ARMS PARLEY SPEEDED UP

Party of Celebrities Makes Surprise Visit to Texas

MAINLY ABOUT PEOPLE

By W. N. F.

Woodrow Wilson has appeared in the role of a prophet. His prediction is that the year 1922 will show that the Democratic party has entirely regained the confidence of the nation. Why not put it in other words: The Republican party, or rather administration, is losing the confidence of the nation? In days of disaster or days of high taxes the party in power is hammered to pieces. Woodrow Wilson lost on the league of nations and the Democratic party lost because the tax gatherer began to pinch the pockets of the American people. While the war was on they shouted, "Fight while there is a dollar in the locker! Fight while there is an able bodied man left to fight!" They sang another song when the costs bills came in.

Regardless of all the magazine writers say Germany is coming back. Hugo Stinnes is the most remarkable captain of industry that Europe has ever known. He has organized a colossal trust of most of the industries of Germany that makes the steel or the oil combinations look like pikers. And organized labor in Germany is a part of the trust. Now Hugo Stinnes has organized another 1,200,000,000 marks concern to launch the biggest water way project ever undertaken in Europe—the construction of a canal connecting the Rhine and the Main and the Danube rivers. Germany has lost many of its valuable coal beds. These coal beds were given to France and to Poland. Hugo Stinnes has a master mind. He will develop and utilize the water power of Russia and Germany and thus make it possible for the German manufacturers to reduce their coal bill to the minimum. They are using their brains over there.

There is to be an Irish Free state unless all the surface signs are misleading? But who is going back to Ireland? Captain Harold Roche may go back. He was born in the South of Ireland. Lord Fermoy is the head of the Roche family which is of ancient French Hugenot origin. Captain Roche fought in the Boer war. He saw service under Cecil Rhodes, the builder of South Africa. He knows his Asia, his Africa, his Canada and his United States as well as he knows the land of his birth. He is hoping for peace in Ireland between the factions and hoping that some day he may return to the isle and enjoy life as only those enjoy it under Irish skies. "Uncle Billy" Gibbons, king of San Saba county, will not go back to the Irish Free state. "Uncle Billy" owns farms and ranches in West Texas; he owns business houses in Fort Worth; he has interests in El Paso and other Texas cities. His boys run his ranches. Uncle Billy hunts and fishes and smokes his clay pipe. He owns Morgan horses, Merino sheep and white faced cattle. He owns Poland China and Duroc Jersey hogs. "Uncle Billy" is a son of Irin—a typical son. He was exiled in his youth. He landed at Galveston. He walked from Galveston to Fort Worth. He worked his way to the west. San Saba county caught him. He worked as a ranch hand. He became a ranch owner. Now he owns many ranches and farms. He is happy. He is an optimist. He swears there is no place like Texas. "Uncle Billy" Gibbons, king of San Saba county will never return to Irish Free State. Why should he?

Mexia is on the map. Colonel A. E. Humphreys who claims to be the agent of the Lord and handling the wealth of the Lord, placed it on the map. Now the claim is made that the Mexia field has the largest production of oil of any field yet discovered in America if not in the entire world. There are 64 producing wells. There is a daily production of more than 175,000 barrels; some place the production at 200,000 barrels daily. Moreover the 64 producing wells have proven up approximately 8,000 acres of oil territory and all producing from the Woodbine sand. This is a wonderful world. For months and months in the year 1920 petroleum prophets predicted that the petroleum supply of America would be exhausted in a few short years. They said that the Mexican wells had been ruined by the coming of salt water or had gone dry. Now they say salt water is threatening the Mexia field—in fact that the water is very much in evidence. H. N. F. isn't a prophet but he is willing to predict that the wells of the world will be pumping petroleum a

TORNADO HITS SMALL TOWN IN OKLAHOMA

By Associated Press.

TULSA, Okla., Jan. 4.—Carrying the wreckage of five powerhouses from the Turley and Bird creek oil fields before it, a tornado struck Turley, a little town of about 300 inhabitants six miles north of Tulsa about 2 o'clock Wednesday morning, smashing three homes and a garage and injuring four people. The storm following a path about 75 feet wide, and lasting barely four minutes, just preceded the high winds that did considerable damage in Tulsa. Monetary damage in Turley is estimated at between $7,000 and $8,000.

The injured are Mr. and Mrs. G. I. Six of Turley. H. E. Kriner of the Grimes lease and a child belonging in the family of J. A. Mount of the Hancock lease. Mr. and Mrs. Six were rudely awakened by the shock of landing, together with a collection of timbers that had been their home, about 200 feet from the site where the house had been standing when they went to bed the night before. The house was picked up bodily with the two owners asleep in it and its wrecked remains dropped at the door of a friend and neighbor, Mrs. Six crawled out from under the wreckage but Six was pinned under and could not get out.

The Mount family home, on the Hancock lease was blown to pieces and there was scarcely a stick of wood left on the barren piece of ground that had been its site. The child's collar bone was broken, Kriner was cut about the legs by flying glass.

ANGLO-FRENCH ALLIANCE IS IN PROSPECT

By Associated Press.

CANNES, Jan. 4.—With the air full of talk of an alliance between France and Great Britain as the only means of keeping the entente intact, Premier Briand and Prime Minister Lloyd George today resumed their conversations which were begun some days ago in London.

Premier Briand said before going to the British prime minister's villa this afternoon that it might be putting it rather strongly to talk of a formal alliance. Yet, he said the policy of France all along had been to strengthen her ties with her war allies since this seemed essential to a settlement of European problems.

Members of both French and British delegations are agreed that the situation is grave and that the entente powers must come closer together or they will drift more widely apart. The difference of opinion appears to center around the question of who ought to make the concessions necessary to bring about closer accord. The atmosphere throughout the day was generally pessimistic.

Premier Bonomi of Italy, arrived on the scene this afternoon and expected to see Premiers Briand and Lloyd George during the evening.

RIVAL SENATE FORCES READY FOR CONFLICT

Verbal Skirmish Is Staged Prior to the Regular Newberry Battle Scheduled to Begin Friday.

Republican Leaders Declared Hopeful of Reinforcement in Successor to Senator Penrose.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Senate factions today girded themselves for the final fight in the Ford-Newberry senatorial election contest from Michigan.

The case will be taken up Friday and a vote on the resolution declaring Truman H. Newberry, the republican incumbent, the legally elected senator is expected next week. His colleague, Senator Townsend, republican, Michigan, announced today that he would speak Saturday.

A close vote, favoring Senator Newberry is conceded generally by senate leaders. A half dozen republicans still are listed as doubtful with their action, said to depend in part on whether Senator Newberry decides to speak in his own right. Some republic leaders were reported to have advised the senator against taking the floor in the senate while others were said to be urging that he address the senate. Close friends of the senator said today they had assurances that he would come here to speak probably next week.

Administration leaders, in discussions today regarding the situation, were said to have determined to insure a complete record vote and were hopeful that an appointment to fill the Pennsylvania vacancy caused by the death of Senator Penrose would be made before the roll call. This

WILL H. HAYS UNDECIDED ON MOVIES' OFFER

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—Postmaster General Will Hays has signed a contract to become director general of the national association of the motion picture industry at a salary of $150,000 a year, according to the New York World. The contract, which runs for three years, the newspaper says, was signed more than a week ago.

Mr. Hays, the World added has arranged a conference with the national leaders of the motion picture industry in Washington, January 14, at which time he will make public on his own account his decision to accept the post.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Postmaster General Hays said today he had not yet decided to leave the cabinet and accept the new place he had been offered in the motion picture industry and was not likely to make a decision within the next ten days.

As matters now stand, it is said by some of the postmaster general's friends that he is not inclined to sever his connection with the administration, despite the unusual salary that would be carried by the position tendered him.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Senator Spencer, republican, Missouri, who called at the White House today was understood to have mentioned to the president the name of Walter S. Dickey, a Kansas City manufacturer, as a possible successor to Postmaster General Hays, should the latter decide to leave the cabinet.

POST MORTEM EXAMINATION PROVES CRIME

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Jan. 4.—Proof that Leopold Burkhardt, whose body was found in his apartment here this morning, had been murdered, was furnished by a post mortem examination, Coroner D. C. Handley announced late today. A depressed fracture of the skull above the right ear, a hole in the skull inflicted by a bullet and numerous contusions of the head revealed a stroke of apoplexy and that his head had struck a heavy table, the coroner said.

Burkhardt, who was about 60 years of age, met his death some time Tuesday, it is believed, and except for his assailant, was alone in his apartment. The body was found this morning when the janitor, James Allison called, and finding the door locked, unlocked it with his pass key.

HEY, URB LEDOUX! GOTTA LANTERN TO GIVE "CHOLLY"

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—Charles Edward Russel, socialist writer and lecturer, last night challenged President Harding to produce "any photographs or any other kind of picture of the impassable gulf between the white and black races which he said existed."

Speaking at the annual meeting of the National association for the Advancement of Colored People he declared that no microscope could detect the slightest difference between the blood of white and negroes and said this proved "that man is man regardless of the color of his skin."

FILIBUSTER ON ANTI-LYNCHING BILL IS FUTILE

Measure Is Alternately Supported and Assailed After Three Hours Spent in Roll Calls.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Debate on the Dyer anti-lynching bill got under way today in the house despite a determined filibuster on the part of the democratic opponents of the measure. Three hours were spent in roll calls demanded by Representative Garrett, Tennessee, democrat leader, in a futile attempt to head off discussion.

Half of that time later was given over to debate by Representative Dyer, republican, Missouri, author of the bill, and Representative Sumners, democrat, Texas, one of the leaders in the fight against it, who reiterated arguments advanced by them in the majority and minority views of judiciary committee members when the bill was favorably reported.

The measure is to be set aside tomorrow for consideration of the treasury appropriation bill, which will have right of way until it is sent to the senate. Representative Mondell, republican leader, in a statement today predicted a vote in the near future on the Dyer bill, but stated that debate on it would be interspersed between various appropriation bills which will come from the house appropriation committee in rapid succession.

Mr. Dyer in opening debate on his measure, declared it was imperative that the federal government afford protection to persons liable to suffer violence at the hands of mobs.

Mr. Sumners, attacking the authority for a number of Mr. Dyer's statistics on lynchings, declared passage of the bill would increase rather than decrease mob violence and would have a tendency to engender race hatred. He assailed the measure on constitutional grounds, contending it would be an invasion of states rights and devoted much of his time to discussion of the constitutional phase of the question.

VERDICT FOR RECORD NEWS IN ABBOTT CASE

After a forty-five minute deliberation a jury in the 89th district court Wednesday afternoon returned a verdict in favor of the Record News company in the suit for $50,000 damages brought against it several months ago by E. C. Abbott, who with his son J. A. Abbott were former proprietors of an Indiana street garage.

The suit was based on an alleged libelous statement contained in an editorial which appeared in Record News in February of last year.

Previous to the publication of the editorial the plaintiff and his son were charged with receiving and concealing stolen property alleged to have been Ford automobiles.

They were bound over to await the action of the grand jury at that time under $250 bond each by Justice of the Peace Gwinn.

They have never been indicted at any subsequent sessions of the grand jury.

The plaintiff alleged that the editorial which appeared a few days after his arrest included a libellous statement regarding himself in connection with his arrest.

In the trial of the case the defense contended that the editorial was a general criticism of law enforcement conditions throughout the country and containing no reference to the guilt or innonence of the plaintiff.

W. F. Weeks and Tarlton Morrow of the local firm of Weeks Morrow & Francis represented the Record News. W. R. Chauncey local attorney and C. A. Leddy of Dallas, who was assistant attorney general of Texas during the regime of Hon. B. F. Looney, represented the plaintiff.

TO HONOR ROOSEVELT.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—A bronze tablet in memory of former President Roosevelt will be unveiled Friday afternoon in the police headquarters which he used in 1895 as head of the department here, Commissioner Enright announced.

ACCUSED ARMY OFFICER FACES HIS ACCUSERS

Stirring Scenes Enacted at Senate Committee Hearing on Senator Watson's A. E. F. Charges.

Witnesses Swear to Seeing Major Shoot Own Men; New Testimony Supports Hanging Charge.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Accuser and accused faced each other before a senate committee investigating charges that American soldiers had been hanged without trial in France.

Near the close of a seven-hour session, Major Hierome L. Opie of Staunton, Va., third battalion, 116th infantry overseas, went on the stand to deny charges by former service men that he had shot down some of his own soldiers on the battlefield. He was asked, however, to wait until other witnesses, then in the room, could testify against him, meanwhile being given the right through counsel to cross examine them.

Responding to his name when the Opie charges were taken up, Grayson H. Withrow of Baltimore, still in his early twenties, stepped to the front and testified that he saw the officer seize a gun from a private and fire at a man in his command. Shells were falling overhead, he said, and there was tremendous excitement, but Withrow swore that from his retreat in a shell hole he peeped out and saw the man fall as the major's gun barked. But he could not say whether Opie had killed him, declaring the latter, standing out in the open, was within arm's reach of half a dozen officers when the shot was fired.

Supports Charge.

As Withrow left the stand, William St. John, a young man from Lynchburg, Va., suffering from nervous troubles resulting from service overseas, accused the Virginian of shooting down a "runner" at the front because he failed to heed after thrice being ordered to halt. Four other men saw the killing, he declared, but he refused of his own accord to give their names on the ground that he had not been able to confer with them and that it would not be just to him if they should appear and "not back up" his charges. One of them he said, had "developed cold feet" and was unwilling to come.

Reminded by Chairman Brandegee that the names must be submitted, St. John complied, mentioning first the cousin of one of Major Opie's counsel, sitting across the table. It was while St. John was being cross examined by John A. Cutchings of Richmond, Va., Major Opie's counsel, that he lost control of his shattered nerves and dramatically shouted that he was dealing with a bunch of fanatics who "are trying to prove that I am nutty." Mr. Cutchings promptly disclimed such an intention.

Seeing that the young man was worn out by excitement, Senator Watson, Democrat, Georgia, declined to question him. Tomorrow Major Opie will testify in his own behalf.

Starting out with the testimony of Rufus P. Hubbard of New York, who as an embalming assistant with the American graves registration

AUSTIN MURDER CASE HEARINGS SET FOR TODAY

By Associated Press.

AUSTIN, Texas, Jan. 4.—The four officers charged with murder in connection with the shooting of Peeler Clayton, taxicab driver, near the "Ku Klux Klan hall' December 15th last, will be called before Justice of the Peace M. M. Johnson tomorrow morning for examining trial.

While none of the accused would make a statement today it is understood that they will waive examining trial and be bound over to the grand jury.

The officers charged with Clayton's death are Basset Miles, federal prohibition agent; E. L. Young, chief police detective; W. E. Mayberry, custodian of Camp Mabry and Patrolman J. L. McNeil of the Austin police force.

The charges were filed against the officers on December 22 the same day seventeen Austin citizens also charged with Clayton's murder waived examining trials.

Charges of assault to murder were also filed against Barney Blunt and Olney (Picken) Childress in connection with the shooting. Blunt and Childress were with Clayton when he was shot. They are also scheduled to appear for examining trial tomorrow.

County Attorney John W. Hornsby said that the officers admitted to him that they fired the shots one of which killed Clayton in an exchange of shots with the men in the automobile in which Clayton came to his death.

MOST TROUBLESOME PROBLEMS ADVANCED NEARLY TO DECISION

By The Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—After a five-day New Year's breathing space, the arms negotiations were resumed today with an impetus that swept some of the most troublesome problems of the conference almost to the point of decision.

Uppermost among the separate discussions which appeared tonight to be approaching a conclusion was the controversy between the Japanese and the Chinese over Shantung. It was indicated that the conversations might end tomorrow, one way or the other, and that the predominating belief was that the result would be an agreement rather than a deadlock.

A final agreement also was in sight on the question of a revised Chinese tariff. After a long argument the tariff sub-committees came together on a proposal to increase tariff schedules of China under an international commission plan and the far eastern committee of the whole is expected to ratify the decision tomorrow.

Among the naval experts so much progress was made with technical details of the naval limitation plan that in some quarters it was declared final disposition of the subject was only a question of hours. Precise regulations for scrapping ships and details of replacement were numbered among the day's agreements in the naval subcommittee.

On the question of submarine regulations, which was waited on further advices from the foreign capitals, Japan contributed another step toward decision by accepting in principle the Root resolutions proposing to outlaw the use of submarine regulations acts of piracy. Italy alone remains to accept the propositions and at a discussion by the full naval committee, however, new troubles may be encountered through China's request that the famous "twenty-one demands" be brought up for conference discussion. A protest was lodged by Japan just before the last meeting of the committee adjourned, and what promises to be a stubborn debate is expected by some delegates before the point is decided.

Meantime the American advisory committee met and canvassed opinion on the submarine question with the result that the committees previous position for retention of the underwater war craft within strict regulations was reaffirmed. Members said a survey of editorial comment and public opinion generally convinced them that the American people strongly desired that submarine operations be brought within the considerations of humane warfare.

PROMINENT PRO OFFICERS FACE PRISON TERMS

Overhauling of New York's Prohibition Enforcement Machine Unearths Numerous "Bad Cogs."

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—A bombshell was exploded today in New York federal prohibition headquarters.

Breaking of the seals on a secret indictment returned some weeks ago by the federal grand jury investigating enforcement of the Volstead act in this city, revealed the fact that Harold L. Hart, a prominent Binghampton attorney, who formerly served as federal prohibition director for the state of New York, headed a list of score of druggists charged with conspiracy to defraud the government of liquor withdrawals.

Indicted with Hart were two other high enforcement officials, three politicians and a number of the "drug" concerns and their officers. The list of defendants included: Thomas Reddy, formerly allied with the post-office department and the department of justice, and who later served as Hart's assistant, before the latter's resignation last fall.

When Federal Judge Knox this afternoon ordered the seals broken, it was found that the defendants had been charged with defrauding the government by issuing false and fraudulent withdrawal permits whereby liquor exceeding vastly the amounts allowed any one defendant for the compounding of drugs had been withdrawn. The offense, alleged to have involved wholesale quantities of liquor ranks with a felony and upon conviction, the defendants would face three year prison terms.

COLD SPELL PUTS CRIMP IN PLANS OF MRS. STILLMAN

By Associated Press.

MONTREAL, Jan. 4.—The mercury today changed the plans of Mrs. Anne U. Stillman, who is in Canada lining up witnesses to contradict testimony given in her husband's suit for divorce that she was on intimate terms with Fred Beauvais, Indian guide at the Stillman summer camp at Grand Anse.

With the temperature yesterday 40 degrees below zero the bankers wife was tempted to abandon her plans for a snowshoe trip to the Grand Anse lodge but when today brought milder weather she announced that she would make the trip after all.

HOUSE COMMITTEE RECOMMENDS CUT IN APPROPRIATIONS

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Despite informal requests from the administration urging close following by congress of the estimates submitted by the new budget bureau, the treasury department appropriation bill reported today by the house appropriations committee disclosed a cut of approximately 9 percent. The measure is the first of the regular supply bills.

The bill as reported carried a total of $118,610,959 for expenses of the treasury, $12,696,827.38 less than the budget amount and $12,770,591 less than the total for the current fiscal year. The measure probably will be taken up on the floor tomorrow.

The committee eliminated all requests for salary increases.

CHAMPION NOT MENTIONED IN OUSTER SUITS

By Associated Press.

ADRMORE, Okla., Jan. 4.—Buck Garrett, sheriff of Carter county is the only county official included in the ouster suits to be filed tomorrow morning, according to word received from the attorney's general office here tonight.

Others to be included in the suit will be W. R. Wainright, chief of police of Ardmore, J. H. Langston, mayor of Healdton and N. A. (Lem) Bates, chief of police of Healdton, the report said.

Suspension from office until after the trials will be asked in the suits which come as the result of an investigation of conditions in Carter county recently conducted by the attorney general's office.

By Associated Press.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 4.—Evidence obtained by Assistant Attorney General Fulton in his recent investigation of alleged lax law enforcement in Carter county does not warrant the filing of charges against Thomas W. Champion, district judge in Carter county and such action will not be taken, according to an announcement made today at the attorney general's office.

The announcement said that Attorney General Freeling has not had sufficient opportunity to determine from the evidence whether the facts will warrant the filing of ouster proceedings against James H. Mathers, county attorney of Carter county. This will be determined later by Mr. Freeling, he announced.

In each petition a temporary suspension will be asked, pending final determination of the case, it was announced, it was announced. Notice will be served, it was stated, that such cases will come up for hearing January 16, before Judge E. D. Oldfield, of the district court of Oklahoma county, assigned by the state supreme court to hold court in Carter county beginning on that date.

DE VALERA HAS PUT HIS TRUMP CARD IN PLAY

Alternate Proposals to Irish Treaty Are Produced in Answer to Challenges of Griffith.

By Associated Press.

DUBLIN, Jan. 4.—Eamonn DeValera, when the Dail Eireann rose this evening, produced for the first time publicly his alternative proposals to the Irish treaty. A fortnight ago he was asked by Arthur Griffith to publish them, and Mr. Griffith repeated his challenge at today's debate.

Mr. DeValera's original idea, was to move his alternative proposals in the event of rejection of the treaty. But he changed his mind, and now intends, if permitted, to move them as an amendment to the resolution approving the treaty.

The document, whose secrecy has been carefully guarded, was issued to the press, accompanied by an appeal by Mr. DeValera in a manifesto addressed to the Irish people, urging them not to be stamped in the support of the treaty, which would not bring peace.

The document as issued differs, according to Mr. Griffith, from the document submitted in the private sessions of Dail Eireann. It follows the main outline of the treaty made at the Downing street residence of the British prime minister and signed by Arthur Griffith, Michael Collins, and the other plenipotentiaries, but, implies, Mr. DeValera contends a fundamental difference in principle. It asserts that the sole source of authority in Ireland rests with the Irish people, while by the treaty, it is argued, it is derived through the king.

Mr. DeValera's plan contains no oath of allegiance, but admits recognition of his Britannic majesty as head of the association of states in the British commonwealth, with which Ireland externally associated itself.

The debate today revealed the presence of at least three parties in the Dail Eireann—the supporters of the treaty made in London, the supporters of Mr. DeValera and his alternatives proposals, and some in-active republicans opposed to both sets of proposals. Vigorous speeches were made for and against the treaty, but at the conclusion of the session there was no indication of any change in the sentiment of the members and best informed opinion continue to believe that the treaty will be approved by a small majority.

HITCH COMES IN THREE-WAY BASEBALL DEAL

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—A hitch in the proposed three-cornered trade of baseball players involving the Washington, Boston and Philadelphia teams of the American league, by which Roger Peckinpaugh, would become manager of the Senators, developed today at a conference between Clark Griffith, owner of the capital club and Harry Frazee head of the Red Sox.

Griffith stated after the conference that there was nothing he could say other than that the proposition had not gone through and that it remained for Frazee to make the next move.

It was understood that both club owners had been in communication with Connie Mack who is in Texas and that word was being awaited from him before the transaction could be consumated.

The trade was said to include sending Joe Dugan to the Red Sox and Joe Judge and Bing Miller to the Athletics. Other players also were reported to be involved.

Later Mr. Frazee said that Mr. Griffith advised him that he could obtain Dugan from the Philadelphia club and trade him to Boston for Peckinpaugh. The Boston magnate declared that he wanted additional players and that Mr. Griffith's refusal to make the trade other than on even terms caused the hitch.

Gotham Police Would Disarm Bandit Forces

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—Police authorities of this city were today considering measures looking to the disarmament of Gotham. They had before them newspaper clippings, police reports and hospital records covering the new year revel, during which the use of pistols was remarkable for a city supposed to be law-abiding.

It was asserted that thousands of men were carrying firearms and that an alarming proportion of them were at least potential criminals. Merchants were alleged to have sold weapons without regard for the Sullivan law and New York gunmen and bandits were said to have no trouble in crossing to New Jersey and stocking up on munitions of war. It seemed probable that some means would be found to break New York of the habit of carrying pistols, but the exact nature of the steps to be taken had not been revealed.

JEFF SMITH WINS DECISION IN BOUT WITH KID PALMER

By Associated Press.

TULSA, Okla., Jan. 4.—Jeff Smith of Bayonne, N. J., outpointed Kid Palmer of Tulsa in a 15-round bout here tonight. Smith won all the way, continually jabbing and crossing his younger opponent. Palmer, in his over-anxiety to land a knockout wallop, entirely missed several wild swings and fell to the floor several times from the force of his own ill-directed blows. Referee Gaha's decision was applauded by the crowd. The men are middleweights.

General Motors Corporation to Omit Dividends

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—Directors of the General Motors corporation today voted to omit the quarterly dividend of 25 cents a share on common stock, due at this time.

The directors authorized the regular quarterly dividends of $1.50 on preferred stocks; $1.50 on six per cent. debenture bonds and $1.75 on six per cent. debenture bonds, payable February 1 to stockholders of record of January 14.

Of the corporation's 50,000,000 shares of common stock carrying no par value, only 20,646,397 shares are outstanding. On these today's dividend omission saved the company more than $5,000,000 and if the omission were continued for a year, more than $20,000,000 would accrue.

About five quarts of corn liquor and two and one-half gallons of soured ciders were seized in a raid Wednesday night on a local rooming house in which three women and five men were arrested by City Detectives Glenn, Belcher, Hempree, Deputy Constable Will Allen and Texas Ranger McCormick.

Charges of possessing liquor will be filed against a man and woman, officers asserted.

One of those arrested was charged with drunkenness, three with vagrancy, two with possessing liquor and three are being held for investigation.

NATIONAL FARM CONFERENCE IS CALLED JAN. 29

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—The national agricultural conference suggested several days ago by President Harding to consider means of relieving distress among the farmers, was called tonight by Secretary Wallace to meet in Washington, January 23.

The agricultural secretary, in announcing the call, said it was expected that Mr. Harding would open the conference. Invitations to persons selected to comprise the personnel of the gathering, it was said, are being sent out daily and announcement of the list of delegates will be made as soon as all the acceptances are received.

The secretary, it was learned, is making up the personnel not only from the agricultural interests, but also those interests which are intimately associated with agriculture, in the transportation, marketing and distribution of farm products.

In addition to representatives of these allied interests it is expected that a small number of men who will be generally accepted as representing the public, will be invited to the conference.

The wide scope of the conference concerns the business of the country generally as well as the farmers, department of agriculture officials emphasized. In seeking remedial measures to relieve the present distress of the agricultural classes, he said the conference would be seeking to restore the buying power of the agriculturalists which would make for a general revival of business, should success attend their efforts.

BOY ATTACKED BY WILDCAT ON FARM IN SOUTH TEXAS

FORT WORTH, Texas, Jan. 4.—Doyle Harkins, 8-year-old-son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Harkins, who reside two miles north of Bertram, Texas, was attacked Tuesday by a wildcat while feeding his pet bulldog in a barn on the Harkins farm, according to word received here today. When he tossed the cat some bread, it grabbed his thumb and held to it viciously. He called to his mother, who was at the house a hundred yards away. She and another son went to his rescue, the latter choking the wildcat to death. Doyle was rushed to Austin for treatment at the Pasteur Institute.

The assessment books are expected daily from the printers and work will then start. The following assessors attended the Tuesday meeting: B. L. Trevathan and G. C. Raley, precinct 1; W. A. Roberts, Burkburnett, precinct 2; George Mills, Iowa Park, precinct 3; J. McKeyvy, Electra, precinct 4.

JUNIOR COLLEGE TO BE DISCUSSED BY C. OF C. DIRECTORS

A meeting of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce will be held this morning at 10:30 o'clock to consider the recommendation of the special committee appointed to consider the advisability of making a definite offer to obtain the transfer of a junior college to this city.

The committee has agreed on a definite recommendation as to the amount of cash money to be offered and also the number of acres to be included in the campus site.

phase of the contest got into the open senate late in the day through statements by Senators Heflin of Alabama and Caraway of Arkansas, democrats, to the effect that President Harding or some administration leaders were urging haste in filling the vacancy.

Senator Curtis of Kansas, and Wadsworth of New York, both republicans, and the former the republican whip, responded with a denial that the "administration has had, or is going to have" anything to do with the appointment of a new Pennsylvania senator. Senator Wadsworth inquired whether Mr. Heflin "knew positively" that the president or his advisers had taken the course stated and suggested that the Alabama senatir should investigate before making the assertion.

Senator Heflin replying, said he had based his statement on news paper stories and Mr. Curtis' interjected that there "is a lot of guessing going on."

Mr. Heflin further declared he had been informed that the man to be named in Pennsylvania must agree in advance to vote for Newberry. "I think" broke in Senator Curtis, "that from my position, I know what's going on around here. I want to say that the administration or any outside the state is not participating in the Pennsylvania situation. I want to say further that no attempt has been made to impose conditions on the appointment."

Senator King, democrat, Utah, inquired whether the appointee from Pennsylvania could be regarded as a competent "judge" in the Newberry controversy. He said that the new senator would hardly have time to take oath if office before he could be called upon to vote.

Although the Ford-Newberry election contest will be taken up Friday, under the senate's previous agreement, debate would be unlimited until Monday, after which all speeches will be limited to an hour.

Anti-Gambling Fight Resumed At New Orleans

By Associated Press.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 4.—Forty-seven bookmakers together with their forty-seven cashiers, operating at the Fair Grounds race track were technically arrested at the conclusion of today's racing card by being directed to report to the sheriff's office on warrants issued on informations furnished by District Attorney Marr, charged violation of the Locke anti-gambling law.

Bond was fixed in each case at $250.

The action of the district attorney in causing the arrest of all the bookmakers marks the resumption of the fight he started against alleged race track gamblers at last winter's meet. A large number of suits instituted by the district attorney at that time are still pending in the state courts.

Annual Meet Of Texas Farm Bureau Opens

DALLAS, Texas, Jan. 4.—The Texas farm bureau federation opened its second annual convention here today with a busy session. The session was featured by a comprehensive review of the achievements in co-operative commodity marketing in the United States during 1921 presented by Aaron Sapiro, counsel for the federation. Very little has been accomplished compared to what remains to be done, he said.

It was reported that the bureau in Texas now has 145 counties with affiliated bureaus and an individual membership roll of 30,000 bonafide members.

President John T. Orr of Dallas, called the convention to order and Mayor Swanie Aldredge of Dallas delivered the welcome address. Dr. W. B. Bizzell, president of the Texas A. & M. college responded. Dr. Bizzell discussed the current relations of business and agricultural and hailed the arrival of the day when business would acknowledge its dependence on agriculture.

RAIL LABOR BOARD TAKES UP CASE ON OVERTIME RULING

CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—What was regarded as a test case on the application of the overtime rule for railroad shop employes came before the United States railroad labor board today in a hearing on the controversy regarding overtime brought against the Chicago and Eastern Illinois railroad.

N. M. Jewell, head of the shop crafts union, told the board that under the revised overtime rule promulgated by the board August 16 1921, men not regularly assigned to Sunday and holiday work should receive time and one-half.

Chicago Merged Bank's Deposits Gain $5,000,000

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—When the Continental and Commercial National bank and the Continental and Commercial Trust and Savings bank checked up accounts tonight after the first full day's business since the taking over of the Fort Dearborn National bank and the Fort Dearborn Trust and Savings bank, officials were astonished to find that through the public confidence the banks had gained about $5,000,000 in deposits.

DISCOVERY IS MADE IN BOLL WEEVIL FIGHT

By Associated Press.

ADA, Okla., Jan. 4.—What is declared by local cotton men to be the most important discovery in recent years concerning the boll weevil which last year caused much loss to cotton farmers in the south was made known today when a farmer living near this city brought to the city a large number of weevils which he had discovered in the roots of cockleburr stalks.

In four stalks a total of 136 of the insects were found, the farmer said. Cotton men are becoming interested and investigations are to be made. It also indicated that the matter would be referred to state authorities on the insect and plans discussed for the abolition of it from the roots of this plant. Some were of the opinion that the weevils have for years been wintering in cockleburr roots. Farmers are already discussing the probability that if the roots of the plants are pulled up and burned that the weevils will be killed out.

Sproul Not to Assume Place Of Sen. Penrose

By Associated Press.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 4.—Governor William C. Sproul tonight announced that he would not resign to take the senatorship made vacant by the death of Senator Boise Penrose.

"If I should ever desire to go to the United States senate," said the governor, "I shall submit by candidacy to the people of the state in the regular way—through the processes of nomination and election."

DRAUGHON SCHOOL TO OCCUPY NEW QUARTERS TODAY

Announcement was made Wednesday that the Wichita Falls branch of the Draughon Business schools would move from their present location at 809-811 Tenth street to the Heydrick building, 710 1-2 Seventh street. Harry Holmgren, manager of the school, said that with added facilities he expected to soon have the largest business college in North Texas.

At the present time, the student body numbers about forty. The school will be moved early Thursday morning and there will be no interruption in the classes, according to Holmgren.

The Wichita Dancing club will occupy the rooms vacated by the Draughon school. J. S. Mills, formerly manager of the Arcadia Dancing Academy, will have charge of the Wichita Dancing club. He announced that the academy would probably give their first dance about the middle of next week.

Repairs on the building to put it in shape for dancing will be started at once. High class music and an excellent floor, Mr. Mills asserted, will be the policy of the academy.

NEGRESS DIES AT CORPUS CHRISTI AT AGE OF 112 YEARS

By Associated Press.

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas, Jan. 4.—Frances Avery, negress, died here today. She was said to be 112 years old. The aged negress possessed a bill of sale showing her to have been sold in 1812 in Hancock county, Ga., to a Mr. Tyler. She was brought to South Texas before the Civil war by Captain Ben Avery whose name she assumed when she was freed from slavery. She was the mother of three children, all of whom she outlived. Several grand children and great-grand children survive.

Gas, Indigestion, Stomach Misery —"Diapepsin"

"Pape's Diapepsin" "really does" put bad stomachs in order—"really does" overcome indigestion, dyspepsia, gas, heartburn and sourness in five minutes—that—just that—makes Pape's Diapepsin the largest selling stomach regulator in the world. If what you eat ferments into stubborn lumps, you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food and acid; head is dizzy and aches, remember the moment "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. It's truly astonishing—almost marvelous—and the joy is its harmlessness. A large sixty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin is worth its weight in gold to men and women who can't get their stomachs regulated. It belongs in your home—should always be kept handy in case of a sick, sour, upset stomach during the day or at night. It's the most efficient antacid and stomach regulator in the world. (Adv.)

SHERIFF DEPARTS FOR CALIFORNIA WITH BERG

By Associated Press.

TERRELL, Texas, Jan. 4.—Mont Berg, alleged bank swindler, started for Loyalton, Cal., today in custody of L. A. Braden, sheriff off Plumas county, California. He was arrested here December 7 on charges of alleged irregularities in dealings with the Sierra Valley bank at Loyalton. Last week he was acquitted of a charge of attempted bribery of the arresting officer here.

KATO REPLIES TO JAPANESE ACCUSATIONS

"Aid Was Given General Semenoff Only to Check Bolsheviki Menace," Declares Jap Statesman.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Five additional documents were made public tonight by the delegation of the Far Eastern republic of Chita to show "that the Japanese created their own 'Russian governments' that are in reality puppets in the hands of the Japanese."

Through these governments, it was added, "the Japanese are able to control economically and politically the Russian Far East."

Photostats of the originals of the documents are in the archives of the Chita government, it was said. The publication of the five tonight followed the disclosure by the Chita delegation on Sunday of an alleged agreement between France and Japan for a protectorate by the latter over Siberia and of an alleged treaty, given out last night, to show that General Semenoff, the anti-bolshiviki leader in Siberia, was among other things, in the pay of the Japanese.

Lifting a ban which he had requested newspaper correspondents to observe in connection with a statement he made yesterday to the effect that Japanese government had given financial support to General Semenoff the anti-bolsheviki leader in Siberia, Admiral Baron Kato, the senior Japanese delegate to the Washington conference tonight made a statement for publication in which he explained why Japan had given this assistance to Semenoff.

"I told you yesterday," Baron Kato said in a formal statement, "that a former Japanese cabinet had given support to Semenoff in Siberia. I should like now to tell you something more about that matter so that there will be clear understanding of the case. About the time the allied contingents were dispatched to Siberia in 1918 there had developed an anmolous situation in Siberia owing to the conditron effected by German and Austro-Hungarian prisoners of war with bolsheviki forces, the former assuming practical command.

"In order to check the bolsheviki from permeating the Far East, it was thought to be as urgent as it was expedient to utilize Russian forces under Russian comand. General Semenoff was port" in these days to intend waging war against the bolsheviki and Japan decided to give him material support in his attempt. In coming to that decision Japan was by no means actuated by and aggressive designs, but was only following the line of policy adopted by some of the allied powers, notably Great Britain and France, to entrust to Russian forces the task of resisting the bolsheyik menace.

"Subsequently the Teutonic influence was swept away and the general situation in Siberia was transformed. The German menace ceased and the factional feuds in Siberia began to attain a purely domestic character. Semenoff, Kolchak and leaders of the social revolutionaries were in turn at Loggerheads. In such circumstances, the Japanese government decided to discontinue its support of Semenoff entirely and to observe strict neutrality in the Siberian situation. Japan has since given no assistance whatever to Semenoff, either when he was driven away from Trans-Baikal in the summer of 1921, or at any other time."

TWO GOOD COMPLETIONS AT ELECTRA

Two good wells are reported as the first of this week's competion from the South Electra field, both on the Griswold Oil company's Burnett lease. The No. 15 is reported a 200-barrel producer, in the 1,600-foot sand and the No. 16, also in the 1,600-foot sand, is reported good for 150 barrels.

Three other wells have started drilling on this lease, Nos. 17, 18 and 19. A shallow producer, No. 3, is being deepened to the 1,050-foot sand. This latter well is one of the producers on the lease when it was purchased from the Barr Davis Oil company.

service, declared he found a noose and black cap on the bodies of three American soldiers dug up in the little French cemetery at Bazoilles, the committee permitted the inquiry to run its course. Right after the testimony of Hubbard another witness, who assisted in a legal execution, declared that the body was buried, noose and black cap intact, in the same cemetery where Hubbard said three men so marked had been found.

One Charge Cleared

A farm boy from Georgia, who frankly but pathetically announced he could not read or write, cleared up his recent statement concerning the shooting of a soldier because he had sneaked away from his command to quench his thirst at a little spring. It developed that the command was trying to conceal its position from the enemy and that all hands had been warned that the first man attempting to walk out in the open would be shot. The soldier walked fifty yards beyond the dead line, refused to halt, when ordered and they shot him in his tracks.

There was much testimony relating to executions at Is-Sur-Tilie, none of the witnesses being able to say whether the victims had been tried, beyond the claim of some to the contrary as the trap was sprung. War department records containing the list of eleven hanging, listed two at Is-Sur-Tille.

Quite inadvertently a member of the committee brought out during the examination of a former soldier that since the war he had served 14 months however, to discredit his testimony on that account. It related solely to executions, conducted publicly with soldiers drawn up as witnesses in accordance with military regulations.

hundred years hence and new wells the world over will be brought in with a regularity that will not astonish the people then on earth.

Harold F. McCormick is fancy free. His wife has divorced him. He was paid $3,000,000 in the property settlement resulting from the divorce. She was given the town house in Chicago, a veritable palace of Midas; she was given a magnificent country home and another home by the sea shore. According to the Chicago newspapers, Mrs. McCormick's string of residences have a value of $3,000,000. Mrs. McCormick was Edith Rockefeller, daughter of the Standard Oil king. She has millions. McCormick has millions. He is the president of the International Harvester company. There were no airing of grievances in the court. There was no washing of soiled linen. There was no undue publicity on the part of the newspapers. Lawyers effected a property settlement or division and the judge kindly granted the decree. Mr. McCormick is a patron of grand opera; Mrs. McCormick is a patron of grand opera. They have invested millions in grand opera. Now the newspapers say that Harold F. McCormick is to become the blushing husband of Mary Garden. He doesn't deny it; Mary doesn't deny it. It goes without saying that the possession of a great fortune does not insure happiness to its possessor.

"On to Mexico" is the slogan of Lee L. Russell and John Conrad, leading ranchmen of Texas, prominent in the ranks of livestock growers, influential members of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers' association. Lee Russell is a banker as well as a ranchman and cowman. John Conrad is in the City of Mexico and the stockyards there have been placed under his direct supervision. Russell has returned from Mexico and it was his sixth trip to the capital city of the land of the Aztec. He says that the stockyards of Mexico City are to be thoroughly modernized and Americanized and that John Conrad will move his residence there so he can devote his entire time to the reconstruction and remodeling of the stockyards so that the shipments of huge consignments of cattle and other livestock of Texas will be properly handled. Speaking of his sixth and last trip, this financier and stock raiser and land baron said, "Every trip I make I see more possibilities for Americans who choose Mexico for a field of their operation. As soon as things become more settled in the border republic, there will be an ever increasing demand for our cattle and other livestock. We can supply Mexico's demands and needs and we will supply them. Mexicans are especially desirous to introduce the famous brands of cattle, hogs and horses in their country. Texas and her products are well known there I learned from all sides." Some day an American president and an American secretary of state for foreign affairs will realize that an "open door" in Mexico is of more importance to the American people than an "open door" in China.

Tex Rickard is the first sportsman of the world. Tex started in Clay county and rode the range as a cow puncher. He has assumed many roles since and played all the games of hazard. Just now he is the king of American sports promoters and the manager of Madison Square Garden in the city of New York. As a promoter of athletic sports he stands alone and is the top-notcher of the world. For the year 1921 he paid the federal and state governments over a half million dollars in taxes on boxing and wrestling bouts and other athletic amusements. During the fifteen months of Tex Rickard's career as a promoter the attendance at the boxing and wrestling shows at Madison Square Garden approximated 2,247,127. It is a long call from the Tex Rickard of Clay county to the Tex Rickard of Madison Square Garden fame. He made the journey and while on the way he picked up several fortunes.

There is money in oil if one has affiliations with the Standard. Mrs. Helen C. Bostwick died in the city of New York the other day. She was the widow of a minor official and stockholder of the Standard Oil. Her estate is valued at $20,000,000. Colossal fortunes have been piled up by those connected with the Standard oil in recent years. Whether the price is up or down there is money in petroleum for the Standard people which includes the stockholders and it goes without saying that they get it all within the law. Money is the most potential force in the world. It has been so from the beginning. It may be so until the end of time. Lenine and Trotzky and their followers in Russia decreed that capitalism should be destroyed. Their decree was carried out. They destroyed capitalism and ever since it was destroyed the millions of Russia, the peasants and their families have been dying of hunger. They destroyed the Romonoffs but there has been more distress and more famine victims in Russia since the passing of the old order of things than ever before in Slavic history. Russia will come back just as France came back after the commune and the French revolution but when it comes back capitalism will come with it.

H. A. Halbert of Coleman is a weather profit or rain guide. He has issued his rain predictions for 1922. Speaking of January he says, "This year will open in a rain period with prospects good for some rain within the range of my predictions, which I include within one thousand miles in every direction from the center of Texas where is located my home town of Coleman. The next one thousand miles in every direction will vary very little." Thank the Lord that Wichita Falls is included in the Halbert's sphere of moisture. He looks for rain and sleet and snow from the 14th to the 17th, "and our chance is good from antipodal tide from the 28th to the 31st." February looks good according to Rain Guide Halbert. There will be many cloudy days followed by heavy precipitations along good chances for rain from an antipodal tide from the 26th to March 1st." March will be blustering and dry. Outlook for the month, Saharish. April may be wet through and through. May promises many light showers with a chance for heavy rain. This is advice to the farmers. "If January and February are wet months, as they are liable to be, it will further hinder the preparing of the lands and hinder the planting of early spring crops. So if it is necessary plow and prepare in the wet rather than wait for it to dry up." Rain Guide Halbert predicts a seasonable May and June and fair crops of all kind during the year 1922. A courageous man is Rain Guide Halbert. He has lived in Texas 40 years.

Rippling Rhymes

THE BOOTLEGGER.

On furtive feet along the street in darkness they are going; from stew and slum they bring the rum that keeps the boneyard growing. They make their rye of poisoned lye, of rough on rats their brandy, and he who drinks is wise, methinks, to keep a coffin handy. They fill their vats with old dead cats when they would make sour mashes; and one small drink will put a gink in line for dust and ashes. They make their gin of rusted tin and upas leaves and granite, and he who sips curls up and skips from this our well known planet. They make their booze from cast-off shoes brought in by vampires ghostly, and he who quaffs finds epitaphs the goods he's needing mostly. Ah, when you swig a bumper big of bootleg rye or bourbon, your works will split, you'll throw a fit no doc can put a curb on. You'll bite the chairs and fall down stairs and start a rough-house gaudy, and when you're through the crowner true will sit upon your body. Few, escape the shroud and crape who drink the bootleg mixture, and with a spade men's beds are made where headstones are a fixture. The bootleg knaves are peddling graves, they're selling bottled slaughter; oh, then, with me drink bonteset tea, and pop, and milk, and water!

THE GOOD OLD TIMES

By DR. FRANK CRANE

(Copyright, 1921, by Frank Crane.)

A book called "Mayfair and Montmartre," by Ralph Nevill, appeared some time ago in England, and is a very good example of crude and immature thinking applied to social problems.

It is the philosophy of the club man, the amusement seeker and the shallow devotee of society, which has taken a literary form and got itself into a book.

"The majority of social reformers are dull dogs," the book says. "Utopian ideas are all very well in theory, but getting them carried out is quite another matter." He then proceeds to castigate all Utopians and Puritans.

He objects to progress because it eliminates "the vanished graces and the enjoyment of life."

He seems to think that while every one nowadays has a chance at learning, yet the output of great men and notable characters has shrunk practically to nil.

The result will not improbably be, according to him, the stamping out of individuality resulting from the multitude of laws and restrictions.

And so on and so on.

Perhaps it is just as well to get this echo of the gossip of club rooms and whimper of boudoirs out into print where we can get at it. All we hope to do here is to pillory it so that the everyday person can realize its absurdity.

For the same line of argument would lead us to lament the fact that the Good Old Days of war seem to be over. And to fear that Disarmament Conferences and World Councils are going to spoil the grand fun which humanity used to have in periodical festivals of butchery.

Such a man doubtless also would bewail the passing of the duel when gentlemen can no more settle their affairs of honor delightfully by murder and mayhem, but are compelled to go into a dirty court room.

He would also doubtless complain of the passing of slavery, with all the beautiful incidents connected with one human being owning another and abusing him to his heart's content.

There might be also a few wails because of the general prevalence of monogamy in these drab days, and that gentlemen are "denied the fascinating pastime of having a variegated bunch of wives.

Our authors also doubtless would welcome the loud and bitter howls going up from the cities of the United States over Prohibition, and would not hesitate to estimate the loss of the champagne cup at the banquet table as being far more disastrous than all the combined filth and murder which constituted the steady crop of the corner saloon.

For all that, the world moves on. Each age has its purple flowers that bloom upon the surface of its passing iniquity. And to those whose whole business in life is to admire flowers, it is much better to keep the deadly sewage than to lose the picturesque bloom.

The Once Over

By H. I. PHILLIPS

Marse Henry's Arrival.

"Dixie" and the rebel yell come from the distant shore—
"Old Kaintucky Home" and other famous songs of yore;
The bonnie blue flag's flyin' and the band is on parade,
And troopin' on behind are some of Chattanoog's brigade;
The ragged, rednosed angels whoop 'er up with rebel yells
And buy the war-time "Rebel" sold by pretty southern belles;
There comes the song of "corntops ripe and meadows in the bloom—
St Peter knows the meaning....Marse Henry has come home!

Dumm and Dummer on Debs, Egypt, India Et Cetera

"Everybody is looking for freedom these days. Ireland has got some of it, but isn't satisfied; Egypt is beginning to fight for it, India is razzing the Prince of Wales for it.....yet Eugene Debs alone seems to have attained it completely," said Senator Dumm, bitterly.

o o o

"What the government did to Debs, as a matter of fact, was a personal favor," declared Representative Dummer. "It took care of him over the hard times. Debs has been one of the few residents of the United States during the last few years who haven't had to worry about high rents, poor business and the unemployment problem."

"It is even rumored," returned Senator Dumm, "that before he would accept his release Debs insisted upon a clause being put in his agreement allowing him to return to the federal hoosgow if he finds the life outside too tough."

o o o

"Look what the desire for freedom is doing to nice places like India and Egypt!" blurted Dummer. "And what good will it do them if they get it? An Indian can now make a good living doing tricks with drugged snakes. When he gets his freedom he will, in all justice, have to give the snake its freedom, too. Then the both of them will have to go to work!"

o o o

"With Debs it's different," ambled on Dummer. "He doesn't have to go to work. He doesn't even have to do tricks with snakes or anything. Of course Gene can do tricks, if he wants to....in fact he proved that by getting out of a federal penitentiary almost as quickly as Houdini could do it."

o o o

"But getting back to India," said Senator Dumm. "The natives there have lost the sympathy of the best by expressing their protest through dressed people and of all drummers a razzing of one of the world's best tailored citizens and most widely known traveling men—the Prince of Wales. You can't free a nation by hissing a boy in a white duck suit, can you?"

"I never tried it," admitted Dummer.

"I like the Prince of Wales," continued Dumm. "He has a nice face and an elluva good tailor. I saw him when he was in New York and there is something so bashful and thoroughly harmless about him that I'm for him. I think every time he rides down a main street in an open hack he does more to make the people feel friendly toward England than the king, queen and Lloyd George put together, and I'm against any people that hiss him."

"Maybe the natives didn't hiss him as an indication of bad feelings," interjected Dummer. "Hissing may be a native custom meaning the same as three cheers in this country."

"The only thing so constructed it can hiss without giving offense is a tire pump," said Senator Dumm. "There's a guy in India named Mahatma Ghanda—a relative of Propa Ghanda, I dare say—and he is stirring up the Hindoos."

"Well, you know the old saying," put in Dummer.

"Whatzat?"

"When you are among the Hindoos do as the Hindoos," replied Dutmer.

o o o

"Mahatma! Ain't that a fine name?" sneered Senator Dumm.

"That's a great Indian name," explained Dummer. "There are three branches, the Mahatmas, the Gimme-Mahatmas, and the Heresyahat-Whatsyaburrymas.

"Some day I'm going to murder you in cold blood," remarked Senator Dumm. "Your ignorance of world affairs is appalling."

"It ain't ignorance," insisted Dummer, "I just don't take any stock in these disturbances in Egypt and India."

"Why not?"

"I think they're just advertisements for cigarette companies."

"You're absolutely without a spark of intelligence," declared Senator Dumm. "The disturbances in Egypt and India are very grave and may mean long years of bloodshed ahead. Don't you realize England would never surrender the Sues Canal without a fight to the last ditch?"

"Sure," replied Dummer, "when you're fighting over a canal you have to fight to the last ditch."

"But do you realize the part the Sues Canal plays in the present situation?"

"Centainly."

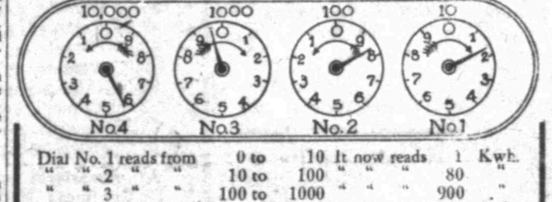

"What is it?"

"The Egyptians want the British to fill it with hot water so they can enjoy winter bathing," returned Dummer.

Taffeta and Chiffon Are Combined in This Young Girl's Evening Frock

For the girl of fourteen or fifteen years the little evening frock shown in the sketch would be charming. It combines taffeta in a pastel shade such as pink, pale green, yellow, or blue, with a chiffon in self or contrasting color. The sheer fabric forms the accordion pleated skirt, which is finished with an uneven line at the hem. A flower girdle and a little matching flower placed on the shoulder supply the trimming touches. the dress, which fastens in the center back is so simple that it would be very easy to make.

The long waits featured on this dress is particularly good for the young girl whose figure is not developed, and the combination of chiffon with taffeta makes a most charming little mid-season or early spring dinner or dancing frock.

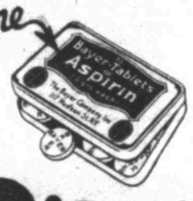

An easly spring taffeta street frock for a young girl, seen recently, featured a slightly draped waist of the hip length type, to which was attached a skirt consisting of three rows of taffeta petals picoted at the edges. A very narrow self fabric ruffle, accordion pleated in scallops or "shells," finished the round neck and three-quarter sleeves.

One smart navy taffeta frock, with tight bodice reaching to the normal waist line and smartly flared skirt, was trimmed about the neck and the short, clashed sleeves with narrow bands of bright red taffeta put on like rick-rack braid. Another clever little frock for a young girl, also showing the tight bodice and full skirt, had the skirt trimmed at either side, across the hips, with several rows of narrow self fabric accordion pleated ruffles, the same finish being given the neck and sleeves.

BILLY SMITH TO AGAIN BE GASSERS' BOSS

Also Announced Expectation of Buying Red Bird Back From Washington Before Season Opens.

By Associated Press.

SHREVEPORT, La., Jan. 4.—The Shreveport club of the Texas league re-appointed Bill Smith manager for the 1922 season and chose W. T. Crawford, president; M. A. Stanton, vice-president, and H. B. Hern, secretary and treasurer.

A balance of $18,000 for last season, was announced. The re-purchase of Pitcher Bird from Washington was expected before spring and the recently announced sale if Pitcher Terry to Little Rock, has not been completed and is in doubt, it was stated.

SPORTIVELY SPEAKING

by

J. L. M.

Cecil Griggs, Spudder outfielder and first baseman, who is both a mighty wielder of the willow and a side stepper of renown on the football field, nationally known as a member of the Canton Bulldogs, strong pro-eleven, will be the next coach for Dallas University, according to reports in football circles of that institution. It was learned Wednesday that negotiations were on between the former star of Dallas U. and the alumni association for the coaching services of the great back field man of former years.

Cecil is considered to be one of the greatest back field stars of all time, having been named all-Texas, and all-Southern halfback and received honorable mention in Spaldings guide on two occasions. A number of football critics thought he ought to have been mentioned by Camp during his college career.

After taking up professional football as a member of Jim Thorpe's Canton Bulldogs in 1919, he served as manager and backfield coach for two successful seasons, 1920 and 1921.

Beginning his football career at Sherman high school in 1908, where he played for three years, he later went to Austin college, was a member of the practically unbeatable team during 1911, 1912 and 1913. After playing his three year's limit under conference rules at Austin college he went to Dallas University where he played for four years.

During the war Griggs served overseas as a lieutenant of engineers, and was a member of the 90th Division eleven which in 1917 beat the Kelly Field team, composed of northern and eastern stars. In this historic game Cecil ran wild and bewildered the former All-American luminaries.

Refreshing the memory of the past, one of the humorous incidents of one of Cecil's college games was in the Texas University-Austin college game in 1912 at Clarke field. Cecil had the ball and was tearing down the field toward the goal with a clear field when a cub bear Longhorn mascot, ran after and grabbed Cecil by the shoestring. It is said that Griggs turned as pale as a sheet and hit the bear over the head with the pigskin, the ball getting out of his hands. And the referee ruled that he had been downed. This was the game which Austin college declared Texas won by the help of the referee, who is alleged to have disallowed two touchdowns.

Big Abe Bowman, the giant right winged bulwark of strength on the Spudder's staff during the 1921 season is raring to go for the opening of the spring season. Abe, who winters in Wichita, Kansas, where he is engaged in a metal strip roofing business, wrote J. Will Gray a letter telling him that he was all set for March to roll around and that he had faith that the Spudders would "cop" in 1922. That's the stuff, ain't it gang?

Lack of ambition is one of the faults of Jim O'Connell, $75,000 beauty purchased by Jawn McGraw, for delivery in 1923, according to a manager of a coast league team in which circuit Jimmy plays. However, this manager says he is the greatest natural hitter and fielder of any youngster he ever saw and that he expects another season in coast circles will ripen him for the big show.

We will bet that the bellicose manager of the world's champions will put some ambition in him when he gets to New York or will know the reason why.

Miss Mary Mee is a student at the University of Wisconsin says R. H. L. of the Chi Trib. J. A. Cass, an embittered worldly wise high school sophomore ups and says he knows lots of 'em who could go by that name. What material for the college wit.

COPIES OF INTERNAL REVENUE LAW RECEIVED

Receipt of a few extra copies of the revenue act of 1921 was announced Wednesday by Henry Wampler, local district chief, internal revenue.

Copies, Wampler announced, will be given to individuals or firms who are in need of them, for preparing their 1921 tax returns.

A number of women are seeking nomination as delegates to the coming constitutional convention in Missouri.

GROH SIGNS THE PAPERS WITH THE NEW YORK JINTS

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—Heinie Groh today became a fullfledged member of the New York National League baseball club, which gave the Cincinnati Reds George Burns and Gonzales and a cash bonus of between $50,000 and $100,000 for him. Groh signed a two year contract at the Giant's office this afternoon. Manager McGraw refused to state the salary.

The local commandery is reported to hold excellent opportunity to lead every similar body in Texas in the record of work accomplished and with two good metings during January, members declare the end of the fiscal year will see the Wichita Falls body ranking first.

Worth Commandery at Frot Worth is reported to be the only serious rival. The Fort Worth body is the largest in Texas.

"TINY" MAXWELL PUTS A. & M. ON FOOTBALL MAP

Another football team was put on the map" was the declaration of "Tiny" Maxwell, umpire at the recent A. & M.-Centre football game at Dallas, in a signed article appearing in the Wednesday edition of the Dallas Daily Times-Herald.

The article in part follows:

"Another college was put on the football map yesterday when Texas A. & M. defeated the famous Centre college eleven by the score of 23 to 14. It was the biggest surprise ever experienced in this or any other section since the United States adopted that alleged eighteenth amendment.

"It was a surprise, but in no way can the victory be called a fluke. The 12,000 spectators at the new stadium saw the native sons run rough-shod over the Southern champion; saw outplay and outgeneral the conquerors of Harvard, Auburn, Tulane, Arizona and Washington and Lee and were amazed at the wonderful exhibition of football from a team which had not been given even an outside chance to win.

"Perhaps the Centre team showed the effects of the long season and the tiresome trip to the coast for the game last Monday. This might be true, but in no way does it detract from the victory of the Texans. A. & M. plays unbeatable football and to my mind, played a better game than did Harvard on October 29 when the Southerners scored the memorable 0 to 0 triumph."

MACK NOT IN ON PECK-DUGAN DEAL, HE SAYS

SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 4.—Connie Mack, manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, said here today that he had not been consulted about the reported three-cornered deal between Philadelphia, Boston and Washington involving the services of Joe Dugan of the Athletics. He said Dugan did not want to play in Philadelphia when he last talked to him and that possibly he will be "gotten rid of" but that if he will play in Philadelphia the Athletics have no desire to part with him.

Citizenship Is Explained By Harrison

"A citizen of a community is one who gives his service and self in an effort to better the community whole, while a denizen is on who merely lives in that section attempting to get his and get out," was the declaration of Hubert Harrison, vice-president and general manager of the Chamber of Commerce, in the principal address Wednesday before the luncheon of the Wichita club. The Chamber of Commerce was pictured by Harrison as a fly wheel which gives cumulative strength to the industrial and civic programs of the community of which it is a part.

Harrison asserted that during the last two years a large number of the "denizens" have been sifted out of Wichita Falls and declared his belief that this city is now largely composed of citizens, all of whom labor for the advancement of their community.

The meeting was presided over by G. Clint Wood, recently elected president, who introduced Harrison as the speaker of the day.

Retirement of Hank O'Day Will Take From Baseball One of Its Famous Characters and Will Be a Sad Loss

(By International News Service)

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—Hank O'Day, the veteran umpire, is reported to be about to tender his resignation to President Heydler of the National league. If O'Day does retire the game of baseball will lose one of its most famous characters—an umpire who has stood the knocks of baseball fans and critics for a quarter of a century with sturdy and honest indifference, knowing full well that he was always doing his best in one of the toughest jobs that any man was ever called on to fill. An umpire's work is never appreciated and probably never will be.

Still Hank O'Day will sever his connection with the national game with the love and respect of the baseball public and his retirement will be a sad loss to the sport. Hank was stern in his rulings, prompt in making his decisions and strict and firm in his dealings with players.

Knows Rules Thoroughly.

No man knows the rules of the game any better than O'Day. Players as a general thing are not well versed in the rules. The majority of players in fact never make a close study of the rules.

Hank O'Day received his appointment as a National league umpire from Nick Young of Washington, D. C., when he was president of the parent baseball organization. "Uncle Nick" never regretted making the appointment. Hank became so proficient that he soon gained the reputation of being the best umpire on Young's staff and was assigned to the most important contests.

Hank saw many umpires come and go, but both he and Bob Emslie, who was also appointed by Nick Young, lasted through the regimes of all the presidents who followed "Uncle Nick." Harry Pulliam succeeded Young and it was during the latter's administration that Hank made his famous overnight decision in 1908 when Fred Merkle failed to touch second base. That resulted in the game being called "no contest." The game was played off the next day on the Polo Grounds.

Cubs Won Pennant.

The Chicago Cubs won out, there championship of the National league.

O'Day was a pitcher, as was Emslie, in his playing career. Hank was on the Washington Nationals, and from there came to this city and became a member of the Giants together with Mickey Welch and Tim Keefe. Hank drifted back to Chicago and was quickly appointed an umpire. He has not enjoyed the best of health since he was hit by a foul tip on his right ear necessitating a serious operation. Hank must be about 65 years of age, but he appeared to have good eyesight and excellent judgment last season.

Hank O'Day will be missed. He is a grand old character.

SUGAR

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—The raw sugar market was firmer and prices were 1-16c higher to the basis of 3.74c for Cubas cost and freight, equal to $3.48 for centrifugal with sales of 12,000 bags for January and February shipment to operators at that level.

The raw sugar futures market was steadier on covering and buying by commission houses was prompted by the steadiness of the spot market with closing prices two points higher to one point net lower. March closed at 2.16; May 2.31; July 2.49; September 2.60.

There was no improvement in the demand for refined sugar and prices were unchanged at 4.8c to 4.9c for fine granulated.

Refined futures were without transactions. Closing prices were unchanged at 5.1c for March; 5.25 May; 5.30 July and 5.35 September.

Stocks

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—Uncertain tendencies prevailed in the stock market today, although prices strengthened in the afternoon in response to easy money and the support accorded selected issues, such as sugars, textiles, tobaccos and chain store and mail order specialties.

Dealings were extensive, approximately 950,000 shares.

A very large proportion of the business converged around less than a score of leaders comprising oil, motor, steel and equipment and steel divisions.

Sentiment continued to be swayed by the Chicago banking episode and the less favorable aspects of the industrial situation especially as affecting the automobile and allied trades.

General motors was offered in single lots ranging up to 10,000 shares at the low record of 8¾ but rallied with the general list in the short covering of the final hour. Directors of General motors were in session long after the close of the market to consider action on the several dividends.

Motor accessories, especially rubbers, were under increased pressure in consequence of yesterday's omission of the Kelly-Springfield stock dividend. Shippings, chemicals and numerous miscellaneous shares denoted little more than casual support. Rails, coalers excepted, were relegated to obscurity.

The money market again was the greatest source of encouragement to bullish initiative. Call loans dropped from 5½ percent to 5 percent at midday and were liberally supplied at 4 percent in the last half of the session.

Dealings in foreign exchange were light, the London rate easing only slightly. All other continental bills except Belgian francs were lower by 2 to 20 points.

Irregular conditions featured the moderately large dealings in bonds. Liberty issues showed trifling gains and losses and a similar tone marked the trading in rails. Forecasts pointed to the successful flotation of the new $40,000,000 Dutch East Indies loan.

Total sales (par value) aggregated $16,250,000.

Livestock

FORT WORTH LIVESTOCK.

FORT WORTH, Jan. 4.—Buyers were picking over the supply of cattle today, taking such consignments as suited and neglecting other kinds. Calves, however, cleared to a very good demand and the market on that class was steady. Steers lost 15 to 25c and on heifers and cows the market was 10 to 15c lower. Receipts amounted to 2,000 head of cattle and 1,500 calves. Several cars of calves brought 7.00 and choice steer yearlings notched 6.50.

Order buyers secured the best end of the day's hog receipts at prices showing no greater decline than 5c, their purchases including several cars at 7.25. Packers, however, were slow to get into action and their buying was at a decline of 15 to 25c. Packer top was 7.00. Bulk sales ranged from 6.50 to 7.00. Pigs sold generally steady at 5.50 to 5.75 but a few were higher at 6.00. Hog house receipts reached 2,000 head.

Sales of sheep and lambs denoted no change in market conditions. Receipts were around 250 head. Quotations:

COFFEE.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—The market for coffee futures today opened two points lower, to five points higher. Early cables from Brazil showed small irregular changes and there was some covering here after yesterday's decline, but the market weakened later owing to reports of a decline in Santos and talk of a lower firm offers in the street. There was some trade selling on the setback, which carried May contracts off to 8.35 and September to 8.20. Closing prices were about the lowest of the day, showing net losses of 9 to 20 points. January, 8.42; March, 8.53; May, 8.35; July, 8.30; September, 8.30; October, 8.30; December, 8.30. Sales were estimated at 32,000 bags.

Spot coffee was quiet at 9 1-8 for Rio 7's and 12 to 12 3-4 for Santos 4's.

CHICAGO PRODUCE

CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—Poultry alive lower; fowls 17@25, springs 23, turkeys 35, roosters 15. Butter lower; creamery extras 37. Eggs lower, receipts 10,372 cases; firsts 38@38½.

Grain

CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—Readiness with which all margin-calling was met today on change even where the amounts demanded were excessive had a decidedly stimulating effect on the grain markets here. Wheat closed strong, 3c to 3 7-8c net higher with May $1.11 1-2 to 1.15 5-8; and July $1.01 to 1.01 1-8. Corn gained 1 3-8 to 1 5-8; oats 7 1-8c to 1c and provisions 2 1-2c to 20c.

The fact that rumors of impending financial trouble for board of trade firms had in every instance failed to be substantiated and that ample funds were shown to be available led to general buying and a sharp advance set soon as the wheat market opened.

It appeared to be widespread that yesterday's selling was much over done, and as a consequence the pit today was at times almost bare of offerings. Another bullish influence was gossip that export business on a liberal scale was in progress and that purchases for Europe during yesterday's depression amounted to 1,000,000 bushels. Absence of moisture in the dry sections of Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas together with unwelcome rains in Argentina, tended also to renew bullish sentiment. On the price bulges, some heavy selling ascribed to eastern interests was encountered, but reactions that ensued, were transient, and the finish was near the top figures of the day.

Corn and oats advanced with wheat shipping demand for the feed grains appeared more active.

Notwithstanding irregularity in the hog market, provisions reflected the upturn of grain values.

Oats, No. 2 white 33½@34; No. 2 mixed 33@34c.

Cotton

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—The cotton market recovered a good part of yesterday's losses during today's trading with March contracts selling up to 18.67 compared with 18.16, the low point of the previous day. That delivery closed at 18.62 with the general market closing firm at a net advance of 35 to 41 points.

An opening advance of three to sixteen points on relatively firm Liverpool cables was checked by overnight selling orders and prices eased back to about last night's closing figures right after the call.

Liquidation was much less active after the heavy selling of the previous day, however, and the market soon turned steadier on profits that Manchester was doing big business in cotton goods with China, the continued steadiness of Liverpool covering and buying for a reaction. There was some scattering liquidation of contracts held over yesterday's break on rallies during the middle of the day but they readily absorbed on moderate setbacks with the market reaching the highest point in the late trading when January sold at 18.75 and May at 18.20 with active months showing net advances of 35 to 46 points. The close was only a few points off from the best under realizing. The unsettled feeling reported in the stock market had a restricting effect on buying during the morning but later there were reports of a better tone in Wall street and cotton traders seemed to grow a little more confident as the day passed without the development of any unfavorable feature following the vague apprehension of yesterday. Reports from the local cotton goods market indicated that yesterday's break in raw material had checked forward business but had failed to weaken prices.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 4.—A strong market developed in cotton today after a small break in the early trading. Realizing by shorts, further accounts of a good business in the Manchester market and in the afternoon, telegrams from Both Texas and Oklahoma stating that the boll weevil was coming through the mild winter in great numbers were the main buying features. At one time there was talk of bullish ginning returns but this did not last. At the highest of the day prices were 37 to 40 points over the close of yesterday, with March up to 17.73, while the close showed net gains of 37 to 45 points with March at 17.71. On the first call the active months gains of 9 to 13 points for which a better Liverpool than due was mainly responsible, but the market also immediately ran into moderate heavy selling which soon had prices at levels of one point over to four points under the last quotation of yesterday, March dropping off to 17.24. The tone was steady at the decline on cable messages from Manchester reporting improved business with China in both cloth and yarns, but no buying power of consequence developed until shorts went to taking profits.

During much of the remainder of the session, shorts furnished the market with a demand that absorbed all offerings. Pressure to buy was increased by a new demand for long account and in the late trading the market was at its best.

LIVERPOOL SPOT COTTON.

PARTY SIMILAR TO SOCIALISTS IS ORGANIZED

WACO, Texas, Jan. 4.—The non-partisan political conferenne is the name of a new party organized here yesterday. Officers are: Chairman, C. F. Goodrich of Fort Worth; vice-chairman, L. G. Sulak, Waco; secretary, John R. Spencer of Waco. Affiliating in the organization, according to announcement of Mr. Sulak, are the Farm Labor union, Non-Partisan league, the four railroad brotherhoods, the State Federation of Labor and the Women's Auxiliaries of these organizations. A meeting will be held February 21 when important action is contemplated.

The demands promulgated by the conference are similar to those proclaimed by the various socialist parties, embracing government ownership of public utilities, referendum and recall and changes in the methods of taxation. The February conference will decide the ticket that will be submitted and the names will then be filled with the democratic state executive committee to be placed on the regular primary ticket.

OIL RUNS SHOW DECREASE OF 4000 BARRELS

With total runs slightly under 134,000 barrels for the past week, the Wichita Falls district shows a decrease of approximately 4000 barrels daily over the totals for the week previous, which in turn showed a 2000-barrel loss from the 140,000 barrel average which is about normal for the district.

The holiday shut downs, and the fact that there is no general cleanup of stocks the first of the month accounts for a part of this decline, the loss in the south part of the district being also attributed to natural decline in the flowing wells.

Burkburnett and Stephens showed the bulk of the losses, as the big production comes from these two. Each lost around 2000 barrels daily.

Runs by pools follow: Burkburnett, 36,500; Electra, 11,400; Kemp-Munger-Allen and Iowa Park shallow, 2750; Archer (Texhoma and Holliday), 1950; Petrolia, 340; Young county, 8200; Stephens, 32,380; Ranger, 12,500; Comanche, 6570; Strawn, 325; Brown, 460; Moran, 130; Coleman, 110.

LOUIS KLEINMAN SELLS INTEREST TO HIS PARTNERS

Sale of his interest in the Globe Clothing store to his brother and partner of the past 12 years, Philip Kleinman, is announced by Lewis Kleinman. He has also disposed of his interest in the Globe store at Burkburnett to Joseph Liberman, his brother-in-law and partner for the past two years, according to the announcement.

In making this announcement Mr. Kleinman bespeaks for his successors the confidence he has enjoyed from the public during his business activities over a period of 25 years.

In announcing the change Mr. Kleinman assumes joint responsibility for outstanding obligations and contracts prior to the transfer of his interests, dates December 31, 1921.

44—LEGAL NOTICES

THE STATE OF TEXAS.
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Wichita County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon B. L. Moreland by making publication of this citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, to appear at the next regular term of the County Court of Wichita county at law, Wichita county, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Wichita Falls, Texas, on the first Monday in February, A. D., 1922, the same being the 6th day of February, A. D., 1922, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 30th day of November, A. D., 1921, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 5175, wherein First National Bank of Wichita Falls, Texas, a corporation is Plaintiff, and B. L. Moreland, B. J. Hair and J. D. Bailey are Defendants, and said petition alleging, that heretofore, to-wit, on 8th day of March A. D., 1921, defendant, B. L. Moreland made, executed and delivered to plaintiff his certain promissory note in the sum of $480.00, bearing date the day and year aforesaid and payable to plaintiff herein at its bank in Wichita Falls, Texas and bearing interest from maturity, October 8th, 1921, at the rate of 10 per cent per annum and contains the usual 10 per cent attorney fee clause; that plaintiff has placed said note in the hands of Carrigan, Montgomery, Britain and Morgan and has promised them the 10 per cent attorney fees provided for in said note; that to secure the payment of said note defendant, B. L. Moreland at the same time of its execution executed a chattel mortgage on 45 acres of cotton on the Shumake farm in Clay county, Texas and plaintiff alleges that defendants, B. J. Hair and J. D. Bailey unlawfully converted said cotton to their own use and benefit; that said note is past due and unpaid and that defendants, though often requested have hitherto failed and refuse and still refuse to pay plaintiff to its damage in the sum of $800.00.
