Goat cookoff this weekend

Over 60 teams have entered the World Championship Boer Goat Cookoff to be held this weekend at the Mitchell County Gin yard in Loraine. Teams are from Austin, Lubbock and all areas in between, Julia Bennett, cookoff treasurer, said Tuesday.

Cookoff officials expect well over 70 teams to enter.

Admission is $1 per person. Arts and crafts and food booths will be set up on the grounds. A variety of food will be available, including breakfast food Friday and Saturday morning and boer goat meat.

Boer Goat Association members who have organized the event expect attendance to be twice as large as last year's 3,000 people who took part in the festivities.

Jackie Fox, a country-western singer from Lubbock will be the featured entertainer Friday and Saturday evening. Dances both nights will begin at 8:30 p.m.

On Saturday, a parade in downtown Loraine will begin at 10 a.m. Ms. Nanny contestants will ride in the parade.

The Ms. Nanny contest will follow the parade. Held at the stage area, the contest will be emceed by Colorado City Mayor Jim Baum.

All Ms. Nanny contestants are over 65 years old. The winner of the Ms. Nanny contest will reign over the cookoff. She and the two runners-up will win prize money which will be donated to the charity of their choice.

Cookoff judging will begin at 4 p.m. Saturday in the seed barn.

One hundred teams are expected to participate in the competition. Last year teams came from all over Texas as well as other states. Joking and laughing were common around the cooking area. Although many of the cooks had never prepared boer goat before, they had experience at goat and chili cookoffs and brought their talent, skills and fun loving spirit to the contest.

The first place cookoff winner will take home $1,000 plus a

Destruction of highway signs is at epidemic level

Destruction of signs—911, county, farm-to-market, yield and stop signs—has become a significant problem recently. Mitchell County commissioners, the sheriff and Texas Department of Transportation employees all commented last week on the recent increase in sign vandalism.

"It's an epidemic," Commissioner Buddy Hertenberger said during discussion at a recent commissioner's court meeting.

Commissioners expressed concern that the destruction of the new 911 signs could cause serious problems during an emergency situation or that vandals who shoot at signs could accidentally injure an innocent person nearby.

"As soon as you put up a sign, it's vandalized," he said, adding in frustration that it had taken a year and a half to get the needed signs.

Vandalism of signs is a continual problem around the state, said a spokesman for the local Texas Department of Transportation office. Sign vandalism costs taxpayers millions of dollars and maintenance of the signs is a major expense for the highway department, he said.

County Library building will celebrate 30th anniversary

The Mitchell County Library is celebrating the 30th anniversary of the current facility this month.

In 1966, with the help of the federal government giving matching funds through the state, a lovely new $125,000 building was erected, said librarian Nancy Mayo.

Money to equip the new building was collected over the desk at the library with gifts ranging from $1 to $4,000. With the gifts, new furniture and equipment was able to be purchased for the building.

The move into the new building was made in August of 1966. The county furnished trucks and man power to help a volunteer crew of women load and unload the boxes.

A dedication service followed a luncheon held at the Civic House on August 7, 1977. A large crowd was present for the occasion which included refreshments and a tour of the Golfers will play nine holes, enjoy dinner and play the remaining nine holes at night.

Westbrook Golden Age Club to celebrate 38th anniversary

Westbrook Golden Age Club will celebrate their 38th anniversary August 4. The occasion will be celebrated during the regular monthly meeting August 6.

Westbrook has the distinction of being recognized nationally as the smallest town in the country with a Golden Age club.

The club was organized August 4, 1958 by Margaret Lasseter Powell, who donated the building for the organization.

During the '20s and '30s, the building served as a drugstore and the city's post office. The aging building has had a number of repairs over the years.

The Golden Age Club is an integral part of community life in Westbrook, said Carl Guelker, the county commissioner for the Westbrook area.

Meetings are held monthly which include a business meeting, recreation such as dominoes and music, socializing and a pot luck dinner.

"The food there is great," said Guelker. "The ladies bring a dish and they are all outstanding cooks."

Approximately 30 members belong to the organization. Although club officers must be over the age of 50, everyone is welcome to the monthly meetings held on the first Tuesday evening of each month. A number of Colorado City and lake residents attend regularly, said Lula Leach, club president.

An important club activity is preparing meals for families following a funeral. The dinners are held in the Golden Age building.

Reunions and parties such as anniversary parties are often held in the building. The only charge for using the building is a donation to help pay the utilities.

The club is financially self sufficient. While the county contributes $500 a year for insurance on the building, the club does not receive state or federal funds. Instead, the organization holds an annual barbecue fundraiser. This year's barbecue will be held August 17.

Organized: August 4, 1958

Flower: Ocotillo cactus

Past presidents: Margaret Lasseter Powell, Emma Byrd, Elsie Roberts, Minnie Anderson, Darlene Hines.

Current officers: Lula Leach, has served as president three years.

A new walkway on the south side of the home stadium has already been installed, along with new goalposts. Things are looking good at Wolf Stadium.

Carol Compton has been named librarian at the high school. She had been hired as a middle school teacher for the upcoming year, but the job of librarian came open at the high school, so she was offered that job instead. She has spent the last several years as librarian and says she is very happy to have the opportunity to continue in that line.

Janie and Robert Henderson are enjoying their new home at Lake Colorado City. Janie says they have a family of ducks living close by and there are three baby ducks that are so cute. She said Robert was working very hard getting the yard in, so she wasn't sure if he was enjoying the new house as much as she was.

COOK'S CORNER

Lucille Owens

After leaving West Texas when she was 26 years old, Lucille Owens lived in eight different states before coming back to Colorado City to "settle down". She grew up in Big Spring and graduated from Big Spring High School.

At one time, Lucille made her home in Eureka Springs, Arkansas, where she owned a motel and restaurant for 15 years. According to Mrs. Owens, being in the cooking business all those years makes you not want to cook at home.

One day in Arkansas, Lucille was making an old favorite, fried chicken with cream gravy. Since everybody liked to gather and visit in the kitchen, she didn't even notice that she was using buttermilk instead of sweet milk in the gravy until she had already poured it in. Remembering a little trick she had learned, Lucille threw some soda into the mix. She laughs when she tells how everyone raved over that gravy!

Lucille wants to pass on a helpful hint about using aromatics such as garlic, onion and bell pepper in cooking. No matter how much garlic you start with, use twice as much bell pepper as garlic, twice as much celery as bell pepper and twice as much onion as celery. Using these proportions should make your dishes taste delicious. Aromatics can be used in almost all cooking such as main dishes, soups, stew, etc.

Lucille has lived an interesting 86 years. She has tried and tasted recipes from all over the United States. Here are three good ones she wants you to try.

CHIEF LONE WOLF

The brief stories told on headstones at the local cemeteries can sometimes be as baffling as they are intriguing. A good case in point, Fannie Crutchfield, 18-year-old wife of B.M. Crutchfield. She died January 30, 1886. The inscription on her tombstone reads, NOT LOST BUT GONE BEFORE.

Apparently, by the time the young bride's husband died, he too was gone...from Colorado City. At any rate, he's not buried next to his wife. A person's imagination can conjure up many endings to this mystery, but most likely B.M. Crutchfield moved on after his wife's death.

More mysterious, however, is who is buried in a grave at our cemetery which has a steel marker. The three-and-a-half-foot tall marker is adorned with two clasping hands and the name has long since faded after facing so many sunrises.

And not far away is another family plot on which time has also taken its toll. There is a wrought iron fence but no headstones are within the enclosure. Assuming bodies were buried there, their identities are lost to the ages.

C.A. and Irene Taylor once called Colorado City home. We know that because two of their children are buried in the Colorado City cemetery. Their infant son, who was not named, died the day after he was born, September 4, 1883.

The Taylors' daughter, Lena Irene, died November 28, 1887. She was just two years old and is buried next to her nameless brother.

Neither C.A. nor Irene Taylor are buried with their children. We can only imagine their heartbreak as they most likely left Colorado City for greener pastures, leaving behind two of their most prized possessions.

Then there's J.B. Lucas, who lost his wife when she was only 31 years old. Abbie Lucas died August 30, 1884. Her bereaved husband had the following inscribed on her headstone:

HOW DESOLATE OUR HOME BEREFT OF THEE.

WE REMEMBER YOU STILL.

Propped up against Abbie's pretty, decorative marble headstone is a much smaller marker which reads simply, OUR BABE.

J.B. Lucas is not buried in the Colorado City cemetery. Apparently he, like B.M. Crutchfield and Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, eventually left Colorado City to begin new lives elsewhere.

The sons of S.W. and Edna Jordan lie side by side in the Colorado City cemetery. Little Carson Jordan lived only one year and six days (April 20, 1912-April 26, 1913). His brother, Robert, lived only three days (November 11, 1916-November 14, 1916).

A similar fate befell C.E. and Annis Hammond, except their lost treasures were both daughters. Lawana (1925-1926) lived only one year, Dorothy Mae about the same length of time (1928-1929).

Then there's the grave of Barney M. Cupp. He was born September 13, 1901 and died April 4, 1946. Next to his headstone sets a coffee cup and a dinner plate, a surefire indication of an interesting, but for most of us, unknown significance.

For some of the men buried in our local cemeteries, shootouts ended their lives. W.P. Patterson was the first man shot and killed in Colorado City. On the night of May 17, 1882, after a night of drinking in local saloons, Patterson and some friends were confronted by Texas Rangers, who were providing law and order for the town at the time.

Patterson was ordered to hand over his six-shooter, but he refused and a scuffle ensued and he was fatally shot. Patterson is buried in the Mitchell County cemetery. (Lone Wolf, Sept. 17, 1992).

A short distance from Patterson's grave is the headstone of 25-year-old Lon Robinson. The inscription reads:

BORN JANUARY 22, 1858
ASSASSINATION
AUGUST 3, 1883

No details are available on how Robinson was killed. His epitaph reads:

WEEP NOT FOR ME
TEARS ARE IN HEAVEN WE SOON
SHALL MEET AGAIN

In the Colorado City cemetery, Constable W.D. Gooch is buried. He was gunned down on the night of April 4, 1892. The incident occurred while Gooch was making his rounds checking the doors of local businesses. (See Lone Wolf, July 30, 1992.)

And Colorado City's most famous lawman, Dick Ware, is also buried in the city cemetery. He was Mitchell County's first sheriff, later a U.S. Marshal, and is perhaps best known as a Texas Ranger who was involved in the gun fight at Round Rock, Texas, with the infamous Sam Bass. (Lone Wolf, January 24, 1991.)

Since Colorado City's inception in 1882, thousands of residents have come and gone. For those of our generation who stay, chances are our final resting place will eventually be one of the local cemeteries. Hopefully, not soon.

What "stories" will our headstones tell?

LEE ROBINSON, early day citizen of Colorado City. Assassinated?

Suggestions for coping with 1996 drought

By JOE RAFF, CEA-AG

With all the new technology, grazing systems and marketing programs, NO amount of scientific knowledge can make up for the lack of rain and the resulting depletion of water in our soil profiles, and in our ground and surface water supplies.

John Sharp and economists of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service have estimated that Texas farmers pump nearly $15 billion into the state's economy annually. As of May 1996 it is estimated that total agricultural value could fall by as much as $2.4 to $3 billion unless the severity of the drought lessens.

In terms of negative effects on the Texas economy overall, the drought would rate as roughly equal to the December 1994 peso devaluation which devastated border retail sales and slowed Texas exports to Mexico.

In Mitchell County I would estimate 40 percent of the fields have crops growing (or trying to grow). Of those, only about 20 percent will be harvestable. And without the timely rains in the spring and early summer that we needed, dryland cotton doesn't look well.

I haven't received any new tips for dryland cotton growers, but I have received this information for ranchers that are making a "go" of it.

1. If you are using salt to limit feed intake, you may want to think of something else. Salt can increase water needs by animals—about one pound of salt can increase water intake by 50 gallons for cows.
2. Watch how much urea you feed. Overconsumption of urea-containing supplements by cattle on forage scarce ranges can result in urea toxicity.

3. If you are feeding hay get it tested for nitrate levels before you feed it. Hay cut under moisture stress conditions, especially sorghum type hays, may contain high levels of nitrate.
4. Rumen impaction may result where cattle receive inadequate protein (less than seven to eight percent) and too much of a low quality high fiber forage such as drought pasture or prickly pear or forage substitutes such as peanut hull, straws or gin trash.

I also ran into this information. I thought it would be good for those that are pumping water to stock.

Species	Water Intake
Beef cattle	7-12 gal/head/day
Dairy cattle	10-16 gal/head/day
Horses	8-12 gal/head/day
Swine	3-5 gal/head/day
Sheep	1-4 gal/head/day
Goats	1-4 gal/head/day
Chickens	1-10 gal/100 birds/day
Turkeys	10-15 gal/100 birds/day

New phone directory to be delivered Aug. 11

Southwestern Bell's new telephone directory for Colorado City will be delivered beginning August 11, 1996. Dennis R. Gloyna, Area Manager-External Affairs for Southwestern Bell Telephone, said approximately 4,586 directories will be delivered to area residences and businesses.

Delivery should be completed by August 25, 1996. The new directory also includes Westbrook.

Residential customers usually receive one directory. For additional copies, customers may call 1-800-SWB-BOOK (1-800-792-2665). However, Gloyna requests that customers not call right away.

"If your friend across town got his directory before you received yours, you will probably get one within a few days," he said.

This year, 35 white pages make up the Colorado City directory. There are 3,391 white page listings.

Other features in the 1996-97 directory include feature bold listings and red feature bold listings. These listings are about a third larger than the regular listings and include the business customer's name and telephone number for an additional monthly charge.

Signature listings allow residential customers to list their names in designer typefaces, either contemporary bold or sophisticated script. Signature listings carry an additional monthly charge.

The logo feature allows the customer's logo to appear with the listing for added visibility and increased customer recognition. The logo feature carries an additional monthly charge.

The Mitchell County Grand Jury returned nine indictments July 18. At the time, eight of the indictments were sealed. Indictments remain sealed until arrests are made. By Friday, two of those with sealed indictments were arrested.

The total of three indicted include:

- Marvin Lee Williams, 20, 841 So. Adams, Colorado City, for unauthorized use of a motor vehicle.
- Mary Helen Salazar, 23, Rt. 1, Box 337, Colorado City, for criminal mischief.
- Charles Allen Brown, 34, Colorado City, for possession of cocaine.

Boll Weevil population drops dramatically

Boll weevil traps in the Texas Southern Rolling Plains show weevil populations have dropped almost 98 percent since the start of an eradication program in the area. The traps serve as a "census" device, giving researchers an idea of how well the program is working. Traps that once attracted as many as 200 weevils before the program might now attract only one or two.

Orientation at WTC to be held Aug. 20-22

Orientation for new students at Western Texas College, Snyder, will be held August 20 and 22.

Two identical success seminars are planned to help new students make the transition to college life. Students will meet the faculty and other students, tour the campus, gain helpful information and register for fall classes. Academic advisors will be available to help with class selection.

Lunch and entertainment will be part of each seminar and parents are welcome to attend.

Students who have not already completed admissions paperwork or paid registration or housing fees may do so at the seminar.

Placement tests are required for students who do not have ACT or SAT scores on file. The cost is $10 and the test takes about 90 minutes. Students must report to the admissions office promptly at 8 a.m. to take the test.

Completed financial files are required for students who plan to receive financial aid for the 1996-97 school year. Those with questions about their financial aid status may call the financial aid office before August 20.

Registration for either success seminar is necessary. To reserve a place, call the student services office. The cost is $20 for one to three people; $25 for four people; or $30 for five people.

Students who do not attend a seminar will register September 3. Classes begin September 5.

To reach college relations, financial aid or student services, call 1-888-GO TO WTC (468-6982). Summer hours are Monday through Thursday from 8 a.m.-5 p.m.

SIGNS

Each sign costs $100. Beginning in March, the highway department had installed 150 county road and 911 signs throughout Mitchell County. Since then twenty 911 signs around the county have been vandalized, as well as an unknown number of other types of signs.

The signs have been run over by vehicles, shot at, and stolen. One sign on FM 2836 has been intentionally run over twice and a sign on CR 644, south of Lorraine, was also obviously intentionally run over, according to the TxDOT spokesman.

"County and farm-to market road signs help ambulances and fire trucks find roads in the county. If those signs are gone, a serious situation could occur," said Sheriff Patrick Toombs.

The sheriff's department is investigating the vandalism. A couple of weeks ago, there was one Monday night when eight signs on FM2837 were destroyed by being pushed over with a pickup, the sheriff said.

"It's a regular size pickup with wide tires and a wheelguard because it didn't leave any paint on the sides," the sheriff said.

Nearly all of the vandalism seems to occur at night, said Toombs.

"It's impossible for us to cover all the county roads at one time, so we're depending on citizens to help us out," he said. "If someone did see anything, please call the sheriff's department."

media and a Department of Public Safety representative for a pre-construction conference to discuss the upcoming project.

Colorado City Manager Steve Shutt pointed out that the portion of the project that entailed closing the exits would cripple the businesses in the area, several of which had only been open less than a year.

Shutt told TxDOT management that it was critical that the project not adversely affect those businesses. At the end of the meeting, he asked them to keep him informed and let him know how they planned to resolve the problem.

"The contractors never responded to the issue," said Shutt Monday.

TxDOT RESPONDS

Richardson said that TxDOT had expected complaints during this phase of the project.

"We've tried to minimize the impact on the businesses and have done what we could within our funding constraints," he said.

Businesses were taken into consideration during the planning, he said. Contractors were made aware of the problem and the need to finish the project, especially this phase, as quickly as possible.

While sympathetic to the business' plight, he said that time and money were important factors in planning.

"The asphalt paving work is temperate critical," he said. "The typically ideal months for this kind of work is from the first of May to the middle of September. The timing of the construction work is important for the quality of the product."

A couple of business owners have contacted him the past few weeks. Among their questions have been why exit 215 could not have been left open or a temporary exit not been made.

Adding another exit would have extended this phase of the project from one to two months, he said.

"Unfortunately, exits 215 and 216 eastbound to Highway 208 are in close proximity to each other. It wouldn't have been feasible," he said.

Construction funding is limited, he said. "We're having to stretch it every day," he said. "We would have had to spend an additional $90,000 to construct another exit. It would have meant an additional phase of work and we're trying to look out for the taxpayers who pay for state road projects."

In the opinion of some of the business owners, TxDOT is insensitive to rural areas.

"If this were Dallas, heads would have rolled if they'd tried something like this," one said. "That's not a fair statement," responded Richardson, who added that he had seen similar situations in metropolitan cities. In the Austin-San Antonio area, a large stretch of highway was closed for six months, he said.

BUSINESSES HANG ON

"I don't know how the state can allow this to happen," said Guess, the Exxon owner. "They're playing with a person's livelihood. We still have to make our mortgage payments. The bank and the utility companies are still going to expect to be paid on time."

Not only the owners, but also the employees are having to cope with the situation. Take Burger King for an example. While there have not been any layoffs, employee hours have been cut.

"The more we have to cut back on hours, the harder it is on employee morale. A couple have already quit because of it," said Boyles. "We don't want to lose good employees because we can't give them the hours right now that they need."

Guess said she had hired a new person and then found that she didn't need her with the decrease in business. Unfortunately, she said, she may have to let additional people go.

Every day the exits are closed means lost business, owners say.

"The clock's ticking," said Tony Scott, Subway owner.

"Even if the exits open in the next two weeks as TxDOT plans, the damage has already been done," he said.

The Burger King manager said, "we're all just trying to hang on."

Currently, many of the businesses are depending on local customers.

Farmers may replant on contract acres and keep transition payments

Last week Congressman Charles Stenholm announced the passage of legislation that will allow farmers to plant blackeyed peas and other crops following the failure of crops on contract acres without forfeiting their transition payments.

Stenholm cosponsored this legislation because of an interpretation of the 1996 farm bill by the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) prohibiting the planting of most fruit and vegetable crops on contract acreage.

According to the USDA, producers in Texas, even in counties designated as "double cropping regions" cannot plant blackeyed peas following a failed cotton crop without forfeiting their transition payments.

Under the 1990 farm bill, program crop producers who met the USDA's criteria for having suffered crop failures on paid acres were permitted to plant a fruit or vegetable crop on those failed acres without the loss of deficiency payments.

"I do not believe the authors of the 1996 farm bill intended to prohibit or restrict planting options relative to the past, and I feel certain that their aim was, at a bare minimum, to maintain the producer's freedom to farm his land at 1990 levels," Stenholm said.

In Texas, blackeyed peas have been historically grown on "failed" cotton acreage because of their adaptability to the herbicides used in cotton planting.

More importantly, black-eyed peas allow producers an opportunity to grow a crop that requires less water during times of drought, provides excellent ground cover, leaves nitrogen for additional crops, and provides lenders with additional incentives to work with farmers experiencing difficult credit situations.

"Instead of leaving this matter open for continued interpretation, this legislation more clearly defines the circumstances under which farmers can plant a second crop without incurring an acre-for-acre reduction in their market transition payment," said Stenholm.

"Our farmers need to have more certainty upon which to make their planting decisions, and I am hopeful the Senate will follow suit with comparable legislation," he said.

Commissioners offer no comment on water issue

Mitchell County Commissioners haven't wanted to comment on accusations made at last week's Colorado City Council meeting concerning water taken from a fire hydrant.

The city manager and water treatment supervisor complained that a county road construction crew had used water from a fire hydrant without permission from the city.

Commissioners were unaware of the city's complaint until one was contacted for a response following the meeting and the others read about it in the Record

The hydrant on Hwy. 208 in front of Gas 'n' Grub was the only specific hydrant mentioned during the council discussion. While commissioners said they planned to meet with the city to discuss the issue and didn't want to publicly debate it for now, one commissioner did say it involved only 10 or 12 loads of water.

Several commissioners commented on the amount of help they gave the city such as lending county equipment and cleaning up the arena after the DARE rodeo.

Jet ski accident injures one man

One man was injured in a jet ski accident at Lake Colorado City Sunday.

John Dorrington of Abilene was stabilized at Mitchell County Hospital and transferred to Hendrick Medical Center in Abilene where his condition was listed as stable Monday.

The accident occurred at 2:15 p.m. According to the Mitchell County Sheriff's Office, Dorrington suffered a fractured pelvis in the accident which occurred while he was water skiing. He was being pulled by a jet ski when another jet skier, a young man from Big Spring, crossed into Dorrington's path.

Horseshoe court will be new addition to city park

A permanent horse shoe court will be built at Ruddick Park through a cooperative effort of Colorado City and the Texas Department of Criminal Justice Wallace Unit.

The court will be built in time for the TDCJ Picnic August 10 and will remain at the park permanently for the enjoyment of the community.

Just as communities around the state hold picnics, barbecues, dove hunts and other activities for the prison units in their areas, the TDCJ Picnic is held through the joint support of the county, all three cities and school districts in the county, the Mitchell County Hospital, and the Chamber of Commerce.

Recently the Christmas In April organization joined the list of supporters. Coordinator Jan Lemons said that the group wanted to be a part of the picnic because the local prison unit's help on the annual project has been invaluable.

Middle School students enjoy Washington, D.C. trip

By Shawna Wilking

Recently, a group of eighth grade students had the pleasure of taking a trip to Washington, D.C. Most of us worked for several months raising money to pay for our trip.

Several of us were flying for the first time but enjoyed the flight after we were in the air. When we arrived at the airport in D.C. we were escorted directly to the tour bus.

On the first day we saw many sights which included Capitol Hill and Arlington National Cemetery. The interior of the capitol was decorated with murals and paintings, some of which were of historical events.

One of the most interesting places we went was the Arlington National Cemetery, where thousands of Americans who lost their lives in service to our country are buried. This is where the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier is located. To show respect for those who have died in service, a soldier stands guard 24 hours a day.

While we were there, we watched the "Changing-of-the-Guards". During this ceremony, the guard's gun is inspected, "Taps" is played on the trumpet, and the tomb is saluted. That was a fun but tiring day.

The next day we awoke early and boarded the touring bus about 7 a.m. Some of the sights we saw that day were the Smithsonian, the White House and Mount Vernon. At the White House we toured the first and second floors only. We were unable to meet the President because he was out of town.

We also saw Mount Vernon, which was where George Washington lived. In his house we saw the master bedroom in which he died on December 14, 1799 at age 67. In his will, he asked to be buried on his estate. A new tomb was constructed in 1831, at a site he had chosen prior to his death, at that time his body and all family members' remains were moved from the old vault.

There are many other buildings and sites to see on the estate, such as the Museum where many of Washington's swords are displayed along with other family members' personal possessions.

On the last day we went to the National Geographic Museum and Ford's Theater. At Ford's Theater we saw the place where President Lincoln was standing when he was shot and the clothes he was wearing that day. Then across the street we saw the bed he died in. That was a neat place to visit.

When we arrived home we were tired, but we had a great time. We felt it was worth the time and effort. We would like to thank everyone who supported our fundraisers and donated money.

Students attending included Larry White, David Smith, Todd Moody, Bryson Johnson, C.J. Hurst, Ricky Upham, Archie Goodman, Chris Catro, Brian Limones, Drew Potter, Danni White, Jennifer Petty, Jennifer Birmingham, Jessica Nelson, Leiza Rivera, Amanda Costabile, Lilianna Garcia, Shawna Wilking, and Marissa Espinoza. Their sponsors were Mary Petty, Jim Petty, Elizabeth Birmingham, and Diana Castro.

Jamie J. Lyn Ellis of the Colorado chapter of FFA, attended the 1996 Washington Leadership Conference July 16-21 in the nation's capital. The conference is an activity of the National FFA Organization in cooperation with the U.S. Department of Education. The chapter's advisor is Ray Ellis.

The week-long program helped FFA members improve their leadership skills and prepare for leadership roles in their chapters, communities and future careers. They attended sessions on self confidence, goal setting and team building and participated in discussions on personal development, motivation and citizenship. Former FFA officers led all sessions.

Students also increased their understanding of the nation's heritage with visits to Mount Vernon, the Smithsonian Institution, Arlington National Cemetery, the Jefferson Memorial and other historic sights in Washington, D.C.

A highlight of the week was a visit to the office of Congressman/Senator Larry Combest of Texas.

Can Your Child See Well Enough To Learn?!!

When your children enter school this fall, about 80% of what they learn will come through sight. Yet four out of ten children have vision problems that can inhibit school achievement. Most vision problems cannot be detected by the familiar eye chart test for 20/20 vision. Help make your child's future crystal clear.

DOES YOUR CHILD...

- Avoid close work?
- Hold reading material too close?
- Show excessive head movement while reading?
- Lose his place while reading?
- Rub eyes frequently?
- Make reversals while reading?
- Often have headaches?
- Use a finger to maintain his place while reading?

IF SO, WE RECOMMEND HAVING YOUR CHILD'S VISION TESTED.

Extended year programs are successful

This summer, students of Colorado ISD had the opportunity to participate in extended year programs at Kelley, Hutchinson and Colorado Middle School. Not the traditional summer school of old, the extended year programs offered innovative strategies and hands-on experience for students.

Each campus provided between four and six weeks of instruction for three hours each day. Transportation to and from school and the summer lunch program was provided for the students. Funding for the programs was from the Academics 2000 grant at Kelley and new, state-appropriated funds specifically set aside for extended year programs.

The attendance rate for the summer programs at each of the three campuses was better than 95%.

Kelley

With a Texas tales theme, approximately 90 Colorado ISD students in kindergarten, first and second grade learned about the state's history and natural sciences.

Kelley Elementary's innovative summer program for at-risk students, "Tales and Trails of Texas", featured intense reading instruction with a concentration on phonics and sight word recognition.

The math curriculum included the concepts of time, measurement, distance, money and math facts about Texas. The fundamentals of geography, weather and geology rounded out the theme of Texas learning.

Hutchinson

Hutchinson Elementary offered a four-week, three-hour per day extended year program to approximately 45 students in third through fifth grade.

Emphasis was placed on reading and math in structured learning areas and in hands-on experience. All the students used the innovative CEI reading lab.

At the end of the program, the students traveled to Snyder's Western Texas College for a swim in their Olympic-sized pool.

Colorado MS

Approximately 45 students in sixth through eighth grades took part in Colorado Middle School's six-week program, "Government in Action".

Students attended the CEI lab for reading instruction, studied Texas government, participated in letter writing campaigns in computer class and learned extensive graphing and charts through political studies. They also read a mystery book dealing with Texas government.

Culminating the government-based theme was an overnight trip to the state capital in Austin. Students visited Rob Junell's offices, the Visitor's Center, the LBJ Library and the Texas Lottery Commission.

The highlight of their trip was an opportunity to have their picture taken with Governor George Bush. The students presented Governor Bush with a Leader of the Pack award and gave him a handmade Ray Elder knife to present to his father, former president George Bush (who recently wrote to Mr. Elder, thanking him for the present).

In addition to the summer program at CMS, the staff hosted the CEI reading lab for students in grades three through 12. Approximately 20 students attended the 45-minute sessions four days a week for six weeks.

For each additional family member add:
+ $ 3,406 + $4,847			+ $ 284 + $ 404		+ $ 66 + $ 94

Children from families whose income falls within the level shown on the above scale are eligible for either free or reduced price meals. The reduced price for lunch is 30 cents and for breakfast is 20 cents.

Every household will be furnished with an application which must be completed to apply for free or reduced price meals. To complete, please answer all questions on the form. An application which does not contain the following information is not complete and cannot be processed by the school: 1) names of all household members; 2) amount of income received by each household member such as wages, welfare, alimony, etc., or your food stamp or AFDC number if you receive these benefits; 3) signature of an adult household member; 4) social security number of the adult who signs the form or the word "none" if that person has none.

Within 10 days of the receipt of the application, the school will notify you whether or not your child is eligible. The information on the application may be checked by the school or other officials at any time during the school year.

If your child is approved for meal benefits, you must notify the school when your income increases by $50 per month, or when your household size decreases. In certain cases, foster children are eligible for these benefits. If you have foster children living with you and wish to apply for free or reduced price benefits, please tell the school and they will help you complete the application. You may apply for benefits at any time during the school year. If you are not eligible now, but have a decrease in household income, become unemployed, or have an increase in family size, fill out an application at that time.

Children who receive free or reduced price meal benefits are treated the same as children who pay for their meals. In the operation of childfeeding programs, no child is discriminated against because of race, sex, color, age, handicap, national origin, political belief, or religion. If you believe you have been discriminated against, write immediately to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. If you do not agree with the school's decision on your application or the result of verification, you may wish to discuss it with the school. You also have the right to a fair hearing. This can be done by calling or writing to Mr. Raymond Hollis, Superintendent of Schools, P.O. Box 99, Westbrook, Texas 79565, or call 644-2971.

CHS band practice starts Aug. 1

Practice for the Colorado High School Band is set to begin August 1 and will be held weeknights from 6-9 p.m., announced Aaron Lewis, high school band director. New students are encouraged to be part of the band.

Flag, twirler and drum major workouts will be held from 3-4:30 every weekday beginning August 1. All auxiliary members will also be required to be at the regularly scheduled full band rehearsals.

Middle school band director Joe Wayne Harper and Linda Clay, who is new to the staff, will work with Mr. Lewis. Mrs. Clay will work with both the high school and middle school programs this year.

Students are asked to check out their uniforms before the August 1 practice. The band directors will be in the band room for uniform check out, horn check out and music distribution.

In addition, each student is asked to have a pair of marching shoes, solid black with a low profile (no high tops). Mr. Lewis recommends that students purchase a pair of black leather lace-up shoes for marching. Also, all students need to have a pair of black gym shorts to be worn under the uniforms.

The Colorado High School Band received superior ratings in marching, concert and sight-reading competition last year and won the UIL Sweepstakes award for the first time in several years.

Anjanette Morgan and Natalia Mayes were selected to the San Angelo Camp Honor Guard. Natalia received a special merit award as one of the top ten students in the camp for leadership.

1996 PROPERTY TAX RATES IN WESTBROOK INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT

THIS NOTICE CONCERNS 1995 PROPERTY TAX RATES FOR WESTBROOK ISD. It presents information about three tax rates. Last year's tax rate is the actual rate the school district used to determine property taxes last year. This year's EFFECTIVE tax rate would impose the same total taxes as last year if you compare properties taxed in both years. This year's ROLLBACK tax rate is the highest tax rate the school district can set before it must hold a rollback election. In each case, these rates are found by dividing the total amount of taxes by the tax base (the total value of taxable property) with adjustments as required by state law. The rates are given per $100 of property value.

LAST YEAR'S TAX RATE:

Last year's operating taxes	$1,458,327.0000
Last year's debt taxes	$0.0000
Last year's total taxes	$1,458,327.0000
Last year's tax base	$97,880,860.0000
Last year's total tax rate	$1.4899/100

THIS YEAR'S EFFECTIVE TAX RATE:

x 1.03=maximum rate unless school district publishes notices and holds hearing	$1.4255/100

THIS YEAR'S ROLLBACK RATE:

Last year's adjusted operating taxes	$1,455,480.0000

+ This year's debt rate	$0.00/100
+ Rate to recoup loss certified by Commissioner of Education	$0.00/100
= This year's rollback rate	$1.4855/100

Amateur sleuths sought for murder mystery fundraiser

Area citizens are asked to solve a murder in groups of eight amateur sleuths at Big Spring's Heritage Museum's semi-annual "Let's Solve a Murder Mystery" benefit August 31. By evening's end, the "criminals" will be discovered and a dastardly good time had by all.

Hosts and their guests are invited to dress as the bizarre characters in several mystery scenarios. In "Last Train from Paris" the setting is June 1940 aboard a train leaving Paris. A murder is discovered and passengers must decide who committed the deadly deed as the train heads for the safety of southern France.

"The Chicago Caper" is set in Chicago's gangster underworld of 1928. The group is gathered in a speakeasy near Capone's headquarters and the crimelord's whereabouts become only part of the mystery when a murder is discovered.

In "The Wall Street Scandal" Black Monday has hit Wall Street. Mega-rich financier Jon K. Bonds has called his eight closest investment associates to an urgent meeting at his New York City penthouse to discuss the situation. The outlook is bleak and gets worse when murder is discovered.

In the mystery "Hoo Hung Woo" it is eighth century China at the Autumn Moon. Guests gather for an evening of reflection and feasting but the celebration gives way to deadly dismay about "hoo dunhit!"

The fundraiser begins at 6 p.m. with all costumed guests sharing dinner at the museum, after which they will adjourn to the setting of the murder and begin gathering clues. Past locations have included antique shops and local homes, as well as the museum and Potton House.

The event has been very successful in the past, said curator Angie Way.

"People frequently leave the murder mystery evening asking when the next one will take place," she said. "But we couldn't do it without our hosts. They set the tone for a truly memorable evening of murder."

Lacy looking forward to district championship

Jessica Lacy

New Colorado High girls' volleyball coach Jessica Lacy isn't hesitant about saying that she'll be looking for a district championship this year.

After already meeting several of the players on this year's team, Lacy is excited. There's a lot of talent there, she said. Plus, they have the key ingredient for success in volleyball—heart.

The main thing about volleyball that is essential is heart," she said. "Wanting that ball. Wanting to score."

"Volleyball is so mental. It's such a team sport," said Lacy.

The new coach hails from Vernon, Texas and graduated from Southern Arkansas University where she played college volleyball.

She was assistant varsity coach and junior varsity coach at River Road ISD in Amarillo before coming to Colorado City this summer.

She said her plans for the CISD girls team include "working on tons of movements."

Six seniors will be returning this year. Lacy said that fans can expect a strong team in the coming years as well. The majority of the players are sophomores and juniors. "It'll be a good crop of players who have a lot of talent and already have the fundamental skills," she said.

The team's first scrimmage this season will be with Big Spring August 17.

COACH DARRIN LEVERTON AND HEAD VOLLEYBALL COACH JESSICA LACY work on equipment as volleyball season nears. All players are asked to report to the Pit on Monday, August 12.

All players hoping to make varsity will have one week to run the mile in eight minutes or less.

Head Coach Jessica Lacy is excited about the team's prospects this year and expects up to 50 girls to try out for the team.

Volleyball practice to start August 12th

All incoming ninth through twelfth grade girls planning to participate in athletics in Colorado ISD may pick up their equipment at the high school gym. Participants are asked to have their physical forms and acknowledgment of rules forms with them.

Eleventh and twelfth graders will pick up their equipment Monday, August 5 from 1-3:30 p.m.; tenth graders Tuesday, August 6 from 1-3:30 p.m. and ninth graders Wednesday, August 7 from 1-3:30 p.m.

Local teams participate in I-20 League

Several Colorado ISD students participated in the I-20 Girls Summer Basketball League.

Division I team members from Colorado City included Casi Joiner, Melissa Rivera, Bettina Bridgford, Mica Merrell, Jana Redwine, Barbara Rivera, Nikol Swann, Ashley Turner and Kendra Anderson.

Other teams participating in the league were from Westbrook, Sweetwater, Snyder, Rotan and Roby.

Colorado City won nine of ten round robin games, losing only to Sweetwater. Colorado City then defeated Roby and Sweetwater for the tournament championship.

On the Division II team were Jamie Mason, Staci Turnbow, Liz Rivera, Ann Marie Scott, Julie Ellis, Sharie Ritchey, Margaret Jameson, Danielle Dickey and Edwina Ceballos.

The teams involved were Colorado City, Rotan Orange, Rotan White, Sweetwater Red, Sweetwater White and Snyder.

The team went undefeated in both the round robin play and in the tournament to win the league championship.

Colorado City also had a team in the Roby Middle School League. Team members included Lacy Dockrey, Callie Bolin, Megan Merrell, Toni Joiner, Michelle Jimenez, Kathryn Lewis, Danielle Arellano, Hayley Stepp and Kassi Redwine.

Other participating teams were Rotan, Roscoe, Snyder, Roby Red and Roby White. The girls placed second in the league.

Loraine News

By BESSIE ANN VAUGHN

Greetings from Loraine. Hi, friends and neighbors. Do you belong to the Pack Rat Association of America?

Could you throw away a two-legged footstool? Do I think the stool will heal itself and miraculously grow back two legs?

Not really, but there is a possibility I might find two to match.

A handy woodworker could make two legs to match well enough, or I could knock off the remaining two attached legs and use the little round wooden top for something else altogether, perhaps a wooden trivet, or I could attach three or four eye screws and thread cord to make a hanging potted plant holder.

I might even use the little round top to display small items.

Well, you get the picture. I need help! I wonder if there are any pack rat head doctors around?

Recent guests of Hubert and Nina Meadows were Jim and Catherine Walls and son Nathan from Charlestown, Ind.; James and Carla Meadows, along with Julie, Melissa and Amy from Merkel; Marla and Tony Davis, Ashley and Aaron from Albuquerque, N.M.

Also visiting recently were cousins John and Donalea Everleigh from Pueblo, Colo.

Adam Way, 17 months old, grandson of Cecil and Bea Long, will undergo heart surgery at the children's hospital in Dallas sometime in August.

We want to wish little Adam and the entire family the best and will keep him in our thoughts and prayers.

He and his mother, Jan, are new residents of Loraine.

Irene Kidd visited with her brother, M.L. Chandler, and his family this past Sunday.

Our condolences go out to Mrs. Ida Baird and her family, as Mr. T.E. Meek passed away July 24. Mr. Meek was 85 years old and lived in New Braunfels, Texas with his wife, Anna Williams Meek.

The burial took place at Rosehill Cemetery in Merkel on July 25.

Mr. Meek is survived by his wife, Anna, of the home; two sons, James and Joseph Meek; four grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. Ida Baird of Loraine.

Dale and Olga Baird and Glen Barnes from Dallas were also here for the funeral.

First Baptist Church held their annual Vacation Bible School with record attendance and participation.

Besides local members helping with the church school, there was Gerri Parker from Pearsol, Texas. She was assisted by Mrs. Marshall from San Antonio.

Everyone's dedication and hard work are to be commended.

I just learned that Marie Barron Harlow passed away today, Monday the 29th. She had been ill a very long time.

Our sympathy to family and friends alike. She will be missed by all.

I saw Marie Hare at the post office Monday. It is nice to see her smiling face about town again.

Julia Bennett from the Boar Goat Association (she is one among several) said things are coming together for the big cookoff.

Some local people with booths are Helen Williams, Barbara Woods, Opal Rose with a barbecue booth, and Dusty from Wood's Boots, who will cook for the Goat Association. Connie Harshaw will have a painting exhibit.

Plan to visit. You will have fun, as there will be something to interest everyone.

We have concerns this week for Billy Derryberry, Ruth Eaton and Effie Wheeler.

A get well message—please get well soon.

Hubert and Nina Meadows visited friends and family and had a fun-packed weekend recently in Crosbyton, Ralls, Lorenzo, Lubbock, Amarillo and Hale Center.

They attended God's Country in Blanco Canyon Amphitheater, then went on to see Paul Green's Texas at Palo Duro Canyon the following night.

This production, one of the best ever, is in its 31st season. Star of the production is Uncle Henry, played by Dennis McMenamy, who lived here and attended Loraine High School.

For 25 years, Dennis has been in theater and this is his 13th season of Texas and fourth season playing Uncle

Henry. Nina reported he did a superb job and they enjoyed it very much.

A.K. and Billie Sheffield have recently enjoyed the company of Belinda Hailey and son from San Antonio and at this time Ryan Kelley is still visiting. Ryan is from Carrollton.

Loraine Manor Joetta Hollis, social director at Loraine Manor, reports that all the residents who went to see the movie Twister just loved it. It didn't get too wild and scary for them at all.

This past Thursday night a big ice cream party took place and you can imagine what they thought of that—when can we do that again?

Hart to Hart Band from Roby will come over tonight (the 29th) and the residents are all looking forward to the entertainment.

Last Monday the Manor held a snow cone party for everyone and they loved that.

It's been too hot to do much outdoors, reports Joetta. They still play a lot of bingo, for the residents like it a lot.

Come to see us sometime. Bye for this month.

Loraine Senior Citizens This past week on Monday, bingo was played.

Also, Mary McMullen came to give our nutritional report. It was targeted to hit on the bottom of the food pyramid—the bread, cereal and pasta group of daily foods we need to consume for good health.

We were surprised to learn that we should include six-11 servings of bread, cereal, pasta and rice in our daily diets, whole grains full of fiber and iron.

A generous serving of pasta could count as three or four servings and a bagel or English muffin counts as two.

Recent visitors have been Jack Compton, Edgar and Oma Herm, Ackerly; Edgar and Martha Martoff from North Carolina; James and Fay Nell Herm from Colorado City; and Mildred Sartain from Georgia.

Wednesday the 31st will be birthday party day. Bessie Ann Vaughn will make the special cake for the honorees' table.

Take care and see you around town.

Defensive driving class to be held

A defensive driving class is scheduled for Saturday, August 17 from 8 a.m.-3 p.m. in room 6 of the Wallace Community Education Center. The class is sponsored by the National Traffic Safety Institute and Charles Watlington is the instructor.

The classroom session offers pointers in preventing accidents in spite of the incorrect actions of others and adverse driving conditions.

Films and other visual aids will be used to demonstrate driving skills. There will be a one-hour lunch break.

Those who complete the course will be eligible for possible ticket removal from their driving records.

Each student must bring to the class an approval letter from the judge. The fee for the course is $30. Registration must be completed by Friday, August 16.

TAX RATE OF THE CITY OF LORAIN, TEXAS

THIS NOTICE CONCERNS 1996 PROPERTY TAX RATES FOR THE CITY OF LORAIN. It presents information about three tax rates. Last year's tax rate is the actual rate the taxing unit used to determine property taxes last year. This year's EFFECTIVE tax rate would impose the same total taxes as last year if you compare properties taxed in both years. This year's ROLLBACK tax rate is the highest tax rate the taxing unit can set before it must hold a rollback election. In each case, these rates are found by dividing the total amount of taxes by the tax base (the total value of taxable property) with adjustments as required by state law. The rates are given per $100 of property value.

LAST YEAR'S TAX RATE:

Last year's operating taxes	56293.3
Last year's debt taxes	6800
