POLAND MAY ASK FOR ALLIED TROOPS

REPORT HOLDS THAT SOCIALISTS ARE INELIGIBLE

Declared Disloyal and Unworthy of Their Seats in New York Assembly

MINORITY ADMIT DISLOYALTY BUT SAY IT IS NOT A TEST

Recommends That Assembly oVte to Declare Vacant the Seats of the Five Men

ALBANY, N. Y., March 30. — The five suspended socialist members of the New York assembly were declared disloyal and unworthy of their seats in the majority report o fthe judiciary committee, filed today.

A minority report, filed by William S. Evans, one of the 13 members of the committee, asserts that while the five socialists have been proven disloyal, the assembly has no constitutional rights to proscribe loyalty as a test of eligibility for its members, and urges that they be re-seated.

Regarding evidence tending to show the socialist party is a revolutionary body, Evans says: "We cannot try and acquit or convict the socialist party."

The majority report recommends that the assembly vote to declare vacant the seats of the five men—August Claessens, Louis Waldeman, Charles Solomon, Samuel A. DeWitt and Samuel Orr. It holds that all charges made against them on the opening day of the session have been fully sustained; that the socialist party has been proven to advocate force and violence for overthrow of the United States government and that the American socialists are in full accord and sympathy with the Russian soviet government.

Other Recommendations.

Further, the majority report urges legislation which would in effect, prevent the socialist party from occupying a place on the official ballot. This recommendation reads: "We recommend that appropriate legislation be passed that hereafter no party, group, or political organization in which aliens are acceptable as members, or whose policies and program are responsive or determined by an organization, national or state, composed of persons not members of the electorate of the nation or state shall be privileged to occupy on the official ballot of this state the position of a political party."

The socialist party is said to be disloyal in every way. Emphasis is laid on the fact that in 1917 after the United States entered the war, the socialists adopted a platform opposing war and allegedly engaged in a systematic effort to further the claims of conscientious objectors.

Taking up evidence tending to show that socialist members of the previous assembly voted against appropriations for the militia, the report declares again: "It is part of the socialist party to destroy the existing form of government and substitute the rule of the proletariat, as fully appears by their propaganda."

Continuing the report says: "There is but one inference from the position of the socialists in relation to military and naval appropriations and war. They would render the country and government helpless against all enemies so that it would be helpless against them, the enemies of established order."

ALBANY, N. Y., March 30.—The senate by a vote of 26 to 25, last night passed the Fowler bill designed to repeal the state daylight saving law. The measure had been amended so as to permit municipalities to determine for themselves whether they should operate under standard time or daylight saving time.

CONTINENTAL COMPANY TO PAY STOCK DIVIDEND

DENVER, March 30.—Continental company directors at a mass meeting last Saturday decided to pay a stock dividend of 200 per cent, each stockholder to receive two additional shares for one now held. Books close against the disbursement April 10, and payment will be made before the end of the month.

BAILEY SCORES ADMINISTRATION OF DEMOCRATS

Declares Acts of Present Administration Contrary to Principles of Party

TWO SPEECHES DELIVERED IN THE CITY ON MONDAY

Opera House in Afternoon and Labor Temple at Night are Crowded to Capacity

Scoring the acts of the present administration as entirely contrary to the most cherished democratic principles, and declaring, in answer to a question advanced by local pro-administrationists, that it had not one single act to its credit which he approved, Joseph Weldon Bailey, candidate for governor, spoke to two packed houses here Monday afternoon and night in the interest of his campaign for a delegation to the San Francisco convention pledged to the principles which he advanced as the basic principles of democracy.

"As to my endorsement of the Woodrow Wilson administration, I might say that I don't believe that that is a very important matter. The mill will never turn with water which has already flowed by, and what has happened in the past will have no importance in the future, except to guide us in avoiding the mistakes which have been made in the past.

"I will endorse Wilson to the fullest, declare that he is a greater soldier than Washington, a greater statesman than Jefferson, a greater orator than Patrick Henry, a greater patriot than Andrew Jackson, and a greater democrat than Jefferson Davis, if they will only return to and reaffirm the undying and fundamental principles of democracy which I am advocating, and which have been disregarded in the past seven years."

Call It Old-Fashioned.

"They have declared the democracy of Jefferson, Jackson and Calhoun old-fashioned, saying that these men could know nothing of the needs of the present day because they never rode in an automobile, never saw an electric light, and never slept in a Pullman Palace car," he declared later on. "By the same token I suppose they consider the principles of the Christian religion behind the times, for it is not written that Jesus Christ ever rode in an automobile or Pullman car, and he certainly never taught the word of his Father by the light of an electric lamp.

"Furthermore, I imagine that they believe the Ten Commandments outgrown. When I read what some of my opponents say about me I know that one of them is disregarded." Mr. Bailey devoted the principle part of his afternoon speech to a discussion of the federal reserve banking act, the income tax law, the tariff, the prohibition amendment, governmental extravagance, high taxes, the large number of federal officials and employes, and a contrasting of the principles advocated in the platforms adopted by the supporters of the movement which he is leading and that adopted more recently at the meeting of the pro-administrationists, declaring that the latter, although professedly drawn by democrats, had no word pledging themselves to respect and obedience of the provisions of the constitution of the United States, no word in regard to the rights of the states, no word of protest against the centralization of power in the federal government, no word pledging themselves to make an effort for the lowering of taxes, and no word of protest against governmental extravagance.

Compares Platforms.

"There is not one word in their constitution which is democratic, and not one word in our constitution which is not democratic," he declared in this connection. "In fact, they do not even call themselves democrats. They call themselves 'progressive democrats,' which is as near being real democrats, and in need of no qualifying adjective, as would be 'republican democrats' or 'socialist democrats.'"

He called attention to the fact that the platform which he was advocating

WHILE HUSBAND ATTENDS THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION, WIFE HELPS DEMOCRATS PICK CANDIDATES

While Mrs. Wm. H. England of Ponca City, Oklahoma, is at San Francisco helping the Democratic National Convention pick its candidate, husband will be in Chicago attending the Republican National Convention as delegate. Mrs. England is one of the eight women from Oklahoma who were first woman delegates at a national party convention in the United States. Politics has in no way interfered with Mrs. England's home life, as she is the mother of eight children. (Copyright Underwood & Underwood)

Fund of $100,000 Made Available to Increase Salaries of Teachers

A fund of $100,000 is to be underwritten by citizens of Wichita Falls to make up a deficit in the school fund for the remainder of this year and for next year. A part of the fund is to be made immediately available and the salaries of teachers are to be increased retroactive to March 1, 1920. The increase will be handled individually with each school teacher. Parents having children in school will be asked to make donations to this fund. Such donations are to be entirely voluntary.

The matter was presented by C. H. Clark. Mr. Clark said that the salary payroll this year would be approximately $135,000 with salaries as at present. Last year there were 85 teachers, this year 117 and next year not less than 147 teachers would be needed, he said. Teachers' salaries were lower in Wichita Falls than in other progressive cities of the state he said, giving the salaries of the Wichita Falls teachers as follows: superintenednt, $4,000; high school principals, $2,200; ward school principals, $1433; high school teachers, $1,268; ward school teachers, $888.

Next year, he said, the schools ought to have $263,000 for the pay roll. On the basis of present taxable values the revenues for the schools for the remainder of this year and next would be approximately $100,000. He told how many of the best teachers were leaving Wichita Falls and that it would be practically impossible to run the schools if immediate relief was not given. Asked for a recommendation he told how a similar situation had been handled at Iowa Park a number of years ago when a number of citizens there had underwritten a deficit and had asked the parents of pupils for contributions. The response was nearly 100 per cent, he said.

Mr. Kell moved that this plan be adopted here and the motion was unanimously adopted. The motion provided that a committee be named to act with the school board and that increases granted in the pay of teachers be retroactive to March 1.

On a motion Mr. Clark was made chairman of the committee with authority to name other members to act with the school board. Mr. Clark named the following members of the committee: Messrs. Cline, Priddy, R. O. Harvey and J. W. Bradley.

Under the plan adopted 100 men will underwrite a fund of $100,000. More than 30 signatures to this guarantee were obtained in less than 10 minutes.

STATE SENATE OF MISSISSIPPI REVERSES VOTE

Ratifies Suffrage and Question is Now Up to the House of that State

JACKSON, MISS., March 30.—The Mississippi state senate today ratified the federal woman suffrage amendment, thus reversing the action of several weeks ago when the amendment was rejected.

A tie vote was cast for the measure and Lieutenant Governor Casteel, who was presiding, voted in favor of it.

Suffrage leaders who had abandoned hope of favorable action, immediately notified their supporters throughout the state to hurry back to the capital and renew the battle.

In the house it was stated the session, which was to adjourn Saturday may be prolonged in an effort to settle the matter. The vote today showed 10 members of the senate had reversed their position upon the suffrage question since the unfavorable vote was cast several weeks ago.

UNION MINERS AGREE TO NAME COMMITTEE TO DRAFT AGREEMENT

NEW YORK, March 30.—Union miners and mine operators of the bituminous coal fields, meeting here today, agreed to name a committee of two to draft a tentative working agreement.

William Green, secretary of the union, and Phil Penna of Terre Haute, were appointed on the committee to draft the proposed contract. It will cover questions of wages and working conditions and will probably extend over for two years.

Green and Penna will submit their proposals to a general conference of the joint wage scale committee at 10 a. m. tomorrow. Both miners and operators predicted an agreeemnt on the contract.

Mine operators said they would increase prices of the coal at the mouth of the mines to meet the increased wage. The increase will amount to approximately $1 a ton.

DELEWARE VOTE ON SUFFRAGE DELAYED

DOVER, DEL., March 30.—The resolution ratifying the federal woman sufrage amendment was reported out of committee "on its merits." Efforts will be made by suffrace leaders to force a vote in the house tomorrow.

An effort to force the resolution of committee in the senate was balked. The senate voted to recess until the motion could be acted on. The senators were evidently waiting for the house to take the initiative.

GREAT DANGER IN GERMANY IS REACTIONARIES

Such is Declaration of Premier Mueller Before Members of the Reichstag

By CARL D. GOAT
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

BERLIN, March 29 (Night.)—"Germany's greatest danger is from the reactionaries, not from the bolsheviks," Premier Mueller told the reichstag today.

It was the maiden reichstag speech of the former former minister since he assumed the chancellorship. He talked less than an hour. The reichstag was crowded.

Mueller's program as outlined, was practically that of the preceding cabinets. He promised early fulfillment of the social laws particularly socialization of mines, which was promised by former cabinets but never fulfilled.

Reactionaries will be swept from the army, the government and other places with an "iron broom" the chancellor promised, decalring the government would take strong measures to crush the Communist revolt in the Ruhr district.

The government's ultimatum to the Ruhr rebels was to expire at noon Tuesday and authorities here declared their threat for an immediate military action in force against the communists might be expected if the fails called to accede to all the government's demands. These demands included full recognition of the power of the central control by the workmen of Westphalia with admission of the government's right to control policing of the entire nation.

HUNDRED MILLION WILL BE AVAILABLE IN CHICAGO FOR ERECTION OF HOMES

CHICAGO, March 30.—Chicago bankers will lend $100,000,000 during 1920 to home builders in an effort to end the housing shortage, it was announced today.

It was announced that part of the fund will be made available immediately to enable victims of the tornado to rebuild their homes.

NEGRO IS HANGED TO TELEPHONE POLE FOR ATTACKING GIRL

MAYSVILLE, KY., March 30.—Grant Smith, 40, negro, was hanged to a telephone pole six miles from this city early today by a band of armed men who took the negro from G. W. Powell, sheriff of Fleming county and Fred Link, chief of police, in front of Bourbon county jail last night.

Smith was accused of two attacks on Ruby Ruby Anderson, 14, white. He was being brought back from Pontiac, Mich., where he was arrested. As Smith left the train, armed men surrounded the officers and they were forced to deliver their prisoner. Fifty men then entered high powered motor cars with Smith and started a race toward Maysville.

Six miles from this city and three miles from the girl's home where the attacks are said to have taken place, Smith was hanged.

The body was left swinging from the pole.

The Anderson girl's mother is dead. Smith worked on the Anderson farm and is alleged to have attacked the girl there, warning her on each occasion to keep quiet or he would kill her.

RANGERS ORDERED TO HOLD TERRITORY; FORCE SUFFICIENT

AUSTIN, TEX., March 30—Texas rangers have orders to hold the disputed territory until the United States supreme court fixes the Oklahoma-Texas boundary finally, Adjutant General Cope announced upon his return here today from Wichita county. The rangers have sufficient force to enforce their orders, he added.

BHOUSTON PRISONER TAKES FOOT BAIL

HOUSTON, Tex., March 30.—Raymond Meeks, awaiting examining trial, was standing in the courthouse here today in custody of a constable. The case was called. The constable glanced around for his prisoner. The prisoner had meantime quietly walked out of the building and disappeared.

REQUEST WILL BE MADE IN THE EVENT EASTERN LINE OF DEFENSE IS THREATENED BY BOLSHEVIKI

WASHINGTON, March 30.—Poland will call upon the league of nations for allied reinforcements, it was said at the Polish legation here today, if the Bolsheviki threaten to break the Polish eastern lines of defense. While France is understood to have given tacit promises of military co-operation, the changed situation in Germany has made the extent of French aid doubtful, it was said.

Unless the Bolshevik front was materially strengthened, Major General Brynk, Polish military attache, declared, the present Polish regular forces could hold its own. The sweep of southern Russia by the Bolsheviki, however, he said, made possible the strong reinforcement of the Bolsheviki western armies.

RUSSIAN SOVIET IS READY TO NEGOTIATE

LONDON, March 30.—George Tchitcherin, the Russian soviet foreign minister, has notified Poland of his willingness to open peace negotiations on April 10, as Poland has suggested, according to a wireless message from Moscow today.

M. Tchitcherin suggests that the meeting be held somewhere in Esthonia.

BOLSHEVIKI FORCES SUFFER HEAVY LOSSES

WARSAW, March 29.—Russian Bolsheviki forces which have been attacking the Polish front in Podolia have suffered severe losses and at points have withdrawn to the eastward says an official statement issued at army headquarters here today. Polish troops have pursued the enemy and have retaken territory which was lost in the savage fighting of last week, it is said.

TO REBUILD T. AND P. SHOPS DESTROYED AT BIG SPRINGS

BIG SPRINGS, TEX., March 30.—Work will be begun immediately to rebuild the machine shops of the Texas & Pacific railway which burned here yesterday. Harry Miller, who received injuries in the fire, was declared by physicians today to be in a serious condition. No estimate of the property damage has been made.

BERGDOLL SENTENCED TO A FIVE YEAR TERM

NEW YORK, March 30.—Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, Philadelphia millionaire, today was found guilty on charges of evading the draft, it was announced at Governor's Island here today.

Bergdoll was sentenced to serve five years in the military jail at Governor's Island. He will forfeit all pay, be dishonorably discharged from the army and lose his citizenship.

The verdict of the court matrial was returned March 17 and was reviewed and approved today by Lieutenant General Bullard.

Bergdoll was arrested in his Philadelphia home last January after having eluded department of justice agents for more than a year. In his flight he visited every state in the union, traveling in automobiles which he purchased along the road. As soon as one car became disabled he purchased a new one.

MIDDLE WEST BEGINS WORK OF REBUILDING

Property Damage in Five States is Estimated at Ten Million Dollars

CHICAGO, March 30.—Scattered reports as wire service is restored to isolated sections of nine states visited by Sunday's series of tornadoes, today raised the death toll to 165.

Estimates of the total damage done ran from $10,000,000 to $15,000,000. Tabulated reports by states at noon today gave the number of dead as follows:

Indiana 38; Illinois 27; Ohio 30; Michigan 12; Georgia 38; Alabama 17; Nebraska 1; Missouri 1 and Wisconsin 1.

CHICAGO, March 30.—The middle west today began rebuilding whole communities, business centers and residence districts wrecked by the tornado which swept across northern Missouri, Illinois, Michigan and Indiana and Wisconsin Sunday, taking a toll of 81 lives and injuring nearly 500 persons. The property damage in the five states was estimated at $10,000,000 today.

With the rescue work believed completed, the revised death list from the storm in the middle west today showed:

Indiana, 36.
Illinois, 31.
Michigan, 12.
Missouri, 1.
Wisconsin, 1.

Carpenters and other laborers were being rushed into the storm devastated sections today to provide for the hundreds of homeless. Relief appeals have been issued by local authorities throughout the section.

Turn Out En Masse.

Populations of many stricken centers turned out en masse today to aid in reconstruction. At Elgin, where seven were killed and $2,000,000 worth of property destroyed, reconstruction has progressed so rapidly Mayor Price has cancelled a call for a meeting today to discuss means of restoration.

"Elgin will be able to care for herself," he declared.

The homeless last night were cared for in hospitals, police stations and under roofs untouched by the tornado. Red Cross officials announced today that they would be able to handle the situation. Many sections are in need of relief, officials said.

"We are hungry and homeless and must have $100,000 for relief," Charles J. Wolf, president of Melrose Park, declared today. Melrose Park was hardest hit of Chicago's suburbs, contributing 11 to the death toll.

Little Acute Suffering.

Reports today indicated there is little acute suffering. Large sums will be necessary for reconstruction, however, of homes.

National guards, home guards and former service men continued to protect the stricken areas today from possible looters. They were under orders to shoot and shoot to kill. No looting had been reported, national guard officers said.

Hospitals report he mapority of victims recovering and there was little indication the latest death total would need additions.

Rural Michigan was laid waste, reports show, with tangled masses of wire and implements, unroofed buildings, leveled fences and uprooted trees and razed business sections were left in the storm's wake.

Rescue work in Indiana had to combat impassable roads and considerable suffering from cold, but local officials were optimistic.

Reports of complete leveling of entime communities were being investigated today with restoration of telegraph and telephone communications.

MEETING OF OIL MEN CALLED FOR WEDNESDAY MORNING AT 9 TO DISCUSS FEDERAL SUIT FILED

A meeting of those interested in lands, leases and royalties on the strip affected by the government's suit in intervention in the Red river controversy has been called for 9 o'clock Wednesday morning by C. H. Clark, president of the Wichita County Oil Producers' association. The meeting is to be held in the chamber of commerce room in the basement of the Kemp and Kell building.

The call for the meeting follows:

Important.

In behalf of those interested in leases of royalties in Wichita county, lying between the center of Red river and the high bluff, beginning at a point about one-half mile east of the Texas Chief and running west to a point about a mile west of the General Oil company's well; the Wichita County Producers and Refiners association hereby calls a very important meeting of all interested parties to meet at the chamber of commerce in the base ment of the Kemp and Kell building at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning, March 31.

The attorney general of the United States has applied to the supreme court of the United States for an injunction and federal receiver to cover all of the property lying north of the high bluff to the middle of Red river. By all means, it behooves all interested parties to see that the attorney general of Texas does not agree to any such proceedings, as it would seriously embarass the entire operations in this territory and cause loss and probable bankruptcy to many operators.

All parties interested are urged to attend this meeting at promptly 9 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Wichita County Oil Producers' and Refiners' Association, by C. H. Clark.
John W. Thomas, Secretary.

BOGER-ARD WELL K. M. A. FIELD FLOWING 200 TO 300 BARRELS; DRILLED BUT 15 INCHES IN SAND

Drilled 15 inches into the oil sand, entered at 1740 feet, the Boger-Ard, No. 1 Münger, about a mile west of the Kemp Munger Allen discovery well, commenced flowing at 8:00 o'clock Monday night, and today is still flowing by heads, at the rate of 200 to 300 barrels a day and is making considerable gas. The sand was ratholed in as soon as casing was set. The casing was not cemented, and the sand was drilled in with a rotary with a small bit.

Bissonnet and Cezeaux, who have three other rigs in the Iowa Park field, report that they have had no water trouble, and will complete with a rotary. The casing was set much higher than other tests in the district have been setting, it will be noticed, the Kemp Munger Allen depth being reported as 1780, and the other tests setting around this depth.

J. C. Haynes and J. L. Art and the contractors are interested with Boger and Ard in this well, which is reported to be the last rig started in that immediate vicinity, and the first successful completion since the discovery well.

Plans for drilling the well deeper will await developments, the contractors stated Tuesday morning. They do not anticipate any trouble since there has been no difficulty encountered in getting the casing seated, and drilling the sand.

GERMANY NOT TO SEND TROOPS NEUTRAL ZONE

Assurance is Given Premier Millerand by German Charge d' Affairs at Paris

By HENRY WOOD
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

PARIS, March 30.—Dr. Wilhelm Mayer, the German charge d' affaires, today notified Premier Millerand that his government pledges itself not to send additional troops into the neutral zone, as provided in the peace treaty, without authorization by the allies.

Mayer's action followed threats of vigorous action by the French government. Premier Millerand was quoted by the Matin as declaring:

"The French are ready to advance from Mayence and occupy Frankfort, Darmstadt, should the German reichswehr further penetrate the neutral zone.

"I hope the allies will act jointly but France will act alone if necessary." The foreign office previously had announced that about 8,000 reichswehr troops had entered the neutral zone without allied consent.

Hugh Wallace, the American ambassador, today handed Millerand President Wilson's note favoring German occupation of the Ruhr district and opposing extension of the allied zone of occupation, but there were no indications that the French intended to abide by Wilson's suggestions. The president also argued against sending allied troops into the areas held by German communists, it was said, taking the stand that Germany should be allowed to settle her own troubles as far as possible.

Observers saw the president's position as directly opposed to that of Millerand.

STAGE HAS BEEN SET FOR THE OLD GUARD TO CONTROL CONVENTION

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The stage has been set and the strategic lines all drawn for the old guard to control the convention at Chicago, write the platform and nominate a "safe and sane" candidate for the presidency.

The same reactionary forces that caused a split in the republican party in 1912 are again in control and will be satisfied with nothing at Chicago which does not deliver control to them of the national organization, lock, stock and barrel.

This situation forecasts the ditching of Johnson and Wood and the nomination of either Harding or Lowden. The handwriting for this is plain on the wall. The progressives will never have a "look-in" at Chicago. The situation is well understood by Wood and particularly by Johnson. It explains Johnson's outbursts of denunciation against Wood, and his complaints that "money" is being used in unlimited quantities in all the campaigns, except in the Johnson management. Little cash is being used by the Johnson managers, because they haven't got it and can't get it. Johnson is already a "dead one" as far as the nomination is concerned. He has no chance now for the nomination, and this is manifest to every political observer in Washington. It is also manifest to Johnson and the louder his protests at the campaigns of the other candidates the more convinced he is becoming that the "interests" have him in a pocket and are laughing at his campaign. The "Old Guard" has never forgotten or forgiven the Johnson action in California whereby Johnson had himself elected to the senate and the Hughes campaign at the same time was a dismal failure in that state. Principally for this reason and because also they fear and hate Johnson's progressive policies they have determined to defeat him at Chicago, and they will be able to carry out their plans. The scheme is to nominate a standpatter like Lowden or Harding and select some progressive from the west to molify that section and assure no defection in November from the progressives in that part of the country.

AMERICAN PEOPLE NOT TO KNOW NOMINEES OF THE OLD PARTIES UNTIL THE CONVENTIONS ARE HELD

By HRAROLD D. JACOBS
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

NEW YORK, March 30.—Political conventions and primaries to date apparently indicated just one thing—that the American people will know what will be republican and democratic candidates for president after the national conventions in June and no sooner.

Never in recent political history was public sentiment so widely diffused regarding the eligibility of candidates. There are now veritable droves of eligibles. Just how little the results of state conventions and primaries already held really mean is shown by the fact one candidate in each party whom political students figure as sure to be "in the running" at the national convention have so far received no official endorsement. These men are Herbert Hoover and Wm. G. McAdoo. The former is now generally regarded as a republican, yet the only delegates pledged to him are three democrats. The latter has definitely refused to enter any primary, maintaining that all delegates should be uninstructed.

Republican conventions and primaries to date show the following results.

Arizona, 6 Wood pledged.
Connecticut, 14 uninstructed.
Florida, 8 uninstructed.
Georgia, 17 uninstructed.
Kentucky, 26 uninstructed.
Louisiana, 12 uninstructed.
Maine, 12 uninstructed.
Minnesota, pledged 10 Wood, 2 contested.
New Hampshire, pledged 8 Wood.
New Mexico, pledged 6 Wood.
North Carolina, 28 uninstructed.
North Dakota, pledged 10 Johnson.
Oklahoma, 20 uninstructed.
South Dakota, pledged 10 Wood.
Virginia, pledged 6 Wood, 9 Lowden.
Philippines, pledged 2 Wood.

This gives a total of 48 instructed delegates for Major General Leonard Wood; nine for Governor Frank O. Lowden and 10 for Hiram Johnson.

Of the uninstructed delegates Lowden expects to get 14 from Connecticut, 17 from Georgia, 26 from Kentucky and 18 from Oklahoma, a total of 75. Wood expects to control eight from Florida, 12 each from Louisiana and Maine and two from Oklahoma, a total of 34. This makes Lowden's possible total to date 84; Wood 82 and Johnson 10.

This leaves Hoover, Harding and Poindexter entirely out of consideration and puts Johnson far behind in the running. Political observers, however, are certain these four men must be reckoned with.

QUESTION OF THIRD PARTY IS WORRYING OLD TIME LEADERS

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 30.—Will there be a third party or even two third parties because of the disagreement between President Wilson and William J. Bryan among the democrats and the personal animosities among the republican candidates?

This question is causing considerable interest and speculation in political circles here.

In 1884 the republicans divided over issues and a democratic president was elected, the first in twenty-five years.

In 1896 the democrats had a terrible row among themselves, and the split resulted in election of a republican president and the republicans remained in national control for 16 years.

At the end of that time the republicans fell out again among themselves and a democrat was sent to the White House. The democrats have been in power ever since.

There is much talk of a bolt at Chicago and also at San Francisco. If only one party splits the victory of the undivided party is certain, to judge from the past political history in this country. The third party has always been a failure in our political history, and this, perhaps, explains largely why Samuel Gompers refuses to allow organization of a labor party.

Party divisions are to be expected but if these differences go so far as to split the party, defeat is certain.

It is to be hoped that the differences in both parties will be settled before the conventions and that both parties will enter the campaign and the November elections presenting a united front to each other.

There is much unrest and uncertainty in the air just now, which is always the case after a great war—it was so after the Civil War—and there may be many surprises before the ballots are counted in November. At present it seems that both parties are fighting like cats and dogs among themselves, rather than paying attention to the common enemy. Perhaps the differences will be ironed out before the conventions.

CHARGE CONGRESSMEN THREW POWDERED POISON AT MEXICO CELEBRATION

EL PASO, March 30.—The Mexico national congress has submitted a memorandum to President Carranza requesting that he authorize the attorney general to punish a high official for causing the arrest of two congressmen, according to a Mexico City newspaper.

The police charged the congressmen threw powdered poison mixed with confetti during the recent reception of Ygnacio Bonillas, held in Mexico City.

Governor Magro answered, according to the newspaper, that the guilt of the two was positively established as quantities of the poison were found in their pockets and that when this fact became known their arrest was necessary as a means of protecting them against violence at the hands of the crowd.

The poison was thrown, it was said, while the street demonstration for Bonillas was at its height and many of the onlookers became ill and fainted from the effects of the poison. Among them was Governor Juan Magro.

The two congressmen have been released pending investigation.

KENTUCKY WOMEN VOTE IN PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 30.—Suffrage for women in Kentucky in the next presidential election apparently is assured by the signature yesterday of Governor Morrow of the measure passed by the legislature granting women the right to vote for presidential electors.

Action of the governor was withheld until the last day alloted him, it was said, in the hope that another state would ratify the constitutional amendment and thus give the general ballot to women throughout the country. The legislature provided for a separate ballot.

REPORT IS RECEIVED ON MURDER OF MAC CURTAIN

LONDON, March 30.—The London Times has received a dispatch relative to events at Cork, Ireland, prior to the assassination of Lord Mayor MacCurtain. The dispatch was sent by a well informed correspondent, the newspaper says, and follows:

"It has been ascertained that on the night of March 17 there was a circle meeting of the Irish republican brotherhood which was attended by Lord Mayor MacCurtain and other prominent persons. At this meeting seven members of the brotherhood were expelled from the organization. It is significant that one of the persons present, was fired upon after leaving the meeting and that on the night of March — Lord Mayor MacCurtain was shot dead. It is stated that at this meeting accusations were made of infidelity to the cause of the Irish republican brotherhood."

DES MOINES, IA., March 30.—Returns compiled this morning from municipal elections throughout the state yesterday show that the candidates who avowedly had made their campaigns on labor tickets were, for the most part, elected. In Sioux City, Wallace M. Short was apparently re-elected. He led the labor ticket. In Waterloo, Nelson W. Frisbee, labor candidate, was elected by a comfortable majority. All but two members of the Frisbee ticket were elected.

Cedar Rapids, under commission form of government, re-elected J. F. Rail, the present mayor. In Burlington, Thomas J. Smith defeated Mayor James M. Bell for re-election. Under Burlington's commission form of government three out of five commissioners were on the labor ticket. At Clinton, labor party candidates, headed by H. W. Cowles, were successful in all but two municipal offices.

BAILEY SCORES ADMINISTRATION

was adopted by a platform committee of 31 democrats, although it was referred to by the "federalists" as the "Bailey platform," for the purpose of making the people of the state believe that it was drawn by him alone. "Their own constitution was drawn by somebody," he declared. "Why don't they give it a name? Can it be that they are ashamed of their draftsman?"

"Their constitution was drawn by a committee of seven, five men and two women. And I am not sneering at the ladies, either. If I had to take my democracy from that bunch, I would much rather get it from the ladies."

Speeches Not Characteristic

Neither the afternoon or night speech, delivered at the Labor Temple, was a characteristic speech, in that he did not indulge in the caustic personalities for which he is famous—as he expressed it, did not use the "forked tongue" which his opponents accused him of having. He discussed his own record rather sparingly, saying that the great thing at the present was attention to the principles which were fundamental to the welfare of the republic, after which, he added significantly, it would be time enough to discuss who was to be governor of Texas.

The driving campaign which he has been conducting seemed to be telling on him in the beginning of his speech, he being rather hoarse and making himself heard with difficulty, but as he warmed to his subject his voice strengthened and assumed the resonant and confident tones which are characteristic.

At the evening speech, at the Labor Temple, he devoted the greater part of the time to a discussion of his attitude toward organized labor, declaring that he believed it not only the privilege of the laboring men to organize, but a duty to themselves and families to organize and obtain fair wages and comfortable living conditions for themselves and families, assailed the league of nations and criticised the federal child labor law.

Refers to Record.

In referring to the fact that he had been criticised by his opponents on the grounds that he had never done anything while in congress, he referred to the fact that he was nominated by the democratic caucus for speaker of the house, at the beginning of his third term, being chosen over two veteran and worthy democrats, and an honor accorded by the democrats to no other Texan, and later, in the senate, had been, by the unanimous consent of his associates, called to act as minority leader during the illness of the leader, the youngest man who had ever so acted for the democratic party.

"They accuse me of being opposed to the income tax law," he said. "At the time this amendment was submitted, the New York Sun, then a rank republican organ, owned by J. P. Morgan, upbraided the republican party for allowing me to get the income tax amendment by with the aid of a feudal minority and a few dissatisfied republicans."

"But, in always advocating an income tax law, I never dreamed that such a law as we have now would be enacted.

"I can't believe that the present law is democratic, for in many instances it penalizes prosperity by taking away more money than it leaves a man for himself and family, and it taxes the stenographer, the clerk, the bookkeeper, the farmer, mechanic and day laborer before he has made enough to provide for himself and family.

Distribution of Taxation.

"I believe that the man with property should make the main contribution to the support of the government. The man without derives nothing from the government save the protection of his life and liberty — certainly two very precious things. And he in return aids the government in protecting himself by fighting its battles, and enforcing its laws through the jury box. The man with property, in addition, derives the protection of his property, in addition to the other benefits, and it is only right that he should pay toward the upkeep of the government.

"But it is no crime to be rich—it is something that everyone would like to be. And a man should not be penalized for so being.

"I firmly believe in the principle of an income tax law, am, in fact, the father of the amendment, and fought for it during all my service in congress, but I believe in an equitable tax.

"It is the most just tax which has ever been devised, because it rises and falls with a man's ability to pay it."

Criticises Extravagance.

From this point Mr. Bailey launched into a criticism of the extravagance of the present administration, and called attention to the fact that its proponents had no promise in their platform to correct it. The expenses of the government for the coming year, will run more than $5,249,000,000, a sum almost staggering the human imagination. "They say that this is war expense, but it comes 12 months after we have been at peace—except on paper—and then only by reason of the fact that President Wilson would not allow us to make peace except that we take with it the league of nations he has devised, and of the amount only $1,000,000,000 for interest, and $80,000,000 for the relief of the families and dependents of the men who gave their all for us in the war, is war expense. The rest, over $4,000,000,000,is for the ordinary running expenses of the government."

Mr. Bailey also caustically referred to the 300,000 increase in the number of federal employes and officials during the past seven years, and contrasted this with the statement on the part of Clay, Calhoun and Webster that if the number of federal employes ever grew to be more than 100,000, it would prove a menace to the government, as with their organization, these employes could prove a great force in the swinging of elections. The speaker declared that the number of these employes and officials was now 700,000, and referred to the number of federal officials and employes who attended the meeting at Dallas, which is in control of the pro-administration movement in Texas.

Says Tax Is Unjust.

In dealing with the present federal taxes, which he denounced as too high and unjust, he declared that if they were needed by the country, it would be right to take the money to the last penny, but being levied to support an extravagant government, the levy of the taxes was a crime.

"They tell you that these taxes come from the swollen fortunes of the rich," he said. "But do they?"—a question which he followed by a discussion of the taxes levied on medicines, on telephone and telegraph messages, and on railroad tickets.

He laid particular emphasis on the present tariff law, which he declared that friends of the administration hailed as a great achievement on the part of the administration. "This law," he said, "which we are asked to regard as such an achievement, has taken all the import tax off everything which comes from the farm, from the ranch and from the garden, and has left the tax as a protection for the manufacturer.

"For instance, under this law, a manufacturer of clothes can ship his clothes abroad and exchange them for raw material, say wool, and return this to this country without the payment of a tax. Bu tthe wool grower who ships his wool abroad and who exchanges them for clothes must pay a tax of 50 per cent on his clothes, and this under a 'democratic' tariff."

Cites Statistics

He then cited statistics derived from the wool importation and the import taxes paid during one of the last years during which there was an import tax on wool, and declared that the saving to the manufacturers on this one item was equal to 9 per cent return on every dollar invested in the clothes manufacturing business in the United States.

"I believe in a tariff for revenue only, levied impartially on the raw materials and on the manufactured article. I believe that the manufacturer is at least as able to pay this tax as the farmer and rancher."

In speaing of the Federal Reserve banking act, Mr. Bailey stated that he was willing to approve it, if it is amended in order to make the Federal Reserve notes legal tender, and make it possible to discharge any obligation with it in the face of objections, and to remove the control over the amount of money issued by these banks from the hands of the bankers.

In the latter connection he declared that there is a constant temptation on the part of the bankers to issue more money, on account of the profit so derived, and inflate the currency, adding to the high cost of living. "Even were all the bankers of the United States as able and capable as I know some of the Wichita Falls bankers to be, still I would not vest this dangerous power in their hands, nor in the hands of any group of men."

Wins in Congress

In passing, Mr. Bailey also mentioned the fact that through friends in Congress, he had stood for, and through their efforts won out, on the contention to make the paper issued under this law of duration sufficiently long to be of advantage to the people of this district, instead of making the time limit on this credit 45 days, as was first proposed, and furthermore had succeeded in having the money issued by the government instead of by individual banks, losing, however, in his fight to have these notes made legal tender.

"The pro-administrationists had better go slow, however, in handling this law as a Democratic achievement. The system originated in the brain of Nelson W. Aldrich, that stalwart Rhode Island republican. He introduced a bill while I was in the senate embodying exactly these same principles, with the single exception that he called his central bank a National Bank instead of federal reserve law, and instead of regional reserve banks, he called the district banks branches of the national bank.

Did Not Sign Report

"I did not sign the committee report on that bill, and every democrat in the senate applauded me.

"A great part of the law now on the statute books, and hailed as a democratic achievement, is taken bodily and word for word from that Aldrich bill." In discussing the prohibition amendment Mr. Bailey referred to the fact that his opponents had declared that he was here to "bring whiskey back to Texas," declaring that such a thing was beyond his power to do, and that he would not wish to do this, if he could. "I am glad that the prohibition question is out of politics, if it is out," he said. "It got so at one time here that a man could deliver the most masterly exposition of the problems and issues before the people of this state, and as he was about to finish some wizened individual in the outskirts of the crowd would rise and ask him how he stood on the Pro-hi-bition question, and if he didn't answer as this individual wanted him to, all other principles he had advocated would go in the discard. The people of South Texas would vote for a rascal if he was an anti, against a wise man if he were a prohibitionist, and the people of North Texas for a fool if he were a prohibitionist, against an anti no matter of how able he might be. The question introduced more little men into Texas public life than all other powers combined.

Says Question Transferred.

"However I am doubtful if the question is out of politics. It is transferred from state to national politics. Through this prohibition amendment, which we are called on to hail as an achievement, all the powers over this question which we retained in Texas, are transferred to the federal government." Even now there is a candidate for president on a "beer and light wines" platform. Under the power which is given congress "to define what constitutes intoxicating liquor, and which is now fixed at an alcoholic per cent of one half of one per cent, congress could as legally fix the limit at 10 per cent, and it would be sold here under the sanction of the federal government, with your own officers helpless and your own laws without force.

"If, when the antis were in the majority in congress, they had submitted an amendment saying that the right of any person to manufacture and sell whiskey or intoxicating liquors should not be bridged by any law passed by any of the states, you would have cried out that it was an outrage, and I would have cried out with you.

"I think that the time will come when the people of the states will rue the day when they allowed this inherent rigit to pass from the state to the federal government."

Discusses Labor Question.

At the evening speech at the Labor Temple, Mr. Bailey spent some time in stating his position on the right and duty of laboring men to organize and derive fair compensation and fair living conditions for themselves and families, without, however, referring to the open shop agitation recently prevalent in the state. He assailed the child labor law as unconstitutional, and condemned the roundabout way of its passage as a rider on a revenue measure, asserting that no one of the congressmen who voted for it had the slightest idea that it would ever be put into effect, and further condemning it as an additional usurpation by the federal government of an inherent state right.

In condemning the League of Nations he declared himself against any covenant under which American soldiers could be sent, and their lives lost in behalf of other people and in settling other people's quarrels. He further declared that under the league as now proposed, and on which the administration has insisted, that the half clothed and half civilized natives of the Fiji Islands had as much authority and weight in deciding questions before the league as Americans citizens.

Packed to Capacity.

Both the Wichita theater and the Labor Temple were packed to capacity, and many were turned away, unable to secure entry, to either performance. At the conclusion of his afternoon speech, which ran until 5:30, Mr. Bailey asked the pardon of the audience for holding them so long.

Mr. Bailey was introduced at the afternoon address by Judge John C. Kay, a traditional anti-Bailey man. Judge Kay was presented by Mayor J. B. Marlow, also a bitter opponent on former occasions. At the speech at the Labor Temple he was presented by Rev. P. E. Bingman of the First Methodist church. After the second address Mr. Bailey visited the Camel Athletic Club, addressing a few words of greeting to the crowd.

Nearly 100 Wichitans and Wichita countians were on the platform at the theater, including Frank Kell, J. B. Marlow, Edgar Scurry, R. M. Waggoner, John C. Kay, T. H. Bass, W. W. McGregor, Harry Weeks, John W. Hornsby, W. J. McCallister, J. W. Stone, James Calvert, H. B. Hines, Sam Kruger, Orville Bullington, W. P. Larkin, E. L. Fulton, E. S. Whitelaw, R. L. Eads, H. F. Weldon, J. M. McFall, R. H. Ward and C. L. Bass.

STATE APPLICATION FOR A CONTINUANCE IN CASE OVERRULED

RICHMOND, TEX., March 30.—The state's application for a continuance in the Blue Ridge case was overruled by Judge M. B. Munson in district court this morning, and the trial begun.

One of the state's principal contentions was that several interests involved were not represented as parties to the suit.

The judge stated that if, as the trial progressed, it becomes apparent that these interests should be represented, he will grant a continuance later.

When the trial began today Judge Munson first heard arguments on exceptions urged by the state.

The principal one of these exceptions is that the plaintiff in the suit, Bassett Blakely, should have obtained permission of the legislature to bring suit against the prison commission. The jury was excused until tomorrow.

Sale of the Clint Wood building to R. M. Waggoner, which has been in the process of negotiation for the past several days, was jointly announced by C. Clint Wood and R. M. Waggoner, the former and new owners respectively. The consideration, while not named exactly is around $1,000,000, it was announced. Possession is to be given in the near future.

The name of the building is to be changed to the Bob Waggoner building Mr. Waggoner stated.

The building, seven stories in height, is one of the finest and handsomest buildings in the state, having a number of features both in the quality of construction materials and the manner of the building not found in the ordinary office building, notably in the case of the office floors, where the entire woodwork consists of the finest obtainable grade of hardwood.

The banking room, on the first floor which Mr. Waggoner announces, as has been the understanding in the past, will be the "Home of the Wichita State Bank", is to be one of the finest examples of interior decoration and ornamentation to be found in the country, its decorative features being enhanced by the handpainted work of interior decoration artists of the first calibre. It is reported that the cost of the finishing of this room alone is to run to an amount close to six figures, and that the banking fixtures which have been ordered for the room are to represent an outlay of a similar amount.

Construction work was started in February 1912, and will be finished in another two or three months. The transaction was handled direct by Messrs. Wood and Waggoner.

INTERSCHOLASTIC MEET AT OLNEY APRIL 16-17

The district interscholastic league meet will be held at Olney on April 16-17, it was announced on Tuesday by County Superintendent Hall. This is the annual meeting of the Fourth District Interscholastic League meet. The fourth district is composed of ten eight counties as follows: Archer, Young, Montague, Wichita, Clay, Throckmorton, Wise and Jack. Representatives will be present from various schools of the district.

WOMEN WILL NOT BE ON THE TICKET FOR SCHOOL BOARD

Withdrawal of both Mrs. M. M. Adickes and Mrs. J. W. Lee, candidates for school board positions who were nominated by a mass meeting of members of mothers and women's clubs and church societies, from the race was decided upon Monday, and will be formally announced at a meeting in progress at the Kemp Library this afternoon. This meeting was originally called for the purpose of perfecting plans for putting the nominees' candidacy before the voters, but developments have made it advisable, in the opinion of officers of the organization formed at the first meeting, to withdraw the candidates. Both Mrs. Adickes and Mrs. Lee requested that the organization that nominated them, and on whose insistence they agreed to make the race, accept their resignations, and withdraw their nominations.

The understanding that two of the three school board members whose terms expire at this time, had expressed their intention of retiring, was responsible for the determination of the women of the city, particularly those interested in school work, to put out two women candidates. However, since a later impression has been gained that all three would be candidattes for re-election, the determination to withdraw resulted, according to officers of the organization.

"There is no desire on the part of the women of the city, and particularly those who took part in nominating Mrs. Lee and Mrs. Adickes for board members, to create any lack of harmony, and to work against the board," said Mrs. John C. Kay, the chairman of the organization. Tuesday morning. "Our only desire is to work for the best interests of the school, and we are desirous of co-operating with the school board, of whomever it may be formed. At the meeting this afternoon we have invited members of the school board to be present, and we expect to devise plans of co-operating with the board, in meeting the increased responsibilities that the growth of Wichita Falls has brought."

TRUSTEE ELECTIONS TO BE HELD SATURDAY

Trustee elections will be held throughout Wichita county next Saturday. Elections will be conducted in both common and independent school districts, it was announced Tuesday by Superintendent Hall. More than 100 school trustees will be elected, it is announced.

YOUNG COUNTY TOWN ENJOYING OIL BOOM

Eliasville, the quaint country village nestled among the hills of Young county, has slept for 30 years but the "boom" of the oil fields has awoke the sleeper and the tiny village is now booming with all its might. This is the report brought to Wichita Falls by Wichitans who have just returned from an oil prospecting tour of Young county. Oil has been discovered in paying quantities in the vicinity of Eliasville and the town is now the home of approximately 3,000 oil field workers, it is said. Eliasville is one of the oldest settlements of Young county, having been settled more than 30 years ago.

MANY ARE VOTING IN THE CHARTER ELECTION

A heavier vote than was expected is being polled in the city charter election, according to reports given out at noon at the two voting booths. More than 1,800 votes had been cast at noon Tuesday and it was estimated that a heavier vote would be cast in the afternoon.

So heavy was the voting early Tuesday morning at the courthouse booth that the voters stood in line waiting their turn. The line extended out of Justice R. V. Gwinn's court room and far into the hallway of the basement. Much early voting was also in evidence at the city hall booth.

PERFECT PLANS FOR LUCY GATES CONCERT THURSDAY, APRIL 8

Lucy Gates.

Arrangements were completed at a called meeting of the Musicians Club held this morning, for the concert of Lucy Gates, coloratura soprano, which will be held Thursday, April 8 at the First M. E. Church, South, corner of Tenth and Lamar. There is much enthusiasm over this concert, since all musicians and music lovers are interested in hearing the new American soprano who has substituted for Galli Curci on several occasions, and who is declared by some critics to be her equal, and some even go so far as to declare the American singer the superior of the Italian.

This interesting contest for first place honors in the singing world was precipitated by Henry T. Fink, the veteran music critic of the New York Evening Post, who startled the then Galli Curci mad New York with the thundering announcement that he considered the Gates voice far superior—and went on at length to give his reasons.

It was a revolutionary assertion, this declaration of superiority—for an American, but it found other supporting voices in the press with the result that this practically unheralded but immensely efficient and gifted American girl has been enabled to establish her claims to the prestige and recognition so long and so blindly denied to the artist of native birth. In one year Lucy Gates five times replaced Galli-Curci on programs cancelled by the latter, and each of these five concerts marks a triumph for the American, in spite of the odds of nationality, and the having to face a disappointed audience—but, as the Philadelphia Ledger voiced it, "The substitution seemed entirely agreeable to the auditors present," and the North American echoes that "Lucy Gates is every whit the equal of Galli-Curci." The Washington Herald said "Miss Gates completely eradicated the disappointment felt after the announcement that Mme. Galli-Curci would not appear."

The coming season will take Lucy Gates on a tour from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from Canada to Texas. Every date has been booked eight months in advance.

Monday afternoon the Woman's Auxiliary of the First Baptist church held an enjoyable social meeting in the parlors of the church, the occasion being turned into a farewell reception for Mrs. Gibson, who with her daughter, Mrs. R. C. Sanders, is leaving to make her home in Fort Worth for a short time. Mesdames A. B. Maples, N. O. Monroe and W. M. Scott were the hostesses. Mrs. Wiley Robertson and Mrs. Clasbey gave appropriate toasts to the departing member, expressing the general regret at her departure, and the love and appreciation felt for her by her fellow auxiliary members. Mrs. Gibson responded in an appropriate manner.

A musical program was enjoyed, Mrs. F. R. Collard giving a piano selection and an encore, and Miss Daisy Wharton favoring with violin solos. Little Miss Maples gave some readings that delighted her hearers. Refreshments of iced punch and cake were served.

RULES THAT AN UNBORN CHILD IS LEGAL ENTITY

OMAHA, NTBR., March 30.—An unborn child is a legal entity, capable of suffering and suing, Judge C. W. Sears ruled today.

Judge Sears quashed a demurrer of the city's traction company to a suit brought on behalf of little Miss Liblin who charged she suffered prenatal injury in a traction accident.

Mrs. John Liblin, the mother, suffered a bump on the head in the accident. When the baby was born it was marked with a bump on its head, similar to the one raised on the mother. Mrs. Liblin, on behalf of the child, brought suit for $50,000.

The baby's plea was that it was a regularly paid up passenger on the street car under the rule providing that children under five may ride free when accompanied by a parent.

GOVERNOR LOWDEN WILL SPEAK IN DALLAS IN MAY

DALLAS, TEX., March 30.—Gov. Frank O. Lowden of Illinois will speak in Dallas in May, Clarence Linz, chairman of the Dallas republican club, has announced. Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood and Senator Hiram Johnson of California will follow Governor Lowden. General Wood plans to speak here following his present tour of the central west states. Senator Johnson's telegram did not say when he expected to be in Dallas, but indicated that he would follow General Wood.

For your daughter's sake, use Red Cross Ball Blue in the laundry. She will then have that dainty, well-groomed appearance that girls admire. 5c. (adv.)

"THE WEAKER VESSEL" AT MAJESTIC THEATER

Mary MacLaren, Universal's special attraction star, who is at the Majestic theater in "The Weaker Vessel" has been fortunate again in receiving a role of the sort that this pretty, capable young woman likes to play. As Abby Hopkins, daughter of a small town newspaper man, Miss MacLaren pulls the heartstrings of her audience by the sheer naivity of her work.

The play itself permits of characterization such as is rarely seen on the screen, and a capable cast of players supporting the star have proven fully equal to the possibilities. Thurston Hall, Miss MacLaren's leading man, again plays opposite her in the role of J. Booth Hunter, a former matinee idol, whose propensity for letting booze get the better of him is denoted by the fact that even his associates know him as J. "Booze" Hunter.

After Abby Hopkins has left her husband a few minutes and fled to New York to escape him, Hunter comes into the restaurant where she has found work and enlists her interest by his utterly absurd pompousness of speech and manner, which overlies the true hearted manliness that is the real Hunter. His moments of inebriation do not arouse disgust as in the case of J. B Hanks, her husband, but serve only to increase her interest in the man and incite the desire to make him subtract booze from his life. Perhaps, too, she had other motives than altruism in reforming J. Booth Hunter and putting his name in flaming letters over one of the biggest theaters on Broadway.

"The Weaker Vessel" is a wholesomely sweet story of small town life and the life in New York. Much comedy and genuine humor have been injected in the production. The way Abby Hopkins Hanks pummels the person of J. B. Hanks, her husband of a few moments, after he has attempted to find her in New York, is a delight. Johnnie Cooke, as J. B. Hanks, adds the redeeming feature of humor to his "villanous" role. Cooke is a famous comedian of the old time vaudeville stage who is now doing comedy and character work for the Universal.

Paul Powell directed the production. The cast includes Ethel Ritchie, John Mackay and Anne Schaefer.

"THE GLORIOUS LADY" IN LAVISH PICTURE

Olive Thomas' third Selznick picture, "The Glorious Lady," which is at the Plaza theater today is a story which makes a strong mental appeal. And so perfectly has it been done,—so beautiful the interior and exterior settings, that the appeal made to the eye is every bit as strong. One sees a perfect replica of an English mansion house, wherein every single detail indicates a perfect technical knowledge. One is treated to gorgeous exterior settings that seem redolent of the very atmosphere of Merrie England. One is treated to what seems one long succession of beautiful pictures, each one perfect and each one marked by the perfect east so characteristic of anything that bears the Selznick imprint.

"HUCKLEBERRY FINN" IS SHOWING AT EMPRESS

A real service has been rendered not only to screen fans, but to every American who has laughed over the works of immortal Mark Twain by the screen version of "Huckleberry Finn," which opened a three days' run at the Empress theater Monday.

Not only has the delightful story of Huck and his adventures been portrayed in pictures sympathetically and with appropriate atmosphere, but the very spirit of the narrative, and its gifted author lives upon the screen. To the director, William D Taylor, who has done similar good work in "Tom Sawyer" and "Huck and Tom," and to the large cast of players headed by the youthful Lewis Sargent as Huck and Gordon Griffith as Tom Sawyer goes the credit for one of the most enjoyable photoplays of the year.

The exploits of Huck are too well known to relate here. Suffice it to say that the film takes up the story where Huck and Tom are made rich by their discovery of the treasure in the cave. Follows the kidnaping of Huck by his rascally father, his adventures on the raft on the river, his meeting with the "King" and the "Duke" and with the slave, Jim, and subsequent return to the village where he had been mourned as dead.

we'd call the new Spring Stetsons "andsome 'ats," but being strictly American from head to heel we admit that they are wonderfully good looking and then on to say that they were made in America—the country that never took its hat off to any other nation for making hats, heroes or history.

This is just a litle Spring Hat announcement in which we have injected a pat of patriotism.

We are back of these new fashions and we are back of the grand old flag under which they were built—and we enjoy the opportunity of talking about both in the same breath.

ARE CONVINCED THE REAL COUNTERFEITER IS STILL AT LARGE

Federal officials are convinced that the principal guilty in the counterfeiting scheme recently uncovered through investigations in the old field towns is still at large. It is believed that the youth held here under federal complaint was a mere "tool" in the hands of a gang of shrewd counterfeiters who used the lad to present their phony bank notes at cashiers' windows. Officials are certain that the parties guilty of "raising" $1 bank notes to $50 are somewhere in the oil regions and an extended investigation is being made.

CRIMINAL CASES TO BE TRIED EARLY IN APRIL

Several criminal cases will be tried before Judge B. F. Weldon in the 30th district court early next month, it was announced at the office of the district attorney Tuesday. The week beginning Monday April 5 will very likely be devoted to criminal cases and several felony cases will be disposed of during that period, it was announced Tuesday.

OWLS TO GIVE A PICNIC ON SATURDAY MAY FIRST

The Wichita Falls Owls are planning many social events for spring and summer months. On May the first they are going to open the Cannon Park by giving a public picnic. C. W. Pierce, state supervisor, states that the picnic will be on Saturday in order that all the school children may have a chance to go, and there will be no admission fee charged on entering the grounds. It will be free to everybody.

This will be one of the best equipped parks in the city for all kinds of sports. A good ball diamond, swimming pool, also swings and other things for the children.

The Owls have opened up their club rooms at 508 Ohio Avenue. The club rooms have shower baths, reading and writing rooms, a dance hall, boxing, wrestling and many other things for amusement.

The club rooms are open day and nigth for the free use of all members.

ONE OF THE REASONS WHY PUBLIC COMPLAINS

To The Times:

Late yesterday, preliminary to paving on Eighth street, the Water Works company without warning severed the water connection to my residence at 801 Travis and left it that way all night to the great inconvegience of a whole family. A few minutes notice would have obviated this inconvenience and it is just such careless and utter disregard of the rights of patrons which is at the bottom of so much antagonism toward public service corporations. Please tell them to stop it.

Yours truly,
N. HENDERSON.

COMPLAINT IS FILED CHARGING MURDER

A complaint alleging murder was filed in Justice R. V. Gwinn's court shortly before noon Tuesday against Walter Pointer, negro. The complaint is in connection with the death of John Parnell alleged to have occurred at 2 o'clock Tuesday morning in the "flats." Pointer's bond was fixed at $2,000 which he succeeded in making and was released from jail early Tuesday.

CALL FIELD

Civic League.

The reception which the members of the Civic League received was enough to keep them away for a long time. Five representatives motored to the field Monday night and found the community house in darkness and on one to receive them; they went back to the city. The reason for all this was that those in charge didn't know that the light fuses had been removed from the building and so were not prepared for the darkness, which they found at 8:00 o'clock. They went to find other fuses and while they were gone the committe from each city arrived and left. Later in the evening the fuses were replaced and those present made the most of the evening by dancing until 10:00.

The representatives of the Civic League promised to return Wednesday afternoon and meet the ladies of the field at the meeting of the sewing circle. This meeting will be an open meeting and all of the ladies of the field are invited. Mrs. Sheldon entertains this week and if it is found that her quarters are too small the meeting will be adjourned to the hospital.

Social Planned.

The Community Club has made plans to hold a dance on April fool's night. This dance will be entirely informal and nothing unusual is expected. Music will be furnished by the Victor band led by Mr. Fitzsimmons. The committee in charge are Miss Worth, Miss Hawkins and Mrs. Duffy.

Tennis Court in Shape.

The tennis court has been put in shape by the Community Club and from now on it is expected that it will be in use every afternoon. The court was originally fitted up for the officers of the field but has not been used for the past two years. It is in fair shape, however, and as soon as it is played upon will be very good. The wire backstop blew down in the last storm but is to be repaired.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore Leaving.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore are to leave this week for California where they will make their home. Mr. Moore came to Wichita Falls from Los Angeles.

Manager in Vernon.

Mr. Parnell and Mr. Vaughn have been away from the field all this week. Both of these men live in Vernon and the recent oil boom there has called them away. It is understood that they hold leases on a large amount of acreage and are also property owners.

Building Wrecked This Week.

The old air service supply building and hangar 14 are being wrecked this week. The mess halls at the upper end of the field have been cut into sections and moved. A large tractor has been moving these buildings much to the entertainment of the children on the field.

King Call Field Champion.

The weekly shoot of the Call Field Gun Club was featured by the shooting of R. A. King. The easy and precise way in which he smashed 48 out of 50 of the clay targets made the efforts of the rest of the shooters seem futile. Straight scores are getting common over these traps; King duplicated Gallaghers work of last week by getting his first string without a miss and then Nabb did the same thing the last time that he was up to the firing line. The shooters who have so far had the honor of wearing the championship fob are Nabb, Gallagher and King; there are several others that consider themselves in the championship class and the interest will increase as the contest goes on.

The Call Field squad engaged in a friendly contest with the first five men to face the traps and came out winner 75 to 70. The men who make up this squad are all residents of the field and new at the game. They would like to shoot squad matches with any other five men who have not been shooting more than six months. The members of the squad this week were Quinn, Steele, Loveland, Charest and Dixon.

The scores were as follows:

King	48 out of 50
Nabb	46 out of 50
Greenberg	42 out of 50
Ray	42 out of 50
Pate	41 out of 50
Deatherage	39 out of 50
Rigsby	38 out of 50
Dixon	38 out of 50
Quinn	36 out of 50
Gallagher	33 out of 50
Steele	28 out of 50
Fitzsimmons	28 out of 50
Ziegler	27 out of 50
Gibbs	26 out of 50
Charest	26 out of 50
Kloken	26 out of 50
Bowman	20 out of 50
Practice shoot
Nabb	22 out of 25
Greenberg	34 out of 50
Ray	23 out of 25
Pate	41 out of 50
Deatherage	17 out of 25
Gallagher	38 out of 50

Notes of the Shoot.

Ginsberg shot at 2 but would not let his score be printed.

Deatherage can break most of them with a 16 gauge gun; he shot one in practice.

Loveland motored back from Dallas in time to shoot once.

The wind was strong but as it was from the side it did not bother the shooters as badly as last week.

Gallagher and Pate shot a special match in which both were below form.

TO ASK FOR JURY IN TRIAL THURSDAY OF THEATER CASES

The county court cases involving against four local theater managers and four motion picture machine operators has been postponed until Thursday. Assistant County Attorney John M Martin announced Tuesday. It is understood that the defendants will fight their cases and will demand trial by jury. Much interest is being taken in the cases. Motion picture managers assert that local theaters will again be open Sunday, while county officials assert that all taking part in operation of Sunday amusements will be arrested and placed in jail pending arrangement of bond.

SHIELDS HEYSER WILL NOT BE A CANDIDATE

Shields Heyser, local attorney, Tuesday announced that he will not be in the race for district attorney. Friends of Mr. Heyser have urged him to make the race, but Mr. Heyser has declined stating that he could not leave the practice of law at this time to make the race for an office which would not pay him as much as he would make in private practice.

"I served for several years on the prosecuting side inasmuch as I was for seven years a special agent of the department of justice and I am now very well satisfied to remain on the side of the defense," Mr. Heyser said.

PEACE TREATY NECESSARY

A Times dispatch from Washington the other day, that the president would presently again lay the treaty before the senate for ratification, when circumstances warranted the belief that sober second thought would govern, makes of especial pertinence just now a recent statement from Senator Colt (rep), of Rhode Island, who said that the treaty must eventually be ratified and that the proposed resolution declaring peace "would accomplish nothing." The Rhode Island senator went on to say:

Peace has to be made. Terms have to be agreed upon. The common-sense thing to do is to stay with our associates and to make with the common enemy the peace they make.

If we permanently stay out of the League of Nations, instead of having the bulk of the world with us, we shall have forty-five nations in the league all allied against us. Our Monroe Doctrine will be gone, for the South American countries are going into the league. Our world leadership will be gone.

There is very little to be gained by throwing the treaty fight into the election except that it may be used to obscure some major domestic questions, solution of which should not be delayed. It is to be hoped that the president will again submit the treaty and that the senate may act upon its merits rather than upon partisan bias and for the procurement of political advantage. Senator Colt's suggestion of the results of our possible decision permanently to stay out of the league is not overdrawn, and the average American citizen, abhorring the role of international Ishmael, would ratify the treaty as a duty. "It would be disgraceful for this nation to seek to bring about peace with Germany on the basis of our demand that she accord to us every benefit and advantage we could have secured under the treaty of Versailles, while we assume none of the duties and obligations accepted in our behalf by the negotiators of the treaty," observes the New York Times, in commenting on the "absurd Knox resolution" to declare a state of peace. "No great nation could with dignity and self-respect seriously propose such an arrangement. There is no substitute for a peace treaty."

PLATFORM WILL FIGURE

Republicans continue to claim that the 1920 election, presidentially speaking, is already decided in their candidate's favor. But signs accumulate increasingly that all is not happy within the republican ranks and that it is going to take statesmanship and conciliation of the first water to smooth over the disputes on personalities and principles that are continually arising to harass and vex the old-time leaders who would decide among themselves just as they used to do, who shall be the nominee, what shall be the platform and which plank thereof shall be the "paramount issue."

No democrat would have cared to make the charge Senator Borah made in the open senate the other day—"that the men who are managing the Wood campaign propose to control the republican convention by the use of money," and be heaped insult on injury by waiving sensational privilege and daring the Wood managers to "go to bat" on the question if they wanted to. The Lowden and Wood managers have complaints of their own to make against each other, and their partisans are free and open in their charges and counter-charges.

Over on our other side so far there are no recriminations, probably because it hasn't progressed so far as that; but there is a growing demand that President Wilson declare his intentions toward a third term so the democratic candidates, still in the background, can come into the open and begin their campaigns.

Victory in the 1920 campaign isn't determined yet; one of the major parties has as good chance as the other up to now.

Victory in the 1920 campaign is going to depend on what the platforms are and who the nominees are and the party that seeks to win the race with an entry whose chief or only recommendation is his party regularity and his willingness to take orders from his party organization may just as well take him back to the stable.

COMMITTEE OF FORTY-EIGHT

The "committee of forty-eight" is still another political movement in Texas, which seems, from the signs at hand, to be another guise for the Non-Partisian League and other radical organizations whose ostensible purpose is to secure the nationalization of the resources and industries of the country, altho there are other less paramount issues included in their articles of faith. The effort is to get organized labor and the farmers of the country to fall in behind the radical movement to furnish it with the votes necessary for its permanence.

It is opposed by most of the real farmers' organizations who can't see the identicalness of their interests with those of other labor, and it is opposed by the conservative element in the labor organizations, like Mr. Gompers of the Federation of Labor, for instance, which wants labor to continue in its historic role of holding or seeming to hold the balance of power between the major parties and wielding thereby an influence quite disproportionate to its numerical strength.

The one chance for the radical organizations, like this new-fangled "committee," is that the old parties lost sight of the real needs and desires of the average man; and we believe that both the old parties are too sensitive to the public's wishes and the public's welfare ever to make that mistake again. Third parties have been born, and have waxed strong, but not strong enough to win themselves; but their waning, as has come invariably and inevitably, has been due mainly to the fact that the cause of the protest which gave them birth, has been taken up and remedied by the party in power, its going into power, indeed, being largely due to its espousal of the correction of the wrong.

Unsettled conditions give rise naturally to these third-party movements. Of varying sizes and importance, there are a dozen of them under way in the United States now. This "committee of 48" plan includes the consolidation of fifteen or more of them under one name or another. But the conditions which give rise to these parties of protest give notice also to the major parties of the existence of the evils complained of and bring about action for their cure.

Southern Wholesale Grocers, representing 2,000 members in the National Wholesale Grocers association, have withdrawn from the suit instituted by the national organization against the packers on the very tenable ground that the relief sought has been secured under the dissolution agreement secured by Attorney General Palmer in his action against the "big five." The national association filed suit for an order forbidding the packers from shipping groceries in refrigerator cars owned by the claiming that the practice represents unfair competition. Discontinuance of that practice, as we recall it, was one of the features of the agreed judgment secured by Mr. Palmer, with the reasonable concession on his part that the packers should be given time to obey the order without undue injury to their own business but the time given seems to be unsatisfactory to the national grocery organization, altho apparently quite satisfactory to the members in the Southern organization. One of the most difficult things about laws regulating or governing the packers is to ascertain what is needed to curb what threatened to become serious. There is all sorts of divergent opinion among those who presumably should know better than the average man what is needed; it is not to be wondered at, then, that the average man, is so much at sea.

Senator Borah's idea of a limit on pre-convention campaign funds is liberal enough—$10,000 to each state, for $480,000 ought to be as much as any candidate could desire to spend to secure the nomination. After that "the lid is off," for the party managers step in to take care of the financial end of the game, and they'll spend all they can get without fear of anything to come afterward. Borah's purpose—to prevent anybody buying the nomination—is laudable, even if such an instance is most unlikely if not impossible, and his idea of publicity for contributions also is good, since that would disclose, if truthfully made, any illicit contributions for ulterior ends. Mr. Borah's present activity seems founded largely upon the fact that Wood and Lowden are making a runaway race in the presidential primary sates in which they are entered, and both Wood and Lowden are far from the Idaho Senator's presidential ideals. At that, though, the legislation he proposes is of permanent benefit and deserves consideration, regardless of the animus behind it.

Business is picking up. The former Senator isn't carrying out the role of gracious and forgiving good humor attributed to him as permanent by his friends. "Infamous liar," "slanderer" and the like are remindful of old times. They serve also to indicate to the politically sophisticated that things aren't going so well as anticipated; that the boys who were expected to scuttle for cover aren't scuttling worth a cent.

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST

What Home's Intended For.

When the young folks gather round
in the good old-fashioned way,
Singin' all the latest songs gathered from the newest play,
Or they start the phonograph an'
shove the chairs back to the wall
An' hold a little party dance, I'm happiest of all,
Then I sorter settle back, plumb contented watchin' her,
An' I tell myself most proudly, that's what home's intended fer.

When the laughter's gaily ringin' an'
the room is filled with song,
I like to sit an' watch 'em, all that glad an' merry throng,
Fer the ragtime they are playin' on the old piano there
Beats any big-toned music where the bright lights shine an' glare,
An' the racket they are makin' seems to make my pulses stir,
So I whisper in my gladness, that's
what home's intended fer.

Then I smile an' say to mother, let 'em move the chairs about,
Let 'em frolic in the parlor, let 'em
shove the tables out,
Jus' so long as they are near us, jus
so long as they will stay
By the fireplace we are keepin', harm
will never come their way,
An' you'll never hear me grumble at the bills that may occur,
Fer the damage they are doin'—that's what home's intended fer.

RIPPLING RHYMES.

By WALT MASON.

Ever Higher.

We all are after higher wages, the old time stipends won't suffice; and even clergymen and sages rear up and say, they've raised the price. The price is multiplied by seven, though nothing has increased in worth; it costs us more to go to heaven, it costs us more to stay on earth! Today I met a red-eyed father, whose firstborn just arrived on deck; he said: "It is a beastly bother—it's left my bank account a wreck. The doctor soaked me good and plenty, though he just came and skipped away; the nurse, a dame of three times twenty, demands five sesterces a day. This offspring graft is vain and giddy, it leaves me with two arctic feet; how shall I feed that little kiddie, when he is old enough to eat?" And then I met the village sexton; he said he'd dug a grave for Jones; "it was a bargain, but the next 'un will cost the buyer two more bones." The price of everything is humming, each day it makes a record new; the blamed thing gets us when we're coming, it gets us when we're going, too.

WHY?—

do our teeth chatter when we're cold?

(Copyright, 1920, by Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

The little muscles which close the jaw are acted on by the cold in such a way that they pull the jaw up and then let it fall by its own weight. This, repeated many times, very rapidly, causes the teeth to click together and produce what we know as "chattering." We think of it in connection with our teeth because it is the teeth which make the sound, but the cause lies in the same muscles which we use in chewing or in opening our mouth when we speak.

The chattering occurs in spite of the will or the brain. We have very little control over it and can stop it only by clenching the teeth. It is really a mild variety of spasm caused by the cold, which acts on the jaw muscles in much the same way that some poisons produce muscular spasms which cannot be controlled.

Tomorrow's question — WHY do stars twinkle?

HOROSCOPE

"The stars incline, but do not compel."
(Copyright, 1918, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Tuesday, March 30, 1920.

Astrologers read this as a quiet day, although not a really fortunate one. Jupiter and Neptune are strongly adverse.

During this planetary government vision regarding the business and financial conditions of the country may be rather blurred, for Neptune is in an aspect making for more or less discouragement.

Caution on the part of bankers, merchants and manufacturers may be evident at this time owing to unsettled state of government affairs.

While there may be fear of money stress and even bank failures, alarm is declared by the seers to be unnecessary, and they warn Americans to work more and talk less.

The stars believed to encourage oratory will be powerful in the coming months of summer, and will affect women as much as men, but the rule that may be beneficial in respect to public meetings will adversely affect private life, making for gossip and scandals.

Education has the best sort of rule, and the training of children will engross the attention as never before during the autumn months.

Stringent laws limiting and even preventing child labor are prognosticated as the next forward step in the United States.

Danger of religious and racial troubles is probable as the spring advances.

While many sinister signs seem to be seen in the position of the stars, the seers explain that the nation, underneath apparent differences of opinion on national questions, is welded together more securely than ever before.

The fall of an ancient building somewhere about the fourteenth degree of east longitude has been prophesied, and this may be due to an earthquake.

Persons whose birthdate it is have rather a quiet outlook for the year. Financial affairs will proceed about as usual.

Children born on this day are likely to be most fortunate in each forward step in life. These subjects of Aries usually have very helpful friends.

Side Talks

By RUTH CAMERON

SHE DID NOT GO HOME TO MOTHER.

A married couple whom I knew agreed to try single harness, for a time at least, because the husband had such an unbearable temper that the wife could not stand it.

There is nothing so terribly startling about that. The startling thing is this—the wife did not have to go home to mother, but was invited to make her home with his mother.

This Mother Looked the Facts in the Face.

"I have always known that my son had this unbearable temper," said his mother, "and I did what I could to help him overcome it in his youth, but he would not do his share. I always said that if he had a wife who did her part and could not get along with him, I would stand by her. I consider she has, and I am ready to stand by her."

The ultimate outcome was that the husband, who really loved his wife in his own selfish way, learned a lesson and they are living together again.

Now if the mother had stood by him because he was her son, and made him feel himself badly treated instead of making him realize by her stand that he was in the wrong, do you think that this happy outcome would ever have come to pass? Personally, I doubt it.

And I honor that mother.

Too Much of This Feeling.

I think there is altogether too much of the "my son (or my daughter) may be right; but right or wrong, my son" feeling among in-laws.

And I think it is one of the bad influences that go to make it hard for in-laws to get along happily with each other when they might have been friends if they hadn't been relatives.

Of course the feeling does not always get itself put into words, but it is there and each party to the contract can feel it is there and resents it. Nothing sets anyone on edge like the feeling of injustice, and even this potential injustice can do a lot of rankling.

She Knew She Would Be Treated Justly.

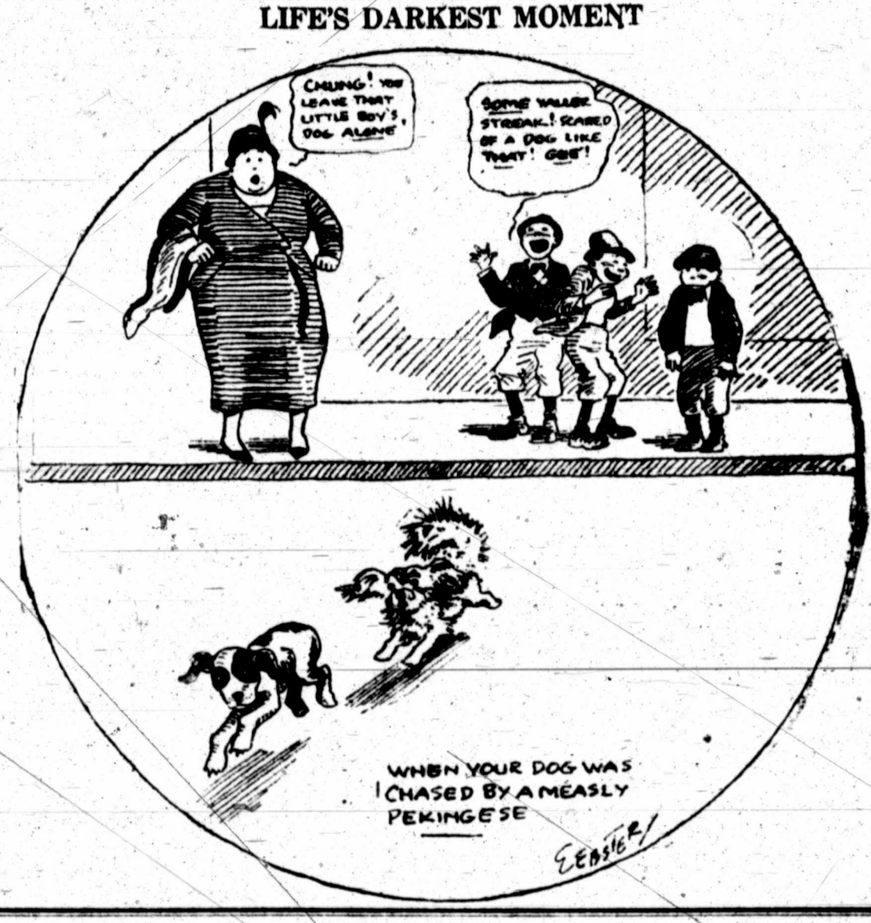

A woman once told me that she loved her husband's mother as well as her own. "She is a lovely woman," she said, "and she has always been so wonderfully just. I know that she would never stand by Ralph if he did not do the right thing by me."

No wonder she loves and trusts the older woman! Justice is the highest, finest thing in the world, and when you know it is the prime motive force in a character and will not be made subservient to family feeling or any other consideration, you can certainly feel the strongest confidence in that character.

VERNON BUDGET

INCREASING ACTIVITY AT VERNON RESULT PRESCOTT-PEORIA WELL; STORAGE FACILITIES ARE ERECTED

By A. C. McCONNELL.

VERNON, TEX., March 30.—The directors of the Prescott-Peoria well, which went over the top three times in succession last week, will hold a meeting in Vernon this week and take up some definite action as to their future program. Meanwhile storage facilities are being rushed to completion to take care of the oil that the well is spouting. A control head is still over the hole, but flow tanks are set up to take care of the waste oil coming from the well, which has been running into the slush pit. A connection has been made from the casing to the flow tank. One storage tank of 1,500-barrel capacity is erected, another being erected and additional storage facilities being hastened to the well.

The town is full of oil men eagerly awaiting the outcome of the well. Oil men are variously predicting the well will make from 1,000 to 3,000 barrels daily production.

To Drill More Wells.

Arrangements are being made to drill additional wells on the company's lease. Other companies are being formed rapidly to develip nearby acreage. The Prescott people are going to sell a portion of their acreage as the lease is too large for one company to develop. They have tamed a wildcat and other companies are eagerly seeking acreage nearby.

Housing conditions are not improved. Hotels are putting out S. R. O. signs. It is reported that one of the exchanges at Wichita Falls is seeking quarters in the heart of the business section for an exchange. Private wires from Fort Worth and Wichita Falls will be maintained. The exchange building has no more room to rent and oil promoters are seeking quarters, with rents soaring.

Bailing the Tee-Pee.

Bailing out of the Tee-Pee well, which went over the top last Thursday, has been delayed by various obstacles. The well caught fire Friday afternoon from gas which came up out of the hole, as the crew were just finishing setting the casing. Fortunately they had steam up at the time and plenty of water available, and the fire was extinguished before material damage resulted. The derrick was slightly damaged by the flame. The well will not be bailed out with a rotary. The rotary is being removed and a star installed. There is plenty of oil being brought up through the 1,700 feet of mud and water in the hole, from which the rotary mud and water has never been bailed out. It is thought the well will be bailed this week. There is not yet enough storage tanks on the lease to take care of the flow from the well, should it measure up to expectations—around 1,000 barrels. Large crowds are still visiting the well, which continues to make an extraordinary showing of oil and gas.

Heavy Gass Pressure.

This well has picked up a heavy gas pressure being in virgin territory and the drillers were not expecting the heavy eruption of mud, oil and gas, at the time it blew in. Oil men say this well is bidding fair to open a new pool and that the Piper field will be extended to a distance of five miles in a strip about three-quarters of a mile wide, or about the same width as the producing part of the Piper wells. Before the gas pressure was exhausted on the Piper farm big wells came in. Now since the gas pressure is being more extinct small wells are the result.

It is reported that the American Eagle, drilling on the Sam Kelly farm in section 4, block 13, has struck a sand at about the same depth of the Tee-Pee. Six and five-eighths inch casing is being set. This test will prove up much questioned territory.

Many Leases Transferred.

The wave of oil and gas that spouted over the Tee-Pee, Waggoner gasser and the Prescott wells tore the lid off and the stock brokers at the exchanges, curb stone brokers and traders were doubly busy transferring leases at soaring prices. So impressed were the officials of the Prescott wells that subsequent deals in oil holdings in that vicinity and in town lots at Vernon were roughly estimated at $5,000,000. One real estate dealer reports his sales Wednesday amounted to $105,000. Some of the lease hounds got wind of the sensational break of the Prescott well Wednesday morning and were out in that vicinity before daylight, waking up farmers and acquiring acreage which they disposed of later at large margins.

A large number of contracts have been let for wells in the vicinity of the Prescott territory and rigs are being hauled to the various locations.

Trains Loaded Down.

Every train and automobile that arrives in Vernon is loaded down with passengers and visitors anxious to witness and participate in the oil boom of the next pool to be brought in in this cection. Garages are so crowded that cars are parked on the outside and guards hired to protect the cars from possible theft. Rumors are that the Fort Worth and Denver is preparing to put on an oil special from Fort Worth to Vernon. The city of Vernon is growing over night as the city is endeavoring to provide beds and quarters for the hundreds of visitors. Lumber men are predicting that Vernon will be a city of 25,000 in six months. Million-dollar deals are an every day occurrence and tenants are offering fabulous prices to their landlords to renew their leases before the great influx to Vernon.

Intense Excitement.

Vernon and Wilbarger county are in the grip of the most intense oil excitement since the halcyon days of the Wilbarger-Electra fields when W. T. Waggoner tamed the first wildcat in 1909. The immediate cause is the interesting initial performance of the Tee-Pee, Texas company's No. 1 86 Waggoner, and the Peoria-Prescott's No. 1, Wharton, followed by two completions in the Magnolia pool.

Interest in the semi-proven field became rife Sunday a week ago when the Tee-Pee well went over the top, followed by the Texas company's gusser in the Waggoner ranch, and the blowing in of the Prescott well, set Vernon in the frenzy of excitement. In addition, the fraternity is pausing long enough to learn the outcome of the Federal well on the Baker lease in block 5, who are installing a star to drill in. The Texas company is carrying their No. 186 down deeper in search of oil. The Tee-Pee is setting their 8 1-4-casing and have the well pinched down.

The old reliable field east of Vernon reports two completions the past week for oil. The Magnolia Petroleum company's No. 33, Houston and Texas Central, is making 110 barrels, and the Magnolia's No. 41, Frances Sumner, is making 40 barrels. These wells are in block 12, proven field in Wilbarger county.

It is reported the V. O. D. well, northwest of the Prescott well, encountered a pocket of gas Wednesday, which is putting pep in the oil situation. A great deal of activity is noticed in this territory.

The approach of "old age" simply means the gradual decay of the body's organs and tissues. Keep the stomach, bowels, liver, kidneys, bladder, heart and lungs in good working order and Time's fingers will touch you lightly.

At the first sign of breakdown, either physical or mental—if slight exertion makes you tired, weak, nervous or irritable—if your appetite lags, your digestion is poor, your sleep troubled and broken—in short, if you find that you're losing your "punch" and "pep" and physical energy—begin the building up process at once by taking

and it wasn't his crime

Justice sometimes goes wrong. Men are often punished for crimes they do not commit. And when we thoughtlessly take purgatives and cathartics to relieve stagnant bowels, we are committing a similar injustice.

When the system is unable to remove food waste at regular intervals, it is the food waste, and not the system, that needs correction.

Every other form of treatment either irritates or forces the system. Nujol works on the waste matter instead of on the system. By this entirely new principle Nujol will keep the poisonous waste moving out of the body.

Nujol prevents constipation by keeping the food waste soft, thus helping Nature establish easy, thorough bowel evacuation at regular intervals—the healthiest habit in the world.

It is absolutely harmless and pleasant to take—try it.

A New Method of Treating an Old Complaint

THIN PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE PHOSPHATE

Nothing Like Plain Bitro-Phosphate To Put on Firm, Healthy Flesh and to Increase Strength, Vigor and Nerve Force.

Judging from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, neck and bust, and replacing ugly hollows and angles by the soft curved lines of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who keenly feel their excessive thinness.

Thinness and weakness are often due to starved nerves. Our bodies need more phosphate than is contained in modern foods. Physicians claim there is nothing that will supply this deficiency so well as the organic phosphate known among druggists as bitro-phosphate which is inexpensive and is sold by Miller Drug Co. and most all druggists under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. By feeding the nerves directly and by supplying the body cells with the necessary phosphoric food elements, bitro-phosphate should produce a welcome transformation in the appearance; the increase in weight frequently being astonishing.

Increase in weight also carries with it a general improvement in the health. Nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of energy, nearly always accompany excessive thinness, should soon disappear, dull eyes brighten and pale cheeks glow with the bloom of perfect health.

CAUTION:—While Bitro-Phosphate is unsurpassed for the relief of nervousness, general debility, etc., those taking it who do not desire to put on flesh should use extra care in avoiding fat-producing foods.

Stop That Stomach Trouble.

Use Wood's Mystic Stomach and Liver Remedy

FREDDIE HILL TAKES EIGHT OF 12 ROUNDS

Freddie Hill beat Joe Nelson Monday night at the Camel Athletic club by taking eight rounds of a scheduled twelve round bout. Two rounds went to Nelson and two rounds were even.

Peculiarity of style of both men made the fight rather puzzling, as to who was who. Nelson, a slugger from the word go, was facing Hill, a boxer, and it was Hill's clever defense game, and longer reach that gave him the bout. Nelson was compelled to carry the fight to his taller opponent throughout most of the milling, although Hill did peck at the New Orleans boy's head with his left continually.

At the first gong the men went into a protracted clinch. They loosened up long enough for Hill to land a few to the head. Nelson came back with a couple. It was Hill's round.

The second and third were practically the same as the first, both going to Hill.

The fourth was Nelson's. Joe carried it to the Fort Worth scrapper's corner at the start, and before the round was well under way Nelson had opened a cut along Hill's right eye with a slashing left hook.

Hill took the fifth, he landed two stiff upper cuts to Nelson's chin.

The sixth was a real round. The men stood up and did some real stiff toe-to-toe scrapping. Both men landed hard and often and both missed. The round was even.

The seventh was also even, without so much action. There was plenty of clinching in this round.

The eighth went to Nelson.

Ninth tenth, eleventh and twelfth rounds were Hill's.

The ninth went to the bricklayer by a big margin. He sent a succession of rights and lefts to Nelson's head that rocked the little fellow. This was partly repeated in the tenth and eleventh.

The twelfth gave a sort of rousing touch to the finish of the bout, although it included some stuff that was not boxing. The men hit and missed, mostly missed but they were apparently trying and it took well with the fans.

Credit is due Spike Kelley, club referee, for the way he handled the scrap and kept the men going.

Previous to the main go of the evening, Joe Bailey, candidate for governor, was introduced to the fans by Judge Edgar Scurry. Mr. Bailey said a few words about the manly art of self-defense which were received with much applause by the audience.

A battle royal, a preliminary in which two youngsters got a draw, and a bout between Dale Hill and Batt Tullos of this city made up the prelims. Hill walloped Tullos to a fare thee well.

Early Murphy and Emerson Williams gave a four round exhibition and in the semi-final, Sid Martin put a kick in it and put Battling Roy, the Stockyards Bully on his back in the second round. Astraight crack to the nose did the trick.

Next Monday night, Hill will meet Solly Burns.

Ten-Inning Victory Puts New Pep Into Spudder's Practice

Salm's crew went through stiff practices yesterday and today. Two sessions were on the card yesterday and the same went through today.

With two days between them and the clash with the White Sox, the local bunch are working their heads off with the hope of taking a nick out of the Gleason clan's hopes.

Any one of the five hurlers are liable to start the first game, but it is probable that Jimmy Zinn, George Sutherland and Young Babe Ruth will do the work. Johns and Apuleton started the St. Louis games, so it is probable that the three last named will be given a chance against the white-hosed warriors from the Windy City.

The 10-inning victory over the St. Louis Cardinal rookies Sunday injected much pep into the local crew, and made considerable good feeling on Manager Salm's office. The boys Sunday demonstrated that they have the fight and the kind of fight that wins ball games. When a team will come up in the 10th inning, after retiring a side with two men on the bases an dwith two out, crack out several solid blows for a winning run, you can begin to figure that that team is going to figure strongly in deciding the argument for first place in the Lone Star league. Fight is what most ball clubs lack, but not so with the Spudders. They have it and have it in copious amounts, so it looks like a ball team.

Every one of the local bunch was tearing up the field yesterday. Pep was on display in all corners of the lot. Tanner, Snedecor, Grubb, Kitchens, even George Duddy, were hopping around like a rookie just off the cultivator.

Pemberton as usual was doing most of the fanny stuff. His capers start early in the morning, and of late they've been ending way into the evening. Roy is doing good work for Salm, however, and seems to have the second-string catching berth cinched. It was he who started the circus Sunday afternoon by garnering a walk from Mr. Bolden, and it was he who crossed the rubber with the winning marker. In distributing credit, it might be well to mention Pem, as he did his share of the work in putting it over on the Cards as did Jimmy Zinn and Johnny Mokan.

How the Spudders show up against the White Sox will be a pretty good indication of their appearance at the start of the season.

They are going good now and with the addition of Josefson, the fast outfielder, they should have a pretty good chance to give the tribe of Gleason a hard game.

MITCHELL CLAIMS RIGHT TO MEET BENNY LEONARD

MILWAUKEE, WIS., March 30.—Ritchie Mitchell today claimed the right today to meet Benny Leonard in a championship bout by virtue of his victory over Willie Jackson in a fast 10 round fight here last night.

Mitchell did all the leading in the fight with the exception of two rounds.

Not a knockdown was scored.

The Bard's Revery.

(By our own Mr. Gray.)

The curfew tolls the knell of winter's lay;
The wild-eyed Bug will soon crawl forth in glee;
The umpire homeward plods his ghastly way,
And there will be now chunks of dope for me.

The breezy call of incensed fan I hear;
The coacher twittering on the first base line;
The nut's shrill clarion rattles in my ear,
And purple dreams bring back a winning nine.

Full many a star of purest ray serene
The dull, unfathomed leagues of winter bear;
Full many a hick will blow the Big Town scene,
And waste his benders on the Bush League air.

L. G. D.

Fewer "Ifs."

The Cincinnati Reds have this early advantage—they are beset by fewer "ifs;"

The Giants have a strong catching staff, a fine pitching staff and a great outfield;

With them it is mainly this: "If only the infield holds up;"

With the Cubs it is the same—a great catcher, three fine pitchers and a good outfield; "if the infield makes good;"

With St. Louis the big "if" takes in the pitching staff. The rest of the club is first class.

But the Reds have no such "if." They are well balanced—a strong club surrounded with high-class pitching.

If Kelly and Frisch and Doyle and Fletcher round out a strong infield, the Giants have enough to carry them through. But no one can tell when an "if" is going to detonate with an astounding crash.

The Winning Combination.

Winning golf is a combination of confidence and skill—even more so than most other sports.

For whereas other sports require their share of skill in none of them does confidence play as great a part.

It is for this reason that Walter Hagen stands so high in American golf. The open champion not only possess his share of skill, but he is also imbued with the deep belief that he can hold his own in any company.

The fact that he is four or five down means nothing. His argument is this: "What the other fellow can beat me, so I can beat the other fellow. If Barnes can pick up four holes on me through the first nine, why can't I get the four holes back?"

This is all part of Hagen's philosophy. It never occurs to him to surrender hope or to quit trying. He may not win the British open or even finish among the first three or four, but you can bank upon the fact that he will be there plugging away until the final putt drops in.

Roughing It.

Some years ago when Carpentier was rising fast, American boxers always maintained that the French star was never keen for any rough mixup. He was a wonder, they said, as long as his opponent was content to stand off and box. But when it came to mixing matters at close quarters there was a different story to tell.

Carpentier was able to manhandle Joe Beckett without roughing it or being roughed.

But camp followers at large will draw a clearer bead upon his worth after they have seen him meet a slightly better man than Beckett.

Mike Brady romped around a championship course in 65 strokes. This is four strokes better than most of us do before we wake up.

No one figures the White Sox with a chance this season, but before tossing them overboard, we always think of Schalk, Collins and Weaver on the same club and then postpone the autopsy.

The ball player caught in conversation with a gambler this season isn't going to be very popular with his team mates, provided his team mates have suddenly begun to realize that suspicion, plastered on two or three, soon spreads to the entire flock. The ball player can protect the game better than any one if he will only keep his eye adjusted to any unseemly twists.

As we start out to select winners we consider what a great ball club the Red Sox looked to be just a year ago today, and this causes a brief pause. No club looked better in late March, but by late June only two clubs looked worse.

ECHOES FROM TRAINING CAMPS

Rookies and Regulars Limbering Up for the Big Show.

Smart Under Defeat.

HANFORD, CALIF.—The Chicago Cubs today were smarting under the sting of defeat handed them by Seattle yesterday in a 10-inning game, 3 to 2. The worst of it was that two former White Sox stars, Bohne and Hartford, each contributed a run that gave the Coast League team a lead.

White Sox in Austin.

GEORGETOWN, TEX.—The White Sox were in Austin today for their second consecutive game with a college nine. Yesterday they trimmed the Southernwestern University, 7 to 3, with Wilkinson and Payne on the mound. Today they were to play Texas University and incidentally take a look at "Black" Falk, the collegian touted as a second George Sisler. Falk will report to the Sox in June.

Tigers Trim Braves.

ASHEVILLE, N. C.—The cool atmosphere of this town did not prevent the Detroit Tigers from trimming the Boston Braves, 4 to 2, yesterday.

Players Are Released.

HOT SPRINGS, ARK.—Infielders Bill Webb, formerly of Birmingham, and Bernard Kerns, Salt Lake City players were released by Manager Gibson of the Pirates last night. They will join the Akron club of the International League.

Division of Spoils Furnishes Excuse for Kicking up a Fight

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

NEW YORK, March 30.—Division of the world's series spoils among the first three clubs seems to be the ideal way of kicking up a fight.

On the eve of another pennant race, the New York Yanks are still fighting about the division of last year's spoils.

Miller Huggins, it seems, allowed two players traded to the Red Sox, the ground keeper, and two assistant managers, a slice of the pie earned by the team.

Regulars of the team kicked all winter but they are said to have become mean about it yesterday to the dismay and disgust of the owning colonels.

While the Reds were warming up last fall for the post-season crack at the White Sox, a good row broke out in the Moran family when Hank Shreiber, one of the substitutes, refused to play because he didn't get a share. He later came back but it cost him his job.

Then the protests of Frank Navin, president of the Tigers, which held up the third slice of the American League pot for months, will also be remembered.

Fans saw the makings of an annual fight when the powers announced a three-way cut of the series pies. It was also branded as another act of commercialism, rather detrimental to the game.

The same arrangement will prevail this year, John Heydler, president of the National League and commission member says.

FRENCH CHAMPION CHOSE WELL WHEN HE ASKED PRETTY MLLE. ELASSER TO BE MME. CARPENTIER

By JANE DIXON

"I have never seen my husband fight."

Mme. Georges Carpentier, bride of the heavyweight champion of Europe, gazed thoughtfully across the deck of the Savoie to where admiring throngs were crowding around the happy husband.

"But surely," I said, "you will attend the world's championship bout when Mr. Carpentier meets Jack Dempsey?"

"Non, non, non," with the decision and animation of the French. "I shall not. I shall wait at home. It is better so. I could not bear to watch, even though I am sure my husband shall win."

"Do you disapprove of boxing?" was my astonished query.

"Non," smilingly. "I approve it very much—for men. To me it is not a sport for women."

"And you do not attempt to persuade your husband to quit the ring?"

"On the contrary, I am very pleased to stand back of him in everything he undertakes. I wish he might have chosen some other profession, but so long as he has done so splendidly in this one I want to see him win the world's championship and to defend it once it won."

Mme. Georges Carpentier is quite as game as the man who by reason of his fists is the idol of his people and of all Europe. She is proud of her brave husband. A soft glow of happiness seems to wrap her about like a warm cloak.

Blond, Pretty and Charming.

What is she like, this youthful French bride, who must bask in the limelight of a shuttlecock American public?

She is blond and pretty and charming.

Not pretty, with the vacuousness of the doll faced, china blue and yellow gold blonde. Something deeper and more human than this.

Her eyes are a deep violet blue, shining eyes brimful of sympathy and understanding. There are brown lights in her blond hair. Her face is softly rounded, clear of profile, carved with the chisel of character. Her mouth is a trifle too generous for the accepted standards of beauty, but the lips of it are rouged with health and pencilled with the tender curves of nature. Her teeth would be the joy of tooth paste advertisers.

There is nothing of a slinking silhouette which we hear is the really zippy notion from the boulevards. Mme. Carpentier has the straight-standing, square shouldered stature of an American college girl, of which indeed, she is a fair type. No poses. No affectations. No exaggeration of dress or speech or deportment. The French "champ" has chosen well.

This college suggestion repeated itself in Mme. Carpentier's attire, a tailleur suit of navy blue serge, with French organdie blouses braided with white, dark tan coat of duvetyn with loose lines and collar of beaver, small navy blue hat draped with long navy lace veil, black French shoes and sheer silk stockings.

"Big Blaze" Missing.

"But Mme. Carpentier is the wife of a prize fighter?" you protest. "Where are the diamond horseshoes and sun-bursts and bracelets? Where is the big blaze so beloved of sport?"

The answer is, they just simply aren't. A small, unobtrusive strand of pearls about her throat, a single pearl in a slightly diamond encrusted pin, and there the conflagration endeth. Not the sort of a girl to pull the circus stuff, championship or no championship.

I asked Mme. Carpentier if women attend bouts in Paris and if there is a growing feminine angle to them, as there seems to be in America.

"Oui," seh nodded. "Many women go. It has come to be quite a fad. In London it is different. Women do not go there. I think the French woman and the American woman have more freedom than the English."

"Will Mr. Carpentier meet Mr. Dempsey here in America?" was asked.

The reply came without hesitation.

"Perhaps—I scarcely thing so. We will be in the state about three months, then we return to Paris. The championship will probably be won in Paris or London.

Not War Romance.

When the bride spoke of her marriage those enviable teeth flashed in the early sunlight of New York harbor.

"I am sorry," she said, "but it is not a war romance. My name was Georgette Elsasser. My father was a merchant. Both my parents have passed on, so I was an orphan until Georges adopted me. No, I have never been on the stage. I lived at home and later with relatives."

"And the fateful meeting when Cupid gave the champ the count, knocked him for a goal, as it were," was suggested.

"We met at the races,' she replied. She is never happier than when speaking of her romance. "That was a year and a half ago. We were married the day before we sailed, so this is our honeymoon."

A very suspicious bouquet was carried on the bride's arm during her entire journey down the harbor. It showed the effects of the long tumultuous journey across the angry Atlantic. The delicate pink carnations had lost their freshness. But from the care bestowed upon it, I suspect this sheaf of flowers accompanied the little French bride and her stalwart groom to the altar on the day the referee pronounced a final matrimonial decision.

Carpentier and Dempsey.

What about the courageous lad who has come over here to claim the belt of the redoubtable Dempsey?

I watched Jack Dempsey during those portentous last days of the Toledo battle. I saw the stupendous spectacle out there in the arena when a superman fell before the first leap of a panther.

This morning I studied Carpentier, the pretender.

The belt will remain in the United States of America.

It will be a greater fight than the Dempsey-Willard comedy in one punch and an epilogue.

These are fighters of the same ilk—youngsters stripped to fighting form. And what a picture of contrasts.

Dempsey, with the night-black eyes, black hair, inclined to rise stubbornly, pugnacious face, sparing of smiles, bronzed like one of those Indian forebears who have indubitably left their stamp upon him.

Carpentier, blonde, bright blue eyes, hair which sheened gold as he stood at the ship's rail, and brushed straight back in the approved style of the times. Light, too, of complexion, and surely much lighter of build.

The Carpentier smile is infectious. As one may put it: "Jimminety, he sure has a mouthful of teeth." A good-natured, big-hearted, fun-loving boy from the face of him.

Pugilist Happy Bridegroom.

As the gentlemen of the press crowded around him, pumping their fusilade of questions, he bore the brunt of the fire for the better part of a half hour. Then, turning to the interpreter—neither have more than a menu knowledge of English—he waved a blythe fist in the direction of his bride and protested. "You've asked me a million questions about boxing, but none of you have inquired if I am a winner in married life."

"We don't need to," ventured one of the quickest of the squad. "Our eyesight is fine."

This seemed to please the champion more than any other incident of the landing, with the possible exception of the moment when he walked down the gang-plank and saw an outstretched hand. Some one mentioned the owner of it was Tex Rickard. "Rickard," he whispered to the bride on his arm, and forthwith the two sets of Carpentier dental china were displayed in a broad smile of genuine pleasure.

Perhaps, like all thrifty French folk, they were thinking of that signature. "Tex" is supposed to carry in the vest pocket immediately over his heart, the "Let's go' of one Mr. Jack Dempsey. And maybe it was the Rickard personality, notable for its persuasiveness and disarming quality of modesty.

Will Appear in Movies.

The Carpentiers will appear in pictures; the champion will take a whirl around the vaudeville wheel, there will be a few bouts, and then—the fight.

When and where?

"I will meet Dempsey anywhere, any time, the sooner the better," was Carpentier's challenge to America. "I can get a decision in six rounds. Dempsey is one of those rushers, the easiest kind of a fighter to beat."

Nothing to suggest the prizefighter of cauliflower days about this French lad. He wore a blue serge sack suit, blue tie, tan silk shirt patterned with a darker tan, soft green felt hat, tan polo coat, single pearl scarfpin and—the ribbon of the Croix de Guerre with three palms and of the Medal Militaire in his lapel.

When youth meets youth—where will the title go?

"I can knock out Dempsey without any trouble," smiles Carpentier.

"If Jack ever hits him he'll land in the middle of the Atlantic Ocean," sotto voiced a Dempseyite.

But as before mentioned and herein reiterated, the title will remain in the United States.

"Not a "War Bride," But Charming.

Blonde like her husband, pretty Mme. Carpentier declares she was an orphan until Georges adopted her and they were married just before sailing for America. In the picture she is still holding her bridal bouquet.

STOREY IS INJURED DURING A WORKOUT AT ATHLETIC PARK

Roy Storey, Spudder outfielder, sustained a bad cut on the bridge of his nose, several broken teeth and bruises this morning when he ran against the right field fence while chasing a long fly from Ed Appleton's bat.

The Spudders were right in the middle of their morning workout and everything and every body was going at top speed when the accident occurred. Appleton was batting to the outfield and Pete Enedecor was batting to the infield at the time. Appleton sent a long hard fly toward the right field barricade and Story ran back, but kept his eye on the ball. Just as he came to the fence, he turned but was too late to avoid the collision. He hit it with such velocity that he bounced away like a ball.

At first it was thought the nose was broken, but as soon as he was brought down town and examined by a local physician, it was found that a bad cut on the nose, broken teeth and a few small cuts on the face had resulted from the bump.

It is not thought that Storey will be kept out of the game by the bump, unless something develops from the injuries he received this morning. He suffered much pain, but with a good night's rest, it is thought that he will be ready to play again.

DALLAS NEWS SUPPORTS PROPOSAL TO BUILD AN INTERURBAN TO THIS CITY

The Dallas News is editorially supporting the proposal to permit Dallas Traction company to build a line to Wichita Falls instead of two thirty mile lines promised several years ago. The voters of Dallas are to have an opportunity to express a preference on these two propositions at the election next Tuesday. In arguing for the Wichita Falls line the Dallas News says:

"There can be no question that an interurban to Wichita Falls would be of more value to Dallas than would one to Terrell and another to Greenville. Its mileage would be more than twice the combined mileage of the two others. It would serve a larger number of people than the two others. It would enter a competitive trade territory, whereas the two others, would enter trade territories in which Dallas holds a commanding advantage, they being, indeed, sections of its commercial neighborhood. Railway communication between Dallas and Wichita Falls lacks much of being all that is desirable, whereas railroad communication between Dallas and Terrell and Dallas and Greenville is if not all that is desirable, at least much better than that between Dallas and Wichita Falls. They are within easy motoring distance of Dallas. Wichita Falls is not. The Dallas Railway company is under franchise obligation to build two interurbans out of Dallas, each thirty miles long. It is ready to discharge that obligation. But it prefers to discharge that obligation by building the much longer line to Wichita Falls, and has proposed that it be permitted to do so. The Mayor and Commissioners have referred that proposal to the citizens of Dallas by asking them to indicate by their ballots in the election of next week whether they are willing to accept the building of a line to Wichita Falls as a discharge of the obligation to build two lines of thirty miles each in other directions. The considerations set forth above, it seems to The News, show that an affirmative answer is the only sensible answer that the people of Dallas can give to the question that has been put to them."

COLLECTOR OF REVENUE IS HERE ON BUSINESS

Hon. A. S. Walker, United States collector of internal revenue for this district, arrived in Wichita Falls to spend several days with representatives of his department stationed at the Wichita Falls branch.

During his stay here Mr. Walker will be taken out for a trip through the oil fields, and will be shown the industry from which such a large part of Texas income tax is derived.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

Applicants for Insurance Often Rejected

Judging from reports from druggists who are constantly in direct touch with the public, there is one preparation that has been very successful in overcoming these conditions. The mild and healing influence of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable record of success.

An examining physician for one of the prominent Life Insurance Companies, in an interview of the subject, made the astonishing statement that one reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of those whose applications are declined do not even suspect that they have the disease. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is on sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes, medium and large.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention the Wichita Falls Times.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

SUNDAY NIGHT SERMON DISCUSSED BY READER

Editor Wichita Times:

Will you kindly permit an American by birth and inclination, who has lived for many years south of the Rio Grande, to ask if the gospel of the lowly Nazarene has been entirely banished from the churches of this city and the form of worship so changed as to include rank political propaganda, pandering to lewd sensationalism and the defamation of American womanhood?

For the first time in 16 years I embraced an opportunity Sunday night of again attending the church of my fathers, in company with my wife and 13-year-old daughter. Instead of hearing the sublime story of Holy week of long ago, we were compelled to listen to a suggestive tirade against women in general, nurses in particular, and, incidentally, against automobiles and picture shows, as the supreme destructive agents of chastity.

My surprise came when one of the old customs of the Barbary coast was revived, and the audience sang a stanza and then whistled the tune of a good old gospel hymn, that seemed to me to have deserved a little more dignified and solemn treatment.

Instead of the story of the death and resurrection of our Lord, we were next plunged into a political harangue during which we were informed that a certain element of the community was about to nominate a candidate for office on a platfor mof "perjury and anarchy." The potential political strength of the congregation was canvassed in true bowery style and perhaps 20 men arose to signify that they would vote for the present incumbent and would uphold the pastor in his electioneering proclivities. I am glad to say that the political harmony of the occasion was unmarred by either profanity or the exhibition of unseemly fisticuffs.

The next startling information expounded by this modern pulpiteer was to the effect that more murders were committed in Harris county alone, wherever that may be, than in all of the British Isles in the same length of time. I had supposed that only in my former home in Mexico was murder fashionable, and I am loathe to believe that Harris county is populated by bloodthirsty bolsheviki seeking to annihilate the populace.

All this caused the preacher's "righteous soul," as he termed it, to burn with indignation. What caused my "unrighteous" soul to burn was the bald analysis of the physiological and moral effects of girls sitting on the laps of men, with no effort male to conceal the nasty suggestiveness and which my daughter was compelled to listen to with increasing curosity as to what the speaker really meant. This was followed by the infamous statement that "85 per cent of female nurses were bad."

To avoid full responsibility for such a monstrous assertion, the speaker took refuge behind a quotation as his authority. The alleged rampant immorality of the women of Wichita Falls was next elaborated upon and the statement made that within a short time one policeman alone had arrested 260 couples for vagrancy and of this number 240 women were natives of the city and in the majority of cases were married and supposedly leading respectable lives. In order that the full import of the word vagrancy did not escape the congregation, the preacher was careful to explain the complete legal definition of the term.

Do the good people of this city believe such palpable sensationalism?

If it is true, I prefer to return to my desolate home in Mexico, where I know that 95 per cent of noble, self-sacrificing nurses are not wantons and where one policeman does not have the opportunity of arresting 240 apparently respectable women in a very short time."

In giving force to one of the rising points of his narrative, the speaker used the term "to hell with it." Is such language commonly used in pulpits here in the presence of good women. Having been engaged in the electric branch of the automobile industry since its inception, I was astonished to learn that this modern means of transportation was a damnable invention of the evil one, calculated to drag the innocent souls of young maidens into the abyss of damnation and that young women who indulged in joy rides were lost beyond redemption.

I cannot believe that the maidenhood of the city is suffering from moral impotency and that girls are ready to succumb to temptation every time they are invited to ride in an automobile. Neither can I believe that automobiles were invented by the powers of darkness for the purposes indicated by the reverend speaker.

As a stranger unacquainted with the political aspects of the situation, I gathered that the moving picture theaters were the real thorns in the speaker's side and were largely responsible for the clergyman's abandonment of the tenets of Christianity in favor of a vindictive, not to say indecent tirade against alleged immorality. I am free to state that in the future I shall take my family either to a church of God or to a respectable theater in full confidence that we shall not see or hear anything likely to do violence to the innocence of youth or shock the modesty of a good woman.

I regret that I cannot again enter this particular church with the same confidence.

ARREST AT GRAHAM CHARGE IS VIOLATING SELECTIVE DRAFT LAW

A suspect arrested at Graham last Sunday is being held in the county jail on a charge of violating the selective draft law. The man was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Hubbard at Newcastle following discovery that the man was an organizer of the Industrial Workers of the World. The mere fact that a person is identified with the I. W. W. does not constitute a federal offense, it is said, and the man would have probably been released had it not developed that he was a possible draft evader. The man said he came to northwest Texas from Seattle, Wash. He is being held pending further investigation before formal charges of evading the selective draft are filed against him.

OFFICERS BELIEVE THAT RADICALS ARE ACTIVE

County officials of Young and Archer counties are certain that radical agitators are at work among oil field and coal mine workers of northwest Texas, and are urging that strikes be taken to check the wave of radicalism. At least three organizers for the Industrial Workers of the World have recently been located near the county line of Young and Archer counties and have been arrested by officials of Young county. Federal officials here point to the fact that it is not violation of the law to merely belong to the I. W. W. and persons recently arrested in Young county will be released in case no further charges are lodged against them.

Old Man Cowling rises to remark: "That he lost a crop or two over in Arkansas during the Jeff Davis campaigns. At that time he felt it a DUTY to explain to the average voter the merits and demerits of each and every candidate, and showed him how he ought to vote. He never missed a public speaking and always managed to get on the platform even if the cotton did need hoeing. Now in this Bailey campaign we have decided not to regard a man a fool if he doesn't vote as we do, for we discovered once or twice in life that we were wrong and the other fellow right. And, in the meantime while the fur is flying we are sawing wood, and offer.

COTTON MARKET.

New York Cotton

NEW YORK, March 30.—Higher Liverpool cables were offset by the decline in sterling exchange and there was considerable realizing in the cotton market at the opening today. Better weather conditions in the south evidently increased the tendency to take profits on long contracts and after opening steady at an advance of 15 points on April but generally unchanged to 5 points lower, active months sold 15 to 19 points below last night's closing. This carried May off to 38.75 and October to 32.60, but there was trade buying of old crop months and the early losses were soon recovered with the market developing a steady undertone. Liverpool cables reported Manchester buying and covering on the easier exchange rates.

The early bulge to 38.95 for May and 32.77 for October was followed by an easier tone late in the morning. The Liverpool selling during the first hour appeared to have filled up immediate demand and a renewal of realizing or liquidation found very few buyers around the ring.

May eased off to 38.53 and October to 32.38, or 35 to 40 points below last night's closing figures, and the market became very quiet around noon.

Trading continued very quiet during the middle of the afternoon with prices showing little further change. Moderate rallies met scattered realizing however, and active months ruled about 20 to 35 points net lower around 38.60 for May and 32.40 for October.

The cotton market closed steady.

New Orleans Cotton

NEW ORLEANS, March 30.—After a rise of 2 to 7 points on the opening today, in response to better cables than due, the cotton market fell off under selling caused by the unfavorable tone of foreign political news and at the end of the first hour of trading stood 16 to 22 points under the close of yesterday. May traded up to 38.45 and then fell off to 38.22. Dry weather in the belt swelled offerings to a moderate extent.

The forecast and dry and warmer weather for the entire cotton region was considered very favorable and it led to sufficient selling to depress the trading months 2 to 41 points under the final prices of yesterday's closing, December showing the widest loss and trading down to 31.53. Toward noon there was more demand from the long side and the market steadied, standing at net declines of 18 to 30 points.

Early sellers took profits and fleetr demand made a steadier market, so that later in the session the active months were at declines of only 10 to 24 points. Reports that planting would be under way well up into central Texas by the end of the week seemed to prevent new buying of importance.

The cotton market closed barely steady at a net decline of 10 to 24 points.

Liverpool Cotton

LIVERPOOL, March 30.—Cotton spot dull; prices easier. Good middling 30.01; fully middling 29.01; middling 28.01; low middling 24.71; good ordinary 21.51; ordinary 20.51.

Sales 5,000 bales, including 1,500 American. Receipts 51,000 bales, including 47,800 American. Futures, steady.

Spot Cotton Market

DALLAS, TEX., March 30.—Spot cotton steady; middling 43.10.

HOUSTON, TEX., March 30.—Spot cotton quiet; middling 42.00.

GALVESTON, TEX., March 30.—Spot cotton steady; middling 43.00.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

NEW YORK, March 30.—Stocks were under the influence of yesterday's money flurry at the opening of today's session, irregular price changes reflecting the more cautious dealings of traders. Except for several of the more prominent steels, equipments and oils, which made initial gains of one to three points, the market was disposed to react. A firmer tone developed within the first half hour however. Crucible Steel, General Motors and Atlantic Gulf displaying pronounced strength.

The eight per cent call loan rate held during the mid-session and exercised a reassuring effect. Minor specialties and utilities were strong but Crucible Steel and active oils and equipments extended their gains of the morning. Stutz Motors made a further advance to 360.

Aside from the further advance in a few special issues, prices eased again in the dealings of the final hour. The closing was irregular.

Final prices of Liberty bonds today were: 3½s 97.04; first 4sc 90.50; second 4s 89.44; first 4¼s 90.60; second 4¼s 89.84; third 4¼s 92.98; fourth 4¼s 89.82; Victory 3¾s 97.52; Victory 4¼s 97.54.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE

CHICAGO, March 30.—Approach of month-end settlements had a slightly bullish influence today on the corn market. Reports were also current that foreigners were buying a considerable amount of breadstuffs, including some corn flour. Opening prices, which ranged from ⅛c decline to ⅛c advance, with May $1.56 to $1.56⅛ and July $1.50, were followed by a slight sag and then by a moderate general upturn.

Oats were easier owing to progress in seeding. After opening ⅛@⅜c gain, including July at 78⅛ to 78⅝c, the market hardened a trifle.

Absence of support allowed provisions to decline.

Corn and oats rallied slightly near the end of the session as a result of a little local short covering, prices holding within relatively narrow limits. On the advance March corn touched a new high record for the crop when it closed at $1.64. May corn closed 1¼c higher at $1.57 to $1.57⅛ and July $1.50⅞ to $1.51.

ASQUITH TO OPEN THE ATTACK ON THE LLOYD GEORGE BILL

LONDON, March 30.—H. H. Asquith, former premier and liberal leader in the house of commons, was to open his attack on Prime Minister Lloyd George's home-rule bill when debate on the measure was resumed in the house of commons today.

Asquith sat quietly through yesterday's opening debate. It was considered significant that he took no part in the speechmaking.

Despite liberal and laborite opposition, speedy passage of the measure was forecast. Parliamentary leaders said the stage was set for the Lloyd George steam roller and that the measure would go through on schedule, according to the prime minister's plans.

The formal announcement of appointment of General Nevil Mac Ready, commander of Metropolitan Police, to be head of the government's military forces in Ireland received only passing notice. Lloyd George stated Mac Ready would not use violent methods.

Meantime, there were no reports of improvement in conditions in Ireland. A Sinn Fein leader was murdered at Thurles yesterday and police were reported to have "shot up" the village of Regge, near Thurles.

HOME RULE BILL FURTHER MODIFIED

LONDON, March 30.—Considerable modifications in the fourth Irish home rule bill will be made when it comes to the committee stafe, according to indications given in the first day of debate on the measure yesterday. Its adoption is probable and speakers reflected the opinion that the difficulty would come when attempts were made to apply it.

Interest in the bill appeared somewhat lukewarm, considering the importance of the occasion, but it was evident that all minds were centered on the impression the proposed legislation would make on Anglo-American relations.

REPUBLICAN PARTY ISSUES WARNING TO PARTY'S CHAIRMAN

ALBANY, N. Y., March 30.—Warning that republican women who are members of the New York League of Women Voters will go on strike on election day or go into other parties if the state legislature does not act favorably on welfare bills, is contained in a letter sent by the league today to Will H. Hays, chairman of the republican national committee.

STRIKE AT CHICAGO RESULTS IN PLACING EMBARGO ON CATTLE

CHICAGO, March 30.—Livestock shipments to Chicago market, with the exception of horses, were under an embargo today as the result of 900 members of the livestock handlers' union employed by the union stockyards and transit company. Continuance of the strike for a week, packing company officials announced would cause a suspension of their plans and throw 50,000 employes out of work.

Hundreds of cars loaded with stock were held on the outskirts of Chicago today and provisions were being made to divert them to other markets. Cattle receipts dropped yesterday to 1500 head and hog receipts to 2,000 because of the embargo.

The men walked out yesterday, company officials charged, in violation of an agreement to settle all wage disputes by arbitration before Federal Judge Samuel Alschuler. Judge Alschuler announced that he would not act in the strike until the men returned to work.

Demand for increases of from $30 to 40 a month with elimination of Sunday work were presented by the strikers. They now receive from $115 to $145 a month, according to company officials.

CHICAGO CITY HALL EMPLOYES ON STRIKE WANT MORE MONEY

CHICAGO, March 30.—City business here was expected to be virtually at a standstill today following the strike of 1,000 city hall clerks, stenographers and bookkeepers yesterday.

No garbage will be collected today, it was stated, as 136 garbage handlers walked out when their demand for more money were unheeded.

An all night session of the city council last night ended with the rejection of all amendments to the city budget, including the $4,000,000 "blue sky" provision which would have permitted an increase wages to city employes. "We're giving them 12 per cent. Let 'em strike" several aldermen said. "We are out for $300 and we'll stay out till we get." President James Flynn of the Clerks Union said last night. Strikers were to post pickets in the city hall today.

KING HAS REFUSED TO COMPLY WITH THE SOCIALIST DEMAND

COPENHAGEN, March 30 — King Christian announced today his refusal to comply with the ultimatum of the social democrats demanding the reinstatement of the Zahle ministry, dismissed by the king, and other action in connection with the government crisis.

Crowds in the public squares at an early hour this morning were raising cries for the establishment of a republican form of government for Denmark. Slight disturbances occurred while soldiers were occupying one of the squares and cries of "Long live the republic!" were heard during the night.

REINSTATEMENT OF MINISTRY DEMANDED

COPENHAGEN, March 30.—Socialist and trade union representatives who conferred with King Christian last light relative to the crisis which has arisen in Denmark as a result of the dismissal of Premier Zahle's cabinet, demanded immediate reinstatement of the Zahle ministry an immediate call for a meeting of the rigsdag and the introduction once more of constitutional conditions in this country.

Declarations were made that if these demands were rejected all Danish trade unions would call a meeting today with a view to declaring a general strike.

MAINTENANCE OF WAY AND RAILWAY SHOPMEN HAVE BEEN SUSPENDED

DETROIT, Mich., March 30.—The American Federation of Labor has suspended the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way and Railway Shopmen according to word received here.

Action was said to have been taken by the Federation following alleged refusal of the road union to abide by decision of the Federation that the brotherhood should relinquish jurisdiction over laborers belonging to trades covered by other international unions.

E. F. Grable was elected president of the brotherhood to succeed Alan E. Baker, who resigned. Both refused to comment on the report. They said official announcement had not been received here.

PROHIBITION CUTS INTO PARCEL POST RECEIPTS

CHICAGO, March 30.—Prohibition has cut into parcel post receipts, Chicago postoffice officials declared today.

Martin Faubel, assistant superintendent of mail, said much less bread is shipped to foreign countries than before June 30, 1919.

Faubel said his department went to much trouble to dissect the long rakish loaves of bread submitted for shipment. Generally, he said, they found concealed within the rye another form of the grain, neatly flasked.

"If we didn't get it the customs officers across the water did. They got it before the rye got to the interior—country or drinker," Faubel said.

Parcels addressed to Germany and Poland are far more numerous than those to other countries, Faubel said. Since January 1 shipments to Germany have jumped 25 per cent. The parcels are taken to reveal the needs and desires for the Germans. Foods, especially the semi-luxurics, including coffee, and sugar are popular and clothing ranks next to foods.

Foreign mails leave Chicago twice each week, just in time to connect with outgoing steamers.

An invitation to you: Come to the First Christian church and Sunday school next Lord's day—Easter Sunday. It will be a high day. 304-6tc

FIND BOMB AT HOME OF JUDGE AT LAWTON

LAWTON, Okla., March 30.—A bomb identical in make to that found in the federal building last fall, was found late yesterday on Eleventh street in front of the home of Judge R. M. Ray. Judge Ray was active during the war in the council of defense. The bomb was weather beaten and evidently had been placed there at the same time as the one found in the federal building.

JOHN PARNELL, NEGRO KILLED MONDAY NIGHT, ANOTHER NEGRO HELD

Shot in the heart with a shot gun, John Parnell, aged about 28 years, negro porter at the Marion hotel, was instantly killed by another negro by the name of Walter Pointer, in the flats Monday night. Pointer is in the county jail charged with murder.

From the story told of the killing and the events leading up to it, it appears that the porter went to his rooming house in the flats after going off duty at the hotel at midnight Monday night. Soon after his arrival, it is said, his wife came home and an argument started concerning her right to stay out so late, ending in his wife going across the hall to the room of the alleged murderer. Parnell followed his wife and called for her to come out or he would come in after her, to which Pointer is alleged to have replied: "You come in here and I'll kill you." Not heeding the warning the porter entered the room receiving a load of shot in the heart, which knocked him back into the hall dead. Officers arrived and put Pointer under arrest.

Self defense was the plea of the negro when arrested, but a thorough search of the dead man's pockets failed to disclose even a pocket knife, it was declared. The negro who did the killing is employed by the First National bank as a porter, and with his wife runs the rooming house where the victim and his wife had quarters.

The manager of the Marion hotel, F. B. Taylor, who had employed Parnell for some time declared him to be an honest hardworking negro and one that always minded his own business. Whether there was any hard feeling between the two negroes previous to the fatal difficulty is not known.

EYES

Most people, you included, perhaps, are extremely negligent in the care of their eyes, and very culpably so in regard to their children's eyes. The public generally has no idea of the number and variety of present day eye defects and often resort to glasses selected at random which are entirely unsuited to the conditions of the eye. Many glasses selected in this way which "seem to suit exactly" at first, prove most injurious and often result in permanent injury. Come and talk over your eye trouble with us.

Proclamation

We hereby proclaim the week beginning March 29th and ending Saturday, April 3rd as BERT BEAN COFFEE WEEK in Wichita Falls and respectfully request each inhabitant of said city to repair to his favorite grocer and purchase a pound of coffee fresh from the roasters of said BERT BEAN and drik thereof as much as seems good.

For it "Dispelleth the cares of the great, and bringeth back those who wander from the path of knowledge—Coffee is our gold and in the palace of its illusions, we are in the enjoyment of the best and noblest society. Every care vanishes when the cup bearer presents the delicious chalice to our lips. It circulates freely through our veins and does not rankle there. Grief cannot exist where it grows, and sorrow humbleth itself before its powers. Viv La Cafe."

The Story Back of the Check

The fragile bit of paper is the link between the buyer and the seller.

It is the sum of all that is done between the raw material and finished product.

We try to grasp the significance of each check that is cleared, to visualize the story back of it, that we may be prepared to best meet the needs of both payer and payee.
