OIL ALLOWABLE IS UPPED AGAIN

By BO BYERS

AUSTIN (AP)—The Texas Railroad Commission raised the Texas oil allowable for the second straight month today, kicking the permissive flow upward to 2,961,782 barrels per day as of Dec. 1. That will be a boost of 64,374 barrels daily.

The increase will [illegible] allowing one more day of flow statewide and in the big East Texas Field, raising both to 16 producing days during December.

The Commission Authorized the greater production following a 20-minute state-wide proration hearing at which a majority of all purchasers said they favored the 16-day producing pattern.

Companies endorsing 16 days of flow were Sinclair, Magnolia, Gulf, Humble, Atlantic, and Continental. The Texas Co. said it would be satisfied with either 16 or 17 days.

H. P Nichols of Tyler, representing the East Texas Oil Assn., said the Commission should order 17 producing days to keep foreign oil and oil from other states from supplanting Texas production.

Commissioner Olin Culberson quoted some figures which he said indicate Texas has been surrendering her production to other states.

"As of Jan. 1, 1953, Texas did produce 44.76 per cent of the U.S. production; other (mid-continent) areas, 31.11," he reported. "Texas now is producing 42.05, down 2.71; other areas are up 2.48. x x x I think other areas have been taking Texas markets."

Borden Has Discovery In Pennsylvanian

Seaboard Oil Co. No. 1-45 T. J. Good, Southwest Borden County wildcat, has flowed oil at the calculated rate of 252 barrels per day to assure a discovery from the Pennsylvania reef lime.

Operator has released the rotary rig and will take a potential test for completion soon.

The No. 1-45 Good, 18½ miles southwest of Gail, is 660 feet from north and 1,834.2 feet from west lines of section 45-33-t4s-T&P.

The hole is bottomed at 8,853 feet, with five and one-half-inch casing cemented on bottom. The pipe is perforated at 8,784-794 feet. That zone was swabbed dry naturally with slight shows of oil and gas. Operator than washed the perforated interval with 500 gallons of mud acid and the well kicked off without swabbing. In 55 minutes, all the load oil and acid residue had flowed out. In the next 15 minutes the well was flowed to tanks through a 16-64th-inch choke and made 6.87 barrels of oil with no water.

In the next four hours, flowing through a 13-64th-inch choke, the well made 42 barrels of oil. It was from this flow that the daily flow of 252 barrels of oil was calculated.

The No. 1-45 Good is one-half mile east of Texas Crude No. 1-44 Brown, opener of the Arthur-Spraberry field. The new prospect had no shows in the Spraberry. The No. 1-44 Brown had interesting shows in the Pennsylvanian but could not be completed as a commercial producer there.

HOWARD FAILURE

Ada Oil Co. No. 1 Gilbert G. Wright, Jr., Northwest Howard County wildcat, has been ordered plugged and abandoned on total depth of 9,090 feet in Pennsylvanian lime.

The final drillstem test on this wildcat was run from 9,068-080 feet. With the tool open six hours, recovery was 40 feet of gas-cut mud and 290 feet of mud-cut salt water. A previous three-hour drillstem test from 9,068-078 feet had devloped 1,050 feet of gas in the drillpipe and 30 feet of heavily oil and gas-cut mud.

The No. 1 Wright was drilled in section 41-33-t3n-T&P, 17 miles northwest of Big Spring.

NOLAN OFFSET

Texaco has spotted location for a north offset to the discovery well and lone producer in the Maryneal 5500-Canyon sand field of Southeast Nolan County.

It is the No. 1-A Susie A. Rushing. Location is 660 feet from south and west lines of section 48-X-T&P. Contract depth is 5,675 feet.

RUNNELS WILDCATS

Sojourner Drilling Co., Ltd., of Abilene has announced plans to drill two new wildcats in Runnels County.

The No. 1 J. Z. Byers is 2,595 feet from southeast and 2,597.78 feet from northeast lines of section 262, Austin & Williams survey. That is 10½ miles northeast of Ballinger. Projected depth is 4,250 feet.

Thirteen miles northeast of Ballinger, Sojourner No. 1 Carrie A. Jeffries has been set 2,510 feet from south and 2,310 feet from east lines of section 131, ETRR survey. It is also to drill to 4,250 feet.

George Parr Indicted For Tax Evasion

HOUSTON (AP)—George B. Parr, Duval County political boss, was indicted by a federal grand jury today for evasion of more than $75,000 in income taxes.

The three count indictment against Parr charges that for 1949, 1950 and 1953 he reported an income of $164,372 and paid a tax of $83,555.

However, the government charges that his actual income was $278,284 and the tax should have been $169,209.

Federal Judge Allan B. Hannay issued a bench warrant for Parr's arrest and set a bond of $10,000.

Monday's indictment climaxed almost a year's probe by government agencies of Parr's activities in the turbulent county.

The grand jury investigation actually covered a period of a month. More than 30 witnesses were heard and numerous records of Parr's former banks and of Duval County were carted in for the juror's investigation.

The indictment was filed for the Corpus Christi division of the southern district and Judge Hannay ordered that it be forwarded there.

The witnesses before the jury were mostly officials of the county and of the two state banks which Parr formerly controlled. Also called were his former wife, Mrs. Thelma Parr of Corpus Christi, and his brother, Givens Parr of Alice.

UN Campaign Set To Push Atom Program

By A. I. GLDBERG

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., (AP) — Top U.S. delegates scheduled a speechmaking double-header in the U.N. Assembly today in an unusual maneuver to push ahead with President Eisenhower's atoms-for-peace program.

C. D. Jackson, presidential adviser who helped prepare the original program, was taken off the sidelines to make his first major speech as a U.N. delegate at this morning's session of the Assembly's main Political Committee.

Jackson has insisted in private talks that the principal virtue of the Eisenhower program for an international atomic energy agency and a world scientific congress is that it is "do-able now." Despite Russian objections to the plan, it provides a program that can be accomplished quickly, Jackson has told delegates.

Texas Demo Group Calls For Censure

WACO (AP)—A statewide organization of young Democratic clubs linked with Texas' liberal Democrats called on both Texas senators yesterday "to press for a vote of censure against McCarthy..."

The resolution was passed at a meeting during which an official charter was given the group.

The resolution urged Sens. Lyndon Johnson and Price Daniel "to press for a vote of censure against McCarthy without further yielding to tirades of McCarthyism."

The U.S. Senate is currently debating whether to censure Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis).

Miss Lorella Montoyan, national Young Democratic director for New Mexico, Colorado, Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas, made the presentation.

Nationalist Vessel Is Sunk By Commies

By SPENCER MOOSA

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP)—Red China Sunday sank the 1,800-ton Nationalist destroyer escort Taiping, using torpedo boats for the first time in the long civil war.

No Americans were believed to have been aboard.

In Taipeh, top nationalist officers conferred for hours on the incident. But there was nothing to confirm an afternoon newspaper report that "momentous decisions" had been made.

The same newspaper said flatly, but without confirmation, that plans are shaping up for massive retaliation.

An official newspaper, the Chung Hau Daily News, asserted that Soviet Russia is to blame for the sinking.

Russia, the newspaper said, turned over more than 40 torpedo boats to the Chinese Reds at Tsingtao, a north China port, several months ago.

The Taiping, formerly the USS Decker until transferred to the Nationalists in 1946, was attacked by four swift torpedo boats which the Nationalists said were Russian-built.

The destroyer, with 180 men aboard, was convoying a motorized junk from the Tachen Islands, 30 miles off the coast of Chekiang province and 215 miles north of Formosa, to nearby Yushan Island. The first torpedo missed, but a later one hit the Taiping amidships well below the waterline, Chinese press reports said.

The reports said the Taiping sank "with guns blazing."

Search continued today for five officers and 23 naval ratings still missing. A sister destroyer escort, the Taiho, picked up the rest of the Taiping crew, including the captain.

Rapid Desegregation Could Stir Violence, Shepperd Says

By MAC ROY RASOR

AUSTIN (AP)—Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd warned the U.S. Supreme Court today any attempt to compel desegregation of Texas public schools, except by "gradual adjustment," faces threat of violence.

"Compulsion can only arouse resentment, individual discrimination, and, as experience has demonstrated in other states, violence," said the state's chief attorney in a written brief setting forth the state's official position on public school desegregation.

If Texas is compelled to abolish segregation, Shepperd advised "gradual adjustment."

"A period of orderly transition will insure that a decree will meet with no more than passive resistance by the public," he said.

Shepperd also advised the high court desegregation should be brought about through local self government and with parents left free choice in selecting a public school for their children.

The attorney general released copies of his brief here simultaneously with filing it with the Supreme Court in Washington.

Though not a party to the suits that brought about the court's historic ruling that segregation of the Negro and white races in public schools is unconstitutional, Texas was among states invited by the court to offer their views as to how the court's decree should be put into effect.

Shepperd told the court flatly Texas does not agree officially with its decision and some way must be found "to protect the constitutional rights of the minority without ignoring the will of the majority."

"Legal action which bears upon the folk ways of nearly one-fourth of the nation's population cannot be effective unless the affected group is largely willing to abide by it," he said. "No individual can be forced against his will to accept, associate or cohabit with another not of his own choosing.

"The 14th Amendment of the U. S. Constitution prohibits only 'state action' which is discriminatory because of race, creed or color, not the prejudice or discrimination evidenced by individuals toward their fellow man.

". . . The objective reached by the War Between the States left a scar of bitterness and resentment that is visible even now in some parts of the South. Such, we hope, will not be the result of this court's May 17th decision."

Shepperd said the Texas Public School System has existed for more than 80 years on a segregated basis as "a reasonable exercise of the state's police power' to preserve the public peace, harmony and general welfare.

"There is no discrimination on the part of the State of Texas in administering its public school system, only separation of the races," he said.

"It is the belief of the people of this state that discrimination against the individual can best be eliminated by segregation of the races in the educational system. It is the evil of discrimination and not segregation per se that is condemned by the U.S. Constitution."

Shepperd cited present overcrowding of Texas school facilities as one reason for urging a gradual transition.

"Additional facilities are needed and will have to be supplied by local bond issues," he said. "It is highly speculative as to whether such bond issues would be voted to house an integrated school system which an overwhelming majority of the people oppose."

Shepperd said he made a sincere effort, in compiling his brief to obtain a cross section of views of educators, legislators, and others with knowledge of the matter.

In a poll of 152 Texas school administrative officials, 50 of them Negroes, Shepperd said one question asked what they considered a "reasonable minimum" time for working out an integrated system in their respective school districts.

Shepperd said 36 replied that five years or less would be sufficient, 42 wanted a longer time.

Ten of the Negro replies favored five years or less while five favored a longer program.

Nineteen answers, two of them from Negroes, wanted a 12-year plan, beginning with the first grade and adding a new grade each year.

Asked if the patrons of their district, both Negro and white, were given free choice, what per cent would send their children to the same school now attended, 77 replied that 85 per cent would continue attending the same school. Fourteen of the answers were from Negro administrators. Three replies, all from Negroes, said their students would prefer attending integrated schools.

McCarthy Cites Watkins For Being 'Direlect In His Duty'

First Polar Airline In Flight Today

By HUBARD KEAVY

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—The airliner Royal Viking took off early today to inaugurate the first commercial transpolar passenger service between Los Angeles and Copenhagen, Denmark.

The Scandinavian Airlines System's DC6B rose from fogbound International Airport at 12:22 a.m. with film actors Jean Hersholt and Walter Pidgeon, public officials and two dozen newsmen, including this writer, aboard.

Shortly before the takeoff, actress Cyd Charisse Christened the Royal Viking with the traditional champagne bottle. A reception and dinner honored the passengers earlier in the evening.

At 8:10 p.m. today, a similar plane — and likewise loaded with newsmen and dignitaries — will leave Copenhagen headed West. The eastbound plane's flying time, for the 5,800-mile "short course," is 22 hours. But the westbound craft, due to prevailing westerly winds, will be in the air about 25 hours. It is due in Los Angeles Tuesday. There is, incidentally, a nine-hour time differential between Denmark and the Pacific Coast.

Ike Calls For Treaties For West Germany

By WARREN ROGERS JR.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower asked the Senate today to approve treaties freeing and rearming West Germany on the side of the Western Powers. He said the treaties "are founded upon the profound yearning for peace" shared by peoples of the free world.

He sent the treaty documents, signed in London and Paris, to the Senate with a letter saying they represented years of work to bring independence to Germany and integration of that divided country into the Western defense.

The measures would restore sovereignty to West Germany, ending the U.S.-British-French occupation. Germany also would become a member of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and with Italy join the 1948 Brussels pact.

These steps, Eisenhower told the Senate, could be accomplished under the agreements "in a manner which will insure freedom and equality for the people of Germany and at the same time will avoid the danger of a revival of German militarism."

Community Choir To Rehearse Tomorrow

Tomorrow night's rehearsal of the Snyder Community Choir is one of the remaining four scheduled before the dress rehearsal for the December 19 presentation of Handel's "Messiah."

The rehearsal tomorrow night, set for 7:30 p.m., will be held in the high school auditorium. Persons who wish to sing with the choir for the first time this year are urged to attend tomorrow's rehearsal. A nursery will be provided for the children of choir members in the First Christian Church on Thirty-seventh Street. The nursery will open at 7 p.m. in the west wing of the church.

KEFAUVER HEARD

Sen. Estes Kefauver, Tennessee Democrat and a foe of the Dixon-Yates power contract, testifies on that issue before the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee. The group temporarily deferred a showdown on the contract to hear Kefauver, then voted 10-8 to approve it.

Youth Center Now Operated Smoothly

The Scurry County Youth Center has had its share of setbacks.

It was, back during oil boom days here, the talk of the town as many citizens in the community joined together in raising money for constructing a youth center building.

Support, after part of the money for the center was raised, fell off and a board of citizens had an unpaid-for building on its hands. After it remained vacant for some time, with $12,000 still due, Universal Construction Co., builder of the center, gave its consent for use of the building even though the balance of the cost had not been paid.

In June, 1953, the Junior Chamber of Commerce assumed operation of the center. The Jaycees went to the youth center board, then headed by the Rev. Ronald Hubbard of the First Presbyterian Church, now of Pampa, and expressed the need for a youth center and offered to open it and keep it in operation. The board turned it over to the Jaycees.

Since that time, the Jaycees have financed operation, paid for improvements, and furnished center sponsors. Youth center director is Jack McGlaun, member of the Jaycees, who with his wife opens the center on each Tuesday and Saturday nights. The Saturday night time will be changed to Friday night as soon as the football season ends, McGlaun said, adding that the idea is to have the center open at times when teen-agers have the most time on their hands.

The teen-agers may, at the center, play shuffleboard, table shuffleboard, table tennis, and other table games, as well as dance, listen to music. A concession stand is available with candy, cold drinks, gum, etc.

To be a member of the youth center, a young person must be a resident of the county, be of high school age, and conduct himself properly. To help finance operations, the center set up annual dues of $2 for students. This was not made, McGlaun said, to keep anyone out of the center, adding that arrangements can be made for any student who does not have the money.

McGlaun said there is average participation now of about 50 students each night the center is open. That is below normal, however.

The Jaycees are now in the process of building tennis courts and croquet courts at the center. The club has expressed much need for expanding of the center, to allow room for it to better accommodate the students who go there, but operation and the improvements now being made are very costly and straining on the club's funds.

The Scurry County United Fund, Inc., recognizing the opinion which has been expressed by many here that the center should be one operated by the community and not left as the burden of one organization, accepted the Youth Center as one of its eight agencies.

The United Fund is presently conducting its first annual fund drive for a $29,500 budget. The Youth Center's part of that is $1,500, which will be applied as a part of the center's operating budget.

TOO BIG FOR A CELL

This French horse not only dislikes hauling cabs, he's tough on lady drivers, too. "Coco," nabbed by the gendarmes after tipping over his hansom and slightly injuring Paris' only woman cab driver, Mrs. Rachel Dorange, in busy Place de l'Etoile, waits patiently at a police station in Paris while his owner, Charles Roulet, signs release papers.

Accuses Utah Man In Panel Hearing

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy accused Sen. Watkins (R-Utah) today of being "derelict in his duty" in saying he didn't know if anyone was at fault in the Peress case. Watkins fired back: "I don't believe you can ever be satisfied unless you can find somebody who could be shot or hung."

The two big figures in the McCarthy censure row confronted one another at a suddenly called hearing of McCarthy's Investigations subcommittee.

McCarthy said he scheduled it to find out whether Watkins could throw any light on who was responsible for the promotion and honorable discharge of Maj. Irving Peress, an Army dentist who had refused to say whether he had Communist connections.

Watkins told the Wisconsin senator the way to fix the responsibility was to question 30 Army officers whose names were submitted to the McCarthy subcommittee last June by Secretary of the Army Stevens.

Watkins said Stevens had advised that the list included all officers involved in the Peress case.

In a hearing spattered with sharp words and caustic phrases, Watkins refused to be budged from his position that perhaps no one was "criminally culpable" for the Peress matter.

The Peress case is involved in the censure charges against McCarthy.

The subcommittee session was held before the meeting of the Senate itself. There Watkins planned to reply to McCarthy's charge that Watkins' committee served as the "unwitting handmaiden" of communist party in handling the censure charges.

In the subcommittee meeting Watkins said the Senate internal security subcommittee could undertake to nail down those "responsible" for Peress' honorable discharge.

But if it did, he said, "I never could find out to satisfy you unless you could find some one who could be shot and hung."

McCarthy snapped back that "many young men will die" because of traitors. He said traitors should be "shot and hung."

McCarthy said it was "no laughing matter" when "secret masters in the military" cover up for Communists.

Watkins said: "I was not laughing and the record and the picture will so show."

"I should perhaps be censured for what I am about to say," McCarthy told Watkins in stern, lecturing tones. "But a senator who represents the great state of Utah who comes here and says he does not know if some one ought to be blamed for promoting a man ... who owes allegiance to a foreign country, a traitor to his country ... such a senator certainly is derelict in his duty and that is putting it very mildly."

Watkins said repeatedly that only a "jury of his peers" could convict a spy. Accusations, he said, could not convict.

Watkins said Secretary of the Army Stevens supplied a list of 30 names of Army officers involved in the Peress case to Acting Chairman Mundt (R-SD) of the McCarthy subcommittee last June 23.

McCarthy has said previously that the list covered those who processed the papers in the Peress case, but did not disclose who actually was responsible for the promotion and honorable discharge.

The Army has said some of the officers involved have been reprimanded and that its procedures have been changed to avoid future similar cases as far as possible.

He said the Peress matter "could have happened purely as a matter of mistake" and criticized what he called "a lot of charges" without the proof.

McCarthy said the 30-odd names supplied by Stevens would not reveal the "secret master" he said is behind the handling of the Peress case. He said Watkins in effect had told McCarthy, in the censure report, that McCarthy should discover the person who was "culpable" in the Peress matter.

Peress, now a New York City dentist, was promoted to major and given an honorable discharge despite his refusal to fill out an Army security form and his invoking the Fifth Amendment last January when asked by McCarthy about alleged Communist activities.

Work Slated On Reservoir In Park Here

Work is scheduled to begin today or tomorrow on enlargement of the earthen water reservoir tank at Towle Memorial Park. A low bid has been accepted by the commissioners court.

The contract on cleaning the present small lake-type tank, deepening it, and doubling its size by building an adjacent similar one, then cutting the partition between them has been awarded to Pelphrey & Ballew, a dirt contracting firm of West Texas.

The firm is connected with the general road building firm of W. O. Pelphrey, Fort Worth.

The contract price on the work was 35 cents per cubic yard, both wet and dry soil. There will be about 15,000 yards of dry soil, and the amount of wet dirt to be removed from the existing pond is not known.

Other bids submitted were for 52 cents by Buster Lowery of Snyder, 45 cents by T. T. Swan of Snyder, and a bid by Grimmett Bros., Snyder, of a total of $64.50 for the dry dirt and $1 per yard for the wet.

Rainfall Over Half An Inch

Snyder got its first measurable rain for this month yesterday, with a total of .55 of an inch recorded by Mrs. D. P. Strayhorn, official weather observer.

The Daily News rain gauge, in downtwon Snyder, showed .7 of an inch. Fifteen miles north of Snyder, .5 was gauged. There were reports of rain up to 2 inches in the northeast section of the county, while Hermleigh had 1.5 inches.

The official measurement of .55 brings the year's total rainfall to 10.29 inches, slightly more than half the average annual rainfall.

A maximum temperature of 57 degrees was recorded here yesterday, with an overnight minimum of 42 degrees. At 7:30 this morning the temperature was 44 degrees.

Home Burglarized

Burglary of the Ford Caperton residence, 101 Browning, sometime late Sunday was reported to police, Prentis Smith, desk dispatcher, said.

Smith said that about $60, including about $20 in each of two billfolds, and about $20 from a child's piggy bank, and a watch were taken from the house.

Entry into the house was gained through the front door, Smith said.

Policeman Testifies In Sheppard Trial

CLEVELAND (AP)—A suburban policeman testified today at the murder trial of Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard that he once heard a rumor the young osteopath was sterile.

Under questioning by Sheppard's chief counsel, William J. Corrigan, Patrolman Fred Drenkhan denied, however, that he ever heard other police say Sheppard's seven-year-old son, Chip, was illegitimate.

Drenkhan, a cool, matter of fact type of police officer from Sheppard's suburb, Bay Village, was the first policeman to examine the Sheppard home the morning the osteopath's wife, Marilyn, was bludgeoned to death in her bed.

Drenkhan also said that he was unable to recall a statement that Dr. Sheppard killed his wife because she was pregnant. She had been pregnant about four months when she was killed.

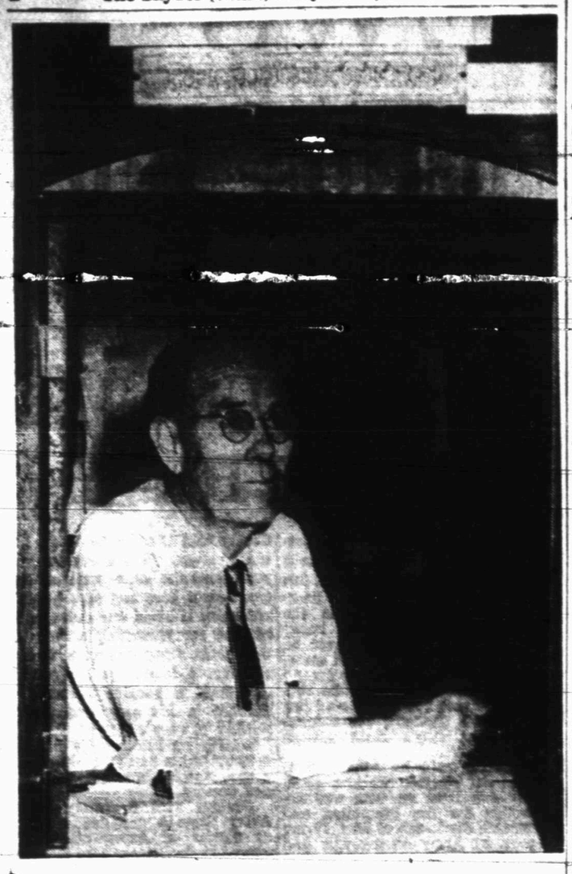

Corrigan also shot this question at him:

"Didn't you hear it said at a meeting at the county morgue that the first child of Marilyn Sheppard was an illegitimate child?"

"I don't recall that statement," the witness replied.

Corrigan was cross examining Drenkhan for the second day, seeking to shake his story that so far as he could tell, no bushy-haired intruder broke into the Sheppard home to kill Marilyn Sheppard. Her husband insists that is what happened that night.

The state says Sheppard murdered his wife during a quarrel over Susan Hayes, a hospital technician, and other women.

FLUVANNA POSTMASTER

John A. Stavely, above, manager of Fluvanna Mercantile for the past 30 years, has been appointed postmaster at Fluvanna to succeed Mrs. W. P. Sims, who resigned Oct. 1 after 15 years as postmaster. Stavely, who is said to be the only member of the Republican party in Fluvanna, was chairman of the Republican Party in Scurry County for 20 years from 1932 to 1952, and was president of Midwest Electric Co-Operative from 1942 to 1952. Stavely was the only applicant for the job when Mrs. Sims resigned. (Lee Watson photograph)

Mine Shaft Closed To Smother Blaze

By CHARLES STAFFORD

FARMINGTON, W. Va. (AP) — Beaten by deadly gas in their attempts to rescue 15 miners, or recover their bodies, mining men last night completed their grim task of walling up entrances of Mine No. 9.

One man was dead. Fifteen were missing and presumed dead.

The Jamison Coal Co. pit was rocked by a violent explosion Saturday. A second Saturday night sent flames roaring from the ventilation shaft.

A third, a sort of pouf, shook the tiny mining valley yesterday evening.

The job of sealing No. 9, in an effort to cut off the flow of air and smother a fire burning deep underground, was completed late last night. It will not be reopened until tests show the air inside is safe enough for rescue teams to enter. That might take days or months.

Also closed today was James Fork Elementary School, only a few hundred yards down the valley from the mine entrance. Officials feared another explosion or escaping gas might endanger the children.

Rescue crews worked their way almost a mile down the slope and into the passageways of No. 9 late Saturday. Deadly carbon monoxide fumes from the mine fire forced them back.

After three hours of conferences between company, state and federal mine bureau officials, the decision to seal was announced early yesterday.

State Mines Chief Frank B. King, visibly moved, explained. "There is just nothing else we can do." He said the action would remove any slender hope that some of the men might still be alive.

Miners began walling up the five openings with the approval of John L. Lewis, United Mine Workers chief.

Lewis, who spent two hours at the scene yesterday, said the sealing appeared to be the only course. He commended officials directing the operation.

As the miners labored to close the entrances, gas pressure began building up in the wrecked elevator portal and the destroyed ventilation shaft. Another explosion was threatened by the highly combustible methane gas.

No one could say what caused the explosion.

Fines Paid In Two Misdemeanor Cases

Two county court fines were paid this morning for misdemeanor offenses.

An assessment of $33.50, including court cost, was paid through an attorney for Aldon D. Yarbrough of Pueblo, Colo., on a plea of guilty to a charge of swindling by worthless check. The $8 check given Virgie Goyle was redeemed.

Oscar Arthur Michael, 55, Prichard, Colo., paid $37.50 of an assessment of $73.50 given when he pleaded guilty Nov. 1 to a charge of driving while intoxicated. He was given $36 credit for jail time served since his arrest.

Macrae Big Challenger In TV Race

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Gordon Macrae, entering the Sunday night TV sweepstakes, is challenging the front runner, Toast of the Town.

The solid singer from East Orange, N. J., is the new emcee and soloist on the Comedy Hour, which has been battling the Ed Sullivan show for five seasons. Both shows occupy the prime spot on television—the Sunday midevening hour. Neither show has yet given quarter.

Last year, the Comedy Hour had the best of it, as far as audience ratings are concerned. This season Toast has triumphed, racking up the highest total for any show in October, according to one poll. Of course, there are many differing polls, but the TV industry generally allows Sullivan the edge so far this season.

After a few weeks of mismash offerings, the Comedy Hour is bringing up its big guns. Macrae's slate of guests for last night included Dorothy Kirsten, Sammy Davis Jr., Larry Storch and Gene Sheldon. Next month, Martin and Lewis take over for the first of their five shows.

Macrae will do about 17 of the season's shows (Max Leibman "spectaculars" take the time spot every four weeks). Since the singer will be the only continuing member of the cast, he will bear the brunt of the Comedy Hour's rise or fall in the ratings.

"It doesn't worry me," he said. "All I can do is the best I can. I can act all right, I can sing and I look pretty good. We'll just try to put on a better show."

Macrae got his seasoning in TV as a pinch hitter. He took over the shows of Jackie Gleason, Eddie Fisher and his present rival Ed Sullivan during illnesses or vacations of those stars.

Use those scraps of leftover pastry this way. Roll out thin and cut into fancy shapes; sprinkle with grated cheddar cheese and paprika and bake. Delicious with soups or salads!

Breck Is Almost Assured Title For District 3A-1 Race

Little change occurred in District 3A-1 grid standings during the weekend.

The only change was in the places of Sweetwater, Levelland, and Snyder. Sweetwater moved from a tie with Snyder for fifth place up to fourth. Levelland dropped from fourth to fifth, and Snyder dropped from fifth to sixth.

Breckenridge kept its place at the top of the district. No other team in the district played in a game. Right now, Big Spring and Vernon are tied for second place. Plainview is seventh and Lamesa eighth.

Two more weeks remain in the regular season. This week's games include some big ones. The Snyder Tigers will go to Big Spring and try for another district win. Breckenridge will be at Sweetwater to knock the Mustangs back down the ladder. Lamesa will go to Plainview, and the two will battle to see which one stays out of last place. Vernon will be at Levelland fighting for second division honors in the district.

Big Spring and Vernon are the only teams which would have chances for the district title, and they should have their chance only if Breckenridge were to lose to Sweetwater this week and to Vernon next week.

Tickets went on sale here this morning for the Snyder-Big Spring game. Available are 516 reserved seats and 500 student tickets. More tickets can be sent here. The reserved seats are on sale in the office of Forrest Beavers in the courthouse, while student tickets will be sold at the high school.

Biggest Southwest Tilts Yet To Come

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

The Southwest Conference football race, as full of upsets as any of the hectic past, pushes down the final two weeks with the biggest battles yet to come. The first is at Dallas Saturday when Southern Methodist tries to protect its lead against the rush of Baylor's hard-finishing Golden Bears.

SMU didn't make as many mistakes as Arkansas last week so the latter finally lost a game. By so doing Arkansas may have thrown away the championship it could have won had it been its brilliant self in the last big effort.

Southern Methodist faces a hard row but appears to have the manpower to negotiate it with an equal share of the breaks. The Methodists play two teams they haven't beaten in a coon's age. It has been five years since the Mustangs were able to topple Baylor and seven since they beat arch foe Texas Christian.

Leading the league by a half-game, SMU can't even afford a tie in its remaining contests. That would wind the Methodists up in a tie with Arkansas for the championship.

Baylor, which hasn't won a title since 1924, is particularly anxious to get a championship tie, something the Bears could do by whipping SMU and Rice. Baylor can't possibly win an outright title.

SMU ended Arkansas' winning streak that had stretched to seven games by beating the Razorbacks on their home lot 21-14. The Porkers, who had been winning largely by cashing in on the opposition's bobbles, made some bad ones of their own. Noted for great kicking and little fumbling, the Razorbacks did some poor punting and dropped the ball entirely too often against SMU.

The defeat of Arkansas threw the Cotton Bowl situation into a huge jumble. Had the Razorbacks tied or won they would have been in the Cotton Bowl as champions of the conference. Then Cotton Bowl officials could have started searching for an opponent, although admittedly that's quite a task, too. So confused is the situation as regards a visiting team that the Cotton Bowl isn't even polling Arkansas and SMU on what teams they would be willing to play if they are hosts in the Jan. 1 game.

Howard Grubbs, executive secretary of the Cotton Bowl, said Auburn, Georgia Tech, Mississippi, West Virginia and Virginia Tech appeared the top contenders for the spot at this time. Auburn sprang forward in beating Georgia 35-0 last week. Georgia Tech has a 6-3 record with only Georgia left to play. Mississppi has 8-1 with Mississppi State left. West Virginia has 6-1 and plays North Carolina State. Virginia Tech is undefeated but has one tie and winds up the season against Virginia Military next week.

"There are too many important games left for us to single out anybody right now," observed Grubbs.

While SMU was trouncing Arkansas, two other conference games were being played, neither, however, having any bearing on the championship race. Texas outscored Texas Christian 35-34 and Rice trimmed Texas A&M 29-19.

Saturday Rice and Texas Christian clash at Houston. Arkansas plays an intersectional game with Louisiana State at Shreveport. Texas and Texas A&M have finished the season except for their Thanksgiving Day clash at Austin.

By DALE WALTON

"We enjoyed our visit last evening and you have a fine team that played a hard, clean game," said J. D. Sandefer, Jr., father of Breckenridge's Jake Sandefer and fan of the Buckaroos. "We appreciate very much the friendly relationship that has always existed between the Tigers and the Buckaroos."

Half Of AA Loops Have Their Champs

By The Associated Press

It's all over but the playoffs for most Class AA schoolboy football districts in the top half of Texas, but South Texas still has more last-minute scuffles on tap than a bargain-basement at Christmastime.

The situation gives districts 16 through 32 almost all the spot-light this week—the final one of the regular schoolboy season for the smaller districts.

Only the Seagoville - Terrell clash in Dist. 12 of North Texas belongs in the class with the La-Porte - LaMarque, Del Rio-Uvalde and Mission - Weslaco games Friday night as far as importance to the state race is concerned. All are expected to decide district titles.

LaPorte moves to LaMarque for a battle which could throw the Dist. 27 race into a three-way knot. LaMarque carries an unbeaten record in nine games into the clash, compared with LaPorte's slow-starting mark of two stright losses followed by six victories in the last seven games.

The 29-AA match between Uvalde and Del Rio at Uvalde puts the strong offense of the visitors against a rugged defense owned by the host team. Both are unbeaten in district play, Del Rio with a 2-0-0 mark and Uvalde with a 1-0-1 standings.

Weslaco, which overcame Donna with unexpected ease last week, risks its perfect record in 32-AA play against once-beaten Mission at Weslaco. The host team hasn't lost a game since a 35-13 defeat by Class AAA McAllen Sept. 10, but had a close call before downing Raymondville 6-0. Mission beat Raymondville 53-14.

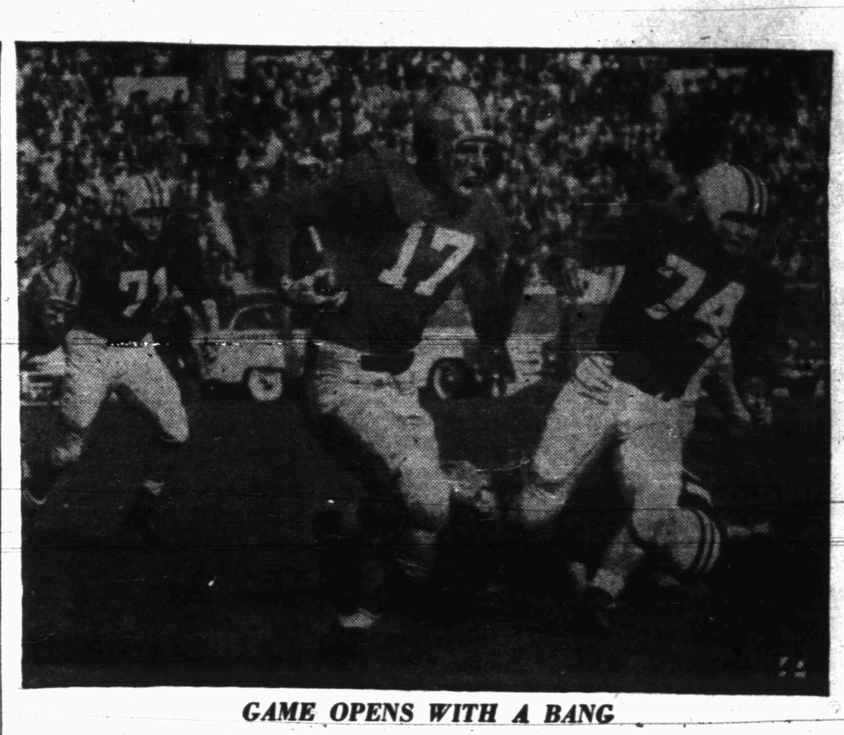

In North Texas, the ever-powerful Terrell Tigers take on Seagoville in the week's headliner. Playing at home, Seagoville boasts an unbeaten record in nine starts, but expects nothing but trouble from Terrell, in spite of three losses by the Tigers.

Other key games include Monahans at Pecos in 7-AA, Athens at Van in 13-AA and Robstown at Falfurrias in 31-AA.

The schedule by districts (all games Friday unless otherwise noted):

List Narrows For Major Bowl Games

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Staff

The list of candidates for the four major New Year's Day bowl games was down to manageable proportions today but there still was only one team with its spot definitely nailed down.

No matter what happens in its final two games against UCLA and Notre Dame, Southern California will be the host in the Rose Bowl. If they stop UCLA, the No. 1 team in the country Saturday, they'll win the Pacific Coast Conference title. If they lose, UCLA will take the crown, but the Trojans, as runners-up, get the bid anyhow. UCLA played in the bowl last Jan. 1 and is therefore ineligible this year.

Otherwise, everything is up in the air.

Here's how they shape up:

Rose Bowl — Southern California's Big Ten opponent will be determined Saturday when Ohio State and Michigan meet. If the undefeated Buckeyes, second in the weekly Associated Press poll, win, they will get the bid.

However, if Michigan wins, both teams would have 6-1 league records. A vote would have to be taken. In that case, the Wolverines probably would be selected on the basis of having beaten Ohio State.

Cotton Bowl — The Southwest Conference winner, which usually is decided on the last day of the season, is the host team. Until last Saturday, Arkansas seemed to have it all sewed up. Southern Methodist beat the Razorbacks 21-14 and changed that.

Now if SMU whips Baylor and Texas Christian, its last two foes, it is in. One loss and Arkansas, which has completed its league season, plays in the bowl.

The visiting team probably will be the club that finishes second in the Southeastern Conference race.

Sugar Bowl — The Southeastern Conference champion makes the trip to New Orleans. Right now Mississippi is in front with a 4-1 record and the chances are the Rebels will go on and take it, barring an upset. They have to get by Mississippi State two weeks hence.

Should State win, the survivor of the Georgia-Georgia Tech game would emerge the champion.

Even if Mississippi loses to State, the Rebels would be the leading candidate for the Cotton Bowl.

The second team in the Sugar Bowl probably will be Arkansas or SMU, whichever fails to make the Cotton Bowl. West Virginia of the Southern Conference was the visiting team last year, but the 42-19 pasting the Mountaineers took from Georgia Tech reportedly has soured bowl officials.

Orange Bowl — The host in this one is the Atlantic Coast Conference champion. Maryland, last year's national champion, is striving to make a repeat appearance. The Terps lost to Oklahoma last year 7-0 and have finished their conference schedule with a 4-0-1 mark. Duke, currently sporting a 2-0 record, still must play South Carolina and North Carolina. If the Blue Devils win both, they'll show a 4-0 mark and will head for Miami.

The opposition is bound to be easier than last year. Oklahoma, the perennial Big Seven champion, is ineligible, having played in the game the past year. That leaves Nebraska and Kansas State still in contention. Nebraska plays Oklahoma Saturday and State goes against Colorado. Should State win and Nebraska lose, a distinct possibility, the Wildcats would get the bid, although the two teams would show identical 4-2 records — because State beat the Cornhuskers earlier in the year.

ACC Is Top Independent

By The Associated Press

Abilene Christian has virtually sewed up the "championship" of Texas independent college football.

ACC last week beat Midwestern 33-13 to extend its lead over second place Austin College, which was licked by Louisiana Tech 40-14.

Saturday ACC plays Arkansas State at Abilene while Austin College engages South Dakota at Sherman. Austin College will be winding up the season. ACC still will have a game against Howard Payne Nov. 25.

Texas Lutheran finished the season last week, losing 60-7 to Central State of Oklahoma. Corpus Christi, the other independent, had ended the campaign previously. Each won only one game.

Season standings:

Team	W	L	T	Pct.	Pts	OP
Abilene Christian	8	2	1	.688	180	108
Austin College	5	4	0	.556	263	198
Corpus Christi	1	5	0	.167	110	194
Texas Lutheran	1	7	0	.125	61	236

B Team Is Edged 19-14

A 19-14 loss was suffered Saturday night by the Snyder High School B grid team to the Colorado City B.

Colorado City won the game in the last quarter. Jack Dillon's Snyder team scored first, then C-City scored twice. Snyder moved ahead 14-13 later, but C-City came back for a touchdown in the final period to win.

Dub Norris caught one touchdown pass from Tommy Pritchard, while J. W. Cain scored the other TD for Snyder on a short plunge. This brought the B team's record for the season to 2-5. The team will go to Lamesa for a Saturday night game to end play for the season.

Johnson May Name Pilot For A's Today

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Arnold Johnson prepared today to make a key move in the face-lifting job he plans on his newly acquired Kansas City Athletics—naming a general manager.

The Chicago millionaire who brought the American League's Athletics here from Philadelphia has given no inkling of his choice but speculation centered around Parke Carroll.

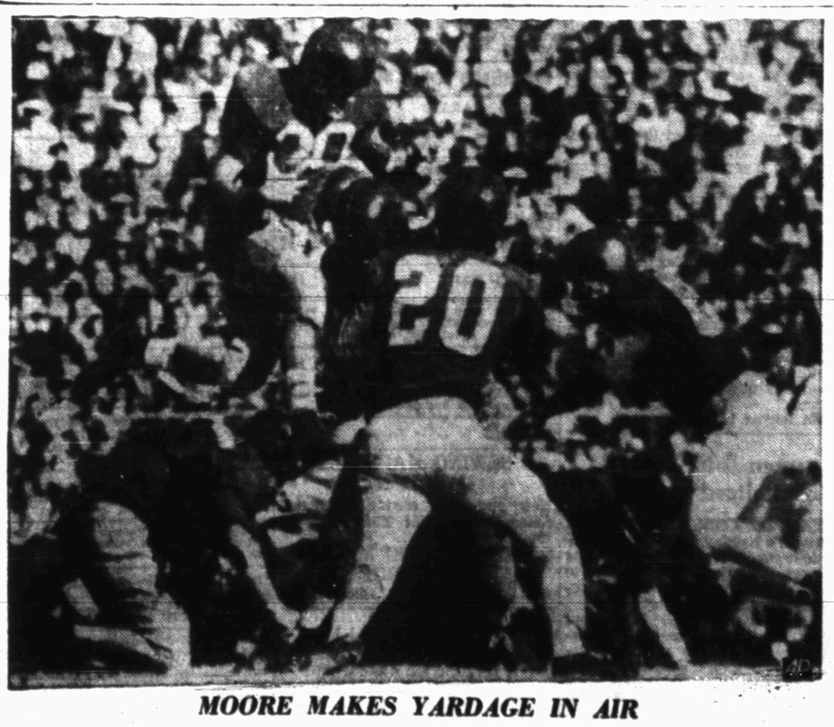

Carroll is general manager of the New York Yankees farm club, the American Association Blues. The Blues have been Kansas City's Association entry since 1945.

Johnson described Carroll as "a fine man" and a good friend.

One of the general manager's first official jobs will be to attend the major league draft meeting in New York next week. He faces the job of trying to guide the A's out of the league cellar.

Johnson also is expected to name a field manager during his brief Kansas City stay. He probably will do that tomorrow.

Will Of Hens Not Respected

TOKYO (AP) — What a Japanese politician saw on a Soviet collective chicken farm near Moscow last summer has convinced him he says that Communists "will stop at nothing to gain their ends."

Isamu Imaizumi, right-wing Socialist, writes in a newspaper article he saw a food pipe thrust into a chicken's stomach.

"An operator steps on a pedal and one portion of food is sent into the stomach of the bird. Suddenly the stomach swells up and the hen screams. This is indeed an outrage of chickens' rights, as it were," says Imaizumi.

"I asked the woman in charge, 'Why do you do such a mean thing?' She explained to me: "Our primary objective is not to raise chickens, but to get eggs . . . We do not care about the will of hens."

"We can never approve of such a way of thinking" in Japan, concludes Imaizumi.

Says Problem Drinkers Number Four Million

DALLAS (AP) — There are nearly four million "problem drinkers" in the United States, says Dr. Duke McCall, president of the National Temperance League, Inc.

He told some 200 persons opening the league's three-day convention yesterday that of that number, 750,000 are "true chronic alcoholics."

McCall is president of Southern Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville, Ky.

AVERY ACCEPTS CHALLENGE

Sewell Avery, 81-year-old chairman of Montgomery Ward and Co., smiles beside a chart as he issues a statement in Chicago at a rare news conference. Avery said Ward's management—which is Avery's—"will use every legitimate means to resist and defeat the raiding parties being organized to grab the liquid assets of this company." Two groups have announced their intentions to obtain control of the big retail merchandising firm. One is headed by Louis E. Wolfson, Florida financier. The other is Fred Saigh, St. Louis capitalist.

Key To One Type Of Heart Trouble Found

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Writer

ATLANTIC CITY (AP) — Taking a tuck inside the heart looks promising for overcoming one dangerous kind of heart trouble, three surgeons said today.

The tucking could narrow a heart valve which became too wide because of rheumatic fever, a big heart killer disease. The widened valve lets blood shoot backward into the heart instead of being sent through the body when the heart beats.

The tucking operation can narrow the valve ring to help the valve ring to help the valve close tighter when the heart beats.

It is done by cutting away a wedge of the outer wall of the muscular wall of the heart, at the proper spot. When this opening is pulled together by sewing, the inner wall of the heart is crowded or gathered together, to create a tuck or pleat which faces inward and closes over part of the faulty valve.

The heart-tuck method was described to the American College of Surgeons, opening a week-long clinical session here, by Doctors Elliott S. Hurwitt, Paul W. Hoffert and Ruthven Ferreria, of Montefiore Hospital, New York.

From successful tests on animals, the tucking method looks good for overcoming one kind of rheumatic heart valve trouble in humans, and is ready for trial in humans, Hurwitt said.

Heart Attack Kills Ex-Red

LAWRENCE, Mass. (AP) — Fred E. Beal, who served four years of a 17-year prison sentence for conspiracy to murder in the fatal shooting of the Gastonia, N.C., police chief during a 1929 textile strike, is dead.

An admitted former Communist, Beal fled to Russia in 1929 and returned disillusioned after two years.

He died of a heart attack yesterday at his home. He was 57.

A native of Lawrence, Beal went to work in a textile mill at 14 and was active in the city's big textile strikes of 1912 and 1922. He said he joined the Communist party in 1922, believing it was "ushering in a new society based on love of one's fellow men, freedom from . . . want and with security for all."

The Gastonia crime was the slaying of Police Chief Q. F. Aderholt in a skirmish at union headquarters June 7, 1929, during a violent strike that began earlier that year at the Manville-Jenckes mill. Beal and six other strike leaders were convicted of conspiracy and appealed.

Beal said afterward the Communist party ordered the six to jump bail and flee to Russia. Their convictions subsequently were affirmed by the North Carolina Supreme Court.

Beal returned from Russia an avowed anti-Communist.

He went back to North Carolina in 1936 and was sentenced, but he was paroled after four years.

In 1948, in the same court where he first was convicted, he regained his U.S. citizenship.

In the years since his release he lectured in opposition to communism and wrote a book, "The Red Fraud."

He leaves two brothers.

Busmen Join To Aid Hospitalized Cohort

TEMPLE CITY, Calif. (AP) — A busman's holiday looked more like a do-it-yourself show when 28 bus drivers took the same day off to build a den their hospitalized coworker couldn't complete.

Metropolitan Coach Lines put other drivers on the Alhambra-Temple City line to sub for crewmen who weren't supposed to be off Saturday. Then the entire crew went to the home of Horace M. Rice, who is hospitalized after a heart attack, and completed everything but wall siding on the den. They said they'd return next week and finish the job.

AMANA FREEZERS AT JONES LOCKER PLANT

Mrs. Jenny Peveler, employe of the Jones Locker Plant at Avenue U and Twenty-fifth Street, is shown above with one of the large upright Amana food freezers on display in the firm. Upright construction of the freezer makes all food items in the freezer easily accessible at all times. Added space for smaller, more frequently needed items is provided on the spacious door shelves. The Amana food plan for easy purchase of the freezers is offered by Jones Locker Plant.

Filling Freezer No Longer A Problem

The problem of how to fill a food freezer after one is purchased has been solved in a way which costs the purchaser nothing for the food.

Budget conscious families can purchase a food freezer, which is one of the biggest lifts to family food budgets ever devised, and get a freezer full of food free when the freezer is purchased.

Jones Locker Plant, at Twenty-fifth Street and Avenue U, makes the amazing offer on their Amana freezers which are sold on 10 per cent down with budget payments low enough for any family to easily meet — and the freezer full of food is included free with purchase of the freezer, E. L. (Skeet) Jones, manager, said.

"The freezer full of food is worth much more than the 10 per cent down payment on the freezer," Jones said.

Three salesmen are employed by Jones Locker Plant to make personal demonstrations of the freezers and give full details about their purchase, Jones said.

Jones Locker Plant offers a complete processing service for all beef, pork, or even wild game meats from slaughter through to cutting and packaging for cold storage. The locker division of the plant offers a freezer service to persons who do not have home freezers, or need more space for freezing and keeping foods when purchased in large quantities.

The freezer compartments in the Jones Locker Plant have been recently remodeled to take care of frozen foods which are sold wholesale under the Amana Food Plan.

The Amana plan enables the Jones Locker Plant to cut, wrap, and freeze meats ready for removal to home freezers at the wholesale price, which means a big saving to meat purchasers, Jones said.

New Group To Fight Slums

WASHINGTON (AP)—A nation-wide organization called ACTION — American Council to Improve Our Neighborhoods — came into existence today with an approving gesture from President Eisenhower.

The President scheduled an address at the kickoff luncheon of the Board of Directors of the new nonprofit, privately supported group aimed at the eradication and prevention of slums.

The movement is headed by retired Maj. Gen. Frederick A. Irving, former superintendent of the U. S. Military Academy, and a 53-member board made up of leaders in civic affairs, business, labor and the church.

After more than a year of planning in cooperation with federal housing officials, ACTION annouced it will launch "a major program in the spring of 1955" to enlist industry and community support in protecting the country's 22-billion-dollar investment in its 50 million homes. It will work closely with federal and local agencies.

ACTION said it will concern itself with "the entire range of housing," grouping its activities in these categories:

About seven million dwellings which are in good shape. Here the effort will be to help maintain them in that condition.

About 35 million dwellings in need of some repair. The organization will try to assist their rehabilitation and modernization.

Another eight million dwellings in slum areas. ACTION will devote itself to helping remove the slum conditions.

Rayburn Heading For Washington Tomorrow

BONHAM, Tex. (AP) —Rep. Sam Rayburn (D-Tex) says he will go to Washington tomorrow to talk with President Eisenhower about U.S. foreign policy.

The veteran Democrat, expected to be House speaker in the new Congress, said, "The President wants us to tell him how to get along in foreign affairs, and I'll have to admit that the President needs some help."

Gen. Collins Takes Over U.S. Mission

SAIGON, Viet Nam, (AP)—Gen. J. Lawton Collins, special envoy of President Eisenhower, took charge of the U.S. mission in chaotic, non-Communist South Viet Nam today, replacing Ambassador Donald R. Heath.

Heath, a 60-year-old career diplomat who had served in Indochina four years, flew to Washington yesterday for reassignment.

Collins, formerly U. S. Army chief of staff, has the personal rank of ambassador. He is charged with coordinating American diplomatic, military and economic agencies in South Viet Nam.

1,100 Fishing Boats Are Sunk By Typhoon

HONG KONG (AP) — Local Chinese papers reported today that Typhoon Pamela sank 1,100 fishing boats along the south China coast and that 3,000 persons — fishermen and their families — drowned or are missing.

The reports, from independent sources on the mainland, termed the typhoon the "worst disaster to the fishing people of south China in a century." The storm hit the Chungshan coastal area Nov. 7.

Oldest Vet Of Civil War Has Birthday

By JOE BENHAM

FRANKLIN, Tex., (AP) — Walter W. Williams, oldest of four surviving Civil War Veterans, celebrated his 112th birthday yesterday and said he looks forward to more years in spite of failing eyesight and hearing.

The wizened little man who once foraged for Hood's Texas Brigade of the Confederate Army smiled enjoyment at the party in his home and said he was glad to be starting his 113th year.

"My grandfather — in Mississippi—lived to be 119," he said, "And I might go on and top him."

Two birthday cakes, one topped with a Confederate flag, flanked the wheel chair to which he is confined. His 12 living children and others of his four generations of descendants were on hand.

Williams lives quietly with his 80-year-old wife Ella and son Gene on his 20-acre farm near here.

It's fun surprising relatives with how long he lives, Williams said. "They come by every few days to see me dead," he joked, "But I don't die."

"I feel good all the time," he said. "I've never been sick but one time—that was a little spell of typhoid when I was 18—and I've never been cold natured. When it gets real cold you can put on clothes and keep warm."

He told of working in a typical Texas blue norther well before 1900—staying outdoors after other workmen had sought shelter from the cold.

"I just kept on nailing," he said. Then he smiled sadly: "That was at old man George's place about two miles over that way. He's dead now, and all his family, too."

"Old man George" was a neighbor of Williams when the young ex-Rebel came to Robertson County to clear land for his farm in 1870. He's lived there ever since, in a small frame house with a wide front porch where Williams likes to sit in the fall—his favorite time of the year.

Williams, known as "Col. Williams" since being given an honorary commission by Gov. Shivers, used to hunt foxes before failing eyesight and advancing age confined him to the wheel chair.

"Now," he said, "I don't get out much. I hear tolerable, and I could hear pretty well if you'd talk loud." He looks forward, relatives said, to semi-annual trips to Houston for physical checkups by the Veterans Administration.

Holland's Majority Slips In New Zealand

WELLINGTON, New Zealand (AP) —Prime Minister Sydney G. Holland still holds power today following New Zealand's general elections, but his parliamentary majority has been whittled down.

Virtually final returns from Saturday's balloting showed the Premier's Nationalist party holding 43 of the 80 seats in the onehouse legislature. Labor held 37. In the old house the Nationalists held 50 seats to the Laborites' 30.

De Havilland's Fiance Arrives In Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Olivia de Havilland's fiance, Paris editor Pierre Galante, arrived here to be greeted by the now-blonde actress. His comment on her hair: "It's all right, for awhile."

Miss de Havilland, 38, and the 44-year-old magazine editor haven't set the date for their marriage yet. The natural brunette may not be blonde by the time of the ceremonies. Keeping her hair blonde, she said, is "too much trouble."

Survey On Sexes Proves Very Little

By RELMAN MORIN
(For HAL BOYLE)

NEW YORK (AP)—I see by the papers where a British scientist has been making comparative studies of men and women, and now has arrived at a conclusion.

He finds the ladies superior in most ways.

They live longer, he says, and have more vitality. They are less sensitive to cold. They have more courage and a greater emotional range. Linked with this latter point, the professor said, women are more dangerous than men when aroused, and more prone to mayhem, battery and assault.

Well, it is good to have all these facts certified to by science itself, although they are not exactly new nor worth a flash. Most of us suspected the situation.

However, I was unable to find any comparative data in the areas of intelligence, ingenuity, imagination or creative ability. If the professor's research covered these items, he seems not to have written any findings — possibly for reasons of personal safety.

Could it be that women are deficient in these fields?

For example, there is no great woman composer of music. Offhand, I can't recall a single name in that art.

Same with painting. Unless you like cows and horses, and therefore are a fan for Rosa Bonheur, the feminine batting average in this field is pretty low.

As for literature, there are some fair-to-middling women writers, but none who can play in the same league with Ernest Hemingway, or any of the other top-flight male writers. In fact, lady authors seldom produce "creative" literature. What they tend to produce is simply idealized reporting.

That is, they write about themselves, their families, themselves, babies, themselves, the other woman, themselves, etc...

Nor have they done much in the theater, compared with the great dramatists. This is surprising, too, when you think of it, because the average woman has a fine talent for histrionics and high drama when she wants a new kitchen or a trip to Honolulu.

We will brush over the field of original thought, and simply say there are no great feminine philosophers.

Presumably, the ladies should finished one-two-three in the cooking and culinary departments. But the fact is that the great chefs are all men, and the truly noble sauces and recipes were created by men.

Father Of Cardinal Outlives His Policy

ABINGTON, Mass. (AP) — William S. Spellman, father of Francis Cardinal Spellman, Catholic archbishop of New York, enjoys the rare experience today of collecting on his own life insurance.

Spellman, who is 96, has outlived the policy. Insurance experts say that happens to only one person in 100,000.

Union Central Life Insurance Co. said the cardinal's father would be handed a check for several thousand dollars representing full payment on the policy.

Shot From Pistol Is Fatal To Boy Of 12

THURMONT, Md. (AP)—A 12-year-old boy shot and killed himself near here yesterday when he accidently discharged a pistol while trying to put it away on a shelf.

Richard J. Hurley died in his mother's arms before a doctor could arrive.

State police said the boy had taken a loaded .22-caliber target pistol from a mantel. His older brother saw him and told him to put it back. As he was doing so, it went off. The bullet struck the boy in the stomach.

McCarthy Almost Certain To Peck Away At Administration

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — Even if Senate Republicans work out a compromise to save Sen. McCarthy from censure — and that may not be possible — he will probably continue raking the Eisenhower administration for Communists.

He has already spent four profitable years, from the standpoint of his personal eminence, digging into and at officials and employes of the executive branch of the government.

He did it for two years while the Democrats ran that branch. Without losing stride, he continued it the next two years while President Eisenhower controlled it. And Eisenhower will boss it another two years.

McCarthy has said, win or lose on censure, he will go on with his anti - Communist campaign. So, judging from the direction his attentions took in the past, the Eisenhower administration seems his logical hunting ground.

Besides, the executive branch of the government has an immensely greater number of employes than either the legislative or judicial branches and therefore offers a wider field.

Yet, no Republican senator who votes to censure McCarthy can ignore the political implications.

Censure would be an outgrowth of a series of events put in motion earlier this year when the Eisenhower administration took a stand against the investigation—or the kind of investigation—McCarthy was making of the Army.

Since the Republicans lost the last election, they may need both party harmony and every vote they can get in the next voting in 1956, a presidential election year.

McCarthy might not feel obligated at all but, rather, consider it an admission of weakness if, for the sake of party harmony, Republican senators were inclined to spare him censure and found a way to do it.

He might, indeed, look upon escape from censure as proof of his necessity to the party and an addition to his power within it.

He did not show any great concern for harmony last year when he tore into the Eisenhower administration's handling of Communists and communism. There's no reason to believe he'd show any more concern in the future, censure or no censure.

His position has always been that he doesn't play politics in looking for Communists.

Nevertheless, he has a large following — how large and how effective is not known. It did not appear decisive in two states — Illinois and New Jersey — where he most obviously tried to make his influence felt in the last election.

In a tight 1956 election, the McCarthy following, if angered by the treatment given him during the Eisenhower administration, could conceivably mean the difference between victory and defeat for the Republican party.

But how? That's not an easy one. McCarthy's admirers could hardly vote Democratic since he has made the Democrats his main target, calling them the "party of treason." If they stayed home from the polls, they'd be helping the Democrats.

They could form a third party, but no one is seriously suggesting that now. McCarthy and his friends, provided he was still a force and had a following, could probably make their weight felt most at the Republican National Convention in 1956 if Eisenhower didn't run again.

Eisenhower's withdrawal would leave a party vacuum into which the McCarthy team could move as a force, if not the dominant force, in picking the party candidate and shaping the party platform.

Instead of being on the defensive when the Senate censure debate began, McCarthy went on the attack and stayed there. To suggestions he might get off the hook by apologizing for his conduct, he said he would apologize for nothing.

Thought Of Moving Is Too Much For Man

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Jett E. Wilson, 61, was deeply grieved when he learned he was soon to be separated from the family with whom he had been living.

"He was very much attached to my small children," Mrs. Bennie Jean Lambert said of her boarder. "We decided to rent a smaller house and I told Mr. Wilson I would find him a new place to live."

Yesterday, when the moving van came, Mrs. Lambert said she found Wilson's body hanging from a garage door. Police said he committed suicide, using a noose fashioned from a pair of overalls.

Uncle Sam Mopping Up On Gulf Leases

By CHARLES HASLET

WASHINGTON (AP)—Within little more than a year after passage of the Submerged Lands Act, Uncle Sam has accepted high bids totaling approximately 150 million dollars for leases on a part of the outer continental shelf off Texas and Louisiana.

The controversial submerged lands bill, passed by Congress last year after 15 years of debate over the question, declared that coastal states—rather than the federal government—hold title to offshore areas within their historic boundaries. Development of mineral resources in the outer continental shelf was left to the federal government in a separate act.

Under the law, the Interior Department called for bids on tracts beyond the 10.35 mile line off the coasts of the two states.

A total of 326 bids were submitted recently for 97 of 180 tracts offered for lease by the department off the Louisiana coast. The high bids totaled some 129 million dollars in bonus plus a royalty of one-sixth of any oil produced and rental or minimum royalty of $3 an acre.

A short time later, the department opened 90 bids for 19 of 38 tracts offered for lease off the Texas coast. High bids totaled $23,357,029 in bonus with the same royalty provisions as were offered for the tracts off the Louisiana coast.

More than a dozen oil companies, both majors and independents, submitted bids for one or more of the tracts in each of the two offerings.

The federal government already has received a dividend on the submerged lands, for each bid was accompanied by a certified check for one-fifth of the amount of the bid and checks of the successful bidders will be retained. An Interior Department spokesman said acceptances of the high bids now are going out.

The amounts so far received will be only a part of what the government eventually may get from oil production from areas of the outer continental shelf.

Felix Wormser, assistant secretary of the interior, said at the time of the opening of bids on the off-Texas tracts that the 38 tracts offered totalling 111,788 acres represented only five per cent of the leasable outer continental shelf off the coast of that state.

Most of the tracts off the Louisiana coast shown on an Interior Department map were included in the recent lease offering.

Most of the Texas tracts are under water ranging in depth from 30 to 70 feet while those off the Louisiana coast are under water up to a depth of 125 feet.

There was a wide range in bids. For one tract of 1,440 acres off the Texas coast, Magnolia Oil Co. offered $2,209 an acre. The lowest bid for the same tract was $42.25 an acre by Gulf Oil Corp. Gulf was high bidder, however, on two other tracts.

In the Louisiana offering, the highest bid was $1,220 an acre.

The department has not said when it may offer other tracts for lease.

The Bureau of Mines reports that marketed production of natural gas in the United States increased 383 billion cubic feet in 1953 to 8,397,000,000,000 cubic feet, a smaller gain than was recorded in 1952.

Texas, Louisiana, Oklahoma and New Mexico accounted for most of the gains, the bureau said.
