First Year Of Hoover's Term Reached Today

PRESIDENT HOOVER

PRESIDENT CONTINUES WITH WORK PROGRAM AS USUAL

WASHINGTON, March 4.—President Hoover today reached the end of his first twelve months as chief executive of the nation, paused not at all to celebrate the anniversary of his induction into office, and with his characteristic energy swung vigorously into the work of his administration's second year.

"Work," the one word formula which he advanced several months ago as the solution for the nation's business problems, he prescribed for himself as the principal feature of the day's observance.

Schedule Not Changed
His schedule for the anniversary hardly differed from those of other days. Exercises with the "medicine ball cabinet" upon arising, a hearty breakfast and arrival at his desk by nine o'clock constituted the morning routine. An hour for lunch, additional conferences with department heads and the regular Tuesday press conference completed the day's program.

A few fine lines about his eyes and a slight reduction in his ample figure are the only changes that a year in the White House has brought to the chief executive. His smile is as warm and spontaneous as ever, and his affability, his friends say, has, if anything, increased.

Those who are closely associated with him believe his physical condition today is as good or better than it was a year ago, in spite of the arduous duties and the many cares and worries that go with the nation's highest office.

COAST GUARD IS EXEMPTED

RUM PATROL BOATS NOT TO BE CLASSED AS WARSHIPS

LONDON, March 4.—Experts attached to the five-power naval conference were understood today to have decided that ships employed by the United States coast guard to combat rum running activities will not be included in the list of vessels subject to naval limitation treaties.

Destroyers loaned to the coast guard by the navy will not be exempt. Twenty-five of these ships, according to the experts' decision, will be ranked in the destroyer class and subject to limitation restrictions.

Decision Gratifying
The decision regarding the rum fleet was gratifying to the American delegation, who had hoped to exclude the destroyers also, since, it was contended, most of them are obsolete.

Decision of the experts will be presented to the heads of the delegations here at a meeting at St. James' when the report of the sub-committee on the categorical and global tonnage limitation methods also will be received.

TARIFF BILL END SEEN

DISPOSITION IS EXPECTED LATE TODAY

SENATOR SMOOT SAYS LEGISLATION WILL BE MADE SOON

BY D. HAROLD OLIVER, Associated Press Staff Writer
WASHINGTON, Mar. 4.—The end of the long and rocky road of the Hawley-Smoot tariff bill was believed by Senate republican leaders today to be just around the corner.

Senator Smoot, republican chairman of the finance committee, held the optimistic opinion that the measure could be brought to final disposition tonight or tomorrow, but chiefs of the coalition forces of democrats and republican independents who have been generally successful in reducing the rates approved by the house last May, were inclined to be a little doubtful.

Much Depended
Much depended, they said, on the length of time spent on attempts to overturn previous votes which denied a higher sugar tariff and rejected proposals for levies on hides, leathers and shoes, now on the free list, but made dutiable in the house measure.

Smoot looked for the bill to be reported back to the senate today from what is known in parliamentary terms as "committee of the whole." It has been in this status ever since the senate began consideration of the measure last September, but all actions thus taken are subject to a final vote in the senate proper.

Night sessions, begun last week as a means of expediting action, resulted in an eleven-hour day for the tariff-weary senators yesterday. (Turn to Page 11, Column 4, Please)

STUDENTS GO ON STRIKE IN PHILIPPINES

SEVEN THOUSAND WALK OUT IN PROTEST ON AMERICAN TEACHER

MANILA, March 4.—More than 7,000 high school students struck here today, joining those of Manila high school who have walked out.

MANILA, March 4.—(AP)—Further acts of violence in the strike here today, Manila high school students resulted tonight in all available police reserves being called out. Threats were made by strikers to lynch Luther E. Bewley, director of education, and Alejandro Albert, acting secretary of public instruction.

twice in the last few days as the result of a controversy growing out of their resentment against an American teacher, Miss Mabel Brummitt.

Urges Dismissal
Demands of the striking students broadened as the ranks of the strikers grew. The original strike at North high school a few days ago sought the removal of Miss Brummitt from the teaching staff. Miss Brummitt was removed and four students suspended.

Yesterday the North high students struck again, demanding reinstatement of their four expelled classmates. As the strike spread today, the students demanded dismissal of the acting secretary of public instruction, the director of education and the principal of North high school.

Two students were mobbed this morning for refusing to join the walkout, and two were attacked yesterday. Seven strikers were arrested. Students claimed Miss Brummitt, who came here from Valparaiso, Ind., had insulted the Filipino race, calling them "uncle-toms" and other uncomplimentary names.

GOVERNOR LONG OF LOUISIANA MAKES APOLOGY FOR RECEIVING OFFICERS OF GERMAN CRUISER EMDEN IN PAJAMAS

NEW ORLEANS, March 4.—The Times-Picayune today said that Governor Huey P. According to the paper, after the governor's visit the incident was closed when the Emden fired a salute of 21 guns. The

RESIGNATION OF BOARD IS ASKED TODAY

SENATE VOTES TABLE ON RESOLUTION TO STUDY SYSTEM

AUSTIN, Mar. 4.—The senate today voted to table a resolution by Senator W. D. McFarlane of Graham to direct a committee of three to investigate a claim of "crowded conditions" and the situation generally in the prison system. The vote was 14 to 8.

McFarlane charged the move was purely political in intent since the board could easily have erected temporary barracks within a few days to take care of any temporary overcrowding.

Should Resign
The Graham senator stated that if this was an example of the work of the prison board, it should not only be investigated, but also asked to resign. He stated further that if this was the best they could do they should resign of their own volition. He added it was significant that the announcement from the board came the same day Governor Moody was in Houston.

That the governor had nothing to do with the affair was stated by Senator W. A. Williamson of San Antonio, who declared Lee Stinson, a member of the prison board, told him last night the action was taken without the knowledge of the governor and solely on the initiative of the board which had been considering the move for a long time.

McFarlane's resolution was presented after a telegram from County Attorney Gordon M. Burns, of Walker county and others of Huntsville suggesting resignation of the board, which had previously had said no more prisoners.

WOLTERS SAYS MOVE WRONG

TEXAS COMPANY MAN SAYS DISASTER TO RESULT

AUSTIN, March 4.—Disaster which he said would overtake the oil industry in this state if the regulatory bill proposed by the Independent Oil Producers were to become a law were outlined today before the house committee on oil, gas and mining by General Jacob F. Wolters, of Houston, attorney for the Texas company.

General Wolters was on direct testimony when the committee recessed until tonight. Independents will cross examine him then.

Stresses Reason
Ernest May of Fort Worth, attorney for the independents, stressed the main reasons why passage of the bill was necessary. They were: Need for state supervision of oil storage prices which the independents considered unfair at this time; need for state authority to compel the pipe line companies to extend facilities to all wells; need for legislation which would compel the governor went aboard the cruiser in formal dress, while Colonel Weiss was in full staff regalia.

Commander De La Perriere, accompanied by Rolf Jaeger, German consul here, called upon the governor at his hotel to pay their respects following the arrival of the Emden.

Governor Long, according to the Times-Picayune, received the Germans in a pair of green silk pajamas, a blue and red lounging robe and blue bedroom slippers.

The paper quoted Consul Jaeger as having remarked to Governor Long that the incident was a disgrace.

RECALL OF U. S. MAN ASKED

PROMINENT LEADERS OF HAITI DECLARE BIG REVOLT COMING

(By Associated Press)
PORT-AU-PRINCE, Haiti, March 4.—Two prominent Haitian leaders, representing groups with a total membership of 800,000, in testifying before President Hoover's investigating commission today, urged the immediate recall of Brigadier General John H. Russell, American high commissioner, and accused him of being virtually dictator of the island republic.

They asked for the dismissal of the council of state, and warned the commissioners that if the council should attempt to elect a president April 14 without permitting popular elections a "massacre" was unavoidable.

Anthonie Rigal, president of a group of seven liberal organizations, accused General Russell of being virtually a dictator, and declared President Borno was holding office illegally, the president's father being French and the constitution requiring a native-born Haitian for the office.

"If the council of state dares to elect a president on April 14, instead of permitting a popular election, United States machine guns will sink all Haitians in blood," he declared.

THE TINYMITES

BY RAL COCHRAN

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

Up went the plane, just like a streak. The Tinymites could hardly speak. It seemed to take their breath away because it traveled fast. Of course it brought a trifling fright and each one hung on good and tight. 'Twas wonderful the way the ground below went whizzing past. Wee Scooty had the steering wheel and shortly he exclaimed, "I feel just like a wondrous pilot. I can take us where I please. All I need do is give a swing to this big wheel. The crazy thing just makes the plane go here and there and does it all with ease."

"Well, please be careful," Cappy cried. "Don't turn us over on our side. And, also, don't go too high up. I fear we might get lost. Let's just play safe and travel round, not too far up above the ground. Of course we want to have a lot of fun, at any cost."

Then Clowny broke right in. Said he, "I'll tell you frankly, as for me, I like this riding in the air as long as we don't flop. It's my suggestion that we take precautions so the plane won't break. My goodness, what would happen if we took a sudden drop?"

A few short moments after that brave Cappy almost lost his hat. "Oh, gee, the wind is blowing hard. I'll bet a storm will come." And, sure enough, at front and back the clouds closed in and grew real black. The plane sailed on real swiftly as the wind began to hum.

All of a sudden, right nearby, a big face formed right in the sky. "I am a wind cloud," it exclaimed. "Just watch how I can blow." The more it blew, the more it tried. The plane tipped almost on its side. "Oh, my, oh, my," cried Clowny. "Now I wonder where we'll go."

(The rain comes down in torrents in the next story.)

The report shows total receipts of the five-year period ending Aug. 31, 1928, were $415,183,832.34, while disbursements for the same period were listed at $396,356,111.54 with a cash balance of $18,827,721.37.

HOUSTON, March 4. (P)—Emphatic approval of the bill by Representative Phil Sanders providing an occupation tax of $1 per long ton on sulphur produced in Texas was voiced today by R. S. Sterling, chairman of the state highway commission.

"This measure provides a fair and simple means of meeting urgent needs of the state for additional revenue and lessening the burden now borne by farmers, stockmen and other ad valorem tax payers," said Sterling. "In my opinion, it deserves general support."

DALLAS, March 4. (P)—Mayor Crutcher, 35, formerly of Oklahoma City, was in a hospital here today with a knife wound in his throat, while police sought his assailant. Witnesses said Crutcher and another man fought on the street, and that the man who stabbed him fled.

10:30 and the Boy from the Drug Store hadn't arrived

Four people were in the living room playing bridge.

When 10:30 came and the boy from the drug store hadn't arrived with the ice cream, Mrs. Barnard began to get nervous.

The Randalls, recent neighbors, both murmured something polite about "having to go."

"Don't rush off, please," said Mrs. Barnard. "I'll call and see what's the matter."

So she called Mr. Carter, the druggist, and the boy came over right away.

It was embarrassing though, to have to go into details from the telephone in the hall, when they could overhear every word she said.

Telephones around the house where you need them do help.

Had there been an "extension" in the back hall, say, Mrs. Barnard could have conversed in comparative privacy.

Few know that the extra cost of one or two "extensions" is somewhat less than that of the single telephone they now have.

By a wisely-placed "extension" or two, and perhaps a rearrangement of the equipment you already have, an expert telephone man can often double the convenience of the telephones in your home.

Manager, Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., City.

I'd like to know how to get more value out of my telephone service. Please send me free, a copy of your booklet, "Modern Telephone Service for the Home."

ENGLISH PRINCE REPORT DENIED

MEXICO CITY, March 4. (P) —A man who said he was Sir Charles Hyde, of Birmingham, England, and his secretary calling himself L. E. Turton, chartered a tri-motored airplane from the Mexican Aviation company and left here for Brownsville, Texas. The Mexico City newspapers published a report that Turton was in reality Prince Henry of England, the king's third son, but a cable from the London foreign office denied this.

The two men tried to hire the plane for a trip straight through to New Orleans, but the company's charter did not permit this. They paid two thousand dollars for the ride to Brownsville, and gave a tip of 300 pesos to a guide who had accompanied them for a few days.

Sir Charles Hyde is the proprietor of the Birmingham Post and several other British newspapers.

J. T. INMON AND WIFE RECALL FIRST DAY IN LUBBOCK; HERE FOR 21 YEARS

Looking back over 21 years which have recorded about 1,000 increases in population for each year in Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Inmon of this city, recalled today the twenty-first anniversary of their arrival in the "Hub of the Plains." Mr. Inmon is vice of the city corporation.

They moved here from Hereford arriving in a motor bus owned and operated by Rolfe C. Burns.

Registered at Nicolette hotel, now known as the Broadway hotel, said Mr. Inmon. "The old frame hotel," he said, "was then said to be the finest hotel west of Fort Worth and Lubbock, which had a population of 1,000, was extremely proud of the structure."

"Mr. Burns, who was always courteous in meeting his patrons, greeted us when we arrived. In the lobby of the hotel that night we met George Wolffarth, who was president of the Citizens National bank and Walter Power, who is now vice-president of the First National bank."

Bought Two Lots
"Shortly after arriving in this city I bought two lots of Dr. M. C. Overton in West Lubbock."

"Comparisons are interesting. There were no paved streets in 1909 and the only concrete sidewalk was located in front of the building occupied by Johnson's drug store on Texas avenue. Board walks lined business structures around the square and a steady noise of feet on the planks was heard throughout the day."

Mr. Inmon drilled the first deep water well in this city. Later the Santa Fe railway, analyzed the water and drilled several wells near the present station.

DETROIT, Mich., March 4. — Existence of a huge beer-running syndicate, owning boats, automobiles and trucks and maintaining offices in Detroit was charged in indictments today against twelve men.

The indictments, returned by a federal grand jury, were based on evidence of under-cover agents who obtained employment with the alleged syndicate and, they told the grand jury, helped in smuggling operations.

Those indicted include Joe Moceri, reputed head of the "river gang," Roy Pascuzzi, secretary-treasurer, of the Riverside Brewing company, of Riverside, Ont., and Samuel D. Goldberg, Detroit, stock holder in the brewery.

All of the defendants were charged with violation of the tariff and prohibition laws.

Only one defendant, Arthur Myers had been arrested today.

Now Comes Coffee " " " from the West Coast of Central America

A CENTRAL AMERICAN MOUNTAIN COFFEE PLANTATION—In the tiny districts shown on the map grow rare flavored coffees that produce pronounced, distinctive characteristics. These coffees to market.

A rare tang and mellow richness unlike any known before... For people who want something different in coffee

If you're tired of ordinary coffee—coffee that's "indifferently" good—try a new coffee. One that's really different. Try one whose flavor comes from the mountains of Central America.

In certain tiny districts along the West Coast of Central America are grown coffees with probably the choicest flavor known today.

They have a piquant tang, and full-bodied richness that experts concede are not duplicated anywhere else in the world.

No one can tell you how good it is. We leave that for your own taste to decide. Years ago, this coffee was first served in the famous Bohemian restaurants of San Francisco where it was brought by Folger. Travelers tasting it there spread its fame. From all parts of the world they wrote back for shipments. For that was the only way it could be obtained. Today, however, your grocer has it packed in flavor-tight vacuum tins.

Why Most Coffees Taste Alike
Ordinarily you note little real difference when you change from one brand of coffee to another. That is because over 70 per cent of all the coffee entering the United States comes from one common region—where Nature gives it the same common taste.

It's a different type of coffee that makes Folger flavor different. Rare Central American coffees—mountain grown.

You will realize that this is no ordinary coffee with the very first rush of fragrance that comes with the opening of the tin.

The Flavor Test
Because Folger flavor is so distinctly different, we make an unusual offer. Buy a pound of this coffee today. Drink it tomorrow morning. Next morning drink the coffee you have been using. The third morning serve Folger's again. If for any reason you do not choose Folger's your grocer will gladly refund the full price. We'll pay him. That's fair, isn't it? Why not try it today?

SHALLOWATER PLANS FOR COMMUNITY PROGRAM

LOCAL MEN TALK IN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEET

Plans for an active program of work for the betterment of Shallowater were discussed when 60 business men and farmers of that city attended the second regular meeting of the recently organized chamber of commerce.

Lubbock was represented by D. P. Eason, county agent; Dr. J. O. Silsworth, of Texas Tech, and Garnet Reeves, publicity manager of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce.

Baker Presides
L. E. Baker, Shallowater postmaster, president of the Shallowater Chamber of Commerce, presided. Fred Pile, manager of the Higginbotham-Bartlett Lumber company, secretary of the organization, read the minutes of the last meeting, last Monday night, when the chamber of commerce was organized.

The local men told of some of the work of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce and other such work over the South Plains. A definite program of work, suitable to the needs of Shallowater, was suggested. The Shallowater citizens were reminded that one of the big things the organization can do to better the community is to build up a better contact and friendship in the trade territory through community meetings and friendship visits.

Program Started

The community, through the chamber of commerce, has already started a worthwhile program. Each Saturday afternoon special programs of entertainment will be held there. Next Saturday afternoon such events as a fast main race, a short main race, a mule race, bronco riding and other such events are slated on the program. In addition to a free baseball contest, Rev. R. I. Hart, pastor of the Baptist church there and scoutmaster of scout troop number 28, told of the work of the Shallowater troop and urged the support of the chamber of commerce in the work. A motion by A. P. Rason, Shallowater school teacher, that the chamber of commerce support scouting in every possible manner was carried with an unanimous vote by those present.

Scouts in Charge

Henry Mahoney, member of the Saturday afternoon entertainment programs committee, announced that the scouts would be asked to take charge of the program on the last Saturday of this month.

Following the meeting of the chamber of commerce, those interested in the formation of a baseball club remained. G. W. Blackmon was elected manager of the club. Sam Scott, former student at the Texas Technological college, was elected captain and Fay Luck was elected business manager.

Oil Development In China Is Proposed

SHANGHAI, March 4. (P)—Attempts to develop the oil fields of China, started before the boxer trouble three decades ago, are being renewed in the famous Bouchi Salt Mine district of Szechuen province by a syndicate of Chinese.

In a petition to the ministry of agriculture and mining for support, the syndicate claims to have discovered a field that will rival any in the world for size. The government has dispatched a group of oil geologists into Szechuen to look prospects over.

OIL MEN PREPARE FOR LEGISLATION

FORT WORTH, March 4. (P)—With Governor Moody's submission of pipe line legislation to the special session of the legislature at Austin opening the way for considering of their pipe line bill, a committee of thirty, to attend the hearings this week is being organized by the Independent Petroleum Association of Texas.

Evidence to submit bearing on alleged actual "squeeze plays" by which refusal of pipe line connections at critical times forced independent producers to sell their properties into stronger hands will be offered to the committee hearing the bills, according to statement at the headquarters office here. In each of these cases, it is alleged, had the pipe lines been forced to accord equal treatment to all, the independent concerned could have retained his property and his profit.

"SHAPE AND FASHION—such things will remain"

(Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, 1807-1882)

"Coming events
cast their shadows before"

AVOID THAT FUTURE SHADOW*

By refraining from over-indulgence, if you would maintain the modern figure of fashion

Women who prize the modern figure with its subtle, seductive curves—men who would keep that trim, proper form, eat healthfully but not immoderately. Banish excessiveness—eliminate abuses. Be moderate—be moderate in all things, even in smoking. When tempted to excess, when your eyes are bigger than your stomach, reach for a Lucky instead. Coming events cast their shadows before. Avoid that future shadow by avoiding over-indulgence if you would maintain the lithe, youthful, modern figure.

Lucky Strike, the finest Cigarette a man ever smoked, made of the finest tobacco—The Cream of the Crop—"IT'S TOASTED." Everyone knows that heat purifies and so "TOASTING" not only removes impurities but adds to the flavor and improves the taste.

"It's toasted"

Your Throat Protection—against irritation—against cough.

*Be Moderate! . . . Don't jeopardize the modern form by drastic diets, harmful reducing girdles, fake reducing tablets or other quack "anti-fat" remedies condemned by the Medical profession! Millions of dollars each year are wasted on these ridiculous and dangerous nostrums. Be Sensible! Be Moderate! We do not represent that smoking Lucky Strike Cigarettes will bring modern figures or cause the reduction of flesh. We do declare that when tempted to do yourself too well, if you will "Reach for a Lucky" instead, you will thus avoid over-indulgence in things that cause excess weight and, by avoiding over-indulgence, maintain a modern, graceful form.

LOWREY WORKING TRACK HOPEFULS

Although far from the desired condition for stiff competition, the Lubbock High tracksters are down to serious training this week with but four days between them and the first annual Snyder Track and Field meet Saturday at the Scurry county capital.

The Westerner tracksters have continued to show promise in their daily workouts, each day bringing a new prospect into the limelight and Coach Lowrey's problem during the remaining days of this week will be to pick twenty-five leading performers from the half-hundred on the squad.

To Enter Snyder Meet.
This twenty-five will compete Saturday with 26 other high school teams of West Texas in the new Tiger Stadium at Snyder. More than 400 athletes from this section of the state will line up for the one-day event.

A freezing wind Monday afternoon failed to slow up the high school speedsters as they initiated the week's training. Coach Lowrey mapped out a systematic program for the entire squad. The day's workout was without any new developments, with the one exception of a half-mile tryout in which Carroll McCallin, who was running his first 880, made a strong bid for recognition on the squad.

Football News Pick Up In Porker Camp

Wichita Carpenter Happy And Content

"I Had Lost All Interest In Life But Since Taking Orgatone (Argotane) I Feel Like A Different Man Now," Says W. J. Henson

I've looked for a long time for medicine that would do me what Orgatone (Argotane) did," said W. J. Henson, residing at 2005 Grant, Wichita Falls, while talking with the Orgatone (Argotane) nurse.

For several years I have been in a terrible condition and I suffered from stomach and digestive troubles. I had a very severe chronic case of stomach trouble. Everything I ate seemed to go to my stomach, which caused gas to form, and I wouldn't eat because it hurt me so. I lost in strength and energy all the time and grew gradually worse. I was restless at night and could never get a good night's sleep. I had heard so much about Orgatone (Argotane) and read so many endorsements in the local paper given by friends of mine that I decided to try it.

I feel like a new man now, and after I had taken Orgatone (Argotane) three days I was able to go to bed at night and really sleep all night without having to toss and turn around in bed. My stomach trouble doesn't bother me at all now, and I eat anything I want. I was sort of skeptical about Orgatone (Argotane) for I had taken many different medicines and treatments, but it was a lucky day for me that I bought it. I am certainly pleased with the results. I am content. I now have a good appetite and am no longer nervous, and my strength and energy is coming back to me. I am very thankful for what Orgatone (Argotane) has done for me and is doing, and if I can say anything to my friends, I know about it. I'm not a bit glad to do so, for it certainly is a good medicine.

Orgatone (Argotane) may be purchased in Lubbock at Bowen's Drug Store.

The Tire That Will Run
Longer Than Any Tire You Have Ever Had on Your Car

Hicks Builds the STAR, Finest for Any Car, at Greater Costs for Finer Materials and Construction—in Order to Give You a Tire with 50 to 100 Per Cent Longer Life

EVERY inch of the Hicks-Built Star is built to stand strains greater than the hardest driving motorist will ever put it to in actual service.

Every ounce of material is the finest ever built into an automobile tire. No skimping—even at points of least wear. No toleration of ordinary material that might "get by."

Only the highest grade cotton, finest and costliest cotton fabric, is used in the Star. With the strongest cord, bar none, the Star stands greater shock than any other tire, regardless of cost.

Star tread is slower, longer wearing, because the tread stock is milled instead of run through the banbury. This means 33 1-3 to 40% more resistance to wear.

Star is of pure gum rubber—highest priced European estates selected Latex, costing 1 1-2 to 2c a pound more than smoke sheets—TO GIVE YOU THE FIN-EST TIRE!

In addition, zinc is used as a detonator. It is this zinc content that permits the thermal conductivity in Star tires, making them the coolest running tires at any temperature.

The Star tread design, true non-skid, avoids too sharp wearing edges, yet insures safest traction.

Star tread contour is distinctively and scientifically accurate. Every inch of the tread has its part to play. Some tires are too rounded, some too flat. Star round contour avoids the extreme of being too rounded, which causes uneven, rapid wear—and the extreme of being too flat, which causes separation and tire failures generally.

HICKS BUILT

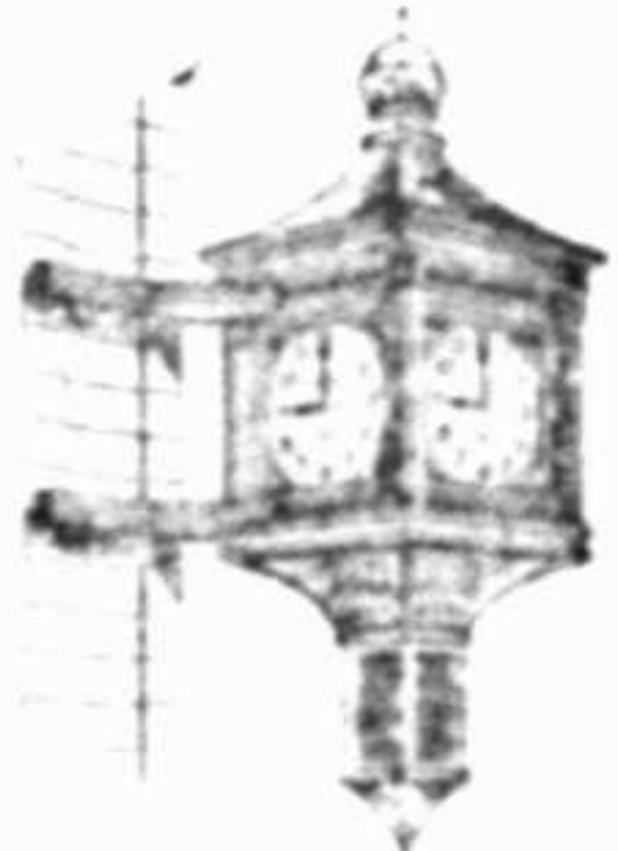

The name of Hicks was made by blazing new trails in the tire industry. To the public, the name of Hicks stands for greatest values and savings. To associate dealers, the name of Hicks stands for combined purchasing power. To you, the name of Hicks, as expressed in the Hicks-Built Star tire, stands for the highest quality, the finest product—thus Hicks still blazes the trail, illuminated by a Star!

The Garden
The time is fast drawing near when the suburban householder will find himself in the peace of the evening, about his back yard garden.

The habit of keeping a garden on a suburban lot sometimes rises to the level of an art, and sometimes sinks to the level of a vice, and every suburbanite is touched by it, in greater or lesser degree, at some time in his life. The time for it, we repeat, is almost at hand.

From Jacksonville to Bangor, from Jacksonville to Bangor, good citizens will presently be getting out strings and stakes, rummaging in basement tool chests for trowels, buying openhandedly those gay, deceptive little pockets of seeds that corner groceries, drug stores and hardware stores have for sale.

All of this never does anyone any harm, and occasionally the vegetables that are raised in these back yard gardens are quite edible—or, if it's another kind of garden, the flowers that are grown can actually be placed, put in a vase and used to decorate a living room table.

One wonders, though, why it is that this annual gardening epidemic has never drawn the attention of the learned students of the American mind. Assuredly, there must be something back of it all.

There is, in the first place, keeping a back yard garden is the hall-mark of respectability, of placid and trustworthy domesticity. No man who puts about a nine-by-ten plot of dirt in the evening, with a stained towel and an aching pair of knees, would ever abscond with another's cash, or with another's wife. To keep a garden on this modest scale is to assure your neighbors that you are a man whom the bitter winds of temptation do not ruffle. You are not, in a word, flighty. There must be solid stuff in you.

But that is not the whole of it.
Keeping a garden is not simply an attempt to get forth vegetables or flowers. It is a sort of mystic rite, a method by which the victim of a lard, mechanical age can get into touch with the pungent earth once more.

For there are profound mysteries in this business of putting seeds in a black earthen furrow. Agriculture is the world's oldest miracle. The appearance of life in a spot of bare ground was surely the first intimation man had of his lonely ache for another life might not be simply a wild and hopeless dream. It is not without reason that orthodox religion is generally stronger in the farmland than in the city.

No suburban gardener ever stops to think all of this out, of course.
The substance of it hangs with him, though, so that he draws an irrational kind of contentment out of his labors. He spades under a bit of sod, rakes it smooth, plants it and raises radishes and weeds, and through it all he perceives, without exactly realizing that he perceives it, that his existence is somehow in tune with a great rhythm which pervades the whole universe. He goes on his hands and knees to grub in the dirt, and he finds there something that the ordinary jobs of life do not give him. So, every spring, he does it again.

Thorough
Congress having voted President Hoover $50,000 for an investigation of conditions in Haiti, it is to be hoped that the investigation will be speedy, thorough and absolutely impartial.

It is quite apparent that something is wrong in connection with our occupation of the island republic. There have been too many protests to permit anyone to believe that everyone is satisfied except some irresponsible agitators.

Just what needs to be done, however, is not at all clear. Let us hope that President Hoover's commission will furnish him with knowledge that will enable him to form a new policy that will be more equitable and workable.

THE PLAINSMAN

That Girl on Broadway says she'd kinda like to be on hand when the week inherit the earth, just to see how they'll solve the truck-driver traffic problem.

WELL, folks, there is being some individual suggestions being made that The Plainman "call off the dogs" on this gas rate proposition but there's nothing doing. This column, like a bird named Grant once decided, will continue pecking away on the rate survey until the people find out what it's all about, if it takes all winter—and summer, too.

A Lubbock business man, and a passing friend of The Plainman's at that, dropped into the office a day or so ago to enter a protest.

"Lay off that gas business," was his urgent plea. "The rates here may be a little high and you've got to remember that the gas company is spending a lot of money in Lubbock and this territory. Folks are getting their money's worth on the gas and you're just getting them worked up over nothing!"

"Bill," The Plainman told him—and incidentally we call him "Bill" when his name is something else, "maybe you're right and maybe the rate here is not too high, but there's no harm finding out about it."

And that's The Plainman's whole idea in the matter.

Frankly, The Plainman pleads "not guilty" to the charge that he's getting the Lubbock folks all excited about the proposition. As a matter of fact he wishes they'd show more active interest in the proposition so we could make more speed in the survey.

THE Plainman happened to think, in the conversation with "Bill," that "Bill's" business was being aided considerably by the gas company and for that reason this column doesn't blame "Bill" for defending the utility farm. But The Plainman isn't nearly much interested in "Bill's" idea in the matter as he is in the position of the private citizen, who works in a grocery store, a laundry, at the cotton compress or at the grain elevator and who pays the gas company freight without a chance to sell the company anything in return. It is for the benefit of the average citizen that The Plainman is spotting this gas survey—and it might not be amiss to state here that in so doing this column is merely following its favorite pastime, that of representing nearly everybody instead of just a few.

A representative of the Chamber of Commerce called and wanted to know this: "Are you running this gas survey stuff, he asked, "to get people excited in your column, or do you really want the gas rates cut?"

"The Plainman wants to see the gas rates cut if they're too high," was the answer he got.

There are enough people reading this column to make it worth the space it is getting in the paper and whenever there aren't that many reading it it will be discontinued.

Another good citizen came forth with the fear that the West Texas Gas company—which is a subordinary of the Standard Oil company of the Standard Oil company—would get mad at Lubbock if The Plainman continued his quest for knowledge regarding gas rates. He pointed out, and is spending a lot of money here and nearby, don't do anything that will make 'em mad."

As has been said here before,
The Plainman isn't trying to "make the gas company mad." A subordinate of the Standard Oil company by this, or any other newspaper column for that matter, would be a ludicrous and absolutely ineffectual. What this column is trying to do is to answer a decided demand for the citizenship of Lubbock for the facts in the gas rate controversy. And that's exactly what The Plainman intends to do.

THIS column is delighted that Lubbock is receiving the West Texas Gas company's headquarters, its new building and a slice of its expenditures. But if the company's rate is found to be too high in comparison to other cities The Plainman thinks it should be lowered. The Standard Oil company's Prairie Pipeline is not a business for its health. The West Texas Gas company is not an organized agency for the practice of philanthropy. And neither should the City of Lubbock be.

Maybe The Plainman won't get to first base in his gas survey—but if he doesn't it won't be because he hasn't tried, and it won't be because he hasn't wanted to do what no other person, official or organization in Lubbock has yet shown signs of wanting to do—namely, give the public the facts in the gas rate question.

Quoting the gentleman at the Shreveport mike, "Don't go 'way".
The Plainman is just an ordinary citizen who feels like he has a right to know the 'why' of things that affect him. If he wants to publish his thoughts and others, can't he read 'em, it's just a personal matter

Senate Coalition's Stand On Tariff Violates Platform Of Party, Dutcher Says In First Of Congress Comments

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the first of three interviews with leaders of the Senate political factions on the record of the Seventy-first Congress to date.
These dispatches are especially timely because of recent White House discussions about speeding up the Senate.

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer
WASHINGTON, March 4.—Regular Republicans in the Senate, especially the once powerful faction known as the Old Guard, are willing to agree with President Hoover and leaders in the House that the Senate has been moving too slowly and that legislative affairs are in a terrible mess.

The present situation, they say, is a result of the "tariff battle" which has been going on since President Hoover had some of them to breakfast to talk over the possibilities of speed-up, as demanded by House Floor Leader Tilson.

They told him sadly but bluntly that he had better keep his shirt on because any executive interference would only make things worse.

The almost general disappointment of the regular Republicans with the result of the special and regular sessions in the Hoover administration's first year, they expressed by Senator Hiram Bingham of Connecticut, whose position is similar to that of other Old Guardsmen such as Smoot of Utah, Reed and Grundy of Pennsylvania, Peas of Ohio and Gillett of Massachusetts.

"The action of the coalition of Democrats and western Republicans has caused serious and needless legislative delay as well as business uncertainty," Bingham says. "They are tearing down their own campaign of 1928 when they went almost as far for protection as the Republicans, after condemning the Fordney-McCum-
ber tariff act in 1924."

"The business world had every reason to believe that neither party would attack the existing schedules, but the coalition has gone and lowered them as far for protection as the Republicans, after condemning the Fordney-McCum-
ber tariff act in 1924."

"I am perfectly amazed at the Democrats' reversal of their presidential campaign attitude, even though they are back to their historic position. I guess they feel that whatever they do they can't be any worse off and their votes in the past few months will discourage any manufacturers from ever again looking to them for protection."

"This group of western Republicans in the coalition has been trying its best to preach sectionalism and to preach to its constituents that the east is opposed to their interests. But the eastern senators have shown much more willingness to vote for protection of farm products than western senators have for the protection of eastern industries. The totally uncompromising attitude of some western senators has been in utter opposition to party tenets as long as the thoughts are free from malice and libel. Stick around folks, stick around."

That Man on Avenue Q says you may not believe it but they found a man wandering around Washington who couldn't remember his name, his address or even what commission he was a member of!

NEW YORK, March 4.—Going places and seeing things—To breakfast at the Brevoort with H. M. Tomlinson, who wrote that elegant book, "The Sea and the Jungle" and, more recently, "All Our Yesterdays." And he fell to telling a strange tale of the part played by chance in the creation of his first named work.

Tomlinson had been sauntering along the London waterfront talking to the skippers of old tramp steamers, in connection with newspaper articles he was preparing. He became particularly chummy with one old fellow who was starting on a fascinating cruise. The skipper suggested that the writer come along. Tomlinson was tempted, but explained that a wife and family made this a bit difficult. Finally the captain suggested that they leave the matter to fate.

A London bus happened to be lumbering down a hill toward the dock.

"Tell you what," suggested the ship's master, "if an even number of passengers get off the bus, you stay home. But if an odd number gets off, you come along."

Tomlinson snapped him up. And three people stepped off the bus.
Thus, by sheer chance, did Tomlinson make the cruise that was to place his name high in the ranks of writers.

And so up to Horace Liveright's publishing plant in the Forties where a reception was under way for Arthur Train, the writer, and George Hummel, the ex-writer, who was about to become a member of the firm. And found everyone and his brother there, milling gaily through the overhanging rooms. And the lovely lady in the flaming gown turned out to be Florence Reed, the actress, whom I have long admired, but never met. And the ship's fellow who greeted you at the dock turned out to be Samuel Hoffen-stein, who is a grand fellow. And it did seem that everyone turned out to be a notable of some sort or other. Which raised me eventually to put on my infatigable compliment and go out into the night.

Dropped in, thereafter, at the very high-hat premises of Harry Richman's "Poking on the Ritz," and it seemed to me Irving Berlin had written some of his most useful numbers for this piece, though Richman's performance left me cold —as it did several others.

Up to chat and smoke with John McCormack, the Irish tenor, who has, perhaps, the greatest following of any singer in the world. And he just back from Hollywood where he made a picture, "Song of My Heart."

And each time I meet him I am more amazed at how lightly time touches him. Both in face and spirit, he seems as young as when first I saw him some 10 years or more ago.

And though he has faced millions of people in audiences all over the world and kings have taken a day off to hear him sing "Mother Macree," he admitted that he had gone upon the picture stage with a great fear that he would be camera-shy.

But he chose particularly to talk of what an elegant actor his accompanied had turned out to be.
For many years Edwin Schneider had been his pianist, and before him Schneider had accompanied many famous ones.

"They cast him in the role of the music tutor—my music tutor," explained McCormack. "It was the first time he had ever had a speaking part. And he's marvelous.
Keep your eye on him."

pleted in the South Oklahoma City

troleum companies.

RABBITS CAUSE WORRY
FEARSBALL, March 1. (AP)—Rabbits have the commissioners' court of Frio county on the run.

At a meeting, called to deal with bunny depredations, the court voted a five-cent bounty on the rabbits.

Farmers told the commissioners of damage done on truck farms near here.

Even people who dislike winter are all wrapped up in it.

War Possibility Clause Eliminated

GENEVA, March 4. (AP)—The international committee of jurists last night agreed upon an amendment designed to eliminate the possibility of war which now exists under the terms of article XV, paragraph 7, of the League of Nations covenant.

The formula which the committee will recommend to the assembly provides that where the council cannot agree unanimously—not counting the votes of parties to the dispute—it shall seek the best appropriate procedure or may ask the world court for an advisory opinion. The amended form omits the phrase in the present article which permits members to take such measures as they think fit to maintain right and justice—which opens the door for war.

When you leave this world, you leave your enemies behind—unless you're a doctor.

Wales Recovering From Fever Attack

NAIROBI, Kenya Colony, March 4. (AP)—The Prince of Wales is making good recovery in his bout with sub-tropical malaria. He is in bed in government house here, attended by physicians and nurses who have specialized in this curse of equatorial Africa. With their care and his own strong constitution and optimistic temperament, it is believed danger of complications or a re-lapse is slight. He hopes to be able to leave his bed in a day or two.

Fever developed while the royal hunting party was in a train between Kiu and Voi Friday night, and it wasn't until early Sunday morning that the party arrived at Nairobi.

The prince's future plans caused speculation. He obviously will be reluctant to leave Africa without bagging an elephant on which he had set his heart—but it is recognized that he will be ruled by the opinion of medical advisers.

Let hospitals guide you in choosing sanitary protection

YOU'LL discover, once you use Kotex, any number of things about it which distinguish it from any ordinary sanitary pad. Over 85% of our leading hospitals have chosen the same material of which Kotex is made, because of its remarkable efficiency and surgical purity.

This is Cellulocotton (not cotton) absorbent wadding—a cellulose substance which performs the same sanitary function as cotton, but with five times the absorbency.

Lasting protection is another of the great comforts Kotex offers you.

Then, of course, there is the reason most women first began to use Kotex: it is easily disposable. Kotex Company, Chicago, Illinois.

KOTEX
The New Sanitary Pad which revolutionizes

IF YOUR GAS BILL SPOKE

Perhaps it would justify its existence in the following language:

"I kept a family of four warm and comfortable for 30 days.

I cooked three meals a day for four persons for 30 days—90 meals in all.

I kept on hand a supply of hot water for washing, shaving and baths for four weeks.

I saved, as compared to other fuels, at least two hours a day in the kitchen for 30 days —60 in all.

I saved in cleaning and laundry bills and damage to furnishings by the smoke and soot that would have resulted from the use of other fuels.

I saved the time and trouble of ordering fuel, storing and handling, cleaning stoves, making fires and emptying ashes.

I was ready to serve you at any time, night or day, heat was needed.

And now I am ready and anxious to serve you again and to retain your everlasting goodwill."

J. I. CASE MOUNTS ON

FIRST TRADES; FEW

SHARES DROP

NEW YORK, March 4 (AP)—Price

movements were decidedly mixed at the opening of today's stock market. J. I. Case jumped 1-4 points on the first sale. Electric Auto Lite 1-2 and Standard Oil of New Jersey 7-8. Westinghouse Electric dropped a point and Radio, International Telephone and Paramount Famous Lasky yielded fractionally.

The price of silver went to a new record low in London, and sterling exchange hovered around the year's low established yesterday. Spanish pesetas broke further to another new low record around 11 3-4 cents.

Parm implement shares responded to reports of increasing sales. J. I. Case, soared 1-4 points to a new 1930 high at 250.

Standard Oil of New Jersey led the resumption of the advance in the oil group, with an early gain of more than 3 points. Houston also was well bought.

National Lead broke 3-4 points and Air Reduction, Timken Roller Bearing and American Zinc preferred sold down 2 points or more in the first flurry of selling.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, March 4 (AP)—Material fresh setbacks in wheat values formed the rule early today. Favorable reports about domestic wheat crop conditions had a bearish influence, and so likewise did persistent weakness of export demand for wheat from North America.

Opening unchanged to 1-3-8 off wheat futures underwent down turns afterward all around. Corn, oats and provisions were easier, too, with corn starting unchanged to 5-8 down, and subsequently continuing to sag.

COTTON GOES

ON DECLINE

OPENING RECORDS DROP

OF 1 TO 12 POINTS

IN NEW ORLEANS

NEW YORK, March 4 (AP)—Cotton opened steady at a decline of 1 to 12 points under a continuation of selling resistance for yesterday's decline and again influenced by weakness in wheat combined with doubt as to a sufficient reduction in the cotton acreage.

May sold off to 15.07 and October to 15.38 during early trading, making net declines of 9 to 12 points, and the market was quiet but barely steady at the end of the first half hour.

Liquidation became more active and general as prices continued to work lower and some stop orders were uncovered when May broke below the 15-cent level. That position sold off to 14.97, or within 2 points of the low record for the season made on February 26th, with the general list selling about 12 to 19 points below yesterday's close.

FELT SO WEAK, OUT OF HEART

Stronger After She Had Taken Cardui: Says Nervousness Disappeared.

Bristol, Va.—"About a year ago, I found my health was giving way," writes Mrs. L. E. Jones, of this city. Mrs. Jones says she suffered from being very weak.

"When I would walk only a short distance up hill, my knees would tremble," she says, "and I would have to sit down."

"I was so run-down and tired I was all out of heart, and felt like crying all the time."

"I knew I would have to take something to give me strength to keep me going. I read about Cardui, and the good it had done others, so I thought it might help me. At my age it would not hurt to give it a trial."

"After I had taken the Cardui, I was so much better and stronger, and the nervousness had disappeared. Now I am recommending Cardui to my friends."

Experience of many thousands of women testifies that Cardui helps women to health.

Get Cardui from your druggist and try it for your troubles.
