Warrick's, Inc. Buys Singley Mill & Elevator

Glen Warrick of Warrick's, Inc. and John Burdette of Singley Mill and Elevator annouonced this week the sale of the Singley facility to Warrick's. The transaction, completed Tuesday, September 25, ended an era in the Wellington business community.

At the same time Warrick announced a change in the Warrick corporation---Yates Parker has become a stockholder and partner in the expanded corporation. Other stockholders are Glen Warrick and Dan Warrick.

Warrick said that all current employees of Singley Mill will be retained and that Andy Bell will continue to open the Singley office for several weeks to help customers with wheat seed stored at Singley's and to handle Singley accounts.

John Burdette, a son-in-law of the late Jones and Margaret Singley, has served as Singley manager since August, 1980. "It was the desire of the four Singley daughters to continue to operate the business until someone that had a sincere interest in agriculture in Collingsworth and the surrounding counties could be located to give the type of service that would carry on the Singley tradition," Burdette said. "And we feel that the combination of two of the older firms in Collingsworth County is in the best interest of both firms and the customers."

"We will operate the facilities as a single unit and we're going to do our best to serve the needs of both Singley and Warrick customers," Glen Warrick said. "We hope that it's an easy transition for the customers of both businesses.

The combined facilities and services include grain elevators and grain storage facilities, dry, liquid and ammonia fertilizer services, seed cleaning, custom grinding and mixing, custom fertilizer application and several lines of livestock feeds and agricultural chemicals, and are one of the largest facilities of this type in the area.

The history of Singley Mill and Elevator has its roots deep in South Carolina, and with two brothers, E.A. Singley and H.E. Singley, who moved west with their parents, stopping first at Belcherville, Texas in 1888.

There would be other stops before they reached Collingsworth County and the brothers established Singley Brothers' Coal, Grain and Ice.

By 1892, they were in the Indian Territory where their friends and neighbors were members of the Western Oklahoma Indian tribes.

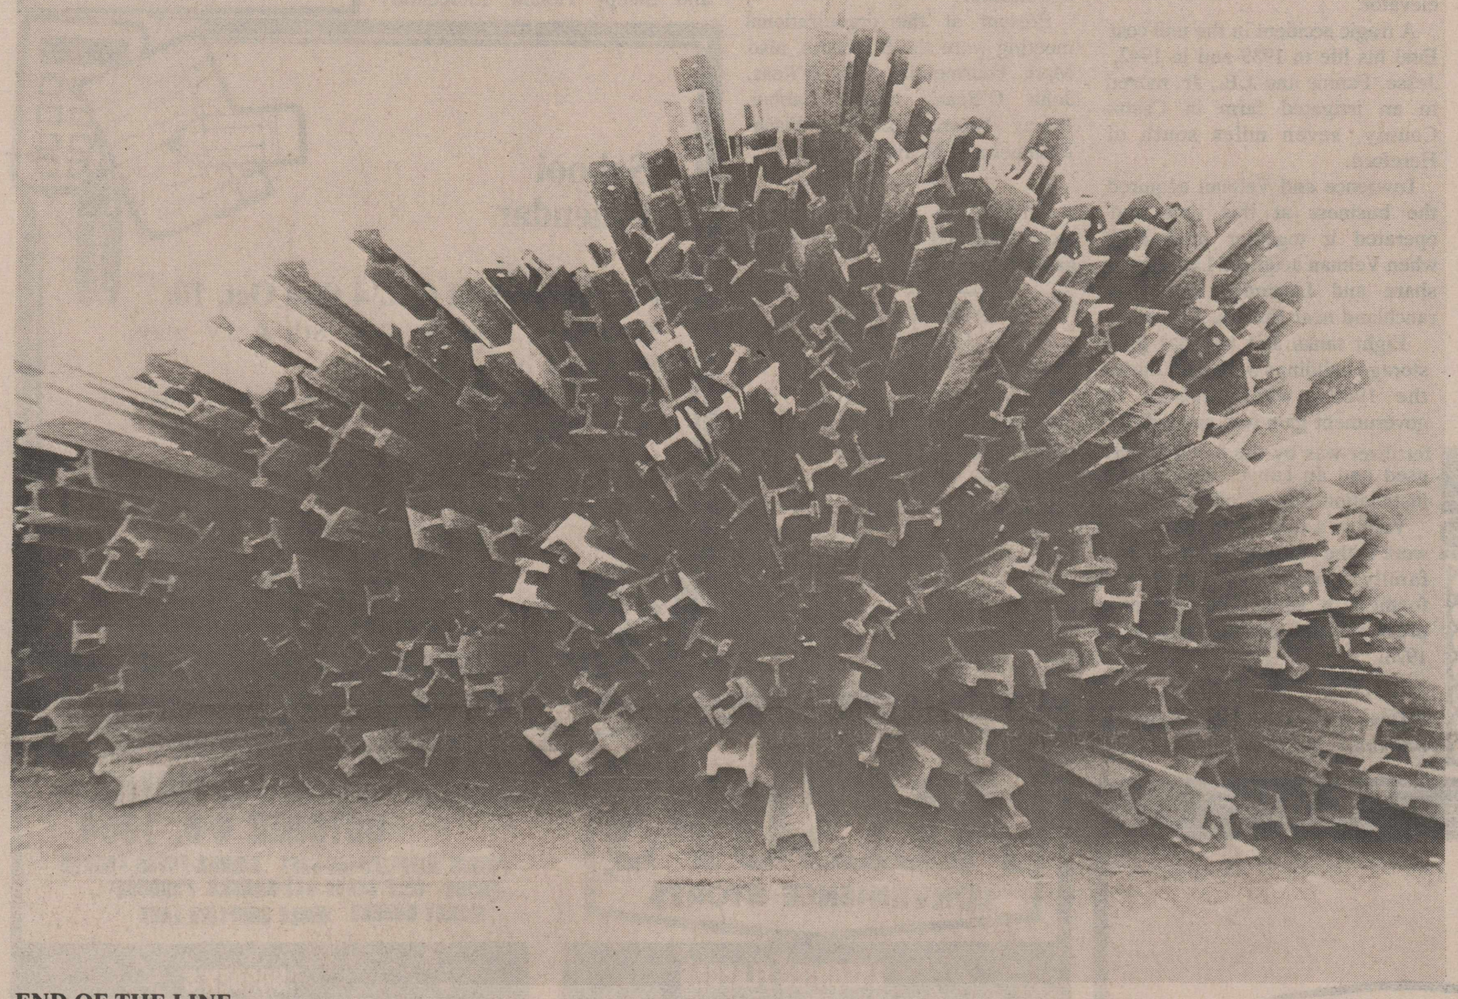

J.W. Singley took part in one of the most famous of all the land runs--the run into the Cherokee Strip. E.A. Singley, although too young to make the run and file on land, had a part. He drove the covered wagon that carried his mother and the younger children and their possessions into the Indian Territory.

In 1893, they came to McLean and 7 years after that, 1900, they moved into the Collingsworth community of Cross Roads. H.E. became sheriff; E.A. was postmaster and owned a store at Exum which would later become Shamrock.

By 1906, E.A. and H.E. Singley were acutely aware of Wellington's need for a business to handle farmers grain and supply such items as coal and ice. They bought two lots that would be used for their business when it was established in 1910. It is part of the present property. With foresight, they had selected lots alongside the new Katy railroad, which built into Wellington in 1910. Singley Brothers was then established.

In 1916 a flour mill was added to the business. During World War I, with the government taking most of the wheat, the Singleys made flour from maize to be used by Wellington housewives. With the return of peace came wheat flour again, which Singley Mill continued to make into the 1930s.

END OF THE LINE

Rails from the abandoned Rock Island Railroad line lie in huge piles in Wellington this week, awaiting shipment to Mexico. Contractors are salvaging the rails, and those between Erick, Oklahoma and McLean, Texas are hauled by truck to Wellington where they are being loaded onto railroad cars for shipment out on Burlington Northern lines. The rails range from 30 feet to 39 feet long, and weigh 30 lbs. per foot.

Frost in County Saturday Night

One of the earliest frosts Collingsworth has experienced in recent years occurred Saturday night, Sept. 30, in scattered parts of the county.

It was conceded there will be some damage to the crop, but how much damage remains to be seen. Some cotton growers believe their loss will be heavy.

In general, the frost was in low'lying areas and along streams and creek-beds.

Some fields appear to have had considerable damage, while an adjoining field received much less. Date of planting is one of the factors.

"This is certainly one of the earliest frosts we have had in several years," said County Extension Agent Don Reeves, "and we needed ' later frost.

"Our crop is already so late it is stressed by drouth and insects."

The forst appears to have been heavier north of Salt Fork River than south.

Some cotton was killed, especially the top crop, but there again, it has been questioned if this crop would have had time to mature under better conditions.

Eddie Orr reported that he has a field along Buck Creek south of Wellington in low land that was completely killed. "It looks like the lower fields in the Loco area were hit," he said.

Orr believes that the bolls in the middle of the cotton stalks will be okay, as will the lower bolls, but the top bolls, are "like a rotton tomato," he said.

"This is the second year in a row to have an early frost. Last year is was not as heavy as it has been this time," he added.

Orr also operates land along the state line east of Wellington, and there was no frost apparent, however this area has not had any rain since June 22 except for a few showers.

Ray Hightower of Dodson Co-op Gin said that the frost was scattered in the southeast part of the county, with some fields not touched. The amount of damage is not determined.

Injuries Still Drag at Rocket Shirt-tail

Wellington Skyrockets travel to Hale Center Friday, October 5, to meet the Hale Center Owls, a team that has a 2-2 record for the year.

Wellington is dead serious about this game, but it will be without the pressure of a play-off situation which has existed in some of the other meetings of the teams.

But another problem raised its head to plague the Skyrockets: continued loss of players to injuries and scholastic ineligibility.

Hale Center opened the season with Lubbock Cooper, and were defeated 16-14; then next week played Tahoka, and won 54-0. The third week, they played Petersburg and the score was Hale Center 30, Petersburg 14.

This past week the Owls played Lockney and lost 21-8.

"Hale Center has had, in the past 3 years outstanding football teams, one year they reached the state semi finals, and have been in playoffs for the last three seasons," said Coach James Williams.

"They have 17 seniors out for the football team this year and 5 juniors, and the remainder are sophomores.

"Their strength lies in their offensive and defensive lines. They think they have the best lines in that part of the country."

Their best offensive players are James Pardo, guard, senior, 220 pounds; Offensive tackle is Tim Mooney, 225, a senior; Offensive center, Scott Snipes, 200 and a senior.

Their quarterback is Andy Garcia, 182 senior; while the running backs are Mitch MeBeth, 185 junior and Michael Peggram, 145 junior.

"Up front, they have size, and also good size in the backfield.

"Again, we are looking for another tough game. We have some injury problems and still have some grade problems," said Williams.

"Last week we played a good game against Panhandle the last two quarters, and this week we feel we can put it all together for four quarters and play some pretty good football."

As to injuries, James Benton recovering from surgery, will see limited action, Williams said. Kenny Peeks out last week with concussion. This week in practice we lost Kelley Goforth with a broken hand. Moved up Curtis Nash from JV to varsity, last week and he received a shoulder injury in the game against Panhandle. He is on the doubtful list for Friday night.

Kendall Harris received a leg injury in the first quarter of the Panhandle game and did not play for the remainder of the game, so hopefully, he will be ready to go this week.

Scholastically, Johnny Nash is eligible, Jimmy Barber still is not eligible, and Alex Johnson has joined the list.

We are trying to revamp and overcome injuries by moving some players around, the coach explained.

"These young men have played one of the toughest schedules we have had in several years. We are still optimistic about the district race. They are still working hard and trying to improve each day," Williams declared.

This is the last non-conference game. Next week the Rockets will meet Quanah at home. This will be a 7:30 game.

Miss Samnorwood Will Be Selected Saturday

Samnorwood Lions Club will sponsor the Miss Samnorwood Contest Saturday, October 6, in the school gymnasium, beginning at 7 p.m.

There are 8 contestants, Annie Vargas, Jessica Kirkland, Stacey Knoll, Deanna Kirkland, Leslie Brandvik, Mary Walters, Sandy Henard and Becky Barton.

Their escorts will be boys from Samnorwood High School.

Bill Burcham ot Shamrock will be master of ceremonies.

The winner will represent Samnorwood Lions Club in the District 2T1 Lions Club Sweetheart Contest and she will represent the community in Miss Irish Rose Contest at Shamrock next March.

She will also serve as pianist at Lions Club meetings, or whatever other duties she may be called on to perform.

School Funding To Be Determined By Oct. Attendance

Wellington school funding for the '84-85 school year will be determined by attendance figures during the month of October, Supt. Kenneth McKay said this week.

New state regulations are in effect this year and they change the method of computing average daily attendance on which the state bases its funding to the school district.

Previously the district averaged the best 5 of the 6 6-week periods to obtain its attendance figure.

Under the new rules, attendance will be determined by the 4 weeks in October and 4 more weeks, as yet unspecified, in the spring.

"It's very important that students be in school every school day in October," McKay said. "If we have 100% attendance we'll get 100% of the money due us, and if we have 90% attendance, we'll get

Club Championship Tournament Oct. 6-7

Wellington Country Club will hold its annual Club Championship Tournament Saturday and Sunday, October 6 and 7 with both men's and women's 1984 champion golfers to be determined.

Joining the country club in sponsoring this tournament is Wellington State Bank.

Defending champions are Leon Parker and Patsy Martin.

Eddie Orr, president, said there will be three flights for women and four for men, with players to be flighted after Saturday's round.

There will be a $10 entry fee per person.

Money prizes plus trophies donated by Wellington State Bank will be awarded at the end of play Sunday afternoon.

Tee off time for women is 9 a.m. Saturday and for the finals, 9 a.m. Sunday.

Men's play will start at 1:30 p.m. both Saturday and Sunday.

"We already have 33 men signed up on Monday, and will have at least 40 by tournament time," Orr said. "We are hoping for 20 women.

"The men's tournament could be a real dog-fight, for we have several members who have played real well this summer. This will be a very interesting tournament and we invite everyone who is interested in watching it to come out."

Those playing in the tournament must be club members.

Time Change for Thursday Games

Head Coach James Williams has announced time changes for the Thursday, Oct. 4 football games with Shamrock.

The Junior High game will start at 4:30 and the Junior Varsity will begin about 6 p.m.

Shamrock has only one junior high team, therefore Wellington 7th and 8th grade teams will be combined and everybody will suit up. Both junior high coaches, Gano Wilson and Arthur Smith will be there.

Those who regularly attend the Friday Skyrocket pep rallies are alerted that there may be a change in the time of this week's pep rally.

A decision had not been reached at Wellington Leader press time Wednesday morning.

Pep rally hours as they are scheduled aren't working very well, Williams said.

90% of the money. We need for parents to assist us in every way they can to have the best attendance possible in October. It will have a direct impact on our ability to provide education for their children. All of our funding, including vocational and special education programs, will be based on these attendance figures."

Children in school have fire drills so they'll know how to leave quickly if the building is on fire. Unfortunately, adults rarely have such training.

Office buildings, hotels, and other public places--however protected by fireproofing design--can have fires. Do you know the emergency procedures that can save your life?

In any public structure, always locate the nearest fire exit. Be familiar with the layout of your room or office and the shortest route to that fire exit. Find out who to call in case of fire.

Should a fire emergency be declared, feel your door before opening it. If the door is hot, indicating fire in a hallway, you may be safer in your room or office.

Car Damages Lewis Grocery Saturday Night

A car, moving out of control, jumped the curb on the south side of the square, knocked down a light standard in front of Browning Shoe Shop, crossed East Avenue and crashed into the front of Lewis Grocery about 7 p.m. Friday, September 28.

Driver of the 1974 Ford was identified by the Sheriff's Department as Gary Phillips.

Robert Lewis, owner of Lewis Grocery, said two plate glass windows at the front and one plate glass door were broken out.

The car was stopped when it struck an enclosed iron pipe filled with concrete which was installed at the corner of the building when it was remodeled several years ago.

The store had closed only a few minutes earlier and Lewis and one employee in the market remained inside.

Damage had been almost repaired Tuesday evening.

Phillips was taken to Collingsworth General Hospital where he was treated and released.

The brothers continued to operate the business until 1928, when they sold out and moved to Levelland to establish farming and ranching properties.

The next year depression settled over the county and on its heels came drouth.

In 1933 E.A. Singley returned to Wellington to resume operation of the business that from that time on would be Singley Mill and Elevator.

His son, Jones Singley, returned to Wellington from Dallas a few years later and joined his father in the business, which they operated together until the death of E.A. Singley in 1963.

Jones Singley was the sole operator until he died in 1980.

Singley Mill and Elevator was a franchise dealer for Purina products, the oldest in the Panhandle area. It was the first to sell hybrid seeds in the area.

Jones Singley worked closely with the Northwest Texas Research Demonstration Program, a joint venture of the Texas A & M Extension Service and the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.

Warrick's Inc. had it's beginning in 1914 as a small mill and store on Ross Avenue at what is now the northwest corner of Amarillo and 8th Streets. Jesse E. Warrick built this and other mills, sold them to other people and eventually moved to an out-of-business lumber yard at West Avenue and 7th Street in Wellington.

He built a brick building on that lot and later expanded north of the M.K.T. railroad tracks where he built his last mill, an elevator and coal bins. His wife, Fannie, and three oldest sons, Lawrence, Velman, and Eual all worked in the business and a J.I. Case Machinery dealership was added in the early 1930s. After moving to this location he built his own power plant to furnish electricity for the mill and elevator.

A tragic accident in the mill cost Eual his life in 1935 and in 1942, Jesse, Fannie and J.E., Jr. moved to an irrigated farm in Castro County, seven miles south of Hereford.

Lawrence and Velman acquired the business at this time and operated it together until 1960 when Velman acquired Lawrence's share and Lawrence moved to ranchland near Eureka, Kansas.

Eight tanks and two flat grain storage buildings were built during the 1950s, when storage for government gain was needed. Dry fertilizer was by the being widely used and an annydrous ammonia installation was added in 1963.

Velman's son, Glen, returned to work in the business in 1963, and a family owned corporation was formed in 1968. Glen became president and general manager in 1973.

By Jo Hunt

The 60th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Alexander, and Mr. Alexander's 92nd birthday, were celebrated in their home three and one-half miles west of Dodson, where they have lived 56 years.

The crystal punch bowl was one that Ruel Alexander had given his mother when he was 16 years old. The white cake was decorated with burgundy and pale pink flowers. Coffee was served from a silver service.

Presiding at the table were granddaughters, Beverly Burcham of Memphis, Tenn., and Adelle Reid of Amarillo.

They were married in Childress Sept. 24, 1924, by her cousin, Harvey Scott, a Church of Christ minister.

Both have been active in the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and he was honored with a life membership a few years ago.

During World War I, Mr. Alexander served with the 36th Division Field Hospital No. 143 with 11 months in France, participating in fighting in the Champagne sector and Argonne Forest. He worked in banks in Hollis, Ringling and Walters, Okla., before returning to Dodson to begin farming in 1921.

SCOOPIN'

Texans have several constitutional amendments to vote on in the general election November 6.

Proposition 2 is one that deserves to be passed. It broadens participation in the Permanent University Fund to include all campuses of The University of Texas and Texas A & M University systems. And it creates a special dedicated fund, the Education Assistance Fund, for the 26 Texas state universities which do not share in the Permanent Fund.

When the Democrats and Republicans begin to agree on anything, it's usually time to start worrying. But on this issue the parties are in agreement in support of Proposition 2 and I think they're right. It would strengthen public education in Texas and help both schools which do and which do not share the Permanent University Fund.

Friday, Oct. 5 is the last day to register if you want to vote in the election on November 6.

Travis Templeton brought a plastic bottle with a "child-proof" cap in to pharmacist Lyndon Crelia to open for her this week. Travis said she couldn't get them open now that she didn't have a child at home to help her.

If you've heard the sound of crashing steel booming over Wellington the last few weeks and wondered what was happening, the answer is in a picture on page 1. Steel rails from the old Rock Island line are being transported to the rail head here for further shipment, and when a bunch of 30-ft. rails comes off a front-end loader it makes a pretty loud clang.

Golf With The Swingers

BY MARY SANFORD

Saturday, Sept. 15, was not your ideal golf weather, at 9 a.m. tee off time.

This however did nothing to daunt the competitive spirit of the women playing a partnership best ball tournament at the Wellington Country Club.

Twenty teams, that's 40 women, folks, donned sweaters, jackets, more sweaters, more jackets, and with freezing hands vied for the low scores in this competition.

They came from as far away as Vernon to play. Lorene Jenkins planned to take her cart out on the court filled with iced tea to go with the potato chips and cheese crackers for snacks. But decided on hot coffee to the delight of the players.

After 9 holes, the players began to thaw out, or become numb, making the last 9 holes very pleasant.

Finishing the 18 hole tournament, the players headed for the club house for lunch, door prizes of home canned pickles and jellies or home baked goodies donated by the Wellington hostesses, golf towel favors, and finally the presentation of cash prizes for the tournament.

The prize for the longest drive: went to Jean Hassell of Childress; Robin Childress of Wheeler who plays on the Shamrock course was closest to the hole.

Winners in the championship flight were: 1st, Mona Jennings and Robbie Jennings of Wheeler; 2nd, Jean Hassell, Childress and Diane Ratliff, Paducah; 3rd, Edi Williams and Katy Davis, Wellington.

First flight winners were: 1st, Betty Rowden and Linda Collins, Memphis; 2nd, Gwen Hensly, Shamrock and Linda Foxhall, Memphis; 3rd, Billie Weede and Shirley Cromartie, Quanah.

Second flight winners were: 1st, Bennie Sullivan, Wellington, and daughter, Lucy Nichols, Seminole; 2nd, Glenna Posey, Memphis and Iva Belle Mauldin, Wellington; 3rd, Lyna Hurst and Eugena Sherman, Wellington.

With food under their belts, door prizes under their arms and cash prizes in their purses, the players left the Wellington Country Club Ladies Partnership Best Ball Tournament warm and happy.

Firecrackers Down Clarendon 32-6

Wellington 8th Grade Firecrackers won their first victory Thursday, Sept. 27, by defeating Clarendon Colts 32-6 on the Colts field.

The first quarter ended 0-0. Wellington had moved the ball well, but hadn't put it in, although they got as far as the Clarendon 15.

About mid-way in the second, Quarterback Thomas Crytser scored on a run of approximately 30 yards. The try for extra point failed. Then, toward the end of the first half, Crytser scored his second TD on an option play around end to make it 12-0 Wellington. Again the try for extra point failed.

In the third quarter, a halfback pass from Carter Nash to Rex Henard covered 28 yards and the touchdown. Still the extra point try failed. (18-0)

"We aren't very good on extra points, yet," commented Coach Gano Wilson.

Toward the end of that period, Mark Watts, who had about 90 yards on the ground through the game, scored on a wedge play to the right side on a two yard run, making it 24-0.

Clarendon scored its only touchdown on a long run with 5 minutes left in the game, to make the score 24-6. Their try for extra point failed, too.

Wellington's final touchdown came on a pass play from Nash to Henard that covered 18 yards with no time left on the clock. This time the Firecrackers made their extra point on a reverse play run by Kevin Kerlee to end the game 32-6.

"We had some good defense plays by the front four Shane Black, Bobby Wilkerson, James Sherwood and Clay Holland," Coach Wilson said.

Memo Torrez, in the third quarter, went down and covered a Wellington kickoff to Clarendon, which gave the Firecrackers a first down on the Clarendon 30.

Davy Mithlo caught a 30 yard pass and Marvin Lynch had a 2nd guarter interception.

The second defense played real well. In fact, everyone did a good job," Wilson added.

7th Grade Loses to Larger Team

Wellington 7th grade football team faced a physically larger team at Clarendon and although they had their opportunities to win, they were unable to capitalize on them. The game was played Thursday, Sept. 27.

Clarendon made the first score of the game in the first quarter on a counter dive play.

Wellington's Jeff Thomas made his team's only score in the first also, carrying the ball from the 45 yard line and going over on a dive play. The try for extra point failed.

Clarendon scored once in the second quarter on a right end sweep.

The Crackers held the Colts scoreless during the third quarter, but worked the ball down to the Clarendon 5 yard line, where the advance stalled and the ball turned over.

The entire third quarter was played in the Clarendon end of the field, but some ball handling errors prevented the Wellington team from scoring, said coach Arthur Smith.

Rocket JV Downs Clarendon 38-20

The Skyrocket Junior Varsity defeated Clarendon JV 38-20 on Broncho Field Thursday, Sept. 27.

This was Nash's game, as he scored all but one of the touchdowns for the Rocket JV.

This was also a contest between Skyrocket ground power and Clarendon air power.

Wellington made its first touchdown on its first possession of the ball, when Johnny Nash scored on a 15 yard run. The try for extra point was no good and the score was 6-0 Wellington. Brad Long made a good play that helped set up this touchdown.

The Rockets kicked to Clarendon, and the Broncho JV scored about 5 plays later on a 30 yard pass. Their try for extra point also failed and that made it 6-6.

At the first of the second quarter, Nash scored again on a 10 yard run, but the try for extra point failed again, 12-6.

Wellington kicked, then held Clarendon and got the ball back on downs. It was Nash again on a 40 yard run and the score mounted, 18-6. Again in possession of the ball, Clarendon scored on a 20 yard pass and ran the ball over for two points. (18-14)

Early in the third quarter, Wellington kicked to Clarendon, then held the Bronchos to get the ball back, and another Nash touchdown on a 20 yard run, put the Rockets 10 points ahead, 24-14.

Clarendon, on its next possession, drove downfield and scored on a 15-yard pass to narrow the gap, 24-20.

Nash then took a Broncho kickoff and ran the ball all the way back for 70 yards and TD. (30-20)

As the fourth quarter started, Wellington kicked to Clarendon, and on the third down, James McIntosh intercepted a pass and ran it back 60 yards for another Rocket TD.

This time the try for extra point was good, on a pass from Brad Long to Nash. Wellington led 38-20.

"Our offense again played pretty good, we just still need to work some more. We've got to stop the runs around end and stop the passes," declared Coach Tom Johnson.

In the fourth quarter, Rocket Daryon Brown dislocated an elbow and will be out at least a month, said Johnson. Brown was taken to Amarillo for treatment.

Fine performances were turned in by James Reynolds, Chuck Brown, Shaun Cobb, and Nash. Offensive standouts included Long, Nash and Brown.

DON'T SHOOT AT POWER LINES!

Never shoot at power lines or the insulators that hold them. A severed line could cause a dangerous power outage, and the downed line itself could also be a very serious safety hazard.

Here are a few other tips on how to live more safely — electrically:

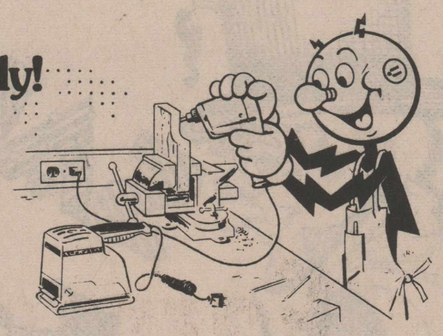

Keep Children Away from Outlets!

Don't let small children play near electrical outlets. A child could easily put a finger or some object in an outlet when you're looking away. A wise safety precaution would be to put safety caps in all wall outlets.

Use Power Tools Wisely!

Be extra careful when using power tools. Always be sure the wiring is adequate for the job. See to it that there are enough circuits of the right size, and that all circuits are grounded. Also, never use electric tools in the rain or on wet surfaces.

Electricity. It's the Power of Choice.

COLLINGSWORTH COUNTY AGENT REPORT
by Don Reeves

CULL OPEN LATE-CALVING COWS

Farmers and ranchers who haven't already culled open, late-calving and poor performing cows should do so soon.

There's no need to put expensive winter feed into cows that are unproductive and inefficient. Culling the cow herd now will also help you more effectively plan on feed supplies for the winter months.

The culling process should also "weed out" cows with bad eyes, udders or feet and legs.

Also, pregnancy testing cows this fall may be a more protiftable management tool than ever before.

Since it's difficult for a cow to produce a calf large enough to pay her annual maintenance bill and leave some profit for the producer, an open cow is surely losing money. In addition, cows calving late and during the summer months wean calves 30 to 90 pounds lighter than their herd mates which calve at earlier times. For this reason it's advisable to cull cows which will calve late next year and buy a replacement which will calve early.

Whoever does the pregnancy diagnosis (usually your veterinarian) will be able to estimate the calving date on each animal and make it easy to identify next year's late-calving cows. Work toward a 60-day calving season or one that's certainly no longer than 90 days.

Removing barren and late-calving cows from the herd will increase both the herd's reproductive potential and pounds of calf weaned.

The True Light

The true light that is intended for every man has come into the world. This light shines perpetually into the darkness in which man lives and the darkness cannot overcome it. It radiates from the manger stall at Bethlehem; it gleams from Calvary's hill; on Easter morn it broke the bonds of time and is eternally present in our world. Joy to the world indeed! Praise God from whom all blessings flow!

The light is here; we need not even ask it, but only open our eyes. Then why do so many walk yet in darkness? There is only one answer, they love darkness better than light. For those who stumble blindly about life and yearn for respite, there stands an eternal invitation — "Come unto me all ye who labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest." For those whose hearts ache with emptiness — "Behold I stand at the door and knock. If any man will hear my voice and open the door I will come in to him."

Is something wrong with your life—an inner restless dissatisfaction? The answer to every human problem comes only from God our Maker. He alone can forgive and reassure.

Through the church God has committed the provision and proclamation of His forgiveness and redeeming love. Without a church relation no one is securely related to God. Everyone should be in the Church and the Church in everyone!

BY DICKIE JOHNSON

The Wellington Skyrockets took to the road for the first time on Friday, Sept. 28, to face the Panhandle Panthers. The Panthers won by a score of 34-6.

The final score was not indicative of the play of the ball game. Costly turnovers accounted for two Panther touchdowns in the first half which gave Panhandle an insurmountable lead. Despite the score, the Skyrockets showed improved defensive play throughout the game.

Panhandle received the opening kickoff and started from their own 30 yard line. A couple of penalties forced the Panthers to punt and the Skyrockets started with their first possession from deep in their end of the field, the 11 yard line. A pair of passes from Michael Souder to Jamie McKay and Neal Duncan brought the ball out to the 18 yard line but the Skyrockets were held. Tracy Day's punt went out-of-bounds at midfield to set up the Panthers first scoring drive.

Panther quarterback Derek Holmes connected on passes to Timmy Sorrells and Kevin Powers to drive the ball deep into Skyrockets' territory. With 5:09 showing in the first quarter, Wes Wood carried the ball into the end zone for the first score of the game. Wood also kicked the extra point to give Panhandle a 7-0 lead.

On the ensuing kickoff, James Patterson made an excellent return behind good blocking to the Wellington 43 yard line. The Skyrocket offense stalled again and Tracy Day was called on again to punt.

PASSING GAME

Quarterback Michael Souder, 11 rolls out for a pass behind the blocking of Rodney Saldana, 51, Michael Skelton, 72 and Michael Mackey, 33.

Panhandle started their next scoring drive from their own 16 yard line. Panther Shane Mecaskey made a long run to midfield as the horn sounded to end the opening period.

With only 8 seconds elapsed in the second quarter, Shane Mecaskey sprinted around the right side on a 52 yard touchdown gallup. Wes Wood tacked on the extra point to give the Panthers a 14-0 advantage.

Panhandle's Rodney Throgmorton recovered a fumble on the Skyrockets next possession to leave the Panthers only 8 yards away from pay dirt. Timmy Sorrells carried the ball around the right end for the Panthers third touchdown of the evening. Wes Wood again converted the extra point and the Panthers increased their lead to 21-0.

Again the Skyrockets tried to get something going from their own 11 yard line following the kickoff. Michael Souder connected on a 22 yard pass to Michael Mackey. Another costly turnover halted the drive after Panther Benny Ray Hicks intercepted an attempted halfback pass and returned it down to the 1 yard line. Wes Wood carried the ball over on a dive play with 6:53 remaining in the first half. The extra point was no good and Panhandle lead 27-0.

The Skyrockets started from their own 20 yard line after the kickoff traveled out of the end zone. Jamie McKay hit Tracy Day on a wide-open halfback pass for a 37 yard gain to the Panhandle 43 yard line. Again the Skyrockets were halted and the first half ended with Panhandle leading 27-0.

Skyrocket James Benton saw action for the first time this year after the doctors gave him the go-ahead to play. Benton proved to be an added boost to the Skyrocket offense in the second half. In the third quarter the Skyrockets toughened up on defense to halt the Panthers on two consecutive possessions.

After taking over on their own 30 yard line, the Skyrockets moved the ball down to the Panhandle 15 yard line on a pair of scampers by Benton and a Souder to McKay pass completion. Panhandle's defense tightened up however and held the Skyrockets on four straight downs. The third quarter ended with the score remaining 27-0 in favor of Panhandle.

The Skyrockets' passing game, however, showed much improvement with quarterback Michael Souder having more time to throw the ball.
