Two Men Dead In Traffic Accidents

HAPPY BIRTHDAY LEAP YEAR KIDS!—The six persons pictured above are representative of a group of 40 or more persons living in Lubbock and on the South Plains who are celebrating their birthdays today—Feb. 29. So to all of them, the Avalanche-Journal says Happy Birthday! This can be said to them only every four years as on regular years the calendar cheats them. But today is their real birthday, one they can celebrate as their own and not have to take Feb. 28 or March 1 as they must do if there's any celebrating in other years. It was their misfortune or fortune, it's owing to how you look at it, to be born on that extra day of Leap Year. Miss Peggy Lindsey, top left, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Lindsey, 1947 Ave. N, is really 20 years old today but she'll be celebrating her fifth birthday. She is an employe of the loan guaranty division of the Veterans Administration here. Dana Margaret Snider, top center, of route 2, Lubbock, who is 12, will be celebrating her third birthday while little Miss Carolyn Herald, top right, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Herald, 2124 Twenty-fifth, who is four, will be celebrating her first real birthday. Doris Flynt, bottom left, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Flynt, 1524 Twenty-sixth, and student in Senior High school, is 16 years old today, her fourth real birthday. Lynn Rogers bottom center, was snapped by an Avalanche-Journal photographer as he did a bit of painting. Rogers, 40, will be observing his tenth real birthday. Lower right is Joe Sam Bryant, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Bryant, 3312 Twentieth, who'll mark his third birthday. Because The Plainsman, Evening Journal columnist, knew about young Bryant's birthday, and requested others to notify him if they were born on Feb. 29 a flow of names was started into the newspaper office. Last night the list has reached 40 persons. (Picture of Miss Snider by Koen's Studio, Carolyn Herald by her father and remainder Staff Photos).

D. F. Smith Of Slaton Dies In Fiery Wreck

By CHARLES STONE
Avalanche-Journal Staff Writer

DAVID FRANK SMITH, 76, of Slaton, was burned to death shortly after 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon when the dump truck which he was driving overturned and burst into flames on a curve about eight miles north of Lubbock in the vicinity of the Monroe underpass.

Smith, who was hauling a load of caliche, was driving north on the Lubbock-Plainview highway and had reached the curve about two hundred yards south of the underpass. A passenger car, driven by William Walter West of Lubbock route 3 also proceeding north, was a short distance ahead of the truck.

Could Not Reach Victim

The truck driver apparently lost control of his vehicle as he was trying to avoid collision with the rear of the car which had slowed down to make a right turn onto a side road. The dump truck went off the left side of the highway and overturned, bursting into flames soon after.

C. W. Smith, a Fort Worth salesman, and C. Whittington of Slaton, are believed to be the first persons to reach the scene of the wreck.

They were both driving south toward Lubbock. Flames were leaping from the truck to such an extent when they arrived that they could not reach the body of the truck driver.

Trucks Extinguish Blaze

Two booster trucks from the Lubbock Fire department and an ambulance from Plains Funeral home went to the scene of the accident. The fire was extinguished shortly afterward, and the charred body of the victim was taken in the ambulance to Plains Funeral home.

W. S. Smith of Slaton, son of the accident victim, reached the accident while the truck was still in flames. He and his father were both driving trucks for the Ernest Loyd Construction company of Fort Worth which holds the contract for widening the Lubbock-Plainview highway.

Services Not Set

Capt. E. L. Posey and Sgt. E. L. Stroud of the Lubbock office of the State Highway department, who investgiated the wreck, received news of the accident from the Lubbock police department short-wave radio, after a person in the vicinity of the accident had phoned the information to police.

Sgt. Stroud said that the wreck was apparently caused when the driver of the truck became panicky. Tire skid marks at the scene indicated that the truck had already passed the center of the side road intersection when the driver swerved it to the left, he pointed out.

Survivors of the accident victim include his wife; two sons, W. S. Smith of Slaton, and E. T. Smith of Sacramento, Calif.; and two daughters, Mrs. Otis Cannon, Lub-

Lubbock, Plains Schools To Benefit

Area School Census Will Start Monday

By H. I. KIEFER
Avalanche-Journal Staff Writer

PREPARATIONS were reported complete Saturday for the start Monday of the annual scholastic census which will be worth $3,500,000 or more to public schools of this area during the 1948-49 sessions.

The amount paid every district in state per capita apportionment next year will be based on the scholastic population as shown by this census, which must be completed during March, school officials said.

Next year's per capita will not be set until July, but it is not expected to be less than the $55 per child during the 1947-48 terms. Vigorous efforts are being made to obtain a substantial increase in the apportionment for next year, according to reports received here.

Gains Seen For Year

Apportionments this year to the 22 counties of the Lubbock area, with 59,200 scholastics, have totaled $3,256,000.

With the gains practically all are virtually certain to show, officials predict the total per capita revenue next year will exceed $3,500,000 even if the apportionment is not increased.

Lubbock county's apportionments are expected to be close to $1,000,000. This year they were $771,485, based on 14,027 scholastics.

Of this amount, Lubbock Independent School District received $556,270, based on 10,114 names on the census roll. The new census is expected to increase this figure substantially.

Other Increases Likely

Roy Boyd, Lubbock county school superintendent, altso predicted most, if not all, the other districts in the county will show gains. These include the Slaton and New Deal independent districts and the Cooper, Frenship, Idalou, Roosevelt, Shallowater, Estacado and Posey common districts in which a total of 3,967 scholastics were counted last year.

(The addition of the Lubbock independent total to those of other districts shows a total of 14,081 scholastics in the county—51 more than credited in the official tabulation. This apparent discrepancy was explained as being due to transfers and possible duplications

S. L. Forrest Death Victim

S. LAMAR FORREST, 55, of 3110 Twentieth, lumberman who has been active in state and national associations, civic and church leader and philanthropist, died unexpectedly of a heart attack Saturday morning in Gallup, N. M.

He and a son, S. S. Forrest, jr., had been on a business trip. They had visited lumber mills at McNary and Holbrook, Ariz., Friday. The father complained of a sharp pain in his left shoulder and arm and was fatigued after the day's driving, the Associated Press reported from Gallup.

Services Set Monday

He had not suffered a heart ailment previously, as far as was known. He was planning to go to Mayo clinic at Rochester, Minn., for an examination.

Death occurred in the El Navajo hotel in Gallup. The son found his father dead in the bathtub about 7 o'clock. They had planned to start on the trip home early.

Rix Funeral home sent a funeral coach to Gallup for the body, expecting to return to Lubbock early this morning. Funeral services will be conducted at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon at the First Methodist church. Dr. H. I. Robinson, pastor of the First Methodist church, assisted by Dr. W. H. Wallace of Oklahoma City and Rev. E. H. Crandall, associate pastor of the First Methodist church, will officiate.

Mr. Forrest was a former president and director of the Lumbermen's Association of Texas and served in 1944 and 1945 as president of the National Retail Lumber Dealers association, of which he was an executive committee member at time of his death. At the end of his second term as president of the national association, a special train was run from Texas to the West Coast honoring Mr. Forrest and he was presented with gifts as tokens of appreciation of his services by leaders of the lumber industry.

He was born in Madison county, Tex., Nov. 23, 1892. He came to the South Plains with his parents. His father, S. S. Forrest, sr., still

H. B. Caudell Of Lubbock Hit Near City

By JOE HITCHCOCK
Avalanche-Journal Staff Writer

A MAN identified from papers in his possession as H. B. Caudell, about 42, of Lubbock, died a few minutes after he had been struck by an automobile about 10:45 o'clock last night on the west edge of the canyon hill on East Broadway.

He was dead upon arrival at Lubbock Memorial hospital about 11 p. m., the second person to be killed in a traffic accident near the city in an eight-hour period. The accident was just outside the city limits.

Police Contacted

The victim was allegedly struck by an automobile travelling east on East Broadway. The man was reported to have been running across the highway from the north when the accident occurred.

Occupants of a 1941 Ford tudor coach, five boys from Lorenzo ranging in age from 16 to 21 years appeared at the Lubbock police department a short time after the accident and said that they believed they had struck the man, city police officials said.

According to statements given to District Attorney Lloyd Croslin, the driver of the car at the time of the mishap was the 16-year-old youth.

Details Are Related

Investigating officers of the Texas Highway patrol listed the five boys as:

Ted Nettles, 16, Jerrell Greer, 19, Robert A. Jennings, 20, Dorval Beaty, 18, and Ray Moore, 19, all of Lorenzo or vicinity.

One of the youths, Jerrell Greer, told Assistant District Attorney E. G. Pharr that he thought they were travelling about 35 miles per hour, but that the speedometer was broken. He said that after the impact, they stopped a short distance down the road, turned around and came back to where the man's body lay.

And then, he told Pharr, they waited for the ambulance to come,

Residents of the South Plains basked in spring-like warmth Saturday and the Weather bureau north of Lubbock predicted slightly warmer weather today with partly cloudy skies.

The maximum temperature today is expected to be about 70 degrees. High Saturday was 66 at 4:30 p. m., and the low for the day was 31 at 6:30 a. m.

Moderate easterly winds of 15 to 20 miles per hour also were forecast for today. No change was seen for Monday, except somewhat cooler temperatures.

Trinity Is Flooded

The death toll from storm winds and floods in Texas rose to five Saturday as fine weather prevailed over the state, the Associated Press reported.

While Texans basked in generally balmy weather winter gave the midwest a damaging dose of floods, blizzards, rain, and strong winds.

The Dallas Weather bureau said Texas should enjoy another good day today. Colder weather was expected to spread over the midwest.

Dr. Porter Files For School Board

Dr. G. G. Porter, local osteopath, Saturday became 1948's first declared candidate for a trusteeship of Lubbock Independent School district when he filed for a place on the ballot in the election of next April 3.

Present occupants of the two places on the board of trustees to be filled are Hubert L. Allen, board president, and Paul Hardwick. Allen has declared flatly he will not seek reelection. Hardwick was out of the city but friends quoted him as saying he would not be a candidate.

A. C. Jackson, school's business manager, said filings for places on the printed ballot can be made up to March 24—10 days before the election.

Filed Own Name

Dr. Porter, who filed his own name, said he is a candidate "because of my interest in Lubbock schools and because mothers of numerous babies delivered by me have urged me to run."

Now 45, he was born and reared in Hill county, attended University of Texas three years, University of Pittsburgh two years and graduated from the Kirksville,

TRUMAN ACCUSED

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Feb. 28 (AP)—Missouri's Republican state committee accused President Truman today of using the Federal Bureau of Investigation to "wreck vengeance" upon political opponents. A resolution urged an investigation by a U. S. Senate committee "as a basis for such action as the Congress may deem proper, including possible impeachment."

Calvert Urges South To Remain In Party

Demo Leader Warns Against Party Bolt

(By The Associated Press)

BOB CALVERT, chairman of the Texas state Democratic executive committee, cautioned Saturday against a revolt by southern Democrats against the party.

He told a meeting of the Dallas county executive committee he saw "no ray of hope" for such a revolt. But he said "it may be necessary" for Texas to send an uninstructed delegation to the national convention.

Calvert opposed restoration of the two-thirds rule which would force the national convention to a two-thirds majority in making its nominations.

Poll Announced

Most members of the state committee who commented Saturday night were in substantial accord with Calvert's speech. Some of them demurred in part.

The day also brought these developments:

Erath county's Democratic executive committee passed a resolution opposing President Truman's civil rights program.

Ship Carrying Jews To Holy Land Intercepted By British

JERUSALEM, Feb. 28 (AP)—The British blockade today intercepted a ship carrying more than 1,000 Jews seeking to enter Palestine without immigration certificates.

Informants from Haganah, the Jewish military, said the ship, named "Builders and Fighters," left a western European port recently.

RAF planes spotted the vessel near the Palestine coastline.

Senate Group Approves Over $5 Billion For European Aid

By JACK BELL
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28. —The Senate Foreign Relations committee today formally recommended approval of a $5,300,000,000 European recovery program. At the same time it told the world that overseas aid cannot become "a permanent feature of American foreign policy."

The committee said the recovery plan for 16 non-Communist western European nations can be undertaken without "dangerous strain upon the economy of the United States."

But it added in a formal report: "This assistance is not and cannot be a permanent feature of American foreign policy.

"For Americans the approval of this act represents a major decision. If Europeans fully understand this decision, they will realize that the United States is making adjustments almost as severe as they are likely to call upon each other to make.

"Above the details of the legislation, the debates, the statistics and the work sheets is the expression of a great ideal of com-

Red Cross Drive To Open Monday

Adopting the national slogan "Remember, It's Red Cross Time," civic leaders have announced completion of plans, and team organization for the annual Red Cross fund campaign which this year will seek quickly to raise a $25,000 quota set as Lubbock county's goal.

Outline of the campaign, which starts Monday, with March designated throughout the nation as Red Cross month, was announced by Rex Webster, publicity committee chairman. Ernest St. Clair, jr., is general chairman of the campaign.

Definite schedule of solicitation by various team organizations was not outlined, but was to be worked out by division chairmen under counsel from a planning committee composed of W. C. O'Mara, county chapter chairman; George P. Kuykendall, O. L. Byrd, and Mrs. Bill Agee.

The campaign is to be launched simultaneously throughout the nation, sparked by a Monday night radio broadcast over ABC, in

AFL Has Part In World-Wide Network To Fight Communism

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (AP)—The AFL reported today it is taking part in a world-wide network to fight Communism through labor unions.

The federation said in "Labor's Monthly Survey" that it was in contact with trade unionists of about 40 nations joined to halt the spread of Communism.

"A war is on, a 'cold war' waged by the Soviet Union against our democratic way of life with its and human freedoms," the publication said

Building In Lubbock Continues Fast Pace

Building permits for two new elementary school buildings Saturday were chiefly responsible for maintaining a 1948 construction pace more than twice that for the same period of last year.

The school permits were for elementary buildings in the 2800 block on Fillmore avenue and at Thirty-sixth street and Avenue U. The cost for each, as shown by the permits, will be $166,922. G. & G. Construction company is the contractor for both structures.

The building permit total for the year was increased to $1,979,489 and for February to $1,259,797. Figures for comparable dates last year were $860,175 during the first two months and $454,260 during February.

France Given 15 Days To Beat Down Prices Or Face Crisis

PARIS, France, Feb. 28 (AP)—Many realists gave France only 15 days at most in which to beat down prices or face a menacing Communist labor upsurge.

So far, they will tell you, the finance measures taken by the Schuman government have not stopped mounting food prices.

Moreover, the government's dollar supplies for carrying on the battle have thinned out to such a degree that both American and French sources say Marshall Plan aid due after April 1 will not arrive in time to block a wage crisis that seems to be shaping up to begin March 10 to 15.

One well-placed American source said today March 10 was the best estimate.

Sweeping Czech Purge Planned

By A. I. GOLDBERG
Associated Press Staff Writer

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, Feb. 28—Communist Premier Klement Gottwald threatened a merciless war on "agents of domestic and foreign reaction" today. He said there were going to be thorough going changes in Czechoslovakia.

Simultaneously the formation of a seven-man commission to purge all political parties of "reactionaries" was announced. The commission is headed by Communist Rudolf Stransky, who helped organize the Communist international information bureau (Cominform) at the historic meeting in Poland. A member is Alexej Cericka, new Communist minister of justice who succeeded the Czech National Socialist, Prokop Drtina.

Plot Charged

Drtina, a former secretary to President Eduard Benes, was found badly injured today. An announcement from Communist controlled police said he had attempted suicide.

Drtina had been at loggerheads for weeks with Vaclav Nosek, Communist minister of interior who directs the security police. It was Drtina who brought the conflict between Communists and anti-Communists in the cabinet

Finland's Bow To Red Pressure For Defense Treaty Indicated

By ANNE SNELLMAN
Associated Press Staff Writer

HELSINKI, Finland, Feb. 28—All indications today were that Finland will heed the summons of Marshal Stalin and enter reluctantly into negotiations for a defense pact with the Soviet Union.

Political circles are discussing the procedure for the negotiations proposed by Stalin in his note to President Juho Paasikivi on Monday. Reliable sources said the president has asked the various parties in parliament to advise him of their attitude by Tuesday.

No decision was expected before Tuesday or Wednesday.

By Tuesday the president may name the persons who will form the Finnish delegation in the negotiations expected to take place in Moscow.

So far the Finns were in the dark as to what Stalin wants. Sources close to the government said yesterday he had proposed a mutual defense pact similar to that with Russia's other western neighbors. This system of alliances now reaches across Europe, from the Baltic to the Black sea.

The main concern here, there-

Republican Candidate Stassen Ends Rio Grande Valley Tour

By HARVEY SCANDRETT
Associated Press Staff Writer

HARLINGEN, Feb. 28—Harold Stassen's political invasion of the rich Rio Grande valley was ended today as the GOP presidential candidate headed for Minneapolis.

He made three appearances in the valley. He spoke at Brownsville, McAllen and Harlingen.

In his last valley speech, made here last night, the 40-year-old former governor of Minnesota said the United States should stop shipping potential war material to Russia until "the leaders of the Kremlin" show their willingness to cooperate for world peace.

Soviet Shipments Hit

He spoke here before a mass meeting at the auditorium.

America, he said, shipped more electronic and electrical equipment to Russia last year than to England and France combined.

"This doesn't add up," he said, "when Russia is following the obstructionist tactics it is in world politics."

The audience, which partly filled the auditorium, applauded.

Stassen said in a questioning period after the speech that he was "optimistic" that a third war could be avoided "if America measures up" in its foreign policies.

He said the Taft-Hartley act, "taken as a whole is a good law," but that it needs amendment in several details.

About President Truman's civil rights program, which has caused revolt among Southern Democrats, Stassen expressed the belief that "the best source of progress should come from Southern leaders." There should be insistence without dictation" from the federal government, Stassen said. His answer was applauded.

At a joint Rotary, Lions, Kiwanis club luncheon at Brownsville, he repeated his proposal that the next Republican cabinet include one member from Texas. Stassen also expressed the view that the "day is not too far distant when Texas will become a genuine two-party state," if the next Republican national administration is well conducted and active organizations are expanded in Texas.

Stassen told newsmen in McAllen that Republican chances for victory this year are good in the "border" states and that the party might carry President Truman's home state of Missouri.

NEW BORDEN'S MANAGER—O. L. Gibson, above, is the new manager of the Lubbock branch of The Borden company, succeeding Charles Young, who was recently transferred to Amarillo. Gibson came to Lubbock from Biloxi, Miss. He has been with the company the past 12 years, nine of which were in Houston and the past three years in Biloxi. He formerly resided at Longview before moving to Houston. He is married and has two children, a son, 14, and a daughter, 2. The family will move to Lubbock as soon as housing is secured. Funeral Rites For J. F. Myatt Will Be Held At Slaton Today

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 o'clock this afternoon in Slaton First Baptist church for J. F. Myatt, 88, who died at 6:15 o'clock Friday morning in a Clovis, N. M., hospital.

Rev. J. T. Clinton of Lubbock will officiate, assisted by Rev. W. F. Furgeson, pastor of Slaton First Baptist church.

Burial will be in Slaton cemetery, under direction of Steed Funeral home of Clovis. Pallbearers will be Audrey Smith and Bob Sartain of Portales, N. M., Kivil Coffman of Tahoka, Sanky Trimble of Santa Fe, N. M., Larry Trimble of Midland and Max Myatt of Lubbock, all grandsons of Mr. Myatt.

Honorary pallbearers will be J. H. Brewer of Slaton, Grady Harrist and Malcolm Coltharp of Lubbock, Jim Peyton, John Collins and Roy Collins of Slaton.

Mr. Myatt moved to Lubbock county from Goree in 1919 and lived three miles west of Slaton until 1924, when he moved to Slaton, where he lived until his wife died in 1937. He had visited his sons and daughters much of the time since his wife died.

Survivors include two sons, Voris Myatt of Lubbock and C. A. Myatt of McLean; two daughters, Mrs. Otis Trimble of Santa Fe, N. M., and Mrs. J. W. Hale of Clovis; 19 grandchildren, and eight great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Sam Allred is president of the sponsoring P-TA. H. R. Courtney is chairman of the cub committee, and other committeemen are E. F. Nesbitt, Cecil Buck, and M. M. Sullivan. Arnold Weed is neighborhood committeeman, and Alfred C. Smith, Central Ward school principal, is institutional representative.

German Children Find A New Home In United States

DENTON, Feb. 28. (AP) — William and Margaret Wartemann have found a new home in America after four years in war-torn Germany.

William, 15, and Margaret, 17, will live with Mr. and Mrs Phillip Manster on their farm near Denton until they can earn their own living.

Shortly after the outbreak of World war II, their father, a German, was interned by U. S. authorities. The children who were born in America, were sent to the All Church home in Fort Worth.

Two years later, both parents were sent to Germany in exchange for American prisoners of war. The mother took Margaret, William and her three other children with her to Germany because she did not want to break up the family.

Since the war ended, the Mansters in Denton have been working to arrange passage to America for the two children. When Hilliam and Nargaret were staying at the Fort Worth home, they had spent two weeks at the Manster farm near Denton.

"We feel sorry for children who had nothing to do with the war and can't help themselves," said Mrs. Manster. "And we have no children of our own."

Mrs. Manster has another reason for taking in the German pair. She came to America in 1914, when another war was raging in Europe and an uncle in this country opened his home to her.

Dallas Symphony Is To Present Concert

Antal Dorati, who has brought national recognition to the Dallas Symphony orchestra since assuming directorship in 1945, will conduct the 87-piece symphony in its appearance here.

Texas Oil Drilling Activity Surpasses That Of Year Ago

AUSTIN, Feb. 28 (AP)—Drilling activity in Texas continued its fast pace this week and shoved completion totals still farther ahead of those for the comparable 1947 period.

The Railroad commission reported completion of 128 oil wells, 11 gas wells and 57 dry holes. Operators have completed 989 oil wells compared with 766 a year ago; 113 gas wells against 98 and 485 dry holes against 375.

In wildcat operations, four oil wells were drilled, two gassers and 24 dry holes. Forty-four wildcat oil wells have been drilled this year compared with 31 at this date in 1947, 12 gas wells to 9, and 254 dry holes to 168.

Fifty nine dry holes were plugged; no gas wells and 67 oil wells. There have been 992 wells plugged this year compared to 965 a year ago.

District 8, West Texas, led with 31 oil well completions. District 9, North Texas, was next with 24.

The total average calendar day crude oil allowable as of today was 2,563,146 barrels, an increase of 1,890 per day from last week.

Red Blood Cells Must Be Kept Up If You Want To Feel Alive

Thousands Now Regaining Old Time Pep, Vigor and Drive By Releasing Vibrant Energy To Every Muscle, Fibre, Cell

Overwork, undue worry, and lack of certain foods often reduces the red-blood strength — and starved, weak, puny blood just hasn't the power to keep up your energy and drive.

Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy, a run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.

To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities, by analysis of the blood, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juice when it is non-organically too little or scanty—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky with gas, bloat and give off that sour food taste.

Don't wait! Energize your body with rich, red-blood. Start on SSS Tonic now. As vigorous blood surges throughout your whole body, greater freshness and strength should make you eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better, have a healthy color glow in your skin—firm flesh fill out hollow places. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle from your drug store. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health. adv

World-Wide Scholarship Plan Being Prepared By Congress

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (AP)—(NEA)—The world's greatest experience in international cultural co-operation is about to roll. The sponsor is, of course, old Uncle Sugar himself, operating under what's known as the Fulbright Act.

The program is of interest to at least 35,000 American students and teachers who know about and have applied for opportunities to pursue higher learning or teach the American way of life in foreign countries. Thousands more are expected to apply for these benefits as the program is expanded. And more thousands of foreign scholars, wanting to study in the U. S., will likewise be brought into the picture later on.

Huge Sum Involved

For the fiscal year beginning next July 1, it is hoped that grants totaling $4,000,000 can be made available to some 2000 American and foreign students. The average grant will be about $2000 a year, but individual grants may vary from $100 to $10,000.

When the program is in full operation some 4000 grants a year may be made at a cost of $7,000,000. The exchange of students and teachers will continue for 20 years, at a total outlay of $140,000,000. In all, 23 countries are expected to take part.

It has taken a year and a half to set up the complicated machinery and start the wheels turning. The original idea came from Arkansas' Sen J. W. Fulbright. As a young man, he was a Rhodes scholar at Oxford University, England. This new program makes the Rhodes scholarship business look like peanuts.

Surplus Goods Finance Plan

The money to finance this huge educational and cultural exchange comes from the sale of U. S. surplus war material in foreign countries where we walked off and left it. Since the purchasing countries don't have dollars to pay for the goods they bought, a way had to be found to spend the local currency in each country. Senator Fulbright proposed that a part of this money be made available to aid American scholars in foreign countries and foreigners wanting to study here.

Agreements covering this exchange have already been signed with China and Burma. Negotiations with the Philippines, Egypt, Greece, Iran, Italy, the Netherlands and Great Britan are now being concluded. Others will come in later.

The job of selecting the American students, research specialties and professional experts who will receive these grants is just beginning. It has been turned over to three non-governmental agencies by the President's 10-man Board of Foreign Scholarships, under Francis Spaulding, New York commissioner of education.

All applications from American graduate students wanting one of these Fulbright grants will be screened by the International Institute of Education at its headquarters, 2 West 45th St. New York, N. Y.

Communists Assail Setup

Eventually, it is hoped that there will be regional selection committees in various parts of the U. S. to find the best qualified candidates for the scholarships. Foreign students, selected for Fulbright scholarships in American schools abroad and in this country, will be chosen by a U. S. Educational Foundation set up in every foreign country, with the chief of the American mission there as its chairman.

Selection of American teachers for primary and secondary schools in foreign countries will be handled by U. S. Office of Education in Washington.

The Fulbright scholarship plan has been called "American cultural imperialism" by the Communist press in Europe. The impression is given that the U. S. is forcing this exchange of students and teachers on foreign countries. Yet no foreign government is being forced to accept the plan. It's open to those that want it.

In 1939, the U. S. first set up cultural relations exchanges with 16 Latin-American countries. Between $4,000,000 and $5,000,000 a year is now spent in promoting this exchange.

Under the Smith-Mundt bill, authorization has been given to extend this program to the whole world. How much money will be appropriated for this work is now under study by Congress.

The spreading of American culture is not, therefore, to be confined to benefits under the Fulbright Act. Teaching the American way of life, and learning about other countries, has become a big business of government, supplementing—not competing with—the private religious and educational institutions that have so successfully pioneered in this work for so many years.

NO HONOR AMONG THIEVES

ATLANTA, Ga. (U.P.)—Detectives Leo Nahlik and O. T. Jones had difficulty in "cracking" a gang of youths about a series of burglaries until the boys admitted they had been stealing from each other. After that, the officers said, it was easy to make them talk.

PLIERS AND BED SLAT WERE WEAPONS—Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Reinhart, Carlsbad, New Mexico, with dead eagle which Mrs. Reinhart extracted from her 4-year-old son with the pliers. Mr. Reinhart later saw the eagle in the vicinity and killed it with a bed slat.

Truman Causes Excitement In Brief Stop To Play With Baby

KEY WEST, Fla., Feb. 28 (AP)—The man in the white pith helmet stirred up a flurry of excitement today as he stopped to pull at the finger of a grinning baby in a stroller.

A doting grandfather sprang into action with a plea to photographers:

"Please shoot this."

Then, before President Harry S. Truman knew exactly what was happening, two other youngsters, wearing bathing suits, bowed into the act.

It was some minutes before things quieted down enough for the President to resume his stroll to the enlisted men's beach for his daily swim.

Mr. Truman had just emerged from an inspection of a submarine-mounted picket radar for coastal and fleet defense—billed as the major news of this routine Saturday at the submarine base where he is spending his vacation.

Wooden Leg Fails As Hiding Place For $150 Stolen Cash

HARRISBURG, Pa., Feb. 28 (AP)—A hollow wooden leg failed as a cache for $150 in stolen cash.

Police Chief Oscar L. Blough said the money was recovered from Henry Williams, 40, charged with larceny of $753 from a downtown establishment. Williams was employed as a painter there.

Blough said the man had $150 in his wooden leg and the remainder in his pocket.

Penalties Assessed In Collision, Other Traffic Violations

Dawn Estell Turner, 2, was taken to Lubbock Memorial hospital for routine examination after a car driven by Mrs. Iris M. Turner, 25, of Lubbock route 7, was in collision with one driven by Waymon O. Warren, 40, a painter of Lubbock route 6, at 12:40 p. m. Saturday at Thirty-second and Adams Ave.

Warren was fined $15 for negligent collision, $5 for having expired license plates and $10 for no valid operator's license, police said. A ticket charging no operator's license was given to Mrs. Turner, police said. The mishap was investigated by R. O. Christesson, police patrolman.

Jewelry Recovered

Police also fined several motorists who did not figure in collisions: One paid a speeding fine of $20, another of $15. One was fined $5 for failing to stop for a red traffic light.

Charles Gerald Johnson, 20, a negro, was held in city jail in lieu of bond in connection with a charge of theft under $5, a 100-pound sack of feed, officials said.

Police said additional recoveries of jewelry taken Wednesday night from the residence of Mrs. C. J. Shipley had been reported. Friday, Mrs. Shipley said a woman had telephoned her she had found a quantity of jewelry on her lawn and presumed it belonged to Mrs. Shipley, since she had read in Avalanche and Journal publications there had been such a burglary. The procedure was repeated Saturday, when a woman called from 500-block Seventeenth, police said, and reported a pin found there. Most of the $200 worth of loss has been recovered, City Detectives Lee Rice and LeRoy Boling, jr., said.

Assault Charge Filed

M. T. Hunt of Idalou route 1 told the sheriff's department that someone had broken into his irrigation well house abou. Thursday night and taken two batteries and two pipe wrenches.

A Lubbock man was being held in county jail last night after his former wife had complained before Justice of Peace C. E. Lynn that he had broken a broom in striking her on the right shoulder, knocking her to her knees, and causing a fractured collar bone. The man, Ewell McCraw, 34, of 806 Ave. C, was charged with assault on the person by Mrs. G. L. Wash, of Avinger addition. His bond was set at $200 and had not been made late last night.

McCraw's wife, Lola Mae McCraw, was also charged with assault on the person.

Mrs. Wash was treated at West Texas hospital.

Jury Convicts Murder Suspect

BROWNFIELD, Feb. 28 (Special)—A 106th judicial court petit jury tonight found Santos Alonzo, 18, a Latin-American, guilty of murder in connection with the Oct. 19 slaying of Joe N. Merritt, 33, in the Patricia community of Dawson county, and recommended a five-year suspended sentence.

The verdict was reported at 9:45 p. m. to Judge Louis B. Reed.

Jury Gets Case

The case was submitted to the jury at 4:15 p. m. The state rested late Friday, and the defense completed its evidence at a Friday night session except for introduction of three reputation witnesses at this morning's session. Arguments were commenced at 1:15 p. m. today.

Prosecution was conducted by District Attorney Calloway Huffaker, assisted by Terry County Attorney Virgil Crawford and Dawson County Attorney Vernon Adcock. The defense counsel were Bob Huff and Mac Wassell, both of Lamesa.

Alonzo's father, 44-year-old Emelio Alonzo, also was slain in the battle that ended Merritt's life. Officials said at the time Emelio Alonzo and Merritt fought with their fists and that Santos Alonzo ran up with a rifle and slew Merritt. Emelio Alonzo then leaped upon the recumbent Merritt and began plunging a bowie knife into him, whereupon another Dawson county resident who never was indicted for his actions produced a pistol and killed Emelio Alonzo.

Garage, Automobile Burned At Bartlett Residence Near City

The garage of the L. E. Bartlett residence, three miles from Lubbock on the Old Tahoka highway, burned about noon Saturday—and a 1948 heavy automobile in it, firemen of Central station said.

One wall of the residence next the garage was damaged, but firemen played water from two booster trucks on it and saved Bartlett an estimated $18,000 in further loss, it was said.

At 1:05 p. m. paper was burned in the kitchen of the Ellis Martin residence at 1808 Eighteenth. Floor wax was warmed on a stove a brief time before the fire commenced, firemen said.

Another fire caused slight damage to a play house at rear of 1519 Twenty-eighth. It was caused from a fire in a trash barrel, firemen were advised.

At 4:30 p. m. firemen went to the Monroe underpass, the scene of a truck accident in which David F. Smith, of Slaton, was killed.

NO SPECIAL CEREMONY PLANNED

Smith To Take Over Duties As Lubbock City Manager Monday

Preparations for a change in the Lubbock city manager were completed at the Lubbock city hall Saturday without causing a ripple of excitement.

Homer A. Hunter, who has been city manager since Jan. 1, 1946, cleaned out his desk and announced he plans to leave Tuesday for Dallas where he has opened offices as a consulting engineer, specializing in municipal problems.

Marlin R. (Red) Smith, preparing for his second tenure as city manager here, said he would take possession of the vacated office Monday morning. He and Hunter spent several hours in conference Saturday.

No Ceremony Planned

Smith was emphatic in declaring there will be no ceremony in connection with his assumption of duties. The plan is for him to take the required oath of office, probably to be administered by Miss Lavenia Williams, city secretary, and then "get busy."

The change-over will be virtually identical, except in reverse, with that which took place 26 months ago.

On that occasion, Smith was the out-going and Hunter the in-coming manager. Smith had resigned to form the consulting engineering firm of Parkhill, Smith & Cooper. Hunter had resigned as assistant city manager in charge of utilities in Dallas to come to Lubbock.

Has Enjoyed Work

Hunter's resignation originally was scheduled to be effective last Dec. 31. He agreed to remain, however, until the city commission named his successor.

"I have enjoyed my work in Lubbock thoroughly," Hunter commented as he prepared to surrender his duties. "I foresee a great future for this city and this entire area. But I feel I cannot delay any longer in establishing myself independently in the field for which I have trained more than 20 years."

Smith was reared in Lubbock and became city engineer in 1926 soon after his graduation from Texas A. & M. college. He continued in that position until his appointment as city manager early in 1942.

The first major tasks confronting Smith will be the completion of the city budget for the fiscal year which begins next April 1 and the recommendation of an appointee for the newly authorized position of director of municipal affairs.

The city commission's declared chief purpose in creating the position is to relieve the city manager of much detail work.

Smith is to receive $12,000 a year. Hunter's salary was $10,000.

Divisional winners and honorable mention prints chosen from approximately 70 entries will be featured in a display in the college recreation hall March 1-6. First place photographs in each of the contest's nine divisions will be sent to the fraternity round robin print show which travels to chapters of the fraternity in colleges across the nation.

Contest judges were Winston Reeves and Rollin Herald, local photographers, and Cecil Horne, head professor of journalism at Tech. Decisions were based on idea, interest, composition and processing quality of the prints. Pictures were grouped for entry under divisions of news, landscape, architecture, table top, sports, feature, portrait, pattern and animal shots.

Winners Announced

News: Mary King, Graham senior, first; no honorable mentions.

Landscape: Joe France, Sulphur Springs junior, first; Bernard Bevis, Sulphur Springs sophomore, and C. E. Wendt, Lubbock sophomore, honorable mention.

Electrical Group Faces Indictment

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (U.P.)—A federal grand jury at Dallas, today indicted a group of electrical contractors for conspiracy to restrain trade in the sale of lighting fixtures and other supplies.

The electrical contractors, the indictment charged, agreed to boycott "anyone operating both as an electrical jobber and an electrical retailer."

Others Are Named

The indictment also charged that the named contractors agreed not to hang lighting fixtures purchased by a consumer directly from jobbers, and that the contractors agreed to refuse to enter into contracts to supply labor for installing electrical systems unless they received extra compensation.

The other two jobbing corporations named were the Meletio Electric Supply Co., and the Beckett Electric Co.

Members of the chapter indicted were: E. T. Ramey; F. Henry Gable; T. C. Sands, of Sands Electrical Contractors and Neon Sign Co.; Roy P. Gay of Gay Electrical Shop; George L. Harris, of Southwest Electrical Co., and N. T. Ivy of Ivy Electrical Co.

The jobbing representatives indicted were E. Robinson of Westinghouse; G. L. Ralston and H. B. Sudicum of General Electric; Percy Rawlinson, vice-president of Beckett and J. C. Robinson, sales manager of Beckett; and Jack Meletio, vice-president of Meletio.

Attorney General Tom C. Clark announced the indictment here. He said it was "part of the anti-trust division program aimed at illegal conspiracies to fix the prices in the food, clothing and housing fields."

Indicted were:

The Northeast Texas Chapter of the National Electrical Contractors' association; Lawrence Martin, manager of the chapter; seven members of the chapter, four jobbing corporations and six of their representatives.

The jobbing group included General Electric Supply Corp., and Westinghouse Electric Supply Co.

Woman Says Charges Against Her False

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 28 (U.P.)—One of the seven army finance center civilian employes discharged recently for security reasons today denied the charges and claimed the government owes her some back pay and leave benefits.

Miss Belle Sorkin, 32, Livingston Manor, N. Y., who was dismissed on Feb. 4 as mail supervisor at the army installation, said she would appeal.

She said it wasn't true that she was intimately associated with Communist party members, that she attended meetings sponsored by the Communist party or that that was a member of any organization affiliated with the Communist party.

Miss Sorkin said the only rally of a political nature she has attended 'in months and months" was a speech by Henry Wallace last November and "I don't belong to any organizations at all."

She said she was called in by the officer in charge of her division on Feb. 4 and, in the presence of several other army officers, was handed a letter containing the charges and was informed of her rights of appeal.

"I told them the charges weren't true, but it didn't make any difference," she said. Miss Sorkin related that an officer then escorted her off the grounds.

She began working for the government as a clerk in the office of dependency benefits in Newark, N. J., five and a half years ago. When that office was transferred to St. Louis she came with it.

Since the founding of the Turkish Republic, Turkey has had a larger proportion of women as members of Parliament than Great Britain or the United States.

Czechoslovakia's Liberation During War Is Background To Present Red Control

By HAL BOYLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Feb. 27 — America only fights one war at a time—but European powers tend to have the next one always in mind.

That is why Soviet leaders asked that United States forces halt in 1945, so that Russian troops alone might have the glory of capturing Berlin and freeing Prague, the capital of Czechoslovakia.

And that is one reason why Czechoslovakia today is wearing the new political look—with a "made in Moscow" label clearly showing.

For nearly three years Soviet propaganda has drummed on the theme that Rusian troops saved Prague while the Americans dawdled in Pilsen, 50 miles away.

This was in the closing days of the war. Prague patriots were fighting the Nazis in the streets. Delegations slipped through the lines to Pilsen to seek American help. I was there and saw American officers and men volunteer to go.

War Dispatch Recalled

The answer was "no." The Russians had asked that the Third army halt at Pilsen and wait for the Soviet troops to link up with them. An order came down from higher headquarters braking the American columns.

It was useless to try to explain to the pleading Czechs. They knew only that the Americans could have come to the defense of Prague and didn't—and that the Russians did.

But lest the present absentee landlord of Czechoslovakia think a new totalitarianism can subdue the people Hitler couldn't break, I'd like to reprint here portions of a dispatch I filed from Pilsen on May 7, 1945.

It describes the first homecoming parade of Czech soldiers who had fought for years with the British army—and now again were under their own red, white and blue flag:

"There were only a few of them—one company of tired and dusty men who hadn't seen their native land since before Dunkerque, where they fought with valor. Czechoslovakia's second largest city gave thec a conqueror's welcome.

Czechs Come Bac

"They were a symbol of free Czechoslovakia—the little country of greatness, proud, democratic and progressive."

They came into Pilsen behind General Patton's American troops.

"Czech crowds loyally cheered every Yank. But you could feel they were waiting for something—something they hadn't seen for years: A Czech army marching through a Czech city under its own flags.

"Shortly before dusk word swept through the crowds that the Czech troops had entered the city. A few moments later the first car rolled into the city square.

"I have heard many crowd demonstrations, but none like the peculiar sound that rose from these oppressed people celebrating their first full day of liberation. The column contained only about 50 cars—a few ackack guns, some bren carriers, civilian cars and a few wheezy old derelict trucks decked with flowers and banners. Three German tanks could have destroyed it in fifteen minutes.

Sadness Is Unknown

"But, as a symbol that column was matchless. A cry burst from every throat as the first vehicle entered the parade area, and as each car limped past the volume grew greater.

"It wasn't staccato like the yells of an American crowd. This sound had compounded in its sadness and exhilaration and pride—and hope, too. It sang in the ears like a strong wind pushing across tumultuous surf.

"Old men and women who have seen the birth and death of two world wars wept together. And young girls and children seeing them were moved, and wept, too, without knowing why.

"One truck that brought the loudest cheers had painted across its side:

"'From Dunkerque to Pilsen to Prague'."

The Czechs have always found a way to come back.

Pullman Company Seeks Hike On Rates In Accomodations

CHICAGO, Feb. 28 (AP) — The Pullman company is seeking to increase Pullman charges on room and seat accomodations throughout the country.

C. R. Harding, Pullman president, said today that an application to raise the rates has been filed with the Interstate Commerce commission.

The proposed increases cover seats in sleeping or parlor cars and room rates for bedrooms, compartments and drawing rooms. Berths, roomettes, duplex roomettes and duplex single rooms would not be affected.

BODY OF YOUTH FOUND

WACO, Feb. 28 (AP)—The body of Joe Barton, 15, of Clifton, Tex., was found by officers in a field near Crawford, Tex., at 11 a. m. today. The officers had hunted Barton since last night when he was reported missing. An inquest was ordered. Circumstances of the boy's death were not immediately available.

Early Day Students Could Plant Acre Each On Tech Farm

Back in the early days of 21 years ago, any Texas Technological college student who wished could plant a crop on one acre of college farm land and sell the harvest to pay college expenses.

The first official Texas Tech catalogue explains the plan, pointing out that many students could earn a major portion of his college expenses with vegetable crops. A student didn't have to be an experienced farmer to take advantage of the offer, since Agriculture division staff members would give advice and assistance on the crop, the catalogue stated.

No one seems to remember when the "acre projects" were discontinued, but they would hardly be practical now since the college has almost three students for each of its more than 2000 campus acres, and the farm lands are being utilized for other purposes.

NANKING, Feb 28 — Reliable sources reported today Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek has decided to abondon the Manuchurian capital of Changchun in a desperate effort to save Mukden from the Chinese Communists.

These sources said the isolated garrisons of Changchun, Kirin and Szepingkai, all lying northeast of Manuchuria's largest city, would be withdrawn — presumably by air.

Consular attaches of the United States, and Britain left Changchun by plane last month and other Americans were flown to Peiping Feb. 3.

There was no official confirmation of the withdrawal report. Chiang, in the past, has strongly opposed proposals to surrender the three big Manchurian outposts, despite the difficulty in continuing their defense.

Situation Growing Worse

But the situation at Mukden, keystone of the government's Manchurian defense, was growing steadily worse. Scarcely had progovernment dispatches acknowledged the fall of Yingkow, main government seaport in southern Manchuria, than other Red forces were reported to have broken into Kaiyuan, on Mukden's northern defense perimeter.

Yingkow's capture dashed government hopes of using the port as a springboard for a counter-offensive in the spring. The city's population normally is 250,000, but this might have been swollen by refugees from rural areas. There have been no reports of foreigners in Yingkow.

Street fighting was reported in progress at Kaiyuan, great soybean collection center 55 miles northeast of Mukden.

Battles were raging also at two other key defense points—Sinmin, 30 miles west of Mukden, and Tiehling, 40 miles northeast. Chinese press dispatches reported Communist capture of Sinmin several days ago, but subsequent reports told of savage fighting on its outskirts.

Clashes Are Described

Meanwhile, Red guerrilla bands were active in Mukden's suburbs. One clash was reported only five miles from the city's civil airport, from which many Chinese government workers and American dependents have been flown to Peiping.

Against these setbacks, the nationalists reported one success. Reinforced troops were said to have advanced along the Peiping-Mukden railway from Koupangtzu. They apparently are from the government base at Chinhsien and are trying to reopen the shattered line to Mukden which was snipped in many places months ago.

Koupangtzu is 85 miles southwest of Mukden, and about 40 miles northeast of Chinhsien.

Tension Mounts In Costa Rica After Election Returns Given

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica, Feb. 28 (AP)—The national electoral tribunal declared today that Otilio Ulate Banco had been elected president of Costa Rica in the Feb. 8 elections.

Disappointed supporters of the defeated candidate, Rafael Calderon Guardia, immediately rallied for a big demonstration and tension mounted in this capital city.

Congress will meet Monday to consider the findings of the electoral tribunal and make a final decision.

Feeling has been running high since the elections. Calderon Guardia conceded defeat on the basis of unofficial election returns, but charged fraud. He was supported by the government.

Four days after the balloting an attempted coup of the government was put down by police and soldiers. One person was killed and many wounded.

Two Youths Face Charges In Theft Of 21 Drilling Bits

ELECTRA, Feb. 28 (AP)—Charges were filed here yesterday against Joe Ainsworth, 19, and Jeff T. Penick, 19, both of Kosse, Tex., alleging theft of 21 oil well drilling bits.

The bits were stolen from the home of J. R. Simpson, Electra drilling contractor.

Chief of Police Ted Miller said the men would be questioned concerning thefts and burglaries at Fort Worth, Big Spring, Graham, Breckenridge, and Odessa.

U. S. Carrying Out Program To Bolster

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (U.P.)—The United States is carrying out a long-secret pledge to equip anti-Communist armies in China with a $300,000,000 air force.

This commitment was revealed by Air Secretary W. Stuart Symington and the State department, apparently in an effort to silence Republican criticism of the administration's new $570,000,000 China aid bill.

The joint report was sent to the Senate Appropriations committee in response to a request from Chairman Styles Bridges, R., N.H. The committee made it public last night.

Pact Made During War

The military aid pact, signed during World War II, pledged this country to provide Chiang Kai-Shek's government with a first-line air force of 1,071 planes, including heavy bombers and fighters.

Already 936 planes have been delivered from U. S. surplus war stocks and presumably are in use against the Communist forces in north China.

An additional 135 planes are earmarked for delivery. They include 37 B-17 flying fortresses, 42 P-47 thunderbolt fighters, 53 P-51 Mustang fighters and three C-46 transport planes. All of these types were used by the U. S. air force during the war, but now have been somewhat outmoded by longer-range bombers and jet-propelled fighters.

When the program is completed, it will give China an air force roughly equivalent to such medium-sized European powers as Turkey, Yugoslavia and Spain.

VFW Auxiliary Plans Anniversary Meeting

The Women's auxiliary of Lubbock post 2466 of Veterans of Foreign Wars will celebrate its 13th anniversary Monday night with a dinner dance at the Supper club on Brownfield highway, Tom Everheart, local post commander, has announced.

Main feature of the evening will be a 30-minute radio program over station KSEL, at which time a history of the local auxiliary will be given and Mrs. Alta Lee Duryea, auxiliary department of Texas president, will give the obligation to approximately 50 new members.

Roger Q. Evans, department of Texas commander, will make a short talk during the course of the program. Special music will be group singing of "America" and a solo, "Serenade of the Bells," by Miss Nancy Teague, accompanied by Betty Gentry at the piano.

Following the radio program which is scheduled between 7:30 and 8 p. m. the banquet and dance will take place. No more tickets are available for the banquet, Tom Everheart stated, but the dance at 9 o'clock is open to the public. Tickets are priced at $2.40 per couple.

Hostesses for the affair are Everheart and Mrs. Bennie Jackson, local auxiliary president.

Congress Requested To Pledge Billion For Road Construction

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (AP) — Congress was asked today to pledge $1,000,000,000 for state highway construction in 1950 and 1951.

Federal Works Administrator Philip B. Fleming said such assurance is necessary now to permit state legislatures to plan their share of the costs.

In a statement prepared for a senate subcommittee on roads, Fleming said also that funds already authorized will be spent or "obligated" before the next congress could take action.

He said a proposed $500,000,000 authorization for road-building in fiscal 1949 "may well be omitted in view of the delay in pushing the construction program authorized in 1944."

President Truman has recommended also that authorizations be continued, in the annual amount of $71,000,000, for direct construction of roads on public lands.

Traffic Deaths Decrease By 13 Per Cent Over Year Ago

CHICAGO, Feb. 28 (AP) — The nation's traffic deaths dropped 13 per cent in January compared with the same month last year.

The January toll was 2,130, compared with 2,450 in January, 1947.

The National Safety council, in announcing the figures, said the state of North Dakota provided a "highlight" of its report by going through the entire month without a traffic death.

The council said this was the only time in its history that a state has had a death-free month, except for the war years when travel and gasoline were restricted.

Thief Snatches Purse While Policeman Questions Victim

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 28 (U.P.)—Policeman P. W. MacQuellan stopped Mrs. J. B. Haley for a traffic violation near the police station.

While he wrote the ticket with one foot on the running board, a thief reached into the other side of the front seat and grabbed Mrs. Haley's purse containing $20 and some papers.

The thief escaped.

Midland Newspaper Plans Open House In New Building Today

MIDLAND, Feb. 28 (AP) — The Midland Reporter-Telegram will have a big housewarming of its shiny new plant Sunday.

Publisher James N. Allison and his staff invited friends throughout West Texas. Guests are expected from over the state.

Designed for maximum efficiency in getting out a newspaper, the new building is of brick, steel and concrete construction and fireproof throughout. It is 50 by 140 feet.

A new Duplex tubular press and new composing room machinery have been installed and the business and editorial offices have been equipped with new steel furniture and other equipment.

The Reporter-Telegram will herald its open house with a progress edition Sunday.

HST Signs Civil Service Bill Boosting Retirement Pensions

By EARNEST B. VACCARO
Associated Press Staff Writer

KEY WEST, Fla., Feb. 28 — President Truman signed tonight a civil service retirement bill increasing pensions of approximately two million government employes.

The measure, which covers about 125,000 persons already retired, was signed at the temporary "White House" in the commandant's house at this submarine base.

Mr. Truman also signed a bill continuing for another three months the administration's control powers over a list of scarce materials vital to the national defense.

Bills Flown To Base

The President acted a few hours after the two bills were flown to this submarine base.

Mr. Truman also signed a bill continuing for another three months the administration's control powers over a list of scarce materials vital to the national defense

The President, after signing the civil service retirement measure, issued the following statement:

"I have today signed the Lager-Chavez-Stevenson retirement bill to liberalize the benefits provided by the federal civil-service retirement system.

Said Protective Step

"The bill is one more forward step in the strengthening of our federal service—a step which brings an increased measure of protection and security to those who have chosen to devote their lives to the public service.

"The new law directly affects the savings and future welfare of 1,500,000 government employes."

The President used 14 pens in signing the civil service retirement bill for distribution to sponsors of the legislation.

The pension legislation becomes effective April 1. The measure was worded to make it effective the first day of the second calendar month after date of signature. If Mr. Truman had waited until Monday there would have been a month's delay.

Provisions Are Explained

Known as the Taft-Stevenson bill, the legislation contains these major provisions:

The 125,000 people already retired receive an annuity boost of 25 per cent or $300 annually, whichever is smaller.

More than 1,500,000 active employes will receive pension increases ranging from 2 to 25 percent above present rates.

Widows of employes who die in service will receive pensions for the first time.

Employes at least 55 years old and retired after 30 years of service will receive larger pensions than those now provided, the increase depending on length of service.

Orphans of deceased federal employes will receive increased benefits.

To Limit Use Of Tin

Originally the house thought a 30-day extension would be enough on the controls for scarce materials. The Senate, however, made it 90 days and the House accepted the Senate views.

The controls governing both exports and imports originally were put into effect during the war. Rigid limitations were put on the use of tin when normal supplies from eastern Asia were cut off by the Japanese.

After the war controls were eased on tin a bit. However within the past two days, the Commerce department has announced it will again limit the use of tin in can making.

This is being done so that the government's strategic stockpile of the metal can be built up.

Controls were imposed on quinine during the war when the drug, derived from cinchona bark, was needed for the Army and Navy.

Preston E. Smith Makes Announcement Of His Candidacy For State Representative

Preston E. Smith, Lubbock theater man and state representative from the 119th district, Saturday made formal announcement of his candidacy for re-election to the post.

"In announcing for re-election to the Legislature, I feel that I can render the people of this district much greater service than during the past," Smith's statement said.

Problems Are Listed

"The state government is the largest business operated in Texas with annual expenditures in excess of $300,000,000 and I believe we ought to have qualified men in Austin to make decisions on the spending of this huge sum.

Smith listed redistricting, reapportionment of the permanent university fund income to the state's 16 state-supported colleges, farm-to-market road improvement and improvement of the plight of Texas schools and school teachers as foremost problems confronting the Legislature.

For Betterment of Teachers

"One of the most important functions of our state government is the education of our school children," Smith's statement pointed out. "To accomplish this we must have well qualified teachers. To get these teachers we must realize that they are important to our future citizens and should be paid according to their important contributions they are making to our society. I will continue to support those measures that will benefit our school teachers; also those measures strengthening safety for our school children."

"The farm-to-market roads in this state, in many areas, are in a deplorable condition. There is much legislation that the legislature could pass to help get the farmers on good roads with their farm products. At the same time this would be beneficial to those rural schools which carry their students to and from school daily. I have always supported measures that would improve farm-to-market roads and will continue to do if re-elected."

State Could Be Redistricted

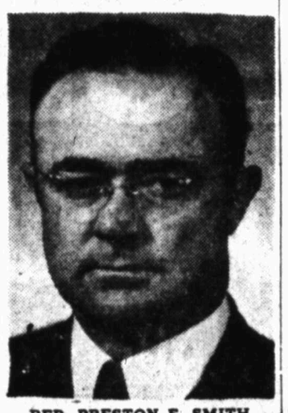

Regarding redistricting, Smith said: "Our present governor, if he would carry out his Constitutional oath of office, would immediately call the legislature into session and redistrict this state.

"Year after year, the Constitutional mandate that this state shall be redistricted after each federal census has been ignored, but there is nothing in the Constitution to prevent the governor from calling a special session on redistricting. Every time the state has been redistricted, it has been at a special session and this was accomplished the last time by Gov. Pat Neff back in 1921.

'Taxation Without Representation'

"Without representation, which is the only defense we have in the legislature, West Texas is at the mercy of the majority members who have repeatedly violated their oaths of office and thwarted every move to redistrict the state. Actually the plight of West Texas, by the state not having been redistricted in the past 27 years, has been 'taxation without representation,' as we are always taxed and since 1930 this section has not had the proper representation at Austin.

Smith, who was one of the leaders the past two sessions in a movement to apportion income from the permanent university fund among the state's 16 state colleges, said he would continue to work for a redistribution of this income to all state colleges on a per capita basis for building purposes only.

Monstrous Tracks On Florida Coast Will Be Studied

CLEARWATER, Fla., Feb. 28(AP)—Pictures of monstrous three-toed tracks found in beach sand are being sent to Smithsonian Insitution in Washington to find out what made them.

The prints resemble those of a sea turtle but they are four feet apart.

Sea turtles grow to great sizes, but, commented Police Chief Jefferson Elliott, "I have never heard of a sea turtle with a stride of that length."

The tracks indicated the monster came from the gulf, crossed the beach to the seawall, made four futile attempts to scale the four and a half foot barrier and returned to the water.

Paris Girl Is Killed When Crushed In Car Accident

TYLER, Feb. 28 (AP)—Betty MacFatridge, 15, Paris, Tex., was killed instantly near here today when she was thrown from an overturning car, which fell on top of her.

Mrs. S. L. Simms, wife of the Church of God pastor in Paris, was seriously injured. She was taken to a Tyler hospital. Her son, Leon Simms, 18, less seriously injured, also was taken to the hospital.

The accident occurred between Lindale and Mineola when the car, driven by Mrs. Simms, hit a soft shoulder.

The girl was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John MacFatridge of Paris.

Lubbock Theaters To Help Collect Funds For Battleship Texas

Lubbock theaters will co-operate this week in a campaign to be launched by the motion picture industry in Texas, in cooperation with Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce, to raise funds to bring the Battleship Texas back to her home state.

Lubbock Junior Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the local efforts to raise money, with help of the Boys club, representatives of which will take a collection in theaters taking part.

To Show Short Film

Lindsey theaters will show a motion picture short related to the efforts to bring the battleship to the state today through Wednesday and contributions will be taken during that time.

Midway theater also will participate in the campaign.

Preston Smith, owner of Tech, State, and Plains theaters, pledged 100 per cent co-operation in the campaign.

When the United States Navy advised Gov. Beauford Jester the state could have the Battleship Texas as a memorial shrine, provided $225,000 could be raised to provide permanent berthing at the San Jacinto monument, he sought cooperation of the motion picture industry and Junior Chamber of Commerce. Receipts from all collections are to be turned in not later than March 15, so contract may be let for dredging the special channel necessary for berthing the battleship on San Jacinto day, April 21.

Connally Says Third Party Plans Doomed

RALEIGH, N. C., Feb. 28 (AP)—Senator Tom Connally (D-Texas) tonight predicted the presidential campaign of Henry Wallace will end in disaster.

In an address prepared for delivery at the North Carolina Democrats' Jefferson-Jackson day dinner, the ranking Democrat of the Senate foreign affairs said:

"The country is faced by the hopeless and fantastic candidacy of Mr. Wallace.

"Favored and honored by the Democratic party as Secretary of Agriculture, as vice-president and as Secretary of Commerce, Mr. Wallace has seen fit . . . to lead an insurrection against the political principles that he claimed to espouse.

"The campaign of Mr. Wallace will end in disaster. It is a campaign of negation. It is a campaign born of bitterness and disappointment."

The Texan was principal speaker at the dinner. About 500 Tar Heel Democrats paid $50 a plate for the repast.

Approximately 35 years elapse between periods of severe drouth, according to calculations.

Megargel's Existence As Town Confirmed In Court Decisions

MEGARGEL (Archer County), Tex., Feb. 28. (U.P.) — The three-man government of this farm community has been assured of its power to levy and collect taxes.

Two court decisions confirmed Megargel's existence as a town and made it all right for the mayor and two city councilmen to levy taxes on its 500 citizens

Mhether Megargel actually was a city in the official sense was brought up when city officials brought a suit against some residents to collect delinquent taxes. In the hearing, defense attorneys argued that Megargel's incorporation was not legal and no ordinances had ever been passed levying the taxes in question.

District court at Archer City decided in favor of the city of Megargel. The case was appealed to the court of civil appeals at Fort Worth, where Judge Earl P. Hall also ruled in favor of Megargel.

If there are young children in a family it's a good idea to have a convenient shelf or cabinet in the kitchen in which to store toys and other play materials.

Long Amasses 208,000 Vote Margin In Louisiana Race

BATON ROUGE, La., Feb. 28 (AP)—The Secretary of State's figures showed today that Earl K Long received a majority of 208,443 votes over Sam H. Jones with only two precincts missing from last Tuesday's Democratic gubernatorial run-off primary.

Long had 432,105 votes and Jones received 223,662.

The missing precincts were one each in Jefferson and Cameron parishes.

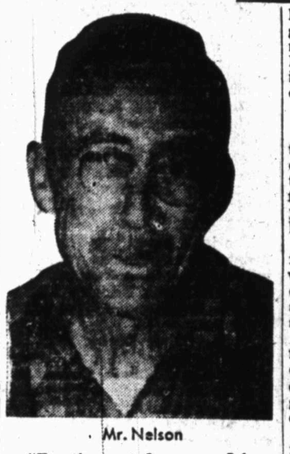

The compilation showed that Long carried every one of the eight congressional districts, taking the first, fifth and eighth by more than a two to one majority.

ANNIVERSARY

MONDAY MARCH 1

This week we are happy to celebrate our first anniversary. It marks the first milestone of a long planned business. We are proud of our modern plant and happy that this first year has passed. With one year's experience to our credit we can now assure our many friends and customers of Better Cleaning, Finishing and Service.

Our Congratulations to the Veterans' Administration and their employees on the opening of their new, beautiful building. We are happy to have you as our neighbors and extend a welcome to you to visit our plant. We ask you to give us a trial this week—our first anniversary week. We are sure you will be pleased.

EQUIPMENT: Our modern plant is of the finest in West Texas. Though it was all new one year ago, we have replaced several machines as new and better ones have come out. We shall continue to stay up with all new manufacturing improvements in our field.

EMPLOYEES: Of the original nine employees with which we started our business, there are several still with us. We now have 23 employees with years of experience in their trade. We use only experienced employees.

MARKING: Our Tex-Tax System of marking eliminates any unsightly marks or tags (no names or numbers) in your clothing. It also eliminates lost belts. We guarantee not to lose your belt.

CLEANING: There is no better cleaning. If the garment can be cleaned or a spot removed, our cleaning department can do it.

FINISHING: Steam-air finishing equipment is used to assure you of the finest finishing without shine. Try us on Gabardines.

OVER-WEAVING: A new department we established since our opening. A process of weaving much superior to patching.

Eight-Year Old Makes Bow As Conductor Of Large Orchestra

By W. G. ROGERS
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Feb. 28—Swinging his baton as smartly as an American kid swings his baseball bat, eight-year-old Italian conductor Ferruccio Burco made his U. S. debut this afternoon leading an 80-piece orchestra in Carnegie Hall.

It was probably the first time Carnegie had seen a maestro in a Little Lord Fauntleroy suit, wearing black slippers and white socks.

Accorded All Honors

The concert was remarkable in other respects too: Ferruccio stood on a box atop the usual conductor's stand. He received one basket of flowers almost as big as he was. His debut was interrupted by a woman who rushed to the front of the auditorium and read a poem in his honor. And after it was all over, he straddled the arm of a chair in his dressing room, swung one foot, and chewed gum.

Ferruccio was so short you couldn't see his head above the seated musicians among whom he made his way to the center of the stage.

But baton in hand, he acted full-size, and his long curly hair danced as he led the orchestra in the Beethoven First Symphony and six other pieces.

The orchestra accepted him as full-size, too. He had the usual prerogatives accorded to a maestro: A man to hold back the heavy curtain when he appeared, a musician to pass him his baton. He shook hands properly with the concert master, invited the orchestra to rise and share the applause, and he himself returned to bow 24 times.

PUP GOES UP—All the cats around Parsons, Kan., would spit in Nickie's eye and then leap into a tree and jeer him. Nickie took it for a while, and then the 1½-year-old fox terrier had enough. He learned to leap after them. Above, he flies through the air before digging his claws into the bark. Below, he's arrived at his perch, a tree crotch six feet off the ground.

Insects May Attack Trees During Cold

STAMFORD, Conn., Feb. 28 (U.P.)—Scale insects, impervious to cold, are "waiting like a pack of wolves" for the first signs of spring to attack shade and fruit trees weakened by this winter's sub-zero temperatures and storms, Dr. S. W. Bromley warns.

"Heavy scale outbreaks invariably follow severe winters," said Dr. Bromley, entomologist of the Bartlett Tree Research Laboratories.

"No matter how tough a winter is," he explained, "scale and other insect eggs come through unscathed."

"Best insurance against the attacks is a delayed dormant spray of miscible oil applied just when the buds are swelling and when the outside temperature is between 45 and 75 degrees," he said. "It should be used on all shade trees except hard maples."

Fishing Yarn With New Twist Is Told By Michigan Fisherwoman

MT. CARMEL, Mich., Feb. 28 (U.P.)—Miss Allie Seitz tells a fishing story with a twist.

She said she was fishing in a pond near here when she reached out to catch hold of a fallen tree limb. At that moment, a large grinnel leaped out of the water and into her arms.

"I was so surprised," she said, "I threw him back in."

STUDENTS CRAVE WORK

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal. (U.P.)—Almost half of the registered student body of 8,100 are earning part or all of their college expenses at Stanford University to meet the rising cost of living, according to Mrs. Clotilde Edwards, head of the Stanford student employment service. She said the demand for jobs through the employment office has far outstripped supply.

MARKET IN SLIGHT RALLY

NEW YORK, Feb. 28. (AP)—The stock market recovered moderately today after a more or less indefinite week and the sharpest monthly setback since last April.

Short covering in the concluding session was based on the idea the list had been oversold and probably could stage a substantial technical revival.

Throughout the week public participation was notably slack with most customers inclined to trim accounts. Selling here was attributed to pessimism regarding disturbing international affairs, the business outlook, taxes and labor. A batch of pleasing dividends and earnings was pretty well ignored. Sentiment was chilled by thoughts of big overhanging offerings of U. S. securities from abroad.

The Associated Press 60-stock composite was up .3 of a point at 61 and for the five days showed a net average of one-tenth. The drop for February was 2.8 points. Of 632 issues registering on the day, 353 rose, 121 fell and 158 were unchanged.

Dealings quickened at intervals during the brief proceedings. Transfers of 350,000 shares compared with 230,000 a week ago which were among the smallest in four years. It was the best Saturday aggregate since Jan. 10. The week's 5-day total was 3,092,296 shares against 3,770,300 for the preceding six sessions. The month's volume was 16,801,286 shares, a minimum since last November and a low for any February since 1942.

Aviations today enjoyed a belated bulge. Gulf Mobile & Ohio preferred was up 2½ at 49 and Du Pont 1¾ at 166. Elsewhere advances generally were in modest fractions.

Atlantic Gulf and West Indies, up 5 points Friday, dropped 1¾ at 45. Florheim Shoe slipped a point at 16, while an omitted dividend put Goebel Brewing down ½ at a ¾, both at new lows for the past year. The majority of steels, motors, rails, rubber and oils were narrow.

Bonds steadied selectively.

DOLLS GIVE UP CASH

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (U.P.)—Two dolls gave up $99 to a bold burglar. The robber took the cash—all $1 bills—that was pinned to the dresses of two dolls in a store window advertising a church bazaar.

It Would Be No Problem To Tear Berlin Phone Book In Two Now

FRANKFURT, Germany, Feb. 28 (U.P.)—The Berlin telephone directory, cut to 10 per cent of its pre-war size, is now only a 100-page booklet.

The first number in the book belongs to a Berlin demolition firm. The directory shows no Russian telephone numbers, but three American and three British extensions are listed. There is one Goering, an interpreter of Russian, and two Bormanns, both woman physicians.

Cotton

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Feb. 28 (AP) — Cotton futures were irregular in quiet trading today.

Prices started firm as an overnight accumulation of trade and commission house buying orders disclosed only limited offerings. The initial advance, however, attracted profit-taking, particularly in the near months and prices receded.

Part of the early buying was stimulated by an overnight announcement which revealed that the mid-February cotton parity price did not decline as much as the trade anticipated.

Futures closed 10 to 50 cents a bale higher than the previous close.

AVERAGE PRICE

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 28. (AP)—The average price of middling 15-16 inch cotton today at ten designated southern spot markets was 50 cents a bale higher at 32.89 cents a pound; average for the past thirty market days 33.33; middling 7-8 inch average 30.86.

Grain

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Feb. 28 (AP) — Grains advanced several cents in a firm market on the board of trade today. Soybeans and lard followed cereals higher.

Mills were modest buyers of wheat, apparently reflecting light sales of flour to small bakers. The bread cereal ignored reports of excellent rains yesterday in the western section of the winter wheat belt, which many analysts believe will do much to increase the 1948 harvest.

Major factor in the upturn was a slightly smaller decline in parity prices between Jan. 15 and Feb. 15 than many in the grain trade had expected.

Wheat closed ¼-1¼ higher, May $2.37-2.38, corn was 3 to 3¾ higher, May $2.20-$2.20¼, oats were ½-2¾ higher, May $1.11¼-⅜.

ACC Chorus To Give Two Programs Here

Members of the Abilene Christian College A Capella chorus will sing in two programs here this week.

Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock, they will sing at Lubbock Senior High school and Monday night at 8 o'clock at the Broadway Church of Christ.

At the high school appearance, the chorus, under direction of Leonard Burford, will give a two-part program. One part will consist of religious numbers and other part of secular numbers. At the church, the program will be entirely of religious songs.

Sixty-one students sing in the chorus, which will make appearances at Snyder Tuesday at 11 a. m. and at Roscoe at 2 p. m. Tuesday on the return trip to Abilene.

MAPLE SYRUP SOARS

BARRE, Vt. (U.P.)—If you want maple syrup on your pancakes and waffles this year, it will cost you between $6 and $7.50 per gallon. That's the latest estimate of the Vermont Maple Sugar Association in this state, which is the nation's top producer of the delicacy.

Inheritance Tax Sets New Record In State

AUSTIN, Feb. 28 (AP)—The biggest state inheritance tax ever paid in Texas—$1,105,602.96—on a single estate has been recorded by the state comptroller's office.

Paid equally by the widow, two sons and daughter of the late Thomas O'Connor of Victoria, the inheritance tax is the first to exceed one million dollars in this state, Comptroller George H. Sheppard said today.

The gross value of the O'Connor estate was figured at $20,317,340. Allowing deductions of $640.625, the net taxable estate was given a market value of $19,676,715.

Mrs. Thomas O'Connor, sons Dennis M. O'Connor and Tom O'Connor Jr.,; daughter Mrs Mary O'Connor Braman received equal shares of the estate. This was $4,919,178.94 each.

Each heir was allowed a $25,000 exemption, making the individual inheritance tax $276,400.

Nearest approaches to the total tax of $1,105,602 were $778,979 paid to Texas on the estate of M. F. Yount, Beaumont oilman, who died in November, 1933, and $779,409 paid on the estate of W. J Buchanan, Bowie county lumberman, who died in August, 1941.

Real estate holdings of O'Connor were valued at $11,849,655; personal, $8,117,576; livestock $337,750; and chattels, $12,358.

The bulk of O'Connor's wealth in real estate was derived from separate royalty interests on his mineral rights underlying land in Refugio county. He held real estate in Goliad, Victoria, Aransas, and Refugio counties.

SLOT MACHINES APPEAL

SAGINAW, Mich. (U.P.)—Saginaw officials are wondering whether the state's ban against slot machines has created a mass of frustrated coin machine addicts. They advertised for a man to collect nickles from the city's parking meters and received 35 applications.

Texas Cowboy Boots Develop New Look With More Practical Heels

FORT WORTH, Feb. 28 (U.P.)—Another new look has invaded the West.

Cowboy boots are changing shape. There is a trend away from the old Texas trademark of high-heeled boots. Lately, cowmen have been taking to "low" heels of about one and one-quarter inch high.

Used to be that cowboys teetered around on heels up to three inches high.

Reason given for the lower heels is efficiency. While high heels may look sporty, they are impractical when it comes to bulldogging or doing other fast-jumping chores.

A U. S. survey indicates that half the world's potential water power lies in the tropics.

WANTED TO KNOW

KOKOMO, Ind. (U.P.)—Newspaper offices receive a lot of strange questions over the telephone. At eight o'clock one February morning a subscriber called the Kokomo Tribune and asked when and where was the last time on record anyone had seen a rainbow in the wintertime.

HOUSE SMASHES AUTO

MACON, Ga. (U.P.)—A house collided with Leonard Carither's automobile and damaged it badly. The part of the house that struck his car was protruding from a truck. Robert Bowen, the house mover, was booked on a charge of driving without a license.

Men, Regain Youthful Vigor
Here Is a Vital Message to Men of 40, 60 or Older Men Who Feel That The Years Have Let Them Down

If life apparently has lost its zest, you again may be able to enjoy life as you did in your youth. If added years have slowed down your vim, vitality and youthful pleasures, here is a simple method that may change your whole outlook on life. Don't feel old and worn out at 40, 60 or more. Why not try to regain the pleasures of living you once enjoyed; why be discouraged? Regain the verve and zest of a much younger man. Just ask your druggist for Caltron stimulating tablets. Take as directed on label. There is nothing harmful in Caltron tablets. Take as long as you feel you need them. Added years may no longer deprive you of desired enjoyments. Why be the victim of the "older" years?

Don't Be Discouraged

Goethe finished Faust at 82; Connie Mack is still managing the Athletics at 85; Titian painted masterpieces between 80 and 99; Clara Barton was an active president of the Red Cross at 83; Verdi was composing, Victor Hugo was writing, Corot was painting long after 80.

So don't let the added years get you down. Why not try Caltron tablets today? Available at all druggists.

Jews And Arabs Building War Plants To Carry On Struggle

By DANIEL DE LUCE
Associated Press Staff Writer

JERUSALEM, Feb. 28 — Arab-Jewish fighting has started a boom in fledgling war industries and put thousands of former jobless under arms, observers said tonight.

Both sides in the struggle are known to have started munitions making. Both also have claimed the unemployment problem has been solved temporarily by the raising of defense forces. Most firearms still are imported, however.

Armor Plate Plant Grows

An armor plate industry has grown up almost overnight. Every truck and bus in Palestine requires armor protection against snipers At the cost of $1,000 each hundreds of vehicles per week are being converted into armored blockade runners.

Palestine's productivity, however, has been badly crippled as Jews and Arabs alike look to allies outside the Holy Land for war chests to finance the impending full-scale hostilities.

Dr. Izzat Tanncus, treasurer of the Arab Higher committee, said substantial contributions would be made by neighboring Arab states but the Arabs of Palestine already are meeting most defense costs through special taxation.

Pay Special Taxes

Arabs now pay a special levy to the higher committee every time they buy a loaf of bread, a bus ride or a movie ticket. The Jewish agency also is instituting taxes in addition to those imposed by the British mandate government.

Jews have called into Haganah able bodied males up to the age of 35. Thirty thousand are said to be combat-trained. Another 30,000 may shortly be ready to carry arms.

Continuing guerrilla fighting has shattered Palestine's transport system, but the Jews and Arabs are drawing on supplies already accumulated.

Sgt. William T. Cherry, Jr., Arrives In States From Korea

SLATON, Feb. 28 (Special)—Sgt. William T. Cherry, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Cherry, sr., of Slaton, arrived in the States Thursday from Korea, where he has served in the U. S. Occupation forces the past 14 months, his parents were advised today.

Sgt. Cherry will be discharged at Camp Stoneman, Calif., and will be home in about a week.

He enlisted as a private in the Army in September, 1946, and received his basic training in the Ordnance corps at Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Aberdeen, Md. He was sent to Korea and assigned to the First Field Artillery and was stationed at Chinhae, Korea.

Baptist Students End Conference In City

Dr. Frank S. Stagg of the New Orleans Baptist Theological seminary spoke on the subject of "Prayer" in the closing session of the annual Baptist Student Union Plains conference last night at First Baptist church.

Dr. Stagg's address followed a "paper sack banquet" held in the annex of the church at 6 o'clock, with Dorothy Hargrove, Wayland college student from Plainview, as director.

Saturday morning, conference periods were held to discuss the various phases of B.S.U. work Miss Eunis Parker, B.S.U. state association secretary, addressed the group.

Registration for the conference started at 3 p. m. Friday, and the open-session was held Friday night. Dr. Stagg spoke to the assembled group on "Love." Theme of the entire conference was "Helping Our Campuses Through Christ's Love."

About 200 students from Wayland college at Plainview, West Texas State Teachers college at Canyon, Amarillo Junior college and Texas Technological college attended the Lubbock meeting.

The annual conference is held alternately at one of the four schools. Next year's meeting will be held at Canyon, it was reported.

British 'Bluff' In Early Part Of War Deceived Japanese

By HAROLD GUARD
United Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Feb. 26—Admiral of the Fleet Sir James F. Somerville, war-time commander-in-chief of the British Eastern Fleet, still chuckles over a ruse he employed to fool the Japanese Fleet in the Indian Ocean during the grimmest days of 1943.

This is the admiral's own version of the incident, as recounted in an informal letter to this correspondent:

"In the autumn of 1943 we were very 'thin on the sea' owing to withdrawal of ships for the North African landings. At the same time we had important convoys going to Australia over the Indian Ocean and damn little cover for them.

"So, to keep the Japs pinned to the Andaman Islands, Sumatra, etc., we staged a dummy sortie of the Eastern Fleet into the Bay of Bengal.

"To give it additional color we sent a PBY (Catalina flying boat) out on a 'recco' with instructions at a certain time to make a report of an enemy fleet using a self-evident code which we knew the Japs could interpret immediately.

"This signal from the PBY was to be repeated by the Indian coast wireless stations and then, after an arranged pause, one of the stations was to call up the PBY, break into plain language and say, 'Dry up, you bloody fool! You are reporting our own fleet.'

"After that there was to be complete silence to suggest someone had blundered.

"As the PBY's report indicated a substantial sized fleet, though not outside the range of possibility, we hoped the Japanese would react.

"So far as we could judge they certainly did, as all the Japanese stations got very busy indeed.

"That was how we had to fight the war in 1943 and I can assure you we would have much preferred HAVING those dummy ships in fact and giving the little . . . a good kick in the guts."

R. D. Evans Of County Line Community Is Death Victim

R. D. Evans, 29, died at his home near County Line early Saturday. He had been in delicate health about a year.

Services will be held at the First Baptist church in Lubbock today at 3:30 p. m. Rev. J. E. Peters of Grassland will officiate, assisted by Rev. Wilson, of County Line. Burial will be in Lubbock cemetery under direction of Rix Funeral home.

Pallbearers will be Billy Hardy, Archie Duncan, Pat Corley, Glen Blackman, Elton Backman, and Wells Teague.

Survivors are his wife, two sons, Alvin Glen, and Thomas Roy, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Evans, of Shallowater.

Nine states of the United States have more forest workers than any other industrial classification. industry of the United States has over 300,000 wage workers.

FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH—Gayle Hampshire, 3½, who places no great value on youth, was a little mystified to see two oldsters soaking their aging feet in the Fountain of Youth at St. Petersburg, Fla. A reporter, assigned to the fountain to write a feature story, took one look at this picture taken by Evening Independent photographer Bob Preston and decided there was nothing more he could say. At the right is John F. Leavitt, 59, Lowell, Mass., and at the left is Thomas F. McCarthy, 73, Trenton, N. J.

Lubbock 'Assured' Of New Dog Pound; Plans To Be Drawn

Lubbock is going to have a new dog pound, one which will be a comfortable place for dogs to be kept and which will be a credit to the city.

That was the word given out Saturday by W. B. Yeager, Lubbock lumberman, who has taken the lead in a movement to construct a new pound after stories and pictures describing conditions at Lubbock's pound appeared in the Avalanche and Journal last week.

Yeager said he had talked with Mayor C. A. Bestwick, who promised action on the part of the city. He said a new site would be sought for the pound and the city engineer's department would draw plans for the new project.

Yeager, who made the first offer of a donation of materials for the project, said he had received numerous calls from people wanting to give something toward the project. Bob Gee, manager of Shamburger Lumber company, agreed to make a donation of lumber and wire as Yeager had done.

Members of the Lubbock painters union had announced they will donate materials and work for painting the pound, Yeager said.

Yeager has been appointed "unofficial" chairman of the project and anyone wishing to make donations of cash or materials may contact him at the Higginbotham-Bartlett Lumber company.

Body Of Former Shallowater Resident To Arrive Tuesday

Body of Mrs. J. W. Thomas, about 71, who died Friday afternoon at her home in San Diego, Calif., is to arrive in Lubbock at 4:10 a. m. Tuesday from the California city. Mrs. Thomas formerly resided at Shallowater.

Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday with Rix Funeral home in charge of arrangements.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Thomas is survived by two daughters, Mrs. E. B. Merrell and Mrs. J. C. Cox, both of Lubbock; three sons, George W., of Odessa; and Paul E. and John E., both of San Diego; 14 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

50 POUNDS LOST WITH BARCENTRATE

Many people have reported amazing results with this home recipe. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take just two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back.

Here is what Mrs. C. M. Earsh, 303 N. 12th St., McAllen, Texas, says about Barcentrate: "I want to tell you that I have lost 50 pounds since taking Barcentrate. I still want to lose 20 more pounds as I now weigh 167, a reduction from 217 pounds."

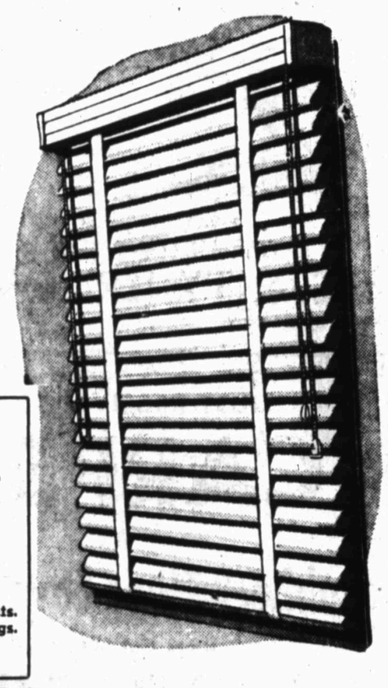

To lose weight the grapefruit juice way, get Barcentrate from your favorite druggist today.

School Census To Start Monday

which could not be discovered without extensive search.)

Confronted with by far the biggest job of any locality in the area, arrangements for the census in Lubbock Independent School District have been the most detailed.

Plans For Census Given

A. C. Jackson, district business manager, said 15 to 20 enumerators will take the Lubbock census under the direct supervision of A. F. Razor, district attendance officer.

The enumerators will wear badges by which they can be identified readily, Jackson said. Each will be assigned to a specified area.

They will seek the name of every child residing in the district who, on next Sept. 1, will be between the ages of 6 and 17 years.

The name should be reported, Jackson emphasized, even though the child may not be in school. The census likewise should include the names of Lubbock district children who may be away from home temporarily for any reason.

Every name on the census roll, he pointed out, will provide just that much toward the support of Lubbock schools which property owners will not have to pay. On the other hand, any name overlooked will cost the district whatever the apportionment may be, he said.

Identical information will be sought in the several hundred other independent and common school districts of the Lubbock territory Each district receives all the money for the scholastics within its boundaries.

Districts outside of Lubbock in Lubbock county and their scholastic populations last year were reported by County Superintendent Boyd as follows:

Slaton independent	1,197
New Deal independent	474
Frenship	503
Idalou	476
Roosevelt	440
Cooper	437
Shallowater	315
Estacado	86
Posey	79

In Lubbock independent district, the steady gains in scholastics from year to year are shown in the following figures reported by Jackson:

1947	10,114
1946	9,835
1945	8,903
1944	8,396
1938	6,339

The most significant feature of the figures is the showing that scholastics in Lubbock have nearly doubled within 10 years.

Scholastic populations by counties in the Lubbock territory, as shown by last year's census, follow:

Bailey	1,979
Borden	171
Crosco	731
Castro	1,099
Cochran	1,471
Crosby	2,185
Dawson	4,131
Dickens	1,744
Floyd	2,145
Haines	2,158
Garza	1,415
Hale	5,334
Hockley	4,456
Kent	668
Lamb	4,513
Lubbock	14,027
Lynn	2,734
Motley	1,035
Palmer	1,330
Parisher	7,666
Terry	3,319
Yoakum	889
Total	59,200

Mo., College of Osteopathy and Surgery. He practiced in Tyler until coming to Lubbock in March, 1939, when he became associated with the late Dr. P. W. Sistrand who was killed in a Dallas automobile accident in March, 1945. They founded the Porter-Sistrand clinic which Dr. Porter still operates under that name.

Meanwhile, no filings had been made Saturday for the Lubbock city election of Tuesday, April 6, to name a mayor and two city commissioners.

City officials reminded that that next Saturday is the deadline for filing for places on the ballot in this election.

While there have been no formal filings, Mayor C. A. Bestwick has announced he will be a candidate for a second term and E. K. Hufstedler, jr., and Clarence Whiteside are declared contenders for places on the City commission. All said they will attend to filings before the Saturday deadline.

Hufstedler and Whiteside are seeking commission places now held by Fred Childress and J. Ray Dickey, who have announced they will not seek reelection.

Warm Weather

a tornado which struck her farm home at Oakley, Eastland county, died at Ranger Saturday. Her son, Chris Pace, 47, was killed in the storm, which struck Thursday night.

The Trinity river, above flood stage at Dallas, was dropping slowly from its high of 40.2 feet.

Downstream it was rising. It had passed 22.9 feet at Trinidad where it will rise until next Saturday. At Rosser, it was above 26.15 feet, and will rise rapidly the next three days, the weather bureau said.

Flood Warnings Given

Warnings were out for stock and unprotected communities in lowlands. Bank full at Rosser is 26 feet. The weather bureau said a crest of 37 feet should reach Rosser Monday or Tuesday.

Elsewhere in the nation steady rains which pelted the midwest extended as far east as Pennsylvania and New York state. But temperatures in the eastern states were above normal.

The great plains and northern Rockies areas had lower than normal temperatures, but the south enjoyed weather in the 80's.

Major Commodities Make Small Gains

CHICAGO, Feb. 28 (AP)—Commodities and stocks closed out the month today in a quiet session featuring modest gains.

All grains, cotton futures and most stocks finished the day on the upgrade.

Although the sharp commodity price slump came to a halt on Friday, the 13th, commodity prices have not established much of a trend since then. Prices of virtually all food items are considerably lower at the end of the month than they were at the start.

The Associated Press weighted wholesale price index of 35 basic commodities advanced a small fraction of a point above yesterday to 186.38. A month ago the index was at 202.8 and a year ago 176.44.

Wheat closed ¼ to 1¾ cents a bushel higher. The May contract finished at $2.37-$2.38. Corn was 3 to 3¾ higher, May $2.20-$2.20½ and oats we ½ to 2⅝ higher, May $1.11¼-⅜. Soybeans soared six cents, March $3.54.

Cotton futures gained 10 to 50 cents a bale in New York and 15 to 45 cents in New Orleans.

executive committee when he was chairman in 1944-46, thirty-six "were favorable to President Truman."

Seay said one advocated repudiation of the President, and four did not advocate Truman's nomination, but stopped short of declaring opposition to him if nominated.

Should Stay With Party

Calvert said that "in order to be in a position to fight for our rights it may be necessary to send to Philadelphia an uninstructed delegation, thereby placing our representatives at the convention in a position to deal with any emergency that may arise and giving them the strength to fight our battles."

He said he was "thoroughly convinced that the only hope of salvation for the South lies in remaining in the Democratic party and fighting aggressively for party policy which meets the requirements and approval of the South."

Neville G. Penrose, Fort Worth committeeman, who had asked members to direct their comment to him if they desired, said Calvert made a "careful analysis" of party unrest and "issued an affirmative call for action" to party leaders.

"Spanking" Urged

He suggested Calvert's remarks indicated a lack of confidence in national party leadership which "seeks to dominate state party affairs and to make the state Democratic party subservient to the national will."

Other comment from committee members:

R. M. Kendrich, Brownfield: "I would like to see Mr. Truman, Mr McGrath and some others of our leaders 'spanked" but I want them spanked in our Democratic 'wood shed'.". He was in partial agreement with Calvert.

Jerome Sneed, jr., Austin: "Party difficulties should be thrashed out within the party." He suggested that President Truman decline the presidential nomination and that National Chairman J. Howard McGrath resign.

Position Criticized

Col. Albert Sidney Johnson, Dallas: Calvert's speech was important in that it directed attention to Governor Jester's action to persuade national party leaders to retreat from civil rights stand "Personally, I am expressly in opposition to Calvert's taking a position on two-thirds rule directly contrary to that of state Democratic executive committee and state Democratic convention."

C. V. Lyman, Midland: "Certainly feel the solid South should go to Philadelphia uninstructed and unhampered."

Comment other than from committee members included that of Jim Brinkley, president of the Young Democratic clubs of Texas who said: "I heartily agree with Mr. Calvert that an uninstructed delegation to Philadelphia will make a strong dent in President Truman's stand on civil rights."

Finnish Pact

fore, was whether Stalin's request was dictated exclusively by the wish to safeguard Soviet territory, especially Leningrad, or whether he has "something up his sleeve."

Finns Disturbed

So far, authoritative sources said, there have been no demands of any kind, such as that the Soviet army be allowed to occupy western Finland in the case of war or threat of war.

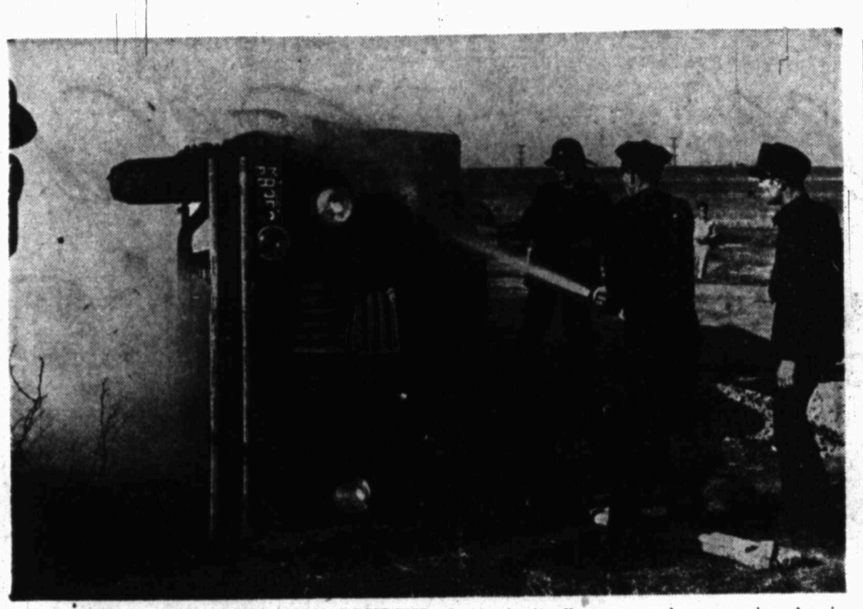

Leading Finns stressed that Finland hopes her social and political traditions will not be threatened, but they are disturbed by impending national elections in July because of what has taken place in Czechoslovakia and elsewhere just before elections in which Communists wished to cement control.

The Communists, merged with the Social Unity party in the Popular Democratic bloc, are the largest single party in parliament with 51 of the 200 seats. In recent municipal elections, however, their voting strength slumped markedly.

Every Finn realizes the nation faces a very important decision—whether to abandon the national policy of neutrality toward big power politics.

Heretofore all parliamentary groups except the Communists have expressed the wish to keep clear of the great powers and remain a neutral Scandinavian country.

Finns have experienced too many surprises from their big eastern neighbor to show much excitement over the latest developments.

SLATON MAN DIES IN HIGHWAY ACCIDENT—Lubbock city firemen are shown pouring chemicals on the burning gravel truck in which D. F. This program is scheduled for 7:30 o'clock, and will include recorded interviews with victims and their families. The local broadcast will be heard here through KFYO, ABC network station in this area.

Campaign Is Planned

Campaign headquarters are to be set up in Southwestern Public Service company building at Tenth and Ave. K. Worker reports are to be made at that location, the announcement said.

California Scientists Study Fossil Of Pigmy Elephant

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., Feb. 28 (U.P.)—After many months of bone-hunting on tiny Santa Rosa island near here, scientists are assembling the skeleton of a fossil pigmy elephant that lived a million years ago.

Phil Orr, curator of anthropology and paleontology at Santa Barbara Museum of Natural History, who is directing the project, said remains of the animal are found nowhere else in the world, and hence it is known as the Santa Rose dwarf mammoth of pigmy elephant.

Anthropologists say the animal, standing only six feet high, was a descendant of the 13-foot giant mammoth which inhabited this area while the Channel Islands were part of the mainland. When portions of the coastline sank, some of the elephants were stranded on Santa Rosa and became dwarfed from inbreeding and poor living conditions.

European Aid Funds

mon welfare and peace.

"This ideal must become the common currency of the peoples of the world."

The Senate begins debate on the recovery measure Monday. Chairman Vandenberg (R-Mich) of the committee laid out a time table calling for its approval by that body by March 15. The House will act later.

Vandenberg told reporters the recent Communist coup in Czechoslovakia, combined with the Russian demand for a military alliance with Finland, has increased the need for speed.

"It is obvious that if we are going to do anything that time is of the essence," he said.

Taft Seeks Cut

Senate opposition to the measure centers largely around the $5,300,000,000 aid total proposed for the 12 months beginning April 1.

This would be a ceiling under which the appropriations committees would work in finally determining the amount of money to be made available to help the 16 countries.

Senator Taft of Ohio, chairman of the Senate Republican policy committee, has said $5,300,000,000 is too much. He has set no alternative.

Passage Recommended

However, Senator Ball (R-Minn), leader of a group of 20 senators who have been critical of parts of the program, has urged that it be cut back to $3,500,000,000.

The committee's formal report recommending passage of the legislation said it is an "incontrovertible fact" that private interprise alone can't do the job of rebuilding Europe.

"There is no doubt, however," the report said, "that as the recovery program progresses, private enterprise will be able to play an increasingly important role."

Aid Called "Insurance"

The committee said it is "essential" that the program administrator encourage business to contribute initiative and capital to the plan.

The alternative of undertaking a recovery program, the committee said, might well be a tremendous and expensive expansion of American armament.

"Viewed in this light," the report said, "the cost of the European recovery program may be compared to the premium on an insurance policy. Certainly it would be far less expensive than if the United States were to stand alone in a chaotic world."

Vandenberg said that with the ERP measure on the floor, the committee will begin hearings March 10 on proposals to extend $570,000,000 in aid to China and to provide an additional $275,000,00 for military help for Greece and Turkey.

The body was transferred by ambulance last night from Plains Funeral home of Lubbock to Williams Funeral home in Slaton. Funeral services were pending arrival of relatives, the Slaton funeral home said.

but didn't know who called it.

A Rix Funeral home ambulance had been called and rushed the victim to Lubbock Memorial hospital where he was pronounced dead upon arrival.

The victim suffered a fractured skull and possibly other injuries, the hospital said.

The man's body was sprawled to the left of the center lane of the double-lane highway, the assistant district attorney was told.

Highway patrolmen said that the automobile was owned by one of the older youths or by his family.

The accident occurred less than eight hours after another fatal highway mishap about eight miles north of the city on the Lubbock-Plainview highway. David Frank Smith, 76, of Slaton was burned to death when a caliche-loaded dump truck he was driving swerved and overturned near the underpass south of Monroe. The vehicle caught fire and Smith was dead when removed from the smouldering cab of the truck.

Only a few minutes before the wrecks occurred, Capt. E. L. Posey of the Lubbock Highway patrol district had issued a plea to motorists and pedestrains to exercise caution in an effort to cut down on a steadily rising traffic accident toll in the South Plains and over the state.

Approximately 100 persons were killed on the South Plains in 1947 and the toll thus far in 1948 is keeping near pace with that of last year.

German Food Smuggler Foiled By First Warm Day In Months

FRANKFURT, Germany, Feb 28 (U.P.)—Methods used by German employes to smuggle food and other essentials out of American establishments are highly ingenious.

The newest trick was turned up in Wiesbaden, where military police, frisking one German, felt an "unnatural softness" around his chest.

They discovered the German had smeared more than two and one-half pounds of lard on his body. He might have got by, but the day he tried it was the first warm one in months.

BROAD RIPPLE, Ind. (U.P.) — Once there was only a little red schoolhouse for the village of Broad Ripple. Today, the "village" is a suburb of Indianapolis and they are building a schoolhouse for 1,500 students.

lives in Slaton. In 1916 he was married to Myrtle Robertson, a member of one of West Texas' pioneer families.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Myrtle Forrest; a daughter, Mrs. Mary Jo Copenhaver of Lubbock; two sons, S. S. Forrest, jr., of Lubbock and Edwin Forrest of Slaton; his father, and five grandchildren.

Active In Civic Affairs

Mr. Forrest was president of the Forrest Lumber company, with firms at Lubbock, Lamesa, Morton, Seminole, Snyder, Whiteface, Anton and Andrews.

At time of his death, he was chairman of the board of stewards of First Methodist church, chairman of the city water resources board created and appointed by Mayor C. A. Bestwick last fall, a director of the chamber of commerce, and a director of the Allied Building Credits, Inc., in addition to his position on the executive committee of the National Retail Lumber Dealers association and his business interests. He was a member of Lubbock Rotary club.

He was graduated from Seth Ward college at Plainview in 1912 and worked several years in Dallas for Sears Roebuck & Co.

In 1919 he entered the hardware business at Ralls and in 1923 entered the lumber business with his father in Slaton.

Had Lived At Lamesa

He moved to Lamesa in 1924 with the Forrest Lumber company. While at Lamesa, he was a charter member of the Rotary club and served as president. He also served as president of Lamesa Chamber of Commerce, president of the board of trustees of Lamesa independent School district and while there served as president and director of the state lumbermen's association. He was chairman of the board of stewards of the Lamesa First Methodist church and was among those directly responsible for erection of a new church building there. His services were recognized last year in ceremonies held when the church mortgage was paid.

He moved to Lubbock in 1943 and established a retail lumber and building material business here.

During the war years, he was a member of the Industry Advisory committee of the War Production board and served as an industry advisor to the Office of Price Administration. He received official recognition in the second war loan drive.

He founded the Forrest Foundation, a trust for benefit of charity, and was active in assisting churches and charities throughout the area. He and Mrs. Forrest donated a tract of 76 acres to Lamesa as a public park.

Mr. Forrest had suffered pains recently which were thought to be rheumatism and had made plans to go to Mayo clinic for the examination.

EARLY SNAKE NIPPED

ROBINSON, Ill. (U.P.)—No one has seen any robins yet this winter in Robinson, but everybody is sure spring is just around the corner. A green garter snake, even more of a rarity at this season than a robin, was found. The first harbinger of warmer weather had had its tail frozen off.

into the open on Jan. 21. He charged in parliament that Communists at Olomouc were implicated in mailing explosive parcels labeled as perfume to three cabinet ministers in an assassination plot last September.

Communists Accused

Drtina himself was one of the intended victims. Foreign Minister Jan Masaryk, a non-party man, and Vice Premier Peter Zenkl, an anti-Communist, were the others Drtina also had charged a Communist deputy, Jaroslav Sosnar, with being involved in collecting arms for Communists. Sosnar was obliged to resign a few days later to face the charges.

Drtina and Zenkl were among the 12 ministers who resigned eight days ago, an action which culminated in Gottwald's emerging with his Communist-packed government.

The police announcement, only version of the incident, concerning Drtina, said he was found outside his house this morning, his skull injured. The announcement said a note was found indicating he had tried to end his life by jumping out a window. Authorities said he was expected to live.

Brownsville Methods Of Teaching English Proves Successful

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., Feb. 28 (U.P.)—Put a group of Mexican students who can't speak English into a room with a teacher who can't speak Spanish—and they'll learn English faster than in ordinary language classes.

That's the verdict from Brownsville Junior College, which conducted a unique experimental English class. The college liked the idea so well it has put it in as a permanent classroom procedure.

Fourteen students, most of them from across the Rio Grande in Mexico, enrolled in the first class with Mrs. G. B. Winstead as instructor.

None of the students spoke English; Mrs. Winstead knew not a word of Spanish.

Except for a spelling book, no textbooks were used and for the first few days the students progressed haltingly, using gestures and groping for words to express themselves to Mrs. Winstead.

They discussed their everyday life, talked about the weather, and didn't bother too much about learning a set English vocabulary—but they never uttered a word that wasn't in English.

In the class was a 14-year-old Monterrey lad who wanted to learn English so he could handle correspondence for his family's business with United States firms.

There was also a Matamoros bartender, who'd like to serve drinks to his U. S. trade; a Matamoros telephone operator who wanted to handle international calls, and a tourist court owner in Matamoros who wanted to cater to U. S. customers.

Mrs. Winstead credits her class' rapid grasp of English partly to the students' desire to learn—as well as the teaching methods

"Every person in there had a specific reason for wanting to speak English," she said. "That's why they'd sit in the room three hours a day, reading United States magazines and talking only in English."

A CORNER TO AVOID

DETROIT (U.P.) — Melchester Jones won't be driving his car for a while but when he gets behind the wheel again there's one hoodoo street he is likely to avoid. Jones was arrested twice within six months for drunken driving—both times at the same intersection. The second arrest resulted in a 45-day jail sentence.

Best Methods To Combat Threat Of Blowing Soil In Area Given

Farmers on the High Plains have learned much in recent years about keeping their soil from blowing, and now, with the blow season on the doorstep, they are finding still another practice useful in keeping their soil intact.

Tom Lockwood, secretary of the Crosby Soil Conservation District, who farms near Ralls, believes that the sweep-and-chisel type plow is one of the most important weapons available to High Plains farmers in combatting wind erosion damage.

Acts Like Insulation

"In addition to leaving the litter on the surface to protect the soil, the chisel-sweep type plow controls weeds, helps rainfall sink into the ground, acts like insulation to keep the surface of the soil from getting so hot and prevents the loss of some of the moisture through evaporation," Lockwood said.

Lockwood uses the chisel-sweep type of plow regularly in land preparation as a part of his own soil conservation program.

The plow was designed for the wheatlands but it is coming into wide use in the row crop sections of the High Plains. The plows are particularly useful in sandy lands where surface protection from wind erosion is a "must."

In the last few years, a number of farmers in Lubbock, Crosby, Lynn, Hockley and adjoining districts have started using the sweep-chisel type of plow. The soil is left in cloddy condition, with residues on top so that rainfall is soaked up and kept in the soil, Lockwood explained.

"Up here where rainfall is limited, and where drouths are sure to occur just when we think we are doing fine and where the wind always blows in the spring, we have to pay attention to protecting the soil. We have to have some way to work our land in a hurry when we are caught short. This new type of plow has proved very useful," Lockwood continued.

Farmers in the plains section must design their farming operations to keep the cover on the surface. Cotton doesn't give much cover, so it is necessary to work in a residue-producing crop like combine milo or other sorghums. The land in danger of blowing should be kept in cover and in some areas the land is so subject to damage that it should be kept in permanent cover like grass. Fortunately, this type of land produces excellent grass yields in sand and little bluestem, sand and weeping lovegrass and others.

On cotton or sorghum land with little cover, Lockwood said, when the soil begins to blow, the chisel or sweep type plow can be used successfully to rough up the surface and halt the blowing. Following dry years when there is little residue, this form of treatment is important. When there is little moisture in the soil, listing will permit much of the soil moisture to escape, whereas the chisel or sweep plows do not stir the soil so much and leave litter and permit little of the soil moisture to get away.

Lockwood pointed out that High Plains farmers not so long ago thought that they had to turn under all the crop residues to get them out of the way. Then dry years came, the soil blew. Some farm areas were damaged so severely that it will take generations for the effects to disappear. Soil conservation districts and wind erosion districts were formed to help farmers in this crisis.

Increased Wheat Yields

The Soil Conservation Service with field technicians and through research at the experiment stations, particularly the Amarillo station, has assisted the districts in combatting soil blowing.

The Amarillo station officials learned that keeping the stubble on the surface not only saved the soil but increased wheat yields. In the last four years, wheat has yielded 11.4 bushels an acre where the stubble was maintained on the surface but only 9.8 bushels where the land was worked with a one-way and most of the stubble turned under.

Sixth Person Dies As Result Of Explosions In Arkansas

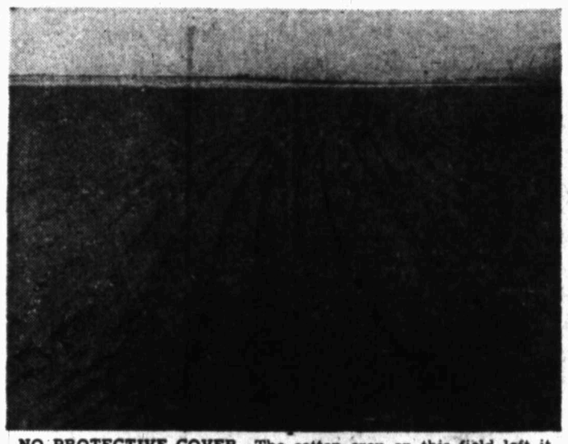

LITTLE ROCK, Feb. 28 (AP)—A sixth person died today as a result of two explosions and fires in rural areas of northeast Arkansas.

Mrs. Harley Ruddell, 30, of the Macks community, Independent county, died at a Little Rock hospital this morning.

Her husband and three-year-old daughter, Diane, died yesterday of burns suffered Friday night when a blast of tractor fuel and resulting fire destroyed their homes. Two other small children, Linda and Lloyd, were outside the house and escaped injury.

A similar tractor fuel explosion and fire near Pocahontas yesterday brought death to Mrs. William R. Wellborn, 25, and her two children, Betty Anne, 6, and William Jr., 4. Wellborn was burned but his condition was not serious.

In each tragedy the tractor fuel was being used to kindle a fire.

NO PROTECTIVE COVER—The cotton crop on this field left it with no protective cover for the blow season. It will be necessary to use a chisel or sweep plow before the blowing starts, and again as it becomes necessary to prevent blowing. Cotton should be followed by sorghums to get organic matter back into the soil.

PREVENTING EROSION—Chiseling this cotton land with a sweep-chisel plow helps prevent erosion by wind and also helps to hold rainfall. The direction of the plow is across the cotton rows.

STALKS ARE PROTECTION—This picture made on the Tom Lockwood farm near Ralls shows sorghum stubble that has been plowed with a sweep-type implement. The stalks have been left on the surface to protect the soil against cutting force of the wind and to hold the rainfall.

FOR STUBBLE MULCH PLOWING—This large sweep implement was developed at the Amarillo Soil Conservation Experiment station for stubble mulch plowing of wheat fields. This plow was built and is owned by the Lipscomb Wind Erosion district in the north Panhandle.

State Librarian To Speak Here

"Lubbock's Unique Opportunity" will be the subject of an address by Francis H. Henshaw, Texas state librarian, of Austin before Lubbock Public Library association at an adjourned session at 8 o'clock Monday night in Fellowship hall at the First Presbyterian church, Fourteenth and Ave. N.

HENSHAW

The meeting will be for all members of the association and any visitors wishing to attend, said Mrs. H. F. Godeke, president.

A short business session will precede the talk. Four directors are to be elected.

Film To Be Shown

A film on library service will be shown in connection with the address.

Henshaw has been state librarian since February, 1946. He is a graduate of Occidental college in Los Angeles and received library training at Los Angeles Public Library school and Columbia university School for Library Service. He has served with the Los Angeles public library and Queensborough public library in New York. He was librarian of the Berkshire Athenaeum in Pittsfield, Mass., 11 years. He was an associate in library service at Columbia university several sessions.

His professional activities have included committee work for the American Library association, presidency of the Massachusetts Library associalton and contributions to professional publications.

The meeting will be preceded by a dinner of the board of directors of the association at 6 o'clock at Hilton hotel.

Annual dues in the association may be paid at the meeting or mailed to Mrs. A. W. Young, 2014 Fifteenth.

District Meeting Of Credit Executives Is Planned Today

Among state officials who will be in Big Spring today for a district meeting of retail credit executives and bureau managers will be Miss Dessie Thomas of Galveston, president of the Lone Star Council of Credit Women, and Chas. T. Lux of Austin, secretary of the Retail Merchants association of Texas, according to information received here.

E. E. Singleton, manager of the Retail Merchants association at Beaumont and immediate past president of the Retail Merchants association of Texas, is to attend.

Lubbock credit executives were urged at a luncheon in Hotel Friday to attend the meeting. A joint meeting will be conducted this morning and bureau secretaries and credit executives will meet separately this afternoon.

Escaped Convict Arrested In Shooting Of Men At El Paso

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 28 (U.P.)—A 19-year-old escaped convict from El Paso, Tex., was arrested here today and charged with the murder of two advertising executives there Feb. 9.

He is Sam F. Smith, who sheriff's inspector Norris Stensland said escaped from an El Paso trusty gang about the time of the holdup slaying of Maurie Heaton, 42, Los Angeles, and R. D. MacNeil, 40, El Paso.

MacNeil was showing Heaton a view of El Paso from a scenic highway when a holdup man approached them. The assailant shot and killed Heaton and wounded MacNeil when they refused to leave their car. MacNeil died a week later.

Charlie McCarthy Is 'Real Person' To The Man Behind Voice

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD
Associated Press Staff Writer

No wonder you think of Charlie McCarthy as a real person. So does Edgar Bergen.

On their recent tour of Texas, the two held a news conference at a Dallas hotel, McCarthy didn't make his entrance at first. Bergen was there, greeting guests and looking a bit glum.

The whole Bergen troupe was present, including Ray Noble, moustached, British-born orchestra leader; Anita Gordon, the attractive singer from Corsicana, Tex., and Pat Patrick, who plays the effeminate Ercil Twing. Patrick is a long way from effeminate—he's a rugged six-foot-two with poundage to match. There were press agents at the conference and advance agents and various managers.

Talks About Dummy

One guest commented: "It's really something when you stop to think all these people depend on the freak voice of one man."

"How did you like Houston?" we asked Bergen.

"They treated me fine there," he said. "It's a wide-awake, up-and-coming place. If you go to sleep in Houston, you're likely to lose your pants."

Then Bergen began talking about what Charlie had said in Houston, Galveston and New Orleans. Charlie had been an imp in all three places and Bergen had been nervous the whole time. "I never knew what he would say next."

Photographers arrived. One of the managers went out and got Charlie, carrying him gently. Once in the arms of Bergen, Charlie threw wisecracks and whistled at the girls.

Bergen brightened considerably, too.

While the photographers took pictures, Charlie sang "Jesus Wants Me For A Sunbeam," and each time a flash bulb went off he jumped with mock fright.

"Make me up a dozen glossy prints, boy!" he leered at a middle-aged picture taker.

Then Charlie was taken away by the manager and one of the guests got into a conversation with Bergen. He told the ventriloquist he had seen the Bergen-McCarthy act at a dinner on the West coast last year.

"That was the dinner," said the guest, "that someone who wasn't supposed to bring Charlie in at all grabbed him by one leg and came trailing him into the banquet room."

Bergen remembered. A look of deep pain crossed his face.

"That was the worst thing that ever happened," he said. "That was really terrible."

You could see him suffering the event all over again, wincing at the humiliation Charlie had endured. This was Bergen without a stage mask, the fellow who thinks his dummy is alive."

Rites Held For Grandmother Of Former State Senator Moore

HOUSTON, Feb. 28 (AP)—Funeral services were held here today for Mrs. Adeline Weaver, 96, grandmother of former state senator Weaver Moore.

Mrs. Weaver, a native of Georgia and a resident of Gainesville, Tex., before moving to Houston 20 years ago, died last night at the home of a daughter, Mrs. W. W. Moore

Other survivors include a son, Lester Weaver of Austin.

Swedish Seamen Are Said Disappearing

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 28 (U.P.)—William W. Corcoran, former U. S. diplomat in Sweden, said today that so many Swedish seamen had "disappeared" along the Baltic coast that sailors now hate to make voyages there.

Corcoran, veteran consul at Gothenburg, said seamen were disappearing long before Sweden reportedly protested to Russia this week over loss of 18 men near Stolpmunde, Poland. They reportedly had witnesses Russian rocket experiments.

"The question is 'when will it happen outside the Baltic?'" Corcoran said. "What will happen when an American ship disappears, and what will be done about it?"

Corcoran was called a "master spy" for piecing together information to uncover Nazi rocket experiments at Peenemunde, Germany, during the war.

FRESHMAN LEADS SCORERS

Cotton Center Sextet Upsets Whiteface For Title, 35 To 31

COOPER, Feb. 28 (Special) — The Cotton Center High school girls sprang a major upset in the District 18 Girls' Basketball tournament, which ended here in the Cooper High school gym tonight, beating the highly-favored Whiteface girls, 35-31, in an overtime period.

And the victory was an individual triumph for 14-year old freshman Ruth Cannon who not only scored the winning two goals in the overtime stanza, but also piled up 26 of her team's 35 points. The slim, poised first-year student was all over the court, as she sparked her team to victory. During the five games Cotton Center played, Ruth scored 103 points and was the outstanding player.

Score Is Tied

Cotton Center had to come from behind in the game, after trailing for almost three periods, and when they finally knotted the count, it was Whiteface that gave ground first.

The Whiteface team, confident, sure of victory and polished, jumped into a 7-6 first quarter lead and then stretched the margin to 16-11 at the half. This lead seemed more than adequate, with the Cotton Center girls apparently unable to find the range.

Then the eventual winners rallied. Midway through the third canto, the Cotton Center team deadlocked the score at 20-all. The lead switched back and forth, with the third stanza ending in a 26-26 tie.

First one team, then the other, took the lead in the fourth and supposedly final period until, with about a minute left, Whiteface trailed, 31-29.

Cotton Center Takes Lead

Bonnie Lewis, who played good ball throughout the tourney, knotted the count at 31-all and seconds later the regular playing period ended.

Ruth Cannon got the tip in the overtime and sped down the court for a quick goal that put Cotton Center in the lead. Whiteface stormed back, took three shots at the Cotton Center goal and missed. Ruth got the ball again, sneaked out from under two guarding Whiteface players and shot, the ball again falling through the netting.

That was the game, Whiteface couldn't score again and a new champion was crowned.

In the game for third place, Roosevelt High school swamped New Deal, 38-16. The game never was close and New Deal was held scoreless until 7:42 of the contest. From that point they were held scoreless again until midway through the third period.

Bertha Jones led the winners with 22 points, while Marie Wales and Jewel Dean Boyd each scored five points for the losers.

Raider Cagers To Meet Buffs

The 1948 basketball season may not end tomorrow night in Canyon for the Texas Tech Red Raiders, but the Border Conference race will come to a close as the Hub City team meets the Buffaloes of West Texas State Teachers college.

The Raiders, currently eyeing an invittion to the NAIB tourney in Fort Worth Friday and Saturday, will have their hands full beating the Buffs on their home court. A study of the records shows that Tech has not been adept at winning away from home and particularly in Canyon.

Coach Polk Robison, far from delighted over the prospect of closing the season against West Texas, realizes that Gus Miller's Buffs never are stronger than on the home court. The rangy West Texas team caused plenty of trouble before bowing to the Raiders in Lubbock and they could make Tech's final conference game an unhappy one.

Coach Robison probably will stick with the starting five that has looked so good at times this year. That means that Gene Gibson and Jay Kerr will be in the forward posts, Don Grove will be at the pivot post and Ardis Barton and Wimpy Hill will be in the guard slots.

Rebound Shot In Last Minute Gives Dimmitt Title

Cats Beat Sudan, 28-26

CANYON, Feb. 28 (Special) — Lonnie Rice of Dimmitt tipped in a rebound shot in the closing minute of play here tonight to hand the Dimmitt Bobcats a narrow 28-26 victory over the Sudan Hornets in a thrilling climax to the Class A Region 1 basketball tournament.

Until Rice tapped the ball through the netting the Hornets had held the upper hand in the second half and appeared to be on the verge of victory. But the championship slipped through their fingers and Dimmitt successfully stalled for the short time remaining.

Earlier in the tourney tonight Levelland took third place with a one-sided 50-36 win over Perryton. Levelland had fallen to Dimmitt, 43-24, in the semi-final play in the afternoon, while Sudan was beating Perryton, 30-26.

Tonight's defeat sent the Hornets back to Sudan with the identical record for 1948 that they had in 1947. Each year found the Sudan quintet ending in the runner-up positions. At that they fared better than Levelland, the defending champions, who had beaten Sudan in the district tourney.

Dimmitt Takes Lead

Dimmitt jumped into the lead and held through 15 of the first 16 minutes of play, although the score was close throughout.

Finally, just before the half closed, Forward Jim Eddins took aim from the side and let fly with the ball, the meshes parting for two points and a 13-12 lead for the Hornets at half-time.

Sudan came back after the intermission to imitate the Bobcats, holding the lead through the entire third period, which ended with the Hornets ahead, 22-21.

Seconds after the final canto opened, Junior Fulfer of Dimmitt drove in for a crip shot to send the Bobcats into a 23-22 lead.

Bouldin Ties Score

Harlan Pickett of Sudan drove in to give Sudan a 24-23 margin, then Dimmitt hooked the nets for a field goal and picked up a free toss for a 26-24 lead.

Bob Bouldin took matters into his own hands, driving in to score a crip shot that knotted the score with three minutes left.

Fulfer, for the victors, had 11 points and Eddins, for the losers, had 10, to top all other scorers.

Wise, Hart Pace Lobos

This was the first championship for Dimmitt since 1944, when Coach John Blaine, in his first year as coach, directed the Bobcats to victory. Shortly after that he was made superintendent of schools and the Bobcats let victory elude them.

Blaine resigned this year to coach again and, in his first season back in the harness, drove the Bobcats to another championship.

W. A. Wise and Bobby Hart, each with 10 points apiece, led the Levelland Lobos to victory over Perryton in the third-place championship game. This struggle, pitting football winners of Districts 1 and 2-A respectively against each other, was a runaway for the Lobos and the outcome never was in doubt.

Basketball is still holding more than its own on the South Plains, with the TAAF tournament in progress at Abernathy, the District 18 tournament ended at Cooper, the Class B tourney completed at Texas Tech and the Class A race out of the way at Canyon. So, while interest is at fever pitch, here are a few notes picked up at random.

Jim Middleton, coach of the Carey Cardinals, who last night won the Class B tourney in Tech gym, was thrilled over the uphill fight his team staged to win. He had every right to be thrilled, for the Carey team now goes to the state Class B tourney in Austin and that recalls many happy memories to the still-youthful coach.

Middleton, back in 1937, was playing for this same Carey High school team. At that time there was no division among schools, such as is now the case. So the Cardinals were not restricted to playing in Class B. And what happened? The unheralded, unsung Cards came through with victory over everything in sight to become state champions. That can't happen now, but Carey could become state Class B champs, which would not be slight honor in itself.

Garland Head of Spearman, former Texas Tech basketball star, was taking in the tourney here with a lot of interest. The Spearman team was defeated by Stratford by three points, or else Garland's club would have been playing in the Hub City.

Garland said that the Spearman-Stratford game was the only one in which he hoped his opponents would make every free throw. Seems that Stratford attempted nine charity tosses, missed them all, but tipped them in for two points instead of one. And it beat Spearman! The former Techsan said that he was looking forward to football season and that he'd be back with another good floor club next winter.

Billy Wayne Frazier of Carey, the scintillating forward on the Cardinal quintet, was the top scorer on the Class B regional winners. Billy Wayne picked up 14 points in the first game, 11 in both the second and third and 10 points in the fourth game for an average of 11.5 points per game. In addition, he played a good defensive game and it was hard to understand how he was kept off the all-tourney team.

The Carey youth, in addition to being top scorer for his team in each tourney game, has a remarkable background. He is an orphan and keeps house for two uncles in Carey. Only 14 years old, he takes the place of wife and mother by keeping house for the uncles, washing dishes, cleaning, doing all the cooking and generally being busy all the time. Moreover, he has a good school record. A boy like that might make a college coach wonderful material.

Joe and Jack McKay of Whiteface continue to be shining examples of what the high school coach dreams about at night. And L. S. Salser, Whiteface coach is not having any nightmares with these boys around. They consistently have been the sparkplug of the Antelope court crew and together form a scoring threat that is hard to beat. Whiteface beat Kress in the Class B tourney, 35-30, and the Brothers McKay scored 30 of the 35 Whiteface points. That was only par for them.

If you want to see LaVern Roach fight here this Summer, why don't you good sport fans take a minute of your time to write him a personal note? Write him at Maplewood, New Jersey, and tell him that you understand there is a possibility of his fighting here. Tell him how much you want to see him and how much you hope he will accept the offer. After all, he is a South Plains boy, he wants to please the folks here and we want to see him. Don't put it off; write him today.

Ralph Earhart Said Ineligible For Red Raider Track Squad

Ralph "Ears" Earhart, halfback on the Texas Tech football team from Lefors, Saturday announced that he had been declared ineligible for Red Raider track competition, since he had signed a contract to play professional football for the Green Bay Packers.

Earhart, a slight, hard-running back for Tech, signed the pro contract, but has not yet received any money and the contract has not been turned in to the commissioner of the National Football League.

Despite the fact that the contract has not been recorded, Earhart was informed that the act made him a professional and he will be lost to the Red Raider track team. He completes his education in June.

Earhart is the fifth member of the Border Conference champions to sign professional football contracts.

Lawson Little Paces Florida Link Open

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Feb. 28 (AP)—Lawson Little, who is no johnny-come-lately to the golf tour, tonight had established himself as the man to beat for the St. Petersburg open title.

Little, former national open, national amateur and British amateur champion, shot his third straight sub-par round of the tourney today, a 35-33—68. He previously had 68 and 69 giving him a 54-hole score of 205.

Ben Hogan, the little Hershey, Pa., pro who started off with a 63 and led through the first 36 holes, went one over par with 73 today. He dropped into third place tie with George Schoux of Mamaroneck, N. Y., at 208.

Norman Von Nida of Sydney, Australia, slipped up into second place with 207, two strokes behind Little. Von Nida was two strokes under par on each nine today for 34-34—68.

BADMINTON ENTRIES MAILED

WACO, Feb. 28 (U.P.)—Over 1500 entries have been mailed out to contestants in the National Badminton Association tournament in Baylor university's Rena Marrs McLean gymnasium April 1-3, it was announced today.

Hurler Claims Salary Cut

Hubs Sign Fielder; Mills Is Holdout

One signed contract has been returned to the Lubbock Hubber baseball club and one player has indicated that he would be a holdout, as Manager Jackie Sullivan departs for spring training camp in Dallas today.

Owner Mrs. Sam Rosenthal said last night that Frank H. Boothe, an outfielder with the Owensboro, Ky., club of the Kitty League, had returned his signed contract. Royce Mills, are relief hurler and utility man, has returned his contract unsigned.

Boothe, rated as one of the top minor league players and a home-run artist, hails from Cuero, Tex. He was bought outright by the late Sam Rosenthal during the winter meeting of the National Association of Professional Baseball leagues.

Mills, caliming that he was taken a $50 a month cut in salary, has balked at signing his contract. He is employed by the Lubbock Packing company and says that, unless he is offered a bigger salary by the Hubbers, he will not play baseball this year.

Contracts were sent out recently by George Schepps, president of the Dallas Rebels of the Texas League, who is supervising business arrangements for the Hubbers until Larry Larsen arrives here. Larsen is due in Lubbock tonight on a late plane.

Primm Quint In TAAF Semifinal

ABERNATHY, Feb. 28 (Special) —Primm Drug's quint, defending TAAF cage champions of Region 2, moved into a semifinal berth in this year's pennant chase tonight by scoring a 35-22 victory over the Plainview Jaycees.

In two remaining games played at the Abernathy school gym tonight, Anton downed the Earth Lions club, 44 to 33, and Thomas Tinkers scored an easy 61-21 win over Crawford Electric.

Final Game Wednesday

Tournament play will be resumed Monday night with Spade vs. Hoyt, Plains Gassers vs. Derrick and Anton vs. Thomas Tinkers. Primm Drug plays the Spade-Hoyt game winner Tuesday night. The other semifinal tilt on that date will pit the winner of the Plains-Derrick game against the victor in the Anton-Thomas tilt.

The Region 2 final will be unreeled here Wednesday night beginning at 9 o'clock. The winner will earn the right to enter the state TAAF cage meet in Port Arthur, March 12 and 13.

A trophy will be presented the state champs. Each member of that team will receive a gold miniature basketball. A trophy and silver miniature basketballs will go to the runners-up. Trophies also will be given all other teams entered in the state meet.

Billings Is High Scorer

Anton's Ed Billings garnered 18 points to lead his mates to victory against the Lions club five from Earth. That was the highest number of points scored by an individual player in last night's games Earl Paris, with 11 points, led the Earth team's scoring. Half-time score was Anton 18, Earth 16.

Thomas Tinkers widened their 29-12 half-time lead over Crawford Electric to cop the game, 61-21, with Gene Hardey leading the victors with 12 points. Dingy Davis of Crawford garnered eight points for high-point honors on his team for the night.

Plainview Jaycees were held scoreless by Primm Drug in the third quarter of the third and last game last night. At half-time, Primm held a narrow 14-13 margin. Ray Warden and Jake Geron each got 10 of their team's 35 points. Wendell Morris racked up 11 of the 22 points scored by the Jaycees.

State Schoolboy Cage Tourney Will Open Thursday In Austin

(By The Associated Press)

Three brackets of eight teams each were completed Saturday night for the state schoolboy basketball tournament opening Thursday at Austin.

Temple licked Brownwood 26-24 and Milby (Houston) downed Baytown 46-34 to complete the bracket in the Class AA division. Going to the state tournament will be:

Amarillo, Bowie (El Paso), Denton, Crozier Tech (Dallas), Temple, Lufkin, Milby and Harlingen.

University Of Texas Longhorns Down Mustang Quint, 47 To 45

AUSTIN, Feb. 28 (AP)—The Texas Longhorns resorted to stalling tactics in the closing minutes of play to edge past Southern Methodist, 47-45, for their eighth Southwest conference victory here tonight.

Texas led throughout the early stages of the game and had a 27-21 halftime margin. In the second half SMU started cutting down the gap.

BOBBY LAYNE
Signs With Bears

Layne Signs Pro Grid Contract

AUSTIN, Feb. 28 (AP) — Bobby Layne, fabulous passing star for the University of Texas, today said he had signed a three-year contract with the Chicago Bears of the National Professional Football league—thus spurning a $77,000 offer from the Baltimore Colts of the rival All-America conference.

Layne, an outstanding baseball pitcher, also protected his final season of eligibliity with the Longhorn nine.

The blond specialist of the Texas "T" said he signed with the Bears because they were a better team.

Terms Not Revealed

George Halas, owner of the Bears, did not reveal terms of the contract, but it was learned it would net Layne within $10,000 of the figure offered by the Colts

A source here said this was based on the heavy income tax Layne would have had to pay on the first year salary and bonus offered by the Colts.

James H. Stewart, executive secretary of the Southwest conference, said today he had checked the rules of eligibility closely to determine if Layne would be able to play baseball this spring.

Layne Said Eligible

"A new ruling by the conference faculty committee says that any player who signs a professional contract becomes ineligible immediately. However, this does not become effective until July 1 of this year.

"Under the present rule, a player who signs a contract but receives no renumeration, is eligible.

"On the basis of this first study, in my opinion Layne is eligible to compete in athletics this spring."

Team Is Considered

"Money's not everything," said Bobby. "You've got to take other things into consideration. I think the Bears are a better ball club. They will be a better team to play for because they are well-established. You know you're going to be with good players always. You can always be sure of it."

Chicago already has such great quarterbacks as Sid Luckman and Johnny Lujack of Notre Dame.

Layne last season switched to the T formation, which is used by the Bears, after playing all his career until that time in the single wingback. He took to the formation like a duck to water and led Texas to 10 victories out of 11 games, including a 27-7 win over Alabama in the Sugar bowl

Frazier Paces Card Quint To Region 1 Class B Crown

By JOE KELLY
Avalanche-Journal Sports Editor

Two dead shots by Forward Billy Wayne Frazier midway through the fourth quarter gave the Carey Cardinals the Class B regional tournament championship last night in the Texas Tech gym, the victors dethroning the 1946 State Champion Stratford Elks, 27-26, in as thrilling a high school final as could be played.

The closing quarter rally by the victors climaxed an uphill fight throughout the game, which had found the Stratford quintet leading almost all the way. And in the final four minutes of the struggle, Stratford gained the ball only three times, with Substitute Forward Marion Brannan finding the range for one field goal.

The cheering, almost delirious Carey team and supporters raced out on the floor after the game, hugging the players and Coach Jim Middleton. It was a wild scene, with the disheartened Stratford crowd streaming quietly for the doors.

Stratford Five Rallies

Carey started like a winning team, with Forward Dewey Nance, an outstanding player, hitting the nets in less than a minute. He was followed to the scoring line by Guard Bob Doss and Frazier, who was almost unstoppable.

Faced with a six-point lead, Stratford went to work. Guard Billy Malone connected with a short set shot, followed with another longer set shot and was backed up by Forward Dale Knight, who tipped in a follow shot, which tied the score. Center Ken Pemberton hooked a crip shot and then sank two charity tosses to give Stratford a first quarter lead of 10-6.

Nance and Pemberton traded two field goals apiece, but Pemberton added another before B. T. Williams sank a free throw to make the score 15-10 midway through the second stanza. Frazier and Pemberton exchanged buckets before the half ended with Stratford holding a 17-12 margin at the intermission.

Stratford returned to the court after the half and started to bear down, turning on the pressure to take a nine-point, 23-14 lead halfway through the third period.

Guard Joe Myers sank a set shot, then tickled the nets with a free throw, while Frazier ended the period with a follow-in bucket that reduced the Elks' lead to 23-19 as the third canto ended.

Then came the revolution. Nance hooked a field goal to make the score 23-21, but Knight dropped in a free throw on Frazier's foul to five Stratford a 24-21 margin at 2:20 of the last period.

That set the stage for Frazier's one-man rebellion. The impressive forward, after Nance had hooked a one-hand shot to make the score 24-23, jumped in the air, twisted and tossed the ball with both hands for the goal that put Carey ahead for the first time since the first period, 25-24.

Frazier's Shot Connects

Frazier connected on a set shot 25 seconds later to make the margin 27-24 and the Cardinals began to stall.

With 30 seconds remaining in the tilt, Brannan dropped a set shot through the hoops to reduce the lead to 27-26. It was only the third point that Stratford could score in the last 12 minutes of the game.

But time still remained to be played and, when a Carey player kicked the ball out of bounds under his own basket, Stratford still had a chance. The desperate Malone aimed a shot, but it was just off and with time running out rapidly, Carey got the ball again. And that was the game, the Cardinals still holding possession as the final buzzer sounded.

Ken Pemberton of Stratford was high scorer in the game with 16 points on six field goals and four free throws, while Frazier had 10 points for the winners, all on field goals. Nance collected nine points.

For Coach Middleton it was a significant victory, since he had been a member of the 1937 Carey basketball team that had won the state championship before the present divisions of Triple A, Double A and B districts.

Coaches and tournament officials selected an all-tourney team after the last game, with Stratford claiming three positions, Claude two and Shallowater, Carey and Farwell each getting one player on it.

The team follows:

Derrell Murphy, Shallowater, D. M. Gilley and Don Bagwell, Claude; Dewey Nance, Carey; Bobby Hart, Farwell; and Dale Knight, Kenneth Pemberton and Bernard Walters, Stratford.

Earlier in the day Stratford advanced through the semi-finals with a 40-36 victory over Claude, in which Knight scored 14 points for Stratford and Gilley scored 11 for the losers.

Carey went into the finals by scoring a 46-31 victory over Whiteface. George Burns and Frazier scored 11 points apiece for Carey, with Joe McKay taking scoring honors for Whiteface with 14 points.

Raider Quintet Gets Invitation To NAIB Tourney

FORT WORTH, Feb. 28. (AP)—One team has been selected and three others will be chosen early next week to contest for the Texas place in the NAIB basketball tournament at Kansas City March 8-13.

Abilene Christian college, unbeaten champion of the Texas conference, already has accepted an invitation to play in the Texas division NAIB tournament at Will Rogers Memorial coliseum here next Friday and Saturday nights. The Lone Star conference champion and an independent team will be given berths in the tournament while West Texas State Teachers or Texas Tech will represent the Border conference.

Tech To Get Bid

The Buffaloes and Red Raiders, two vastly improved quintets that have tangled with teams from nearly every section of the nation the past three months, will wind up their schedules with a Monday night game on the West Texas State Teachers College court at Canyon.

Tech currently enjoys a full-game lead and can make it a two-game margin by defeating West Texas. However, Gus Miller, coach of the Buffs and chairman of the Texas district of the NAIB, said today that regardless of the outcome of Monday night's game, he will offer the berth in the Fort Worth meet to the Raiders.

Games Monday night in Commerce and San Marcos and a Tuesday night tilt in San Antonio will determine the Lone Star conference champion. East Texas, owning the best record of any senior college team in Texas, and Sam Houston State's red-hot Bearkats, are running neck-and-neck in the title race. North Texas might figure in a championship tie by trimming East Texas S.T.C. Monday night in Commerce. Sam Houston plays Southwest Texas Monday night and Trinity Tuesday night.

Miller will be here Wednesday to hold the draw and make other arrangements for the tournament. The first two teams will clash at 7:30 p. m. Friday. The other two will play at 9 p. m.

RED RAIDER SQUAD TO VOTE ON NAIB INVITATION TODAY

The Red Raider basketball squad will meet with Coach Polk Robison sometime this afternoon to vote on whether Texas Tech will accept the invitation to the Fort Worth tourney.

Indications last night were that the squad would approve acceptance of the invitation, with athletic officials, although mainly opposed to the proposition, stringing along with the basketball players.

Approval Is Needed

Even if the squad does vote acceptance of the invitation, and athletic officials respect their vote, the matter will have to be approved by the Athletic Council. Dean W. L. Stangel is chairman of the council.

The Raider court season, which ends tomorrow night against West Texas State Teachers College in Canyon, has been only fair, with nine Border Conference victories and six losses. In outside competition the Raiders sport a five and five record, with victories over Hardin-Simmons twice, McMurry, Texas Christian and Hardin. Losses have been to Texas, Rice, Texas Christian twice and North Texas State Teachers college.

Argentine Entry Wins By Nose

Talon Is Winner Of Santa Anita Event

ARCADIA, Calif., Feb. 28 (AP) —Talon, dappled gray charger from the Argentine, won the Santa Handicap today On Trust in a driving finish and added $102,500 to his life-time earnings.

Double Jay was third. The time for the mile and one quarter race was 2:03 2-5.

It was a photo finish.

Talon was dead last out of the gate and trailed around the first turn and all the way down the back stretch, but Eddie Arcaro gave him the whip as he started around the far turn. The six year old gelding began to pass horses in quick succession. As they hit the stretch turn On Trust was in front by three quarters of a length, with Class Day second and Double Jay third.

Talon, moving very fast, had moved into fourth place, and from there to the finish he went like a very good sprinter starting a six furlong dash. He barely nipped On Trust, who went gamely to the finist under the urging of Johnny Longden.

Talon paid $6.90, $4.10 and $3.10; On Trust $4.40 and $3.20 and Double Jay $4.60.

On Trust got $20,000 for the second spot; Double Jay $10,000, and Elpis, William Helis' stretch-running mare, $5,000 for fourth place.

Sixteen Teams To Participate In Junior College Cage Meet

COLLEGE STATION, Feb. 28 (AP)—The state junior college basketball championship will be at stake at Texas A&M college when 16 teams begin a three-day tournament Monday.

Track Meet Set Here April 17

150 Schools To Get Bids

First annual "South Plains Relays" meet will be conducted at Tech stadium April 17, officials of sponsoring organizations announced here last night, with 150 high schools in West Texas and eastern New Mexico slated to receive invitations early in March.

The rules of the Texas Interscholastic league will apply to all contests and teams, officials said, but all schools will compete in one class. Object of the meet, sponsored by the Lubbock Public schools, Texas Technological college, Lubbock Chamber of Commerce and City Recreation department, is "to foster among the public schools of West Texas and eastern New Mexico inter-school competition in track."

Deadline Is Set

Entries must be returned to the City Recreation department not later than Saturday, April 10, it was announced.

A full schedule of track, relay and field events has been carded for the program, including a medely relay consisting of one 440 lap, two 220 laps and one 880 lap. The regular events—100-yard dash, 220-yard dash, 440-yard dash, 880 and 120 high hurdles—are included in the slate.

Other relay features will be the 880-yard relay, 440 relay and one-mile relay.

Field events will include the pole vault, running high jump, 12-pound shot put, running broad jump and discus throw.

Rules Are Given

Rules and regulations announced by meet officials restrict the number of contestants entering from each school to three men in each event, except in the relays which require four. Only one team from each school can compete in each relay event. No contestant will be allowed to compete in more than three track events, including the relays, and not more than a total of five events.

Trophy awards will be made to the winning school in the meet, as well as the second place team, high point individual and winning relay teams. First, second and third place winners in all events will be presented medals.

Preliminaries will be held starting at 9 o'clock Saturday morning, April 17, officials said, with the finals at 1:15 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

HEALDTON, Okla., Feb. 28 (AP)—When Oklahoma's pioneers named their towns with western humor they didn't know how the state high school basketball tournaments would bring the names together. One game last night: Loco 27, Zanies 21. Battiest drew a bye.

Exposition Feature Banned

AAU Issues Warning On Open Dash Event

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 28. (AP)—The open 100-meter dash at the Southwestern Expsition track and field meet in Fort Worth next month is frowned upon by the National AAU and high school and college coaches have been warned to keep their sprinters out of it, Erich Pohl, registeration chairman of the South Texas AAU, said today.

Pohl said the event is different from those in the high school and college classifications because it is open to anyone.

Pohl revealed that he had returned from Chicago where he conferred with J. Lyman Bingham, assistant to the president of the National AAU, and that Bingham contacted J. Porter of the National Scholastic association and Tug Wilson of the National Collegtaie Athletic association. Pohl said both agreed they would notify high school and college coaches in Texas to keep their sprinters out of the race since it was not sanctioned by the AAU and would render any competitor participating ineligible for future AAU or Olympic competition.

The Southwestern Exposition meet officials need to apply to the AAU for sanction, said Pohl. The reason is that coaches and others who are not eligible under AAU rules might compete in the event and make those competing with them ineligible. Also, the AAU has certain limitations on prizes. The AAU must approve the race or contestants can not participate in its events, which include the Olympics.

At Fort Worth, R. D. Evans, director of the meet, said the number of entries would determine the 100-meter special event, an event of long standing in the exposition meet. He also said he had asked George Whitman, local AAU director, to check into the situation.

Ace Freeman To Battle Flores

Ace Freeman of New York City and Salvador Flores of Mexico City tangle in the main event at Sled Allen's Wrestling arena Wednesday night.

Hy Sharman of Salt Lake City, an old favorite with local fans, will grapple with Dory Funk, a very capable opponent from Hammond, Ind., in the semifinal go.

The prelim will pit Gorilla Poggi of Argentina against Pierre LaBelle of Portland, Ore.

Wednesday night's feature event will see a pair of grapplers who have a reputation for clean wrestling, but neither is noted for what might be a serene disposition, so short tempers might change an otherwise easy-going match into a regular free-for-all. The tussle will be a two-out-of-three falls event, with a one-hour time limit.

Sharman's debut here will draw lots of interest because of the grappler's reputation for rough-and-tumble tactics. Funk is expected to add to the merriment. It will be two out of three falls, forty-five minute time limit.

Poggi and LaBelle in the prelim is certain to be a rugged demonstration, since the Argentine Gorilla is not expected to spare any holds in his match with the Portland expert. This will be a one-fall match, twenty-minute time limit.

Tickets will be on sale from 9 o'clock Wednesday morning until five that night.

Second Ring Death Probed

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 28 (AP)—A 20-year-old negro boxer with a reportedly faulty heart lay dead today as officials pressed inquiry into the fight game's second professional fatality within a week.

Elroy De Catus, Los Angeles lightweight making his first pro start, collapsed and died in the ring 10 seconds before the end of the four and last round of a bout he was winning against Fred Herrera, 20, of Jerome, Ariz.

Passed Physical Exam

It was a $75-apiece preliminary scrap last night at Hollywood Legion stadium, and came exactly one week after the fatal knockout of Sam Baroudi in Chicago.

First post-mortem examination of De Catur disclosed he suffered from an acute dilation of the heart, Dr. Frederick Newbarr, chief autopsy surgeon, reported.

De Catur's boxing license, issued Jan. 23, showed that he passed a physical and eye examination Jan. 12.

Hollywood police homicide detestives joined with John Home of the Legion's stadium committee, and Post Commander J. P. Bradley in an investigation of the fatality.

Died In The Ring

De Catur collapsed after a light flurry of blows and never regained consciousness. A stadium physician administered artificial respiration for 20 minutes. The youth died in the ring.

Herrera, the opponent, said: "He never showed any signs of being hurt. When I hit him with a left and then a right, I stepped back because I thought he was going to come out of the clinch fighting. I didn't know what to think when he hit the floor."

Largest whale ever harpooned weighed 294,000 pounds, according to records.

Three Knockouts And Two TKOs Feature Plainview Boxing Show

PLAINVIEW, Feb. 28 (Special)—Three knockouts and two technical knockouts featured a 12-bout fistic show presented here last night under auspices of the Plainview Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Twenty-four South Plains and Panhandle amateur ring artists appeared on the program.

James Scores Win

Gene James of Lubbock, regional Golden Gloves titlist and the only local entry, took a decision from Clinton Williams, 192, of West Texas State Teachers' college. James weighed 186.

Wrist watches were awarded the winners. Gold-filled boxing gloves were given as consolation awards.

Petersburg fighters took the honors, scoring three wins, one by a knockout, another by a TKO, the third by decision. Only out-of-stater to score a win was Joe Weaver of Phoenix, Ariz., who scored a technical knockout over Don Childers, 151, of Dalhart. Both are students at Wayland college.

Other Results

Fight results: Shorty Kirk, Petersburg, knocked out James Forbes, 129, Brownfield; Gotto Petty, Wayland college, decisioned Roy Seany, 125, Wayland; Joe Weaver, Phoenix, scored TKO over Don Childers, 151, Dalhart; Ted Livesy, 126, Lockney, decisioned Elisco Garrido, 123, El Paso; Dwayne Vaughn, 140, Tahoka, decisioned Hollis Black, 140, Petersburg; Billy Mills, 148, Brownfield, decisioned Clarence Byrd, 145, Petersburg; G. Forty New Industries Begin Operations In Texas Cities

AUSTIN, Feb. 28 (AP)—Forty new industries began operations in 21 Texas cities during January.

The Texas Employment commission said this reflected "natural advantages of power, climate, raw materials and markets." The largest of the new industries were a garment factory at Vernon and an air conditioning factory at Corsicana, each employing 200 persons.

Other new industries included a sportswear factory at Dublin with 41 workers; an electric generator factory at Lubbock, 20; a ladies coat factory at Dallas, 26; metal bottle cap concern, Dallas, 22; work gloves manufacturing plant, Jefferson, 68; jute goods factory at Galveston, 30.

The new industries will give employment to a total of 757 persons.

Plains Softball Loop To Meet Here Friday

South Plains Softball league will hold a meeting at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening at Radio station KSEL, at which time the league schedule will be prepared.

Tentative plans call for initial games to get underway on or about April 15, continuing each night, Monday through Friday with a Shaugnessy playoff being staged for the pennant.

The Baldridge Bakery team will be back this season to defend the title it won last year. Other teams entered in the league are Thomas Jewelers, Blue Bonnet-Sunbeam laundries, Cloverlake Dairy and Golden Light Coffee.

Local fans will recall the Baldridge Bakery aggregation of 1947 which represented the South Plains in the ASC state playoffs at Midland. The locals moved into the finals where they were defeated by Waco.

Friday's meeting will be in charge of Lucien Thomas, league president.

Grapes grown on vines derived from American root stock are now the source of most French wine.

Sports Study

By Earl Scudday

If all the basketball fans of the South Plains are unable to talk above a whisper today, there's a good reason! During the last three or four days at least six major cage tournaments have been unreeled in the area and all of the meets have reported near-record attendance figures. And if the regional Class B tourney at the Tech gym and the District 18 girls' meet at the Cooper school are accurate guides, most of the fans had plenty to cheer about.

South Plains Class A quintets turned in a remarkable showing against Panhandle district leaders in the first round of the regional meet at Canyon Friday, but the results were no surprise to area cage experts who had watched the Sudan and Levelland teams in action this season. Both fives are able to give any Class A power in West Texas a tough battle. Hard luck honors should go to the Ralls squad for drawing Sudan in the first round instead of one of the less highly-regarded teams.

Lubbock High school's coaching staff is ready for the 1948 season now that Bill Floyd, the former East Texas State Teachers college grid and cage star, has been signed as line coach. Floyd, with end coach Fred Taylor and Head Mentor Pat Pattison, should round out one of the finest high school coaching staffs in the state. One thing is certain, few people will ever get mad enough to start an argument with Floyd, a six foot-five incher who tips the scales at 250 pounds.

Area baseball fans have something new to look forward to this spring, since the Interscholastic league has set up district diamond competition for the first time. The schools will only play to a district crown this year, but the long-range goal is for a playoff bracket leading to a state championship, just as football, basketball and track teams do at the present time. First reports indicate that most of the AA and A schools of the South Plains will take advantage of the new setup.

Another spotlight sports event is scheduled in Lubbock April 24, when the Region 1 track meet for Class AA, A and B high schools will be unreeled at Tech stadium. The meet will be the largest track program ever conducted in West Texas and may rival the state meet at Austin in number of contestants and competing teams. Just as an indication of the size of the event, Class A teams from such widely-separated towns as Pecos, Wink, El Paso, Canadian, Dalhart, Lefors and Floydada will have representatives at the meet. The Class AA division will include Lubbock, Amarillo, Wichita Falls and 10 other schools, while the Cass B section is slated to include all teams in the Panhandle and South Plains. On your marks . . .

Heard at the Stratford-Farwell tussle of the regional Class B tourney Friday afternoon, just after Billy Malone dropped in a long one-hand shot from near the center line of the court: "If a Malone was playing against my team I would put two men guarding him on general principles."

DYER LEAVES FOR FLORIDA

HOUSTON, Feb. 28 (AP)—Eddie Dyer, manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, was enroute to St. Petersburg, Fla., today for opening of spring training.

Citation Wins Rich Flamingo Stakes; Big Dial Is Second

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 28 (AP)—Citation, Warren Wright's handsome colt which has been hailed as a 'new Man O' War', did just what everybody expected of him today when he won the $50,000 added Flamingo Stakes at Hialeah.

Going to the post as a 1 to 5 favorite, shortest priced starter in the 19-year history of the race, Citation galloped home six lengths in front of Big Dial, owned by trainer E. E. Hart and George M. Jacobson of Washington, D. C., while 24,192 spectators cheered him on.

Mrs. Stanley Sagner's Saggy came on to take third place after cutting out a fast early pace and the New Jersey owned Pennant Day from Alfred De Cozen's Short Brook farm was fourth in the field of seven.

First Major Test

William Woodwar's Hypnos, one horse which had been expected to give Citation a test; Walter P. Chrysler's Silverling and Stephen Sanford's Realtor completed the field in that order. Cheops, entered by Mrs. S. S. Zell, was scratched.

The race, first major winter test for the three-year-olds which may contest racing's 'triple crown' later in the season, added $43,500 to Citation's earnings. He topped last season's two-year-olds with $115,680 and now has earned $219,155.

In his two seasons of racing, Citation has won 12 of his 13 starts, beating the best horses of his age as well as some older horses. His only loss was to a stablemate, Bewitch, last summer.

Makes Darir Move

Decisive as Citation's victory was, it was a daring move by Alfred Snider that enabled him to win so easily. Snider, who only a week ago replaced Doug Dodson as the top rider for Wright's Calumet stables, found himself hemmed in as the field raced down the backstretch.

Pennant Day and Saggy, battling for the lead, were directly in front of Citation and Hypnos was on the outside. Snider took the one path that was open and drove the Calumet colt between Saggy and Pennant Day to take the lead as they passed the five-furlong pole.

Otherwise the race was hardly more than a good workout for the Kentucky Derby-bound Citation. The big son of Bull Lea raced the mile and one eighth in 1:48 4/5. Only Brevity's 1936 time of 1:48-1/5 bettered this time in the Flamingo, and it was Brevity, too, which had held the record of being the strongest favorite.

Lubbock Cagers Defeat Wichita

Three of four Lubbock Boys' club cage teams came out victorious in games against Wichita Falls aggregations Saturday afternoon at the boys' club gym here.

It first appeared the locals would make a clean sweep of the one-day series when the Lubbock senior team, playing the last game of the day, started off with an 11-3 lead over Wichita Falls in the first quarter, and moved into the second half with a 16-13 advantage But a Wichita Falls third-quarter rally which netted 18 tallies gave the visitors a 32-31 victory.

Whitehead Leads Scorers

Glen Akin paced the Lubbock Pee Wees in their 14-9 win over Wichita Falls. Akin hit the basket for six points. Pat King of the visiting five led his mates with six points.

Carroll Walker and Miki Brady got seven points each to give Lubbock Midget players a 25-19 win over Wichita Falls Midgets. Richard Stone, with seven points, led the visitors.

The Lubbock Juniors scored a 40-31 win over the Wichita Falls Juniors, with Jimmy Hamilton racking up 10 points for the locals. Cleve Steed got 13 points to lead the visiting quint.

Roger Van Cleave's 11 points were not enough to help the Lubbock senior team. David Whitehead of the visitors garnered 14 points, which helped his mates to their 42-31 win over the locals.

All four local teams will journey Saturday to Amarillo where they will clash with teams of the Amarilo Maverick club.

The locals' three wins Saturday gave them a total of five victories in eight starts in the past two weeks. A week ago, local Midget and Junior quints scored wins, with the Pee Wees and Seniors bowing to Wichita Falls opponents at Wichita Falls.

T. N. Russell Posts Low Score In Ball Sweepstakes At Club

T. N. Russell took top honors in the Class A division of the 18-hole ball sweepstakes wedal handicap play Saturday at Lubbock Country club, posting a net score of 66.

Other Class A leaders included Raymond Marshall, 69; Hugh Anderson, 69; T. E. Patterson, 72; John Raley, 73; and Joe Horne, 74.

Class B low scorers were George Carter, 68; J. A. Raley, 73; Walter Granberry, 74; and Sam Lytal, 74.

Robert Bean topped Class C with a 67.

West Texas golf pros will meet in Lubbock Wednesday, officials announced, with some matches against low handicap Lubbock players scheduled for Wednesday afternoon.

WERKET LEADS SKATERS

HELSINKI, Finland, Feb. 28 (AP)—Johnny Werket of Minneapolis led the entire field tonight after the first half of the world speed skating championships.

NEW WESTERNER COACH—William (Bill) Floyd, (above), former East Texas State Teachers college grid and cage star, has been named as the Lubbock High Westerner line coach for the 1948 football season. Floyd, who will report here not later than March 15, will assist Head Mentor C. R. Pattison.

Townsend Visits Mustang Campus

DALLAS, Feb. 28 (AP)—Byron Townsend and Gordon Headlee, all-state footballers from Odessa High school, visited Southern Methodist university today but didn't give even a hint as to what college or colleges they will attend next fall.

Townsend, voted the outstanding player in Texas last season, already has been to the University of Houston and Baylor and has received invitations from many schools, including Oklahoma, Southern California and Louisiana State. He is one of the most talented backs ever produced in Texas schoolboy football.

Graduates This Year

He said he would like to attend college in the Southwest conference but was gearing his athletic ambitions to the best course of academic work he could get. He will graduate in the summer and will take a course in Business Administration at college. He said he might become a coach when he finishes.

"It will be a couple of months before I decide," he said.

Headlee, all-state guard, visited Tulane before coming here. He wants to become a dentist. He will graduate in June.

Asked if Townsend had given him any idea as to what college he favored, Headlee said: "I don't think he even knows himself."

Townsend Is Evasive

Townsend and Headlee saw the regional Class B basketball tournament being played at Southern Methodist and also watched the SMU varsity intra-squad game this afternoon. SMU is in the midst of spring training.

Skyline Gun Club Will Sponsor Ham Shoot Here This Afternoon

The Skyline Gun club will stage another one of its Ham Shoots at 2 o'clock this afternoon on the grounds at North College avenue.

The chose-your-own bird handicap also is on the day's schedule, club officials said. There will be events for the ladies.

Club officials said the shoot is open to all persons, irrespective of membership. Spectators are invited to attend.

Levelland Edges Calfropers For Junior Cage Championship, 33-26

Levelland's smooth-working junior cagers gained the championship of the fifth annual Lubbock Junior High Invitational basketball tournament by defeating the fighting O. L. Slaton Calfropers, 33-26, Saturday night at Senior High gymnasium.

The Levelland five jumped into an early first quarter lead on the sharpshooting of Don Wise and Jimmy Spence, but the Calfropers surged back in the second stanza to take a 16-15 halftime lead. The Calfropers, a group of youngsters entered in the tourney to complete the bracket, matched the Levelland quint shot for shot in the third period to keep the score deadlocked at 22-22; but Levelland's fourth quarter offensive proved too much for the home cagers.

Spence gained individual scoring honors for the tussle with 11 points, but teammate Wise tallied seven points. Jack Hawkins and Billy Pressley led the Lubbock crew with six points each, while Bob Newell and Dickie Lowrey swished the net for five.

Central Junior High's Cowboys won third place in the tourney by trouncing a disappointed O. L. Slaton Cowboy five, 20-5, in another clash last night.

Billy Davis chalked up 11 points for the Central cagers and Walter Norton and Dwayne Rampy scored a single field goal for the O. L. Slatons.

Levelland gained the final round by nosing out the Central Cowboys, 22-19, in a Saturday afternoon semi final tussle as Ivie swished the net for nine points. Bobby Day led the Central team with eight points.

The O. L. Slaton Calfropers copped their semifinal triumph from their "big brothers," the O. L. Slaton Cowboys, 19-5. Bob Newell topped the Calfropers with seven points and David Clark paced the Cowboys with five points.

Texas Softball Loop Will Convene Today

Four local softball representatives will attend a meeting of the Texas Softball league at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the Settles hotel in Big Spring, at which time the league schedule is expected to be formulated.

Lubbock and San Angelo are expected to enter two teams each in the league, with one team each from Big Spring, Abilene, Stamford, Odessa, Crane and Monahans.

Attending the meeting from here will be Leon Lingle, Ralph Bumpass, Blackie Hilliard and Joe Baldridge.

According to tentative plans, league play will get underway on or about April 15.

League officials are Hugh Welch, San Angelo, president; Blackie Hines, Forsan, vice-president; Ralph Bumpass, Lubbock, secretary; Robert Dunagan, Monahans, treasurer, and Marcus Welch, San Angelo, statistician.

Inventor Says Casket With New Look To Revolutionize Burials

BY PAUL MENDY
United Press Staff Writer

HUGO, Okla., Feb. 28—Inventor Erne Cotton put his casket with the new look on display today and predicted that the crystal-clear plexiglas coffin "will revolutionize the burial business."

Cotton said he was swamped with advance orders for the plastic caskets although the new company which will manufacture them is not yet in production.

The world premiere of Cotton's streamlined burial case—which will be offered in a variety of colors, two-toned or solid—began at a local funeral home.

Principal Innovations

Cotton, 45-year-old former night club operator, said the principal innovations of his "dream casket is its comparative light weight and the visibility it provides.

The coffin comes with a detachable lid. When the lid is off, the casket looks like a glorified single bed, although its plexiglas base is equipped with handles—made from plastic—just like any other casket.

This way, whether or not the lid is on, the body can be viewed without bending over the casket. It has a kapok "mattress," as soft as any you can buy, and is equipped with a cover for the lower part of the body.

Says It Has "Feeling"

Cotton, a cattle ranch owner, believes his new casket has "feeling."

He rejected eight experimental models because their design "was just utilitarian." Most of the early plastic coffins were square in shape. That wasn't what the inventor wanted.

"Finally I got the engineers to make a design which was partly stamped and partly fabricated. We got this one here at last. This has feeling."

The lid, which is shaped something like a blocky inverted rowboat, fits tightly onto the base. It can be left as is, or can be hermetically sealed.

Cotton, with the aid of two sisters, who will be partners in the company he is forming, has been experimenting with tiny models for about two years. He has submerged the models in alkali and salt water to see the effect. After two years, the experiments apparently were successful.

Cotton has had the aid of plastic firms in the east in his research work. Main offices of his new firm, the Jewel Casket company, will be in Albuquerque, N. M., the home of his sister-partners, Mrs. Genieve Discue, and Mrs. Bennie Schlosser. The coffins will be manufactured in California.

The proud designer said people "who sense that death is near" are clamoring for the new casket. An 801-year-old man has licited a promise from Cotton to ship him the second coffin on the market.

Among the advantages according to the quiet man who is reputed to be the first to actually bring the coffins on the market, is its weight. Metal caskets weigh anywhere from 300 to 500 pounds. Cotton's invention weighs just a bit less than 100 pounds empty. The cost will run about the same as other caskets.

The new product will go into mass manufacture in about a month, the Hugo inventor said. A survey has been made to determine what color schemes should be used.

"It seems that red is the most popular color of them all," he declared. "In my sales survey in Oklahoma, Texas, and California, I've talked to hundreds of ordinary people, as well as morticians They're all enthusiastic about it. But why they mostly pick red is a mystery to me."

SUITS DISMISSED

HOUSTON, Feb. 28 (AP)—Ten portal-to-portal pay suits brought by longshoremen's unions have been dismissed by Federal Judge T. M. Kennerly, bringing to approximately $200,000,000 the estimated monetary value involved in such suits dismissed here.

Congress And Weatherman Say Forecasts "Ain't Funny"

By ARTHUR EDSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The weather bureau has had to deny—officially — that it writes the scripts for the radio show, Fibber McGee and Molly.

This was brought out today when testimony was released on the bureau's request for $23,743,000 next year.

Maybe you get a laugh out of Fibber and Molly. But not Rep. Stefan (R-Neb.). Said Stefan of their program of Jan. 20;

"There is a character known as the 'weatherman' . . . he looked at McGee's newspaper and read the weather forecast. McGee said it seemed odd that a weatherman should get information of a weather forecast from a newspaper, and Molly's comment was substantially this:

"'Well, a newspaper costs oly five cents, but that is more than Congress will give the weather bureau for new equipment."

Fails To See Humor

Remarked Stefan:

"If that commen' was intended as a joke, the humor seems to have been left out."

He said it looked to him as if someone—maybe someone in the weather bureau—was trying to put the heat on Congress. Did anyone in the weather bureau have anything to do with the broadcast?

Said Dr. F. W. Reichelderfer, head of the weather bureau:

"Mr. Chairman, we are aware of the Fibber McGee broadcasts. I might say that they have been annoying to us right from the start . . .

"I can say quite factually that we had nothing to do with the program, that we do not care for the program . . ."

In short, congressionally speaking:

'Tain't funny, McGee.

Work Stoppages Less This Year Than 1947, U.S. Bureau Reports

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (AP) — Strikes increased in January — just as they were expected to.

The bureau of labor statistics said the number of work stoppages in this country usually rises after the first of the year. It didn't explain why.

But it did say the increase this year was less than last year's.

About 175 new shut-downs began last month, as against 120 in December. In January, 1947, the number was 320.

There were 75,000 workers idled by labor-management disputes in January. This compared with 30,000 in December. The time lost totaled about 1,000,000 man-days (the equivalent of one million men working one day)—twice the December loss.

Prison Manager To Give Report

HUNTSVILLE, Feb. 28 (AP)—O. B. Ellis, who became general manager of the Texas prison system January 1, on Monday is to present a detailed report on recommendations for future operations of the system to the state prison board.

The board meets here in regular session at 10 a. m. Monday.

Ellis this week confirmed he will make a number of recommendations for improvement of conditions throughout the system

Although Ellis declined to give details of his report, he is expected to recommend a far-reaching program designed to make the prison system a self-sustaining operation, with prison-produced products to be sold to other state institutions at a profit.

Such a program, which would require action and approval by the state legislature, was endorsed last week by officials of organized labor groups who were conducted on a tour of the system by Ellis.

Lonnie Robbins Is Sentenced In Poison Death Of Abilene Woman

CLINTON, Ark., Feb. 28 (AP)—Lonnie Robbins, 49, has been sentenced to life imprisonment for the poison death of his "mail order" bride.

Circuit Judge Garner Fraser formally pronounced sentence yesterday, lecturing the 49-year-old defendant for his callousness.

Robbins was accused of slaying Mrs. Sadie Sue Dudley Robbins, 52, formerly of Abilene, Tex., at his farm home near Scotland, Ark., New Year's eve. He was convicted of first degree murder Wednesday by a jury which fixed his punishment at life imprisonment.

Trials of his mother, Mrs. Jewell Robbins, 70, and their hired man, Henry Petty, also charged with first degree murder in connection with Mrs. Robbins' death were continued until September.

Nineteen Highway Projects To Cost Half Million Authorized

AUSTIN, Feb. 28 (AP)—Nineteen highway projects to cost $507,285 were authorized today by the state highway commission.

Some authorizations did not involve immediate expenditure of funds.

The authorizations were, by counties:

Bee—Five farm-to-market highways designated on condition right-of-way be furnished free to the state .They totalled 52 miles, they have already been built.

To Make Studies

Hutchinson—State engineer directed to make studies to relieve traffic congestion on spur 119 between Borger and Phillips.

Angelina—Appropriated $23,750 to recondition timber structures on state 63 from "Y" on U. S. 69 and state 63 near Zavalla to the Jasper-Angelina county line.

Callahan — Appropriated $4,700 to construct flexible base shoulders and otherwise improve U. S 80 from 3.5 miles west of Clyde, west 1,500 feet.

Carson—State engineer directed to place flexible base and asphalt surface on two sections of state 117, three and five miles north of Panhandle, estimated cost $34,000.

Jefferson — Appropriated $4,100 to widen Hillebrandt bayou bridge on U. S. 90 near Beaumont.

Project Approved

Karnes—Project for pavement widening on loop 17 and U. S. 181 in Karnes City approved. Estimated cost $10,000.

Kleberg — Two farm-to-market roads totalling 20 miles accepted for state maintenance provided rights-of-way are furnished free to the state. Roads are already constructed.

Lamar—State engineer directed to proceed with plans for repairs on Red river bridge, U. S. 271, at estimated cost of $22,000 This is pursuant to agreement between Oklahoma highway department and Texas highway department to split the cost.

Llano — Project for pavement widening on state 16 in Llano approved. Estimated cost $60,000.

Nueces—Ordered acceptance of Nueces county proposals for building farm-to-market road extending from state 44, 1.5 miles east of Clarkwood, to a point 6.8 miles south, work will be performed under the commission's 75-25 plan. At the request of county officials, two other farm-to-market roads approved last September were withdrawn, clearing the way for the county to finance its part of the Clarkwood project.

Motley — Appropriated $2,725 for gravel by-pass on hazardous curve on U. S. 70 one mile east of Motley-Floyd county line By-pass to be used when pavement is icy.

Panola and Rusk—State engineer directed to complete plans for construction of grading and drainage structures on seven mile section of state 149 from Beckville to Tatum. Estimated cost $250,000.

Farm-Market Roads

Rusk — Four farm-to-market roads totalling 57 miles designated with understanding Rusk county will pay 75 per cent of construction cost and furnish right-of-way free.

San Patricio—Appropriated $25,000 to repair and level up pavement on state 9 from junction of U. S. 77 at Nueces river to Mathis.

Terrell — Appropriated $15,000 to eliminate two dangerous curves on U. S. 90 west of Sanderson.

Wharton—Appropriated $31,010 for improving drainage conditions on U. S. 59 from the east city limit of El Campo, east seven miles.

Howard—Project approved to provide for pavement widening on U. S. 87 from north city limit to the Gregg street overpass in Big Spring, at estimated cost of $25,000 to the state. City to provide all necessary right-of-way, immediate construction of curb and gutter, utility adjustments, storm sewers, etc.

The commission also made application to the American Association of State Highway Officials for a change in the location of U. S. 277. The present routing is from Abilene via Tuscola and Ballinger to San Angelo. The proposed route is over state 158 from Abilene via Caps and Vie to Bronte and over state highway 70 from Bronte to San Angelo, the proposed route is a paved, all-weather facility and is 2.9 miles shorter than present route.

Prominent Texas Businessman Fatally Injured In High Wind

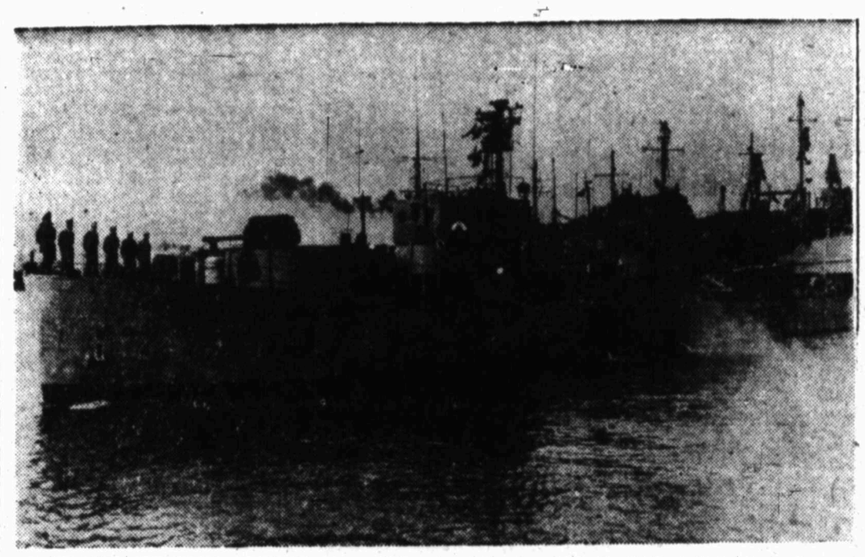

FORT WORTH, Feb. 28. (U.P.)—Funeral services were scheduled today for Morris E. Berney, 74, prominent Fort Worth businessman, who suffered a fatal injury when a gust of wind blew him against a lamp pole on a downtown street.

Berney, once one of the leading cotton dealers in the southwest, lost his balance in a strong blast of wind, was staggered for 25 feet in front of it, and struck his head against the pole. He died late yesterday without regaining consciousness.

Berney was a partner in the Teil P. Anderson Co., which formerly handled cotton on a wide scale; was vice president and director of the Anderson-Berney real estate and building companies, and was vice president and secretary of the Alta Vista Creamery Co.

He started his business career in Texas before the turn of the century as chief of the Dallas office of Bradstreet & Co.

'Leap Year' Poll Shows Surprise Results

Majority Of Texas Women Oppose 'Popping Question'

By JOE BELDEN
Director, The Texas Poll

AUSTIN, Feb. 28.—Sunday—is the day that makes 1948 leap year, and—believe it or not—a majority of Texas women frown upon the idea of a woman's proposing marriage. A majority of men, however, think the whole thing is fine.

The majority of women opposed is a slender one. There is a big minority that thinks it is all right to ask for a husband during the years with an extra day.

Majority Oppose Plan

According to the latest statewide survey of The Texas Poll, 54 out of every 100 women look with disfavor on a woman's wooing. On the other hand, 40 out of every 100 think the unwillingly unmarried woman should take advantage of the practice which permits her to pop the question every time the year is divisible by four.

Most men—60 out of every 100—are willing for the bachelor to be the pursued and the spinster the pursuer. Put the opinions of men and women together and exactly half the adult population of Texas looks upon leap year as an open season on unwed males.

To find out what Texans think about the question, interviewers of The Texas Poll asked a representative cross-section of the adult population:

"Do you think it proper for a woman to propose marriage during leap years?"

	M	W	All
Proper	60%	40%	50%
Not proper	30	54	42
Other answers (wisecracks)	3	1	2
No opinion	7	5	6
	100%	100%	100%

Among the 60 per cent of the men who say they think it proper, 14 per cent volunteered the answer that they think it proper "any year." Among the women 11 per cent said "any year." Among men and women combined 13 per cent volunteered this answer.

A majority of the people up to 50 years old believes it proper to turn the unwed female loose on the unwed male every four years. From that age on opinion varies some. Less than a majority of the old folks think there is propriety in the leap year idea.

Started In Scotland

The more education people have the more likely they are to look with favor on a woman's sallying forth to ask a man to be her husband. Fifty-nine out of every 100 people with college education say it's all right. Forty-eight out of every 100 with high school training think the custom is okay. Forty-two out of every 100 with grade school or no formal education give the nod to the ages-old idea.

Among the married, 52 out of every 100 say they think it proper for a woman to propose, while among the single, divorced, widows, and widowers, 44 out of every 100 look with favor on the idea.

There was a time in Scotland more than 600 years ago when it cost a man hard cash to turn down a leap year offer. He could be fined under a law for spurning "ilk mayden ladye of bothe highe and lowe estait" if he refused to "taik hir to be his lawful wyfe."

There were loopholes in the law in those days, too, however. If he could "make it appeare" that he was "betrothit ane ither woman," then he could go free.

A few years after the Scottish law was passed a similar one was enacted in France. In the 15th Century the custom was legalized in Genoa and Florence.

The girl to beware of mostly here in Texas, bachelors, is the 23-year-old. During the past summer The Texas Poll found that most women believe 23 is the ideal age at which to be married. A check of marriage licenses issued by Texas county clerks showed that the average age of brides actually is 23 years old.

CZECH DOWNFALL DISAPPOINTING

Reds May Face Resistance In Attempt To Take Over Finland

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28—Russia is expected to have a much more difficult time forcing Finland into the eastern European Communist bloc than it had with Czechoslovakia.

American officials predict that the resistance of the Finns will be much greater than that of the Czechs. They say it may, in fact, succeed in preserving for Finland some elements of liberty.

There is no longer much disguising the fact that authorities here were privately shocked and distressed at the speed with which the Czechs gave in to Communist demands.

Communist Move Planned

Reports now reaching the State department tend somewhat to explain this. These are in line with press dispatches from Prague. They relate that President Eduard Benes had few powers of resistance left when the Communist Premier Klement Gottwald made his bid for a Communist-controlled government.

These authoritative accounts on which American policy toward the new Czech government must be largely based, summed up the situation this way:

The Communists threatened and berated Benes with words.

They pictured Czechoslovakia ripped with internal strife and stained with blood of political warfare. The Communists, moreover, had the power to cause such trouble if they wanted to, and Benes' own physical weakness plus his knowledge that the situation was extremely dangerous caused him to give in. The Communists thus came to power in a legal manner.

The case of Finland is considerably different.

Have Fought Two Wars

The Finns have been through two wars with the Russians in the last ten years, and such experiences are toughening as well as enlightening. Since the end of World War II, when they managed to turn against the Germans, the Finns have pursued toward Russia a policy of friendly caution and complete correctness. They came out of the war owing the Soviet Union $300,000,000 in reparations to be paid actually in goods. The greatest concern of the Finnish nation has been to meet those payments on schedule.

They run until 1952 and give Russia during that time virtually the power of life and death over the Finnish economy—but not, authorities insist—over the Finnish spirit.

Whether the Russians can succeed in any such Finnish adventure will depend in the last analysis on how ruthless they are willing to be.

The Finns are well aware that they are trapped by geography. Equally they are aware they have certain legal and treaty rights. Perhaps most important of all, their Communist party is a small minority of their voter strength even though 51 of the 200 members of Parliament are Communists. The real power in the country has never fallen into Communist hands.

Gifts Sent Newsmen Cited For Contempt

NEWBURGH, N. Y., Feb. 28 (AP)—Two newspaper employes who went to jail rather than betray a confidence received presents and messages of congratulations today while their attorneys tried unsuccessfully to get them freed.

Douglas V. Clarke, 33, news editor, and Charles L. Leonard, 27, reporter, were sentenced yesterday to pay fines of $100 each and serve 10 days in jail for contempt of court.

They had refused to tell a grand jury where they obtained "numbers" lottery tickets reproduced by the newspaper in a series of stories on gambling.

A cake with two files sticking out of the icing was one of the presents brought to the newspaper's office for the two men. They received it in jail, minus the files.

Engraving Plant, Other Items To Be Installed At Tech Press

An engraving plant, an eight-page book press and bindery equipment are among items to be installed soon in the Texas Technological College Press, it has been announced by Cecil Horne, head professor of journalism.

Other equipment to be purchased in a $40,000 expansion program recently approved by the college board of directors are an automatic job cylinder press, Goss newspaper press, glider saw, router, rotary perforator, paper jogger, broaching machine, mat roller, linotype or intertype machine and other miscellaneous equipment.

It is planned that all equipment will be installed during the next two years, making the Texas Tech Press one of the best-equipped school printing plants in the country, according to Wayne Kittley, 1946 Tech journalism graduate, who is press superintendent.

Amarillo Gas Hearing Slated For March 4 Is Postponed

AUSTIN, Feb. 28 (AP)—A public hearing originally scheduled for March 4 at Amarillo on the price of gas at the wellhead in the Panhandle field has been postponed to May 13.

Purpose of the hearing by the Railroad commission is to receive evidence and testimony as to the market price of gas produced in the Panhandle field and subsequently used and sold for light and fuel purposes.

The commission will also hear evidence as to whether the Panhandle field should be prorated as one field.

NO LONGER "THE SOLID SOUTH"—Governor J. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina, announces for the rebellious Southern Governors that "the present leadership of the Democratic party will soon realize that the South is no longer in the bag." Thurmond, spokesman for the southern governors who visited National Democratic Chairman J. Howard McGrath in his Washington office, made the announcement after his visit. (NEA Telephoto).

Refunds May Take Sting Out Of Tax

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (AP)—The March 15 income tax deadline may be less painful for you than it seems.

The treasury expects to refund more than $40 on the average to over half of the 55,000,000 taxpayers.

It already has shelled out $237,000,000 to 5,400,000 early birds who sent in their final 1947 returns in a hurry, officials said today.

Toward the end of this month, refund checks were going out at a 1,600,000-a-week clip.

The treasury hopes to clean up the refund job, except for some complicated cases, by July 1, turning back $1,400,000,000 to over 30,000,000 persons who overpaid their taxes.

Reform Of Jap Police System Reported 70 Per Cent Complete

TOKYO, Sunday, Feb. 29 (AP)—General MacArthur, reported today that the program of decentralizing Japan's national police system was 70 per cent completed.

It calls for forming 1,600 municipal police departments, totalling 95,000 men, and a national rural police force of 30,000.

In his latest monthly occupation report, MacArthur also noted that with harvest money on hand, tenant farmers showed increasing tendency to buy their land. As of January, 900,000 tenants had sought some 458,000 acres under the land reform program.

TO ASSUME NEW DUTIES

HOUSTON, Feb. 28 (AP)—K. P. Chinn, New Orleans, veteran Southern Pacific railroad official, assumes the position of assistant to the lines' executive vice-president for the Texas and Louisiana division here Monday. Chinn has been purchasing agent for the railroad in New Orleans for the last four years.

QUININE COMING UP

By HARMON W. NICHOLS
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28—Rep. John Elliott Rankin of Mississippi is a handy hand at exploding.

And when he explodes, he explodes all over. Even his iron-gray hair flies up as though it had been nudged by something atomic.

Mr. Rankin, being a professional exploder, has some special things he likes to explode about. One is aid to China. He claims that the people over there in the rice fields have been starving for hundreds of years. And why, he asks, should we butt in with our big fat wallet and mess up their habits?

Russia Is Another

Another bomb toucher-offer of his is Soviet Russia. More specifically the red shirt-sleeve of communism. The congressman let go his exploder on that one again yesterday on the House of Representative floor.

After the gavel tapping of Speaker Joe Martin had called the meeting to order, there was the usual prayer by the white-haired Rev. John W. Wilson.

The respectful hush which fell over the House was busted by Mr. R. He bounded out of his seat in the third row and said, please, Mr. Speaker, could he have some of his previous remarks and speeches printed in the Congressional Record? With elaboration and revision?

Without waiting for an okay, he pranced up to the loud speaker reserved for the Democratic side of the House.

A tall man apparently had been spieling into the mike the last time. Our Mr. R. played mechanic and slid it down to his size.

"Mr. Speaker," he said, "I would like permission to address the House for one minute."

Permission granted. The congressman waved a hand grandly across an imaginary audience. (The House was nearly empty.)

"I would like to observe," he said, "that both of our national political parties are criss-crossed with Communists."

He paused for effect. He got it.

"I . . ."

That was as far as he got.

Like a jack-in-the-box up popped Cong. Bob Rich of Pennsylvania, quivering with rage. He was pinked up around his bald spot, which covers the best acreage of his head.

"This is a vicious charge, sir," he said. "Besides, it is not true. I dare the gentleman from Mississippi to prove it."

His Time Runs Out

The gent from Tupelo, Miss. never had a chance to. He didn't have time. Speaker Martin was giving the block the very old what-for with his mallet. Time up

On his way back to his seat, Mr. Rankin went over and sat down on the Republican side of the House. Beside Mr. Rich. They had a whispered conversation, plus a coy exchange of grins. Both seemed happy about whatever there was to be happy about. Mr. Rankin put his arm around the skinny shoulders of his colleague Mr. Rich and patted him there a little.

Then he went back to his seat.

Proving, I'll be doggoned if I know what.

Grand Jury Clears Officers On Charges Of Beating Man

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 28 (AP)—Bexar county grand jurors today exonerated the police department of guilt after charges by a Dallas man that policemen had beaten him.

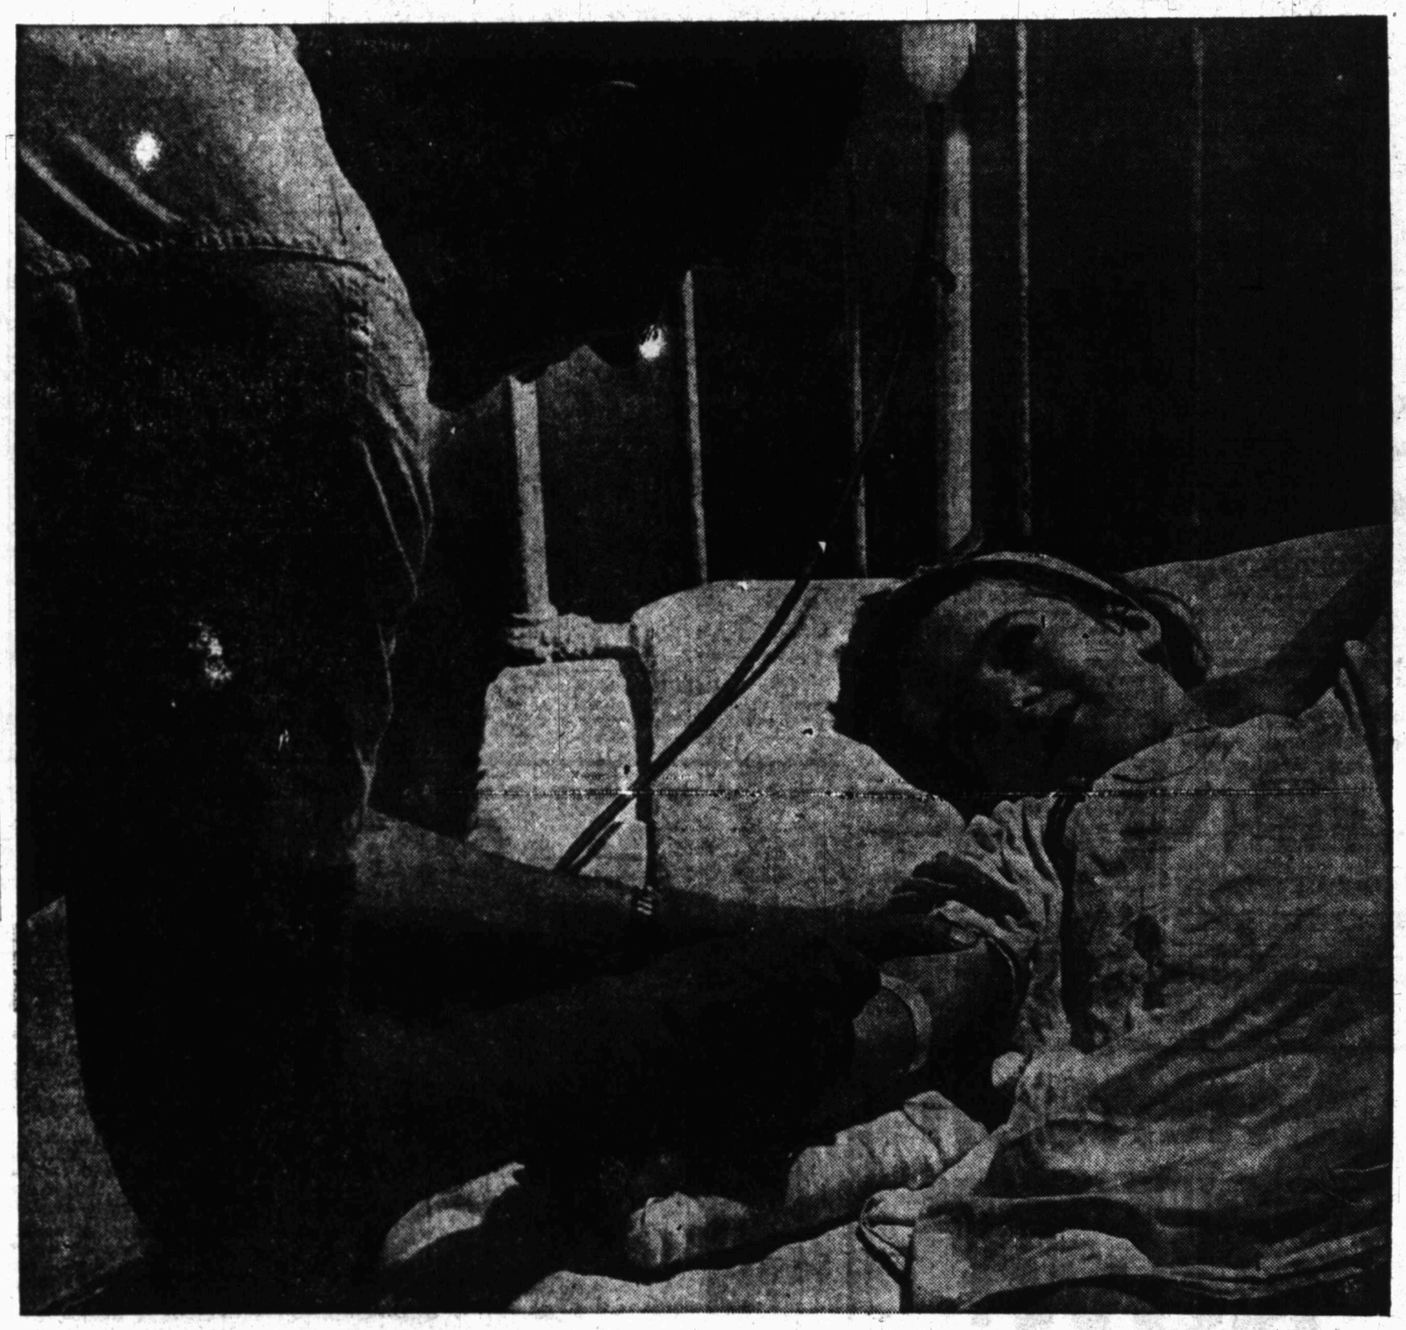

The complaint was made by Edward D. Hay of Dallas.

Walter Grothaus, grand jury foreman, declared:

"After due consideration and full investigation, this grand jury finds no evidence that Hay was beaten or manhandled by any San Antonio police officer."

Hay, who had been taken into custody for investigation, told District Judge W. W. McCrory that he had been beaten by two detectives.

Help to spread a miracle

You heard a lot about it during the war—the miracle of blood.

Men snatched from certain death by battlefield transfusions. The saving surgery permitted, the "impossible" cures effected by blood in its many life-giving forms.

Now—in peace—we all know what a boon to humanity blood can be . . . in accidents and operations to prevent fatal shock . . . in treatment of severe burns . . . in fighting dread diseases . . . as a surgical aid in delicate brain and nerve operations . . . in preventing hemorrhages . . . as a wound dressing . . . and in childbirth.

Blood may be needed to save your life. Or your child's.

WILL IT BE AVAILABLE? When? How?

It will be available to all eventually—with your help.

For your Red Cross is starting one of its greatest projects—the new National Blood Program. Ultimately whole blood and its priceless derivatives will be made available . . . without cost for the products . . . to the nation's entire population, through physicians and hospitals everywhere in America.

It's on its way—for all!

Starting at selected places across the nation . . . expanding gradually over a period of years . . . including certain scattered local and state programs . . . it will grow until the estimated 3,700,000 pints of blood needed annually can be procured.

. . . But only through your contribution to its present Fund Campaign can your Red Cross accomplish its task. Won't you help this great plan to success?

. . . Remember, you're not giving just dollars.

. . . You're giving mercy . . . and health . . . and life itself!

IT'S YOUR RED CROSS . . . KEEP IT GOING — Give Generously!

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY
The Knights of Pythias Lodge is the owner of Lots Five (5) and Six (6) in Block 164, Original Town of Lubbock, 1400 Block on Avenue K on East side of street, dimensions 52 feet by 125 feet. The Lodge is interested in conveying the lots to a suitable party who is willing to erect a two-story building thereon free of all liens, and under an agreement giving the Lodge ownership of the second story to be used for Lodge purposes, and the remainder to be owned by the other party. It will probably cost between $50,000.00 and $60,000.00 to construct such building according to the Lodge's requirements. The estimated value of the lots at the present time is from $20,000.00 to $25,000.00 Anyone interested contact Hub Lee or Victor H. Lindsey.

FOR SALE

ORDINANCE NO. 863

AN ORDINANCE ORDERING AN ELECTION IN THE CITY OF LUBBOCK, TEXAS, TO BE HELD ON THE 6TH DAY OF APRIL, 1948, FOR THE PURPOSE OF SUBMITTING TO THE QUALIFIED VOTERS OF THE CITY OF LUBBOCK FOR ADOPTION OR REJECTION, PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE EXISTING CHARTER OF THE CITY OF LUBBOCK, DESIGNATING THE PLACES AT WHICH SAID ELECTION IS TO BE HELD AND APPOINTING PRESIDING OFFICERS THEREOF.

WHEREAS, on the 29th day of January, 1948, a resolution was duly passed by the City Commission of the City of Lubbock, Texas, providing for notice of its intention to pass an ordinance submitting amendments to the existing charter of said City, and,

WHEREAS, notice of the intention to pass such ordinance was duly given by publication in the manner and for the length of time required by law, and,

WHEREAS, the City Commission of the City of Lubbock, Texas, deems it proper to submit proposed amendments to the present Charter of the City of Lubbock, as is hereafter provided: and,

WHEREAS, the Charter of said City has not been altered, changed or amended for more than two (2) years prior to this date:

THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COMMISSION OF THE CITY OF LUBBOCK, TEXAS:

SECTION 1.
That a general election be held on the 6th day of April, 1948, for the purpose of submitting to the qualified voters of said City, for adoption or rejection, the following proposed amendments to the existing Charter of the City of Lubbock:

AMENDMENT NO. 1.
To amend Section 8, Article II, Chapter One of the City Charter of the City of Lubbock so that the same shall hereafter be and read as follows:

SECTION 8. The City shall not be liable on account of any claim for specific performance, breach of contract or damages for personal injuries of any kind or for injuries to or destruction of property of any kind, or for any character of tort, unless the person injured or the owner of the property injured, damaged or destroyed, or someone in his behalf, shall give the City written notice of such injury, destruction, damage and claim, duly verified, stating the facts upon which the claim is based, within thirty (30) days from the time it is claimed such injury, damage, loss and cause of action arose, stating in such written notice when, where, and how the injury, damage or destruction occurred, and the apparent extent thereof, the amount of damage sustained, the amount for which the injured person will settle, the actual residence of the claimant by street and number at the date the injury, damage or loss is claimed to have occurred and the actual residence of such claimant for six (6) months immediately preceding the occurrence of such injuries or destruction, and the names and addresses of the witnesses upon whom claimant relies to establish his claim, and a failure to so notify the City by written notice to the City Manager and City Secretary within the time and manner specified herein shall exonerate, excuse and exempt the City from any liability whatsoever, provided that no suit should be instituted or maintained on any such claim until the expiration of ninety (90) days from the time such notice shall have been given, and further provided that nothing herein shall be construed to effect or repeal Section 8a, Article 1 of this Charter.

AMENDMENT NO. 2.
To add Section 8A, Article II, Chapter One of the City Charter of the City of Lubbock, as follows:

SECTION 8A. The CITY of Lubbock shall not be liable to any person for damages caused from streets, ways, crossings, bridges, culverts or sidewalks being out of repair from negligence of said corporation, unless the same shall have remained so for ten (10) days after special notice in writing given to the City Secretary or City Manager.

AMENDMENT NO. 3.
To amend Section Twenty-Three, Article IX, Chapter One of the City Charter of the City of Lubbock, so that the same shall hereafter be and read as follows:

SECTION 23. The Commission shall fix and determine the salaries and wages of all appointive officers and employees of the City, unless otherwise provided in this Charter, and shall provide for the payment thereof. PROVIDED HOWEVER, that when any payroll of the City of Lubbock has been certified by the City Auditor to be correct and approved by the City Manager and moneys necessary to pay such payrolls have been transferred to the PAYROLL ACCOUNT by check or warrant signed by the Mayor and attested by the City Secretary, then such funds shall be disbursed according to such approved payrolls by checks signed by the Mayor or Mayor Pro-tem or City Manager and countersigned by the City Treasurer

AMENDMENT NO. 4.
To amend Section 1 (one), Article X, Chapter One of the Charter of the City of Lubbock so that the same shall hereafter be and read as follows:

SECTION 1. The Commission shall appoint a City Manager who shall be the administrative head of the municipal government, and shall be responsible for the efficient administration of all departments.

AMENDMENT NO. 5.
To add Section 3A, Article I, Chapter One of the Charter of the City of Lubbock as follows:

Section 3A: The City Commission shall have power by ordinance to fix the boundary limits of the City of Lubbock; and to provide for the alternation and the extension of said boundary limits, and the annexation of additional territory lying adjacent to the City, with or without the consent of the territory and inhabitants annexed. That upon the introduction of any such ordinance in the City Commission, it shall be published in the form in which it may be finally passed, in a daily newspaper published in the City of Lubbock, at least one time, and said ordinance shall not thereafter be finally acted upon until at least thirty (30) days has elapsed after the first publication thereof; and upon the final passage of any such ordinance, the boundary limits of the City shall thereafter be fixed in such ordinance; and when any additional territory has been so annexed, same shall be a part of the City of Lubbock, and the property situated therein shall bear its pro rata part of the taxes levied by the City of Lubbock, and the inhabitants thereof shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of all the citizens, and shall be bound by the acts, ordinances, resolutions and regulations of the City. Provided the provisions of this section shall be cumulative of all other provisions relating to the extension of boundary limits of the City of Lubbock and annexation of territory to said City and shall never be construed as in conflict with such other provisions but shall be construed as an additional power and cumulative of other Charter provisions.

SECTION II.
That said election shall be held and poll places and voting boxes established, with presiding officers of said election respectively as follows:

BOX NO. I
Central Fire Station Building at the corner of 10th Street and Avenue "J" in Lubbock, Texas, and Glen Hess is hereby appointed Election Judge, and Mrs. F. M. Maddox and H. B. Bryan Assistant Judges, with Mrs. Dan Blair alternate, to hold said election at Box No. 1.

BOX NO. II

SECTION III.
That said election shall be held under the provisions of the statutes of the State of Texas and the City Charter of said City of Lubbock, and all persons qualified to vote in said City under the laws of the State of Texas, regulating general elections shall be allowed to vote therein.

SECTION IV.
That the manner of holding said election shall be governed by the general laws of the State of Texas regulating general elections, when not in conflict with the provisions of the law referred to in the last preceding section.

39—Legal Notice

SECTION V.
That the form of ballots to be used in said election shall be respectively as follows:

IN CHURCH PAPER

Picture Is Hopeful Omen For German

VIRGINIA, Minn., Feb. 28 (AP)—The back page of the Virginia Methodist church bulletin for Nov. 23, 1947, carried a picture of a little girl, eyes lifted to Heaven. The caption read, "Eyes of Hope."

Somehow, a copy reached Bremen, Germany. It was found by Emil Rex, a Bremen resident with a wife and 18-month-old son to be fed and clothed.

Rex, using the picture caption as his theme, wrote the church, asking aid. Perhaps, he said, it is to American Christians to whom people such as he can look with eyes of hope. He enclosed the bulletin.

Yesterday, 44 pounds of clothing left the church in two boxes consigned to Rex.

British Marines Take Up Guard Positions On Honduras Border

BELIZE, Feb. 28 (U.P.)—Royal marines in battle dress took up stations on the western border of British Honduras today to protect this rich possession from the reported threat of a Guatemalan invasion.

The marines landed yesterday afternoon from the flagship cruiser Sheffield and paraded through Belize in their battle garb before boarding trucks for stations at Stanley field airport and outposts on the western frontier.

Hundreds of Belize citizens lined the parade route to watch the marines pass. In general it was felt among the onlookers that the show of strength was unnecessary because there were no signs of the reported invasion.

"Invasion" Belittled

However, British authorities said the training cruiser Devonshire probably would arrive today with a contingent of the crack Gloucester regiment from Jamaica to form a permanent garrison in Honduras. The regiment has been stationed in Jamaica in the West Indies.

The show of strength in British Honduras where Britain has been carrying on a century-old territorial dispute with Guatemala, appeared to convince local residents that something was in the wind.

Guatemalan sources belittled the reports of an invasion. They said they were started by agitators from Mexico, who trickled into Guatemala to urge irresponsible Guatemalans to form an invasion force.

Nevertheless, British authorities said the Sheffield, a powerful new cruiser of 9,100 tons with 12 six-inch guns, built in 1936, would remain at Belize as a precautionary measure against any frontier incident. The Sheffield's complement, including marines, is 700 men.

TWO DEAD IN CRASH

BEAUMONT, Feb. 28 (AP)—Nineteen-year-old Bobbie Stallings, freshman girl student at Lamar college, was killed instantly and William E. Boyd, GI aviation trainee, was fatally injured, when their light plane crashed about five miles northwest of Beaumont today. Both victims were Beaumont residents. Eye-witnesses said the plane was making a turn at a fairly low altitude when it went into a spin and crashed. It landed on its nose in a rice field.

Dewey Steps Up Campaign With Radio Talks Over Nation

ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 28 (AP)—Concern of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's unofficial board of strategy led today to a speedup in his campaign for the Republican presidential nomination.

The first of a series of six transcribed talks by the governor, recorded without fanfare and aimed at the electorate in states with early primaries, were heard today over Wisconsin radio stations. They explain views previously announced.

Marine Returns To Virginie After Spending Furlough Here

Pfc. Burnett C. Brazell of the United States Marines reported to the USMC Station at Quantico, Va., last week after spending a 60-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Brazell, route 3, Lubbock.

BRAZELL

Pfc. Brazell had just returned from Guam where he served with the fleet Marine force for the past two years. He came home last Dec. 21. He volunteered for the Marines in April, 1945, and trained at Parris Island, S. C., Camp LeJeune, N. C., and Camp Pendleton, Calif., before going to Guam.

After getting his discharge in May, 1949, Pfc. Brazell plans to return to Lubbock and farm with his father.

Woman Thinks Utah May Have Answer To Marital Trouble

SALT LAKE CITY, Feb. 28 (AP)—County Clerk Alvin Keddington reported today receipt of a letter from a woman in Irons, Mich., who asked:

"I would like to know if a woman can have more than one husband in Utah. That is, I mean if she is already married here can she marry again in Utah without divorcing her Michigan husband first?"

Keddington informed her that even in leap year "it just can't be done" in Utah.

Women are talking about: The popular breakfast program which has been snatched from the air through no fault of the Lubbock station; a "listen to" which was a "must" for many women if we are to judge by telephone calls. Perhaps hundreds of letters to the station might be used as tangible evidence of how popular Breneman is, and the sponsors would have a heart and let women listeners in this section get a break . . . The chiffon cake recipe which everyone is trying out and which is the result of 400 experiments in the factory kitchens . . . The Gainesville circus which will appear here in May under auspices of Lubbock Women's club and Lions club, proceeds of which will go toward the fund to build a much needed club house . . . The feminine appearance of hats with soft veiling and flowers . . . The most effective means of enriching the yards for spring planting.

Jussi Bjoerling, Bidu Sayao and Kurt Baum, for instance. The season schedule will offer "The Masked Ball," "Manon," "La Traviata," and "Cavalleria Rusticana" paired with "Pagliacci."

A number of Lubbock opera lovers plan to attend the opera series.

SWEETEST STORY

JOE Ma, the Chinese youth attending Tech college, will hear an important incident in his life broadcast this afternoon if he dials to KRLD at 4 o'clock. The dramatic tale of his rescue of Ernest Winters when the latter's plane crashed in China, of the beginning of their friendship, continued through correspondence and of his trip, with his wife, to the U. S. to continue educations, will make up "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" program.

Mary Ann Baccus, who writes the script, said Joe Ma's story was selected because it fulfills the requirements set by the program —that is, it is a "deed of kindness done without hope of reward, just to make this world a better place in which to live."

Vocal solos and an organ and piano duet will also be included in the program.

WOMEN who are so keen to participate in lotteries conducted by mail may be warned of the seizing of lottery postcards down at Pasadena last week by postal authorities. Each card had six names on it and the recipient of one was instructed to send a tea towel to the top name and make six copies of the card, adding her name to the bottom of the card and mail to friends.

Under favorable circumstances (that is, if the chain was unbroken), the sender of such cards might receive as many as 46,656 tea towels. The catch in the scene, is that it is in violation of the postal laws, and the participants could be tracked down and prosecuted.

SCATTERINGS

WALTER Kiernan, popular after lunch news commentator, has resigned to take a dream job he's long had his eyes on—that of disk jockey . . . We'd like to see some statistics at the license bureau to see if the girls are really taking advantage of leap year . . . After a month's trial, parking meters are being booted out of Tucumcari, N. M., . . . The nationally famed military academy at Roswell, NMMI, is to turn co-ed for the summer session . . . March has been designated as National Wallpaper month . . . One of the most encouraging developments in the Safety Program has been the continued expansion of driver-training courses in high schools throughout the country. We'd like to see a public spirited organization make it possible for dual control driver-training cars to be available to high school students here, provided the curricula could be arranged to embrace such a course. A new crop of drivers trained in fundamental safety will cut our terrific traffic death toll in America.

Auxiliary Is At Election

AN auxiliary of women of the new Westminster Presbyterian church was organized Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. L. Hester, 1918 Twenty-eighth, with 26 in attendance. Mrs. S. T. Hodges introduced Mrs. J. A. Pressley, district chairman, who presided for the business meeting and election of the following:

Mrs. W. L. Hester, president; Mrs. Mabel Iler, vice president; Mrs J. E. Maisen, secretary; Mrs. E. C. Westerman, treasurer; Mrs. E. W. Hester, secretary of literature; Mrs. C. C. Galbraith, historian.

Mrs. Barnett Installs

Mrs. Pressley spoke on the responsibility of carrying on work of expansion and growth in the future. Mrs. Albert Barnett, president of the El Paso Presbyterial, installed the group and outlined a plan of study for the coming year.

A tea hour followed and Mrs. Pressley presided at a lace-laid table centered with an arrangement of jonquils and daisies and lighted by white candles.

Other charter auxiliary members are Mesdames Frank L. Hodges, Mabel Krueger, E. K. Hester, Harry Hodge, Thomas S. Jones, Leo S. Hay, M. J. Day, George Young, George Eubank, M. D. Blue, N. F. Cherry, T. W. Waddill, Joe W. Wilson, H. F. Weiss, E. F. Greve, Jame H. Darden, J. M. Keesee, Grace Bates.

Tickets will go on sale this week for the March 9 concert to be given by Lubbock Symphony orchestra at Senior High school auditorium. Philip Williams, American born violinist, who has given 500 concerts and recitals and who attended Julliard School of Music graduate school on a fellowship, is to be guest artist.

Tickets may be bought at Adair's and South Plains Music stores and at the Varsity Book Store.

Tech Students Are To Be Married In June

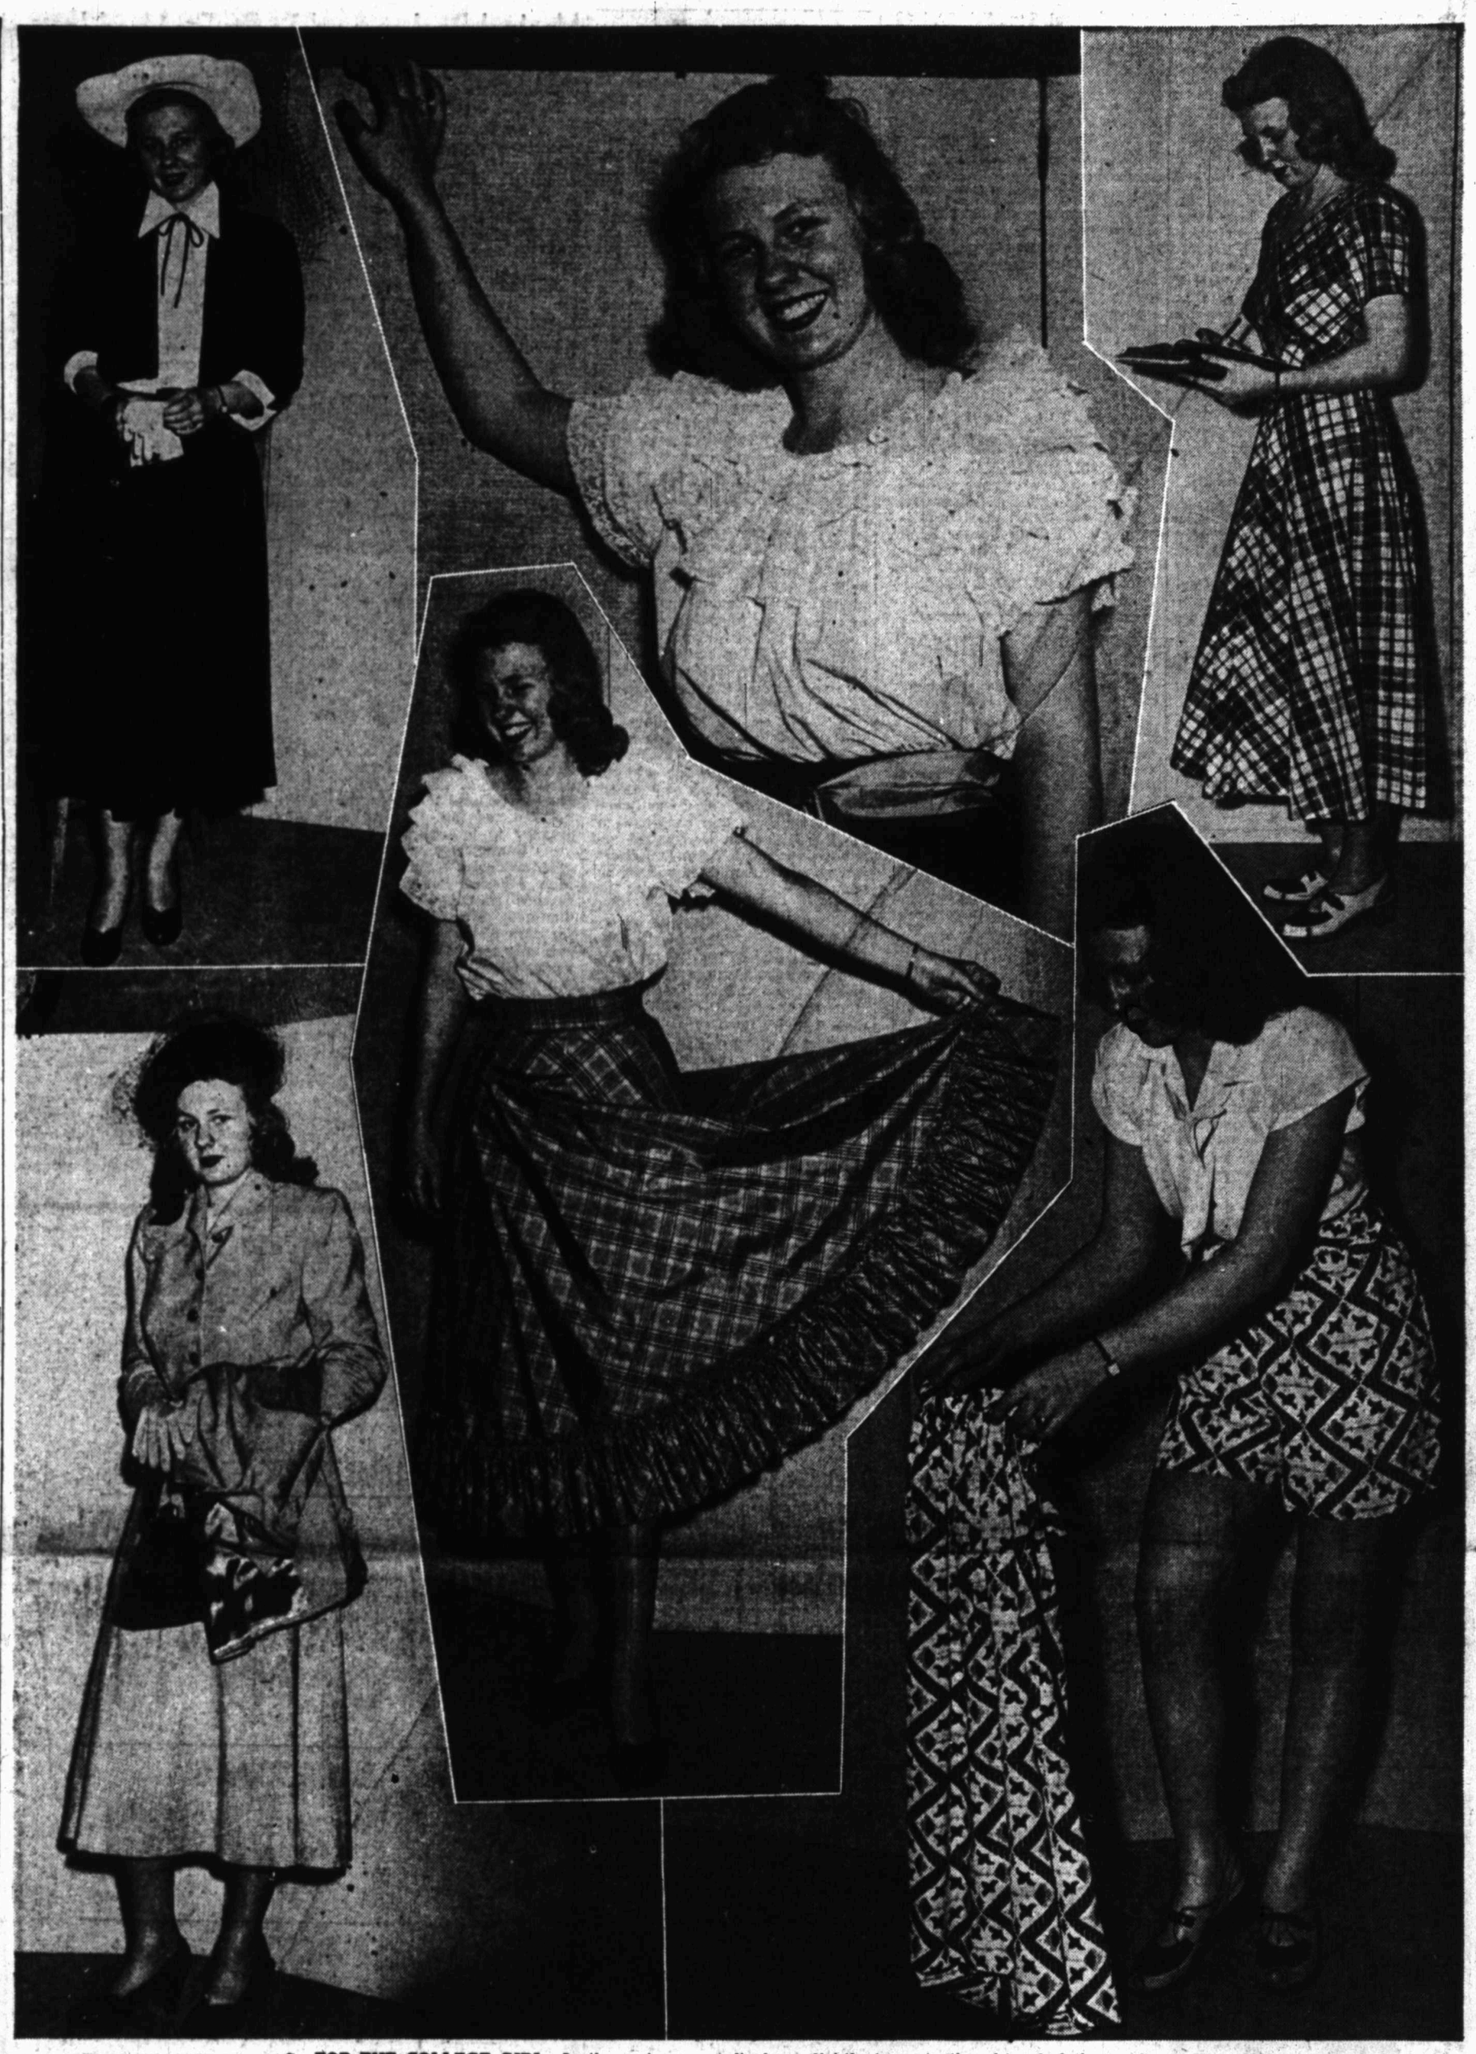

Miss Joan Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Jackson, 2406 Main, and B. H. Quebe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Quebe, of Lockney are announcing their engagement and approaching marriage.

The wedding has been set for early June when they will both graduate from Texas Technological college, where he is a member of Tech Aggie club. The bride-to-be is a member of Nu Phi Mu sorority.

Rebekahs Sponsor Box Supper And Program

Rebekah lodge sponsored a box supper and program at the IOOF hall Friday night. Mrs. B. R. Smith and Miss LaFay Moore played piano selections and Mesdames Clarence E. Woods, Tom Jones, Alfred Holman and J. W. Chism presented a skit, "Why We Joined the Rebekahs."

Messrs. Woods and Holton were auctioneers for the boxes and a cake walk was staged with a cake iced in green and pink, colors of the organization, was a prize.

FOR THE COLLEGE GIRL—In the spring a co-ed's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of clothes and today's pictures illustrate how a college girl may be smart looking on a limited clothes budget. The secret is planned and workkable wardrobes, basic suits, dresses and coats, interchangeable accessories—and in this case the charm, chassis and chic of Miss Algene O'Daniel, freshman student from Tulia who is a home economics major. A perfect size 14, she is five feet seven and a blue-eyed blonde. Miss O'Daniel modeled the fashions at the Tech Home Economics style show given in Annex G Tuesday. Upper left, street dress of black, for church and other occasions, with string tie at vagabond collar, red patent leather belt and tunic effect jacket. Worn with large white hat with veiling trim, white gloves and black patent shoes and bag. Upper center, A white lace-trimmed peasant blouse that gives one the newest of the NOW look. Upper right, Working a last minute question, Algene wears a gay gingham plaid, studied with rhinestones and fashioned with full skirt, an ensemble for spectator or active sports. Blouses and skirts are headliners for the spring wardrobe and the plaid taffeta skirt pictured in lower center may be worn as a top or as a petticoat. An imported soft gray tweed suit such as one "can't live without" is modeled in lower right and with it is pictured a gray gabardine topper which may be worn with college, afternoon and evening frocks. Lower left, Algene is preparing to step into a skirt of printed spun rayon which converts her play suit into a dress that may be worn to classes. Fashions are courtesy of Hemphill-Wells ladies' ready-to-wear department. Photos by Opal Dixon of the Avalanche-Journal staff.

Through the Coral Doors

Hi Folks:

Things seem to still be buzzing behind those Coral doors at Broadway and N. It seems there is more than the usual amount of brides this spring and, of course, they are to be seen at Decorators Studio selecting silver, crystal, china, pottery and linens—and its no wonder, there are always new patterns to be seen and no one gives quite the air to combining and arranging table settings as do the girls at Decorators Studio. I've a feeling that with all I see going on behind those coral doors, plans are being made to give you even a better picture.

It seems that Fredda, Anne and Evelyn had some important dates with factory representatives in Dallas last week end and they all report satisfaction over the results A new line of Silver will be coming in soon that is worth waiting for.

Oh yes, I was about to forget—newest at the Studio is a completely different pottery—"Town and Country" by name— its just what the name implies—sophisticated enough for town and informal enough for country. Of most interest is the new shape and still more interesting is the price You will think you've found an extra special bargain for Dollar Day—yet its the regular price.

Speaking of Dollar Day—Fredda says, "It's a surprise." There will be items specially priced that will be worth your time to include Decorators Studio, corner Broadway and N, on your Dollar Day shopping tour.

Musical Background To Be Featured In "Alice In Wonderland" Production

With the main purpose of bringing good music to Lubbock children, the Lubbock Association for Childhood Education will sponsor "Alice in Wonderland" with a musical background of familiar arias and melodies of famous composers in matinee and night performances Thursday, March 11, at Senior High school.

Children "need good music that they can enjoy and we feel that by bringing a familiar story set to classical and semi-classical music we will accomplish our aim," Miss Evelyn Jones, president of the A. C. E., said.

The production will be presented by Penthouse Productions of New York at 4 p. m. and 8 p. m. March 11. Tickets are on sale in the office of Floyd Honey, Senior High school principal. Prices are 60 cents for children and school pupils and $1.20 for adults, including tax. Tickets may be used at either afternoon or night performance.

The play is especially planned for children but has an adult appeal, said Miss Jones. Tickets will not be reserved, but should any parents wish to give parties for children featured by attendance at the play the needed number of seats will be set aside in case of purchase of blocks of tickets, it was announced.

Should anyone wish to donate tickets for underprivileged children, Miss Jones or Mrs. J. T. Shaver, general manager, may be notified and the organization will arrange to let children know

Committees Are Listed

Miss Trula Maud Jetton and Miss Mildred Boone are on the finance committee for the productions; Mrs. Garmer Shaffer and Mrs. Evelyn Smith are on the publicity committee and Miss Gertrude Herm and Mrs J. Floyd Dunn have charge of outside advertising.

The Penthouse Productions presents two plays a year and previously has presented "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" in the last year and has 12 of the 17 dwarfs now acting on stages, according to information received here. Some of the dwarfs will appear in the "Alice in Wonderland" production.

Mrs. Shaver pointed out that millions who have read and loved "Alice in Wonderland" can indirectly thank a little girl for inspiring the book which was to be written with that title. Young Vicar Dodgson had three children of a friend, Dean Liddel, to amuse one summer day and tried to solve the problem by taking them on a boat trip but one child insisted she be told a story. The vicar conceived the idea of the mythical "Alice." The young girl was in the mood for that type of story and she encouraged Dodgson to write the story, which he did, satirizing the political and social problems of the Victorian age, and using the pen name Louis Carrol

Proceeds From Student Presentation Of "Rigoletto" To Further Civic Projects

North Texas State Teacher College's School of Music, directed by Dr. Walter Hodgson, dean, will present Verdi 's opera "Rigoletto" March 10 at 8:15 p. m. at Senior High school auditorium under the sponsorship of the Allegro Music club.

An all-student cast of approximately 75 vocalists and instrumentalists will participate in the production, which is being produced by Miss Mary McCormic, director of the NTSTC opera workshop and former star of the Paris Opera-Comique and the Italian Opera Company. Featured in the presentation will be 14 student leads, a chorus of 25, and an orchestra of 35 members.

Lead vocalists for the opera will be Marvin Solley of Louisville, Ky., who will sing Rigoletto; Louis McLane of Tyler, Gilde; Jean Harrison of Denton, understudy for Gilde; Ira Schantz of Lubbock and Jack Jackson of Amarillo, alternates for the Duke of Mantua; Martha Pender of Abilene, Maddalena; Jim Bob Nance of Amarillo, Sparafucile and Count Ceprano; John Miller of Dallas, Monterone; Charles Nelson of Denton, Marullo; Rowena Turney of Tulia, Countess Ceprano; E. C. Richards of Jacksboro, Borse; and Pat McConnell of Tulia, Giovanna.

Plot Of "Rigoletto"

The plot of "Rigoletto" deals with court intrigue in the 16th Century and centers around the Duke of Mantua and his courtiers. Rigoletto is the court buffoon who aids the duke in his affairs with the wives and daughters of the various noblemen of his time. Rigoletto's one redeeming characteristic is his love for his daughter, Gilda, whom he seeks to hide from the attentions of the duke and the other courtiers by keeping her concealed in a small cottage. Despite the care which Rigoletto has taken to conceal his daughter, however, the duke finds the girl and in the guise of a poor student wins her affection.

In the meantime, Rigoletto has been seen entering his daughter's home at night and the members of the court believe that he is having a secret love affair. Though their hatred for the court jester, they kidnep his supposed mistress and take her to the duke's palace. Learning that his daughter is being held captive at the palace, Rigoletto pleads for her release and finally the father and daughter are reunited. After Gilda confesses her meetings with the student and all the fatal consequences, her father vows to find an avenger for the duke's wrongs. Gilda still loves her betrayer and endeavors to halt her father's plans for revenge.

Accompanied by his daughter, Rigoletto goes to an inn where he plans to show her the infidelity of the duke, who is flirting with the innkeeper's sister, Maddalena. The court jester plots with the innkeeper, Sparafucile, to kill the duke and promises him a reward upon the delivery of his body. The innkeeper, however, is persuaded by his sister to spare the duke's life and murder the next person who enters the inn and use his body to deceive Rigoletto. By chance, Gilda, masquerading as a young man, overhears the conversation and goes into the inn to give her life to save that of her lover. Rigolette is given the body and is exulting over his revenge when he hears the laughing voice of the duke inside the inn. Then, opening the sack, he finds his bleeding child, who prays for mercy on her betrayer with her last words.

Orchestra personnel will include Louann Hardy, talented Lubbock violinist.

Texas Firm Declines Kaiser Aid In Buying WAA Facilities

DALLAS, Feb. 28 (AP) — The Lone Star Steel company intends to use its own funds to make a down payment to War Assets administration for purchase of manufacturing and coal facilities it uses.

E. B. Germany, Lone Star president, said the company would return $2,000,000 to Kaiser-Frazer Corp. And make its own down payment of $1,500,000 to the WAA.

Germany said that sale of pig iron and by-products produced at the Daingerfield blast furnaces has provided the company with enough cash with which to make the initial payment.

Bank credit available to the firm in Dallas will provide working capital if needed, he added.

The Kaiser-Frazer corporation has had $2,000,000 on deposit in Dallas banks for the purchase of Lone Star debentures and authorization was voted by the steel company's executive committee today to have the amount refunded to the Willow Run automobile manufacturers.

Virginia Faye Mitchell, Scott Vaughan Wed In Shallowater Methodist Church

SHALLOWATER, Feb. 28. (Special)—Miss Virginia Faye Mitchell, daughter of Bill Mitchell, and Scott Vaughan, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Vaughan of Shallowater, were married Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock at the Shallowater Methodist church with Rev. St Frank Weir, pastor, officiating at a single ring service.

The altar was decorated with baskets of pink Picardy gladioli and fern and lighted by tapers in candelabra.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Weir played "Indian Love Call" and "The Rosary." Ione Carole Johnson sang "Because" and Robert Sport sang "I Love You Truly." They were accompanied by Mrs. Weir who played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride wore a light blue wool suit with matching accessories and carried a white Bible topped with a pink carnation nosegay with pink satin streamers.

Sister Is Attendant

The bridegroom's sister, Miss Suzanne Vaughan, who attended as maid of honor, wore a white suit and corsage of American Beauty roses. Jimmy Clark of Shallowater best man.

Ushers were David Hamblin, Buell Wynn, Clyde Rucker and Buddy Weber.

Candles were lighted by Susie Lee Putman and Jimmie Ann Redwine.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in Fellowship hall at the church. Mesdames Jerry Putman, Shelby Haught, Joe Boozer were hostesses and they were assisted in hospitalities by Bonta Vance, Wyoma Thomas, Betty Davidson and Joe Pettiet.

Patsy Haught and Mary Ruth Redwine presided at the bride's book and cake and punch were served to eighty guests.

High Average Set At Club Show Auction

WICHITA FALLS, Feb. 28. (AP)—A new sales average of 46.7 cents a pound was established at the 17th annual 4-H and FFA district calf show here.

At the auction of 64 head of fine Herefords Friday the average was approximately 11.5 cents above the average for last year.

Fred Louis Crenshaw's grand champion Hereford brought $1.30 a pound. The Knox county boy realized $1,391 from his 1,070-pound calf, which was purchased by the City National bank.

EL PASO CHAMPION CALF BRINGS $2.05 A POUND

EL PASO, Feb. 28. (AP)—Buyers attending Friday's auction of Future Farmers of America and 4-H club prize winners in the Southwestern Livestock show here bought $27,975.31 worth of calves, fat lambs and swine.

Spirited bidding pushed the price for the show's top calf, a Hereford owned by Chris Kountz, Fort Davis, to $2.05 a pound. D L. McFadden of the El Paso Food Mart paid $2,037.70 for the calf.

Tornillo Oil mills paid $4 a pound for the grand champion lamb, a Southdown that brought $524 to Wayne Weaver, Ysleta, FFA member.

Burton Dickerman, fort Sumner, N. M., whose 208-pound barrow was grand champion, received $2 a pound from Furr Food Stores.

The grand champion capon, owned by G. H. Harfst, Alpine, brought $100 from Smith's hatchery. A pen of three capons, champions shown by Otis French, alpine, brought $105.

The reserve champion calf, a 995-pounder owned by Marilyn Guitar, Big Spring, brought $1 a pound. The reserve champion lamb, owned by Sonny Warnock, Fort Stockton, brought $1.75 a pound. The reserve champion barrow, owned by J. B. Houston, Fort Sumner, N. M., brought $1 a pound.

Moon Is Projected Through Television In New Experiment

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 28 (AP)—Now the moon is on television.

Dr. Roy Marshall, director of the Franklin Institute, reports a television camera was wheeled up to the eye of a telescope focused on the moon Thursday night and that lunar body was "on the air for nearly a minute."

"This is the first time that astronomy has been put on television," Dr. Marshall said.

"It opens up many possibilities. An astronomer may soon be able to sit in his office or home and see the sky and planets through television though the telescope may be several thousand miles away."

Dinner-Dance Given By Delta Theta Chi

Louise Gentry Weds Charlie Brake In Slaton Ceremony

SLATON, Feb. 28 (Special)—Miss Louise Gentry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Gentry of Posey, became the bride of Charlie V. Brake, son of Mrs. Mamie Brake of Slaton, in a double ring ceremony read at the Methodist parsonage in Slaton Feb. 21. Rev. Cal O. Wright officiated.

The bride wore a brown suit with nailhead trim and brown accessories and a corsage of Talisman roses. Her rhinestone necklace was a gift from the bridegroom.

Mrs. Stinson R. Behlen of Slaton attended her sister as matron of honor and Mr. Behlen was best man.

The bride is a graduate of Slaton High school, attended Draughon's Business college and has been employed at Southern Auto stores in Lubbock for the past one and one-half years.

Mr. Brake also is a graduate of Slaton High school and served in the Navy for three years. He is now employed by the Santa Fe Railway.

H-D Club Talks Are On Insurance, Wills

Mrs. Glen M. Wages was hostess to the Farm Neighborly Home Demonstration club which met Friday afternoon for a program on "Insurance and Wills."

"The way to get the most from your insurance policy is to read it and know it," according to Mrs. Wade Kelley, and in the opinion of Mrs. Wages. "It is a good plan for the wife to keep up with financial affairs so if the husband should die, she would know how to carry on the business." Mrs. Charles W. Hicks urged, "Be sure that you have a will, even if you do not have a great deal of property," and added that it is better to secure the help of a lawyer in drawing up a will, but a person can do it himself.

Other members present were: Mesdames Paul James, Oran Mauldin, L. E. Bartlett and L. G. Caudle.

Next meeting will be on Friday, March 12.

For Sunshine Club

"Insurance and Wills" was also the program theme of the Sunshine Home Demonstration club which met Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Robert Mauldin.

Topics of discussion were: "Life Insurance for the Family," Mrs. J. F. Beck; "Get the Most From Your Insurance Policy," Mrs. Fred McPherson; "Financial Affairs of the Family," Mrs. Mauldin; and "Have You a Will?," Mrs. George Long.

The club voted to send the president, Mrs. J. H. Lane, as representative at council as possible delegate ot the Home Demonstration association meeting in Plainview during April.

Members atetnding were: Mesdames J. B. Vickery, R. C. Early, Long, H. C. Watson, McPherson, L. W. Fristoe, J. H. Bentley, Beck, H. K. Hicks and Earl Fine. Mrs. J. O. Turner was a visitor.

Next meeting wil lbe on Friday, March 12, with Mrs. J. W. Parker, and the program subject will be "Let's Eat Food."

FOR HILLCREST CLUB

Hillcrest Home Demonstration club met in the home of Mrs. C. F. Jacobs Wednesday afternoon with the hostess and Mrs. Lloyd Pollard giving demonstrations on linens, discussing the fabric quality, brands and manner of buying.

A discussion on "Insurance and Wills" was given by Mrs. E. Y. Lee, jr. The five members present were Mesdames Sam Ogle, E. H. Erwin, Lee, Pollard and Jacobs.

Next meeting will be March 10.

American Girl Quits Her Job For Love Of Russian Husband

MOSCOW, Feb. 28. (U.P.)—U. S. embassy officials disclosed today the story of an American girl who quit her responsible embassy job and renounced her American citizenship for the Russian she loves.

She is Annabelle Bucar, 33, of Clarton, Pa., who informed Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith in a letter of resignation that she secretly married a Russian operetta star 13 months ago.

Finds New Happiness

She said in her letter she could no longer continue working with people whose opinion of the Russians does not coincide with the new happiness she has found with her husband, Konstantine Lapkin, known as Kostya to his intimates.

Miss Bucar, a stately blonde of Serbian parents who speaks Serbian and Russian, worked for the refugee Yugoslav government in New York during the war and arrived in Moscow as a State department employe in 1946.

Are Fine People

She was an administrative officer in the information section, principally handling the business affairs of the State department magazine "America."

Miss Bucar said that during her year and a half in Moscow, despite the influence of American reactionaries, she has discovered that the Russians are "fine people," She has decided to remain here and cast her lot in with them, she said.

IMMIGRANT FATHER DISOWNS DAUGHTER

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 28. (U.P.)—Ivan Bucar, immigrant farmer, today disowned his daughter, Annabelle, who quit her job in the Moscow embassy and renounced her citizenship to marry a Russian.

"I have nothing to do with her . . .," Bucar declared.

Bucar was bewildered and bitter when he learned that his University of Pittsburgh-educated daughter had decided to "start life anew in Russia."

A native of Austria, Bucar came to America at the age of 15. He is now 52 and a naturalized citizen. He owns a 500-acre farm and coal mines. He has raised 12 children, of whom Annabelle is the eldest.

She made a fool of herself," he said, shaking his tousled head. "This was bad, bad move. I'm shocked. I don't see how there could be better country than this. It has given Bucars everything. There is nothing I can do."

Merger Of Northern Baptists, Disciples Of Christ Studied

DALLAS, Feb. 28. (U.P.) — Dr. Peder Stiansen, dean of the Northern Baptist Theological seminary at Chicago, Ill., believes that the Northern Baptists may merge eventually with the Disciples of Christ (Christian church).

Dr. Stiansen, in Dallas for four lectures on church history under sponsorship of the Dallas Theological seminary, pointed out yesterday that general conventions of both denominations have committees studying the merger idea. It is the first time the merger has gotten out of the discussion stage, he said, although the matter has been considered for years.

Latin Problems To Be Studied

AUSTIN, Feb. 28 (AP)—Social and economic problems of Texas' Spanish-speaking population are to be studied under a $41,000 general education board grant to the University of Texas.

The board of regents accepted the grant today.

The study, set up for a two-year period, is under supervision of Dr. George I. Sanchez, professor of Latin American education. A coordinating committee is to work with Dr. Sanchez. Regional conferences and publication of the resultant survey are contemplated.

Fund Is Budgeted

The regents approved a budget calling for a $20,500 expenditure during the first year of the project.

The grant was one of 12 totalling more than $73,000 that the regent board formally accepted. Others included the following:

From Shell Oil company, two $1,500 fellowships.

From the Reconstruction Finance corporation, an additional $17,500 to extend its rubber reserve research program.

From Pan American Petroleum Refining corporation, a $1,250 chemistry fellowship.

The medical branch received the following gifts and grants:

From the American Cancer society's Texas division, $3,834 for work in the tumor clinic; and $883 for use in cancer research.

From the American allergy fund, Cleveland, Ohio, $35,000 for allergy studies.

Other Research Funds

From Comemrcial Solvents corporation, $500 for research on degenerative vascular diseases.

From Corn Products Refining Co., $500 for research on cadiovascular diseases.

Scholarship awards were announced for the following students:

Patsy R. Harris of Waco, Wanda Louis Jones of Jacksonville, and Laurn Edward Heckert of Brownsville, all received Laverne Noyes scholarships covering all fees for the current semester and 1948 summer session.

Annis Louise Olsen of Clifton, Laverne Noyes scholarship of the 1947-48 long session and the 1948 summer session.

LEARN HOME NURSING — Twenty-two girls at Senior High school enrolled in the first Red Cross home nursing class taught in Lubbock county have learned under professional supervision to make an unoccupied bed for the sick and an occupied bed, how to take pulse and temperature and now are learning to give bed baths for persons with different types of illness and injuries. In the picture above, Miss Annon Price, instructor of the course, is demonstrating procedure for a bed bath as she folds the wash rag properly while Helen Horton, left, and Trilby Jean Nickey look on. The "patient" is Faye Pharr. Miss Price, instructor in nursing arts at West Texas hospital School of Nursing, is teaching the 20 hours of the course that are sponsored by the Red Cross. Miss Gertrude Watson, teacher of Homemaking 40 class which is studying the course, is class teacher throughout the semester. Other Red Cross instructors in home nursing, in addition to Miss Price, will give demonstration and examinations as needed. The Lubbock county Red Cross chapter hopes the girls, most of whom are seniors and some juniors, will assist the chapter as nurse's aides to doctors and registered nurses in the blood bank program planned in the county.

Full Pardon, Restoration Of Citizenship Granted Slaton

AUSTIN, Feb. 28 (AP)—A full pardon and restoration of citizenship has been granted to Jack Slaton of Flagstaff, Ariz., who was sentenced to 20 years for rape in 1936 and conditionally pardoned in 1941.

Slaton was convicted in district court of Williamson county.

The proclamation granting full citizenship rights was signed by Gov. Beauford H. Jester Feb. 21 and issued from his office today.

Action was taken on the recommendation of the deputy sheriff, chief of police and other citizens of Flagstaff.

Other clemencies today included conditional pardons for the following men:

Herman Cawthorn — sentenced in Smith county in 1945 to five years for robbery by assault.

David Jackson — sentenced in Dewitt county in 1945 to five years for burglary.

Green Is Candidate For Commissioner Of Precinct Two

George G. Green of Slaton authorized The Avalanche-Journal Saturday to announce his candidacy for the office of county commissioner of precinct 2, subject to action of the Democratic primaries.

In a formal statement, he said:

"In my opinion, there will be a vast improvement in road building in this section of the state in the next few years Being aware of this fact, and since I am experienced in the building and maintenance of roads, I would like to be in position to serve as your representative in such a program.

Experience Beneficial

"After discussing the matter with many friends and voters in this precinct, I have decided to enter as a candidate for county commissioner of precinct 2. My experience as a past member of the Slaton city commission and of the Slaton school board will be most beneficial in the handling of the duties of this most important county office.

"I have been a resident of Lubbock county the last 29 years, and have been a property owner and taxpayer the greater part of this time. For the past year and a half I have been employed by this precinct as road maintainer, and am still employed in that capacity.

"I feel that I am qualified and, if elected as your county commissioner, will endeavor to do the things that would be most beneficial to this part of Lubbock county. I will do my best to spend the precinct's funds wisely and economically.

"I will thank you for your votes and support, and hope to meet every voter of this precinct in the near future."

Former Resident Is Claimed In Arizona

A. F. Ham, jr., 38, who lived in Lubbock three years before going to Bisbee, Ariz., about 10 years ago, died after being found unconscious at the Copper Queen Mine at Bisbee Friday.

The body will be brought to Lubbock, arriving Monday morning, Rix Funeral home reported.

Mr. Ham was found unconscious in a drift of the Copper Queen mine Friday afternoon and died without regaining consciousness. Company officials said he was making a routine check of the water lines in the junction unit of the mine. An autopsy was to be performed Saturday, the Associated Press repoarted from Bisbee.

He had been employed by the Phelps Dodge corporation in the Bisbee mines since going there.

He is survived by his wife; three daughters; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Ham of Lubbock route 4; four brothers, James Ham of Lubbock route 1 and Scott, John and Charles Ham of Bisbee, and seven sisters, Mesdames E. M. Wilbanks, Paul Isbell, M. T. Gibson, L. D. Amerson and Roy Johnson of Lubbock, R. E. Smith of Bisbee and A. B. Hodgson of Morenci.

Funeral services were to be conducted Saturday afternoon in Trinity Methodist church in Warren, Ariz.

Sunspots On Decline And More Fun Is Promised Radio's Fans

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (AP) — Sunspots will be on the decline for awhile, says the Bureau of Standards—and that means more fun for radio fans.

However, life won't be so happy for radio's amateur "hams," because sunspots help instead of hinder them.

And, commercial radio communications systems, aircraft and army radio operators will have to switch bands. They usually employ high-frequency bands for world-wide communication, but now will have to use the alternate lower-frequency ones.

Pains In The Neck

Sunspots—or whillwinds on the sun's surface—are pains in the neck to ordinary radio listeners for this reason:

When the spots are numerous, they cause "magnetic storms" in the atmosphere, resulting in radio fadeouts.

On the other hand, the radio "ham" and other users of high frequency waves feel kindly toward sunspots because they help provide a good reflecting layer in the sky for high frequency radiowaves.

Sunspots activity occurs in cycles of about 11 years. That is, at some point during the 11 years, the number of spots reaches a maximum; then the number starts declining until a new cycle starts. The reason for this cyclic activity is not known.

Bureau of Standards scientists said today that the "peak" in the present 11-year cycle was reached last May—when the number of spots was the greatest in recorded history.

Last year was the fourth year in the current cycle, which means that the decline will continue for about seven years.

Cupid Wears Tophat And Morning Coat Of Diplomacy But Runs Into Complications

SHANGHAI, Feb. 28. (AP)—Cupid wore a tophat and the morning coat of diplomacy, but still he encountered international complications in tying the wedding knot for a prominent Swede and a Dutchwoman.

Here is a dart-by-dart account of what happened:

Sweden's top diplomat in China, Baron Henlik Ramel, proposed to pretty Saskia Vandenberg, daughter of the Dutch minister. She said "yes," but Ramel had no diplomatic superior to perform the ceremony. His sweetheart suggested the Dutch ambassador.

That was all right with the Dutch envoy, F. C. Aerssen, but he said he could marry them only up to the point of where Saskia said "I do." She would then become a Swedish citizen and Van Aerssen would not be authorized to sign the marriage certificate.

Into this perplexing picture now steps China's foreign minister, Wang Shi-Chieh. Wang, who can both perform the ceremony and sign the document, said today he will do just that on March 6.

Mistress Of Seas Losing Her Power

LONDON, Feb. 28 (AP) — Britain, for centuries mistress of the seas, says she now has no battleships nor heavy aircraft carriers ready for combat.

A white paper on navy estimates disclosed yesterday that three cruisers on "show of strength missions" in the Honduras and the Antarctic are among the biggest ships available.

They are the Sheffield, Devonshire and Nigeria. The Sheffield carries six-inch guns as her heaviest armament and displaces 9,100 tons. The Devonshire, displacing 9,850 tons, carries six eight-inch guns. The Nigeria displaces 8,000 tons and carries six-inch guns.

Stored Wheat Non-Taxable If Producer Holds Title

AUSTIN, Feb. 28 (U.P) — A ruling by the attorney general's office held today that regardless of where it is stored, wheat stored by a farmer in a grain elevator is not taxable if he is the producer of the wheat.

However, when the wheat is no longer owned by the farmer, as the producer, it is "subject to tax as any other personal property of the then owner."

The opinion was given in answer to a query from L. A. Woods state superintendent of the department of education, who asked:

"If a farmer lives in another county and has wheat stored in an elevator in the Amarillo independent school district, is the farmer who owns the wheat supposed to pay taxes in the district where the wheat is stored, or in the district in which he lives?"

Big Economic Problem Is How To Keep Workers In The Mines

BY HAL BOYLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

WILKES-BARRE, Penn.—How you gonna keep 'em down in the mines?

That is the big economic problem today in the booming anthracite fields of eastern Pennsylvania, where hard coal is again the black bread of plenty.

There have been lean years here in the hunkerous man-made hills of the beautiful Wyoming valley. In those years depression and the rising use of oil and natural gas as fuel dropped the production of the rich Pennsylvania fields to half its peak 1923 output of 93,339,000 tons.

The worry then was to find work. Thousands of men dug bootleg coal to keep hunger from their homes.

Market Is Widening

Today oil is short and the coal market again is widening.

"Our biggest problem now is to get out enough coal to meet the demand," said F. W. Earnest, president of the Anthracite Institute.

And the crux of that problem is—there are thousands of unemployed men here, but they won't go down into the mines. It has both coal company and labor union officials worried.

The pay is good.

"A miner can average $15 a day," said Harry W. Montz, mining engineer for the Lehigh Valley Coal company. "And a good worker can make $100 a week or more.

"A young man can become a miner after serving only two years as an appretice laborer, and even as a laborer he can get $10 to $12 a day.

Takes More Skill

"Mining coal takes more skill than most factory jobs. It is a craftman's job—just as much so as cabinet work."

But employment in the 470-square-mile area where the bulk of the nation's hard coal is produced has dropped from about 150,000 men in 1920 to 79,000. About one-third are actual miners.

"There are operations in this area today that could use 4,000 more miners," said Earnest, "and the anthracite industry as a whole could easily employ 8,000."

Why are $100 a week jobs going begging? Many sons and grandsons of slav, Welch and English immigrants who came here to work the mines have a reluctance to work underground. They fear, as one man said, "they'll be old men at 40, broken in health, with their faces and hands blue-pitted from the coal."

Many want to get away from their father's trade and become "white collar workers." So they seek lower-paying jobs in factories and offices.

New Gadget Seen As Parking Aid

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28 (AP) — There's a new gadget out that will help you from marring your fenders or white sidewall tires when parking.

It is an electric signal device that buzzes when the car is within four and a half inches of the curb. Pacific Factory, trade magazine, describes it in its February issue.

The signal is mounted at the rear of the righthand front fender and on the front part of the rear fender on the same side. A tiny signal coil extends out from the mounting.

When the signal coil touches the curb or any other obstacle a buzzer warns the driver that the car is within four and a half inches of the curb.

Suspended Sentence Is Given In Sending Of Extortion Note

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 28 (U.P) — Mrs. Jane Bean, 20-year-old Kaufman, Tex., housewife, was under a one-year suspended sentence today for sending a $5,000 extortion note to film star Betty Grable.

The pretty blonde housewife, who also was fined $50, told Federal Judge J. F. T. O'Connor she sent the note because she heard movie people had a lot of money and she wanted some of it. She pleaded guilty and asked for probation.

New Use For Coal Seen In Plan To Make Gas For Synthetic Fuel

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Feb. 28 (AP)—The coal people are thinking of setting their mines on fire.

In the past they spent millions of dollars fighting accidental fires. Now they think there may be big profits in setting the mines afire on purpose.

It sounds zany, but it's a real possibility. The big question is whether the fires can be controlled to get what they want—gas from which they can make synthetic fuels.

Fires Have Been Problem

Wild fires have been a costly problem here in the Wyoming valley, heart of the nation's concentrated hard coal fields, since 1873.

More than a decade ago it was estimated that in this valley area alone $12,000,000 had been spent fighting underground fires.

Still burning is the famous Red Ash fire, a subterranean 400-acre blaze bordering "giant's despair," a steep curved road where 40 years ago 30,000 people used to crowd to watch Ralph De Palma and Barnet Oldfield in annual hill climb races.

In 1914 a miner's lamp set fire to overhead timbers in the Red Ash mine. Since then some four million tons of highgrade coal have gone up in sulphurous smoke from this uncontrollable blaze.

That represents almost one-tenth as much anthracite as has been produced in the United States in some years. And the smoke still rolls up from the long-deserted shafts, turning the countryside into a stricken rocky desert where no grass grows and no birds sing.

Hundreds of men have fought and failed to quell this fire.

Mine fires are all but impossible to put out. But it is easy to start them. In the anthracite institute laboratory here a portion of the $1,000,000 the industry spends each year on research is being devoted to see just how mine fires do burn.

"If we learn that we may find out whether they can be controlled to get the results we want," said Dr. R. C. Johnson, research director who ha sbuilt a model mine in the laboratory for test purposes.

Johnson believes that when the nation's supply of natural gas is exhausted burning coal mines will become the cheapest way to produce synthetic gas—from which can be made gasoline, diesel oil, alcohol, waxes, medicines and other products. "Mining is the big expense."

There is still another advantage to burning the coal in the mines, but Johnson didn't mention it.

Nobody has to haul out the ashes.

Towel Left In Abdomen Of Mother After A Caesarean Operation Found 2 Years Later

SAN MATEO, Calif., Feb. 28. (AP)—A towel left in the abdomen of a South San Francisco mother during a Caesarean operation two years ago has been removed in a recent operation here, Dr. Harold Marks, Community hospital superintendent, reported last night.

He said the woman was Mrs. Lillian Arthur, 30, wife of Frank Arthur, and the mother of six children. The Arthurs came here from Bremerton, Wash., last year.

The towel, 18 by 12 inches, bore the name of a Bremerton hospital, Dr. Marks said. It was removed by Drs. Henry Brown, E. F. Hansen and Lawrence Morten, the superintendent added, during the course of an operation for a double hernia.

He quoted the mother as saying she was delivered of twins by Caesarean section in the Bremerton hospital in April, 1946.

Later, Mrs. Arthur complained of pain. She lost weight rapidly, falling off from some 250 pounds to 150 pounds within several months, Dr. Marks said.

"I have nothing against my Bremerton doctors," Mrs. Arthur told newsmen. "They took care of all my children."

She said she had suspected something was wrong but that X-rays revealed nothing.

Plain cottage cheese may be piled lightly in a dish and garnished with a sprinkling of chopped pimento, a few sprigs of parsley, finely chopped chives, a sprinkling of paprika, tomato sections and served with melba toast along with the main course. Or it may be served as part of a dessert course when topped with raisins or strips of date, or dots of bright red jelly.

OFFICIAL SAYS BUSINESS SOUND

Prospects For Cattle Industry In U. S. During Year Are Bright

By TEX EASLEY
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28—Cattlemen are in a good business in 1948.

That's the considered opinion of Charles A. Burmeister, veteran economist and analyst of the Agricultural department.

"Livestock today is in the soundest position of any branch of agriculture," said Burmeister, who has been with the government since graduation from Texas A. and M. college in 1908.

Outlook Said Bright

"All of the factors that make for a favorable outlook are present. The population of the country is increasing. There is a strong demand for meat which increased sharply during war years. Labor income is high and there is a lack of import competition."

Unless a sharp recession or depression develops and drastically lowers consumer purchasing power, he added, meat prices will remain high and likely will rise at least for the next two or three years.

He said the recent dro pin meat prices could be attributed to a great extent to a seasonal decline.

New Rise In Prices Seen

"Prices will naturally go up again unless consumer demand falls off," he continued.

"The only way we could have cheap meats this years is to have a depression with people laid off from work. What the big industries do regarding employment, of course, is out of my line."

Reviewing the livestock picture, he noted that 16 months have elapsed since most of the war-time price controls were discontinued. During that period prices have been free to find their natural level as determined by supply and demand. Backed by consumer incomes more than double those of prewar years, that demand has caused praises to reach all-time highs.

Meat consumption during the past year was the greatest on record, about 155 pounds per capita. Because the supply of meat per person is decreasing, the per capita consumption this year is estimated at 143 pounds. Still above the average of 130 pounds of the 1930s. These figures include pork and lamb products.

High Reached In 1944

The all-time high cattle population in the United States of 85,600,000 head was reached at the end of 1944. The estimate now is 76,000,000 to 77,000,000.

The number was reduced by 4,500,000 head in 1945 and 1946, and by approximately that number last year to bring about a total reduction of about 9,000,000 or 10 per cent in three years. Actual figures are:

Beginning of 1945—Population was 85,600,000 head. Calf crop that year was 35,200,000, supplemented by imports of 500,000 head. Slaughter was 35,300,000 head, and death losses accounted for 3,500,000. Net decrease was 3,100,000 head.

In 1946 the slaughter was 32,000,000 head and death losses 4,400,000, for a total disappearance of 36,400,000 head. The calf crop was 34,500,000 and imports 500,000. Net loss was 1,400,000 head.

In 1947, based on unofficial estimates, the slaughter was 36,000,000, death losses 3,600,000, for a total disappearance of 39,600,000 head. The calf crop was 34,800,000 and imports 100,000. The net loss in cattle population during the year was 4,700,000.

Cattle Disease Takes Toll

Spread of the foot and mouth disease in Mexico accounted for the sharp drop in imports, as most cattle brought into this country had been coming in from south of the border. Imports now are restricted altogether.

Cattle imported from Canada are negligible in number because of an embargo imposed by the Canadian government to enable it to carry out commitments to furnish beef for Great Britain. These commitments extend to 1950. Cattle prices in Canada are only about half as high as in this country, so the removal of this embargo would cause prices to rise sharply in Canada and prompt complaints there.

Illustrating what has been happening in the United States during the past five years with its record-breaking per capita meat consumption, Burmeister likened the situation to a man who had $10,000 capital, made $3,000 yearly but spent $4,000 a year.

"We have been living off our reserves," he added. "Obviously we couldn't keep that up. It will be difficult to get back to our maximum production again in less than 10 years.

"In my judgment the long-time prospects indicate a need for greater livestock production to take care of future demands."

He expressed uncertainty as to how much longer cattle numbers will decrease, but added:

"The downward trend will end when producers have more confidence in future price stability and when they find it necessary to retain cattle to obtain the maximum net return from their pastures and crops.

"Assuming that the present downward trend in cattle numbers is not likely to end before 1950, there is reason to expect that supplies of cattle and calves for slaughter will probably continue to decrease until 1952 or 1953."

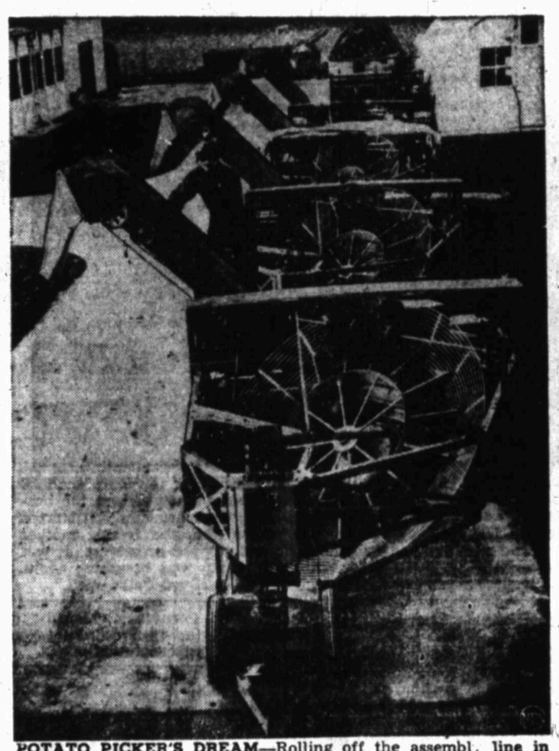

Other data Burmeister pointed out included these facts:

The past year ended with prices up 7 per cent over December of 1946 on hogs, 13 per cent on lambs, 18 per cent on cattle, and 30 per cent on calves.

Except on calves these increases were only about enough to offset the rise of 14.5 per cent in prices of goods farmers buy. The purchasing power of lambs decreased 1 per cent and that of hogs 6 per cent. Purchasing power of dairy products and poultry declined even more.

Compared with their purchasing power in 1941, cattle are up 25 per cent, lambs 22 per cent, and hogs 54 per cent. In 1941, hogs were 5 per cent below parity and cattle and lambs about 21 per cent above. Prices on all three now are about 50 per cent above parity.

Parity is a price level selected to give farmers purchasing power roughly equal to that they enjoyed during the 1909 to 1914 period.

POTATO PICKER'S DREAM—Rolling off the assembl, line in London, these new British potato harvesters do the day's work of a gang of 20 skilled men and are being produced on a large scale after successful tryouts. Invented by Percival Packman, the picker is operated by three men and easily digs 60 tons of spuds in eight hours.

Rules Of New Labor Agreement Are Told

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (AP) — Here are the rules U. S. employers must follow in hiring Mexican agricultural workers:

1. Have a U. S. employment service statement that workers are not available in this country.
2. Have a permit from the immigration and naturalization service allowing them to import a specific number of workers.
3. Guarantee to pay for the workers' transportation to the job and back to Mexico.

An agreement was signed in Mexico last week. It replaces the one that went into effect March 10, 1947.

It will "provide for the temporary employment of Mexican agricultural workers in the U. S."

Under the agreement, the State department said, thousands of agricultural workers brought into the U. S. last year can keep their jobs.

The agreement says Mexican workers cannot be used to replace domestic employes. It adds that the Mexican workers cannot be used to push down wages or depress other working conditions.

Three-Vehicle Accident Near Sealy Fatal To Youth, 19

SEALY, Tex., Feb. 28 (AP)—A three-vehicle traffic accident near here last night cost the life of a 19-year-old youth.

The victim was identified by Justice of the Peace R. A. Engelking as Nick M. Gress of Flatonia.

Occupants of the two other vehicles, both trucks, were not seriously injured.

Sitdown Strike By Homeless Mother And Children Ended

BOSTON, Feb. 28 (U.P.)—A sitdown strike staged by a homeless mother and her three children in Mayor James M. Curley's office brought an end to apartment-hunting for Mrs. Adeline Hunnafield yesterday. The mayor's personal secretary quickly found a vacant apartment and the family was moved to its new home in Curley's private automobile.

Red Scourge In Europe Proving A Threat To The Entire World

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press Staff Writer

Moscow's rape of Czechoslovakia brings western Democracies face to face with the grim certainty that further concessions to Russia or her slave-states lead down the broad highway to disaster.

The reaction from the chancelleries of Democracy show they are recognizing belatedly that they've been giving aid to their enemy on the battlefield — providing him with ammunition to use against them.

They are realizing that Russia meant it when she declared war was a finish against the Democracies.

Must Stand For Himself

They are learning tardily that there are times when even the exponent of the Golden Rule no longer can turn the other cheek but must stand up for himself.

On top of the joint American-British-French condemnation of the Red aggression in Czechoslovakia, we get an illuminating declaration from French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault. He told the national assembly that the Communist seizure of Czechoslovakia menaces the liberty of the rest of Europe, and pushes the continent back to where it was when Hitler was climbing to power.

"An event of incalculable consequence," he declared, "has now rendered futile all efforts to liquidate Europe from an intense tyranny. . . . It is impossible to think that these maneuvers in the east can be pursued without leading to some change in the hearts of Frenchmen."

Blunt language that. And it comes from the foreign minister of a nation which has pursued a policy of trying to act as mediator between Russia and the Anglo-American Democracies. It comes from the member of a government which itself is threatened by the Red scourge.

Bidault might well have been more inclusive in his remark that the liberty of Europe is menaced. The Liberty of the United States and all the rest of the western hemisphere is menaced. The liberty of Asia is menaced. Let's be realistic for once and recognize that this Bolshevist drive is a world revolution—so described by Bolshevism itself.

We don't need to abandon the idea that right will triumph in the end, but we shall be foolish if we don't stop to consider how long it may take that "end" to arrive. We are entitled to try to ensure that it doesn't come after you and I have been killed off. It would be nice for this generation as well as posterity to have a little peace, and be able to lie on its back in the sun and wiggle its toes.

LEGISLATION IS BLOCKED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (AP) — The Senate scuttled St. Lawrence seaway legislation today by sending it back to committee for further study. The action means, in effect, that no further Senate consideration will be given the multi-million dollar project this session.

POLICEMEN BRING "DEAD" BABY TO LIFE—Three-week-old Dale Gabor, left, above, had stopped breathing for more than 30 minutes and was apparently dead in Cleveland's St. Alexis hospital. But policemen Anton Plute and Edward Campbell, at the hospital on a routine assignment, brought the "dead" baby back to life. Mrs. Lottie Gabor was awakened when her new son started coughing. She noticed he was gasping and tried breathing into his mouth for an hour. Failing to revive him, the frantic mother rushed to the hospital, where doctors vainly used artificial respiration and stimulants, even after Dale had stopped breathing. It was then Plute and Campbell arrived. They used their ambulance's resuscitator and within 15 minutes the baby was breathing again. It was the third time in 18 months Plute had saved a child's life. At right, above, Plute, left and Campbell signal "all's well."

Doughnut-Dunking Approved By Emily

NEW YORK, Feb. 28 (U.P.)—Emily Post approved doughtnut-dunking today. In a letter to the National Dunking association she explained how to be socially correct about dunking. Said Miss Post: "The doughnut should be broken in half and neatly dipped into coffee or some other beverage."

Perfection Of Simple Method Of Growing Plants Claimed

CONWAY, Ark., Feb. 28. (AP)—An Arkansas professor of biology claims to have perfected a "simple" good-growing process he believes may be used to provide peace and plenty for the world.

It is a method of growing plants in "hydrophonicums" (tanks) of sterilized sand and feeding them by flowing chemical solutions through the sand to their roots.

The professor, Dr. E. A. Spessard of Hendrix college, a small Methodist institution here, described his experiments in a book ("The Tanks Are Coming") published this week.

Dr. Spessard said his method virtually eliminates three problems of agriculture — poor soil, floods and drouth.

The process, known as "hydroponics," is not new, but Dr. Spessard said methods used by other experimenters have been too complicated and costly to be commercially practical for the common man. He contends that simplified equipment and chemical formulas he has developed open the way for practical utilization.

Peanut Made First Bow Into U. S. In Slave Ships; Developed Into Major Industry

By GEORGE TUCKER
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Feb. 28—One of the romantic tales of history is how peanuts came to the United States.

They grew from a few bags used as forage into a crop that last year totalled 1,126,000 tons. The men who cultivated them got $213,000,000.

The man who buys a 10 cent bag in a baseball park reaches clear down to the Incas for his pleasure.

Peanuts Started In Peru

Peanuts began in Peru. The Conquistadors found the Incas munching them between meals.

The Spaniards took them in their treasure galleons back to Spain, where they flourished.

Then they took them to Africa, where they got tied in with the slave trade.

The slavers fed them to the natives because they were cheap and easy to grow. The natives called them "goobers."

When the slavers crammed the natives into holds and began the long journey to America they used peanuts as slave food.

Upon landing, the slaves built rude cabins, and planted peanuts near their cabin doors.

Gradually peanuts spread through the south and changed from a slave to a money crop.

They continued as a southern specialty until the Civil war. The Yankees captured large stores of them and took them north, where they became popular and confectioners recognized their value as an ingredient in sweets.

In the 1890's a doctor at Battle Creek, Michigan, named Keylogg, crushed the nuts into a creamy mass and called it peanut butter.

Peanuts now are a price-supported crop. They grow in three principal areas througtout the South and Southwest. The average price per pound in 1947 was 10.2 cents.

About 200,000 tons of the 1947 crop will be needed for farm consumption and to seed this year's crops, the Department of Agriculture said.

Crushed peanuts produce an oil that is an excellent substitute for olive oil. It is used extensively in cooking and as a salad dressing. The pressed cake and meal that remains is sold as cattle fodder.

Peanut hay, which is the dried top of the plant, is a source of important income to peanut growers, who bale it and sell it for stock feed. Hay proceeds often pay the expense of harvesting the crop.

Two Sheep As Surprised As Woman When They Enter Home

BELTON, Mont., Feb., 28. (AP)—Mrs. Fred Knowlton, wife of the Many Glacier caretaker in Glacier Park, was busy in her kitchen when she heard footsteps on the front porch.

Then the door latch clicked and Mrs. Knowlton called "come in."

The door opened on two unusual visitors—a Rocky Mountain bighorn sheep and her lamb.

Demos Hand GOP Solons Problem Of Farm Price Support Program

By OVID A. MARTIN
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28—The Democratic administration today checked to the Republican Congress the problem of what to do about supporting farm prices after December 31.

Unless Congress acts in the meantime, price supports for many farm commodities will be ended on that date.

This prospect might become an important issue in farm states in the coming presidential campaign.

Had Sought Legislation

Secretary of Agriculture Anderson outlined the administration's position in letters to Senator Capper and Rep. Hope, Kansas Republicans who head the Senate and House Agriculture committees.

Anderson wrote that he had asked Congress more than a year ago to pass new price support legislation, but that it had failed to do so. He said he does not want to take the responsibility for saying what those policies should be after the present law expires.

That law makes most farm products eligible for price supports at not less than 90 per cent of parity until the end of this year. Parity is a standard for measuring farm prices so they will be equally fair to producers and consumers.

Numerous Crops Included

After January 1 the government is required to support crops like corn, wheat, cotton, tobacco, rice, and peanuts at between 52 and 75 per cent of parity. It has permission to support others, but is not required to do so.

Commodities in this group include hogs, eggs, milk, butterfat, turkeys, chickens, potatoes, sweet potatoes, soybeans, flaxseed, peanuts for oil, dry beans and peas, and American-Egyptian cotton.

The present support programs were set up during the war to encourage maximum production by guaranteeing farmers a relatively high price for their crops.

Now that needs are easing somewhat Anderson wrote Capper and Hope, there is danger that the present "inflexible" support system will encourage "excessive and wasteful" production of some products.

The secretary said he favors a system of flexible price supports, ranging from 52 to 90 per cent of parity.

Slaying Of Brady Man In Chicago Ruled Justifiable

CHICAGO, Feb. 28 (AP)—A coroner's jury here ruled yesterday that the fatal slugging of William G. Featherson, 31, Brady, Tex., was justifiable homicide.

Featherson was beaten by a man in the corridor of any apartment building here Thursday. He died later in a hospital.

Police charged John J. Ferrarini, 24, a cab driver, with manslaughter. Ferrarini said he found Featherson and Pedro Zopata, 28, pounding on a door in the building.

The door was to the apartment of Mrs. Jean Rosasco, 35. She said she did not know either of the men. Ferrarini said he beat Featherson on the head to quiet him.

Debate Will Be Club Feature

The international significant problem, "Is Our Foreign Policy a Step Toward Peace?" will be debated by two outstanding speakers and writers, H. R. Knickerbocker and Walter Duranty, before Lubbock Knife and Fork club at its dinner at 7 o'clock Friday night at Hotel Lubbock, Lewis B. Rix, club secretary announced.

Knickerbocker, roving correspondent and Pulitzer prize winner, upholds the affirmative position, firmly believing that this country's foreign policy is designed to prevent the Kremlin from encroaching further on the free peoples.

Failed To Recognize Aim

The old foreign policy, up to secretaryship of Byrnes, failed to recognize the Russian aim of "eventual domination of the world" and from 1939 to 1946 Russia was allowed to bring under "the effective control of the Kremlin" 120 million free people in 12 European states, he stated in information received by the club. "We could not liberate those people without war on Russia and we do not intend to make war to free them," he stated. "But we have now made it plain in our foreign policy that we will not allow Russia to capture any more territory and people. We have made it plain that we will make war on Russia to prevent her from further conquest. Is that a step toward peace? The answer, I believe, is decidedly 'yes.'"

An opposing view of the peace-inducing qualities of the new foreign policy is taken by Duranty, British-born author and widely-read authority on Soviet affairs who thinks that insofar as the new policy is directed against the Soviet union it has served to produce friction, not peace, and if not modified might easily lead to World war III. He says, "One cannot practice coercion without producing counter-action. The new foreign policy can only work toward peace if it is directed toward finding points of contact, not of conflict, with the youthful forces of the Soviet union."

From 15 to 20 per cent of their light is absorbed by dust film on electric light bulbs.

SHE HAS A YEN FOR MONEY—This is inflation, brother! Betty Bazon flicks through one million yen which just arrived in Chicago from the Far East for display purposes. It represents only $7 in U. S. currency.

Moody Interests Buy 8-Story Dallas Hotel From Rupe & Son

DALLAS, Feb. 28 (AP)—The 225-room Sanger hotel, built in 1926 at a cost of $1,000,000, is now owned by the vast Moody interests of Galveston.

Sale of the eight-story structure, situated in downtown Dallas, was announced yesterday by W. Rex Cromwell, vice-president of Dallas Rupe & Son, investiment bankers and associates.

Rupe and associates bought the building in 1938 for $750 000. The price of the latest transaction was reported to exceed $600,000.

The Moody interests own the Galveston News and Galveston Tribune, hotels, cotton facilities, dockage, insurance and other interests here and in other parts of Texas.

The new owners are to take possession Monday when officers and directors of the owner-corporation will be designated by the purchasers.

MOOSE DELAYS TRAIN

PRINCE RUPERT, B. C., Feb. 28 (U.P.)—A full-grown bull moose delayed a passenger train yesterday by jogging down the tracks ahead of it. The engineer blew his whistle frantically while the huge bull loped along in front of the train for 10 miles. The moose was finally removed from the tracks after being shot.

Prices On Farm Products Drop

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (AP) — Farm product prices dropped nine per cent between mid-January and mid-February, the Agriculture department reported today.

This decline broke a steady advance in prices since June, 1947. It was one of the sharpest on record for a month's period. In 1921, farm prices broke 12 per cent between mid-February and mid-March.

Officials said prices of some products have recovered slightly since mid-February. The earlier slump in prices was general, but a few commodities showed higher prices.

Comparable Index Lower

The index of prices received by farmers in mid-February was 279 percent of the 1909-14 average compared with 307 percent a month earlier. (The index decline of 28 points is the equivalent of a nine percent price drop.)

Prices paid by farmers for things they need in family living and in farm production also declined. But the drop was only about one per cent from the record of a month earlier.

Today's report showed that the level of farm prices in mid-February was only 12 per cent above parity. A month earlier it was 22 per cent above. However, some individual commodities were priced below their parity prices and some above.

The department said prices received by farmers for food and feed grains, oil-bearing crops, cotton, and wheat animals dropped the most between mid-January and mid-March. On the other hand, rice, hay, oranges, potatoes and sweet potatoes made moderate gains.

The average prices received by farmers and the parity prices, respectively, for major commodities on February 15 included:

Wheat $2.12 and $2.19 a bushel; rye $19.94 and $1.79; rice (rough) $3.12 and $2.02; corn $1.92 and $1.59; oats 1.04 and 99 cents; barley 1.72 and $1.54; grain sorghum $2.77 and $3.00 per hundred pounds.

Hay $19.60 and $29.40 a ton; cotton 30.71 and 30.75 cents a pound; cottonseed $88.60 and $55.90 a ton; soybeans $2.97 and $2.38 a bushel; peanuts 10 and 11.9 cents a pound; flaxseed $5.73 and $4.19 a bushel.

Potatoes $1.93 and $1.84 a bushel; sweet potaotes $2.31 and $2.18 a bushel; apples $2.00 and $2.38 a bushel; grapefruit 33 cents and $2.05 a box; oranges 89 cents and $3.76 a box.

Hogs $21.60 and $18.00 a hundred pounds; beef cattle $19.50 and $13.40; veal calves $23.00 and $16.70; lambs $20.70 and $14.60; butter fat 84.9 and 66.8 cents a pound; milk, wholesale, $4.98 and $4.08 a hundred pounds; chickens, live, 26 and 28.3 cents a pound; eggs 45 and 49 cents a dozen; wool 41 and 45.4 cents a pound.

State Officials Lean To Bill By Texan In Scrap Over Tidelands

By MAX B. SKELTON
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOUSTON, Feb. 28.—Congressmen would be in an excellent position to save themselves a lot of time if governors and attorneys general, instead of congressmen, could cast deciding votes on pending tidelands legislation.

It appears state officials—Democrats and Republicans — have made up their minds on the controversial issue.

High officials from 44 states moved into Washington last week to state their views on two tidelands bills now under consideration by a joint House-Senate committee. They were practically unanimous in favor of a bill written by Atty. Gen. Price Daniel of Texas and eight other attorneys general.

Outright Ownership

The bill would give the respective states outright ownership of lands beneath coastal waters.

The administration's bill, something of a compromise between that demanded by the states and last year's supreme court decision on the California case wherein the federal government was given paramount rights, would find the state and federal governments sharing royalties.

Texas was represented by Gov. Beauford Jester, Daniel, Land Commissioner Bascom Giles, Robert Lee Bobbitt, of San Antonio, chairman of the tidelands committee of the Texas bar association, and Manley O. Hudson, professor of international law at Harvard and former judge of the world court at the Hague.

Jester asked the congressmen to stop what he termed "trends in thinking toward nationalization of natural resources in this country," and Daniel accused governmental officials of designing a "smoke-screen of an imagined fight against private oil interests."

States Special Claims

Hudson, tracing Texas history from pre-revolution days, argued the state's special claims to its tidelands.

Just what do the two bills provide?

The administration plan, drawn by Interior Secretary Krug, would establish a system of exchange leases, a sliding royalty scale and an agreement wherein 52½ per cent of royalties received would be paid into the federal reclamation fund, 37½ per cent to the individual states and the remainder to the U. S. Treasury.

The bill supported by the Texas delegation confirms title and ownership of tidelands to the states, bestows the right and power of control and development upon the states, and quitclaims all right, title and interest of the United States to such lands.

But while congressmen and state officials were devoting long hours to the controversial question the man who possibly holds the key to the entire situation, President Truman, was vacationing in Florida.

Prison System Loses

How can you lose $250 on an oil deal through which you "made" $350,000.

The Texas prison system has the answer.

Last month the prison's board of directors completed arrangements for sale of oil and gas leases on approximately 9000 acres of prison farm land, the transactions realizing over $350,000.

The money went into the state's general fund.

Texas statutes, however, make no provision for payment of bills incurred in advertising such property for lease.

More Taxes In 1949?

State Senator T. C. Chadick, Quitman, says additional taxation, probably on oil and gas, is inevitable "if we launch a rural road program and if the state pays a soldier bonus."

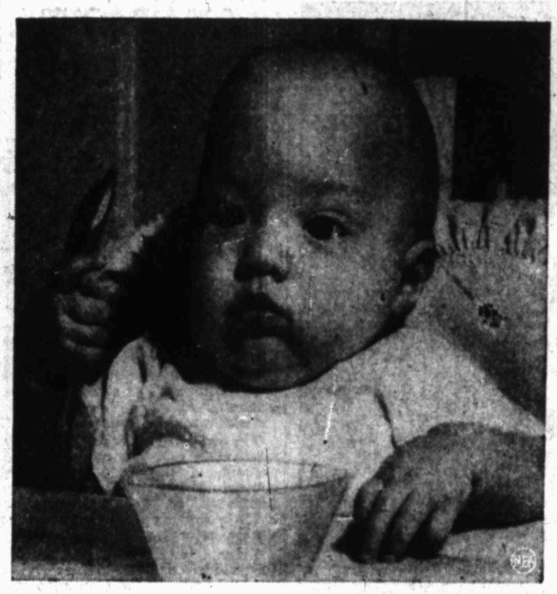

"There is just no way to escape," Chadick explained while serving as acting governor during the temporary absence of Gov. Beauford Jester and Lieut. Gov Allan Shivers.

"Production of gas could stand some more tax and crude oil can stand some more too," he said. "I think we would tee off on gas. That will be the main one."

Deepest Producer

Humble Oil and Refining company claims the state's deepest producing well, the new No. 1 South Mayes unit, completed at 12,021-26 feet, 5000 feet southwest of the South Mayes field, Chambers county.

The well flowed 135 barrels of 42.9 gravity oil daily.

Sheer Stockings And Testing Rig Fail To Halt Audrey In Leap Year Proposal

BY HARMAN W. NICHOLS
United Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 — A sheer pair of women's stockings these days comes at around $3 a pair.

They're tested, too. The National Bureau of Standards figged up a moving mechanical leg. One something like Betty Grable's right one, for show purposes. The idea was to see how much knee bending and toe wiggling the gals' sox would take before showing a bare knee or pinky. It turned out the hose are pretty tough, all right.

She Hoots At Idea

The manufacturers were rightly proud. But not so cocky as to advise the sort of prolonged kneeling a young lady must endure in proposing to her guy. And this being leap year, a lot of women are playing turnabout — popping the question. Pretty Audrey Frances De Puy of Gaithersburg, Md., a 27-year-old government worker, for one. Little Audrey (she's five feet one) said $3 stockings be darned, to coin a cute one. She got right down on her knees in front of William Henry Phillips, jr., of Miami, Fla., and asked him how about it?

Bill, a 22-year-old pharmacist's mate at U. S. Naval hospital, said wasn't this pretty sudden? Audrey said, well, maybe it was. But what about it? The sailor twisted his blond curls nervously and said he'd think it over. He did for a couple of seconds, and said, "I will."

Little Audrey looked down at a gaping hole in the knee of her tested left sock, smiled it off to leap years, and said, "fine."

Met Six Weeks Ago

Audrey met Billy, a tall, handsome guy in his gettin'-married sailor suit, at a dance about six weeks ago. She got the idea of proposing to him (partly, anyhow) when she saw in the community papers that the Silver Spring, Md., merchants were looking for an ideal leap year couple.

All the merchants wanted was a little publicity. No other strings attached to the bait after the turn back from the altar there would be a four-day Cinderella honeymoon in New York. Expenses paid The "sweetheart suite" in a snazzy hotel, night clubs, champagne, radio appearances,. Handshakes with the great and almost-great of Broadway. No riddle to solve. No box tops to mail in.

"I knew this was my last chance and I took it," Audrey said. "Next leap year I'll be 31. and besides I'm getting tired of having the girls at work call me an old maid Do I look like an old maid to you?"

I was about to "oh" and "ah" her out of a trance when Bill, the old butinsky, butted in with a little squeeze of the arm that gave Audrey her answer.

Scares 'Em Some

The newly-weds-to-be have studied over their scheduled for the hurly-burly of teeming New York. It scares 'em a little. Neither ever has faced the shock of a photographer's flash bulb. Neither ever has thought about fright before the mike. Neither, for that matter, has been married before.

"For my money," said the lovely little Audrey "I hope I never have to go through with it again. So far it's been an awful trial."

And what do you reckon, the two are going to do for a honeymoon after the four-day free junket is over?

Go to Brooklyn, where Bill heard "it's nice and quiet."

Treasury Plans To Pay Off More Than Billion Of Debt

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (AP) — The Treasury plans to pay off in March more than a billion dollars of the $254,682,000,000 national debt.

Much of this cash, the treasury said today, will go to the Federal Reserve system. This will be withheld from the money stream as part of the joint Treasury-Federal Reserve effort against inflation.

The Treasury said $933,621,750 will be paid to the Federal Reserve and other holders of maturing government securities. The reserve system will get $455,258,000 of this total.

Bone Hunters Turn Back Pages Of Time, Find Strange Things

By JOSEPH L. MYLER
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28, — A New York bone hunter reported today on a jeep journey half a billion years back in time.

Most of the report dealt with two creatures that lived, respectively, 160,000,000 and 45,000,000 years ago.

First Plant Eaters

The younger was one of the world's first plant eaters. It was no larger than a small dog. It had 20 tiny hoofs, five to a foot.

Coelophysis, a 50-pound dinosaur, and meniscotherium, the creature with the hoofs, were neighbors, both living in what is now western New Mexico, but, according to George Gaylord Simpson, they were 115,000,000 years apart in time.

Simpson and several colleagues of New York's American Museum of natural history found many fossil remnants of these long extinct animals on a jeep-borne bone hunting expedition in New Mexico last summer.

A preliminary report by Simpson was published today by the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Evidence Of Ancient Lands

Where massive San Pedro mountain now rises from the New Mexican badlands the explorers found evidence of ancient seas, streams and forests, and one of the earliest dinosaurs and "real sea serpents."

They also found bones of an "invading host of mammals," destined to take over from the dinosaurs. Some were smaller than mice. None was larger than a sheep.

But the hunters wanted especially to find coelophysis and menisotherium, concerning which modern man's knowledge was skimpy.

Coelophysis turned up on Ghost ranch near Abiquiu, N. M., in what the report said is "probably the most important single discovery ever made in the American triassic period.

The triassic period started about 160,000,000 years ago and lasted some 23,000,000 years, a bed a foot or two thick was "jammed full of bones of the little dinosaurs, piled one or top of the other."

Probably A Meat Eater

This dinosaur measured about six feet "from tip of its wedge-shaped head to the end of its slender tail." It was a biped, walking on its three-toed "strongly clawed" hind feet. Its sharp teeth indicates it was a meat-eater.

Meniscotherium was found in great numbers on the E. M. Collins ranch near Lindrith. This creature was about 10 inches high and a little more than two feet from nose to tip of tail. It was a quadruped. Each foot had five toes and each toe ended in an "almost claw-like, tiny hoof."

Advice Is Given On Proper Pruning Of Shrubs In Area

Shrubs that bloom in the summer should be pruned now, while spring-flowering shrubs should be pruned immediately following the blooming season, according to Dr W. W. Yocum, professor of plant industry at Texas Technological college.

Roses are an exception to this rule for they should not be pruned until after the last frost, the professor said. Rose bushes often freeze back a considerable distance anway and when the frozen portion of the stems are removed the bushes are often pruned sufficiently, he explained, whereas if it freezes after pruning, it will need to be cut back too far. Very little spring pruning is recommended for rose bushes.

Among plants to be pruned now are crape myrtle, vitex, althea, summer jasmine and abelia.

Dr. Yocum explained that summer blooming shrubs are dormant at the present time, and will not be injured by pruning. On the other hand, plants that bloom in the spring have flower buds on them which would be destroyed by pruning.

Industrial Show Is Set At Fort Worth

FORT WORTH, Feb. 28 (AP) — Texas' three regional chambers of commerce, the Texas Association of Commerce and the Texas Manufacturers association will sponsor the first annual Southwestern Industrial exposition here May 30-June 6.

Idea behind the exposition is to demonstrate with actual exhibits that the Southwest is no longer merely a source of raw material but also is a significant producer of finished products as well. William Holden, executive vice president of the Fort Worth chamber, explained.

"We also want to bring manufacturers and purchasers together in an environment which will stimulate business for southwestern manufacturers," Holden added.

Establishments which manufacture, process or assemble products in the states of Arkansas, Louisiana, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas are being invited to exhibit goods actually produced in these states.

Managers of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce, the South Texas Chamber of Commerce and the West Texas Chamber of Commerce have notified the Fort Worth chamber that their organizations will co-sponsor the show. Similar responses have been received from Texas Manufacturers association, Texas Association of Commerce, the Arkansas Economic Council-State Chamber of Commerce, the Louisiana Manufacturers association and the chamber of commerce of the state of Oklahoma.

Amarillo Station Gets Permit To Change Frequency, Power

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (AP)—Station KFDA of Amarillo, Texas, held authorization today from the Federal Communications commission to change its frequency and increase its output.

The station asked to move its frequency from 1230 kilocycles to 1440 kilocycles and increase power from 250 watts to one kilowatt at night and five kilowatts days.

The Hays County Broadcasting Co. was granted a construction permit for a new standard station at San Marcos, to operate on 1470 kilocycles, 250 watts, daytime only.

Junior Class Is To Present Play

"Dear Ruth," two-act comedy presenting the story of a teen-ager who writes letters to a soldier and signs her sister's name, will be presented as the junior class play at 8:15 o'clock Thursday and Friday nights at Senior High school.

The play, which was written by Norman Crasna, recently has become one of the most popular plays among high schools.

Others In The Cast

Parts of parents of the two girls are taken by Anita Pope and Woody Jackson.

Other case members are Dora, the good-natured maid, portrayed by Joyce Worrell; Chuck Vincent and Martha Seawright, former sweethearts who finally decide to let Judge Jackson marry them, portrayed by Billy Freeman and Etta Campbell; and a sailor, Harold Klobermeyer, played by James Maynard.

D. M. Howell is director of the cast.

Bible Teacher To Be Speaker At Methodist Men's Meeting

Mrs. R. S. Bearden, teacher of Bible in Lubbock Senior High school, will be the speaker for the Methodist Men's weekly luncheon meeting Monday noon at Hotel Lubbock.

Topic of Mrs. Bearden's talk will be "The History of Teaching Bible in the Public Schools of Lubbock, Why It Originated and Who Started It." Special guests will be pastors of the city who were members of the original group which initiated Bible courses in the high school.

Other programs during the coming month, as announced by program committee chairman Harry Delaney, are: Joe Ma of China; "Why Christ Was A Jew," by Rev. E. H. Crandall; "Men and the Church," by Bishop W. Angie Smith; and "Music and Christianity," by Bill Harrod.

Biblical Film "Golgotha" To Be Shown Again Wednesday

Another opportunity for the public to see "Golgotha," famous Passion Play motion picture based upon Freiburg and Oberammergau productions, will be offered at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday night at Asbury Methodist church.

The Asbury Woman's Society of Christian Service, of which Mrs. J. W. Hendryx is president, will sponsor the showing.

The film was shown last Wednesday night at St. John's Methodist church, under auspices of the Wesleyan Service guild of St. John's.

The picture depicts the story of Jesus from the triumphal entry to the ascension. The musical score reproduces orchestral, organ and choral music by famous composers. It is is distributed by the National Bureau for Religious and Education Films.

There will be no admission charge. A free-will offering will be taken.

Church Notes

The Annual Mid-Winter World Fellowship meeting of young people from the Christian churches of the Panhandle-South Plains area will be held on March 5 and 6 at First Christian church in Hereford. Buses will leave First Christian church of Lubbock at 1 p. m. Friday and return about 6 p. m. Saturday.

Rev. Wm. F. Rogan, director of Presbyterian student work for both branches of the Presbyterian church in Lubbock, will speak on Christian stewardship at the 11 o'clock worship service this morning in Chapel Presbyterian church, and Rev. R. A. Partlow, Chapel Presbyterian pastor, will preach at the Westminster church in southwest Lubbock.

THESE DRUMS DIFFERENT

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The Indiana Drum Co. promised not to interrupt the peace and quiet of the neighborhood where residents had fought construction of its plant. Company officials explained that the plant would not be as noisy as the name indicated. It will manufacture non-metallic bearings for radar equipment.

Although the United States used about six times as much power delivered through public utility plants in 1943 as it did in 1918, it used only about twice as much coal to produce that power.

Two Permian Deep Explorations In Hockley Among Week's Activities In Area; Garza Has Good Showing

Locations for two wildcats to drill to at least 7,500 feet to explore into the lower Permian were reported for Hockley County during last week.

A petroleum prospector in Southeast Garza county had developed some heavily oil and gas cut drilling mud in a drillstem test in a Mississippian lime section and was drilling ahead.

A wildcat discovery in South-Central Hale county reported an official Railroad Commission potential test gauge and is due to be put on regular production.

The Hockley County wildcats are:

Honolulu Oil Corporation and Signal Oil & Gas Company No. 1 Ellwood, is to be six miles north of Ropesville,and 660 feet from north and west lines of labor 24, league 5, Wilbarger county school lands. It is to start making hole as soon as a rotary rig can be moved in. It is in the southeast sector of the county.

Honolulu No. 1 Ellwood, in east-central Hockley and three and one half miles north of Smyer is to be located 660 feet from north and west lines of section 13, block A, R. M. Thompson survey.

Both projects are to be drilled by George Livermore, Inc., of Lubbock and each of them is slated to dig until it tests into the lower Permian formation.

Southeast Garza County

Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1-G Humble fee, deep wildcat in Southeast Garza county, four miles east of Justiceburg, and 1,980 feet from north and 660 feet from west lines of section 136, block 5, H & GN survey, ran a drillstem test in a Mississippian lime and chert zone at 7,750-7,835 feet.

An unreported amount of gas showed at the surface after the tool had been open 17 minutes. It was kept open for a total of one and one half hours. Recovery was 385 feet of heavily oil and gas cut drilling mud. There was no formation water.

Operator was drilling ahead below 7,851 feet in the same sort of formation. The project is slated to dig to around 8,500 feet to test into the Ellenburger.

Rumors Are Denied

Rumors that this venture had flowed free oil on a drillstem test are without foundation. Some thin drilling fluid did spray out of the drill pipe, but there was no straight oil.

Humble No. 1 J. A. Lutrick, south-central Hale county wildcat discovery, six and one half miles northwest of Abernathy, three miles west of the lone producer in the Petersburg field, and 660 feet from south and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 14, block D-8, EL & RR survey, has been officially completed as an oil well.

Official Report Filed

An official report has been filed showing that the well flowed a total of 162.46 barrels of 41 gravity oil in a 24 hour test, through a 21-64th inch tubing choke. The test was taken after the well had been shutin for some time.

Gas-oil ratio was 414-1. There was no water. The pay is in open hole at 7,908-87 feet. That zone had been treated with a total of 8,500 gallons of acid.

Location has been staked and rotary derrick is up for a due south offset to the new discovery. It is to be Humble No. 1 T. E. Lutrick, and is 660 feet from north and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 17, block D-8, EL & RR survey.

No Date To Start Hole

Operator representatives reveal that no definite date has been set to start making hole on this development. It will probably await the results of extended production tests which are to be made on the No. 1 J. A. Lutrick.

Anderson-Prichard Oil corporation and Bay Petroleum corporation No. 1 E. H. Jones, northwest Gaines county wildcat, five miles south of the Jones Ranch field, and 2,200 feet from south and west lines of section 21, block A-7, psl, survey, was swabbing and testing on perforated section at 6,105-50 feet in the Glorieta zone of the middle Permian.

At the end of the week those efforts had not developed any free oil of any considerable amounts, as it was still swabbing out drilling mud and water.

Yields Some Free Oil

The section being investigated yielded some free oil on a drillstem test run while the hole was being bored. It went to a total depth of 7,850 feet in the lower Permian. The zones between the present plugged-back bottom at 6,266 feet, where 5½ inch casing is cemented, and 7,850 feet did not yield any possibilities of production.

Honolulu Oil corporation No. 2 White, et al, one location outside the proven area for production from the Clear Fork in the North Riley field in central-west Gaines county, had reached 7,440 feet and was drilling ahead to about 7,500 feet.

In the event it does not find any signs of production between the place it is now operating and 7,500 feet, it will plug back and complete as a producer from a pay already drilled above 6,900 feet.

Central Yoakum County

Magnolia Petroleum company No. 1 Birtie Brown, three miles southwest of Plains in central Yoakum county, had reached 4,428 feet and was drilling ahead.

The Ohio Oil company No. 1 Swenson Land and Cattle company, northeast Garza county wildcat, had progressed below 7,839 feet in dry lime, and was continuing.

Ohio No. 1 Jones, in southeast Crosby county, had reached 7,317 feet in shale, and was making more hole.

Continental Oil company No. 1 Swenson Land and Cattle company, another prospector in southeast Crosby drilled to a total depth of 8,413 feet in granite wash This project, located 1,980 feet from south and 660 feet from west lines of section 75, block 2, H&GN survey, and 17 miles southeast of Crosbyton, drilled through the Ellenburger without finding any evidences of production. It has been temporarily abandoned.

Central Cochran County

The Atlantic Refining company No. 1-B F. O. Masten, central Cochran county semi-wildcat, and a one location stepout from a recent small discovery, had reached 3,085 feet, and was drilling ahead in anhydrite.

Ray Albaugh No. 2 Slaughter, northwest Hockley county wildcat to 5,000 feet, had pentrated past 4,766 feet and was drilling ahead in dry lime.

Ralph Lowe No. 1 Roch, in central Hockley county was making hole below 4,550 feet in anhydrite and lime.

Castro Prospector

Sun Oil Company No. 1 Herring, slated 10,000-foot prospector in southwest Castro county, and about five miles south of Dimmitt had progressed under 8,898 feet in lime and shale, and was coring ahead. It has not reported having logged any shows of oil or gas in any zone it has drilled through

New locations reported during last week for the Anton-Irish field of southeast Lamb county and southwest Hale county include:

George P. Livermore, Inc., of Lubbock, No. 2 V. C. Hart to be 440 feet from north and 880 feet from east lines of the south half of the northeast quarter of section 119, block A, R. M. Thompson survey.

Livermore No. 1 C. V. Sullins, to be 440 feet from north and east lines of the northwest quarter of section 120, block 1, R. M. Thompson survey.

Some In Lamb County

Livermore No. 2 C. V. Sullins, to be 440 feet from north and 880 feet from west lines of the northwest quarter of section 120, block 1, R. M. Thompson survey.

The three above projects are in Lamb county.

Gulf Oil corporation No. 2-T. E. K. Hufstedler will be 660 feet from north and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 16, block DT, HE&WT survey. It is in southwest Hale county.

Stanolind Oil & Gas company No. 2-A J. F. Harral, in the Hale county side of the Anton-Irish field, and 660 feet from north and east lines of section 13, block DT, HE & WT survey, was completed for a 24-hour pumping potential of 166.58 barrels of 31 gravity oil, from pay at 5,507-6-6.085 feet, which had been treated with 16,000 gallons of acid.

Treated And Swabbed

Stanolind No. 2-B Harral was bottomed at 6.050 feet and was testing after treating with 8,000 gallons of acid. In the latest test report the well swabbed 143 barrels of oil and 95 barrels of acid water in 17 hours. Of that fluid 95 barrels of oil and 26 of the acid was recovered in the last 10 hours of swabbing.

Stanolind No. 1 Julia Arnold, had reached 4,302 feet in anhydrite, and was drilling ahead.

Stanolind No. 2 Arnold was coring below 6,038 feet in lime

Stanolind No. 2 Rice had reached 5,860 feet and was drilling ahead.

Magnolia No. 1 Garrett had drilled to 4,735 feet in lime, and was making more hole.

Anton Oil Corporation No. 1 Lusk was preparing to spud.

Anton Oil Corporation No. 1 Lusk was preparing to spud.

Program Is Planned For Meeting Of Area Teachers Here March 12

According to Floyd Honey, president, the program for the annual convention of District Four of the West Texas Teachers association was completed Friday and was ready Saturday to be distributed to the 27 counties and one school district which are members of the association. The convention is to be held in Lubbock on March 12, with Lubbock Senior High school its headquarters.

Reservations for the administrators luncheon to be held at noon on March 12 should be made with W. P. Clemons, superintendent at Whiteface, Honey said.

Official On Program

Speaker for the luncheon will be Dr. A. J. Stoddard, superintendent of schools in Philadelphia, Penn. Dr. Stoddard will address the convention at its first general session on Friday afternoon on "Education as a Joint Enterprise," the theme of the convention this year.

Leaders for the sectional meetings scheduled to begin at 3:30 on Friday afternoon, March 12, are: art, Miss Mary Lu Roberson; commercial, Miss Bessie Bullock; elementary principals, Mrs. R. S. Rhodes; English, Mrs. J. B. Caldwell; foreign language, Mrs. Scotti Mae Tucker; health, physical education, Harvey L. Dunn; homemaking, Mrs. Katie Pettyjohn; intermediate, Mrs. E. F. Dawkins; industrial arts, J. G. Wilhite; library, Miss Frances Goodall; mathematics, Miss Ruby J. Jones; music, Miss Imogene Webster; primary, Mrs. Lee Nowlin; science, James A. Mallory; social science, V. V. Vaughn; speech, D. M. Howell; student council, H. J. McCabe; vocational agriculture, N. J. Robnett.

Committees as announced by Honey are: nominating committee, W. P. Clement, Lubbock; G. B. Wadzeck, Lamesa; R. W Davidson, Plainview; A. B. Reese, Lubbock; Mrs. Lenora M. Tunnell, Tahoka; Joe Hutchinson, Littlefield; and Frank Monroe, Midland; resolutions, O. J. Laas, Plainview; Dr. R. E. Garlin, Lubbock; W. W. Snodgrass, Whiteface; J. T. Jackson, Lubbock; Dr. D. A. Edwards, Crosbyton; G. E. Dawson, Lubbock; Ross Ruchner, Seagraves.

Members Of Tech Livestock Judging Team Are Announced

Members of the junior livestock judging team that will represent Texas Technological college in intercollegiate contests at the Oklahoma Junior Livestock Show to be held at Oklahoma City March 8, were announced by R. C. Mowery, head of the animal husbandry department, who will coach the team.

Included in those selected are: Jack Burkhalter, Seymour; Robert Cox, Lubbock; W. D. Hancock, Jayton; Ed McLeroy, Brownfield; Robert Mims, San Angelo; and Clinton Ritter, Lawn.

Deep Penetration Urged As Goal In March Irrigating

Farmers who begin irrigating in March preparatory to spring planting should be careful to use sufficient water to penetrate well below the surface, thus preventing needless loss through evaporation, according to Dr. A. W. Young, head of the plant industry department at Texas Technological college.

Dr. Young suggested that better soil be soaked to the caliche layer, several feet down. Pointing out that the water is to be used two or three months later, he explained that moisture applied now to the first foot of soil is sure to evaporate long before time to plant.

A well-stocked and well-managed farm pond can be expected to produce as much meat to the acre as if it were in good pasture, according to USDA.

POLICE PROTECTION—Patrolman Walter Fowler accompanies fuel truck driver, John Murphy, as he makes oil deliveries in New York. More than 900 policemen escorted truck which delivered more than 3,500,000 gallons of the city's dwindling fuel oil supply under an emergency homes-first priority list. (NEA Telephoto)

Maybe Harold Can't Spell But He Likes To Help Fellowman

GOSHEN, Ind., Feb. 28 (AP)—Nine-year-old Harold Tinsley listened carefully last Sunday to Salvation Army Adjutant William C. Davis' plea for self-denial in Lent.

EYEBROWS RAISED

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (U.P.)—Upraised eyebrows met a suggestion by an American Airlines ticket clerk that one of his customers go to Hell. He quickly explained to bystanders that the man was going to Oslo, Norway. He merely was recommending a sightseeing trip to the nearby town of Hell.

V. D. DECREASING

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (AP)—The Army said today venereal disease among its soldiers has decreased 40 per cent in the last year.

It gave credit largely to new emphasis on moral, spiritual and psychological treatment of the problem.

Lancaster Buys Himself A Circus

BY PATRICIA CLARY
United Pres Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 28—Burt Lancaster, now a successful movie actor, is fulfilling the dream of every American small boy who has watched the circus come to town. He has bought himself a circus of his own.

It's partly a sentimental gesture to the sawdust ring where he got his start as an entertainer, Lancaster said, and partly a business investment.

"I can't afford a $20,000 hobby," he said.

Lancaster is too busy in Hollywood to manage his circus, so he has turned that job over to his old pal on the flying trapeze, Nick Cravat. They're calling it the Lang & Cravat circus, the name by which their acrobatic team used to be known.

"It's wintering in Florida now", Lancaster said, "but we'll get it out in the spring and start it touring through the south and northeast. They're good circus towns there; I know, I've toured them myself."

To Do Four Pictures

The actor probably won't be making any personal appearances with his circus for a while. He has signed up for four movies in the next six months.

When he finishes his current Hal Wallis picture, "Sorry, Wrong Number," at Paramount, he stars in a picture being made by his own company called "Kiss the Blood Off My Hands." In May he's supposed to do a picture lined up for him by the late Mark Hellinger, and in July he has a job opposite Joan Fontaine.

This schedule makes Lancaster, who's only made six pictures, one of the most popular actors in town.

There has been a lot of talk around Hollywood that "Kiss the Blood Off My Hands" is too gory for a movie title.

"I personally don't care for it," Lancaster said, "but we aren't going to change it. We had a research suarvey that told us it had a lot of interest for audiences and our publicity firm is begging us to keep it.

"Seems like the good thing about it is that whether folks like it or not they'll be talking about it."

Film Actors Greatest Beefers Next To Managers In Baseball

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 28. (AP) — Next to baseball club managers, the world's greatest beefers are film actors.

This conclusion can be reached by any movie reporter who spends a few years on the studio beat For instance, this week I listened to John Payne on "The Saxon Charm" set. He was telling why he left his 20th-Fox contract, which owned him $130,000 for the remainder of a year's term:

"It was worth it. I can make more money free-lancing, and I'm much happier away from the complete disagreements that marred my stay at the studio.

They Don't Give Credit

"Despite the fact that over 60 per cent of producers and directors are former actors, they don't give an actor credit for knowing anything about scripts. More aggravating is the practice of letting an actor warm up for a part, and then telling him someone else will do it and he will start another role the next day.

"The studio bosses tell you they made you a star and you should be loyal and obedient. They say, 'you help us out and do this role and you can have your pick next time.' Next time never seems to come.

"I'm tired of studio reneging and broken promises."

Plaint Is Typical

Payne's plaint is typical. Briefly catalouged, here are the most common beefs from actors:

1. No choice of roles. (See above, or anybody at Warners.)
2. Roles not big enough. (Gene Tierney, who refused "Unfaithfully Yours" and was replaced by Linda Darnell.)
3. No loan-outs to other studios. (Van Johnson, others.)
4. Other stars getting tavored roles. (Dana Andrews, who says he has long played second fiddle to Gregory Peck).
5. No cut on loan-out fees. (Bill Holden, Red Skelton.)
6. Tight-laced, long-term contracts. (Larry Parks.)
7. Being typed. (Maureen O'Hara, Jane Russell.)
8. Getting inferior billing. (Maria Montez, who sued over her "The Exile" billing.)
9. Not enough money. (Name any actor.)

Texas Tech Band To Make Tour In State

Plans for the tenth annual clinic and concert tour of the Texas Technological college band have been announced by Dr. D. O. Wiley, director. The tour this year is sponsored by the Texas Music Educators association, Region IV, and will cover approximately 29 counties in northeast Texas.

The band will present three programs at Paris and Monday, March 15; two the following day at Gladewater; and two March 17 at Nacogdoches. Band directors and students in those areas will attend clinics in the afternoons, and concerts are scheduled each night for the general public.

California Requires Permits To Buy Texas Citrus Fruits

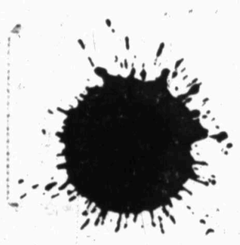

HARLINGEN, Feb. 28 (AP)—Texas citrus shipped into California must be sterlized and dipped in a three per cent oil emulsion.

Texas Agriculture Commissioner J. E. McDonald yesterday explained to L. E. Pratt, head of the citrus division here, the agreement under which California will allow Texas citrus to be imported.

Besides sterlization," he said, California requires that any residents who want Texas citrus must get permits from the California Agriculture department. The permits will be mailed to the Texas shippers making the sales.

Hollywood On The Loose...

Filmtown Facts And Fancies

BY ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 28—Danny Kaye must be grinding his molars over Virginia Mayo's new contract at Warner Brothers. When Danny left Sam Goldwyn for the Warner lot, he told a reporter how happy he was to leave Virginia behind. It was nothing personal, just that Danny thought they had been co-starred too often. Now with Virginia at Warner Brothers too, she may wind up again as his leading lady. But her first film is without him—"Dames Don't Talk."

JOHNSON

Joan Crawford certainly rates an Oscar, or something, as Hollywood's bravest gal. She invited two of her ex-husbands, Douglas Fairbanks, jr., and Franchot Tone, to her party for Noel Coward.

Priscilla Lane is about to announce that she's ready to do another movie. Her last was a year and a half ago . . . The rush is on in Hollywood to corner stories about the immigration service since Mussolini's ex-mistress turned up in San Francisco. Universal-International has one on the front burner, "Illegal Entry."

GREEN AS CANTOR?

COMEDIAN Jackie Green, currently at the Florentine Gardens with Gertrude Niesen, is being considered by Eddie Cantor to play Eddie in the Cantor Story. Jackie not only does a great imitation of Eddie, but actually looks a great deal like him.

Studios are trying to top each other again. A couple of years ago, M-G-M made "The Clock." Now Paramount is coming out with "The Big Clock."

Not in the script: "It infuriates me when anyone acts surprised that Gene (Raymond) and I have been happily married for 10 years" — Jeanette MacDonald.

Producer Sam Coslow is talking contract with Evelyn Knight for one of the top singing chores in "Music Hall."

There's a powerful lesson for Hollywood in comparing the opinions of the people, as expressed in Photoplay Magazine's annual Gallup poll of best pictures, and the opinions of the Academy voters. These opinions have coincided only once in the last three years.

The Academy winner of 1946 was "The Best Years of Our Lives." But the people, according to Gallup, ranked the Goldwyn picture second and gave the top honor to "The Jolson Story."

The same thing happened in 1945. The Academy winner was "The Lost Weekend." But the Ray Milland picture didn't even climb as high as 10th place in the Gallup voting for that year. The people's choice was "Valley of Decision."

Only time in the past three years these opinions have coincided was in the case of "Going My Way." This was the Academy choice for 1944 and when the people caught up with the film they agreed.

BOYER AND CALVADOS

IF you've read the book "Arch of Triumph," you know the important role played by calvados, a French apple brandy which has the kick of 14 mules.

When Charles Boyer, who costars with Ingrid Bergman in the film version, met author Erich Maria Remarque they discussed character plot and motivations. "I suppose," said Boyer, "that many part of the book parallel your own story and that you are really the hero."

"Yes," Remarque admitted, "there were many similarities. But there was one great difference.

Boyer expected a careful delineation of plot and careful character analysis. This was going to be something. "What was that?" he asked Remarque, and Remarque replied:

"I can't stand calvados."

Most surprised person in town at Jane Wyman's divorce announcement was her husband, Ronald Reagan. She assured him three days before that she would be coming home soon.

Costumes Designed To Outlast Fashion's Revolutions Are Featured In New York

By BARBARA BUNDSCHU
United Press Fashion Editor

NEW YORK, Feb. 28—Moderately cut costumes designed to outlast fashion revolutions rather than make them were featured in custom collections presented this week by two 57th street shops.

Wilson Folmar, designing for Jay Thorpe, has designed his spring and summer costumes with emphasis on a tight diaphragm. Skirts with highbuilt waistlines and dresses with snugly-wrapped cummerbunds of their own fabric accentuate a slim body line between naturally curved bust and hips.

Has Color Contrast

A dress in black wool and black on white coin-dotted silk points up the line with its color contrast. The top of the dress, in the printed silk, features a wide draped V-neckline and short sleeves. The snug diaphragm and waist and the gracefully flared skirt are of the wool.

A bolero suit of Kelly green wool with a green and white printed blouse also features the built-up waist. Walking room is provided in the straight hanging skirt with artfully released hipline tucks.

Handknits by Aileen Rice in the same collection feature stitched pleated skirts for daytime wear. An ankle-length dinner gown in black wool knit was designed with a decolletage narrowing to the high neckline and widening again for an armside V to cover the shoulders. The back was slit from neck to waist. With it was a crocheted white bolero with cap sleeves.

Sally Milgrims custom collection featured skirts with fullness concentrated in moderately flared fronts or pleated back panels. Jackets were hip-long and usually hip-emphasized.

Summer dress and jacket combinations in silk shantung were notable. One, in oyster white, featured envelope folds at both jacket and dress hiplines. The jacket, like those in most of the collection, was fastened at the waistline only. The short sleeves dress was buttoned at the front.

Most startling dress in the group was apparently an adaptation of a Christian Dior original. In beige wool and silk jersey, its skirt was full gathered and its top considered of two waist-long dolman sleeves, tight at the wrists. Sunburst tucks radiated from the bottom of the deep V neckline.

Coats in the collection were all fitted and flared in moderation.

"Horse Sense" Wins In Texas Court; Sec. Marshall Lacks Foresight

IT'S A NEW TACK

Sentence Is Upheld

PUBLIC opinion apparently has made an impression at last on the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals which saw fit last week to decide a legal technicality in a murder case in favor of common sense. The decision was noteworthy because it was in such striking contrast with at least two others rendered by the same court in recent years.

The case involved the appeal from a life sentence by James Albert Clark, convicted in Travis county (Austin) of beating his 5-year-old stepson to death. The death weapon was not found. Reversal was asked because the indictment failed to describe this weapon.

The court ruled the description was unnecessary, because other evidence established Clark's guilt. This commonsense decision is worth remarking solely because of contrast with rulings by the same court in two death penalty murder convictions, both from Dallas county.

In one case, a young hoodlum was convicted of "stomping" an elderly woman to death for her automobile. The case was reversed because the indictment failed to specify the "stomping" was done "with the feet."

The other case involved a murder by drowning near Dallas. This was set aside because the indictment failed to state that water was the liquid in which the victim met death.

Chief hair-splitter in producing these two amazing decisions was Judge Tom L. Beauchamp (pronounced beecham). Voting with him was Judge F. L. Hawkins. Voting against was Judge H. N. Graves.

Seldom if ever has any Texas court been criticised so blisteringly for any actions as was the Court of Criminal Appeals in the Dallas cases. The court, and Judge Beauchamp, pretended to ignore the criticisms. But, for whatever it signifies, Beauchamp wrote and announced the ruling in the Clark case.

Since aroused public opinion is by far the strongest force in our democracy, it is logical to suspect that the gentlemen on the Criminal Appeals court have been affected by its reaction to legal hair-splitting.

If the court has been thus affected, that is no more than as it should be. A democracy—every part of it, including the courts—is supposed to be operated at the will of the people.

A Sound Example

IN ORDERING an investigation of reports of widespread hoarding among upper class Japanese, Gen. Douglas MacArthur has set an example which might be followed in all nations for which U. S. relief has been proposed.

Rumors of hoarding in several European contries—France and Italy among others—have been of frequent recurrence. It is a fact, not a mere rumor, that black markets in most of those countries usually can supply anything their patrons are willing to pay for.

Possibly if the source of supplies for those markets could be established, relief needs of some of the nations would not be so great. Certainly American taxpayers should not be asked to pay one cent for relief which could be supplied from hoarded materials in any nation.

It's Worth Trying

IMPOSSIBLE of denial is the truth of one leading argument against a Southern "rebellion" against President Truman and the civil liberties — actually racial equality—program he advocates.

The argument is that a successful revolt merely would insure the election of a Republican administration which probably would enact the program responsible for all the trouble.

But one thing is virtually certain, if the Southern states should cause the defeat of Mr. Truman and the Democratic party in 1948; they would get a square deal from the Democratic bigwigs in all future national elections. The South never again would be treated like the party's most despised stepchild.

With that to gain, perhaps the South would be smart in terms of long range interest if it could and would smash New Deal Democracy's political playhouse this year.

One-Minute Sermon

Deceit is the heart of them that imagine evil: but to counsellors of peace is joy. Proverbs, 12:20.

"The Marines' War" Gives You The Whole Picture

"THE MARINES' WAR," by Fletcher Pratt; (Sloane).

MEN in combat know only what is going on around them. They know they are part of a large operation, but, for them, the only battle is the one they are fighting.

In the Pacific war, it often was man against man. The Marine in the foxhole may have known what his squad—perhaps even his company—was doing. As far as other companies, battalions, regiments were concerned, he had only a hazy picture, painted mostly by rumor. The Marines' War, by the historian, Fletcher Pratt, therefore, is of special interest to those Leathernecks who stormed the beaches from Guadalcanal to Okinawa, pushing the Japanese back into caves and sealing them there.

Pratt gives the entire picture—on land, sea and in the air—the inside story of conferences which led to the various campaigns. Although the book was written from Marine and Navy records, it is not an official documentation. Pratt, in an interesting, easy-to-read manner, tells of the mistakes in higher echelons. The man in the foxhole who knew "something's gone wrong," may now know why.

Satirical, Whimsical

"LEAVE MY MORALE ALONE," by A. P. Herbert; (Doubleday).

THE initials A. P. H. for more than 20 years appeared under satirical, whimsical and occasionally solemn bits of verse and dialogue in Punch, that citadel of sly English humor.

Their owner is Sir Alan Patrick Herbert, independent member of parliament, lawyer, writer of musical comedies and president of the Black Lion Skittles club. During the war he was Petty Officer Herbert, commander of a navy patrol boat in the Thames.

His wartime output of satirical wit, a compilation of six small books published in England that he calls a diary in verse, has been published here as Leave My Old Morale Alone.

Write For Chuckle

Much of it was written in pubs, or aboard ship between bombing raids, and phoned in over damaged lines to make deadlines. "Homer, perhaps, but few other bards had more trouble in getting their work to the public," he says.

A. P. H. writes for a chuckle, not a guffaw. Sometimes he is sly, sometimes he throws haymaker punches. He loathed Hitler, disdained Mussolini, "The Top Wop," and welcomed the Russians as allies with cautious reserve, "Brave Russia, off the fence at last."

Shafts At Americans

Some passages are too full of English allusions for American consumption. But there are smiles for everyone in bits like an ode to an egg, "Is Goebbels Good?" and the dial telephone ("I find the new young ladies rather automatic too").

He is friendly to the United States but Americans do not escape his shafts. He quotes an Englishman's advice to his son, to follow American customs if he desires but—

"Two small things I must impress on you:
Pray do not jitterbug—AND DO NOT CHEW."

Blondie's Recipes

"BLONDIE'S SOUPS, SALADS AND SANDWICHES COOK BOOK," edited by Chic Young; (McKay).

THAT the name Dagwood now is as synonymous with sandwiches as Detroit with autos, Honolulu with ukeleles, and Eve with apples, is due, of course, to Chic Young, the delineator of the daily life of Mr. and Mrs. Dagwood Bumstead in the comic-strip, "Blondie," published in this and other newspapers.

Dagwood's consuming interest in food, and particularly his sandwich concoctions, ranging from simple little numbers like peanut butter and chili sauce on whole wheat, to complex assemblies involving cold ham or beef, crisp bacon, cheese, sardines, sliced tomatoes, baked beans, sliced onion, pickle, ketchup, mustard, lettuce and buttered bread, have struck a responsive chord in thousands of American homes. Mr. Young is the recipient of a stream of letters giving food criticism and recipes. He is perhaps the best informed man on sandwich, soup and salad

Looking At Life . . . . . By Erich Brandeis

By ERICH BRANDEIS

IS there something wrong with you?

There must be with me.

"I don't envy the man who can go to bed and sleep like a top these days," said a well-known speaker a couple of days ago.

Do you sleep like a top?

I do.

The implication of the speaker's remark was, of course, that people who sleep soundly nowadays show a lack of responsibility and a high degree of callousness in the face of a troubled and uncertain world.

Rot!

In these days we need all the strength and all the fortitude that we can possibly muster.

Nothing is so refreshing, nothing recharges your run-down batteries so effectively as a good night's sleep.

Act in daytime, sleep at night, that's what I say

You certainly can't get President Truman out of bed and tell him about your wonderful plan for the solution of all our troubles.

From what I have seen and heard of Mr. Truman, I just bet you that he sleeps like a top and doesn't waste a minute on nightly meditations.

I have no patience, anyway, with the folks who think it is proper to go around with long faces and to wear sackcloth and ashes, just because the human race is presently on something of a rampage.

When has there ever been a time that everything was all right?

We have had wars and we shall have more wars. It's sad but true.

We have had depressions and inflations and shall have more.

I wish I were wrong—but, the human race being what it is, I am not.

SO what is there to be gained by lying awake nights and worrying?

We have sixteen hours a day for thinking and for action and for doing whatever we can to put this cuckoo world back into shape. The other eight hours are for sleep.

How many of those sixteen hours do we really use intelligently? What do we really contribute toward the betterment of mankind during our waking hours?

I doubt that eight more hours of fretting and stewing would do one bit more.

So I heartily disagree with that man who doesn't envy me for sleeping like a top.

I certainly don't envy him for staying awake.

And my advice to you for bedtime is:

"Good night, sleep tight."

Side Glances — By Galbraith

"Yes, it is large, madam—but in these days of inflation, isn't it a comfort to know you can get that much hat for your money!"

POLICIES ARE RAPPED

Offensive Is Needed

By DREW PEARSON
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON. — Having known and liked George Marshall ever since he was an army colonel, I don't relish criticizing him in his difficult role of Secretary of State.

However, it seems to me Marshall's greatest fault has been the failure to apply to peace a lesson he must have learned long ago in war—namely that victory goes to the side which takes the offensive.

PEARSON

This axiom is just as true for the diplomat as it is for the soldier. No Secretary of State can be static and be successful. He cannot wait for trouble to edge up on him. He has to go out and meet his diplomatic problems before they become too tough to unravel. In diplomacy as in war, he has to pick the most advantageous battlefield.

This is the chief reason why the Palestinian problem has become so dangerous.

Always difficult, Secretary Marshall has made it more so by a policy of delay. While precious minutes have ticked by, tempers flared and the Palestinian problem became more insoluble, George Marshall has done little except complain to his undersecretary, Bob Lovett, that Lovett got him into an awful mess.

And while the Secretary of State stood almost pathetic in his paralysis, his cabinet colleague, James Forrestal, and his own Near Eastern experts were almost openly flaunting the official U. S. policy on Palestine.

The effect on the Arabs of this open opposition was quite simple. It lit bonfires under Arab hopes — thereby making Marshall's problem all the more difficult.

A Lesson From Kellogg

The last time war upset the peace of the western hemisphere was about twenty years ago when Bolivia threatened to invade Paraguay. Frank B. Kellogg was then Secretary of State—not a polished diplomat, but one who believed in heading off trouble before he had to meet it head on.

At the first sign of Paraguayan-Bolivian belligerency, Kellogg summoned the leading Latin-American statesmen to Washington, enlisted the prestige of Charles Evans Hughes and rolled up such solid public opinion against war that hostilities were stopped. In fact, Kellogg's shirtsleeve diplomacy held off war for two solid years, and the only thing that defeated him was a $20,000,000 munitions loan to the Bolivian army by the banking firm of the very same James Forrestal who now champions the Arabs.

Another Secretary of State who believed in heading off diplomatic trouble before it got started was Henry L. Stimson. When Russia and China began making faces over the Chinese Eastern railroad in 1930, Stimson summoned the entire diplomatic corps, wrote strong diplomatic notes, made those notes public, and vigorously mobilized world opinion against war.

The two armies were demobilized.

Again when the Japanese army staged its famous Manchurian incident in 1931, Stimson saw this isolated skirmish for what it really was — the beginning of the Jap conquest of China.

And for two years, using diplomatic pressure, public opinion and the feeble power of the League of Nations, he kept the Japs at bay. If he had had any kind of support from the isolationist president then in the White House—Herbert Hoover—he might have succeeded.

UNFORTUNATELY, George Marshall, even chief of staff, did not seem to realize that ability to look ahead is the measure of true statesmanship.

Wartime secrecy obscured many of the vital decisions in which Marshall was involved, but here are two of them.

Early in 1940, Roosevelt was urged to send England and France a quantity of old American rifles, some left over from World war I, some even from the Spanish-American war. The British had dangerously depleted their arsenals and Churchill was frantic. He told Roosevelt the British army would have to resist with bare hands and bottles.

But while the U. S. Army admitted these old rifles were of no value to us, General Marshall, then chief of staff, opposed sending them to France and England. He maintained that Congress wouldn't like it. Roosevelt, however, overruled him. The rifles were shipped.

50,000 Airplanes

One year earlier, the chief of staff had shown similar lack of foresight when it came to aviation planning. And at one historic White House session it fell to the lot of a civilian to argue the generals into a big air program.

The civilian was the late Herman Oliphant, then general counsel of the Treasury department. The military men present were General Marshall, Gen. Hap Arnold, head of the air corps, and Adm. Harold Stark, chief of naval operations.

The meeting was early in 1939. At it Oliphant argued (1) that there was certain to be war in Europe; (2) that when war came the job of the United States would be to give its friends in western Europe not a handful of planes, but a minimum of 20,000 planes; and (3) the United States must immediately launch a program of 50,000 new airplanes.

General Marshall, however, was opposed. He thought the idea of 50,000 planes was preposterous. So did General Arnold. And the significant thing is that the 1939 army budget, prepared for 1940 by the general staff which Marshall headed, provided for only six flying fortresses. This is a matter of record which any doubting Thomas can check for himself.

In other words, the chief of staff simply lacked the ability to look ahead and see what airpower would mean in the impending war.

Roosevelt and Henry Morgenthau, however, overruled the general's and backed up Oliphant. That White House meeting in 1939 was how the 50,000-airplane program began.

Getting back to diplomacy, there are quite a few moves which a Secretary of State could have made to head off trouble in Palestine — in fact, still can make. Tomorrow this column will discuss some of them.

"The world is two and one-fifth billion years old," declares a nuclear physicist. What!—no older than that? It doesn't seem possible that in so short a time it could have go in the fix it's in.

Wallace Bid Cuts Demos' Vote

BY GEORGE GALLUP, Director
American Institute of Public Opinion

PRINCETON, N. J., Feb. 28.—The extent to which Henry A. Wallace is a potential threat to the Democrats is well illustrated by political sentiment today in California and Pennsylvania, two important states in any national election.

GALLUP

Whereas California was during the Franklin D. Roosevelt regime one of the most strongly Democratic states outside the South, today in a trial heat poll involving President Truman running against Thomas E. Dewey and Wallace, the President and Dewey run neck-and-neck.

The vote follows:

CALIFORNIA

Truman	42%
Dewey	42
Wallace	10
No opinion	6

The vote with the no opinion eliminated is Truman 44½ per cent, Dewey 44½ per cent and Wallace 11 per cent.

The extent of the defection from the Democrats can be seen by comparing the above figures with the vote in 1944, when Dewey was the candidate, and with the vote in earlier years, as follows:

Past Vote In California

	Dem.	Rep.
1936 election	68%	32%
1940 election	58	42
1944 election	57	43

WALLACE's 11 per cent in this particular trial heat comes primarily from voters who were previously Democratic. Institute surveys have found that approximately six out of every ten of Wallace's present supporters were Democrats in 1944.

The Truman - Dewey - Dallace trial heat presents a significant basis for studying trends since Dewey was the Republican candidate in 1944 and the vote he polled in each state is a matter of record.

However, it does not necessarily follow that the Republicans could count on the same strength as shown in the trial heat poll no matter what candidate they put up. The threat to the Democrats contained in today's survey results is on the assumption that the Republicans nominate a man with popularity roughly equivalent to that of Dewey's.

The three most populous states, and the three with the largest number of electoral votes, are New York, Pennsylvania, and Illinois.

Institute surveys have found that the Wallace candidacy may be the means of pushing each of them into the Republican column.

Here is how the situation lines up in the three states in the Truman-Dewey-Wallace trial heat race:

Box Score Of States

Electoral Votes	State	Who's Ahead
47	New York	Truman	41%
		Dewey	44
		Wallace	15
35	Pennsylvania	Truman	44%
		Dewey	49
		Wallace	7
28	Illinois	Truman	40%
		Dewey	52
		Wallace	8
25	California	Truman	44½%
		Dewey	44½
		Wallace	11

Demos Lose Ground In Pennsylvania Vote

PENNSYLVANIA, carried by the Democrats by a slim margin in 1944, may be pushed over into the Republican column this year because of Wallace's candidacy splitting the Democratic vote.

Latest balloting throughout Pennsylvania in the Institute's polls shows that in a three-cornered race involving President Truman on the Democratic ticket, Dewey on the G.O.P. ticket and Wallace as a third party candidate, Dewey runs ahead. Assuming that the Republicans nominate a man with popularity equivalent to that of Dewey, Pennsylvania would have to be put in the doubtful list so far as the Democrats are concerned. The Truman-Dewey-Wallace trial heat figures for Pennsylvania are:

Pennsylvania

Truman	41%
Dewey	46
Wallace	7
No opinion	6

With the no opinion vote eliminated, the results are:

Truman	44%
Dewey	49
Wallace	7

Four years ago the Democrats carried Pennsylvania, with its 35 electorial votes, by only 51.4 per cent of the major party vote, while the Republicans received 48.6 per cent. In 1940 the Democrats got 53.5 per cent, the Republicans 46.5 per cent. In short, the Democratic margin in the last two elections, especially in 1944, was not large.

The serious threat to the Democrats in Pennsylvania this year is matched by equally serious problems facing them in two other eastern states—New York and Illinois.

In New York the poll found Dewey running ahead in the same Truman-Dewey-Wallace trial heat, the vote of those with opinions being Truman 41 per cent, Dewey 44 per cent, Wallace fifteen per cent. However, it was found that Truman ran ahead in a trial heat with Robert A. Taft as the Republican standard bearer.

In Illinois, Wallace was found splitting the Democratic vote in Chicago to a sufficient extent to throw that state into Dewey's column in the trial heat.

The two principal cities of Pennsylvania—Philadelphia and Pittsburgh — accounted for approximately two-fifths (39 per cent) of the total major party vote cast in 1944. The Democratic percentage of the vote was 58.2 in Philadelphia and Allegheny County is the county containing Pittsburgh), while the Republicans polled 41.8 per cent.

Today's trial heat figures find Wallace taking enough votes away from the Democratic camp in the two urban areas to pull the Democratic figure down substantially there.

School Lights To Be Tested In Effort To Improve Setup

As a part of their long range plan to improve facilities in the older school buildings of the Lubbock Public schools' and bring them on a par with the new school buildings of the city, an experiment in lighting facilities will begin soon at Dupre school, according to A. C. Jackson, business manager.

"We are anxious to secure the best possible lighting for the new school buildings of the city and at the same time improve the lighting in the older buildings, so with fluorescent lighting in one room at Dupre school," Jackson said.

In the program of expansion and improvement, incandescent lighting has been installed in one building and in some rooms of another during the last twelve months, Jackson explained. However, since some type of fluorescent lighting is anticipated for the two new elementary buildings, Woodlawn and Thirty-sixth Street, the schools have decided to install this type of lighting in one room at Dupre to test for the best possible results.

Arrangements have been made with one of the largest lighting equipment companies to install this trial equipment, Jackson said.

CHOKING—DIFFICULT TO SWALLOW

Case History No. 1839: Lady; Age 36; Symptoms: Choking and unable to eat heavy foods; Difficult to swallow and talk. Was diagnosed as a nerve disorder and treated for 10 years without permanent relief.

HISTORY OF ACCIDENTS

This lady was in a car accident in 1926 where her arm was fractured and her head and neck hurt. Since this accident her nerve trouble first started. During the last three years her choking was made worse.

CAME TO STEPHENS CHIROPRACTIC CLINIC

This case came to the STEPHENS CHIROPRACTIC CLINIC as a last resort and "Where The So-Called Hopeless Do Get Well" to find out if something else could not be done for her.

X-Ray pictures were made of her spine which showed a bad distortion of vertebrae in her spinal column. The Neurocalometer (nerve test) analyses revealed nerve interference on nerves leading to her affected organs and regions of the body.

RESULTS UNDER SPECIFIC CHIROPRACTIC SERVICE

A course of Scientific Chiropractic Service was begun [illegible] reported that she ate lunch for the first time in one whole week, and her choking disappeared. But, in another week's time her choking came back to a slight degree. The next day, however, most of all her symptoms began to improve.

A few days later she reported that her constipation was a great deal better. She said, "I did not know that Chiropractic could help my constipation so much, now I don't have to take as many laxatives as I used to." After a complete course of SPECIFIC CHIROPRACTIC SERVICE this case realizes that she has been saved from a lifetime of suffering and misery; because, Chiropractic in its latest developments has stepped in and corrected the CAUSE of her troubles. "Chiropractic does add life to years and years to life."

Books

From the experience thus thrust upon him and his own likes and experiments, he has edited a book, called "Blondie's Soups, Salads and Sandwiches Cook Book." It has the subtitle, '277 Ways to Prepare Attractive Meals Quickly." It is illustrated with a number of Blondie and Dagwood drawings.

In a foreword, Blondie is quoted, "Tasty snacks worthy of the name of sandwich can be made with almost anything." Ranging through its pages and the diversity of materials utilized in the recipes, one finds eloquent evidence of this. The possible elements in soups and salads are also shown to be practically limitless. Here's a book that renews faith in American private enterprise.
