KIDNAPERS NAB BREWER

MEASURE WILL COME UP ON MONDAY

COUNTY AMENDMENT IS POSTPONED WHEN SUPPORT FAILS

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, April 10. — Further consideration of the constitutional amendment resolution of Representative Beck of Fort Worth, to permit county home rule, was postponed until Monday morning when it became apparent that enough votes could not be mustered to obtain a vote of the resolution today. The vote on the motion to postpone showed only about 85 members present and voting.

The motion to postpone was made by Representative Petsch of Fredericksburg after a motion to put the house under call and bring in enough members for action failed by two votes. The motion was made by Representative Lockhart of Lubbock.

Beck and other sponsors of the resolution agreed they were wasting time because of a lack of a quotum.

An amendment to the resolution was adopted. It would provide for the election of all judges and the county and district attorney, regardless of the form of government adopted. Under the original amendment these officers would be appointive. Representative Duvall of Fort Worth, author of the amendment, said.

Only one member took the floor against the resolution. He was Representative Akin of Princeton who argued it would permit a corrupt political machine to control the destinies of a county that now had a government close to the people. He also contended adoption by counties of the charter form of government would tend to lessen the keen competition for elective offices and would prevent honest men from having a fair chance of success in political life. Akin argued it would further centralize power and remove county government from the voice of the people.

JUDGERS HELD INELIGIBLE

PANHANDLE, McLEAN TEAMS RULED OUT AT DAIRY SHOW

(By The Associated Press)

PLAINVIEW, April 10—Vocational agriculture stock judging teams of Panhandle and McLean High schools, winners of first and second places respectively in contests at the Texas Panhandle-Plains Dairy show Monday, were ruled ineligible today by officials of the show.

The teams were found ineligible under a rule which barred from competition in the dairy show event any team that had participated in any stock judging contest "in which dairy cattle were judged, previous to the calendar year 1931."

Officials today declared Hereford winner of first place, Tulia second and Floydada third, these teams having placed third, fourth and fifth respectively in competition with Panhandle and McLean. The Hereford team will be awarded the Mistletoe creamery trophy and the first cash award.

MISTRIAL DECLARED

FORT WORTH, April 10 (AP)—A mistrial was declared yesterday in the case of Fred Lindsey, Hardeman county farmer, charged with peonage. The jury was evenly divided. Five negroes claimed in federal court that Lindsey had forced them to pick cotton on his farm without pay.

"Jail Or Alimony?" Hubby Takes Jail

CHICAGO, April 10 (AP)—When the time comes for a fellow to go to jail, Otto Roubal is all for action.

"Explain," said Judge Rudolph Desort to him in superior court yesterday, "why you failed to pay Mrs. Helen Roubal $108 in back alimony."

"I don't want to be bothered," said Roubal. "If I have to go to jail, I'm ready."

"But," continued the judge, "we could continue this to let you get the money."

"No," Roubal insisted, "I want to go now."

"Of course," replied Judge Desort, "if you insist we can fix it up. We're always willing to accommodate."

With this remark he drew up an order by which Roubal may stay in jail for six months.

WOMEN ARE TO DRAFT PRO REPORT

ADVOCATES GATHER IN WASHINGTON; VOICE FEMININE VIEWS

WASHINGTON, April 10—Approximately a score of prominent women prohibition advocates gathered here today, prepared to draft and deliver immediately to President Hoover a composite report on prohibition from the feminine viewpoint.

Meeting as the national commission of women for law enforcement, the group had planned to present their plea for more strict enforcement to the chief executive tomorrow.

To Meet Today

Because of the sudden death of Speaker Longworth, however, the president arranged to meet the women's delegation this afternoon, prior to his departure tonight for Cincinnati to attend the Longworth funeral.

Mrs. Henry W. Peabody, chairman of the Women's National committee for law enforcement, and likewise leader of the commission of 22, said today the preparation of the composite report would be rushed at top speed during the morning in order to have it ready for presentation to the president.

Additional copies of the document described as "supplementing the Wickersham report," will be sent to Secretary Mellon, Attorney General Mitchell and Chairman Wickersham of the law enforcement commission.

Chinese Music Is Basis For Charges

SAN FRANCISCO, April 10. (AP)—John H. Wong, merchant, says Chinese music is different.

Wong's opinion was expressed in a suit for $345,000 filed against the Brunswick Radio corporation and Brunswick - Balke - Collender company yesterday.

As financial backer of the Oriental Record company here, Wong charged 150,000 phonograph records made in China with Chinese musicians by the defendants for his concern were not satisfactory. They sounded all the same, he said.

Woman Succumbs In Her Husband's Arms

CHICAGO, April 10 (AP)—Mrs. Franklin C. Simmons, with a bullet wound in her head, was found dying early today in the arms of her husband, a branch manager for Armour and Company.

Simmons said his wife shot herself accidentally. Police expressed a belief that the couple, grieving over the death a year ago of their 3-year-old daughter, Barbara, had made a suicide pact and that Simmons was discovered by his wife's parents before he could kill himself.

Suspect Arrested In Robbery Case

HOUSTON, April 10. (AP)—Police today arrested a man as a suspect in a burglary at Austin Sunday in which the home of Postmaster Lynn Hunter was entered and $4,500 worth of jewelry was stolen.

The arrest came after two other men had been taken in custody and had explained how they had come in possession of gems taken from the Hunter home.

TALLEST BUILDING HIDES IN CLOUDS

Its lofty peak lost in the lowering mists over Manhattan, the new Empire State Building is seen below in an unusual view that gives a vivid impression of the height of the structure. Tallest in the city's regiment of skyscrapers, the building is topped by a mooring tower for dirigibles. This tower, together with the upper stories of the building, often are veiled from the ground, as shown here, by low-hanging clouds.

April 20 Is Deadline On Seed Loan Applications

Applications for loans for seed, feed, fertilizer and similar needs, as well as for agricultural rehabilitation, must be mailed in time to be received at the farmers Seed Loan office at Fort Worth not later than April 20.

J. B. Shannon, in charge of the Lubbock federal farm loan office, emphasized that ruling today and displayed a letter from E. J. Murphy, administrative officer in charge of the Fort Worth office, saying that the deadline had been set in regulations of the secretary of agriculture.

Receives 303 Checks

A total of 303 checks aggregating $51,341.95, representing an average of $169.44, had been received at the Lubbock office through Thursday, according to Mr. Shannon. The average had dropped, Mr. Shannon said, because later applicants had not asked as much.

Decisions of the state bureau on 37 applications sent from here had not been learned, and the local bureau had 25 applications ready to mail upon approval of the county committee, Mr. Shannon said.

Illusion Shattered For Booze Drinkers

NEW YORK, April 10 (AP)—One of the few illusions which remained for bootleggers customers has folded up like a tired accordion.

In recent months the once-famous gag-line, "just off the boat" became a bit thread-bare and it was replaced by "smell the ocean?" It got by pretty well, they say, until yesterday when prohibition agents raided the third floor of a building at 211 Wooster street.

There they discovered five 250-gallon tanks filled with seawater into which a man was dipping straw-packed bottles. After an hour's immersion the straw acquired a salty tang designed to convince the most skeptical that the stuff had travelled a lot.

Farmer Is Removed For Safe Keeping

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., April 10. (AP)—Henry L. Taylor, 55, well known West Moreland county farmer, was in jail here today for safe keeping after being arrested last night on a charge of criminally assaulting a married woman near Oak Grove Wednesday afternoon.

TELEVISION APPROACHING MOVIES IN CLEARNESS OF IMAGES TO BE SHOWN

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, April 10.—Television is approaching motion pictures in clearness of images it can produce.

A small group of spectators in the back room of a machine shop on the far west side looked last night at black and white pictures of nearby persons reproduced at the other end of the same room. The images on the receiving screen were two feet square and moved synchronistically with motions of the person before the transmitting apparatus.

These "close-ups" were nearly as clear as movie films. Their producer, Ulysses A. Sanabria, said he believed they were the largest and clearest black and white effects yet shown through

RANSOM ASKED FOR RELEASE OF VICTIM

DEMAND FOR $150,000 FOLLOWS MYSTERY DISAPPEARANCE

(By The Associated Press)

MONROE, Wis., April 10.—Fred J. Blumer, 50, a Monroe brewer of near beer and former president of the Wisconsin Brewers' association, today apparently was in the hands of kidnapers who were demanding $150,000 for his release.

Blumer, whose friends describe him as not rich enough to meet such a demand, disappeared last night after he had left his home to keep an appointment with a man who telephoned him, requesting Blumer to meet him and another man at a local hotel. Later he intended to attend a meeting of directors of the Monroe Country club.

Failed to Appear

The missing man failed to appear at the club and so far as could be learned did not enter the hotel, leading the authorities to believe his abductors forced their way into his automobile near the hostelry. His disappearance was followed by an anonymous telephone call from Rockford, Ill., in which a man notified R. C. Wells of the ransom demand. Wells and Charles Strock, with Blumer are owners of the Blumer Products company, of which Blumer is president.

While the call came from Rockford, it was represented as having been made from Freeport, Ill.

Directions Given

"Blumer is safe," said the caller. "He will not be hurt if we get the 150 'O's (underworld slang for 150,-

House Opposed To Split Tax Payment

AUSTIN, April. 10 (AP)—The house yesterday showed an inclination to look with disfavor on the proposed split tax payment plan and after voting to postpone indefinitely consideration of the bill by Senator O'Neal of Wichita Falls, reconsidered the vote and ordered it spread on the journal with the result that its career was not definitely ended. In its present state, the bill can be revived and brought up for action on one day's notice.

The O'Neal bill would permit tax payments to be made on January 31 and July 31 with 10 per cent penalty and six per cent interest charged for delinquencies.

Exhibitors Leave Dairy Show Today

PLAINVIEW, April 10.(AP)—Exhibitors were taking their cattle home today after conclusion of the Texas Panhandle Plains Dairy show here. Twenty-four head of registered Jerseys were sold at auction yesterday at an average price of $91.56, considered good in view of the scarcity of feed in this territory and the low price of butterfat. The auction concluded the fourth annual show of the association, at which exhibitors were awarded nearly $7,000 in premiums.

Tobacco Tax For Texas Proposed

PROPOSAL OFFERED AS AMENDMENT TO GAS TAX MEASURE

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, April 10.—The senate turned abruptly this morning from discussions of a two per cent gross production tax on natural gas to consideration of an amendment which would place an intra-state tax of from $1.50 to $3.60 per thousand on cigars and cigarettes.

The tobacco tax proposal was offered as an amendment to the Small gas tax bill which was substituted for the Sanders house bill. The Small gas tax bill proposes a levy of two per cent on the gross production of natural gas. The Sanders bill proposed two and three-quarters per cent.

The Berkeley amendment was signed by Senators Thomason of Nacogdoches, Beck of Dekalb, Woodward of Coleman, Greer of Coleman, Greer of Athens, Woodruff of Decatur, Hardin of Stephenville, Moore of Greenville, Miss Neal of Carthage, Patton of Crockett, Gainer of Bryan, Cunningham of Abilene, Parr of Benavides and Parrish of Lubbock.

It provided that one half of the tobacco tax funds should go to the state available school funds and the other half into the state's general revenues.

The tax would be levied but once and that upon the person making the initial sale. Dealers in tobaccos would be accountable only in cases where they made sales of tobaccos not bearing the required stamp.

MAYOR CHECKS CITY HALL

TWO THOUSAND FIRED AS CERMAK TAKES OVER DUTIES

CHICAGO, April 10—A check of all city hall departments was under way today by Mayor Anton J. Cermak to find employes whose services could be disposed of by Chicago's new administration.

This action followed an order issued yesterday for the dismissal of more than 2,000 city employes who held temporary appointments under William Hale Thompson, defeated candidate for mayor.

At the same time Mayor Cermak, shortly after taking the oath of office, issued an order to the city treasurer 'not to honor any vouchers for temporary employes until it can be proved they worked for their money and political work does not count."

"Under present conditions," he said, "unless actual savings can be affected, it will be difficult to carry on the business of the city for the rest of the year."

Among appointments announced by the new administration was that of Dr. Hugh O. Jones, Cermak's personal physician, to be acting health commissioner. He succeeds Dr. Arnold H. Kegel.

LONGWORTH TO BE BURIED SATURDAY

HOUSE SPEAKER GOES BACK TO HIS HOME AT CINCINNATI

(By The Associated Press)

AIKEN, S. C., April 10—Nicholas Longworth goes home today to Cincinnati to be laid at rest tomorrow in the city where he was born 61 years ago.

Business houses decided to close during the removal of the body of the speaker of the house of representatives to a special train from the colonial home of Mrs. James F. Curtis where he died yesterday of pneumonia. Streets were ordered cleared of traffic. Aiken did its utmost to show its sorrow over the passing of an adopted son, for the speaker was an annual spring visitor, usually coming for golf after congress adjourned.

To convey the body to Ohio over the mountains of North Carolina, Tennesse and Kentucky the government arranged for a special train to leave at 11:30 a. m. It consisted of an engine, a coach for the body, the private car of Charles W. Clark of Aiken and New York and a pullman. Mr. Clark's car was primarily for Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth and her brothers, Kermit and Archibald, who flew to Aiken from New York but arrived after their

Three outstanding features promise to make tomorrow's meeting of the Lubbock Mickey Mouse club one of the most interesting and beneficial since the club's organization.

Opening at 9:30 o'clock instead of at 9, the program begins with the usual rituals, but before it has progressed far there will be an ice cream eating contest. Ice cream will be furnished by the Bell Ice Cream company and suitable prizes will go to the winners.

What looms as one of the best pictures of the year, "Father's Son", is the feature film attraction offered. With Lewis Stone and Irene Rich appearing in an all-star cast, the picture revolves about a youth and his father in their home life. It is recommended by leading critics and educational boards as high class entertainment for children.

Mickey Moue will appear in a film show especially dedicated to him, and is called "Mickey's Birthday Party". All of Mickey Mouse's barnyard friends stage a big party in honor of the club's idol and the merriment is rife.

Doors to the Palace theater, the club's meeting place, will be open at 9 o'clock. Members are requested to bring their membership cards and the weekly dues, 10 cents, for admission.

CHARGES HELD UNFOUNDED

OKLAHOMA UNIVERSITY WINS VICTORY OVER GOV. MURRAY

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 10—The University of Oklahoma stood victor today in its latest bout with Governor William Henry Murray.

Indirectly recommending that the governor keep "hands off" the state school, the senate investigating committee has found that his charges of "flagrant cases of immorality and misuse of thousands of dollars of state funds" at the university are unfounded.

Officials Praised

In a unanimous report adopted by the senate late yesterday, the committeemen praised university officials, cleared those under fire, and recommended that supervision of university affairs be "left to the board of regents and the president of the university, free from interference."

Since taking office, Murray has frowned on the university's educational system in which, he asserted, athletics were over emphasized.

BY GARRY C. MYERS, PH. D.

SYMPATHY AND PATIENCE

"I have a girl eight years old and am having a very difficult time teaching her arithmetic. In all other studies she is bright.

"We have been four weeks helping her with her tables. What would you advise doing?"

Answer: In the first place, since your daughter gets along well in her other studies she ought to be able to learn arithmetic. But don't tell her she ought; tell her she can, and calmly and sympathetically help her to prove to herself she can. Apparently she thinks she cannot. And she will continue to think so until she enjoys some real successes in arithmetic. When she studies her tables do not have her learn them in order as 8x3, 8x4, 8x5, 8x6; but mix them up as 8x5, 8x7, 8x3. You can see why.

Help her cut pieces of cardboard or paper about 4x3 inches with 8x7 equals 56 on one side. Call this the study side. On the other side write 8x7 equals —. Call this the testing side. Put only one number fact on a card. Persuade her to look at the learning side and say the whole thing over and over to herself until she is sure she knows it, and then turn to the other side to test herself. Encourage her never to hurry nor to guess, but to feel free at any time to turn back to the learning side for help. Induce her to attack only four or five facts on an evening, no matter what the school assignment had been. Work for calm and accurate learning, and for success three weeks from now, not for much achievement just today.

Do likewise with addition and subtraction facts.

* * *

Your biggest task will be to cultivate carefulness and accuracy in the child. She will always want to hurry and to guess, since there usually is so much emphasis on speed at school. Our grandchildren will not find it so. The school by and by will be more concerned about accuracy and less about speed. But you and I cannot change the school practice.

We need to help the child, and we can. As she learns these facts with precision in a quiet, calm and sympathetic atmosphere she will prepare herself to answer them quickly at school. Hundreds of parents have told me that this plan works. It surely did with my children. I hit upon it, indeed, in attempting to help them.

Go to your library and ask for my pamphlet on "Prevention and Corrections of Errors in Arithmetic." Although it is simply written, it is based on a number of researches of mine published in several scientific journals. Also ask at the library for the back numbers of the magazine "Grade Teacher," for which I wrote a number of concrete articles during the past year on helping children in arithmetic.

PATENTED PROCESS BRINGS OUT FINER FLAVOR IN COFFEE

Controlled Roasting Gives Hills Bros. Coffee Flavor No Other Coffee Has

As everybody knows, the flavor of coffee varies according to the way it is brewed. Especially disappointing is the result when coffee stays on the fire too long or is taken off too soon.

Similar unsatisfactory results can occur in the roasting of coffee. If the blend is roasted too long or not enough there is a noticeable difference in flavor between the two lots. Even with watchful care such variation is exceedingly difficult to prevent when coffee is roasted in large quantities.

Realizing this, Hills Bros. originated and patented a continuous process which roasts coffee a few pounds at a time, instead of in bulk. The quantity of coffee passing into the roaster does not vary. The speed of operation and the temperature remain the same with the result that Hills Bros. Coffee is absolutely uniform and has a flavor no other coffee has.

Hills Bros. Coffee never "goes stale" because it is packed in vacuum. By this process air, which destroys the flavor of coffee, is taken from the can and kept out. Ordinary cans, even if air-tight, do not keep coffee fresh. Ask for Hills Bros. Coffee by name and look for the Arab—the trade-mark—on the can. Sold by grocers everywhere.

Finds Dance Has Language Of Its Own

Creator of her own dances which she has made famous throughout the world, Mary Wigman, shown above in a new portrait, believes dancing should be a part of everyone's day. Below you see her in her "Pastorale" dance which, except for one brief movement, is done entirely on the floor.

BY JULIA BLANSHARD
NEA Service Writer

NEW YORK, April 10—Everybody can and should dance, even if it is only a one-two-three gymnastic movement that will relax you after a hard day's work. But of course everybody is not a dancer!

You might think the way to tell the difference is by the body movement, the grace. Not at all. You can tell the real dancer by the look in his eye!

This amazing theory belongs to the perfectly amazing Mary Wigman, the German danseuse who today means the modern dance in Europe, creator of the music-less dances, dances done to the beat of primitive drums that were first scorned, then worshiped by dancers all over her country and others as the most modern of moderns.

Dancer Effaces Outside World

"The eye is the focal point of all dancing activity," Miss Wigman explained. "The dancer's eyes see without meaning, they look into distance, into space, into nothingness. The dancer, effaces the world of reality around him and creates a picture of his inner fantasy. The result is a staring luster to his eyes. Accompanists take their cue not from dancers' feet but from their eyes. So do dancing partners. If an observer follows any individual or separate movement, such as the arms, the body, the feet, the continuity of the dance is list. It is by focusing on the dancers' eyes that you absorb totally the entire action of the dance."

To be a real dancer, according to Mary Wigman, you must feel that the dance is an artistic expression in itself, independent of music, lighting, costuming, or any other medium of art.

"To me the dance is a language with which you express something you feel and could not transmit in any other way," she explained. "The means by which you express this language, of course, is the human body, not as you generally see it, but trained to be fluid, rhythmic, flexible, graceful, articulate."

Learning the "language that is the dancer," as Miss Wigman puts it, seems difficult enough to preclude all persons who are not born with the burning urge to dance.

"My mother told me I used always to dance when I was a child but nobody in my family could tell that those queer prancing childish capers were dances." Miss Wigman laughed as she recalled this. Then she added, "Just as those who saw me back in 1919 refused to believe that I was dancing!"

Twenty years of alternate discouragement, elatement and terrific effort have gone into the inspiring program of dances that Miss Wigman presents today. Some years of utter disheartening failure.

Endured Years of Struggle

"One thing I always knew. I MUST dance," Miss Wigman said. "I had years of supporting myself at anything—teaching, nursing, doing irksome duties—to get bread and butter. Especially during the war there was such discouragement, such heartache. But through it all my dances took shape, sometimes without my knowing how."

Miss Wigman has no technique of composing dances but to let them work themselves out, as she expresses it. For instance, she has a "Summer Dance" with no music but with tinkling bells because one Christmas time she kept feeling uneasy, wanting to dance some new theme and all the time she kept hearing a little sound with it. She finally improvised the dance in her own living room, working all night without realizing how time flew.

Another time she was resting in the Alps and felt the urge to improvise. The only available hall was unheated, so she danced in fur boots, woolen mittens and furlined cap. Sometimes as she reads dances come to her, again it is after one of her "domestic spells" when as she terms it she feels she just must "bother my very good housekeeper to find out all about how the silver is polished, the china shined, the linen mended and the groceries ordered."

Days that she creates new dances she often cannot stop to eat or sleep. Other occasions when new dances are being composed she is restless, reads detective stories, cannot settle anywhere. Then she merely accepts the restlessness, knowing that out of it may come some new, ravishing dance.

One thing she never does—indulge in outdoor sports.

"If I should happen to break an arm, hurt a foot or sprain a knee when I was just out playing, I could never bear it," she said. "If the same thing happened dancing, well, that would be Fate. I would have to accept it."

With all the acclaim, this artist has received in the past few years, with schools bearing her name dotting Europe, still Mary Wigman says she never knows if a new dance she has created is any good until she has danced it before an audience, for " a dance is not really born until it gets away from you and is presented to an audience."

MARY CARR, ONCE FOREMOST MOTHER OF FILMLAND, IS BROKE BECAUSE STARS FROM STAGE ARE GETTING PARTS NOW; CHILDREN CAVORTING BEFORE CAMERA

BY DAN THOMAS
NEA Service Writer

HOLLYWOOD—Like many another actress who won fame in silent pictures, Mary Carr, a few years ago the foremost mother of the screen, is broke today.

"I haven't noticed any slackening in the demand for mothers in pictures, but women fresh from the stage are getting the parts," Mrs. Carr told me as we chatted in her hillside home. "I don't begrudge the stage people their breaks, though, because I, too, am from the stage.

"I spent many years on the stage before there even was such a thing as motion pictures. And I was like everyone else on the stage. Every time I packed my trunk to jump to another city I dreamed of some day settling down on a chicken farm or any other place that I really could call home. Pictures offered that home. That is the reason so many stage people have come into pictures during the last 20 years. It was a chance to continue acting and still have a home life."

But Mrs. Carr, like many other old-time film folk who received their early training behind the footlights, is finding it difficult to get jobs. Producers and directors are overlooking old-time favorites of the silent screen in favor of those who have migrated from the stage since the advent of speech in pictures. They forget that a good many of those old-time favorites had just jas much if not more stage training than many who are being imported today.

That's Hollywood. In no other business does long, conscientious service count for as little as in the picture racket. The prevailing rule here might be said to be 'the longer 'you are with us the less we want you."

Mrs. Carr gave up her career on the stage to become a mother, And she didn't work again until after seven children had been born, six of whom still are alive. Then her husband became ill and she was forced to go back to work—because youngsters must eat regularly. That was 22 years ago. Pictures were just coming into their own then—but they still were so crude that most successful stage folk sneered at them—so the actress took a fling at them and has been working in them ever since.

The children, particularly the three boys, John, Stephen and Thomas, also cavort before the cameras whenever they get a chance. But, despite the fact that they have been raised from babyhood in the business and know every angle of it, they have been unable to get a break. Still they are hoping. They don't know any other profession but they do know how to act. And they want to work steadily enough so that their mother can stay at home.

Princesses in the court of Old King Cotton Thursday night donned the cloth of their royal house in the gymnasium at Texas Technological college to win the favor of college students, several faculty members, and a considerable number of townspeople.

The platform was picturesque with three large cotton bales flanking the corners. This show was the finale to the first "Cotton Day" at Texas Technological college. Throughout Thursday college girls took occasion to wear cotton frocks to classes. They were at the gymnasium last night in prints and voiles, in piques and batistes and from scattered conversations seemed to be enjoying the thrill.

Dr. Horn First

Dr. Paul W. Horn, college president, was the first model and displayed a cotton suit which was grown, woven into material, and made on the campus of Texas Technological college. Cotton picked from the college fields was in turn woven into cloth at the textile mills and later made into a suit by girls in the school of home economics. Actual cost of the suit was estimated by the president to be less than one dollar.

Dr. Horn commended the girls for their stand in wearing cotton dresses during Thursday and expressed the hope that they would continue wearing them.

Girls Introduced

Miss Mabel Erwin, head of the clothing department of the college, introduced the girls and described the material of the dresses which they wore. Some of the apparel was furnished by local merchants, and girls in the home economics school modeled dresses which they had made.

Miss Ruby Rae Williamson, wearing a white poplin school dress, was the first co-ed model, and she was followed by Miss Hazel Arnett wearing yellow linen. Others in this group of clothes suitable for school wear were Misses Lucille Hunt, Fern Spann, Eunice Cone, Ruth Thompson, Helen Winstead, Ella B. Adkisson, Mary Lois Gamel, Frances Gunn, Mona Gowan, and Edith Sanders.

They wore batistes, black and white prints, piques, and voiles. Hats and bags corresponded to the dresses or presented a suitable contract. Shoes favored were black and white spurt oxfords or shantung.

Afternoon Attire

The second group displayed afternoon dresses. Miss Lizzie Belle Clements modeled a yellow voile, and Miss Mildred Runnels was in pink embroidered voile. Others in this group were Misses Louise Garrison, Christova Sawyer, Anna Bass Arnett, Lesey Bullock, Harriett Swain, Adele Goolsby, Harriett Roach, Mildred Price, Ruby Dean, Hazel Gruver and Jean Shelley Jennings.

The final section appeared to meet with the hearty approval of the collegians scattered throughout the audience. This was sports. Miss Venicie Gilkerson modeled a yellow pique archery frock. Miss Frances Snyder wore a linen tennis dress, and Miss Virginia Bacon appeared in a severe black riding habit.

A printed hiking dress was worn by Miss Doris Ladd Johnson, and Miss Rosemary Leaverton wore a cotton mesh golf dress. Miss Catherine Jameson was attired to play polo.

Only one suit of pajamas was worn, modeled by Miss Jo Caraway, and Miss Erwin predicted that this mode of dress will not meet with favor here because Lubbock is so far from beach resorts.

Music was furnished throughout the evening by Frank Stone's Collegians.

Nearly 100,000,000 telephone conversations were held in France last year.

Linseed exports from Argentina in a recent week were 88,000 tons, a record.

MRS. BEERY IS DEATH VICTIM

MOTHER OF TWO FAMED MOVIE STARS DIES IN CALIFORNIA

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., April 9. (AP)—While one of her famous sons raced westward by plane in a futile attempt to beat death to her bedside, and with others of her family grouped around her, Mrs. Margaret Frances Beery, mother of the film players, Wallace and Noah, died here Thursday.

Wallace lost the race with death, pneumonia claiming his 73-year-old mother while his plane battled the elements between St. Louis and Kansas City. Noah, with another brother, William, and their father, Noah, sr., were with Mrs. Beery at the end.

Born of pioneer western parents in Ridgely, Platte county, Missouri, January 23, 1858, Mrs. Beery married Beery 53 years ago in the city of her birth and the couple moved to Kansas. They had lived in California 17 years, Mrs. Beery spending a large part of the time at the homes of her sons.

Funeral services probably will be held Monday, other members of the family said.

PERMIT ISSUED

A building permit was issued this morning at the city building inspector's office to T. T. Brooks for construction of a one-story frame and stucco residence at 101 Avenue H at a cost of $800. The building authorization was the fourth of the week, valuations of the four totaling $4,040. Seven permits issued this month aggregate $4,605, and 47 this year $209,280.

When Dr. McCowan resigned recently from the staff of Glasgow Royal Infirmary at Glasgow, Scotland, it broke an association of 134 years of the McCowan family and the hospital, the doctor's great-grandfather, grandfather and his father having served there.

PIONEER DIES

CORSICANA, April 10 (AP)—James J. Sullivan, 72, resident of Texas 44 years, formerly postmaster and justice of the peace at Eureka and justice of the peace here several years, died today after an illness of four years. He was a native of Georgia. Survivors are his widow, seven children and eighteen grandchildren.

In considering whether to ban Sunday dog racing, Bedfordshire, England, learned that an Act of 1625 prohibited the sport and stipulated a fine of 80 cents.

Five skeletons and foundations of a large building, all evidently of the seventeenth century, have been found near Linlithgow, Ireland.

Mrs. Lillie Schulze

See what Konjola did for Mrs. Lillie Schulze, 1307 Center street San Antonio: "For months my system was out of order; blood was in bad condition and stomach weak. Food did not digest properly, and I had a breaking out of the skin that made me very nervous. In two days I began to get results from Konjola. It is the greatest medicine I ever tried, and I took only two bottles."

Mr. Thomas W. Wilson

Thought For Today

For wrath killeth the foolish man and envy slayeth the silly one.—Job 5:2.

Envy, like flame, blackens that which is above it, and which it cannot reach.—J. Petit-Senn.

New Revolution

The bloodless revolution which Mahatma Gandhi is leading in India advanced another long step the other day when he swung the all-India national congress in favor of his creed of non-resistance and made it probable that India's struggle for freedom will continue to go forward without resort to violence.

It is hard to understand just how amazing an achievement this is unless the revolution in India is compared with other great revolutions.

When the American colonies broke away from Great Britain there was an instant appeal to arms. Beginning with the skirmishes at Lexington and Concord, a costly and bloody war progressed for seven years, and American, English, French and German soldiers died by the hundreds before a decision could be obtained.

A little bit later came the French revolution. Wise leadership, according to most historians, could have made this a peaceful affair; but wise leadership was not forthcoming, and months of wrangling finally led to the September massacres, the reign of terror and the repeated foreign invasions that finally brought Napoleon to the top. To this day no one knows how many lives were lost. The number was appallingly high.

In more recent times the unforgettable example is the Russian revolution—the bloodiest of all revolutions, perhaps, since the first slave revolted against his master. For years the fighting dragged on. It has been said that more Russians were killed in the revolution than in the World War, and it is just possible that the end is not yet.

But Gandhi has handled things differently in India. He has had, luckily, the advantage of dealing with rulers who were far more intelligent than those involved in these other revolutions; but the tension has been quite as high, and the possibilities for prolonged and desperate fighting have been quite as good.

India contains more than 300,000,000 people. The demand for freedom is probably quite as widespread and intense there as it was in the American colonies in 1776; at the same time the retention of India within the empire is more important to England today than the retention of the American colonies was in 1776. All the "makings" of a frightful catastrophe are present in full measure.

But Gandhi sticks to his doctrine of peace, and it begins to look as if he would carry the day. The importance of this achievement can hardly be overestimated. In a world that has almost invariably used force to gain its ends, Gandhi has demonstrated that other means can be more effective. A revolution without an appeal to arms is, indeed, something new under the sun.

Politicians

One of the gravest of governmental ills is the holding of public office by men deficient in political training and experience. In American politics it is customary to presume that men who know how to get votes also know how to administer a city or state. Voters have later found to their sorrow that this does not always hold.

In an effort to place capable men in office in Spain, a branch of the liberal-conservative coalition party there has established in Madrid a school for politicians for the instruction of aspiring city councilmen.

The problem of electing men qualified to hold public office is not as simple as it seems. It has concerned philosophers through the ages. Plato urged that men be prepared for it.

What this country needs more than a good five-cent cigar is a fountain pen that's good to the last drop.

BASEBALL clubs soon will be finishing in a volley of base hits "cinching victory with a booming triple against the fence," or "flailing childishly at a superb assortment of high curves and slow balls." There will be the throaty bark of umpires, the staccato advice of coaches and dirty gray and cream uniforms against a green infield. That is a part of America in the summer. The Plainsman hopes sincerely that Lubbock will not be without it on an organized scale.

* * *

The "country press" provides an opportunity for young men and women who aspire to "write" and look to newspapering as a way to start, Sherwood Anderson writes in the current Forum. Mr. Anderson is one of this country's literary intelligentsia, and several years ago he became publisher of two county seat newspapers in a small Virginia town. "You are in touch with life," Mr. Anderson says of the country editor. We agree with Mr. Anderson's evident purpose—other than to obtain a fat check—in writing the article. His incidental intimation, however, that newspaper work is simply a stepping stone to bigger things is another matter. The Plainsman does not fully appreciate the old idea that newspaper reporting and editing is to "writing" what plumbing is to designing temples.

* * *

Newspapering requires ability and that can not be acquired or developed in a month or a year. The newspaper is subject to the ills and errors of mankind, as are all of our institutions, but it usually performs creditably. The demands of readers, and men who please to term themselves "public conscious," are many and often contradictory. Possibly, the public some day will grasp the psychology and mechanics of the daily print. Many successful "writers" have been newspaper men and women. The Plainsman does not begrude them that, but they were of a fortunate minority. There are those in the daily grind who have proved themselves craftsman—able to make the reader feel and see events—while working under pressure of the newsroom.

* * *

LUBBOCK screen fans generally seem to agree that they "forgot it wasn't a talkie," when they saw Charlie Chaplin in "City Lights." Chaplin, supreme in pantomine, resurrected the baggy trousers, tight little coat, derby, and limber cane, and figuratively thumbed his nose at talking pictures—and "got away with it." "City Lights" was virtually a one-man production, even to most of the music. The funny little man of nickelodeon days returned, and the commonplace but deepest tragedy he and the girl once blind portrayed was as eloquent as his comedy. To Chaplin, whom Jim Tully once called "the very lonely and deeply spiritual man, the shy and windblown violet of transitory genius."

* * *

A marked decrease appears to have occurred in the number of robberies in Lubbock during the last several months, as judged by reports to peace officers, although a few major jobs have been executed during the period. Crimes of that sort usually decrease upon approach of the summer months, but vigilance of officers, fingerprint work and allied activities are strong deterrents.

* * *

ONLY this week, a Lubbock man said that he had gained added respect—had more of it now than ever before—for police and sheriff's departments since coming to Lubbock. This citizen commented favorably on the cooperation of city and county law enforcement groups here, which he and others agreed was a rosier situation than is to be found in many communities.

* * *

This town of ours, folks, receives a lot of attention in the current number of West Texas Today, which is the public relations magazine and "house organ" of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. Possibly, it is the last number before the regional chamber's convention here in May. Whatever the case, the "Hub of the South Plains" owes thanks to Garnet Reeves, jocular publicity agent of the local chamber, and others responsible for the "spread." The Plainsman has his doubts, however, about many of the public at large reading it, or even seeing it.

* * *

A CASE in Kansas City recently made known to the public at large—which seemed to have been fully as ignorant as this fellow—that telling a friend where he can buy a drink is illegal. Ho-hum.

* * *

Many a blue-nose who agitates and instigates against certain persons simply is backward about announcing that he envies those guys.

* * *

The Plainsman welcomes teachers of Northwest Texas to Lubbock. Teachers and school executives have no easy job. They often are thankless and underpaid jobs, and yet there is none more important. Teachers are striving more to understand youngsters and to develop character and consciousness of the rights of others. So that tots may not pray, as does the film portrayer of Skippy: "Please God, my pop don't understand kids."

Nicaragua Population Isn't Equal To Several American Cities But Country Plays A Big Part In U. S. Affairs

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, April 10—The earthquake struck Nicaragua as she was striving to rehabilitate herself after years of unrest and revolt, engaging in a struggle rendered all the more bitter by the recent world-wide depression which gripped her principal industries.

Anyone who has traveled through Latin America, where national affairs, national life and national developments are nearly always primarily concentrated in national capitals, realizes the likely effect on the entire republic of the disaster which befell Managua.

Proportionately, the calamity is not so great when one recalls that Nicaragua's population of 638,000 is not equal to that of various American cities. And that Managua is not as large as many of our cities of which the average American hardly ever has heard.

U. S. Ran Election

But the little Central American republic has been very large in our foreign affairs. American marines have been in Managua often and for longer periods than in any other foreign capital. This country stopped Nicaragua's last revolution and enforced the "free and fair election" which gave her the government which instituted her recent program of national reconstruction. We maintained the stability of the government and gave our blessing to the program.

Now, after the sudden double affliction of earthquake and fire, it is the United States which has rushed to the rescue. And we still look to Nicaragua as the country through which we probably some day will build another canal from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

More than a century of recurrent disorder preceded Nicaragua's last three years of comparative peace and progress. Warfare was both internal and external. About 20 years ago, New York bankers took over the country's tangled financial affairs and in 1912 the United States made its first large scale intervention, sending 2000 marines. When the main body of marines withdrew we left a legation guard which parked at Managua until 1925. The Nicaraguan revolution of recent memory is that which followed the coup d'etat of General Emiliano Chamorro in 1926.

President Fled

The elected president fled the country and Vice President Juan B. Sacasa, now minister to the United States, undertook to capture Managua with an army commanded by General Joes Moncada.

After warfare causing considerable property destruction and interference with the national economic life, the United States sent Henry L. Stimson to demand that both the advancing liberals and the conservatives lay down their arms and hold an election under marine supervision. All agreed except the rambunctious General Sandino, who has since given some trouble, and Moncada was elected. He promptly began a vigorous effort to put the country on its feet.

Conditions have not been any too good. Some guerilla warfare continued and, much more importantly, the slump which has hit agriculture all over the world dealth eavy blows to Nicaragua's coffee, banana, sugar and cattle industries.

But the Moncada government seemed to be making a remarkable amount of what is called progress in such backward countries. Public works were being pushed forward on a large scale.

Government Regains Control

The government had regained control of its bank and railroad and a new mortgage bank had been opened up for the aid of agriculture and industry. La Loma, the fortress overlooking Managua which was always the first goal of revolutionary movements because it so completely dominated the city, was razed and a splendid presidential palace erected on its site.

This country had erected a fine new legation and commercial concerns had gone ahead rapidly with improvements after the promise of continued peace had given them confidence. A road was begun to lead from Managua to the Atlantic coast, through territory now virtually impassable, along with several other important new roads. Railroads extensions were begun and dams here and there in the country for power and light systems. All this requqired strict economies in other ways and both determination and sacrifice on the part of Nicaragua.

The full effect of the destruction of Managua on the country's immediate future cannot be told, but it probably will be an important one. And with a history of revolutions, wars, interventions and economic depression, it seems that Nicaragua—now stricken by earthquake, fire and resultant distress—had had more than her share of the world's misery.

MENTALLY DEFECTIVE CHILD

THE PRESENCE in a family of a mentally defective child is a tragic situation all around. The child, itself; is usually desperately unhappy because it dimly may realise its own deficiencies and comparing itself to the other normal children is a cause of sadness. The presence of the defective child puts a damper on the other children and its existence is a source of humiliation to the parents.

Dr. Clendening

Particularly is this true of the type of mentally defective child called mongolian idiot. These children may be born into a family that is mentally sound in every other member. Their mental deficiency is not apparently hereditary in character, as is true of other types of mentally defective children. Placing such children in an institution with other children of the same kind is like giving them a new life. With other mongolian idiots they do not feel their own inferiority, they become happy and contented. I shall never forget a visit I made to one such institution a few years ago. One's preliminary idea is that such a visit will be depressing, but it was just the opposite. I never saw so many happy children in my life. Their affection for each other and for the guardian who conducted the institution was positively uplifting and encouraging.

There is one great lesson in such a thought for parents so unfortunate as to have a child of this kind. If it is at all possible the child, for its own and everyone's good, should be put in an institution. Parents are often blinded by pride or affection to the child's best interests in this respect. Often they are deluded by the hopeful expectations of the future—that the child is going to outgrow its trouble and improve. Such things are rare. As Dr. John Thompson of Edinburg says: "Not only is the child not like other children, but except in the rarest cases he will never become so."

These rare cases of improvement concern, for one thing, the child with deficient thyroid secretion. One such girl who had long been under the care of a physician who thought she only needed rest, fell into the hands of a doctor who recognized the condition for what it was. He put her on thyroid extract and she immediately began to lose weight and to feel better. "And," said the mother, in astonished delight, "she has made up a whole year's back work in school."

The recognition of the existence of mental deficiency is another difficult matter. The parents think the child is "just queer," or lazy, or backward in school work. The fact of actual defectiveness is often difficult for them to accept. The Binet tests are useful to a certain extent for this, especially in younger years. Here are some of the tests for three, four and five years. Children of three or four may be able to do the tests of a year or more ahead of them. If they are unable to do their own year's tests they are certainly defective.

Age Three—Points to nose, eyes and mouth; repeats two digits; enumerates well-known objects in a picture; gives family name; repeats a sentence of six syllables.

Age Four—Gives his sex; names knife and penny; repeats three digits; compares two lines.

Age Five—Compares two weights; completes a square; repeats a sentence of ten syllables; counts four pennies; unites the halves of divided rectangles.

SWAN

In New York With Gilbert Swan

NEW YORK, April 10—While the guide books of Manhattan go merrily on mentioning such sights as the "bridge of sighs" and the Flatiron building, few of the latter day visitors display much interest in such time-worn scenes.

Possibly the time will come again when, due to their general neglect, these and kindred remnants of an older New York will witness a return of the boom days.

In the meantime, the average run of tourists cry for the sight of the magical new minarets of which they hear so much. They want to reach the tip of the Empire State building or the Chrysler or the Chanin or any of the newer sky-touchers of the Wall Street belt. They want to peep in upon the extravagances of Fifth Avenue and view the windows of the smartest shops. They want, first of all, intimate slants at the more current aspects of the big city.

Even the Brooklyn bridge is said to have lived to see a falling off in fans.

Of the old landmarks, the Aquarium and the Battery and the Statue of Liberty come off about as well as any, with the Woolworth well in the running.

• • •

Manhattanites, in keeping with most of the legends about them, are among their own town's worst sightseers. Most of them have, at one time or another, visited this scene or that, but few indeed ever cover old ground or make much of an effort to explore for the things that are new and different.

The arrival of a visitor from out of town is likely to give them the necessary impetus to look over changes that often lie just around the corner. Otherwise they become pretty much creatures of habit and can't be bothered by the effort required to visit new scenes.

This, to be sure, is not entirely a matter of lethargy. Most of the dyed-in-the-wool New Yorkers have been disappointed so often by prospects that didn't come up to advance reports that they grow skeptical; or they become sated after a time by the confusion of varied attractions which no one person could possibly have time to look in upon.

Finally, with a sigh, they surrender to the things they personally wish to do and see and let it go at that.

There's more at home life in Manhattan than the city ever gets credit for; citizens are not engaged in a hectic rushing from here to there and back again. The persons thus engaged are most likely to be visitors who, having but a few days to spend, try to digest as much as they can before leaving.

The New Yorker is inclined to be a procrastinator. He is likely to say: "Oh, why get all jammed up in a crowd. Let's wait a while, it'll still be there next week or even next month. If we go now, we'll just run into another mob of people."

There are, however, certain cliques that insist on being at certain events and at certain times. There are often plays which one "just must attend" on the opening night, "certain operas" and certain art exhibits; certain public functions and certain private functions. There are book gatherings and movie gatherings and all sorts of other gatherings—which accounts for certain first-night audiences and their particularly limited number.

THE TINYMITES

STORY by HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES by KING

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

When Carpy'd ridden 'bout a mile he thanked the natives, with a smile, and said, "Can all the others take a turn? I must be fair. I'm sure they'd like to ride with you. This sort of ride is something new. I'll switch with someone right now, if you folks have time to spare."

"That's quite all right," the man replied. "We're glad to let them have a ride." Then Clowny loudly cried, "I'm next!" and took kind Carpy's place. Once more the whole bunch started out. Soon Scouty let out quite a shout. "What's that ahead?" He had a puzzled look upon his face.

"Why, that's a little college spot. You'd like to see it, like as not, so we will gladly stop a while so you can roam around. It's noted for its scenery and is as pretty as can be." The cart and auto stopped and everyone jumped to the ground.

The first thing Coppy spied, right near, was a large pond. He cried, "Look here." They all walked up and gazed a bit. The Travel Man then said, I've heard this is a sacred spot. It has real history. But we have looked here long enough. Come on, let's move ahead."

They strolled around the grounds a while and when they'd walked about a mile, one Tiny said, "Let's stop and rest. Where can we all sit down? I see no benches near at hand and I am much too tired to stand. I really will be glad when we arrive at some small town."

Then Clowny cried, "Let's rest up there! I'm sure we'll get some good, fresh air, just sitting on the little steps." He pointed to a stand that looked just like a shelter spot for folks to use when it was hot. And, as they all walked into it, wee Scouty said, "It's grand!"

Barbecue Stand In Negro Area Razed

Fire which this morning virtually destroyed a small barbecue stand operated by a negro at 1714 Avenue A was attributed to fire under meat being barbecued there.

Fire department apparatus answered an alarm at 11 a. m. Firemen estimated the loss at $25 to $50.

FIRE LOSS HEAVY

TEXARKANA, April 10 (AP)—Flames fanned by a brisk wind swept the Stewart Produce company establishment here early today, resulting in a loss estimated at $30,000. Firemen fought five hours to prevent spread of the fire to the business area. Origin of the fire was not learned.

EMPTINESS IN WASHINGTON

CAPITAL MOURNS LOSS OF LONGWORTH IN MANY TRIBUTES

WASHINGTON, April 10. (AP)—Washington felt an emptiness today as it tried to believe that one of its most beloved characters, Nicholas Longworth of Ohio, was dead.

From president to humblest clerk, officials and private citizens joined in tributes. They knew he was dead. But he had been around so long it was difficult to picture the future without him.

Used To Ohioan

In 28 years Washington had gotten used to the Ohio representative who worked his way from the foot of a minor committee to what he called the "greatest office in any legislative branch of any government in the world." That was the speakership of the house of representatives.

Officially, President Hoover and his cabinet expressed their sense of loss. Political friends and foes alike praised the Ohioan's fairness and ability. Many of them prepared to pay homage at the Cincinnati funeral tomorrow.

Hoover To Attend

Even before learning definitely yesterday of the funeral plans, President Hoover announced he would attend the services. He first sent his military aide to Aiken, South Carolina, to help Mrs. Longworth and then issued an order that flags on all government buildings be half-staffed.

Official delegations of senators and representatives to the funeral were named. Longworth, as speaker, usually selected house funeral delegations, but that job was taken over this time by his office which worked with Mrs. Longworth to choose 89 representatives. Vice-President Curtis picked twelve senators.

The president and the congressional delegation probably will go to Cincinnati aboard special trains.

Accompanying the president will be Mrs. Hoover, Postmaster General Brown; two of the chief executive's secretaries, Walter Newton, and Theodore Joslin; Captain Joel Boone, White House physician, and Captain Russell Train, naval aide. They are expected to leave Washington tonight.

The removal of the debonair Longworth, whose leadership concededly kept Republicans in line on many votes, renewed discussion of possibilities in the next house. Republican leaders conceded their hope of organizing had suffered a considerable setback.

Longworth's death brought to 216 the Republican seats. Democrats hold 215, the farmer labor party one and there are three vacancies. Two of the latter possibly will be filled by Republicans although Longworth's margin in the last election was not as large as had been expected. There is, too, a Democratic vacancy.

Possible successors to the speakership include Republican Floor Leader Tilson of Connecticut, and the New Yorker, Chairman Snell of the potent rules committee. There are some, however, who think a leader should be chosen from the western group, which includes Chairman Wood of the appropriations committee, of Indiana; Representatives Hoch of Kansas, Mapes and Michener of Michigan, Ramseyer of Iowa, Hawley of Oregon and Beck of Pennsylvania.

Sets New Record In Australian Flight

PORT DARWIN, North Australia, April 10 (AP)—Charles W. A. Scott, swooping down here from a flight over the turbulent Timor sea, set a new record today for a flight between England and Australia.

He concluded in 9 days 3 hours 20 minutes a trip of about 11,000 miles over the plains, mountains and forests of Eurasia and the Malay Archipelago.

His mark is better by 19 hours and 20 minutes than the record established by Wing Commander Charles Kingsford Smith.

PILLS ARE OFTEN DANGEROUS

Most laxatives have to be taken in ever-increasing doses. Otherwise, they lose their power. The body needs roughage.

One of the most natural ways to obtain this roughage is by eating a delicious cereal: Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Read what Mr. Albert F. Parker of Massachusetts has to say:

"I am 52 years old and have put in years suffering from constipation. Bought all kinds of pills and drugged myself with them and awoke lots of mornings with a headache.

"Haven't taken one pill since I began on Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. I am now feeling the best I have felt in 20 years."

Two tablespoonfuls of ALL-BRAN daily are guaranteed to give relief. At your grocer's, in the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN ECHOES DISCORD OF DEMOCRATS

WASHINGTON, April 10 (AP)—The Republican party has begun a campaign interpreted as an effort to gain something from Democratic discord over the Raskob proposals.

In an attack on the program suggested for 1932 by the Democratic national committee chairman, Robert H. Lucas, executive director of the Republican national committee, said last night the only concrete propositions offered by the opposing party had come from Raskob.

Talks Over Radio

"Mr. Raskob," Lucas said in an appeal to the south over the Dixie network of the "Columbus Broadcasting system, . . . makes the unique proposal that the solution of the economic problems now confronting the United States, and in which the south is vitally interested, may be solved by (1) Repealing the federal anti-trust laws; and (2) Offering every individual a drink.

"This is an entirely new school of political thought."

Lucas asserted continuing Republican tariff and other policies had aided development and prosperity of the south, adding:

"Its place, therefore, politically is in the Republican party."

Differences Cited

He mentioned differences of opinion in the Democratic party. The house Democratic caucus called for last February was abandoned, he said, because "they ascertained that in the event they held such a caucus they could not agree upon anything and would in all probability wind up in an open quarrel.

"Why should the people of the south," Lucas asked, "in justice to themselves . . . . continue an alliance with a political organization that is so bankrupt and so disorganized that it cannot present to the American people a concrete statement as to what it believes and as to what it will do in the event it is given control of the federal government?"

Lucas did not discuss recent statements that Horace Mann, a southern Republican, plans to establish an organization to oppose the renomination of President Hoover. Nor did he mention the just-ended trip of Postmaster General Brown through the south or Brown's prediction that Mr. Hoover will be renominated by acclamation.

He said only one previous case had ever been found in Dallas. A specimen of blood taken from the Mexican woman believed to have contracted the disease was sent to Washington for analysis.

For a soapy, sudsy bath—use Mel'o

LIKE to have plenty of suds when you're bathing? Then don't bathe in hard water—city water as it comes from the faucet. Soap combines with the hard water, and forms a dirty ring around the edge of the tub. That's scum. And that's certainly not pleasant.

Hard water can be made soft. Just put Mel'o in the water and you have a very remarkable cleaner, with or without soap. Then watch the soap lather! Then watch the suds come! Then watch the scum go! Have you discovered how much more effective Mel'o makes soap? Get three cans today at your grocer's, for the kitchen, the laundry and the bathroom.

U. S. Naval Guards And Chinese Fight

ICHANG, China, April 10. (AP)—A battle between a handful of American naval guards aboard the Yangtse river steamer Iping and a considerable body of troops, supposedly Chinese nationalist soldiers, took place near here yesterday. The Chinese soldiers opened fire on the ship but were silenced by the American guns.

The Chinese poured sharp fire into the Iping, which had been disabled by striking a rock in the Yangtse rapids and was limping into Ichang for repairs. The engagement was severe but short, the American fire proving too effective for the Chinese to withstand.

Children

CHILDREN whose mothers appreciate the full importance of minerals and vitamins are indeed fortunate. They ought to grow up with much better teeth, stronger bodies, greater resistance to disease.

Plenty of calcium, phosphorus, chlorine, iron and copper are vitally important. Yet many a hearty meal is lacking in these elements. No wonder mothers welcome Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuit.

Two Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuits and milk supply 10 important mineral salts and 6 vitamins — more than a third of the average person's daily mineral requirement. Every biscuit is double toasted. Extra crisp. Made of crunchy wheat shreds. Delicious for breakfast, lunch, the children's supper — a late snack. Ready to eat.

Order a red-and-green package from your grocer. Notice the certified food-value analysis on the side panel. You couldn't serve two better foods than these wonderful biscuits and whole milk. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

WINTER WHEAT ESTIMATED

PRODUCTION FOR 1931 SHOWS GAIN OVER LAST YEAR

WASHINGTON, April 10 (AP)—United States winter wheat production for 1931 was estimated today by the agriculture department at 644,000,000 bushels—40,000,000 larger than last year and 93,000,000 greater than the five-year average.

An exceptionally favorable winter, the department said, was responsible for the April 1 condition, which was 88.8 per cent of normal, 11.4 above the same date last year and 9.6 above the 10-year average.

Plantings Larger

On the basis of normal yield from intended spring wheat plantings amounting to 221,000,000 bushels and 644,000,000 of the winter variety, the total 1931 production would be 865,000,000 bushels, or 14,000,000 more than last year.

The department said "the relatively high April 1, condition of the crop leaves the opportunity for a greater degree of loss than a gain in the yield."

A three per cent reduction in all wheat acreage this year has been forecast.

In another report today, the department estimated the surplus which will be available on July 1 for export and carry over at 290,000,000 bushels, or 15,000,000 more than last year.

Former President Of Guatemala Dies

NEW ORLEANS, April 10 (AP) — General Lazaro Chacon, former president of Guatemala, died at his home here early today, after a stroke of paralysis. He was 56 years old.

The general came to New Orleans in December after he had resigned the presidency.

He was believed recovering until he suffered a second stroke of paralysis yesterday. His condition became critical and he sank rapidly.

Funeral arrangements were not complete but it was said at his home that the body would be sent back to Guatemala for burial.

A bill recently introduced in the British Parliament waives the payment of radio license fees by the beridden poor.

Nearly 234,000,000 pounds of prunes were exported from the United States last year, a gain of 37,000,000 pounds over 1929.

SINGING FOR PARTNER, ILL IN HOSPITAL, GIRL BRINGS RICHES TO BOTH WITH "BLUES"; FORMER STENOGRAPHER

NEW YORK—Ethel Merman, in her peculiar "blues" voice, shouts a song about the indiscretions of Delilah and the audience applauds an enchanting new entertainer.

One night she is unknown—the next night crowds are fighting to get into the theater to hear her sing.

Ethel Merman isn't singing only for herself; she's singing for a young pianist who lies dangerously ill in a Connecticut hospital.

Al Siegel played his last performance the night his partner achieved her great triumph; then he collapsed.

Only a couple of years ago Miss Merman was a stenographer in Long Island City. Siegel was a recognized vaudeville artist, and one night he heard her sing at a party. He persuaded her to become his partner, trained her and wrote songs that were fitted to her unusual voice.

They appeared in a few picture houses, and then were offered parts in the musical comedy, "Girl Crazy."

During rehearsals Siegel, who was in frail health, collapsed and was put to bed. On the opening night in New York he demanded that he be allowed to play for Miss Merman when she made her debut.

Doctors, fearing a nervous relapse, placed him in an ambulance and carried him to the theater. Siegel was carried to the piano in the orchestra pit and so thrilling were his playing and Miss Merman's singing that the audience stood cheering and stopped the show.

Miss Merman began to sing an encore, but stopped as her piano accompaniment did not begin. She looked into the pit and saw that Siegel had fallen in a faint across the keys.

Today it is still Siegel and Merman, partners. From his hospital bed he writes songs for her. In New York she sings them, along with Gershwin numbers, in her show and in night clubs. And each week half of the salary goes to him.

Ethel Merman became an overnight sensation as a "blues" singer on the night when her partner and tutor collapsed over his piano in the theater orchestra pit. Her pay-check has grown and grown ,but half of it still goes to the partner, Al Siegel, ill in a hospital.

DRYS MAPPING DRIVE TO "OUTSMART" BOOTLEGGERS; WOODCOCK DIRECTING

BY HERBERT PLUMMER

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Under the hands of a man who soldiered north of Verdun during the World war, the machinery for prohibition enforcement is fast taking on a military aspect.

Col. Amos W. W. Woodcock, director of prohibition, foresees the day when his forces will operate much like the general staff of the army during war time.

His G-1 would look after personnel.

His G-2 would study plans of the enemy.

His G-3 would formulate plans of attack.

"What I want," says the director, "is more brains in the enforcement of prohibition. We must be at least as smart as our enemy—smarter if possible."

And he is going systematically about the task of getting more brains.

For two weeks in June there will assemble in Washington two representative prohibition agents from each of the 12 administrative districts of the nation. These men will undergo a course of instruction in prohibition designed to give them an up-to-the-minute knowledge of the law itself and the most important principles in the technique of investigation.

Their mornings will be spent in attending classes where they will hear lectures by experts. Their afternoons will be spent in study and research. Examinations will be held at the close of the period.

These men in turn will go back to their districts and instruct the other agents. A definite schedule is laid down and nothing is permitted to interfere.

"Time was when 'pull' meant much in prohibition enforcement ranks," says Woodcock, "but no longer. Efficiency is now the only hope for an agent who looks for advancement." His rating is based on a system worked out by the war department.

And this "schooling" in prohibition is a vital factor. Grades on examinations are carefull recorded. Correspondence courses are offered for those desiring to equip themselves better.

"My goal is to better the morale of our organization," says Woodcock, "and I believe we are succeeding. These courses of instruction are not only raising the efficiency of the agents but they are being reflected in their better conduct."

SHOUSE GIVES STATEMENT

DEMOCRATIC CHIEF ANSWERS LETTER OF WILLIAM McADOO

OMAHA, Neb., April 10 (AP)—Jouett Shouse, chairman of the national executive committee of the Democratic party, has issued a statement answering the letter of William G. McAdoo, Democratic leader, in which the latter declined to act on a reception committee which will plan a welcome for Shouse in Los Angeles.

Shouse issued his statement just before he left here late yesterday by plane for Salt Lake City.

Cites Support

He called attention to the fact he had supported McAdoo when the latter's name was before the national convention for the Democratic nomination for president.

"I shall not be drawn into altercations with Democrats anywhere," Shouse said. "It is, of course, entirely within Mr. McAdoo's rights to decline the invitation to serve on the committee named to greet me in Los Angeles."

Called To Coast

"I am going to the Pacific coast in response to persistent urging by Democratic leaders of the states in that section. I am going because these leaders have felt that so doing I can supplement and assist their organization activities. I am going to try and help pave the way for the election of the Democratic ticket in 1932," he said.

FRIENDSHIP IS CLAIMED

DOUMERGUE SAYS THAT ITALY, FRANCE TO REMAIN ALLIES

NICE, France, April 10 (AP)—Avowing France's friendship for Italy in his farewell address, retiring President Gaston Doumergue sailed Thursday for Bizerta, Tunis, on an inspection tour of the French protectorate.

In an address at a luncheon tendered him by the municipality of Nice, President Doumergue recalled that France and Italy were allies during the World war and predicted the continuance of cordial relations between the two nations.

However, the president said, France must be on her guard particularly "because of a brusque event, the importance of which both for the present and future must not be misunderstood." His hearers deduced that he meant the Austro-German customs pact.

"The very history of the country where that event occurred," he said, "contains precedent full of teachers that it would be dangerous for us to forget. I do not wish to dramatize anything but we must put things in their right proportions. For thus it is that we guard against the other surprises and dangers which they may bring."

This enlarged photograph of the inside of one of these Brown's Saltine Flakes proves better than words that these dainty, slightly salted crackers are flakier. STORIES AND PICTURES OF CITY IN WEST TEXAS TODAY

Lubbock receives considerable attention in the form of several pages of printed matter and pictures in the March number of West Texas Today, official publication of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

"The Progress of Lubbock" traces the history of the South Plains Hubtown and is accompanied by pictures of an earlyday Lubbock street, the municipal swimming pool and a water-hazard at the Lubbock Country club.

A picture of the Lubbock hotel accompanies an article on the thirteenth annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce here May 14, 15 and 16.

Another page of West Texas Today is occupied by articles on the Texas Technological college engineers show, which will be underway during the convention of the regional chamber, and an article on phenominal growth of Lubbock population since 1920 as "an index to development of the territory." A picture of the Lubbock poultry and egg plant is on the page.

A story on the Panhandle-Plains meat exposition here March 27 and 26 occupies another page. A report of the pageant to be presented on the regional chamber's convention program here, accompanied by a picture of the Hilton hotel, and an item pertaining to Lubbock hotels occupy another page.

"Many Meetings and Conventions in Lubbock During This Year" is the headline above a short story on another page of the magazine.

Marginal Well Bill Approved By House

AUSTIN, April 10 (AP)—A bill to remove marginal wells from jurisdiction of the railroad commission was passed yesterday in the house. It was passed in the senate several days ago and will be sent to the governor for signature.

It was estimated the bill would cause an increase of approximately 60,000 barrels in the daily oil production in Texas. Marginal wells were defined as wells producing through use of pumps.

Wells having a depth of 2,000 feet or less and producing 10 barrels; those from 2,000 to 3,500 feet dep and producing 20 barrels and wells below 3,500 feet and producing 40 barrels will be exempt from artificial restriction under the bill.

CORPUS CHRISTI, April 10 (AP)—Joe Jackson, Royal Goodwin, and George L. Jessup and Goodwin pleaded guilty and waived preliminary hearing yesterday. Jackson pleaded not guilty.

STAGE EQUIPMENT BEING MADE HERE

Preparatory to the Little Theater's presentation of Booth Tarkington's three-act comedy, "The Intimate Stranger," stage settings and effects are being made in the architectural department of the school of engineering at Texas Technological college. F. A. Kleinschmidt is supervising the work.

Rehearsals for the play, which will be presented April 20 at the Palace theater, have been conducted with excellent progress, Arthur Brown, director reports. Ten persons several of whom have appeared in previous Little Theater productions, comprise the cast.

In the meantime, plans for an extensive ticket selling campaign for the play are being laid by Wesley Read, chairman of the sales committee. As the play is being produced solely for the benefit of Lubbock charities, a record crowd is expected for the performance. All members of the cast including the director are donating their services in play. C. C. Lindsey, manager of the Palace, is donating the theater for the program.

DEFEND COAST GUARD FIRE

FORCEFUL METHODS TO CATCH RUM BOAT ARE UPHELD

WASHINGTON, April 10 (AP)—A vigorous defense of the coast guard's use of forceful measures to capture the rum-laden Canadian schooner Josephine K off New York harbor three months ago has been transmitted to the state department by the treasury.

Attorney-General Mitchell is expected to submit to the state department within a day or two his opinion on legal aspects of the case.

The opinion was asked by Secretary Stimson after the Canadian government protested the seizures.

The Ottawa government contended the Josephine K was outside the hour's sailing distance from shore within which treaty rights permit search and seizure of British vessels by American authorities. It also held that the firing of a one-pound shell which killed the vessel's master, Captain William P. Cluett, constituted unwarranted force.

The coast guard replied the vessel was within treaty distance from shore and that the force employed was necessary.

Upon the opinion of the attorney general, however, the state department will decide whether the United States officially will reply to Canada, defending the action.

The general belief here today is that should the United States defend the coast guard's action, the case would be placed before an international arbitration commission for settlement. The case of the Canadian registered rum-runner, I'm Alone, sunk in the Gulf of Mexico by a coast guard vessel two years ago, is now up for arbitration as a result of a disagreement between the Washington and Ottawa governments over points similar to those in the Josephine K incident.

A new bridge will be constructed over the Thames at Richmond, England, at a cost of $905,000.

CARL REDIN of New Mexico Art Colony will offer four weeks course in painting, beginning April 20th (Lubbock.)

He is now exhibiting at National Academy of Design, N. Y. City. For information see Mrs. W. T. Milam or Mrs. James H. Goodman.

At each of the banquets, Leeman said, only South Texas products would be used. Governor Ross Sterling will be asked to make a brief address on South Texas which will be transmitted to the guests at each banquet.

SPYING ON SPORTS

Superintendent M. H. Duncan of Lubbock's school system says he will scour the state in an effort to find the most capable coach available to succeed Henry Frnka, who announced early this week his signing of a contract with Greenville. It may not be necessary for the superintendent and the school board to search further than local circles to find a capable man.

* * *

We refer to W. H. "Jew" Keeling, Frnka's first assistant and backfield coach last year. It has been known for some few weeks that Keeling was casting about for a head coach job, and with the vacancy here it is reasonable to believe that he will be seriously considered for the post. He could hardly do better, and local authorities would have to search closely to find a better man. He is well versed in the ways of football, an "A" student of the gridiron and has enough pep and vitality for half a dozen coaches.

* * *

It is known that the student body, particularly the football boys, are backing Keeling for the head coach job. He has made many friends here and has "gotten over" with the athletes. He is young and it is true that his coaching experience is limited to a few years, but he has been quick and eager to learn. While this department, like all other friends and supporters of the high school, hopes to see a well-fitted man succeed Frnka, we believe the authorities could do many things worse than call Keeling to the job.

* * *

An assistant coach is usually one of the most abused individuals of an athletic department. He works as hard as anyone and he sees the results of his labors, if they are successful, accounted to the genius of the head coach. He is fortunate if his labors are unsuccessful in that the head coach draws all the blame. A team is not, necessarily as good or as bad as its coach, though you can't make alumni associations believe that, but in many cases the success or failure of a good team depends to a great extent upon the ability and knowledge of the assistant coach.

* * *

Pete Cawthon, head coach at Texas Tech, is supporting Keeling for the Lubbock High school position. Like all the other Lubbock coaches, Keeling served under Cawthon at Austin College and as a result of his work there he is still named all-time all-Texas Conference quarterback. "I believe Keeling is fully capable of handling the situation, and I am backing him for the place", Cawthon said yesterday.

* * *

This department is now prepared to answer most any question that might arise concerning any branch of sport. Frank G. Menke's all-sports record book has arrived and it is alive with records and statistics. If you are at a loss as to who won the national rope-skipping tournament or the name of the pigeon who made the longest flight or who holds the fresh water fly casting record or how the ancient and honorable game of ping pong got its name or who is the world's champion bar-chinner, either one or both hands, or who caught the biggest fish and when and where, ask us. Just to show that we know who holds the world's hopping record, he is S. D. See, and he made the record in Brooklyn on October 18, 1888, hopping 50 yards in 7.2 seconds and the 100-yard hopping dash was navigated in 13 1-2 seconds. Can you beat it?

* * *

A communication from Allen Carney, former sports editor of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal now touring the world, has it that Carney is on the editorial staff of the China Press, large newspaper organization at Shanghai. He also admits playing on a baseball team, the Shanghai Amateurs, which, he says, is a pretty fast league.

Spudders Practice In Spite Of Rain

WICHITA FALLS, Apr. 10. (AP)—A little thing like rain failed to interfere with the Spudders' program of getting in every practice lick possible in the last week of spring training, and Skipper Carl Williams yesterday hustled his men through a long routine drill in spite of a cold, drizzling rain.

An intra-squad game as on the schedule for this afternoon.

Baumgarten Chosen Longhorn Captain

AUSTIN, April 10. (AP)—Maurice "Dutch" Baumgarten, guard, was elected captain of the 1931 University of Texas football team last night. He will succeed Gover O. "Ox" Emerson of Orange, declared ineligible by officials of the Southwest conference. Baumgarten will be a senior next year and is regarded as one of the sturdiest linesmen turned out at the Longhorn school. Baumgarten is from Schulenberg.

FOUR SCHOOLS ENTER LATE WEDNESDAY

THIRTY-NINE SCHOOLS TO PARTICIPATE IN CONTESTS HERE

Four last minute entries late Wednesday night swelled the total to 39 schools which shall compete in the first annual Texas Tech High School Relay carnival here Saturday. More than 300 individuals will be present. Approximately 580 entries have been listed to participate in the five special events and five relays for which prizes valued at nearly $300 have been posted.

School authorities of the high schools of Seminole, Woodrow, Turkey and Ropesville announced late Wednesday night their desire to enter teams. Other Wednesday entries were Floydada, Floyd, N. M., and Slaton.

To Hold Preliminaries

The large number of entries make it necessary for preliminaries in special events to be held Saturday morning. All teams are requested to be on the athletic field at Tech college by 10 o'clock Saturday morning. Relay events will begin at 2:30 Saturday afternoon and will be run off according to clock time.

Special events include the 50-yard dash, 100-yard dash, 220-yard low hurdles, high jump and javelin throw. The relays consist of quarter-mile, half-mile, mile, medley and special medley relays.

Lubbock business firms, the Tech athletic council and the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce have subscribed nearly $300 toward prizes for winners and runners up in the meet.

TO DEPEND ON YOUNG STARS

SHIELDS AND WOOD TO MEET MEXICO AND CANADA

NEW YORK, April 10 (AP)—The United States Lawn Tennis association has turned to the rising generation in its campaign to regain the Davis cup, held since 1927 by France's musketeers of the racquet.

Twenty-year-old Frances X. Shields of New York and 19-year-old Sidney B. Wood of the University of Arizona, definitely have been selected to represent this country in the first round cup tie with Mexico and also for the second round series with Canada, granting that Mexico is defeated.

Against Mexico, the two youngsters will have the aid of the youthful "veteran," Wilmer Allison of Austin, Texas, a member of several recent American Davis cup teams, their companions in the battle with Canada will be selected later.

The Mexican series will be played at Mexico City May 1, 3 and 5, with two singles matches the first day, the doubles on the 3rd and the final two singles matches May 5. If victorious, the Americans then will move to Montreal to meet Canada May 21, 22 and 23.

Neither Shields nor Wood has played Davis cup tennis but both played brilliantly in American tournaments last summer.

HEADS CONFERENCE

DALLAS, Apr. 10. (AP)—Mrs. C. M. Simpson of Wichita Falls today was elected president of the North Texas Woman's Missionary conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, South. She succeeded Mrs. S. M. Black of Dallas. Mrs. Clark Estes of Paris was named superintendent of children's work.

AROUND THE TRAINING CAMP CIRCUIT

DISLIKES UMPIRE

ASHEVILLE, N. C., April 10 (AP)—One fan down here doesn't think much of Brick Owens who is umpiring games for the New York Yankees on the spring training jaunt.

"That fellow takes all the fun out of the game," said the fan, referring to Owens. "He's so good you can't make fun of him, or cuss at him, or throw anything at him."

GETS ANOTHER CHANCE

MACON, Ga., April 10 (AP)—After watching Earl Mattingly whip the Brooklyn Robins twice, Wilbert has decided the rookie right hander deserves another chance to stick in the big leagues.

Robinson, who released Mattingly to the Hartford farm some time ago, has completed an arrangement by which the rookie comes back to the Robins. Hartford gets pitcher Buck Green in Mattingly's place.

ROSTER FILLED

PHILADELPHIA, April 10 (AP)—Now that Al Simmons, leading batsman of the American league, has signed his contract and pitcher George Earnshaw has reported to the club apparently in good physical condition, the champion Philadelphia Athletics were ready with a full roster today for the opening of the 1931 campaign next week.

TEAMS COME HOME

ST. LOUIS, April 10 (AP)—St. Louis' major league baseball teams, the Cardinals and the Browns, came home today from their annual training trips and tomorrow they will open their annual 2-game spring series at Sportsman's park.

OPTIMISM GROWS

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 10 (AP)—The optimism of the Cleveland Indians grows day by day. Their seivelike defense has tightened up, the hurlers have been going good and they know they'll hit when the season starts. The failure of their offense so far is attributed to the difficulty of making any major league bear down on minor league opposition.

ROUSH IS BACK

CINCINNATI, O., April 10 (AP)—Eddie Roush, star center fielder for the Cincinnati Reds for ten years, was back on the field where he earned his fame today, working out in a Rhineland uniform and glad to be "back home." The thirty-eight-year-old gardener said he felt fine, was having no trouble with his legs and expected to be in center field Tuesday for the opener if Manager Howley wants him there.

TIGERS ARRIVE HOME

DETROIT, April 10 (AP)—A twenty-eight man Detroit Tiger squad arrived home this morning after two months of training on the west coast in which they engaged in 31 exhibition games. At least two pitchers and an outfielder still are to be pruned from the squad before the June 15 dead-line. The Tigers still have three games scheduled for the exhibition season, all with Pittsburgh on the home lot.

FIGHT FOR PLACE

KANSAS CITY, Apr. 10 (AP)—Lester Bell's batting power is still battling against Bill Jurges' speed and throwing arm for a regular job in the Chicago Cub infield.

Bell ranks as the most persistent hit-getter on the club, but his weak right arm and comparative lack of speed afoot have worked against him. There is plenty of question in the mind of Manager Rogers Hornsby as to which will be a regular.

BUSH REACHES PEAK

GREENVILLE, N. C., Apr. 10. (AP)—Manager Donie Bush, scrappy manager of the Chicago White Sox, has reached the peak of his form—he has been chased off the field by an umpire.

Bush, a mild fellow off the ball field, is anything else but—while in uniform, causing him to be ordered from the scene of action quite frequently. Yesterday against the New York Giants he became so outspoken over a decision by umpire Charlie Moran that the latter shooed him to the bench.

PREPARE FOR GAMES

BOSTON, Apr. 10. (AP)—The Braves pulled into town today to prepare for their Saturday and Sunday games with the Red Sox. They brought with them prospects of obtaining a good right handed pitcher. Clise Dudley, who was traded to Philadelphia by Brooklyn with Elliott and a sum of money in exchange for Lefty O'Doul is the man Manager Bill McKechnie has in mind. The Phillies have asked for waivers on Dudley and the tribesmen refused to waive. Dudley may come to Boston.

GOLF CHAMP IS DETHRONED

AMATEUR TOURNEY MOVES INTO SEMI-FINAL ROUNDS

PINEHURST, N. C., Apr. 10. (AP)—The 31st annual North and South Amateur Golf tournament today moved into the semi-final round with Eugene Homans, the 1930 champion, a looker-on.

The Englewood, N. J., star fell yesterday before the consistent shooting of T. Suffern Tailer, Newport, R. I., linksman. Tailer had the defending champion one down at the turn and on the 14th hole laid him a stymie to win the match, five and four.

George T. Dunlap, jr., of New York, the medalist, whose machine-like stroking has made him a sensation in the tournament, continued his march by defeating Howard Tryon, Elmira, N. Y., 7 and 5.

Dunlap, intercollegiate champion, today faced J. B. Ryerson, Cooperstown, N. Y., shotmaker, who advanced yesterday with a three and one victory over Richard S. Tufts, of Pinehurst.

Tailer's opponent was S. M. Parks, jr., Pittsburgh, two and one victor over Forbes K. Wilson, York Harbor, Me., in the quarter-finals.

No Action Taken By City Commissioners

Absence of two members of the City commission resulted in transaction of no material business at the commission's bi-weekly meeting Thursday afternoon, according to Mayor J. J. Clements.

"It will be necessary to call a special session of the commission in the near future," Mayor Clements said, "to award the contract for the new pump at the county park."

John Roach and D. N. Leaverton were the commissioners absent from the meeting.

The City Employees Charity fund has collected $351.43 with which to combat unemployment in Lubbock, Mayor Clements said Thursday.

This fund is being used to defray the expenses of painting the street light standards and fire hydrants, Mayor Clements said.

Asks Compensation From Photographer

LAMAR, Colo., April 10. (AP)—A father of one of the 15 Pleasant Hill bus survivors demanded compensation from a news reel photographer for the privilege of taking pictures of the children.

The pictures were made without pay, however, when H. A. Untiedt, father of Bryan Untiedt, 13-year-old hero of the ordeal in the gale-bound bus, intervened.

D. H. Stonebraker demanded the parents of the children be paid for the appearance of the youthful survivors in the picture.

FIFTY MEN AT MEETING IN CITY HALL

LUENBERGER IS NAMED PRESIDENT OF NEW LUBBOCK LEAGUE

That the baseball-minded denizens of Lubbock would have the opportunity of seeing and playing baseball this summer was assured last night when fifty men gathered at the chamber of commerce rooms at the City hall and organized what is to be known as the Lubbock City Baseball league.

At least six teams, possibly eight or ten, will make up the league. Six teams were represented at the meeting last night and signified intentions of entering the league. Invitations were issued to four other prospective teams of the city.

Named President

J. R. "Dutch" Leuenberger, popular local sportsman and sports promoter, was elected president of the league and Steve Delaney, another local sportsman, was unanimously elected secretary-treasurer. Leuenberger was playing-manager of the Lubbock Hubbers, local amateur club of the South Plains league last summer. Delaney is a former Texas leaguer.

President Leuenberger requested that a meeting of all prospective teams be held this week or early next week so that managers could be elected and the teams organized. A meeting will be held at the City hall next Thursday night to determine the number of teams, the player limit, means of financing and for drawing up a schedule. All managers and any players who wish are invited to be present.

While no definite starting date was announced, it was hinted that actual playing will begin not later than the week beginning April 20.

Three clubs, the American Business Club, represented at the meeting last night by C. A. Sheffield; the Avalanche-Journal, represented by Bill Davidson; and the Lions club, represented by Rufus Scarbrough, announced that uniforms were on hand already and that the teams were "all set to go."

Other prospective teams represented at the meeting last night were the Rainbow team, local amateur organization, Santa Fe Railroad, and the Cheri Casa dormitory for men at Texas Tech. P. W. Cawthon, representing Cheri Casa, said he was not certain that a club could be organized there that would be permanent, though it is thought that a college men's team will be included in the league membership.

Special invitations were issued to the other civic clubs, Kiwanis and Rotary, to the American Legion and to Bradford's Grocery. All other prospective teams are invited to apply for membership.

CLEVELAND, Apr. 10. (AP)—Seventeen-year-old Helene Madison, who holds 15 American women's swimming records, won't be satisfied until she has some more. Tonight she'll try for No. 16 in the Cleveland Athletic club pool when she seeks to better the time of 7:59 made by Martha Norelius in the 600-yard free style.

The Seattle swimmer established her 15th record at Toledo last night when she swam the 250-yard free style in 3:02, 2 2-5 seconds better than the former record held by Josephine McKim of the Los Angeles Athletic club.

ANDERSON AND CHEVIGNY TAKE OVER FOOTBALL AFFAIRS AT NOTRE DAME

SOUTH BEND, Ind., April 10 (AP)—Heartley "Hunk" Anderson and Jack Chevigny today took up Notre Dame football affairs where Knute Rockne left off last week.

It had been suggested that spring football practice be dropped, but Mrs. Rockne and school officials decided the dead leader would have wanted it to be resumed and a call was issued for candidates to report today. The drills will continue until the end of this month, and will be voluntary.

The problem of selecting a successor to Rockne is still being pondered by officials of the university and an announcement by the Rev. Fr. Michael M. Mulcaire, C. S. C., chairman of the athletic board of control, is expected next week.

The other half of the bracket will find Clifford Sutter of New Orleans, seeded No. 1, playing Ellsworth Vines, seeded No. 3. Sutter yesterday disposed of Jake Hess of Rice institute 6-3, 6-1 and vines won from Jimmy Quick of Dallas 6-3, 6-3.

Manager Happ Morse of the Steers plans to send Main and Garland, recruit hurlers, against the Saints in an attempt to square the series. Sheehan and Bream are probable hurlers for St. Paul.

The Steers plan to invade Fort Worth Saturday for the first of a two game series with the Cats.

Buy Meat That Is Grown At Home!

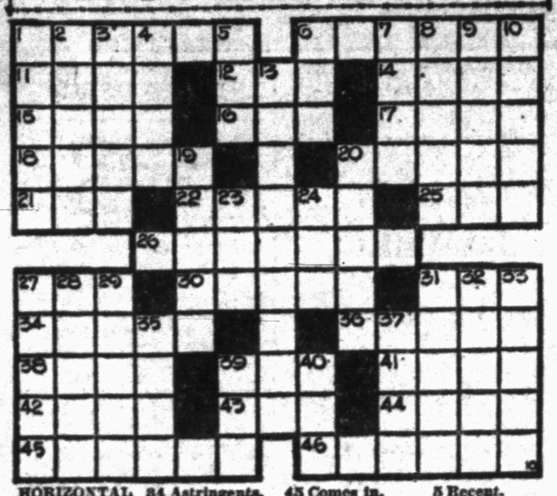

Eat South Plains Meats

Residents of the South Plains of Texas were amazed at the high quality and superiority of South Plains raised meats at a recent Meat Show. Many of them declared a future preference for just that meat labeled South Plains killed, cured and packed. Many have yet to learn the advantages they will derive from DEMANDING this home fed meat.

Consumption of South Plains feed stuffs will do a lot to stabilize feed prices here on the Plains as well as to inspire farmers and cattlemen to go into the meat business on a bigger scale, consequently creating commerce in a much healthier year 'round condition. All together, now, lets make an effort to consume as much South Plains meat as it is possible.

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, April 10 (AP) — Cotton had a very easy opening here today owing to bearish Liverpool cables. First trades showed losses of nine to 11 points. The market continued to ease off after the start owing to continued May liquidation and selling by ring traders on the generally favorable weather in the belt and the bearish character of foreign news.

May traded down to 10.07, July to 10.33 and October to 10.64, or 11 to 12 points below yesterday's close.

At the end of the first hour the undertone was still easy and prices were tending downward.

The market continued to ease off during most of the morning on further May liquidation and selling by ring traders on the more favorable weather. May broke through the ten cent line to 9.97, down 22 points from yesterday's close. July eased off to 10.22 and October to 10.53, both 22 points below yesterday's close.

Around noon, the market rallied six to seven points from the lows in sympathy with a firmer stock market. Weekly statistics were rather bearish and probably helped the decline prior to the noon.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, April 10 (AP) —Cotton opened steady today, 8 to 12 points lower under a renewal of liquidation and commission house selling which seemed to be inspired by the relatively easy Liverpool cables.

The opening decline attracted considerable covering and some trade buying but the demand was quite readily supplied with July selling off to 10.33 and December to 10.88 by the end of the first half hour, or about 12 to 14 points net lower.

Liverpool cables reported local Manchester and Alexandria liquidation and complained of a poor demand for cotton cloths for India and China. It was a holiday in the market for Egyptian cotton at Alexandria and the Indian spot quotation in Liverpool was unchanged. A private report on planting intentions in Texas placed the probable decrease in cotton acreage at 11.8 per cent.

The selling continued in the later trading. It slackened at times and the market steadied on covering or trade buying, but showed very little rallying power and soon eased under renewed pressure. New Orleans selling became more active midday and there was continued near month liquidation with May selling off to 10.00 and October to 10.56, or about 20 to 24 points net lower.

NEW ORLEANS OPEN

NEW ORLEANS, April 10 (AP) — Cotton opened steady today: May 10.09; July 10.33; Oct. 10.64; Dec. 10.86; Jan. 10.97-bid; March 11.12-bid.

NEW YORK OPEN

NEW YORK, April 10 (AP)—Cotton opened steady today: May 10.11; July 10.34; Oct. 10.67; Dec. 10.90; Jan. 11.00; March 11.18.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, April 10.—(AP) —The stock market again developed rallying tendencies in early trading today.

The list opened somewhat irregular but the trend was definitely upward by the end of the first half hour. Tobacco shares led the rise, with American Tobacco "B" pushing up more than 5 points to a new peak price, coincident with the increase in cigarette prices. Lorillard gained a point, and Liggett & Myers B, 1 1-2.

Allied Chemical rose 3 points, and issues up a point or more included U. S. Steel, Air Reduction, McKeesport, Worthington, Auburn, Case, Southern Pacific and Norfolk and Western. Nash shot up more than 2 points on declaration of the irregular quarterly dividend of $1.

The reduction of $53,000,000 reported in the weekly brokerage loan tabulation was the largest in some time and was regarded as indicating that considerable real liquidation had taken place and the position of the market strengthened.

Sterling cables still held at $4.85 15-16.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, April 10 (AP)—Responsive to the bearish showing of the United States government crop report, wheat prices here went lower early today. Comparative firmness of Liverpool wheat quotations, however, helped steady the market at fractional declines, although the official forecast of United States 1931 winter wheat production was much larger than the majority of traders had expected. Opening 5-8 cents off to 1-8 up, wheat later held near to the initial range. Corn started 3-8 lower to 1-8 higher, and subsequently hardened.

000). Tell his wife not to worry and come yourself to Freeport. You'll find Blumer's car parked here."

Instead of going to Freeport, Wells notified Sheriff Myron West, who left immediately with the missing man's brother, Jacob, who sought the help of Illinois officers in an attempt to rescue the victim.

Blumer's company has been seeking to introduce a near-beer product in Rockford, Ill., and it was believed by his friends that Blumer thought the telephone call summoning him to the hotel was connected with the Rockford venture.

Blumer's automobile was discovered abandoned on the streets of Freeport, as the abductors promised, but no trace was found of the missing brewer either in Freeport or in Rockford.

TWO SPECIAL TRAINS TO GO TO FUNERAL

WASHINGTON, April 10 (AP) — Two trains carrying government officials will leave the capital tonight for Cincinnati to attend the funeral of the late Speaker Longworth.

The first will leave early in the evening and will carry the senate and house delegations and other members of congress.

President Hoover's train will leave later carrying the chief executive and probably a number of cabinet officers and other administrative officials.

The presidential train will arrive at the Oakley station, Cincinnati, shortly before noon, where it will be met by Mayor Wilson and other city officials, who will escort the President and Mrs. Hoover to the Longworth home, "Rookwood."

After a short visit with Mrs. Longworth, Mr. and Mrs. Hoover will return to the train and have lunch, leaving it just in time to reach Christ Episcopal church before the services start.

After the services Mr. and Mrs. Hoover will go immediately to the train and start back to Washington.

Harold Hayes, federal radio supervisor for the ninth district described them as "marvelous," the best he had seen in three years of watching the growth of television.

Then the young inventor—he is 24—opened a bag of tricks.

He gave one of his assistants a figurative shave, manipulating the light rays thrown on his face until evidence of a heavy beard had been almost eliminated.

He threw such a tiny light on the subject that persons nearby could not discern his features. Yet the keen-eyed receiving set picked up the reflected rays and produced a clear view of the face.

Then Sanabria tinted faces and objects placed before the closeup lens. Green on the label of a water jar was clearly apparent. Other colors also were faintly tinted into the television image.

Grollman Stock And Fixtures Are Sold

The stock inventory was announced at 25,613.25.

No announcement was made following the sale in regards to the disposition of the stock by the successful bidder.

PUBLIC NOTICE!

Montgomery Ward & Co.

has filed a complaint with the Federal Trade Commission against Unfair Tire Advertising!

... Newspaper and magazine advertisements are being published throughout the country in which nationally advertised tires are compared with a "mail order" tire ... We have been asked if the "mail order" tire referred to is our RIVERSIDE. The reason for this is obvious. Ward's is the oldest mail order house in America. So, when anyone says "mail order," most people naturally think first of Montgomery Ward & Co. No! the tire referred to is not Ward's Riverside!

RIVERSIDES

Are Equal to or Better Than ANY Tires Made Regardless of Name or Price!

Montgomery Ward & Co. is one of the largest distributors of automobile tires in the world. And for 19 years, Riversides have been one of the best known tires in the industry. Millions have been sold. They are made by one of the largest rubber companies in America. They are built to the most rigid tire specifications known. They are the finest quality it is possible to produce. They are backed by the fairest, squarest guarantee ever written, and they sell for less than other nationally known tires of equal quality. These sound like extraordinary claims. But they are facts. And Montgomery Ward & Co. stands behind every word.

The big tire companies have found it impossible to meet Riverside quality at Riverside prices—so most of them now sell what are known as "second quality" tires at the same price we charge for Riversides, a first-quality tire! Furthermore, a recent check disclosed that close to 90% of all the newspaper advertising of the leading tire companies is being devoted to their second-quality tires. Why? Evidently to confuse the reader. The reader notes that the prices are the same as Riversides, and assumes that the quality is the same. But the nationally advertised tires offered at Riverside prices are not equal to Riversides in quality. Always compare QUALITIES as well as PRICES. The table at the right lists some of the best-known first-quality tires that compare with Riversides in quality. YOU compare the prices!

As an example of how you save —note the price on this popular size

Size 29 x 4.40/21 $4.95

And savings on other sizes are in proportion—Note the list at the right

EUBANKS RITES SET TODAY

SERVICES TO BE HELD AT RALLS FOR LOCAL ACCIDENT VICTIM

Funeral rites for Fletcher S. Eubanks, 32-year-old Lubbock auditor who was killed in an automobile accident early Thursday morning, were to be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the city auditorium at Ralls. Elder John T. Smith of Broadway Church of Christ here was to officiate. Burial was to be in Ralls cemetery.

Eubanks died when a Ford coupe which he was driving plunged over a 20-foot embankment on highway No. 9, two miles south of Monroe.

Part Of Underpass

The embankment was part of an underpass under construction by the state highway department, and when workmen returned to it about 7 o'clock Thursday morning they found Eubanks' body crushed under the steering wheel of the overturned car.

A verdict of death by accident was returned by Justice of the Peace H. K. Porter, who conducted an inquest.

Survivors Listed

Mr. Eubanks is survived by his wife, a 9-year-old daughter, Betty Jane, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Eubanks of Ralls, four sisters, Mrs. Velma Richardson of Catalina, Cal., Mrs. Alva Morrison, Covina, Cal., Mrs. Blanche Forbis, Ralls, and Mrs. Montie Farrington, Ralls, and one brother, U. B. Eubanks, who resides in California.

At the time of the accident, Mr. Eubanks was returning from Childress where he had been conducting an audit. He is a partner in Cormack and Eubanks, local auditing concern. He had lived in Lubbock six years, having come here from Plainview.

Following the inquest, a Bynum-Morgan ambulance was summoned and the body was brought to Lubbock.

Active pallbearers at the funeral were to be: Cliff Dean, T. B. Duggan jr., L. C. Ellis, K. T. Thomas, and W. A. Roberts.

Honorary pallbearers were to be: T. B. Duggan, sr., C. E. Maedgen, H. E. Cormack, John Hainey, France Baker, and John Denman.

American talkies are the most popular in Finland this season.

Stars Of Radioland

Not even twins look more alike than the three Boswell sisters, natives of N'Awlins. They've made records, played in vaudeville and motion pictures and now they're frequently heard on chain programs originating in San Francisco. Martha plays the accompaniments and sings as well, Connie is a genuine "blues" singer and Vet harmonizes and plays several instruments. Before they finished grade school these talented girls appared in concert as an instrumental trio, playing piano, cello and violin.

ELINOR SMITH THOUGHT TO HAVE SET A NEW ALTITUDE RECORD FOR WOMEN

NEW YORK, April 10 (AP)—A sealed instrument was sent to Washington today to determine if Miss Elinor Smith, 19, has the altitude record for women fliers.

Flying above Manhattan yesterday, the temperature 18 degrees below zero and "a small iceberg" around her chin, she watched the altimeter on the instrument board register 32,500 feet—slightly more than six miles. The present record of 28,418 feet, now only a month old, is held by Ruth Nichols. There's a second record of 30,453 feet for commercial planes that she also may have beaten. It's held by a man, George Haldeman.

Until Miss Nichols made her flight a month ago, Miss Smith held the altitude record for women as well as the record for endurance flying. Her mark surpassed, she waited two weeks and then took off from Roosevelt field to recapture her lost honors. At 25,000 feet she lost control of the plane, fell a long distance through the air, made a dangerous landing and escaped unhurt even though her ship turned over when it touched earth. It was the same plane in which she soared above the city yesterday, and she told about the experience in a radio talk last night.

"I climbed the ship slowly," she said. "It took me an hour to get 20,000 feet. I was monkeying with the mixture control to be sure that it was right this time. In doing that I let the motor get a little too cold, which was my fault.

"When I got to 25,500 feet one altimeter stopped, the other one just kept, seemingly in a steady climb. I was climbing the ship at about 80 miles an hour on the air speed, probably doing only about 70. When the one altimeter that was good showed 32,500 my gas was running low. I was up an hour and a half at that time.

"There wasn't much possibility of getting much higher and it was getting dark. I decided that I had better start down."

The plane glided down to the field in the dusk and Miss Smith clambered out of the cockpit and into the arms of her parents.

SIGNS YOU NEED BLACK-DRAUGHT

Good Way To Treat Common Complaints Mentioned By Two Southern Men.

Mr. Hubert Bailey, of 97 North Bradford Street, Gainesville, Ga., says that a few years ago he suffered from indigestion and heartburn. "My tongue would get coated, and I would have a bad taste in my mouth," writes Mr. Bailey. "I had gas pains.

"I knew I must take something to overcome this condition. My mother told me to try Black-Draught, which I did. After I had taken a few doses, I felt much better. The gas pains would stop, my mouth would feel clean and my food would taste much better. I know Black-Draught helped me."

"When I feel bloated, and have headache after meals," says Mr. George Chevalier, of Gulfport, Miss., "my method of taking Black-Draught is to take from a pinch to a level teaspoonful in my mouth, dry, and wash it down with about half a glassful of water, regulating the dose according to the situation by taking more or less, according to how I feel.

"I usually take a dose on going to bed, when needed, and am relieved next morning." SA 918
