Coronado Cheerleader Enjoys Modeling

Not only are there young ladies in these United States who desire to participate in the modeling profession, there is a young junior high school student at Coronado High School, Yolando Tharrington, who has the modeling bug.

Yolando has attended the Towanda Harrison Modeling Class. Prior to this endeavor, she had a little training while living in Greece by a professional model. "I attended Towanda's class for three months, and while in her class, I learned styles, make-up, poise, grooming, speech, more self-confidence, and many other everyday things. My skills have been shown in fashion shows, mannequin modeling, talent shows, and interviews for some well known modeling agencies. This summer, I was selected to participate on the Dillard's Teen Fashion Board which included community service jobs, working in Dillard's and representing the Dillard's name."

"As a matter of fact, cheerleading and modeling took up most of my summer vacation, but I'm sure it will all pay off," she smiles.

Yolando is the daughter of Bruce and Gladys Tharrington, and has been living in Lubbock since 1986. She has grown in many areas of her life, and is a Varsity Cheerleader at Coronado High School. She attends New Hope Baptist Church, Rev. Billy R. Moton, pastor, where she sings in the Youth Choir and has pulled duties as on the announcement and welcoming committees.

Yolando Tharrington

Yolando has done some traveling in her young life as she has lived in California and Athens, Greece.

She has attended Frenship Elementary School for two months; Hardwick Elementary School as well as Matthews Junior High School where she became first interested in music.

"I play the clarinet, and have played for three years," she says. Continuing, she said, "I played in the band at Matthews, and in the Symphonic (Top) Band at Mackenzie Junior High School for the 8th and 9th grades."

While at Matthews, she played volleyball, basketball, and ran track."

Yolando, while at Mackenzie Junior High School, she tried out for the cheerleading squad, and became the second or third Black to be chosen on this squad.

She is a member of the National Honor Society, and was elected Teen of the Month for March. She has made the honor roll during her entire six weeks of effort, and scored all 4's on her TAAS test.

Yolando has gymnastic skills which has helped her in the role of being a cheerleader. She has taken gymnastics in California, Greece and Lubbock at Brierly, and has won several meets during her tenure in gymnastics.

Since she has attended Coronado High School, she has maintained a 3.5 gpa. Her sophomore year, she tried out for Junior Varsity Cheerleader, and made it in passing colors. She served as head cheerleader for the squad.

Aside from being head cheerleader, she made announcements, served on the Student Council, theater arts, and the JV track team.

As for her future, she plans to graduate in 1993, and attend college where as she puts -- "to get the best education available."

RUBY JAY'S CORNER

The New Hope Baptist Church, The Church Where The People Really Care, is located at 2002 Birch Avenue, where the Rev. Billy R. Moton is the proud pastor.

Sunday School began last Sunday morning at 9:30 a. m. with Sister Stokley, Superintendent of the Children, presiding. It was a wonderful Sunday School lesson. All teachers seem to really put their hearts into it.

During the 10:45 a.m. devotional period, the first song was "Leaning On Jesus." Scripture was Matthew 11:25-30, and was read by Sister Moton. Prayer was offered by Deacon Jenkins, and there was another song, "Must Jesus Bear The Cross Alone?"

During the 11:00 a. m. worship hour, the processional was conducted by the Male Chorus as they marched in singing "Can't Nobody Do Me Like Jesus."

Altar prayer was conducted by Deacon Swain. A song, "Pass Me Not," with Deacon Barrow and Deacon Cork as soloists. Scripture was the 100 Psalms. Prayer was offered by Brother Barrow. Another was led by Brother Sterling, and it was very good.

Responsive reading was done with the participation of the congregation who stood. The morning hymn was "Higher Ground," led by Sister Johnnie Walker.

Due to the absence of Pastor Moton, who is attending the National Baptist Convention in Washington, D. C., pastoral observations were given by Sister Moton. She really did a splendid job.

Another was entitled "How Great Thou Art," which was led by Deacon Ervin and Brother Garnett Lee. It was just a wonderful song.

The Male Chorus of New Hope is a star at present time. Let us keep praying for them.

The sermon of the morning was delivered by Rev. A. L. Patrick. His scripture was Acts 9:1-7. His subject was "Conversion. A Message From The Lord Makes A Difference." It was a wonderful message.

Invitation to Christian Discipleship was conducted, but no one came forward.

Announcements were read by Sister Anita Henry. Welcome of visitors were given by Sister Margie Thomas. There were many among the congregation.

One family and friends of Sister G. H. Davis were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Davis, and Cousin Flora Swanson of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

Sister Susie Givens Williams is enjoying her son, James Givens from Kansas City. Of course, he is Deacon B. J. Givens' brother.

The Young Matrons of New Hope Baptist Church would enjoy your presence at the Tea this Sunday in the Fellowship Hall, from 4 p. m. to 5 p. m. It is a get acquainted affair. Presidents Clarissa Watson and Sister Arnold will be happy to see you present.

Revival week with Rev. Joshua Cutler will begin Sunday morning, September 8 through 13, 1991. Come praying that a spiritual meeting will begin in us.

Climaxing this special effort will be the Annual Men's Day on Sunday, September 15, 1991 with Rev. C. C. Peoples and members of Mt. Olive Baptist Church as our special guest. They are our good friends from Slaton, Texas.

Deacon Cork is really looking for your presence.

The lady from Houston, Texas with the Hat Show will be at Sister Toines' home on Saturday, from 12 noon to 4 p. m. You are welcome to come by and buy a new hat.

This writer, Ruby Jay, is carried away with the surprise birthday party from the W. M. S. on August 26, 1991 in the Fellowship Hall of New Hope. Thank you very much. It was a belated one, but we really thank you for your love and kindness as well as fellowship.

Pray for our sick and shut-ins as well as our bereaved families.

Sister R. B. Thompson's sis-

It was reported in the Labor Day edition of the Avalanche-Journal that the recently elected PRI governor of Guanajuato, Mexico has stepped down and the state legislature has appointed the PAN candidate as governor for one year. A new election is to be held in a year. It seems that the election of the PRI governor was a little too embarrassing to PRI president Salinas who is trying to clean up the image of Mexican politics. There were a host of usual allegations of illegalities and fraud in the last election but the PRI folks in Guanajuato may have gone a little far. According to the newspaper more people voted in the election than are registered to vote.

A week or so ago, I read a little article in the Lubbock or maybe it was one of the Dallas papers. It was about a journalist who has been investigating the Iran-Contra scandal for a number of years. It seems that he was going to West Virginia to interview a witness who allegedly would blow the lid off of the coverup. The journalist, however, feared for his life and told his brother that if he should come up accidentally dead that he should not believe it and should try to investigate the circumstances of his death. Well, sure enough, the journalist was found dead in his hotel room in West Virginia of an apparent suicide.

The war in El Salvador is returning to the headlines again. Bush is planning on shipping another $43 million to that little country. It has been reported that a new death squad has been organized by the right wing thugs who run El Salvador. I guess the old death squad was getting a little lazy about murdering nuns and priests.

And for the first time in a while the ongoing slaughter of Indians in Guatemala has been reported in the newspapers of this country.

Of course, it is the wrong time of the year for starving Africans to be in the press. That is one of a Christmas thing.

The issue of the moment and for some time to come is economic development for the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe.

Would the policies of this country or press coverage be different if hundreds of thousands of white folks were being slaughtered or were starving to death?

The Shining Path guerillas in Peru now control a very large portion of the countryside and are launching attacks on Lima. It was recently reported that Bush wants to send the Green Berets to Peru as military advisors.

9/8 1965 -- UFW grape strike begins.
1974 -- Ford pardons Nixon.

9/11 1973 -- Allende murdered in fascist coup.

U.S. Aid to the Soviet Union?

Dr. Timothy W. Stanley is president of the International Economic Studies Institute in Washington, D.C. A lawyer and economist, he has served several administrations in senior international security positions and visited the U.S.S.R. often.

YES

Should the United States be giving aid to the Soviet Union?

Yes. We have a vital interest in the U.S.S.R.'s peaceful transformation into a democratic federal system and market economy. It would then not only pose no threat to the rest of the world but interact constructively with it. The United States should lead a global consortium in developing with the U.S.S.R. long-term, large-scale aid, loan and technical assistance programs tied and timed specifically to the radical reforms that the Soviets must make themselves. If the economy collapses, the alternatives to perestroika are chaos, civil war or renewed dictatorship — none compatible with Western security, given the country's massive armaments.

What is the impact on the U.S. economy?

The question should not be whether we can afford such aid, but rather whether we can afford not to provide it. The United States' share of even a large package should be manageable despite our budget deficit, with only a portion, say $2 billion a year, as budgetary outlays. The rest could be loans, credits and guarantees to the private sector or international organizations. The United States "afforded" some $5 trillion to contain Soviet military potential during the Cold War. Reinsuring the savings from lasting peace is an inexpensive premium. If economic reform succeeds, our investment could be returned manyfold in expanded trade opportunities with the world's third-largest economy.

Under what circumstances should we suspend aid?

Only if the Soviet Union clearly reverts to "old" communist thinking in foreign policy or to a domestic dictatorship, or proves unwilling or unable to put through the reforms necessary to make aid effective. We should not tie aid to our own notions of "human rights" or Baltic independence during such an unprecedented and perilous transition to democratic federalism. Thus, our aid should go to local and republic governments, as well as the union.

Roger W. Robinson Jr. served as senior director for international economic affairs at the National Security Council from 1982 to 1985. He is president of RWR Inc., a Washington, D.C.-based consulting firm.

NO

Should the United States be giving aid to the Soviet Union?

No. Official U.S. financial aid for the Soviet Union at this time is dangerously premature given the absence of any concrete, structural reform. Worse yet, such aid is now being directed by the administration exclusively to the discredited and repressive central authorities in Moscow. The administration already has pledged $2.8 billion in taxpayer credit guarantees to the U.S.S.R. since December 1990, of which $1.9 billion has been disbursed. Astonishingly, no effort was made to firmly tie such taxpayer liabilities and likely losses to radical Soviet economic and political reforms.

What is the impact on the U.S. economy?

The administration's current economic and financial policies toward the Soviet Union will likely be a net loss for the American taxpayer. Moscow is behind in its payments to U.S. companies to the tune of $115 million and more than $6 billion to Western suppliers worldwide. Almost no Western banks or private firms will enter the Soviet marketplace without the coverage of taxpayer credit guarantees or insurance, transferring the risk of doing business in an unreformed, militarized Soviet economy from private shareholders and depositors — where it belongs — onto the shoulders of the American people.

Under what circumstances should we suspend aid?

U.S. taxpayer assistance to Moscow should be suspended now pending the implementation of structural reforms. U.S. aid also should be directed to individual republics according to their progress toward free markets and democratization. Other conditions that should be considered include: a drastic reduction in Soviet military spending, now draining over 25 percent of annual gross national product; the termination of Soviet economic and military support to bankrupt client states stretching from Havana to Hanoi; an immediate end to Moscow's technology theft, espionage and disinformation programs; and the unfettered right of the Baltic states and reformist republics to secede from the fragmenting U.S.S.R.

The Outreach Prayer Breakfast

The members of the Outreach Prayer Breakfast met in the lovely home of Delbert and Dorothy Hood last Saturday morning at 9 a. m. Opening song was led by Sister Bolton. The scripture was Joshua 1. Prayer was offered by Sister Dorothy Nash.

The morning scripture lesson was taught. The subject was "Break Through In Jesus." The scriptures were St. John 15:1-5; Phillip 4:13.

"If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you."

The teacher said: "With Christ, we know we all are overcomers. Nothing is too hard for God. When He does something it's so well done. No one can improve upon it."

We cannot bear fruit unless we abide in Him.

"He is our 'breakthrough', stand tall, because you can do all things through Christ, who gives you the strength. He's the answer to all your problems. It's not your ability to do things great. It's the power of the Holy Spirit of Jesus Christ. Trust Him!"

This lady is great teacher, and is anointed for the job. We love her.

Thought for the week: "If loving God is wrong, we don't want to be right." Think about it!

No breakfast was served. We are humbling ourselves before God until October. Pray for us and with us. We need your support, and others your continued support - spiritually and financially. The people in Lubbock, especially you, are some of the best people in The World. Keep loving those you feel it's impossible to love who are unlovable. Love them anyway. Even those who speak evil of you for no reason. Read the Sermon on the Mount (Matthew 5), a good starting. The lowest a Christian can get, We are still on top of the devil."

The Lord is about to show His Glory. Keep smiling, OK?

Our sick list includes: Brother Blacknell, Brother Moore, Sister Brooks, and all others not known at this report. Read and believe Mark 11:22-26; II Chronicles 7:14.

FROM THE OF
PARSON D. A. SMITH

The Sermon of the Mount closes with parable of the wise and foolish builders. The substance of the story from Matthew and Luke Gospel is this: Two men built houses. One "dugged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock." The other "without a foundation built an house upon the earth" or "sand." In a probability, the sandy ground was level and near water. "And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew" and beat on both houses. The houses built on the rock fell not; but the house built on sand fell, and great was the fall of it. The man who built his house on the rock was wise. The man who built his house on the sand was foolish.

Jesus applies the story to the building of one's life. "Therefore, whosoever heareth these sayings of mine and doeth them," said Jesus, "I will liken him to a wise man, which built his house upon a rock. And everyone that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which build his house on the sand." Matthew 7:24.

Everyone of us have a house to build, or in other words, a soul to save. One cannot postpone living until some more convenient time. One cannot evade the responsibility. Every moment of our lives we are working on the building-entertaining a hope of heaven. Every immortal creature knows that they cannot always live in their present earthly house. So they are constantly sending up timber to a building of refuge.

If we would build safely and well we must build on a right foundation. It is so in small things. The want of a good foundation does not always show at once, but sooner or later the trial comes. Sometimes it is the temptation of worldly companionship and influence that try our foundation. Sometime it is sorrow. Sometimes sickness searches out the hidden weakness of the foundation. A life built on obedience to Jesus stands up well before the floods and winds of this present life. Build on an adequate foundation -- Jesus!

We Thank God For Jesus "You Got The Right Lady, Un-Huh!!!" Part 2

Genesis 2:16-17 -- The Lord God commanded the man, saying, of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat: but of the tree of knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest, thereof thou shalt die.

We know from Eve in the garden, from the beginning of time, many women have made very bad choices, "wanting to use their own minds."

Adam knew what God had said: and told it word for word to his wife Eve. She was the one who "changed God's words, and the snake she believed."

(God didn't say anything about not touching the tree, but she had to put her two cents in to make it worse. Not only that but she didn't go ask her husband what to do but she ate of it first: then gave some to her husband, thinking she'd be wise first!!!!)

Genesis 3:2-3, 17 -- The woman said unto the serpent, we may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden, but of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden. God hath said, ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die. (God) said unto Adam, because thou hast hearkened (listened) unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree, of which I commanded thee, saying, thou shalt not eat of it: cursed is it. The ground for thy sake, in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life.

 You listened to the wrong one, lady, Un-Huh!! **
Then we have Pot'l-Phar's wife, who wanted to get Joseph in her bed. "But he loved the Lord more, and didn't want to sin against God he said."

Genesis 39:2-3, 7, 9 -- Joseph was brought down to Egypt, and Pot'l-Phar, an officer of Pharaoh, and the Lord was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man, and he was in the house of his master, the Egyptian, and his master saw that the Lord was with him. And the Lord made all that he did to prosper in his hand. And it came to pass after these things that his master's wife cast her eyes upon Joseph, and said, lie with me. (He said) How then can I do this great wickedness, and sin against the Lord?

 You've hustled the wrong man, lady, Un-Huh!! **
And then there was Mary, the mother of "our Lord and Saviour Jesus." She was told by the angel Gabriel, she was to have a son, and she became a believer.

Luke 1:26-27, 30 & 35 -- The angel Gabriel was sent by God to a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph of the House of David; and the virgin's name was Mary. And the angel answered and said unto her, the Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee. Therefore, also the Holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God.

 You've listened to the right voice, lady, U-Huh!! **
Revelation 3:20 -- Jesus said, behold, I stand at the door, and knock. If any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him and he with me.

God is not through with us yet. So let's pray for one another always.

READING, WRITING & REALITY

THE bad news is that 50% of pregnant teens drop out of school. In fact, an average of 1 million American students drop out each year.

The good news is Burger King® Academy. In partnership with Cities in Schools, Inc., we're committed to keeping "at risk" students in school. Kids in trouble with the law. Abused children. Pregnant teens.

At each of the Burger King Academies throughout the country, students receive special instruction, as well as employment opportunities, counseling and social services.

The reality is that some kids just won't get an education without some special attention. Burger King Academy is facing that reality. And we're doing something about it.

WE GOOFED!! In last week's edition of the Southwest Digest, we made mention of Mrs. Dora Jimison's grandchild as being her granddaughter. We were in error. Actually, the young two day old grandchild is her first grandson. His name is LaTobia Savior Jimison.

He is the son of Wanda Ann Jimison. We hope Mrs. Dora Jimison, age 71 years young, will excuse our blunder. Really, Mrs. Dora Jimison, you have a great looking grandson!!

Volunteer Opportunities

Here are some volunteer opportunities that are available at agencies in the community. Volunteers are needed at one Lubbock agency to help handicapped and elderly clients with shopping, errands and transportation. Another agency also needs volunteers to transport people for treatment at hospitals.

Several agencies need people to assist with telephone and clerical work in their offices.

Tutors are needed for programs designed to work with adults who are learning to read. Volunteers need to be willing to work with the students on a weekly basis.

Volunteer training will begin in September at CONTACT Lubbock, Family Outreach, and Rape Crisis Center. If you would like to be involved in working with these agencies, you need to find out now when the training sessions

Notice of Comparable Tax Rates and Revenues

The Legislature has enacted a statute on school funding to comply with a court mandate enforcing the State Constitution. Under prior statutes (SB 1) the tax rate for last year provides $3,946 per student in state and local revenues. Under this statute (SB 351) that same rate now provides $4,258 per student in state and local revenues.

State law only requires a minimum tax rate of $.782 for County Education Districts. State law does not require a school district to adopt additional taxes. Neither does state law require a school district to adopt a tax rate that maximizes the receipt of state funds.

The Board of Trustees of the Lubbock Independent School District hereby gives notice that it is considering the adoption of a tax rate of $.53 that will provide $4,340 per student in state and local revenues.
