical and climatic conditions will always make Canada an active market for many products which the country itself cannot produce in sufficient quantities to meet the requirements of the home market. The following summary of the principal imports into Canada for the same period as the exports named above shows that the following purchases were made by Canadians from abroad: Iron and steel, $193,000,000; cotton, $127,000,000; sugar and molasses, $95,000,000; wool, $89,000,000; anthracite coal, $33,000,000; bituminous coal, $43,000,000; silk, $42,000,000; vehicles, $35,000,000; breadstuffs, $29,000,000; chemicals, $26,000,000; hides and skins, $22,000,000; rubber, $21,000,000; flax, hemp and jute, $19,000,000; tobacco, $16,000,000; leather, $16,000,000 and tea, $11,000,000.

Secretary of State Charles Evans Hughes is expected to preside at the peace disarmament conference. This is as it should be. Charles Evans Hughes is one of America's brainest and most courageous men and should be able to safeguard the interests of his country and countrymen.

Rippling Rhymes

ROBBERY UNDER ARMS.

Time was when robbers robbed politely, and shooting was a last resort, and then we viewed the hold-up lightly, a harmless kind of outdoor sport. "Now, stand," they'd tell me, "and deliver," and from my rags my roll they'd snake, and I would stand without a quiver, because my life was not at stake. No tremors shook my system bony, no palsy did my spirit know; I knew that all my bills were phony, and I was glad to see them go. But now the thieves come callyhooting, in murderous, bloodthirsty bands, and they begin their ribald shooting before I've time to raise my hands. They spring upon me from an alley, they come with silent, tiger tread, and while one murdered keeps tally, the others shoot me full of lead. And they could have my stock of shillings by merely asking for the same; there's no excuse for all these killings that blemish their time-honored game. The modern robbers are not courtly, they lack the old school tact and grace, and when they meet a poet portly, they push a cannon in his face; and if, confused, he asks a question, or hats his eyes, or wags his ears, they shoot him where his indigestion has caused him pain for many years. It isn't fair, or just, or decent, some ordinances should be made; this shooting graft is something recent, discrediting the robber's trade.—Copyright by George Matthew Adams.

"None of that young man," she replied. "I want my change here and now."

Breakfast Stories

The town council of a small community met to inspect the site for a cemetery. They assembled at a chapel, and as it was a warm day there.

"What for?" demanded another member. "If we are all going out together, what need is there for anyone to watch the clothes?

A county clergyman was preaching on an obscure point in an original and striking manner. He concluded by saying: "This is entirely my own view. Commentators do not agree with me."

The next day he was informed that one of his parishioners wished to see him. Going into his study he was greeted with cordiality by one of his sidesmen, who happened to be a market gardner.

"Morning, sir," beamed the caller. "Heard you say yesterday as common taters didn't agree with yer, so I've brought a sack of my best. Hope you'll get on better with them."

Did the standpatters punish Hertsberg when they carved out the new Alamo district? It is announced that the Hon J. D. Parnell will be a candidate for senator in the twenty-third district, which comprizes the counties of Hardeman, Foard, Knox, Wilbarger, Baylor, Wichita, Archer, Young and Clay. He is a native Texan, has a wide acquaintance, is well versed in legislative lore having been a member of the First and Third Houses and is familiar with the needs of the west.

Senator Harry Hertzberg of San Antonio put over his bill to re-locate the main penitentiary and sell the prison farms. The bill carrier an amendment by Representatives Pope and Seagler providing that all contracts entered into by the relocating board should be approved by the legislature. Furthermore, the Seagler amendment provides that in selling the prison farms the board should reserve for the state the mineral rights of the farms. Governor Neff has the bill before him and when the prison farms are offered for sale Bassett Blakely will not be a bidder. He purchased the Blue Ridge farm from the prison commission and singular to relate, he found petroleum in paying quantities on his new domain. Of course, this created a nasty scandal but all concerned were exonorated. All men are honest until a jury convicts and there are no grafters or seekers for "good things" in political circles under the skies of Texas.

Senator H. L. Darwin of Lamar put over his pink boll worm measure which carries an appropriation of $125,000. The Darwin bill provides for the creation of the pink boll worm commission whose duty it shall be to control and eradicate the pink boll worm wherever it may appear. Had this bill not been passed in the opinion of Senator Darwin, Texas would shortly have been quarantined for pink boll worm by the federal government. It is to be hoped that the governor will not name boll weevil politicians when he appoints the commission.

Sanford J. Dean of Ranger is a full-fledged penitentiary commissioner the senate having confirmed his appointment. Dean is said to be a first class business man and able to keep books accurately. If luck attends him he will be able to congratulte himself at the close of his term. Commissioner Pryor holds fast to his job, regardless of the criticism made by Governor Neff and repeated invitation for Pryor to hand in his resignation and return to private life. Pryor is a fighter; he was appointed by James G. Ferguson; Hobby retained him; he refused to retire under fire but in the end he will be compelled to dismount and get out. This is the logic of the situation.

HENS AND EGGS EATEN BY SNAKE; ALL RECOVERED

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—A snake story without the background of home brew is related by the Rev. Mr. Erwin H. Richards, for thirty-one years missioners to Africa under the Board of Foreign Missions of the Methodist Episcopal church, who made his report at the headquarters of that organization recently. A python fifteen feet long came out of the jungle one night and raided the hen house of the mission, at which some missionaries had gathered. The hen roosts were in an enclosure on the top of a bin of horizontal logs, to protect them from the smaller animals of the bush. The big snake wound his body in and out among the logs and got his head among the fowls. He swallowed seven large chickens, a setting hen and her nine eggs.

The noise made by the fowls woke two small native girls, students in the mission school, who slept in a dormitory nearby. They armed themselves with an axe and went out to investigate, finding the python still wound among the logs and drowsy after his meal. With the axe they chopped him in two, and their shouts for help brought a half dozen Methodist preachers in pajamas and slippers with lanterns and shotguns. The python was pronounced dead and the natives who gathered from the kraal outside the mission compound begged permission to salvage the chickens.

The fowls were found almost whole and were borne off in triumph by the natives. The eggs, too, were not broken and were put under another setting hen and were hatched into perfectly normal missionary chickens.

SOME MEN FATTEN ON PROHIBITION

AKRON, O., Aug. 17.—Wayne Wheeler and Andy Volstead may have increased crime, as New York criminologists say, but a brand-new offense is charged up to their account by an Akron clothier.

It's a deep secret and shouldn't be divulged, but the men are getting stout. He explains it this way:

"Men who used to drink didn't eat much. They satisfied their longing for something by the call, 'Come on boys, the next round's on me!'" and, while women were banting and starving to keep their sylph-like forms, the fellows did it in a simpler and pleasanter way."

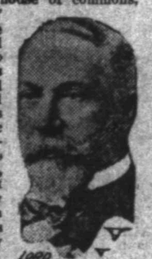

This is all changed now, however, and men can't do much but eat, the clothier declares, and as a result he finds it necessary to purchase more and more suits built on the general specifications of a barrel and less every season for the male form resembling a beanpole.

The only return to normalcy noted is that prohibition has deflated the bay windows affectionately worn by those who loved the stuff that made Milwaukee famous. Men simply aren't wearing 'em any more and won't unless something is done to give them the medicinal beer authorized by Mr. Palmer.

Who's Who

LORD ULLSWATER

Lormer Speaker James W. Lowther, who on his recent retirement from the British house of commons, after 16 years' occupancy of the chair, was raised by King George to the house of lords as a viscount, and has just received the Grand Cross be known sh cmc Bath, will hencetorth be known as Lord Ullswater, and can boast of being the only peer of the realm who takes his title, not from any castle, estate, town, city or battle, but from a lake. For Ullswater, with its picturesque waterfall of eighty feet, is one of the most beautiful lakes of Cumberland and Westmoreland counties, in which the Lowthers have been established since the reign of King Edward the Confessor, antedating the Norman conquest.

The new viscount holds degrees from Oxford and Cambridge universities. He began his career when in 1879, at the age of twenty-four, he was admitted to the bar.

At about the same time he entered into public affairs. In 1883 he represented Rutland in parliament and he contested Mid-Cumberland in 1885. Thereafter there was no question of his regular election by his Cumberland constituency. In the midst of his parliamentary services he was in demand for various public functions. In 1887 he was charity commissioner, in 1891 under secretary of foreign affairs, he represented Great Britain at the international conference in Venice in 1892, was chairman of quarter sessions for Cumberland in 1900; chairman of the house committee of ways and means, and deputy speaker from 1895 to 1905; alderman of the East Suffolk county council in 1914; chairman of the speakers' electoral reform conference in 1916 and 1917; chairman of the boundary commissions of Great Britain and Ireland in 1917, and chairman of the royal commission on proportional representation in 1918.

It was in 1905 that Lord Ullswater, then Sir James Lowther, began his long service as speaker of the British house.

ASKS REWARD FOR SERVICES TO DAN CUPID

PITTSBURGH, Penn., Aug. 17.—After having acted as Cupid's agent, Waldo P. Breeden, attorney, declares that Alma Christian Austin Weyman, a former graduate nurse, who recently become the wife of Benjamin Franklin Weyman, of this city, former tobacco manufacturer, refuses to pay him for his services. He is seeking to recover $2,975 in a suit filed today in Common Pleas court.

In his suit, Mr. Breeden declared that in May and June, 1917, the former nurse consulted him in his office here for the particular purpose, among other things, of "consummating her intended marriage with Benjamin Franklin Weyman, a veteran of the Civil War, 75 years old, a man of extensive property possession, both real and personal, who had been in poor health and for months a patient of the defendant."

He alleges that the defendant represented to him that she had arranged a marriage with Weyman, and that he had agreed to marry her and that the date had been set, but that relatives had interfered and had barred her from his rooms. Mr. Breeden says he succeeded in effecting a reconciliation and that they were married at Elkton, Md., August 7, 1917.

Mr. Breeden declared that the only payment he has received was $25 December 15, 1917, and $35 October 17, 1918.

BOY HUSBAND EXTRAVAGANT; ASKS DIVORCE

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 17.—The romance of Mrs. Lucilla Gaines Phillips, 45 years old, and her twenty-year-old husband, Winston Phillips, which has interested Louisville for months, has come to the front again in Los Angeles, where the bride and groom journeyed after their marriage last spring.

Mrs. Phillips, Los Angeles reports say, is preparing to sue for divorce. Meanwhile Phillips was placed in jail on charges that he forged his wife's name to checks.

Mrs. Phillips is recovering from injuries suffered when in an automobile accident a few weeks ago, when her young husband drove her automobile over her. Phillips says he did not see her because of darkness.

Incidentally, most of the money Mrs. Phillips had at the time of her marriage, amounting to several thousand dollars, is said to have been spent.

The latest venture of the couple was starting a cafe in Los Angeles, and Phillips arrest on charges of forgery was the outgrowth of this. Phillips, police declare, says he supplied half the money and Mrs. Phillips half. He says also that she gave to him authority to cash checks on her account, according to police.

During Mrs. Phillips' illness, due to the automobile mishap, the young husband did not stay at home, according to reports from Los Angeles. He roomed with neighbors, rode around in her car and spent her money freely, it is added.

TRUCK BILL PASSED BY BOTH HOUSES

Special to the Record News.

AUSTIN, Aug. 17.—With numerous amendments attached, the truck bill offered the legislature by B. Frank Johnson, Wichita county, was finally adopted by both branches of the legislature during the closing hours of the first special session and now awaits the signature of Governor Neff.

The Johnson bill repeals and is a substitute for the measure adopetd at the regular session.

As the measure finally passed both branches it increases the annual license fee on commercial motor vehicles according to net carrying capacity and tire equipment, but the mileage tax imposed by the regular session of this legislature is eliminated. Trucks and tractors used exclusively for agricultural purposes are exempted from the special license fees stipulated in the bill, but it is provided that license fees shall be paid on agricultural trucks, according to horse power just as now paid by automobiles. Fees for tractors not used for agricultural purposes are based on weight.

Four Tons The Limit

Under an amendment adopted by the conference committee a license shall not be issued to any truck of more than four tons carrying capacity, except on written application to the Highway commission showing that roads would not be injured by such trucks. The bill provides, however, that no license shall be issued to trucks of more than five-ton carrying capacity.

Another section of the bill provides that county road superintendents or supervisors may during wet weather prohibit the use of any highway to loads of such weight as would damage the roads.

Speed limits are fixed according to gross weight of vehicle and load and according to tire equipment. Pneumatic tire equipment is favored in this as well as in the case of license fees, higher speed limits being allowed vehicles equipped with pneumatic tires as lower license fees, have been provided for such vehicles.

View Mirrors.

All trucks must be equipped with rear-view mirrors and no truck shall operate with solid tires, less than one inch in thickness at any point or with pneumatic tires where one of such tires is missing. Drivers operating cars in this condition are subject to penalty of not more than $200 as are also those drivers who operate vehicles of more than four-ton carrying capacity without special permit.

Fees to Be Charged

Following is the scale of license fees provided for commercial motor vehicles, which are defined as any motor vehicles designed for the transportation of property:

Carrying Capacity (pounds)	Pneumatic Tires	Solid Tires
1 to 2,000	$15	$18
2,001 to 3,000	30	36
3,001 to 4,000	40	48
4,001 to 5,000	50	60
5,001 to 6,000	65	78
6,001 to 7,000	80	96
7,001 to 8,000	100	120
8,001 to 9,000	120	144
9001, to 10,000	150	180

For each trailer or semi-trailer drawn by a commercial motor vehicle or tracto per 100 pounds gross weight of vehicle and capacity load equipped with pneumatic tires 15c; solid rubber tires 25c; iron, steel or other hard tires 35c.

Provided that semi-trailers equipped with iron, steel or other hard tires shall pay at the rate of $1 per 100 pounds of gross weight as specified under this section.

For tractors, the annual license fee shall be based upon the weight of the tractors as follows: 1 to 2,000 pounds $5, 2,000 to 4,000 $10, 4,000 to 6,000 $15, 6,000 to 8,000 $20, 8,000 to 10,000 $25.

Following is the speed limit scale. Commercial motor vehicles equipped with pneumatic tires: Maximum weight in pounds, including gross weight of vehicle and load:

	Miles Per hour
2,001 to 4,000	22
4,001 to 6,000	18
6,001 to 8,000	15
8,001 to 10,000	12
10,000 to 12,000	10

Commercial motor vehicles equipped with solid rubber tires. Maximum weights in pounds including gross weight of vehicle and load:

	Miles Per hour
1,500 to 2,000	20
2,001 to 6,000	15
6,001 to 8,000	12
8,001 to 10,000	10

JONES CALLS MEETING OF COMMISSION

A special meeting of the county commissioner's court for Friday was called Wednesday by Judge J. P. Jones of the County court. The meeting is called to discuss certain features of the contract in connection with the sale of the $1,500,000 bond issue voted for road construction.

Judge J. P. Jones and Tom McHam, county treasurer, Wednesday signed 1000 of the bonds which were returned here by W. W. Murphy, county auditor, who arrived here Tuesday night from Colorado Springs where they were signed by W. T. Harris, county clerk. The bonds will probably be taken to Austin today by Mr. Murphy and E. L. Fulton, county attorney, for final approval by the attorney general's department.

OH, GIRLS! HERE'S WAY TO AVERT SOGGINESS IN PIES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—Cheer up, you housewives, who have had unexpected difficulties with juicy pies owing to their tendency to become soggy. Specialists in the experimental kitchens of the Federal Department of Agriculture have discovered in the course of pastry-baking experiments, that if the undercrust is prebaked until slightly brown the pies will be much better.

Another point brought out in connection with pastry baking, especially in warm weather, is that speed in handling is an important factor if the housewife does not wish her dough to become soft and consequently difficult to roll and lift.

BEARS GAIN ADVANTAGE IN WHEAT TRADE

CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—Unfavorable reports about business conditions gave an advantage today to Bears in the wheat market. Prices closed heacy 2 1-4 to 3c net lower with September 1.19 1-2 to 1.19 3-4 and December, 1.20 3-4 to 1.21. Corn lost 1-4 to 7-8 to 1. Oats lost 1-4 to 1-2 and provisions 15 to 50c.

Attention of traders in wheat centered largely on official announcement that 5,7500,000 people are out of work in the United States, federal reserve board statements about factors operating against business progress were likewise given much notice, and so too were fresh declines in the New York stock market and foreign exchange.

At a rule, however, longs showed an increased desire to liquidate their holdings and with bears operating more extensively rallies failed to last, notwithstanding that country offerings were light.

Corn and oats descended lower than at any time heretofore this season. Sharp downturns in provisions were brought about by grain weakness and a decided tumble in ho- values.

CATHOLIC NUNS VARSITY STUDENTS DURING SUMMER

Special to The Record News.

AUSTIN, Texas, Aug. 20.—Many Catholic sisters are now studying in the summer school of the University of Texas. They have taught during the winter, and are now taking advantage of the summer courses offered to complete degree requirements or to secure state certificates. There are in attendance about 15 Dominican Sisters, who are connected with Newman Hall, a Catholic dormitory for university students. Several orders are represented here, but the Sisters of the Immaculate Word constitute the next largest group. There are ten representing this order from Victoria and Halletsville.

Subjects most popular among these students are English, Spanish and history, although many of them are studying courses in mathematics, physics, psychology and education. Those who were taking only courses in the summer normal have taken the state examination for certificates, and are now ready to return to their homes. Others will continue to study for the rest of the summer. These Sisters will teach next year in various academies and parochial schools not only in Texas but in the states of Pennsylvania and Illinois.

These students are sent to the university and other schools of the state by the various orders which they represent. There are not so many in the university this summer as there were last year, but this is from no feeling of displeasure, said one of the Sisters. Many of the teachers whose work might be as profitably done in a normal school went to one of the state normals nearer home this summer. Those who came to the university last summer are in some cases studying at home this year, while others attend school.

COLLECT EXHIBIT OF CHURCH BOOKS

Special to The Record News.

AUSTIN, Texas, Aug. 17.—Exhibits of materials collected regarding religious education from various denominational and educational independent publishing houses are now being shown under the auspices of the Young Women's Christian association of the University of Texas. The Rev. Umphrey Lee of the Wesley Bible chair has charge of the exhibit and stated that the purpose was to show something of the scope of modern religious education.

Students of the psychology and theory of religion are now spending much time on properly graded materials for Sunday and week day instruction. The regular international graded system is followed by many denominational publishing houses, but the exhibit shows two tendencies in the development of these various series. One is to adopt the text book form rather than the old leaflet folder, another difference is noted in the introduction of non-Biblical material rather than the exclusive use of Bible stories. Nature stories, biography and scientific stories are introduced for the sake of stimulating interest.

Enjoy music with your meals. Phil Baxter's Orchestra is playing each evening in the Main Dining Room of the Kemp Hotel from 6:15 to 8:15. —Adv.
