800 PEOPLE REPORTED KILLED

DAUGHERTY AND BURNS START INVESTIGATION OF THE KU KLUX KLAN

PLAN PROSECUTION UNDER SOME STATUTE COVERING A CONSPIRACY

NOTHING IN LITERATURE IS VIOLATION OF LAW

Investigation by Congress Is Proposed by Representative Tague of Massachusetts

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—Information in the hands of the department of justice as to the activities of the Ku Klux Klan was laid before President Harding today by Attorney General Daugherty after the latter had conferred with Director Burns of the department's bureau of investigation.

Department of justice officials declined to express an opinion as to the possibility of federal investigation of the Ku Klux Klan, but it was indicated that the department would take steps to gather further details of the situation. So far, it was said, the department's information consisted largely of isolated complaints which had come in from numerous sources, including private individuals and organizations.

President Harding was understood to have approved the decision of the attorney general to take up consideration of whether federal action should be taken with respect to any activities of the organization.

BURNS HAS BEEN MAKING INQUIRY FOR GOVERNMENT

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—Attorney General Daugherty and Director Burns of the bureau of investigation were to confer today concerning the necessity or advisability of seeking investigation of the Ku Klux Klan. Mr. Burns has been conducting an inquiry upon which to base a report today and in addition Mr. Daugherty has recently discussed the matter with District Attorney Hayward of New York and several assistant attorney generals.

Any federal action against the organization, according to Mr. Daugherty, would probably be under some statute covering conspiracy. He made clear, however, that on its face the literature of the klan was not in violation of the law and what was to be determined was what went on behind the screens. The activities of the organization, he emphasized, would be given the most careful consideration before any federal policy was determined.

An investigation of the Ku Klux Klan is also proposed by Representative Tague, democrat, Massachusetts, in a resolution which he has prepared and expects to introduce today. In the preamble he asserts that the organization is "anti-American" and that its objects and purpose are "the exile and suppression of persons, members of certain races and religious sects."

"The Ku Klux Klan has in more than 100 instances been charged with unlawful seizure, abduction, trial and punishment of certain free citizens and residents of the United States," Representative Tague said in a formal statement, "and is operating in violation of Articles IV., V and VI. of our constitution which guarantees against unlawful search, for protection of life and property and for jury trial. It also violates those sections which relate to freedom of religious worship and involuntary servitude."

MORE THAN ONE HUNDRED INITIATED IN CHICAGO, KLAN

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—Despite police orders against parades or demonstrations by members of the Ku Klux Klan, a class of more than 100 was "naturalized" by the klan at its downtown headquarters last night. The proceedings were surrounded with great secrecy, as contrasted with the recent "initiation" of several hundred at Lake Zurich, a suburb. It was understood that those "naturalized" last night were among those "initiated" several weeks ago.

WILL NOT ADMIT STUDENTS OF NEBRASKA UNIVERSITY

OMAHA, NEB., Sept. 21.—The Ku Klux Klan will not admit Nebreska university students to membership, a letter received today by the Daily Nebraskan, the university paper, and purporting to come from the Lincoln "province committee," declared. The action of the "province committee" is said to have come following the declaration of university officials, that in accordance with the ruling of the senate of the university, that membership in a secret society would be grounds for expelling a student.

DISARMAMENT SAID TO BE MOST POPULAR SUBJECT BACK HOME

SUCH IS REPORT OF CONGRESS MEN BACK FROM VACATION

DECLARE CONSTITUENCY THOROUGHLY AROUSED

People Ready To Pay for World's Biggest Navy If Foreign Nations Thwart Plan

By MARK SULLIVAN
National Political Correspondent of the New York Evening Post and Wichita Daily Times.
(Copyright 1921 by the New York Evening Post.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—The coming together of 96 senators and 435 members of the lower house, who have just spent a month in their home communities, distributed throughout every section of the country, has many impressive aspects. Among other things, it probably furnishes the most accurate and thorough informal consensus of public opinion that the country ever gets. To each individual senator and representative this trip back home has some of the quality of a "great and solemn referendum."

The politicians have to know as first among their arts that of sensing how their constituents feel about public questions. In the comparing of notes by senators and representatives returning today from fresh contact with their home communities. The strongest and most frequent reports will be found to deal with popular interest in disarmament. The concern about reducing armament is even greater than the concern about unemployment.

Within the field of business and economics there is much strong sentiment that takes various angles. One very general impression which is news to Washington and the east generally, is that, in many spots throughout the west and middle west freight rates on the railroads seem just on the point of becoming a major political issue.

But taking the electorate of the country as a whole, and especially including the women in that electorate, the general testimony is that interest in disarmament exceeds everything else. That large public sentiment, particularly among women and among what the politicians call church and school circles, which a year or two ago formed the backbone of the support of the league of nations, now expresses itself in sentiment for reductions of armament. To the sentiment based on this old league of nations idealism is added a hard practical sentiment in favor of disarmament, based on the wish for lower taxes.

It will be found to be the general testimony of the returning politicians, first, that Harding in calling the disarmament conference did the most popular thing imaginable, and second, that the conference, having been called, must not fail. If the conference should meet and talk and go away again with nothing accomplished, the result would be a shaking of public confidence which would go further than merely to affect President Harding personally. A second failure now, following what the public regards as the failure of the peace conference at Paris, would result in a most disturbing lack of faith in public men and governments generally.

It is the general feeling that if at the coming conference America should fail to achieve reduction of armament by mutual agreement, then the public would take matters into their own hands and would insist that America reduce her amament alone, regardless of agreements with other nations. This insistence would take the form of pressure on congress to refuse to continue to vote large appropriations for armament.

To all this there is one exception. If the coming conference is held to a responsible degree in the open, if the public sees America making a fair effort in good faith to achieve disarmament by agreement, and if it appears that failure, if failure there be, is due to other nations, then there will be on the part of the American public a reaction such that Harding can successfully appeal to the country for the funds to build the largest navy in the world.

America, according to those who have found its sentiment, wants reduction of armament most earnestly, but if America is prevented from achieving that wish by what appears to be an unreasonable attitude on the part of other nations, then America will willingly go into its pockets for the funds to make America second against the world. This is the one qualification to a profound and widespread determination to achieve something definite in the direction of disarmament and peace.

THREE PEOPLE ARE BEATEN TO DEATH; FOURTH IS INJURED

BLOOD-STAINED CLUB, NAIL-STUDDED, AND FINGER PRINTS ONLY CLUE

BELIEVE CRIME WAS COMMITTED SATURDAY

Man, His Wife and 17-Year-Old Daughter Found Dead—Young Girl Unconscious

DOWAGIAC, MICH., Sept. 21.—A blood-stained club, nail-studded, and a bloody finger print were the clues today by which local authorities hoped to clear up the murder of three persons and the serious injury of another, a child, in their home here.

William Monroe, his wife and their 17-year-old daughter, Neva, were found beaten to death with the club. In the same room was found Ardith Monroe, 10-year-old daughter, who had been beaten on the head until unconscious. The little girl was made blind by the blows. Although her recovery is said to be doubtful, officers hope she may be revived sufficiently to tell the story of the attack.

The tragedy was discovered yesterday when Ardith's chum, Grace McKee, entered the home after hearing Ardith moan. She found her playmate beside a bed in which lay the body of her sister. In another bed lay the bodies of the parents. A club into which nails had been driven was standing against the wall. On the wall nearby was a bloody finger print.

The club had been used to beat the heads of the victims almost beyond recognition. The interior of the home indicated no struggle had taken place and the bed clothing was not disarranged, leading officers to believe the three had been killed as they slept.

Neighbors asserted the crime probably took place Saturday night as members of the Monroe family were last seen at that time. It is believed Ardith lay wounded on the floor nearly sixty hours before being discovered.

Authorities so far have been unable to establish a motive for the crime, as the home was not robbed. Officers believe it was the act of an insane person. Two inmates of the state hospital at Kalamazoo, near here, escaped a week ago and officers are searching for them, although hospital authorities declared neither of the men was of the criminal type.

WOMAN OVER WHOM VERNON IS ALARMED COMES BACK HOME

Special to The Times.

VERNON, TEXAS, Sept. 21.—Mrs. G. C. Hill, for whom search had been conducted for many miles around Vernon since early Monday morning, stepped off a southbound Fort Worth and Denver passenger train here last night and walked to her home. In her handbag was found a ticket which had been purchased at Estelline. Mrs. Hill is under the care of a physician and is in a highly nervous state.

About two weeks ago Mrs. Hill was injured in an automobile accident and since the accident had been highly nervous. Monday morning she disappeared from her home. A search was started which was continued Monday afternoon and Monday night. Tuesday a mass meeting was held and the whole town and county organized for the search. It appears that she had asked for a ride in a passing automobile and had ridden to Estelline. At Estelline she boarded a northbound train, returning later on a southbound train and getting off. She then remained at Estelline until a later train which she boarded for Vernon. It is said she remembers little of her wanderings.

JUGO-SLAVIA AND ALBANIA FIGHTING

Reported Hostilities Startle the Assembly of the League and Action Is Expected

By Associated Press.

GENEVA, Sept. 21.—Announcement that hostilities between Jugo-Slavia and Albania have broken out has startled the assembly of the League of Nations, in session here, and there is a disposition on the part of many of the more prominent leaders to bring the situation before the assembly at the earliest possible moment. Lord Robert Cecil, representing the Union of South Africa, and Dr. Fridtjof Nansen of Norway, are particularly anxious that the assembly should take some action regarding this situation, which brings up once more the troubled international relations that have made the Balkans a trouble center of Europe for many years.

BURSUM ELECTED TO THE U. S. SENATE FROM NEW MEXICO

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Sept. 21.—W. C. Oesterich, in charge of democratic state headquarters here, today conceded the election of Holm O. Bursum, republican, as United States senator over Richard H. Hanna, democrat.

With reports from every county in the state in, in a majority of which the vote is practically complete, O. L. Phillips, republican campaign manager, claimed Bursum's majority would exceed 5,000.

On the other hand, Arthur Seligman, democratic state chairman, in a statement to the Associated Press at Santa Fe, declared "We concede nothing whatever." He said returns were too incomplete to justify election claims one way or the other.

THOUSAND SHOTS IN THE BORDER BATTLE INVOLVING SHEARMAN

MIDLAND, TEXAS, Sept. 21.—W. C. Guinn and J. F. Parker, prohibition enforcement officers, chief witnesses for the prosecution in the trial of C. F. Shearman and his sons, Neil and John, on a murder indictment, testified yesterday that a "thousand shots" were fired in a gun fight March 21, in which C. Arch Wood and S. E. Beckett, both prohibition officers, were killed. The witnesses testified the elder Shearman fired the first shot when the officers went to the Shearman hog ranch near El Paso to serve a search warrant. Defendants are being tried for the killing of Officer Wood, the case coming to Midland on change of venue.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—The directors of the Federal Reserve bank of New York today cut the rediscount rate from 5½ to 5 per cent.

BRITISH PROTEST TO SOVIET GOVERNMENT CLAIMS PRECEDENCE

HAS FEATURES WHICH FORESHADOW IMPORTANT DEVELOPMENTS

ONLY AN INFORMAL TALK OVER AFFAIRS IN IRELAND

Believe Prime Minister Plans to Appeal to the Country In a General Election

LONDON, Sept. 21.—Great Britain's sharp note to the Russian soviet government relative to hostile acts of bolshevik agents in the Near East and India today claimed precedence in interest here of the Irish situation. Mr. Lloyd George will probably have an informal talk over Irish affairs today with members of his cabinet who are at Gairloch, Scotland, and Ireland will be the subject of a conference there tomorrow, but the protest sent to George Chitcherin, soviet foreign minister, by Earl Curzon, secretary for foreign affairs, made public yesterday, seemed to have many features which appeared to foreshadow important developments.

Soviet Russia was accused of having carried on propaganda in Persia and Afghanistan with sending agents into eastern Afghanistan for the purpose of getting in touch with disorderly elements in India and with preventing a settlement of pending disputes between the Turkish nationalists and the allied powers. The soviet government was asked for assurances that these activities would cease and it was intimated that the commercial agreement between this country and Russia would be imperiled by continued hostile machinations by bolshevik emissaries.

The impression exists that Prime Minister Lloyd George intends to appeal to the country in a general election for a mandate in dealing with the Irish question, problems arising from unemployment, the reparations situation and a number of other knotty matters which are pressing for settlement. The decision that neither Mr. Lloyd George nor Earl Curson would attend the Washington conference on the limitation of armaments lent color to this belief.

ORGANIZED MINERS STRENGTH GREATEST IN UNION'S HISTORY

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Sept. 21.—Organized coal miners achieved the greatest numerical strength in the history of their union during the last year despite industrial depression and widespread unemployment in the coal fields, according to the report made today at the convention of the United Mine Workers of America by William Green, secretary-treasurer.

The average monthly membership was 515,243 for the year ending with last July. Mr. Green said average monthly paid up memberships was 442,057 with a monthly average of 73,186 members exempted from payment of dues for lack of work. In December, 1920, he reported a paid-up membership of 552,295, the largest ever recorded by the union.

Mr. Green's financial statement covered two years ending August 1, 1920, and August 1, 1921, respectively. The union's income for the first of these years was $2,352,831 and expenditures were $2,207,148. For the last year the income was $4,246,311 and expenditures were $4,987,988. Total net available cash on hand was $482,820.

Mr. Green discussed the general conditions affecting the coal mining industry.

"Pernicious propaganda against organized labor generally," he declared, "has been circulated through the press and other channels, while special onslaughts have been directed against the United Mine Workers of America. The idealism which seemed to inspire all classes of people during the war has disappeared. The forces of opposition have become arrogant and aggressive until now organized labor is forced to defend itself against hostile legislation, open shop attacks and destructive enemies.

"The pendulum of reaction has swung so far that in some communities the contest between organized labor and those who would destroy it has assumed the characteristics of a class struggle. Collective bargaining is now being defined by some courts as conspiracy and the expression of the commonly accepted right to withhold or confer patronage is classed as a crime.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 21.—Jesse Guilford, Boston, defeated Dewey Weber, Chicago, 2 and 2, and Jesse Sweetzer, New York, defeated L. E. Bunning, Chicago, 4 and 3. Ouimet squared his match with Johnston on the thirteenth hole when the Minnesotan missed a three-foot putt for a half in five.

CHEMICAL PLANT IN GERMANY SCENE OF TERRIFIC EXPLOSION; REPORT WHOLE TOWN DESTROYED

MAYENCE, GERMANY, Sept. 21.—Eight hundred persons are reported to have been killed and many injured today by explosions in the Badische Anilinfabrik at Oppau, near Frankenthal, in the Rhine Palatinate.

PARIS, Sept. 21.—One thousand persons are reported to have been killed and several thousand others injured at Oppau, near Frankenthal, in the Rhine Palatinate, through explosions in a chemical products plant, according to a Mayence message to the Havas agency received here today.

The town of Oppau itself was entirely destroyed by the explosions, the advices state.

The force of the shocks were felt for a distance nearly fifteen miles around. In Mannheim one person was killed and about fifty injured.

The cause of the catastrophe is not known.

The disaster appears to have been one of the most terrible in the history of industrial catastrophies.

The first explosion occurred when the shifts were being changed at 7:45 in a laboratory where 800 men were working. All of these are reported to have been killed.

This explosion was followed by a rapid succession of others which rendered assistance to the first victims impossible.

The concussions were so terrific that they were felt in this city, some 35 miles from the scene, while at Mannheim, 13 miles distant, almost every window was shattered and several persons were killed and others injured by debris. Some persons were killed at Ludwigshafen, across the river from Mannheim, many roofs were blown off houses and all the windows in the town were broken at Worms, while in Oppau itself nothing remains but a heap of ruins.

The shock was felt as far as Frankfort, more than 30 miles away, and many windows were broken there.

The whole district was enveloped in thick smoke which, together with the cutting of telegraph and telephone communication with neighboring towns, hampered efforts at assistance.

All the available fire brigades were rushed to the spot, but the work of rescue was found by the relief parties to be exceedingly difficult.

Rescuers who penetrated Oppau reported finding hundreds of dead and wounded lying in the debris. The uninjured inhabitants fled in panic when the explosions occurred.

Reports from the scene variously describe the disaster as due to the explosion of gas or spirits tanks.

One of the most circumstantial reports of the disaster says the first explosion occurred in laboratory No. 53 of the old plan of the Badische company in Oppau. The laboratory was raised bodily by the air pressure from the shock and then collapsed, not a single one of the 800 workers in it escaping death, this account states.

MAYENCE, GERMANY, Sept. 21.—More than one hundred persons are reported to have been killed today when a chemical products plant exploded at Oppau, near Frankenthal, in the Worms region. Telephone and telegraph communication with the Worms-Frankenthal area was cut by the explosion and details were lacking.

The plant which was the scene of the disaster was that of the Hadische Anilinfabrik concern, which makes explosive nitrogen compounds.

Early reports stated there were two explosions which, besides causing hundreds of casualties in killed and injured, did enormous material damage.

The region in the Rhine Palatinate where today's disastrous explosion occurred was developed during the war into one of the most extensive and productive of Germany's chemical munition supply districts.

Oppau itself is a comparatively small town with only a few thousand population, but nearby are Frankenthal, a considerably larger place, and Ludwigshafen, which has a population of some 75,000 and which during the war was accounted the largest of the German chemical manufacturing plants for war purposes. The chemical works there are still on a vast scale.

It is about seven miles southeast of Frankenthal and directly across the Rhine from Mannheim.

During the war the region was frequently bombarded by allied air squadrons, Ludwigshafen being their particular target.

SHERMAN EVADES THE NEW YORK POLICE

Man Wanted In Connection With Arbuckle Case Leaves Train At Harmon, N. Y.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Lowell Sherman, an actor, who is wanted by District Attorney Brady of San Francisco in connection with the case against Roscoe Arbuckle, today left a train at Harmon, N. Y., when on the way to New York and vanished in an automobile with a red-haired woman. This information was given to a representative of District Attorney Swann's office when he went to the Grand Central station here to meet the Twentieth Century Limited from Chicago and detain Sherman, as requested in a telegram from District Attorney Brady.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY DECLARES SHERMAN CANNOT ESCAPE

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—Lowell Sherman, actor, will be compelled to return to San Francisco from his present whereabouts in or near New York state, "as he is a most necessary and vital witness in the Arbuckle case," District Attorney Brady said today. "We want Sherman to come back of his own accord," Brady said. "If he does not we will compel him to come back. He is evidently trying to dodge us. We will figure on bringing a charge against him today. I do not want to say what he charge will be until I have consulted with my colleagues, but there are two serious charges we can bring against him."

CONGRESS RESUMES WORK OF THE TERM FOLLOWING RECESS

HOUSE WILL MARK TIME TO PERMIT SENATE TO ACT ON BILLS

IMFORTANT MEASURES ARE ON THE SCHEDULE

Taxation, the Tariff, Peace Treaty, Railroad Measure and Allied Debts Take Lead

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—Congress reassembled at noon today after a recess of 30 days, with prospects that the extra session would lapse into the regular session begiffning in December.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—Congress is to reconvene at noon today after a recess which began August 24. Under a gentleman's agreement in the house, however, that body is to begin immediately a series of three-day recesses until October 4, while the senate goes ahead at full speed on tax revision, the ratification of peace treaties with Germany, Austria and Hungary, and with a number of other important matters, including the anti-beer, railroad debt funding, allied debt refunding and Panama Canal tolls bills.

Presentation to the senate of the peace treaties and possibly of the revenue bill was expected to be the principal events today, although there was a possibility that only a perfunctory session would be held and business put over until tomorrow. The tax measure was to be reported out of the finance committee and the peace treaties were to be transmitted with a brief note by President Harding.

A lively fight on the tax bill is promised. The democrats plan not only to make a minority report on the bill, but to attack it vigorously from the floor. They count upon support in part of their fight at least from Senator La-Follette of Wisconsin, and some other members on the republican side.

According to democratic leaders, their guns will be trained particularly against provisions for repeal of the excess profits tax and a reduction of the maximum income surtax rate. Senator LaFollette also has stated his opposition to these particular features of the measure as they now stand, and some republican senators in the agricultural "bloc" also are understood to be against them.

Will Offer Substitute.

After the committee bill has been perfected by the senate, Senator Smoot of Utah proposes to offer as a substitue his tax simplification bill with its proposal for a manufacturers' sales tax. Considerable discussion of this measure is in prospect, but Senator Penrose believes that two weeks' consideration by the senate will be sufficient.

As the house bill goes to the senate it carries only two major levies provisions in their original form. These provide for repeal of the excess profits tax as of next January 1, and for increased exemption to heads of families having a net income of $5,000, or less, and on account of dependents, retroactive to last January 1.

While the senate committee agreed to the house proposal to reduce the maximum income surtax rates (from 65 per cent to 32 per cent, it changed some of the rates below the latter figure so as to bring about some reductions in the amount of taxes to be paid by all individuals except single men having incomes of $5,000 or less. Other major provisions in the bill as revised are:

An increase of five per cent in the corporation income tax, effective next January 1.

Retention of the transportation taxes, but with the rates on freight and passengers reduced one-half with provisions for their repeal on January 1, 1923.

Repeal of the corporation capital stock tax, beginning in 1922.

The bill also proposes substitution of manufacturers' taxes for the so-called luxury and "nuisance" taxes now collected direct from the public. The senate committee made changes in a number of these provisions of the house bill, but these already have been made public.

PRESIDENT SAID TO FAVOR PASSAGE OF BEER BILL

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—A proposal that the beer bill which failed of final passage just before the recess of congress be pressed for early action was taken to the white house today by Senator Sterling, republican, South Dakota, who is in charge of the measure in the senate.

Senator Sterling said after a conference with President Harding that he believed the latter was anxious to see the bill enacted and was certain it would receive presidential approval when sent to the white house.

TREATIES SUBMITTED TO SENATE FOR RATIFICATION

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—The treaties with Germany, Austria and Hungary were sent to the senate for ratification today by President Harding. The treaties were accompanied only by a brief formal note of transmission and were sent to the capitol by a white house messenger.

Chairman Lodge of the foreign relations committee on arrival of the treaties at the senate called a meeting for tomorrow to begin their consideration.

GENERAL PERSHING ARRIVES IN FRANCE; WELCOME EXTENDED

PRESENTED WITH BOUQUET OF AMERICAN BEAUTIES BY SCHOOL CHILDREN

LEAVES FOR PARIS SOON AFTER REACHING HAVRE

Plans for Itinerary Not Complete But He Expects to Leave for Coblenz Friday

By Associated Press.

HAVRE, Sept. 21.—General John J. Pershing, commander of the American armies during the great war, returned to France today. The liner Paris, on which General Pershing crossed the Atlantic, was escorted into the port of Havre this morning by the French battle cruisers Strasbourg and Metz, ten torpedo boats and ten destroyers. The general stood on the bridge of the Paris, as guest of Captain Maurar of the liner, and received a noisy and enthusiastic welcome as the vessel steamed up the roads.

Every craft in the harbor from fishing smacks to palatial liners dipped their flags and sounded their sirens, while the batteries on Cape de la Heve boomed a salute of 21 guns, to which the escorting cruisers responded.

The French squadron met the Paris sixty miles out. A thick fog prevailed and the liner was picked up by means of wireless messages, the squadron falling in with the course of the liner and following it by dead reckoning until sunrise, when the fog lifted.

Marshal Franchet d'Esperey and a numerous staff and Colonel T. Bentley Mott military attache at the American embassy in Paris, went down the roads in a French line pilot boat to meet the general.

A regiment of infantry lined the quay and a great crowd cheered lustily as General Pershing landed. He was presented with bouquet of American Beauties by a delegation of school children and was welcomed in the name of the city by Mayor Meyer.

The general wore only two decorations, the French war cross and the insignia of the Legion of Honor. After being welcomed at Havre he went to the railway station where a special car had been placed at his disposal. His train left for Paris at 12:45 o'clock.

Plans for General Pershing's itinerary in France have not been finally completed, but he expects to leave for Cobienz on Friday following a reception in his honor on Thursday evening by Mr. Barthou, minister of war.

A feature of the general's welcome to Ha re was the hearty greeting extended him as he rode in General d'Esperey's motor car from the quay to the city hall, with the 123rd regiment band escorting him, playing the Star Spangled Banner and the Marseillaise alternately. Fully 10,000 people lined the route cheering for America and General Pershing, the latter saluting continuously to his right and left.

MORE THAN 200,000 PESOS ARE MISSING

Special Fund In Mexico Found To Be Short and An Official Is Missing

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 21.—Newspaper charges that more than 200,000 pesos in silver are missing from the special fund of the chamber of deputies out of which salaries of members and "extraordinary expenses incident to the celebration of the Mexican centennial anniversary" were to be met have created a sensation here. It is declared that an official who might be able to clear up the mystery surrounding the alleged deficit has been missing since Monday.

The chamber last week voted approximately 700,000 pesos to its expensa money for the centennial. President Obregon and members of the cabinet are understood to have objected to this expenditure and the president is reported to have ordered eventually that the national deputies be paid only one-third of the amount due and that the payment be made entirely in silver, this being turned over in coin from the federal treasury.

Six Aged Women Distributing Food Are Roughly Used

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Bryant Park was the scene of another disturbance last night when police swarmed into it to disperse a crowd of unemployed, attacking with night sticks many who did not move fast enough, beating them over the head and shoulders. Several men were thrown to the pavement in the scuffle.

The police charge occurred when six elderly women, members of a charitable organization known as the "Sunset Club" began to distribute sandwiches among the men who sleep in the park. The women were jostled during the encounter and Mrs. Eleanor Chapman, grandmother of ninety, who was carried away by friends, declared she would file assault charges against the police who participated.

The men were driven out of the park and the food was eventually distributed on the sidewalk outside. The police said they broke up the crowd because it was "obstructing traffic."

LeDoux continued his practice of distributing food cards among the unemployed during a tour made tonight along the water front and the lower part of New York. He was accompanied by a police sergeant.

FORMER HUNGARIAN PREMIER PROCLAIMS REPUBLIC, IS REPORT

VIENNA, Sept. 21.—Stephen Friedrich, former Hungarian premier, arrived at Oedenburg, Burgenland, Monday and proclaimed West Hungary a republic, it is declared by newspapers here.

Burgenland was recently in the hands of insurgent Hungarian bands, but they were believed to have withdrawn for the most part as a result of representations by allied authorities. Assertion is made here, however, that these bands have been constantly reinforced until their members are now nearly 30,000 in number and it is said the men are so well armed and equipped that it is doubtful if Hungarian regular soldiers sent to oust them could be able to cope with them.

Military forces commanded by Freidrich are reported to be assembling at Steinamanger and belief is expressed here that the Carlists and the legitimists have joined issue over the Burgenland question.

HUNGARIAN AGENCY DENIES REPUBLIC IS PROCLAIMED

BUDAPEST, Sept. 21.—Austrian reports that Stephen Friedrich has proclaimed a republic in West Hungary and that the Hungarian government has ordered the mobilization of troops are denied by the Hungarian agency.

REPORT TWO-INCH RAIN IN QUANAH TERRITORY

QUANAH, Sept. 21.—An unusually large acreage prepared for wheat sowing was greatly benefited by a two-inch rain which fell throughout this section yesterday. Cotton open in the fields was damaged very little by the rain, and picking will be generally resumed tomorrow. Only a small part of the crop has been ginned to date, but owing to the good price paid locally none of it is being held.

MOVEMENT OF COTTON AT NEW ORLEANS IS TIED UP

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 21.—Movement of cotton through the public cotton warehouse was tied yesterday when longshoremen declared a sympathetic strike and refused to load cotton handled by non-union warehousemen.

Evelyn Nesbit Put One Over Marshals; Celebrates Event

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Evelyn Nesbit, a central figure in the celebrated Thaw case, successfully forestalled city marshals who attempted to evict her from her tea room on West Fifty-second street for non-payment of rent, and then treated a large crowd of Broadway habitues, who witnessed the proceedings to ice cream and coffee.

A dispossess warrant was issued upon application of the Trehubs Realty Co., controlled by the Shubert Theatrical interests. When the marshals appeared the former actress begged them not to disturb patrons then at their meal.

While the marshals waited, Miss Nesbit, hatless and coatless, fled in a taxicab to the Shubert office. She returned triumphant, having obtained a stay until next Saturday as well as a roll of currency of large denominations which she waved in the direction of her diners who crowded about to offer congratulations. The crowd outside was then invited to come in for ice cream and coffee as her guests.

YOUR ICE

"A little Patience and understanding will help us make your ice plant a better plant"

Nothing Left But "Good Will" After 10 Years—

Even though the utmost caution is used in securing the best machinery for making your ICE—the life of this machinery is very short. ONLY TEN YEARS—think of it!

After this period, this machinery must be replaced—regardless of initial cost or care extended in its handling.

The highest-priced machinery and equipment, such as engines, compressors, boilers, pumps, tanks, etc. are needed in ice-making.

Destructive Idleness—

The fatal combination of having to work at high speed half the time or less and be completely idle the rest of the year is even more destructive.

The United States government has allowed 10 per cent depreciation on ice plant machinery—acknowledging the extreme unfavorable condition ice must be manufactured under.

It takes 48 hours to freeze a 300-lb. cake of ice—no rest for the machinery—if the people are to be served; no letup, no time for proper repairs.

NATIONAL UNITY COUNCIL HAS EXTENSIVE PLANS DESIGNED TO COMBAT WORK OF KU KLUX KLAN

By ROY GIBBONS.

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—Ku Klux Klanism is expected to be dealt its death blow by a new national organization being perfected to fight racial animosity and religious bigotry and to promote comity and unity.

This organization is headed by Edward F. Dunne, former mayor of Chicago and governor of Illinois, and it will conduct a membership drive throughout every state in the union. Dunne and his aides expect 1,000,000 enlistments within a short time.

Its name is the National Unity Council—"a name that expresses exactly what this organization stands for," says Dunne.

Attack on Klan.

Formation of the National Unity Council follows a spontaneous attack on the Ku Klux Klan that has been steadily developing in the past two months.

The principal charge against the Klan is that while advertising itself as the agency of 100 per cent Americanism it has proved itself totally un-American in its every aspect and action.

The result has been that definite steps of an official character have been taken in various cities and states to so restrict the Klan as to put it out of business.

"My information is that the Ku Klux Klan is largely a commercial enterprise exploiting sectional and racial hatreds for its own enhancement," says ex-Governor Dunne.

EDWARD F. DUNNE.

"In the south, like its post-bellum predecessor, it is anti-negro; on the Pacific coast it is anti-Japanese; in many other places it is anti-Catholic, anti-Jew, anti-foreign-born—anti-anything, in fact, which will appeal to private prejudices and seem to afford the person holding them a chance to do something outside the law against those toward whom he is prejudiced."

Reply to Attacks.

The Ku Klux Klan, however, has not let these attacks pass by unnoticed. In five years this organization has grown from 24 charter members to a total variously estimated at from 500,000 to 800,000.

In the south it has attracted most attention, for there night riders wearing the habiliments of the Klan have tarred and feathered, lashed at the post and otherwise mistreated men and women against whom their wrath was directed.

In a recent issue of the Searchlight, the official organ of the Klan, printed at Atlanta, Ga., the national headquarters, the founder and head of the organization, William J. Simmons, known as the emperor of the Klan, says:

"For the edification of those who do not know allow me to say that the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan has not yet started to work, and may not do so for at least one year.

"We are merely organizing at the present time and we do not intend to start any definite activity until we have sufficiently organized to make sure of success."

Charges of Profit.

The charges are made that the order has made large sums for those on the inside through commissions paid for enlisting members and through the sale of the Klan's regalia. It is said the Klan gave Simmons a $25,000 home and also a college where he formerly taught, which is to be the center of propaganda for the order.

The National Unity Council, on the other hand, has no initiation fee. The council is to be supported by voluntary contributions. Following are its aims:

To solidify into one group all the racial and religious elements challenged by the Ku Klux Klan as not constituting 100 per cent Americanism.

To dissipate prejudices already formed against these elements by the Klan.

To make disclosures against the Klan following proper investigation and to bring such legal action against it as may be deemed advisable.

To promote universal cooperation throughout the country among members of all creeds and races by instilling a feeling of brotherhood.

"I have no sympathy for the Ku Klux Klan," Dunne said, "because by its very tenets it stirs up prejudice against creed and race, which is an intolerable practice attacking the very roots of our national life.

Name of the Klan.

"The name Ku Klux Klan was picked solely because it has been associated in history with lynching, violence and mob rule.

"The Ku Klux Klan admits the proscription of millions of fellow citizens because they happen to worship God in a different way as permitted under the constitution, or because their ancestors were born during recent years without the borders of the United States.

"Jews, Catholics, negroes, are plainly discriminated against by the Ku Klux Klan, by barring them from membership.

"The black man is placed outside the pale of law.

"America is for all people who become citizens and abide by our laws," Dunne added.

"America is for every person who honors and reveres Old Glory and who is willing to fight for it.

"Our fight will be carried on to the very end, to maintain the civil, religious and racial equity to which every loyal American is entitled, whether he be negro, Jew, Catholic or the member of any other race or creed."

MEXICO SUPREME COURT IS PREPARING A DECISION IN TEXAS COMPANY CASE

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 21.—Private discussion of the formal decision to be rendered in the amparo suit brought by the Texas company against officials of the Mexican government was begun yesterday afternoon by the supreme court. The informal decision of the case was handed down on August 30 and was reviewed as holding that article 27 of the Mexican constitution, nationalizing petroleum deposits, was non-retroactive and did not apply to oil properties, title to which had been perfected before May 1, 1917.

A committee was appointed to draft the court's decision and it was expected the completed text would be made public before the end of the week.

LEDOUX COMPROMISES WITH THE POLICE AND IS FEEDING UNEMPLOYED

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Urbain Ledoux, whose activities in behalf of New York's unemployed have been combatted by the police, announced today that he and the police had arrived at a "compromise." He has promised, he said, to abandon plans for holding a modern "slave auction" here and the police have agreed to aid his efforts to feed the jobless.

Carrying out the terms of the compromise, Ledoux appeared in Bryant Park with a police escort and began distributing tickets good for breakfasts in nearby restaurants. He announced he would open a bread line at St. Marks in the Bowery on Monday. Lodging also will be provided and an employment bureau operated, he said.

DISORDERS FOLLOW THE CLOSING HOUR TUESDAY AT THE VIENNA BOURSE

VIENNA, Sept. 21.—Serious disorders occurred in this city yesterday following the closing of the bourse. Many rushes were made upon the entrance to the building, but these were checked by the police. The crowds then wrecked the shops of several money changers in the vicinity while a few men suspected of speculation in foreign exchange were dragged from their automobiles and beaten. Impromptu mass meetings were harangued by speakers who declared the bourse would close permanently if profiteering in foreign exchange values did not cease.

Telegraphers are refusing to transmit messages relating to financial transactions.

Just another report of a case in Wichita Falls. Another typical case. Kidney ailments relieved in Wichita Falls with Doan's Kidney Pills.

A. M. Gross, retired farmer, 306 Lee street, says: "I am always glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Some time ago my back and kidneys got in pretty bad shape, caused by a cold settling in my kidneys. My back was sore and lame across the small part and I could hardly do my work. Whenever I stooped over, such pains would catch me in the small of my back I thought it would break. Sometimes I would get so dizzy and weak I would have to sit down to rest. I tried all kinds of kidney remedies but found no relief until I bought Doan's Kidney Pills. I used a few boxes of Woan's and they cured me of this attack. I use Doan's off and on as a kidney regulator now."

SAYS HER RECOVERY IS ALMOST LIKE A MIRACLE

From Helpless Invalid to Complete Restoration of Health, Strength and Happiness Is Wonderful Change Mrs. Root Experienced in Three Weeks —Statement One of Most Remarkable on Record.

MRS. JENNIE ROOT

"Just a week before I started taking Tanlac I was down in bed so crippled up with rheumatism I could not move without help. My son had taken Tanlac and it had done him a world of good, so one day he brought home a bottle and said, 'Mother, I want you to take this.'" When I had finished that bottle, I felt like a different woman, and by the time I had finished my second bottle, I was out in the garden hoeing.

"Tanlac has simply done wonders for me; it almost seems like a miracle." This is the remarkable statement made recently by Mrs. Jennie Root, residing at 1409 Powers St., Portland, Oregon, and is only one of tens of thousands from well-known men and women who are daily testifying to the powers of Tanlac.

Continuing her wonderful statement, Mrs. Root said, "For years I suffered terribly with rheumatism and would often be down in bed for days at a time. In the last five years there was not a time that I didn't feel those rheumatic pains all through my body. About two months ago I got very much worse and my arms and legs were so bad I was almost helpless and couldn't even hold a pen to sign my name. I was so weak I could not do any housework. I couldn't even sleep, and had no rest day or night. Even to walk a few steps would tire me out completely. When I tried to walk I would stagger, and when I did walk a little way and sat down I could not get up without some one helping me. I had no appetite and hardly ate enough to keep me alive. I could not stoop over far enough to get my shoes on.

"I never knew what a night's sleep was, and would lie awake for hours. At times I would get very cold and would have to get up and sit by the fire all huddled up, and my daughters would put hot water bottles all around me. I was treated by four doctors, and took all kinds of medicine. Nothing ever did me any good. I am just like a different person now. All those terrible aches and pains have left me, and only the other day I was able to walk up four flights of stairs in an office building when the elevator was out of order.

"My appetite is just splendid now, and just today for the first time in years, I felt so hungry that I had to go and eat a piece of pie between meals. In fact, I can't remember the time that I have felt as well as I do now. I have not only regained my health and strength, but I have gained fourteen pounds in weight. To tell you the truth, I wouldn't exchange the benefit I have received from Tanlac for the best ranch in Oregon, and I will praise it as long as I live."

Tanlac is sold in Wichita Falls by Miller Drug Store; in Electra by Tarleton Drug Store; West End Drug Co., Burkburnett, Texas and by all leading druggists.—Adv.

THE WOMAN'S PAGE

Novel Ways of Trimming Sleeves

By MARIAN HALE

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Although the sleeve's the thing, so far as size goes, there's a lot to be said about sleeve trimming.

Chenille and cire ribbon are rivals for attention this year.

In a Joseph frock of black, indestructible chiffon voile, cire ribbon is used with a lavish hand.

The huge angel sleeves which reach to the wrist are banded with seven rows of this shiny ribbon. Fifteen rows encircle the full skirt.

Chenille, softer and more pliable, is used most gracefully on the Rentner gown of drapella. The sleeves— long, flowing and bell-shaped—are heavily worked in chenille. The same designs decorate the skirt of this straight-lined frock.

By Way of the Transom

By L. M. D.

Sara Teasdale wrote one of the most beautiful themes in the world into her poem, "The Lamp," some years ago.

"If I could bear your love, like a lamp before me—"

It isn't a new theme, but it's one we don't usually connect with mortal love. Yet mortal love, with its unmistakable sensitizing effect, has worked wonders with character throughout the ages, and is still working wonders.

"I can't do it," laughed a young girl in a group the other day, when some innocent mischief was proposed. "I have to be good I'm now on!"

"What's the matter?" asked a companion, "piker?"

"No sir-ee. Im in love!"

What do you do with love? All the kinds of love you possess? If it hasn't some definite refining effect, then there is something wrong with it, or wrong with the lover. In the pure, true original, it is a lamp to the feet down the "long, dark road of shadows," and the bearer who uses it as such is bound to grow finer and better and happier with every lap of the course.

Legion Auxiliary Plans to Make Its Membership Lead

Plans to put the Wichita Falls Legion auxiliary in the front ranks for this district, both in point of membership and activity, were discussed at the joint meeting of the Legion and auxiliary Tuesday evening at the Legion headquarters.

The meeting was one of the most successful and interesting the auxiliary has held, its ambitions spurred by the talks of Legion Commander Hoffman and Joe Hatchett, and by reports given during the separate business session. The permanent committees for the year, appointed by Mrs. Carrigan, auxiliary chairman, were read, and plans for making money to keep up the hospital and other work were discussed at length.

The greatest effort of the entire membership is to be put into the membership campaign now on, according to the leading purposes voiced. To this end the women will go to Iowa Park and Electra Thursday and Burkburnett Saturday to organize chapters of the auxiliary. On Friday the executive board will meet at the Citadel, and Mrs. Carrigan asked that every member of the board be present.

Refreshments of cherry ice cream and angel food cake were served late in the evening, and a very delightful joint social session enjoyed by the Legion and auxiliary members.

The Wichita Falls Business Women's club will present "Springtime," said to be one of the prettiest musical plays in the working repertoire of the Rogers Production company, on Thursday and Friday, Oct. 27 and 28, at the Wichita theater.

Announcement of the dates for the play was made Tuesday evening at the opening fall meeting of the club, by Mrs. Sadie Carter, chairman of the arrangements committee for the presentation. It will be remembered that the Rogers Production company staged "Hitchy Koo," the musical comedy presented by the high school last spring which proved such a big success. Selection of the cast and choruses for the play is to begin this week and rehearsals will start at an early date.

Big Opening Meet

The Business Women's club made a most auspicious start for their year's work, with more than half a hundred old and new members present at the Tuesday night meeting. The club room was prettily decorated with sunflowers and yellow dahlias, and the supper table was especially attractive with its cypress runner and plate favor flowers, tied with pale blue ribbon. Mrs. E. M. Evans, a special guest, opened the meeting with prayer, and the club's attractive year-books, laid at each member's plate, were presented by Miss Carrie Webster, chairman of the program committee. Miss Jackson, president of the club, presided, and various committee chairmen were asked for remarks during the evening. Miss Adah Anderson, secretary, announced Miss Muriel Schofield and Miss Gladys Parrish as her two assistants, and Miss Maude Thomas, treasurer, named Miss Aline Covey assistant. Miss Ethel McDowell, responsible for the clubroom decorations, as chairman of that committee, asked Misses Hettie Thompson, Irma Durnal and Mary Hanks to assist her on that committee during the year. Mrs. Evans announced the Y. W. C. A. millinery classes, which open Monday of next week, and invited the business girls to join.

Ten new members added their names to the club roll and six guests were introduced during the evening.

Screen Vamps Always Yearn For Frying Pan

This is what makes Marie Prevost—the vamp in "Moonlight Follies"—decide in favor of the sort of domesticity she likes in private life, for the bacon you've cooked yourself always tastes better when eaten directly out of the frying pan!

By N. E. A. Service.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—The flourishing industry of motion picture press agentry has at least one permanent rule of procedure, to-wit:

The beautiful lady who plays the vamp role with convincing wile and devilishness really is the absolute anwho yearns for the joys of quiet domesticity, the hearthstone, and the unromantic tasks of the kitchen sink.

That is the formula.

Believe it or not, as you like. But in this particular case the press agent for thi sparticular case the press agent for Marie Prevost says it is absolutely true.

Marie, you may remember, gained fame as a bathing beauty. Nobody ever knew what she looked like in skirts until suddenly she rebelled against the one-piece bathing suit and vowed she would henceforth be a skirted film star or no star at all.

Her new vehicle, in which she is a properly skirted star, is called "Moonlight Follies." The naughtiness of bathing beach unconventionality is gone, but Marie remains the vamp.

In the play—as Nan Rutledge—she flirts and vamps her way through many feet of film. And she simply cannot make up her mind whether to marry Rene, who dances adorably and smokes violet cigarettes, or the virile Tony, who has rough habits and who doesn't dance and who smokes a pipe.

She tries to elope with the very, very nice boy. But, of course, the burly Tony, with his cave-man tactics of love, just naturally pursues them and drags Nan into his speedster and carries her off to his forest shack in Maine and locks her in a room to make her behave.

You can finish the story yourself. Certainly, she wouldn't talk to him. But how masterful he was! And finally he makes her cook his breakfast and darn his socks and wash his clothes. Sort of a trial marriage—giving her a chance to try out the job and see if she could perform such connubial tasks satisfactorily.

Just look at her frying the breakfast bacon and discovering how good her own product tastes—especially when eaten directly out of the frying pan in spite of the make-up on her lips!

That decides her. No sissy boy husband for her. She wants a real man—like Tony—who makes her give up vamping in favor of the frying pan.

And really—swears the press agent—Marie Prevost is exactly like that. In private life she is extremely domestic in her tastes and her ideal of happiness is to have a home of her own—and a family! But the real Marie just hasn't found the right man—a man like the screen Tony.

MOVIES and MORALS.

What of Girl Star's Social Life? Mrs. Calhoun Explains.

Movies and morals are being discussed everywhere as a result of the Arbuckle case. "What price must a girl pay for a movie career?" people ask. The question is answered in this series of articles written especially for the Wichita Daily Times by Mrs. Florence Calhoun, mother of Alice Calhoun, the Vitagraph star who in five years has risen from a $5-a-day extra to a $1,000-a-week performer.

BY FLORENCE CALHOUN
Mother of Alice Calhoun, Vitagraph Star
the Yungest in the Movies

Alice Calhoun is still a minor, still a flapper, still at the period when most girls delight in school pals and friendships, when "a party" is the sole end of existence.

MRS. CALHOUN

It invariably shocks other school girls to learn that social pleasures are almost taboo for a young movie actress.

Not because she would not delight in them just like other girls, but because there can be no dances, clubs, sororities, bacon bats for a girl who must rise before 6 in the morning to start by 7 for a drive of 22 miles to the studio where she must make up and dress in costume and be ready to go on a set by 9 o'clock; and who finishes her day's work by 5 or 6 in the evening.

We are all made to be sociable and every movie maid must call upon her morals when she sacrifices the rightful pleasures of youth simply to sleep in order to be fit for the next day's routine of the studio.

And as soon as one serial is finished, there is the scenario for the next to be studied.

To endure the swift rush of events in the cinema country, one must have a sense of humor, and humor, they say, is one of the important morales for all humans.

There are a few artists who have grouched a lonely path through the jungle of movie difficulties, delays, harassments and embarrassments, but most of the so-called "fortunate" personages of movieland have the spirit of fun in their hearts.

When things go wrong, they get a full portion of humor out of the situation. This has many rewards.

Probably we get out of life pretty much what we look for. But is it fair, or even sensible, to assume that the girl in the movies is different from the girl in any other employment?

We do not expect a school teacher to be eternally concerned with her heart affairs. Why should we suppose that a stenographer or movie star thinks of little else?

It was reported of a famous beauty, Mme. Recamier, that she "simply could not see sin anywhere." That particular characteristic is not impossible today, and doubtless it makes a dependable shield for any woman.

TWO GOOD RECIPES FROM HOLLAND'S KITCHEN DEPT.

Holland's Magazine has one of the best culinary departments of any of the monthly periodicals. This is partly so because the recipes are so exceptionally well adapted to the products of the southwest, and edited by a culinary artist of nearly half a century's experience. The following recipes are selected from it because of their excellenc:

IMPROVED CORNMEAL DUMPLINGS

Boil a pice of pork (joints preferred) with plenty of water, adding one bay leaf and salt to taste. When the meat is done, remove it and skim off most of the grease from the liquid. Take cornmeal (enough for dumplings required), one-third as much grated toast or stale bread, one egg to each two cupfulls of meal and crumbs, one small onion grated, and black pepper to taste. Mix with the hot liquor into a stiff mass and form into balls. Drop into the liquor and boil about 30 minutes. Serve hot.

A NEW MERINGUE

A meringue that never fails and is of much finer consistency than that made in the usual way is made as follows: Before beginning your pie, break the whites of the egg into bowl or platter, adding three tablespoonsfl granulated sugar to each white. Set it aside until the pie is taken from the oven, then beat to a stiff froth and flavor. Spread on the pie and return to the oven to brown. This meringue will be as fine and smooth as whipped cream.

LOCAL MEMBERS WILL ELECT NEW OFFICERS

Will Hold Meeting Prior To Charter Ceremony—Several Social Events Have Been Planned

The Program

6:30 A. M.—Imperial potentate and party met at Union station by Potentate Walter Cline and divan, Shrine band and Shrine patrol, and escorted to Kemp hotel for breakfast.

10:30—Membership meeting and election of officers by Maskat Temple at Wichita theater.

11—Delivery of charter and installation of officers by Imperial Potentate Cutts and Second Ceremonial Master Frank C. Jones.

12, Noon—Luncheon for Mrs. Cutts and ladies at Country club.

4 P. M.—Concert by Shrine band at Bellevue park.

6:30—Dinner for Mrs. Cutts and visiting ladies at home of Mrs. M. D. Rowe.

6:30—Informal dinner for all nobles at Kemp hotel.

7:30—Informal reception for Mr. and Mrs. Cutts at M. D. Rowe home.

9 P. M.—Dance at Shrine auditorium at Call Field.

Thursday will be a date of red-letter significance in the annals of Maskat Temple, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine. It will become a duly chartered temple, a permanent branch of Shrinedom, and will cease to operate under the temporary dispensation which was granted it to give it a chance to make good.

Its charter will be presented by Ernest A. Cutts of Atlanta, imperial potentate of the organiation. Mr. Cutts will arrive from Fort Worth early Thursday, accompanied by Mrs. Cutts, Frank C. Jones, second ceremonial master, and several Dallas nobles, including Potentate Walter C. Temple of Hella Temple, Dr. H. V. Cave, chief rabbin, and J. L. Stevens, secretary of Scottish Rite bodies, and one of the most beloved figures of Texas masonry.

Wichitans bidden to the breakfast at the Kemp include the elective officers of the Shrine, and their wives, as follows: Messrs. and Mesdames Walter Cline, E. M. Belcher, Frank Collier, W. W. Gardner, L. G. Hawkins, W. M. McGregor, C. O. Fritz and Mrs. C. R. Hartsook.

At the membership meeting at 10:30, it is expected that Mayor Cline will be elected imperial potentate, it being desired to accord the honor of being first potentate under the charter to the noble who has served as such under the dispensation, and who has contributed so largely to making Maskat Temple a reality. The election will be followed by formal presentation of the charter and installation of officers.

At noon, Mrs. Cutts and wives of visiting Nobles will be guests at a luncheon at the Country club, with Mesdames Cline, Collier, Gardner, C. O. Fritz, L. W. Fritz, McCutcheon, A. Marcus, Horrace Robbins, Harvey, J. I. Staley, Muehlberger, L. V. Lawler and Rowe as hostesses. The afternoon band concert will be the next feature and at 6:30 there will be two affairs, one at the M. D. Rowe home for the ladies, and an informal banquet at the Kemp for the men. From 7:30 to 9 the Rowe home will be the scene of an informal reception, with the dance at Call Field as the concluding feature of the day.

Mr. Cutts will remain here until Friday, going to Amarillo for a charter presentation and ceremonial Friday night.

A large number of out of town members of Maskat Temple, as well as many from other temples, are expected here Thursday for the events of that day.

ONE OF CITY'S BIG FIRE ENGINES BEING OVERHAULED BY MECHANIC FROM FACTORY

A complete overhauling of the motor and the installation of several new parts is being made on the big Stutz combination hose and pump truck of the No. 2 fire station. The work is being done by Factory Mechanic Logan of the Stuz company, whose services are given to the city without charge.

When the truck, which is the largest and most expensive of any of the city machines, was purchased the builders guaranteed that it would be given periodic examination and repairs by an expert with no charge to the city.

A new driving gear which will give the truck a speed of 75 miles an hour is to be installed. It has been found that the present gearing does not deliver the necessary speed, about 30 miles per hour, unless the motor is run at a high rate. All the power which can be developed is necessary when the pump is running, however, and with the new gearing ample speed can be obtained with a minimum of power from the engine.

JUNIOR HIGH MOTHERS ORGANIZE FOR FALL WORK

The Junior high mothers and teachers held an enthusiastic meeting Tuesday afternoon at the high school auditorium, with Mrs. Wolff, president, presiding. The attendance was good, and members were very much interested in Principal Glass' opening talk on work suggested for the association this winter. Among other things in which the mothers and teachers heartily concurred was a rest room for girls and women.

Other business and plans were talked over during the afternoon, and the next meeting announced for Oct. 17.

THIRD POLICE "SCHOOL" SESSION IS SCHEDULED FOR NEXT FRIDAY NIGHT

OLDTIMER MAKES A DISCOVERY.

Editor, The Times:

I have been a constant reader of The Times since 1913, a subscriber most of the time. I buy one nearly every day, if I am not a subscriber. My work often calls me to Wichita and Electra and I always buy a copy if away from home.

The article about the Bomarton farmer after cotton pickers is the first time I ever saw you show a kindly feeling toward the man who labors. Thank you. Glad to see you coming around. A. N. OLDTIMER.

Oldtimer, we're glad to hear from you, but you've got us down wrong. We've been for the man who labors and for nobody else all along. We've got to be to be for ourselves. Long time ago we realized that we were without any particular genius and that whatever success we might attain would have to come through hard work and keeping steady on the job. And the men who have helped make the Times have been hard at it for a good many years. It's been long and steady hours for us and we appreciate the dignity of labor. And did you know that there are some folks who believe that we are demagoguic and a sort of incumbrance to progress because we have put the man who labors first? Referring to the quest of the Bomarton farmer in search for cotton pickers in Wichita Falls, we believe that there are some folks in Wichita Falls who would rather beg, loaf, steal or bootleg than pick cotton. There are others who would be mighty glad to get the work.

WICHITA COUNTY'S AGRICULTURE.

Reports of the census bureau published in this issue of the Times indicates that Wichita county retrograded instead of advanced in an agricultural way during the ten years between 1910 and 1920. This can largely be accounted for by the absorption of the people of the county in the oil business and the use of much of the best agricultural land in the county for oil development.

The ten years from 1920 to 1930 ought to see a great development of agriculture in the county. Much of the land that was turned loose for oil development can again be brought under agriculture. The building of the irrigation system will make the Big Wichita river valley teem with production and crops can be raised on the irrigated land to feed several times the amount of livestock now raised in the county.

Before 1930 Wichita county must not only regain what she has lost in an agricultural way, but must make up before that time the advancement that might have been expected but for the oil development of the past few years.

It is estimated that there are now in the cities of the United States more than six million unemployed persons. Many of us think of the position of the farmer as a hard one, especially when crops are poor and the market is down. But even the position of the farmer with scanty crops is a pleasant one compared with that of the man without a job in town. In town there is no place to live, nothing to eat and no fuel without money. In the country the farmer at least has a place to live without paying rent, too. Things hardly ever get so bad that there is nothing to eat and it is generally possible to rustle a few chunks of fuel even in a prairie country. That is one of the reasons why industrial depression always starts a movement back to the country. Many a young man and many a family which was drawn to the city by the lure of high wages and other attractions are now going back to the farm.

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

STAND OUT OF THE CROWD.

No man ever counts until he assumes responsibility. Responsibility demands the work of the mind and the heart. These two, working together, breed ideas. Then results begin to show. And results make you count.

Stand out of the crowd. Count!

People who are useful always count. So if you want to count—if you want to be singled out and justly praised—think of the most useful service possible for you to render. Then do it. The man at his job, doing it the best he can, is sure to count.

If you're just a little kinder, and more thoughtful, it will make folks happy to have you around. You'll count.

If you do your work just a little better than the last one, the chief will need you. You'll count.

If you think and study just a little harder, you'll learn, and the world will need you. You'll count.

If you work just a little longer, you'll succeed. And then you will stand out of the crowd—

You'll count!

TO THE BOY.

When you've fought and lost the battle,
Boy o' mine,
Don't come in with childish prattle,
Boy o' mine,
Come in head erect and grinning.
Fit to make a fresh beginning.
Victory isn't all in winning,
Boy o' mine.

What if luck has broken bad,
Boy o' mine.
Don't tell others of it sadly,
Boy o' mine.
Though it's bitter fruit you've eaten,
That your manly ways can sweeten,
Say "I tried, but I was beaten,"
Boy o' mine.

Don't come back with lame excuses,
Boy o' mine;
Learn the lesson sport produces,
Boy o' mine.
Never mind the breaks which cost it
Or the carlessness which tossed it,
'Tis enough to say: "I lost it,"
Boy o' mine.

Take the failure without whining,
Boy o' mine;
Do no fretting or repining,
Boy o' mine;
Here's the one way, don't mistake it;
To your glory you can make it,
If you'll play the man and take it,
Boy o' mine.

Current Comment

ECONOMY IS PUBLIC BUILDING.

(Houston Post.)

An eastern concern, which has made a survey of a wide territory, has discovered that construction of public works is proceeding on a scale greatly reduced from that of last year. Comparing the amounts involved in contracts let for the first half of this year, with those for the first half of last year, the present year shows a falling off of $100,000,000.

This discovery will be deprecated by those who are advocating huge programs of public construction as a means of furnishing employment to idle labor. They will see in it only the lessened opportunity for labor and the retarding of the development of public works and utilities.

The decline in this sort of construction, however, has come as the direct response to the public clamor for economy in public expenditures. Desirable as it may be to have labor fully employed during the period of depression, it will be difficult to convince the people generally that they should go further in debt and pile up public expenses, for the purpose of furnishing employment.

The idea that government is under obligation to furnish people with jobs is essentially erroneous, and unreasonable. Granted that inauguration of large programs of public construction would bring some relief to idle labor, it would be an expedient of doubtful value in the long run.

Before there can be a return to normal financial conditions in this country, there must come relief from excessive taxation. The taxes the people are being compelled to pay, directly or indirectly, is one of the largest obstacles in the way of a revival of business, and they constitute a burden that sound business reason demands be lightened.

To employ labor temporarily at the expense of the taxpayers would not be contributing to the permanent solution of the problem, but only postponing the day when the tax burde shall be lifted.

The high taxes are a factor in keeping up the cost of production, and our exporters who are trying to compete with foreign merchants are finding out every day that production costs must be lowered in the United States, if they are to continue to do business in foreign markets.

As for the matter of giving employment to the idle, there is no assurance that any great number would seek such employment, unless wages out of proportion to the services rendered be paid. No little of the present day idleness, it should be remembered, is due to controversy over wages. And even if a considerable number should be employed at high wages, the country would be no better off in the long run. The government is writing off a loss of millions of dollars incurred by the shipping board. Is the country any better off as a result of the shipping board having paid exorbitant wages to anybody who could distinguish between a hatchet and a saw?

Cities, counties, states and the nation are no more immune from the operation of the laws of economics than is the individual. And when individuals are being compelled to retrench to the limit, there is every reason why every unit of government should also retrench.

COMPLETING THE DELEGATION.

(New York Times.)

Mr. Harding's pondered and sound judgment is shown conspicuously once more. The presence of Senator Underwood, minority leader of the senate, as one of the representatives of the United States at the Washington conference will emphasize the undivided national interest in its objects, and should tend to lessen the suspicious partisanship with which injudicious democrats are inclined to regard it. The appointment is commendable, also, as an eirenic and useful piece of political technics. Like Mr. Lodge, Mr. Underwood will be a bridge between the executive and the senate, so jealous of its constitutional part, sometimes trying to clutch more than its constitutional part in the matter of foreign relations.

It is a good fortune for the United States and adds to the good hopes about the conference that Elihu Root is to be a delegate, for it may be assumed that the offer would'nt have been made public if it were not to be accepted. Aside from his intellectual force and ample knowledge and experience, which it would be superfluous to praise, special reasons commend him to the confidence of Japan. While he was secretary of state, and especially in 1906 and afterward, good relations between the United States and Japan were endangered by the agitation for the exclusion of Japanese laborers under the treaty of 1894 and by the anti-Japanese movement on the Pacific coast, most notably by the segregation ordinance of the San Francisco board of education. The Root-Takahira informal "gentlemen's agreement," restricting immigration by the passport system, and the modification of the ordinance, quieted a considerable storm. To Italy, France and Great Britain no name could be more welcome than Mr. Root's. To Japan it has a connotation of old friendliness.

THE HISTORY OF YOUR NAME

By PHILIP FRANCIS NOWLAN

O'CONNOR.

Variations—Connor, Conor, Conners, Conyers.
Racial Origin—Irish.
Source—A given name.

In the days when Ireland led all Europe as the center of Christian culture and vigor, following the barbarian invasions of the decaying Roman empire; in the days when the Irish kings, under the single leadership of their "Ard-Righ," or "High-King," presented a united front to the Viking and the Saxon; when England was yet a land of numerous and antagonistic Anglo-Saxon kingdoms, largely pagan; long before the Norman conquest of England and the countries following it saw the first growth of family names in that country; the name of O'Connor was already a family name in Ireland. It was the name of the kings of Connaught, who were descended from the famous "Hui Niall" or O'Neill line, which gave ancient and medieval Ireland so many of its royal chiefs.

If the ancient rule were adhered to, the modern families of the O'Connor group would spell their names "Hui Conchobhair," but it would not be pronounced so very much unlike O'Connor," except for the injection of slurred-like gutturals and aspirates. As a given name "Conchobhar" means "the helping warrior." The King Conchobhar on whom the O'Connor families are founded died in the year 937 A. D.

But it must always be remembered that all who bear this name are not necessarily descendants of the king. The majority undoubtedly are descendants of followers of his banners. This rule holds good for all Irish names, for there are no Irish names except those which took their origin from the given names or sobriquets of chieftains and kings.

WOMAN HELD RESPONSIBLE FOR DEATH OF HUSBAND

SCOBA, MISS., Sept. 21—Mrs. Charles W. Persons, wife of a planter here, was arrested yesterday following receipt of a chemist's report that an examination of the stomach of her husband, who died several days ago, had been found to contain poison. The coroner's jury investigating the death returned a verdict holding Mrs. Persons responsible.

PAINFUL BUSINESS

YOU AND I

Well Can Marvel at the Remarkable Birth of Sallie Jeff Lucas

It was precisely at 6 a. m. Saturday that Sallie Jeff Lucas was born.

At 7:30 her mother drissed and went to breakfast.

On Sunday morning, when Sallie Jeff was barely past 24 hours old, her mother and father took her to church, and Sunday afternoon they went for a 15-mile auto ride.

On Monday Sallie Jeff's mother did her housework and watched tenderly over her first born.

Medical science must marvel.

The explanation? "It is the knowledge of what God is to man," said the mother, Mrs. Jeff Lucas, 1109 College avenue, Fort Worth, Texas. "God is love, and as we trust there is no pain and no sorrow"

Faith. That's the answer. It is the foundation of all religions, just as it is the foundation of the Christian Science creed, to which Mrs. Lucas subscribes.

The faith that men move mountains robs childbirth of its terrors. When science has explained faith, it will have reached its ultimate. But science never will explain faith—for science is human, faith divine.

POWER

Dr. Arthur D. Little, Boston industrial chemist, says that plant life on earth receives from the sun and stores each year, energy that has a heating power of 18,000,000,000 tons of coal. That's more coal than the world mines in 14 years.

Coal, as a source of power, is puny alongside the tremendous energy of the sun, which man eventually will harness to do his work.

BEGGARS

Chicago buries "French Sal," famous beggar, and after the funeral finds $100,000 hid in her attic home.

Wealthy Montana copper operator, visiting Detroit, fell asleep in a chair in front of a hotel. He had on dark glasses. Many mistook him for a blind beggar. He woke up with 40 cents in his hat.

Cities have as many kind-hearted folks as small towns. Metropolitan cold-bloodedness is mostly on the surface. Folks are much the same everywhere. Human nature travels under many disguises, but it never changes.

HATREDS

After a seven-years ban on the French language, Berlin permits Chicopera, famous tenor, to sing the star role of "Faust" in French.

War-time hatreds and prejudices are slipping away gradually. If Europe could live in peace 100 years, its countries might get along as amiably as Canada and the United States. That's the normal state of human beings, despite the theory of Crile, famous surgeon, that war is man's natural biological condition.

CRIMINAL

Tomasso de Angellis, Italy's greatest criminal, is dead. A ring-leader of the Camorra, he had a longer police record than any other Italian.

Despite his great wealth from blackmail, Tomasso died a hermit, without friends, penniless, living in a cave in a cemetery.

Detectives say no great criminal ever died rich. We pay penalties for most of our sins, right here on earth. Emerson, greatest American philosopher, was right about the law of compensation.

WAYWARD

At Big Rapids, Michigan, Justice Dresscher rents a theater and calls a mass meeting of mothers. He will "read the riot act to them."

Dresscher is alarmed at the large number of secret marriages he has been forced to perform lately. He blames mothers for the epidemic of immorality, and in most cases he is right. The tragedy of the neglected child, allowed to run the streets and dance the contortions that originate in Buenos Ayres dives, is what is undermining home life in American cities.

DYES

American dye manufacturers, alarmed at complaints about their products, hold a meeting in New York. It develops that millions of dollars worth of clothing is being thrown back on the manufacturers because the colors don't hold.

One of the dye makers hints that complaints are a new form of German propaganda, which is nonsense.

Dyers blame the dyes. The makers blame the dyers for not using enough dye. Regardless of responsibility, something's clearly wrong. Consumers want no protective tariff to protect inferiority—provided that inferiority is definitely established.

WAIL

Max Straus, ocean steamship man, says an English bank got this letter from a customer:

"For the following reasons I regret being unable to reduce my overdraft. I have been held up, held down, sandbagged, walked on, sat upon, flattened out, and squeezed by our income tax, the super tax, the excess profits tax, war loans, war bonds, war savings certificates, the auto nobile tax, and by every society and organization that the inventive mind of man can invent to extract what I may or may not have in my possession."

It should be easy to get the nations together on disarmament. They all seem to have the same problems.

STARS

Mary Carr, obscure New York housewife, got into the movies. She played with William Welch as the aged couple in Fox's "Over the Hills." Overnight came fame and a salary of $1,500 a week, with a vaudeville offer of $1,800 a week.

Mother roles, on the screen, are so popular with the audiences that they now average better pay than vampires. Has the public a depraved taste? This doesn't look like it.

HARRISON STREET HOUSE IS DAMAGED BY FLAMES

Fire of unknown origin broke out in a residence at 1704 Harrison street at 9:15 Wednesday morning, causing slight damage to the ceiling of one room. The flames were extinguished by the fire department before they could gain much headway.

The house is owned by Earl Robinson and was occupied by a family named Edwards. No one was at home Wednesday morning and firemen were unable to determine the cause of the blaze.

LOCAL VETERINARIANS PASS FEDERAL EXAMINATIONS

Dr. R. E. Richardson and Dr. L. I. Lucey, local veterinary surgeons, received word Tuesday that they had successfully passed government examinations held in Fort Worth recently. The two men are now licensed to make examination of cattle billed for international shipment, a privilege accorded only such veterinarians who have passed the federal tests.

About seventy men took the tests in Fort Worth.

The deputation was filed with the county clerk Wednesday and shows that Mr. Blocker has been commissioned a regular deputy on the force. He will assist in the serving of civil process and also in the field work.

SENATOR HARRISON SCORES REPUBLICANS, INCLUDING HARDING

SAYS THE PEOPLE WANT MORE WORK AND LESS PLAY AT THIS TIME

DECLARES SIX MILLION OUT OF EMPLOYMENT

Says Party Promised Soldier Adjusted Compensation and Gave Them Auction Block

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—The American people "want more work and less play," Senator Harrison, democrat, Mississippi, decclared today in the senate in describing President Harding's trip to New York state on the presidential yacht Mayflower. The trip was taken, he said, "while millions of Americans were hanging their heads in shame," because men who "helped win the war" were being offered on the auction block in Boston.

"What the American people want," the Mississippi senator said, "is more results and fewer recommendations; more meal tickets and fewer bread lines, more prosperity and fewer poor houses." Declaring that there were nearly six million persons out of employment in the United States, Senator Harrison charged that the republicans had failed to keep their campaign pledges of increased prosperity in the country.

Describing recent scenes of Boston Common when men stripped to the waist were knocked down to those bidding highest for their services, the speaker said that while this was going on the president had asked the senate to defeat the soldier adjusted compensation bill.

"Oh, yes, you promised adjusted compensation to the soldiers," Senator Harrison said to the republican senators, "and you gave them the auction block."

Senator Harrison also attacked President Harding for "claiming the disarmament as a republican achievement."

"It was forced upon him, against his will," Senator Harrison declared, charging that the administration accepted the Borah amendment to the naval appropriation bill only when it was assured of adoption. Senator Harrison deplored politics in connection with the conference and said there would be no democratic criticism during the conference. He expressed wishes for its success and deplored Secretary Hughes' cognomen of "a conference for limitation of armament," instead of the original and popular term of disarmament conference.

The peace treaties also were attacked by Senator Harrison, who said they were an "absolute betrayal of everything the soldier boys fought for" and an abandonment of the allies.

FASHIONS

By LENORE

Business and professional women whose work keeps them confined in excessively heated offices, would be apt to find a silk and cloth combination exceedingly more comfortable to wear than the usual heavyweight serge or tricotine dress. But ready-to-wear specialty shops do not cater to specialized needs, and those who depend on them for clothes learn soon to be grateful to find something suitable, rather than seek the unusual. It is in this respect that the woman who can sew or who is fortunate in connecting with a good modiste, has an advantage. Often she resents the time and trouble thus required. But when the annoyance of fittings is ended and she is complimented for the individuality of her dress, she feels repaid.

It is particularly for the office woman I have selected the above model. I found it at Cara's, a love of a shop in a busy section of Paris. The under portion may be made of satin or Canton crepe. Tricotine is used for the overskirt and bands on the bodice. The entire dress is in navy, with embroidery in Egyptian colors introduced underneath the bands just above the waistline.

PATTERN NO. 263

A pattern for the above model (No. 263) can be obtained in sizes 34, 36 or 38, by sending to Lenore, 8 West 40th St., your name, address and 50 cents in postage stamps. Be sure to keep this newspaper clipping of sketch and description of the garment to use as a working model when the pattern reaches you—which will be within two weeks' time.—The Editor.

YOUTH BEING HELD BY POLICE AUTHORITIES; FATHER IS EN ROUTE

J. E. Westmoreland Jr., aged 16 by his own admission but aged about 12 or 13 by his general appearance, was picked up on the streets two days ago by Chief of Police Morgan and is being held here until his father can come from Prescott, Ark., to get him.

J. E. Jr., or "Punch," as he is known at the city hall, rode the rods from Colorado to Wichita Falls and is credited with having said that he would have continued with this mode of travel had not the local chief interrupted his tour. He left his home in Arkansas about six weeks ago, he said, and had nearly $7 then. When found here he had 75 cents.

At the police station he has been established as "assistant chief" and already knows most of the cops by their first names. He smokes cigarettes with the best of the old timers and is not averse to engaging in verbal combat with the most efficient of the profanity experts.

Punch said that he had been given permission to leave home, but Chief Morgan believes otherwise and is holding him until his father can be heard from.

ANTI-BEER BILL CALLED UP IN SENATE EARLY

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—The anti-beer bill was called up in the senate today by Senator Sterling, republican, South Dakota, after a conference with President Harding before the senate reconvened. The conference report, which the house adopted before the congressional recess and which was filibustered against in the senate, today met fresh opposition, a quorum being demanded immediately.

The bill would prohibit the prescription of beer by physicians and would make tighter present regulations governing the prescription of wine and whiskey for medicinal purposes.

DISCOVER COTE BLANCHE IS AN ISLAND OF SALT

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 21.—Cote Blanche, an island on the south Louisiana coast, has been found to be virtually an island of salt, according to information reaching here today. The island is one of a series of several containing valuable salt deposits and including Avery's, site of the world's largest salt mine.

Cote Blanche is owned by Donelson Caffery, New Orleans lawyer, and the heirs of J. M. Burguieres, wealthy planter. Local geologists claim the discovery proves a century-old contention that the chain of islands was formed by the expansion of vast saline deposits. The Avery's island store was discovered by accident during the civil war.

In recent years both oil and gas have been sought on the insular chain, among the episodes being expenditure of a million dollars by John W. Gates upon a mine which accidentally was tunneled into the sea and drowned out.

FORRESTER MURDER CASE CALLED AT ROBY MONDAY

ROBY, TEXAS, Sept. 20.—The J. W. Forrester murder case was called in the 39th district court here Monday morning and a jury selected by 4 o'clock in the afternoon, after the entire venire had been exhausted.

Forrester is charged by indictment with having killed Frank Posey, who lived about seven miles east of Rotan, during this year. Posey's wife was killed at the same time. The defense claims self-defense in the killing of Posey.

The state introduced a number of witnesses who were at the residence before the bodies were removed as well as some character witnesses for Posey and wife. The defense used only character witnesses. Judge Chapman will prepare his charge and pleadings will be heard.

WHITTAKER VS. TUERO IN THE OPENING GAME

12,000 Fans Expected to Witness First Contest Between Cats and Chicks

FORT WORTH, TEXAS, Sept. 21.—Panther park, where the Memphis club, winner of the Southern association pennant, will meet the Fort Worth team, Texas league champions, today in the first game of the series for the baseball title of the south, was the scene this morning of the final workout of the visitors.

The Fort Worth team, which took the southern championship from Little Rock last year, completed training for the series yesterday. The Memphis Chickasaws delayed their final workout until today.

The Memphis batteries for the opening game will be Tuero and Hungling. Manager Abbott announced. Whittaker and Haworth are Manager Atz's selections.

The players of both teams are in the best of condition, their managers announced, and both said they would have no alibi if they lost today's game. Every reserved seat has been sold, and a capacity crowd of 12,000 is expected.

Cloudy weather early today gave the management some concern, but it was stated that nothing less than a heavy downpour during the game would be permitted to interfere.

YANKEES HEAD THE PROCESSION AGAIN

Red Sox Help Huggins Clan By Knocking the Indians Under

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—The game of leap frog between the New York and Cleveland teams for possession of first place in the American league found the easterners in front today. A four-point margin represented their advantage.

Cleveland's dislodgment from first place came when the Boston Red Sox yesterday attacked two of the world's series champion's pitchers in an eighth inning batting rally for six runs and victory, while the Yankees were winning from the Detroit Tigers.

The New York Giants' percentage as leaders in the National league was cut to three games by the Chicago Cubs, who noosed out a tenth inning victory. Chicago catchers were demons with the bat, Manager Killifer making three hits, a perfect average, and O'Farrell driving home the winning run in his only appearance at bat. George Kelly of the Giants hit his twenty-third home run of the season.

ARDMORE FAILS TO SHOW AND PARIS CLAIMS FLAG

PARIS, TEXAS, Sept. 20.—Paris today claimed by default the decisive game in the playoff for the Texas-Oklahoma league penant with Ardmore when the latter team failed to appear on the field when the contest was called.

In talking their stand, officials point out that one of the nine games of the series already played on the local grounds resulted in a tie and that the request that the tie be played off here is made in accordance with the rules of organized baseball.

Ardmore claims that under an agreement the last four games of the series were to have been played at Paris but that if in case of a tie, the playoff would be staged here. The Paris club management, on the other hand, hold that the agreement stipulated the last five games (if there were five) were to be played there.

The series stands at a tie, each team having won four games and tied one. Five victories are necessary to determine the winner. The local won the first half of the season's series by a good margin and the Ardmore entry nosed out in the second half by a bare half game.

MORE GOLFERS DUE TO FALL BY WAYSIDE IN SECOND ROUND TODAY

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 21.—The second battle of the links was waged over the field of the St. Louis Country club today with a certainty that half of the gallant army of golfers would be extinguished at the end of thirty-six holes of fighting for the national amateur golf championship now held by Chick Evans of Chicago, who in defending his crown will meet Richard Bockenkamp of St. Louis.

The skirmish for the title was led by the Boston "siege gun," Jesse Guilford, who measured drives with Dewey Weber of Chicago, conqueror of Roger Lord of St. Louis in the first round.

Next in the battle array were Francis Ouimet of Boston, who has won both national and international competition, and H. R. Johnston of St. Paul, who shoots a longer ball than Guilford at times.

The first international contest today was between T. D. Armour, Scotland, and no less a fighter than Bob Gardner of Chicago, who took Cyril Tolley to 37 holes in the British championship last year.

R. E. Knepper of Sioux City, and Bon Stein of Seattle, met in another match of skill. Knepper has shot the links in 70, and Stein in 72 since the tourney began.

The second international tourney involved Willie Hunter, British champion, and James Manion, another St. Louis public links product.

Last on the list fought Bobby Jones of Atlanta, and O. F. Walling of Portland, Ore., each of whom in the first round used 71 shots for 18 holes, the best scores of the day.

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—The Cubs sharpened their claws Tuesday and growled with a display of totally unexpected ferocity. It had been thought they were trained and tame and accustomed to the ways of the big league circus. But today they chased four Giant pitchers up the tree of defeat and won out in the tenth inning by the score of 7 to 6.

An error by Frank Frisch and a wild pitch by Arthur Nehf just about ruined the ball game for the Giants. George Kelly made his 22rd home run of the season in the eighth inning, and the blow tied the score. Young Cunningham, pinch hitting in the seventh, came through with a hit, and added to the general gaiety of things for a while.

Grover Cleveland Alexander, starting the 41st game of his career against the Giants, was driven from the box in the eighth after Kelly tied the score with his home run, and Roy Cheeves finished the game for the Cubs.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 20.—Staging a six-run rally in the seventh inning, the Cardinals overcame Boston's four-run lead and captured the first game of the series here today 9 to 7, the victory placing the locals six full games intrenched in third place and only three and a half behind the Pirates. Both Sherdell and Oeschger, starting pitchers, were knocked out.

FEW GRIDIRON CHANGES

By ROY GROVE

All over the country coaches are working feverishly to groom their entries for Sept. 24, the day on which the barrier goes up on the intercollegiate football race.

A glance over the field indicates that although racing conditions will be about the same as last season, the entries as a whole will be much faster.

Only a few minor changes have been made in the rules, and most colleges are recognizing the coaches and staffs of last year.

Renovations in team material are comparatively few, and with the bulk of playing material of last year back as seasoned veterans, the game should be speedier.

The style of play will be largely the same as that of last season; a liberal amount of open running, supported by tricks and accurate passing.

Passing to Stay

Forward passing seems to be necessary in rounding out a well balanced and effective offence, and most effective when so designed that the passes and running plays are made to look alike. This requires the defensive to hesitate to determine whether the play is a running play or a pass.

Forward passing is probably the department Ohio State will miss most, although Coach Wilce says he has Johnny Stuart, last year's fullback captain of the Freshies.

Stuart is said to have the feet that will fill the shoes of Harley and Stinchcomb, the all-American boys.

State's line, which upset the Big Ten, sat down to Stuart.

At the rush of the season, the kickers receive most of the attention and if a coach can develop a punter or place kicker then the team is well on its way.

Yost's Anchor-Man

Michigan is depending much on this; in building a machine around Steketee, last year's all-American fullback, a wonderful open field runner, sprinter and place kicker.

Another of last year's all-American team is back in Stanley Kech of Princeton.

Stanley should do a repeat in the all-American for he has been tackling, interfering, bucking the line and kicking goals in practice all these summer months.

As for Yale and Harvard, all is not so rory.

Harvard has a wealth of back field material, but as to the line the outlook is rather dismal. All the heavy forward beef stepped out with diplomas.

The Crimson has a ray of hope in McCagg, captain of the crew, with his six feet four inches, the same which should be credited to Captain Keith Kane of this year's varsity.

Kane did McCagg a good turn last spring when he joined the crew, rowing an oar against Yale. Now a return call is expected on the grid field from McCagg.

Eli's Best Bet

At the Yale bowl, the front strings play should revolve around Captain Malcolm Aldrich, left half, and O'Hern, the brilliant freshman quarter of last year who is expected to be the bright star of Old Eli in the coming scrimmages.

Minnesota, Penn, Notre Dame, Ohio State, Illinois and Michigan are expected to be about evenly balanced as to weight and speed. The Wisconsin team is being shaped about Bunge, an old-timer.

California lost few stars through graduation and is expected to show a lot. Brickmiller at end can play any position.

Georgia Tech, on paper, looks like the strongest team in the country, having much of the same material that last year throttled Penn and walloped Center decidedly.

HE'S PROP THAT KEEPS PHILS FROM FADEOUT

By N. E. A. Service.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19.—Gosh only knows where the Phillies would be if it wasn't for "Cy" Williams.

One hundred and eighty pounds, six feet two inches, fleet foot, keen eyes, and a regular guy.

It's Williams' timely hitting that has kept the Phillies from dropping completely out of the bottom.

He is always there; always dependable—that consistency that counts for any club.

Errors he makes, surely, but they are errors of effort and over-eagerness. It is his desire to win that makes him go far off his path to snipe a seemingly impossible hwat.

Williams started in the outfield and has stayed there. Born in Wadand, Ind., where he first played. Bats and throws left-handed.

The Phillies acquired him in a trade with the Chicago Cubs, for Paskert, in 1912. He showed his worth by being right up among the boys with 164 hits for an average of .328.

Last year he hit 192 times for a total of 292 bases, more than any player except Hornsby, who was leading the league. He committed 12 errors on the field.

Fred Williams is his right moniker. He studied architecture at Notre Dame and later bought a farm where he developed a new kind of potato.

On the Other Hand—

By GROVE

Raw—Rah-Rah.

Professional football is far from being the game that is played by amateurs.

The pros may have the players, for some of them are the best college stars, and all-Americans, but they lack the one great item that makes the game.

The spirit. The swinging, yelling stands.

Lines from the new "Battle Hymn of the Republic":

"Rotten!"
"Take him out!"
"Knock him out!"
"Finish him!"
"Touchdown!"

'Bout time for a reprint of Audubon's famous book on "Birds of America," so's to include those now famous birds, Babe Ruth and Jack Dempsey.

The average weight of the human male brain is 49½ ounces. Yes, we know a lot of 'em, too!

"Great sport,"
He'd snort
As his fingers snapped.
And when he crapped
He'd curse—
And worse!

Balling 'Em Up

With all the important golf matches being played now, little is being heard about the standard sized ball which was to have weighed no more than 1.62 ounces and to be not less than 1.62 inches in diameter.

Golfers pick out the kind of ball they like best, just as though they were buying a shirt or hat.

Manufacturers found it impossible to turn out the standard ball in numbers enough to supply the demand.

Now you can buy any style of ball you like. No questions are asked.

VERNON YOUTH IS WINNER OF TIMES RANGER BICYCLE

Master Alton Gaddie, age 12, of Vernon, Texas, is the ninth winner of a Ranger bicycle offered by The Times for securing thirty-five new subscribers for a period of six months. When R. J. Morrison, traveling representative of The Times, placed a Ranger on display at the City News Stand at Vernon about two weeks ago, Alton said "It's mine."

So he went to work with a determination to be the first Vernon boy or girl over the top. However, when he had secured the necessary thirty-five subscribers he discovered that the wheel on display was a size too large for him, so another is being sent to him by express direct from the Mead Cycle company of Chicago. There are several other workers in Vernon who will be returned winners real soon. They say that The Times is popular with Vernon citizens and it is not a difficult task to obtain orders.

SPORT SHOTS by Paul W. Barkin

If the Cats cop the Dixie championship (and we know of no reason why they shouldn't) we'd like to get a cut on the profits made by those whom we advised to stick with the Texas champions.

The Memphis backers firmly believe that the Chicks have two pitchers who are unbeatable. We believe that the Panthers have three. We also believe that Joe Pate and Lefty Johns ought to left hand them to death. The best Memphis hitters swing from the off side. Again, the Chicks haven't seen any spit ball hurling and Wachtel ought to have things his own way. Once more, the clubbing of Rhino Williams and Howard Camp has been an important factor in the Southern campaign and the Cat hurlers should know both their weaknesses while the Chick twirlers have faced nobody but Stellbauer.

Still, the dope counts for little in a short series and the best laid plans etc.

Several Spudders are going to take in the series. Bescher and Bischoff went last night while Josefson and McElwee were also counting on going. Abe Bowman is still in town, but is going to Wichita, Kans., for a few days soon before going to his home in Illinois. Bob Bescher is going to give his orange grove in Alabama the once over before he returns to his native haunt in Ohio. Tex McDonald says he's going to spend the winter here.

Though every Spudder, with the exception of Hollingsworth and Works, belongs to Salm, it is understood on fairly good authority that "Buddy" Tanner will be among the missing next year. He claims that he has had his fill of baseball and is going to devote his time in the future to his trade of blacksmithing. "Buddy" is not the "Buddy" of yore and he knows it as well as anybody. Still, this is the season for ballplayers to say they're through with the game, but few can resist the call in March.

One of the best things we have done the past couple of weeks is to dope that Bob Bescher is going to manage the Spudders in 1922. It has been rumored on the sidewalks that Bob bought a bunch of the local stock and would take over the reins. He denies both statements most emphatically. He has not invested a dime in the club nor has he been approached in any manner relative to taking charge of the team. And that's that.

See our Yanks are back on top for 24 hours more anyway.

Did the Pirates start the Giants on the downward trail? Two in a row.

The Giants have eight games left and the Pirates 12. If the McGrawmen take half of them the Pirates must take eight of their twelve to win. Thus, their case appears to be hopeless, but nothing is impossible in the national pastime.

They even insure polo matches. The Meadow Brook and Rockaway clubs were forced to lay off Saturday on account of rain, but they collected $4,000 insurance.

WIFE OF JUDGE JONES GROWS 48 INCH AMERICAN BEAUTY ROSE

Judge J. P. Jones presented The Times office with an American Beauty rose Wednesday morning that boasted a stem of 48 inches. Judge Jones' wife set out the plants November 1 last year and he stated that all his neighbors had conceded that his wife had the most beautiful roses in the neighborhood. The six bushes in the yard have yielded several flowers with stems 30 inches long, but the one the judge brought to the Times was the longest one, he said.

How To Keep Your Blood Pure and Wholesome

It Is the Person With Rich, Red, Normal Blood—The Person of Health and Energy—That meets With Business and Social Success.

A Lowered Vitality Is Usually Due to Waste Products in the Blood.

When your blood is impoverished and loaded with waste products, you don't get the full strength out of your food, and as a consequence, you become weak, nervous, and easily upset.

Waste products get into the blood mainly through the intestines, but there are other sources—for instance, the glands. Some glands secrete digestive juices, while others excrete waste products. If they fail to properly function, waste products accumulate.

As a result, nature strives to cast off the poisons. It may be through the skin in the form of some skin disorder, but it is not infrequent for it to settle in the muscles and joints and cause rheumatism.

For over 50 years, thousands and thousands of men and women have relied on S. S. S. to clear their blood of waste products. S. S. S. will improve the quality of your blood by relieving you of the waste products which cause impoverished blood and its allied troubles—skin disorders, rheumatism and a lowered vitality.

The same qualities which give S. S. S. its beneficial effect in clearing your blood of waste products make it extremely desirable for keeping your blood in good condition.

Get S. S. S. at your druggist. Use it strictly according to directions and write Chief Medical Director, Swift Specific Co., D-718 S. S. S. Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga. for special medical advice (without charge). He is helping people every day to regain their health and strength. WICHITANS RETURN LATE TUESDAY FROM BRECKENRIDGE TRIP

OIL TOWN EXTENDS HEARTY AND CORDIAL HOSPITALITY TO ITS VISITORS

KELL SPEAKS OF NEW RAIL OUTLETS PROPOSED

Numbe of Speakers Are Heard—Trippers Think More Jobbers Should Be Represented

Well pleased with the success of their trip, the excursionists to Breckenridge returned late Tuesday night, making the homeward trip in good time.

The congeniality of the trippers and the cordiality of the reception accorded at Breckenridge made the excursion an entirely pleasureable one. However, the opinion was expressed Wednesday by several who took the trip that more lasting good would have been attained and more substantial benefits realized if local jobbers and wholesalers had been more generously represented, these being, it was pointed out, those who profits most directly from trade extension efforts.

Speakers at Breckenridge included Mayor Leaverston, B. M. Caldwell, Breckenridge Walker, Mayor Cline of Wichita Falls, Frank Kell, Judge J. W. Derden and President Cleve Johnson of the Breckenridge chamber of commerce.

Mr. Kell aroused considerable enthusiasm when he spoke of the possibility of the Southern's becoming, through contemplated connections northward and southward, a real trunk railway of far greater importance than at present.

HEAVY BUSINESS IS REPORTED IN LIGHT GLOBES FOR AUTOS

Automobile accessory dealers in the city report more business during the past three weeks in light globes for cars than they ever had in a six months period.

The reason for this increase is explained through the fact that five county men equipped with motorcycle have been giving automobile drivers warnings to have two headlights and a tail light as defined by the state laws.

A very small number have been arrested and fined as the county highway officers are giving everyone an opportunity to equip his car with the necessary lights. In a few cases where it is deemed necessary to arrest the violators in order to uphold the dignity of the law they are taken before a magistrate.

Automobile drivers who happen to pass a motorcycle officer on the road and hear a whistle blow should begin at once to put on the brakes because another one will appear a short distance down the road.

DENVER EMPLOYE HURT BY FALL FROM LOCOMOTIVE

The condition of Jack Free, an employe of the Fort Worth and Denver railroad, who was believed to have been fatally hourt when he fell from a locomotive at the Denver round house Tuesday night, was reported to be considerably improved Wednesday morning.

Free was rushed to the Call Field hospital after the accident and reports late last night indicated that he had been badly hurt. A more complete examination Wednesday showed that the injuries were not as bad as had at first been thought.

A Man is just as Young and Strong as his Blood
No man can fight the battles of life and hold his own if his blood is not pure, for rich red blood is what strength is based upon. When you see a strong, vigorous man, who never knows when he is licked, you may wager that such a man has coursing through his veins rich, red blood. Many people have thin, pale blood. They are weak, tire easily, become discouraged quickly, and sometimes feel like giving up the struggle. Such folks need Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, made without alcohol, and sold by druggists in liquid or tablet form.

GOVERNOR DENIES A STAY OF EECUTION FOR THE 6 NEGROES

LITTLE ROCK, Sept. 21.—Governor McRae today denied the request of attorneys for a stay of execution for six negroes sentenced to be electrocuted Friday for murder in connection with the Elaine, Ark., riots of two years ago, according to E. L. McHaney, of counsel for the condemned men. McHaney said that a petition for a writ of habeas corpus would be filed this afternoon in the United States district court here.

RECLAIM ARID LAND AS AID TO JOBLESS

American Federation of Labor to Support Vast National Undertaking

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—Congress can put an end to unemployment by undertaking a nationwide project to turn deserts and swamps into productive farms, organized labor believes.

The American Federation of Labor will exert every effort to bring about immediate passage of the Borah-Bankhead resolution.

This bill provides for the reclamation of waste lands throughout the country and the establishment of rural homes. The reclaimed lands will be apportioned to war veterans, who will reimburse the government as soon as their holdings become productive.

The legislative committee of the American Federation of Labor is convinced that passage of the bill will:

Provide work for hundreds of thousands.

Cause scores of new towns and villages to spring up almost over night.

Revive manufacturing industries through orders for reclamation supplies.

Turn the tide of the movement from farm to city in the opposite direction.

If the bill is passed, it will cause reclamation work to begin early and on a large scale.

Manager of Hotel At Sherman Victim Of a Masked Party

DENISON, TEXAS, Sept. 21.—Fred A. Zeigler, assistant manager of a Sherman hotel, admitted today to county officials that he had been tarred and feathered by a party of masked men near Sherman Tuesday night, according to the sheriff's office.

Zeigler said that he was stopped on a street by four armed and masked men and forced to get into an automobile. He was taken to a grove near the city and in the presence of 50 or more masked men tarred and feathered. The men did not say why they were applying the tar and feathers, Zeigler is said to have told the officers.

Zeigler was a witness for the defense in the trial of a negro bell boy charged with attacking a white woman several months ago.

Economic Law of Supply and Demand Stops Moonshiners

DANVILLE, VA., Sept. 21.—The economic law of supply and demand has accomplished what that sponsored by Mr. Volstead failed to do, according to reports from the hill sections of Carroll and Patrick counties. With the price of "moonshine" down to $2 per gallon, as compared with $15 a few months ago, many operators have put aside their stills and have taken a new interest in the crops of bright leaf and sorghum.

"Love Lottery" at Denison Gets Man In Bad With U. S.

DENISON, TEXAS, Sept. 21.—C. B. Hamilton, who is said to have started a "love lottery" which resulted in his receiving thousands of letters from women all over the country, and marriage to three of them, was arrested here late Tuesday evening, charged with fraudulent use of the mails, the county attorney's office announced today.

TIMES DAILY MARKETS

New York Stocks—Grain and Provisions—Cotton—Livestock

COTTON MARKET.

New York Cotton

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—The cotton market opened firm at an advance of 35 to 49 points on relatively firm cables and reports of an improved tone in Manchester. Some traders who sold on yesterday's late decline were rebuying at the opening advance and there was covering or fresh buying on rumors of a bullish private condition figure to appear later in the week. October sold up to 19.98 and December to 20.35 right after the call, or 63 to 68 points net higher, but there was a good deal of realising around these figures. The southwest was also credited with selling hedges here rather freely and fluctuations toward the middle of the morning were irregular, with prices showing reactions of 20 or 25 points from the best.

The reaction extended to 19.22 for December later, or 41 points from the early high level. Wall street and local operators who had bought cotton on the break of late last week were credited with selling heavily, but offerings became less active toward midday and prices firmed up several points on the weekly weather report indicating that more favorable weather conditions have failed to improve the crop outlook. Local traders reported a very mixed sentiment on the floor, but enough scattered trade and commission house buying to give the market a fair, steady undertone at the declines.

The cotton market closed strong.

New Orleans Cotton

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 21.—Much better cables than due and further rumors of crop condition reports from private sources of under 27 put the price of cotton strongly higher, the active months rising 50 to 59 points in the first hour of trading. October touched 19.66 and December 20.05 cents a pound.

Heavy realizing came from the long side and it was said that large interests were letting go some of their cotton. Offerings from this source more than kept the demand supplied even after the reading of the weekly crop reports, which were considered to be highly unfavorable. Around 11 o'clock prices were at advances of only 10 to 16 points. October trading down to 19.25.

Cotton closed very steady at net advances of 10 to 37 points.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—Bears had an advantage in the wheat market today, owing more or less to an official report indicating that France has a surplus of 28,000,000 bushels over and above bread-and seed requirements. Initial quotations, which ranged from ¼ to 1c lower, with December $1.27¼ to $1.27½, and May $1.31½ to $1.31¾, were followed by a decided setback all around.

Export demand appeared to be lacking and talk of improved demand for flor failed to bring about any important upturns. The close was heavy 2¼c to 2¾c net lower, with December 1.24½ to 1.24¾ and May 1.28½ to 1.28¾.

New low record prices for the season were reached in the corn market. Predictions were current that the government crop report Oct. 1 would be bearish. After opening unchanged to ¼c lower, including December at 52¾ to 52¾c, prices continued to sag.

Only transient rallies took place. The market closed weak, ¾c to 1¼c net lower, with December 52 to 52¾c.

Oats started unchanged to ¼c down and then scored further losses.

Strength in hogs and cotton gave some firmness to provisions.

LIVESTOCK

Fort Worth Livestock.

FORT WORTH, Sept. 21.—Cattle sold on a fairly active market at generally steady prices today but the calf trade was again a dull, uninteresting affair, with sales weak to 25c lower. Heifers were very hard to dispose of and the run of yearlings was not wanted. Receipts were estimated at 3,000 head of cattle and 3,000 calves.

Striking an average, the hog market was 10 to 15c lower. An outside buyer paid $8.35 for one car, but the best hogs going to packersr stopped at $7.85. Bulk sales ranged from $7.50 to $7.75. Pigs sold steady at $5.00 to $6.75. Hog receipts reached 1,800 head.

Fully steady prices were paid for a supply of 1,500 head in the sheep yards. Choice wethers notched $4.65 and a few genuine lambs went at $7.50. Yearlings brought $5.00 to $5.25.

Royal Dutch, Sumatra Tobacco, American Smelting, General Electric, Bethlehem and Crucible Steels and United States Rubber eased fractionally. Mexican Petroleum, yesterday's weakest feature, was the only leader to display strength, rising one point. Secondary equipments, rails and motors recorded nominal gains and losses.

DECIDED GENERAL IMPROVEMENT IN BUSINESS OVER THE COUNTRY INDICATED IN A RECENT SURVEY

Decided improvement in general business conditions is shown by the following reports, covering the more important basic industries.

These reports were received by the Daily Times in a national survey of the trend of business.

Wool.

BOSTON, Sept. 21.—New England woolen industry is operating at 97 per cent capacity, after months of depression.

Massachusetts, which makes four-tenths of American woolen goods, is employing 105 workers to every 100 a year ago.

Wool consumption by New England mills is nearly as big as during the boom in the latter part of 1919, and the industry is close to capacity, says Federal Reserve Bank of Boston.

Spring outlook excellent.

Extent of the textile boom is shown by the fact that the industry was only 41 per cent normal last January, against 97 now.

Clothing.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Boom in New England textile mills is reflected by return of men's clothing manufacturing to the normal operation of 40 weeks a year.

Retail stocks of men's garments are reported low all over country. Rochester clothing factories making best record, Chicago second, New York third. Prices becoming stabilized.

Women, however, have started a mild buyers' strike, and condition of women's wear industry is very poor, about 60 per cent of capacity. Dresses in most demand. Orders for coats and suits small.

Steel.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 21.—In last two weeks 15,000 steel workers in this district have returned to steady employment. At Homestead and Braddock, the U. S. Steel Corporation is working 75 per cent of its normal force four days a week and expects to resume on full time October 1.

Heavy railroad orders for steel and iron are on the books awaiting straightening out of railroad finances. Tinplate and wire mills working full time with months of orders ahead. In finished products, sheets are very active. Prices at present trend upward.

Soft Coal Fair.

WHEELING, W. VA., Sept. 21.—Production by bituminous coal mines has fallen off somewhat in the last fortnight. Total output of all American mines so far this year about 90,000,000 tons behind same period of 1920.

Trade in steam coal is gaining steadily, as factories reopen. Buying by consumers lags. Compared with pre-war years, bituminous output is not discouraging. About 345 tons of soft coal being mined now for every 375 in same period 1914.

Freight.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—Amount of freight handled by railroads is steadily increasing. Eight cars of freight are being hauled for every nine cars moved during corresponding period of 1919.

Biggest gains in car loadings lately have been in merchandise, coal and miscellaneous freight.

Railroads are getting out of the hole. Class One roads are showing net profits of nearly five per cent a year.

Idle cars totaled 467,815 September 1, but are decreasing about 23,000 a week.

Hard Coal.

READING, PA., Sept. 21.—No danger of a hard coal shortage this winter. Prices are apt to decline further in next 45 days.

Total production of anthracite coal by all American mines was 1,790,000 tons in week ended September 3. This was 676,000 tons more than in same week a year ago, when a strike at many collieries had suspended operations. But anthracite output is gaining steadily.

September output will total a fourth bigger than August.

Silk.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Silk industry, which was first to have hard times, is on road to complete recovery. Manufacturers say this season will equal any pre-war year. Short skirts boomed stocking trade end of silk industry. Raw silk that sold for $18 a pound in wartime now is $7.

Exports.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—Exports from America $55,000,000 greater in August than in July. Imports declined.

Greatest shrinkage in foreign trade lately has been in iron and steel. Grain exports tremendous, especially corn and wheat.

Tonnage of exports is gaining steadily.

Southern Crops.

MEMPHIS, TENN., Sept. 2.—Higher cotton prices are sweeping business depression aside, all through the south.

Many southern bankers and cotton interests predict a cotton famine next spring. That's improbable, due to big carry-over from the last crop. But it's possible, provided planters hold their new crop for higher prices.

Crops of feed and food are so big this year in the south that the average southern farmer can get by for months without marketing his cotton.

Furniture Gains.

GRAND RAPIDS, MICH., Sept. 21.—Furniture factories here are running 75 to 80 per cent capacity. Orders from road men indicate this production rate will hold up until January, when the new furniture season opens.

Furniture manufacturers more optimistic than for many months. They say steady gain in building construction will make big market for furniture.

Furniture factory wages down 15 per cent from war peak.

Auto Output Upward.

DETROIT, Sept. 21.—Ford auto factories continue running at capacity. Other makers are from 50 to 60 per cent normal.

Recent price reductions, precipitated by Ford cut, have stimulated orders.

Detroit, now making 38 out of every 50 autos produced in the country, still has 173,000 unemployed.

Corn.

DES MOINES, Sept. 21.—Low price of corn this year will be partly counterbalanced by the big yield, estimated now at 3,100,000,000 bushels, against 2,446,988,000 bushels in 1913.

Farmers probably will average 25 to 28 cents a bushel for their corn crop. Exports huge.

Wheat.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—Wheat is now being exported from the United States at a rate which, if sustained for a year, would take every bushel of the total crop.

September 1, wheat exports passed 15,000,000 bushels a week. Government's September forecast is for a crop of 754,000,000 bushels of spring and winter wheat, lowest since 1917, but about the same as in 1913.

Wheat crop apparently is going to bring a better price than grain traders expected a few months ago.

Lumber.

ST. PAUL, MINN., Sept. 21.—Following a slack summer, sales of northwest and Pacific coast lumber in this district are gradually improving.

No boom has started in lumber, but mills report steady though slow progress toward normal. This is reflected by recent stiffening of wholesale lumber prices, which now average 35 per cent below war peaks.

Export outlook bad. European markets glutted with American lumber.

Shoes.

BOSTON, Sept. 21.—New England boot and shoe factories are running 60 per cent capacity, with women's dress shoes at 80 per cent.

Orders are small, for merchants are buying close to the market. General situation unchanged since March.

Despite lower production, employment in shoe industry is 85 per cent normal. Individuals on short time, to pass the work around.

Makers will attempt to stimulate men's buying by new styles.

Cash Registers.

DAYTON, OHIO, Sept. 21.—General business has been wobbling, but is surely improving. That's a composite of opinion of heads of National Cash Register company, which makes nine-tenths of the world's cash registers.

This company expects to keep its huge factory going full-blast this year.

Cheaper Meats.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—Chicago packers' wholesale prices on meats and hides in many lines are lower than before the war. Beef is 47 per cent lower than a year ago.

Retail butchers report public demand throughout country is for cheaper cuts. Receipts of hogs at Chicago during August were 17 per cent larger than August, 1920.

Hides moving slowly. Lard export business picks up. Meat and lard exports to England falling off but orders from continental Europe show substantial gain.

THE OUTTA-LUCK CLUB— Well, for One Thing, Blink's a Good Guesser— —By Dok Willard

NO WONDER TEACHERS GET SUCH BIG SALARIES—THEY HAVE TO KNOW ABOUT SPERMATOPHYTES

School teachers receive the stupendous salary, ranging from $100 to $250 a month. A glance at the questions which they are asked in order to secure a certificate, licensing them to teach, makes it absolutely clear why this liberal sum is allowed. The range of their education must be broad and liberal, therefore the liberal compensation for their work.

That psychological test that every soldier had to take during the recent world war in which some of us answered that an artichoke was a deep sea fish that inhabited the Arctic regions, was surely a difficult affair. Then Edison's questions came along in due course of time, and we didn't pay much attention to them, 'cause what's the use.

The county superintendent, upon request, gave us a copy of the last set of examination questions used. A question here and there proved beyond a reasonable doubt why the state exercises such a magnanimous spirit in recompense for the teachers' services.

1. Discuss the formation of zygospores in the life cycle of bread mold.
2.—Give examples of ellipses in five subordinate propositions.
3.—Discuss methods of feeding the amoeba.
4.—What is the anti-nepotism law?
5.—How many grams of sulphur dioxide can be made by roasting 75 grams of iroa pyries?
6.—What part did Erasmus, Pestalozzi, Comenius and Montessori play in the history of education?
7.—Define schist and breccia.
8.—Name representatives of the two subdivisions of the spermatophytes.

But on the other hand we found several questions that set our mind to wondering. One of the first things that came to our mind was that perhaps the teachers were overpaid, and the second thing was we wondered who it was that made out part of the questions at least. We came to the conclusion that he didn't believe in preparation and furthermore that he didn't have a cellar under his house.

These questions began with:

1.—What part of the United States is very dry? Give the cause of this condition.
2.—What kind of people went to Neutral Ground, and why?
3.—Why will seed not germinate if placed in a tightly corked bottle?
4.—Name several underground stems. What is corn?
5.—Name and describe five different kinds of cells.
6.—Name some bacteria that are of importance.

BIG HAGENBECK-WALLACE CIRCUS COMING OCTOBER 3

It's great to be a kid once more, and hear the lions howl and roar, and see the bears and feed the monkeys and sprinkle peanuts on the trunks of the elephants all in a row that keep a-swinging to and fro; it's grand you know to be a kid and see that big Hagenbeck-Wallace circus show.

It's great to sit and watch the clowns perform their funny ups and down, and see them laugh and hear them chaff until you split your sides in half; and watch those blokes play wicked jokes upon some unsuspecting mokes, as fat and thin they amble in, to make you squeal and smile and grin.

It's fine to sit and watch the rings, that holds so many, many things, with horses here and horses there; and pretty-girls with golden curls performing scary mid-air whirle, and drivers bold in cars of gold, that race as in the days of old; and monkeys that will ride astride of ponies that are true and tried and throw a ball, but never fall, it's mighty hard to watch it all.

It's great to see the big circus parade, and swallow circus lemonade, and see the lights and wonder sights, and pretty girls in spangled tights; and feast your gaze upon the blaze that the tent displays. Oh, once a year, it's grand you know, to see the circus show.

After unbosoming the above the circus man stated that the Carl Hagenbeck and Great Wallace shows combined would arrive in Wichita Falls on Monday, Oct. 3d., aboard three special trains. Two performances will be given, at 2 and 8 p. m. The doors to the monster zoological paradise will be opened an hour earlier. A two mile long street parade will leave the show grounds at 10 o'clock.

AUTUMN ARRIVES ON WINGS OF A COOLER BREEZE FROM NORTH

Borne on the wings of a cool norther at 3 o'clock Wednesday morning, autumn arrived, bringing with it some relief of one of the hottest summers experienced in these regions for many years.

At midnight Tuesday the thermometer still hovered around the 90 degree mark, but shortly after 3 o'clock it had dropped to 77 degrees.

It is generally conceded that autumn has its beginning on Sept. 21, although the astronomers and weather bureau directors say that the fall season does not begin until Sept. 22.

TWENTY-THIRD PSALM AS THEME OF EVANGELIST IRELAND TUESDAY NIGHT

In speaking of the 23rd Psalm Tuesday night, Evangelist Ireland described the coming of David from his shepherd haunts to lead the people of Israel, and of how much Christ is like the shepherd in looking after the wants of His followers here on earth.

The evangelist declared that the Lord is a personal shepherd, knowing the needs of each individual and providing what each should have.

"A good shepherd gives his flock rest, and there is need of rest in the world today, as never before, especially for the wives and mothers. The business man, worn out by hard work, cries out for rest and needs it, and this psalm is one of the most soothing and quieting psalms in the Bible. More beautiful than the orange groves is the green pasture of the blue grass region, with the herds resting beside the quiet waters, but the Lord's pastures are greenest, soothing the soul and quieting the storms within our breasts. We should not turn away from God's green pastures to the dry pastures of lust and greed.

"It is good for us to lie down beside the still waters of God for refreshment, where He will restore the waning spiritual powers and repair the broken down soul. We grow weary in our prayer life and our spiritual work, but God will restore our strength. He will lead us in the paths of righteousness if we will but let Him. We do not need to fear the shadow of death, if Christ is leading us, as it is nothing but a shadow then, and He will be there to comfort us.

"God has prospered us this year so we could feed the starving people of the world and He will always take care of us through life. People that follow in the paths of sin come to want but God provides for His followers. We should become overflowing Christians for God, as our cup of blessings runs over, because of His bounty and goodness. It is the overflowing of rivers that makes the valleys rich and the overflowing of our Christianity will redeem the world. The spirit of the 23rd Psalm is a missionary spirit and overflows through our lives to make our neighbors' lives richer.

"It is a joy to give a tithe of God's money for His service. Goodness and mercy follow the Christian all the days of his life, and likewise his descendants through their lives, if they will but accept his Christ as their Savior."

The meeting was featured by bagpipe solos by Professor Krumpelin, and by a duet by Rev and Mrs. Ireland. There is special music at all services, and all are invited to come and take part.

HUNTER HAS SUCCESS BUT HE STATES HE WILL GO HUNTING NO MORE

A certain party, whose name is withheld by his co-employes, but whom it is stated spends most of his time in the chief dispatcher's office of the Katy, went hunting a few days ago and captured not less than 25 doves. But when asked when he was going hunting again he replied that he never intended to go any more.

This sounded strange to a number of his friends and an investigation revealed the following story which the party in question does not deny.

Returning to the city chuckling over the 25 birds he had bagged, a high sheriff suddenly appeared in the road. The certain party grew pale and he quivered a bit. There was quite a delay but finally Mr. Man promised Mr. Sheriff that he never would shoot more than 15 doves in one day again and so Mr. Man went rejoicing on his way.

FIERY, ITCHY ECZEMA HEALED RIGHT UP BY APPLYING SULPHUR

Any breaking out of the skin, even firey, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Mentho-Sulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment and disfigurement. Sufferers from skin trouble should get a little jar of Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like a cold cream.—Adv.
