Reds Add Cannon-Fire To Berlin Harassment

by GEORGE ARFELD

BERLIN (AP) — Four Soviet MIG19 jets, firing cannon, flew over Berlin today and other jets harassed Allied air corridors as West Germany's Parliament met in this old German capital.

The flight of the four MIG's at 1,000 feet, a power display for the West German parliamentarians, came after members had assembled in Congress Hall.

West Berlin police could not find that the cannon had hit anything.

One formation of four MIGs screamed at near supersonic speed over Congress Hall itself.

Other Soviet MIG19 jet fighters and twin-jet MIG attack bombers streaked at irregular intervals at low level over West Berlin.

At the same time, an informant said Soviet jets were buzzing Western planes flying in the air corridors to and from Berlin.

"There was nothing this morning but this afternoon they started hot and heavy," the source said.

One witness reported a Soviet jet buzzed a commercial plane either landing or taking off at Tempelhof Airport in the U.S. sector.

"That Russian could not have been more than 1,000 feet away from the plane," the witness said. "The Russian was going like hell."

An Allied spokesman said he could not confirm the report of harassment in the air corridors, part of the Communist protest to the meeting of Parliament in West Berlin. But he said Soviet fighters repeatedly buzzed the British military airfield at Gatow, on the western outskirts of Berlin.

"These buzzing are very dangerous because of our troop planes flying in there," he said.

For the third day in a row, East Germany closed temporarily the 110-mile autobahn between Berlin and West Germany. It is the only road which vehicles of the Western Allies are permitted to use.

The closure today was the shortest so far, lasting only three hours.

The superhighway was closed for 4½ hours Tuesday and for 3½ hours Monday in an expression of Communist displeasure with the meeting in the divided city of the Bundestag, the lower house of the West German Parliament.

Officially, the Communists said the autobahn had to be cleared for maneuvers of the Soviet and East German armies.

"We will not bow before terror," West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard said as he arrived Tuesday night by plane for the Bundestag meeting, the first the Western Allies have permitted in West Berlin since 1958. They allowed it this year because a new West German Parliament is being elected in September.

Erhard sent a top West German commerce official to warn East German Deputy Trade Minister Heinz Behrendt that continued interference with traffic could cut the $500-million-a-year trade agreement between East and West Germany.

The United States, Britain and France demanded Tuesday night that the commander in chief of Soviet forces in East Germany "put an immediate end to harassment of communications with Berlin."

Bennett Is Elected As New President Of School Board

Harold Bennett, a member of the board of trustees of the Snyder Independent School District for the past year, was elected president of the board Tuesday night at the board's regular meeting.

Bennett replaces J. L. Browning who served as president last year. Browning remains on the board.

Buster Anderson was elected vice president of the board.

The results of Saturday's election were certified by the board, and two new board members were sworn in. They are Kenneth Wilson and Charles Hartman. Also sworn in for another three-year term was W. J. Schiebel who was re-elected to the board.

Outgoing president Browning expressed the thanks of the school system to the retiring members of the board who were Albert Ray Martin and Lee Dan Stone, for their unselfish efforts on behalf of the schools.

The school board then took up the routine business of the board, which included a lengthy discussion of the philosophy of education, especially with regard to federal aid to schools.

Following the discussion, the board voted to participate in the "Operation Head Start" which is a part of the program of the Office of Economic Opportunity.

The program, which is being entered into on an experimental basis, is a two-month summer program aimed at pre-school training of underprivileged youngsters, including those with a language problem.

The plan to have the summer program passed unanimously. The method of financing the program, however, passed by a vote of three to two, with board members Schiebel, Browning and Anderson voting for assistance, and board members Wilson and Clifford Terry voting against. These voting against said that they felt the local schools could finance the project alone.

Board member Hartman abstained from the voting, saying that he had mixed emotions about the federal aid. Schiebel said that he voted in favor of aid since the money spent on the summer program could very likely deprive some of the programs of the regular 12 school grades.

Dr. Robert Clinton, superintendent of schools, said that the secret to the success of any such kindergarten program was in getting the students to attend. He added that the administration would start immediately in contacting the families whose children would benefit from the training. Not only language training will be given, but also training in other social activities, and health training and examinations.

In other business, Dr. Clinton reported to the board that the City of Snyder would be making available to the schools the Humble Oil Co. office and recreation hall at Thirty-seventh Street and El Paso Avenue as a school for the "trainable" children in the schools.

These children are presently using a one-room building on the Central Elementary School campus.

With regard to that school, it has also been reported that evaluations will soon be made of young mentally handicapped children who would be eligible for this special class during the 1965-66 school year.

The children must be six years old by Sept. 1, 1965. Parents or friends who are interested should contact Mrs. Maurine Robinson, coordinator of Special Education at North Elementary School.

Dr. Robert P. Anderson, Ph. D. will be the consulting psychologist. Dr. Anderson is a professor at Texas Tech, and also does private consulting work.

The school board voted to purchase a new score board for Tiger Stadium. The present board is 12 years old, and is undependable in addition to having a high maintenance cost.

The new board will cost $2,377.50 and will be installed by the same firm which installed the $2 million score board at the domed stadium in Houston.

The school board set Apr. 20 as the date for their first hearing of the self-evaluation program which is being conducted in all of the schools. Each school will present its findings to the board. The evaluations are based on questionaires and other material from the Southern Association of Secondary Schools of which the Snyder schools are members.

The board approved the use of Tiger Stadium as a site for the Easter Sunrise Services. The request was made by the Scurry County Ministerial Alliance.

The board also approved the transfer of a parcel of land from the Snyder to Ira school district at the request of the property owner, Mrs. Marion Bishop.

Also approved were the resignations of Dillard Teal, mathematics teacher at Lamar Junior High School, and James H. Amos, coach at Lamar.

The school board discussed the rules and regulations for students at the junior high schools with the principals, Bob Smith and R. E. Cooper. No changes were recommended in the present rules, and the board approved the regulations as they are published.

E. D. Flynn, business manager, was instructed to advertise for a new car for use by the maintenance department.

Flynn also gave a progress report on the budget which is being prepared for the 1965-66 school year. Little change from this year's budget is seen.

The school board also reappointed the members of the Board of Equalization. They are S. L. Terry, chairman, Amos Joyce and Leland Herrod.

US Forces Claim Major Battle Win

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — South Vietnamese and U.S. forces today claimed a great success in the first major battle in months in the swampy Mekong delta south of Saigon. They reported 309 Viet Cong fighters killed or captured.

Thirty-five U.S. Navy planes prowled North Viet Nam's vital road artery to the south today and fired 20 tons of rockets and napalm.

A U.S. Navy spokesman said seven trucks were destroyed and four more were damaged.

No planes were lost, and no Communist planes were seen. The Navy planes came from the carrier Coral Sea.

In South Viet Nam, 20 U.S. Air Force F100 fighter-bombers flew 20 sorties in Quang Ngai Province, 350 miles northeast of Saigon, hitting a reported Viet Cong concentration for the second day. A U.S military spokesman said secondary explosions were noted in the area Tuesday.

Sixteen government soldiers and six Americans died in the fierce three-day battle around Vinh Loc, 130 miles southwest of Saigon. The fighting broke off Tuesday night.

The area in the heart of the Ca Mau Peninsula has long been considered Communist territory.

U.S. military spokesmen said 276 Viet Cong were killed and 33 captured. The prisoners included a Viet Cong captain. Also captured was a sizable supply of weapons.

Charges Filed On Alabama Ku Kluxers

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Three white men identified by the FBI as Ku Klux Klansmen were charged today in federal grand jury indictments as conspirators in a plot to threaten and assault participants in a civil rights march two weeks ago.

They were among four Birmingham men arrested March 26 by the FBI within 17 hours after the night-rider slaying of Mrs. Viola Liuzzo, a white housewife from Detroit. Gunfire from a passing car killed her as she drove along U.S. 80 between Selma and Montgomery after a [illegible] Alabama Capitol.

Council Canvasses Light City Vote

The canvass of election returns was a minor chore, but Snyder City Councilmen had a regular business agenda that kept them busy for well over two hours Tuesday evening.

Only 96 votes were cast in the city election, which had no contested races on the ballot. Mayor M. L. Broman received 96 votes, while Bobby McCormick, Place 1 Councilman, and R. C. Patton, Place 3 Councilman, received 95 each, and Marshall Erwin, Place 5 Councilman 93. There was a sprinkling of write-in votes. Jack Craft received one for Place 1, Doug McGlaun one for Place 3 and Odell Cox and Harold Denson one each for Place 5.

McCormick was elected to serve as mayor pro tem during the coming year.

On the regular business agenda the council passed on second reading an ordinance closing a

Increased Interest Seen In Scurry Concert Series

First reports on the membership drive of the Scurry Concert Association indicate renewed interest in the concert series.

Mrs. Herbert Feather, campaign chairman, said that many new memberships have been received and she urged workers to continue their efforts during the remainder of this week.

Scheduled attractions on next seasons concert series include the Chicago Little Symphony and the New York Sextet — a vocal ensemble. Membership fees are $7.50 for adults and $4.00 for students. There are usually four concerts presented each season. The drive will close at noon on Saturday April 10.

Team captains working on the drive are: Mrs. Bill Seale, Mrs. Ray Courtney, Mrs. Les Francis, Mrs. F. G. Sears, Mrs. Wayne Bethel, Mrs. E. L. Kubala, Mrs. Jack Patchell, Ralph Wesson, Mrs. H. F. Clark, Mrs. Elmo Weyel and Mrs. Gordon Dysart.

Also Mrs. Sig Line, Robert Crowell, Mrs. Sally Blythe, Mrs. Ed Schulz, Mrs. W. A. Jones, Fluvanna, Mrs. R. L. Stoker, Mrs. Kenneth Baker, Mrs. Gerald Pullig, Mrs. John Reed and Dr. Robert Clinton.

The Scurry Concert Association operates on a closed basis fifty-one weeks in the year and the only time memberships are available is during this one week campaign.

The number of paid memberships determines the funds available and thus, the caliber of the concerts to be presented. Further information on the series can be obtained by calling HI 3-3312.

Kenya Students Ask To Leave Russia

NAIROBI, Kenya (AP) — Kenyan students who returned home from the Soviet oil city of Baku complained of unbearable racial discrimination, brainwashing and "open hatred" from the Soviet people.

Twenty-nine students were flown back to Nairobi Tuesday. They were among 90 Africans who struck in Baku after a Ghanaian student was found with fatal head wounds in a Baku park last month.

Soviet authorities gave them an ultimatum to return to their studies or return to Kenya. The 29 chose to return home.

COMMUNITY'S LATENT FORCE IS AWAKENED

(AN EDITORIAL)

Response to the Scurry County Industrial Corporation's efforts to raise funds for attracting an industry here has attracted regional interest, and it has not exactly gone unnoticed on the home front.

In fact, directors of the local corporation have been astounded by the unity of community interest which has solidified during the "drive." Individual acceptance of responsibility has been the dynamic factor. Nobody has expected someone else to carry the load in either enthusiasm or actual pledging.

The result, which easily is apparent and which has evoked comment among the homefolks, is a sort of revitalized community that many would not have believed possible previously.

The results may well be far-reaching over the long haul. Not only are more people in other cities interested in "what's going on in Snyder," but Snyderites themselves are showing unprecedented interest in their home town.

Consequently it appears that the "climate" has never been better for business and industry in Snyder. It is as if a latent force suddenly has been awakened, and its effects are contagious. It is the type of interest and concern which we believe industries on the move are seeking.

Nobody is seeking plaudits for the new outlook here. It is enough merely to be identified as a part of it.

Two Killed In Crash Near Monahans

MONAHANS, Tex. (AP) — Two persons were killed and three injured early today in a two-car crash 16 miles west of Monahans.

The dead were identified as Cecil Ray Reimer, 28, of Odessa, and Rita Mathena, 55, of Monahans.

Injured were Ralph Leonard Effinger, 19, Odessa; Billy Potter Mathena, 55, husband of the dead woman; and Larry J. Reimer, 26, brother of the dead man.

Vote Leaves Post Open

FORT SCOTT, Kan. (AP) — Incumbent Mayor A. P. Parks was unopposed and polled 943 votes Tuesday, but the man he defeated two years ago, William O. Rardin, received 1,048 write-in votes.

Although there was no open campaign, there was an inkling of what might happen. City Attorney Glen Louderback telephoned the state attorney general's office Monday while Parks and Rardin listened [illegible] sions.

A spokesman said Kansas statutes do not allow a write-in in a city of the first class such as Fort Scott and should Rardin receive more votes, election judges would be required to declare Parks the winner. [illegible]

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Please tell TENNESSEE HUNTER to stop using that old chestnut about how the poor animals would starve to death if hunters did not kill them off, mercifully, with one well - placed bullet. Even the average high school boy (I am one) knows that Nature's way is best. The old, weak and sick animals will die of starvation, leaving the young, strong and healthy ones to perpetuate the species. So which animals do our hunters shoot down? The biggest, most physically fit and most beautiful! I know. I come from a family of hunters who wouldn't waste a bullet on a scrawny specimen. No, they gun down the deer with the shiniest coat and biggest antlers, show him off to friends, hang him on a tree and let him rot. Sign me,

YOUNG ANIMAL LOVER

DEAR ANIMAL LOVER: You are long on compassion, which I like, but short on facts about the preservation of our wildlife. Exports say that under present limitation on feed, grazing land, etc., herds must be thinned, else deer will propagate too freely and die. Hunting seasons, properly controlled, are in the deers' best interest.

DEAR ABBY: I still don't know how people can justify hunting for the sport of it. The Bible clearly states "THOU SHALT NOT KILL." Granted, killing an animal for food in order for man to survive is understandable. Although today there are people who manage to live without meat, and they seem no worse for it. But to go out and kill beautiful wild birds and noble beasts just for the thrill of it, makes no sense at all.

BEWILDERED IN NUTTER FORT

DEAR ABBY: In reply to "TENNESSEE HUNTER": I would just like to say that if it is so "humane" as hunters claim, to shoot defenseless animals instead of letting them starve to death, I should think it would be much more humane to buy food for the animals with the money they spend on guns and ammunition. Then let them go into the woods and put the food where the starving animals can get it to enable them to live and keep the beauty and wildlife in our country as it should be.

DEAR ABBY: What's all the commotion about hunting deer? If someone can tell me why it's kinder to hit a steer over the head and then slit his throat than it is to put a bullet through his heart, I'll quit hunting.

WARREN IN ST. PAUL

DEAR ABBY: Here is my memo to hunters: If you want to kill, why be pikers? Go after the big game. Join the Army and ask for front line duty in Vietnam.

VET FOR BOTH WARS

DEAR ABBY: Please print this for the benefit of "TENNESSEE HUNTER" and all other hunters who somehow manage to rationalize their urge to kill: When they provide deer with guns and ammunition, and teach them how to use them in self - defense, I will go hunting. Thank you.

NO HUNTER

DEAR ABBY: Apropos your hunting controversy: I once saw a sign in a Minneapolis sports equipment store which read: "BETTER TO TAKE YOUR BOY HUNTING THAN TO GO HUNTING FOR YOUR BOY." Isn't that great?

FROM DULUTH

DEAR FROM: It's great for selling hunting equipment. But time spent with one's boy, whether it's hunting, building a fence, or just sitting around chatting, is equally good insurance against not having to go hunting for him.

COUNCIL

The alley which was closed is in Blocks 12 and 13, Chambers Addition. The closing had been requested by Billy McCormick.

An ordinance which would close Thirty - sixth Street between Denison and El Paso Avenues was tabled until the May meeting. It had been passed on first reading in March, but opposition to the proposal was expressed at last night's council meeting. Tom Mills, attorney, told the council he represented a group which opposed the Thirty - sixth Street closing. He submitted a petition, with 15 signatures. Mills said the group felt that the street should not be closed, unless such action represented a benefit to the general public of the city.

The Thirty - sixth Street closing had been requested by Colonial Hill Baptist Church, which owns the property on both sides of the block. The church had advised the council that it intended to go into a building program and that the closing was needed to join its two blocks of property.

Wayland G. Holt, attorney representing the church, briefly summarized the nature of the request by the church and then suggested that the council table the second reading of the closing ordinance until the May meeting.

Bill Baldwin, who operates an auto salvage firm on the Roby Highway at the southeast edge of town, asked about the possibility of closing portions of some streets and alleys that have been dedicated but never opened for use. His request was referred to the city engineering department for study.

The contract of Edgar Taylor, collector of delinquent taxes, was extended for another year at the same fee of 15 per cent.

A resolution was adopted approving terms of a contract with Texas Electric Service Co. for city use of TESCO poles for supporting city facilities, such as traffic signals, etc.

The mayor and councilmen also signed an agreement with the Texas Highway Department relative to the proposed widening of U. S. Highway 180 to the west city limits. The city is to pay $15,200 which is half the estimated cost of curb and gutter for the project. The agreement had been approved by the council at a previous meeting.

The council approved the purchase of a used, rubber - tired loader for the street department. Price of the machine is $14,500, but the city plans to trade in a small loader and a 20-year-old maintainer to reduce the cost to $11,000.

Also approved was the expenditure of $363 for furniture to be placed in the city hall lobby.

At the outset of the meeting, Mayor Broman presented a certificate to Jack Inman, who is retiring as a city employe. Inman has been employed by the city for the past 17 years, serving with the police department and as a meter repairman.

Art Work Of Otter On Exhibit

SOUTH BOUND BROOK, N.J. (AP) — The creator of abstract paintings on view today at the public library in nearby Cranford likes to put one foot in his mouth and spin like a pinwheel.

He also enjoys kicking himself in the head.

Who is this clown? Why, Okefenokee Little Joe Otter, or Okee for short, a 3-year-old otter and the pet of Mr. and Mrs. Luke Wisbeski.

Okee began painting last July, says Mrs. Wisbeski.

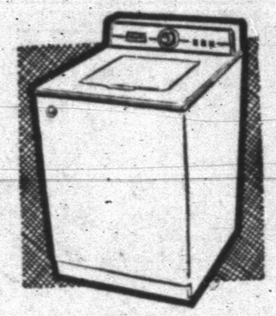

"I'd heard of a chimpanzee who painted and I thought that if a chimp could paint, so could Okee," she said. "So I bought some finger paints, put them on a sheet of paper and waited."

Okee quickly got the idea. He would come out of his water tank in the basement and start messing with the paints. He'd walk and roll around on the paper, rub his nose in the paint, lick it, slap it with his tail. The effect would be sun bursts, fireworks, jungle-like foliage and other remarkable results.

Mrs. Wisbeski put the paintings in frames made by her husband, a carpenter.

The exhibition at Cramford might be deemed retribution for the artist. Last fall the Montclair Art Museum rejected one of the paintings for its annual statewide show. The painting had been entered by a stranger who bought the Okee work but said nothing about the artist.

Central Elementary was chosen for the place to send books that are to be packed for the Appolackia children project sponsored by the National P-TA. Anyone interested in this project are encouraged to contact Mr. Pat Falls at the school administration building.

A committee to work with local theater owners on the conditions and quality of movies being shown was selected. They are Mr. Joel Griffin, chairman, Mr. Jack Westbrook, Mr. R. E. Cooper, Mrs. Elois Davis, and Mrs. James Bellamy.

Council voted to send a delegate to the National Convention in Albuquerque, N. M. on May 16.

Articles for the "Spotlight" should be turned into the principal of the school your child attends by April 25.

Dr. Clinton presented ideas on how the P-TA and the school can get involved with children.

LBJ Sets Amazing Record For Success In Congress

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Political scientists will dig in President Johnson's record for years to come to learn the kind of polite judo he used on Congress to get what he wanted.

So far his record in foreign affairs is unimpressive but he has done amazingly well in getting action from Congress on his programs, particularly some which the men in the Capitol steadfastly refused to approve for almost two decades.

There were two astonishing examples today:

His proposal of federal aid to education — in elementary and secondary schools — came up for debate in the Senate. It passed the House March 26. Today also the House began consideration of Johnson's health care for the aged program.

Both programs are expected to pass both houses and become law. Both of them have been kicking around in Congress, in one form or another, for at least 18 years. Opposition to them was always too strong until now.

There are three obvious explanations for Johnson's success so far:

1. As a result of the 1964 election his Democrats have overwhelming control of Congress. In the House they outnumber Republicans 295 to 140 and in the Senate 68 to 32.

After the election, and despite his majorities in both houses, some predicted Johnson would coast and offer few programs. He has done just the opposite. He is making full use of his political advantage and deluging Congress with requests.

2. He works at his job probably harder than any president in 100 years. It's day and night with him and into all hours of the night.

This involves inviting members of Congress to the White House for personal talks — the 100 senators and the 435 House members sometimes in batches of 50 — besides individual invitations and endless telephone calls.

He works with the leaders of both houses constantly.

3. He is willing to settle for something less than all he would like to have. In other words, he is willing to make some compromises to get legislation through instead of sitting rigidly in the ice box where otherwise it might wind up.

For years the aid to education bill had run into a pair of stone walls: one was the fear this might open the door to federal interference in education; the other was the old church-state conflict.

This meant in the past a double opposition: on one side, opposition to federal aid for parochial schools; on the other, opposition to federal aid if some of it didn't go to parochial schools.

Johnson managed to concoct a program which didn't give direct aid to parochial schools but could help individual children in those schools. The conflict pretty much dissolved.

The bulk of the money, $1,066,000,000, would go to schools in poor sections throughout the country. The funds would all go to public schools. But special services, such as shared-time classes and counseling, would be provided for students in parochial and other private schools.

For years the House Ways and Means Committee, headed by Rep. Wilbur Mills, D-Ark., had been the big bottleneck on programs of health care for the aged.

Then late last month it cleared for action by the House — the action the House was taking today — a measure even broader than the program Johnson had asked Congress to approve earlier in the year.

It is not only the speed with which the education and health care programs are moving through Congress that is astonishing. Equally so is the realization that both seem sure of passage.

Congress already has passed Johnson's program of federal aid for the 11-state Appalachia area. Still pending are other major pieces of legislation this year: an excise tax cut, presidential disability, congressional redistricting, a minimum wage increase, and a bill to protect Negroes' voting rights.

But last year Johnson had an excellent record with Congress, getting about 80 per cent of the legislation he wanted: a new civil rights law, an $11.5-billion tax cut, a housing bill, a measure to provide jobs and training for youths, and others.

Boyle Says Reformists Are Boring

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — One of life's little ordeals today is having to listen to someone who has given up a bad habit.

Naturally, if you have sworn off sniffing glue, drinking martinis, or chain-smoking cigarettes, you must make your withdrawal pangs public.

The problem in social situations is to grab the conversation at the start. If you don't brag about the bad habit you're throttling, the other fellow will bore you with dire tales of his struggles.

When you have only a single bad habit and give it up utterly, it is usually replaced by another bad habit. This is known as Boyle's Law.

For example:

The two-bottle a day bourbon aficionado remains as shaky as ever, because he gets caffeine nerves from drinking 20 cups of coffee daily.

The compulsive smoker becomes a compulsive eater.

And all become compulsive talkers.

If you are restricted to one vice, perhaps it would be wiser to surrender it piecemeal. Mark Twain, an inveterate cigar man who lived into his 70s said he never had any trouble giving up smoking: "I've done it a thousand times."

An even better way, probably, is to acquire a number of objectionable habits and conquer them one day at a time. Here is a suggested schedule:

Monday — give up smoking.
Tuesday — no drinking.
Wednesday — give up poverty.
Thursday — absolutely no gambling.
Friday — give up girl ogling.
Saturday — no fatty foods.
Sunday — give up swearing.

Under this program you have a real sense of victory because at least one day each week you are abstaining from a vice that is undermining your character. On the other hand, each day you can remain human by enjoying the other six.

You'll also have seven times as many withdrawal symptoms to talk about.

Junior Editors Quiz on BIRDS OF PARADISE

QUESTION: Where did the name "bird of paradise" come from?

ANSWER: Most varieties of the wonderful creatures called birds of paradise live in eastern countries south of the equator, most of them in New Guinea, some in Australia. The brilliant colors and unusual shapes of their plumes created a demand in Europe for their skins as early as 1400. Because Javanese traders shipped the skins with the legs removed, a false notion arose that these birds lived their lives entirely in the air, flying in circles around the sun. The females were supposed to deposit their eggs in a nest built on the male's back. This aerial life with their beautiful plumage led to the name.

FOR YOU TO DO: Color the birds according to our notes above. Make the trees light bluish green so they will look far away and give the sky the feeling of air. 4-7

Tigers Bash Ponies In District Opener

Backing up the four - hit pitching of Jerry Owens, the Bengals bashed out 10 hits, two of them for extra bases.

Owens held the Mustangs hitless until the sixth inning, and for all practical purposes it was all over by then. The Tigers leaped out to a 3-0 advantage in the first inning when Leslie Brown singled, J. N. Wall doubled and Kenny Gay singled in succession, and then after two were out, Ray Kizer delivered another one - base blow.

Roy Kizer's booming triple to right, following a Mustang error and a walk, drove in two more runs for the Tigers in the third.

Meanwhile, the Mustangs had only two base runners through the first five innings, one of them gaining life on a walk and the other on an error, both of them expiring on the sacks.

Bennie Pace's two - base hit, the first safe blow for the Ponies, drove in a run in the sixth, and then three singles and a walk netted only one more for Sweetwater in the seventh as the Tigers negotiated a double play to dampen a potential rally.

A pair of walks and singles by Roy Kizer and Ray Kizer plated two more runs for the Tigers in the seventh.

The Tigers will return to their home diamond for their next game. The Lamesa Tornadoes are scheduled to play here at 4 p.m. Friday.

Two Loops, 6 Independents Added To Recruiting Pact

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — Three new conferences and six new independents have joined the inter-conference letter of intent for college athletes and this makes the plan virtually national in scope, says its founder.

Dr. J. William Davis of Texas Tech, faculty representative to the Southwest Conference who evolved the plan to cut out wild recruiting and thefting of athletes, said today only two major conferences — the Association of Western Universities (Pacific Coast) and the Ivy League — were not in the organization.

April 1 was the deadline for registering as the plan enters its third year and Dr. Davis received the Mid-American, Ohio Valley and Western Athletic Conferences and independents Memphis State; Newberry, S.C.; Notre Dame, Parsons, Iowa; Dayton, and Xavier of Cincinnati in the latest batch.

Already in the organization were the Atlantic Coast, Big Eight, Big 10, Missouri Valley, Southeastern, Southwest and Southern Conferences and independents Florida State, Georgia Tech, Marquette, Southern Illinois, Syracuse, Houston, Pittsburgh and Penn State.

Dr. Davis said the Association of Western Universities was still considering but was holding up because it hadn't yet worked out its own letter of intent. He added that the Ivy League never had shown interest.

"The Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference will never come in since it is made up of about 100 schools of all shapes and varieties," Dr. Davis declared. "But we have the major schools of this group — Syracuse, Penn State and Pittsburgh."

Under the inter-conference letter of intent an athlete has until May 20 to sign with some school. After he signs he cannot go to another school in the organization without surrendering two years of eligibility, meaning he will have only two varsity years.

"We have had practically no trouble in recruiting, "Dr. Davis said. "At our last meeting of the committee in Chicago, everyone reported no problems.

"This plan has done a great deal in cutting out the evils of recruiting. Mainly it has eased up the summer-time competition."

Dr. Davis noted that there had been no major controversy over recruiting since the plan went into effect.

He said there were only two questions for the committee to decide last summer. Both involved whether a boy who could not meet admission requirements was still bound by the plan. The decision was that he would become a free agent.

Dr. Davis is chairman of the steering committee. Bill Reed, commissioner of the Big 10, keeps the records and informs the institutions on who has signed up. Howard Grubbs, executive secretary of the Southwest Conference, handles the printing and distribution of forms.

Tom Landry Cites Needs Of Cowboys

DALLAS (AP) — Coach Tom Landry of the Dallas Cowboys says the only things needed to make his team a winner in the National Football League this fall are a healthy quarterback, a solid offensive line, a running back to help Don Perkins and a place-kicker.

He told more than 600 who turned out for the spring luncheon of the Dallas Cowboys Club that Don Meredith, the quarterback who suffered multiple injuries last season, now was quite sound. He added that there was ample replacement in rookies Craig Morton and Jerry Rhome.

He said addition of Malcolm Walker of Rice and Ralph Neely of Oklahoma would improve the offensive line.

Landry thought Perry Lee Dunn would furnish the running to augment Perkins. But he wasn't optimistic about the place-kicker. If one can't be obtained via the trade route, Billy Lothridge, the punter, will double up and do the place-kicking.

The coach said a check of the game films indicated that a healthy quarterback last season would have nullified many of the offensive problems.

Putting Viewed As Big Factor

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Most of the top contenders here for the Masters Golf Tournament starting Thursday feel the championship will be won on the greens.

Jack Nicklaus, the long-hitting bomber and the 4-1 choice in this elite, international field of 93, doesn't agree entirely. "You still got to get there," said the 25-year-old husky from Columbus, Ohio, today.

Nicklaus, a nonwinner this year, served notice Tuesday that he appears fit and ready to break into the winner's circle. He unleashed a five-under-par 67 for the par 36-36—72, 6,980-yard Augusta National Golf Club layout on a hot and sunny afternoon.

The 5-foot-11, 200-pounder closed out a round that included eight birdies and three bogeys by holing out a 40-foot chip shot from the fringe back of the green.

"It was a good round," said Nicklaus "but my short game was sloppy."

It was Nicklaus' first tour of the course since he left to spend the weekend with his family in Columbus. He had whipped the course five times last week with rounds of 68, 69, 68, 68 and 70.

"I left because I didn't want to say here too long and get stale," said the smiling and jovial 1963 Masters king. "I preferred to work on my game last week before the crowds came and so I wouldn't be bothered. I practiced before and after each round."

Asked to name five chief contenders, Nicklaus pondered and then named defending champion Arnold Palmer, South African Gary Player, Australia's Bruce Devlin, Tony Lema and Billy Casper.

Palmer, who expressed concern over his driving and putting picked Nicklaus, Doug Sanders, Devlin, Casper and Lema to give him the most trouble.

The defending king and record four-time winner is the 6-1 second choice behind Nicklaus for the four-day 72-hole tournament. Sanders, Lema, Casper and Player are bracketed at 8-1 in the informal odds.

"Then you can't count anyone out of this tournament," added Palmer." They have to be good to make it in the first place."

Red Auerbach Sizzles As Celtics Lose

By RALPH BERNSTEIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Red Auerbach was smoking Tuesday night but it wasn't his usual victory cigar.

The smoke was coming out of the ears of the Boston Celtics' coach after his team lost, 109-103 to the Philadelphia 76ers and sent the two teams back to Boston tied 1-1 in the best-of-7 series of the National Basketball Association's Eastern Division final playoffs.

The Western Division final playoffs resume tonight with Los Angeles at Baltimore. The Lakers won the first two games of the series on the West Coast.

"This is a snakepit," Auerbach said of Convention Hall, the 76ers' home court. "It's a bush town. I've never liked it. They give you 10 orange juices for 11 guys."

"Okay, Red," said one observer. "So it's a snakepit, and bush, and you got only 10 orange juices, but how about that guy, Wilt Chamberlain."

Chamberlain, the 7-foot-1 star of the 76ers, was slightly juiced up himself. He scored 30 points, took down 39 rebounds, blocked eight shots and handed out eight assists. He simply overpowered the Celtics' Bill Russell, the NBA's Most Valuable Player.

Russell managed 12 points, 16 rebounds, had five assists.

Sam Jones, with 40 points, topped the defending NBA champions.

The third game in the series will be played at Boston Thursday night.

Nine Schools In Golf Tournament

NACOGDOCHES, Tex. (AP)— Nine schools will compete in the fifth annual Stephen F. Austin College invitational intercollegiate golf tournament Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

East Texas State is back to defend its championship.

Stephen F. Austin, Southwest Texas State, Sam Houston State, McMurry, Austin College, Abilene Christian, Tarleton State and Kilgore Junior College are other entries.

Texarkana Junior College will compete in medal play only with a two-man team.

Baylor Netters Are Shut Out By Horns

AUSTIN (AP)—Texas shut out Baylor 6-0 in Southwest Conference tennis Tuesday, losing only one set.

Ed Williams of Baylor carried Leo LaBorde to three sets before being taken out. LaBorde won 1-6, 8-6, 6-1.

David Nelson beat Billy Ford 6-1, 6-4; Bill Driscoll beat Jacky Griffin 7-5, 6-1; Bill Marshall beat Keith Rollins 6-2, 6-1; Nelson and Driscoll beat Ford and Griffin 6-2, 6-3, and LaBorde-Driscoll beat Williams-Rollins 6-2, 6-3.

Frogs Move Up In SWC Golf Race

By The Associated Press

Texas Christian beat Southern Methodist 5-1 Tuesday to climb into fourth place in the Southwest Conference golf race.

It was the only match of the day. Texas Tech rolled along unbeaten and on top of the standings.

Steve Wheelis shot a 1-under-par 70 to lead TCU to its triumph. He beat Buster Brown 5 and 4 in a singles match and teamed with John Lawson to beat Albin Johnson and Brown 3 and 2 in the doubles.

Dave Turner beat Tommy Culp 2 and 1, Ed Smith beat Steve Summers 1-up and Turner-Smith beat Culp-Summers 1-up.

Texas Tech leads the race with a 12-0 record. Baylor and Texas are tied for second with 5-1.

Texas and Texas Tech play the week's feature match at Lubbock Friday.

The golf standings:

Harrison Is Difference

COCOA, Fla. (AP) — Chuck Harrison pinch-hit a home run for the Houston Astros' margin in a 2-1 victory over the Minnesota Twins in an exhibition baseball game Tuesday.

It was the second day in a row for Harrison to gain Houston the decision in that manner. However, he isn't on the Astros squad that returns today with a 12-8 record for Florida exhibitions.

Harrison is on the Astros' Oklahoma City farm club roster. His homers came too late to win a place on the varsity.

Don Mincher of the Twins and Houston's Jim Wynn also socked homers, both in the fourth inning.

Peters Says A's To Rise

BRADENTON, Fla. (AP) — Hank Peters, new general manager of the Kansas City Athletics, believes the A's must become a good club because "so much time and money has been spent on this team."

The 40-year-old Peters, a career baseball man, had been farm director and assistant general manager. He moved up to the top spot Tuesday, succeeding Pat Friday.

Peters admits the A's have problems this season.

Asked why Kansas City has had so much trouble building a contender, Peters commented that Arnold Johnson acquired a defunct organization in 1955, with only three scouts and about 50 farm system players.

Under Johnson, he added, "Our budget wasn't just limited, it was extremely strict." Owner Charles O. Finley has spent much more money, he said, particularly in the past two years.

Last year the A's signed 81 bonus players for $662,000.

Friday will return to the insurance business he left in 1961, on a temporary basis.

Drysdale Takes Care Of It All

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Don Drysdale, who had traveled this route before, was getting nowhere fast agin. You'd think a guy would learn that batting his skull against the stone wall that is the Los Angeles Dodger attack, gets you nothing but a headache. But Drysdale . . . well, some guys just don't learn.

The lanky Dodger right-hander couldn't have forgotten the six losses he was tagged with last season when the Dodgers failed to get him a single run.

But Drysdale trudged out to the mound just the same Tuesday night. He throttled the New York Yankees for five innings and there he was, leading off the sixth against Bill Stafford, in a 0-0 tie.

Drysdale is a stubborn sort, though. He wasn't about to be shut out again, even if his club hadn't scored in 17 innings. He parked one of Stafford's serves over the left field fence to break the spell.

Flushed with success, the Dodgers assaulted rookie Gil Blanco for another run in the seventh — this one on Al Ferrara's pinch homer — and Drysdale made the runs stand up for a 2-0 victory.

The seven-hitter was Drysdale's fifth victory against no losses this spring and marked the first complete-game victory for the Dodger staff. Sandy Koufax lost two route-going performances earlier.

The Braves battled 12 innings before losing to Washington 2-1. Catcher Mike Brumley had four hihs and scored the winning run in the 12th when he doubled and then raced home on Sandy Alomar's throwing error.

Richie Allen, Philadelphia's Rookie of the Year last season, homered and doubled as the Phillies ripped Kansas City 5-1.

In other games, Houston beat Minnesota 2-1, San Francisco clipped the Los Angeles Angels 6-2, Detroit shelled Cincinnati 7-2, St. Louis downed Baltimore 3-1, Cleveland dropped Boston 5-4 and the Chicago White Sox split into two squads which defeated Pittsburgh 7-6 and the New York Mets 3-1.

The 10 straight losses in September that cost the Philadelphia Phillies the National League pennant in 1964 made up the longest losing streak in the league that season.

Golden Joey, a son of imported Royal Serenade, was out of the money only once in nine starts as a 2-year-old in 1964. He won six times and earned $70,810.

Senate Opens Study Of School Aid Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate today takes up President Johnson's proposal to assist deprived children by giving $1.3 billion in federal aid to the nation's elementary and secondary schools.

Nobody laid a glove on the measure in the Senate Education and Labor Committee and Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield hopes to have it passed by Friday. The question is whether the bill can sidestep amendments from the floor.

The President's priority program has had a charmed life so far in this first session of the 89th Congress.

The House Education Committee was the last to tinker with the bill. It tightened the language to make sure that even though parochial schools will benefit, all aid will be administered through public schools. It broadened coverage to include 215,000 children of relief families.

The House committee then passed the bill March 2 by a vote of 23 to 8, the Rules Committee sent it to the House floor March 22 by an 8-7 vote and the House turned down more than 30 amendments and approved it March 26 by a 263-153 vote.

The Senate traditionally has been friendlier to federal aid to education than the House. Since it is expected to be greater Republican support in the Senate than it had in the House — GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen said he may vote 'aye" although House GOP leaders voted "no" — passage appears certain.

But Johnson wants more than this. He wants the bill passed without amendment. Then the House and Senate measures would be identifical. There would be no need to take time to resolve differences in a conference committee and he could quickly sign the bill into law.

Most of the proposed Senate floor changes are expected to come from the Republican side. But the amendment most feared by the bill's backers is one Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., has tried to tie to education bills in the past: to specfically authorize judicial review of provisions to aid parochial and other private schools.

Ervin, busy fighting the voting-rights bill, said he is not certain he will propose the amendment, but if he does not someone else is almost sure to.

What's the catch?
There isn't any.
Plunk $1691 into a salesman's hand and he'll plunk you into the seat of a new 1965 Volkswagen Deluxe Sedan. (Give him $30 more, and you'll be plunked into a Volkswagen with matching leatherette upholstery.)
Of course, you'll have to buy license plates and pay local tax. But that is it.
Sound a little too simple? Perhaps. But then the Volkswagen is a simple little car.

Spring Thaws Bring Flooding

By The Associated Press

Midwestern fields white with snow a month ago and dusty in one of the worst droughts in history six months ago are quagmires today.

Deep snowpacks and April rains, necessary ingredients for successful growing seasons for farmers, melted in spring warmth and for the next few weeks will be an inconvenience and occasionally a tragedy.

Two persons drowned in Minnesota as springtime floods began.

Murky waters slapped against the sides of homes in isolated sections of the country.

Flooding struck Cherokee in northwestern Iowa Tuesday as the Little Sioux River went about 10 feet over flood stage, driving 350 persons from their homes.

The river hit a crest of 27.1 feet, causing an estimated $500,000 damage.

It was the worst flood in the community of 8,500 in 74 years. Flood-control experts said a higher crest could be expected. Mayor Dale Goldie declared an emergency.

More than 250 National Guardsmen helped with evacuations and a precautionary shipment of typhoid vaccine was rushed in.

At Sioux Rapids, between Cherokee and Spencer, the Little Sioux flooded the waterworks and reportedly contaminated the water.

The Red Cross sheltered 650 persons from Cherokee, Waterloo and Marshalltown. The flooding affected eight counties.

The Zumbro River rose sharply in southeastern Minnesota. Flood stage is 18 feet, and the river hit 28 feet and was still rising.

Downriver at Theilman, flood stage was 38 feet and the river hit 47 feet.

Up to two feet of the flooded Vermillion River in Hastings, Minn., sent nearly 300 families to high ground today. About 35 families were evacuated in Lilydate and 20 at Columbia Flats.

In Illinois, the Mississippi River was six feet above flood level at Cairo.

The Osage River neared flood stage in Osceola and Schell City, Mo., and the Sac River was at flood level in Stockton.

High water from melting snow closed three highways in Wisconsin.

Solon Plugs For New Bill

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)— "We're not going to have any privacy if we don't do something soon," State Rep. W.H. Miller said Tuesday, plugging for his bill to protect communications between a physician and patient, clergyman and confessor or newsman and his source.

The bill went to a Texas House judiciary subcommittee after a hearing.

The Houston lawmaker said most people realize that husband-wife and lawyer-client communications are protected by law but mistakenly think the same protection extends to their talks with a doctor or minister.

Also sent to subcommittee was a bill to give judges discretion in granting trial delays when one of the lawyers is a legislator. Such continuances now are mandatory.

Floyd's bill also would require lawmakers to list their retainers with the secretary of state by Jan. 1 each year, but Floyd said he would not insist on this section.

Viet War Speech Set By President

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson will deliver a major statement of U.S. policy on the Vietnamese war tonight in an apparent move to encourage peace efforts by a group of 17 nonaligned countries.

The speech, slated for delivery at Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, is believed to have been decided upon by the President at this time also to serve these other purposes:

1. Emphasize what officials call the "peace track" of U.S. policy at a time when American and South Vietnamese bombings of North Viet Nam are slowly closing in on the Hanoi area. Air strikes against North Viet Nam began exactly two months ago today on Feb. 7 and about 20 have now been made. Johnson reportedly wants to remind the world that the aim of his strategy in this respect is not a wider war but security for South Viet Nam.

2. Respond to fears and criticisms about U.S. policy which have been expressed by public figures in this country and government leaders abroad. One of the chief points of criticism is that the conflict in Southeast Asia could get out of hand and explode into a big war.

3. Indicate to whatever extent he considers wise at this time some of the U.S. guidelines for an approach to negotiations and the issues that would have to be resolved in reaching a successful agreement.

The President's address will be carried to the nation by television and radio at 9 p.m. EST.

This will be Johnson's second major Vietnamese policy statement, laying stress on peace hopes, within two weeks. On March 26 the White House released a statement which it said the President had presented to a Cabinet meeting in which he declared the United States would not be second to any country in seeking an honorable peace. He also opened up the possibility of U.S. economic assistance to a peaceful Southeast Asia in which Communist North Viet Nam might share.

A new element was injected into the crisis last Thursday when the heads of government of 17 countries, including India, Yugoslavia and the United Arab Republic, petitioned the United States and the Communist powers as well as all other directly interested countries with an appeal to start negotiations "as soon as possible without posing any preconditions."

About the same time British Foreign Secretary Michael Stewart told the House of Commons in London that there were more grounds for hope on that Thursday than there had been even the preceding day. Johnson and Secretary of State Dean Rusk have said they do not know what Stewart was talking about, but his remarks strengthen an impression that the peace front of the Vietnamese conflict has become very active within the last week or two.

Officer Tests Drivers Who Drink

SPARKS, Nev. (AP) — A Reno police officer served drinks to 10 men and women and then watched them get into autos and drive away.

Lt. Don McKillip said several did not have enough alcohol in their blood to be judged legally intoxicated.

Driving was limited to an obstacle course set up in a parking lot. Officers and doctors carefully recorded performances, both Monday when the drivers were sober and Tuesday when they were under the influence of up to a dozen common mixed drinks each.

The tests indicated some folks can drink more than others.

Madeline Cherry, 22, a Reno housewife, drank eight vodka and orange-juice cocktails in a two-hour period and drove smoothly around the course with just a few errors.

Ed Epper, a Reno police officer, took nine drinks and had trouble getting his car door unlocked. Judges stopped him in the middle of the test because his driving was so erratic.

No one can drive better with a couple drinks under his belt, concluded Lt. A. E. Hagler of the Idaho State Police, who observed the test.

Cold Spells Dull Demand For Water

Water consumption eased off again for the Colorado River Municipal Water District during March. Abnormally cold weather dulled municipal demands temporarily.

The member cities of Odessa, Big Spring and Snyder used 403,884,000 gallons during March, a 13.46 per cent decline from the same month a year ago. Oil company demands, bolstered by the enlarged Sun Oil contract which was not in existence on the same scale a year ago, rose to 324,927,642 gallons. This was a gain of 13.19 per cent, but the overall delivery of 788,811,642 gallons was down 4.19 per cent from March of 1964.

Odessa used 258,150,000 gallons in March, a decline of 13.54 per cent; Big Spring 161,967,000, down 13.18 per cent; Snyder 43,767,000, down 14.05 per cent.

Through the first three months of the year, deliveries to customers amounted to 2,149,447,990 gallons, or a decrease of 3.80 per cent for the same period a year ago. Warming weather, however is expected to boost demands sharply in April.

Dr. Otis Singletary, national Job Corps director in the Office of Economic Opportunity, and Gov. John B. Connally will speak.

Latins Lose Grip On Crystal City

CRYSTAL CITY, Tex. (AP)—The administration of a controversial group of Latin Americans who captured control of the city council in 1963 has ended.

All five candidates backed by the Political Association of Spanish-speaking Organizations were defeated Tuesday in a spirited election that produced a record vote.

Crystal City voters nevertheless kept a Latin American-controlled council—three Latins and two Anglos.

This South Texas farming community, which calls itself "the spinach capital of the world," has about 10,000 residents. Approximately 85 per cent are Americans of Mexican descent.

Defeat was handed the PASO-backed candidates, including Mayor Juan Cornejo, by a group of business and professional men, fielded by the Citizens Serving All Americans.

CASAA was formed by Anglo and Latin business leaders shortly after the 1963 upheaval specifically for the purpose of defeating Cornejo and his group this year.

CASAA spokesmen said they were opposed to PASO, the Teamsters Union and what they called the outside creeping into local politics.

Cornejo did not have Teamster support this year as in 1963. The stocky bachelor was fired as business agent for the union here last year.

The new council will be made up of William Leonard, a funeral home operator; E. L. Stocking, manager of an automobile company; Carlos Avila, an electrical contractor; Eduardo Salinas, a ranch manager, and Humberto Castillo, a packing company employe.

They polled 1,127 to 1,248 votes each. PASO candidates ranged between 800 and 1,000 votes.

Cornejo and Manuel Maldonado were the only members of the victorious 1963 group entered in this year's race. However, Maldonado ran as an independent opposing Cornejo.

The total vote was 2,223, almost 500 more than in 1963. Active poll tax drives and voting campaigns were carried out by both PASO and CASAA.

The past two years produced more municipal political activity than this city has ever known.

Cornejo had a running argument with City Manager George Ozuna, hired by the all-Latin council. Twice Ozuna went to court and was reinstated in his job after Cornejo fired him.

Three of the original five councilmen were ousted for not paying their city bills.

Texas Rangers, acting on orders of a district judge, impounded the ballots after they were counted.

Panel Eyes Tax Refunds

AUSTIN (AP)—A House subcommittee is considering a plan to use uncollected tax refunds on gasoline bought by Texas boat owners to improve water recreation spots.

The bill, by Rep. Ben Atwell of Dallas, was sent to the subcommittee Tuesday.

It would let the state comptroller assume that one per cent of gasoline sold in Texas is used by boats and at the same time assume boat owners will not ask a tax refund. The portion of the state gasoline tax that goes for highways may be refunded if the gasoline is used in a vehicle that does not travel on the highways.

Atwell estimated his bill would produce a net of $1.66 million in 1966 and $1.7 million in 1967.

The first year $500,000 would be earmarked for enforcement of the Water Safety Act and $1.1 million would be used to match local and federal funds for state recreation and park development on Texas rivers and lakes.

New Switchboard In Space Heading For Lofty Roost

By HOWARD BENEDICT
AP Aerospace Writer

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla., (AP) — The pioneering Early Bird communications satellite raced today toward an outpost where it is to become a switchboard for the first public utility spawned by the space age.

Officials of the Communications Satellite Corp. — Comsat — were elated over early success of the flight propelled by a three-stage rocket fired Tuesday night.

Nine days of tricky orbit-shifting maneuvers must be accomplished before Early Bird reaches its roosting place 22,300 miles above the Atlantic Ocean.

It will appear to hover motionless directly over the equator to provide continuous communications traffic between North America and Europe.

The first satellite designed for commercial use was injected into an elliptical orbit ranging from 800 to 22,900 miles.

In midmorning Thursday, a ground signal is to ignite a motor aboard the craft to shift it into a circular path in which both high and low points would be about 22,300 miles.

Ground controllers then are to fire small gas jets aboard the satellite for a week to nudge it gingerly toward its stationary position.

The launching was the first venture into space for Comsat, a business partnership of communications interests in 45 nations headed by the United States. The utility plans to have a global space communications network in operation in 1967.

If successful, Early Bird will open a new era in the history of communications. For the first time, the public will be able to use a satellite by making trans-atlantic telephone calls.

Comsat, with 137,000 stockholders, paid the National Aeronautics and Space Administration $3.33 million, regardless of success or failure, to launch Early Bird.

Japan Presents First Lady With Raft Of Cherry Trees

By FRANCES LEWINE

WASHINGTON (AP) — A half century ago, another First Lady had the idea of beautifying the nation's capital with cherry trees.

As a result of Mrs. William Howard Taft's interest, the city of Tokyo sent the city of Washington a friendship gift of 3,000 cherry trees.

Planted around the Tidal Basin and Potomac Park, their pink and white blossoms have become a tourist attraction and symbol of spring here.

Now, Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, taking a similar interest in beautifying the capital, has drawn a similar gift of thousands more cherry trees from the Japanese government in a renewed symbol of national friendship.

Although the exact number of trees to be donated was not specified, the Japanese ambassador said they would be quite numerous and it was left as an open matter depending on the needs.

They will be placed around the grounds of the Washington Monument in a project the National Park Service says will take some 3,000 to 4,000 trees.

Announcement of the new gift was made by Japanese Ambassador Ryuji Takeuchi at a rainy ceremony Tuesday at which Mrs. Johnson and his wife planted two blooming cherry trees at the Tidal Basin and formally opened the 1965 National Cherry Blossom Festival. A crowd of several hundred turned out, including the 53 pretty festival princesses who sat under umbrellas to watch the 40-minute ceremony of speeches and band music.

Chill weather has held back the cherry blossoms so far, but there was hope the trees will burst into bloom by the end of the week.

Ethiopia has never had a census of its national population.

Chevelle by Chevrolet

'65 Chevelle Malibu Convertible—with color-keyed all-vinyl upholstery

It's the most popular mid-size traveler built—which isn't surprising when you consider who built it.

There's no doubt that a car like this could get by on its good looks alone. Without ever having to rely on family connections.

But the fact that it is built by Chevrolet assures you right off it's got a lot more going for it than merely meets the eye. It tells you, for example, that beneath those impetuous-looking lines you can have the impetuous kind of power—6 or V8—that Chevrolet has a reputation for putting in its cars. It tells you that you get Body by Fisher handiwork inside and out (with the kind of meticulous attention to detail that goes into some of the most expensive cars around). It tells you that you're going to get a ride developed by engineers who are old hands at putting the squelch on bumps. (Chevelle has Full Coil suspension at all four wheels, similar to the regular Jet-smooth Chevrolet).

Knowing all this, you probably won't be startled by the fact more people are now buying Chevelle than any other car its size.

But you will have a happy surprise when you check what you can buy one for—right now down at your Chevrolet dealer's.
