Britons taking POWs home

By The Associated Press

Two British ships set sail Friday from the Falkland Islands for Argentina, carrying 5,500 prisoners of war from the humiliating defeat that shattered Argentina's military regime.

The Argentine Foreign Ministry said in a statement to the U.N. Security Council in New York that there was a "cessation of hostilities," but it will be "precarious as long as the British attitude continues in force, evidenced by military occupation (of the Falklands), blockade and economic aggression."

It said a "total cessation of hostilities" would be possible only when Britain withdraws its troops and naval task force, and lifts economic sanctions.

The British Foreign Ministry said the requisitioned cruise liner Canberra and the North Sea ferry Norland, loaded below and atop decks, left the Falklands capital of Stanley for the small Argentine port town of Puerto Madryn.

British forces captured nearly 11,000 prisoners when they broke the Argentine defense line around Stanley Monday in the climactic battle of the 74-day undeclared war over the South Atlantic islands.

The stunning defeat cost Gen. Leopoldo Galtieri his jobs as president of Argentina and commander of the army, and the country's military rulers continued meetings to pick a new president from their list of generals and admirals. Interior Minister Alfredo Saint Jean, also an army general, took over as interim chief executive when Galtieri formally resigned the presidency Friday night.

A British Foreign Ministry spokesman said the repatriation of the prisoners began after London received no-attack guarantees from Argentina via the International Red Cross.

He said two Argentine hospital ships, the Bahia Paraiso and the Almirante Irizar, were to sail for Stanley to help expedite the return of wounded prisoners. British officials said they have counted 11,845 POWs.

Puerto Madryn, the prisoners' destination, is a small town 700 miles and 24 hours' sailing time northwest of Stanley and 650 miles south of the Argentine capital, Buenos Aires.

Galtieri was booted from the presidency, the ruling three-man junta and the army command Thursday, purportedly because he insisted that Argentina should maintain its military options against the British. Those options would include possible air strikes against the 100-ship British armada that sealed off the islands and landed some 9,000 troops for the devastating defeat of around 12,000 Argentine soldiers put ashore after Argentina invaded the Falklands April 2.

Gen. Cristino Nicolaides, the new army commander, took his place on the junta earlier Friday with the commanders of the air force and navy.

Britain has said it will continue to hold hundreds of Argentine officers as prisoners of war until Argentina declares unequivocally an end to hostilities in the South Atlantic.

Argentina's statement to the Security Council said, "The total cessation of hostilities will only be achieved when the United Kingdom agrees to lift its air and sea blockade and the economic sanctions, and when it withdraws the military occupation force from the islands, the task force and the nuclear submarines it has deployed in the region's waters." It said Argentina's position was in accord with previous U.N. resolutions on the Falklands.

Those resolutions, including one passed the day after the Argentine invasion, called for an immediate withdrawal of Argentine forces from the Falklands, ruled by Britain for 149 years, and diplomatic negotiations for a peaceful settlement.

Quick thinking

Dawn Centers, front, 15-year-old stepdaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Geilhausen, saved her brother and her family's home Friday afternoon after fire broke out in one of the bedrooms of the trailer at Elm Grove Mobile Home Park on North Fairgrounds Road.

Girl's quick thinking saves home, lives

Quick thinking by a 15-year-old girl saved her brother and her home Friday afternoon. But it almost got her.

When Midland firemen reached the flames that were leaping out of the window of one of the bedrooms of Robert Geilhausen's trailer house at the Elm Grove Mobile Home Park on North Fairground Road, they found Geilhausen's stepdaughter, Dawn Centers, determinedly fighting the fire with a garden hose. A window had blown out at her, causing her to fall and twist her ankle, she was close to asphyxiation, but she doggedly sprayed on, ignoring the firemen until they literally pulled her away from the trailer.

"She's a pretty good little fireman," Midland Fire Department Battalion Chief Doyle Land said admiringly. Dawn said that she couldn't understand what had her 5-year-old brother, Randy, so excited when he ran into the living room about 1:30 p.m. He was supposed to be taking a nap and, after all, she had just checked on him a short time before.

But apparently Randy had awakened from his nap and had been playing with a book of matches he had hidden under his pillow. When Dawn and Randy returned to his bedroom, she saw the smoke and the blazing curtains.

"My first impression, when I first saw the curtains, was, well, I was just stunned," a tired but smiling Dawn said Friday evening, standing outside the burned bedroom, where remains of the mobile home were scattered on the ground. Beside her were Geilhausen, her mother, Virginia Geilhausen, and her stepbrother, Robert Geilhausen Jr.

After getting over the initial shock, she reacted.

First, get Randy over to the neighbors. Then call the fire department. Then get the water hose and spray down the curtains.

"It took me so long to get through to the fire department. I had to talk to about seven different people. I was mad — and then I just thought 'water,' and grabbed the hose," she said.

Dawn battled the flames in the bedroom from the hall until the curtains fell on the bunk beds, which were immediately engulfed in flames.

"It got so black and smoky that I went outside to the other hose and sprayed it in the window."

But not before closing the door to the bedroom, which probably saved the rest of the house from damage. Only after the bedroom window blew out from the pressure building inside did she become aware of the danger she faced.

"I was stunned; I was scared," she admitted with a shaky laugh. "I guess it was building up with all of that heat. It just all came at me. That scared me the most, all that heat coming out of the window."

Although she was hit with "bits and pieces" of glass, Dawn didn't receive any cuts. She did, however, twist her ankle when the glass exploded and knocked her to the ground.

But she got up and got after it again with the hose — until the firemen arrived, pulled her away and administered oxygen.

"She was about to pass out," Land said. "She'd had a little too much smoke."

With the room a total loss and fixtures in the hall and the bathroom next door melted and wet, the Geilhausen's still feel lucky.

"I'm just so proud of her," Geilhausen said grinning.

According to Geilhausen, late Thursday evening someone had driven into the gas meter outside their trailer house. He said he went out and turned off the gas, which was still off Friday.

The water heater was located just outside of the burned bedroom.

"I was mad when that happened last night," Geilhausen said, "but if that hadn't happened, that whole trailer would've blown."

He looked fondly down at Dawn, her swollen ankle wrapped in a bandage, and hugged her a little tighter. "You would've too, honey," he said.

"I guess we were lucky in that respect."

Elmer Franks, a salesman at Carter's Furniture Store, relaxes in one of the store's recliners. The easy chairs are among the top-selling items in Midland this week for Father's Day gifts.

Not all Father's Day gifts traditional

By VINCE GIORGI
Staff Writer

Certain holidays just automatically call to mind particular gifts. Flowers for Mother's Day, candy and cards for Valentine's Day and a basket brimming with candy eggs at Easter.

Historically, the traditional Father's Day gift — whether it be a smoke detector, hedge clippers or a West Texas sunset splashed across a green necktie — has left something to be desired.

On Sunday, fathers, grandfathers and husbands in the Midland area could be receiving gifts they won't need to hide in the back of the closet or garage, if a survey of Midland retailers Friday provides any indication.

Several dads will be able to kick back and relax in the confines of a new recliner, according to Bob Wise, the manager of Carter's Furniture. Wise said reclining chairs have been his biggest seller, approximately 37 in the last month — most earmarked for Father's Day gifts.

DAD MAY BE breaking in his recliner with a new book in hand, according to Tom Fagen, manager of B. Dalton Bookseller. Fagen reported that "The Parsifal Mosaic," by Robert Ludlum and Henry Kissinger's memoirs are both selling well.

Fathers who miss out on a new easy chair may find themselves sitting in front of a new television set, judging by sales at some TV outlets.

Lane Bowen, who operates a Curtis Mathes showroom, said he sold about a dozen 13-inch, remote control, color televisions targeted for some lucky fathers' dens and studies. Don Clark's TV and Appliance has peddled three big-screen (50-inch) televisions this week at around $4,000 apiece, plus several video cassette recorders.

All won't be TV and catnaps for some dads, however. The Central YMCA has sold several memberships, including two to women who paid so their husbands can do some flesh-firming on Nautilus weight-lifting machines.

For those who want to record Sunday's festivities on film, an abundance of camera supplies may be on the way. According to Jeff Wilson, the manager of MARC Camera Center, "cameras are not a big Father's Day gift." But camera supplies, including lenses, tripods, flash attachments, film and carrying bags, are popular items.

IN FACT, WILSON chuckled, "a lot of the fathers come in and pick out their own Father's Day gifts."

Several fathers will be getting their own pocket-knives this year, perhaps from disgruntled children tired of loaning theirs to Dad. Stuart Harbor, manager of The Cutting Edge, called June "one of the better months" at his store, and said pocket and file knives are Father's Day shoppers' favorites.

What might seem to be "naturals" as Father's Day presents often aren't.

Lawn mowers and "Weed Eaters" seem to be slow sellers, although at least one fellow will be driving a new lawn and garden tractor.

Pipes, according to Marvin Martin of Martin Pipe & Tobacco, simply don't make good gifts.

"Most men that are real, true-blue pipe smokers buy their own pipes," Martin said. Since only 4 percent of the country's population smokes pipes, according to Martin, the occasional tobacco pouch might be all he'll sell for Father's Day.

Jewelry and watches weren't moving particularly well. And flowers don't sell nearly as well as they do for Mother's and Valentine's Days, according to several local florists. Bill Koegler, of Midland Floral Service, called Father's Day "more of a green plant market."

BUT SOME bouquets are still popular.

Steve R. Brown has some tales to tell. He was the first FBI agent on the scene at Patty Hearst's kidnapping, among other things Today, by using his investigative skills, he finds missing mineral and royalty owners in every state and several foreign countries. Also on Sunday, Midland County Sheriff Dallas Smith writes about his proposed stockade facility for housing the county's expanding prison population.

Smith, sheriff of Midland County since 1977 and a member of the Texas Commission on Jail Standards, says that, all things considered, this is a safe and cost-effective means of holding prisoners.

Smith's opinions will appear in the "Speaking Out" column, a regular feature of the Viewpoint Page, found opposite the Editorial Page, in

Judge expected to rule soon on retrial possibility

By RICHARD ORR

Municipal Court Judge Jim Fitzgerald is expected to rule shortly on whether or not to grant a new trial in the case of two Midland brothers who say their original guilty pleas were induced by their fear of being returned to the custody of police who, they claim, beat them the night of their arrest.

In a motion requesting a new trial for Burt Rubio Garcia, attorney Bob

Evans Jr. said:

"On or about the 16th day of May, Defendant was attacked and savagely beaten by officers of the City of Midland Police Department at Hogan Park.

"On or about the 17th day of May, Defendant entered a plea of guilty to the charge of consuming in a park. The Defendant's plea of guilty was not entered intelligently and knowingly, in that Defendant was suffering from bruises and contusions to his face and

Commercial Bank changing name

By LESLIE HAINES
Energy-Business Writer

Midland's Commercial Bank and Trust Company is planning to change its 27-year-old corporate name, in order to more closely identify itself with its parent company, Texas American Bancshares Inc., of Fort Worth.

The bank will change its name to Texas American Bank/Midland, effective Oct. 1, 1982, it was announced Friday by Commercial Bank's president and chief operating officer, Robert D. Southerland.

Similar name changes are being made by all 21 banks held by TAB, to reflect the banks' common ownership and improve marketing and accounting efficiency. Each bank will be referred to as the Texas American Bank, followed by a city or locale, such as Texas American Bank/Houston.

Changing its name doesn't mean, however, that Commercial Bank and Trust will lose its autonomy, said Southerland.

"Local management, the board of directors and the employees will remain the same. Customers will be able to continue using old checks, deposit slips, passbooks, savings certificates and loan coupons until new ones are issued."

The National Weather Service forecast for Saturday predicts showers for parts of Texas and New Mexico. Showers are also expected in the Southeast and up the Appalachians to the Northeast. Showers will continue in lower Florida.

Shots exchanged after robbery

Shots were exchanged after an apparent armed robbery around 9:30 p.m. Friday at the Space Station, a video-game parlor located near Midkiff Road and Cuthbert Avenue.

A man and woman fled the scene in a white four-door car, but were apprehended by police about an hour later at the corner of Fiesta and Edward Streets. The two offered no resistance when apprehended, according to eyewitnesses. Further details were unavailable at press time.

In other police action Friday, a gold watch, valued at $1,800, was reported missing by Georganne Sharp of 2803 Moss at 1:52 p.m. According to police reports, the watch was taken from a dresser in a bedroom at the residence. Ms. Sharp told police the residence was not burglarized and entry was apparently gained through an open front door, reports indicated. The watch was described as gold, with no writing on the back, a blue sapphire on the stem and a band that had been soldered.

Lisa Ferguson, of Route 6 Box 400, Space 116, reported the burglary of an automobile parked at the City Dog Pound at 7:53 a.m. Taken was approximately $138 worth of tapes and a case containing loose change. Entry apparently was gained with a coat hanger.

Richard Carpenter, of 2200 S. Lamesa, No. 101, reported the theft of $300 in cash from his wallet at Texas Electric No. 581. The theft was reported at 8:36 a.m.

Midland thermometer hits 100 mark

Temperatures reached the century mark Friday for the first time in 1982, as the mercury in the weatherman's thermometer at Midland Regional Airport topped out at 100 degrees shortly after 3 p.m.

As hot as it was, it wasn't a record. The record high for Friday's date is still 107 in 1951.

Following the hot afternoon temperatures, a cold front moved through the Permian Basin, bringing with it the potential for severe weather. However, the thunderstorms skipped around the Midland area, with Andrews reporting lightning and sprinkles and Lamesa reporting some light showers.

The most severe activity was to the east of Midland, with Big Spring and Howard County receiving heavy thunderstorms late Friday night. Some flooding was reported on Interstate 20 east of Big Spring, and Howard County was under a tornado warning after a funnel cloud was spotted in the area. However, it's not known if the tornado touched ground or if it did any damage.

It's expected to be slightly cooler today, with the high reaching only the upper 80s. There is, however, a 30 percent chance of thunderstorms today and a 40 percent chance of rain tonight.

Winds will be easterly at 5-15 mph. The chance for rain continues into Sunday, with a high expected to reach only the mid-80s.

'I thought it was an airplane'

By HALLYE JORDAN
Staff Writer

Addington Glenn Bruton said he thought it was an airplane that hit his house about 5:30 p.m. Friday. But it was just a car.

Sitting watching television in his den at 1310 N. Big Spring St., the 70-year-old found his one-year-old, color television sitting in his lap and a car poking through the north wall of his home. And his redwood book shelves, which held his countless cookbooks, were scattered with mortar, wood and debris around the room.

"I was just sitting there watching TV and the damn TV flew in my lap," Bruton said. "I was just sitting there in my shorts and socks. I thought it was an airplane hitting my house."

Bruton grinned. "I went in the back and put on my pants and called Joe (Patton, his friend) and Charlie (Bruton, his brother), and said 'Come on over. I need some help.'"

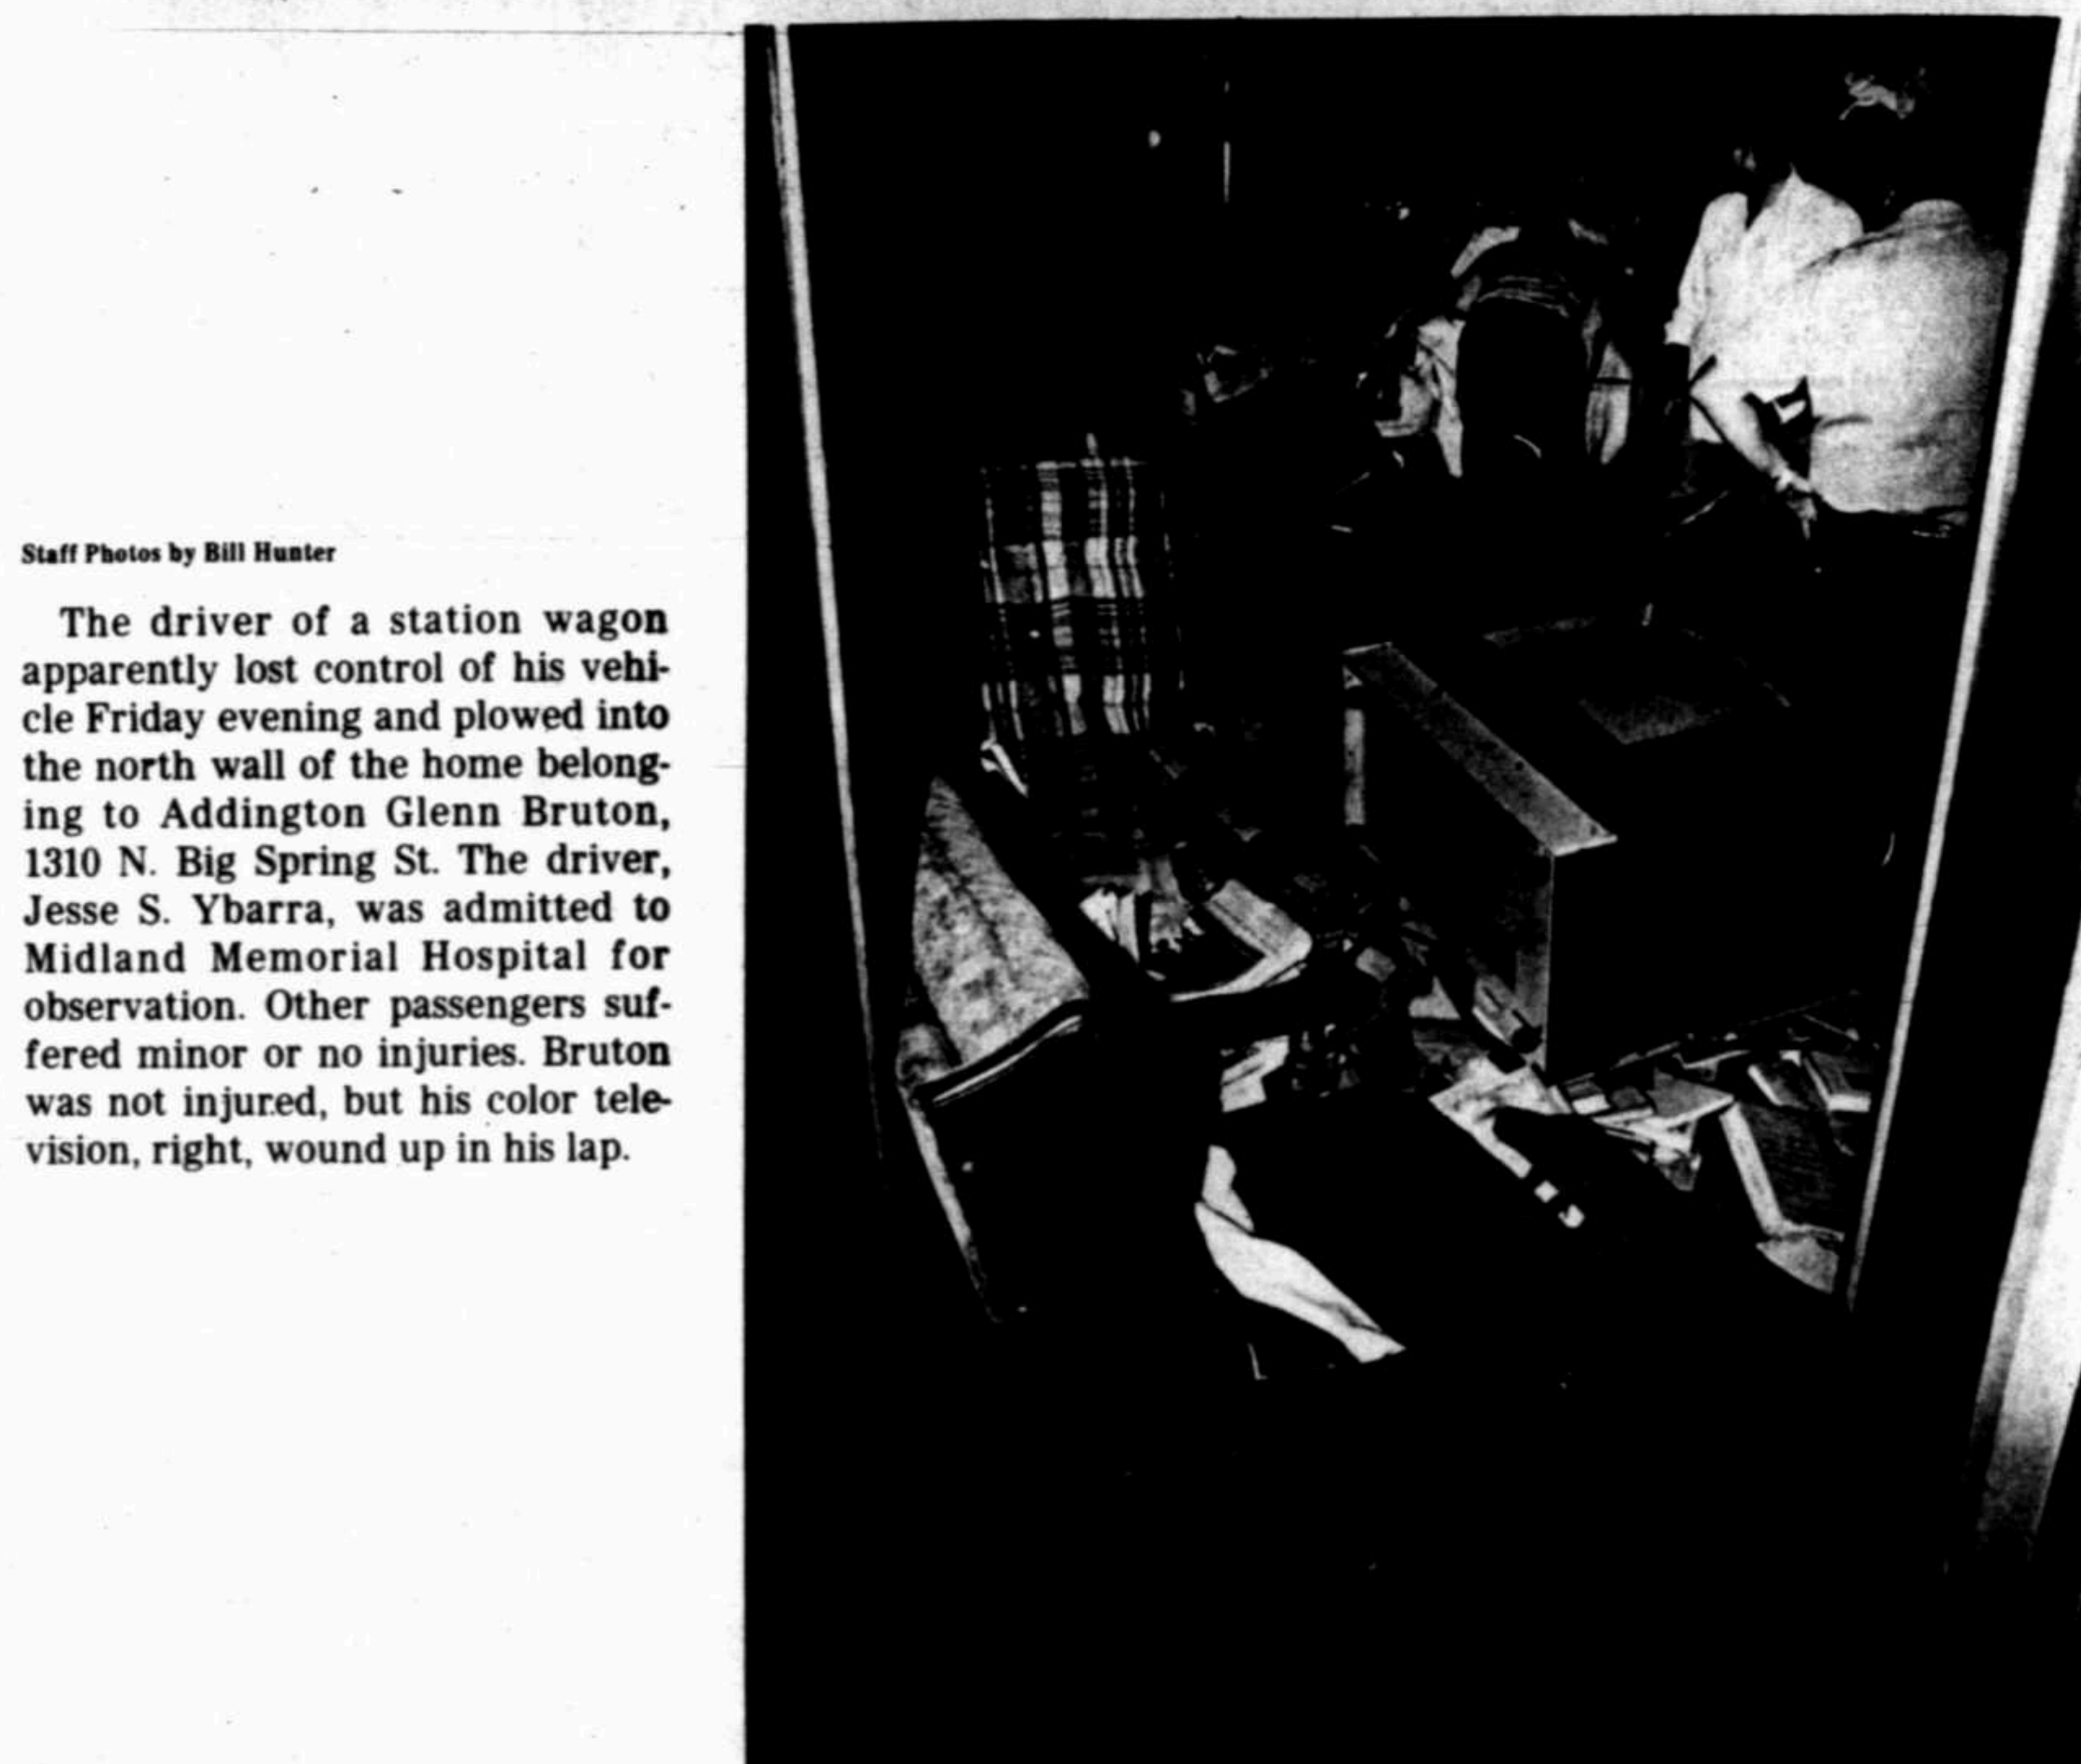

According to Officer David McNair of the Midland Police Department, the driver of the vehicle, Jesse S. Ybarra, 33, of 1303 E. South, apparently lost control of the vehicle in the 1400 block of North Big Spring, crossed two lanes of traffic and two parking lots before striking Bruton's car, parked outside his residence, and flying through the north wall of the house.

Ybarra, who apparently traveled 245 feet before plowing into the house, remained in stable condition with a concussion in Midland Memorial Hospital late Friday night.

The passengers in the car, Cathy Ybarra, 31, his ex-wife, and her children, Nancy, 14; Lillie, 11; Michael, 2; and Mona, 11 months, suffered minor or no injuries. Mrs. Ybarra and her eldest daughter were treated for "bumps and bruises," while the younger children were uninjured, according to a spokesman in the MMH emergency room.

Bruton said he didn't know if he suffered any injuries.

"I don't know if I'm sore or not," he said, grinning. "There's still too much excitement around here. I mean, whenever you catch a TV in your damn lap..."

The driver of a station wagon apparently lost control of his vehicle Friday evening and plowed into the north wall of the home belonging to Addington Glenn Bruton, 1310 N. Big Spring St. The driver, Jesse S. Ybarra, was admitted to Midland Memorial Hospital for observation. Other passengers suffered minor or no injuries. Bruton was not injured, but his color television, right, wound up in his lap.

Midland Father's Day gifts varied

lar. Helium Delight, a company which sells bunches of pastel, helium-filled balloons, reported brisk Father's Day business.

The company also offers singing telegrams and manager Jodi Carlson reported selling about 30 of each this week.

Like all holidays, Father's Day means good business at greeting card stores. According to Marilyn Roe, manager of Coach House Cards & Gifts, "we're averaging around $200 a day just selling Father's Day cards." Roe also reported a depleted supply of Jack Daniels T-shirts.

The majority of fathers will probably find clothing beneath the wrapping and bow Sunday.

According to Walt Sunday, store manager for J.C. Penney, "sports shirts are the number one item, have always been and probably always will be." Knit shirts with a logo attached — whether an alligator, penguin, fox or seal — are especially popular. "People are just sort of faddish about that sort of thing," he said.

Dick Ragan, Ski Skeller Sports, reported good sales in "active wear," shorts, tennis apparel and sandals, as did James Borron, of J.E. Borron Traditional Clothing.

"We always have a peak in June, right around Father's Day," Borron said. Since the employees in his store generally know the man for whom the gift is meant, he said they are able to suggest which items may be appropriate and which may not.

That way, he said, they can help ensure that Dad doesn't open his gift and find "a black tie with great big red blobs or something."

So fathers should be able to rest easy and open their gifts without fear or dread Sunday. They probably won't be seeing an encore of last year's Father's Day gift — the blue tie with yellow blobs.

Dan Brown, left, and Dan Friday of the Midland Fire Department get their boots ready for today's fund-raising drive for Muscular Dystrophy. Firemen from throughout the Permian Basin will be participating in the "Fill the Boot" drive at major intersections to collect money for Muscular Dystrophy.

Fill fire department boots today for muscular dystrophy

Permian Basin fire departments will join forces today in a fund-raising campaign to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

Participating in "Fill the Boot," a special fund-raiser in which fire fighters station themselves at various major intersections to collect donations from motorists using their fire boots and canisters, will be Midland firemen, Odessa Fire Fighters, West Odessa Volunteer firemen and the Big Spring Fire Fighters.

In Midland, firemen will be posted at the intersection of Wadley Avenue and Midkiff Road from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. Firemen will have stickers on the boots, verifying they are participating in the campaign.

The funds raised on the "Fill the Boot" drive will help continue research and provide medical services for all people in the Permian Basin afflicted with one of 40 neuromuscular diseases.

In appreciation of the dangerous risks firemen take on a daily basis, the cities of Midland, Odessa and Big Spring designated the past week as "Fire Fighters Appreciation Week."

DEATHS Mrs. L. Neatherlin

Services for Mrs. L.C. Neatherlin, 57, of 808 Palomino, will be at 11 a.m. today in the First Christian Church with the Rev. Steve Edwards officiating. Burial will be at Resthaven Memorial Park under the direction of Newline W. Ellis Funeral Home.

Mrs. Neatherlin was born Dec. 25, 1924, in Wichita Falls and moved to Midland at an early age. She attended schools here, graduating from Midland High School in 1941. The former Edna Earl Lineberry, she attended Texas Tech University and Chillicothe College in Columbus, Mo. She established her business of interior design in 1959 after completing a graduate course at a school of design in New York. She continued her business until illness forced her to discontinue a short time ago.

The family requests that memorials be directed to Hospice of Midland or the Allison Permian Basin Cancer Therapy Center.

head and cracked ribs as a direct result of the savage beating administered him and, therefore, the Defendant was not lucid and did not otherwise have full use of his faculties in order to clearly understand the proceeding against him."

A similar motion also was filed for Garcia's brother, Marvel J.R. Garcia.

Both men required medical treatment, according to Evans, who said Marvel Garcia had head injuries that took 14 stitches to close.

Police deny that any more force than necessary was used to make the arrests.

The Garcias, both in their 20s, were arrested for drinking beer in a car at Hogan Park the night of May 16. An altercation occurred during their arrest and one of several officers involved in the incident has since been fired.

Police officials deny, however, that the dismissal of former officer Frank Gonzalez had anything to do with the Garcia case. "It was completely unrelated," Chief of Police Wayne Gideon said Friday.

Gonzalez, 28, was hired Dec. 16 and fired June 3 — 13 days shy of completing a routine six-month probation period. In a memo to City Personnel Director David Hunter, Gideon said:

"Gonzalez's performance has been closely monitored and evaluated by his supervisory personnel. His performance does not meet our standards to become a permanent member of the force."

"It is my judgement that Frank Gonzalez be terminated during his probation in the best interest of the Police Department and the City of Midland."

No specific incidents or reasons were noted in Gonzalez's personnel file, according to Hunter. And Gideon declined to elaborate as to why he had dismissed Gonzalez, who could not be reached for comment.

Following testimony in a June 11 hearing on Evans' petition for a new trial, Judge Fitz-Gerald ordered briefs from both sides and took the matter under advisement. If he grants the motion, the Garcias would receive a jury trial on the misdemeanor charge.

Municipal Court Clerk Jean Jones said Friday a decision may be reached next week in the case.

Loan policies will not change, he said. They will continue to be generated by the local board in Midland, although Texas American Bancshares has contributed to the local bank's capital in the past and will still do so.

Midland customers will be able to do their banking at any of the 21 member banks, he added.

"The relationship with Texas American Bancshares is very beneficial," Southerland said. "This enables us to increase our services; for example, to participate in the Pulse network of automated teller machines. It's banking of the future."

The Midland bank has been affiliated with Texas American Bancshares for seven years and, in that time, has seen its assets grow from $37 million to $146 million by March 31, 1982.

Texas American Bancshares' officers believe the name consolidation will improve the bank's public image and help the holding company to expand, especially with regard to its popularity in the stock market.

As part of the change, the company's common stock will be listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the trading symbol TXA, beginning June 23.

It was formerly listed at $31 a share on the over-the-counter market under the symbol TABS.

The holding company, the eighth largest in Texas, acquired six additional banks last year and has three acquisitions pending in Temple, Las Colinas, and Plano, Southerland said.

Texas American Bancshares has assets of $4.1 billion.

Perhaps the most significant name change will be made by the holding company's flagship bank, Fort Worth National Bank, which, after 106 years, will be known as Texas American Bank/Fort Worth.

Shooting death probe continuing

ANDREWS — Andrews County law officials are continuing to check out suspects in the April 20 shooting death of a convenience store clerk here.

Mark Wilson, 21, died during surgery after sustaining a .22-caliber bullet wound in his chest during the armed robbery of the establishment.

"We've eliminated a lot of suspects that have come to light, and now we're looking at a very strong suspect in another town," Andrews County Sheriff Wayne Farmer told The Reporter-Telegram.

Charges against a 28-year-old Mexican alien arrested in Marfa April 22 were dropped after his story checked out, said Farmer. The man, who had been sighted near the store shortly before the shooting, was picked up by U.S. Border Patrol agents as he was boarding a bus bound for Mexico after issuance of a statewide all-points bulletin.

The man involved in the shooting is believed to be in his mid-20s, five feet, seven inches in height, with a slender build and frizzy hair, according to initial reports.

St. Stephen's Parish re-established

SAN ANGELO — Bishop Joseph A. Fiorenza of the Catholic Diocese of San Angelo has re-established the parish of St. Stephen's on Midland's west side. He has named the Rev. Robert M. Kelly of Abilene to be its new pastor.

St. Stephen's will take a portion of St. Ann's Parish for its own when Kelly establishes residence in Midland Aug. 1.

Originally established in 1979, St. Stephen's Parish is being developed now because of the tremendous growth, more than 1,000 families, St. Ann's has experienced in the last three years.

Kelly, a native of Richmond Hills, N.Y., entered Pope John XXIII National Seminary for Belated Vocations in 1964 and was ordained a priest for the Diocese of San Angelo May 4, 1968. Since that time, he has served as secretary to Bishop Stephen A. Leven, as Diocesan Director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith and as a pastor of parishes in Menard and San Angelo.

He became pastor of Holy Family Parish in Abilene in 1976.

We'll match Coleman quality with any other air conditioner you can name.

The Deluxe Energy Saver™ is the most efficient, most reliable air conditioner Coleman has ever offered. And that's saying a lot! Innovative design, state-of-the-art components, craftsman-like assembly and strict quality control measures, all add up to energy efficiency that's nothing short of super.

The bottom line for owners is one of the top SEER ratings (Seasonal Energy Efficiency Ratio) in the air conditioning industry. And the higher the rating, the greater your savings.

See us for a comparison of the Deluxe Energy Saver against all the leading brands. We think you'll agree: For dependable, energy-efficient central air conditioning, Coleman's best beats all the rest.

BEN KINCHLOW
CO-HOST "THE 700 CLUB"

Ben Kinchlow, the son of a Methodist minister, was born and raised in Uvalde, Texas. The veteran of 13 years of military service earned a third degree black belt in Karate, and is also a graduate of Southwest Texas Junior College where he was a member of Phi Theta Kappa, President of the Senior Class and listed in "Who's Who in American Small Colleges".

While driving a test car around a track at 80 MPH, "Jesus Christ changed my life." Sitting behind the wheel, he asked, "Are You really out there? If You really are, show me." God showed him. His life was changed. He was a born-again Christian, or as the Bible says, "a new creation".

Ben quit his job and opened "His Place" in Uvalde, Texas to minister to runaways, then worked at a Christian drug and alcoholism rehabilitation farm in Kilbuck, Texas. After a guest appearance on the "700 Club", he joined the Christian Broadcasting Network, Inc. (CNB) as Dallas area director, and in 1975 he accepted the invitation to be Co-Host of the "700 Club".

SAVIN

IS The liquid toner that made office copiers more reliable.

SMART

Back in '59 Xerox revolutionized American business with the copier. Clever. Then in '75 Savin revolutionized copying with the liquid toner transfer process. Smart.

Savin's liquid toner produces permanent dry copies with no pressure and little heat, making paper jams almost obsolete. Of course having a short 12 inch paper path helps too.

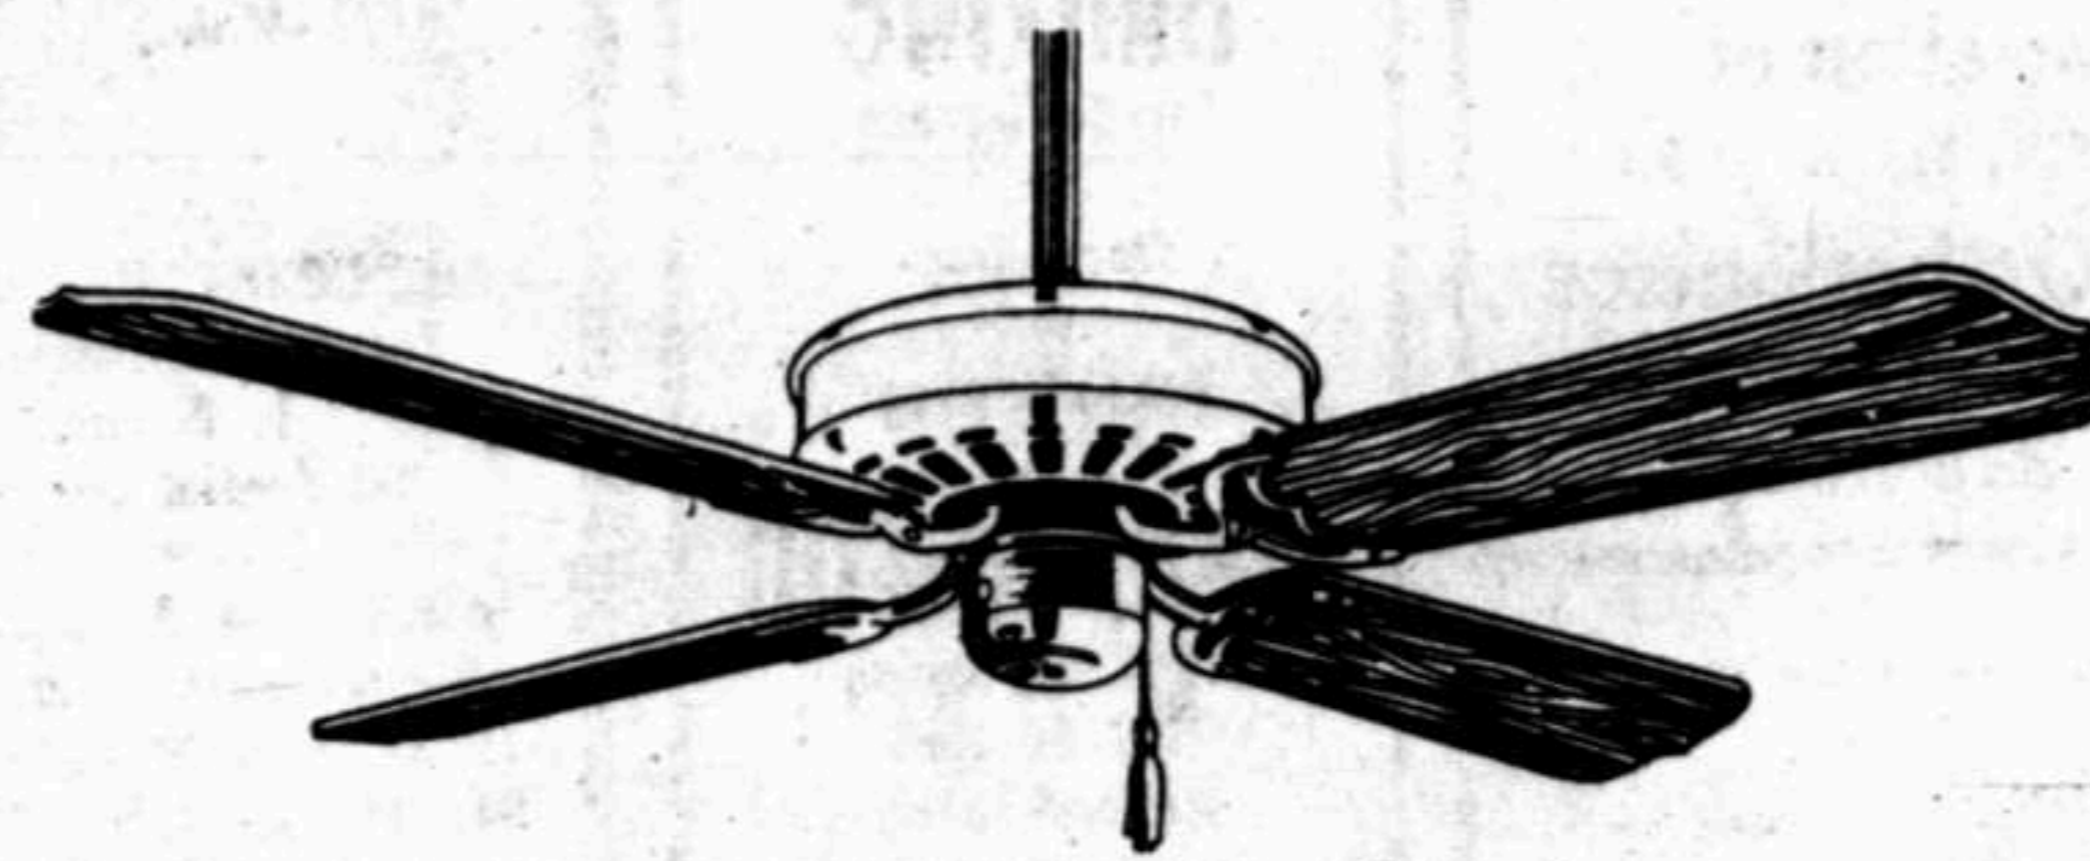

As you can see, it doesn't take a miracle to design a reliable plain paper copier. You just have to be smart.

A FRESH APPROACH

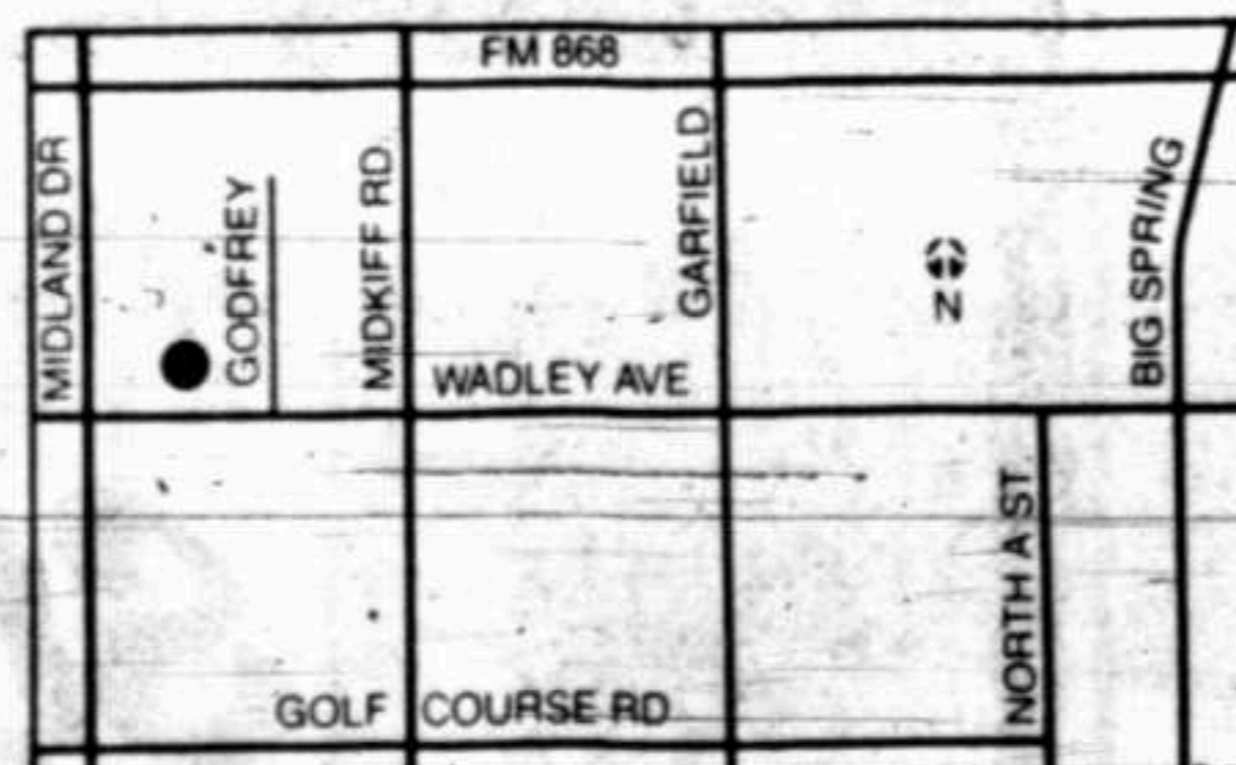

Las Colinas in Trinity Estates. A thoroughly new perspective on residential luxury that's ripe for the picking in Midland. It's maintenance-free condominium living with an elegant flair, plus unbeatable all-new construction. At Las Colinas in Trinity Estates, you can finally enjoy the intimacy, convenience and efficiency you deserve. Priced from the '70's to the '90's and with easy 90% financing, a condominium in Las Colinas in Trinity Estates is just the kind of home you've been waiting for.

Just imagine the carefree lifestyle that awaits you in Las Colinas... a professionally tended, garden-fresh landscape; a sparkling pool; hottubs, security gate; a one-story clubhouse and 1/4-mile jogging track a stucco enclosure wall with decorative trellis work; and a harvest of the finest condominiums in town.

And interiors? Picture this... a sunken living room, skylights and bedrooms beneath vaulted ceilings. A GE convenience kitchen. The best in energy efficiency with split zone heating and air conditioning. And the privacy that only a home with no one living above or below you can offer. So forget the instability of rising rent costs and the demands of traditional home maintenance. All you need to remember is Las Colinas in Trinity Estates — a fresh approach to homeownership.

5 Piece Dinette By Chromcraft

Equally at home as a dining or game table, from the chrome pedestal base up, it's pure good looking. The 44" octagonal table top of melamine is really better than wood. It'll take on water, coffee, wine even a burning cigarette-without a mark, yet it has all the character of real Oxford butcher block. Chairs are deep-tufted vinyl with genuine, burlap-weave backs that glide easily on deep pile carpet. But you really can't imagine how nice these chairs are until you come in and sit in one yourself. Hasting's 50-meter breast time only WTI record

By TERRY WILLIAMSON
Assistant Sports Editor

The annual West Texas Invitational Swim Meet is only a shadow of its former self, but Houston's Michelle Hastings rode into the newly dedicated Doug Russell Pool Friday to save face for the 35th running of the event.

There was a time in the 1970s when the WTI was a national AAU event that attracted top swimmers from across the country. As a result, national, pool and state records fell with nearly every turn of a swimmer's head.

Friday, in the first day of the three day meet, only Hastings' mark of 39.36 seconds in the 10-under 50-meter breast stroke for a state and pool record was the only thing close to the monumental glory days of the WTI.

THE MEET has now degenerated to an ABC event, meaning there are no real qualifying times needed to enter the event. Previously, swimmers had to have a listed AA time before they could even enter the meet. The good part is that all of the local swimmers now have a chance to swim in a long course event at home.

But Hastings' performance stood out Friday in what would have been a very average opening day show. She started the day with a 1:12.16 in the 100 freestyle, a personal best, and came back with the state record of 39.36 in the 50 breast. She shattered the old mark of 41.56 by Amarillo's Heather Hardy by more than two full seconds.

Hastings already owned the state 100 and 50-yard short course state records in the breast and Friday's long course record is her third in less than a year.

"I started swimming when I was real little, but I quit and only started swimming again last fall. I've set three state records in a year's time," said Hastings.

This meet is especially important for her since she turns 11 next week and will no longer be able to compete in the 10-under category. And Sunday will be the next big test for Michelle, according to her mother JoAnn Hastings. "We hope she can set the 100-meter record

Sunday so she will have all four state records."

AS FAR as the team race is concerned, the City of Midland Swim Team owns the lead as expected with 275 points while Amarillo Aquatic Club is second with 268½ and Odessa Aquatic Club third with 231. But it wasn't easy.

The Odessa team once led COM by as many as 52 points Friday and had a big 68 point margin over Amarillo. COM and Amarillo, however, made a late surge in the two relay and four 800-meter races at the end of the meet to surge in front of Odessa.

The teams hit the water again today at 9 a.m. and again Sunday morning at the same time, looking for the team championship, TAGS qualifying times, records and age group advancements by times.

COM coach Hank O'Neill figures his team will pull away from the pack, however. "Saturday is the day of all the age group relays and you should see the point totals start spreading out. I hope so, anyway."

"We (COM) would be in much better shape if we hadn't lost Pat Ramey with a bad elbow Wednesday in practice. He would have won two events Friday and we would have had him on a relay also."

Despite losing Ramey, O'Neill got plenty of quality points elsewhere. Laurie Morse, swimming in the 11-12 division, became a three-event winner for COM with a 2:27.02 in the 200 free, 42.55 in the 50 breast and 2:50.09 in the 200 individual medley. The 200 IM and the 200 free times also vaulted her into the all-important TAGS competition in August.

ANOTHER THREE event winner was Amarillo's Robert Fulton, who won the 400 free in 4:38.35 and the 200 IM with a 2:31.86 in the 13-14 division. He also took the senior 800 freestyle with a 9:28.80. All the winners in the 800 free set new pool records since this was the first meet for the event.

Amarillo got another three event

Jana Housman of the City of Midland Swim Team goes through her paces in the 400-meter senior freestyle Friday at the Doug Russell pool.

COM holds a narrow 6½ point lead over Amarillo Aquatic Club heading into today's 9 a.m. competition. The meet ends Sunday with another 9 a.m. start.

winner in the 11-12 division from Tony Capwell, who won the 200 free (2:17.68), 50 breast (40.58), and 200 IM (2:38.88).

Odessa's impressive 10-year-old Jeffrey McPherson, who looks to be about 12, was a two-event winner with a 1:16.37 in the 100 free and a 42.90 in the 50 breast, just missing the West Texas record of 42.71. He won't be 11 until next January. Bobby Breaux also aided Odessa with two victories in the senior division by winning the 200 breast (2:58.62) and the 200 IM with a (2:33.05). Amarillo's Sheri Paradee was the only other two-event winner where she posted victories in the senior 400 free (4:48.34, a TAGS qualifying time) and the 800 free (9:58.39, a new pool record).

COM DOMINATED the 13-14 division with Becky Simpson winning the 400 free (4:59.62), Tracey Delany taking the 200 IM (2:47.57) and Caroline Reed winning the 800 free with the pool record of 10:37.77. Alan Reed also took the 800 free with a 10:04.87, another pool mark.

The Simpson sisters, Becky and Suzi, gave COM two more victories in the senior division with Becky taking the 200 breast (3:14.40) and Suzi winning the 200 breast (2:46.89). Mike Seay took a senior win with a 4:43.11 in the 400 free and had the distinction of becoming the first COM winner in the 35th WTI. COM and Amarillo also took two victories in the two relays held Friday. The meet is important to all entries since it is the first of the short long course season. The long course is run outdoors in meters instead of the short course winter circuit which is indoors and in yards.

Many of the swimmers Friday had times better than the TAGS qualifying times, but they had already posted previous marks that were better. Those noted above qualified for TAGS on Friday.

Bruce Devlin chips from the rough on the 12th hole at Pebble Beach during the second round of the U.S. Open Friday. Devlin is five under for the tournament and holds a two-stroke lead going into today's third round.

Pool dedicated to Russell

By CHAD PUERLING
Sports Writer
"These are the things that nature Olympic Champions."

Those were the words of Doug Russell Friday at the dedication of the Doug Russell Park and Pool as he reflected on what a community and its people can mean to the youth of a city.

As city councilman Gordon Marcum said, it was long overdue honor to Midland's most prized athlete.

In introducing Russell to the crowd Marcum listed a few of Doug's records, including his two Olympic gold medals, and was almost apologetic for Midland being years behind Arlington in paying its tribute to the Olympian.

"It is real privilege today for Midland to honor one of its own, by dedicating this pool and park to him," he said. Then Marcum, noting the rarity of such an honor, gave Russell a key to the city, in honor of all his accomplishments as an athlete and a person.

Russell said he had a singular purpose in coming to Midland and it was not to receive any honors. Instead he came to explain to the people of Midland what a strong family and community can do to foster the development of young people.

HIS EXAMPLES were peppered with recollections of coaches who influenced his maturation. "I still wonder where I would be today if Wade Whitely had not come out to the old Hogan Park to tell me I could be a competitive swimmer, and to be at the pool that night," he said.

"Wade had a wonderful philosophy about swimming," he said. "He would put his arm around you, look you in the eyes and say, 'You want to swim down to the other end, turn around, and get back here as fast as possible.' It's a philosophy I still use today."

As if he were reliving that moment Russell paused then continued, "I appreciate and love Wade for what he did for me on that hot summer day."

Addressing himself to the competitors surrounding the pool, Russell passed along a message from a Carlton Junior High coach in Fort Worth who once told him, "Just because you've won doesn't mean you're a winner and just because you lose doesn't mean you're a loser."

ONE OF the keys in Russell's young life was the time he learned that work could be fun. It came during his junior year at Midland High when he decided to put swimming on the back burner in favor of basketball. His coach at the time was Jay Spears. He told Russell that if he wanted to be more than just an average basketball player he would have to work harder than he had ever worked before. It was successful for the two years Doug was on the hardwoods as the self-described "average player" became the team captain and was named to the All-District basketball team.

But the philosophy stayed with Russell far beyond his basketball days. This time he took the ideal into the swimming pool and the results were impressive.

For a brief moment Russell addressed the parents and fans of swimming. It was a message influenced by the effects of proposition 13 as Doug has experienced them in San Diego, where he now coaches.

"You must keep swimming going in West Texas. You've got to get out and tell people what it is doing for your child and the children of others," he said. "There is a blueprint here for some of these kids to have the same future I had."

In summarizing his feelings of having a park named in his honor Russell said, "I hope Doug Russell Park will serve as an example that, given the support of the people around you plus your given ability you can have your own Olympic gold medal."

Hostetler provides power

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
AP Sports Writer

ARLINGTON, Texas — There is finally an attraction at Arlington Stadium worthy of $3 for a bleacher seat. It's called a "Hostetler Homer."

Not since Frank Howard's mighty missiles menaced FAA radar in the early 1970s have baseballs been hammered so hard by a Texas Ranger.

Believe it or not, the Rangers, who have the weakest offense in the American League, actually have a guy in the lineup who can kill you.

Meet David Alan Hostetler, who at a muscular 6-4 and 215 pounds looks as if he could drive steel with John Henry and give Paul Bunyan a logging tip or two.

Hostetler doesn't just hit a baseball; he compresses it into a white satellite.

His very first major league home run came in Shea Stadium last Oct. 4. He mashed a Pete Falcone fastball into Row W of THE PARKING LOT. New York Met officials are still trying to figure how far that ball traveled.

Hostetler nailed a Jack O'Connor fastball a week ago Saturday and sent Ranger bleacherites diving for cover. The still-rising ball crashed high into the stands 454 feet from home plate.

"He has ungodly power...unbelievable power," said Rangers manager Don Zimmer. "He hits the ball like Howard used to... I mean he puts some velocity on it."

Hostetler, who hit more home runs in two years than Fred Lynn did at Southern California in three years, came to Texas as a "sweetener."

The slugger was the throw-in in the deal that sent Al Oliver to Montreal for Larry Parrish. The Expos finally threw in Hostetler because they didn't need any more right-handed power.

Hostetler, hitting only against left-handers at Denver on the Ranger farm, was called up May 28.

In 14 games, he had the club lead with six home runs.

Devlin takes two-stroke lead in 82nd U.S. Open

By BOB GREEN
AP Golf Writer

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Bruce Devlin, an old pro seeking golf's most coveted title in the twilight of his career, birdied the last two holes for a 69 and took a 2-stroke lead Friday in the second round of the 82nd United States Open championship.

Devlin, 44, whose last victory was 10 years ago, compiled a 36-hole total of 139, five strokes below par for two trips through the 6,825 yards of misty forest glens and spectacular, rocky cliffs that comprise the Pebble Beach Golf Links.

Jack Nicklaus and Tom Watson remained within striking distance — not as close as they'd like but still within range at par 144 — while an obscure Tour rookie, Larry Rinker, chased an illusion into second place.

"A very sloppy round of golf," said Watson, who was in only five fairways and hit but 12 greens and still salvaged a 72. "I got away with murder out there."

Watson, a three-time British Open champ and four-time Player of the Year, made a 10-foot putt for bogey and then a 20-footer for bogey. He dropped two more in the 8-12 foot range for par, and topped it off with another 20-footer on the 17th for a birdie that kept him in the hunt.

IN THE absence of wind, "the golf course was defenseless," he said. "I was looking for a lot better score than that." Nicklaus at age 42 acknowledged as the finest player the game has ever seen, grimly stalked to a frustrating 70 that again included many missed opportunities in his quest of a record fifth U.S. Open title.

"The Open is an illusion," said the 24-year-old Rinker after he'd birdied the last three holes to finish off the best round of the tournament, a spectacular, 5-under-par 67 that gave him a 141 at the halfway point.

Rinker, whose credentials include $2,112 in money-winnings this season and three unsuccessful attempts at the Tour school before he acquired his playing rights, called the national championship "just another golf tournament."

"You guys (the press) build it up. The players have to key down and think of it as just another day. We have to have the illusion it's just another tournament."

Devlin, however, had no such illusions.

AFTER MORE than two decades as a globe-trotter who has won in his native Australia, France, Ireland and eight times on the American tour, he knows full well the import of this event.

"Winning this obviously would be the highlight of my career," he said. "It would be a marvelous thing to do in the twilight of my career."

And, although he's older than any man who's ever won it, the one-time plumber gave voice to thoughts of an eventual victory.

Vicki Ferguson of Boca Raton, Fla., waves her putter urging the ball into the hole for a birdie on the 15th green during first-round action in the LPGA Keystone Open Golf tournament in Hershey, Pa., on Friday.

Ferguson leads Keystone Open

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP) — Playing what she called her best round ever, Vicki Ferguson fired a 5-under-par 67 to take the first-round lead Friday in the Lady Keystone Open at the Hershey Country Club.

Ferguson birdied all three of the replacement holes that the Ladies Professional Golf Association was forced to use in the 54-hole, $200,000 event after rain damaged the west course at the club.

Ferguson, who made the turn at 1-under 36 on the 6,347-yard course, birdied the 10th, 11th, and 12th holes, which are located on the east course. She picked up another birdie on the 15th for a 31 on the back side.

"This is the best round I've ever had," said Ferguson, 26, in her sixth year on the tour. "I putted well all day and that's what made the difference."

Tied for second, two strokes off the pace, were Barbara Moxness and tour rookie Patty Rizzo.

Rizzo had 15 pars and three birdies. Her lone birdie on the front nine came on the par-5 eighth hole, when she rolled in a four-foot putt. She finished the day with birdies on the 16th and 18th, considered one of the toughest birdie holes on the tour.

Moxness bogied the first hole, but picked up birdies at the fourth, sixth and seventh to make the turn at 2-under 35. She played par golf on the back nine except for the 385-yard par-4 14th, where she ran in a six-foot putt for a birdie.
