Lubbock's Fall Is .59 Inch During Last 24 Hours

South Plains soil continued to drink up moisture which will be needed for growth of crops, as intermittent rains fell over the area during the night and today.

Lubbock's official measurement, as gauged by the U. S. Weather bureau station north of the city, was 1.90 for this week 2.31 inches for this month and 4.33 for the year.

STREAMS ON RISE
(By The Associated Press)
Streams in the San Angelo area were on rises today following heavy rains in their watersheds.
Lake Nasworthy on the South Concho rose three feet during the morning.
The Middle Concho was on a 12-foot rise at 12-mile bridge, west of San Angelo, and Spring creek was up 10 feet.

Approximately 43 per cent of the moisture received in 1948 has been received this week.

Only Light Today

Rainfall recorded from midnight to 6 a. m. today was .09 inch. Total for the last 24 hours was .59.

Other locations on the South Plains have received even higher precipitation this week.

Abernathy which has reported the heaviest precipitation of any town in the area this week, reported 1.50 inch in the 24-hour period ending at 6 a. m. today and had reported 2 inches for the previous 24-hour period, Santa Fe reports showed. Sunday precipitation there was .25 inch.

Hale Center also reported 1.50 inch for the 24-hour period ending at 6 a. m. today, but had reported only a shower for the previous 24-hour period and .25 inch Sunday.

Crosbyton Has 1.50

Crosbyton received 1.50 inch in the 24-hour period ending at 6 a. m. today, but had reported only a shower in the previous 24-hour period. Lorenzo reported 1 inch for each of the 24-hour periods ending at 6 a. m. Tuesday and today.

Other reports to the Santa Fe of precipitation from 6 a. m. Tuesday to 6 a. m. today were: Reppe ville, .50; Meadow, .50; Brownfield, .12; Seagraves, .13; Tahoka, .12; O'Donnell, .12; Lamesa, 12; Levelland, .25; Idalou, .75; Ralls, .75; Wilson, .25; Texico, .12; Muleshoe, .10; Sudan, .25; Amherst, shower; Anton, .25; Shallowater, shower; Slaton, .50; Canyon, 1

Russians Ready To Settle In Dispute

Free Exchange Of Publications In Zones Of Germany Sought After Ban Is Ordered

(By The Associated Press)

BERLIN, May 26—The Russians notified American authorities today they are ready to come to a suitable settlement for free exchange of publications between the Soviet and U. S. zones of Germany.

Col. Gordon E. Textor, head of the American information control division, last week banned the importation of Soviet-licensed publications into the American zone in retaliation for wholesale confiscation and other discriminations against American-licensed publications in the Soviet zone.

In a conciliatory letter today, Lt. Gen. M. I. Dratvin, the Russian deputy military governor, asked his opposite number in the U. S. zone, Maj. Gen. George Hays, to rescind the prohibition.

"I can tell you," the letter said, "we hope to come to a suitable settlement by which every possibility of infringement of procedure for exchange of papers will be excluded.

"In this sense I am ready to assure you our sincere wish to carry out the terms of directive number 55 provided we can get the same assurance on your part."

Directive No. 55 of the Allied control council provides for the free exchange of publications throughout Germany. Textor charged the Russians violated it.

Gen. Dratvin, opened his letter, published on the front page of the Soviet-licensed press, by saying that he was "extremely astonished" that a colonel was "granted the right by U. S. military government to declare a directive of the control council invalid."

He said complaints that the directive was not being carried out could not be regarded as justification for suspending it. He also said he had facts to "make representations" on the handling of Soviet-licensed papers in the U. S. zone. He did not cite any of the facts.

The U. S. deputy commander of Berlin, W. T. Babcock, declared last night the Russians seized 200 Germans at Oranienburg,

Lubbock Host To Methodists

39th Annual Session Will Open Tonight

1,000 Persons Are Expected; Bishop Selecman Presides

Bishop Charles C. Selecman will open the 39th annual session of the Northwest Texas conference of the Methodist church at 7:30 o'clock tonight at the First Methodist church.

Following organization of the conference, Bishop Paul Martin of Little Rock, Ark., will deliver the opening sermon. Dr. H. I. Robinson, pastor of the host church, will welcome the conference.

Selecman To Retire

Bishop Selecman, who is presiding at the final session of the Northwest Texas conference before his retirement as a bishop, became a bishop in 1938 and administered Oklahoma and Arkansas Methodist churches until he was assigned to the Dallas area. He formerly had been president of Southern Methodist university at Dallas and earlier had been pastor of the First Methodist church, Dallas.

The meeting will continue through Sunday.

Bishop Martin will preach at 11:40 a. m. and 8 p. m. Thursday and Friday and 11:40 a. m. Saturday. A youth conference is to be conducted Saturday night.

Meeting Is Conducted

Visiting Methodist preachers will appear in pulpits of many churches of the city Sunday morning. The final conference session will be conducted at 2 p. m. Sunday, when pastors' appointments will be read.

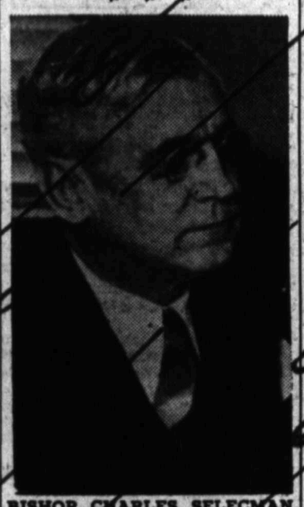

Bishop Selecman met with district superintendents of the conference in the first cabinet meeting, preliminary to the conference, Tuesday night at Lubbock hotel.

Good Crowd Expected

Another pre-conference meeting was a session of the executive committee of the board of Christian education at the office of Rev. Del

Zero Hour On Plan To Halt War Reached

Cease Fire Order Rejected; Battles Are Raging Anew

(By The Associated Press)

CAIRO, May 26 — The United Nations failed today to win a truce in Palestine, and new fighting raged in the Holy Land.

A dispatch from Jerusalem quoted Jewish sources as saying the Arab legion of King Abdullah was thinning out north of the Holy City, possibly for transfer to the Latrun area, where the heaviest fighting is reported. Latrun is a key point on the lifeline highway from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem.

The Near East radio said Egyptian planes bombed Jewish buildings in the new city of Jerusalem and struck again at Tel Aviv today.

Ultimatum Is Served

The report said Jews in the old city of Jerusalem were split in heavy fighting. The Arabs served an ultimatum to Irgunists entrenched in a synagogue to surrender or be blown up.

The Arabs said they wiped out a Jewish convoy on the Jaffa-Jerusalem road during a battle with 3,000 Jews. Supplies dropped by Jewish planes in the outskirts of Jerusalem were said to have fallen into Arab hands.

The Arab legion claimed last night it had exterminated 600 Jews in a 24-hour battle at Latrun. Jewish sources in Jerusalem indicated the battle still was on.

Again Changes Hands

Bloody Ramat Rehel, midway between Bethlehem and Jerusalem, changed hands for the fifth time, the Jews claimed.

The Jerusalem informants said Jewish commandos swooped on the Jewish colony last night and routed Arab forces.

A Jerusalem spokesman for Haganah, the Jewish army, denied Jerusalem had been bombed from the air, as reported by a Haganah source in Tel Aviv. The Jerusalem spokesman said the explosions taken for aerial bombs were only routine ground bombardment from Arab lines.

Arab nations' delegations at Lake Success were told by their governments they could not accept the U. N. security council cease fire order unless the Jews agreed to abandon the state of Israel, stop arming the Jewish army and agree to limit Jewish immigration. A spokesman for Israel's government said the conditions were impossible.

May Demand Break

With the failure of security council truce negotiations, a big power spokesman predicted a demand in the U. N. for a worldwide diplomatic break with the Arab nations.

In Washington, Rep. Jarvits (R-NY) proposed a $100,000,000

Refuse To Join Revolt; Senator Taft Picks Up 30 Votes At Corpus Session

(By The Associated Press)

BROWNWOOD, May 26—Tough talking Texas Democrats have given President Truman's leadership the cold shoulder, but they refused to join the southern anti-civil rights rebellion.

At the Philadelphia convention the Texas delegation will be free to decide on the spot whose nomination it favors. It will vote as a unit. The Texans followed an independent course mapped by their own leader, Gov. Beauford H. Jester, in state convention yesterday. Its calls for a fight against Truman's civil rights proposals and his nomination, but not for a bolt if he becomes the party nominee.

While Democrats were fighting through a 12-hour and five minute convention, Senator Robert A. Taft picked up 30 Republican national convention votes in the party's state convention at Corpus Christi. Gov. Thomas E. Dewey got two and Harold E. Stassen one. Taft forces controlled the convention from the start.

After a day-long struggle between pro-Truman and anti-Truman factions, the Texas convention took these significant steps:

1. Pledged itself in a body, its delegates and 23 presidential electors to support all party nominees without any ifs.

2. Voted to send its delegation of 50 to the national convention instructed to fight the civil rights proposals, especially the FEPC.

No Instructions Given

3. Gave its delegation no instruction as to presidential and vice-presidential candidates. This left it free to fight Truman's nomination. It instructed the delegates to battle for restoration of the two-

GENERAL DESCRIBES GORY SCENE

Gruesome Story Of Massacre Of 500 Communists Is Told

(By The Associated Press)

CHINGCHUAN, Shensi Province, China, May 26 — A gruesome story of the massacre of 500 Chinese Communist prisoners by national troops was told today by Gen. Ma Wen-Ting.

Half the prisoners, he said, were beheaded with great broadswords carried by his fierce Moslem and Buddhist troops. The others were killed with hand grenades.

Without emotion, the grim visaged Ma described the mass killing. It was carried out last week at Ninghsien, a Kansu province village near here.

"We chopped off one head after another with our big broadswords," Ma said. "We finished the others off with hand grenades."

The prisoners were part of 1,500 taken at Ninghsien where they fled after national troops routed them near Sian.

The general, deputy chief of staff of the national 82nd division, said an uprisin gamong the prisoners caused the massacre.

"While we were sorting out Communist regulars from coerced peasants," he said, "the Communists started an uprising. They shouted 'Mao Tse-Tung' (Chinese Communist leader's

Farm Bill Up For Changes

WASHINGTON, May 26 (AP)—A Senate-House committee today got the job of compromising a $34,866,825 difference in two bills to finance federal farm programs.

The Senate added that amount to money previously approved by the House. As passed by a voice vote late yesterday, the Senate measure carries $1,126,727,405 for the Agriculture department during the year starting July 1.

Lunch Fund Differs

The total, $580,400,000 is in direct appropriations. Most of the rest is in loan authorizations.

One difference in the actual appropriation figure is in the school lunch fund. The Senate voted $75,000,000, or $10,000,000 more than the House.

Before the bill passed, the Senate rejected, 42 to 38, an amendment by Senator Young (R-ND) to restore a soil conservation payment formula used until this year.

Senator Russell (D-Ga) led the fight against the proposal. He said it would benefit farmers of other sections at the expense of those in the southeastern states.

Republican Senator Aiken (Vt.) Cooper (Ky) and Bridges (NH) voted with 39 Democrats against the amendment. Not a single Democrat voted for it.

Draft Bill Faces Stiff Opposition

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 26—Some 60 House members want to speak out against a peacetime draft even before the bill is cleared for House debate.

But rules committee Chairman Leo E. Allen (R-Ill), who reported this today said his group will call only about 10 to testify against the measure sponsored by Rep. Andrews (R-NY). He said hearings probably will continue through this week.

Arguments Opened

The rules committee determines whether or not any legislation is cleared for action by the House. Allen has said the draft measure will not reach the floor before June 1.

Draft opponents opened their arguments before the committee yesterday. The first two were Reps. Feiger (D-NC) and Barden (D-NC.)

Folger said sentiment for a peacetime draft is being fostered "by an excess of hysteria in this country." He declared the armed forces "have made no real, concentrated effort to get their men by recruiting."

Barden, who said he enlisted in the Navy in World war I, told the committee:

"It is hard to oppose this at a time when the air is charged with a certain amount of patriotism—some of it real, some synthetic, and some induced, I am afraid, by

Britain Sticks To Arab Pact

LONDON, May 26 (AP)—Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin said today Britain's treaty agreement to furnish officers for Trans-Jordan's Arab Legion will end only if it becomes "inconsistent with our obligations to the United Nations."

In response to questions, Bevin informed the House of Commons that 37 British officers are now serving with the Arab Legion, which has been engaged in the Arab warfare against the Jews since mid-May.

Questions Parried

Just as he did yesterday, Bevin parried a batch of questions on the Holy Land's strife. He is "still awaiting" an Arab response to the United Nations cease fire order, he said.

British officials privately expressed concern and astonishment at reports the United States may lend Israel $90,000,000 or $100,000,000.

Dr. Chaim Weizmann, president of Israel, said after talking with President Truman in Washington yesterday the Jews may get such a loan.

Loan Ill-Timed

A British foreign office spokesman said the loan would be "ill timed." He said Britain "deprecated" it because it might upset prospects of Arab countries accepting the United Nations order for a cease fire in Palestine.

The foreign office said Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg are consulting on a joint Palestine policy. The talks are under a clause of the five-power Brussels treaty involved by Britain, obliging the countries to coordinate foreign policy.

Gallant Cruiser Is Sunk Off California

ABOARD U. S. S. NEREUS, Off California, May 26 (UP)—Guns, shells, and torpedoes of the United States Navy sank the decommissioned cruiser Salt Lake City in training exercises yesterday off the California coast.

It took everything the first task fleet could deliver to finish off the gallant ship that survived 31 engagements with the Japanese and the atomic bomb tests at Bikini.

Warships and planes took part in the shelling and bombing of the cruiser, still contaminated by radioactivity. She was towed yesterday to a point 150 miles off the coast, and withstood five hours of bombardment with large and small weapons before rolling over and sinking bow first.

Ministers' Pension Pay Gets Increase

HOUSTON, May 26. (UP)—Texas conference Methodists today increased the pension pay for retired ministers and dependents of deceased ministers during the 110th annual session.

Retired ministers will receive an annual base pension of $35 multiplied by their years in the active ministry. Thus, a minister who had served 40 years would receive $1,400.

The previous base was $30. Widows of deceased ministers will now receive $24.50 multiplied by the pastor's years in the ministry and dependent children will receive $6.75.

U. S. Cotton To Be Shipped To Europe

WASHINGTON, May 26. (AP)—The shipment of $27,871,000 worth of American cotton to four European countries was authorized today by Economic Cooperation Administrator Paul G. Hoffman.

The transactions mark the first major U. S. financing of material for Europe's textile industry. They will be handled entirely through private trade channels in this country, Hoffman said.

The authorizations includes:

Italy $20,400,000; France, $6,800,000; United Kingdom, $400,000; and Norway, $271,000

Jacksonville Lawyer Wins Florida Race

MIAMI, Fla., May 26 (UP) — Fuller Warren, silver-tongued Jacksonville attorney, today won the governorship of Florida in a Democratic runoff primary that produced one of the closest races in the state's history.

A spectacular late rush gave the 47-year-old Warren the victory over Dan McCarty, 36-year-old citrus grower and cattleman from Ft. Pierce. Democratic nomination in Florida is equivalent to election.

With 1,401 of the state's 1,535 precincts reporting from yesterday's voting, Warren had 274,566 votes to McCarty's 260,976. The remaining unreported precincts were in counties where Warren had already piled up his lead.

Bond Is Posted In Cow Theft

TAHOKA, May 26 (Special)—Bond of $1,000 was posted Tuesday night by D. R. Adamson, jr., 22, Lynn county man, in connection with a cow theft charge, Sheriff Sam Floyd announced today.

The charge, he said, alleged theft from Robert Draper, also of Lynn county. It was sworn to by Razz Renfrow, a Texas ranger of Lubbock, and filed by County Attorney B. P. Maddox in the justice court of P. D. Server for action June 28 of a 106th district grand jury.

Sold In Lubbock

The cow, recovered by Sheriff Floyd and Renfrow, had been sold through a livestock commission company ring in Lubbock, it was said.

Two Slaton young men, arrested Monday night by Sheriff Floyd when in possession of 156 pints of whisky, left town upon payment of fines, but left their 1947 heavy five-passenger coupe, it was announced in the county court by Judge Tom Garrard.

John W. Brown, about 23, was fined $250 and costs for liquor law violation and $100 and costs for abusive language, officials said. His brother, Clifford Brown, about 32, was fined $150 and costs for liquor law violation, they announced.

Judge Garrard ordered that the car be confiscated and sold under premise it had been used in transportation of alcoholics.

UNIONS ASK FEDERAL OWNERSHIP

U. S. Purchase Of Railways Proposed

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 26—A union demand that the government "begin preparations" to buy the railroads seemed to have little prospect today of being taken seriously in official Washington.

A group of 20 railroad unions made the proposal last night.

Their own leaders did not entirely agree on how far they want to go with nationalization of the industry.

No Official Comment

Ther was no immediate comment from the White House or government agencies. But observers noted that Congress would have to approve a step of this size—a big step toward socialism—and there are no signs that Congress is in any such mood.

Railroad management officials made light of the proposal.

W. T. Faricy, president of the Association of American Railroads, termed it "an attempt to divert attention" from the fact that three unions—the engineers, firemen, and switchmen—rejected the recommendations of an impartial board in the present rail dispute.

Heads of the 20 unions, banded together in the Railway Labor Executives' association, came to the aid of the engineers, firemen and switchmen last night.

The 20 executives unanimously adopted a bitter resolution.

Senate Heads For Test Vote

WASHINGTON, May 26 (AP)—The Senate headed for a test vote today on one of the key issues involved in controversial refugee legislation. The number of displaced persons to be admitted to this country.

Senator Ferguson (R-Mich) told reporters he planned to call up an amendment which would permit the entry of up to 200,000 during the next two years.

Ceiling Set At Half

A judiciary committee - approved bill, which has been debated intermittently for about a week, sets the two-year ceiling at half that figure.

Ferguson said approval of the higher maximum would be taken by other countries to mean that the United States intends to assume its fair share of the persons torn from their homes by war.

He and five other senators are sponsoring the amendment, one of a series of 16 which have been proposed to the bill.

Czech President Is Claimed Near Death

LONDON, May 26 (AP) — An official Czechoslovak, diplomatic source said today President Eduard Benes is "gravely ill" and is not expected to recover.

The informant said Czechoslovakia's president had two strokes recently.

Benes has been ill for a number of months. A spokesman for the Czechoslovak embassy would make no formal comment on his condition now, beyond saying that the state of the president's health is "very serious."

Three Men Are Given Reprieves By Jester

AUSTIN, May 26 (AP) — A 30-day constitutional reprieve has been granted by Gov. Beauford H. Jester to Riley B. McCaine, convicted of murder in the death of Elnora Collins, Jefferson county.

The stay of execution moves the date McCaine will go to the electric chair from June 21 to July 21.

Thirty-day constitutional reprieves also were granted to Ernest Williams, convicted of the fatal stabbing of his wife, Callie Williams, in Caldwell county, and to Cleo Smith, sentenced to death for the crime of rape in Bowie county.

Williams' date of execution was moved from June 28 to July 28; Smith's from June 25 to July 25.

Attorney Gets Sharp Rebuke

A sharp reminder that "this court will not be insulted" by any individual or group, be they labor union or corporation, came from Judge G. V. Pardue in 99th district court this morning in a preliminary word battle on the Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma Coaches strike injunction hearing.

Following the flareup, Judge Pardue, at request of counsel for both sides in the dispute, continued the hearing until 2 p. m. today. The request for delay came as result of what counsel for both sides described as hopes for settlement of the strike.

Remarks Resented

The judge resented preliminary remarks by Gordon Treadaway, defense counsel, which he interpreted as reflecting on the court on issuance of the temporary restraining order against violence by striking drivers of the bus company. He had interpreted Treadaway's remarks as implying that the order was issued before the court was fully advised in the case, and the court's gavel immediately came down with the assertion that the court will brook no insults.

Treadaway later apologized to the court, and to the several dozen spectators in the courtroom, many of them called as witnesses in the case. The attorney said he meant

$10,000 Cash—No Love, Says Blonde In Ad For A Husband

(By The United Press)

HEMPSTEAD, N. Y., May 26—Mrs. Dorothy Lawler, a blonde divorcee, said today she had received 16 answers so far to a want ad in which she offered to marry the first man who would pay her $10,000.

Mrs. Lawler, 28, said she placed the ad in the "situations wanted, female" column of a local newspaper because she wanted financial security for her two children.

"I just don't believe in love any more," she said. "But surely, there must be a man who wants a wife and two fine children. Perhaps we could learn to love each other after a time."

Her ad said:

"Wife for sale: Divorcee, blonde, attractive, wants man to marry and support her two children. Must be willing and able to make immediate $10,000 cash settlement."

The shapely Mrs. Lawler said she would start interviewing prospective husbands tonight.

Her only conditions, she said, were that the man must be "a decent type and not too old." Asked what she considered "told old," she said it depended on the

Club Women Say "Definitely No Comment" On Adress' Charges

PORTLAND, Ore., May 26 (INS) Actress Cornelia Otis Skinner's charge that American club women are "frustrated in their love lives" was read today to a gathering of top flight executives of the General Federation of Women's clubs.

Tall, angular Mrs. J. L. Blair Buck of Washington, D. C., president of the federation, did the reading.

Designed For Publicity

Previously the president of the 10-million-member federation had glanced at the Seattle dispatch through her silver-rimmed glasses and refused International News Service a statement.

"Such things," she said, "are silly and are designed purely for publicity. I see no need for dignifying this with any comment."

Still, the charges of the author of "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay" now starring in the stage production of "Lady Windermere's Fan," that club meetings are "appallingly stultifying and the last word in boredom," were challenging.

It was suggested that possibly some of the other federation officers might have something to say.

Mrs. Buck agreed, "They might. We'll just discuss this with the executive committee."

She disappeared into the main dining room of "The Broiler," a Southwest Salmon street eatery, where a special gathering of past state presidents were having a luncheon meeting.

An hour later, Mrs. Buck advised International News Service that she had read the Skinner statement to the roomful of women.

"And when I read it—you should heard the snort, particularly that part about 'trying to get along without men'."

"Who is trying to get along without men?" Mrs. Buck demanded. "Our program this week is full of them."

95 Per Cent Married

Mrs. Buck said that it was not so much "trying to get along without men" as "getting along with men." She pointedly observed that 95 per cent of the club women were married and most of them had families.

"To be fair about this Skinner statement, we put it up to the women. All of the executive committee agreed that no comment was needed. Then right down the line every past state president agreed that no statement be made.

"We are broadcasting our program on the air and it is in the press. The public can judge whether or not our program is 'stultifying'.

"I am sorry but there is no comment — definitely no comment."

Queen Mother Mary Reaches 81 Today

LONDON, May 26 (AP)—Queen Mother Mary reached 81 today in good health.

She received the congratulations of her house staff shortly after breakfast and then proceeded to read hundreds of messages wishing her well.

She plans a balcony appearance at Buckingham palace late in the day and, although she has made no arrangements for it, no one would be surprised to see her pop into a theater for a show tonight, since there is no more ardent fan in London.

Guns boomed out royal salutes in London, at sea and abroad in her honor. Birthday gifts included a bunch of wildflowers from the school children of Badminton, where the queen mother spent the war years.

Those near her described her health as excellent, better than last year. They say her appetite is solid, that she likes her regular glass of sherry and an after-dinner cigarette. Her regal bearing and stately dignity—and her hats—are still trademarks of England.

Officers Of Army Group Are Installed

Officers of the Texas Technological college student chapter of the National Army Signal Corps association were formally installed at the organization's last meeting for the scholastic year Monday night.

Major John M. Goodman of Goose Creek, club sponsor and assistant professor of military science and tactics, was presented with a leather traveling bag as a farewell gift from the student chapter. Major Goodman has been chosen from the Army Signal corps to pursue a masters degree in business administration, field of management in research and development, at Harvard university, subject to approval by the Army Security agency. He will be relieved of his duties at Tech in August by Capt. William C. Neubauer of Ft. Monmouth, N. J., and will enter Harvard in September.

Students who were installed as officers and their offices are: Rex Brown of Tulia, president; James Johnson of Amarillo, first vice-president; Nolan Rhodes of Bovina, second vice-president; Raymond Self of Amarillo, secretary; T. L. Fanning of Earth, treasurer, and Ray Irwin of Lubbock, assistant treasurer.

The club will resume activities next September.

100 Houses Strung Along Highway Route

LOS ANGELES, May 25 (AP)—About 100 houses were strung out along the route of the new Hollywood freeway today and not moving an inch.

The parade of houses, most of them being removed to make room for the unfinished highway, stopped suddenly yesterday when members of AFL House Movers Local 323 went on strike for higher wages.

U. S. Admiral Describes Royal Welcome He And His Party Were Accorded In Arabia

WASHINGTON, May 26 (AP) — It was just like the Arabian nights, said Rear Adm. Harold M. Martin—princely gifts of jeweled daggers and thoroughbred horses.

As a matter of fact it was an Arabian night.

His aircraft carrier, the Valley Force, was lying in the Persian gulf while the Crown Prince of Saudi Arabia entertained the American officers royally ashore.

Seven-Month Cruise

Admiral Martin recalled the high spots of a 41,000 mile seven-month round-the-world cruise today before returning to New York. His carrier and the escorting destroyers will leave there Thursday for San Diego, and the end of their long voyage.

Before the admiral can accept the pair of purebread bay horses, Congress will have to give its approval. Gifts from foreign rulers are barred by the constitution unless Congress passes a special act.

The horses are stabled back in Arabia, but the jeweled daggers—and gold watches for the crew of the admiral's barge—came back on the carrier. They now are impounded by the State department.

"It was a very happy cruise, and our men were welcomed enthusiastically every place they stopped," said the grey-haired, heavyset admiral, looking back on the trip that started last October at San Diego. Some of the places visited: Australia, China, India, Arabia, Norway, England.

Big Show

The trip was crammed with highspots, said Admiral Martin, but his eyes lit up when he mentioned that night in Arabia.

After a native banquet which included mountains of rice and a dozen or so sheep, served by silken robed servants, the Americans were led out to the moonlit courtyard.

Before a large gathering of natives and soldiers, two grooms brought forward a stallion and mare and the Crown Prince presented them to the dazed admiral.

"It outhollywooded Hollywood," said Martin, who hails from Cairo, Ill.

Ex-Silver Shirter Defeated In Court

INDIANAPOLIS, May 26 (AP)—William Dudley Pelley's petition for permission to take depositions from 35 present and former government officials and two newspaper columnists was denied in federal court yesterday.

The former Silver Shirt leader's petition for a writ of habeas corpus also was denied by Judge Walter C. Lindley of Danville, Ill. Pelley is serving a 15-year sentence for sedition.

Pelley contended the depositions he sought would show his conviction was obtained by an administration which he said "solicited war" by enactment of the lend-lease act and repeal of the neutrality act.

Senators Worried Over Effect Of Defense Plan On Freedoms

WASHINGTON, May 26 (AP) — Senator Ferguson (R-Mich) said today he intends to make certain that a new plan to protect secret military codes does not threaten freedom of the press.

The Senate armed services committee yesterday approved a bill carrying penalties up to 10 years in prison plus a $10,000 fine for "disclosure of information concerning the cryptographic system and the communications intelligence of the United States."

Under this measure any government agency could put "limited or restricted" labels on information for "national security" reasons.

To Close Loophole

Both Chairman Gurney (R-SD) and Senator Baldwin (R-Conn) told a reporter the bill aims only at closing a loophole in national defense and security laws. They say newspapermen and others who distribute information are amply protected.

But Ferguson said he wants to study details of the Senate bill as well as a similar House measure before the full Senate acts.

Two years ago Ferguson bitterly criticized a similar proposal to protect codes and cryptographic system.

He said it could be used to keep both the press and Congress from obtaining public information about most government agencies if officials said the facts were restricted, confidential or secret.

"If we do not have a Democracy that we can see, we have no Democracy at all," Ferguson told a reporter today. "The previous bill might have prevented any investigation such as "Pearl Harbor or even the old Teapot Dome scandal.

Registration For Summer Term Opens

As registration for this year's free summer school opened this morning in Principal Floyd Heney's office in Senior High school, Honey observed that many registrants were being delayed because they had failed to bring their report cards along, and asked that others planning to register Thursday and Friday please bring their grades with them.

The office will be open to registrants from 9 to 12 and 1 to 3 o'clock Thursday and Friday.

The only two groups of students required to pay for summer courses will be those trying to hasten their graduation through summer classes, and those students whose parents reside outside the Lubbock Independent School district. In such cases a charge of $9 for each credit course has been scheduled. There is no charge for non-credit courses.

Honey announced that all those who are unable to register during the three days will be required to register at 7:30 a. m. Monday, just prior to the opening of classes.

Summer registrants not falling in the 9 through 12 grade class will register at 8 a. m. Monday morning at their respective schools. Included in this group are pre-school and elementary students. Those signing for grades 7 and 8 will report to the senior high school for registration on Monday morning.

Church To Be Scene Of Stotts Funeral

Funeral services will be held in the Broadway Church of Christ at 3 p. m. Sunday for S/Sgt. James D. Stotts, and not in the chapel of Bryan McDonald & Son Funeral home, as previously announced, mortuary officials announced this morning. Military services and burial will be in Memorial Park cemetery. Rev. Carl Spain, pastor of the Broadway Church of Christ, will officiate.

The body of Stotts, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Stotts of 2416 Thirtieth, will arrive in Lubbock at 7:30 a. m. Saturday. He was killed Oct. 16, 1944, in a plane crash over Germany, while serving with the 8th Air Force.

Survivors include the parents, two brothers, Don Carlon and Bobby Mahlon, and a sister, Marilyn Jane.

Fire Chief's Car Is Drive-In Customer

BOZEMAN, Mont., May 26 (AP) Fire Chief J. W. McCrosson's automobile got the hot seat last night.

A passerby flipped a lighted cigarette into the rear seat. The chief attempted to extinguish the blaze with a portable fire extinguisher, but failed.

As a last resort, he drove up the street to the fire station where his firemen quickly doused the blaze and commented: "That's what we call our extra special drive-in service."

House Approval Of $300 Million Asked

Federal Aid For Education Is Called Necessity By Truman

(By The United Press)

WASHINGTON, May 26.—President Truman told House Speaker Joseph W. Martin, jr., that unless Congress provides federal aid for education the American system of education faces the "danger of a serious breakdown."

In a letter to the House speaker, Mr. Truman urged that the House follow Senate action in approving a bill to provide federal aid for education.

Mr. Truman recommended in his 1949 budget an expenditure of $300,000,000 for federal assistance to elementary and secondary schools.

Mr. Truman said he did not believe increased defense costs presented a "valid reason for delaying federal aid to education."

"On the contrary," he wrote Martin, "I consider that such assistance will be a major contribution to the vitality of American Democracy, which is the foundation of all our efforts toward peace and freedom."

Mr. Truman pointed out that the school systems in many states face "a real crisis" because of increased costs and rapid growth of school population.

He agreed that public provision for education must remain primarily the concern of the states. But he said it was now "necessary and proper" for the federal government to help provide educational facilities more nearly adequate to meet increasing needs.

Three Are Hurt In Crash North Of City

Lubbock woman and two abernathy men were slightly injured in an automobile collision five miles north of the city on the Plainview highway, about 4:45 p. m. Tuesday.

Mrs. Reta Shipp of Lubbock route 3 suffered bruised arms and eyes and a cut on the head She was treated and dismissed at West Texas hospital.

Leon Newsom and George E. Smith, both of Abernathy, sustained bruises and shock. Neither was hospitalized. Smith received a bad cut on the hand when it jammed through the windshield in which the two men were riding.

According to the highway patrol, the woman, alone and driving north in a 1941 Chevrolet sedan, hit the concrete slab in the center of the road. Traffic is confined to the west side of the slab due to construction work. Bouncing off the obstruction, the car skidded and was thrown against the slab the second time.

The highway patrol said that the vehicle apparently went out of control then and collided with the left side of a 1932 Ford pickup going south.

Although both vehicles were said to be driving about 35 miles per hour prior to the collision, heavy damage was reported.

James Edward Howery Rites Planned Today

McCarty, pastor of the Calvary Baptist church, will officiate at the services.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Josephine Howery; parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Howery; a daughter, April Elaine; a son, Nathan H., and a sister, Mrs. Dorothy Hughes, all of Lubbock.

Tech Student Speaks At Rotary Luncheon

A world government that would be brought about through an effective organization, empowered to act in event of need, was offered as the road to world peace in an address at the Rotary club luncheon today at the Hilton hotel by Richard M. Ehrlich, student in Texas Tech college and member of the state council of United World Federalists.

Ehrlich said the plan could be accomplished through an effective United Nations organization, but he said changes would have to be made. The UN now, he said, has no power other than to make requests, due to the veto provision.

He said such an organization need not, and should not, infringe on the rights of individual nations, but would rule only on matters involving the peace of the world.

Ehrlich was introduced by Freelan Groce, program chairman. Club President Rex Webster was in the chair, with invocation by J. M. Willson of Floydada.

Visiting Rotarians included Willson, A. D. Herring of Tahoka, Van B. Clark of Littlefield, Fred McGinty of Tahoka, Herschel Nix of Fort Worth, Oscar McGinty of Spur, Dr. Harold G. Cooke of Abilene, Lloyd H. Jones of Floydada, R. E. Wertz of Amarillo, R. L. Perkins of Abilene, H. B. Coggins of Seminole, Rev. O. W. Carrer of Abilene, R. N. Huckabee of Borger, Jimm Potts of Floydada, and Al Cooper of Ralls.

Coal Oil Found In Young Boy's Stomach

LOS ANGELES, May 26 (AP) — They struck oil in Jimmy Cherry's stomach.

Jimmy, 20 months of age, was found gagging and choking in the backyard of his home yesterday. He was whisked to Georgia Street Receiving hospital where a fluoroscopic examination failed to reveal anything in his throat.

The sirens screamed again and he was taken to the children's hospital. Doctors manned the stomach pump and found—coal oil, source unknown.

STOMACH AILMENTS, WEAK KIDNEYS, RHEUMATIC PAINS, ARTHRITIS, NEURITIS

and such complaints as Headaches, Nervousness, Acids, Toxins, Bloating, Lack of Vitality, Energy, Poor Appetite Underweight, Dizzy Spells.

SIXTY years ago, Dr. Horne, a German scientist, discovered the source of GEO-MINERAL. In a remote spot in Mississippi, he found that in several small areas, about fifteen feet below the ground surface, was a layer of mineral bearing clay. He also learned that for years, first the Indians and then the people living in this section had been using minerals extracted from this clay for many medicinal purposes. He heard many stories from people who had been relieved of various ailments by drinking a solution of minerals extracted from this clay. The scientist opened a mine there, and ever since, the fame of this natural mineral medicine has spread throughout the wide continent.

Drugless Health!

REGARDLESS of how long you have been sick, and how many medicines you tried before, you can now hope for relief if you try GEO-MINERAL. Your trouble may be mineral-iron deficiency. Lack of minerals makes your blood weak, your resistance low — run down. Simple anemia, headaches, nervousness, gas, toxins, indigestion, and other symptoms may be present. Arthritis and rheumatic pains also may develop. GEO-MINERAL helps to enrich your blood, and make you strong, full of pep, life and energy.

HIPOCRATES was the father of medicine. Ever since his time, minerals and other natural medicines were a reliable remedy for most of our common ailments. Doctors today use minerals as basic material in many of their prescriptions. GEO-MINERAL contains minerals found in the world's best springs. Watch the results a day or two after using it. The housecleaning it will do in your body, the poisons it will bring out. When you see this, do not get alarmed—thank Nature who created GEO-MINERAL as a sign that the medicine is working on you, and realize its priceless value.

Wonder Minerals

RHEUMATISM, arthritis are dreadful diseases. Acid condition in the blood is often their cause. What could be the remedy? For thousands of years, minerals have been used to relieve the pain and suffering of these ills. People, on the advice of doctors, go to mineral springs to find cure, or relief. The most important of our people, including doctors, go to mineral springs. They would not patronize these springs without any benefit.

YEAR after year, people rush to mineral springs and spas, to drink and bathe in their miraculous water. We have all heard of the wondrous springs of Lourdes, France, and famous Thronion in ancient Greece where, according to legend Hercules, the god of eternal youth and strength, drank its waters and bathed to be forever young.

Rich Red Blood

MEDICAL records show 68% of men and women over 35 suffer from nutritional iron, anemia. When you feel nervous, dull, lazy, have dizzy spells, no ambition to work or play, a poor appetite, feel blue, when your eyes lack that bright spark, and your mind brilliance, when headaches get the best of you, and you feel old before your time, and when life seems not worth living — it may be simply lack of minerals in your blood. Geo-Mineral then is what you need.

GEO-MINERAL is not a physic, and does not interfere with the foods in your stomach. It is a mineral-iron supplement and adds rich red blood, helps to build you up and assists your system to throw away poisons. When the poisons are out of your system, you begin to feel a new life, as Nature starts to complete the recovery.

100% Guaranteed!

WE urge everyone to try GEO-MINERAL. Do not hesitate one moment. Go to your drug store now. Get one bottle. Use it one week. If you are not satisfied, your money will be refunded in full.

TRY it today—it may do wonders for you, and be the best investment for your health. Make you feel, eat, sleep, work and enjoy life better.

SHOW Geo-Mineral to your doctor and let him tell you, after he reads the formula on the label, about its merit. GEO-MINERAL contains NO alcohol, NO preservatives, NO oil, NO harmful drugs, NO dope—is NOT habit forming. Contains ONLY Natural mineral ingredients highly recommended by the medical profession.

Read What They Say!

Pharmacists, like doctors, know medicine best. Thousands of druggists of high reputation, who now sell Geo-Mineral, report amazing results by its users.

"We not only sell Geo-Mineral"—says G. A. Littlefield, Manager of Smith's Drug Store, Gastonia, N. C.—"but as pharmacists, we know good medicine, and we believe there is none better than Geo-Mineral as a supplement for mineral deficiency. Doctors, hospitals, sanatoriums know the value of natural minerals. We are not surprised at the many users who came back to buy more and told us stories of amazing benefit. We recommend it to our friends, relatives, and beloved ones, and to every one wishing for better health."

"We wish to state that after selling Geo-Mineral for eight months, this product has broken all sales records in the medicine line in our drug store"—reports Jack Wright, owner of Economy Drug Co., Anderson, S. C. "Users report almost miraculous results, helping sufferers with rheumatism, arthritis, weak kidneys, and various stomach ailments. We believe that there are very few items on the druggists' shelf with the merit of this natural mineral medicine. Of thousands of bottles sold on guarantee basis, there have been very few refunds made."

"We have sold Geo-Mineral for the last six months and it has been one of the best selling drug items we have ever handled"—say Porter Bros., pharmacists of Concord, N. C. "Users report amazing results in many instances; and we personally believe Geo-Mineral is a good medicine for purposes as indicated, and recommend it to sufferers who have tried other medicines with little if any results. They may discover that Geo-Mineral is what they have probably been needing and looking for — we unhesitatingly recommend it."

Study Groups End Seasons At Socials, Installations

Luncheons and a coffee held by four women's study clubs Tuesday terminated this year's season. Installations were conducted and programs were presented.

The final meeting of Pierian-Sorosis Study club was an installation luncheon held at the dining room of the American restaurant. Tables were decorated with red roses, the club flower.

Mrs. W. H. Tinney, retiring president, conducted an installation ceremony for the following officers: Mrs. Carroll Sawyers, president; Mrs. W. C. Mingus, first vice president; Mrs. H. C. Lewis, second vice president; Mrs. Harold Blank, secretary; Mrs. I. L. Mann, treasurer; and Mrs. W. A. Giles, executive member.

The club presented Mrs. Tinney a gift of china.

Others attending were Mesdames L. M. Wartes, Byrnes Temple, Lawrence Sides, W. H. McElvy, Leo Baggett, L. H. Kirby, W. T. Leon, Bonner Cummings, Clifton Cummings, Odis Hackney, C. J. Griggs and L. G. Harmon. Guests were Mesdames Joe Bailey, W. A. Cox, E. E. Moss and Tom Young.

MEMBERS DESCRIBED IN "WORD PICTURES"

"Word Pictures" of members of Pierian-Sorosis club were presented by Mrs. H. G. Bizzell at a luncheon attended by the organization at Bailey Tea room, 1510-B Ave. M.

At the luncheon were Mesdames C. P. Clement, W. R. Dorsey, C. R. Hammence, L. M. Jones, J. C. Leverett, C. E. Maedgen, sr., G. W. Cleary, Sim O'Neal, C. Y. Parker, J. D. Peters, T. C. Root, Rufus Rush, C. H. Smith, A. T. Stewart, J. S. Williams, Clayton and Miss Myra Murfee.

A business session followed the luncheon.

RETIRING OFFICERS PRESENTED GIFTS

Shasta daisies and candles were arranged on luncheon tables for Clement-Sorosis Study club at Cactus Inn. Mrs. L. D. Marshall and Mrs. Belverd Needles, retiring president and vice president, were presented gifts.

As officers were installed by Mrs. Needles, they were given roses. The new officers are: Mrs. C. A. Spencer, president; Mrs. Jason Gordon, vice president; Mrs. Lennis Baker, recording secretary; Mrs. Glenn Woody, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Charles Watson, treasurer; Mrs. J. D. Sanders, parliamentarian; and Mrs. H. J. Steinhoff, Federation representative.

Mrs. Ralph Caldwell reported that the club bought books and a large mirror for Guadalupe school during the year.

Mrs. Jimmy Harvey was a guest and other members attending were Mesdames Herbert Bannister, Dwain Rogers, Jerry Brooks, R. E. Gee, Thomas J. Settle, H. J. Roper, Vernon Bell, Lawrence Glenn and L. L. Beck.

Mrs. Mary McElyea And Raymond McDaniel Wed

Mrs. Mary McElyea, 2502 Twenty-ninth, and Raymond McDaniel of Idalou were married Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at a service read in Clovis, N. M.

The bride wore a blue crepe dress with white accessories and a gardenia corsage.

Mrs. McDaniel is a graduate of Texas Technological college and is a Lubbock Senior High school teacher. Mr. McDaniel, a former Tech student and an Army veteran, is employed by West Texas Gas company in Lubbock.

Miss Harmon was formerly employed at Lubbock Memorial hospital.

MARY HAWORTH'S MAIL . . .

Woman Solicits Advice On Managing Boy Who Is Just Past 4 And Savagely Rough At Play

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I am writing at the request of friends who have three small sons and are baffled by the behavior of the eldest, Don, now approximately 4½ years old.

He is extremely precocious, the kind who is always two jumps ahead of you, and appears to be jealous of the younger boys, one of whom is three years, and the other 18 months old.

He is always hitting them or knocking them down, has launched some vicious attacks on Mark, the second boy, and when the smaller lads build anything with blocks or their mechanical toys, he waits until they've almost finished, then smashes it. He can be very sweet to them one minute and hostile the next.

KIND TREATMENT MAKES HIM WORSE

BOOKS on child psychology say that in dealing with a child like Don, you should study his interests and give him a chance to develop them. He likes to work with carpenter tools, but only so long as he has an audience of the two younger boys, who are supposed to sit quietly and watch him show off.

The boys worship him, but he has Mark cowed to a pitiful extent, and if they touch a tool, Don throws a hammer at them. The more his parents do to make him feel loved and secure, the worse he acts; and lately, at Sunday School, he has started the same tactics.

His parents have tried spanking him, which does no good. Also, they have tried giving him the same treatment he gives his brothers, but then he acts as if they are being cruel to him for no reason at all. Talking and explaining doesn't help; he refuses to accept the fact that he has done anything wrong.

He enters day school next fall and things may be different then, as boys his age may knock off some of the rough spots; but in the meantime, can you furnish some helpful suggestions? My husband and I read your column daily and enjoy it immensely. Signed—S. F.

LAD'S SPOILED BY FAVORITISM

DEAR S. F.: It isn't likely that a family friend would be so well informed about the problem, and so well disposed towards the spoiled brat Don, despite his noxious behavior, as you are. So I am assuming that you are the mother.

As I have said, Don is a spoiled brat. That's the problem in a nutshell. He probably had a long running start in that direction, owing to your indulgent pride in his precociousness, before his brothers were born; and your subsequent attempts to curb his savage abuse of them have been fitful and chickenhearted at best.

To explain the situation, you are faithfully devoted to the smaller fry, but worshipfully infatuated with Don, which may be an overstatement, but is still very much the general idea; and therefore, weakened by fool-mother sentiment as regards him, you lack firmness in dealing with his headstrong temperament.

NEEDS SCHOOLING IN SELF-RESTRAINT

CONFRONTED with serious instances of his misconduct, you tend to temporize in his favor, to "feel" or "think" from his viewpoint, instead of acting instantly to constitute yourself absolute arbiter of impartial justice guaranteed all.

Although you strive with Don in moments of fright or exasperation, the major drift of your mothering is to keep him happy on his terms, insofar as possible, while also trying to protect his brothers from his dangerous bullying. And this lefthanded coddling of him is a ruinous abdication of your duty to school him in civilized restraint and decent consideration for others' rights.

For advice, see pages 207-213 in Chapter 15, entitled "Education and Instruction," of Lecomte du Nouy's book "Human Destiny" (Longmans, Green & Company), where the author tells how to invest a child with the foundations of moral character and explains why this work should begin in the child's infancy and be substantially completed between his third and seventh years. You will find that du Nouy's logic puts the finger on your mistakes and tersely proposes the antidote.—M. H.

Workshop To Be Held Here

A workshop for teachers and sponsors of the Future Homemakers of America clubs, state and nationally recognized vocational club for girls in high school home economics work, is to be held at Texas Technological college June 16-18, Margaret W. Weeks, dean of Home Economics division at Tech has announced.

The three day course has been arranged through the Home Economics department, headed by Mrs. Vivian Johnson Adams, at the request of numerous high school home economics teachers in high schools who wish to develop better programs in high school teaching.

Sessions on planning the work in the Vocational club, increasing interest, state affiliations, and individual club problems will be stressed during the conference.

Mrs. Adams will supervise the workshop, assisted by Miss Doris Nesbitt of Tech's home economics department, and Miss Esther Sorenson, state director of home-making in Texas.

The conference will be free and all teachers and sponsors of FHA clubs are invited to attend, Dean Weeks stated.

Three Teachers Honored At Coffee On Tuesday

A coffee given in the home-making department of Lubbock Senior High school by Miss Gertrude Watson and Mrs. Hazel Wallace Tuesday morning was in honor of a bride, Mrs. Raymond McDaniel, the former Mrs. Mary McElyea, and two brides-elect, Miss Denise Cummings and Miss Lois Marie Killian. The three honorees teach at the high school.

Each was presented a wool blanket by the 55 high school teachers and administrative officers who attended the party.

The refreshment table was laid with a lace cloth and centered with silver wedding bells tied with white satin streamers. Attached to the streamers were corsages which were presented to the three honored guests. Assisting with serving were eight high school students, Vernell Higginbotham, Betty Hall, Beth Wileman, Billie Rogers, Genelle Harris, Betty Baynes, Johnnie Barnett and Sammie Caddell.

Miss Killian will marry Haskell R. Keeton Thursday and Miss Cummings will marry L. B. Lowry, jr., the latter part of the summer.

Graduating Piano Pupil To Be Honored Thursday

Dan Couch (Bo) English, a graduating senior piano solist, will be honored at the annual spring ensemble program to be presented Thursday night at 8 o'clock at Seaman hall by the Little Music House of Mrs. A. C. Sanders, jr.

Those to play other than the honored soloist will be Marcia Maxey, Pat Root, Cynthia Loveless, Rossi Ann Stiles, Mary Jo Jackson, Carol Crisler, Johnanna McFarland, Betty Sue Rabun, Cheryl Lemon, Nan Wiginton, Ann Hawkins, Anita Powers, Ann Bondurant, Carol Hamm, Sue Rucker and Janet Yancy. The program will consist of two piano, eight hand numbers and two piano, four hand numbers.

Following the program, grades made in the state examinations, hymn festival and National Guild will be announced.

The public is invited to attend.

Phebean Class Party Is Given In Freeman Home

Fifteen members of First Baptist Phebean class attended a business meeting in the home of Mrs. W. H. Freeman, 3502 Twenty-second, Tuesday afternoon.

A devotion was brought by Mrs. L. T. Stone.

400 Dancers From City And Area Attend Get Together

Four hundred Lubbockites and people from the surrounding area crowded Playmor Skating rink on the Slaton highway Tuesday night for the first inter-city get-together to be sponsored by the Lubbock Square Dance federation.

Kenneth Cox and A. D. Montgomery, caller members of the host group, shared honors as masters of ceremonies. Bill Carroll's string band from Paducah played for the exhibitions and for general dancing from 7:30 o'clock until midnight.

Callers from out-of-town who kept up a lively pace throughout the evening were H. Grady Wilson of Amarillo; Hubert Lee, Earl Thomas and A. C. Green of Paducah; Ray Watson of Hobbs, N. M., and J. M. Harper of the local federation who is temporarily located in Amarillo.

Messrs. Montgomery, Cox and Howard Hampton represented the Lubbock callers.

Following the grand march, led by Mr. and Mrs. T. Teal and Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery and a brief session of general dancing, exhibition sets from Lamesa, Tahoka, Paducah, Amarillo and Lubbock were presented.

Young People Perform

The Tuesday night program was in contradiction of the general opinion, that square dancing is for older people, since most of the performing sets were school children, high school young people or the young married set.

Both sets from Amarillo were high school students. Rupert A. Taylor, high school teacher, is sponsor of one set.

The "Highland Hottentots," trained by H. Grady Wilson, superintendent of Potter county schools, were from one of the rural high schools.

"Saturday Night Ramblers," from Paducah danced the figure with which they recently won a district contest, with Hubert Lee as caller.

Children Are Presented

The two groups of "Pratt Promenaders," from Lamesa, were children taught by Mrs. L. M. Pratt. The girls performing the "Oxford Minuet" in ballet adaption were of junior high school age and the set doing the "Texas Star" were eleven year olds.

A group of grade school children performed under the direction of Mrs. Clyde C. Lindsey.

The "Sashaway" club of Lubbock danced the "Ocean Wave," called by Joe Young and the Tahoka "Docey-Do," club danced "Sashay to the Right," with C. L. Tomlinson calling.

The Federation served coffee, doughnuts and cold drinks during intermission.

Recitals Are Being Given

Traditional spring music recitals are winding up the school year for piano pupils in Lubbock.

Mrs. E. L. Robertson is presenting her students in the last recital of the school term Thursday night at 8 o'clock at the First Baptist chapel. The program is open to the public.

Piano solos, duets, trios, songs and a musical playlet, "The Rose Jar," will be presented by the following:

Lydia Lou Sanders, Jo Ann and Arlene Lowrimore, Barbara Quinn, LaVerne Brewer, Wanda and Bettye Judd, Dorothy Clements, Robert Fenley, Donny Brown, Mary Sue Butler, Don and Gary Daniel, Jonetta Ford, Gayle Gilliam, Billie Lou and Junior Osborne, Patsy Eubanks, Don Barton, Bill and Don Lowrimore, Gayle Barnett, George and Ronnie Elder, Carol Leaverton, Jouce and Kenneth Vaughn, Carolyn Hobgood, Jeanette and Judy Nutt, Neil Vaughn and Mrs. Dorthea Townsend.

At the close of the program, reports of the recent state examinations will be given and other awards will be announced.

Mrs. Leonard Cole To Present Pupils Friday

Mrs. Leonard Cole is presenting her piano pupils in general recital Friday night at 8 o'clock at St. John's Methodist church. The program, open to the public, will consist of solos, duets, duos and trios.

Those to play are Jo Jean McCook, Ann Kerr, Karen Ausburn, Mary Carol Tipps, Sarah Wiley, Fred Baker, Eleanor Clayton, Bethelyn Rogers, Leon Abbott, James Wiley, Carl Rayburn Mullins, Vanda Lester, Gwendolyn Wiley, Elyse Green, Nancy Fulghum, Robye Jean Gregory, Carole Tollin, Carole Jean King, Dixie McMullen, Janice Donald, Nancy Dean, Faye Park and Echo McGuire.

Bride-Elect Is Honored

Continuing a series of parties for Miss Barbara Bedford, who is to marry James I. Campbell Sunday, two parties were given Tuesday.

A modernistic arrangement of tinted yucca blossoms centered the lace-covered table at the miscellaneous shower four young women gave in the evening at the home of Mrs. C. M. Martin, 1613 Twenty-ninth. Hostesses were Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Ed Winner, Miss Elizabeth Schmidt and Miss Jean Goodloe. Forty guests called.

Mrs. Schmidt gave a luncheon for Miss Bedford. A hostess gift marked her place.

Covers were laid for Mesdames Ralph Bedford, I. M. Campbell, V. L. Smith, G. E. Goodloe, Jack McGinnis, Alex McDonald, C. B. Martin, Ed Winner, Misses Gerre Bedford, Jean Goodloe, Martha Lively and Elizabeth Schmidt.

Summer flowers decked the rooms.

Two Snakebites Are Fatal For Boy, 3

KINGSVILLE, May 26 (AP) — Three-year-old Raymond Dorroh died in Kleberg hospital today, less than 24 hours after he was bitten twice by a rattlesnake on the Texas A. & I. college campus.

The child was bitten while walking with his father, Dr. J. L. Dorroh, a mathematics professor at the college.

NOT HALF-SAFE

NEW YORK, N. Y. 1948—Doreen Kelley, of New York and Wilmington, Delaware, says: "I like to have plenty of beaus and dates, and a girl doesn't get them if she's half-safe. East Side Baptist YWA Is Organized In Home

A Young Women's auxiliary to the East Side Baptist Women's Missionary society was organized Tuesday night in the home of the sponsor, Mrs. Fred Lambert. Named to office were:

Misses Marcia Rexroat, president; Billie Parish, vice president; Pearl Hollars, secretary; Bernice Ward, program chairman; Maudie Tucker, social chairman and Evelyn Ogg, stewardship and mission study chairman.

The auxiliary will meet next on June 7.

Layette Party Is Given For Mrs. Allen Holmes

As a courtesy to Mrs. Allen Holmes, Mrs. R. R. Standke and Mrs. John Tanner gave a pink and blue shower Tuesday afternoon in the home of the former, 1626 Third.

Two stork figures carrying a bassinet holding the gifts carried out the color scheme and blue bassinets holding small dolls were plate favors.

Guests were Mesdames Elmo Davis, J. E. Martin, Davis Carnes, Paul White, Bill Davis, J. D. Keith, Dee Davis and Eunice Tuttle. Several others sent gifts.

Navy Mothers Meet For Luncheon And Quilting

A quilt, which will be used in local welfare work, was made when ten members of the South Plains Navy Mothers club met Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Elna Gay, 2104 Thirty-second.

A covered dish luncheon was served at noon.

Service Will Be June 6

At a tea given in the Slaton club house Monday night news of the betrothal of Miss Loretta Stevenson, Slaton, and Jack A. Shaw, Lubbock, was revealed. The bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Eleanor Stevenson was hostess and approximately 100 guests were received between 7 and 9 o'clock.

Mr. Shaw is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan R. Shaw of 1912 Dixie Drive.

The wedding will take place at 8:30 o'clock on Sunday, June 6, in the garden at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Don Hatchett, 700 South Thirteenth, in Slaton.

CASUALTIES REPORTED

ATHENS, May 26 (AP) — The government said today 1,854 guerrillas have been killed and 3,290 captured in the spring offensive since April 15. Army casualties were placed at 1,502.

LOOK OUT FOR PIN-WORMS

Recent medical reports reveal that an amazing number of children (and grown-ups too) may be victims of Pin-Worms—often without suspecting what is wrong! And these pests, living inside the human body, can cause real distress.

So watch out for the warning signs that may mean Pin-Worms—especially the aggravating rectal itch. Get JAYNE'S F-W and follow the directions.

F-W is the Pin-Worm treatment developed in the laboratories of Dr. D. Jayne & Son, after years of patient research. The small, easy-to-take F-W tablets act in a special way to remove Pin-Worms.

Reclamation Bureau Gets Sharp Reminder In Congress' Report

By GRANT DILLMAN
United Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, May 26 — The Interior department's Reclamation bureau got a sharp congressional reminder today that its primary job is irrigation and NOT the production of hydro-electric power.

The warning was included in a report by the House appropriations committee recommending $375,667,591 to run the department in the new fiscal year starting July 1. The reclamation bureau would get $226,794,897, a cut $51,162,753 below President Truman's budget request. The entire department was cut $84,293,244.

"Soviet Power Policy"

The committee said some of the recent public power activities in the Pacific Northwest have "the earmarks of a Soviet power policy." It warned the Bonneville Power administration to steer clear of such activities.

Although reclamation was cut $51,162,735 below budget estimates, the sum represents a hike of $83,669,859 over this year's appropriation. The current year's appropriation represented a 57 per cent cut in funds requested and produced such opposition from western congressmen that part of it was restored.

The reduction of $84,293,244 in the department's over-all budget was one of the sharpest made by the committee this session. It averaged about 18.3 per cent.

Other Items Cut

Other major items included:

Indian affairs $41,274,210, cut $9,850,810; Geological survey $11,456,998, cut $4,548,002; Bureau of Mines $19,194,900, cut $3,497,000; National Park service $13,000,684, cut $3,893,466; Fish and Wildlife $9,226,979, cut $2,360,221, and Alaska $24,160,785, cut $1,321,615.

The committee underscored its concern over the Reclamation bureau's role in electric development in a proposal to restrict the agency's right to solicit new power customers in areas adequately served by private firms.

It also urged the government to encourage private power companies to expand their productive capacities. This, it said, would have the two-fold advantage of providing needed power and adding to the government's tax sources.

Law Criticized

"Development of hydro-electric power is incidental to irrigation and is made as a means of financially aiding and assisting such undertakings," it said.

Much of the committee's criticism was aimed at the trend toward public power. It said the Bonneville Power administration should not "condone" the use of a new Washington state law. The law permits officials of public utility districts to purchase private power firms through condemnation proceedings.

In the future, it said, such purchases should be made only after a majority vote of the people in the area.

In this connection, the committee turned down an administration to construct new electric transmission lines. Private firms should provide the facilities, it said.

The committee took a hefty slap at the Bureau of Indian Affairs. It accused the Bureau of mismanagement and overlapping and said it is doing more harm than good in coddling its Indian charges. The Indians, it said, should be taught to stand on their own feet.

Studios' Plans Vary As They Watch Growth Of Television

By BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, May 26—Television is becoming the prime topic among shop-talkers and in the high councils of the film companies. I surveyed the top producing companies to determine what each is doing about the new medium.

Much of the studio activity in video is top secret. Here are the policies companies are admitting at present:

Policies Given

Paramount—Years ahead of other studios. Has two stations (Los Angeles, Chicago), owns percentage of three Dumout-run stations in the East. Has conducted extensive research. Permits own stars on television (on Paramount stations, of course). Big plans for theater television.

MGM—No definite policy. Owns television rights to personalities and story material, but hasn't released either. No stations planned.

U-I—Releasing some 16 mm short films. Requests stars to stay off television now. Made a special ad trailer for "Senator Was Indiscreet" and found good results. No stations.

RKO—No stations planned; no star appearances.

Warner Brothers—Some activity in "Scientific Stage," but studio is hush-hush about it. Applied for a station in Chicago. No star appearances.

Watching And Waiting

Twentieth Century-Fox — Has some plans for stations. Experiment with WB and RCA on telecasting on big screens. Used video to advertise "Iron Curtain." Does not permit stars on television except in news reels.

Columbia and Republic—Watching and waiting.

Short takes . . . Dick Powell, who has had a picture yearly for the past four years, will appear in four new ones this year. "That's not too many" he tells me, "as long as they're all good" . . . Ray Milland will be Hollywood's most untouched star in "Dark Circle." Playing a modern devil, he suggested a sinister touch would be added if he didn't touch the rest of the actors. He doesn't even get to kiss Audrey Totter.

Graduates May Ask For Navy Training

Lt. Commander Lee J. Delworth, recruiting commande of the Albuquerque recruiting district which covers New Mexico and Western Texas, has announced that approximately 800 applications will be received from college graduates for commission as ensign, U. S. Navy, for assignment to flight training commencing July 1, 1948.

He said applicants for the above commissions as ensign must in general possess the following qualifications: be native-born or a naturalized citizen of the U. S.; be not less than 19 nor more than 25 years of age on July 1 of the calendar year in which commissioned; be physically qualified and aeronautically adapted for actual control of aircraft; must attain certain marks in aviation test; shall have satisfactorily completed at least four years (120 semester hours) in a college or university accredited by a national or regional accrediting association; be strongly motivated to fly, and be of unquestioned loyalty to the United States.

First consideration will given to graduating contract students from the NROTC, with second consideration given to all other college graduates, Delworth explained.

Inquiries may be addressed to Naval Officer Procurement, Bldg. 11, Naval Air Station, Dallas, Texas.

Sewing machines can last two or three generations if periodically oiled, cleaned and adjusted.

Keep electric cords free from kinks, knots or sharp bends which may break fine wires and damage the covering.

Hubs Idle, Borger Gains Half Game

Jupiter Pluvius inserted himself into the lineup in the West Texas-New Mexico league last night, washing out two of the scheduled contests, Albuquerque at Lubbock and Amarillo at Pampa.

But the Borger Gassers got back on the victory trail by turning in the fifth shutout of the year in the loop at the expense of the Abilene Blue Sox. And the last place Clovis Pioneers put a crimp into the Lamesa Loboes' hopes of moving higher in the league with a 12-10 triumph.

The Borger victory moved the Gassers to within a game and a half of the second-place Lubbock Hubbers and also widened the gap over Albuquerque to the same width.

Tonight the Hubbers will attempt to gain back the half game they lost while they were idle last night, meeting the Albuquerque Dukes in a twin bill.

The first game will start at 7:30 p. m. and Manager Jackie Sullican has nominated Cotton Russell as the starter. If Russell is right — he's been bothered with a skinned finger — the Hubbers could stand a good chance of winning both games.

Cobo May Pitch Second

Lefty Frank Cobo, who tired during his last start and had to be relieved by Royce Mills, probably will chuck the second contest. Cobo has a world of stuff when he's right, but most of the time this season he's been off form. A good performance tonight could make his chances of staying better and would be a big help to the Hubbers.

Third Baseman Frank McAlexander, out with a piece of iron rust in his right eye Monday night, also is expected to be back in the lineup.

WALCOTT'S FOOT INFECTED

GRENLOCK, N. J., May 26 (AP)—An infected right foot has sidelined Jersey Joe Walcott for a few days.

It has been estimated that 80 percent of the world population normally suffers to some degree from undernutrition.

Tennis Club Planned Here

A Lubbock group headed by Glenn Ivy is speeding plans for organization of a tennis club for Hub city netters, officials have announced, with completion of the layout tentatively scheduled this summer. The club will be named the Story Tennis club, in honor of David Storey, graduate of Texas Technological college who was killed in World War II.

A membership drive has been launched by club officials, with the objective of securing an estimate of the number of Lubbock netters who will be interested in joining the organization.

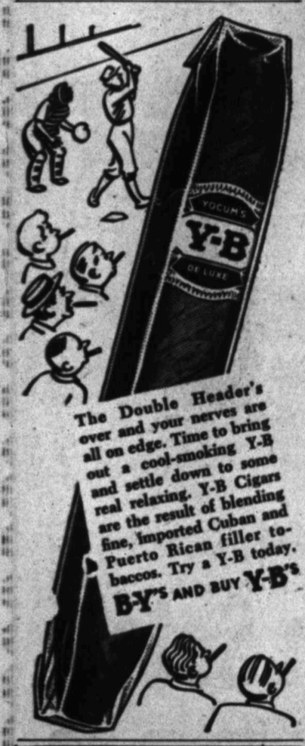

Features of the proposed club and court layout will be four properly constructed clay tennis courts, protected on all sides from the wind and well lighted for night play; adequate shower and locker room facilities; instruction for beginning players; and facilities and initiative for tournament and exhibition play.

"Good tournaments and exhibition play, both amateur and professional, have in the past been impossible because of a lack of proper playing conditions and seats for an audience," Ivy has stated, adding that the Storey Tennis club will bring to Lubbock the leading exhibition matches and furnish sufficient seats to accommodate spectators.

The four courts will be the only clay courts of the type most highly recommended by the U. S. Lawn Tennis association between Ft. Worth and El Paso.

The lights will enable tennis enthusiasts to utilize the cool, still hours of the evening, which have heretofore been impossible, Ivy said.

Those interested in joining the club should contact Ivy at 2601 Ruby street, or call 2-7353. Membership will be limited to 150 members.

Between . . . The Lines

— By JOE KELLY —

Wednesday, again, or another middle-of-the-week, cleaning off the sports hook, rainy day column for the long suffering public. Of initial interest is a notice that the Olympic Victory stamp is available for sale through the Chicago and New York offices. The stamp comes in four different colors, shows a dramatic moment in the 1932 games, to which the United States was host, and sells for one buck for a sheet of 40 stamps. The top of the stamp sheet carries a statement of purpose and the bottom carries an engraved reproduction of the Olympic oath.

The stamp is a non-revenue one and is designed to raise money for the United States' Olympic squad, which will participate in the games this summer. Funds are not coming along as well as expected and it is a touch and go proposition at present. Stamp collector's and sport enthusiasts could do much worse than to buy several sheets to help support American boys and girls, who will carry our hopes in the Olympics.

The American Legion baseball school for Lubbock boys opened today and will continue through tomorrow, with members of the Hubbers aiding in the instruction. Manager Jackie Sullivan will be in charge of the school, which is part of the Junior League baseball program of the Legion. No better baseball program functions in the nation today and your support will be worth every effort you make. No amount of publicity can take the place of a lot of friends cheering for the boys. It is interesting to note the number of former Legion players now in the majors. Eight of the starting Boston Red Sox players and seven of the Philadelphia Athletic starters, for instance, got their start in the program.

Turning to fishing, Possum Kingdom Lake publicists tell us that Mrs. Jo Dick Slaughter of 2402 29th street caught the first tag fish in the Sportsman's association 1948 fish rodeo. The fish was crappie No. 625 and carried almost $400 in prizes. The catch was made near the junctions of Cedar and Caddo Creeks. The contest continues to Dec. 31, with about 500 fish to be caught. From Lake Brownwood comes word that the good fishing was good for a Lubbock family and another from Lamesa. O. C. Horn of Lubbock had an 18 and 39 pound yellow cat, along with 20 channel fish, while Harvey Trico and family of Lamesa had 40 pounds of crappie.

The June issue of Sport magazine carries an article by rantland Rice (He's the one who left Doak Walker off his All-American) in which he tells Joe Louis, "You're a fat man." Rice tells Louis that, if he is honest, he will admit he was outclassed by a second rate fighter in the first Walcott-Louis go. Rice also makes some other good, pointed remarks in an open letter to the champ. Which reminds us that KFYO is again going to carry the big fight on June 23 over the ABC network on an exclusive broadcast. Be sure to listen to KFYO for what may this time not be an upset, but a clearcut victory.

Softball has taken the nation into its grasp more than ever this year, although we doubt if it ever achieves the appeal that baseball holds. We've just been looking over a copy of the new 1948 Official Softball Guide, which Publisher Monte Wells sent us. He points out that the greatest player participation is in industrial leagues sponsored by some 8,000 industries, with community teams a close second. Primary cause of softball's appeal is the fact that the games go only seven innings and a fast game seldom lasts more than an hour.

An item from the Ford company tells of Babe Ruth's signing another contract, his second, as consultant to Ford on the American Legion Junior Baseball program. Babe traveled more than 40,000 miles last year to appear before thousands of kids and adults in promotion of the game he loves the most. He gives credit for his recovery from near death to the program, saying "the kids did it. Just being around them and talking baseball made me well."

THE ROUNDUP: The Hubbers profited from the rest last night, giving the overworked hurlers a chance to recover . . . Frank McAlexander was out Monday night with a bit of iron rust in his right eye, but is expected back tonight . . . Johnny Davis of Lubbock earned a track letter at Texas A. and M. this spring . . . And Walter Willingham of Seagraves earned one in baseball . . . The Annual Senior Open Golf tournament will be held at Willow Springs course in Santone June 1 through 5 . . . Clyde Gibson thought his hole-in-one Sunday had been kicked in as a joke. When he found it hadn't, he could hardly continue play . . . The bowling season is over, but enthusiasts continue to roll at the Plamor Lanes and the Lubbock Bowling club alleys.

Most Writers Favor Louis

NEW YORK, May 26. (AP)—A nationwide poll of sports writers by the Associated Press showed today 230 who believe Joe Louis will defeat Jersey Joe Walcott against 52 who favor the challenger.

Although Louis won the first fight by a decision, only two writers believe he will repeat the same way in Yankee Stadium June 23. The other 228 predict a knockout, with the third, fourth, and fifth rounds favored.

Among Walcott's supporters, 32 think he will win by a decision. Those that favor Walcott by a knockout pick late rounds.

Little Change Shown

The poll showed virtually no change in national expert opinion on the fight since the AP took a survey last December that showed 80 per cent of the editors favoring Louis. The present poll is 81.5 per cent for Louis.

Many editors pointed to Louis' record in his nine return matches. The champion has always improved on his first performance. Others cited his desire to retire with a perfect record.

Those who pick Louis to win by a knockout and named the round voted this way: First—10; second—15; third—41; fourth—45; fifth—51; sixth—25; seventh—23; eighth—11; ninth—4; and eleventh—1. Two did not pick the round but said "early rounds."

Vote On Walcott

The round-by-round vote on Walcott winning by a knockout was: second—1; sixth—2; seventh—1; eighth—5; ninth—3; eleventh—1; twelfth—1; thirteenth—1; fifteenth—1. Four did not name the round.

Comment by Texas sports writers included:

G. H. Scherwitz, San Antonio Light—Louis has lost the old urge." Walcott by decision.

Harry Reckner, San Antonio Evening News—"Walcott can't go in reverse gear forever without stumbling." Louis before 6.

Jinx Tucker, Waco, News-Tribune and Times-Herald—"In any competition between a has-been and a never-wasser, you can't go far wrong in taking the has-been, and that is the only reason for taking Louis."

Jimmy Bullock, News-Herald, Borger,—Louis 3.

Melvin Fenoglio, Democrat, Sherman—Walcott 10.

Bill Sims, Record News, Wichita Falls—Walcott decision.

Bill Adams, Victoria, Advocate—Louis 3.

George Yow, Valley Evening Monitor, McAllen—Walcott 6 to 8.

J. P. Woodward, Evening Herald, Plainview—Louis 4.

Bill Woodside, Evening Mirror, Hilisboro—Louis 4.

NCAA Scholarship Types Are Outlined

CHICAGO, May 26 (AP)—Three types of scholarship permissible under the NCAA's "sanity code" for combatting subsidization of athletes were listed today in an interpretive bulletin to 350 schools.

The committee reported scholarships may be awarded on 1, the basis of need; 2, high scholarship, and 3, other basis of qualifications of which athletic ability is not considered, presumably for forensic students, talented musicians and other specialtists.

New Pitching Sensation Is Brought Out By Cleveland

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sport Writer

The Cleveland Indians are putting the squeeze on the rest of the American league club with a "lemon"—Bob Lemon, a converted infielder-outfielder.

Lemon, the No. 2 pitcher on the Tribe's staff—second only to Bob Feller—has been knocking the bats out of enemy hands with even greater eclat than his tutor, Rapid Robert himself.

Each has won five games, but Lemon has lost only two to Feller's three. The pupil also tops the teacher in complete games, six to four; shutouts, two to one, and, strange as it may seem, in strikeouts, 37 to 27. Lemon's totals in complete games, shutouts and strikeouts are also high for the league.

Was Fluke On Field

Not bad for a California kid who only two years ago was ready to quit baseball after proving a lemon both as an infielder and outfielder.

The 27-year-old native of Long Beach turned in his best performance of the season last night as he shut out the Washington Senators, 4-0. He allowed only four hits and fanned 11—a season high.

He helped win his own game with a third inning double which highlighted a two-run rally. Ken Keltner, Cleveland third sacker and leading home run hitter with 13, suffered an arm injury when he was hit by a thrown ball. He will miss several games.

The victory enabled the Indians to retain their half-game margin over the runner-up Philadelphia Athletics.

Athletics Beat Chisox

The battery combination of pitcher Bob Savage and catcher Buddy Rosar led the A's to a 4-3 win over the White Sox in a night game in Chicago. Rosar's sixth inning single scored Hank Majeski with the winning run.

With everybody in the New York lineup hitting safely, the Yankees raked four pitchers for 22 hits to plaster a 16-5 defeat on the Tigers in Detroit. Behind this heavy barrage, righthander Vic Rachi coasted to his fourth straight victory.

The triumph left the third place Yankees still two games off the pace.

Assaulting four Boston pitchers for 17 hits, the surprising Browns whipped the Red Sox, 9-4, in a night game in St. Louis and moved into a virtual tie with Detroit for fourth place. They trail the Bengals by four percentage points.

Phils Beat Pirates

Paul Erickson, making his first start for Philadelphia since being acquired from the Chicago Cubs, pitched the Phillies to a 4-1 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates in a night game in Philadelphia. The tall righthander gave up only four hits in 6 2/3 innings before he retired because of a pulled shoulder muscle. Schoolboy Rowe held the Pirates to two hits the rest of the way.

The scheduled games between the St. Louis Cardinals and New York Giants at the Polo Grounds and the Chicago Cubs and Brooklyn Dodgers at Ebbets Field were postponed by rain. A great fog combined with rain washed out the scheduled game between the Cincinnati Reds and Boston Braves at Braves' field.

Better Pray For Cold, Rainy Summer

Brecheen Says High-Flying Redbirds Not Yet At Peak

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, May 26—The seven National league teams trying to overhaul the high-flying St. Louis Cardinals may be a bit shocked today to hear that Harry (The Cat) Brecheen, ace of the Mississippi mudcat mound staff, doesn't think the Redbirds are playing their best ball yet.

"We need hot weather," commented the little curve baller from Broken Bow, Okla. "I need it and so do some of our other pitchers like Red Munger, Howie Pollet and Al Brazle. It would help some of our other players, like Whitey Kurowski, too."

Pray For Cold Summer

Under those conditions, the rest of the league better pray for a cold summer with lots of rain. For if the Redbirds get much better they might come in on one wing and no prayers.

Take the case of Brecheen, a slender young man of mild mien who "needs" more warmth to loosen his arm.

So far this season he has won four games against one defeat; pitched three shutouts; tossed a one hitter, and given up only six runs in five games. On top of that he has gone the distance four times, a feat which in these days is as rare as male domination of the home.

The Cat credited good conditioning this spring plus added strength for his fast getaway.

Credits Club's Hitting

"I'm about 12 pounds heavier," he said. "I weigh 170 now, even though I don't look it, and it has made me stronger. Then, we had a good spring, worked hard and are in pretty good shape."

One of the best curves in the business, a snaky screwball and a wicked change up helps a bit, too, Brecheen admitted. But he gives the credit for his victories to the club's good hitting.

"Nippy Jones has helped us a lot; the guys are hitting great and that Stan Musial, he's terrific," Harry said.

Not a word about those three shutouts.

The Giants are the club to watch, Brecheen added, moving in that lithe manner which resulted in his nickname.

Can't Ever Let Up

"Every club has a couple of tough hitters," he mused, "but those Giants are loaded. You can't ever let up when you're pitching to them or they'll knock your brains out.

"Take that Johnny Mize and Walker Cooper," he continued "They are real standouts. They hit right handers or they hit left handers. It doesn't make any difference to them.

"It's funny, but when you're playing you seldom notice the crowd.

"The first game I ever pitched, in the Texas league, I was really nervous, though. I guess I couldn't have told you my own name. There were only about 11,000 there but it was more people than I'd ever seen."

Now the crowd doesn't even register, he admitted. And there have been some big ones, particularly in the three world series in which The Cat has pitched. That's where he got his biggest thrill, winning three games in the 1946 classic.

But The Cat is ready for more. And, while he doesn't come right out and say so, you can tell he's expecting another large chance this season—even if he has to settle for a sunlamp.

Tag Team Grudge Battle Scheduled

The doors at Sled Allen's wrestling arena may not be large enough to admit the crowd tonight, which will be jamming its way in to see Olan Boynton and Ray "Big Train" Clements tangle with Eddie Gideon and Gil Knutson in a tag team grudge battle.

The tag team affair heads a card that will have Yaqui Joe tangling with Sammy Kohen in a two-out-of-three falls semi-final that has a 45-minute time limit.

Boynton and Clements will be out after blood tonight. Boynton claims that he was beaten by Knutson last week, when Knutson was the referee in a match between Boynton and Gideon. He challenged Gideon and Knutson to a team match, asking for Clements as a partner.

The feature should provide plenty of action, more than has been seen in some time, while the semi-final also promises to be a good supporting go.

Tickets go on sale this morning at Wylie's Drug store and the first match is scheduled to begin at 8:30 p.m.

Rain Washes Out Big State Schedule

(By The Associated Press)

Rain washed out the entire Big State league schedule last night, but the same scheduled opponents tangle again tonight.

Waco's Pirates, one game ahead of the fast-climbing Austin Pioneers, take on the Paris Rockets at Paris. Austin is at Texarkana for a series with cellar-dwelling Bears and Wichita Falls meets Gainesville at Gainesville and Sherman-Denison invades Greenville to meet the Majors.

Drill Set For Junior Players

Prospective candidates for the American Legion Junior Baseball League program will report tonight at 6 o'clock on Chapman Field for the second drill of the season.

A total of only 35 boys turned out last night, with officials blaming the cool, windy weather for the low number. The diamond men were sent through a light drill on a muddy field under the watchful eyes of Coach C. R. Pattison, Coach Fred Taylor, O. R. Bentz and H. J. McCabe, commander of Allene Brothers Post of the American Legion.

McCabe said that with a large increase in the number of teams in the district, Lubbock must have a larger turnout for the team. Competition will be keener, he declared, and a strong league will make the Hub City team stronger.

Play will begin within the near ruture in the senior division, with a baseball school set for today and tomorrow at Chapman Field. The younger boys are scheduled to report from 10 a. m. to noon, with the older boys reporting from 2 until 4 p. m.

The school will be conducted under the direction of the American Legion, with Hubber Manager Jackie Sullivan and the Hubber squad illustrating and instructing.

Ike Williams Wins To Retain Crown

LOS ANGELES, May 26 (AP)—Ike Williams retained his lightweight championship by winning a split decision over Enrique Bolanos in their grueling 15-round bout at Wrigley Field last night.

Williams kept a slight edge all the way, but saved his strength for the last few rounds. It was a long, tiring test for Williams, who never came close to flooring Bolanos.

The sell-out crowd of 22,000 fans raised the gate to $150,000, a new California record.

Williams, undisputed titleholder since he defeated Bob Montgomery in 1947, weighed in at 135. Bolanos weighed 134.

The fight was fairly even up until the 11th round when the Mexican challenger tired badly.

Referee Charlie Randolph gave the nod to Bolanos, but the two judges favored Williams. Frankie Van gave the champion six points and Johnny Indrisano gave him 12.

Westerners Meet Brownfield Today

Lubbock's potent Westerner nine and the erratic Brownfield Cubs will tangle at 3 o'clock this afternoon at Brownfield in a District 1-AA conference tilt. The Westerners will be bidding for their second straight triumph since the Saturday meeting of the District 1-AA executive committee, when a Lubbock player was declared forfeited.

The Westerners, leading the conference race with seven wins and no defeats until the committee ruled Third-sacker Bobby Griffin ineligible, defeated the Cubs by a top-heavy margin in their first encounter and will be favored to repeat their triumph today.

Lefty Jackie Martyn, fireball southpaw hurler, will probably get the starting assignment on the mound for the Lubbock schoolboys, while Hugh Merritt is expected to do the tossing for the home nine. Martyn chalked up the Westerners' first win this season, against Borger, and has turned in some spectacular relief jobs in other tilts.

Lubbock Holds Key

Although the Westerners are out of the running for the district championship as a result of the ruling by the executive committee, the Lubbock schoolboys hold the key to the conference crown. Amarillo has one defeat and still has to play the Westerners here Friday night at Rosenthal field. If the Lubbock nine beats the Amarilloans, the Sandies will drop into a tie with Borger for the title and a playoff will be necessary to determine the winner. If Amarillo defeats Lubbock, then the Sandies will coast to undisputed possession of the crown.

Coach Fred Taylor announced that the 22-player Westerner squad was scheduled to leave Lubbock about noon today by chartered bus, arriving in Brownfield in time for a thorough limbering up session before the game.

If a caster in any of your furniture persists in falling out, fill the hole with wood putty. Then push in the caster. When the putty dries the caster will hold.

Pairings To Be Given Friday

Fred Hogan, district executive chairman for the National Open Golf tournament, announced yesterday that pairings for the qualifying round to be shot at the Lubbock Country club Tuesday, would be revealed Friday morning.

Hogan said that the pairings had been received from New York, where all entry blanks were sent, and the pairings will be announced through the Morning Avalanche and the Evening Journal. Entrants will shoot qualifying rounds here, a special site for West Texas aspirants to the title and one of two qualifying centers in Texas.

Rains Help Course

Texas is one of the few states to be given two qualifying centers and Lubbock was honored by being named for West Texas. It is expected that golfers will be here from as far away as El Paso and near Fort Worth, in addition to several men from this city.

Chick Trout, who is assisting with plans for the qualifying rounds, said yesterday that the heavy rains of the past few days had been wonderful for the golf course. He declared that the greens and fairways will be in perfect condition and top-grade golf is expected here.

Preliminary and experimental rounds are expected to be shot over the week end, as entrants in the qualifying round arrive to try out the local course. They will find everything ready for their appearance and the Country club will do everything in its power to make the visitors feel at home.

Fine Iron Game Gives Ben Hogan His Second PGA Crown And $3,500 In Cash

ST. LOUIS, May 26 (AP)—Stone-faced Ben Hogan, the great little pressure player from Hershey, Pa., can thank a fine iron game for his second Professional Golfers association championship and a $3,500 boost to the family bankroll.

Hogan beat veteran Mike Turnesa, of White Plains, N. Y., 7 and 6, yesterday in the finals of the 30th PGA tournament, mainly because he was complete master of his wedge and eight iron.

The prize money vaulted Hogan's tournament earnings for this year to $13,897.50 for 49 rounds of play, second only in dollars and cents to Lloyd Mangrum of Chicago, who has picked up $14,764.99 in 10 more rounds.

Turnesa, one of three brothers who have lost in the finals of PGA tournaments, simply didn't have the strokes to match the subpar shooting of the Texas-born Hogan.

Always on the inside with his brilliant approaches, Hogan trailed only once during the day—on the second hole Turnesa sneaked a 20-footer into the cup. Ben evened the match at the fourth, went ahead on the fifth and from that point never looked back. He was 1-up at the turn of the nine, 4-up from eighteen, and 4-up after the twenty-seventh.

Kilgore Beats Bryan, Takes Second Place

(By The Associated Press)

Kilgore had moved into second place in the Lone Star league today on a 17-1 decision over the Bryan Bombers last night.

The Drillers replaced the Tyler Trojans, who were squeezed out by the Marshall Tigers, 9-8. In other games, Lufkin beat Henderson, 9-3, and Longview blanked Gladewater, 7-0.

Leroy Jones batted and pitched the Drillers to their one-sided victory. He spaced nine hits and collected a home run, two doubles and a single. His second inning homer came with the bases loaded.

Walters set Henderson down with three hits as Lufkin built up an early lead. Johnny Stone's three-run homer in the eighth accounted for all of the Oiler runs.

Frank Calo paced Marshall's 17-hit outburst, hitting two doubles and two singles.

Longview scored five runs in the eighth inning on Lou Morton's homer, Jimmy McCarnes' triple and Pete Gustovich's double.

Buffs Regain Second Spot In Texas Loop

(By The Associated Press)

Houston was back in second place in the Texas league standings today, with Fort Worth far enough ahead to escape worrying.

The Buffs used a 6-2 decision over San Antonio to replace the Missions in the runnerup spot last night as rain washed out al. but one other engagement. Shreveport and Beaumont split a double bill while Fort Worth and Dallas, Tulsa and Oklahoma City were idle. The Sports won the first game, 5-1 and Beaumont the nightcap, 8-0.

Pete Bryant notched his sixth victory of the year as the Buffs took advantage of Mission mistakes to win easily. The Padress bobbled five times afield and couldn't bunch the nine hits they collected off Bryant.

Red Mann limited Beaumont to five hits in winning his fourth straight game, but Bob Revels' four-hit pitching cooled Shreveport in the nightcap. Six hits accounted for six runs in the second and third innings as the shippers pulled way ahead.

Milled Rice Prices Advance This Week

DALLAS, May 26 (U.P.) — Some grades of milled rice advanced as much as $1 a hundred pounds in markets this week, the U. S. Department of Agriculture reported today, with the trend generally stronger.

The USDA's production and marketing administration said domestic distributors found relatively light offerings despite large amounts remaining for distribution. The USDA report interpreted this as a sign of heavy mill commitments to Cuban buyers.

Home Building Boom Sighted

WASHINGTON, May 26 (U.P.)—Ewan Clague, commissioner of labor statistics, said today that the country appears to be well started on its biggest home building boom in history.

He told a news conference that 90,000 new homes were started in April. He said this was only 4,000 less than the 1947 monthly peak which was not reached until September.

"If April's trend is continued," Clague said, "we should have the biggest home building year in our history.

Record In Employment

Clague, the government's top statistical official, also said:

1. Civilian employment is headed for a new peacetime record of 62,000,000 persons by next September. He said agriculture and construction are exerting a greater than seasonal push.

2. The General Motors Corp., wage agreement with United Auto Workers (CIO) tying wage rates to living costs—is "the most precise" of its kind. He said it may start a new era in the making of wage agreements. He did not think that it will mean an immediate increase in prices generally.

3. The consumer price index will probably continue to rise slightly through next November. This could be prevented by a drop in food prices, he said, but the Agriculture department has already indicated this is not to be expected this year.

Methodists

D Crosby, executive secretary of the board of education of the Northwest Texas conference, Tuesday. Members of the committee are Rev. Marvin L. Boyd, Abilene; Rev. Alsie H. Carleton, Dr. E. I. Robinson and Rev. Mr. Crosby, Lubbock and Rev. Joe E. Boyd, Canadian.

Approximately 1,000 delegates and visitors are expected to attend conference sessions, said Dr. Robinson.

All sessions will be open to the public.

Some Have Arrived

Numerous pastors already have arrived.

Talk was buzzing in the lobbies of hotels here this morning on who will move under new appointments to be read Sunday and who will be elected bishop at the jurisdictional conference in El Paso in June. Those prominently mentioned for bishop include Dr. Paul Quillian and Dr. Dawson Bryan of Houston, Dr. H. B. Watts of Tulsa, Okla., former pastor at Lockney, Dr. Marshall Steele of Highland Park, Dallas, and Dr. Dana Dawson of Shreveport, La.

One or two bishops will be elected at the jurisdictional conference, which is a Methodist conference of eight state.

Committee To Meet

PRICES ADVANCE AGAIN

NEW YORK, May 26 (AP) — Several leading automobile stocks pushed through their previous highs for the year in today's market.

Share prices achieved their first average advance of the week under the impetus of the demand for motors, steels, aircrafts, farm impiements, and other selected industrials and rails moved ahead.

The rally got under way around midday. Closing quotations were around the day's best, ranging from fractions to around two points higher.

Total transactions were around 1,700,000 shares.

General Motors, Hudson and Studebaker hit new 1948 highs. Chrysler and Packard also registered gains.

Holding higher levels elsewhere were U. S. Steel, Youngstown Sheet, Dupont, General Electric (at a new high for the year), Oliver Corp. (on a good six-months sales showing), Douglas Aircraft, Boeing, Lockheed, Firestone, Westinghouse Electric, Miami Copper, Sinclair Oil, Union Pacific, and Western Union.

Dividend actions pushed Best Foods, American Machine & Metals and United Merchants and Manufacturers to new tops.

Omission or lack of action on dividends depressed Calumet & Hecla and Eureka Williams.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, May 26 (AP) — Cotton futures advanced sharply today on an announcement by the ECA authorizing the shipment of $21,871,000 worth of cotton to four European countries. Expectations that early foreign cotton buying will follow, induced considerable short covering in the nearby July delivery, with the balance of the market moving up in sympathy.

In early dealings new crop deliveries were under light liquidating pressure, following additional good rains on Tuesday in Texas and Oklahoma which were considered highly beneficial to the cotton crop.

military aid program for Israel, to give the infant nation supplies and technical assistance on a lend-lease basis. White House Secretary Charles G. Ross said that thus far no action is imminent on lifting the U. S. ban on arms shipments to the Middle East.

Paul Rugger, president of the international Red Cross committee left Cairo today for Amman, Trans-Jordan, en route to Palestine.

Even before the United Nations security council deadline for a cease fire (noon, EST—11 a. m. CST) indications came from Arab capitals that the world organization had failed again to achieve peace in the Holy Land.

Brace For Onslaught

While Jewish military leaders braced for a stepped-up Arab onslaught in Jerusalem, Israel's provisional government informed the security council it is reconsidering its previous willingness to comply with a cease fire. This, the Jewish government said, is because the Arabs have undertaken a drive to win a decision in the battle of Jerusalem before the deadline.

The Cairo newspaper Al Assas, organ of Premier Nokrashy Pasha's party, said Egyptian troops in Palestine took 1,500 Zionist prisoners in the occupation of Deir Suneid, 23 miles southeast of Tel viv, during the Egyptian drive up the Palestine coast.

Al Ahram, independent Cairo newspaper, said the Egyptian government had informed the U. N. the cease fire order was unacceptable. The newspaper also carried an Amman dispatch quoting King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan as saying the truce order "has no basis in right of justice, and the Arab peoples will not accept the cease fire."

Associated Press Correspondent Carter L. Davidson said the Jews inside Jerusalem expect an Arab blitz, designed to give the Arabs a victory to bolster prestige at home and abroad.

Premier Mahmoud Fahmy Nokrashy Pasha said in Cairo: "There never will be founded a state called Israel, or any other name, as long as the creation of that state relies upon the theft of Arab land, the extermination of its Arab owners and the sacrifice of moral principles of its Arab neighbors."

selfish motives."

But he said a draft would not be necessary if service pay, particularly for enlisted men, were raised.

The bill, approved early this month by the House armed services committee, would require men from 18 through 30 to register with local draft boards. Those from 19 through 25 would be liable for two years' service.

Veterans Exempt

Any man who had served a year or more in the U. S. armed forces since Sept. 16, 1940, would be exempt. Men who had served more than 90 days, but less than a year, would be exempt if they joined a reserve unit.

Exemptions also would be granted those who had served a year or more in the armed forces of an Allied country before Sept. 2, 1945 and who are now living in this country.

Missionary To Talk At Idalou Church . . .

Rev. C. W. McCullough, Southern Baptist missionary to the San Andres islands off the coast of Colombia, South America, is to address the workers' conference of the Lubbock Baptist association meeting at the Idalou Baptist church Thursday at 2 p. m.

Mr. McCullough, who has been home on furlough, has delayed his return to the islands because of unsettled political conditions in the Latin country.

With his wife, he has spent a number of years on the island. He is to relate some of his experiences and show slides of the islands, the natives and progress of Baptist work in the area. The couple plan to return soon, taking with them several students in Baptist schools who will do Bible school work in the islands during the summer.

Virden Withdraws His Resignation

WASHINGTON, May 26 (U.P.)—John C. Virden, under congressional fire because his daughter works for a Russian news agency here, today withdrew his resignation as special assistant to the Secretary of Commerce.

Virden, a Cleveland industrialist, changed his mind after President Truman, Secretary of Commerce Charles Sawyer and Rep. George Bender, (R-O.) urged him to stay on the job.

He had submitted his resignation last week after an attack by Rep. Fred Crawford, (R-Mich.) who told the House that Virden's 22-year-old daughter works for Tass, the Russian news agency.

Shivers Keeps Quiet On Campaign Plans

MISSION, May 26 (AP) — In answer to questions about his gubernatorial plans, Lt. Gov. Allan Shivers said today he is "listening and watching developments."

Asked if he wants to remove himself from the gubernatorial picture, he replied, "No, I don't want to do that, either."

He said that he had no other statement to make.

Smooth-Acting Man With Hypodermic Needle Robs Wealthy Widow Of Jewelry

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 26 (U.P.)—A wealthy widow reported to police today that she apparently had been the victim of a smooth-acting stranger and a hypodermic needle.

Mrs. Kathleen Cayot, 38, said she lost jewelry valued at more than $10,000 early today.

She explained to detectives William Peters and Fred Ennis that she went to a bank Monday and took the jewelry from a safety box in preparation for a wedding reception for a friend.

Man Introduced Himself

Then she went to a nearby drugstore, and while eating a hamburger, a man walked up to her. He introduced himself and said he'd known her in 1941. That night they went out together. Last night they and another couple went to a downtown hotel for supper and dancing.

Shortly after she and the balding 50-year-old man reached her home, about 12:30 a. m. today, she related, she felt a tingling sensation in her leg. She said she knew nothing more until she awoke several hours later.

Her jewelry was missing. There was a pinpoint mark on her leg. The officers said she apparently had been drugged.

"I guess I was just a sucker," she told them.

Texas-Hater's Tour Of Austin Takes Place In Big Bird Cage

AUSTIN, May 26 (U.P.) — Ray Halloran, the 26-year-old Texas-hater from Cincinnati, Ohio, wondered today if by winning he had not lost.

Halloran's letter on why he hated Texas was chosen as the best submitted to the Madisonville Sidewalk Cattlemen's association, and the smiling war veteran was rounded up and brought to Texas. The idea was to change his mind about Texas—one way or another.

New Approach

First, in Dallas and Fort Worth, he received the number one chamber of commerce treatment —including thick steaks, a round of the night spots, and always a bevy of beautiful girls to keep him company.

Here yesterday a new approach was decided upon.

"Tex" (his Lone Star state monicker) was met by state police as he entered the capital city. They firmly escorted him to the state hospital (for the insane), put him in a ward, and then saw that he was disinfected and bathed.

In Bird Cage

Next step in the "Halloran treatment" was a ride through downtown Austin, where curious spectators lined the streets. Halloran was clad in swimming trunks to ride, imprisoned in an oversized bird cage, on a truck with five University of Texas co-eds by his side.

Finally, he was led — in fine Texas spirit—handcuffed, through the lobby of a downtown hotel.

Today was to be a little calmer. Before leaving in the afternoon for Madisonville, he'll visit with Gov. Beauford H. Jester and will take a tour of the University of Texas campus.

thirds rule.

4. Buried in committee a proposal for a state referendum July 24 for or against binding electors to nominees who oppose Truman's civil rights program. A group favoring the southern revolt backed it.

5. Elected Wright Morrow of Houston, unfriendly to Truman, as national committeeman to replace Myron Blalock of Marshall, who will retire because of illness.

Miller Is Rejected

6. In so doing, rejected Mayor Tom Miller of Austin for the post. He was backed by the Truman faction in general and the Travis county delegation in particular.

The tough talk came in an overwhelmingly-adopted resolution which recorded "unalterable opposition" to the federal civil rights plan.

"The duty and loyalty of citizens to their country and its constitution are higher than and superior to any duty and loyalty to any political party," this resolution declared.

"The four propositions composing what is known as the Truman civil rights program are contrary to the provisions of the constitution."

A Major Victory

Election of Morrow was a major victory for a state's rights faction. Rejection of the civil rights referendum in committee was a defeat. Merritt Gibson of Longview, a leader of this faction, said he was disappointed it did not come before the convention for a record vote. He said the convention leadership had promised a roll call on it.

Woodville Rogers of San Antonio, leader of the pro-Truman Democrats, said the convention was a partial victory for his side in that his major objective was to keep the Texas party from joining the southern revolters.

R. B. Creager, Texas Republican national committeeman and whip at the state GOP convention, termed convention action a "marvelous victory" for Sen. Taft.

Creager's Taft organization controlled the Republican gathering from start to finish.

Roy Draper Claimed After Brief Illness

Roy Draper, 54, of 1916 Ave. H, died at 3:15 a. m. today in West Texas hospital following an illness of two weeks. He had lived in and around Lubbock for the past 26 years. Cause of death was indicated as a heart attack.

Funeral arrangements have not been made pending the arrival of relatives. Burial will be in Lubbock cemetery under the direction of Sanders Funeral home.

Survivors include his wife, a son, Bill Draper of Lubbock; his mother, Mrs. J. E. Draper of Lubbock; three brothers, Rev. W. M. Draper of Anton, John Draper of Hereford and Otis Draper of Uvalde, and one sister, Mrs. N. G. Stewart of Fort Worth.

Home Is Ransacked By Prowler Here

A prowler who ransacked the 2105 Twentieth residence of Mrs. R. C. Seaver and swapped a pair of saddle oxfords for a pair of moccasins also appropriated a slack suit, blouses, a bag and underclothing, police were informed today.

Police went this afternoon to the 1601 Twenty-first residence of Mrs. T. E. Lawson to investigate her report that a shot had been fired through the house.

Thief Is Sought

Search for a thief who drove away from J. L. Hooper Tire company without paying for a new $80 one-wheel trailer was being made in at least two South Plains counties.

The man was described as approximately 33 years old, about 5 feet 7 inches tall, of dark complexion and, when last seen, wearing khaki trousers, a light shirt and a straw hat.

Burglary Reported

Further clues had been obtained, it was indicated.

A belated report of a burglary of Reed Pumice Tile company was made late Tuesday from 1934 Ave. G, police said.

Time books, social security records, withholding receipts and other office papers were removed from the unlocked office Monday night.

A $20 bike was reported stolen from Sam Camp of 2809 Twenty-second.

no insult to the court, or to anyone connected with the case.

Asked For Delay

C. C. Crenshaw, counsel for plaintiff bus company, had earlier asked delay in the hearing until afternoon, believing that negotiations might result in settlement of the strike, and render the hearing needless.

The restraining order was issued by Judge Pardue late Saturday as result of an attack on Hubert McElroy, substitute driver for the bus company, who said six men jumped on him Friday night when he reached Abernathy on the run to Amarillo with the first bus to leave the station here after the 10:45 o'clock (Friday night) effective date of the strike call.

Counsel did not indicate to the court any details of negotiations or possible means of settlement of the strike.

Forecast For Today

The forecast for this vicinity given by the weather station near Lubbock was: Mostly cloudy today with intermittent light rain and occasional thunderstorm activities this afternoon. High temperature this afternoon from 60 to 65 degrees and low of about 55 degrees Thursday morning were forecast.

At 10 o'clock this morning, today's minimum was 52 degrees, recorded shortly before 10.

It was cloudy over the whole of the state, the Associated Press reported.

Early morning showers were reported at Brownsville, Laredo, Galveston, Wichita Falls, Abilene, Mineral Wells and Midland.

Downpours Reported

Heaviest fall during the past 24 hours centered in the Dallas-Fort Worth areas. Downpours late yesterday raised the total at Dallas to 2.58 inches and at Fort Worth to 1.84.

A heavy electrical and thunderstorm at Laredo early today dumped 1.01 inches in the downtown section within an hour. The fall was general in that area, definitely breaking a severe drouth. It extended well into Mexico.

Additional rain at Midland brought the total there to 1.28 inches for the 24-hour period. It was heavier to the south and southwest. Ranges were greatly benefitted. Planting will start as soon as the weather clears.

Other Reports Made

Other rainfall reported included Lufkin .19, San Antonio .26, Brady .64, Wichita Falls .45, Junction .40, and Tyler .51.

Light showers fell at Tyler, Austin, Texarkana and Beaumont.

Yesterday's maximum temperatures ranged from 97 at Presidio to 50 at Amarillo. This morning's minimums ranged from 51 at Amarillo and Pampa to 70 at Houston.

General cloudiness with scattered thundershowers were forecast for tonight and Thursday.

Pleasanton in Atascosa county, just south of San Antonio, reported rain measuring 1.16 inches came in time to save the flax crop and be of great help to other crops and ranges.

Rainfall at Dalhart since Sunday measured 1.67 inches.

At Gainesville 3.57 inches has fallen since Monday. An overnight fall totaled .85 inch.

Death Kills More People Than Anything, Poor Man's Philosopher Opines Off Cuff

By HAL BOYLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, May 26—Random cuff notes by the poor man's philosopher:

Cheer up. The only man who went through life without getting gravel in his shoe died bare-footed.

A fat lady would like to be tried in the balance and found wanting.

Ground For Scandal

Success is a toss up. So is a salad.

One good turn deserves another—but that's no justification for the tornado.

The taxpayer puts down his own deductions; the government draws its own conclusions.

A man and a woman alone on a raft haven't any ground for scandal.

Matrimony is man's long adjustment to the fact that two minds can carry out only a single thought—the wife's.

Many a gay dog dies in the present trying to live up to his past.

Fear is the advance scout for misfortune.

A cow is a factory bound in leather that can't go on strike.

We live by our convictions: our wives by their instincts; our neighbors by their prejudices.

Where money talks, silence is golden.

Take Nothing For Granted

A pretty girl can give a man more ideas than a university.

Only a man with a real sense of humor can give a belly laugh on an empty stomach.

There are two things that always manage to get together—the right woman and the wrong hat.

Take nothing for granted. A bearded man can tell a bare-faced lie.

There are more men caught off base at cocktail parties than ball games. But in either case they're likely to get thrown out at home.

A man who keeps taking one more for the road is already off the straight and narrow path.

Rail Proposal

ernment as a "strike-breaking agency" because it seized legal control of the railroads May 10 and thus blocked a scheduled strike by the three unions.

Then they demanded that the government, having taken legal control, now assume "the full responsibilities of operation," take control of revenues, and bargain directly with the unions on wages and working conditions.

Property Would Be Bought

Finally they argued that the private operators more than once have shown their inability to maintain satisfactory labor relations and have failed to provide the public with efficient and prompt service.

Therefore, they said, the government should "begin preparations for the transfer of railroad ownership from private interests to the United State government."

This clearly suggested permanent nationalization. If carried to a conclusion it would mean buying the properties outright.

A. F. Whitney, head of the trainmen, said in Chicago last night:

Bonds Favored

"The government should, in my opinion, take the railroads over at the market, issue three per cent bonds to cover the purchase and establish a solvent railroad industry to serve the public, instead of a system that heretofore served the moneychangers."

In Kansas City, J. M. Prickett, first vice-president of the Kansas City Southern lines, told a reporter:

"If the railway labor executives are aiming at permanent control of the railroads I don't think they speak the feelings of the men they represent."

A grocery store at 2627 Ave. H was almost consumed by fire early this morning. City firemen said they answered an alarm at 4:15 a. m. Three booster trucks combatted the blaze after it was found that water mains were too far away for pumpers. The building is owned by Henry Hall. Cause of the fire was not certain, firemen said.

D. W. Robertson, justice of peace, and E. L. Robertson of 1802 Sixteenth have been informed that funeral services will be read this afternoon at Frisco, 25 miles north of Dallas, for a cousin, 75-year-old George Robertson. George Robertson, justice of peace at Frisco, died early Monday when he attempted to light a stove in his office and gas exploded. A son is Eugene Robertson, editor of the Sherman Democrat. A daughter, formerly Miss Grace Robertson, is a Lamesa school teacher.

Martha Jean Womack of Ropesville, two and a half years of age, suffered a fractured skull late Tuesday afternoon when she fell out of an automobile. She is being treated at St. Mary's hospital, where officials reported her condition this morning "as good as could be expected."

Mrs. W. T. Bell, 1911 Ave. K, has returned from San Antonio where she was called by the fatal illness of her father, William Daehnert, 92.

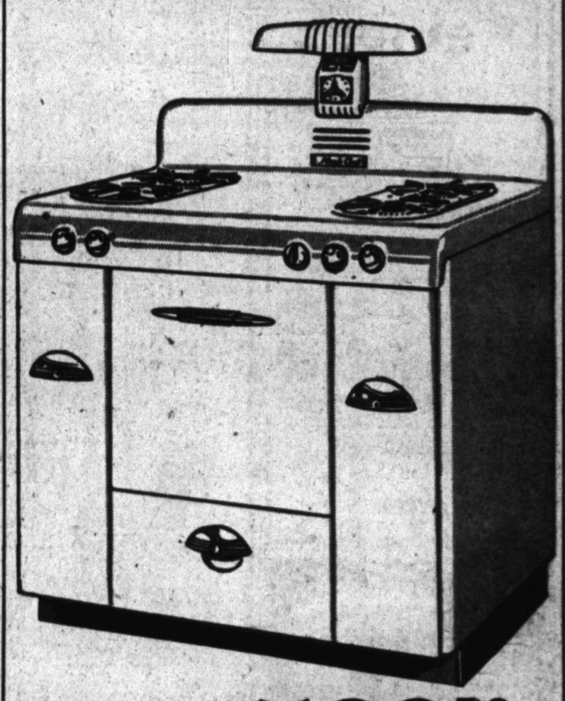

Members of the Lubbock Exchange club meeting for luncheon today at Hotel Lubbock heard the "53rd public rehearsal" of the "Kiwanis Hotshots," a five-piece musical organization of varied and various talents, composed of Harry Delaney, Jack Hall, Raymond Hamilton, Ralph Stroup and Roy Bass. Members also passed a finance committee proposal to raise monthly dues from $5 to $6 effective June 1 because of the increased price of luncheons. President Warlick Carr announced that the board of directors will meet the first Tuesday rather than the second Tuesday in June, with time and place to be announced later. Guests were Charles R. Meinecke, Billy Cathey, James M. Cathey, W. G. Streicher and R. E. Hamilton.

Bomb Damages Home Of Negro Family

FORT WORTH, May 26 (U.P.)—The home of a negro family here was damaged considerably last midnight when a bomb exploded in an opening leading beneath the bathroom.

Robert Macklin, 27, negro taxicab driver, his wife and her sister, Ruby Lee Harris, were sleeping when the five-room frame home was rocked by the blast. They were not hurt.

Macklin recently purchased the home, and could advance no reason for the explosion, he told officers.

Turkey Sees Threat Of Soviet Troops In Holy Land Conflict

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press Staff Writer

The Turks, who are men of action but few words, are doing some quiet worrying for fear the Jewish-Arab conflict may result in Russian troops being sent into the Middle East as part of a United Nations force to reestablish peace.

The advent of Bolshevist fighting men under such circumstances in that strategic area isn't very likely, since America, Britain and France would be dead against it. Still, Turkey's anxiety is understandable because, with Muscovites on her south and Russian dominated Bulgaria on her northern frontier, she would be in a powerful Red vise. And the Turks regard Russia as unfriendly, which is rather a euphemistic understatement of a harsh truth.

Opposed Partition

As a Moslem nation Turkey opposed the United Nations plan for a partition of Palestine between the Arabs and the Jews. Since then the Turkish government has sat tight until just now when foreign Minister Necmeddin Sadak declared during a speech:

"We wish with all our heart that without bloodshed, without setting up in this region a continuous element of disorder and insecurity, a lasting solution could be found leaving the Arabs masters of their rights."

Then Sadak shot an arrow which observers thought was aimed at Moscow:

"Our purest objective is that threats of aggression, designs aimed at domination and conquest, be eliminated between peoples, and relations of friendship and mutual cooperation based on the principles of honor and dignity be established, that none should interfere in the internal affairs of another, and that each be left in peace in his territory and sovereign rights."

Significant Enough

The foreign minister didn't interpret this statement, but its significance is clear enough when you know the background, which briefly is this:

Russia is bent on establishing herself as a Mediterranean power. In order to achieve this she seeks domination of the Dardanelles strait, which is controlled by Turkey. The Turks decline to surrender any part of their rights over this strategic waterway between the Black sea and the Mediterranean, and the issue is a burning one which could easily become acutely dangerous.

That brings us to a new angle. The Muscovites use devious methods in applying pressure to their intended victims. Thus it was that recently the Soviet Union sent a new ambassador to Turkey — Alexander Lavrishev. His excellency has the reputation of being a tough guy and his appointment brought from observers the comment that Russia might be getting ready to put the screws on Ankara.

Witching Hour

Foreign Minister Sadak may have similar ideas about the ambassador's mission and be showing the red light to try to halt any high pressure activities. Certainly this could be the witching hour for the Russian ghost to walk in the Middle East theatre, especially since the Jewish-Arab situation has been complicated by the differences between the United States and Britain. Communism thrives on trouble.

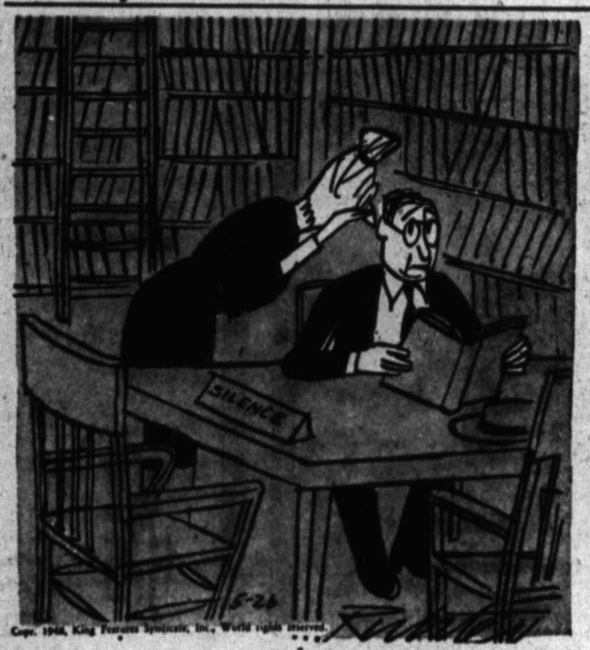

That doesn't mean the Soviet Union would deliberately embark on ventures which would produce a major war. She doesn't want a major war. However, Moscow hasn't concealed its intention to break into the Mediterranean—if necessary at the expense of Turkey and Greece. She will pursue that objective at all costs short of war.

Milk Producers Will Be Barbecue Guests

One hundred and eighteen producers of grade A milk in the Lubbock area will be the guests at the weekly Kiwanis club barbecue luncheon Thursday at the Livestock Pavilion on the campus of Texas Technological college.

The program will be sponsored by the Aggie committee of the organization and includes a discussion of the work being done by the milk producers and by Texas Tech. The group will tour the Dairy Barn to see the cows, and will also visit the Dairy Bull Barn to inspect the bulls used in the artificial insemination program now in progress at Texas Tech, Dean W. L. Stangel stated.

Food Price Decline Seen By Executive

CHICAGO, May 26 (INS)—An approximately 5-per cent decline in the nation's food bill within the next six months was envisioned today by a prominent Ohio chain food store head.

The executive, William H. Albers of Cincinnati, told the Super Market Institute convention in Chicago the decline would result from lower cereal prices and tougher competition.

Albers, who operates 50 super markets in Ohio, asserted:

"Barring another round of wage increases, which I doubt, food prices will not advance and some will come down. I say this because many consumers are back on the payroll week, living from hand to mouth. Their surplus funds have been spent."

$540,000 Loan Is Given Floyd REA

A loan of $540,000 to the Floyd County Rural Electric cooperative of Floydada was among loans totaling more than six million dollars to seven organizations by the Rural Electrification administration Tuesday to provide electrical service in farming areas, the Associated Press reported from Washington.

James B. Payne, electrical engineer here of the H. N. Roberts & Associates firm of engineers which is handling Floyd county work, said last night that the money would be used to install equipment to serve some 300 rural consumers and about 100 irrigation wells. Some system improvements, including three additional sub-stations, would also be financed by the loan from the REA, he said. Each sub-station was estimated to cost from $80,000 to $100,000, Payne indicated.

Materials have been ordered for the electrification job, he said, and indicated that work would probably start next fall. The work will probably be completed within six to 12 months from the present time, depending upon availability of materials, Payne stated.

The novels of Jules Verne, who died in 1905, predicted aeroplanes, submarines and television.

Americans with incomes under $500 a year contribute as large a proportion of those incomes to churches as those with incomes of from $5,000 to $10,000 a year and more than twice the proportion contributed by those with incomes over $10,000.

Brownwood Democratic Session Ends In Spirit Of Friendship

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD
Associated Press Staff Writer

The Democratic state convention at Brownwood ended in a spirit as sweet as Mother's day.

Bob Calvert, Hillsboro, chairman of the state Democratic executive committee, announced at Brownwood's Methodist ladies in charge of the convention snack bar had too many pies left.

"They are selling them wholesale," said Calvert. Delegates shed out and bought a couple hundred home made pies at cents per pie.

And Albert Sidney Johnson, rmament chairman of the convention, announced as follows:

"Brownwood officials want me thank you for coming, and to that if any of you got tickets parking in red zones to just e them home and frame them."

And M. D. Eidson, Brownwood ef of police, who had thought the angle of just forgetting ffic tickets, told us:

"This really was a wonderful vention. As sergeant of arms I n't have to bounce anybody quiet anybody down, and we n't put a single delegate in —didn't even arrest one."

Delegates interviewed as the vention closed yielded the following quotes: Tom DeBerry of Red River county and Austin: "Nothing violent happened but I think we did everything possible to show the national convention where we stand."

Supported Jester

Henry Leonard, Cuero: "Things came out fine—my delegation lined up with Governor Jester all the way."

James Whitmire, Hillsboro: "I thought there'd be more fight. There was much less friction than I expected."

Mrs. Leely Huffhines, Richardson: "It was terribly slow and draggy but very educational."

Charles Gravett, Corpus Christi: "If they abide by all the things they say they are going to abide by, the convention was a success."

F. W. Welch, Mexia: "It was the most orderly of all the conventions I have attended. Limestone county is pleased."

P. C. Prestar, Childress: "This meeting shows that we're still a democracy."

W. B. Murphy, Kaufman: "Everybody got along all right, everybody stood as he pleased and now we are going away to support the nominee of the party."

George R. McDonald, Midland: "I'm over sixty and have been attending county, state and national conventions since I was 14. The about was that youth was not better represented. Apparently all the young people of Texas are not aroused by politics."

C. L. Harris, Lubbock, "I would call it democracy in action."

Mrs. Price Daniel, Liberty: "I had a very nice time."

George Hinziek, Palestine: "Officials were fair on every question. Delegates who wanted to say anything were allowed to say it."

Eugene Hendrickson, Corpus Christi: "We hoped to get an instructed delegation for President Truman, but I feel sure he'll be nominated anyway."

Footprint Was Her Downfall, She Says

LOS ANGELES, May 26 (AP)—Mrs. Tillie Siegel claims a footprint of actress Greer Garson caused her downfall literally.

Mrs. Siegel, 48, says her fall occurred in the court of Grauman's Chinese theater in Hollywood last January 7. In a suit for $5,000 damages, directed against the theater but not against Miss Garson, Mrs. Siegel alleged yesterday that she stubbed her toe on the imprint in cement of the actress' foot.

The resulting fall, she averred, caused her bruises and a sprained shoulder.

The famous of Hollywood have left many cement imprints in the theater court. Jimmy Durante once had his face pushed in soft concrete to leave an impression of his noted schnozzola.

TEDDY HURT, TOO—Dwight E. Chadburn fell 59 feet from the Klingle Bridge, Washington, D. C. when he reached too far to pick an elm leaf. He suffered no broken bones in the fall, although there is a slight possibility of a skull fracture. Sympathetic Teddy Bear's head hurts a little, too.

Newspaper Manager Has Fatal Attack

NEW YORK, May 26. (AP)—Robert H. Johnson, 57, general manager of the New York Daily Mirror, died last night after a heart attack suffered as he dined with his wife and two friends at a restaurant.

Johnson, a member of the Hearst organization for 27 years, lived with his wife, Ann, at 341 East 41st street. A few days ago they moved to their summer home in Long Beach, N. Y.

Born in Brooklyn, Johnson was graduated from New York university and became a certified public accountant. After serving as a captain in Army intelligence in World War I, he joined the Hearst organization as an accountant in the office of the general management.

He traveled widely as an auditor for the Hearst management, and after moving to the New York Journal and the American, he served with the Atlanta Georgian and later became publisher of the Omaha (Neb.) Bee.

Returning to New York, he joined the Daily Mirror 15 years ago, and played a big role in the newspaper's growth. He introduced a number of mechanical facilities into the operation of the paper, and was an expert in the field of photography and photo-engraving.

Three years ago he was instrumental in the development of the Grace Park housing project in Philadelphia.

Ex-Wife Protests Husband's Sentence

CHICAGO, May 26. (AP)—Mrs. Therese Marstad, 29, protested in circuit court yesterday when her former husband was sentenced to six months in jail for being $855 in arrears in alimony and support payments.

"I don't want him sent to jail," Mrs. Harstad told Judge Julius H. Miner as her husband, Robert, 31, an interior decorator, was being led away. "I don't believe in alimony row. I just want to scare him."

"But the children have to eat," Judge Miner told her in noting her ex-husband had not made the $165 monthly payments for the support of herself and three children.

"I'd rather work than have him sent to jail," Mrs. Harstad replied.

Judge Miner modified his order and directed Harstad to show within a month that he has made a start on paying the arrearage.

INVESTIGATION IS CONTINUING

No New Clues Are Reported In Probe Of Shook Slaying

Investigation into the May 13 slaying of Raymond Shook, 46-year-old Lubbock business man whose body was found in his car 20 miles southeast of Midland on the Garden City highway, has produced no announced clues of any value, a Tuesday announcement from Garden City said.

A man, woman and child who left Sterling City, between San Angelo and Midland, a brief time after Shook drove away from there passed the Shook car in their own, truck drivers who said they saw the overtaking and passing told Sheriff Walter Teele of Glasscock county.

Lubbock Conference Held

The witnesses were able to convince officers that those in the car, described as a Plymouth, had nothing to do with the slaying.

No one has been detained for further questioning in the case, a deputy of Sheriff Teele said.

Teele and Sheriff H. M. Zimmerman of Stanton, Martin county, have traveled over much of West Texas in efforts to turn up a lead, various officials said. They conferred late Saturday with Lubbock officers at Lubbock county jail.

In the meantime, state rangers from Dallas and San Angelo were detailed to do special work on the case, it was learned. Lubbock officers, as well as several from Midland city and county, have done much "checking" into the case.

But efforts to find a suspect have failed.

Robbery Motive Cited

Shook was shot once through the heart. His body, lying in the front seat of his car, was discovered by an anonymous person who called a Midland funeral home less than four hours after Shook had left his hotel in San Angelo. He declined to give his name. Efforts to "trace the call" failed.

Glasscock officers, as well as several others, said they believed robbery was the motive for the shooting. Shook, they indicated, may have pulled to the side of the road to sleep.

Perhaps he awakened when someone was going through his pockets, some of which were found turned inside-out, and the shooting resulted, it was theorized soon after the slaying.

Other sources said Shook had no more than $76 when he left San Angelo.

"We don't have anything to go on—but we're working," the Glasscock county sheriff's office said.

Teacher Held In Elopement

SYRACUSE, N. Y., May 26 (INS)—Donald N. Brown, 44-year-old Elwood, Ind., high school teacher, pleaded not guilty today at his second arraignment on a Mann act charge.

Brown, who allegedly abandoned his wife and four children and "eloped" with one of his students, waived a hearing and signed a consent for his return to Indiana.

Held As Witness

They were taken into custody at Ithaca.

Brown said his son, Donald, 18, is arranging $5,000 bond for him, while the girl's step-father, Ross Carpenter, a night club operator, posted $1,000 bond for Miss Parrill.

The attractive girl chewed gum constantly during the arraignment. Immediately after it was over, she pulled Brown's Phi Beta Kappa key from a bag and put it around her neck on a gold chain.

Mrs. Carpenter, who flew to Syracuse to aid her daughter, became faint during the proceedings and had to be assisted to an adjoining room.

After the arraignment, she said she planned to take her daughter

Maritime Strike Threatened

Taft-Hartley Action Hinted

WASHINGTON, May 26 (AP) — The government may invoke the Taft-Hartley act's national emergency provisions to head off a threatened all-coast maritime strike on June 15.

Top officials said today the action is under study because a shipping tieup would block aid shipments to Europe and the Far East.

One leading administration labor adviser said the plan being considered is for President Truman to name a seven-man board to make a factual study of all issues involved in disputes raging on the Atlantic, Pacific and Gulf coasts.

Contracts To Expire

Six unions, five of them CIO and one independent, have contracts expiring June 15. All want wage boosts, the amounts so far unspecified.

But a major issue, and one hampering negotiations being guided by the Federal Mediation service, is the union hiring hall traditional on all coasts.

Through the hiring halls the unions for years have supplied employers with union members as seamen and longshoremen. The trouble now is that employers are balking at continuing the system for fear it is a form of closed shop, banned by the Taft-Hartley act.

The unions are insisting that the hiring halls are continued.

The Labor department may put the questions squarely up to Attorney General Clark for an opinion.

Many Issues Faced

One way or another, an official ruling on the legality of the hiring hall would clarify the situation on a principal stumbling block in the negotiations. But there are literally dozens of other issues to be ironed out, including wages.

The mediation service is known to feel that yesterday's 11-cent hourly pay boost settlement between General Motors Corp. and the CIO Auto Workers union is likely to set a pattern for wage settlements in maritime, coal, electrical equipment manufacturing and other current industry wage negotiations.

The GM agreement's feature of gearing wages upward or downward as the Bureau of Labor Statistics living cost index fluctuates especially intrigued labor experts here.

They saw it as a method of keeping workers pacified, and bound by contracts running two years and even longer, despite changes in the nation's economy

STASSEN ADDS LATE FORECAST

Deadlock In GOP Convention Looms

WASHINGTON, May 26 (AP) — New signs pointing to a convention deadlock in the battle for the GOP presidential nomination turned up today.

Harold E. Stassen, one of three major contenders who have been matching claims for top delegate billing, added the latest forecast.

Before he took off today on a seven-state swing to scrape the support barrel again, Stassen said it has become apparent that nobody is going to be nominated very early in the Philadelphia balloting.

Makes New Claims

Bowled over by Gov. Thomas E. Dewey in the Oregon primary last week, Stassen bounced back to claim at a news conference yesterday that he still has more first and second choice support for the nomination than either Dewey or Senator Robert A. Taft

Needless to say, Taft and Dewey backers dispute that vigorously.

But even in their camps there is private acknowledgement that if someone doesn't give way — and that fairly early in the balloting — a darkhorse, rather than any of the three, is likely to get the nomination.

Stassen insisted his chances are good, despite the prestige and 12 Oregon votes he lost to Dewey last Friday. He contended he has enough first and second choice strength in sight so that it "adds up to a possible nomination."

In this connection, the former Minnesota governor said nine of his backers were among the 12 actually elected as delegates in Oregon.

Bound By Law

The 12 are bound by law to support Dewey as long as he is a contender. But after that, Stassen said he will get the fine votes.

With a gusto all of the candidates are displaying, Stassen said he has "definite delegate strength" in Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Alabama, Kentucky, Arkansas and Texas. He noted clashing claims from the Taft and Dewey camps, but said the convention roll call will tell the story.

Texas Republicans went for Taft yesterday in one of the windup state meetings before the national

Sad Sacks Tells Police His Story

INDIANAPOLIS, May 26. (AP)—Max Sacks was sad today.

Detective Sgts. George Hubbard and Ernest Hughes said Sacks, proprietor of Sacks Brothers Loan company, told them a man came in some time ago offering a scarf he said was worth $250 for $30. Sacks bought it. Some time later the same man came back with another—also valued at $250.

Yesterday, the scarf man returned to the loan company. Sacks, suspicious, whispered to the detectives, who were in his office. They arrested the man on a vagrancy charge.

Detectives listened to his story and then arrested his former wife on a vagrancy charge. Sacks was surprised when he learned her identity.

The woman, he told detectives, was his employe and the scarves he had bought were from his own vault.

Jean Hersholt Still Academy President

HOLLYWOOD, May 26 (AP)—Jean Hersholt has been elected president of the academy of motion picture arts and sciences for the third consecutive term.

The veteran actor was reelected last night by the board of governors, consisting of 24 members, at the annual executive session. Hersholt is in New York, enroute to Europe.

Charles Brackett, first vice-president; Jack L. Warner, second vice-president; Robert Montgomery, secretary, and N. Peter Rathvon, treasurer.

The academy voted to award an additional Oscar next year to the best film produced in a foreign language. The award will be made at the annual banquet, along with the other Oscars.

Tech's Faculty Plans Revealed

Six visiting faculty members are to be added to the summer school staff at Texas Technological college, and four teachers will return during the summer for permanent faculty positions, Dr. Ernest Wallace, summer session executive and assistant dean of the Arts and Science division, has announced.

Summer school will include two six-weeks terms, the first from June 9 to July 17, and the second from July 20 to August 28.

Visitors include Dr. Colley F. Sparkman, professor and head of the foreign languages department at Bellhaven college, Jackson, Miss., who will instruct in Spanish and English textbooks and from other well known Spanish publications.

Others To Return

W. M. Pearce, on leave from Tech's history department to complete graduate work at the University of Texas, is to return to conduct the second semester field work in advanced anthropology.

Dr. Allen F. Herr and Sam R. Kilpatrick, both of Moravian college, Bethleham, Penn., are to teach both summer semesters in the English department. Dr. Herr, a former associate professor of English at Tech will offer a Milton course. He returned last summer also as a visiting professor.

Geology departmetn faculty visitors will be Ralph H. Bond, associate professor of geology from Capital university, Columbus, Ohio, who will lecture in paleontology, and John P. Brand, from Miami university, Oxford, Ohio, who will conduct the summer field courses in geology.

Among those returning are Dr. W. B. Gates to the English department, and Mrs. Gates, Ph. D in languages to the foreign language department. Both are to teach the second term only. They are returning from Texas Christian university, where they have taught for two years.

Joining the Agriculture division faculty permanently will be Dr. J. J. Willingham, professor in dairy manufacturing, and Thalbert Miller, instructor in animal husbandry and assistant to Dean W. L. Stangel. Willingham is coming to Tech from Sherman, and Miller from Wichita Falls.

Railroad Unions Suggest U. S. Ownership As Strike Solution

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The three railroad unions, which threatened a strike, are up against a stone wall. Now they've suggested a way out for themselves.

They talk of "real" government seizure of the roads and even, in a vague kind of way, speak of the need for the government to buy up and own the railroads.

All this was said at a news conference called last night by the heads of 20 railroad unions. They are backing up the three which threatened to strike.

Background Given

Before examining what was said, here is some background:

The three unions—engineers, firemen and switchmen — have been in dispute with the railroads since last fall.

President Truman appointed a board of fact-finders to look into the dispute. The board suggested a wage settlement. The unions said it was not enough, and threatened to strike.

Then on May 10 President Truman did this:

1. He ordered the government to seize the roads. So far this has been only a paper seizure. The railroad companies continue to run the roads, keeping whatever profits they make.

2. He ordered the government to get a federal court order (injunction) against a strike. That was done and it stopped the strike. The workers still are working.

Since that seizure May 10 the unions have been unable to talk the roads into giving them any more than Mr. Truman's fact-finders recommended.

Unions Over Barrel

This has put the unions over a barrel.

So the union heads at last night's news conference suggested:

The government "really" should take over the roads. That would mean running them and taking whatever money the railroads are making—and, while so doing, reach a settlement with the unions.

And, in the written statement they issued, the union heads said this:

"Be it further resolved, that the government, moved by the present demonstration of the inability of railroad management to maintain satisfactory labor relations and conditions upon the railroads, and further in view of other recent and similar critical situations, as well as other failures of railroad management to meet the public need for efficient, prompt and full services, begin preparations for the transfer of railroad ownership from private interests to the United States of America."

Should Fix Policy

Wasn't this saying clearly the unions were urging the government to take over the railroads by buying and owning and running them?

No, the union heads said, it didn't mean that. They said it meant this:

The government should "really" seize the roads now—instead of letting the companies run them—and not only settle the present dispute but, in so doing, fix a policy for settling similar disputes in the future.

If the government didn't do this now and fix such a policy, they said, then the government ought to buy up the railroads and run them itself.

At first glance that may shock a lot of people. Government ownership of the railroads in this country, which prides itself on free enterprise, would be a big step toward socialism.

But deep within it is a question which the union heads didn't answer to this writer's satisfaction.

Want Free Bargaining

American labor unions, including the railroad unions, want what is called "free, collective bargaining"—and that includes the right to strike—without any compulsory arbitration.

Compulsory arbitration means simply that the government appoints someone to decide a dispute between a union and an employer. His decision is final. Both sides have to accept it. There can be no strike.

The union heads said last night they don't want compulsory arbitration. But suppose the government steps in now and settles this dispute, giving the unions what they want whether the railroads like it or not.

One Way Arbitration

That would be compulsory arbitration working one way: For the unions and against the railroads.

But it could work the other way too—against the unions.

And if the government owned the roads, the unions could hardly expect to be free to strike. That would be a strike against the government.

Now, without owning the roads at all, the government has stepped in and forbidden the unions to strike.

So in the end, under government ownership, the union would have to accept the government's final wage offer without a strike. That, in effect, would be compulsory arbitration although that's what the union heads said they don't want.

Complete Split Faces Finland

HELSINKI, Finland, May 26 (AP)—The Finnish government, clamped in an unsolved political crisis, appeared today to be facing a complete split.

The coalition cabinet failed to find a solution last night for the crisis, which arose because the Communist minister of the interior, Yrjo Leino, was fired. Communist-sponsored strikes followed the ouster, but not with the parlyzing effect labor leaders had hoped for.

The prestige flight between the Communist - dominated Popular Democratic coalition on one side and the president and parliament on the other appeared to be settled, but new difficulties arose when the Social Democrats demanded that one of their men get the interior post.

Refuse To Yield

They claimed the post for Onni Hiltonen, now the minister of finance. They have the support of the Agrarians and Rightists, but the Communist and the Popular Democrats have refused to yield.

Social Minister Eino Kilpi, whose name was suggested as a compromise candidate, has been, up to now, an official member of the Social Democratic party, but in the morning's papers he openly declared himself to be a Popular Democrat.

The Popular Democrats claimed 100,000 workers struck to protest Leino's ouster.

Conservative and liberal circles estimated the number at 30,000 at the most. Most of the strikers were reported getting back on the job today.

Leino was dismissed last week when parliament voted non-confidence in him after he was criticized for letting 20 persons be extradited to Russia. He is the husband of Hertta Kussinen, one of Communism's leaders in Finland.

Campaign Medals Are To Be Issued

Campaign medals won in the American area, European-African and Middle Eastern area and the Asiatic-Pacific area will be issued from the Naval Reserve recruiting office in room 204 of the postoffice building to Navy veterans of this area entitled to them, it was announced Tuesday.

Issuance of the medals will begin June 1. Veterans entitled to them are to report in person, with a copy of their discharge, it was stated. They must meet certain requirements, which may be learned at the recruiting office. Most persons entitled to the medals, however, know that they are.

Posthumous awards will be issued by the Navy department directly.

Mailed applications for medals will not be acknowledged, according to announcement from the recruiting office.

Comic Reading Hubby Is Sued For Divorce

CHICAGO, May 26. (AP)—Marporie Johnson, 20, a stenographer, likes to read the classics and wanted her husband to read them, too, she told Superior Judge Edwin A. Robson.

But, she testified yesterday in her suit for divorce, he persisted in reading only the comics. They quarreled over their reading preferences, she said, and her husband, Raymond L., a stock clerk, struck her.

Mrs. Johnson was granted a divorce on grounds of cruelty.

Use baby food chopped beets to make a hearty vegetable soup. Just add a few containers of the beets to some shredded carrot, onion and cabbage that have been sauteed in a little butter or margarine. Now turn the vegetables into a saucepan of bouillon and simmer until very hot; serve with a dollop of sour cream garnished with finely minced cucumber and a sprinkling of paprika.

Civil Rights Program, Political Hot Potato, Seems Bogged Down Until After November Vote

WASHINGTON, May 26 (AP)—The ambitiou civil rights program outlined by the Truman administration last winter appears to be definitely bogged down—at least until after the November elections.

Politically, it is a pretty hot potato.

Deep rumblings of dissent echoed through the South when the President's committee on civil rights issued its report last October calling for immediate and decisive action to wipe out segregation and discrimination from American life.

When Mr. Truman followed this up in February with a specific 10-point request for congressional action, full-fledged revolt swept through some Dixie Democratic strongholds.

Republicans were quick to seize on this. They announced they would press for action on such long - pending proposals as anti-lynch, anti-poll tax and anti-job discrimination laws.

But with much high priority legislation still on tap, showdowns have been delayed lest the certain southern filibusters hopelessly snarl the session in its final weeks.

Clark Makes Plans

The Justice department has drafted a bill to create a new civil rights division under an additional assistant attorney general (one of the things Mr. Truman recommended). But the bill is still in the department's files.

Attorney General Clark said in a Boston speech last fall he planned to enlarge and strengthen his civil rights staff. He said he had been humiliated by a petition for redress of grievances handed the United Nations by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

The department's civil rights section now has the services of nine full-time attorneys, as compared with eight a year ago.

More Funds Asked

This group functions as a subsection of the criminal division. It frequently borrows help from other sections whe nthe work piles up. Its chief is A. Abbot Rosen, of Albany, Ga., World War II veteran who helped draft the report of the President's civil rights committee.

The department has asked the Budget Bureau for more money to hire civil rights employes, but the bureau hasn't relayed the request to Congress.

Rosen's civil rights section gets scores of complaints every week. Many are simply "crackpot," the majority deal with strictly local situations into which the federal government can not intrude.

Other Laws Needed

But where there appears to have been an infringement of federal law, the section calls on the FBI to investigate. The FBI report then provides the basis for deciding what further action is indicated.

Clark has said many times that more laws are required to bring about federal protection of civil rights, that his department has been forced to proceed under mere "statutory fragments" in many instances.

Not all Republicans in Congress are intent on forcing the issue.

Senator Bushfield (R-SD) came out today against three specific points in Mr. Truman's program as an infringement on states' rights.

Lynching Is Local

Bushfield said in a statement that if the federal government could properly legislate on poll taxes, it also could determine all voting qualifications in any state.

As for lynching, the Nebraskan said he deplores it but considers the problem to be a "purely local matter."

On the issue of segregation in the armed services, Bushfield said: "The individual soldier or sailor should be allowed to decide whether or not he wishes to serve in a unit with members of another race."

Janitor Guilty In Dog Pack Killing

NEW YORK, May 26. (AP)—A public school janitor, whose pack of bull terriers killed a Bronx schoolboy, was convicted yesterday of second degree manslaughter, with a jury recommendation for clemency.

Sentencing of the defendant, Svend O. Sandgren, 52, was set for June 10 by Bronx county Judge Harry Stackell. The possible maximum penalty would be 15 years in prison.

Stanley Balaban, 11, was killed by the dogs last July 1 in a lot near a Bronx swimming pool. A two-count indictment charged Sandgren with owning vicious dogs and with allowing them to roam.

A defense motion for continuance of his $2,500 bail was turned down, and Sandgren was sent to the Bronx county jail to await sentencing.

Anti-Red Bill Hearings Set

WASHINGTON, May 26 (AP)—Three nationally known lawyers will be asked to tell the Senate judiciary committee what they think of the Mundt-Nixon bill to curb U. S. Communists.

The names of the three—John W. Davis, Charles Evans Hughes, Jr., and Seth Richardson — were made known by Chairman Wiley (R-Wis) as the committee laid plans for a three-day hearing, starting tomorrow on the controversial bill.

Passed By House

It was passed by the House last week by a lop-sided margin despite questions as to the contitutionality of some of its provisions.

Davis and Hughes are members of New York law firms. The former was a Democratic candidate for president in 1924. Hughes is the son of the late chief justice. Richardson is chairman of the federal loyalty review board.

Chairman Taft (Ohio) of the Senate OP policy committee told newsmen that if the judiciary group reports out an anti-Communist bill it will be placed on the Senate's already crowded calendar.

"The people," Taft said, "want some kind of a bill."

Not Full Answer

He has indicated, however, that he doesn't think the Mundt-Nixon measure is the full answer to the problem.

As now written, the bill would make a felony any activities aimed at setting up a dictatorship in this country.

The Communist party would be required to register and list all members. Communist front organizations likewise would have to register and give the attorney general access to membership lists.

The act provides penalties ranging up to a $10,000 fine and ten years imprisonment for yiolations.

"Bojangles" Robinson Feels 20 As He Is Honored On Birthday

By NATE POLOWETZKY
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, May 26.—Bojangles picked up his feet, laid them down in spine-tingling manner, opened his mouth in a joyous laugh and thus began his 71st year.

"Look, out, look out, here's an eight-piece band comin' down Seventh avenue," he shouted, his feet tap, tap, tapping.

Presented With Shoes

The famed dancer was dressed in a yachtman's cap, with gold braid. He danced among his friends. Finally they got him to stand still and presented him with a pair of life-size sculptured dancing shoes.

He fondled them, and said: "Them are my dawgs. Got the bunions and all."

Later someone handed him a bottle of champagne with which to christen the ship, the "Bojangles."

The bottle slipped out of his hand and into the river.

Glad To Be Alive

For last night the Richmond-born dancer appeared before an audience of 20,000 at a benefit in Madison Square garden to put on his act.

At the conclusion of his dance, Robinson, feet still playing a rhythmic hide and go seek, tapped off stage arm in arm with Secretary of State George Marshall while the audience rose to its feet to serenade him with "Happy Birthday."

Marshall had addressed the rally—a United Nations children's benefit—before Robinson's appearance.

"All I can say is that I'm seventy and I feel like 20. I'm mighty glad to be alive at 70," Robinson told newsmen.

Party Tonight

Climaxing his birthday celebration will be a party tonight at a Times Square night club at which stars of the theatrical world and other celebrities will offer their greetings.

Out of action for more than a year with a cardiac condition, Robinson recently was told by his doctors that he can "go to town" again on the stage.

He is living in New York with his second wife, the former Elaine Plaines, more than 40 years his junior.

THE Avalanche-Journal recently has installed five new lighting fixtures and has left over 20 to 25 indirect lighting fixtures which are still very good, but not as modern and as efficient as a newspaper plant needs in this day and time.

Mr. James Dwight Shaw, the versatile business manager down here, is willing to give the old fixtures to any church or public school which might need them—which can and will use them.

First come will be first served, says Mr. Shaw.

So if your church or school can use 25 to 25 overhead, indirect lighting fixtures, which are modern enough and good enough for anything but very close work, get in touch with Mr. Shaw between the hours of 8:30 a. m., and 5 p. m., at The Avalanche-Journal.

SOMEBODY ought to put a burr under the saddle blanket of somebody at the police station.

Monday night, an overflow crowd of about 1,600 persons jampacked the Senior High school auditorium for the annual graduation program.

In front of the school's main entrance there is a traffic light. Forty feet away, there is a switch by which the light can be turned off, or on. The light was not in operation Monday night; there wasn't a policeman to look after the traffic snarl—and hundreds of those in attendance had to risk their necks crossing the Nineteenth street race track in connection with entering and leaving the school building.

Tuesday, shortly after noon, the many hundreds of Junior High students reported to the Fourteenth street building to get their report cards.

Hundreds of cars were massed around the block; double - parked, sometimes triple - parked. Kids were weaving back and forth on bicycles and motorcycles; others were darting back and forth on foot across the streets. Fourteenth was badly blocked. The whole business was a mess.

The traffic lights on Fourteenth at the east and west borders of the school ground were not on. There wasn't a traffic cop in sight.

THERE'S no excuse for such sloppiness in handling traffic. Somebody in authority at the police station should anticipate traffic needs wherever and wherever crowds of people gather.

If we haven't got enough policemen to give Lubbock the sort of service people have a right to expect, we ought to get enough. If we've got enough and they don't know how to do their jobs—or nobody tells them—there should be some changes made.

WE never drive down Sixteenth street that we don't wish Lubbock had some more thoroughfares with as many big trees lining the curbs on both sides of the street.

In the 2300 block of Sixteenth, branches from trees on both sides of the street meet over the center of the thoroughfare. The result is an arboreal delight rarely seen in this section.

It takes an airplane ride over Lubbock for one to realize just how many trees we do have in our city now.

Twenty-five years ago what then was the little town of Lubbock had very few more trees than there are today on six blocks of any of the older residential streets. Today Lubbock has, literally, thousands of trees; probably 1,000 or more for every one there was in 1923.

Those trees represent something more than beauty and shade, too. They represent countless hours of care by those who grew them and, in the aggregate, tens of thousands of dollars spent.

But they're worth it!

WE got a welcome letter the other day from one of the few pioneer cow country lawyers left in our Western country — Judge James A. Stephens, of Benjamin, county seat of the Free State of Knox. The Judge has been dealing out torts, contracts and other forms of legal wisdom in Knox county since 'way back in 1894 which, according to the better arithmetics, is something like 54 years.

As always on "even years," Judge Stephens is plumb full of politics. In his letter he recalled a story of the Bryan era of Democratic politics.

According to the Judge, a Republican girl had heard a great deal about the oratorical ability of W. Jennings and despite her distaste for his politics, went to hear Bryan talk. She was a pretty girl, and during the speakin' a brash youth grabbed her, gave her a big hug and several resounding kisses.

After the speaking was over, she reported the case to the police who, by that time, couldn't find the boy.

"Why didn't you holler while he was huggin' you?" the policeman asked the girl.

"Humph," said the girl, "I'd rather be hugged and kissed by every ugly boy in the county than have anybody think I was a-hollerin' for Bryan!"

Come to think about it, that story could be revamped a little and made to fit "Beautiful, Beautiful Beauford!"

BY DREW PEARSON: SOCIAL SECURITY PENSIONS LAG BEHIND HIGHER COSTS, TAXES

HST Sees Callers Via Side Door And Aboard Yacht

WASHINGTON—The President has resorted to new strategy in handling White House callers.

For some time, Washington observers were amazed at the number of visitors President Truman saw daily. But now the calling list has tapered off. The official list released every morning shows only a handful of visitors.

PEARSON

What most people don't know, however, is that there are five separate entrances to the White House, and in recent weeks Truman has been fooling the press. While regular White House correspondents wait in the lobby of the executive offices watching for presidential visitors, various private callers slip in other doors. Sometimes as many as 25 will flow into Truman's office unnoticed. They come in through various side doors, sometimes even the distant east wing, and are then spirited around the back through the rose garden and in to the President.

In recent days, Truman has held numerous significant confabs, none listed. He has seen Joe Keenan, head of the A. F. of L. political action committee, British Ambassador Lord Inverchapel, French Ambassador Henri Bonnet, and various Zionist leaders including Chiam Weizmann, new president of Israel.

Some old senatorial friends also drop around to see Truman at breakfast. Others come in after breakfast, but before the press arrives. Ed Flynn has been in twice lately, unnoticed. Former Judge Sam Rosenman is again a White House regular using the east gate, as is George Allen, the old court jester.

Note—Another new favorite Truman rendezvous is the presidential yacht, the Williamsburg, where he holds stag poker parties with old buddies, sometimes sleeping on board and walking back to the White House early in the morning before most people go to work.

Old-Age Pensions

At a secret powwow with congressional Democratic leaders last week, President Truman was told there was little chance of Congress approving any of his proposals to increase old-age pensions. However, the leaders advised that the people were entitled to a frank report on how old-age insurance benefits—on which millions of Americans depend for retirement security—have lagged behind higher wages and living costs. That was why Truman decided to send his message to congress anyway.

Michigan's aggressive representative, John Dingell, an original champion of the social security law, summer it up bluntly: "Unless pensions are increased in ratio to higher wages, higher taxes, and higher living costs, counties that have sold their poorhouses for the aged will have to re-establish them."

Dingell said it would be "actuarially sound" to increase pensions because of increased revenues from payroll taxes. He added: "Sixty million people are employed now, more than we ever dreamed of when we changed the law in 1939. We thought then that we wouldn't have that many employed until 1980."

"I want to cover as many people as practically possible," commented the President. "Also, I favor higher pensions, as well as benefits to disabled people."

Biggest problem, observed Federal Security Administrator Oscar Ewing, is providing protection for casual workers, such as domestic servants and farmhands.

"We might try to stamp system they use in England," suggested Ewing.

I doubt that it would work here," remarked Truman. "It's a nuisance to employers, difficult to administer, and such casual employers frequently build up less credits for contributory pensions than they could get in an old-age assistance dole."

PRIVATE Leo Christensen was convicted by a U. S. military court in Japan last year of raping a Japanese woman in front of her son, deliberately running down a Japanese boy with his motorcycle, and beating up a Japanese man.

He was given the death sentence for rape, murder, and assault.

Then his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lars Deloy Christensen of Iona, Idaho, appealed to Senator Henry Dworshak, Idaho Republican and a staunch isolationist. Dworshak succeeded in reducing the death sentence to three years hard labor and a dishonorable discharge.

Later, Dworshak went to bat again, got a parole for Christensen. He is now a free man. However, the man who raped a woman, killed a boy, and beat up a civilian isn't satisfied. He now wants an honorable discharge, and Senator Dworshak has been asked to get it for him.

Forged Export Permits

The Senate small business committee is ready to blow the lid off a fantastic racket in forged export licenses that has flourished under the nose of the Commerce department.

Goods cannot be shipped abroad today without a license from the Commerce department. Yet counterfeit licenses for shipping flour, lard, and other foodstuffs to Latin America have been sold to businessmen at black-market rates. Two alleged forgers—Tom Quinn and his nephew, Jack Quinn—already have been arraigned in New York.

Yet even after Jack Quinn's arraignment, he was able to obtain licenses from the Commerce department for shipping $1,000,000 worth of goods, mostly to Cuba. This amazing deal was approved, even though the Commerce department had been notified of Quinn's arraignment and of the Senate small business committee's investigation.

The full scope of the forgery scandal was brought out last week in secret hearings. One secret witness, Harry Levey of New York, vice president of Haro Products Co., testified that he had paid $28,000 for 14 licenses that turned out to be forged. It also developed that customs declarations had been forged as well.

The spurious licenses cover not only foodstuffs, but possibly steel, which has been exported far beyond existing quotas, investigators learned. Forgeries also have been uncovered in the shipment of streptomycin to the Philippines.

The forgeries were stumbled upon accidentally several weeks ago when Homer Zopf, a committee investigators, flour shipments to Brazil in brought in figures showing 1947 had been three to four times greater than the export quota.

Chief Investigator Burt Wimer promptly checked the Commerce department records against those of the port of New York customs collector, and found, for example, that a license authorizing shipment of a 1941 automobile to Venezuela had been changed to allow 10,000 bags of flour to Brazil. A forgery expert testified that scores of these licenses had been forged.

Irving Berlin's New Movie Causing Intimates To Rave

STAGE Door: "Ballet Ballads," the Experimental Theater's trim and tidy musical, was welcomed by the aislemen. Robert Sylvester blassed the newcomer as "the best song and dance show to reach Broadway this season" . . . The critics enjoyed Mr. and Mrs. E. Dowling ((Ray Dooley) at the Playhouse where "Hope's the Thing" transferred from its downtown berth. Mr. Garland described it as "a happy time" . . . The Habimah Players from Palestine are attracting crowds on B'way despite the fact less than 5% of the spectators understand Hebrew. The fine acting and adroit direction come over the footlights with a wallop . . . This group toured Europe from 1926 to 1929 . . . In '29 they played Nuremberg, where one critic was esstatic in his praise. His wordage included "superb;" "great Jewish acting troupe;" "wonderful," etc. . . . The critic was Paul Joseph Goebbels.

Broadway Lights: Insiders report that Rodgers & Hammerstein's "So Far" song hit is a number they tossed off for actress Jan Clayton to use in a screen test. Later they included it in the "Allegro" score . . . Intimates who witnessed Irving Berlin's latest film, "Easter Parade," at his residence came away raving about it . . . Kurt Kasznar (he's the "mad" movie composer in "Joy to the World" at the Plymouth) was the first army cameraman into Hiroshima and Nagasaki. He also photo'd the Jap surrender on the Missouri . . . Buddy Ebsen has written and sold a play to Bonfils & Somnes. It is titled: "Honest John" . . . Gail Hollis (she was Vera Lee Kane in the Ziegfeld shows) is critically ill at Knickerbocker hospital . . . Critic Ward Morehouse is back on the aisles after a brief hospitalization . . . The famed Old Roumanian restaurant downtown nicknames itself the "Koshacabana" . . . Would it do any good to remind those picketing "The Iron Curtain" that the Stalin Prize this year was won by Konstantin Simonov for an anti-USA film?

THE Networks: The most red-blooded of the newspaper tales, "The Front Page," was stripped of its muscles Thursday night. Hecht & MacArthur, the originators, should sue the radioats for non-support . . . You will enjoy the way the Andrews girls render "Heartbreakers." Decca has it, too . . . Major Bowes' original Amateur Hour topped the ratings (with 46.9) 13 years ago. Today its Television Hooper is one-tenth of a point off the 1935 tally . . . The new Hooper, by the way, is led by Radio Theater with 22.4 . . . Arthur Godfrey is 3rd with 20.8 . . . The Christian Science Monitor, quoting Prof. Laski's lecture at Roosevelt College (Chicago), reports the perfesser again scolded this newscaster, adding: "Russia, unfortunately, does put a great deal of stock in American commentators" . . . A San Francisco radio dept (quoting a recent Hooper) says: "And Winchell, now that he's plumping for peace, has slipped from 1st to 6th place" . . . The current Hooper has him in 2nd place . . . Now, go away.

The Press Box: Former Senator Wheeler (sailing for Europe) stated "any attempt to appease Russia would be ridiculous" . . . As ridiculous as appeasing Hitler, Mr. Wheeler? . . . From Elsa Maxwell's colyum: "I bumped into Gertie Lawrence" . . . Poor Gert . . . The cables from London revealed that during Elizabeth's visit to Paris the newsstands there "would be purged of salacious magazines and nude photos" . . . The recent edition of the British mag Liliput (like our Coronet) carried 5 nude pix, four of which were labeled "art" and the other "atmosphere" . . . Pollster Elmo Roper informs that one out of ten Americans never heard of the U. N. . . . How many out of ten ever heard of Mr. Roper? . . . Benjamin H. Freedman, admirer of the Grand Mufti, testified in a libel suit. The Sun quotes him as saying the press had ruined him and "all newspapermen are human lice" . . . Then he asked the court for a bodyguard . . . Kindly Omit Flowers.

Sales Resistance

BY RUTH MILLETT: TO THE LADIES

The Feminine Viewpoint

A WOMAN can be a nearly perfect housekeeper, and still not make a good home for a man.

Take Mrs. B. She has a house her friends envy, and she keeps it in shining order. But it's not a real home for Mr. B.

He never gets a chance to relax. Mrs. B. always has a few odd jobs for him to do. He has learned that, to keep peace in the family, he had better do what he is told, without argument.

MILLETT

If there isn't any work to be done around the house, Mrs. B. still refuses to leave him in peace. She has a positive gift for bringing up the wrong subject at the wrong time, and for keeping Mr. B. constantly worrying.

NO DOG FOR HIM

MR. B. would like a dog. But Mrs. B. claims a dog is nothing but a nuisance. That takes care of that.

Mrs. B. is such a stickler for neatness and order that last month's magazines are whisked out of the house the day this month's magazines arrive. That in spite of the fact that Mr. B. is always remembering some article he didn't get a chance to read.

But Mrs. B. is convinced that she has made a fine home for her husband.

There is only one thing wrong with her house, and that fault she can't see. She has built it around her own need for perfection, rather than around a man's need for a comfortable place where he can do as he pleases.

Today's Thought

"Try And Stop Me"

EVERETT PALMER'S modern-day fable concerns a horse, a cow, and a jackass who were arguing about the role each had played in the war. The horse declared, "I did the best work. I made it possible for men to ride off to war, and I hauled the cannon into position."

The cow said, "What's that? It was I who stayed home, and saw to it that the civilians had milk to drink. Had it not been for me, they all would have starved in three months, and the war would have ended." "Child's play," scoffed the jackass. "None of you contributed as much as I, for had I not been mixed up in diplomacy, there never would have been a war in the first place!"

A NOTORIOUSLY stingy tycoon allowed his assistant to pay for his lunch fourteen times in succession. The fifteenth time, when the waiter presented the check, the tycoon finally spoke up. "I won't let you pick up the tab, Jim," he said gallantly. "You've paid every day for two weeks. This time, by George, we'll toss fo rit!"

SUPPORT THE RODEO

Members of the American Business club should be met with a cordial response this week as they press their ticket-selling campaign for their second annual Boys' club rodeo in the Texas Technological college's Jones stadium, June 9-12.

The campaigners really have something to sell that is worth the money. The rodeo, which headlines film and radio star Gene Autry, is about the finest attraction of its kind ever offered in an area which specializes in fine rodeos.

A worthier cause for such an undertaking could not be found than the Lubbock Boys' club. Every ticket purchased is an investment in the better tomorrow, which may be achieved through improved opportunities of every kind provided for the youth of today through the many activities as the club.

While the prospects are there will be room in the big stadium for all who may want to attend the rodeo performances, those who buy early naturally will get the choicer seats. It merely is playing safe to buy such tickets as may be needed when the ABC campaigners call.

Mundt Bill Seen As Parallel With Former Prohibition Law

WASHINGTON — In the aftermath of World War I, the country adopted prohibition. Alcohol used in excess was a proved evil and therefore it should be abolished by law.

In the aftermath of World War II, congress proposes to abolish the political evil of Communism by passing a law or several laws. For it is clear that the Mundt bill is only the beginning of a drive to legislate Communism out of existence.

CHILDS

This reflects something deep in the American character—"There oughta be a law." It looks so simple. The abuse of alcohol causes a waste of resources and incalculable social harm; therefore prohibit it by legislative fiat.

We fail to realize that deep-rooted social evils cannot be eradicated by a law. We fail, too, to realize that the consequences of such a law may be more disastrous than the evil it was meant to cure. We saw that in the case of prohibtion. In my opinion, the effort to wipe out Communism by legislative fiat would have even more serious consequences.

It is interesting that the present drive was in large measure the same origin as the drive for prohibition had. It comes from rural America, from the Middle West, from the region broadly described by H. L. Mencken as the Bible belt.

Rep. Karl Mundt is a former South Dakota school teacher. Hard working, ambitious, he believes sincerely in the American virtues of self-help, free enterprise.

Along with his conversion to the necessity for America to assume a leading role in the world, he has learned a little about the Communist Communist movement and its conspiratoral plot to bring about Communist domination in every country. Communists are plotters who defy the laws of man and God. They are often of foreign origin; they live in cities.

Mundt honestly believes that the evil represented by these plotters can be abolished by law. Besides, it is a popular political issue and he is running for the Senate, with a good chance to step up from the lower chamber to the upper.

The political angle has been perfectly illustrated in the Oregon primary contest between Governor Thomas E. Dewey and Harold Stassen. With shrewd opportunism, Stassen had attacked New York City as a center of Communism, pointing out that 40 Communist organizations are listed in the New York Telephone directory.

Stassen long since learned that rural and small-town audiences invariably applaud his demand that the Communist party be outlawed. In his recent debate with Dewey, he declared the Mundt bill would outlaw the party. The authors of the bill deny this.

IN discussing the bill with Mundt, I pointed out the parallel between the effort to eradicate the sin of alcohol by the prohibition law and the effort to wipe out the political sin of Communism by passing laws. He came back with this:

"What our bill does is to say you can't put a screen in front of a saloon. A saloon must be publicly labeled a saloon. This is all we are doing.

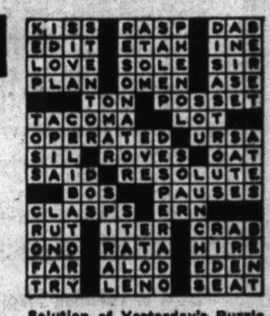

That is a shrewd answer. But the fact remains that laws to label saloons as a public evil were merely one step in the drive of those seeking to abolish the evil by law.

A few courageous members of the House—John Carroll of Colorado, Jacob Javits of New York, Chet Holifield of California—pointed out in the House debate that Communism can take hold in America only if there are grave social maladjustments and a mounting sense of injustice. They pointed out that there are laws now on the books to safeguard the country from plotters if those laws are only properly enforced.

"It is significant," Carroll said, "that those who cry the loudest about the threat and danger of Communism do the least to present a constructive program with which to cut the ground out from under those who advocate Communism."

He was referring, of course, to the fact that a little group of leaders in the House have persistently blocked even the mild Taft housing bill and every other form of social legislation intended to relieve some of the pressures of this period of inflation. The Congress, as a following article will show, has even dealt meagerly and penuriously with the safeguards intended to protect American security.

GOP Convention

convention opens June 21.

The Ohio senator picked up 30 of the Lone Star state's 33 votes Dewey got two and Stassen one.

Later in the day, Texas Democrats decided their 50 delegates to the July convention should be instructed to fight President Truman's civil rights program but to support the party nominee, whoever it might be. James A. Farley, former Democratic natoinal chairman, predicted at Minneapolis yesterday that Mr. Truman will be nominated on the first ballot.

Totals To Date

The Republican convention in Texas brought these totals of delegates pledged, favorable and claimed without dispute for the three top contenders: Dewey 148, Stassen 88, Taft 81. It takes 548 to grab the nomination.

Only 93 GOP delegates now remain to be chosen, including California's 53 to be named in a primary June 1. The California slate will support Gov. Earl Warren as long as he stays in the running for the nomination.

South Dakota will pick 11 delegates the same day and Indiana will complete the convention roster with the choice of 29 on June 10.

Stassen went to Massachusetts today for a luncheon meeting with that state's convention delegation. It's 35 votes are expected to be cast for Senator Leverett Saltonstall on the first ballot. They may scatter after that.

Stop In New York

With a stop in New York Stassen will go to Illinois and Missouri for conferences with delegates and leaders in those two states. On June 1 he will be in Pennsylvania, where the 73 votes are going to Senator Edward Martin on the first ballot.

Stassen has planned later visits to Iowa and California, returning to Philadelphia a few days before the convention opens. His convention manager is expected to be Ted Gamble of Oregon, who managed the national war bond campaign.

Maritime Strike

affecting worker purchasing power.

Regarding the index itself, Ewan Clague, commissioner of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, said it may be "severely crippled" if a proposed appropriation cut for BLS is approved by Congress.

Clague told a reporter that a cut in the agency's funds this year narrowed index coverage "though it did not impair its accuracy."

Previously BLS made living cost studies in 21 cities every month, and in 13 additional cities every quarter. Now the same 34 cities are covered, but only 10 are surveyed every month. The remaining 24 are rotated so that a different eight are survey each month.

Clague said the House has approved $2,500,000 for next year for BLS, the Senate $4,500,000. A conference committee now is trying to compromise the difference. The agency was allotted $4,050,000 this year.

"The Senate figure would give us additional money to improve the index," Clague said. "The House figure would mean we'd have to cut it back some more."

county agents and students.

H. N. Smith, chief of operations of the Regional Soil Conservation office at Fort Worth; and Howard Goss, field man for the state soil conservation board, of Temple, spoke briefly on the state-wide program conducted by the newspaper and soil conservation history.

Smith reviewed progress in Texas in soil conservation, citing statistics showing that 54,000 cooperators with 25,000,000 acres are now cooperating in the program throughout the state.

Goss cited the untold millions being spent annually by large corporations in the U. S. in an educational program and declared "Just the minute they decide that education and a cooperative program won't get the job done, then you'd better look out, for this group puts on the law books most of the legislation enacted."

Goss said Texas was the only state in the union where the law was administered entirely by land-owners themselves.

Teacher Held

to Boston in a day or so to visit friends.

Miss Parrill said she and Brown had selected Ithaca to set up housekeeping because she planned to finish high school there and go to Cornell university summer school.

Her mother said that shortly before the girl and Brown left Elwood last month she had won a scholarship to Indiana university, in competition with 1,600 other students.

Brown, asked whether he planned to return to his wife and family in Ellwood, said curtly: "Let's not pursue that."

506 Communist Leaders Named In House Committee Booklet

WASHINGTON, May 26 (U.P.)—It was quite a job to get all the details, but the House foreign affairs committee came up today with a directory of 506 Communist leaders in all parts of the world except Russia and the Western hemisphere.

The 128-page booklet, neatly indexed by countries, is the work of a subcommittee headed by Rep. Francis Bolton, (R-O.) She said it gives a composite picture of the biggest non-Russian Communists in Europe, Asia, Australia and Africa.

Difficulty Encountered

Listed are such Communist workhorses as Maurice Thorez of France (he deserted the French army, was sentenced to death and later forgiven) and Palmiro Togliatti, who wasn't elected premier of Italy last month.

Mrs. Bolton said the committee had a certain amount of difficulty digging out its information. For one reason or another, she explained, the Communists are publicity-shy—except when it suits their purposes.

Your average Communist (says the booklet) is about 46 years old and is a dyed-in-the-wool "professional revolutionary." Not all come from the working classes. About one in five is a university man.

Nearly half of the historic 506 have been in jail. One out of four has been active as a labor leader, one out of three has been a Communist journalist and about one out of four has had experience in guerilla warfare.

Not Failures

But in a Communist sense, they are by no means failures.

"That their careers have not been failures thus far is marked by the fact that 20 percent of them today hold cabinet posts in various governments while 40 percent are members of their national legislative bodies," the booklet says.

A good many of the Communists now directing the affairs of European states spent considerable time in Moscow boning up on Communist philosophies and tactics. Practically all of them have been working at Communism for a long time.

"It is a striking fact," continues the booklet, "that slightly more than one-half of these have been avowed Communists since 1922 or earlier."

MAE'S BACK!—Back from a nine-month trip to England, during which she said she gained five pounds on Britain's "austerity" diet, is Mae West. The "come-up-and-see-me-sometime" actress, arriving in New York, said British men reacted "very good" to her performances in "Diamond Lil."

Ex-Nazis Apply For Israel's New Army

FRANKFURT, Germany, May 26 (AP)—The U. S. Army newspaper Stars and Stripes said today that many German army veterans are trying to enlist with the Jewish forces fighting in Palestine.

The newspaper said more than 50 former Nazi fighters had applied to Jewish representatives in the U. S. zone since Israel proclaimed its statehood 10 days ago.

All have been turned down by the Jewish agency on the ground that it has no authority to accept volunteers.

French Actor Plays Unexpected Role

LYON, France, May 26. (AP)—Sacha Guitry, French movie writer, director and actor played a leading role last night in a little drama which he neither wrote nor directed.

When he left the premiere of his latest film, "The Comedian," to go to a night club, unidentified persons forced him into a truck and drove him to Lyon's main square. There they forced him to kneel hatless on the site of a proposed memorial to wartime resistance members and took his picture.

Guitry only recently was permitted to resume his artistic activities after being curbed by government order because of his behavior during the German occupation. Leftwing groups had protested the showing of his new film as an insult to Lyon.

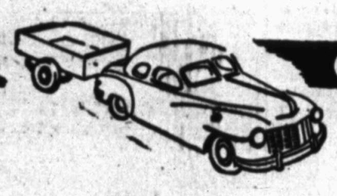

Leftover potatoes are delicious in an omelet. Dice the potatoes, then saute them, with a little chopped onion, in a skillet; add the omelet mixture and cook as usual.
