Training for eventual use of landing boats in actual warfare, Marines have made highly technical and specialized studies of the use of new collapsible rubber boats. The boats are carried aboard transports, and are inflated either by hand pumps or large machines. Depending upon the type of operation, boats preceed by paddle, are towed, or use outboard motors. Here Marines leave their camouflaged transport.

Lone Mound Social Announced

A box and pie social will be held at the Lone Mound School Friday night, May 15, Mrs. Guy Beasley, teacher, announced early this week.

Proceeds from the event will go to pay expenses of the school, and any remainder will be given to the Red Cross.

"We extend a cordial invitation to the public to attend this social, for it's going to be fun for everyone attending," Mrs. Beasley said.

Candidates are especially invited to be present, it was added.

First Car-Load Shipments Of Chickens Made

Four carloads of live chickens have been shipped out of Wellington during the last two months,—the first in more than ten years, J. E. Roberts, station agent for the Fort Worth and Denver Railway reported Tuesday.

"There were about 10,000 chickens went out in those four shipments," Mr. Roberts stated. "That's lots of chickens, too!"

Although neighboring towns have shipped live chickens in carload lots regularly, all from Wellington have gone out hitherto by truck, he said.

All four cars were shipped by the Devenport Hatchery, and went to Los Angeles, Calif.

T. J. Walters Is Made Corporal

T. J. Walters, formerly of this county, and now stationed at Camp Barkeley, has been promoted to Corporal in the United States Army, friends here learned this week.

Corporal Walters enlisted in the army only about three months ago. Before that time he was employed by the highway department here.

During the week end, he visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Walters, who live northwest of Wellington.

Mrs. Lester Bengé Accepts Position In Fort Worth

Recently Mrs. Lester Bengé accepted a position with Radio Station KFJZ in Fort Worth. For the past two years Mrs. Bengé has been working for Radio Station KPDN in Pampa.

Mrs. Bengé and son, Bill Derr, left Sunday for Fort Worth, where Mrs. Bengé will start work Tuesday. She will be in the copy writing division of this station rather than in the broadcasting division, as she was in Pampa.

Mr. Bengé is working for an insurance company in Fort Worth.

Churches Honor Teachers Sunday

Sunday, May 17, will be Teachers Appreciation Day at the Church of the Nazarene in Wellington and Dodson, pastors of both churches announced Monday. This is a part of the Sunday School Revival Campaign now under way in all churches of the Abilene district.

The eleven teachers of the Sunday School of the Wellington church will be honored in a special service at the close of the class period. The teachers to be honored are Ike Emmert, Men's Bible Class; Mrs. Ella Love, Ladies Bible Class; Mrs. W. E. Spears, Willing Workers Class; Rev. Hadley A. Hall, Pal's Class; Mrs. Alma Gillespie, Live Wire Class; Mrs. Alvin Horton, Royal Soldiers' Class; Mrs. W. D. Aldridge, Sunshine Class; Miss Dona

Mother's Day Greeting — From Australia

Mrs. L. C. Craven couldn't have her soldier son, Pvt. Claude Craven, home for Mother's Day, but she had the next best thing—a cablegram from Australia, where he is stationed with the United States Army.

From this message, she learned that he is well and likes his work.

In addition to the cablegram, and in place of a gift which couldn't be sent, he wired Mrs. Craven money.

Graduation activities for almost 80 seniors of Wellington High School begin Sunday night, May 17, when the baccalaureate services are held. These will be followed by the commencement exercises Wednesday night, May 20.

Rev. J. Edmund Kirby, pastor of the Methodist Church, will give the baccalaureate sermon. There will be no commencement speaker, but instead a patriotic pageant will be given by students of the high school.

Valedictorian of this year's class is Billie Jo Stall, daughter of Mrs. Mary Stall. Virginia Ann Williams, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hayden Williams, is salutatorian.

The program for the baccalaureate service was announced this week by J. L. Beard, superintendent. This will be held at the Methodist Church and will begin at 8:30 p. m. The program follows:

Processional—Mrs. T. Argie Jones.

Invocation—Rev. Thomas Posey. Special music—Girls Ensemble. Sermon—Rev. Kirby.

Hymn—High School Chorus. Recession—Mrs. Jones.

Benediction—Rev. Hadley Hall.

The graduation exercises will be held in Rocket Stadium Wednesday, beginning at 8:45 p. m.

Music for the colorful patriotic pageant, "Freedom We Defend," will be furnished by a chorus under the direction of Miss Mary Katherine Hutcherson. Taking part are Gene Manzer, speaker; Marion Baumgardner and J. D. Bruce, Revolutionary soldiers; Phil Trew and J. T. Alexander, World War soldiers; George Cristy and Freddie Potet, sailors; Nell Trew and Billy Mac Sims, pilgrims; Erma Ruth Godbey,

Local Doctors At Medical Meet

Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Jones and Dr. and Mrs. John W. Harper are attending the meeting of the State Medical Society, which is being held in Houston Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Dr. Jones is serving as chairman of the Gynecology and Obstetrics division of the meeting.

He and Mrs. Jones left Wellington late last week and visited with their son, Lieut. Elmer Knox Jones, and family at Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio.

Willoughby Out For Constable

Homer (Grassburr) Willoughby has authorized The Leader to announce his candidacy for the office of Constable of Precinct 1 subject to the action of the Democratic Primary.

Mr. Willoughby says that if elected he will strive to perform the duties in a diligent manner and with fairness to all. I will appreciate the consideration of the people and will do my best to make a good official.

Election Called To Determine School Office

A petition asking for an election to determine whether or not the office of County superintendent shall be continued in Collingsworth County was filed with the Commissioners' Court in its regular session Monday, May 11.

The office is now held by B. W. Beaird, who was appointed a year ago.

The petition was acted upon by the court, and the election was called to be held at the time of the general election in November.

This action was necessary under the existing state laws because the scholastic population of the county has fallen below 3,000. Without such an election, the office of county superintendent would automatically revert to the county judge. Both offices were formerly handled together in this county.

The names of 869 voters were listed on the petition, which has been circulated in the county during recent weeks.

"The election was called at the same time of the general election upon the agreement of Mr. Beaird, and to save the expense of two separate elections," Judge C. C. Bishop, county judge, explained Wednesday morning.

Auction Funds Go To U. S. O.

Proceeds from a community auction went, not to help the owners, but to the U. S. O. last week. This unusual method was tried in the Dozier community recently, and a total of $8.35 was raised.

Each person attending brought some item—groceries, frying chickens, or field seed—to the auction. The program was under the direction of Mrs. Charles King, a Dozier teacher.

Those contributing were Guy Beasley, Buck Breeding, G. C. Porter, Ronald Gooch, Mr. Van Huss, John Groves, Cortez Barnett, Mrs. King, Robert Neece, Claude Caperton, Dorothy Fay King, and Mr. Gardner.

Community Play At Dozier On Wednesday Night

"Homer's Home Run," a comedy in three acts, will be given at Dozier Wednesday night, April 13, as a community entertainment, it was announced here this week.

The play, considered one of the most popular for community production this year, concerns Homer Honeywell, a henpecked husband, whose wife has ambitions to become president of the City Club. By mistake, she is elected to head the baseball club, sponsors of a game that she hates.

With this as the background, action comes spiritedly and rapidly, according to Mrs. Charles King, who is helping with the production.

Taking part in the play are Leo Massey, as Homer Honeywell; Sallie Neece, as his wife Amanda

U. S. O. Committees Chosen; Meeting Thursday Opens Drive

"We did it before, we'll do it again."

That's the spirit of Collingsworth as she enters the United Service Organization drive Thursday night, May 14. At that time, more than 10 men and women who make up the various committees of the U. S. O. organization will meet to go over in detail the plans for the campaign.

This drive will be a repetition of that held last year, when Collingsworth County stood near the top among the counties of Texas in response to the call, it has been predicted by those men and women who are now working with the plans.

Every community in the county will be covered. Every person will

Scrap Metal Drive Makes Available Vital Material

Proclamation

Whereas the victory program of the United States calls for every pound of scrap metal to be returned to the foundries to be mixed with new ore to create the best steel and other metals for our Tanks, Airplanes, Warships, Transport Ships, Guns, and thousands of other items that must be produced now;

And Whereas the need for scrap metal is urgent;

Now therefore, I, Pink Sullivan, Mayor of Wellington, by the power invested in me as such, do hereby proclaim the week of May 18 to 23 as Scrap Iron Week in Wellington, and I call upon every citizen to lend his assistance in making the drive produce results. And I specifically call to the attention of our farmer friends of Collingsworth County the urgent need of performing their patriotic duty and round up all the scrap iron on their farms and of selling it during Scrap Iron Week in order that it may be made available for the all-out national effort.

Witness my hand this the 13th day of May, 1942.

PINK SULLIVAN
Mayor of Wellington

JOE THOMPSON, Secy.

County Buys Sulphur To Fight Cotton Insects

Sulphur dust, to be used in the fight against cotton flea hoppers in this county this summer, will be bought by the county, and sold to local farmers through the gins, it was voted by the Commissioners' Court in a regular meeting Monday, May 11.

This is the first time since flea hopper damage has been recognized in the county that such a concerted effort has been made to combat the pests.

"The county will buy the sulphur. The gins will handle it, and the farmers will buy it at just what it costs the county," Judge C. C. Bishop said following the meeting of the court.

"We want to point out that we are not trying to knock any commercial seller of sulphur out of any profit, but we are simply doing it in order that all farmers of the county may be benefitted," the judge continued.

Present war conditions have caused considerable worry as to whether insecticides will be available to farmers for fighting crop pests, but Judge Bishop assured that the county would be able to get the sulphur, and get it in sufficient quantity for every farmer to have plenty.

Any gin in the county wishing to handle sulphur for the convenience of their customers may do so, it was stated.

Cotton damage from flea hoppers has been extensive here during recent years. Just how much cotton crops have been cut is not known, since flea hoppers are not easily seen, but it is estimated that their damage is much greater than that of the grasshoppers.

While there are several dusting machines in the county, it has been pointed out that cotton fields can be dusted effectively simply by putting the sulphur in sacks and attaching them to a cultivator.

J. L. Gladney, County Farmer, Dies Sunday

J. L. Gladney, prominent farmer of the Cottonwood community, died unexpectedly at his home at 12:30 a. m. Sunday morning, May 10. Although he had been seriously ill for about two months, his condition was thought to be improved Saturday.

He was 64 years of age, and for the last 28 years, he had made his home in Collingsworth County.

Funeral rites were conducted Tuesday afternoon, May 12, from the First Christian Church in Wellington, in which Mr. Gladney had been an active worker for many years. Rev. Tom Posey, pastor, was in charge, assisted by Rev. Richard Gambrell and Rev. Vernon Jones of this county.

Pallbearers for the service were Esdel Bartlett, Lewis Jones, Bill Long, G. A. Ream, Paul Cornwell, and L. A. Manzer. Honorary pallbearers were E. L. Tarpley, G. D.

Cemetery Working At Old Plymouth Friday, May 15

A cemetery working has been announced for the Old Plymouth Cemetery Friday, May 15.

This is to be an all day event, and those attending are asked to bring a covered dish for the noon hour.

All persons having friends or relatives buried there are asked to be present and help with the work.

Your Scrap Material will make War Material!

With this as a basis, a county-wide scrap iron campaign and "Junk Week" opens Monday, May 18, Mayor Pink Sullivan of Wellington and Judge C. C. Bishop announced today. During this time, an effort will be made to have every person bring in his junk metal and sell it to one of several dealers in Wellington. The campaign will continue through Saturday, May 23.

"Especially are we urging the farmers to bring in their scrap iron and other metals. It is estimated that there is at least one and one-half million tons of scrap on the American farms that can be turned into vital war materials," the mayor said.

"This is one time we're getting paid for being patriotic," he added, "because the dealers in Wellington will pay market price for all scrap iron brought."

A proclamation issued by Mayor Sullivan Tuesday evening made May 18 through 23 official "Junk Week" for Wellington, and sought the cooperation of residents over the entire county in making the campaign a success.

"When we realize just what our scrap iron can do, I don't believe there's a person in Collingsworth County but will be eager to gather up his old material and bring it in. As examples, here's some of the things our scrap metal can make:

"A 2,000-pound aerial bomb requires 500 pounds of scrap metal.

"A 50-calibre machine gun requires 50 pounds of scrap metal.

"A 75-mm. howitzer requires half a ton of scrap metal.

"A 16-inch naval shell requires half a ton of scrap metal.

"A medium 27-ton tank requires 18 tons of scrap metal.

"A 35,000 ton battleship requires 9,000 tons of scrap metal.

"A 3-inch anti-aircraft gun requires 3 tons of scrap metal."

This drive is entirely voluntary on the part of the citizens of Collingsworth County, it was pointed out, but every bit of scrap metal brought to Wellington and sold to the dealers of the city will mean just that much more metal available for use by the nation.

Watch Your Ration Books

Keep close watch on your sugar ration books!

This advice was again given out by the county rationing office, since any person losing his book must make application for a new book, then wait two months before receiving it.

Because of this long waiting period, anyone who should lose his book is urged to report to the rationing office immediately and make application for a new one.

At the same time, it was stated that those who did not register during the regular registration period last week must now wait until May 21, when they may come to the office and register for the book.

Any business house or institutional user who did not register previously may register at any time.

Because many requests have been made for the dates when sugar may be bought with each stamp, the following list has again been announced by the rationing board:

Stamp No. 1, May 5 to May 16, good for 1 pound.

Stamp No. 2, May 17 to May 30, good for 1 pound.

Stamp No. 3, May 31 to June 13, good for 1 pound.

Stamp No. 4, June 14 to June 27, good for 1 pound.

Helen Childress Home Agent Of Eastland County

Miss Helen Childress of Wellington recently received notice of her appointment as home demonstration agent of Eastland County, with headquarters at Eastland.

Miss Childress has for the last year served as supervisor of the lunch room projects in the county. Prior to that time, she taught in the Midway school.

She was reared in Wellington, and is a graduate of Texas State College, Denton, where she majored in home economics.

Nellie Bly Slay

Chosen a member of "Who's Who" in Wellington High is Nellie Bly Slay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Slay, who reside at 1405 Childress street.

Nellie was born July 27, 1925, in Wellington, and she has been our classmate for eleven years. She has played tennis, has been a member of the glee club one year, a reporter on the school paper during her junior year, and society editor during her senior year. She has entered declamation, has been a member of the cast in the junior play last year and the senior play this year. She is also a member of the Spanish Club and the Home Economics Club.

Nellie plans to attend TSCW at Denton next year and major in home economics. She intends to choose some phase of home economics for her vocation.

Nellie, we have had "fun fighting" and grief "growing-up" together. Seriously, though, you are a real pal, and happiness is waiting just around the corner for you.

Elsie Idell Smith

We do not know how to appreciate the girl who has worked, fought, and borne many discomforts to publish our school paper—Elsie Idell Smith.

Idell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Smith, who reside at 615 West Avenue. She was born Dec. 8, 1925, in Canyon and attended the Canyon Demonstration School for six years, the other five being spent in Wellington High School.

Idell has been reporter for several home rooms, reporter on the Skyrocket, assistant editor, and editor of the paper. How is that for a "newsound"? She has also been a member of the Glee Club for one year. Her favorite subjects are band and typing.

Next year Idell will attend West Texas State Teachers' College in Canyon and major in journalism. She plans to take up newspaper work.

Idell, we will miss you and hope the headlines in your life will always read, "Idell Smith Success As a Newspaper Correspondent."

Mildred Vivian Stafford

The one who was chosen the prettiest girl in the senior class in a recent contest is Mildred Vivian Stafford.

Mildred is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Stafford of Wellington, and she was born January 29, 1924. She has attended the Wellington schools for only three years. Other schools which she has attended are Swearingen for five years, Divine for one year and Buck Creek for two years.

Nevertheless, her record here is one to be proud of. Mildred was treasurer of the F.H.T. Club, selected F.F.A. Sweetheart for two years and hostess for one year, besides being chosen the prettiest girl in the senior class. Mildred has also participated in volley ball, baseball, and basketball in Buck Creek, besides studying art and choral singing there.

She plans to attend Baylor University next year and major in nursing—this being her chosen profession. Incidentally, her favorite subject is home economics.

Keep that smile on your face, Mildred, and you will "smile" your way to success.

Helen Monarie Stout

A girl who has been with us for only one year is Helen Monarie Stout, daughter of H. C. Stout, of Wellington.

Monarie was born June 19, 1924, in Wellman, Texas. She has attended school in Skidmore for two years, in Eagle Pass three years, in Dilley three years and in Millett three years also.

Monarie played tennis one year in Dilley and two years in Eagle Pass. She was a member of the Glee Club in Eagle Pass and the Girl Scout Club in Dilley. In Wellington, Monarie has been a reporter for the Skyrocket paper and a member of the Girl Scout Club also.

She plans to attend Draughon's Business College in Amarillo and study stenographic work. Her chosen profession is, of course, stenographic work.

Monarie, we think you can make an excellent secretary. Prove it for us, won't you?

Nancy Ann Sullivan

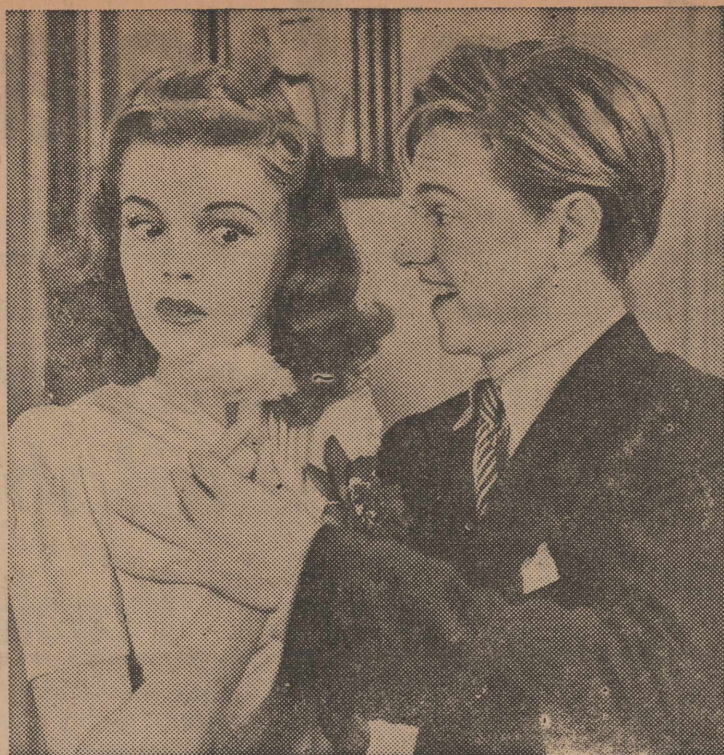

The girl who has probably participated in more activities than any other senior is Nancy Ann Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pink Sullivan of 903 El Paso.

Nancy was born Dec. 7, 1925, in Wellington, and she has been a student of the Wellington schools for exactly eleven years. During this time she has become well known for her leadership, integrity, and willingness to help.

Besides being a reporter on the school paper, she was chosen reporter of the freshman and sophomore classes. She has participated in tennis for four years, declamation two years, debate one year, and she was a member of the annual staff one year and a member of the Glee Club two years. Nancy was chosen a Who's Who member, and she was a member of the cast of the senior play.

Next year Nancy plans to attend the University of Texas where she will major either in business administration or journalism. She plans to take up newspaper work or business work.

Nancy, a wonderful field of opportunity is open to you. Good luck.

"BABES ON BROADWAY"

These two talented youngsters, Mickey Rooney and Judy Garland, are romping through another musical romance in "Babes on Broadway," new M-G-M picture opening Sunday on the Ritz screen. Story of stage-struck kids who come to New York to struggle for their "break" on Broadway, the picture also features Fay Bainter, Virginia Weidler, Ray McDonald, Richard Quine, Donald Meek and Alexander Woolcott. Busby Berkeley directed.

John Wesley French, Jr.

Shall we say the scientific athlete or the athletic scientist, J. W. French, a native of our city, was born to Mr. and Mrs. John French, January 16, 1926. He favors chemistry above all other subjects, in which field he plans to major in college and in which field he plans to work throughout life. He has enjoyed the honor of being president of the Science Club and vice-president of the Commercial Club. Balancing these interests are several in physical education. For three years J. W. has been an outstanding boxer and a member of the tumbling class, while for two years he has been an entrant in track events.

Still many other lines have appealed to him. For three years he has been a member of the band; for one year he was a member of the annual staff; for one year he was a member of the Skyrocket paper staff; he was a member of the senior play cast. He was chosen to write the senior series. Climaxing—or shall we say—epitomizing his versatility is the fact that he is a member of Who's Who for 1942.

J. W. is a very dependable, popular senior for whom success is predicted in his study in the Texas Technological College, where he will continue his preparation for life.

—By Mildred Hulsey.

Billie Jo Stall

Hail that little blond with brown eyes, the valedictorian of the class—Billie Jo Stall! Born July 24, 1925, in our own city, she is the daughter of Mrs. T. J. Stall, 1811 East Avenue, Wellington. Is the place of valedictorian year she was art editor and assistant editor. Billie Jo was parliamentary of the freshman class and vice president of the junior class. She was chosen as a member of Who's Who of the school. She has not named the college of her choice yet. If one may judge by the past, her future holds great hopes of success.

—By Mildred Hulsey.

Nancy Nelle Wallace

The little "redhead" of the senior class is none other than Nancy Nelle Wallace, daughter of G. H. Wallace, who resides at 1401 El Paso Street in Wellington.

Nancy was born June 4, 1925, in Fulbright, Texas. She has done her entire eleven years of school-work here. Nancy enjoys sports, as it is plain to see, for she has participated in basketball, tennis, and volley ball for two years each. Typing and shorthand are her favorite subjects.

Nancy plans to attend Draughon's Business College in Wichita Falls next year and study secretarial work. Her ambition is, of course, to become a stenographer.

Nancy, may your ambition be realized. With your hair it should not be difficult to "blaze" your way to success.

Virginia Ann Williams

The youngest girl in the senior class is Virginia Ann Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hayden Williams of Route 1.

Virginia was born June 13, 1925, in Wellington. She has attended the Fresno school six years, graduating as valedictorian of the seventh grade there. The other four years of her schooling were spent in Wellington High School. Incidentally, Virginia's record won for her the honor of salutatorian of the senior class this year, and we are all proud of her.

She was a member of the Choral Club for one year, student council for one year, and F.H.T. for four years. She also entered declamation training for one year and spelling for two years. She was president of the bookkeeping home room and reporter of F.H.T.

Virginia plans to attend Draughon's Business College next year where she has a scholarship. There she will study stenographic work. Her ambition is to become a private secretary. Typing, shorthand and bookkeeping are her favorite subjects.

Virginia, for the youngest girl in the senior class, you have an excellent record. Congratulations!

From where I sit...

by Joe Marsh

RUMMAGING through my desk the other day, I came across some snapshots of friends of mine made back in 1933.

If you don't think time flies... if you don't think this world ever changes... you ought to look at the women's hats and dresses in those pictures taken 9 years ago! Wow!

It gave me quite a start... and then it set me to thinking... and rememberin'! Lots of things sure happened in 1933. A new administration in Washington... the turning point of the depression... and the coming of Repeal.

I remember the re-legalization of beer. It came before Repeal, when Congress amended the old Volstead Act to allow legal sale of "3.2" beer.

What talk and arguments they had in those days! One argument I remember well... was that beer would do a lot to help bring back prosperity. I wondered at the time whether that argument could be proved.

I thought about that again, the other day. I decided to check up and find out.

Well, I found out plenty. I found out that legal beer has paid more than 3 billion dollars in taxes since 1933. It has made more than a million new jobs.

According to one of the reports I've seen, beer has put more than 15 billion dollars into general business circulation. Goodness me, that's a lot of money.

Beer is sold today in every state in the Union. Every state benefits from beer's jobs and taxes. And I guess there's no denying that beer did do its share in bringing back better times.

I'm glad it did, too, because beer is such a pleasant, appetizing beverage. And it stands for moderation and moderate people... it's not likely to get you in trouble.

Cotton and Cottonseed Products for ALL Who Work and Fight for Freedom

Fortunately for all, December 7th found America with valuable stockpiles of cotton lint—with farmers who can produce cotton more abundantly; probably, than any other crop; with more than 400 Cotton Oil Mills equipped and ready to convert cottonseed into Cotton Linters for explosives—Cottonseed Oil for food—Cottonseed Meal, Cake and Hulls for livestock feed.

All of these products are helping win the war; BUT they can also be produced abundantly enough—in far larger amounts than they are now being produced—so; that all civilians, as well as all in our armed forces, may have an abundance of cotton and cottonseed products. Use cotton and cottonseed products for their familiar uses and for new uses to replace scarcer, costlier materials. Put cotton and cottonseed products on your "must use" list—during NATIONAL COTTON WEEK, May 15-23, and throughout 1942.

This Cotton Oil Mill, like all Americans, is proud to be playing an important part in winning this war. Our products are going into munitions on the battle-line, and on the sea and in the air—into fats that keep Americans fighting and working—into the feeding of livestock that produce "Food for Victory."

We take pride, also, in being able to render efficient service to this community—in peace or war—and invite you to give us every opportunity to serve you more.

Rites For J. O. Pollard Are Conducted Mon.

J. O. Pollard, a resident of this county for a number of years, died at his home here Friday, May 8, shortly after being stricken with a heart attack.

Although he had been in ill health, Mr. Pollard's death came unexpectedly, as it was thought that his condition was improved recently. He had started to town, but before arriving, he suffered the attack. With the assistance of neighbors, he returned to his home, and medical aid was called immediately.

Mr. Pollard was a native of Texas, having been born in Johnson County May 4, 1883, and at the time of his death he was 59 years and 4 days of age. He was the son of W. S. and Mary Pollard.

During the time he had made his home in this county, Mr. Pollard had made a host of friends who loved and respected him.

Funeral services were conducted from the First Methodist Church Monday at 5:00 o'clock p. m., with Rev. J. Edmund Kirby, pastor, in charge. He was assisted by Rev. Hadley Hall of the Church of the Nazarene, and Rev. J. R. Lawson, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church.

Pallbearers for the service were Leon Stovall, Sanford Browning, Morgan Browning, Carl Smith, Otis Wood and Hayden Williams. Flower bearers were Allene Wright, Sylvia Cross, Nellie Lentz, Katie Lentz, Nellie Houston, Vergie Jones, Vivian Clark, and Donna Armstrong.

Hymns were "Shall We Gather At the River," and "How Beautiful Heaven Must Be." Interment was in the Wellington Cemetery with the Ellis Funeral Home in charge.

Mr. Pollard is survived by his widow, Mrs. J. O. Pollard of Wellington; seven children, Mrs. H. L. Streater of Dallas, F. W. Pollard of Goldsmith, J. M. Pollard of Dallas, J. Y. Pollard of Ingleswood, Calif., Carlene Pollard of Wellington, Harold Pollard of San Diego, Calif., and Jo Beth Pollard of Wellington. Other survivors are his mother, Mrs. W. S. Pollard of Lillian; five grandchildren, and these brothers and sisters: Mrs. Annie Jones of Cleburne, Mrs. A. J. Smith, L. O. Pollard and Mrs. Ione Ball of Lillian, Mrs. Floyd Smith of Alvarado, Mrs. C. W. Henderson of Kilgore, Mrs. Leon Stovall of Kilgore, and Mrs. A. W. Patillo of Douglass.

Rev. Neal Stout filled his regular appointment here Saturday night. Sunday he went to Paducah where he was to speak. Rev. Melvin Porter preached here Sunday morning. Due to rain and hail, there were no services Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack White and children of Shamrock and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hughey and children visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George White.

Junior Hughey, student at Draughton's at Lubbock, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hughey.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Adkins and daughters visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hively.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvay Owens and Miss Faye Doyel, teachers in the Vinson schools, were dinner guests Friday evening of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hively.

Several attended the county singing which was held in the church building Sunday afternoon.

TRIED AND TRUE

(In Memory of Our Friend, Joe Hankins)

A faithful friend passed this way, To cheer our hearts, make bright the day;

And while he journeyed here below, Seeds of kindness did he sow. He built a monument sublime, A benediction to mankind!

It stands, so grand, in memory's hall—

A cherished tribute to us all!

'Tis built to all that is good and fine,

And sculptured by the Hand Divine!

Material, so rarely found,

Was used to build it from the ground.

A character most noble—grand—

A blessing to his fellowman!

A tender heart, a Christian Soul,

A soldier true, with courage bold.

An understanding mind to do

Something for his brother, too.

He had no fear of consequence

To stand for right; he did not wince!

And when he bade this world adieu,

He left us sad and lonely, too.

But when the Trump of God shall sound

We'll leave this earth for higher ground—

United with our loved one there,

Forever free from death's despair!

So help us God to do our best

To meet the ones who are at rest.

CARD OF THANKS

To the People of Collingsworth County: Dear friend, we want to express our sincere thanks and appreciation for all the gifts of food, clothing, money, and household articles which you so generously sent in the time of our misfortune.

Mr. and Mrs. Delno Payne, J. D. and Lloyd.

PLEASANT HILL

By CORRESPONDENT

May 10 there will be a Mother's Day program at Pleasant Hill Church. We will have dinner on the ground and everyone is invited to attend.

Several from this community attended the singing Sunday at Wellington.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Minyard visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Peggram Sunday evening.

Mrs. Wayne Mitchell and son spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Winegeart.

Several were out to Sunday School Sunday morning, and a number attended BYPU Sunday night. Everyone is invited to attend. Mr. Alvin Atkinson is our quiz leader, and he had some very interesting questions.

CARD OF THANKS

May we take this means of expressing our deepest appreciation to our many friends and neighbors who were so thoughtful upon the death of our mother, Mrs. F. H. Royal. The many kind acts for all of you who had been her friend through the years means more to us than we can express.

May God's richest blessings be on each of you who in any way made this hour easier for us.

Ralph Royal, Mrs. Carl Spink, Mrs. Alton Abbott, Bess Royal, Harris Royal, Tom Royal.

LETTERS FROM MEN IN SERVICE

April 30, 1942

Mr. Deskins Wells, editor Wellington Leader Wellington, Texas

Dear Deskins:

Just a note to let you know that I'm getting The Leader down here at Camp Blanding and I certainly appreciate your sending it to me each week.

I've always heard of this wonderful Florida weather, but right now I'm willing to swap this climate for West Texas. It is getting hot here and the sea breezes do not cool this camp a bit. I believe I'd settle for a good old West Texas sandstorm and enjoy it! Thanks again for sending your paper. It's better than a letter from home for I get a great deal more news from the paper about all of the Wellington people.

Your friend, Paul Riley, Private, Company B, 111th Me. Battalion, Camp Blanding, Fla.

April 22, 1942

Mr. Deskins Wells

Dear Deck:

I will write you to let you know that I have changed my address. I want you to send me the Wellington paper. I have been on the move so much in the last three weeks that I haven't got a copy of it.

I still say that good old Texas is the best state in the Union. You can print this if you care to. I close hoping to receive a copy of the paper soon.

Cotton Goes All-Out For Victory

This year every farm in Collingsworth observes National Cotton Week, May 15 to 23, with intensive preparations for an abundant cotton crop—the crop that will provide lint and oil to keep up this nation's men and arms and her civilians at home.

Not only is cotton—and its by-products—from the fields of this county going into explosives and food and clothing for fighting men around the world, but its importance is increasing as a substitute for many materials no longer available to the general public.

All these uses take millions of pounds of cotton, but so great is our productive capacity, that when all the cotton that is needed for war is used, there is still an abundance left. By producing more cotton, and using more cotton, this county can contribute a vital service to the nation in winning this war.

Deck's DIDACTICS

—By Deskins Wells

Tuesday I went to a cotton meeting with Fatty Watkins, Jack Watson and Cameron Beam. Because I tried to save my tires, I did not pass a car on a hill and on the whole did a 132 per cent better job of driving than any one of them can do even if they tried, these same gentlemen fussed at me and cussed at me all the way down there and all the way back. Rather than take another trip with all three of them, I would prefer to sign a document agreeing to eat cabbage every morning for breakfast for a week. Cabbage to them.

But, I will turn the other cheek. To show my attitude for their abuse, I will try to help them. "They tells me" that Jack and Fatty have plenty of cottonseed that they are willing to put out on a credit. "On every corner they tells me" that Cameron Beam will fix electric appliances free of charge. His company won't, but he has agreed to do it himself. None of these gentlemen are at home before 10 p. m. many nights. The safe thing to do is to wait until 11 o'clock at night or later and phone them. The residence phone of Cameron Beam is 199. The residence phone of Jack Watson is 802M and the phone of Mr. Watkins is 432.

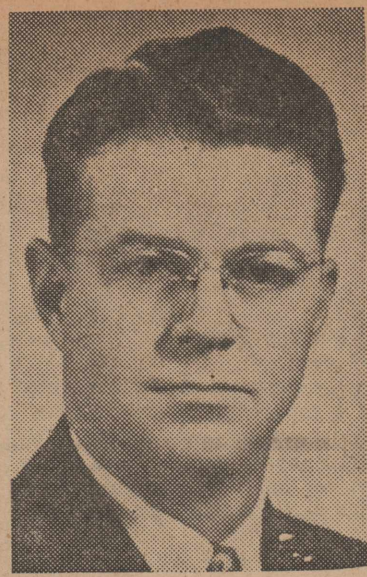

The Vernon meeting resulted in a Tri-State Association and the appointment of a committee from the three states to go to Washington to push my plan of giving the under-planted cotton acres to those farmers who can plant successfully after June 1. I won't be able to go. After thinking it up, I have the great pleasure of staying at home and trying to catch up on my work as secretary of the Texas Press Association.

There will be a meeting of all USO workers at the district court room Thursday night at 8 o'clock.

Next week the city and county are staging a scrap iron drive in Collingsworth County. To make certain vital metals, a proportion of scrap iron must be mixed with new ore. Bring in your old metal even if it is a small amount. The junk dealers are paying top prices, and you will be helping in filling a national need.

I was shocked to learn of the death of John Gladney. He was a friendly and likable man to me. He had strong likes and dislikes, but he was so loyal to his friends. I have reason to know.

Last week I had no chance to write about the passing of Mrs. Frank Royal. She had been ill for a number of years, but the lady I remember best lived in Wellington when I was a boy and a young man. By all counts she was the friendliest soul in town—not in a social sense but in a helpful way. According to my limited lights that comes close to being the best Christian. It has to do with charity, and she had it in abundance.

After having watched how the world moves for 40 years come next week, I no longer approve of indiscriminate giving. I think it should be earned. But Mrs. Royal lived in a time when earning was taken for granted. Those who received her generosity were either the victims of unexpected misfortune or else they were simply friends to whom she gave a little of her heart just as you send a flower on mother's day. Even so, I can remember still my youthful opinion that Mrs. Royal would have given away her only house if it had not been for the cautious and occasional warnings of her husband.

She receives plenty of real flowers, but here is a printed bouquet for a gallant lady who has been sick for quite a time. She is Mrs. Paul Starr. She was one of the fairest, most conscientious and most agreeable county officials we have had in our long list numbering many splendid and capable public servants. She was efficient and she had the intelligence to augment it with plenty of competent help, but there was something about the graciousness with which she waited on each person who called at her office that sticks in my mind. Besides this, she is a splendid courageous woman, if I ever saw one.

CARD OF THANKS

We want to try to express our thanks to those who gave so generously and we so kind during the cyclone disaster. Also we want to thank the Red Cross for what they did and the quick service they rendered. Words can not express our thanks. Everyone was wonderful. May the Lord bless each of you.

A. W. Bruce and family.

Mrs. Joe Bullock of Amarillo spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. J. L. Burt. Mrs. J. L. Burt, Jr., of El Paso was also here.

Community Clubs Meet May 14-15

The Rolla and Houselog community clubs will hold their regular monthly meetings this week, Harvey Owen, vocational agriculture teacher from Wellington, who is in charge, has announced.

The Rolla Club will meet Thursday night, May 14, while Houselog will meet Friday night, May 15.

Three educational and entertaining pictures will be shown, while community singing and recreation will provide the entertainment for the remainder of the evening.

Co-Workers Club Surprises Mrs. Box With Farewell Party

Tuesday night members of the Co-Workers Club assembled and went to the home of Mrs. E. A. Box where they gave her a surprise farewell party. Mrs. Box is leaving for Paris to join her husband, who is employed there.

Refreshments were served to the following: Mmes. S. F. Hughes, Glenn Brickey, Buster Hughes and daughter, C. A. Dennis, E. A. Box, D. L. Worley, R. S. Montague, W. M. Tucker, C. E. Williams, Fred Kersten and Miss Clinona Epps.

CARD OF THANKS

We want to take this means of thanking our many neighbors and friends for all the things they did for us after the recent cyclone that destroyed our home and other farm buildings. We cannot express in words just how deeply we appreciate all the things you did. Your kindness and thoughtfulness in providing for us the things we need, and in doing it so quickly, helped us greatly at this time.

We may not be able to see all of you individually, but we want each of you to know that we thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Ingram and family.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this means of thanking our friends for the many acts of kindness extended us during the long illness and death of our husband and father. We wish to thank those who sent flowers and helped in any way during this sad hour. May God's richest blessing be yours.

Mrs. J. O. Pollard and children.

Tommie Cherry, who is working in an aircraft factory in Dallas, was here during the week end visiting with Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Cherry.

Mr. and Mrs. John Williams of Dallas announce the birth of a son on Monday, May 11. The baby weighed seven and a half pounds and has been named John Robert. Mr. and Mrs. Williams, former residents of Wellington, now live at 324 Tenth Street in Dallas.

CARD OF THANKS

We want to thank the people who came and helped move the lumber and trash off the church property after the cyclone. May the Lord bless you. Midway Baptist Church.

John Thompson Made Corporal

John O. Thompson of Wellington, the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Thompson of Route 3, has just been promoted to Corporal according to Col. Thomas L. Gilbert, Commandant of the Lubbock Army Flying School, Lubbock, Texas.

Corp. Thompson, who is a graduate of the Wellington High School and who attended the West Texas State College at Canyon, is with the 84th Air Base Squadron at the large advanced twin-engine flying school.

He enlisted February 13 and is at work in the Squadron supply.

CARD OF THANKS

After losing our home in the cyclone there were so many people who helped us that it is impossible to send personal cards of thanks. We want each one who so kindly thought of us and gave the things we needed to know that we really appreciate each item.

As we touch each article we feel that it is a gift from a real friend. Such thoughtfulness makes trouble much easier to bear.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Tolleson and children.

It Can Be Done

It is a tough job to get scrap metal cleaned off the farms and moving along to War Industry. But as one International dealer we are helping do it. We do not buy scrap metal, but we do buy this space to point out the need for every farmer in this county to scour your farm, collect your idle scrap iron and we urge you to return it to useful channels now.

By so doing you will be doing your part in our all out effort. This is total war. It is your war. It is our war. There is no financial advantage to this firm in you selling scrap iron to your nearest dealer, but there is benefit beyond estimation in winning this war. We must win. Send your scrap iron to the nearest dealer—not tomorrow—now.

Ruling Given On Affidavits Filed By Candidates

A notice received recently by Miss Margaret Shields, county clerk, from Wm. J. Lawson, secretary of state, points out that the affidavit which all candidates for public office in Texas must file with his office applies only to those who are candidates in general elections.

Earlier in the year notice was given out that these affidavits must be filed, in accordance with an act of the 47th Legislature, but when the question was submitted to Attorney General Gerald Mann, he ruled that this applied only to general elections.

Mr. and Mrs. John Walker of Shamrock spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. Cleo Templeton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ott Sisk of Amarillo are here visiting with relatives and friends.

Cotton Products Stressed As War Materials

War materials produced by the Childress cotton oil mill, and the cotton industry as a whole, can give an added significance to the observance of National Cotton Week, May 15th-23rd, 1942, says Arthur Power, manager of the Childress cotton oil mill.

"Because cotton and cottonseed products are more available and more lasting than many other materials; because cotton is one crop in which the United States is self-sufficient; because we have the land and the farmers and the industries to produce cotton in greater abundance in the future—these are some of the reasons why more Americans are expected to use more cotton and cottonseed products during National Cotton Week, 1942 than ever before," he said.

"Fortunately for our United States war effort, because cotton and cottonseed products have been described as 'more important than tin or rubber,' December 7th found our nation with a valuable stockpile of cotton, plus industries and manpower equipped to produce cotton more abundantly, probably, than any other war essential," the oil mill manager added. Department of Agricultural officials have already called for larger production in 1942, and further increases seem certain to be necessary in the future.

This productive capacity makes it possible for the cotton industry to supply ample quantities of most cotton and cottonseed products for civilian use, even though called upon to furnish the armed forces with some 350 different products of lint cotton, alone—about 250 pounds of lint cotton for each soldier in a modern mechanized army. Despite the great importance of cotton in winning the war, local merchants have an abundance of most cotton and cottonseed products, many of them durable and economical for replacing other materials now scarce or costly.

"As proud as rookies in new uniforms" is the way the Childress mill manager describes the feeling of the mill employees toward the important part that the oil mill is playing in the war effort.

"Our linters are making munitions—our cottonseed oil is making food fats that fighters and civilian workers must have—and our cottonseed meal and hulls are essential feeds to produce livestock 'Food for Victory,' not only for this country but for our allies," he points out. Even though the Childress mill might be described as a 'veteran in service' to farmers, stockmen and the public in this territory, we have a new feeling of pride that we are working for an industry so important to our national safety and to our civilian health and well-being in time of war."

By producing more cotton on farms and by using more cotton and cottonseed products to replace less available materials, citizens of this territory can make an important contribution to the war effort, not only during National Cotton Week, but throughout the year, the oil mill manager concluded.

Mr. and Mrs. Melton spent the week end in Borger with their daughter, Mrs. Woodrow Ham. Mrs. Ham and daughter, Elisa Gail, returned home with them for a few weeks' visit.

Mrs. Buster Hughes spent the week end with her parents in Mangum.

Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Vaughan of Childress visited Mrs. Vaughan's mother, Mrs. W. T. Taylor, during the week end.

Cecil Craven reported Monday that he and his small son found a five-foot rattlesnake while driving the cows home from the pasture. The snake had seven rattlers and people who have lived in that section say that for about twenty years a rattlesnake had not been found on that side of the road in that particular section.

Florence Langford of Mineral Wells is here this week visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Langford.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lewis of Wilcox, Arizona, are here visiting with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Popwell visited with Mrs. Popwell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Carpenter, in Hollis Sunday.

Mrs. Bessie Davidson and daughter were here last week visiting with Mrs. Davidson's father, B. F. Ford.

Oma Robertson of Canyon was here during the week end visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Robertson.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Killingsworth of Lubbock visited with Mrs. Killingsworth's mother and her daughter this week end.

Mrs. Arthur Ellis and daughter, Jerry Ann, were here last week visiting with Mrs. Ellis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Starkey went to Perryton Wednesday to visit their daughter, Mrs. W. M. Boston.

Miss Vernene Franks of Shamrock spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Franks.

Misses Irene and Evelyn Ball spent the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Ball. Evelyn has recently started to work at the Naval Air Base, at Hensley Field. Irene is employed by the North American Aircraft Manufacturing Company near Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Dutch Higgins of Littlefield spent the week end with Mrs. T. B. Sledge and other relatives.

J. B. Long Hurt When Struck By Barn Door Wed.

J. B. Long, who lives south of Wellington, received painful back injuries Wednesday morning, April 29, when a barn door upon which he was working fell on him.

The heavy door had been blown from the barn earlier in the week by high winds, and at the time of the accident it was being raised by means of a pulley. One rope attached to the door came loose, allowing it to fall.

Mr. Long was rushed to St. Joseph's Hospital where X-ray pictures showed that no bones were broken.

His condition early this week was reported as improving. He is now recovering at his home.

Cottonwood Men List Neighbor's Land Recently

Fifteen men went to the farm of the late J. L. Gladney recently with their tractors and listed the land, which was about 135 acres. Those who helped in listing the land were: Messrs. George Richards, Lewis Keller, George Tucker, Shirley Davis, Jim Loter, Minatree, Edd Tarpley, John Gollighugh, Dude Bruce, C. A. Wright, Clyde Brown, C. S. Graham, Bill Long, Henry Langford, and Paul Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Lester visited with G. T. Lester of Memphis Friday.

Guardians of Freedom

There's material for munitions and arms right in our own back yards. It's scrap iron! To push an offensive war against our enemy, we can, and must, get this scrap out of the junk pile and put it where it can go into tanks and ships and guns and bombs. As International Harvester Co. dealers, we urge every person who has scrap iron—no matter what the amount—to sell it to your nearest scrap iron dealer during "Scrap Iron Week" Monday, May 18 to Saturday, May 23. Your country needs this iron. It's useless to you. This is our war and we've got to win it. Sell it. This is your part in the push for Victory.

YOUR SCRAP METAL Is Needed Now for VICTORY!

A CRITICAL shortage of scrap metal now exists in United States War Industry. Unless more scrap is forthcoming at once, war production will slow down and months, even years will be added to this fearful battle.

It is of the utmost importance that every pound of scrap metal on your farm start moving now toward America's steel mills and foundries to make more war material.

To help you get your scrap moving, this store will cooperate in every way possible. Canvass your farm from the attic to the farthest fence corner. Gather every bit of old metal, and bring it in to one of the local dealers.

It is your patriotic duty to collect your scrap and notify the dealers at once.

YOU CAN HELP WIN THIS WAR!

There's Comfort in Knowing You Have Planned for the Future

Living to meet today's needs is no easy matter. Uncertainty can, bit by bit, destroy peace of mind. At times like these, there's comfort in knowing that you have planned to meet what the future may call for.

Such a plan is the Kelso Burial Insurance. By this means, no one need be denied a burial service of dignity and simple beauty. Month by month, you lay aside a small amount that will take care of this one future need.

There is no cost for explaining it in detail. Our office, in the Kelso Funeral Home, is open at all times, and we invite each of you to learn more of this plan that you can make for the future.

National Cotton Week for several years has aimed at raising consumption in cotton goods, in an effort to cut down the cotton surplus on hand in this country.

This week, sponsored by the National Cotton Council, has done much to keep the public aware that cotton is one of our major resources, and while it has often presented problems that are a headache, we are at the same time utterly dependent upon it.

This year new factors have entered the picture. Not only are buyers of the nation still urged to use cotton, but on many items cotton is being used as a substitute for other materials that now go into vital war production.

During Cotton Week, observed this year from May 15 through May 22, cotton growers are reminded that their lint cotton and their cotton seed are needed this year more than in many, many years. Those who know the cotton business, and who have studied the present situation, doubt the general optimism as to the amount of lint cotton stored up, and they wonder if a cotton lint shortage won't come up in less time than we think.

That there is already a shortage in oil from cotton seed is general knowledge, and is admitted from the Department of Agriculture down to the cross-roads stores.

Because cotton is a vital product of the nation, farmers throughout the cotton growing South are being urged to plant their full cotton acreage allotment this year—urged by the Secretary of Agriculture, the National Cotton Council, ginners, bankers, and business men who are aware of the cotton situation.

The nation needs the lint and the oil.

With an underground moisture throughout this area that makes prospects good, and with the price of cotton such that there should be more money in the crop than in the past few years, this country's prospects are bright.

To help yourself, and to help our nation win this war, plant all the cotton you are allowed. It's needed.

Lowering public debt, reducing taxes and wiping out a deficit were achievements which made famous the "Pay-As-You-Go" policy of the administration of Texas Governor Oran M. Roberts, (1879-1883).

• Not For Profit

"Well, our boys who bombed Tokyo not only covered themselves with glory but they helped their bank accounts as well. A half-million dollars now goes to them, this sum of money having been set aside by patriotic citizens and groups for the first American fliers to bomb the large Nipponese city. But you and I know that it wasn't the financial reward that provided the incentive for the aerial blow. Not at all. It was the stab-in-the-back Pearl Harbor attack that fired our boys to blast the Japanese capital.—The Vernon Times.

• "Let's Don't Bomb," Says Hitler

Hitler wants an agreement with the United Nations not to bomb any more cities. Let's see, now who started this bombing business? Who sent wave after wave of bombers over cities of other lands for the purpose of death and destruction? All of you will agree that Hitler started this. But now the picture is changing, Hitler wants a change. More bombers are visiting German territory than Hitler is able to send over other countries—and the Germans do not like the medicine which they have been dishing out to others. At any rate, who would be silly enough to believe any agreement which Hitler would make?—Clyde Warwick in The Canyon News.

• Victory Garden

Your Victory Garden. Don't forget it if you've got the room and the water available at a reasonable cost. Remember to plant in it the kind of vegetables that will stick to your ribs. Peas and beans and carrots and tomatoes and cabbages, etc. They may or may not be high later on. Certainly they can't be cheaper, except seasonally, because the people who raise them commercially have higher costs and must get more for their product or go broke. You can take care of yourself to a considerable extent. You may need to do so, come fall and higher prices. Governments from time immemorial have tried to keep costs from going up in war times and going down afterwards. They haven't had much luck as yet, and we may not this time. Give the government credit for trying, but you can also try to take care of your own self in the situation.—Homer Steen in The Floydada Hesperian.

• Return To God

Since our entrance into the war in early December, we have heard a number of references made both by the clergy and laymen that during the crisis of mankind ravishing war in the history of mankind America "will turn back to God."

With this line of reasoning we agree heartily. When we are deprived of automobile, our money is taken in taxes, and many, many of the luxuries that Americans feel they must have are taken away, we began to face the realities of life. When our sons and husbands and sweethearts are snatched from us by the cruel vagaries of war, we realize the price necessary to insure the liberty and freedom which was purchased by our Christian forefathers.—Joe Cook in The Mission Times.

• Lesson From Nature

Nature teaches a forceful lesson during the hailstorm when the frozen pellets strike the yielding flower stalk without damage, yet destroy the older, stubborn plants which refuse to bend.—Douglas Meador in The Matador Tribune.

Price Control

Questions And Answers

These questions and answers, prepared by the Office For Emergency Management, give the information most generally asked for in connection with the recent price control measure.

Q. Why was the general maximum price regulation issued?

A. The regulation is a war measure issued to stop further increases in the cost of living and in other prices.

Q. Why have prices been rising?

A. Fighting the war requires huge expenditures for armaments and turns thousands of plants from producing civilian goods to producing war goods. This results in increased wage payments but smaller production of civilian goods. Thus demand is rising while supply is declining. The result is higher prices.

Q. What prices are covered by the regulation?

A. Nearly all prices charged by retailers, wholesalers, manufacturers, and producers of raw materials. The only important cost-of-living exclusions are certain food products.

Q. What are the ceiling prices?

A. In general, the highest charged during March, 1942, by each individual seller.

Q. When does the ceiling become effective?

A. 1. For goods sold at retail, the ceilings apply on May 18, 1942. 2. For services at retail: that is, rendered to the ultimate consumer, the ceiling applies on July 1, 1942. 3. For sales by manufacturers, producers and wholesalers, and services rendered to an industrial consumer, the ceiling applies on May 11, 1942.

Q. Will the ceiling prices be the same at every store for the same article?

A. No. In general, the ceiling is the highest price at which each store sold an article during March. The maximum price will vary from store to store just as prices varied from store to store during March.

Q. Can prices lower than the ceiling be charged?

A. Yes, they can go as low as the seller wishes. But they cannot go one cent above the ceiling. Remember that the purpose of this action is to stop the rise in prices.

Q. What action has been taken regarding rents?

A. OPA has designated 33 groups of communities as "defense-rental areas" and has taken the first steps to check the rise in housing rents in these areas.

Q. How will the housewife know what the maximum prices are?

A. The regulation lists about 100 of the most important groups of items in the average family's cost of living. The maximum prices of these items must be displayed by any retailer selling them after May 18.

Q. What about prices of goods that are not on the cost-of-living list?

A. Until July 1, the housewife should ask the storekeeper for his maximum prices. After July 1, the retailer must have a prepared statement of the highest prices for all commodities or services which he delivered or supplied during March. This may be examined by anyone on request.

Q. What should the housewife do if she believes that she is required to pay more than a storekeeper's maximum?

A. She should ask the storekeeper to explain the price to her. If she still believes that she is required to pay more than his legal maximum, she should communicate the facts to OPA's nearest war price and rationing board or its nearest local office.

Q. How can the shopper obtain a record showing what she paid so that she can make positive comparison with March prices?

A. Every store, when requested by a customer, must give a sales slip or receipt showing the date, the name and address of the store, the item sold, and the price received.

Q. Why is a whole month used for the pricing period?

A. This is to produce as fair a maximum as possible. If prices were frozen at the level in effect during a shorter period or on only one day, the ceilings might be distorted and might be abnormally low for a store which had had bargain sales or "dollar days" throughout the base period.

Q. What articles are covered by price ceilings?

A. Practically every article used in the life and work of America. Included are the basic articles that make up the cost of living—clothing, yard goods, fuel, furniture, most foods, hardware, appliances, tobacco, drugs and toiletries. At the manufacturer's level the regulations cover virtually all products and commodities that are not already under price ceilings.

Your Town And Mine

—By CHARLES L. ALLEN

You never saw her picture in the paper; she never marched in the big parades; she never made a "4-Minute Man" speech; but in my opinion one of the greatest heroes of the last World War was Old Grandma Endicott.

Charlie Allen

Grandma wouldn't have recognized a German soldier at point blank range, and she never did get close enough to an airplane to read its numbers, but she knew a great deal about the meaning of war and all about stiffening men's backbones. In short, Grandma Endicott was Our Town's equivalent of the present Office of Civilian Defense and the Morale Division all rolled into one.

Early in 1917 her youngest son, Jim, had enlisted in the Army and she never heard anything from him after he left Jefferson Barracks. Jim was the only good one of the whole Endicott clan, always excepting his mother, of course. Her other son, George, the eldest of the three, had married altogether too young and in spite of many advantages which his father had bestowed on him, George never proved to be adept at anything. He was a lazy, no-account scamp.

When Jim went to war, Grandma Endicott put her heart and soul into activities which must be done by women. She organized a group of young women who engineered the parties and festivities for all soldier boys leaving from our county seat. She led the Red Cross Training Unit in our village and she knitted more sweaters than any three other women in town. As president of the W. R. C. she put a motion on the books that any patriotic organization could use the W. R. C. Hall for meetings without charge. Through her connections she arranged for several war widows to get jobs in local banks and stores and was instrumental in establishing the first "child-care" clinic in our county.

The thing that always amazed us about Grandma Endicott's war efforts was that she did all these things in addition to her usual obligations. I have gone over to her house more than once—usually on an errand of some kind for Mother—and found every last one of the Endicott gang there eating their heads off. Her table was famed for the excellency of her cooking and the abundance of its burden. It reminded me of nothing quite so much as the groaning board of a cook-car in thrashing season. Compared to that pack of ravenous relatives, a good old-fashioned, begrimed and be-whiskered threshing crew was a coterie of tea-drinkers. Believe me, there was one part of every one of those people that worked overtime—their eating apparatus. And Grandma paid the bills.

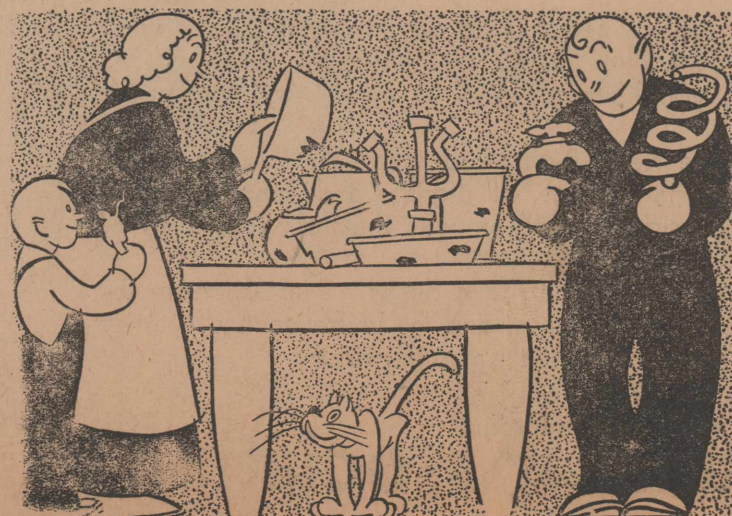

If this country intends to win World War II, I know of only one way to do it—get enough Grandma Endicotts at work to keep the morale of the people at its peak. Whoever coined that phrase: "Morale is a woman's business," knew that men's spirits depend not upon the tanks, and planes, and guns we can turn out, but rather upon the mental and moral and spiritual fiber of their women.

Oh yes—let me add one major point to my recommendation: when we get those Grandma Endicotts let's make sure that every last one of their perpetually-hungry relatives is made to earn his salt.

All personal services not rendered in connection with a commodity (such as beauty and barber shops) are excluded from the OPA's Maximum Price Regulation order.

Local retailers must mark the maximum price, i. e., the highest prices charged in March, 1942, on cost-of-living commodities offered for sale on and after May 18, under the OPA's over-all price ceiling.

Mrs. T. Argie Jones

who was before her marriage last Thursday evening, Miss Donnitta Blain, daughter of E. W. Blain. The wedding took place at the Blain home at 8:30 o'clock with a group of relatives and friends present for the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Jones are at home in Wichita Falls.

Miss Donnitta Blain Weds T. Argie Jones On Thursday, May 7

Miss Donnitta Blain, daughter of E. W. Blain, became the bride of T. Argie Jones of Wichita Falls, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jones of San Diego, in a beautiful home ceremony on Thursday evening, May 7. The single ring ceremony was read by Rev. J. E. Kirby at 8:30 o'clock. An improvised altar was arranged at the foot of the veranda stairs. The natural greenery formed the setting, with floor baskets of gladiolas and iris in flanking positions.

Mrs. Carl Chaudoin played the pre-nuptial music.

The bride wore a dress of white organza and embroidered insertion. The fitted bodice of lace was cut with a sweetheart neckline and had puffed sleeves. A wide band of insertion near the hemline trimmed the full organza skirt. Her fingertip length veil of tulle fell from a tight fitting Juliette cap embroidered in seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white orchids, roses, carnations and sweetpeas.

Mrs. Darwin Nix, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a pink lace full length dress and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and sweetpeas.

A. V. Mahan of Wichita Falls was best man.

The bride was reared in Wellington and following her graduation here she attended school at Oklahoma Women's College at Chickasha where she graduated. She also attended school at W.S.T.C. and the University of Texas. She majored in music while in school and has taught music at Quail and Dodson. She taught one term of school at Quail also. At the time of her marriage she was pianist for the Rotary Club.

The groom is chief clerk at the Kemp Hotel in Wichita Falls. He attended school at New Mexico A. and M. at Las Cruces.

Mr. Jones has been with the Kemp Hotel for the past four years. He is a sergeant with the army reserve.

Reception

Immediately following the wedding a reception was held for the wedding party and guests. The wedding cake was served from the lace covered table in the dining room. After the bride cut the first piece of cake the serving was done by Mrs. A. L. Cochran, Mrs. R. R. Martin and Miss Elizabeth Gillentine.

The bride and groom left following the reception for their home in Wichita Falls. The bride wore a going away suit of navy blue with white accessories. Her corsage was of lavender orchids.

S. Bolton Family Holds Reunion Mother's Day

Mother's Day was celebrated at the home of S. Bolton by a reunion and dinner in honor of Mrs. Bolton. The Bolton sons and daughter came from California, Oklahoma and points over Texas to be present for the reunion. They presented their mother with a rocker for Mother's Day.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bolton and baby of Bakersfield, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Mattison Bolton of Carmel, Calif.; Mrs. F. B. Fields and daughter, Pauline of Childress. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Mize and three children of Wheeler; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bolton and three children of Dill, Oklahoma; Mrs. Edna Maxwell of Salt Fork; Mr. and Mrs. Delno Payne and two children of Midway; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Traylor of Allison; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bolton and two children; George Payne of Snyder, Oklahoma.

During the day the following friends called: Mr. and Mrs. Delmas Brewer of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Mae Horton and two children, Mrs. Horton, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Harwell and sons, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wright and children and Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Wright.

Circle No. 1 Meets With Mrs. W. M. Tucker

Circle No. 1 of the First Baptist Church met with Mrs. Morgan Tucker Monday afternoon, May 11, at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Tucker read the third chapter of Mark for the Devotional, and Mrs. Peoples led the opening prayer. Mrs. Karnes gave a lesson out of the Mission Book.

Those present were Mmes. E. M. Clement, Leonard Karnes, J. W. Peoples, Raymond White, Betty Karnes, Virginia Lee White, and Mrs. Tucker.

Mrs. J. C. Harper To Present Piano Pupils Thursday

Mrs. John C. Harper, teacher of piano, will present her entire group of piano students in a recital on Thursday evening, May 14 at the Baptist Church. The program will begin at 8:45 o'clock and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Harper has taught piano for a number of years and has many outstanding pupils in her class this season.

Sammye A. Wilks Bride Of Sgt. David B. Moore

The marriage of Miss Sammye Alice Wilks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. I. Wilks of Arlie, to Sergeant David B. Moore, took place Saturday evening, May 2, at 8 p. m., at the home of the groom's parents at Carthage, Texas.

The Rev. H. L. Green performed the double ring ceremony before an improvised altar of alysum, baskets of pink rosebuds and white candelabra. Mrs. James Baldwin gave the wedding music.

The bride wore a powder blue tailored dress with navy accessories and a shoulder corsage of talisman roses.

Mrs. Curtis Fant was the bride's only attendant. The bridegroom was attended by Curtis Fant, who acted as best man.

Mrs. D. B. Moore, presided at the cake during a reception following the ceremony. The three-tiered wedding cake was trimmed with lilies of the valley and topped with a miniature bridal couple. Mrs. Elvie Sullivan served punch from a crystal bowl.

Mrs. Moore attended school at Wellington and Lubbock, and graduated from Dodson. Sgt. Moore is a graduate of Carthage High School and of the U. S. Army Technical School at Scott Field, Ill. After a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home at Lubbock, where Sgt. Moore is stationed at present.

Honey Takes Place Of Sugar In Recipes

A cup of honey gives the same sweetness as one cup of sugar, so the same amount can be used to get the desired sweetness in baking.

However, the substitution of honey for sugar demands other adjustments in cooking, according to Rose Erisman, specialist in food preparation. Each cup of honey contains about one-fourth cup of liquid, so the homemaker should reduce one-fourth cup of the liquid required in the recipe for every cup of honey she substitutes for sugar.

"In baked products such as cakes or quick breads, homemakers may prefer this rule worked out by the Bureau of Home Economics: If you substitute medium thick honey for all the sugar in a cake for quick bread, reduce the liquid in the recipe one-half. If you substitute medium thick honey for half the sugar in a cake or quick bread, reduce the liquid by one-fourth."

The specialist's other rule is: Use approximately one-eighth to one-fourth teaspoon soda per cup of honey in baked products such as cakes or quick breads. Here are some of the honey recipes she recommends.

Honey Cookies

Cream $\frac{1}{4}$ c butter. Mix 1 beaten egg with $\frac{1}{4}$ c honey and 2 tablespoons of milk. To 2 cups sifted flour, 2 teaspoons of baking powder, and $\frac{1}{2}$ t. salt, add 1 c. chopped nuts, $\frac{1}{2}$ c. chopped dates or other dried fruit, and $\frac{1}{2}$ c. chopped candied citron or pineapple. Then add the nuts and dry ingredients alternately with the liquid mixture to the butter. Drop by small spoonfuls on a greased baking sheet and bake in a moderately hot oven 350 to 375 degrees F. for about 10 minutes.

Honey Cake

$\frac{1}{2}$ c. each of shortening, honey, sugar
 $\frac{1}{4}$ c. milk
 $\frac{1}{4}$ t. salt
1 c. flour
2 t. cream
2 eggs
3 t. baking powder

Cream shortening, honey and sugar, add beaten eggs, beat well. Add milk and sifted dry ingredients alternately. Do not beat after last flour is added, but just 2 or 3 stirrings to have well blended. Add the 2 t. cream, stir, pour into greased layer cake pans, bake in moderate oven 350 degrees F. For cup cakes, bake in greased muffin tins.

Honey Cream Pie

$\frac{1}{4}$ c. milk
 $\frac{1}{2}$ c. honey
 $\frac{1}{4}$ c. flour
2 egg yolks, beaten
 $\frac{1}{2}$ t. salt
2 T. butter
Add milk slowly to flour, beating until smooth. Add rest of milk, salt and honey. Cook in double boiler, stirring frequently, until thick. Cool slightly and beat in egg yolks thoroughly. Return to low fire, cook 5 minutes, add butter and pour into baked pastry shell. Cover with meringue made from 2 egg whites beaten stiff with 2 teaspoons honey and $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon baking powder.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wilson and two children of Paducah were guests Sunday in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. LeDerer and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Beard. They are former residents, and Mr. Wilson, who was county school superintendent here, is now head of the Paducah Schools.

Mrs. Leo J. Enfield and son, Michael Lewis, of Placentia, California, are here visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McClure. Mrs. Enfield plans to be here several weeks.

Rose Erisman President Of B. P. W. Club

Tuesday, May 12, members of the Business and Professional Women's Club met for their last program of the current club year. In a business meeting preceding the program officers were elected to serve next year. They were: Miss Rose Erisman, president; Miss Katherine Boverie, vice president; Miss Lucille Bennett, treasurer; and Mrs. Jimmie Richards, secretary.

Mrs. Marguerite McCampbell was in charge of the program and gave a talk on "Our Contribution to Democracy." Mrs. McCampbell pointed out that not every woman can take an active part in the war, but every one can do her part to prevent discord within the country which would be used by our enemies.

Those attending were Miss Boverie, Mrs. Fleet Pruden, Miss Viola Hudson, Mrs. A. L. Cochran, Mrs. Cleo Templeton, Miss Erisman, Miss Bula Bess Bell, Miss Dora E. McClaskey, Mrs. C. C. Bishop, Miss Margaret Hix, Mrs. Darwin Nix, Mrs. McCampbell, Miss Allegra Gibbs, Mrs. Pink Sullivan, Miss Hattie D. Wells, Miss Lucille Bennett, Miss Margaret Shields, Miss Bessie Jean Willis and Mrs. Jimmie Richards.

1942-43 Freshman Girls Tour Homemaking Classes

The homemaking classes of Wellington High School entertained the 1942-43 freshman girls with a tea and introduction tour of the homemaking department Friday afternoon from 5 until 6 p. m.

The various work that had been done during the year was exhibited on the tables, machines, and part of the clothing that is under construction was also shown. The girls were shown through the different parts of the department by several guides that explained how each was used.

Patriotic scheme was carried out in the entire decorations. Red roses and cornflowers formed the patriotic bouquet that centered the tea table.

The guests were: Maxine Carson, Naoma Coleman, Mary Deaver, Ima Jean Edgar, Marie Nation, Kathleen Carter, Billy Jean Tenison, Gay Reeves, Bobbie Louise Templeton, Glennis Escoe, Vivian Vandiver, Margaret Davis, Clogene Young, Edna Mae Bennett, Ella Mae Austin, Billy Sue Hunt, Shirley Easter, Ruth Jesse, Betty Jean White, Betty Jo Hunt, Hattie Mae Kersten, Emma Jane Culp, Dottie Sue Sisk, Irene Ruth Williams, Emma Lee Lockhart, Noma Cristy, Connie Walker, Ardis Kern, Frances Vernon, and their sponsors, Miss Delia Cowans and Miss Rosemary Boston.

"Christ Or Chaos" Reviewed At W. M. U. Circle 4

"Christ or Chaos" was reviewed by Mrs. J. O. Wells Monday afternoon at Circle 4 when members met at the Baptist Church. In the business meeting members agreed to assist in painting the church kitchen.

Mrs. R. W. Brantley dismissed the group with a prayer. Those attending were Mmes. Jess White, Ed Box, Earl Smith, Jack Ball, R. S. Montague, Wells and Brantley.

Shirley Agee Birthday Honoree On Friday

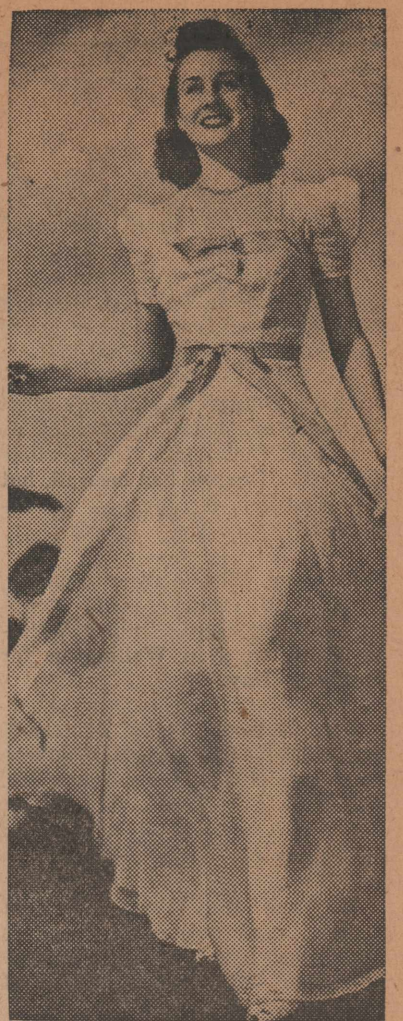

Shirley Agee was entertained with a birthday party last Friday, May 8, on her seventh birthday. Following a round table of enjoyable games the children were served refreshments.

Cool-ade and cookies were served to the following: Mary Jane Johnson, Jo Ann Jarvis, Roberta Posey, Docia Ann Henry, Marita Moulton, Edna Bess Currier and honorees brothers, Jimmie and Billy Frank Agee.

Girl Graduate Frocks

This sweetly fresh and flattering creation of drop-stitch organdy is enchanting for graduates. A deep fold of fabric and soft shirring marks the bodice with its popular square-cut neckline, while pink grosgrain ribbon gives a romantic accent. To the right is pictured a tubable gingham. Clean cut, colorful, fashioned of brown and white Anderson plaid, it boasts an easy-swinging, bias cut skirt with front and back kick pleats and softly tailored top.

1924 Study Club Closes Year At Business Meeting

The 1924 Study Club met last Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. J. W. Wells for a business meeting. This meeting was the final meeting of the year and plans were made for the program for next club year.

Mrs. James Doneghy, member of the program committee, presented a tentative program for next year which deals with the study of the allied nations. This was accepted by the members.

Attending were Mmes. Fred LeDerer, Frank Eikenburg, Doneghy, Deskins Wells, Morris Wells, Kelly Pigg and hostess, J. W. Wells.

Miss Glendell Dickey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Dickey, and J. E. Norman, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Norman, were married on Tuesday, May 5. The wedding vows were solemnized by Minister Edward Prince of the Church of Christ, at Mangum. The ceremony was read in the minister's home at 9 o'clock p. m.

The bride was very attractively dressed in an aqua crepe dress. Her accessories were black and she wore a shoulder corsage of pink roses.

The bride was reared in this county and attended the Midway school before entering Wellington High School where she graduated in the class of 1938. Classmates named her one of the prettiest girls of the class. She specialized in business training and English while in high school. For the past few months Mrs. Norman has been employed by the McLellan Store.

The groom is with the State Highway Department and is in charge of the laboratory department in this county. He attended high school in Plainview where he graduated in the class of 1938. He later attended college at Texas A. and M. for two and a half years.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman will make their home in Wellington where they both have many friends.

Mrs. Merle Cayton of Amarillo visited her mother, Mrs. J. W. Payne, and brother, Winfred Payne, Sunday. She was accompanied by Miss Zonetta Moore and Miss Clarice Harper, who visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. John Harper.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Sims of Pickett were here several days this week visiting with Mrs. J. L. Hays and family.

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE AND PASTE IN YOUR SCRAPBOOK)

"The skinnyscout birds are real slick. They've pulled off quite a clever trick. I think, though, that we've had enough," Said Duncy, "This is getting rough."

It seemed the two birds understood. They rose as quickly as they could. The Totties soon whizzed off through space. So fast, they thought it was a race.

"Aw, this is fun," cried Windy, "I am used to sailing through the sky. When'er they rest, we'll do the same. I'm certain we'll be glad we came."

Another Tottie shortly said, "What is it that I see ahead? Perhaps that's where the birds will land, And on those rocks we'll have to stand."

The birds swooped down and fooled the bunch. Wee Duncy cried "I had a hunch That we would soon be in this fix. This is another of their tricks."

Each bird was in a different place, The Totties hanging out in space. Wee Scouty then let go the rope— It seemed the Totties' only hope.

NEXT WEEK: The Totties meet little Shrimpy of the sea.

Ruby's Observes Anniversary On Friday, Saturday

Four years of service to the people of Collingsworth County is being observed Friday and Saturday, May 15 and 16, by I. O. Ruby's IGA Store. Mr. Ruby, in addition to owning the business, serves as manager.

From a small beginning, this business has expanded into one of the leading groceries of Wellington and the surrounding trade territory.

"We are happy to be able to observe this anniversary," Mr. Ruby said early this week. "We truly appreciate the patronage of all friends from every part of the county. It has been a pleasure to serve you, and we want each of you to visit us during the two days we are observing our anniversary."

As a special feature, entertainment and refreshments will be furnished all persons visiting the store Saturday.

Mr. Ruby is assisted in the store by Mrs. Ruby, Wayne Parker, and Freddie Potet, who works after school each day.

"I guess there's just one thing we can say, and that is 'Thanks to everybody,'" Mr. Ruby commented.

Flower bearers were Laverne Eiland, Willene Squyres, Willie Mae Walters, Evelyn Jo Farmer, Birdeen Phy, Mrs. Paul Cornwell, Doris Dabney, and Mrs. Kenneth Cass.

Interment was in the Wellington cemetery with the Kelso Funeral Home in charge.

Mr. Gladney was born March 2, 1878, in Georgia, and at the time of his death he was 64 years, 2 months, and 8 days of age. He was the son of J. R. and Rebecca Holland Gladney. His father, who was born in Ireland, came to the United States many years ago.

During the time that he had made his home in this county Mr. Gladney had made a host of friends who loved and respected him for his strength of character, the deep regard which he held for those about him, and his efforts at community improvement.

He was a member of the First Christian Church, and had spent much time working in its behalf.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. J. L. Gladney of Cottonwood; five children, Mrs. Ozro Bartlett of Quail, Mrs. R. L. Bentley of Lund, Nev., Miss Ada Lee Gladney of Oklahoma City, Ross Gladney of Wellington, and B. E. Gladney of Colorado Springs, Colo. Other survivors are 15 grandchildren, and two brothers and a sister, Dr. Clifford Gladney of Jasper, Alabama, Gus Gladney and Mrs. W. E. Ballard of Stepville, Alabama.

Misses Argen Hix of Levelland spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hix.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Russell of Levelland spent the week end with Mrs. Russell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Green.

Ernest Elliott of Levelland was here during the week end on business.
