Sales tax check up for city

Mitchell County's city sales and use tax allocation for October was slightly higher than October 1982, according to the monthly figures released from the office of Bob Bullock, Comptroller of Public Accounts.

The figures from Bullock were for the period ending October 4. The Mitchell County total for the 1983 year is $217,373.20.

"We're sending these checks early because 134,000 Texas taxpayers paid before the deadline," Bullock said. "This kind of cooperation among taxpayers is helping us avoid new and higher taxes. It's obvious this change will help local governments put these tax revenues to work faster in their cities."

The earlier deadline set by the Legislature will bring in $500 million more for the current state budget without a tax increase. Bullock said this month's early payments "show that Texas merchants have accepted this change in the same spirit it was suggested—to save us from a tax increase." Bullock's office has been working with trade and professional organizations to inform taxpayers of the change.

Houston received the biggest check, for $19 million, compared with $18.5 million for the same period last year. Dallas got $12 million, compared with $10.9 million last November. San Antonio's check was for $6.1 million, compared with $5.2 million for the same period last year.

Fort Worth's payment was for $3.5 million, bringing that city's 1983 year-to-date payments to $24.6 million, up 5.3 percent over 1982. Bullock also sent checks to the state's two Metropolitan Transit Authorities. Houston's MTA check for $22.4 million pushed its 1983 total payments to $147.6 million. San Antonio's MTA check was $3.5 million, bringing 1983 payments to $22 million.

Veterans Day salutes thousands of Americans

By LUIS RIOS
It all began with "the war to end all wars"—World War I. But the wars continued and hundreds of thousands of Americans died on foreign soil.

Out of all the dying Armistice Day was born. It was later changed to Veterans Day, November 11.

"The first Armistice Day was a time of great sadness for those who laid down their lives for peace and freedom throughout the world, but it also was a time of hope, a new beginning," U.S. senator John Tower said in his weekly column on the eve of this national holiday.

In this time of political strife in countries like Lebanon and Grenada, three Colorado City veterans reflected on the past and voiced their beliefs and thoughts about patriotism and the United States.

"There are quiet a bit of differences," Lenox Mosley, a Korean Conflict and Vietnam War veteran, said. "There have been some changes in the past 20 years. There have been more and more changes; some say it is good and some say it is bad. But there are two sides to the coin."

World War II veteran A. C. Clark said the Vietnam War was not taken seriously at all. He labeled the Vietnam War "a police action," a term used by different administrations to describe Vietnam.

"We did not accomplish anything," Andrew Rivera said. Rivera is also a World War II veteran and has three sons which also served in the military.

All three men agreed that if it were not for the volunteer program the United States may not have an armed forces.

When these retired veterans fought for their country, the United States was the number one power in the world. They still believe that America is second to none.

But they were brought up and reared with the understanding that the goal of the United States and the valiant men serving it was and still is to keep the peace and not to make war.

With that thought, veterans world-wide remembered the Marines killed in Lebanon and Grenada on this 1983 Veterans Day.

Crimestoppers program officially begins

By LUIS RIOS
The Crime Stoppers of Mitchell County have officially kicked off their program, said Crime Stoppers chairperson J. O. Dockrey.

The phone number 728-TIPS was installed at the Colorado City Police Department and is now in operation.

Crime Stopper, which has been instituted in cities all across the nation, offers people cash rewards for information leading to the arrest and conviction of a criminal or criminals.

The program is one of the biggest deterrent against crime.

Presently the program is looking for donations to help pay out on the rewards, Dockrey said. He added the program needed the towns help to get it kicked off.

"I have not had much feedback except for some people on the streets asking about it," Dockrey said. "It will be a good thing for the community, especially with the crime increase recently."

Mitchell County Sheriff Wendell Bryant and C-City Chief of Police Ed Wheat said they thought the Crime Stoppers would benefit their departments.

Wheat was earlier quoted in the RECORD saying, "If I did not think Crime Stoppers would be effective, I would not back it. It has worked for other cities and I feel it will work for us."

Wheat said what he did not want to see were "bounty hunters" getting out on the streets and trying to play detective. He added that citizens should only call in what they hear, see and know about a particular crime.

Bryant said he was looking forward to the program getting underway. "I believe the program will be a tremendous asset to our community," Bryant said. "It will make people aware of what is going on. It will more or less make the people the eyes and ears of the community."

The person who calls in to Crime Stoppers are never identified. Their name is kept confidential. When they call they are given a number that they will use every time they call."

Bryant advised the person who calls in a tip to a crime to "keep their mouth shut." He also said that person should not discuss the crime tip with anyone except Crime Stoppers.

The current Crime Stoppers Public Alert concerns the theft of an elderly woman's purse at 134 West 4th Street.

The theft occurred on October 7 at 4:50 p.m. as the woman was taking her groceries into her home. According to the victim, she was approached by a young, white woman who asked if she could help carry in the groceries...instead, she stole the elderly woman's brown purse containing her important papers and $82 in cash.

The victim describes the thief as between 20 and 25 years of age, weighing approximately 100 pounds, having long stringy, unkempt blonde hair and when last seen, was fleeing from Third Street toward Hickory. She was wearing faded jeans, a decorated T-shirt and dirty white tennis shoes.

If you have any information concerning this theft, Crimestoppers of Mitchell County will pay up to $1,000 cash for information that results in the arrest and indictment of the person or persons responsible. Call Crimestoppers at 728-TIPS (728-8477). All callers remain anonymous.

Another proposal that passed which may affect Mitchell County was Proposition 1. The proposal will allow sparsely populated counties to have fewer than four peace justices.

Proposition 1 carried a 78 percent of the vote state-wide. The County Commissioners will now have an option on whether to have fewer peace justices. Presently, Mitchell County has four peace justices.

Proposition 5, approved 258-149, would allow school districts to use the Permanent School Fund to guarantee bonds.

Also approved were Proposition 7, by a margin of 267-143, and Proposition 9, by a margin of 223-171. Proposition 7 would establish a bond fund for veterans and Proposition 9 would allow probate judges to sit on probate cases in other counties. Proposition 11, approved 229 to 181, would alter the Board of Paroles structure.

Turned down in Mitchell County, all by narrow margins, were Proposition 2, by a margin of 206 to 187; Proposition 3, 232-169; Proposition 4, 209-192; Proposition 8, 251 to 150; and Proposition 10, 234 to 175.

Cook's corner

Haney learned to cook by trial and error

Mrs. Agnes Haney, a new resident of Loraine, learned to cook when she was in Home economics class in high school. "My mother taught me a lot but I learned mainly by trial and error."

She stated that she enjoyed cooking for her family but not for herself. "I like to fix family dinners at Thanksgiving and Christmas, nothing fancy just down home cooking." Her specialties are cream pies such as chocolate and coconut. "When we'd have family get-togethers they would always ask me to bring the pies."

Mrs. Haney moved to Loraine three months ago. "I really like living here. There isn't any other place where I'd be happier. The people I've met are wonderful and it gives me the chance to be closer to my daughter." Today she is sharing three of her favorite recipes with RECORD readers.

Conaway presents B&PW program

The Colorado City B&PW Club met Tuesday, November 8 at 7 p.m. at the Civic Center for their regular dinner and business meeting.

Molly Bruce chairman, who was assisted by Margaret Ann Conaway and Sallie Rogers, welcomed guests and members and led the Pledge of Allegiance.

The club collect was read by Margaret Oyler.

Mrs. Bruce introduced Mrs. Conaway as speaker of the evening.

Mrs. Conaway is a fifth grade teacher in Westbrook. She is the wife of William D. Conaway, Jr. and the mother of two sons Jeffrey and Gregory. A club member for two years, she has given many book reviews and lectures for the club.

Her topic for the evening was "The Thanksgiving Story." She began with a poem entitled "Why do we have Thanksgiving?" by Helen K. Evans.

She traced Thanksgiving Day from its beginning until now. The first proclamation for the holiday was made in 1789 by George Washington. He designated Thursday, November 26 to honor the adoption of the Constitution.

The holiday didn't officially begin until President Lincoln proclaimed the last Thursday of November as a day of thanksgiving and praise to our beneficent Father in 1863.

Juanita Schafer, club president called the meeting to order. Reports of the standing committee and minutes of last meeting were read.

Yearbooks for 1983-84 were given to members.

The club decided to sponsor a float for the Christmas Parade on December 3. Mrs. Bruce said work on the float would take place December 1 at 7 p.m. at the County Barn.

A Chinese Auction was scheduled for November 15 at 7:30 p.m. in the C. C. Thompson Room.

Elanco to produce new Graslan formula

Elanco will begin commercial production of a new Graslan formulation beginning in January, 1984. The new formulation, called Brush Bullets, will be formulated on clay briquettes about the size of a man's thumbnail and will be used as individual plant treatments on pastures and rangeland, according to Mike Squires, range conservationist for SCS.

The bullets will be packaged in one-gallon elastic pails and sold in four-pail cases. Unlike the aerially applied Graslan 20P, the brush bullets can be hand applied to brush at rates depending on height and trunk diameter.

The brush bullets have been tested by several extension specialists throughout 1983. Results show brush bullet performance equal to the pelleted formulation in total root kill and safety to desirable grasses, wildlife and humans.

Hance criticizes Block's acreage reduction plan

U.S. Rep. Kent Hance (D-Texas) criticized Secretary of Agriculture John Block's plan requiring a 25 percent acreage reduction program for 1984's upland cotton crop, saying the plan encourages overproduction and could be a burden on the 1984 budget.

"Although Secretary Block said we have made progress in bringing cotton supplies into line with demand," Hance noted, "his latest plan will attract only limited participation from cotton farmers."

"Farmers believe that higher prices for their crops are on the way," Hance added, "and the Agriculture Department's announced cotton program will encourage farmers to plant row to row and fence to fence. If they do that, we will be faced with a surplus carry-over and lower prices."

and any benefits of the Payment-In-Kind (PIK) program will be lost."

Hance said the USDA needs to provide an incentive for American farmers to participate in a set-aside program.

"If the farmers do not participate in large numbers," Hance added, "it is quite possible that a deficiency payment of 26 cents a pound will be made to all farmers in the program. The impact on the federal budget would be staggering."

Hance pointed out that a plan calling for a 15 percent mandatory set-aside with an additional, but optional 15 percent "Plant for PIK" paid diversion has drawn the support of the Texas Association of Cotton Producers Organizations (TACPO). The producer steering committee of the National Cotton Council also supports a plan requiring a 15 percent set-aside with an additional paid diversion program. However, the producer steering committee did not set a specific set-aside percentage for the paid diversion. The committee supports an option that would limit carryover to approximately 4 million bales.

"The 'Plant for PIK' program supported by TACPO gives farmers the option to set aside an additional 15 percent of their base acres," Hance said. "Farmers would not produce cotton on this additional acreage, but would be eligible for the loan price on the established yield of the idled farmland they diverted. Additionally, farmers would retain ownership of the cotton and could sell it at their discretion."

"Under this proposal," Hance pointed out, "the farmer is encouraged not to overplant, and the burden on the budget is lessened dramatically."

WTC to offer new courses at Wallace Center

The Colorado City extension of Western Texas College would like to offer a new service to adults in Colorado City and area communities.

Several adults who have previously taken courses at the extension center or completed a WTC program or degree have expressed an interest in taking non-traditional courses for personal enrichment, fulfilling self-potential, fulfilling a particular need, or simply for exploring new areas of knowledge.

Such courses would be conducted to allow participants to help design the course content, express opinions freely through discussions, and to enable class members to use their own experiences as a resource for the class.

Dr. Wendell Jones, Director of Extension Centers at WTC, said, "Instructors in these classes would not be authority figures but co-learners and facilitators of learning."

He added that regular credit courses such as psychology, sociology, literature and philosophy that have been taken previously could be taken again with this new approach.

The courses would not be designed to meet degree requirements, Jones pointed out. "Adults who simply wish to learn and become mentally stimulated are the potential members of these courses. Class members would always have the alternative of auditing a course and not be involved in receiving grades."

Anyone interested in such courses is invited to contact Barbara Gray at the Wallace Center or Dr. Jones at the Snyder campus, 573-8511. Suggestions for courses to be offered will be welcomed.

Flu precautions can help the elderly

Flu shots, exercise and a well-balanced diet can help elderly people from catching colds according to Dr. Joe Terry.

Keeping out of bad weather and getting plenty of rest may also insure older persons health during the winter months.

Elderly persons and those with chronic diseases are at high risk from influenza and should contact their private physicians for recommendations on taking influenza vaccinations in advance of the approaching flu season.

While fall and winter pose a flu threat to everyone, those hardest hit are the elderly and persons of any age who are chronically ill, reports the Texas Department of Health.

Considered at risk are all persons with: heart disease; chronic pulmonary disorders; chronic renal disease, diabetes or other metabolic diseases that increase the risk of infection; chronic, severe anemia such as sickle cell disease; and conditions which compromise the immune mechanism, including certain malignancies and immunosuppressive therapy.

Influenza epidemics are frequently associated with deaths in excess of the number normally expected. More than 200,000 excess deaths are estimated to have occurred in association with influenza epidemics in the United States during the 1968-1982 period. Last year almost 1,100 Texans ages 65 and over died of pneumonia and influenza. Total deaths in the state for all ages from the two diseases totalled 2,685 persons.

During the 1982-83 winter, influenza activity occurred at moderate levels in this country. Excess mortality was slightly elevated during the epidemic period starting in January 1983. The viruses implicated as the major cause of nationwide epidemic activity were influenza A (H3N2) strains, which caused nearly all outbreaks in nursing home or hospital settings for which laboratory diagnosis was obtained.

Efforts to reduce the impact of influenza in the United States are aimed at protecting persons at greatest risk of serious illness or death through annual vaccination.

Influenza virus infections occur every year in the United States. The three dominant strains anticipated during the approaching flu season are A-Brazil-78, A-Philippines-82, and B-Singapore-79 viruses. Antigens in this year's vaccine reduce the likelihood of infection to these strains and the severity of disease if a vaccinated individual contracts influenza. Vaccines used in recent years have generally been associated with only a few reactions.

Marian's Memos

By Marian Morris

With Christmas less than two months away, many consumers are pouring over catalogs and advertisements deciding what to order. Mail-order shopping has taken on a whole new look in the last several years, with scores of "special interest" catalogs, and ads for products by mail in almost every magazine. People who enjoy the convenience of mail-order shopping, however, can be unpleasantly surprised by some of the hassles involved.

Before ordering products by mail, consumers should be aware of the Federal Trade Commission's mail order rule, and how it affects this type of transaction. The mail order rule requires companies to ship your order within the time promised in their advertisement. If no time period is promised, the company must ship your order within 30 days after they receive it, unless you are contacted and agree to a specific delay. When there is a shipment delay, the company must send you an "option notice," giving you the choice of either consenting to the delay or canceling the order and receiving a refund.

Many mail order marketers now offer toll-free numbers for easy ordering. Shopping by telephone may be even more convenient than shopping by mail. But consumers should know that orders placed by phone are not covered by the FTC's mail order rule. If you want to order by mail, but only have the company's 800 telephone number, call and ask for its mailing address. Calling is also useful to determine the company's refund policy, the availability of the product, and the total cost of your order.

If you do decide to order by phone, however, you assume the responsibility for merchandise that is not delivered or is delivered late. So before ordering by phone, buyers should consider past experience with the company or its general reputation. To protect yourself when ordering by phone, keep good records. Write down the company's name, address and phone number; the price, description and item numbers of the merchandise ordered; the total cost of the order; the method of payment used (check, credit card, C.O.D.); the method of shipment and anticipated delivery date; and the date you placed the order.

When you order by mail, make a copy of the order which contains this information. With it, it's also useful to keep a copy of the ad or catalog that led you to place the order.

References to commercial products or trade names is made with the understanding that no discrimination is intended and no endorsement by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service is implied.

"...or what's a heaven for?" the poet Browning asked. Heaven is for completing what God has begun, making individuals whole. It's for forming the fragments of mortal existence into a beautiful design. What's more, it's for realizing to the fullest the Christian goal of fellowship with God.

"And their outcome an eternal glory which outweighs them far. Meanwhile our eyes are fixed, not on things that are seen, but on the things that are unseen: for what is seen passes away what is unseen is eternal." (2 Cor. 4:17-18)

Texas unemployment down 6.9 percent

The recent sharp decline in unemployment carries a message, "and the message of this good economic news is that our program is working for the working people," said U.S. Rep. Phil Gramm.

"The drop in unemployment was dramatic," he added. "Down to 8.8 percent nationwide and down to 6.9 percent in Texas. Both figures represent a decline of about 20 percent below the peak of the recession and they provide new verification that our hard-won victories in cutting the growth of federal spending and putting more money back into the pockets of the people who earned it were worth the fight."

The congressman also pointed out that "the economic recovery program has now created 2.8 million jobs in the private sector, and those jobs are going to all segments of our society. "Unemployment among all age groups, all races and both men and women has declined sharply."

At the same time, Gramm said, the inflation rate for this year is holding steady at below 4 percent, "and merchants are looking forward to their best Christmas in years."

Westbrook FHA hosts luncheon

The cuisine was exceeded only by the hospitality.

With Louree Upton serving as hostess and sponsor, the Westbrook Future Homemakers Association held a dinner last Wednesday.

On the menu included roast beef and gravy, baked potato, sweet and sour carrots, broccoli smothered in cheese sauce, pastacio salad, hot rolls and butter and tea. Invited for the main course were faculty members, teachers, coaches, a few select students and one not-so-hesitant reporter.

To top it all off, everyone was treated to apple pie a-la-mode (that's apple pie with ice cream on the top, for all you non-connoisseurs).

With the help of all FHA members including aspiring hostess Tracie Bradshaw, the affair went off really smooth and everyone left the dinner table contented.

Keys Bros. Implement Co., Inc., John Deere dealer in Colorado City, has just returned from a special announcement meeting in Lubbock, Texas where a big new cotton stripper was introduced. It's the John Deere 740, a one-of-a-kind 4 or 5 row tractor-mounted stripper.

This new stripper is designed to be teamed with a high-horsepower tractor, and is said to reduce harvesting costs by as much as 51 percent. In a comparison test across 1500 acres, John Deere engineers reportedly found that a new 4-row 740 mounted on a 4450 tractor with front-wheel drive costs as little as $15 per acre to operate. A 5-row version on the same tractor costs only $14 per acre. They figured it costs about $30 per acre to harvest with two tractor-mounted 2-rows (tractors with front-wheel drive).

To keep this cost-cutting harvester on the row longer, it comes with the largest basket in the industry for a tractor-mounted stripper--706 cubic feet. And an optional basket compactor and dump control makes it easier to fill and unload. The 740 comes with a 4-row header that's adjustable for 36- to 40-inch rows. This head can be equipped with an exclusive short or long modular cross-auger extension to let the 740 strip on five 40-inch rows and most popular skip-row patterns. The 740 utilizes the same exclusive low-profile units as the John Deere 7440 self-propelled stripper.

Lorraine basketball season looks bright

By TONY FRANCO
With two All-Mitchell County hoopsters returning from last year's team that finished third in district, the Lorraine Bulldogs are looking for an even better season this year.

Forward James Griffin, who could very well be one of the most dominating players in the area, heads a trio of returning starters that will make Coach Jack Petty's first year a little smoother.

Last year as a junior, Griffin had a superb season leading the Bulldogs with a 20 point scoring average while averaging 15 rebounds per game. James sank 47 percent of his shots from the floor and 62 percent from the line.

Griffin also indicated good jumping ability by blocking 88 shots.

Aundra Rose, the other All-County player, returns at his guard position. The junior Bulldog, who will be looked to as a floor leader, last season averaged 13 points per game.

Rose's best asset is his quick hands which collected 120 steals.

Rose was also the best "assist" man" on the squad, averaging six per game.

Coach Petty listed senior Ruben Garcia as the only other returning starter.

Last season, Garcia averaged 9.2 points a game with a season high of 15 points.

Petty commented on his team, "there are a lot of kids out and that's good. They will be better than last year's team that finished with an overall record of 14-8 and 6-4 for their third place district standing."

Coach Petty, whose last coaching assignment was the Kuwait National Team, listed other varsity members as juniors Tony Morris, Gene White, Danny Vasquez, Tommy Munoz, Lupe Rodriguez and freshman Tracy Rose.

The Bulldogs begin their season November 15 at home against Robert Lee.

Baum, Scott selected for All-District team

By TONY FRANCO
Seniors Laura Baum and Lynn Scott head a list of six members of the Colorado High volleyball squad named to the 6-AAA All-District team.

The two spikers join Crane representatives Julie Brunson, Cheryl Busby, Jackie Drones and Lawanza Mitchell as first-team selections for 1983.

Named to the second team All-District team were Wolf setters juniors Traci Blackwell and Sherri Morris along with spikers senior Robyn Turner and sophomore Denise Jackson.

Crane volleyballers named to the second team were Terri Groom and Jo Mitchell.

Colorado City split its two regular season matches with Crane and then lost a tie-breaking third in Crane.

After compiling a 13-8 season record, the Wolves entered Bi-District play against district 5-AAA champ Fabens. In the match, held at Fort Stockton, the Wolves lost a close one 15-9, 15-13 to end the season. District champ Crane fared no better as they quickly bowed out to 5-AAA runner-up Alpine 15-13, 15-2.

On the season, coach George Martin reflected, "It was a good season. Overall, I feel all the girls contributed. Some girls came along better than others, but as a team we came together before district."

Martin felt that "the loss to Crane for the district title caused a mental let down in the playoffs."

As for next year, Martin feels "it should be another good one with seven letters returning."

Lorraine girls to be tough in district

By TONY FRANCO
The Lorraine varsity girls' basketball team came oh so close to reaching the playoffs last season.

After compiling a 7-3 district record, they ended in a tie with Roscoe for second place.

That forced an extra game to decide which team would advance to the playoffs. The game was held in Snyder's Scurry County Coliseum.

In that game, the lady Bulldogs held close throughout the game before the Plowgirls pulled away for a 45-33 victory.

This year the Bulldogs are returning a total of nine letters, including one All-Mitchell County performer and last year's Mitchell County's Most Valuable Player.

Heading the returners is MPV Leslie Rose.

Rose, a senior, has led the Bulldogs in scoring for two years running. Last year she averaged 22.2 points over the year and 23.6 during district play. She also led her team in rebounding, averaging 11 per game. Leslie made 49 percent of her shots from the field 48 percent from the line.

The All-Mitchell County player returning with Rose is senior Janie Barrera. In the 1982-83 season, Barrera a guard, averaged 12.7 points per game making 31 percent of her shots and 55 percent of her free throws.

With the other seven returning lettermen, the scoop on first-year coach Jack Petty's first season is that it would be a successful one.

Seniors Martina Vallejo, Julie Wells, Hortensia DeLoera, and Mitzie Hallmark also return from last year's team to provide an abundance of experience.

Junior Jo Ann Barrera and sophomores Sheila Darnell and Adeline Vasquez were also on hand last year and will return to further enhance the Bulldogs hopes.

Lorraine varsity's sole new comer is sophomore Teresa Lopez.

Coach Petty's slated to start Lorraine's bid for a very successful season November 15 at home against Robert Lee.

Veteran's Day program held

The Wilson Wyatt Post 9178 sponsored a Veterans Day program at the VFW Friday morning. Ann Gregory provided the music and Bobbie Steakley read a poem to the gathering following a breakfast.

Some 11 cemeteries throughout Mitchell County were visited and some 427 flags were placed on veterans graves by the Wilson Wyatt VFW Post and its Ladies' Auxiliary on Thursday, November 10, in observance of Veterans Day.

Those helping were Those helping with the project were Frank and Ann Ingram, Jim and Emma Lu Hill, Lenox and Virgie Mosley, Jerry Way, Raymond Way, Lou Williams, Irma Ann Thomas, Andrew Rivera, Don Bird, Hulen Bagwell and Houston Lindsey.

Scrimmages aid coach

By TONY FRANCO
The Westbrook girls varsity basketball team traveled to Coahoma for a three team scrimmage last Thursday.

Kelly, Elizabeth Burnett and Stephanie Pierce.

Another first year member is junior Robin Turner, a transfer from Houston who will be getting her first taste of basketball.

Coach Keith Bundas viewed the scrimmage against Sands and host Coahoma as very helpful in evaluating his team.

Our offense started very good, but then had a little trouble adjusting to defensive adjustments," stated Bundas. As for the defense, the coach commented "We had both expected and unexpected mistakes. Our man-to-man defense didn't do too well and our zone lapsed and opened up, but overall we didn't do too bad."

The Wildcats are scheduled to begin season play November 17 against McCaulley at McCaulley.

With only two starters returning from last year's 2-7 district team, Coach Bundas sights "we're not too big and not all that fast." Joining the two starters, juniors Gracie Fuentes and Evon Bradshaw, will be returning senior Gayla Cook, who last year played "off and on as a post," according to Bundas.

"We had an 11-14 season record last year," commented the second-year coach, adding "our offense is very weak, mainly because we don't have any consistent shooters."

"I'm hoping junior Elena Lopez comes around with her shooting," stated Bundas. The coach listed other returnees whom he will depend on as seniors Julia Gonzales and Lydia Vigil, junior Angela Lentz, and sophomores Jessie Fuentes and Kelye Smith.

First year players for Westbrook are juniors Angela Lentz and Robin Turner, freshmen Dawn

Older Americans vulnerable to crime

Many older Americans feel more vulnerable to crime because of physical limitations and limited financial resources, says Judith Warren, a family life education-aging specialist.

"Actually, older people are not victimized any more or less than other age groups but this fact does not help feelings of fear," says Warren, who is with the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service home economics program.

"Older persons in both cities and small towns sometimes end up living in high crime areas," Warren says. "Though they may have lived in the same place for years, the neighborhood often changes around them. They are the outsider—the different person—and so might be victimized."

"Older people living in rural areas may feel the isolation more than they did when they were younger," she adds.

Crime prevention organizations have a series of suggestions for older persons.

To prevent robbery, make sure the home is locked whenever you are not home. Dead bolt locks, locks or pins in windows and closed garage doors help keep a home secure.

The appearance of someone in the home is important too. Lights left on or a radio played at normal volume can be a deterrent.

Many neighborhoods organize a Neighborhood Watch. In this, neighbors agree to be aware of each other's home and report to the police any activities out of the ordinary.

Even a casual neighbor-to-neighbor conversation asking that the home be watched, can give the older person a feeling of security, notes the home economist.

Older persons can do some things themselves, too, says Warren. Women do not have to carry their purses with them all the time. If they are out for a walk or windowshopping, they can leave their purse at home and remove some temptation to a purse snatcher.

"Go out with friends," says the specialist. "There is security in numbers. Plan your route so that you are traveling in safe areas and don't always go to the same place at the same time. Do grocery shopping at different times so that an intruder can't learn your schedule."
