Diplomacy Is Ruled Out

By The Associated Press

Britain today vowed to continue military activities to regain the Falkland Islands while accepting U.N. proposals as a framework for future talks. An Argentine Foreign Ministry source said the British position ruled out a diplomatic solution for the moment.

Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher told the House of Commons in London that Britain accepted a U.N. plan for settling the conflict as a "framework" for future talks, but said Britain will "continue with our military activities."

Mrs. Thatcher said the U.N. proposals came with "no specific details" attached but linked a cease-fire with Argentine withdrawal from the islands, a basic British precondition for a truce.

But Mrs. Thatcher said it was "likely" that Argentina was seeking a cease-fire without withdrawal of its troops from the islands.

In Brussels, British Defense Minister John Nott said that "to agree to a cease-fire without a total withdrawal would leave the burglar with the spoils." He spoke to a news conference after meeting with NATO ministers and U.S. Defense Secretary Casper Weinberger.

He said Britain would continue to seek a peaceful solution through the United Nations, but added,

"I must stress that these efforts can only be based on the precondition of Argentine withdrawal."

An Argentine Foreign

Ministry source in Buenos Aires said Nott's statement "means that there is no diplomatic solution for the moment." The source asked not to be identified. Foreign Secretary Francis Pym had told the House of Commons earlier that he and Secretary of State Alexander M. Haig Jr. were working on a new peace plan.

Argentina told U.N. Secretary-General Javier Perez de Cuellar on Wednesday night that "the Argentine government reiterates that it is willing to negotiate a peaceful settlement" regarding the islands.

The Argentine communiqué did not say the junta accepted the substance of the secretary-general's proposals to settle the conflict over the British island colony Argentina seized April 2. But it said it "is willing to negotiate a peaceful solution."

Perez de Cuellar refused to make public his peace plan, but informed sources said it included a cease-fire, withdrawal of Argentine and British forces from the Falklands area and appointment of a U.N. administrator for the islands while negotiations resume to determine their future. The plan reportedly takes no position on the thorny sovereignty issue. Pym told the House of Commons Haig's peace efforts were continuing and Britain made a "constructive contribution" to them Tuesday.

"A vital ingredient of the ideas on which we are working is an early cease-fire and the prompt withdrawal of Argentine forces," Pym said. He said the plan under discussion was an amalgam of proposals from Haig, Perez de Cuellar and Peruvian President Fernando Belaunde Terry, who made peace proposals last weekend.

Meanwhile, no new military action was reported in the South Atlantic battle zone Wednesday.

Argentina drew the last blood Tuesday when one of its planes fired a missile that set fire to the British destroyer Sheffield, forcing its crew to abandon ship, and a British Harrier jet fighter was shot down and the pilot killed in an attack on one of the Falkland airstrips.

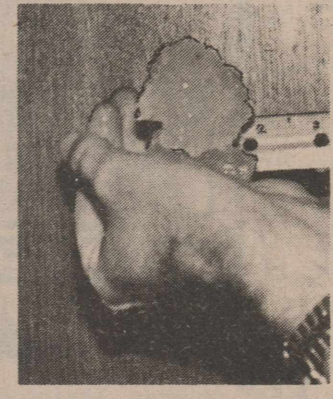

Snyder Area Has More Rain, Hail

Thunderstorms, some laced with hailstones, lashed the Snyder area Wednesday afternoon, adding to the week's moisture total.

A brief hail storm swept through a narrow portion of Scurry County from around Union to the northeast early Wednesday afternoon. Hailstones measuring more than two inches in diameter ripped foliage from trees, and dented some vehicles, but apparently caused little other damage.

Mrs. Bennie Sumruld brought several hailstones to the Snyder Daily News office from her home three miles out on the old Lubbock Highway that still measured almost two inches diameter half an hour after they fell. They were jagged instead of round.

The official rain gauge at the Snyder water treatment plant measured .49 inches of rain between 7 a. m. Wednesday and 7 a. m. today, which apparently was about average for the area except some hard showers two to 10 miles northwest of Snyder.

Rains amounted to .90 inch on the south side of the Lake J. B. Thomas dam and .50 inch at the dam. The Colorado River was flowing about two feet deep and some 30 feet wide into the lake this morning. However, Colorado River Municipal Water District officials did not expect the lake to catch a significant SWOLLEN CREEKS—Heavy rains to the north and west of Snyder had some local creek beds running near capacity late Wednesday afternoon. Although no major flooding was reported, rising waters closed the 28th St. underpass and the intersection of 17th St. and Avenue M around 7 p.m. Deep Creek reportedly crested around 10 p.m. yesterday and all roads were open this morning. 1983 Budget...

Demos Must Back Compromise Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Reagan said today a compromise budget plan drafted by Senate Republicans and endorsed by the White House "can put our country firmly on the road to economic prosperity" if congressional Democrats cooperate. At a question-and-answer session with reporters in the White House Rose Garden, Reagan said the new budget will "continue to protect" the basic benefits of Social Security recipients. The compromise budget plan was said to include $40 billion in unspecified Social Security cuts and tax increases.

Reagan was questioned on that point, but did not explain how the reductions could be obtained without lowering benefits. He did say that the savings "could come from a restructuring of the program," but didn't explain that in detail.

Reagan said the answer on Social Security would come ultimately from a bipartisan commission that is studying the system now, and is expected to report its findings by the end of the year.

He said the plan approved Wednesday by the Senate Budget Committee would "continue to bring down the growth in federal spending."

He said the tax increases in the compromise, totaling $95 billion over three years, would not impinge upon the incentives he expects from the tax-cut program he proposed and Congress enacted last year.

Also attending today's session were congressional GOP leaders.

Reagan said Democrats would have to explain how they would refuse to agree to a plan that would reduce deficits to $106 billion in fiscal 1983, $69 billion in fiscal 1984 and $39 billion the year after.

Speaker of the House Thomas P. O'Neill Jr. said this morning the Republican spending plan "provides for walloping defense expenditures and fails to correct the inequities and excesses of the Reagan-Kemp-Roth tax bill.

Indicted Judge Bides Time

MIAMI (AP) — Alcee Hastings is a federal judge without a caseload, an influential leader who could go to prison. Although he was once a rising star in Florida politics, his luster has been obscured by bribery charges for which there is no legal precedent.

Hastings, who became Florida's first black federal judge when President Carter appointed him to the federal bench in 1979, was indicted last December on bribery charges along with William A. Borders Jr., a close friend and a Washington lawyer.

Borders is to be sentenced Friday in Atlanta for conspiracy to commit bribery and obstruction of justice. He was convicted of soliciting case-fixing bribes on Hastings' behalf.

Hastings, 45, faces identical charges. But he won't be tried until appellate courts make a decision on his argument that a sitting federal judge is constitutionally immune from criminal trial.

License Suspensions Ordered

PORT ARTHUR, Texas (AP) — Two officers of a U.S. ship that smashed into a Liberian cargo vessel in the Gulf of Mexico earlier this year have been ordered to surrender their marine licenses for two months.

Capt. Jeffe W. Gunn, 65, of Tavernier, Fla., and Second Mate Daniel P. Lynch, 54, of Corpus Christi, were ordered by U.S. Administrative Law Judge Thomas McElligott to turn their licenses over to the nearest Coast Guard Station.

Gunn pleaded guilty to a charge of failing to slow his vessel, the 811-foot Delta Norte, in fog shortly before the Feb. 19 collision. Lynch pleaded guilty to failing to use radar information to avoid a collision with the 509-foot African Pioneer.

After 22 Years...

Woman Reunited With Her 'Dead' Daughter

By Shirley A. Gorman

Mother's Day has come early for Mrs. Roy W. (Mae) Shaffer. Last week, for the first time in 22 years she was reunited with a daughter she had thought dead since 1966.

Mrs. Shaffer saw her daughter, Donna Lindsey, now 28 years old, for the last time when the girl was six years old. After trying fruitlessly to find her for several years, Mrs. Shaffer gave up in 1966 when told of the girl's death.

Mrs. Shaffer and her then husband, Chuck Bailey, had adopted Donna while living in Germany. He was stationed there while serving in the army.

But after returning to this country, the marriage broke up and Mrs. Shaffer had custody of Donna. Mrs. Shaffer was living in San Antonio at the time and since she was ill, Donna was temporarily living here with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Skelton.

Bailey told the Skeltons that Mae wanted Donna brought to her so they let her go with her father. Mrs. Shaffer discovered the incident when she called her parents to ask about her daughter only to discover that her father had taken her away, supposedly to be brought to her (Mrs. Shaffer).

"I knew then what had happened," Mrs. Shaffer said.

For the next several years, she kept searching for her daughter; but, every time she would get close to finding Donna, her father would spirit her away again—once even to Alaska. Donna's middle and last name were also changed during this period.

Finally in 1966, Mrs. Shaffer emotionally explained, that her ex-husband called her up and told her that Donna was dead.

"The bottom just fell out of my world. He told me not to come since Donna had already been buried."

It was the end of the world for Mrs. Shaffer, but she survived. "I just went on living. That was all I could do."

Sixteen years passed before she was to learn the truth.

She also recently learned that apparently the plan had also been to tell Donna that her mother had been killed in a car wreck, but she (Donna) was never told that.

During this period Donna often questioned her father about her past life, but she eventually gave up.

She has been married for the past 10 years and during that time she and her husband have been searching for her mother.

Donna knew that her mother's maiden name was Skelton so she just made numerous calls over the years trying to locate her.

Finally she reached Mrs. Shaffer's uncle in Midland who was reluctant at first since Donna was believed to be dead.

After that it was just a matter of time before mother and daughter were together again.

The Lindseys are presently living in Colorado where he is stationed with the Air Force. They have three children: Tony, 9; David, 7, and Angelika Dawn, 3.

In one swift stroke, Mrs. Shaffer became a mother again, a mother-in-law, and a grandmother. "My feet still haven't touched the ground," she joyfully said.

The Lindseys visited here for a few days arriving two days earlier than expected—April 28— and returning home Monday. They will return in July for a family reunion.

"We visited, cried a lot and took lots of pictures," Mrs. Shaffer said. "I am so thankful that God sent my daughter back to me."

Mrs. Shaffer does not bare ill will toward her ex-husband or his family. As she explains it, "I would much rather that he told me a lie that was reversed years later than to have had what he told me be the truth."

Mrs. Shaffer is glad to be reunited with her daughter and her family and she is anxious to have them get acquainted with all of her relatives. She doesn't want to cause any problems for Donna and her paternal relatives since they are an important part of her life. She accepts the fact—painful as it may be—that her paternal grandparents helped raise Donna in her absence.

The SDN Column

Some people over in Dallas, including city officials there, are upset over the progress of cable television installation. Off hand, you would think that Dallas area residents would have plenty of television available without cables, with commercial stations on all networks—including a strong public TV station—plus several independents.

People in the big cities used to boast that they had the advantage over those living in distant rural areas because they could pick up more stations on their sets. Then, the smaller cities began to get cable service, and the situation was reversed. Residents of Dallas who are still without cable service do not have nearly so wide a selection as Snyder, and it is beginning to bug them.

The same is true in other major metropolitan areas, we are told. They don't have all-sports channels, premium movie channels and various other special services that are now accepted as routine in many smaller towns.

But the complaints in Dallas now involve the slow pace of installation and the scope of the service. They were complaining that in the relatively small area where cable service has been activated, the customers are able to get only 32 channels instead of 70 some odd channels their contract calls for. This raises a question, "What on earth would a person do with 70 TV channels, or even 32?"

We have enough trouble trying to watch one or two for an hour or two three or four times a week.

But the Dallas complaints appear mild compared to those going on now in Big Spring. They have cable service there, but a shakeup last week removed what apparently is everybody's favorite station. The Big Spring cable is no longer carrying Channel 8 (WFAA, Dallas). The uprising has resulted in telephone campaigns and an 800-name petition. So, it seems that no matter how many channels you have, one makes a big difference—if it's the right one.

Building Eases, But Leads 1981

Although commercial building dropped to nil, there were enough residential projects in April to keep Snyder's 1982 construction figures well ahead of last year.

The city issued 17 building permits the past month for construction costing a total of $380,090. Nearly $300,000 of this went for residential permits, with four single-family units and four mobile homes on the list.

The remainder went for additions and alterations to existing dwellings and commercial buildings.

The April permits increased the total for the calendar year to $2,852,912. The total for the first four months of 1981 was $2,593,551.

The total for the city's fiscal year, which began last Oct. 1, has reached $4,083,014, compared to $3,990,217 at this time last year.

Several major commercial projects are expected to develop within the next few weeks, including the new Furr's Super Market, and a new store planned here by Town and Country Foods, a convenience store chain based in San Angelo.

wits end

by erma bombeck

I call this piece, "A Guide Through Toys Past" or "Seven Reasons Why We Don't Need a $140 Video Game."

Indulge me, folks, while I reminisce about the toys of yesteryear that my children not only lusted for, but convinced us they could not possibly live without.

Horse. Remember him? He was brown and sucked up 80 gallons of water a day through his face. He was a lot of fun and lived with us for three years. He toed in and every time the farrier came to shoe him, it cost $45. No one wanted to pick the manure out of his feet because it was "gross." He attracted flies and did not like the sensation of anything on his back. He was ridden 12 times.

Ping Pong Table. It was a big table and held books, coats, dirty laundry, lunch sacks, stuff that had to go to the cleaners and stacks of old newspapers. You couldn't see the TV over it and it eventually went to the garage where it warped.

Frankenstein Doll: When you wound it up the pants fell down and the face turned red. When the batteries wore out, it just stood there.

Dolly and Bob: Two oversexed gerbils who started their own world. They enjoyed popularity for a full 15 minutes. Then their cage began to smell and got crowded.

Full Set of Leather-Bound-Gilt-Edged-3,000-illustration Encyclopedias. They were supposed to bring a new cultural level to the family. Used twice: 1. To point out picture of Eve in Vol. V who was topless. 2. To hold open the door when the new sofa was delivered.

Plastic Inflatable Swimming Pool. Officially dedicated on the morning of July 5. Officially closed on the evening of July 5 when it was noted that a small boy in the neighborhood had drunk five glasses of grape drink and had not left the pool in 12 hours.

Ice Hockey Sticks. In closet awaiting arrival of Canadian Salvation Army. Fell out of favor when it was discovered they did not have training wheels.

Primitive people and those who live in cultures where no shoes are worn have strong feet, usually free of fatigue, discomfort, strain and common foot ailments, according to Dr. Steven Baff, a clinical instructor at the New York College of Podiatric Medicine.

ASTRO·GRAPH

Bernice Bede Osol

May 7, 1982

Unproductive alliances which have impeded your progress will be severed this coming year and replaced by ones which are more worthwhile. Your new associations will be lucky for you.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) One-to-one relationships could be a bit more testy than usual today. Be tactful with all you encounter. Someone could have a chip on his or her shoulder. Find out more of what lies ahead for you in each of the seasons following your birthday by sending for your copy of Astro-Graph. Mail $1 for each to Astro-Graph, Box 489, Radio City Station, N.Y. 10019. Be sure to specify birth date.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Matters presently causing you problems should be resolved at this time. They're not apt to get any better. Don't let headaches pile up and overwhelm you.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Today, things of which you are supportive may not be looked upon kindly by companions, thus creating opposing conditions which could lead to confrontation.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Steer clear of situations today where you "know" going in, the odds favor your opposition rather than yourself. Don't invite unnecessary trouble.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) You won't appreciate having your ideas or procedures challenged today. You know from experience those who'll automatically criticize you. Avoid them.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Unfortunately, others may not treat you as fairly today as you would them if something of material value is at stake. Keep your guard up.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Your mat may be a trifle difficult to get along with today, so don't add fuel to the fire by bringing up issues which might rub your spouse the wrong way.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Keep pace with your duties or you might create a serious logjam. Matters which should be basically simple could become quite complicated.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) If you have a misunderstanding with a friend today, try to resolve the issue at once. If you let time go by the matter could fester and harm your relationship.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Whether you choose so or not, the spotlight will be on you today. Wrong moves could hurt your image and standing with others. Put your best foot forward.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Be careful what you say or put in writing today. There's a possibility it may later be used against you. State only what you wish repeated.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Be extremely careful in financial or business matters today. Any errors you make could prove serious and might be difficult to unwind.

Police Clear 2 Burglaries

Snyder police officers cleared two major burglaries reported Wednesday with the arrest of a 23-year-old man around 10 p.m. last night.

The suspect was arrested for taking well over $1000 worth of merchandise in two burglaries within a block of each other.

R. W. Bowman called police around 8 a.m. Wednesday and reported the burglary of his travel trailer which was parked on the lot at Wilson Motors. Taken from the trailer were two butane bottles, a screw type jack, several light bulbs and numerous other items.

A short while later, around 8:20 a.m., Royce Antwine and Ronnie Kuehne, workers at the Best Western construction site across the street from Wilson Motors, reported another burglary. According to reports, tools, including pneumatic nail guns and extension cords, were stolen from a storage area at the site Tuesday night.

Police recovered all of the items reported taken Tuesday night with the arrest of the suspect and were reportedly enroute to Brownwood early Thursday morning to recover other property reportedly stolen in Snyder over the last two or three weeks.

One other felony theft was reported around 9 p.m. Wednesday by Hoyt Dillard of Hoyt's Furniture in Snyder. According to reports, between 75 and 100 yards of linoleum valued at $600 were taken from the store sometime Tuesday.

Local officers are also investigating a misdemeanor theft complaint filed around noon Wednesday.

E. C. White of 1001 21st St. called police and reported the theft of a 5 horsepower Craftsman lawnmower valued at $100 from his residence.

Investigation into both of these complaints is continuing.

Rosa Valadez of 2902 Avenue F filed a criminal mischief complaint with local police around 3 p.m. yesterday. According to reports, someone had put a long scratch down the right side of her 1981 Oldsmobile sometime Wednesday. No dollar value was placed on damage to the car.

First Look At College Budget

Trustees of Western Texas College took their first look at the proposed 1982-83 budget at a breakfast meeting Thursday morning.

The budget work session was preceded by a 15-minute executive session dealing with personnel. No action was taken following the closed session.

Dr. Don Newbury, WTC president, presented a tentative budget of $4.3 million, excluding any salary adjustments. The budget, as stands, is an increase of $63,000 over the current year.

Citing several sizable increases in operating expenses such as utilities, the board expressed pleasure with the modest increase brought about by reductions in other areas.

The board will meet again Monday night for its regular monthly meeting at which time salary adjustments are expected to be considered and work on the budget continued.

Attending the meeting were Board President Dr. Robert Hargrove and board members Wacil McNair, Bill Jones, Edwin Parks, Howard Sterling and R. C. Patton. Absent was Bill Wilson.

Seeking help to fix his stalled car and was returning to the scene when he saw the truck pulling away from the parked car. He discovered that someone had broken a window out of the car and stolen his television.

The suspect vehicle was last seen heading toward Snyder and investigation into the incident is continuing.

Writings Surface In Trial

WASHINGTON (AP) — Defense witnesses, including Hinckley's parents, were ready to begin testifying today that the defendant was insane.

Hinckley's undated papers were seized from his parents' $300,000 home in a Denver suburb and from Room 312 of the Park Central Hotel in Washington, where he made final plans to impress Miss Foster by killing a president.

"I have become what I wanted to be all along, a psychopathic poet," Hinckley wrote in "The Painful Evolution," one of 38 pages of writings seized from the hotel room.

At least two poems are addressed to Miss Foster, the movie star with whom Hinckley carried on a one-sided love affair. He telephoned her twice and left letters under her dormitory door at Yale. She told him to leave her alone. "Jodie squirms and pretends not to care," he wrote in "This Thing Called Love." "I swear the end is very near. Right here is a good place to start. Your heart shall forget how to beat. How sweet is this thing called love?" And in "Amen": "Jodie, please watch over me and protect me. Have me do your will in this life of mine. I repent for my sins and ask your forgiveness. And I humbly ask all of this in your mother's name. Amen."

In one of the essays submitted to the jury of 11 blacks and one white, Hinckley expressed strong prejudice against blacks and Jews and said he "officially joined the National Socialist Party of America in October, 1978."

"By the summer of 1978, at the age of 23, I was an all-out anti-Semite and white racist," he wrote. "I read a book from cover to cover called Mein Kampf by Adolf Hitler. This autobiography by the most misunderstood man in history is, after the Bible, the greatest book ever written."

mitted to the jury of 11 blacks and one white, Hinckley expressed strong prejudice against blacks and Jews and said he "officially joined the National Socialist Party of America in October, 1978."

amount of water from the Wednesday rains. The big rains had moved to the south and southeast this morning. Flood warnings were out in San Antonio following rains of three to six inches.

Two weather systems combined to produce locally severe thunderstorms over portions of North Texas and South Texas early today.

The two systems, a surface cold front moving through Northwest Texas and an upper level trough of low pressure moving across West Texas produced golf ball size hail in the San Antonio area in addition to the drenching rainfall.

Flash flood warnings were issued during the night and early today for persons in Atascosa, Bexar, Guadalupe, Medina and Wilson Counties.

Rainfall at Churchill Square at San Antonio had been recorded at 5.50 inches by 5 a.m. today and more rain was expected. The official measurement at the San Antonio International Airport was 3.18 inches.

Forecasters also warned of the possibility of flash flooding in North Texas later today after heavy thunderstorms moved across the area during the night and more were expected today as the cold front moved slowly southward.

The cold front was expected to move into central and southern sections of the state late today and into the Gulf of Mexico by tonight.

Buddy Temple Withdraws

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — Railroad Commissioner Buddy Temple, who was to face Attorney General Mark White in a runoff next month for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, today pulled out of the race and gave the nomination to White.

Temple, a distant second in Saturday's primary, said he still felt he had a chance of winning the runoff, "But judging from the tone of the campaign just ended, it's clear that the runoff could degenerate into a bitter contest."

Fear Bankruptcy Of Many Farmers...

Congressmen Seek Change In 1981 Farm Act

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 1981 Farm Act was enacted only five months ago, but 18 congressmen already have introduced legislation to change it dramatically. They say thousands of farmers will be driven into bankruptcy if something isn't done.

"Business as usual just won't do when farm income is down 60 percent and bankruptcy has reached a near 50-year high," said Rep. Tom Daschle, D-S.D..

Daschle, along with Rep. Kent Hance, D-Texas, led the drive for early abandonment of several parts of the current law.

Hance is one of four Democratic Texas congressmen among the 18 co-sponsors of the Farm Crisis Act of 1982 introduced Wednesday. Like Hance, Reps. Charles Stenholm, Jack Hightower and Marvin Leath opposed the four-year farm bill that barely passed Congress a few months ago.

The bill would require a referendum among the nation's farmers in July to help determine a cropland set-aside program and it would provide funds for an agricultural credit revolving fund to aid capable farmers facing bankruptcy.

Speaker of the House Tip O'Neill has indicated an interest in the bill and has promised to expedite its consideration before the full House, Daschle said.

Hightower said the bill's chances will be helped by a Congressional Budget Office report that estimated the proposal would be less costly to the federal government than the existing program.

Because of the amount of land taken out of production, deficiency payments and storage costs would decrease and less grain would be redeemed, resulting in a savings of $899 million over four years, the CBO study said.

The legislation "stays within budgetary constraints and poses no threat to consumers," Hance said.

Since most of the provisions have already been before the House Agriculture Committee at one time or another, quick consideration by that panel is expected, with the bill hitting the floor by May 15, Hance predicted.

"I think we can have prompt hearings and have a fighting chance of either winning support from or defeating the administration on the floor," Daschle said.

Secretary of Agriculture John Block asked to meet with the group today to discuss the proposal.

The referendum would allow farmers to designate 15 percent of their land for conservation purposes in return for a 10 percent increase in loan rates. An affirmative vote of 55 percent of the farmers participating would be required for approval.

Farmers failing to comply with the referendum provisions would be ineligible for all farm programs for three years, including price support loans, federal crop insurance, Farmers Home Administration loans and soil conservation assistance.

The agriculture secretary would be required to establish a voluntary set-aside should the referendum be defeated.

Drug Dealers Are Executed

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Radio Tehran said 15 convicted drug smugglers have been executed in the Iranian capital. It did not say when.

The radio quoted a special Islamic revolutionary court in charge of drugs and addiction Tuesday as saying the executions were ordered "so that the young people are saved from the vicious monster of drug addiction."

The voluntary set-aside would take effect when carry-over levels reached certain pre-determined levels.

The set-aside acreage could be devoted to haying and grazing. The acres diverted by the proposed 1983 set-aside program would be calculated on a total crop-acres basis rather than the crop-specific method used under the current farm program.

Other provisions of the act would allow farmers to divert an additional 5 percent diversion in the 1982 crop program, and be paid for that diversion; call for $1 billion in the Agriculture Credit Revolving Fund; and require the agriculture secretary to use the $600 million available under the Economic Emergency Loan Program.

Other co-sponsors of the legislation are Reps. Don Albosta, D-Mich.; Berkley

Bedell, D-Iowa; Byron Harkin, D-Iowa; Ed Jones, D-Tenn.; Ron Marlenee, D-Okla.; Dan R-Mont.; Dave McCurdy, D-Okla.; Tom D-Okla.; Leon Panetta, D-

Calif.; Charles Stangor, N.C.; Arlan Stangor, R-Minn.; and Mike Synar, D-Okla.

Strychnine Was Put In Family's Flapjack Mix

BATTLE CREEK, Mich. (AP) — A young woman who said she whipped up a batch of poisoned pancake mix during a suicidal mood testified that she threw out the tainted flour, not thinking her mother would find it and use it to make flapjacks for the family.

The family thought the strychnine-laced pancakes tasted bitter, so they were fed to the dog, which died.

Kathryn K. Furu, a 23-year-old college student and champion fencer, delivered her testimony during a preliminary hearing on whether she should go on trial for the attempted murder by poisoning of her father and two sisters.

Miss Furu, on the first day of the hearing, admitted Wednesday she mixed strychnine into a box of flour. Her mother, Virginia Furu, testified that she saw the open box of flour in the wastecan that morning, retrieved it and made pancakes.

Mrs. Furu said her husband, Donald, and another daughter, Victoria, began eating the flapjacks but rejected them because of a bitter taste. She said the pancakes then were fed to the family dog, a 100-pound bouvier, and the dog died the same day.

Miss Furu was not present when the pancakes were served.

The assistant county prosecutor, John MacFarland, said the mother's testimony was a surprise. "This information has never been brought forward," he said, and Mrs. Furu never told that account to investigate did not say what the account would have been.

The hearing was in the Creek District Court before District Judge Stephen Miller. It recessed after about hours of testimony scheduled for resumption Friday. Police investigators are expected to testify then.

"If I'd had the slightest idea my mother would have seen the pancake box in the wastebasket, I would have burned it that night," Miss Furu testified.

The incident occurred July 28, 1981.

The family lives in Ceresco, a town southeast of Battle Creek. Use Snyder Daily News Classified Ads 573-5486

New Trustees

NEW YORK (AP) — Two new members have been elected to the board of trustees of the Metropolitan Museum of Art. They are John M. Crawford Jr. and Mrs. Belle Linsky.

Boss Of The Year Named By ABWA

Troy D. Williamson, corporate president and manager of Williamson Auto Supply, Inc., has been named the 1982 Boss of the Year by Scurry Charter Chapter of American Business Women's Association. The award was presented by Jan Lanier, Boss Night chairman, Apr. 29 at the chapter's 21st Annual Boss Night meeting.

Troy is a native of Snyder and a graduate of Snyder High School. He attended Texas Tech University and received his degree from Hardin Simmons University. He worked as national distribution manager for Inmont Corp. in Detroit, Mich. and as production manager for Demco Educational Corp. in Madison, Wis. before returning to Snyder to operate his own business.

Troy is a member of Colonial Hill Baptist Church where he is a deacon and serves as director of an adult Sunday School department. He is a Mason, first vice president of the Noon Kiwanis Club, and serves on the board of directors of the Snyder Chamber of Commerce. Barbara Williamson, corporation secretary, nominated Mr. Williamson for this honor.

Following the invocation by Dr. Robert Hargrove, dinner was served to 81 members and their guests. Mary Hall, president of ABWA, welcomed everyone and David Thompson gave the response. The History and Growth of ABWA was given by Myra Martin and Pat Rice gave the vocational talk on her position as district manager of Southwestern Bell's Service Center. Dr. Don Newbury, guest speaker and president of Western Texas College, was introduced by Carol Young.

South won, cashed his ace of clubs and ruffed his last club with dummy's remaining trump. Then he played ace-king and jack of diamonds from dummy. Cayne almost won the trick with his queen. At least he got to play his queen, but Mike, sitting West, saw a chance to get some mileage out of his bust hand. He ruffed his partner's trick and led a spade. The defense had two tricks in and was sure of two more.

Could declarer have made the hand? Yes, if he had been looking at all the cards. Instead of playing on diamonds he could have played on spades after ruffing his club in dummy. Eventually, he would get to score the game trick with dummy's last spade. Suppose North had played in three no-trump. Could he make it against an unusual king of clubs lead? We'll leave that problem to another reader who wants to work on it. (NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSN.)

Vienna, Austria...

Backstage Plot Rivals Opera

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — It was two nights before opening, and Isabel Weicken was going home from a successful preview performance in the title role of "Evita," the musical based on the life of the tempestuous Argentine leader. She never made the premiere.

As she approached her apartment building late March 12, two men smashed her nose and eyes. The beating left her face covered with bruises, almost ended her career and caused an uproar that is still shaking Vienna's staid cultural circles.

Several days later police arrested the suspected organizer of the assault who said he was paid 25,000 schillings — about $1,500 — to arrange the attack.

The man told police that he was paid by Werner Ploner, the former boyfriend, agent and housemate of Vera Gutman, who alternated in the role of Eva Peron with Miss Weicken.

"The whole thing is hard to believe, it's so crazy," said the 42-year-old Ploner, one of Austria's leading theatrical agents. "Evita" chronicles the rise and deification of Mrs. Peron, who came from obscure poverty to become the popular and influential wife of military dictator Juan Peron, ruler of Argentina from 1946 to 1955. She died of cancer in 1952.

Ploner was held by police for two days and released without being charged, although newspapers reported investigators were divided over the case.

Austrian newspapers gave the story extensive space, especially when Ploner was taken into custody and then released. They reported that Ploner had allegedly arranged the attack in a complicated scheme to boost Miss Gut-man's career and win back her favor.

The tabloid Kronenzeitung, the country's largest selling newspaper, headlined, "Ex-boyfriend Wants To Win Back Lost Love."

"The Austrian press has ruined me," said Ploner.

Under Austrian law, an accused man has to prove his innocence. Expecting charges to be filed at a hearing scheduled for later this month, Ploner says he has hired a private investigator to clear him.

"If he doesn't, I could end up in jail," Ploner said.

"After I've proved my innocence, I am leaving this country forever," he said in an interview. "I don't want to live in a land where you are judged guilty without having done anything."

Miss Weicken and Miss Gutman shared the "Evita" title role last year, and, because of the show's popularity, were slated to do so again this season. But opening night and top billing had been given to Miss Weicken.

On opening night — March 14 — at Vienna's "Theater an der Wien," the 28-year-old Miss Gutman played Evita.

Most critics were impressed with her performance. One described it as "cold and calculated," but another said "She made it," implying it was the assault that had given her the title role.

Audience response wasn't as favorable. Her performances were greeted by only polite applause, and ticket sales dropped at the 1,000-seat theater where the best seats sell for 280 schillings — about $17.

Miss Gutman gave 10 performances before withdrawing last month from the musical. "My career is ruined," she told reporters before leaving. Friends say the young actress is bitter and depressed, and has vowed to start over in the United States.

Because of the notoriety, Miss Gutman said she received a petition from 180 West German artists asking that she be banned from performing in their country. The actress also lost her German manager and a number of scheduled television appearances.

The 34-year-old Miss Weicken returned to the role on April 6 after a nose operation and an extended convalescence on the island of Cyprus. Although the musical is not selling out, it has been doing well at the box office, and Miss Weicken has been receiving standing ovations. It closes tonight.

The musical by Tim Rice and Andrew Lloyd Webber was being done in repertory with Lehara's "The Merry Widow."

Meanwhile, three men remained in custody for the attack, and the Vienna prosecutor's office will not say if charges are to be filed against Ploner.

"We are still in the stage of preliminary investigation," said Investigating Judge Gerhard Lugarycz, declining to comment further.

Nearly two months after the attack, no clear motive for the mugging has emerged. Prosecutors will not say if they believe the reported jilted lover theory, but, according to Ploner, "It's a crazy scheme."

Man Shoots Hero Twice

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) — Mike Cisneros is listed in critical condition at Arlington Memorial Hospital, recovering from gunshot wounds in the hip and arm. Police say the man who shot him is the same man whose life he saved last year.

Chan Quoc Tran shot Cisneros with a .38-caliber pistol, then wounded himself in the head with the same weapon, police said.

"There's no constructive reason for this happening," Detective Ruben Puente said. "There was no animosity between the men. In fact, Mr. Cisneros saved Tran's life."

Last summer Cisneros, 48, pulled Tran from a burning car in the parking lot of Atlas Match Co., where they both work. The shooting was Monday night, and nobody has offered an explanation.

"I don't think there was any basis for what happened," Cisneros said.

Tran is also at Arlington Memorial Hospital, listed in satisfactory condition but left blind by the self-inflicted wound. Cisneros has refused to press charges, Puente said.

"He (Tran) was a model employee who never caused any trouble at all," said Glen Walker, Atlas president. "We just don't feel like he knew what he was doing when he opened fire on Mike."

Tran, a Vietnamese immigrant, is suffering from "culture shock" in trying to adjust to the United States, according to his brother, Trung Quoc Tran. He said Tran left Saigon in 1975, and has worked for Atlas for three years.

Cisneros, from his hospital bed, described last year's rescue.

"He (Tran) had a bottle of butane," he said. "And when he got in the car, he lit a cigarette, and he engulfed the car in flame."

Cisneros said he and a fellow employee dragged Tran out of the car.

"He wasn't hurt bad — singed hair and eyebrows," he remembered. "That's about all."

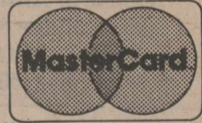

QUEEN CANDIDATE—Ira High School junior Lisa Dunn has been selected to represent District 2-A in the competition for queen of the Texas Six Man Football Coaching Association. Lisa will be competing with girls from all over Texas in the Association's annual coaching school July 16-18 in Stephenville. (SDN Staff Photo)

RECENT GRADUATE—Richard Bryant (Rick) Bowden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Bowden of Snyder, was among the students graduated from Abilene Christian University in commencement exercises May 2. Rick attended Snyder High School and was graduated from San Angelo Central High School. He received the bachelor of business administration degrees with a management major.

Ex-smoker fights weight

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB — Six weeks ago I quit smoking after 25 years of being dominated by the habit. I am so happy to be rid of the cigarettes, but terribly unhappy and frustrated about 10 new pounds. I even went on a diet, but although I have lost weight before I cannot drop any weight.

Before my misery gets the best of me and I start smoking, again please tell me what is happening to my system these last six weeks and what to expect and how to handle this weight problem.

I've always had to work hard at keeping my weight steady and now it has gotten out of hand. Many of my friends have gone back to smoking because they couldn't handle the weight thing and smoking again solved their weight gain struggle. I hope to avoid this but I need all the help I can get. I have always been physically active and nonsmoking is an added bonus, especially for my lung capacity.

DEAR READER — According to statistics about one-third of people who stop smoking do gain weight, but one-third lose weight. The other third have no change in weight. Those who gain weight usually substitute eating for cigarettes while those who lose weight usually have a total change in life style and begin an exercise and diet program at the time they quit. The group that doesn't change doesn't do anything different but stop smoking.

Many people who have smoked and gained weight won't agree with those statistics, but those are the facts, M'am.

You have to think about where you are in life. You may be approaching that time when you do have to make more of an effort to avoid gaining weight, smoking or not.

My best suggestion to you would be to increase your vigilance on your diet. Keep plenty of rabbit food, such as raw celery and carrots, around and start a regular exercise program. Try to build up a program to walk about three or four miles a day. Do it in several sessions if you need to.

Healthwise, smoking is more dangerous to your health than gaining even 20 pounds. I am sending you The Health Letter number 19-6, The Tobacco Problem, to summarize the problems of smoking and points about quitting. Others who want this issue can send 75 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it to me, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

DEAR DR. LAMB — Which is more beneficial, to exercise a straight 30 minutes or do the same amount of exercise but take a few minutes break every 10 minutes? For me taking the breaks would mean that I'm somewhat rested and the exercise would be a little easier. I can do more exercise if I break it up in short periods rather than going straight through.

DEAR READER — It depends entirely on what your purpose for exercising really is. If you want to use calories to control body fat then the important thing is the total amount of exercise or total number of calories used. It doesn't matter how many short periods or how long the periods are. And it is true that most people can do more exercise if they stop and rest frequently.

If you are trying to build up endurance you want to gradually lengthen the exercise period. And to build up heart and lung capacity you will want to build up to having periods of exercise that are at least 15 minutes in duration. The longer a person is able to sustain a moderate level of exercise the better his heart and lung capacity usually is.

Airplane Crash...

7 People Killed In South Texas

CHARLOTTE, Texas (AP) — Roger Rodriguez was plowing a field with tractor and disc harrow when he heard a rumble in the sky and looked up to see if it was going to rain. What he saw was a plane crash that killed seven people.

"I heard something like thunder and when I looked at the clouds the plane was falling," he said. "There was a lot of smoke and pieces were falling along with the plane. It looked like paper falling from the sky."

SHS Choirs To Perform

The choir department at Snyder High School will present its 1982 version Pops Concert at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in SHS auditorium.

The concert will feature piano, guitar, electric bass and drum accompaniment.

Jack Alarcon and Pete Rodriguez will play guitars, Cody Jenkins the drums and Kim Byrom electric bass.

Included in the program are current hits on the pop and country charts and a few hit songs from the recent past.

Tickets are $1.50 each and are available at the door.

Student Art Show Is Set

The annual Western Texas College Student Art Show will open Sunday with a reception in the Fine Arts Gallery.

Awards will be presented during the reception, scheduled from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

About 30 students will be exhibiting in the show, scheduled to remain in place through May 13. Janet Parker, associate director of the Diamond M Museum, will be juror for the show.

Wants OAS To Move

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica (AP) — Outgoing President Rodrigo Carazo is urging that the Organization of American States move its headquarters from Washington to Costa Rica.

U.S. support for Britain in the Falkland Islands crisis "represented a severe blow to the inter-American system," Carazo said.

The twin-engine plane exploded in flight Wednesday afternoon. Investigators said the charter flight was returning its passengers from a fishing trip near San Jose del Cobo on Mexico's Baja peninsula. All seven people aboard died.

Rodriguez said debris from the crash landed almost at his feet.

"It (the airplane) was on fire ... it continued to burn after it hit the ground," Rodriguez said. "We came over and the debris was all on fire. We couldn't see anybody."

"It was awful," said Allen Hime Jr., who owns the land where the plane went down. "I'll tell you, I was in the service and I've seen airplane crashes and car wrecks and so forth, but I never saw one burned up like this. It was burned about as totally as it could be."

The turbo-prop airplane had stopped at Laredo to clear U.S. Customs after crossing the border and departed about 2 p.m. enroute to San Antonio, said officials at Laredo International Airport.

The names of the victims were being withheld pending positive identification of the badly burned remains and notification of kin, said Atascosa County Deputy Sheriff Leonard Lozano.

Guards were ordered to spend the night at the crash site to protect it until National Transportation Safety Board inspectors could examine the wreckage today.

A passenger manifest filed in Laredo, along with the flight plan, listed seven names but officials said early today they still had not positively identified the bodies pulled from the smoldering wreckage.

"The wreckage is scattered over two miles," said Lozano.

"The plane hit upside-down in the middle of a barley field," said Sheriff Tommy Williams.

Lozano said the Beechcraft BE-90 King Air crashed about 3:30 p.m. about five miles south of Charlotte, which is 40 miles south of San Antonio.

Federal Aviation Administration radar was tracking the plane when it suddenly disappeared from the radar, said the agency's duty officer in Fort Worth, asking that his name not be used. There was no radio contact from the pilot to indicate the airplane was in trouble, said officials at the Laredo airport.

Lozano said the plane's registration number was destroyed by the crash and fire.

"It (the airplane) evidently ... burned quite a while," he said, adding that state highway patrolmen and sheriff's officials had to wait several hours before the wreckage was cool enough to begin removing the bodies.

Duke Palmer, an official at Texas Aero, an air taxi company based in Waco, said his company provided a pilot for the flight but not the airplane, which he said was owned by a Waco company.

EXHIBITORS—WTC art students who will be exhibiting their works in the Fine Arts Gallery next week include Chris Wallor of Colorado City and Robin Banks of Lubbock, standing, and Tammy Harris of Sterling City and Victor Sawyer of Sweetwater. The new exhibit will open Sunday and remain in place through Thursday.

Dear Abby

Nudist's Exposé Has Little to Show

By Abigail Van Buren
© 1982 by Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY (really, her secretaries): After Abby's poor advice regarding family nudity at home (she's against it), I invited Abby to spend a weekend at Treehouse Fun Ranch, a nudist resort.

I assumed that a columnist of national reputation would be interested in learning the truth about nudist camps firsthand in order to pass that information on to her millions of readers.

Wrong! Abby is too shy to learn the truth about nudism. Abby is too shy to even send someone else to learn the truth. Abby is too shy to admit that she is ignorant about nudist camps and she's too shy to try to get over her shyness.

So, the great solver of the world's problems and the knower of all answers is shy. Pity!
Will you secretaries please tell Abby that if she is too shy to spend a weekend at a nudist resort, she should retire.
MIKE MEYER, LANCASTER, PA.

DEAR MR. MEYER: Abby is not shy, but admits to being something of a conformist. As the late Bill Vaughan, columnist for the Kansas City Star, once wrote: "If there is anything the non-conformist hates worse than a conformist, it's another non-conformist who doesn't conform to the prevailing standards of non-conformity."
ABBY'S STAFF

DEAR ABBY: My wife and I are in strong disagreement over what to do about our son, who will be 18 soon. "Peter" (not his real name) dropped out of high school at 17 to "work in the real world," but so far he has not found a job. He has been very selective in his job hunting. He's not really qualified for anything, but no job seems good enough.

I suggested that he take a paper route until he can get the kind of job he wants, but he won't even consider it.

I told Peter that his free-loading days will be over when he reaches 18, that he will be expected to pay room and board while he lives with us. My wife says I am totally unreasonable to demand such a thing from our son.

I maintain that when children turn 18, they are no longer minors and they should support themselves. Also, there is no law stating that parents have an obligation to send their children to college, either. Your opinion on both questions, please?

NEW YORKER

DEAR NEW YORKER: I vote with you on both counts. Some birds won't even attempt to fly until they're kicked out of the nest. But all 18-year-olds are not alike. Many need parental assistance and deserve it.

DEAR ABBY: I just read the letter from the unhappy husband who complained about his wife going off and playing tennis while he sits home. He said no way would he take up tennis and thought his wife should give up tennis.

You said it was OK for the wife to go without him. I used to feel the same way, and told my wife to go ahead and play tennis while I stayed home and studied. (I was in college at the time.) Within a month she began an affair with her tennis partner. It went on for a year. She finally broke it off, but it was the cause of our divorce.

I don't think a married couple should have separate interests. They should either find things to do together, or forget it.

LEARNED MY LESSON

DEAR LEARNED: The more interests a couple have in common, the better. But a solid marriage is based on trust, and if a couple must be together constantly to keep an eye on each other, it's not much of a marriage.

CONFIDENTIAL TO YOU: Please remember your mother with a bouquet of flowers next Sunday on Mother's Day. And if you're adopted, send her two bouquets!

"The Best of Dear Abby," featuring the best answers and favorite responses during the past 25 years, is now available. You can obtain a copy of this new best-selling book by sending $9.95 plus $1 for postage and handling to "The Best of Dear Abby," in care of this newspaper, 4400 Johnson Dr., Fairway, Kan. 66205. Cop Promises

Better Remedy

HOUSTON (AP) — An 82-year-old grandmother charged with marijuana possession says an arresting officer has promised to give her "something even better" to ease the pain in her stiff joints.
Laura Ethel Clark, grandmother of five, was freed on a $1,000 bond Wednesday after narcotics officers found plants bearing nine pounds of the illegal weed in her back yard.

Tigers Entertain Mustangs Friday

Snyder's Tigers reach the halfway mark of round two - weather permitting - here Friday as they take on the Mustangs of Andrews High School, 4 p.m. at Moffett Field.

The Tigers, first round champions and boasting a 2-0 record in the second round, are expected to start lefthander Gerald Don Hicks, 7-1 with a 2.16 ERA, against the Mustangs.

John Wilson, 8-1-2, 1.49 ERA, will come in with relief if necessary. Otherwise, he has been pegged to start against Pecos on Tuesday.

The Andrews game is one of only four left on Snyder's regular season schedule. The Cats entertain Pecos, 7:30 Tuesday, then travel to Lamesa for a 4 p.m. game May 14 and finish out with Fort Stockton here at 4 on May 18. The Fort Stockton game had originally been slated for 7:30.

Snyder is 2-0 against the Mustangs this year, who come into Moffett Field with an 8-13 season record and are 1-0 in round two. The 'Stangs, having more than their share of weather problems this round, also have to make up rainouts with Monahans and Fort Stockton.

Hicks was the WP against Andrews when the two teams met in non-district play of the Monahans Tournament this year. Snyder edged the Mustangs 7-6. In first-round district play, Wilson took the win as Snyder slapped the 'Stangs 7-1.

Snyder is 20-5 for the season and carries a 12-game winning streak into the contest. In addition the Tigers have won 15 of their last 16 games.

In Top 20 Classic...

Collier Claims Bass Club Honors

Bill Collier took first place in the First Snyder Bass Club Top 20 Classic, held May 1 at White River Lake.

Contestants qualified for the tournament by earning enough points in the 1981 monthly tournaments to finish the year as one of the top 20 fishermen.

Collier, a former Snyderite now of San Angelo, won the first place prize of $500 with three fish totalling eight pounds, 11 ounces - including the biggest bass of the tournament, 6-pounds, 3½ ounces. For his efforts he also received trophies for first place and Big Bass, donated by West Texas State Bank and First National Bank.

Second place winner was Snyder High School senior Scott Warren, who was the youngest qualifier of the tournament. He took second with 7½, including a personal best of 5-15½. He was awarded $300 and a trophy donated by Snyder

National Bank.

Other winners included: third, Ronnie Parsons, Sweetwater, 6-4½; fourth, Rick Howard, 5-13; fifth, Dave Plunkett, Big Spring, 5-11½; sixth, Don Parsons, Abilene, 5-11; seventh, Jack Hickman, 4-6; eighth, Tommy Hood, 3-4; ninth, Red Pinkerson, Colorado City, 2-15; and 10th, Leo Henzler, Slaton, 2-3.

Other qualifiers were Terry Martin, James Hefernan, Roy Parsons, Mark Stephens, Earl Perser, Gay Hickman, Cecil Jordan, H.B. Walker and James Liner.

White River was chosen as the Classic site at an April 30 meeting of the contestants. Each contestant wrote the name of a lake of his choice, located within 125 miles of Snyder, on a ballot. Tournament Director Chuck Warren drew the White River ballot.

All contestants were presented with "tournament paks" consisting of an assortment of fishing lures valued at $10 and a cap with the Snyder Bass Club logo embroidered on it.

Merchants donating prizes for the tournament included Chrane Boat and Marine of Big Spring; Rick's Custom Rods of Snyder; Fishing Village Marine, Carey's Marine, The Tackle Box and Buddy's Custom Rods and Tackle of Abilene; Walls, Cash Foods; Charles Fulks, Snyder Athletic Center of Snyder; Phillips' Fakes and Ray's Rod and Gun Shop of San Angelo; and Charley Collins' Spinners of Lubbock.

Snyder Bass Club wishes to thank all of the sponsors.

9-Year-Olds Begin Season

Snyder Nine-Year-Old League will begin its season Friday, 5 p.m. at the Scurry County Boy's Club Field, located behind the club building.

The Athletics will take on the Yankees, to start the season.

Saturday, the Cubs and White Sox vie, also at 5.

Golfers Search For Title Today

AUSTIN -- Snyder High School girls golf team was to begin competition in the Class 4A State Golf Tournament here today.

The two-day tournament is being held at Jimmy Clay Golf Course.

The girls, under the direction of first-year coach Jan Kruse, won district and regional championships to advance to the state level. Fort Stockton, district and regional runnerup, will also vie for honors here.

Competing for the Tigers are regional runnerup medalist Lisa Franklin, a sophomore; and second runnerup Theresa Hildreth, a senior; and Laurie Donelson, Tracey O'Day and Diane Risenhoover. Hildreth, O'Day and Risenhoover are seniors; Donelson is a sophomore.

In addition to Snyder and Fort Stockton, teams participating will be Kilgore, Mt. Pleasant, Jasper, Brenham, Austin Westlake and Georgetown. Individuals include Patsy Baxter of Boerne, Hollie Frizell of Grapevine and Laurie Tingle of Mansfield.

Anderson Headed Back For More State Acclaim

AUSTIN -- Brenda Anderson, Snyder High School senior, makes her second straight appearance at the Girl's State Track Meet here Friday night, competing once again in the shot put.

Anderson holds the SHS school record in the shot put, a distance of 41-3¾, which she set in the regional tournament two weeks ago.

She'll be joined in Austin by Snyder's girls golf team, which was to begin competition in the State Golf Tournament today.

Anderson placed second in the district in the shot put and 100 meter dash, but did not qualify for state in the running event. First place in the district and region was Sweetwater freshman Wanda Gardner, who holds a best of 43-3¾.

Anderson's 41-plus throw ranks as second best among regional qualifying efforts throughout the state in Class 4A.

In addition to Anderson, who placed second here last year with a 40-5, this year's field includes two others from the 1981 State Track Meet. They are Delaine Wilder of Mt. Pleasant, who finished third, and Netta Bridgewater of Wharton, who came in fifth. The rest of the field includes Rita Hernandez of Gregory-Portland, Kim Cave of Sinton, Rosalind Atkins of Dallas Lincoln and Teresa McDowell of Navasota.

Wilder threw a 39-9¼ to get to state, while Bridgewater tossed a 39-6¼. Other qualifying distances were a 37-¾ by Hernandez, a 36-10¼ by Cave, a 38-9½ by Atkins, a 40-8½ by McDowell and the farthest - a 43-1½ by Gardner.

Anderson is coached by Patti Grimmett. The shot put event will be held at 7 p.m.

Rangers Tumble; Lose 11 Straight

DETROIT (AP) - Larry Herndon made three superb defensive plays Wednesday night and knocked in the game-winning run during a three-run eighth-inning

Detroit rally to pace the Tigers to a 6-4 victory over Texas.

Texas had leads of 2-0 and 4-2, but let them slip away both times for their 11th straight loss.

POLICEMAN VISITS—Snyder police officer Don Cheek visited with students in the West Elementary kindergarten class of Mrs. Loy Forbes and Mrs. Ann Ross Tuesday afternoon. Cheek's visit was part of a study of community helpers being undertaken by the class. He told the class about some of his duties and led the class in discussion of bicycle safety rules. (SDN Staff Photo)

Suspected Kidnapper...

Woman Shoots Man In Home

MIRA, La. (AP) — A northwest Louisiana sheriff believes 9-year-old Jennifer Rebecca Barden was left behind in Missouri by a fugitive kidnapping suspect who was shot to death by a young mother here Wednesday.

Sheriff Dan Hathaway of Caddo Parish said his office would not charge Kay Clayton, 23, who killed Billy D. Wilson, 27, after he broke into in her rural home about 10 miles from the Arkansas border.

"The intruder turned on her and sort of made a noise that sounded like a growl and made a threatening move toward her," Hathaway said. "At that point, she closed her eyes and shot."

"She had that .357 Magnum and it hit him in the mouth. It was a little gruesome with his teeth scattered all over the room, and it killed him instantly."

In Missouri, authorities expressed regret that Wilson died before investigators could ask him the fate of Jennifer Barden, who was last seen getting into a truck last Saturday outside her home in Gallatin, Mo.

Her brother, the only eyewitness, said just one man was in the truck. Authorities said that apparently ruled out any participation in the kidnapping by Roy James Hill, 36.

Hill and Wilson broke out of the Washington Parish Jail in Bogalusa, La., on April 18. Hill was serving time for burglary and Wilson was awaiting transfer to the Louisiana State Penitentiary to serve a life term for raping an 8-year-old girl.

Hill was captured Tuesday in Bonham, Texas, but authorities said his companion fled on foot. They said a truck, stolen shortly after Hill's capture in Bonham, was abandoned in Sulfur Springs, Texas, and a car stolen in Sulfur Springs was found next door to the Clayton home in Mira.

"I think there is very little hope now," said Sheriff Maurice Robison of Caldwell County, Mo., after learning Wilson was killed.

The missing girl's stepfather, Ronald Nelson, said the "tragedy is nobody will get to ask him where she is. I didn't want this man dead ... until after we found our daughter."

"I'm thrilled in the sense he (Wilson) got what was coming to him," said Mayor Tom Gallagher of Gallatin. "A lot of people around here said it's too bad it was so fast. They wanted to see him suffer as much as this little girl."

Hill was being held in the Grayson County Jail in Sherman, Texas, where authorities said he would be taken later to Missouri. They said they could not question Hill because he was a federal prisoner.

Sheriff Hathaway said his investigators talked with Missouri authorities and that he concurred in the belief that Jennifer probably was left behind in Missouri.

"From what I've heard, that's sort of the drift of information coming to us," Hathaway said. "We know when they attempted to apprehend them in Texas, they were able to follow the vehicle and saw both men jump out and she wasn't with them at that point."

Southern Cross Ranch Placed On The Market

DALLAS (AP) — Clayton Farlow's ranch, the Southern Cross, is up for sale.

Yes, the portico where Rusty Farlow's shotgun guards stood their ground against nefarious R. Ewing, the gazebo where Sue Ellen told J.R. he wasn't coming back to Southfork, the room where Rusty recuperated from the airplane crash that almost killed him — all for sale.

Now if you are not a regular viewer of that television phenomenon known as "Dallas," none of this means anything. But if you watch it regularly you know these were crucial times for the Ewings, the fictional family whose excesses are depicted on the weekly TV program.

The location where those scenes were filmed is, in reality, the Bar H Ranch. It is 21 miles from downtown Dallas, not near San Angelo as the program has it, and is owned by oilman Norris Harris.

If you have $2.9 million to spend on the grounds, three houses and a barn, and can afford a $50,000 monthly overhead, real estate agent Marilyn Hoffman-Hipps would be glad to talk to you.

Ms. Hoffman-Hipps frankly admits she wants to parlay the television connection for all it's worth.

"It's a tremendous sales point," she said. "Wouldn't you like to sleep in Sue Ellen's bedroom?" The 500 acres include the Spanish-style four-bedroom main house, a foreman's house, guest house, swimming pool, two-story barn and four manmade lakes.

"It's an oilman's home," Mrs. Hoffman-Hipps said. "It's perfect for an oilman."

The 49-year-old self-made millionaire recently divorced his first wife and remarried. Mrs. Harris No. 2 doesn't cotton to living in the same house as Mrs. Harris No. 1.

Trade Group Claiming Gas Supplies Tighter

at the pump rise a bit this summer.

Supplies of gasoline for the week ended April 30 fell to 227.9 million barrels from 235.8 million barrels a week earlier, the petroleum institute, a trade group based in Washington, said Wednesday.

For the latest week, supplies were slightly below the Department of Energy's recommended average range for this time of year.

Part of the reason for the decline in inventories of crude oil and gasoline is high interest rates, which make it expensive to hold excess supplies.

High interest rates continue to be the driving force behind efforts in Washington to find a compromise for cutting the budget deficit for 1983. Many economists fear that unless the deficit is narrowed, investors will bid up the price of credit, more companies will fold and the recession that started last summer will be prolonged.

The budget budget battle continued in Washington, with the Senate Budget Committee officially and unanimously killed President Reagan's original budget proposal Wednesday.

On Wednesday night, however, the committee in an 11-9 vote approved a White House-backed budget plan calling for $95 billion in general tax increases over three years and $40 billion in unspecified Social Security cuts or tax increases.

Earlier in the day, Treasury Secretary Donald Regan had told the House Ways and Means Committee that it would be Congress' responsibility to come up with an alternative tax package in the aftermath of budget negotiations between the White House and Congress that broke down last week.

Regan also voiced administration concerns about "excesses" by companies taking advantage of the current tax law allows profitable companies to limit their taxes by buying tax benefits from non-profitable companies that can't avail themselves of the benefits.

The nation's gasoline supplies fell sharply last week, marking the seventh consecutive weekly decline, the American Petroleum Institute says.

While oil industry analysts foresee adequate supplies of crude oil and gasoline this summer, the decline in stocks makes it more likely that refiners will succeed in making recent wholesale price increases stick. As a result, consumers may see prices

Vial Of Life Program Set

A program aimed at aiding in emergency medical care for older persons in Snyder will be introduced Friday at the Senior Citizens Center.

The program is known as the Vial of Life, and is being sponsored locally by the Rotary Club in cooperation with the Senior Center. The program is already in operation in many communities throughout the nation.

Senior citizens who choose to participate will receive a three-inch plastic vial which looks like a pill container and a simple form on which to summarize their medical history. After the form is completed, it is placed in the vial and the vial is taped inside the refrigerator beneath the first shelf on the right. There is also a decal to be placed on the outside of the refrigerator to indicate to rescue personnel that persons living in the residence are participating in the program.

In an emergency, rescue personnel or police could quickly locate the vial and save valuable time in determining known medical problems, allergies, or use of medication as well as the name of the person's physician and family or friends who may be contacted.

"This project is important because in the event of an emergency, people are likely to forget such things as blood types," said Gloria Shaw, Senior Center director. "In the event of a stroke, the victim might be unable to communicate the needed information. We appreciate the interest shown by the Rotary Club in making the Vial of Life program available here."

On Aug. 9, 1974, Vice President Gerald Ford was sworn in as President of the United States after Richard Nixon resigned.
