Sharp Increase In U.S. Spending Next Year Now Forecast

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 30.—The talk of cutting government spending kept rolling today, with Chairman McKellar (D-Tenn) of the Senate appropriations committee saying:

"I think some way can be found to make more cuts."

Senators Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo) and McClellan (D-Ark) in separate interviews also expressed hope of economy, but they did not go so far as to say that it would come to pass.

Despite much demand for trimming expenses, Congress has not done much in a way that will stick. McKellar noted there have been some savings, then added: "but they are not enough."

Greater Spending Predicted

Private predictions came this week-end from administration sources that spending actually will be fore in the new fiscal year beginning July 1 than it has been during the year now ending. Further, these officials said spending will continue to increase in the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1951.

These officials, who asked not to be quoted by name, said that greater spending is to be expected from increased outlays for such things as farm price supports, the handling of unemployment com-

Record Class To Receive Degrees At Tech

Thousands Are Expected For Rites Tonight

Minister Speaks To Large Crowd At Baccalaureate

By JERRY HALL
Journal Staff Writer

"The purpose of education is not to make life easier, but rather to make life more useful," was what Dr. John Bannister, pastor of the Sears and Summit Church of Christ in Dallas, told the 1,233 graduating students at Texas Technological college during the baccalaureate program in Jones Stadium Sunday night.

Over 6,000 persons attended the program and an even larger crowd is expected for the graduation exercises at the college tonight. Charles Bates Thornton, former Tech student and now vice-president of the Howard Hughes Aircraft corporation in Los Angeles, will be the principal speaker.

Record Of Success

Thornton is a native of Haskell. After attending Tech he transferred to George Washington university. He has also attended Columbus university and he received a Bachelor of Science degree in commerce and an honorary award from the Harvard graduate school of business administration.

He served with the Air Force during the war and made a record-breaking jump up the ladder of promotion when he rose to the rank of colonel in the space of a few months. He has been recently named a vice-president and assistant general manager of the Hughes Aircraft company as well as chairman of the executive committee.

Largest Graduating Class

The baccalaureate program began Sunday night with the processional played by the Tech concert band under the direction of Prof. D. O. Wiley. It took the largest graduating class in the history of the college almost a half hour just to march in and take their seats.

Following the processional, Dr. M. Norvel Young, pastor of the Lubbock Broadway Church of Christ, asked the invocation. The audience then stood for the playing of the doxology. A number "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring," by Bach, was then offered by the concert band.

Pres. D. M. Wiggins of Tech then introduced the speaker. Pres. Wiggins said it gave him great pleasure to present such a noted minister and distinguished lecturer.

Dr. Bannister, who is a native Texan, first read from the Bible and then told students they must know what they were seeking in life. He said, "you must have a vision for this hour." The minister, who is also very active in the field of education, went ahead to say many people fail because they have no goals and no ideals to seek.

"The whole world may beat a path to your door, but if you live without God in your lives, you have been a dismal failure," he said. He told of how too many people of this modern age were prone to forget God and try to live without Him. He urged students to be humble enough to realize their limitations but not to degrade

SECOND GENERATION GRADUATES—When Jack Griggs Sams, 20, right, marches up to receive his degree in Texas Tech's commencement tonight in Jones stadium, the second generation of graduates will start pouring from the halls of the college. Ted Sams, left, above, the graduate's father, received his degree in civil engineering in Tech's second graduating class, 21 years ago. The boy's mother, center, formerly Virginia Griggs of Amarillo, is also a former student of Tech. Young Sams majored in chemistry. His father is now general manager of the Fischer Steel Corp., of Memphis, Tenn. On hand to witness the ceremonies tonight will be two grandmothers of young Sams, Mrs. A. B. Engineers Are Held Hostage By Bolivians

Violence Flares As Tin Mine Workers Clash With Troops

(By The Associated Press)

LA PAZ, Bolivia, May 30.—The Bolivian interior ministry announced today that two American engineers were killed and five other Americans were wounded in strike violence at the Patino tin mines in Catavi. Still another American is reported missing.

The ministry's communique said 550 strikers have been arrested. It listed seven persons in all as having been killed. Other unconfirmed accounts said about 20 strikers also had lost their lives. Casualties among the strikers were difficult to determine because the bodies were removed.

Hurl Dynamite Bombs

Rioting strikers hurled dynamite bombs at troops sent to the scene.

D. C. Derringer, general manager of the mines, identified the dead Americans as T. H. O'Connor of Pasadena, Calif., and Albert Krefting of Seattle, Wash. He said in a telephone interview that the missing American is H. T. Peterson of Biwabik, Minn.

Fifteen persons, including seven Americans engineers, were seized by the rioting strikers Saturday, Derringer said. The workers took them to union headquarters, where they were reported beaten.

O'Connor was said to have been shot in the neck while at the union's headquarters. Krefting reportedly died of wounds caused when a striker threw a stick of dynamite at the hostages.

Injured And Mutilated

(An official report reaching the State department in Washington said Wilbur J. Cook of Reno, Nev., and Patrick Green of Wenatchee, Wash., were "seriously injured and mutilated." Floyd W. Erickson of Cyrus, Minn., previously reported hospitalized, was not injured.

Other abducted engineers were identified as Richard D. Ellett, who formerly lived at Pullman, Wash., and T. R. Woods-Smith, whose home address was not available. (Previous reports said Joseph G. Bessette, an American, also had been seized. He was not listed in today's accounts).

Plane Is Sent

The American embassy sent a plane to the Catavi region to evacuate relatives and dependents of American employes in the mines. An American doctor from the U. S. health mission went along to help treat the wounded.

Headquarters of the Patino mining empire here announced the mines were being closed down indefinitely. The Patino mines produced 18,000 tons of tin in 1948—almost half of Bolivia's output of 37,000 tons.

The miners struck at the mine,

Don Fritz Dies In Fiery Trap Early Sunday

Victim A Former Lamesa Resident; Texas Toll Rises

(By The Associated Press)

At least fourteen persons died violently in Texas during the first two days of the long Memorial day week-end. By midnight last night seven had been killed in traffic accidents. Four drowned and three others were fatally injured in various manners.

Don Fritz, 29, former Plainview manager for Pioneer Airlines, was killed early Sunday morning on a crop-dusting flight near the Plainview city limits. His plane crashed and burned.

Foot Is Entangled

Fritz was flying a J-3 Cub, dusting potatoes, when the plane crashed after apparently stalling in a bank. The pilot's left foot was caught in a control pedal. He was reported as burned beyond recognition. Experienced airmen who visited the scene expressed belief that Fritz died in the flames rather than in the crash. Indications were that he attempted to get out of the wreckage, but was unable to dislodge his foot.

Fritz and his family had moved to Plainview when Pioneer Airlines opened Plainview service in early 1948. He had lived at Lamesa before going to Plainview.

Last month, he left the Pioneer airlines and he and Douglas Craig of Plainview had become associated with another firm, the Pioneer crop dusting and advertising service.

Was War Veteran

He was a veteran of World war II, during which he served two years as a flight officer in the European theater and was holder of the air medal for action in invasion of Sicily and of 13 invasion stars which he later won.

Higginbotham Funeral home at Lamesa announced services for Fritz would be conducted at 3 o'clock this afternoon in Lamesa Church of Christ, with Paul McClung, minister, officiating. Burial was to be in Lamesa cemetery.

Pallbearers were announced as Douglas Craig and Roy McAllister of Plainview and Van Greene, Joe Greene, Lewis Prather and Roy Irton of Lamesa.

Married At Lamesa

Fritz was survived by his wife, three children, Donna, Kenny and Stevie; his mother, Mrs. Doris Newmann of San Angelo, and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Gentry of San Angelo.

He and Mrs. Fritz, the former Marjorie Latrice Loe of Lamesa, were married while he was in

COMMUNIST VICTORY SEEN

Trade Policy With Red China Studied

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 30—The administration is slowly swinging around to a policy of doing business with a Communist China.

A policy of restricted trade like that which governs American economic relations with Communist eastern Europe is being worked out by the State department to cover dealings with the Chinese.

This is based on two major restrictions:

1. No loans. What the Chinese buy from the United States they will have to pay for in cash or goods. No American aid supplies go to Communist areas.

Red Victory Seen

2. No strategic materials. Goods which are now barred from trade with Russia and its European satellites because they might have military value are not to be sold to Communist China either.

Along with a trade policy built on these lines, the State department is intensively studying the Chinese situation and its impact on general American foreign policy toward the Far East.

Officials believe it only a question of time until the Communists take over the whole huge territory of China. At some future point, perhaps several months off but possibly soon, the Communists are expecting to proclaim formation of a new Chinese government.

Question Is Raised

This will raise the question of American recognition, and while no final decision has been made all indications are that this government eventually will recognize the new regime and establish diplomatic relations with it. Already American diplomats are in contact with local Communist authorities in key cities like Tientsin, Peiping and Nanking.

Action along this line is expected to be taken in concert with other non-Communist countries, such as Britain and France, with

Flatboat Capsizes, Six Persons Drown

GREEN ISLAND, Ia., May 30. (AP)—A holiday fishing outing turned into tragedy when six persons drowned in the Mississippi river near here yesterday.

Sheriff Lorin Felderman said there were 11 persons in a 14-foot flat-bottomed boat.

He said water started coming into the boat when an outboard motor was started, and that occupants of the boat became panicky. The boat capsized.

The dead were identified as: Harlan Keeney, 30, Davenport; his son, Gale, 9; Mrs. Mabel Christ, 30, Davenport; and Ronald Keeney, 13; Milton Keeney, 10, and Donald Keeney, 8, all sons of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Keeney of Andrew, Ia. Nearby fishermen helped rescue the five survivors.

Nation's Cost Of Living Up

WASHINGTON, May 30 (U.P.)—The nation was confronted today with an economic paradox—rising living costs in the face of a five-month economic downturn.

While the bureau of labor statistics reported that the cost of living index rose for the second consecutive month, government and industry reported that:

Sales Going Down

1. Industrial production and department store sales are going down.

2. Railroad carloadings are 8.7 per cent below those of last year.

3. Industrial employment is 400,000 lower than last year.

4. One major steel producer cut operations six per cent because of a lack of orders.

5. Business and industrial loans have dropped continually for 18 weeks.

Industrial Production Cut

To the average industrial worker who has kept his job, the paradox has had little effect, however. This is because his weekly earnings, now 83 cents more than a year ago, have about kept pace with the cost of living boost.

The most pessimistic economic

This Seems A Bit Unfair To Teacher

LAHORE, Pakistan, May 30. (U.P.)—University officials here have decided that students should not be permitted to improve their grades by theatening teachers with guns and knives.

A Punjab university student walked into an examination hall, placed a revolver and two daggers on his desk, coolly informed the examiner that he intended to cheat during the test and proceeded to do so.

The university ruled that such tactics shall be punished in future.

Man Kills Self After Slayings

EAST GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., May 30. (U.P.)—Four persons were shot to death early today in what police said was a triple murder and suicide.

East Grand Rapids Police Chief Howard Coleman said Richard Peppler, 47, shot and killed his estranged wife at her home, fatally wounded a married couple who were her guests, and then turned the shotgun on himself.

The wife, Frances, 30, who separated from her husband about a month ago, was found dead in the driveway of her home where Peppler ended his own life, Coleman said.

Baby Uninjured

The other victims were Richard Sieswerda, 32, who was awaiting admission to the bar, and his wife, Stella, 30.

Sieswerda was found sprawled on the stair inside the colonial frame home and his wife was killed in an upstairs bedroom.

An 18-months-old daughter of Mrs. Peppler's was found unharmed in her bed.

According to Coleman, neighbors had reported that he had called on his estranged wife recently and the visits were marked by loud quarrels.

Holiday Death Toll In Nation Hits 253

(By The Associated Press)

The Memorial day weekend was cut short violently for at least 253 of the nation's holiday pleasure seekers.

With the homeward rush still to come, the traffic deaths mounted to 165 before noon today. Fifty-two persons were drowned, and 36 died as the result of miscellaneous accidents.

The National Safety Council has predicted that 215 persons will be killed during the three-day week-end, not counting those who will die later of injuries suffered in auto accidents. The council estimated that 30,000,000 automobiles would move on the nation's highways during the period.

The measure, sponsored by Sen. John J. Bell of Cuero, was adopted, 127-0, by the lower chamber.

Holland Sets New Record In 500-Mile Memorial Day Race

(By The United Press)

INDIANAPOLIS, May 30.—Burly Bill Holland smashed at record-breaking speed for the last 365 miles today to win the 33rd annual 500-mile holiday auto race at the Indianapolis speedway, first triumph in three tries.

It was a splendid effort for the Reading, Pa., driver who broke into sports as a roller skater. Denied entry into the winner's cage by team-mate Mauri Rose, who won for the past two years while Holland was runner-up the pudgy Pennsylvanian was forbidden nothing today.

After the 54th lap it was his race, and he knew it and the fans hoped. Earlier Duke Nalon, Rex Mays and Lee Wallard had held first place, but Nalon spun out, and Wallard went out when their cars gave up.

Holland, pacing himself smartly, took over first and he stayed there.

Holland's speed average for the 500 miles was 121.377, breaking Rose's 1948 record of 119.813.

It was a tough battle. Rose,

Happily Married, Bride Tries To Correct Husband's Manner Toward Her Parents

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I have been happily married for over a year to a very fine boy, but there is one small fly in the ointment, namely, his manner of addressing my parents, and I would appreciate your evaluation of the matter.

John's mother passed away some months after we married, but prior to that I had called her "mother," which pleased her, and I was brought up to think it the correct address of one's mother-in-law. However, John has no term-of-address at all for my mother, and he calls my father and other members of my family by first name.

Inasmuch as I know my parents feel a bit embarrassed when addressed this way, I have spoken to John about it several times, trying to get him to conform to general usage. But he tells me that since the loss of his mother, he cannot call anyone else "mother;" and having lost his father at an early age, the term "father" is unfamiliar to his vocabulary and would be difficult to use.

John is fond of my parents and they get on well with him aside from this awkwardness; so I think it shouldn't be too difficult for him to use the more affectionate respectful form of address—and I wouldn't expect him to overdo it, of course. But may I have your opinion? (Signed) C. B.

MANNERS REFLECT A STATE OF MIND

DEAR C. B.: It is my impression that John was an only child; and it's possible that after losing his father at an early age, he was cast in the role of "mother's little man" and kept pretty closely under her wing during years when his social attitudes were being formed.

In consequence he might have developed, quite unconsciously, a somewhat precocious air of coequality in speaking with her; and his manner with your parents may be a difficult reflection of this. Moreover, if his mother clung to him solicitously, he may have lacked opportunity, in formative years, to get the knack of ready conformity to unfamiliar social usage.

Obviously your social conditioning was something else. You've had two parents all along, sufficient companions for each other, no doubt; also brothers and sisters, it seems, for you speak of "other members of my family," and this broader picture suggests a more normal exercise in filial-parental dealing.

TRY CREATIVE UNDERSTANDING

IN saying, "I was brought up to think 'mother" is the correct address of one's mother-in-law," you are citing an assumption derived from parental example, probably. If your parents habitually bespoke their parents-in-law thus, and if you fondly respect their behavior in general, it is natural that you would follow suit. But bear in mind that John was formed in another mold.

In my opinion, John's attitude calls for creative understanding, not dogmatic censure. He may be in conflict about filial sentiment —Starved for mature-type father-love and mother-love, a hunger inhibited since small boyhood, because he construed it to be unmanly weakness; and even now is afraid to face and ashamed to reveal it.

Also, due to mom-type rearing, he may be unconsciously hostile to his parentage, unconsciously guilty about it, and thus disposed to skip the words "father" and "mother" for comfort of mind. Lastly, it's possible your parents are too paternalistic, so that John feels unconsciously challenged to remind them indirectly that he's no child. Whatever the story, John's manner is defensive and criticism will only stiffen it; whereas loving acceptance "as is" may win him to your example in time.—M. H.

Secrecy Bars May Limit Solon In Hearings For Atomic Chief

WASHINGTON, May 30. (AP)—Some colleagues said today that secrecy bars may limit attempts of Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) to prove publicly that David E. Lilienthal is guilty of "incredible mismanagement" of atomic affairs.

Hickenlooper has called for public hearings by the Senate-House atomic committee, beginning Wednesday. He said he is "prepared to produce the proof" that these hearings that Lilienthal has been lax in his duties and should quit as chairman of the Atomic Energy commission.

But some senators said privately they doubt that anything like the full controversy between the Iowa senator and the AEC chairman can be aired at such hearings because of the necessity of keeping A-bomb secrets intact.

Had Access To Secrets

The AEC operates like an iceberg, with most of its mass below the secrecy water-line, so that only those directly involved and the Senate-House committee can be told of what is going on below the surface.

As a former chairman of this committee Hickenlooper had intimate access for two years during the 80th Congress to the commission's inner workings.

It is understood that during that time, the Iowa senator addressed many letters to Lilienthal inquiring about commission decisions and often complaining about some action that had been taken.

These letters, and the answers, remain in the Senate-House committee's files. They may be included in the "great mass of material" which Hickenlooper said he wanted to call to the committee's attention.

But most of these communications apparently fall in the secrecy category. While they might be reviewed by the committee, senators think it hardly likely that many can be brought out into the open for public reading.

Hickenlooper apparently is directing his attack on Lilienthal primarily toward what he has said were loopholes in its program of keeping atomic secrets safely sealed away from the world's prying eyes.

But Lilienthal quickly has taken the Iowan's charge of "incredible mismanagement" at its face implications. He has expressed a determination to prove that the atomic program, which he said was "bogged down" under military control, has regained full speed under civilian direction.

Requests Witnesses

In an attempt to demonstrate this, he has asked that more than 30 leading industrialists and scientists be called as witnesses.

There seems little doubt that the majority of scientists will rally to Lilienthal's defense in fear of what they regard as possible encroachment on their freedom to exchange information among themselves.

In fact, some members of Congress report that the telegrams they are getting read much like those received when the AEC law was before Congress and there was at hot fight over military vs. civilian control.

Hickenlooper said in a weekend statement that he wants to bring his charges against Lilienthal "to a head now."

"I have made these charges on my own responsibility," he said. I am prepared to produce the proof . . .

"It is essential that his evidence be presented in orderly fashion and that the real issues be kept clearinv in mind. The joint committee and the American people must judge this matter without confusion."

Third Man Convicted In Guam Rape Death

GUAM, May 30. (AP)—Sgt. Robert W. Burns, 32, Spokane, Wash., today was convicted in the rape-slaying of Ruth Farnsworth and was sentenced to death.

Burns was the third of three negro soldiers sentenced to die for the young San Francisco woman's killing last December 11.

The trial was in closed session before an Air Force court martial.

The sentence is subject to review, as are those of the other two negroes tried previously — Pvt. Calvin Dennis of Frederick, Md., and his half-brother, Herman D. Dennis, jr., Calvert, and Seguin, Tex.

Miss Farnsworth was dragged from the Jade shop in which she worked, beaten, raped and left to die in the jungle.

Navy Man Racing Death Across Pacific As Wife Fights For Life Against Polio

LOS ANGELES, May 30 — A Navy plane is racing death across the Pacific today.

A young mother of two children lay near death in a polio respirator at Los Angeles general hospital while the Navy sped her husband toward the bedside from faraway Guam.

Mrs. Marion Kopytko, 30, was stricken with infantile paralysis a week ago in her Long Beach, Calif., home. At 10 p.m. PST, Saturday chief storekeeper William J. Kopytko, 37, left Guam. He is due to hit the mainland, probably at San Francisco, tonight or tomorrow.

Kopytko, who is due for retirement after 20 years naval service next November, has been in the Pacific 16 months. He has never seen his nine-months-old son.

Mrs. Kopytko's sister said that "we just know it will make a big difference in Marion's condition when Bill gets here."

EAT PLENTY AND TAKE OFF UGLY FAT

When you buy Barcentrate, you buy a preparation for taking off weight. You do not pay for any printed diet or for vitamins to fortify you against weakness while on a starvation diet. You need never know a hungry moment while taking this preparation. Barcentrate is the original grapefruit juice recipe for weight reduction.

Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take just two tablespoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to take off ugly fat, return the empty bottle for your money back.

Lost 56 pounds

Here is what Mrs. L. J. Bryant, P. O. Box 66, Whitewright, Texas, wrote us: "I want to tell you what Barcentrate has done for me. I weighed 268 pounds when I started taking it. I now weigh 212.

"I have taken my dress size down from size 50 to 44 and never felt better in my life and everybody tells me how much nicer I look than I did.

"I am still taking Barcentrate as I want to get my weight down to 146 or 150 pounds."

World Demand Is Big For Vienna Orchestra

VIENNA, May 30. (AP)—Austria can not supply the demand for its most exportable item—the Vienna Philharmonic orchestra.

Invitations have been received from Switzerland, Egypt, France, Sweden, Denmark, Great Britain, Belgium, Germany, Italy, Manaco, Turkey, Hungary, the United States and a number of countries in South America.

Only a few of them can be accepted because of previous committments—particularly the Salzburg music festival.

The hardest offer of all to turn down came from the tiny principality of Monaco. The Prince of Monaco offered the orchestra a two-week's vacation as his guest in return for two Johann Strauss concerts. The only dates suitable conflicted with the Salzburg Festival.

India Is Stepping Up Hunt For Minerals

NEW DELHI, India, May 30. (AP) Independent India is giving its mineral wealth attention it has never received before. Exploratory work is being pushed through the expansion of existing agencies and the creation of new ones. Plans are being studied for the processing of larger quantities of minerals in this country. A broad national mineral policy has been drawn and legislation has been passed giving the central government powers over the development and control of mining in the provinces.

Minister of Works, Mines and Power N V. Gadgil is particularly interested in plans to increase facilities for processing minerals within the country. He says from minerals mined in India.

India is not exceptionally rich in minerals. M. S. Krishman, director of the Bureau of Mines, describes known resources as "very moderate in size and variety" when taken in relation to the area and population.

Saar Basin's History Still Touchy Subject

BERLIN, May 30. (AP)—The Saar was an important industrial center of Germany, second only to the Ruhr, before it was merged "economically" with France last year.

Today treatment of its turbulent history is a delicate matter—in the Saar state.

A book was published recently in its capital city, Saarbrucken, the Berlin press reports. It claimed to cover all historical events, including the Saar's plebiscite for Germany in 1935 and its economic merger with France.

The Saarbruecken newspaper "Neue Zeit" reviewed the Saar history as depicted in this book and made an astounding discovery; the word "German" had been used three times in the whole book.

Island Disappears In Pacific Ocean

HONOLULU, May 30. (AP)—Falcon island, disappeared, for the fourth time in its recorded history—but a man who ought to know says it will rise again some day, bigger and better than ever. The island is (or was) a small, volcanic member of the Tonga group, 2,600 miles southwest of Hawaii.

A New Zealand navy frigate reported March 3 that it had vanished, leaving only a strong sulphur smell in the vicinity. Dr. Thomas A. Jagger, famous American volcanologist of the national park service, predicts the island will rise again and eventually will grow up to be a considerable piece of land. Right now, he says, it is in the process of piling up a lava flow under the sea.

According to the U. S. navy's hydrographic bulletin, Falcon island first appeared as a reef in 1865. It grew int. an island, big enough that the British surveyed it. Then, in 1894, it vanished.

Later the same year it reappeared, rose to an altitude of 50 feet, then disappeared again four years later.

In 1900 a shoal was discovered at its site. By 1913 the shoal was gone. It came up again in 1927, one mile long. The following year it rose 600 feet and spread out for two miles.

By 1936 it had subsided to an altitude of 200 feet, and was down to 30 feet by 1938. Last March it was entirely gone again.

"It's a continual battle between the volcano and the sea," Dr. Jaggar says. "The volcano gradually builds up, and storms wash it away. In the end, the volcano will win."

Gangsters Bomb Buildings As Warning Over Gambling Racket

WAUKEGAN, Ill., May 30. (AP)—Three Lake county buildings were bombed last night in what the sheriff said was an attempt by "Chicago racketeers" to muscle in on Lake county gambling.

Black powder bombs were used at two resorts in the county and at a downtown Waukegan building housing a pinball machine repair shop, police said. The bombing attacks were almost simultaneous.

An unidentified woman was hurt by flying glass at one of the resorts, but damage to the buildings was not extensive.

Sheriff Stanley M. Christian said he has been warring on gambling in the county, and added he believes "Chicago racketeers are trying to declare themselves in on the slot machine and pinball machine business."

The bombs, Christian stated he believes, were "a warning."

The explosion in downtown Waukegan shattered windows within a 300-yard radius.

The other explosions were at the Louis Bregenzer resort at Grass Lake, and at Pop's place, a roadhouse.

Wayland College Seniors Hear Reader's Digest Representative

PLAINVIEW, May 30. (Special)—O. K. Armstrong of Reader's Digest today told Wayland college's first four-year graduates that they had learned to think, to work and to appreciated and should then go out to serve.

He expressed the hope that some might go into politics but warned that "it is a dog's life," and went on to say: "You will be criticized, whether you do well or ill. You will not receive the gratitude due to one who devoted himself to the public weal." Armstrong also pointed out, however, the rewards in this and other types of altruistic service.

Presented By Dean

Wayland's seniors were presented by the new dean, Dr. Raymond E. Mendenhall, who comes from Daniel Baker college at Brownwood. Diplomas were awarded by President J. W. Marshall.

Armstrong, who has his headquarters in Springfield, Mo., advised the seniors never to be afraid of the truth. "Never hold to dogma merely because it has been pronounced, whether long ago or recently," he said. "Test every idea in the white light of God's revelations, in both religion and science. Do not be afraid to endure the agony of a suspended judgment. And keep ever the inquiring mind and open heart."

The speaker said it might seem trite to stress the importance of industry. "But we are living in an age," he said, "when some of the old fashioned virtues need to be dusted off and held up again for public view; and believe me, work is one of them."

Former Representative

Armstrong, a former member of the Missouri legislature, deplored the fact that "something for nothing" seems to be the present watchword and a "welfare state" the order of the day.

"During recent sessions of our Congress and state legislature more proposals were made for handouts, bonuses and governmental pap than ever before," he declared.

Armstrong's commencement address rounded out exercises which included a baccalaureate sermon by Dr. H. Cornell Goerner of the Southern Seminary in Louisville, Ky., and presentations to the college of portraits of President Marshall and Dr. J. H. Wayland, founder of the college.

Wayland's summer school will begin June 6. The first term end July 16; the second term extends from July 18 to August 27.

SALMON MUST TELL AGE

MAYWOOD, Ill., May 30. (AP)—Salmon swimming up their native rivers to spawn next spring must now face an added hazard. They will not only get caught but will also have to reveal their age. Knowing the age of selected fish from the 1949 catch will help scientists of the American Can company in making quality tests of the new pack. A salmon's age is determined by putting one of his scales under a microscope. The rings on the scale reveal the fish's approximate age, in much the same way that annular rings tell the age o fa tree. The method also enables the canning experts to tell how much time the fish has spent in fresh or salt water.

Disunion, War And Confusion Dull China's Sight Of Future

By FRED HAMPSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

SHANGHAI, May 30.—China is at a new depth of confusion in trying to decide what to do about herself. The average American in China, knowing China's needs and the United States' limitations, is the most confused of all.

China wallows in difficulties which set a record even for a country that is expert at getting herself into difficulties. China is divided more ways than between Nationalists and Communists.

China is hungry, yet much of her land (and it never did yield enough to feed her) is out of cultivation because of the civil war. China is dizzy with inflation.. Printing presses cannot grind out enough money even by working day and night. China's leadership is so split that half the crises that beset her are simply ignored.

Problems Varied

Americans in China read of congressional debates centered on stopping Communism and wonder anew how it can be done in this huge, crowded land without getting caught in collateral problems that might not be solved even with the expenditure of billions of dollars.

Most Americans in China feel that Communism, like every other revolutionary movement in the country's history, was brought on by internal conditions which the West always over-simplifies. They feel that, until those conditions are rectified, China is doomed to turmoil and to one revolutionary movement after another.

Renewed suggestions from Washington that the Red tide can be halted by more American money sounds to the average American in China like suggestions that the same old mistakes be repeated.

Who's To Get Money?

There is also the problem, who will get the money? Chiang Kai-shek and the dispersed remnant of his Kuomintang government? Or Li Tsung-jen and his new regime, which has its eyes on only one objective—some sort of peace with the Reds?

Harold Stassen's recent suggestion for what he called a "MacArthur plan" for Asia has made the American in China scratch his head harder. Would that mean putting a few hundred thousand American troops in China to run the show—and to intervene directly in the civil war? Or would it mean another "Stilwell affair?" A new American commander would be subject to the same obstructions and fraustrations as the late Gen. Joseph Stilwell met during the Japanese war. They are inherent in China for any foreign leader who has a lot of money to spend.

Will Uncle Sam take on a job like that on the one hand while cutting back his own military expenditures elsewhere? If it is decided to underwrite the Nationalists and try to save the day that way, how about the additional millions or billions needed to solve the land problem, to feed the people while more war devastates the country, to stop inflation which breeds misery and spreads Communism every day?

Commerce Is Problem

Will the United States step in and take over direction of China's failing commerce? Lack of trade will continue to nurture unrest and Communism until restored. To that end, will the United States reorganize China's ports, which are so jammed and disorganized that they couldn't handle a good volumeof commerce even if they got it?

Will the United States undertake all these things six years after abandoning extra-territoriality and becoming a rigid espouser of sovereignty?

The American in China, who never had any stomach for Communism, has even less now that he has seen the Peiping-Tientsin pattern: the autocratic, beaucratic suppression of personal liberties, of the press, and of everything else that the Reds fear or dislike. No, the American in China realizes that Communism may mean the end of him in China, too; but he cannot see how more dollars can stop it.

INDIA RAPS PROFITS

NEW DELHI, India, May 30. (AP)—"Huge profits" were made by Indian sugar manufacturers during the past year, Food Minister Jairamdas Daulatram told parliament. He said the government intends to investigate the cost of manufacture of sugar. He reported that under the expansion scheme of industry new sugar factories will be located in areas where the production of cane is economical. It is proposed, Jairamadas added, to distribute the industry evenly in all provinces and states.

Lubbock Hubbers Pound Out 6-5 Triumph Over Pioneers

Frank Shone Hurls Duke Nine To 19-4 Win Over Pampa Oilers

(By The Associated Press)

Massive Frank Shone came back to the West Texas-New Mexico League Sunday—and came back with a bang.

Shone recently was repurchased by Albuquerque from Oakland, Calif. He was the loop's leading pitcher last year. And with him on the mound last night, the Dukes pounded Pampa 19 to 4 for their fifth consecutive win and third straight over Pampa.

Elsewhere in the circuit:

Lubbock won its third one-run decision over Clovis 6 to 5; Amarillo and Abilene spit a double header with Amarillo losing the first 10 to 5 and winning the second 9 to 2; and Borger won a double header over Lamesa 5 to 4 and 8 to 6.

Allows Seven Hits

Shone, in his 1949 debut with the Albuquerque Dukes, allowed seven scattered hits and struck out nine men. Only one earned run crossed the plate for Pampa—its first earned run in three games.

Albuquerque sent 13 men to bat in the first inning, pounding out eight runs on four singles, a triple, four walks and an error. The Dukes collected seven runs in the seventh off four hits, three walks and an error.

Amarillo Beats Abilene

Jim Reynolds brilliant four-hit pitching, marred only by Hayden Greer's homer with one on base, gave Amarillo its 9 to 2 win in the second game of the double. Greer was injured in the second inning when he was hit on the left foot by a grounder, but remained long enough to spoil Reynolds' shut-out in the fourth and then retired.

Earlier, Amarillo errors helped the Abilene club to a 10 to 5 win, with the Blue Sox packaging all their nine hits with the misplays in the third and fifth innings.

Clayton Fries went the distance for Borger in the first game of the double bill and set Lamesa down 5 to 4. Borger scored three runs in the sixth inning of the game to sew up the double victory.

JOE WISNIEWSKI HOMERS TWICE TO SPARK HUBS

CLOVIS, May 30. (AP)—The Lubbock Hubbers employed four pitchers Sunday afternoon in their series final with the Clovis Pioneers, but it was the big bat of Leftfielder Joe Wisniewski which provided the winning margin as the visitors won their third straight one-run verdict. The score was 6-5.

Wisniewski banged out three hits in four trips, two of them homers. He batted in four runs. Wisniewski's first roundtripper came with pinch-hitter Bill Grafton on base in the third, his second in the fifth with no one aboard. His third hit of the afternoon, a single to left center sent Manager Jackie Sullivan scampering home with the tying run in the sixth.

Willis Brought In

Moments later Nelson Davis' long fly to Wilcy Moore in center brought in Charles Willis with the deciding run to climax a three-run final spurt by the Hubbers.

Don Hensiek started for the Hubbers but he was driven to cover in the first frame, the Pioneers touching him for four singles good for four runs before removed for Ray Reichalt who put out the fire via a quick double play, Sullivan to Jim Prince.

Reichelt worked until the fourth when Cotton Russell took over. Russell was credited with the win although he was forced to [illegible] sixth after issuing walks to [illegible]oore and Reed Sollars with none [illegible]way. John Myers strolled to the [illegible]ound and proceeded to stop the Pioneers cold for the rest of the [illegible]way.

Browns Set Pace--- In East Texas!!

(By The Associated Press)

The league-leading Marshall Browns are gradually moving ahead of the field in the East Texas league baseball race.

The Browns, yesterday, defeated seventh-place Tyler, 6-2, to extend their lead over second-place Longview to two and a half games. Longview split a double-header with last-place Henderson, winning the opener, 6-2, and dropping the second game, 7-8.

The Gladewater Bears beat third-place Kilgore, 10-7, in ten innings. And the Bryan Bombers nosed out Paris, 4-3. Paris, Gladewater and Bryan are tied for fourth.

Marshall rushed across five runs in the first inning to beat Tyler. Dave Kovach's three-run double was the big blow.

Dallas Beats Indians, 8-6

(By The Associated Press)

San Antonio's terrific struggle to gain first place in the Texas league is stymied—by the team already on top.

The Missions dusted off Shreveport again yesterday, 12-2. But first place Dallas rallied to thump Oklahoma City, 8-6, and keep a half-game margin.

Lowly Houston roused itself again and came through with another double victory over Beaumont—this time by scores of 4-3, 4-2.

Cats Beat Tulsa

In the other loop tilt, Fort Worth nudged Tulsa, 4-3.

Memorial day games today and tonight find the same opponents on the diamond, but two have switched playing sites. Houston is at Beaumont and San Antonio at Shreveport. Dallas remains at Oklahoma City and Fort Worth at Tulsa.

Procopio Herrera chalked up his fifth victory by holding Shreveport to four hits.

San Antonio pounded Shreveport for 16 hits, including a big third inning when seven Missions scored.

Witte, Wells Homer

Home runs by Jerry Witte and Leo Wells and the neat relief pitching of old Otho Nicholas won for Dallas.

Witte got his circuit clout with two on in the second and Wells hit one over the fence in a three-run outburst in the seventh.

Nicholas gave up only one hit in facing 15 batters.

Lou Ortiz' double scored Larry Miggins for Houston's winning run in the third inning of the first game, while in the nightcap, Augie Zande's long fly scored Ortiz to break up a close ball game.

Cal Abrams' single in the fourth inning brought home the winning run for Fort Worth and gave Chris Van Cuyk his fourth victory of the season.

SAN ANGELO, May 30. (AP)—A 30-foot putt won Jack Williams the 13th annual country club golf tournament yesterday. He sank it on the 36th hole to beat Don Cherry, 1 up.

Cleveland Shades Chisox, 2-1; Brooks Nose Out Boston, 3-2

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Will Satchell Paige, Cleveland's legendary negro pitcher, prove another life-saver for the world champion Indians?

The ageless righthander indicated yesterday he might be a great help to Manager Lou Boudreau's injury-riddled pitching staff when he hurled a brilliant 2-1, 11-inning victory yesterday over the Chicago White Sox.

Paige's performance nearly overshadowed the zany goings-on in the National league pennant race, which today showed three teams—Brooklyn, New York and Boston—tied for first place, with Cincinnati only one game behind.

First Sunday Win

The victory of Paige, who is believed to be older than his record book age of 40, marked the first Sunday triumph of the season for Cleveland after eight losses. Chicago won the first game, 4-2.

Radny Gumpert scattered nine hits in the opener to post his fourth victory against three defeats.

The top rung in the National league reached the suffocating point as Brooklyn edged out Boston 3-2, and the New York Giants took a twin bill from the Phillies in Philadelphia, 4-2 and 3-0. All three now own identical 21-16 won and lost records.

Jackie Robinson's single off Warren Spahn with the bases loaded in the seventh drove in the tying and winning runs for Brooklyn.

Bobby Thomson was the big gun in the Giant's double-barrelled triumph. He smashed a two-run homer to break up a 15-inning battle in the opener and collected two singles and a triple in the nightcap as first-time starter Hank Behrman pitched a seven-inning one-hitter for the Giants.

Cubs Whip The Reds

The Reds lost an opportunity to make it a four-way tie for first when the Chicago Cubs whipped them 10-2 after Cincinnati won the first game of their doubleheader, 4-1.

Pittsburgh snapped a seven-game losing streak with a 4-2 victory over Harry Brecheen and the Cards in St. Louis. The defeat ended a five-game winning streak for the Redbirds.

The Philadelphia Athletics moved to within four and a half games of the American league leading Yankees, defeating New York, 3-1. The defeat snapped a six-game winning streak for the Bronx Bombers. Rookie Alex Kellner limited the Yanks to six hits for his sixth victory, half of them over New York.

Bespectacled Paul Calvert pitched the Washington Senators to a 10-4 victory over the Red Sox in Boston to drop Joe McCarthy's men into third place.

Detroit swept its three-game series with St. Louis, slamming three Brownie pitchers for 14 hits and a 6-4 victory. A home run by Hoot Evers with a mate aboard in the seventh broke up a 4-4 tie.

Results Of Silver City Races Given

SILVER CITY, N. M., May 30 (AP) — Winferno, nine-year-old brown gelding owned by W. M. Keefer, Phoenix, Ariz., paid $30 for a $2 ticket in winning a feature Silver Park race Sunday.

In another top event, Miss Bank, noted quarter horse owned by D. V. Land, El Paso, made her season debut at the track and captured a special quarter horse event handily.

The results:

Five furlongs—Patsy A., G. B. Loyd, Edgewood, N. M., $6.20, $4.30 and $3.50; Chilipetine $7.50 and $4.60; and Della Hill $3.90 (no time recorded).

Five furlongs—Billy Chimes, R. J. Purtell, Brownfield, $8.50, $2.80 and $2.70; Double Witch $2.50 and $2.80; Single L., $5.40 (no time).

Coach Al Severance rates John Weglicki as the most improved player on the current Villanova basketball team.

Lubbock Hubbers Pound Out 6-5 Triumph Over Pioneers

Frank Shone Hurls Duke Nine To 19-4 Win Over Pampa Oilers

(By The Associated Press)

Massive Frank Shone came back to the West Texas-New Mexico League Sunday—and came back with a bang.

Shone recently was repurchased by Albuquerque from Oakland, Calif. He was the loop's leading pitcher last year. And with him on the mound last night, the Dukes pounded Pampa 19 to 4 for their fifth consecutive win and third straight over Pampa.

Elsewhere in the circuit:

Lubbock won its third one-run decision over Clovis 6 to 5; Amarillo and Abilene spit a double header with Amarillo losing the first 10 to 5 and winning the second 9 to 2; and Borger won a double header over Lamesa 5 to 4 and 8 to 6.

Allows Seven Hits

Shone, in his 1949 debut with the Albuquerque Dukes, allowed seven scattered hits and struck out nine men. Only one earned run crossed the plate for Pampa—its first earned run in three games.

Albuquerque sent 13 men to bat in the first inning, pounding out eight runs on four singles, a triple, four walks and an error. The Dukes collected seven runs in the seventh off four hits, three walks and an error.

Amarillo Beats Abilene

Jim Reynolds brilliant four-hit pitching, marred only by Hayden Greer's homer with one on base, gave Amarillo its 9 to 2 win in the second game of the double. Greer was injured in the second inning when he was hit on the left foot by a grounder, but remained long enough to spoil Reynolds' shutout in the fourth and then retired.

Earlier, Amarillo errors helped the Abilene club to a 10 to 5 win, with the Blue Sox packaging all their nine hits with the misplays in the third and fifth innings.

Clayton Fries went the distance for Borger in the first game of the double bill and set Lamesa down 5 to 4. Borger scored three runs in the sixth inning of the game to sew up the double victory.

JOE WISNIEWSKI HOMERS TWICE TO SPARK HUBS

CLOVIS, May 30. (AP)—The Lubbock Hubbers employed four pitchers Sunday afternoon in their series final with the Clovis Pioneers, but it was the big bat of Leftfielder Joe Wisniewski which provided the winning margin as the visitors won their third straight one-run verdict. The score was 6-5.

Wisniewski banged out three hits in four trips, two of them homers. He batted in four runs. Wisniewski's first roundtripper came with pinch-hitter Bill Grafton on base in the third, his second in the fifth with no one aboard. His third hit of the afternoon, a single to left center sent Manager Jackie Sullivan scampering home with the tying run in the sixth.

Willis Brought In

Moments later Nelson Davis' long fly to Wilcy Moore in center brought in Charles Willis with the deciding run to climax a three-run final spurt by the Hubbers.

Don Hensiek started for the Hubbers but he was driven to cover in the first frame, the Pioneers touching him for four singles good for four runs before removed for Ray Reichalt who put out the fire via a quick double play, Sullivan to Jim Prince.

Reichelt worked until the fourth when Cotton Russell took over. Russell was credited with the win although he was forced to [illegible] sixth after issuing walks to Moore and Red Sollars with none away. John Myers strolled to the mound and proceeded to stop the Pioneers cold for the rest of the way.

Browns Set Pace--- In East Texas!!

(By The Associated Press)

The league-leading Marshall Browns are gradually moving ahead of the field in the East Texas league baseball race.

The Browns, yesterday, defeated seventh-place Tyler, 6-2, to extend their lead over second-place Longview to two and a half games. Longview split a double-header with last-place Henderson, winning the opener, 8-2, and dropping the second game, 7-8.

The Gladewater Bears beat third-place Kilgore, 10-7, in ten innings. And the Bryan Bombers nosed out Paris, 4-3. Paris, Gladewater and Bryan are tied for fourth.

Marshall rushed across five runs in the first inning to beat Tyler. Dave Kovach's three-run double was the big blow.

Dallas Beats Indians, 8-6

(By The Associated Press)

San Antonio's terrific struggle to gain first place in the Texas league is stymied—by the team already on top.

The Missions dusted off Shreveport again yesterday, 12-2. But first place Dallas rallied to thump Oklahoma City, 8-6, and keep a half-game margin.

Lowly Houston roused itself again and came through with another double victory over Beaumont—this time by scores of 4-3, 4-2.

Cats Beat Tulsa

In the other loop tilt, Fort Worth nudged Tulsa, 4-3.

Memorial day games today and tonight find the same opponents on the diamond, but two have switched playing sites. Houston is at Beaumont and San Antonio at Shreveport. Dallas remains at Oklahoma City and Fort Worth at Tulsa.

Procopio Herrera chalked up his fifth victory by holding Shreveport to four hits.

San Antonio pounded Shreveport for 16 hits, including a big third inning when seven Missions scored.

Witte, Wells Homer

Home runs by Jerry Witte and Leo Wells and the neat relief pitching of old Otho Nicholas won for Dallas.

Witte got his circuit clout with two on in the second and Wells hit one over the fence in a three-run outburst in the seventh.

Nicholas gave up only one hit in facing 15 batters.

Lou Ortiz' double scored Larry Miggins for Houston's winning run in the third inning of the first game, while in the nightcap, Augie Zande's long fly scored Ortiz to break up a close ball game.

Cal Abrams' single in the fourth inning brought home the winning run for Fort Worth and gave Chris Van Cuyk his fourth victory of the season.

Cleveland Shades Chisox, 2-1; Brooks Nose Out Boston, 3-2

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Will Satchell Paige, Cleveland's legendary negro pitcher, prove another life-saver for the world champion Indians?

The ageless righthander indicated yesterday he might be a great help to Manager Lou Boudreau's injury-riddled pitching staff when he hurled a brilliant 2-1, 11-inning victory yesterday over the Chicago White Sox.

Paige's performance nearly overshadowed the zany goings-on in the National league pennant race, which today showed three teams—Brooklyn, New York and Boston—tied for first place, with Cincinnati only one game behind.

First Sunday Win

The victory of Paige, who is believed to be older than his record book age of 40, marked the first Sunday triumph of the season for Cleveland after eight losses. Chicago won the first game, 4-2.

Radny Gumpert scattered nine hits in the opener to post his fourth victory against three defeats.

The top rung in the National league reached the suffocating point as Brooklyn edged out Boston 3-2, and the New York Giants took a twin bill from the Phillies in Philadelphia, 4-2 and 3-0. All three now own identical 21-16 won and lost records.

Jackie Robinson's single off Warren Spahn with the bases loaded in the seventh drove in the tying and winning runs for Brooklyn.

Bobby Thomson was the big gun in the Giant's double-barrelled triumph. He smashed a two-run homer to break up a 15-inning battle in the opener and collected two singles and a triple in the nightcap as first-time starter Hank Behrman pitched a seven-inning one-hitter for the Giants.

Cubs Whip The Reds

The Reds lost an opportunity to make it a four-way tie for first when the Chicago Cubs whipped them 10-2 after Cincinnati won the first game of their doubleheader, 4-1.

Pittsburgh snapped a seven-game losing streak with a 4-2 victory over Harry Brecheen and the Cards in St. Louis. The defeat ended a five-game winning streak for the Redbirds.

The Philadelphia Athletics moved to within four and a half games of the American league leading Yankees, defeating New York, 3-1. The defeat snapped a six-game winning streak for the Bronx Bombers. Rookie Alex Kellner limited the Yanks to six hits for his sixth victory, half of them over New York.

Bespectacled Paul Calvert pitched the Washington Senators to a 10-4 victory over the Red Sox in Boston to drop Joe McCarthy's men into third place.

Detroit swept its three-game series with St. Louis, slamming three Brownie pitchers for 14 hits and a 6-4 victory. A home run by Hoot Evers with a mate aboard in the seventh broke up a 4-4 tie.

A COLUMBIA RE-RELEASE

Between The Lines by Joe Kelly

Congratulations to Coach Fred Taylor and his Lubbock High school baseball team, which Saturday beat Wichita Falls in Bi-District play and won the right to represent two districts at Austin. We were glad to see the Westerners on top of the heap again, their second major sport district and bi-district victories in succession. And from the talent on hand, there is a better than even chance the football team will follow the basketball and baseball teams. Incidentally, Amarillo High school officials, who, we are told, worked so hard to get Lubbock out of District 1-AA, must really be congratulating themselves on the results of their effort. If Lubbock didn't leave the district, people might soon be paraphrasing Bill Terry in asking "Is Amarillo still in the district?"

No matter what the baseball team does in the state tournament (and the Associated Press round-up Saturday indicated that they aren't held in very high regard), the diamond squad went through a successful season. They suffered a loss to Amarillo here, but they made up for it by taking games right under the noses of the Sandstorm supporters. Lubbock won 19 games and lost only there during its season, which caused several persons to suggest that the Westerners squad be substituted in the West Texas-New Mexico League race in place of the Hubbers. It was a good season every way you look at it and any victories in Austin will be just that much more pleasing. Congratulations on a good job well done.

Sport magazine, to which we had reference the other day in regards to Grantland Rice's prediction on the alleged downfall of the American League, also has some other wonderful articles. You will find the piece by Jack Sher on Joe Louis a must bit of reading. And the article on Honus "The Flying Dutchman" Wagner is a masterpiece. Then there are other fine stories, such as the one about Johnny Lindell of the New York Yankees, Jack Dempsey on boxing, Birdie Tebbetts' story on his catching career and a flock of other good reading on sport figures. We can recommend the articles without hesitation and advise you to get your copy.

Texas Tech seniors will include several men who have played their part in the athletic picture at the Red Raiders institution. So, for the outgoing athletic seniors, we wish to tip our hat in respect, wish each and every one luck in life and request that they see that both athletes and their sons return to Lubbock. You'd probably like a resume of the men who have reached prowess in athletics at Tech who will not be back next year. Eight men leave the football squad, five in the line and three in the backfield. Three ends, Bill Kelley of Idalou, Frank Otmers of Fredericksburg, and J. L. Gulley of Quanah, will have to be replaced. Two guards, Don Orr of Graham and Dorrell McCurry of Lubbock, also leave. In the backfield, three top halfbacks go, Zac Henderson of Quanah, Charley Reynolds of Odessa and Glenn Lewis of Quitaque.

Practically the entire basketball team will be lost by graduation, including Don Grove of Monument, N. M., All-Border Conference center for three years. Other dependable, valuable men include Bill Banks of Vernon, Wayne Bowles of Lubbock, Wimpy Hill of Amarillo, Ardis Barton of Hart and C. W. Dukes of Tyler. That leaves Poly Robinson with a first class rebuilding job facing him. Maxey McKnight should have one of his better track squads coming up, even with the loss of three men like Ed Clepper of Mobeetie, perennial high point man, Reynolds and Seth Murphey of Levelland. Murphey, as you probably know, is an ordained Baptist minister.

The tennis team also suffers heavy losses and another rebuilding job is in sight. Glenn Ivy of Sweetwater, with Jake Broyles of Lamesa, (who returns), the Class A Border loop doubles champion, David Hester and Ed Scuddy of Lubbock and Carl Schmidt of Mexico City, who teamed with Hester to win the Border loop's Class B doubles title, all will be lost. That leaves only Broyles returning. In golf, Zac Henderson leaves his brother Bud, but James F. Cook of Rising Star also finishes his education. That's half the team. And only fencing has a happy outlook in the winter-spring sports, with Richard Dickey of Lubbock the only loss.

When you come right down to it, Tech faces a major rebuilding job in almost all sports, with basketball the worst hit. At the same time, three ends, two guards and three halfbacks is quite a loss in football. While it isn't a crippling loss, it will take time and patience to get three halfbacks the equal of those lost. But there's one thing for sure; Tech's coaching staff is equal to the problem of building over again, as they have demonstrated time and time again. The same sports should be just as strong if not stronger next fall and the Raiders again will be a name to be reckoned with, whether it be football or tennis.

THE ROUNDUP: Charley Seiber of Amarillo has said that he will go to Rice Institute, while James Garner will go to Yale, although not as an athlete . . . When Royce Mills hit the home run that tied the score against Borger the other night it wasn't unexpected. Cricket (Mrs. Mills to you) had predicted just exactly that situation the night before! . . . Carley Willis hadn't played third base since high school days (not so long ago) when he stepped in and took over for Buddy McCallum. . . Ray Reichelt and John Myers are the only two Hubbers who haven't driven in a run yet. And they join Cotton Russell, Bill Grafton and Don Hensiek in being the only ones not to hit homers. . . . Jay Haney of Lamesa gave up only five hits yesterday, but was the victim of misfortune in losing. . . Doubleheaders in the American and National Leagues today, but not in the WT-NM loop. . . . Reports from Amarillo still have the crowds there against Manager Jess Landrum and urging his separation from the Gold Sox. They've won only five of their last 13 games, even though they've won 12 and lost 13 since May 1.

Texarkana Batters Twins, 8-3 And 5-3

(By The Associated Press)

The second-place Austin Pioneers are still hot on the trail of the first-place Texarkana Bears in the tight Big State league baseball race.

Texarkana blasted the cellar crew from Sherman - Denison twice yesterday, 8-3 and 5-3. Austin kept the pace—half a game behind— by sweeping a twin bill from the Temple Eagles, 8-6 and 7-5. Third-place Wichita Falls defeated the Gainesville Owls, 9-6. The Greenville Majors copped a twin bill from the fourth-place Waco Pirates, 8-3 and 3-2.

Bears Clinch Win

Texarkana, in the opener, scored five runs in the second frame to clinch the victory. In the second game, Texarkana tallied five runs in the first inning.

Austin counted three runs in the ninth frame of the opener to edge Temple. The Pioneers scored three runs in the last inning and two in the ninth to beat Gainesville.

Greenville's Sal Gliatto held Waco hitless for two and one-third innings of the opener, and came in to retire three straight batters in the last frame of the second game.

Tonight, Greenville plays at Wichita Falls, Waco at Gainesville, Austin at Sherman and Temple at Texarkana.

Big Spring Defeats Midland Nine Twice

(By The Associated Press)

The Big Spring Broncs are now two full games ahead of the field in the Longhorn baseball league.

Big Spring stomped Midland twice yesterday, 6-4 and 3-2. The twin loss dropped Midland all the way from third to fifth place. Second-place Vernon and Odessa split a twin bill. Vernon copped the opener, 10-7, while Odessa took the seven-frame second game, 20-1.

San Angelo won the first game of a double-header, 14-5, Roswell the second, 4-3.

Ballinger decisioned Sweetwater, 6-5.

Big Spring won the opener on triples by Felix Gomez and Ace Mendez and Ed Ramirez's single. In the second game, Carlos Pasqual's home run in the sixth gave the Broncs the victory.

Vernon won its opening game on Cotton McCoskey's homer, two doubles and a single. In the wild second game, 12 walks and 11 hits —including three home runs—in the first four frames gave Odessa 19 runs.

San Angelo counted five runs in the fifth frame and went on to win an easy victory over Roswell in the opener. Roswell's Bob Crues doubled to score men Nuendorff with the winning run in the last inning of the second game.

Ballinger came from behind with five tallies in the fifth frame to squeeze past Sweetwater.

Tonight, Roswell plays at Sweetwater, Big Spring at San Angelo, Odessa at Midland and Ballinger in Vernon.

Santa Clara freshman football coach Eddie Forrest never played on a losing team in the annual football game against St. Mary's.

Golf Tourney Plans Pushed

Announcement Saturday that Mrs. Sam O'Neal of Odessa, 1947 and 1948 Women's West Texas Golf champion, would defend her title in the coming June 14-19 tournament at the Lubbock Country club gave impetus to the tournament plans now being completed.

Committees working under the co-chairmen, Mrs. Fenner Tubbs and Mrs. T. E. Patterson, are winding up details for the big week. An excellent social program for the six days has been worked out and will prove attractive to local and out-of-town women club members. This program will be announced next Sunday, the co-chairmen announced. Mrs. C. L. Dean and Mrs. Guy L. McAfee are co-chairmen of this feature of the program.

Strong Field Expected

With Mrs. O'Neal in the entries, plus the coming of Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite, River Crest Country club of Fort Worth, a strong field is expected. Mrs. Goldthwaite won the first tournament, back in 1935, over this same Lubbock Country club course.

From Meadowbrook Golf club, Lubbock, some 20 entries are expected among whom are Mrs. C. M. Hitchcock, Mrs. Oscar Taylor, Mrs. Tom Gilbert, Mrs. Mary Simms, Mrs. D. P. Trammel and Mrs. Bill Bell. President Mrs. E. B. Herriage of the South Plains Women's Golf association, comprising seven clubs neighboring Lubbock, is expecting Meadowbrook women to participate in all events.

Mixed foursome play is scheduled Tuesday, June 14. The next day qualifying rounds are scheduled while Thursday first round matches will be the play for the day. Finals are scheduled for Sunday, June 19.

Michigan State's 1948 football team ranked forth in the nation in total offense with an average of 402.7 yards per game.

Watkins eked out a 2 and 1 win over Todd Bowman of Albuquerque in the morning, and then beat Earl Allen of Albuquerque, 4 and 3, after Allen had put Dave Lawson of Lubbock into consolation play with a 1-up victory on the 21st hole.

Marshall edged Jim Rallis of Clovis 1-up when the latter missed 18-inch and 2-foot putts, and then trimmed Tommy Roberts, youthful Roswell player, 3 and 2, after Roberts had beat Cliff Nelson of Amarillo, 3 and 2 .

Body Of Negro Found After Action By Mob

IRWINTON, Ga., May 30. (AP)—A young negro accused of shooting at a white man was taken from jail by a mob here last night. His body was found today at nearby Sandy creek.

First reports did not disclose the cause of death. The negro, had been arrested after Sheriff George Hatcher charged he was fired upon at a juke joint where he had gone to quiet a disturbance.

The negro was Claip Hill, 28. Word of his death was received by the sheriff's wife in a telephone call from Sandy Springs.

Mrs. Hatcher said a group of white men drove up to the jail last night while her husband was absent and demanded the negro. They took him away.

The sheriff had gone back to the juke joint to get his pistol, which he had lost in the earlier melee with Hill.

Lubbock VFW Plans Discussion Tonight

A called meeting of post No. 2469 of Veterans of Foreign Wars will be in the post home, Thirty-fourth and Ave. N, at 8 o'clock tonight, it was announced by W. Earl Creel, commander of the post.

"The purpose of the meeting," Creel said, "is to get the members together, lay all the cards on the table in connection with the recent liquor law violation charges and solicit money to fight the case."

He urged all members to attend the meeting and take part in discussion. Soft drinks will be served, he added.

Creel was one of three persons charged Saturday in connection with a beer raid Friday night at the VFW premises. He posted bond Friday night at the jail, but never was locked up, officials said. Saturday he and Eldridge Raybun, clubhouse manager, entered into personal recognizance with the county court, in which they will demand a jury trial. The other man charged was Steve Wells, 52, of Westbrook, who allegedly delivered 180 cases of beer to the VFW property. He posted $800 bond.

Drinking Is Blamed For Brutal Crimes

WASHINGTON, May 30. (U.P.)—Bishop Wilbur E. Hammaker, executive vice president of the board of temperance of the Methodist church, today called upon President Truman to appoint a commission to investigate the "increasing wave of lawlessness."

He sited a number of recent "sex" murders and other crimes.

"In almost every instance of brutal murder or horrible crime," he said, "the reporter on the trial soon scents alcohol.

"Honest reporting constrains him to write in this vein: 'He or she had been making a round of the taverns'."

pensation funds, costs of job placements, etc.

While appropriations are primarily a matter for McKellar's committee, economy proposals are coming up also before the Senate expenditures committee headed by McClellan.

Many Funds Necessary

President Truman has spending plans for about $42,000,000,000 in the upcoming fiscal year, and McClellan said a preliminary survey indicates that "much of it is untouchable." Veterans' benefits, interest on the public debt and other governmental obligations fall into this category.

McClellan said his committee will ask budget heads and top economic advisers to detail how they would cut expenditures "one, two and three billion dollars, to offset an impending federal deficit corresponding to one of those amounts."

A number of economists say that government revenues, from taxes and other sources, will taper off in the next fiscal year.

That would mean the government would spend more than it takes in, or that federal taxes would have to be boosted.

near Catavi, 200 miles southeast of La Paz, Saturday, in protest against the arrest and deportation of several union leaders.

A government spokesman charged the union leaders had aimed at provoking a revolution. The army and military police began a roundup Friday of "political agitators" who were accused of trying to smash Bolivia's "productive forces." Tin is Bolivia's greatest resource and the country's economy is largely dependent on the mines.

Twenty-six men were deported by plane to Chile Friday. The arrested men included Senator Juan Lechin, executive secretary of the National Federation of Mine Workers; members of the rightist National Revolutionary Movement (MNR), army officers accused of affiliating with a secret organization, and a few other union leaders.

The mine owners recently were ordered by the government to comply with union demands for increased wages. The company said it was preparing to obey the government order when union leaders presented a new set of 32 demands.

determined to become the first man ever to win the race three times in succession, was close to Holland when Holland went into first place. Then the South Bend, Ind., driver made his pit stop for gas and tires and took up the long chase.

Obviously, Rose hoped to grab the lead and stay there when Holland stopped for gas. But Holland, who lost out two years ago when his pit crew told him to take it "EZ" and who simply couldn't beat Rose last year, figured differently.

Three times Holland shook off orders from his pit to stop. Instead, he increased his lead until Rose trailed by more than a minute. Then Holland stopped, but only for 46 seconds and when he took the track again he was still first and he stayed there.

Luck, which stayed with Rose for the past two years, ran out. After 192 laps with only 20 miles to go, and chasing Holland with second place nearly assured, the Blue Crown car which won in 1947 and 1948 quit. Rose rolled into the apron on the back stretch and stayed there. He was finished.

Johnny Parsons, Burbank, Calif., took second money in his first Memorial day venture.

George Connor, of Los Angeles, team mate of Holland and Rose, came in third in his similar version of the Holland-Rose Blue Crown Specials.

Myron Fohr, Milwaukee, another first-time driver, took fourth money.

Three Oklahoma City Scouts, Scoutmaster Safe After Floods Maroon Overnight Camp

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 30. (U.P.)—Three 12-year-old Boy Scouts and their scoutmaster returned home safely today from an "overnight" camping trip that lasted nearly three days when they were marooned by high water.

The 24-year-old leader, Frank Rothner, reported he and the boys—John Robert Hester, Bob Moore and Dick Shirley—made it back in his car by an alternate route without any trouble.

They were glad they didn't have to be rescued, Rothner said, but it wasn't any hardship.

"We could have stayed another week," he said.

Trapped Saturday

The group was trapped Saturday by high water of the North Canadian river north of Yukon, Okla., just west of here.

"We began to cut down on our provisions as soon as we saw we couldn't get back right away," the scoutmaster related. "Then we found a farmhouse where we could get milk and eggs. The people were mighty good to us, although I don't know if I can ever look another egg in the face."

Saturday it rained, so the boys stayed in their pup-tents all day and passed scouting tests. Next morning Rothner held Sunday school.

"Then we just ran all over the place," he said. "The boys didn't want to come back."

An unhurried rescue had been planned today.

FLAGS WAVE ABOVE GRAVES OF WAR DEAD

(By The Associated Press)

Little American flags waved above the graves of the nation's war dead today—a Memorial day dedicated to their memory and to the hope that peace may reign supreme.

In proclaiming the day of honor for "our heroic dead," President Truman said this is a fitting occasion when—

"The people of our nation . . . may appeal to Almighty God for help in turning the steps of the world to the paths of permanent peace."

Graves Decorated

By the presidential proclamation, the hour beginning at 9 a. m. CST was set aside as a period for uniting in prayer.

At home and overseas, the graves of soldiers, sailors, marines, airmen and coast guardsmen were each assigned an American flag. Wreaths and other tributes of folwers were in addition.

"The account can be marked 'paid in full,'" said Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson, "only when we can guarantee their wives, their sons and daughters a strong America free from the threat of another war . . . Peace through strength must be our goal."

The other leaders of the military departments spoke similarly in their Memorial day statements.

'Present For Mom' Is .32 Caliber Slug

Miner Slays Mother-In-Law, Then Self As Wife Looks On

(By The Associated Press)

OAKLAND, Md., May 30—Mrs. Beulah Wolfe watched with horror yesterday as her husband shot her mother to death and then killed himself.

Andrew J. Wolfe, a 45-year-old unemployed miner, appeared at the apartment of Mrs. Bertha Platter, his wife's 68-year old mother, to find out if his wife had baked a cake for their son's birthday, police reported.

Mrs. Platter refused to let him in, saying "You won't let me in your house and I won't let you in mine."

Wolfe put his shoulder to the door and broke it in, his wife told police.

"Here's a present for you, mom," he shouted and fired two shots at Mrs. Platter from a .32 caliber Walther pistol, a World War II souvenir gift from his son. He then turned the pistol on himself and fired again.

The Garrett county deputy medical examiner, Dr. E. I. Baumgartner, said a verdict or murder and suicide would be returned.

Police said Mrs. Wolfe told them that, following an argument with her husband, she had spent the night with her mother woh had been ill for about a week.

Truck Driver Shoots Wife

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 30 (AP)—Police held a 43-year-old truck driver today on charges of shooting down and fatally wounding his wife while she knelt in the street begging for mercy.

Mrs. Gertrude Rhoda, 23—red-haired singer and accordion player billed as "Rusty" Rhoda—died shortly after she was shot Saturday midnight outside an Atlantic City cafe.

Her husband, David Rhoda, told police she had been 'downing his character and dunning his employers for money," Assistant Atlantic County Prosecutor David R. Brone said.

Detective Captain Edward Webb added, however, that there was "a confusing amount of conjecture" about the motive.

Webb said Rhoda admitted stealing the death weapon—a .38 caliber revolver—from the apartment of a policeman in the building where he lived.

Police quoted passersby as saying Rhoda fired three times at his wife before a taxicab driver—Frank Altieri, 28—forced him against a wall and disarmed him.

Rhoda, who married the entertainer two years ago after his first wife died, has three children by the first marriage. He said the slain woman had been divorced from a first husband and had one child.

Mrs. Rhoda, a native of New York City, came here seven years ago from Bethlehem, Pa., police said.

Presbyterian Assembly Slashes Number Of Agencies; To Consider Question Of Unity

MONTREAT, N. C., May 30 (AP)—The general assembly of the Presbyterian church in the U. S. today faced the unscrambling of a docket cluttered with unfinished business after two days of debate on reorganization.

As a result of that debate the assembly agreed to abolish five of the church's 30 agencies and committees and regrouping 10 others.

The assembly set up a general council and reduced the number of agencies reporting to the legislative body to six.

Problems Listed

Because of the prolonged debate, the regularly scheduled work of the assembly was shunted aside. So far none of the committees has reported to the assembly, except the ad interim committee on reorganization.

In addition to the committee and agency reports, the assembly has yet to consider about 60 bills and overtures.

These overtures, or resolutions, contain requests that the assembly take a stand on such matters as:

The re-marriage of divorced persons.

Whether religion should be taught in public schools.

The role of a Christian in the south toward negroes.

Increased cooperation with the Presbyterian church in the U.S.A., (north) with a view toward reunion.

Unity Issue Due

Whether to withdraw from the Federal Council of Churches on the grounds that it is a political pressure group and one that favors non-segregation of the races.

Slated to come before the assembly is a report by the committee on cooperation and union urging that "whenever and wherever practicable in the exploration and implementation of means of acquaintance and cooperation with the Presbyterian church in the U.S.A., agencies and individuals of our church be encouraged to solicit the interest and cooperation of other Presbyterian and reformed bodies."

A minority report by this same committee says such talk is pro-union propaganda and urges that the church observe its moratorium on the unity question, agreed to last year.

New Trial For Doctor Talked

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., May 30 (AP)—Another round in the battle for the freedom of Dr. Robert C. Rutledge, jr., was being plotted by his attorneys.

The handsome 28-year-old St. Louis children's specialist was convicted Saturday night of second degree murder for the stabbing of Byron C. Hattman, 29, St. Louis aircraft engineer in a Cedar Rapids hotel room fight last Dec. 14. The defense had contended in the three weeks trial that Hattman seduced the doctor's pretty 23-year-old wife, Sydney.

Confers With Counsel

Rutledge yesterday conferred in his jail cell with his attorneys, his father and father-in-law.

His tall blond wife, center of considerable testimony and argument in closing addresses to the jury, left Cedar Rapids yesterday without seeing her husband.

Sheriff James Smith said the doctor did not want his wife to see him while wearing his jail clothes.

She and her father, Dr. Howard B. Goodrich, returned to the Goodrich home at Hannibal, Mo. Rutledge's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Rutledge, also left for Houston, Tex., yesterday.

Sentence Delayed

It was believed that the doctor's attorneys would seek to have bond posted for him tomorrow. There were indications they would file motion for a new trial.

Judge J. E. Heiserman in announcing the verdict Saturday night, gave defense attorneys until July 1 to file such a motion. Rutledge will not be sentenced until the motion is disposed of.

Conviction of second degree murder in Iowa carries a penalty of 10 years to life. But under the state's parole system, he would be eligible under a 10-year sentence for a parole for good behavior at the end of 70 months.

The jury deliberated less than four hours. Rutledge's face was strained with emotion as he returned to jail.

Neither Mrs. Rutledge, nor his parents-in-law were in court when the verdict was returned.

Reconciliation Fails, Beauty Queen Killed

EVANSVILLE, Ind., May 30. (AP)—A college sophomore who brooded over his divorced beauty queen wife's refusal to make up with him was faced today with a charge of shooting her to death.

Mrs. Helen Merle, 25, homecoming queen last year at Evansville college, was shot four times with a .25 caliber pistol as she sat in her bedroom combing her hair. She also was a sophomore.

A squad of city policemen arrested her husband, Richard Thomas Merle, 26, at the scene. The shooting occurred in the home of Mrs. Merle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Loran Myrick, where Mrs. Merle had lived since getting her divorce two and one-half months ago.

Roy Perkins and Robert Johnson, Evansville police detectives, said Merle signed a statement admitting he shot his former wife because she had turned down his reconciliation pleas.

The Merle's two-and-one-half-year-old son, Darrell, and Mrs. Merle's parents were in another part of the house when the shooting occurred.

Strike Ends At Ford Plants

Normal Output To Be Delayed

DETROIT, May 30 (AP)—About 1,200 Ford maintenance workers returned to their jobs today at the conclusion of the CIO United Auto Workers 24-day strike.

But the Ford Motor Co. estimated it may be two weeks before full production is resumed in all its plants and 106,000 employes are back on the job.

An agreement leaving the main issue in the speed-up dispute to arbitration was reached early Sunday after days of steady negotiations. About 65,000 UAW members employed in the struck Rouge and Lincoln plants ratified it by big margins at meetings later in the day.

Strike Cost Millions

Ironically, neither company nor union will know for sometime who actually won the strike that cost Ford and the workers an estimated $77,000,000.

Attempts to select either a single arbitrator or a three-man board will begin tomorrow. But it may be weeks before any decision is handed down on the main issue—allocation of manpower.

Meanwhile, Ford speeded arrangements to get assembly lines rolling again in its big industrial emoire.

Maintenance workers at the Lincoln plant started back first.

The rest of Lincoln's 6,000 employes are to be recalled tomorrow, together with 16,000 of the 59,000 workers at the huge Rouge plant.

Must Supply Parts

Detroit plants must supply parts for Ford's other factories, so those outside the city will be shut down longer, until a backlog can be built up.

While production is getting underway again, three-man sub-committees from the company and union will try for three days, starting Tuesday, to select a single arbitrator to settle their differences.

If they fail, each side will name one member of a three-man board. The two selected then will try to choose a third party within a limited time. Should they be unable to agree, the post will go to Dr. Harry Shulman, impartial umpire under the Ford contract.

To Rescind Action

In the settlement, Ford also agreed to rescind disciplinary action against 35 strike leaders in the union.

Negotiators who labored long for the settlement will not be able to remain away from the bargaining table for long. The UAW will press for discussions on a new Ford contract "just as soon as Mr. Bugas gets his breath," President Walter Reuther said.

He referred to John S. Bugas, Ford vice president in charge of

New Tax Bill Due In Texas

AUSTIN, May 30. (AP)—The 51st legislature seemed headed toward a new tax bill as it dragged today into the 20th week of the session.

Final Senate passage of the Lamar college and soil conservation money bill was a good bet this week. Pending appropriations and money bills already approved add up to around 46 million dollars more than available revenue.

Taxes Seen As Answer

With many legislative leaders agreeing that it will be impossible for conference committees to slice that much from pending bills to balance the budget, it began to appear more certain that added taxation would be the answer.

A House subcommittee may report on a tax bil that has been under study for several weeks.

Final action on the remaining Gilmer-Aiken public school bill was also in prospect. The joint House-Senate committee which has been trying to iron out the two versions of the minimum foundation measure was about ready to bring it report.

This could touch off new heated debate in both the House and Senate, but ultimate approval of the measure was regarded as a certainty.

Fairly Heavy Schedule

For this late in the session, there was a fairly heavy schedule of committee work, in addition to conference committee tasks.

Tonight at 7:30 the House committee on highways and roads takes up a Senate bill involving hail, wind and tornado insurance.

The Senate has approved a bill which would permit insurance companies to write full coverage on the three. At present a $100 deductible clause is mandatory.

Another, insurance bill which would require county mutual companies to maintain at $10,000 surplus will be heard before the House insurance committee Tuesday at 9 a. m. Its author is Senator William T. Moore of Bryan.

U. S. Treasurer Dies In Crash

WASHINGTON, May 30 (AP)—William A. Julian, aged treasured of the United States, was killed yesterday morning in an automobile accident as he drove to a country club to play a round of golf.

Julian had served in his treasury post for 16 years and during that time had issued $87,000,000,000 worth of currency. His signature appears on U. S. paper money, opposite that of the secretary of the Treasury.

Was A Quiet Man

A quiet man, he was seen little in formal society. Various records gave his age at from 78 to 87; friends said the latter was probably most nearly correct. Julian himself never discussed his age.

Death came in a head-on collision with another car on a country road in nearby Bethesda, Md. The two men in the other car were only slightly hurt; no charges were filed in the accident.

Julian was appointed to the job of treasurer by Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1933. The position is held at the pleasure of the President, with no fixed expiration date.

The treasurer, not to be confused with the cabinet post of secretary of the Treasury, has the job of receiving and disbursing public money, issuing and redeeming paper currency and coin, etc.

Born In Kentucky

Julian was born on a Kentucky farm and rose to become a manufacturer and president of the Queen City Trust company of Cincinnati. A Democrat, he ran for senator from Ohio in 1920 but was defeated in the Harding landslide of that year. He was reported to have turned down a number of appointments to federal office before joining the Roosevelt ad-

Eisler Escape Speeds Action On Alien Bill

WASHINGTON, May 30 (AP) — Rep. Hobbs (D-Ala) predicted today his bill to jail deportable aliens like Gerhart Eisler (before he got away) will come sailing out of the House judiciary committee this week.

"It's a crackerjack bill," he said. "That Eisler case ought to push it through the House and Senate.

"It just means that we will reclaim our independence and sovereignty."

Aliens Good Agents

Hobbs explained to reporters that he believes a government that lacks full deportation powers also lacks independence and sovereignty.

"This country," he said, "can't exercise full deportation powers as long as Russia or any other country won't grant travel orders or passports to deportable aliens.

"Why should the Russians? These aliens are too valuable to them here as agents."

But he said his bill would make it possible to keep such agents from running loose in the country. It would empower the attorney general to toss them in jail until they could be deported.

Hobbs said he was "outraged" at criticism of Attorney General Clark that spring up when Eisler escaped the country. The defect, he said, was "in our laws, not in our attorney general."

Court Freed Eisler

Eisler once was described by the House un-American Activities committee as the number one Communist agent in the United States.

He slipped out of the country May 6 on the Polish liner Batory. He was out on bail while under sentences for contempt of Congress and making false statements to immigration authorities.

At the request of the American government, Eisler was taken from the Batory in England. But a British court set him free, saying he had committeed no offense for which he could be extradited.

"There are a lot more like Eisler in this country," Hobbs said.

THE QUESTION

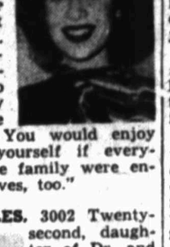

What is your idea of an ideal vacation?

CAROL JEAN SANDLIN, 3512 Twenty - third, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Sandlin: "A perfect vacation to me would be one in the mountains where you could relax and have fun. I would prefer to have a vacation in the mountains rather than traveling because you can enjoy the beautiful scenery so much when you're not seeing so many different things."

JAMES GRACE, 2107 Sixth, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Grace: "Go to different places you haven't seen before and just relax. That is my idea of an ideal vacation. You should get away from the place you have been all the time. It just relaxes your mind to do that. A person likes something different once in a while and it's educational, too."

CAROLYN CHICK, 1918 Twenty - fourth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. R. Chick: "One that would suit everyone concerned — one that wouldn't be one - sided. Family members could compromise and go somewhere they could all have a good time. You would enjoy things more yourself if everyone else in the family were enjoying themselves, too."

ROSSI STILES, 3002 Twenty-second, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Stiles: "A vacation where you get something worthwhile done and have fun, too, is my idea of an ideal vacation from school. I think vacation is a time to work with hobbies and think about your interests and further the beneficial side and have fun, too. Any vacation I like, as far as trips are concerned. I believe going to Wisconsin where there are a lot of lakes is the best trip."

ERNESTINE GAMMILL, 2607 Twenty - first, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Gammill: "I think it would be a good vacation to go to a real nice resort where you could go swimming every day and stay in a nice hotel and ride horses and play tennis. You could stay out in the open and get a good sun tan. It seems an ideal vacation to get to stay outside."

ALLAN CLAYTON, 2101 Twenty-Eighth, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Clayton: "Well, partly work and partly a trip. Usually I go away to El Paso, my former home town, for a vacation and then come back and work part-time. It's a combination. I think its important to mix your life and get part work and part play. It doesn't do you any good to work too much or to play too much."

British Rail Workers Stage 'Sunday' Strike

LONDON, May 30. (AP)—British railway workers staged their second successive "Sunday" strike yesterday.

The unofficial walkout virtually halted service in northeastern England. Partial service was maintained in other regions, the British Press association reported.

A spokesman for the men said the walkout will be held each Sunday until action is forced on the complaints of engineers and firemen who object to schedules which keep some crews away from home at night.

CONGRATULATIONS are due, of course, to the current crop of graduates of Texas Tech, upon the occasion of their completing the college work. But congratulations are also due, we think, to the authorities of the college in their choice of a commencement speaker.

In bringing Bates Thornton, a distinguished ex-student of the college, back to his earlier scenes as the year's commencement speaker, President D. M. Wiggins and others responsible rolled a nine-strike.

Too often, college authorities pick out a "big name" commencement speaker who then proceeds to fall on his face, oratorically speaking; or who accepts his responsibilities so lightly that he gives insufficient time and thought to his preparation.

Too often, a commencement speaker with no interest in the institution is chosen and, as a result, he goes through the motions of appearing before the graduates and other interested parties, then grabs the first train out.

But this year, Texas Tech has chosen one of its most distinguished sons to address its graduates; a young man whose interest in the college and in Lubbock has never faltered; who is no part of a "stuffed shirt" and who, therefore, is a "natural."

That is very good.

Bates Thornton is the perfect example of the traditional "home town boy who made good."

He stands, too, as a living, breathing example of the truth that a kid from a fresh-water college can compete with any and all of his generation, including those in and out of our celebrated, but frequently somewhat suspect, ivy-covered institutions.

In the wartime Air Force, his record was so outstanding as to be little short of miraculous. In the post-war world to date his services have been eagerly sought and accepted by two of our greatest industrial concerns and he has found time, too, to take time off for special service in the Department of State.

That he is "going somewhere" in a big way cannot be denied. That he will "get as far as he chooses to go," nobody doubts.

DESPITE his unusual record to date, young Mr. Thornton still remains the friendly, easy going, but thoroughly wide-awake youngster who had the ear of top Air Force brass and who today has the ears of their counterparts in industry.

He is not awed by himself. He isn't nearly so impressed by his unusual success as are those who know him best and who have watched his career to date.

Bates Thornton is a young man with so much on the ball that he can always be himself, hence his words to the Tech graduates of '49 should be of real benefit.

It's good to have him home again—even for such a short time.

WHEREVER Texans gather these days, one topic eventually crops up. It has to do with the new Shamrock hotel in Houston and how long it will be able to operate under the staggering price schedules in vogue there.

Those who have been in the Shamrock are agreed on three things.

They agree that it's a wonderful, beautiful, scrumptious, larrupin' place.

They agree that its $12 rooms (those are the "cheap" ones) are better than rooms of comparable cost elsewhere in the country.

And they also agree that "when the new wears off," either prices at the Shamrock will go down—or that its business will fall off to the point where it cannot operate.

Food prices in the Shamrock's various "rooms" attract most of the comment, largely because more people have eaten in the hotel than have stayed there. And as wild as some of the stories are, they're pretty true.

One Lubbock man recently there for a convention reports this:

Four men went into the Emerald Room (the sort of No. 2 eating place in the hotel) for dinner.

Each ordered the "regular" dinner, at $7.50 per copy. They ordered no "extras." They had no set-ups for drinks. Not even a bowl of ice to be used in "branch water" highballs.

But the total bill, including the 20 per cent tip demanded on the menu, the cover charge and the cabaret tax was $66.

ANOTHER Lubbock man recently at the Shamrock for another convention bears out the above story. And he adds to it.

The "Pine Room," which is the least expensive of the several eating places, offers a light breakfast of toast and coffee. The charge, 95 cents. In the same room, a club breakfast, with juice and the other things people usually start out with in the mornings, runs as high as four bucks.

After a couple of days of dodging such prices, this Lubbock man and a friend sought to get out easy on a light lunch, so went into the drugstore for a sandwich and a milkshake per each.

The damages?

One buck, sixty cents.

Another Lubbock couple we know was invited by a Houstonian and his wife to dinner in one of the two top eating rooms—either the Emerald, or the Shamrock. They swear to this story.

The bill ran $84, including a couple of setups around, the cover charge and the cabaret tax. So the host gave the waiter a $100 bill.

The waiter never came back, so on the way out the host asked him about the change from the $100.

"What do you mean, change?" answered the waiter. "You still owe me two bucks!"

NOBODY disputes the claim that the Shamrock is a marvelous hotel, or that Houston is the stomping grounds of plenty of terrifically rich people.

But nearly everybody believes that the hotel's room and "doubleettes," and suites ranging from $18.50 to $200 per day soon will be empty a lot of the time, especially since the hotel is located about five miles from midtown.

There's no doubt that the Shamrock offers more swank than most, if not all, of the hotels in the land; more convenience, more frills and furbelows.

But there seems to be plenty of doubt in the minds of plenty of people whether even New York, or the Riviera, could support it.

Time will tell—and meantime, the Shamrock's favorite adjective for itself, "fabulous," is a very good choice.

BY DREW PEARSON: MEMORIAL DAY MARKS AN UNFULFILLED PLEDGE TO THE WAR DEAD

American People Have Learned To Work At Peace

WASHINGTON. — Musings on Memorial Day — the nation kneels beside white crosses and beautiful monuments today . . . At Anzio, Italy, Gen. Mark Clark bows before the graves of boys who five years ago made a famous landing—and the supreme sacrifice . . . At Guadalcanal, in the Philippines, in France, near Kasserine Pass, there are white crosses, bedecked graves, and heavy hearts. . . . In the southern states hearts also are heavy—not necessarily on this day, because officially Memorial Day is mourned separately. But in spirit the South will mourn, too, because Memorial Day has come to mean far more than a day of memory for the heroes of the war between the states; it has really come to be a day when we recall our unfulfilled word to those who died to bring peace to the world—or so they thought.

PEARSON

A lot of mothers, a lot of veterans, a lot of fatherless children, a lot of widows will think of that unfulfilled pledge today. We should think of it on other days, but we don't . . . Some of them will think o fother armistice days, the fever heat, the excitement, the delirious, joyous, uncontrolled excitement of ending war.

There was Pennsylvania Avenue on V-J Day, 1945—sailors kissing pretty girls . . . torn telephone books and ticker tape. . . stalled streetcars with nobody caring whether they ran or not. . . a radio blaring forth: "Hirohito explains surrender to the Japanese people." . . . Military police forced to retreat behind the White House gates. Joyous crowds, uncontrolled crowds . . . paper, paper, ankle deep. . . . John McCrae's words still ringing from the last war: "If ye break faith with us who die, we shall not sleep." . . . Jimmy Byrnes, the secretary of state, just returned from Potsdam. Jimmy Byrnes with the weight of moulding the shoulders . . . Crowds milling around the State department. They don't know it, and most of them don't care, but upon his statesmanship whether they will be celebrating new armistice days, kneeling before more graves.

Wilson Went To Paris

Then there was Philadelphia in 1918—or any other American city. But I was among those drilling near Philadelphia when crowds came up to the parade ground to shout that the Kaiser had fled, Germany had surrendered . . . Seemed funny at the time not to have anything more to drill for. Like the bottom had dropped out of the world. . . Crowds went wild . . . Woodrow Wilson was going to Paris. No more wars. The war to end war was over. The war to save Democracy had been won.

Woodrow Wilson did go to Paris — and Jimmy Byrnes went to Paris, London and Moscow. I saw him at the palace of Luxembourg working his head off, keeping calm, trying to reap the results of victory. After him, George Marshall went to Paris. Now Dean Acheson. All were able, sincere, devoted men—devoted to the cause of peace. . . But all have failed so far, and Acheson warned before he left that the obstacles were great. He was not too hopeful of success.

However, the American people now realize that peace cannot be obtained solely by negotiation around the green baize tables of diplomatic conferences. For treaties in themselves mean little unless people carry them out. . . The statesmen who sign treaties may be dead tomorrow. The governments which ratify them may beout of office next week. But the people behind treaties go on forever. . . . That is why the American people have come to work harder and harder at peace. They used to lean back and leave things to diplomats. Now they don't.

WHEN the people of New England load up a ship and send food to England, when other people load up various friendship trains to Europe, when Americans write millions of democracy letters to the Italian people—that's working at peace. And it pays dividends . . . When the American people pay high taxes to finance a Marshall plan to rebuild Europe, that's also working at peace . . . and the work still continues. Wichita, Kansas, quite recently adopted the French city of Orleans . . . In Jackson, Miss., the R. E. Kennington department store has just donated an American wedding gown to a bride who may need a gown in Lyons, France—in return for the wedding gowns sent this country on the French gratitude train . . . And a stream of letters have been flowing from American citizens back to France in appreciation of gratitude train gifts, the latest series being from Governor Garvey of Arizona.

Peace Like Marriage

Peace is like matrimony—and the American people have come to realize it. No marriage is successful if two people merely sign a marriage license. And no peace is successful if two or more countries merely sign a peace treaty . . . Peace must be an everyday living reality. . . There are no uniforms, no glamor, no brass bands marching down the road to peace. It's an unexciting, humdrum job — just as unexciting as peeling potatoes, which sometimes is so necessary to making a marriage successful.

Moscow now knows the full import of people-to-people friendship — in fact, Stalin probably would have given his eyeteeth to have the French gratitude train in reverse—to Moscow instead of the U. S. A. . . . because he has been boasting that the people of France and Italy and all Europe were the friends of Russia. And we showed him this was not the case . . . All of which illustrates why Acheson's real job at Paris is to pull up the iron curtain. As long as the American people can't get to know the Russian people, as long as the Kremlin can declare war overnight with no senate, no press, no church, no public opinion to exercise a restraining force, the danger of war will continue . . . No treaty with Russia is worth the paper it's written on. We know only worth-while agreement with Russia is one guaranteed by the seal of friendship of the Russian and American people. That's why it's so necessary to work for the lifting of the iron curtain at Paris.

In rich ground, earthworms may bring as much as 20 tons of digested earth residue to the surface in a year.

Memorial Wreath

BY RUTH MILLETT: TO THE LADIES

The Feminine Viewpoint

IN A recent magazine article Hardy Burt blasts the theory that women spend 80 per cent of the consumer dollar. He points out that a housewife is not an independent shopper, that she is in the main nothing more than a purchasing agent for her husband.

MILLETT

Few housewives will argue with him on that score. Most of the buying women do is family buying. And when a woman is shopping for the family she certainly is not an independent shopper.

She buys the brand of breakfast food that Junior insists on because the box top from it plus 15 cents will get him a magic ring or a policeman's badge.

When she shops for her husband's clothes she buys him his old stand-bys, for she knows better than to bring him home "the latest thing," however much it might appeal to her.

When she shops for a teen-age daughter she either takes her along and lets her choose what she wants, or follows definite instructions as to what to buy. If she doesn't, she knows there'll be a scene when she gets home.

FOOD BOUGHT FOR FAMILY

EVEN WHEN she markets, she is nothing more than a purchasing agent for the family. She may write down her grocery list, but she keeps her family's food preferences in mind. "My family won't eat that," she tells the butcher when he tries to sell her a certain cut of meat.

And when it comes to her own clothes, she still keeps her husband's dictates in mind. "My husband doesn't like me in black" she tells the saleswoman who is trying to sell her a black dress. And that ends the sales talk.

Sure, Mama is just a purchasing agent, rather than an independent shopper. And she has all of a purchasing agent's headaches, too.

When she makes a purchase that satisfies the member of the family it is for, she gets scant praise, if any at all.

But when she makes a bad bargain or a poor selection, she hears about it, plenty.

If she were an independent shopper, she would only have to please herself. But as it is, she has to try to please the whole family.

"Box Scores" On Romances Of Top Celebrities Are Favored

NEW YORK, May 30.—One thing I would like to see in my newspaper these days is a celebrity sports section, so to speak, which would list all the current weddings and divorces of the Hollywoodians and the Broadway-Miami-Palm Springs characters who change mates to match their wardrobes.

RUARK

The way it is now, with the matrimony, divorces, romances and paternity suits scattered all over the paper, I get awful confused. What we need is at least a solid page of the stuff—maybe even a whole section, edited by Arline Judge. Call it the "second-hand section," if you like.

In one day of reading the papers, I noted that, in addition to her problems of negligee and wedding site, Miss Rita Hayworth had also discovered a drowned man, upsetting the three-time bride terribly.

There was a piece in which Sabu, the elephant boy, was charged with being the papa of an unwedded ballet dancer's 8-months old daughter. The wedding plans of Mrs. Nora Eddington (Errol) Flynn and Dick (Joanne Dru) Haymes were tentatively announced.

Divorces Are Bought

Evelyn Keyes and Director John Huston had decided to call it a day. Mr. Huston was mentioned as interested in Paulette Goddard, who is trying to shed husband Burgess Meredith down in Mexico.

Broadway actor Robert Bruce Douglas, it was announced, was married to actress Harriet Vine after Harriet called Hollywood to beseech the blessing of her 8-year-old son. Blessing received, knot tied. Alida Valli, Italian film star, filed suit for divorce, charging cruelty, against husband Oscar De Mejo. Hunt Stromberg, jr., and his spouse decided to quit after two years of bliss.

That's a fair sample. For running stories, we have had the Ingrid Bergman-Roberto Rossellini Idyll, plus Miss Hayworth's lengthy nomadic romance with the Aly Khan. We always have Mickey Rooney with us, contemplating divorce or matrimony. We have had Lana and the Topping boys to depend on, and there is always Hedy Lamarr. By the way, who is she married to just now?

WE isolate many newspaper ingredients today—world news, purely local news, Washington news, city hall news, veteran news, sports, woman's grist, society. Celebrity marriage and divorce, counter-suit and rumor, can certainly be classified no longer as mixed-gull romance, to be played wild over the paper. Journalistically speaking it's sports, or amusement pure and simple, and big enough to justify departmentalization.

I would like to see Tommy Manville named editor emeritus of such a page, together with Peggy Hopkins Joyce. They would take no part in its administration. They would merely serve as fonts of inspiration and occasional consultation. Miss Judge would certainly qualify as editor and columnist.

"Box Scores" Favored

This special second-hand section would carry box scores, as in baseball, and a special form rating on the contestants—excuse me, lovers—after the fashion of the races. In this fashion you would be able to tell at a glance whether the matrimonial participants were well-merged or well-sundered, according to past performance.

I recall the confusion engendered by the recent nuptials between the Topping boy and Lana Turner. Actively related, in this recital of love's young dream, were Bob Topping, Dan Topping, Sonja Henie, Artie Shaw, Kathleen Winsor, Steve Crane, an aspirin fortune, the Broadway stage, Tyrone Power, the New York Yankees and a tinplate fortune. At one time or another they had all been married to or romantically interested in each other.

A simple racing chart on an event like this—or even on the current bliss of Mr. and Mrs. Aly Khan—would certainly clear up all doubts and confusions for simple customers like me. Right now I'm not sure whether Sabu or Louella Parsons is best man, and nowhere in the paper have I been able to find a box containing the bride's batting average.

The only conclusive evidence of a man's sincerity is that he gives himself for a principle. TO TECH'S '49-ERS

Tonight is "the night" for more than 1,200 senior students of Texas Technological college.

It is the night to which they have been looking forward for years: their graduation night.

As these young men and women prepare, tomorrow, to go out into the world, they carry with them the best wishes of not only their families and their friends, but also of all men and women of goodwill who realize that the nation's future rests upon the shoulders of our young people.

The boys and girls graduating tonight at Texas Tech are typical of many thousands of other boys and girls on campuses throughout the nation.

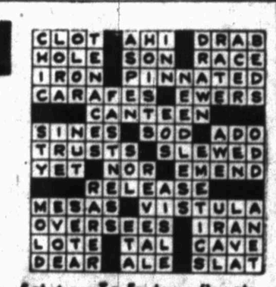

Theirs has become—or soon will become—the responsibility of making our country a better place in which to live, governmentally, commercially, culturally and in every other way.

It is not too much to expect the graduates of 1949 to do a better adult job than their fathers and mothers have been able to do—or than any of their predecessors on these shores have done. They should do a better job, because their opportunities have been greater; their preparation broader and more practicable.

So as Texas Tech's Class of '49 goes out to do battle with life, we do not stop with wishing them well.

We remind them that the country which has done so much for them to date expects them to do much for the country in the years to come.

Himalayan Research Laboratory Slated

NEW DELHI, May 30. (AP)—The Government of India plans a multi-purpose laboratory and a scientists' colony on a Himalayan mountain top.

The proposed laboratory would have separate departments dealing with. (1) snow and glaciers and their contribution to Indian rivers; (2) astronomical and astrophysical observations; (3) cosmic rays; (4) constitution of the upper atmosphere, study of solar radiation, meteors, mother of pearl clouds; (5) geology and geopsysical observations; (6) meteorology of the central Asian tableland; and (7) study of flora and fauna.

The laboratory, which would be located at 16,000 feet, would be run by a number of scientists, living in a colony to be built at a lower level.

A government announcement says a party of scientists explored various peaks in the Himalays last summer and submitted recommendations. However, before committing itself to the this costly project, the government has decided to send another team of scientists to the Himalayas this summer to study conditions and supply complete data.
