Horrible Experiments On Americans Told

Woman Charged With Serving Livers Of U. S. Fliers With Liquor At Jap Lunch

(By The Associated Press)

TOKYO, Feb. 17.—A woman today was charged with serving American airmen's livers at a Japanese officers mess.

She is Shigako Tsutsui, former army nurse and the first Japanese woman slated for trial on war atrocity charges. She and 27 men co-defendants are accused of killing eight B-29 fliers in medical experiments.

Five of the men, who allegedly ate the livers served with liquor, are charged with cannibalism.

U. S. Eighth Army prosecutors said the stolid woman defendant made all arrangements for horrible experiments on the Americans. The charges included cutting open the heart of one—while he still lived—and attempting to stitch it up again. The fliers have not been named.

Allied hearquarters said the experiments occurred in Kyushu Imperial university's medical school at Fukuoka.

It charged that livers of the fliers were served at a special lunch for army officers and hospital surgeons—and that the diners were fully aware of what they were eating.

BRONX VOTE THIRD PARTY TEST

Wallace Candidate Is Demo Opponent

(By The Associated Press)

New York City voters give Henry A. Wallace his first trial run today as a threat to Democratic victory chances in 1948.

A special election to choose a congressman from the Bronx provides the test.

A third party presidential candidate backed Leo Isacson of the American Labor party against Democrat Karl Propper. The 24th district is normally Democratic and Propper was expected to win.

May Cut Into Total

The question was whether Isacson with Wallace's help, could cut into the Democratic vote total.

In 1946 Benjamin J. Rabin, a Democrat, was elected from the district with 46 per cent of the vote. The American Labor candidate received 27 per cent that year, the Republican 19 and the liberal party candidate 9.5.

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, whose husband put Wallace into the cabinet and the vice presidency, came out for Propper.

During the campaign Mayor O'Dwyer invited Wallace back into the Democratic party.

Meanwhile maneuvering between the party and its southern branch over the touchy civil rights issue took a new turn.

Georgians who had intended to hear a speech from National Chairman McGrath in Atlanta March 5 changed the date of the rally to March 9. McGrath cancelled his trip.

Negro Facing Arson Charge

A charge of attempted arson has been filed against a negro woman, Jackie Leola Carroll, 34, in connection with a fire Monday at 1819 East Ave. B, the district attorney's office announced this morning.

The complaining witness, Calvin Quigley, a negro, accused the woman of setting fire to a "quantity of paper and other highly combustible material" in the residence, which he owns.

Is In City Jail

The woman is in city jail in connection with another charge, vagrancy by prostitution. She is charged in connection with police arrests of three white men, who were charged with associating with prostitutes.

City firemen extinguished a fire at the Ave. B address at 6:37 p. m. Sunday, they said.

The complaint was prepared by E. G. Pharr, assistant district attorney.

Man Is Treated

Police said they were investigating further the case of O. B. Brown, who was rushed to Lubbock Memorial hospital at 10:20 p. m. Monday after he had been beaten.

Plains Domestic Water Supply "Plentiful"

Expert Offers Assurance Of No Shortage

Official Refutes Misinformation On Area's Resources

By H. I. KIEFER
Journal Staff Writer

Lubbock and other High Plains localities have no need to fear "in the foreseeable future" that they will be unable to get all the water they require for domestic uses from wells.

This assurance was given this morning by W. L. Broadhurst, of Austin, chief of the ground water division of the U. S. Geological survey in Texas, to about 50 Lubbock civic leaders at a meeting in the Lubbock hotel.

May Face Problem

The outlook is less encouraging for irrigation wells, he said. If expansion should continue at the pace of the past two years, some areas—including Lubbock county—may face a problem of depleted underground supplies within the next five years, he asserted.

In Lubbock county, he added, the number of irrigation wells increased from 100 in 1937 to 590 in 1945 and to 1,234 in November, 1947. The increase for the last two-year period reported was 744 wells.

In the High Plains as a whole, which are bounded on the north by the Canadian river, on the west by the Pecos river and the east and south by the edge of the Caprock, the number of irrigation wells increased from about 4,300 in 1945 to 7,500 in 1947, he said.

Suggests Partial Answer

A partial answer to the irrigation problem, he suggested, may be a better spacing of wells and more efficient use of the water produced.

The problem for towns and cities was described as different from that of irrigation because communities seeking domestic water supplies can reach out, when necessary, to underground water sands in areas not susceptible to irrigated farming.

Broadhurst's report both as to prospects for domestic and irrigation uses was declared by S. L. Forrest, chairman of the city water resources board, who presided, to be a complete refutation of misinformation about High Plains water supplies which has been circulated recently.

Was Limited To City

It was because of this misinformation, he said, that Broadhurst was invited to Lubbock for

Foreign Relief Bill Approved

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17. (AP)—The Senate foreign relations committee today formally approved 13 to 0, a four-year European recovery program to be started with $5,300,000,000 for the first year.

It decided that $3,000,000,000 of this sum should be financed from the 1948 budget surplus.

Has Practical Aspects

That is largely a bookkeeping matter but it has certain practical aspects in this political election year.

Here is what it means:

$3,000,000,000 would be appropriated now for a program beginning April 1 and be charged against the government's bookkeeping for the year ending next July 1. But most of the money would not be spent until after July 1.

Republicans have been talking strong about cutting down President Truman's nearly $40,000,000,000 budget for the new fiscal year bgeinning July 1.

Must Balance Budgets

The committee also wrote into the bill a statement that nations getting aid must balance their budgets as soon as practicable. This was proposed by Senator Connally (D-Tex).

Vandenburg said that the bill, as now approved by the committee, will be taken up for debate by the Senate March 1.

The House is expected to wait until the Senate acts. Over there, Rep. Eaton (R-NJ) said he will accept a cut-down Marshall plan if that is the only way to get it through Congress.

"Blood Bath" For Japan Is Forecast

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17 (U.P.)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur advised the Senate today that Japan will undergo a "blood bath of revolutionary violence" unless occupation forces break up the concentration of economic power in that country.

MacArthur's warning was contained in a letter to Sen. Brien McMahon, D., Conn., who read it to the Senate. McMahon had asked MacArthur to comment on recent protests of Sen. William F. Knowland, R., Cal., over "socialization" policies in Japan.

Twelve Injured As Bridge Collapses

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Feb. 17 (AP)—Twelve persons were hospitalized after a pedestrian bridge collapsed last night and dumped 30 persons into flood-swollen First creek.

A 30-foot section of the bridge gave way under the combined weight of some 60 persons who had gathered to stare at an automobile which had plunged from a parallel traffic bridge.

Only 30 of the group, however, actually fell the 10 feet to the creek bank or around 30 feet into the stream itself. In addition to the 12 hospitalized six others were treated for minor scratches.

Selling Burst Hits Chicago Wheat Trade

Other Commodities Join Downturn As Recovery Falters

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Feb. 17—A burst of selling hit the Chicago wheat market midway in today's session, sending wheat 3½ cents below Monday's close.

All commodity markets joined in the down turn after making a stab at recovery during the forenoon.

Grand Union Chain Stores in New York began marking up prices on some meats. Porterhouse and sirloin steaks, which dropped to 63 cents a pound last week, were marked at 73 cents today.

May corn contracts at Chicago were up almost a cent, but other deliveries were down. Oats were down slightly.

Soybeans Are Up

Soybeans, however, maintained an earlier advance of 8 cents, the daily limit.

Cotton prices were down as much as $1.50 a bale in the New York futures market.

Stock prices were mixed on the New York exchange in a light market.

Wholesale butter prices advanced 3 to 4 cents a pound at New York, wiping out the unusually sharp declines of last Friday.

Rally On Monday

A reduction of 1.2 cent a pound was announced in linseed oil prices.

The irregularity followed yesterday's rally, one of the strongest since the price break began almost two weeks ago.

Meanwhile, economists tossed a wet blanket on consumers' hopes for further price cuts in meat.

The meat price dips probably will be short-lived, said Agriculture department economists in Washington.

Meat animals on farms are decreasing, they added, and consumer demand is expected to continue high.

Stores Cut Prices

The warning coincided, however, with an announcement by the New York division of Safeway Stores, Inc., that it was reducing prices on 105 meat items from two to 10 cents beginning this morning.

The consumer meanwhile faced price gains on other fronts.

Price boosts were ordered by Jones and Laughlin Steel corporation and the National Supply company, but they won't be felt by the consumer quickly.

Compromise On Rent Law Seen

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17. (AP)—The Senate banking committee unanimously favors extending rent controls 14 months with some changes.

The House banking committee has voted 18 to 5 to continue the existing law "as is" for one month. It would decide later about a longer extension and any changes.

Rent Hike Studied

But members of both committees predicted today the House and the Senate will get together on one of the two proposals—or a compromise—by February 29. The present law expires then.

The Senate committee voted 13 to 9 late yesterday for continuing controls through April 30, 1949.

Its bill would permit rent increases up to 15 per cent where tenants and landlords agreed of a lease running through 1949. The present law, up to the start of this year, allowed increases of the same amount in return for a lease good through 1948.

Tenants who already have agreed to a 15 per cent rent boost could not be charged another one, said Senator Cain (R-Wash), chairman of a banking subcommittee on rents.

Here is Cain's explanation of how the new law would work on those points:

Other Provisions

In the case of tenants who accepted rent increases for leases running through 1948, their present rents would be "frozen" when those leases expire December 31. This "freeze" would remain in effect through April 30, 1949—the expiration date of the proposed new law.

Rent control then would end for all tenants who signed leases under the expiring law.

For those who signed leases under the new law, that is, after Feb. 29, 1948, there could be no further increase until Jan. 1, 1950.

Ohio River Moves Near Flood Stage

Red Cross, Army Engineers Mobilize To Combat Menace Of Melting Snow And Ice

(By The United Press)

The Ohio river swelled toward flood stage today and Red Cross officials at Cincinnati, O., asked eastern headquarters for 1,000 cots to accommodate residents who might be forced from their homes along the river.

The mighty stream was rising toward an expected crest of 55 feet at Cincinnati. That is three feet above flood stage. It was expected to hit flood levels at 7 a. m. today and crest 24 hours later.

Some persons already had left their homes in the lowest sections of Cincinnati but army engineers said they did not expect a serious emergency to develop. They said they were keeping a careful watch on the situation.

The flood stages were caused by the sudden warmth that enveloped most of the nation, melting snow and ice and jamming tributaries of the Ohio with runoff waters.

Most of the danger was downstream from Cincinnati.

A flood wall was thrown up at Newport, Ky., but engineers warned residents that it could not protect them.

Robert Edson of the Red Cross regional office at St. Louis, said he was keeping "tight liaison" with army engineers in case an emergency arose in the Little Egypt section of Illinois.

Engineers and disaster workers were fearful that rain might add to the tumbling water filling streams throughout Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky and Pennsylvania.

However, R. W. Brunk, forecaster at the Chicago weather bureau, said no precipitation was in sight "as far as we can forecast" for the Ohio valley.

NAVAL PARTY ENDS IN TRAGEDY

Seamen Lost When Launch Overturns

(By The Associated Press)

HYERES, France, Feb. 17.—An officer and seven men of the U. S. aircraft carrier Midway are unaccounted for in the swamping of a liberty launch off the Rivera today, a French police official said.

The official, from the prefecture of nearby Toulon, said no bodies had been recovered. He said the officers of the carrier did not know whether the men drowned or merely failed to report back from shore leave.

Toll Unknown

The French press agency earlier said 15 bodies had been recovered. The Toulon official said he believed his version was more exact. The official added that the sea was very rough when the sailors were returning in the early morning hours from a party ashore.

(In London, the U. S. Navy said eight men were "unaccounted for" in figures still subject to revision. This report was sent by Vice-Adm. Forrest P. Sherman, commander of U. S. naval forces in the Mediterranean, to Adm. Richard L. Conally, commander in chief of U. S. naval forces in the eastern Atlantic and Mediterranean. Conally's headquarters are in London.)

The accident occurred as the sailors were returning from a Riviera party to their ship, anchored near one of the Hyeres islands off the southern coast of France, midway between Marseille and Cannes. Hyeres is 10 miles east of Toulon.

The French news agency earlier said 40 men were missing after the launch went down.

Roll Call Conducted

Officers are conducting a roll call aboard the Midway, which has a complement of 3,500 men, to determine definitely how many are missing.

A new evening junior college for negroes was authorized last night by trustees of Amarillo college.

The school, as yet unnamed and unstaffed, will accept students from the Amarillo school district exclusively.

Dr. A. M. Meyer, president of Amarillo college, was instructed to accept applications from negro students for enrollment in the college.

Four negro students earlier had asked for admission to evening classes at Amarillo college.

The negroes did not ask for admission to white classes but instead asked that classes for negroes be established.

One Week Can Make A Lot Of Difference

Old Sol And Old Man Texas Warm Up To Each Other After Last Week's Icy Spat

(By The Associated Press)

What a difference one week can make . . . especially in Texas weather.

It was only last Tuesday that the worst blizzard in years hit the Panhandle, remember?

But since then Old Sol and Old Man Texas have done a lot of warming up to each other.

Everywhere except along the coastal country a bright sun beamed down today. And temperatures were comparatively mild, Lubbock with 27 and Clarendon with 31 reporting the only sub-freezing reading. At Brownsville the low was 64.

No rain fell anywhere in the state.

Yesterday's maximum ranged from 60 at Amarillo to 82 at Brady and Fredericksburg.

The forecast for the next 24 hours was for fair to partly cloudy skies and not much change in temperature.

Consolidation Of Schools Approved

Formal consolidation of grade schools at Idalou and Liberty community was approved unanimously by voters in the two districts last Saturday, it was announced yesterday by Roy Boyd, county superintendent after check of the ballots.

The vote was light, only three marking ballots at Idalou and 13 at Liberty, all favoring the consolidation. The two high schools had been consolidated since 1936.

The Saturday election involved only grade schools, which by mutual agreement had been jointly operated at Idalou for some time, and the election actually was only a formality to confirm to legal requirements, Boyd said.

Schools Told To Borrow To Pay Teachers

Top Priority Will Be Given Issue At Regular Session

(By The United Press)

AUSTIN, Feb. 17.—Gov. Beauford H. Jester assured the joint legislative committee today he will mark a $3,000,000 appropriation in aid for rural schools as an emergency issue before the 51st legislature but will not call a special session.

The committee of lawmakers in a resolution adopted unanimously yesterday stamped the need for additional funds as "of sufficient importance" to call the legislature into special session.

Shares Their Feeling

Jester said he told the committee, which called on him this morning, that he "shared their feeling," that the state's obligation to the teacher be paid in full.

He added that "if I were governor here in 1949 I would submit it as emergency legislation in the first 60 days." Jester's present term will overlap the opening of the 51st session next January.

The governor said there is a way by which the teachers may be paid retroactive salary by the next legislature for deficiencies in the present school term, and said he was studying the problem.

Evidence Of Good Faith

He added he realized "as a matter of practicality" that labeling the appropriation as an emergency to the legislature will "enable school trustees to go to their banks with evidence of good faith" and be able to pay their teachers.

Jester reported that the joint legislative committee was "satisfied" with his decision not to call a special session.

He said the legislators "did not intend" their resolution asking Jester to give his "most serious consideration" to pleas for a special session as a "recommendation."

Governor Is Hopeful

The governor said he was "hopeful this will solve their situation." He hoped the "teachers could get their pay, and in no wise impair the effectiveness of the school system."

Asked whether there still would be some teachers who would not get their full pay, Jester answered that there "might be."

The special session was recommended by the joint legislature committee.

It took the committee less than 15 minutes to determine that the request should be carried to the governor.

Truman Urges Price Battle

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17. (U.P.)—President Truman today called on women to us their "power of the consumer" to fight high prices.

The President spoke at the opening meeting of a national conference of women's organizations sponsored by the Women's Bureau of the Labor department. He went to the departmental auditorium to deliver his message.

"A Ready Weapon"

After surveying accomplishments of women in recent decades, the President said their organizations had at hand "a ready weapon"—"the power of the consumer"—which had not been used to its full effectiveness.

"It has been said over and over again that women control the bulk of the nation's wealth;" he said, "they certainly channel its day-to-day spending for food, for clothing, for education, for all the things that make for better living."

Urged To Go All-Out

Then the President urged American women to go all-out in the fight against inflation by using their power as consumers.

"This is a weapon which you can use together" he said, "to combat one of the enemies that now threaten us—the high cost of living."

The President also asked leaders of women's organizaitons to make it their "special responsibility" to work for peace and against low living standards.

TEHACHAPI, Cal., Feb. 17 (U.P.)—Mrs. Annie Irene Mansfeldt will be paroled from women's prison today after serving two years and one month for killing her husband's girl friend.

Mrs. Mansfeldt, now 48, was sentenced to one to 10 years in 1946 when she was found guilty in San Francisco of manslaughter for slaying Nurse Vada Martin, 36, whom she suspected of stealing the love of Dr. Mansfeldt. He committed suicide.

The prison board, which set her sentence at seven years, unanimously voted a parole Jan. 28.

"Her conduct was such that we felt she ha dearned her parole," felt she had earned her parole."

Mrs. Mansfeldt had no comment then.

"I hope after I get out I can start repaying my three children for what has happened," she said after the trial.

WANTED HEARING AID REPRESENTATIVES

OPPORTUNITY TO OWN YOUR OWN BUSINESS

The hearing aid business is one of the fastest growing semi-professional activities in the country today. It not only offers a substantial income to above average men and women, but its humanitarian aspect provides a deeply satisfactory type of occupation in a field where age is an asset rather than a handicap.

Dictograph Products, Inc., manufacturer of ACOUSTICON, the first electrical hearing aid, has been a leader in this field for over 45 years. The rapid growth of business has made it necessary to more than double our staff of representatives in the past two years. Still more are needed to handle the business available today, a condition brought about by an almost sensational public acceptance and demand for better hearing on the part of those who are hard of hearing.

We need dealers and acousticians today. This may be the very work you have wanted to place you in a position of economic security and vocational happiness. We are interested only in men and women who want to earn in excess of $5000.00 a year. For further information . . . . .

Reds Establish Puppet Regime In Korea As Annexation Move

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press Staff Writer

A week ago your columnist expressed the view that Russia already had to all intents annexed the northern half of Korea—and we now can say: "I told you so."

A high American official of the southern zone, which is occupied by U. S. forces, says a Russian puppet government has been established in the North. The nature of this regime is made clear in a radio broadcast from Soviet occupation headquarters. This announces creation of a "North Korean Peoples army," and a constitution which would establish "the Democratic Peoples Republic of Korea."

A Unilateral Move

Now of course there hasn't been any formal annexation. However, the fact remains that Moscow has brought northern Korea under its absolute domination just as has happened to the small countries of eastern Europe.

The establishment of this Communist government is purely a unilateral action by Russia. The Russians wouldn't even permit the commission to visit the north, which long has been sealed off by the Reds.

The American source in southern Korea says there is ample information that an army estimated at 200,000 North Koreans has been equipped with Russian materiels, including tanks and light planes. He adds that creation of the puppet government has revived speculation among American army officers that the Russians may suddenly withdraw their occupation troops. The idea of such a move, he asserts, would be to force the withdrawal of U. S. troops from the southern zone.

Familiar Pattern

And what would be the idea of forcing the Americans out of the south? Well, the American official doesn't tell us that but maybe he figures it is self-evident. The answer most certainly is that the moment the U. S. troops were withdrawn the new Red Korean army would sweep down from the north and try to compel the southerners to unite with the Soviet government of the north.

Soviet methods run in a groove, and we have had plenty of demonstrations in Europe. Russia clearly intends to rule all Korea if she can.

Korea's geographical position makes it one of the most valuable military bases in the Orient, both for defense and offense. It is a "dagger pointed at the heart of Japan"; it lies up against Manchuria, which many observers believe Moscow intends to add to Russia's zone of domination, and it even touches Russian Siberia not far from the big Soviet naval port of Vladivostok.

IN THE DEEP BLUE SEA

Contrary to what we believed as children, if we dug straight down from the United States, we wouldn't come out in China, but in the Indian ocean, west of Australia.

Memorial Rites Held By Legion Auxiliary

The women's auxiliary of the American Legion held a meeting last night at the Legion hall at which memorial services were conducted for Mrs. A. H. Maas, who was killed some time ago in an automobile accident. Mrs. J. O. Cade and Mrs. L. L. Stroud had charge of the services, music was by Miss Irma Hughes and a solo was given by Bobby Hughes.

The Maas family and relatives attended.

The Auxiliary will sponsor an essay contest for the junior and senior high schools in which the subject will be 'Our Great American Heritage: Liberty.' The members also voted a donation for heart research association.

New members introduced included Mrs. Robert Porter, Mrs. J. R. Eagan, and Mrs. Thelma Drake. Visitors included Mrs. L. G. Pitts, Muleshoe.

Saturday night the auxiliary held a 42 party sponsored by the finance committee, composed of Mrs. Fred Kincaide, Mrs. Marvin McLarty, and Mrs. R. J. Watson. Miss Irma Hughes won the door prize, Mrs. Walter Davies was high score for women, and H. J. Kendrick for the men.

Mrs. H. J. Kendrick, president of the unit, and the finance committee expressed their appreciation for the support given the occasion.

Rice Owls To Play Raiders In Lubbock

HOUSTON, Feb. 17. (AP)—The Rice Owl football team will play Texas Tech in Lubbock in 1948 for the first time in athletic relations between the two schools, according to announcement from Athletic Director and Head Coach Jess Neely here today.

The game will be played October 30. Its site was decided when Baylor agreed to play Rice here on November 27, instead of in Waco. That means that six home games will be played by the Owls.

Although only 11 per cent of U. S. farms had electricity in 1935, more than 61 per cent have electricity today.

Several years ago, recognizing that interest rates were falling and that more than normal fluctuations of economic conditions might be expected, the Company began setting aside a portion of earnings to provide a fund to preserve the integrity of Southwestern Life's obligations under all conditions. Even though interest rates may rise somewhat in the future and economic conditions become less likely to produce adverse fluctuations, contingency funds will still be maintained to add a comforting measure of strength to the policy reserves required by law. During the year $531,293.88 was added to the contingency funds, bringing the total to $6,098,999.60.

MARY HAWORTH'S MAIL . . .

Two Mothers Who Are Close Neighbors, Friends Disagree Over Policy Of Children Fighting

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I have two children, a son aged six and a daughter who is three and-a-half. My neighbor (and best friend) has two daughters, one almost six and the other 10.

We disagree on this point: I have taught my son to fight his own battles, to hit back if someone hits him; while she says that children should not fight.

For instance, my son loves to tease or hit children, just because he is a boy and that is a boy's temperament. Sometimes the other child hits first and sometimes mine hits first. Sometimes he gets the worst of it and sometimes the best of it.

But if he comes home crying I don't commiserate and I never interfere at any time. I just say "Don't bother me; fight your own battles." Of course I don't mean there have been any black eyes or real injuries; just minor things.

MALE SEX IS ROUGH, BOY'S MOTHER SAYS

MY neighbor feels different. When her daughter, 6, comes in crying that my son has struck her, she gets upset and says I should punish my son or tell him to leave her daughter alone. I tell her she should leave her daughter alone and let the children fight their own battles.

My feeling is that children are friends one minute and arguing the next. I tell her boys are rougher than girls by nature, no matter how hard you try to teach them to be good. She hasn't a son so she doesn't know that boys and girls are different and she can't see my point. I don't have these disputes with mothers of sons.

She tells me her husband says their children are always getting hit by other children and she is getting sick of it; and I tell her to teach her children to fight back and not just stand there and take it. Sometimes when my son hits her six-year-old, the big girl defends her sister, but I don't get angry when they fight. He seems to do all right, so I don't bother.

Don't you agree that boys are naturally rougher than girls? As I have one of each, surely I know better than she does. Please give us your opinion. We read your column every day and will be waiting. (Signed) S. J.

IS SHE TRANING ANOTHER TARZAN?

DEAR S. J.: If your son were another Tarzan, consigned by fate to grow up in the jungle with wild monkeys for companions, there might be some justification for the dog-eat-dog philisophy of life you are foisting on him.

But the fact is, he is growing up in a presumably civilized Christian environment, and in the natural course of human events it is to be expected that he will marry. And in such case, it is to be hoped that he will be something better than brute-male in relation to wife and children—who can't weigh in on even terms in knock-down-drag-out fights.

However, the sad truth is, he will be a bully by habit-reflex, a calloused stranger to those rational sensibilities which differentiate man from hairy ape, if radical improvements in his social training aren't soon made by his parents.

BELLIGERENT BOY NEEDS TENDERNESS

THE natural difference in boys and girls is biological as to physical structure and procreative function. On the score of feeling they are much the same as to instincts, urges and needs. So-called temperamental differences between one individual and another are established by conditioning after birth—by handling, example and preachment.

A man may be "gentle as a woman"—Jake Lincoln, for example. Or concersely, a woman may be an Amazon, a battle-axe, the aggressive warrior-type. It all depends on the authoritative human influences which molded their experiences and "set their emotional patterns in the first years of life.

Your son's tough-guy baiting of other children signifies many things, including vagrant hostility at receiving so little really tender mother-interest and mother-care. But above all it reflects your insistence that he be tough, just as the pacifist behavior of the girls next door reflects their mother's requirement of them.

By the way, though you never referee your son's mauler-assaults on these girls, because he seems to make out all right, what would you do if he used little sister as a punching bag? Or if some bigger boy started knocking the stars out of him day by day? Would you hold it none of your business or would you move in? Think it over. In my opinion, your neighbor has a legitimate grievance here.

ARABS HOLD NBC CORRESPONDENT

American Told To Leave Arab Area

(By The Associated Press)

JERUSALEM, Feb. 17.—A National Broadcasting company correspondent said today he was arrested and tried yesterday by an Arab national guard court in Jerusalem.

Don Peretz of Sunnyside, N. Y., said in a story published by the Palestine Post today that he was freed "on condition that I never set foot in an Arab area again."

Arrested By Guard

Peretz, an American Jew, gave this account of his experience:

"I was arrested by the Arab national guard while going to the Jewish section of the city from the Y. M. C. A. I was halted by a group of armed Arabs who requested my identity card. Upon showing them my N. B. C. card and U. S. army discharge papers, I was told they were inadequate, and my American passport was demanded. I did not have this with me . . .

"A cab was called and I was warned to remove my American hat lest I be shot while entering the cab. My captors said as we drove through the Jaffa gate into the old city: 'You are now in Arab territory. The English have nothing to say here'."

Peretz wrote he was taken into a room under heavy guard and brought before the Jerusalem commander of the Arab national guard. A priest acted as interpreter.

Gets Ultimatum

"One of the first questions was: Are you Jewish? I replied, yes, I am an American Jew. It was then I began to be afraid . . .

"I was assured by the priest: 'We do not kill Jews because they are Jews. We have let many of them go free'."

After being asked many questions, Peretz said he was taken to another room while his case was being decided, and then:

"After a few minutes I was brought back into the court. The priest smiled at me and I felt that all would be well. I was told: 'You are very fortunate, for we are letting you go. You are not to enter Arab territory again.'

"I was asked to sign a statement saying I had been well and fairly treated, and a photograph was taken from me and attached to the statement."

Arabs Courteous

Peretz said he was returned to the taxi and "as we left Jaffa gate we were stopped by an armed mob which tried to enter the cab. Later the young area commander said: 'I held them off by telling them I had orders from above to take you elsewhere to kill you. These people have no patience at all for Jews . . .'."

Peretz said he was let out of the cab at the gate of the security zone, and required to pay for the cab. The Arabs, however, bought him coffee and then shook hands with him.

False Charges Laid To Reds

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17 (U.P.)—Army officials today branded as false the Russian charges that the Western Allies delayed opening of a second front in Europe in order to "bleed the Soviets white."

They said the lack of sufficient troops and landing craft were the real reasons why the cross-channel invasion did not take place until June 6, 1944.

Delayed Second Front

The Russian charges were made in the latest installment of Moscow's propaganda attack on American and British policies. The statement said the Western Allies promised a second front in 1942 or 1943 but delayed it so continued Russian losses would prevent the Soviets from emerging as a great power after the war.

In reply, U. S. Army officers pointed to the final reports of Gen. George C. Marshall, wartime chief of staff, and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, who led the cross-channel invasion.

Get Welcome Relief From Stomach Gas, Sour Food Taste

Do you feel bloated and miserable after every meal? If so, here is how you may rid yourself of this nervous distress. Thousands have found it the way to be well, cheerful and happy again.

Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia,—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red-blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Between . . . The Lines

— By JOE KELLY —

FORT WORTH, Feb. 17.—One thing is certain: Both Bill Henderson and J. D. Kirkpatrick commanded the respect of all fighters and coaches here for the 12th annual Texas Golden Gloves tournament Moreover, the Lubbock team of six fighters drew respect for their fine condition, their training and their behavior. Hotel officials said that they were the quietest, nicest group in the hotel, while Golden Gloves officials never experienced any trouble whatsoever.

One thing that drew the respect of officials was Bert Kahn's answer to Nichols of the Dallas Athletic club, after Jack Woodruff had been given the decision over Earl Pollard. Nichols allegedly said that it was a rotten decision, that Pollard had won. Bert replied that the judges made the decision and that they determined the winner. George White of the Dallas News apparently got a bum steer and quoted Bert as saying that the decision had been just, which he emphatically did not say.

The Lubbock boys have given a good account of themselves and losing certainly didn't lower their prestige or ability. Lonnie Balch fought the defending champion, Tommy Barron, who hit like a mule. The greatest interest was in the Blankenship-Barron fight and the bout between the winner and Herbie May of Houston. This was billed as the leading go. Earl Pollard, Frank Telles and Gene James all were decisioned in good fights and, with just a little bit more, might have won easily. They are all good bets for next year.

A lot of outside support poured into Fort Worth for the two Lubbock boys for Monday night's fights. Bill Henderson's father, Thad Henderson of Levalland, came in Monday morning, while Mrs. J. D. Kirkpatrick arrived in the afternoon. Loren Reecer of Lockney was in town for the fights and pulling for the Lubbock team. Dr. Clyde Craig and sportswriter Bob Cone couldn't make it, but the support mentally was here. Both remaining Lubbock team fighters received telegrams and letters from Texas Tech students and other friends wishing them luck.

Fort Worth Briefs: Bill Henderson doesn't like his first name, which begins with a "J," but his father needled him a little by revealing it. He's one of the finest gentlemen in the ring and even more so outside of it . . . Former middleweight contender, Buddy Morgan, was impressed by Kirkpatrick . . . He thought no man could knock Williams down, let alone out . . . J. D. has the heart of a fighter.

Lots of former GG winners were here for the fights, some of them with teams . . . The list of old titlists included Carl Hilger, Art Dorrell, who served with John Garfield in the fight picture, "Body and Soul," Tom Attra, one of the greats here, Hubert Gray, Marvin Bryant, Olcutt Phillips, serving as a judge and well known in Lubbock, Harry Flowers, Presley Darnell, Cotton Gunter and John Morrow . . . Frank Bridges, the baseball scout, has enough stories to keep the sportswriters in stitches for hours and he never tires of holding forth . . . Neither does Eric Pohl, the A. A. U. chairman from Santone.

More requests for tickets for Monday night than there would be seats in a week of fighting . . . Saturday night was the first night that the spectators really poured out . . . Among those peering over the sportswriters for information is Helen Holloman. She's an ardent bowling, boxing, golfing and ice hockey fan living in Fort Worth. Helen is one of many women spectators taking in the fights . . . The home of T. C. U. has been mighty quiet, despite the fights, with most of the activity being confined to the gorgeous coliseum and the hotels. A tender thought is what a coliseum like this one would do for Lubbock . . . And, while we're only thinking, the possibility of having LaVern Roach fight in Lubbock is also a pleasant thought . . . Home Tuesday and the thought of Lubbock really sounds good. Fort Worth is nice, but we're more than slightly partial to the Hub city.

Lucky Blow Stops Kirk, But Bill Henderson Wins

By Staff Writer

WILL ROGERS COLISEUM, FORT WORTH, Feb. 17—The fight which South Plains fans discussed for weeks as the "natural" of this 12th annual state Golden Gloves tournament failed to materialize here last night because a fighter in trouble let fly with a gambling right which opened a slight cut and disqualified his opponent.

The third round blow eliminated J. D. Kirkpatrick in the semi-finals of the light heavyweight division, and left only Bill Henderson to continue from an original Lubbock team of six to go on to win a state championship.

Adams Wins Through

And the fighter South Plains fans knew J. D. Kirkpatrick would meet in the light heavyweight division's final bout for the championship, Tom Adams of Brownfield, won all the way to join Henderson as the only two South Plains fighters to take state titles.

Both, Henderson in the featherweight division, and Adams in the light heavyweight, were defending champions.

So, today it is as it was last year. Henderson and Adams will go to Chicago and the national tournament. But last year they went as Lubbock team mates.

And today it is just as it was last year with the fighting Kirkpatricks. J. D. received a punch over a kidney which disqualified him. His brother, Howard, fighting as a middleweight in the state tournament, got a cut over an eye then which disqualified him, giving his opponent the fight on a technical knockout.

Henderson Gets TKO

In last night's fighting Henderson came through with plenty of poise and punching ability in the semi-finals to get a TKO over Mandy Leal of Corpus Christi in the second round.

Then in the finals, and with his title at stake, Battering Bill put on a beautiful boxing exhibition to outpoint Valentino Luna of Austin before a crowd of 9,407 fans, the largest in the history of the tournament.

Adams scored his first knockout of the tournament in the second round of his first fight of the evening as he leveled John Willingham of Stephenville.

In his final fight, the title clincher, the Brownfield boy, who fought this year with the Abilene team, had his hands full, decisioning Sgt. Hugh Garland of Fort Worth, the man whose lucky jab started the blood flowing from Kirkpatrick's left eye lid.

Had Big Advantage

Kirkpatrick obviously held a heavy advantage over the Army sergeant when the glancing right started the blood flowing. The Petersburg Puncher protested, but the referee gave the fight to the Army man on a TKO.

Dallas won the team victory with 20 points, Beaumont finished second with 13 and Amarillo finished third with 11. Lubbock garnered only nine points.

Other championship winners were:

Bantamweight — Leon Palacio, Amarillo.

Lightweight—George Easterling, Beaumont.

Welterweight — Eugene Cooper, Amarillo.

Middleweight—Morris Milburn, Fort Worth.

Heavyweight — Charles Simmons, Dallas.

Simmons-Worley Bout Tracks Recent Louis-Walcott Fiasco

BY WERNER RENBERG
United Press Sports Writer

FORT WORTH, Feb. 17 — Remember the Louis-Walcott farce?

Well, sir, last night they staged a mellerdrama at the state Golden Gloves tourney that brought to mind the fiasco put on by the two Joes of the pros.

It all happened in the semi-finals of the gilded mittens classic. Charlie Simmons, defending heavyweight champion who later in the night retained his crown for the third successive time, this time with a TKO, took the part of Joe Louis, the world heavyweight champ. And strawberry-topped Bill Worley of San Angelo stepped into the shoes of challenger Jersey Joe Walcott.

Simmons, smiling from ear to ear, jumped over the ropes in his green robe. The cocky champ. Worley carefully walked to his corner, cautious all the time. Bong. The first round opened. And whaddya know? Worley, a guy who wasn't supposed to have much of a chance against the champion, started banging away with all that was in him.

He carried the fight to Simmons, just as Walcott did to Louis. But Simmons kept smiling. Ouch! A blistering right to Simmons' kisser. The smile vanished for a blushing second. Then it creeped back. Worley kept punching, jabbing, slugging away while Simmons brushed gloves off his chubby frame.

This kept up for the first two rounds. Dallas fans were sitting on more pins and needles than there could be in a haystack, worrying about how the points were being totaled.

"Cum on Charlie, let 'im have it."

"What are yeh waitin' for?"

Continue Swapping Punches

Cocky Chuck and beltin' Billy continued trading punches. Occasionally, the San Angelo challenger got an edge in the infighting. Then it came. Bong. The three rounds were up.

Who won?

Silence swallowed the huge Will Rogers Memorial coliseum. Mouths sagged. Ears were eager. Then the loudspeaker boomed the result:

"The winnah . . . Simmons."

The joint began to be carried sky-ward by a flood of boos. Everyone thought sure that Worley had scored an upset. But that ain't the way the judges and referee figured it. They thought the grinning champ with the you-know-what toothpaste smile was the better of the two.

Billy and Charlie embraced each other. Their clumsy mitts slapped each others' backs.

May Try For Pro Crown

"Good fight," they echoed. And it was all over — except the booing.

Not only did the Dallas darling resemble the Brown Bomber in winning a decision unpopular with the crowd, but guess what!

They say Simmons has a secret ambition of turning pro after the national Golden Gloves tourney and trying to get a chance at Louis' shaky crown.

Where does one get a first aid kit? Or how does one change the mind of a champion?

Florida Heat Slows LaVern Roach Drills

Florida's hot weather posed somewhat of a training problem for LaVern Roach today as he readied himself for a 10-rounder in Miami Beach with Al Thornton Thursday night.

In letter to friends here Roach, who meets Marcel Cerdan, the European middleweight champion, in Madison Square garden March 12, said he didn't anticipate such hot weather in Florida, and was having to go through quick adjustment.

Thornton is from Rochester, Pa., and Roach, while meeting him in Miami Beach as a tune up for the Cerdan fight, considers the Pennsylvania middleweight "tough."

The Plainview boy, who defeated Tony Janiro in his first bid to Madison Square garden fame several weeks ago, and as a result drew the nod to meet Cerdan, has been in Florida for several days.

Lubbock High Grid Co-Captains Named

Donald Decker and Jack Bryant, Lubbock High school juniors, were elected as co-captains of the 1948 Westerner football squad at a Monday afternoon meeting of grid lettermen, Head Coach C. R. (Pat) Pattison revealed last night.

Decker, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Decker of 2703 Twenty-fourth, was a backfield regular on the '47 eleven. Bryant, 17, of 2618 First, was a regular tackle on last year's team and was voted a berth on the second team of the All-District 1-AA selections.

Since the Texas Interscholastic league has banned spring football practice, the boys will not assume their duties until grid drills are opened Aug. 15.

Four Class A Quints See Action Tonight

A district championship and second place in a zone race are at stake tonight as four strong South Plains Class A cage teams go afloor on two basketball floors.

Ralls High school's Jackrabbits are one triumph away from their first District 3-A cage title in 10 years. Only Matador high's Matadors, whom they meet Tuesday night in Ralls, stand between them and the trip to Canyon and the regional tourney as district titlists.

Here in Lubbock at Tech gym two sharpshooting District 4-A south zone fives will meet tonight in a play off for second place in the zone. Abernathy and Sundown have each lost three conference games. The winner of this game will accompany Tahoka into the District 4-A championship tourney.

Mangrum Wins Valley Open

HARLINGEN, Feb. 17 (AP) — Lloyd Mangrum of Chicago was $2,000 richer today and well ahead as the year's top money winner on the winter professional golf tour.

His playoff victory over Jimmy Demaret, Ojai, Calif., yesterday in the $10,000 Lower Rio Grande open tournament boosted his earnings for the year to $8,188.33.

Mangrum turned in a six under par 65 for the 18 hole playoff, touring the front nine in 31 strokes and the back nine in 34.

Demaret carded a 34-35—69 that was good for $1,400 and a total of $7,448 for the year.

Deadlocked Sunday

The two pros deadlocked at the end of the regulation 72 hole tournament Sunday when Demaret overcame a five-stroke advantage to finish with a 68-201 total. Mangrum skidded to a 73 sunday.

Mangrum and Demaret also divided an estimated $400, 25 per cent of the gate receipts in the playoff.

The pros shoved off for New Orleans, next stop on the tournament trail, minus a rules committee, with George Schneiter, Ogden, Utah, as "czar" of pro golf and with winter rules definitely in the discard.

Midget And Junior Cagers Score Wins

ROOSEVELT, Feb. 17 (Special)—Midget and Junior cagers from Lubbock Boys club defeated two Roosevelt fives here tonight, but the visiting Pee-Wee court group was edged by the youngest home quint.

The Boys club Juniors, paced by Gene Tollison's 10 points, drubbed the Roosevelt Juniors, 27-17. Wesley Curry topped the Roosevelt five with four points.

Bobby Tollison tallied 10 points to lead the Boys club Midgets to a 35-18 triumph over Roosevelt, although Benny Fults chalked up 11 points in an attempt to keep the home quint in the game.

Frank Wright and Jackie Chancey connected with field goals as the club Pee-Wees were nosed out by the Roosevelt youngsters, 10-8.

Local Quintets Play Wichita Falls Fives

Four Lubbock Boys club basketball squads, accompanied by Coaches Thomas George and C. L. Tomlinson and Assistant Director V. L. Jackson, will leave by chartered bus Saturday morning for Wichita Falls, where they will resume cage competition with the Wichita Falls Boys club.

The Junior and Senior quints will be seeking revenge for losses to the Wichita Falls teams last year, but the Midgets will be protecting an unblemished record in tilts with the Wichita Falls boys. The Pee Wee age group will be battling for the first time this year.

The teams will return to Lubbock Saturday night immediately after the games, officials said, and approval from parents must be secured by boys making the trip.

Bears Get Chance After Texas Upset

(By The Associated Press)

Baylor's undefeated Bears can clinch a tie for the Southwest conference basketball championship tonight, thanks to the surprising Rice Owls.

Rice last night upset defending champion Texas, 54-47, and about ruined the Longhorns' title hopes.

Baylor, with just three games left to play, can insure itself a tie for the title by defeating Southern Methodist university tonight in Waco.

Rice Stages Comeback

Behind 20-3 after the first few minutes of play, Rice staged a terrific second half comeback, paced by Warren Switzer and big Bill Tom.

The Longhorns started fast and 13 minutes and 45 seconds elapsed before Rice had its first field goal, making the score, 20-5.

But at the half the Owls had whittled Texas' lead to 25-14 and in the second half went ahead at 32-31.

In the final ten minutes of play, Texas shot ahead at 36-35, but, with Switzer and Tom as sparkplugs, the Owls jumped out in front to stay.

Tom accounted for 18 points and Switzer had 17, the same amount as Texas' top man, Slater Martin.

Bears Have Good Chance

Rice sank 16 or 32 attempted field goals in the second half, while Texas made only eight of 25.

Should Baylor defeat Southern Methodist tonight, the Bears could lose their remaining two games and still tie.

The loss dropped Texas into third place in the standings, one game behind the Arkansas Razorbacks.

A two-game series Friday and Saturday between Texas and Arkansas will determine which, if either, retains a chance at a share in the championship.

Armed And Assault May Meet Saturday

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 17 (AP) — Will Armed and Assault meet again Saturday?

That question had racegoers buzzing today as time for the $50,000 added Widener handicap at Hialeah Park drew nearer.

Both have been nominated for the Widener and each assigned 130 pounds in the mile and a quarter classic.

Trainer H. A. (Jimmy) Jones of Calumet Farm said Armed is not a certain starter and nothing definite can be expected until later in the week.

Assault, meanwhile, warmed up with a handy victory in the Minorca purse and appeared in the peak of condition.

Thus the situation now is the reverse of that of last September when the pair met in the Belmont special.

Assault was not at his best then and there had been reports he was bothered by a leg ailment.

In a fine display of sportsmanship, owner Robert J. Kleberg said he hoped Assault would give a good account of himself, and went through with the race. The Calumet gelding won.

Final say on whether Armed accepts the challenge rests with owner Warren Wright and trainer Jimmy Jones.

Corpus U. Seeks More Grid Games

CORPUS CHRISTI, Feb. 17 (AP) —The University of Corpus Christi already has six games scheduled for its first football season next fall and would like to arrange four more.

Coach Chatter Allen said open dates he would like to fill are Sept. 25, Oct. 9, Oct. 16 and Nov. 20.

Games scheduled are:

Sept. 18, Trinity in Corpus Christi; Oct. 2, McMurry in Corpus Christi; Oct. 23, Sul Ross at Alpine; Oct. 30, Daniel Baker at Brownwood; Nov. 6, Texas A. & I. at Corpus Christi; Nov. 13, Stephen F. Austin at Nacogdoches.

Southwestern Opens Baseball Practice

The University of Texas, Baylor and Texas A. and M. opened baseball practice yesterday.

Around 100 showed up for A. and M.'s first drill, while Baylor reported 35 and Texas 65.

Baylor has 11 lettermen returning from last year's second place team and Texas, which won the Southwest conference championship, lost only five players.

Water constitutes 60 per cent of meat, 87 per cent of milk, 55 per cent of poultry flesh and 65 per cent of eggs.

Revived Bucs Set For Race

NEW YORK, Feb. 17 (U.P.)—The Pittsburgh Pirates, who finished at the bottom of the National league last season, reversed themselves today and led the field for a change, being the first club in the majors to report all players signed up and happy for 1948.

The Pirates, with a new manager, Bill Meyer from Kansas City, and with virtually a complete new starting lineup, are the number one dark horse team in the National league race. There was a brand new attitude among the players from the general unhappiness which prevailed in 1947.

No Holdouts Listed

Not a bonafide holdout was listed during the entire period of salary negotiations and the club had to deal with some established major league stars. These included Dixie Walker, the old "Pride of Flatbush," who admitted that in his first year at Pittsburgh he is being paid more than he ever made in Brooklyn or anywhere else; pitchers Kirby Higbe, Hal Gregg, and Vic Lombardi, three more ex-Dodger sharpies; and Ralph Kiner, the sophmore home run star who blasted 51 round-trippers last season.

BOWLING SCORES

Forrest Lumber bowlers took the spotlight in the All-Employes Bowling league last weekend at Plamor lanes by sweeping a three game series from the Sears-Roebuck team and moved up two notches in the league standings to fifth place. Ben Hyatt sparked the Lumbermen with a 196-626 series, while Joe Burby's 202-459 was high for Sears.

Blue Bonnet Laundry also took three games in a match with the Household Supply keglers as Jack Goodrion tallied a 182-539 series. Jim Buckner rolled the high series for the Supplymen with a 203-533.

The last place Cunningham Service five surprised first-division West Texas Gas company pin-topplers with two wins in three games. Ed Crump grabbed scoring honors for Cunningham with a 182-479 and A. C. Bigey led the losers with a 213-533.

Wooten's Grocery quint returned to the win column with two victories in three games with Sunbeam Laundry, Sam Carter rolled two 200 games in a 590 series, with Bob Jenkins chalking up a 209-575.

The league standings:

Teams	Won	Lost
Blue Bonnet	47	13
Wooten Grocery	36	24
Household Supply	35	25
West Texas Gas	29	31
Forrest Lumber	26	34
Sunbeam Laundry	25	35
Sears-Roebuck	24	36
Cunningham's	20	40

Women's Bureau Of The Labor Department Announces Plans

BY FRED W. PERKINS
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17—Leaders of women's groups in economics and politics are taking stock here today of the advances women have made in the past century, and are planning for more. This is in a three-day meeting under auspices of the Women's Bureau of the Labor department.

If one of the numerous speakers mentions that "the first 100 years are the hardest" the reference will be to a meeting in Seneca Falls, N. Y., in 1848 when the suffrage movement had a beginning.

The history can go back even further—150 years, for instance—to the then first lady, Abigail Adams, who wrote formally to her husband, the second President.

Threaten To Rebel

"If particular care and attention are not paid to the ladies we are determined to foment a rebellion and will not hold ourselves bound to obey any laws in which we have no voice or representation."

Miss Frieda S. Miller, director of the Women's bureau, says there is no chance that the current conference will foment a rebellion or even restate the "declaration of sentiments" which came out of the Seneca Falls meeting.

"Women have gone too far and achieved too much to make action of that kind either necessary or appropriate," Miss Miller says. "The meeting, however, will clarify thinking and give interpretation to many of the issues which now concern women and, it is hoped, lead to a better understanding of women's status on the part of the community and nation, the agencies which have a deep interest in women's progress, and women themselves in their capacities as workers, homemakers and citizens."

Gains Listed

Gains of women during the past century were listed:

The legal right to enter professions and practically all occupations and trades; the right to vote and help make laws on local, state and national levels; jury service in all but 13 states; full rights to property and earnings in most states; the same rights of guardianship as men, in most cases; the right to keep their own identity in most respects, and to receive the same treatment as men under tax laws.

When the hoop-skirted ladies met in Seneca Falls 100 years ago, amid scoffing from most of the population, including many of their own sex, the Women's bureau records:

Doors to profitable employment generally were closed to women. Marriage stripped a wife of practically all her property rights, including her right to her personal earnings. Such property as women could hold was taxed without a voice in the tax laws.

Want Equal Pay

Objectives still to be attained by women workers, Miss Miller says, include wider application of the equal-pay principle, better working conditions and pay in the large women-employing industries, on-the-job training in industry, community services to help the woman who is both a worker and a homemaker and fuller recognition that women aspire to policy-making positions when their qualifications fit them.

The importance of women workers is indicated by the presence of many labor union delegates among the more than 200 women in the meeting here. The Census bureau reported that last month employed women in the United States numbered 15,876,000, while 491,000 were looking for jobs.

In November 1947, according to the National Industrial Conference board, the weekly earnings of men in 25 selected manufacturing industries averaged $60.37 for 41.2 hours of work; the comparable figures for women were $40.88 and 39 hours. There was no comparison of the character of work done by men and women.

"What this country amounts to depends on what happens to its homes."... (This is Message No. 30.)

"My biggest job DOESN'T PAY A CENT!"

Any city can be made a still better place to live in if its citizens say: "Let's do something about it!" This stimulating article tells how to start

by RALPH H. BLANCHARD
Executive Director, Community Chests and Councils

Ralph H. Blanchard

IT'S easy to complain how bad things are in our city. But who's to blame? Many times, only ourselves!

A city is just a big group of families. Its schools and its parks, its hospitals and its libraries, its concert halls and its playgrounds will be no better, in the long run, than we are willing to support. Even a few determined men and women can do wonders...

Take the case of the family I'll call the Martins. Ted Martin had read item after item about school kids getting into trouble. Ted didn't like that sort of thing in the city where he was raising a son. And when he read one more story of a school boy in a jam, he exploded.

"Confound it," he roared, "why doesn't somebody do something about this? Why aren't these kids kept busy at decent things?"

Son Jimmy said, "There is a boys' clubhouse, Dad. But it's dying on its feet, because it can't find enough grown-up leaders to teach the sports and hobbies that the fellows want."

Ted thought it over. Next day, he went out to the Clubhouse, had a talk with the director. And, almost before he knew it, found himself volunteer coach of the basketball team.

HOW CAN YOU HELP?

Opportunities are everywhere! Watch your newspaper. Ask friends at church, school or club. Here are some typical projects:

Youth centers	Community Chest drives
Scouts, "Y's"	Day nurseries
Citizenship classes	Civic auditorium
Clean-up campaign	Slum clearance
New library branch	More playgrounds
Better schools	Hobby classes

Night of the first game, Ted simply glowed with pride. He had uncovered a vital new interest in life. He had found scores of new friends. And he knew that he was making the city a better place for his own children to grow up in.

Try it in your city! Unselfish interests outside the home give the family a new bond within the home. There's a sense of real accomplishment that all share in.

Of course, you can't go all-out for every community activity. But, with planning, you can often contribute time or money that will give some needed project a boost. Every family should earmark a definite part of its income—even if it's only a little—for such purposes. Then, when your help is needed, you can give with an open heart!

Think of community work as bringing a double advantage to your family: it makes your city a better place for you to live in... and it unites your family in an adventure that's really big!

How to PLAN for Family Happiness

● Budgeting can help you contribute money to community projects. But that's only part of sound money planning. You'll be more likely to have enough money on hand when you need it, if you'll follow these few simple rules:

FOR TODAY... The first thing, for most families, is to take care of the larger fixed items such as rent, taxes, insurance, mortgage and installment payments, etc. So start by adding up all your fixed items for the year, divide by 52, and set aside that amount weekly.

Also every family should have a "rainy day" fund equal to at least four weeks' income. Set aside a little every week until you have that much. Then, you'll know how much you can spend for food, clothing, heat, light, amusements, and so forth.

FOR TOMORROW... We live in a changing world. Family needs and circumstances change... living costs... taxes. If you have not had your life insurance program reviewed lately, the chances are 2 to 1 that it should be brought up to date.

There are so many ways in which you can use your life insurance, that you should have the life insurance you now own checked to see if it is suited to your needs. This is a service that comes with your life insurance.

The person best equipped to help you with this is the well-trained life insurance agent. Get in touch with your agent, or write your life insurance company. INSTITUTE OF LIFE INSURANCE, 60 East 42nd Street, New York 17, N. Y.

REDS HURL CONSPIRACY CHARGE

United States Charged With Seeking German Peace Pact

(By The United Press)

MOSCOW, Feb. 17 — Soviet Russia charged today that the U. S. and Britain conspired individually for separate peace with Germany and that France planned an attack on Russia from the Middle East.

These allegations were contained in the fourth and last installment of Soviet propaganda attacks, issued since the U. S. published documents on pre-war Soviet-German relations.

The U. S. move for a separate peace, Russia said, was made in Switzerland in February, 1943, by Allen Dulles, brother of Republican foreign affairs adviser John Foster Dulles.

The Russian charge said Dulles talked with a Prince Hohenloe, proposing to join Germany in establishing a zone of safety in Europe against Bolshevism and Pan-Slavism. This, the Russians said, was a move for a separate peace.

(In New York, Dulles said the Russian charges were "nonsense." He said he dealt with the anti-Hitler underground as an officer of the OSS in Berne, but that he never took part in any negotiations similar to those described by the Russians).

The British move for a separate peace, the Russian charge said, was made by Max Aitken, son of Lord Beaverbrook, in Lisbon in September, 1941. Aitken was said to have talked to Gustav Von Koever, a Hungarian.

Aitken was represented as proposing a separate peace sometime during the winter and spring of 1942.

that one eye had been injured. He did not remain in the hospital.

Police reports did not disclose immediately who the assailant was, but quoted Brown as saying he did not wish to prosecute.

Another man was treated at the hospital in connection with the case, hospital official said. The alleged altercation was on Temple Ave.

In another altercation, a negro woman suffered cuts and bruises after her husband had allegedly beat her and dragged her a half block down a street. She was also treated at Lubbock Memorial hospital.

She Emma Jean Williams, filed an aggravated assault complaint against the man, Jesse Williams, County Attorney John Steele said.

Examination Is Set

Extradition machinery was set in motion Monday by District Attorney Lloyd Croslin for returning two persons in custody of other states to Lubbock county to face indictment charges.

Edward A. Tomko, in custody of the sheriff's department in Allegheny county, Pa., is charged with wife desertion; Enimensio Admes, a Mexican held in Racine, Wis., with embezzlement of funds from a Mexican club in Slaton.

Judgments Are Filed

Several judgments were filed by County Judge Walter Davies. B. T. Glenn, 28, of Roaring Springs, was fined $75 and court costs on a drunk driving charge. Charles W. Graves pleaded innocent of aggravated assault on Elza N. Holding, and bond of $500 returnable March 9 was set. Mrs. J. L. Ward pleaded guilty of check law violation, and a fine of $1 and court costs were assessed. Richard V. Crow was fined $1 and costs on a similar complaint, as was W. V. McCown, officials said.

The sheriff's department said Basilio Jaramillo, a Mexican of 226 Ave. K, charged that someone stole a barrel of kerosene from his residence.

Theft of an $85 radio from the car of L. C. Tipton of Doak hall, Texas Tech, was reported to police.

A $65 suit was stolen from J. D. Massie of 1220 Tenth.

A bike valued at $35 was reported stolen from Charles Lackey of 2316 Twenty-ninth.

members warned, would be inability of many school districts to pay their teachers for a full nine-month term under the salary schedule created by the new state equalization act.

It was because of the unforeseen qualification of 259 additional schools for financial aid under the act that the shortage in aid funds developed said Sen. G. C. Morris of Greenville, who presided at the committee meeting yesterday.

"This question is of sufficient importance to require a special of the legislature," the committee declared in a resolution.

More Schools Qualify

The joint legislative committee —five members from the House of Representatives and five from the Senate—said it had been "advised by the legislative accountant that approximately 259 additional schools have qualified under the new equalization bill."

"It was impossible," the resolution said, "for the last legislature to anticipate that any such number of new schools would become eligible, requiring additional funds in the amount of approximately $3,000,000 in order to pay 100 per cent.

"It is the feeling of this committee that all who are interested in the public school system, and particularly those schools who come under the equalization bill, most of which are rural districts, certainly want these schools to operate the full nine months and pay the salary schedule as set out in the equalization bill.

Should Be Paid In Full

"In view of all the above, this committee feels that it is our duty to call this to the attention of the governor and suggest that it is our thought that if he agrees with us that this obligation should be paid in full, that he advise us that at the first session of the legislature regular or called, he will submit this as emergency legislation."

Morris said "nobody wants a special session," but added that "if this was last year of the biennium, this would be a different proposition."

Daily Markets

Stock Market

SLOW-GOING RECOVERIES

NEW YORK, Feb. 17 (AP) — Slow-going recoveries continued in today's stock market but many leaders encountered enough selling on Monday's rally to put them in the minus column.

Mild irregularity ruled at the start. Dealings slackened appreciably as prices edged upward after midday. Commodities skidded and top advances running to a point or so for favored stocks failed to hold at the close. Transfers tapered to within the vicinity of 700,000 shares.

Republic Steel retained 7/8 of a point on an increased extra dividend. Ahead were Douglas Aircraft, American Telephone, U. S. Gypsum and Johns-Manville.

On the offside were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem Steel, Goodrich, Sears Roebuck, American Smelting, Northern Pacific, Great Northern Railway, Union Pacific and Illinois Central.

Yesterday's sharpest upswing in four months inspired some professional profit cashing on the idea that the bulge was mainly of a technical character in correction of the recent drop to average lows since last May. Unanimous approval by the Senate foreign relations committee on the European relief program helped prop sentiment.

Bonds did better.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Feb. 17 (AP) — Cotton futures were lower in moderately active dealings today. Scattered Commission house and New Orleans selling was influenced partly by renewed easiness in grains. There was also a tendency to take profit following Monday's sharp advance.

Germany was reported in the market for some 50,000 bales of American cotton.

Mill buying developed mostly on the scale down, with the situation in textiles quiet.

Texas advices said that planting was already underway in some southern parts of the state and that soil conditions were generally excellent in Texas.

Cotton closed steady.

Miss Truman has made no comment. Her friends say she knows Handy, a former State department employe. Beyond that, they are not talking.

Another said that when water poured into the craft some of the sailors jumped into the water, but that the launch continued along to the 45,000-ton carrier.

The French news agency said the launch struck an obstruction and sank.

In the party besides Bloodworth were Carmon Phillips, Lions president; Harry Cornelius, a grocery merchant; W. D. Crosby, Lions club vice president; and Albert Vaughn, operator of a resort camp. Cornelius, Crosby and Vaughn were accompanied by their wives.

Bloodworth, immediate past president of the Lions club, is president of the chamber of commerce and editor of the Ruidoso News. He expected to make formal announcement as candidate for governor this week, members of the party said.

He spoke briefly on club objectives and the effects of club fellowship on world conditions. Phillips sang "Ruidoso," a song he composed. He was accompanied by Roy Bass.

The club's annual initiation ceremony and stag party is to be held tonight at the Ford Implement company in southeast Lubbock, featuring a barbecued chicken dinner.

Club President J. Wm. Davis presided, and invocation was by Bob Garner.

Water Supply

the conference with members of the water resources board, the city commission, other city officials, directors of the chamber of commerce, presidents of banks and luncheon clubs and officers of the High Plains Water Use and Conservation association.

Immediately leading to the decision to hold the meeting, as reported by A. B. Davis, manager of the chamber of commerce, was an incident involving an official of an insurance company not identified by name.

Davis said the official was asked how much his company would be willing to lend toward the erection of an office building in Lubbock.

Water Given As Reason

The official, as quoted by Davis, said he doubted whether the company would be interested in making any loan at all for such a purpose, and "certainly not more than 50 per cent." A loan of about 70 per cent had been anticipated, the chamber manager related.

The reason given by the insurance official, Davis' report continued, was his understanding that the water problem on the South Plains, based on information from "government engineers," was "serious."

Broadhurst, who investigated at Davis' request, said practically all the reports the insurance official had received were incorrect and apparently were based on gossip, and not on any official report.

Information Not Complete

Broadhurst emphasized that information pertaining to ground water resources in the area is far from complete. The geological survey, the state board of water engineers and others, he continued, are remedying that deficiency as fast as they can.

The problem on the High Plains, he continued, varies sharply with individual localities due to many factors. Available information on numerous test wells in Lubbock county, he said, show that their levels on the whole are not greatly different from 10 years ago. Some are a little higher and some a little lower.

But Lubbock county, he continued, is more fortunate than most localities for which measurements are available. In most areas, water levels in tested wells are lower than 10 years ago, some greatly so, he said.

Wet Year Is Cited

The main reason why levels aren't even lower, he reported, was the 41 inches of precipitation which fell in 1941—more than twice the normal 19 inches annually. In reply to a question, he said the wet year of 1941 put enough water back underground to supply irrigation needs for about five years. He added that wet years can be expected at intervals, although the 1941 precipitation was the heaviest on record.

Broadhurst left for Plainview soon after the meeting here to inspect a field office of the geological survey and the board of water engineers which was opened several months ago. From Plainview he was to go to Amarillo for a conference with city officials.

Senator Hill (D-Ala) agreed to substitute for McGrath.

In Washington, Senator Gurney, (R-SD) said he will swing to Harold E. Stassen for the GOP presidential nomination if Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) won't run.

Is Not A Candidate

Vandenberg, chairman of the Senate foreign relations committee, has insisted he is not a candidate.

Stassen, a former governor of Minnesota, has praised Vandenberg's foreign policy views.

In a speech at Helena, Mont., last night Stassen said he thinks prospects for a lasting peace are better than they were six months ago, because of two factors. He listed as these a weakning of Communist influence at home and abroad and indications that the American economy is headed for neither a "bubble boom or a depression crash."

Coordinated Athletic Program Is Launched At Lubbock High

A coordinated program of athletics with various age groups of boys competing against each other and with teams of class A and class B schools over the area before getting into class AA competition has been launched in the Lubbock Public school system, C. R. (Pat) Pattison, head coach, said in a talk at the Optimist club luncheon at Hotel Lubbock today noon.

Pattison said each boy would be encouraged to participate in as many branches of sport as he desires with each sport dovetailing the other as the seasons came along. He said he was now conducting a physical education class in football with 55 boys enrolled and that when track season opened each boy would be encouraged to participate in track.

Boys Are Receptive

"I couldn't ask for a group of boys more receptive to good athletic training," Pattison said. "The desire has got to be there first and then the ability is second, so far as I am concerned."

Fred Taylor, assistant coach, also spoke briefly. They were introduced by Ben Williams, program chairman.

Prior to the coaches' talks, the club voted to sponsor the showing of Clyde Bros. 2-ring indoor circus here on March 12, 13, 15 and 16. A committee composed of W. C. Rutledge, chairman; B. H. Bird, Noble James, Winston Clark, Sloan Fortenberry and Jerry Holleman, was appointed to arrange for the show.

In a report of the nominations committee, Charles Cobb was nominated for president; G. C. Stewart, first vice president; Jerry Sandlin, second vice president; and A. G. Oberg and John E. Speer, members of the board of directors. The election will be held late next month.

J. Warren Day of Fort Worth and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Dahl and Miss Maxine Luckey of Deadwood, S. D., were out-of-town guests at the luncheon.

Larger, Improved Texas Cotton Acreage Is Commiftee's Plan

DALLAS, Feb. 17. (AP)—A four-point program for 1948 was outlined here by the production committee of the statewide cotton committee.

It included:

Exports Slump

Improvement of the staples of Texas cotton.

Increased Texas cotton acreage.

Full support of the extension service's cotton production program.

Lower cotton production costs.

Burris C. Jackson, Hillsboro, chairman of the state committee, said lower production costs would be attempted through four practices: Mechanization of the cotton industry, insect control, selected planting, continued soil conservation.

Jackson yesterday told the production committee that ninety per cent of Texas cotton has been for export in the past and that these foreign markets must be regained.

"Texas has a vital stake in regaining foreign markets," he said. "Because in normal times we export 90 per cent of Texas cotton. Foreign crops and the war took these markets from us.

To Meet In Lubbock

"In order to recapture these markets we must produce better quality cotton in a quantity so large foreign countries will know they can rely on us. We must produce cotton of a type and quality that world wants in large quantity."

To put the proposed 1948 program into effect, Jackson said six regional meetings would be arranged. The first is to be held in Lubbock at a date to be announced later.

Chairman of the cotton production committee meeting is J. D. Prewit, vice director of the Extension service, College Station.

Others at the meeting included Jay C. Stilley, Dallas; George Simmons, Lubbock; C. B. Spencer, Dallas; L. T. Murray, Waco; W. N. Fortenberry, Lubbock; J. D. Dawson, Houston; Elmore Torn, Taylor, who will be in charge of the regional meetings.

"Boy Without A Country" Begins First Lap On Road To American Citizenship

NEW YORK, Feb. 17 (AP)—A 16-month-old "boy without a country"—caught in an immigration technicality—is leaving by plane for Denmark today on the first lap of the long road to American citizenship.

Neils Francis Rebholz is being deported, but after a year with his maternal grandmother in Copenhagen he should be eligible to become a naturalized citizen of the United States.

The child, whose father is an American citizen living in Chicago, would come back as a Danish immigrant under the annual quota.

Born In Rome

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Rebholz, decided on sending the boy to Denmark as the best way out of the difficulty.

Neils, wearing a blue snow suit and carrying a toy bunny, arrived at LaGuardia field from Chicago yesterday under care of an airline employe, Miss Dee Rosner, who said she planned a vacation in Europe and would accompany him to Copenhagen.

The deportation arose from the fact the boy was born in Rome of a father who had passed less than five years in the United States after his 16th birthday. Under the Enemy act of 1940, such a child does not receive American citizenship.

The father, now 24, joined the Merchant marines and left the United States when he was 19. He was married in Rome, and returned to the U. S. last year with his Danish wife, Nancy, and the child. Neils was admitted on a visitor's permit.

Science Might Learn Tonight Whether Life Exists On Mars

BY O. B. LLOYD, JR.
United Press Staff Writer

McDONALD OBSERVATORY, Atop Mount Locke, Tex., Feb. 17 —If their hopes come true, astronomers here tonight may determine whether life exists on Mars.

For weeks work has been progressing toward tonight when, at 1:15 a. m. CST, Mars will approach within 63,000,000 miles of the earth.

82-Inch Telescope

Astronomically speaking, that's almost as close as your next door neighbor.

Scientists will be using McDonald observatory's 82-inch reflecting telescope — the third largest in the world. And through it, if the weather is good, Mars should appear about four times as large as a full moon.

The observatory, located on this rounded mountain top far out in the wastelands of West Texas, is operated jointly by the Universities of Texas and Chicago.

Preparations for the work tonight have been supervised by Dr. Gerard P. Kuiper, director of the Yerkes observatory at Williams Bay, Wisc., as well as the observatory here.

In addition to the scientists, many of them world-famed, there will be lawmen present to witness the observations an hour and 15 minutes after midnight.

Before the sun crests these mountain peaks tomorrow, Dr. Kuiper hopes to determine whether water — either in the form of ice or vapor — and green vegetation exist on Mars.

If they do, then speculation might logically follow that some form of animal life exists there, too.

The Spectograph

Dr. Kuiper and his associates will be using an instrument developed to its present perfection during the war — an infra-red spectrograph.

With it, these scientists will observe the green areas and the polar cap of Mars.

Dr. Kuiper has explained it this way:

If the polar caps on Mars are frost caps, the spectrum should appear black. Snow and ice found on Earth record that way.

And if the green areas are trees, grass or weeds, the recording will again appear black. This time because of the water the vegetation itself contains.

But if the vegetation should be lichen — and extremely hard, moss-like growth found on rocks of the western deserts of the United States — it will not show in the infra-red absorption.

Dr. Kuiper seems to feel this latter possibility might hold true.

He has pointed out that this could be expected "from a climate that resembles Earth at an elevation of 50,000 feet. Lichen act like sponges, and suck up water vapor present in the air. Rain is not necessary for their existence.

Vegetation Possible

However, last October Dr. Kuiper discovered that the carbon dioxide content on Mars — about the same amount as on the Earth — is small enough to suggest the possibility of vegetation.

Scientists already know this much about Mars.

The planet has an atmosphere in which white clouds sometimes float. And occasionally — with a good telescope — what appear to be large dust storms can be observed. The poles of the planet grow large in winter, and virtually disappear in summer.

Deserts On Mars

In between the poles are areas of green. These are surrounded by larger areas of a reddish tinge. These, the astronomres believe, are probably deserts — possibly resembling the Painted Desert of the western United States.

From these basic facts, scientists have long speculated that life might exist on the far-off planet.

Tonight — weather permitting —they hope to learn the answer.

Five Hurt In Car Crash At Airport

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 17 (AP) —Five persons were injured last night when an airlines limousine went out of control and backed completely through the terminal building lobby at Oklahoma City's municipal airport.

The driver of the car, D. W. Hobbs, had accidentally stepped on the starter while the ignition was on and the car in reverse gear. He was dragged along with the car and suffered a broken leg. A passenger in the rear of the car suffered bruises.

Three women in the lobby were struck and injured, none critically.

The heavy car tore off four building doors as it entered the lobby and demolished two more on the other side of the building before it was halted by a heavy iron post supporting a canopy leading to the runways.

Texas Tech Chapter May Be Reactivated

D. M. McElroy, executive secretary of the Alumni and Ex-Students association at Texas Technological college, and J. H. Wilson, director of the organization's One Hundred Dollar club, are in Odessa for the purpose of reactivating the Odessa chapter of the association.

The Odessa chapter numbered over 100 members before it became inactive about a year ago.

Monday the two men stopped for several hours in Midland to talk over routine matters with officials of the chapter there, McElroy's office announced.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 17 (AP) — An energetic safe cracker broke into a warehouse sometime last night and went to work on a small strong box.

He tried to get it on a dolly and drag it out the back door. Couldn't make it.

Then he chopped through the back of the safe. It was empty.

Baptists Plan $1,000,000 Building

Last Obstacles Said Removed

The last serious obstacles to a call for bids for construction of a magnificent new plant for the First Baptist church finally were cleared after months of delay at the semi-monthly meeting of the city commission Monday afternoon.

The edifice, which is expected to cost about $1,000,000, is to be built on a site between Broadway and Thirteenth street at Avenue V. The property extends more than 300 feet westward from V.

Dr. J. Ralph Grant, pastor of the church, would not hazard a guess as to when work on the structure might be started. He said, however, the next step will be a call for bids. This will be issued by the church building committee whose chairman, Dr. F. B. Malone, was not available last night.

Payment Is Okayed

The chief obstacle during months of negotiations to the completion of building plans has centered about the alley which extends from Avenue V to W between Broadway and Thirteenth street. The church wanted the alley closed. Mrs. A. B. Conley, of 2219 Broadway, and some other owners of property west of the church site objected.

The settlement reported by Dr. Malone and ratified by the city commission includes the following provision:

The church is to pay Mrs. Conley $8,000 for a 20-foot strip of property from her homestead adjoining the church site. The church also is to pay for the removal of a fence and shrubbery.

This strip together with other property provided by the church is to be used in creating a thoroughfare 42 feet wide from Broadway to Thirteenth between the church site and the Conley homestead.

Alley Ordered Closed

The commission ordered the alley closed from V to the new thoroughfare.

Dr. Grant said the church building fund now is well in excess of $300,000. The church also paid approximately $120,000 cash for the building site. It likewise owns the entire half-block in the south side of the 1400 block of Main street where the present church plant is located.

Other business transacted by the commission included the approval of an emergency ordinance which, according to City Attorney Vaughn Wilson, makes the city election code conform with state laws.

The most important provision of the new ordinance is that candidates for mayor and the city commission must announce at least 30 days in advance of the biennial

PENNY, PINT-SIZED RAT TERRIER, IS ENVIED BY ALL THE KIDS

Mascot Keeps Lubbock Firemen On Jump

This introduces Penny, the mascot of Central Fire station and the envy of all the kids who see her running to fires.

Penny is a rat terrier about seven inches tall and weighing somewhat more than a bag of popcorn.

But don't discount her ability.

When the horn goes off in the fire station, indicating there is a fire run to be made, she comes alive.

Hurries Them Along

Barking furiously, she rushes from one fireman to another, nipping at them and pulling at their clothing—hurrying them to their trucks.

Once the last man is on his piece of rolling equipment, Penny rushes to the chief's car or into the cab of one of the Mack pumpers where she can see all that goes on, and away she goes—just like a regular member of the department.

Matter of fact, she's come to be quite a "nuisance," the firemen say.

They're All Important

She's bitten several members of the department because they didn't get out of bed and go to fires.

She can't understand that a fence or a trash fire is not important enough to run to with every fireman and ever piece of Central's equipment.

And it's come to the point where the last fireman down the pole on fire runs is more than likely to get his skin creased.

Last Man Gets Bit

"It's a case of last man into the porthole gets bit," said Arthur Damrn, who exhibited a bite between the shoulders suffered two nights ago.

"They all beat me to the pole," he said, "and just as I jumped into the porthole and started down she bit blood out of me just as my shoulders came down to floor level!"

The little dog has preempted a place in any bed she chooses in the firemen's dormitory on the second floor.

All the firemen feed her candy—too much candy—or "pick on her." Those she favors, she has a habit of sleeping with. Her favors change from one to another, just as she runs to fires in one piece of equipment one time and another the next.

Curls Up On Coat

She usually curls up on a bunker coat Chief W. E. Twitty spreads for her on an easy chair in his separate bedroom-office suite.

If it gets cold, however, she'll jump up on the foot of someone's bed. Recently, when there was a

J. D. Willson Selected For Lamesa Post

LAMESA, Feb. 17 (Special) — J. D. Willson of Lubbock has been appointed city manager here succeeding the late G. M. Roberts and will assume his new duties on March 15, Mayor Sam Richardson announced today.

A former resident of Lamesa, Willson at present is maintenance superintendent of district 5 of the State Highway department with headquarters in Lubbock. He formerly was State Highway department foreman here, and has been employed by the department for 22 years.

Veteran Of World War II

A veteran of World War II, he was commissioned a second lieutenant in the engineers corps. He later rose to the rank of captain and commanded a heavy equipment company in the Pacific theater.

Willson is married but has no children. His wife, the former Thelma Guerrant, was employed in a Lamesa bank for several years.

Mayor Richardson said the city council felt fortunate in being able to obtain Willson for the city post, and was very favorably impressed with his background and ability.

Fire Marshal Hurt At Explosion Scene

Fire Marshal Bradley "Red" Black, of 1520-B Ninth, suffered a broken heel in connection with an explosion that caused $500 damage to Lynch Hat works, at 1106 Ave. J, at 5 p. m. Monday.

A ladder slipped and caused Black to fall.

L. B. Lynch, who owns the business in partnership with his father, said the explosion was in a hat dryer.

Approximately 46 hats, each valued at about $9, were burned up when the naphtha in which they were cleaned caught fire from the burner furnishing heat to the dryer. Firemen said a gas plate improperly connected with rubber tubing was the cause. Damage to the dryer was estimated by Lynch to be from $75 to $100. All loss was covered by insurance, he said.

Chorus Line Pelted By Colleae Funster

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 17 (AP)—College student William C. Kiele, jr., was held today on charges of assaulting a burlesque theater's chorus line with a rubber band.

The Burbank theater's manager said Kiele, 23, in a front row vantage spot, was shooting half-inch metal staples with a slingshot.

About 95 per cent of American urban homes have running water.

High Costs Causing GIs To Quit School

Unofficial Figures Are Compiled On Tech; 250 Withdraw During 1947 Fall Semester

More and more veterans attending school under the G. I. Bill of Rights are being forced to drop out in order to meet the rising cost of living, according to unofficial figures recently compiled at Texas Technological college.

During the fall semester of 1947 approximately 250 veterans, more than during any previous semester, withdrew from school and the great majority of them gave the rising cost of living and the inadequacy of the subsistence allowance as their reason. Many of them stated that they were dropping out because they had been offered good jobs that would enable them to support their families in a somewhat better manner than was possible with a $90 subsistence check and a $200 ceiling on their earnings.

(A bill signed last week by President Truman will increase the allowance to married veterans in school or on the job training from $90 to $105 and for married veterans with two dependents from $90 to $120. The $200 ceiling on earnings remains the same, however. The total for single veterans was boosted from $65 to $75.)

Conditions Believed Typical

Not all of these men dropped out because of financial difficulties but a considerably larger number than ever before did, and with a little simple arithmetic it is clear that if that figure were multiplied, in proportion to enrollment, by the number of colleges in the United States, a blow would be dealt the foundation of the entire training program.

When the lower cost of living in Lubbock is compared with costs in the east and on the west coast, there can be little doubt but what the same conditions exist there.

Exact figures are not available on the number of veterans attending Texas Tech who have children but the number is known to be quite large. These in particular are finding it increasingly difficult to get along and it is in this catagory that the rate of attrition is the highest. Many of the wives who have no children are working and helping to bear a great deal of the expenses but for those with children, it is much more difficult. Some find it just as profitable to stay home and keep the child as to hire someone to care for it.

Figures from the Bureau of Labor Statistics indicate that G. I. subsistence checks are far from adequate for a minimum standard of living for a man with two dependants. In Sept. 1944 a survey by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of a cross section of laborers in the United States found that a sum of $2,070 per year was the minimum wage that would afford a family of three what the bureau termed a "decent" living. That was before price controls were lifted and when the cost of living index was at 125.5. The same organization, late this fall, showed the index to be 168.3 and is believed to be somewhat higher now. This means that to maintain the same standard of living now as was possible in 1944 on $2,070, the laborer, or veteran,

Templeton To Play Tonight

Alec Templeton, noted concert and radio pianist, will be presented at 8 o'clock tonight and Wednesday night in concerts with the Lubbock Symphony orchestra, after two scheduled performances last week were postponed because of a gas shortage resulting from cold weather.

A nine-foot concert grand piano has been brought here from Dallas for the performance. It is the instrument used by the Dallas Symphony orchestra.

William A. Harrod will conduct the orchestra during the first half of the performance. The following program will be played:

Overture from Rosamunde, Schubert; Symphony No. 8 in B Minor (The Unfinished Symphony), Schubert; Moldau, Smetana; Selections for Brass Choir, arranged by Robert D. King; Concerto in A Minor, allegro, molto, moderato, adagio and allegro movements.

Templeton will accompany the orchestra in playing Concerto in A Minor (Greig). Then as a climax to the program the famed pianist will be presented in his own interpretations of various well known selections.

Those who have made reservations for reserved seats are urged to pick them up as quickly as possible today, Miss Leona Gelin, orchestra business manager, said.

Almost all of the $2.80 and $2.40 tickets are sold for tonight's concert, but some are available for Wednesday night's concert along with $1.80 tickets for both nights. Tickets are on sale at South Plains Music company and Adair Music company stores.

Tickets which originally were marked for last Thursday night will be honored tonight, those for Friday night being good for Wednesday night.

Extra speakers have been installed under the balcony in the auditorium through a project of the Senior High Parent-Teacher association, assuring those seated in that section of the house better acoustics than at previous events.

Police Bullets End War Hero's Career As Toy Pistol Bandit

BY HAL BOYLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Dead at 25, Thomas Joseph Kavanagh began his brief public career with a toy pistol and he ended it with another toy pistol clenched in his dying hand.

Both times he was trying to bluff fortune in small-scale done-wolf robberies. But between the two episodes he won six decorations as a valorous doughboy overseas.

A Puzzling Career

The short unhappy life of this hero-criminal is a masterpiece in human irony—a strange jigsaw puzzle with the key fragment missing.

At the age of 16 Thomas Joseph Kavanagh, a Brooklyn boy of good family, tried to hold up a Manhattan jewelry store watchman with a toy pistol.

Perhaps because of his youth he was charged only with petty larceny. He pleaded guilty and received an indeterminate sentence.

War gave him the opportunity to redeem himself and he made good in full measure.

He served in Africa and Italy. In that long "Forgotten War" up the Apennines he was a front-line platoon commander for the veteran 168th infantry regiment.

Of all combat men platoon leaders have the highest mortality in battle. They take the lead where the metal flies thickest. Gen. George Patton once bluntly told a group: "Gentlemen, your duty is to be killed."

Thomas Joseph Kavanagh wasn't killed. But he did get a Purple Heart for wounds in action. Among his other decorations were three that are given only for personal bravery above the call of duty—the Silver Star, the Bronze Star and an Oak Leaf Cluster.

I don't know what he fought the Germans with—pistol, rifle, machine gun or mortar—but he fought them long, hard, often and well. And he learned how to use weapons that were loaded.

A Return Visit

When he came home he left the army with an honorable discharge and a good conduct ribbon.

Last Thursday evening Thomas Joseph Kavanagh walked into the Trans-Canada Air lines office just off Fifth avenue. His hand was in a brown paper grocery bag and he pointed it at the clerk:

"Here I am again," he said. "This is a stickup."

The clerk immediately recognized Kavanagh as the man who held him up last month and took nearly $1,000. Two detectives were in a back room waiting for just such a return call.

They stepped out on separate doors and as Kavanagh raised his arm menacingly they began firing.

He fell dead. When they pulled his hand from the paper bag, they saw clutched in the ex-war hero's fist—a toy pistol.

Later Kavanagh's father was brought to identify the body. Police told him they also held his son responsible for three other lone robberies of the Colonial airlines office. The gray-haired father held out his son's honorable army discharge and shook his head in wordless grief. He said Kavanagh only recently had enrolled in a university under the GI Bill of Rights.

Death Holds Answer

What is the thing we don't know? What can make a man bravely risk his life time after time for his country—and then toss it away in a futile bluff with a toy weapon?

What gave Thomas Joseph Kavanagh the courage to be a standout hero in war yet left him without the long anonymous valor with which millions of other veterans are working out the problems peace brought them?

Death holds his answer.

Stay Out Of The Room While The Dentist Performs Work On Little Alfred's Teeth

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD
Associated Press Staff Writer

Get out of the room while the dentist works on little Alfred's teeth. You're in the way, you aren't helping Alfred and you're getting on the dentist's nerves.

Dr. J. B. Peabody, Houston, Tex., children's dentist, explained during a Dallas dental convention that a parent sitting around the dental chair:

Stay Away

1. Makes a child apprehensive.
2. Keeps him from getting acquainted with the dentist.
3. Exudes sympathy which often makes the child so sorry for himself that he begins to cry.

"The mother, leading her son to the dentist's chair often comes in with an unconsciously protective attitude and generally wants to answer all the dentist's questions concerning the boy's teeth," the brisk, wiry, Dr. Peabody stated.

"As a result, the young patient gets to know the dentist only through a third party, his mother, and the dentist and patient never really become acquainted.

"On the other hand, the dentist is able to make friends with the child who comes in alone and after a dentist gets the confidence of the average child he is a better patient than an adult because he relaxes in the chair."

Don't Wait

Another tip from Dr. Peabody: "Take your child to the dentist before an emergency arises. When he is 2, he should be taken for the first visit, an examination. Six months later, the child should be returned to the dentist to have his teeth cleaned. Then, when a tooth begins hurting, the child will not fear a trip to the dentist."

Dentists who work on children should use all possible means to make the process as painless as possible, Dr. Peabody thinks.

But if you want to see an angry flush creep up around the back of the dentist's neck, just take Alfred to the big chair, sit him down, give him a couple of pats, and say: "This won't hurt a bit."

For it probably will hurt, some," Dr. Peabody grinned, "and after that the dentist, as far as the little patient is concerned, is just a bum."

How to increase your popularity

Jean Campbell was 16 and popular. When the telephone rang, it was usually for her. Dad often remarked that Jean was the telephoningest person he ever saw!

Then one day Dad overheard some folks talking. "If that Campbell girl would ever get off the line," one said, "some of the rest of us might get a chance to call."

At first Dad was angry, then embarrassed. "Look, Pet," he told Jean, "you can make yourself a popular number with the folks on our party line, too, as easy as pie."

"How?" asked Jean.

"Keep your eye on the clock," said Dad. "Tell the guys and gals there's a five-minute limit. And remember, no one can call YOU while you're using the line . . . or them either," he added.

"O.K., Dad," said Jean, "we'll give it a try."

And that's how Jean Campbell got to be more popular than ever!

LIBERAL TRADE-IN ALLOWANCE ON YOUR OLD TIRES!

Congressional Group Proposes Alaska Be Granted Statehood

BY JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17 — In Congress Alaska has been given its first push toward statehood.

That doesn't mean it will become a state this year or next.

Statehood Urged

Alaska, twice the size of Texas, has a population of about 90,000 —60,000 whites and 30,000 Eskimos and Indians.

It's 89 times bigger than Hawaii which has a 500,000 population.

Yesterday a congressional group, the subcommittee of the House committee on public lands, told the full committee it thinks Alaska should be a state.

Now if the full committee approves, and tells the full House, and if the House approves, then it's up to the Senate.

All that's needed to make Alaska a state is an okay by both Houses. But the Senate may not approve, if the House does.

The Senate has a busy year. And, besides, the Senators may think twice about this:

Strong Opposition

Statehood means Alaska's 90,000 people would have two Senators in Congress, the same as, say, New York state's 13,000,000 people.

Since the Senate has only 96 members now, two more would be important in any close vote.

Alaska would be entitled to one Representative in the House. But since there are 435 House members, one more wouldn't make much difference.

About one-third of Alaska's voters are against statehood now. The reasons for this will be gone into later in this story.

The territory has a delegate to congress. He can't vote, but he represents the people of Alaska.

Output of industry runs over $70,000,000 a year. It's concentrated mainly in three businesses: Furs, fishing, mostly salmon, and mining—gold, coal, platinum.

The people pay federal income taxes but Alaska has no income taxes of its own, for persons or corporations, and no general property tax.

The territory has one railroad, owned by the U. S. government.

Some of the arguments against statehood for Alaska—a number of Alaskans have protested to Congress—go like this:

The population is too small now for statehood. The majority of the 60,000 white people live in the towns and cities. Alaska, which gets a lot of money help from this government while it's a territory, couldn't afford to run itself as a state.

The House subcommittee listened to those arguments against statehood and brushed them aside. Some arguments for statehood go this way:

Twelve states had smaller populations when they were admitted to statehood. Alaska now is a strategic part of the United States.

As a territory, Alaska is subject to the whims of Congress which can pass any law it wishes about Alaska.

The subcommittee says other territories were able to raise money to pay their way when they became states so there's no reason why Alaska couldn't.

Besides, Alaska has tremendous resources waiting to be developed.

After the flu is over and gone, the cough that follows may develop into chronic bronchitis if neglected. Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

THAT woman's here again—or, rather, her new book, "It's Greek To Me," is. We refer, of course, to our very favorite author, Willie Snow Ethridge, of Kaintucky, suh, whose hilarious literary style is in a class by itself today.

Mrs. Ethridge, in whatever private life she may be said to have, is the wife of the ubiquitous Mark Ethridge, publisher of the Louisville Courier-Journal and Times who, when he's not advising New Dealers likes to surround himself with chums, sit on the floor and murder songs like "Down By The Old Mill Stream." But it is doubtful if Mrs. Ethridge can be said to have much private life. In her books she bares all concerning the family life of the down-to-earth, joyously human Ethridges, including their methods of child-bearing and the conferences on whether or not the Old Man should buy a new tuxedo before Derby Day.

We have read all of Mrs. Ethridge's books from "As I Live and Breathe," down through "I'll Sing One Song" and "This Little Pig Stayed Home." Each has been a lulu. "It's Greek To Me," based upon her experience in post-war Greece while her husband probed border incidents for the United Nations, is as good as any of its predecessors, which is the same thing as saying it's plumb larrupin'.

Any Willie Snow Ethridge book may be relied upon to chase away the tears and fears of the day and to leave the reader with the comfortable feeling that this is a pretty good world, after all—and will be as long as there are people like the Ethridges in it.

Like other books by the uninhibited Mrs. E., who was transplanted from Gawjah to the Blue Grass, "It's Greek To Me" is chock full of chuckles and belly laughs. It is especially recommended for joint readings by husbands and wives and if your favorite bookstore ain't got it yet, it soon will have.

IN this cotton country, the question "What Is Cotton?" would seem to be a shade on the superfluous side. However, Elmo Caudle, who is in the ginning business at Hale Center, sends out postcards answering the query.

Here is what Mr. Caudle's postcards say:

"WHAT IS COTTON?"

"Cotton is the overcoat of a seed that is planted and grown in the Southern states to keep the producer broke and the buyer crazy. The fiber varies in color and weight and the men who can guess the nearest to the length of fiber is called a cotton man by the public, a fool by farmers and a poor business risk by his creditors. The price of cotton is fixed in New York and goes up when you have sold and down when you have bought. A buyer working for a group of mills was sent to New York to watch the cotton market and after a few days deliberation wired his firm to this effect: 'Some think it will go up. Some think it will go down. I do, too. Whatever you do will be wrong. Act at once.' Cotton is planted in the Spring, mortgaged in the Summer and left in the field in the Winter. There are other definitions, but none better than this!"

The Caudle postcard's message was reprinted from the Boston News Bureau.

The "Heathen Chinee" has ways dark and devious, we're told—but he also has a lot of wisdom.

For instance, an experienced Chinese cook can make the toughest old Tom Turkey as tender as a 16 year-old girl's heart is supposed to be.

The smart Chinese first catches the Tom, then pours a generous slug of cognac down his gullet. He releases the Tom, permits him to walk around a bit, and then, when the bird's muscles are completely relaxed, the cook puts an end to Tom's earthly problems.

Since the bird is killed while relaxed, the meat is rendered tender.

At least, that's the Chinese theory which would be better than it is if it didn't entail the waste of cognac!

Nobody would know when to pay taxes, (like now they don't know why they pay a lot of 'em!) And there wouldn't be any history, because there would be no way of drawing a line between the present and the past.

Joy and sorrow would be running head-on without time—but, on the brighter side, men couldn't march in cadence, which would go a long way to preserving peace!

Yep, time's quite an item—and none of us ever has as much of it as he'd like to have, either at the moment, or over a whole life's span!

BY DREW PEARSON: BRASS HATS EXCLUDED FROM BRADLEY BIRTHDAY PARTY

Morgan Man Will Govern Nation's Banking System

WASHINGTON — Kindly Gen. Omar Bradley, known as the G. I.'s best friend, had a birthday last week. He was 54 and his birthday fell on the same day as Abraham Lincoln's.

Having just been made Chief of Staff, the top brass of the Pentagon building were in something of a twitter as to who would be invited to the General's birthday party. It was known in advance that a party was to be thrown in the Chief of Staff's office, but nobody could figure out who was on the guest list.

PEARSON

As the time of the party arrived, the mystery was easily solved. Those invited were the clerks, secretaries, and enlisted men who worked in Bradley's office. None of the brass hats were present except for one man — Bradley's old friend, General Eisenhower.

Morgan Man In Federal Reserve

When Franklin Roosevelt first entered the White House, one of his toughest feuds was with the J. P. Morgan banking firm, which a Senate probe disclosed as having wiggled out of thousands of dollars of income taxes. All during his long administration, Roosevelt kept the Morgans at arm's length — much to the consternation of his mother, who was a great friend of several Morgan partners.

In contrast, Harry Truman will soon have a Morgan-made man governing the banking system of the United States. That will be the situation when likable Tom McCabe steps into his new job as governor of the Federal Reserve board.

Most people around Washington haven't realized it, but McCabe's brilliant climb up the business ladder, plus his equally meteoric rise in government has been due not only to a winning smile and shrewd business technique, but to the constant backstage backing of the House of Morgan.

The smartest move McCabe ever made was when, as sales manager for the Scott Paper company in 1927, he floated a loan with Drexel and company (part of the Morgan combine) and with that loan became president of Scott Paper.

Simultaneously, McCabe transferred the company's advertising to J. Walter Thompson, pet advertising concern of the Morgan firm, and also worked out one of the biggest dividends in stock-market history, exchanging one share of stock for ten. Prior to the Drexel-J. P. Morgan loan, Scott Paper stock had been closely held by only about 60 people. But with the loan the stock was sold widely. McCabe, as president, has an outright ownership of 560 shares and a "beneficial" ownership of 88,074.

MCABE and the Scott Paper company have stuck close to the Morgan crowd ever since. And working together they have made Scott he foremost tollette tissue company in the world. From a volume of about $5,000,000 when McCabe arranged the Drexel-Morgan financial hookup in 1927, the company now has an annual volume of around $60,000,000.

Thomas S. Gates, jr., a partner in Drexel and Co., is one of the Scott directors. Another director is Gilbert Kinney, vice-president of J. Walter Thompson, who helped set the Scott-Morgan wedding. Charles S. Chester, a Morgan director, is also director of the Mead Paper Co., which in turn is Scott's partner in ownership of the Brunswick Pulp and Paper Co.

Another official of the Scott Paper company is G. William Pepper, grandson of the late Joseph Wayne, into whose shoes Tom McCabe eventually stepped as chairman of the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia.

It was also the son of a Morgan partner, Ed Stettinius, who gave McCabe his meteoric boost up the ladder of government. The J. P. Morgan interests had put Stettinius into the chairmanship of the U. S. Steel company, and while still in that position, Stettinius became a member of the Business Advisory council to the Department of Commerce. He also helped get his friend Tom McCabe a similar position on the Advisory council.

And from that point on, wherever Stettinius went, McCabe went with him. When Stettinius joined the Council of National Defense, McCabe became his executive assistant. When Stettinius became director of priorities, McCabe became deputy director. And when Stettinius let the big steel and aluminum crowd pull the wool over his eyes and postpone new steel and aluminum plants, McCabe, who also failed to back the big steel and aluminum companies, moved with Stettinius over to the lend-lease administration.

There McCabe was deputy lend-lease administrator to Stettinius. Finally when the son of the Morgan partner became Secretary of State, McCabe moved into the State department in charge of liquidating U. S. property overseas.

So, step by step, gracious, delightful Tom McCabe and his Morgan friends have moved down the lane of business and government together. It has been a pleasant and profitable association — for both. And it will be interesting to see who benefits most from Tom's new and all-important job as Federal reserve governor — his old banking friends or the public.

What Became Of Vaughan?

The President's swashbuckling military aide, Maj. Gen. Harry Vaughan, ducked out the other night on the ladies of the American Legion auxiliary at Alexandria, Va. He was supposed to speak on universal military training, and a big crowd had gathered.

Even the mayor showed up —but not General Vaughan.

"He must be running some important errand for the President," hopefully suggested Mrs. Penn Howard, chairman of the American Legion auxiliary.

But two hours and four substitute speakers later, she was still urging the ladies to be patient.

He's from my own home town," she pleaded.

The General never showed up.

Nonsense Of Critic-Baiting Continuing At Merry Tempo

CURTAIN Going Up—The nonsense of critic-baiting continues at a merry tempo. People are always saying those curious things about the Nine Old Men who cover the First-Nights . . . But what do the figures reveal?

WINCHELL

They reveal that during 1947 there were 67 plays produced on Broadway . . . In spite of the fact that the critics are supposed to gather between acts on the pavement (and talk thing over) there were only 16 instances in which their verdicts jelled . . . Fourteen times they were all sure that the show was bad . . . Twice they were all certain that the show was good . . . The two "good" shows (on a 100% basis) were "Streetcar Named Desire" and "Brigadoon." The ones they rated "bad" included This Time Tomorrow," "Trial Honeymoon," "Music in My Heart," "The Magic Touch," "Open House," "Louisiana Lady," Heads or Tails," "Miracle in the Mountains," "Bathsheba," "Eagle Has Two Heads," 'Parlor Story," "It Takes Two," "Love Goes to Press" and "Topaze." Another legend is that Mr. Soandso is a dissenter, 'always out of line" . . . This is not true . . . For example: Mr. Chapman (of the News) was the only critic who appreciated "Little A." which was a flop . . . Mr. Barnes (of the Herald Tribune) was the only reviewer who did not appreciate "Finian's Rainbow," a hit, and Mr. Watts (of the Post) was the only oracle who lambasted "Street Scene" (the opera), which lost a mint of money . . . Mr. Hawkins (of the World-Telegram) was the only critic who enjoyed "The Big Two." He was wrong.

Another interesting angle is this . . . The 67 plays got a total of 187 good notices, 313 pans and 81 mebbe-yes-mebbe-no's . . . Divide the 187 good reports by nine and you reach a total of almost 21, which would mean 21 hits, if you assume that the critics run things. Actually there were only 17 hits, assuming that a hit is a show which shows a profit, no matter how small.

STAGE DOOR: "Mr. Roberts" (in which Henry Fonda stars) gives every indication (suburban critics report) of being a gilt-edge investment. It is being hounded by censors in the stix and serenaded by reviewers, a surefire combination . . . Fonda spent three days last week in the hospital with a severe virus infection. He was permitted to appear in the show only at night and then back to the sick room with a 103 temperature . . . Writers who alibi that they never have enough time to dream up something worthwhile are reminded that Voltaire's "Candide" was written in 24 hours . . . The feather in the caps of New York critics came from a turkey they plucked. It was called "Kathleen." It lasted two nerfs . . .

Fancy That: Mystery story writer Pat (Patricia) McGerr is referred to on jackets of her books as "he" because publishers decided her tomes would sell better if readers thought she was a man . . . Now she has run into a different kind of editing in England, where her latest, "The Seven Deadly Sisters," is about to be pushed.

The British deleted the word abortion and every direct conversational reference to it. That wasn't hawf as surprising to Miss McGerr as a word change they insisted on . . . They censored that fine old Shakespearian word, harlot, insisting it be changed to bitch . . . It isn't safe to talk Shakespearian English in England anymore.

THE Intelligentsia: Andre Gide (the famed French journalist) would like to come to the U. S. but cannot. The Gov't has charges of moral turpitude. He's 90 . . . Ronalde was written up (with other entertainers) in a mag recently. They said he was a $65 a per week artist. He claims he never earned less than $125 weekly per booking in his life. He is currently working at Radio City Music Hall. His barristers have started a lawsuit against the mag, as a result of its boner, which we thought only columnists made . . . For the third year in a row a recording by Iturbi has been top seller in the red seal dept. Last year his "Polonaise" sold over 4 million and this year his "Clair de Lune" (Debussy) topped it . . . The reviewers on the soon-due film "Call Northside 777" by Leonard Hoffman and Q. Reynolds, are exciting reports. Some witnesses rated it better than "Kiss of Death" for cinemaction . . . "Inside U. S. A.," made more coin than any other book this season. But the book that sold the most copies (though it never was No. 1 on the best-seller lists) was F. Yerby's "The Vixens" . . .

"Try And Stop Me"

GENERAL JOHN PERSHING'S favorite story concerns the private who encountered him on a blacked-out street in Paris during World War One, and failing to recognize him, tapped him on the shoulder, and said, "Hey, buddy, gotta match?"

"Sure," said the General, and handed him one.

The private struck the match, and recognized the General in the flare, faltered mistrably. "Holy smoke, General, forgive me please! I couldn't see anything in this dark."

"It's quite all right, son," the General reassured him. "But take my advise. Don't try it on a second lieutenant!"

"You Mean People Have Heating Problems?"

BY RUTH MILLETT: TO THE LADIES

The Feminine Viewpoint

A COMMON complaint of wives is "My husband won't do anything around the house. If I want a job done I have to do it myself."

MILLETT

Such women profess to envy women who are married to men who do the jobs around a house that men are expected to do.

But actually most women who make that complaint are one of two types.

Either they are perfectionists who have to have a job done just exactly so and according to their own ideas and standards and who will never let a man live down a less-than-perfect job.

Or they are the independent souls who would rather do a job themselves than wait for a man to get around to doing it.

The man who does the man's share of the job of home-making is usually married to a woman who expects him to to do just that; who can get him to work at a task without nagging him: and who—if necessary—is willing to wait until he is in the mood.

ADMIRATION, NOT ENVY

SO the woman whose husband is Mr. Fixit around the place shouldn't be envied. She should be admired. And her tactics should be studied.

For chances are that if a perfectionist or an independent type of woman had married him, he wouldn't be Mr. Fixit at all.

In turning a husband into a Mr. Fixit a little helplessness on the wife's part works miracles.

Today's Thought

When thou are bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room, lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him. . .—Luke 14:8.

In ever so many cases, the cause of an inferiority complex is inferiority.

Today's Journal Editorial

NOT VERY ENCOURAGING

Declines on commodity and stock markets hardly had started a few days ago when some of the Washington politicians began talking about scrapping the income tax reductions proposed for this year.

The implication is that the government hopes to grab through taxes anything the taxpayer might save on other living costs. If the politicians have their way, John Q. Citizen's total bill of taxation and living costs will be as much as it ever was.

The maneuver illustrates a philosophy practiced by the New Deal since it became entrenched in power in 1932. It is a philosophy which contends it is proper to urge cuts in the cost of practically everything except government.

One theory of renewed opposition to tax reduction this year is that any savings on living costs should be applied to the public debt. Perhaps this theory is sound.

But John Q. Taxpayer can be pardoned if he feels a little discouraged when he is told that anything he manages to save in one way is going to be taken from him in another. He is apt to feel that, come what may, he'll wind up, as always, by taking a painful blow to the pocketbook.

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Some Congressmen Represent Greedy Corporate Interests

WASHINGTON — The cries of righteous indignation that have gone up over speculation by government officials seem a little out of proportion to the crime involved. This is true particularly when you consider some of the things going on in this Congress.

CHILDS

It is a notorious fact that an increasing number of congressmen retain their connections with their firms back home and either directly or indirectly represent their clients in Washington. A remarkable example of this practice has recently come to light.

Rep. Ross Rizley of Oklahoma is the sponsor of a bill passed by the House last summer which would enable natural gas companies to raise their rates substantially and increase their profits. Some of these same gas companies are clients of the law firm in which Rizley is a partner in Guymon, Okla. So here we have a man, who was presumably elected to represent all the people of his district, speaking for the narrow interests of a few large companies that are owned and controlled a long way from Guymon, Okla.

At least Rep. Rizley has the frankness to admit his connection with his firm and the clients represented by that firm. A number of congressmen are not so frank. They go through the motions of severing their law connections, yet they continue as spokesmen for the client they formerly represented.

The Olds Report

But the case of Rep. Rizley and his bill in behalf of the natural gas companies illustrates as well as anything could just what this practice means. Its meaning is made abundantly clear in a report by Leland Olds of the Federal Power commission. The Olds report, subscribed to by Commissioner Claude L. Draper, who was first appointed by Herbert Hoover in 1930, gives a damning picture of the propaganda drive put on by the companies.

"These great corporations," Olds said, "have attempted to persuade officials of producing states, the owners of gas royalties, the educators now dependent on oil and gas revenues for the support of schools and universities, that their interests are enhanced by quick exploitation of natural gas at prices determined by what the traffic will bear in competition with oil and coal. But the record completely contradicts this specious identity of interest. For it shows the oil and natural gas enterprises as powerful outsiders selfishly inciting the regional people against the best local interests."

In the Southwest, where the gas comes from, there is a desire to build up independent industry. But, as Olds pointed out, this great natural resource is siphoned off to build up industry in the northeast. The object of the companies, Olds charged, is to get the stuff out of the ground as quickly as possible at the greatest possible profit and then clear out.

THIS has been the tragic pattern in the Far West and the South. Far too often, Eastern corporations have looked on the territory beyond the Hudson river as a kind of colony to exploit by colonial methods. The policy of grab-and-run has left stranded populations and vast areas laid waste.

Surely Speaker Joe Martin, who has been warning of a plot to undermine faith in Congress, could not have known the full significance of the Rizley bill when his Republican flock voted for it in the House last July. There is no surer way to undermine that faith than by advertising the fact that corporations can hire lawyers who are also members of Congress and who will push the special interests of their clients.

A study by the Federal Power commission shows the gas companies made generous profits from 1939 to 1946. Those profits are part of the free-enterprise system which most Americans support. Profit-seekers should understand that abuses and excesses can do far more to bring about its destruction than any sabotage from the outside.

UNCLE WHISKERS BAFFLED

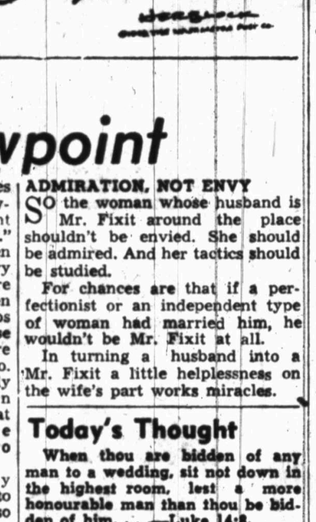

PHILADELPHIA (U.P.) — The income tax collector pocketed a check for $1,000, but he didn't know exactly what to do about it. The check was from a clergyman. He said he got it from a man who got it from another man who wanted to pay his tax without reporting his income.

Weldon Green Faces Charge

SPUR, Feb. 17 (AP) — Weldon Green, 25, was held without bond in the Dickens jail today on a charge of armed robbery.

Green, who Sunday night forced a Spur general contractor at gunpoint to "drive him out of town" was charged with the robbery of a Sweetwater cab driver.

H. P. Berry, 57, the contractor, was let out of his car Sunday night at Wichita Falls and Green was captured at Fort Worth. Police there had been tipped off by an alert filling station attendant.

Taken To Dickens

Texas Ranger Bob Crowder returned Green here last night and then he was taken to Dickens, the county seat, where the grand jury meets Thursday.

(Police Sgt. Lloyd Rogers said at Sweetwater that Virgil Heath, cab driver, had identified Green as the man who took his cab, purse and watch Sunday.

(At Abilene, Police Chief Royal H. Kelley said W. S. Morris, a cab driver there, "positively identified" Green as the man who forced him Sunday to drive him to a spot 12 miles east of Sweetwater.)

Berry said Green entered his house Sunday night and ordered him to drive him out of town.

city election to get their names on the printed ballot.

The practice in the past has been to accept filings up to 10 days before the election.

Election Set April 6

The next regular city election is to be held Tuesday, April 6, when the two-year term of Mayor C. A. Bestwick and the four-year terms of Commissioners J. Ray Dickey and Fred Childress are to expire.

The three incumbents have refused to say definitely whether they expect to be candidates for re-election.

Under the new ordinance, candidacies must be filed not later than Saturday, March 6, to obtain places on the printed ballot.

Other business transacted by the commission included:

City Engineer John Ruhmann was directed to prepare specifications preliminary to a call for bids on the laying of a 30-inch water main from Twenty-third to Thirty-fourth streets on Avenue P, and a 24-inch from Avenue P to Monroe on Thirty-fourth. The estimated cost is $180,000.

Commission To Meet

Mayor Bestwick tentatively set Friday as the date for a joint meeting with the recently appointed city civil service commission to discuss whether civil service is to be extended to all city employes, or be confined to members of the police and fire departments. Members of the civil service commission are Harry Morris, Marion Sanford and George W. McCleskey.

Also expected to attend that meeting is A. Cole Stephens, of Dallas, a retirement plan analyst, to discuss the practicability of setting up a pension and retirement system for city employes.

The commission approved the transfer of a lot at Second street and College avenue from a C (apartment house) to a J (industrial) zone. E. H. and Tom Carver asked the change so as to enable them to proceed with plans to build a machine shop on the property. A number of home owners in the area protested the proposed change.

Right-Of-Ways Bought

The purchase of 8-inch and 10-inch iron pipe to be used in a sanitary sewer line to serve Palace Heights addition was authorized at a cost of $4,905.28 from the Morrison Supply Co. The new line is to serve the area south of Thirty-fourth street in the vicinity of Avenue W.

Property purchases totaling $27,638.43 for the right-of-way of the newly routed North Avenue H also were approved, as follows: J. L. Hardin, $11,000; Claude Benton, $8,648; Mrs. Callie Meredith, $4,080.43; J. N. Dillard, $2,650; D. L. Ford, $816, and H. L. Brooks, $408. All payments included 48 cents per square foot for real estate and the cost of moving or replacing buildings in the right-of-way.

The commission also agreed to pay Lubbock Sash and Door Co., $20,083 for property needed for the widening of Avenue A south of Nineteenth street. The company is to clear existing buildings from the property.

Purchase of four "packer bodies" for garbage trucks from the Berryhill Equipment Co. at $3,029 each was approved.

The full commission was present at the meeting, including Mayor Bestwick and Commissioners W. B. Price, John Spikes, Dickey and Childress. The meeting was postponed from last Thursday because of the business holiday necessitated by the gas shortage.

would have to have an income of $2,701.

Since the $90 per month subsistence check for one year totals only $1,080, his plight is easily understood. They realize that the G. I. Bill does not guarantee a living and is meant for assistance but with a $200 ceiling placed upon his earning power, the argument is that the standard is too low.

Those veterans contacted did not seem bitter about these conditions but all welcome the legislation which they hope will help alleviate the situation. An indication of the fact that veterans at Texas Tech are not wrapped up in their own selfish interests was shown in the spring of 1947 when the Tech War Veterans Association adopted by an overwhelming majority, a resolution not to support legislation for the raising of subsistence payments. The reason given was that they believed that with a raise in subsistence would come a rise in prices. Since that time, however, prices have gone up to such a point that it is doubtful that the resolution would pass again.

Surveys throughout the country have shown that grades attained by veterans in college are higher than the average made by students before the G. I. Bill went into affect. The veteran is serious about gaining an education and wants to stay in school. Many are attending who could not were there no G. I. bill. The veterans seem to have the attitude that "we have proved our ability, we were considered a good investment in the first place, now it is up to Congress to keep us here."

Dog Mascot

gas holiday and the thermometer slumped for into the low register, the chief felt a tug at his covers. Penny, deciding it was too chilly on the chief's bed, slipped in beside him—under the blankets.

She may be able to make the firemen hop around and carry her in their arms when they slide down the shiny brass poles, but she has proven totally ineffective against stray cats that wander into the station.

Never Put One Out

She bows up and takes after them, but she has never put one out of the station yet.

Rather, one of them—a smirking old tomcat who was so gaunt he couldn't walk without staggering—"put her up stairs, instead."

And, apparently not liking the idea of another tom's watching a new Mack pumper being tested Monday afternoon, she tied into him with virtually the same result.

"We had to pull him off," assistant Chief Glenn Smith said.

At that, Capt. Mark Long said, she apparently has "passed on a strong heritage" to her only litter, born about a year ago.

Eats Nuts And Bolts

A son of hers, at Nineteenth street station, began eating nuts and bolts.

Two of the firemen were working on a piece of equipment. A half-inch nut fell on the floor. They couldn't find it, high or low.

"You don't suppose . . ." one of them asked.

"Of course not—that pup couldn't swallow it," the other said.

The other thoughtfully dropped a screw on the floor and, before it could stop rolling, the pup had grabbed and swellowed it.

Pretty Sick Dog

He was a "pretty sick" dog for several days.

Penny "just seems to take up where she goes." Appearing slightly more than a year ago at the Idalou residence of Mrs. W. F. Pruitt, she wouldn't leave after she had been fed.

Mrs. Pruitt's son, J. W., a member of Central station, brought the dog here, planning to give her to some cvhild. He unloaded her outside Central station, and she's been there since.

"She ain't worth anything," one of the firemen said.

"Aw, maybe worth about a penny," another answered.

And from those remarks, a name for the dog was coined, and a mascit for the station was adopted.

All the firemen's kids know her and bring candy down for her. And raise cain with their dads if they, too, don't carry candy for Penny.

Production Of Crude Is Continuing High

TULSA, Feb. 17 (AP)—The nation's crude oil production continued its record-breaking trend during the week end Feb. 14 by averaging 5,375,945 barrels daily, the Oil & Gas Journal reported today.

The Journal said the daily average increase for the week was 6,840 barrels over the previous week's all-time high.

Mississippi production accounted for the biggest part of the net gain, increasing 6,700 barrels to 114,175 daily.

Other increases included:

Louisiana, up 2,250 barrels to 476,400; Arkansas, 1,000 to 88,500; Kansas, 2,450 to 274,250; Montana, 2,060 to 24,470, Wyoming, 1,260 to 130,490; California, 1,500 to 934,000.

Florida increased its daily average production by 50 barrels.

Largest decreases were recorded in:

The eastern area, down 1,470 barrels to 58,500; Indiana, off 1,900 to 17,500; Illinois, 2,100 to 172,600; Michigan, 1,850 to 45,850; Colorado, 1,660 to 45,210.

Losses of 800 barrels or less were reported in Kentucky, Oklahoma and Alabama.

Production in Texas, New Mexico and Nebraska was unchanged.

China Will Be Swept Into Red Orbit Unless U. S. Aid Given

By CLYDE A. FARNSWORTH
Special Correspondent

SHANGHAI, Feb. 17—The gravest Chinese reaction to the apparent exclusion of military assistance from pending American aid is the growing belief that Washington is reconciled to the loss of Manchuria, or feels powerless to help prevent it.

It is apparent to many observers that Manchuria will be lost without American military help. And some believe that China cannot survive as a free nation without Manchuria.

Piecemeal Aid

Two months ago Dr. Sun Fo, vice president of China, told this correspondent that piecemeal American help would throw China into the Russian orbit as surely as no help at all. The coincidence of the present crisis in Manchuria with Secretary of State George C. Marshall's reluctant and exclusively economic program makes the promised aid look to most informed Chinese like piecemeal assistance—or even a straw for a drowning man.

It is not likely the Chinese will dare look a $570 million gift horse in the mouth, but there is no doubt about how they feel already.

One high-placed person said privately that American aid which ignored the military emergency in Manchuria would "out-Yalta Yalta." He referred to recognition of Russia's "former rights" in Manchuria in the Stalin-Roosevelt-Churchill pact at Yalta in 1945, a document which has been twisted virtually into a charter for communization of Manchuria.

U. S. Lost

His reasoning, typical of the grim thinking now prevalent among informed Chinese, was that the United States lost the initiative at Yalta. Then it attempted to recover through the ill-conceived attempt to force a coalition government of Communists and Nationalists. And now, with Manchuria all but lost, the U. S. shies from any intervention which Russia might construe as a challenge to her new Oriental sphere.

Maj. Gen. Claire Chennault's recent statement to the Scripps-Howard newspapers that the United States still could intervene successfully in Manchuria on a non-combatant basis occasioned a hopeful flutter among Chinese Nationalists. His analysis of the situation was received with official approval in Nanking, as might be expected, but his suggestion that China invite such assistance was soft-pedaled.

It is possible that Nanking already is asking help along the lines laid down by General Chennault. If so, Nanking is not likely to embarrass herself or Washington by disclosing such a request at this stage.

Dangers Not Imaginary

The influential Shanghai newspaper, Shun Pao, editorially tied up reports of Russian railway construction in Outer Mongolia with General Chennault's declaration that Russia was emulating the Japanese aggression in Manchuria.

"What men like General Chennault describe as ominous signs now looming large in the Chinese Northeast (Manchuria) are not imaginary," Shun Pao said. "The present Soviet railway plan is a warning to the American people and their government to recognize the grave situation in the Far East."

The China Daily Tribune, English-language newspaper here, said, "There is obviously only one course of action open to the United States—the course urged by General Chennault.

"It is hoped for the mutual interests of China and the United States, as well as for building a durable world peace in the face of the Communist threat, that the American and Chinese governments will not fail to heed General Chennault's warning and will lose no time in translating his recommendations into action."

Police Official's X-Ray Just In Time

ELKHART, Ind., Feb. 17 (AP) — Police Commissioner Edward J. Cullen went to Elkhart General hospital for a routine physical checkup.

An x-ray technician looked at one of his plates today and told him: "You're lucky to be alive." He found a bullet within half an inch of Cullen's heart.

Cullen decided that must have been the reason it hurt when he was shot in the back 35 years ago with a "blank" cartridge while on a boyhood camping trip. He said his family doctor at that time treated him for tetanus and released him.

Cullen says he hasn't decided what to do about the bullet.
