'Free Store' Slated By CAP

Community Action Program (CAP) is preparing to open a "free store" for the less fortunate families of the community.

The plan, said Mrs. Robert Shamburger, CAP coordinator, calls for opening of the free distribution center in a small house at Ruddick Park, formerly the home of the park caretaker.

Wanted for the "free store" project are used clothes, shoes, particularly for children, non-perishable food, and household items such as small furniture, knives, forks, spoons, dishes, glasses, and cooking utensils.

Last Day To Certify Acreages

Friday of this week, August 1, is deadline date for farmers to get their cotton, feed grain, and diverted acres certified at the Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation office, according to Eddie Braswell, ASCS office manager.

Producers of cotton and feed grain must have the certification if they expect to receive payments for those crops under the 1969 program, Braswell said.

First checks under the program will be put in the mail Tuesday, August 19, he added.

Spot check-ups will be made on about 15 percent of the acreages reported the ASCS office noted.

or having utensils, dishes or food to give to the new CAP project are asked to bring donations for the "free store" to the CAP office, at the south end of City Community Center, starting Monday (tomorrow).

City officials have donated use of the little house as a location for the distribution center.

Opening date has been set for Tuesday, August 19.

"The clothes, household items and non-perishable foods are to be given away to those in actual need," said Mrs. Shamburger.

"Free store" will be kept open each Tuesday and Thursday between the hours of 2:30 and 4:30 in the afternoon.

Volunteers are also needed to keep the store open and help with the give-away to those in need. Telephone number of CAP office is 728-5060 for volunteers who can help an hour or more with the scheduled "free store" hours.

If information is needed by prospective donors, it may be had by calling CAP office.

"CAP is urging citizens of our community to have a part in this endeavor which is designed as a positive move toward community action," said Mrs. Shamburger.

Craighead Hired As City Driver

Wayne Craighead, 21, has been employed by Colorado City Council as second driver for the Colorado City fire department trucks.

Craighead assumed his new duties here Saturday morning. James Sprott is the other driver for the fire department.

'Teen Tourney Opens Here Wednesday

Five towns send teams to Colorado City this week for the Texas Teen-Age Junior League Tournament.

The double-elimination baseball tourney opens Wednesday and will be concluded Saturday evening.

Haskell and Snyder collide in the opener at 7 p.m. Wednesday, followed by Sweetwater and Colorado City at 9 a.m.

Anson, fifth team in the meet, draws a bye for the first round, and automatically moves up against the winner of the Sweetwater-Colorado opener in the second of a Thursday night doubleheader.

Because it is a double-elimination play and one loss does not eliminate a team, losers of the two opening games will start the second night of competition Thursday at 7 p.m.

Friday competition will bracket the winner of two opening losers against the loser of the Anson-Sweetwater or C-City game, and the winner of the Haskell-Snyder opener

First Machines Arrive

Aug. 6 Date Set For New Plant Production

Colorado City's new women's wear manufacturing plant will be in production Wednesday, Aug. 6.

Izy Freudenreich of Dallas announced the date here Saturday while interviewing more than 100 prospective workers for the factory.

At the same time, the executive revealed name of the plant will be Colorado City

Manufacturing Company, a subsidiary of Jeanne Manufacturing Company.

Jeanne, with headquarters in Dallas, is a firm with more than quarter-of-a-century operation as a major nationwide garment industry and operates seven additional plants in Texas in addition to the new Colorado City facility.

Freudenreich, an executive of Jeanne, hurried to Colorado City Friday night to interview prospective workers, inspect renovation work at the plant site and supervise the unloading of first sewing machines.

With him came Gus Gonzales of Dallas, who will move to Colorado City to supervise the maintenance of equipment at Colorado City Manufacturing.

Seventy machines were moved into the building even as contractors were rushing toward completion of their construction jobs.

First truck load arrived before breakfast and was on the floor of the plant shortly after 8 a.m. Second truck brought machines at mid-afternoon.

Additional equipment will be arriving before operators actually report to work. And more machines will be coming as the plant operation gains production speed.

"We intend to start with a nucleus of experienced workers and a small training group," Freudenreich explained. "This work force will be increased by a week or so at a time with both additional experienced and training personnel."

The training force will be made up of workers who do not have experience in garment manufacturing.

First group of workers to be called to jobs will be notified probably within a week since the Aug. 6 date is the target for the plant to be in actual production of garments.

It is not definite, but expected that the initial force will be around 20 persons with See PRODUCTION Page 7

Nine Are Indicted County Grand Jury Action

Six indictments were returned just before noon Friday by the 32nd District Court Grand Jury in session here.

Grand Jury members convened Thursday morning with Bill F. Carter as foreman.

District Attorney Weldon Kirk, of Sweetwater, presented the evidence resulting in the six indictments. One of the six true bills was a triple indictment, another was against two men.

Billy Joe Boden was indicted for theft of an automobile belonging to the Texas Highway Patrol from Scurry County while the car was in Mitchell County, April 25.

Arrested by Texas Ranger Gene Graves and by Scurry County Sheriff Keith Collier, Boden is still in Mitchell County jail here.

Juan Gutierrez, released under bond after burglary charges, was indicted for burglary of the residence of Frank Torres. Gutierrez was charged with burglary involving a color TV set, May 24.

Triple indictment was returned by the Grand Jury against Jimmie Leon McEachern, Donald Lee Smith, and Wilma Roberts Smith, Smith's wife.

The three are charged with burglary of the Harry Dockrey home, June 30, and taking five guns and a 12-inch television set.

McEachern is currently free under bond. Smith, a member of the United States Air Force stationed at Webb Air Force Base, is in jail in Stanton where he and his wife, Wilma Roberts Smith, have been charged with armed robbery and murder.

Mrs. Smith, expecting a baby next month, has been released on bond and is temporarily at home with the family of a minister at Big Spring.

Double indictment names Andrew Sosa and Clemente Rodriguez, charged with burglary of a pickup truck belonging to Gene Parham, June 3.

Ismael Reyes was indicted for driving while intoxicated, subsequent offense, a felony.

A man not yet apprehended was indicted for forgery by alteration. He is charged with altering and passing a check for $6 to the amount of $66.

Serving with Carter, Grand Jury foreman, were Woodrow Pratt, Ray Preston, and Eddie Jones of Lorraine; Troy Lankford of Westbrook; Mrs. H. E. Parker, Perry Adams, Herman Q. Ornealas, Sr., Gary Lee Swann, Jimmy Harrison, W. A. Swafford and Dewitt Bender, Colorado City.

Leadership Lab Group Goes to Camp

Leadership Lab for 4-H Club leaders this week at Brownwood Christian Retreat on Lake Brownwood will have three Mitchell County 4-H girls and three Mitchell County 4-H boys enrolled.

They are Sherry Williams, Teresa Silvera, Darlene Forbes, Bruce Hill, Leroy Miller, and Byron Byrne.

The group, to leave Colorado City, early Monday, will take part in the Leadership Lab activities program through Saturday. Bobby Lemons, county agent, will accompany the enrollees to Brownwood for the event.

Representatives from the 12 counties in the district will participate. To be in the training program are delegates from Mitchell, Wilbarger, Clay, Dallas, Gree, Winkler, Tom Green, Coryell, Leon, Guadalupe, Jefferson, and Hidalgo Counties.

"Basic problems of decision making... will be highlighted during the laboratory. Each of the 72 young delegates will be part of a working committee with specific responsibilities for operation of the lab program," said Lemons.

Plans for all activities are made by the youth after they arrive at the lake camp, he said.

Talent Club Member Woody Anderson Initiated

Woody Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Anderson of Colorado City, left Sunday (today) for Amarillo where he is to take part in initiation ceremonies for the Talent Club sponsored by Producers Grain Corporation.

The PGC sponsors the club in recognition of outstanding work done by 4-H Club members. New members are feted with a Texas tour.

Anderson, 1969 graduate of Colorado High School, will be a freshman student in the University of Texas at Austin in September. He plans, his 4-H coach Bobby Lemons said, a pre-law course of study.

During his years of 4-H work he has made an outstanding record in method demonstrations presented before a wide variety of groups. His method demonstrations have included farm and ranch management, crops, and livestock.

During the past year his chief activity as a 4-H'er has been in the field of public speaking. He attended the Youth Seminar sponsored by Texas Farm Bureau in the summer of 1967.

Talent Club in which he will be initiated was first started by PGC 27 years ago. New members from Texas this year chosen for excellence in the 4-H program, with accent on leadership, citizenship, and achievement records.

Also to be initiated are two 4-H members each from the states of Oklahoma, New Mexico, and Kansas.

Tuesday, the new club members will leave Amarillo for a tour which will take them to many points in Texas including Corpus Christi, Dallas, Houston, and San Antonio. The tour is designed to give Talent Club members a See ANDERSON Page 7

CONVERSATION CORNER

READ a witty little bit somewhere the other day that went "The reason so many women of 40 have so many aches and pains is that most of them are 50."

Now that had to have been written by some man. Some young man. Every woman knows that there's no such thing as a woman of 40. And there's no such thing as a 50-year-old woman, either.

Women have a way of clinging to the "number 9." Have met very few women of 30. They are almost unanimously 29. And stay 29 until that awful day when the family Bible shows 40. Then they start being 39 for a decade or so.

It takes strength of character and real will power to become 49, usually along about the mid-fifties.

And after that the whole subject is strictly taboo.

CHILDREN are the most age-conscious people on earth. They all yearn to be teen-agers by the time they are nine or ten.

Americans are the most age-conscious nation on this particular globe. Only in America does it matter so much whether a woman is 29, 39, or 49, or a man is over or under 50.

This nation, great as it is, is afflicted with a chronic yearning to "be young...to stay young." It can be very funny in some cases and a little pathetic in others.

Look at how we cherish "the youthful look" in clothes. Chic in the current era means dresses the length once proper for little girls under six.

MAYBE the reason so many women of 39 have so many aches and pains is not because they are 49, but because their knees get too much breeze.

'Course if a woman lives long enough she can be daring and wear her dresses just below the knees. By that time, she does an about-face and becomes immensely proud of her years...long about the time she celebrates her 80th birthday, say.

Whether you know it or not, men are pretty much the same way. Only they don't even bother with the 29, 39, 49, 59 rule of counting. They are more apt to take the sensible attitude that it's nobody's damned business in the first place.

FAVORITE tale concerning age is still the one told about the late Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes. (His biography, by the way, is still worth reading though not new a-tall. It's called "Yankee From Olympus.")

As the story goes, it was a very windy day in Washington, D. C. Justice Holmes, son of the doctor-poet who wrote the "Wonderful One Horse Shay," lived to be past 90 and his wonderful mind was keen until the day he died.

That windy day in Washington, D. C., Justice Holmes and a friend were standing on the corner when a bevy of beautiful girls walked by.

"Oh my!" Justice Holmes is credited with sighing. "What wouldn't I give to be a young man again! I wish I were just 70!"

He was 89 that windy day. Proving that everything is comparative. Strictly comparative, boys and girls.

YOUNG-Pat Reilly, who is now 16, is back from the state of Colorado bearing wounds.

Pat has been working in Colorado this summer. But his left arm is not in a sling because of overwork, he says.

What happened was, knowing all work and no play makes Pat a dull boy he decided to take a fling at shooting the rapids in the Arkansas River with a friend on a raft.

First time was such fun, Pat tried it again alone. And has a dislocation of the shoulder.

Ah, youth!

MINOR accident at the P. G. Carpenter house is one of a different flavor. Vanilla, it was.

Seems that the Carpenter granddaughters Georgia and Carol Graves, plus a friend Ella Johnson, all here visiting from Wilmington, North Carolina, decided to make ice cream.

All went well until after an hour of turning the freezer crank the girls discovered that they had failed to put the dasher in.

They are guests here with their mother Nelda (Mrs. Archie) Graves, the Carpenter daughter.

SEEN LATELYS included J. D. Hill Jr. of the ASCS force meeting a gal for lunch—his wife Mary Jo of the Extension Service office.

Saw Howard and Elizabeth Cox, with Elizabeth pretty in a lime green dress.

Bedford Dulin was on the downtown scene...Ditto Bob Ratliff...Joe Earnest...Evelyn Rose...Pretty Mrs. Bob Chalker and son Glenn...C. W. Smith. And another time, another place, Mrs. C. W. Smith talking to Betty Drennen.

HEAR TELL that the Don Reynolds family were here from Thursday of last week until Saturday (yesterday by now.)

Coopatorium Scene For Sweatt Fete

Lone Wolf Coopatorium last Sunday was setting for a reunion of the children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Sweatt.

Relatives attended from Big Spring, Tulla, Westbrook, Stamford, Lubbock, Coahoma, Colorado City, Snyder, Fort Sill, Okla., Kermit and Hermleigh.

They were Mr. and Mrs. Emory Sweatt, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Sweatt, and Sidney Jones of Westbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. Denver Hays, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hays and Becky of Coahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hays, Mike and Brenda; Mrs. Willie Sneed; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sweatt and Roger; Mrs. Kenneth Wilson, David and Joe; Mrs. Roy Wilson, Mike, Kathi and Kila; Frank Sweatt; Mrs. William Kaylor, Mr. and Mrs. Holly Jackson, all of Colorado City.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sweatt of Big Spring, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Sweatt of Tulla; Mr. and Mrs. Kerry Sweatt and Terri of Stamford.

George G. Sweatt and Mrs. Dave Hardin of Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Weslie Hines, Barbara and David of Snyder; Sgt. Leon Sweatt of Fort Sill, Mr. and Mrs. Ed St. John of Kermit, Terri and Jennifer Brown of Hermleigh.

They were guests of Don's mother Mrs. Wilma Reynolds and of Jewell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Blassingame Jewell and Don are parents of a son Mark, aged 10, and a little daughter Terry Lynn, who is 7 years "old".

Hear, too, that Elton and Guy Burson spent last weekend and the Monday holiday visiting in the home of James and Mary Sue Hull, former Citizens who live in Herford now. The Hull son Mike was visiting his paternal grandparents in Dawson, Navarro County.

Kathy's been to church camp and Girl Scout camp, Mike's been to church camp, too. So the family spent Friday and Saturday nights at the famous Green Oaks for a brief fling in the city.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Carwile of Robert Lee.

Ward is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Cogdill of San Angelo.

Double ring wedding vows were read in the eight o'clock ceremony by Rev. Glenn Roenfeldt, church pastor.

Mrs. Curtis Baker, organist, played traditional wedding selections which included "Ave Maria," presented as background music during the ceremony. Mrs. Glenn Roenfeldt sang, "O Perfect Love" and "The Wedding Prayer."

Altar was centered with a candelabra covered with yellow gladioli and greenery. Spiral candelabra on each side were also entwined by yellow gladioli and foliage.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk organza with an overlay of lace on the empire bodice. Lace formed ruffles at the neckline and long slim sleeves. Lace also banded the A-line skirt and chapel train.

Her full-length mantilla, edged with Chantilly lace, was attached to a small pillbox.

She carried a white orchid with a white Bible. Yellow gladioli florets cascaded from the arrangement. She wore a string of pearls, a gift from the groom.

Miss Sue Parker of Plains was maid of honor.

She wore an A-line gown of mint green organza over satin. Ribbon defined the empire bodice. Her veil was attached to a matching Dior bow. She carried a bouquet of cymbidium orchids.

Miss Janice Miller of Farwell and Miss Barbara Cogdill of San Angelo, the groom's sister, were bridesmaids.

They wore gowns styled identically to the maid of honor's in yellow organza over satin. Their headpieces were yellow bows with veils and their bouquets were cymbidium orchids.

Candles were lighted by Jerel Graves and Zolzie Steakley.

Best man was Frank Edward Markwood III, Larry Kiser of San Angelo and Carlton Matthews of Lubbock were groomsmen.

David Woods and Lanny Brentz seated guests.

The bridal couple were honored at a reception in the church fellowship hall following their marriage.

Bride's table was covered with tulle and satin and centered by an arrangement of yellow tapers and gladioli. Four-tiered wedding cake was decorated with yellow and green. Silver and crystal appointments completed the setting.

Serving in the houseparty were Miss Carolyn Parker, Mrs. Jimmy Bell, Mrs. Bill Baker and Mrs. Frank Coalson of Robert Lee; Mrs. Carroll Williams, Mrs. Lanny Brentz, Mrs. Charles Godwin and Mrs. Gerald Gordon.

For travel to Monterrey, Mexico, and other points, the bride changed to a dark tweed dress of brown and black complimented by a printed neckline scarf.

Following their wedding trip they will be at home at 415 East 14th Street.

The bride, a graduate of Robert Lee High School, was graduated magna cum laude from Hardin-Simmons University with a bachelor of arts degree in English and political science. At H-SU she received the Julius Nelson Olsen Medal for highest grade point average and was a member of Sigma

Maxine Althof Becomes Bride Of Thomas Lee Watt in Roscoe

Miss Maxine Althof of Roscoe Saturday evening became the bride of Thomas Lee Watt of Cleburne in a double ring ceremony in First Salem Lutheran Church of Roscoe.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Althof of Roscoe are parents of the bride.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. (Juno) Brookes of Sweetwater.

Rev. Herbert Zimmerman, church pastor, officiated in the eight o'clock vows.

Mrs. Don Richburg was organist. Mrs. Sue Crabtree presented a violin solo, "Meditation on Thais". Mrs. Kenneth Rannefeld sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "Wedding Prayer."

Candelabra with yellow cathedral tapers lighted the bride aisle. Pews were marked with crescent bouquets of white majestic daisies and yellow satin bows. Altar setting was backed by palm trees and cathedral candelabra, flanked by arch candelabra circled with lemon yellow satin bows.

Triangular candelabras with a kneeling bench centered between arrangements of white daisies and lemon leaves completed altar decor.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Her wedding gown, made by her mother, was fashioned of candelight peau de soie and embroidered wedding lace. Lace motifs accented the A-line skirt. Solid lace yoke was adorned with seed pearls. The long umbrella train, spotted with lace appliques, was attached at yoke of the gown.

Bridal veil of candelight illusion was attached to a head-dress of pearl trimmed organza petals and bow.

She carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis. For the traditional something old, the bride wore a heart bracelet worn by her maternal grandmother at her marriage; something borrowed, earrings belonging to her aunt, Mrs. J. C. Freeman of Lorraine; and something blue, a garter.

Miss Leanna Althof of Roscoe was her sister's maid of honor.

She wore an A-line gown of yellow voile embossed with white daisies. Her headpiece was made of yellow organza bows centered by a cluster of daisies.

Bridesmaids were Miss Frances Pietzsch of Roscoe, Mrs. Kathryn Brazil of Midland, Miss Debbie Althof and Miss Karen Hughes of Roscoe.

They were dressed identically to the maid of honor. Attendants carried colonial nosegays of yellow daisies.

Dryden Rannefeld was flower girl. Tracy Watt of Sweetwater, sister of the groom, and Ronnie Althof of Roscoe lighted candles.

James Pietzsch of Abilene was bestman. Jerrie Pietzsch of Roscoe, Ted Freyer and Leslie Rannefeld of Roscoe and John Dwyer of Cleburne were groomsmen.

Ushers were Larry Gabler, Leigh Brookes, Dayton Althof and Ronnie Pietzsch.

Church fellowship hall was setting for a wedding reception.

Houseparty members were Miss Betty Davis, Miss Jeannie McBurnett, Miss Barbara Watkins, Mrs. Sue Crabtree, Mrs. Joyce Martens, Miss Peggy Peters and Miss Sharon Pietzsch.

For a honeymoon trip to Ruidosa, N. M., the bride wore a two piece yellow and white suit.

They will reside in Cleburne.

The bride attended Texas Tech University for three years. She was officer of National Collegiate Association for Secretaries at Tech during the past year and was listed on the dean's honor roll the last semester.

Her husband is employed by Santa Fe Railways in centralized accounting department in Fort Worth.

Included in out-of-town guests in Roscoe for the wedding were Mrs. Alan Watt, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Sherman of Soper, Okla., former Colorado City residents; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Baumann of Fort Worth, former Lorraine residents.
