City Rejects Foreign-Made Pipe In Bid Letting Monday

Flowers On Main Street In Beautification Plan

Flowers on Main Street! That is the latest project in a year-round beautification program that will get started with the opening of Clean Up Week in Hereford on Sunday.

City Commissioners agreed to purchase 14 redwood planter boxes during their meeting Monday night. Request for city participation was made by Mrs. Irving Alexander, chairman of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce beautification committee, and Mrs. Ansel McDowell, head of the Main Street beautification sub-committee.

The planters will be curved, with a flat back, and will be located against store fronts on Main Street. Made of redwood, they will be about 18 inches tall and will extend out from the back about 12 inches. The size and shape were decided as offering the least amount of dangers and pedestrian obstruction. They will be about three feet long. Cost of the boxes will be about $12 each. Initially, only two boxes will be placed in each block. That will be four boxes each in the 100, 200 and 300 blocks of Main and two on the west side of the 400 block. If the project is accepted, more boxes will be added later and the decorations extended off Main Street to other business locations.

Mrs. McDowell told the Commission that the boxes will be located at fire walls between businesses. Garden clubs in Hereford will provide the dirt and help with the planting. Japonicas, a green plant which climbs all year, will provide permanent decoration. Seasonal flowers will be added for colorful accents.

Meanwhile, plans are just about complete for the intensive effort that will take place April 23-29, official Clean Up, Paint Up, Fix Up Week in Hereford.

Mrs. Jimmie Gillentine, chairman of the drive, said the Campfire Girls will work individually in their neighborhoods. The groups also will clean up around the Campfire Hut. Bluebirds will be responsible for planting the red geraniums, which are being located all over.

Hereford City Commissioners took a stand Monday night against foreign-made pipe in awarding bids on water department supplies. They accepted the bid of Morrison Supply Company of Amarillo for more than $5,000 in pipes, joints, fire hydrants and fittings. Morrison's bid was slightly higher than bids submitted by firms supplying pipe from three foreign countries and the lowest of three bids from companies offering American-made pipe.

Morrison's bid was $5,389.69. Viking Supply offered a bid of $5,059.94 for pipe made in Mexico. Next low was Moore Company, with a bid of $5,178.35 for pipe made in Belgium. Third lowest bid of $5,232.97 was by Western Industrial for pipe made in Italy.

The Johns-Manville Company bid $5,511.87. Other bidder was Clowe & Cowan, whose bid of $5,231.79 did not include two items, which would have added between $182 and $240 to the bid price. Both Johns-Manville and Clowe & Cowan were bidding on American-made pipe.

Commissioners voted unanimously to accept Morrison's bid, since there was little difference in the price. They stated a marked preference for the American-made pipe and also stated a desire to support American industry whenever possible. Mayor Ray Cowser also voted in favor of the successful bidder.

The bid was allowable under terms of the City Charter, which states that the group is privileged to reject any or all bids, to waive formalities and to take the bid which "is most advantageous to the City."

The six bids were on about 3,600 feet of six, four and three-inch pipe, three fire hydrants, and 29 other miscellaneous items, such as valves, angles, crosses and tees.

Ordinance 571 was passed on second and final reading. No one appeared Monday for the public hearing on the annexation of property in the west part of the city. The bill will enlarge the city limits from Center Street west along Harris on Highway, north along the west boundary of Westhaven Addition to Plains.

Commissioners named Dr. R. R. Wills as mayor pro-tem, to serve in the absence of the

As expected, the turnout for Little League practice this week has been great. Excluding those returning to major league teams from last season and the eight-year-olds, about 200 boys showed up. League president J. R. Allison said one of the two coaches needed in order to keep six teams in the minor league had been secured and is out working with the boys. But, unless someone else volunteers, the sixth team won't be formed. This would eliminate 20 youngsters who want to play ball. Surely, someone can devote a few hours of service to the boys of this community. If a volunteer does show up, there wouldn't be any problem about finding an assistant or two for him.

Major league team assignments will be made Saturday at 2 p.m. at the Little League field. Try-outs will continue next Monday for the minor leagues.

Hereford Man Guilty Of DWI

Jesse M. Carter, 33, 407 Union, Tuesday was found guilty to charge of driving while intoxicated, first offense, by a Deaf Smith County Court jury and was fined $100 plus court costs and sentenced to three days in jail.

The jury trial started at 9 a.m. Tuesday and ended at about 6:45 p.m. Carter had entered a plea of not guilty to the charge.

Attorney for the defendant was Billy Hall of Littlefield. Prosecuting the case was County Attorney Ed Line.

County Judge Don Zimmerman presided in court.

He stood on a bridge in a bomb-shattered city behind the Iron Curtain wrestling with thoughts of suicide. Life had become a meaningless, unpleasant existence, and his only desire was to get away from it.

War had no thrill; only sorrows. It had destroyed his father, his mother, his church and his town.

Optimist Zone Orators Compete Here Saturday

Randy Carver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Carver of Hereford, Saturday will compete in the Zone C Optimist Club Oratorical Contest to be held in Hereford Community Center.

Carver will compete with contestants from Pampa, Lubbock, Amarillo and Plainview. The contest will begin at 2 p.m. in the Community Center, and the public is invited to attend.

The Stanton Junior High School student was judged top speaker in a recent speech contest sponsored by Hereford Optimist Club. He was originally in a field of 13 students of speech classes at Stanton. The field was narrowed to five at a contest held at the school, and those finalists competed in the recent oratorical contest here.

Winner of the Zone C contest will be entered in the District Convention Contest to be held in Tulsa, Okla., May 18-21.

Judges for the contest here will be from the speech and English departments of West Texas State College in Canyon. Carver currently is receiving special instruction from Rosy Bates, speech instructor at Dimmitt High School. Bates was one of the judges at the local contest.

Edwin Thomas Will Play In All-Star Game

Edwin Thomas, twice All-State guard, has accepted an invitation to play in the Texas High School Coaches' Association All-Star football game in August.

A senior at Hereford High School, Thomas told the Brand this week that he had accepted the invitation sent him by L. W. McConachie, executive vice president of the group. This year's game will be played in San Antonio during the annual convention, scheduled for Aug. 5-10.

He will be a member of the North team, taken from outstanding senior football players in the top half of the state. They will be opposed by the South All-Stars. Both teams will be coached by outstanding high school grid mentors, who will be announced later.

Thomas recently signed a letter of intent to attend Rice University, Houston, on a football scholarship. He will not sign the aid agreement until completing baseball next month.

History repeats itself, they say, and this is certainly the present trend in the booming return of kerosene consumption. Popularly known as "coal oil," the fuel provided most of the lighting in pioneer dugouts and early ranches, and as late as the 1920's was used extensively for cooking and heating. Electricity, butane and natural gas have long since replaced kerosene for these purposes but, today, many refineries are converting back to production of kerosene in place of high octane gasoline. Chiefly, the trend is due to sagging gasoline sales, along with a tremendous demand for kerosene as a prime base for jet fuel.

I notice where the Hereford merchant are putting on a "Smorgasbord of Values" promotion. Like everyone else, I am always in favor of a bargain — and they do have quite a few — but I sure wish they would select something easier to spell. As any constant reader will tell you, we have enough trouble trying to spell simple words — much less a tongue-twister "Smorgasbord."

Sam Nunnally has come up with something new. I would call it an industrial subdivision. He has platted out several acres south of town on U. S. 385, installed street lights, blocked off a park — and proposes to establish a sort of heavy duty shopping center. They already have one building under construction as the new home for B and B Oliver, and Sam says he has had numerous inquiries from various other heavy retail and semi-industrial firms. It looks like a cinch for the employer. The place is so far away from a good coffee drinking spot that the employees will have to drop the habit, or add another shift. Mostly, though, it does look like a top-notch idea.

The rent house shortage is once again becoming acute. I hear that several people are planning to move to Friona and Dimmitt and commute between jobs. However, this is nothing new. I moved to Hereford in 1937 — and I cannot recall any time during the past 24 years when we have not been faced with a housing shortage to some degree.

John Patton was telling me a while back that there was a surplus of housing during the big depression, and even in the late 30's you could buy a fairly nice house for $3,500 and up. Those days are pretty well gone forever, though. Several builders have reported that the trend is more and more toward four-bedroom homes, instead of three. A few couples will still settle for two-bedrooms — provided they have two baths. I also hear that some of our larger houses will pay more than $100 a month in city, school and county taxes, which is quite a bit any way you look at it.

Folks seldom spare much sympathy for nurses, but it was different this week when the girls in the hotel, where Johnny Pool generally eats lunch, found out that he was in the hospital and "coming along fine."

"Don'tcha know he's running those nurses ragged?" asked one, and the entire crew chimed in with a big, loud "Yes."

Many people seem to have the idea that The Brand is planning to move. This is in error. It stems from the fact that Southwest Offset, a new printing corporation is installing a new-fangled press in the Benefield building on Highway 60. The press will operate by photographing pages for reproduction and will print Canyon, Olton and Littlefield papers, along with Hereford, and possibly some others. We hope the printing quality will tremendously improve. Meanwhile, the Brand will remain in its present location and maintain its present equipment, except for the press (which give Francis Hardwick and Urlin Streu so much trouble). Our press has been sold to Anson and is scheduled to move around June 1, when we hope to shift onto the offset production line.

After all, it took us since 1901 to get our sign — and we are not about to move away and leave it.

Warmed Over
Biscuits, breads, or rolls can be reheated by placing in a clean paper bag which has been prepared by pouring cold water in and out of it quickly. Twist the top of the dampened bag and put into a medium oven until thoroughly heated. Bakery goods will taste as if they have just come from the bakery ovens if they are reheated by these directions.

Paint Tile
If tile is washed and allowed to dry, paint will adhere to it. Apply a coat of equal parts of wall primer and paint, mixed in the proportion of one-half gallon of flatting oil to each 25 pounds of heavy-paste white lead.

House Plants

When house plants look somewhat dejected, and water fails to revive them, try putting coffee grounds on the roots about three times a week. Then once a week give them a tablespoonful of olive oil. Do not allow the earth to become hard and dry.

Easier Sanding

When refinishing furniture, chair rungs or bars or carving can be sanded if cellophane tape is used on one side of narrow strips of sandpaper. Use these strips in shoeshine fashion and, because of the tape reinforcement, the sandpaper will not break or wear through as it would if used alone.

Interest High On Official Flower Selection For City

BY ARGEN DRAPER

Some interesting things are happening in the Hereford Beautification Committee. Everyone, I suppose is anxious about the flower that will be chosen for Hereford's official flower. At the meeting last week of the County Program Building Committee, Mrs. J. C. Morrison made a good suggestion.

Her idea was to have four flowers for the four seasons. It seems this might work well particularly for those of us who don't get enthusiasm until we see the neighbor's flowers blooming.

To the person who asked about the Santa Fe Award. It includes four college scholarships of $400 each for two boys and two girls to be selected on a basis of general achievement. Pink and Pretty Rhubarb Jam 1½ pounds (2 plus cups) thinly sliced rhubarb ½ cup water ½ cup (1 medium) crushed banana 5½ cups Beet Sugar ½ bottle liquid fruit pectin Combine rhubarb and water, cover and boil about one minute or until rhubarb is tender. Measure 2½ cups.

Combine rhubarb and crushed banana (total of three cups fruit) in large saucepan; add Beet Sugar, mix well.

Bring to full rolling boil over high heat; boil hard one minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Stir in pectin immediately.

Skim off foam, ladle into hot sterilized glasses or jars. Seal. Makes 6 six-ounce glasses.

mayor. They also approved a request from the beautification committee of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce to install 14 flower boxes on Main Street. The city agreed to pay the cost of the boxes, a total of about $168. Mrs. Irving Alexander and Mrs. Ansel McDowell made the request.

City Manager Dudley Bayne told the Commission of a clean up program which is nearing completion at the small park just west of South Main near the old golf pro shop and urged that they visit it.

communism has done to our families, our home towns, our nation."

Having lived behind the Iron Curtain for five years, he knows what communism really is — a hard, cold, cruel domination which can wash the American people away in a flood of human tears.

The Rev. Enke is an ordained minister affiliated with the New England District of the Assemblies of God.

During World War II, the Rev. Enke was assigned to submarine duty in the German Navy, but, was later transferred to land duty. During the war both of his parents were murdered: his mother because she could not stand the cruel treatment of the communists and his father because he had been a superintendent of the Pentecostal Churches of the Eastern District of Germany.

Two of his brothers were killed in the war, one was released from a communist prison camp with tuberculosis (from which he later died) and his two sisters were "living skeletons" after they were released by the communists.

For five years he labored behind the Iron Curtain to keep alive the faith of Christianity. While in Erfurt, Germany, one night he and a pastor were arrested by the communistic police while conducting a young people's rally. He and the pastor were taken to police headquarters where they were questioned for hours. They were charged with things they had not said or done, but they had false witnesses who stood up against them.

But for some reason — a miracle perhaps — they were not immediately placed on trial. That gave the Rev. Enke a chance to flee East Germany.

The year was 1950, and some friends in Erfurt got in touch with the British Embassy to arrange his escape.

His main problem was getting through an inspection zone outside Berlin as the communists could not stop a passenger from getting off a train in the western sector of Berlin. So he started the 400-mile jaunt by train to Berlin. When the train came to a stop at the inspection point, he didn't know what was going to happen.

"On one hand, I could not tell them the truth" (his purpose of going to Berlin) "and on the other hand I could not tell them a lie as I do not believe that in the eyes of God there is such a thing as a white lie."

"So I left it up to God," he went on. "Several communist inspection officers were inspecting luggage and asking questions of every passenger on the train. They were talking to the passenger sitting next to me on the train when all at once all the inspection officers quickly left the train — I don't know for what reason — before talking to me or inspecting my personal belongings."

"The train started moving again. It was truly a miracle — an act of God — that they did not ask my reason for going to Berlin."

When the train crossed into West Berlin, he got off and then boarded a boat which took him to England.

He came to the United States in 1952 with a visitor's visa on a speaking tour. A year later the visa was extended and in 1956 he became a citizen of the United States.

The Rev. Enke's wife and two children live in Springfield, Mo., where his wife teaches at a church college.

"Americans must wake up to the dangers of communism," the Rev. Enke said. "Their indifference is why it is so easy for the communists to infiltrate into our society. People do not think it can happen here. Americans lack knowing the true nature of communism."

When asked on his views of the highly-controversial John Birch Society, the Rev. Enke said:

"I am not and have never been a member of the John Birch Society. But through many of my friends and acquaintances, I know that I do not agree with what the press says about the John Birch Society."

The evangelist said he believes in the general purpose of the Society — that of its fight against communism.

"Most Americans do not know the true story," he continued.

"If Robert Welch Jr. (national head of the Society) were invited to appear before a Congressional hearing, he would be able to bring out the true facts on what the Society is doing."

He added, "But they will not dare to do so, because it is my opinion he would be able to make it uncomfortable for some of those in our government who have been duped by the communists. It is my opinion that Mrs. Welch will never be invited to appear before a Congressional hearing."

"If the communists win, Christianity will be destroyed," the Rev. Enke commented. "Communists talk of peaceful co-existence, but that will work only under communistic rule."

The outspoken evangelist said, "I am for less government where it abuses our freedoms. Our freedoms are gradually being taken away from us."

He pointed out that Americans no longer take enough interest in our laws, that they do not think before voting for their lawmakers, and that they vote for the ones who promise them the most for nothing.

"For every communist who serves communism conscientiously, there are 99 who serve it unwillingly, but who serve it well," the Rev. Enke said. "All you have to do to be useful to the communists is be ignorant and selfish."

"The truth hurts us sometimes, but I have to stand up for the truth," the evangelist said. "And I am not afraid of public opinion."

He added, "I am against all compromise of 'sitting on the fence.' I have been told that compromise is good diplomacy, but I think it is without backbone. This is no time to be 'sitting on the fence.'"

Commenting on the John Birch Society again, he said: "Any organization or person who stands up today and opposes communism immediately meets opposition and is under

Three Talks On Red Danger Set

The Rev. Siegfried Enke will present three talks on the present dangers of communism in America at the Assembly of God Church, on the corner of Ave. G and Union, on Thursday, Friday and Sunday evenings. His talk will begin at 7:30 p.m. each evening, and the public is invited, according to the Rev. V. W. Marcontell of Hereford, pastor of the church.

Thursday evening, he will tell of experiences he had during five years of living under communism; Friday he will discuss the philosophy of communism and answer questions asked from the floor; and Sunday evening he will talk on "Communism Versus Christianity," including information on conditions behind the Iron Curtain.

The Rev. Enke also will appear before various civic clubs and other local organizations while in Hereford.

SWOONING CAUSE
HAMPTON, Va. — The
fainting problem in high and

Morris, supervisor of careen-of swooning at gym classes, especially in those for girls. Investigation disclosed that students were getting up late and rushing away to school without breakfast. Now breakfast is served before classes at the schools.

Marriage Will Be Bliss In '75

By RAYMOND HOLBROOK
DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — In 1975 marriage will emerge like a butterfly from its cocoon of outmoded traditions, with a brand new look and a new role in American life.

And — for those who are emotionally mature — the new concept will bring the marital bliss which the world has long idealized but rarely attained.

Dr. Charles F. Mayer, nationally known divorce lawyer turned marriage counselor, sees this rosy future.

"To many people are trying to impose Nineteenth Century concepts of marriage that are completely alien to present day life and problems."

The man who holds a doctorate in both law and psychology has reached these conclusions after 30 years of "freeing so called incompatible couples;" returning to college for postgraduate work in psychology and marriage counseling; a decade of patching together broken hearts.

Caveman Tactics
Tracing the history of marriage, he points out "The first marriages were simply marriage by capture — the caveman would conk a likely female on the head and drag her home to be his mate. Then came marriage by purchase and later marriages arranged by families. It was not until the Ninth or Tenth century that mutual love became the principal factor."

"Many of the prevailing concepts of marriage today are really those of our parents and grandparents — the Nineteenth Century marriage where the family was largely rural, the father was the provider and patriarch, and the wife had the subordinate role and endless, menial domestic duties."

Such a concept doesn't fit modern urban life where a wife has new independence and possibly a job and a husband is expected to do his half of the housework. The resultant turnmoil, Dr. Mayer says, has in many cases reversed roles. The wife becomes masculine and domineering and the husband feminine and submissive.

New Love
Marriage, based on the already outmoded beliefs in masculine domination, conjugal rights and wifely duties, will disappear," Dr. Mayer believes "and in its place, love and dignity of each partner will be reestablished as the basis for marriage."

"Companionship will be the keynote. Husband and wives will be able to clearly reaffirm the real enduring values — the worth of the human personality, the dignity of man and woman and child — the basic goals of human living, long frustrated by incongruous traditions."

Among the factors which Dr. Mayer says will help bring this about are:
A better understanding of oneself. More people will try to understand their motivations, fears and frustrations and attain emotional maturity.

Less domestic drudgery. Greater use of prepared foods and more labor-saving devices and easier-to-maintain homes will reduce domestic duties.

Education in infantile concepts of romantic love will give way to a more intelligent choice of one's mate as well as prepare young people for the realities of married life.

Better sex education. In place of feelings of anxiety and guilt children will receive a wholesome understanding of sex which will help them to grow up to be able to give and receive love as mature adults.

Increased marriage counseling. In addition to more widespread private help by qualified counselors, many divorce courts will establish counseling service.

Complete independence of women. The attainment and recognition of full equality will eliminate the wife's insistence for it and the husband's resistance to it and will end the conflict that results.

All of the above factors, Dr. Mayer believes, will help eliminate many of the symptoms of

Q. How can I exercise to help strengthen and firm the muscles of my thighs?
A. One of the best I can suggest is the standing-squatting exercise. Stand on tiptoes with your hands on your hips. Bend your knees to a squatting position, then rise to a standing position, staying on your toes throughout. This is a good one!

Q. Someone has told me it's harmful to the hair to use water on it every day to help dress and arrange it. How about this?
A. Some experts think along these lines. And it's true that

Q. How can I remove some ballpoint pen stains from one of my dresses?
A. By use of some carbon tetrachloride, followed at once by a warm-suds washing.

Q. Do you happen to know just why the diet authorities make such a big point of one's eating slowly?
A. Well, for one thing, there is a thing called the "satiety mechanism" in the body, the thing that creates that "I'm full" feeling after a meal. This mechanism takes time to work, so that if you eat slowly, you can reach that point much earlier in the course of your meal — and thus less food consumption on your part — and fewer calories.

unhappy marriage—in-law troubles, money disputes and alcoholism — because the underlying causes will have been removed.

Other factors in the changing American life which he says will contribute to happier marriages include: Greater family income and (maybe) a shorter week of work and more leisure with the family.

Just because the new concept of marriage will not be prevalent until 1975, Dr. Mayer is quick to add, doesn't mean one has to wait for marital bliss.

"For those couples who have attained emotional maturity, who can cast off old concepts and base their relations on love, respect and dignity," he says, "The Golden Age of Marriage can be theirs right here and now in 1961."

Spring has sprung and most of you are thinking about planting seed. We have taken on the Northrup King line of Hybrid Sorghums. Although we have been handling their garden seed line and the N. K. 37 Bermuda, the Hybrids are new with us. We will have Amak R-12 and N-10 as well as Scott 500 and 450. Richardson and Scott Texas Hybrids, we have in abundance.

MERLIN KAUL, southwest of Westway has several yearling Hereford bulls for sale and also some heifers. C. R. McGHEE down at Veterans Park has a few pigs for sale. Also JOHN HAMMETT has about 35 pigs to sell.

We have a good selection of garden seed in bulk. Garden tools, sprayers, water hose, peat moss and insecticides. "JELLY" McGOWAN uses peat moss to stop leaks in his underground tile — reports that it works good.

Flies and lice can be controlled with 'Lintox-D', a new product containing Del-Nar, can be used on hogs as well as cattle. We have the new fly cakes which were so successful last season.

We butchered four of the barley fed heifers and they dressed 61% with a smooth and white cover with your new grain program, why not look into the possibility of feeding a few head of cattle this fall? We can help you with your plans and now is too early to start planning.

CARL STRAUSS has bought some good hamshire gilts from F. L. EICKE and is starting him a herd of good hogs.

W. H. ANDREWS has a yearling angus bull for sale.

a fielder's choice to put Hereford in front 2-1.

But the hard-hitting Dumas team came back with three runs on three hits in the sixth. Dick Rector walked, but was out on a run-down between first and second. Thompson doubled and scored on Harjo's single. Then Kelly Baker, a 6-4 sophomore right fielder, teed off for a home run over the center field fence to plate two runs and give Dumas a 2-4 advantage.

Drew Kershen came in to relieve Stevens and put out the fire.

With one out in the last of the sixth, Hereford came to life with a vengeance. Collier ruined Thompson's no-hit effort with a double. He scored on two wild pitches. Edwin Thomas walked, stole second, third and home to tie the game, 4-4. Ronnie Botkin walked and stole second. Poarch doubled him in, but was out trying to steal third, as Drew Kershen got on by fielder's choice. Greg Combs then hit a solid double to score Kershen.

Royce Taylor came in to pitch but the damage was already done. He got Charlie Thomas to pop up, but the Whitefaces had a 6-4 lead.

Kershen, with his strange-looking wind-up, struck out the first man in the seventh, walked one, struck out another and got Harjo to ground out to finish the game. Thompson and Baker were the big batters for the Demons. Thompson hit a double and a single in three trips, while Baker blasted a single and a homer in three tries.

Greg Combs, who came in to play second base in the fourth for Hereford, was credited with two runs batted in. Shortstop Jim Collier maintained his even .500 batting average with a double in two trips. Poarch got the other double in two trips to the plate.

Hereford was charged with three errors and Dumas two.

The farm home of Mrs. Edgar Telchik, located northeast of town, was the scene recently for a seated tea. Cultural Home Demonstration Club was hostess to members of Dawn HD Club for the affair.

Mrs. Telchik made the welcome address. Mrs. Grady Parsons, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Clinton Jackson, who conducted a get-acquainted game.

Mrs. W. E. Holcombe read several humorous poems and Mrs. J. G. Gandy conducted several games, with the assistance of Mrs. H. D. Fuller.

Mrs. Gandy, president of Cultural Club, presided at the graciously appointed tea table. The color scheme was pink and white with a centerpiece of pink spring flowers was the center of attraction. Crystal serving dishes held cookies, sandwiches and punch was served from a crystal punchbowl.

Members were reminded of the appreciation luncheon for commissioners Monday, April 24, at the Bull Barn.

Cultural members attending were Mesdames Earl DeHart, George S. Parker, J. T. Richardson, P. M. Houser, W. E. Holcomb, J. D. Love, Pat Robinson, Ralph Packard, Clinton Jackson, Grady Parsons, Ira Scott, J. G. Gandy and the hostess, Mrs. Telchik.

SUBJECT: Scouting Report on the Activities of My Chamber of Commerce

Appointment calendars are a revealing thing when it comes to determining how active an organization is. Take the week of April 10th on the calendar of the Chamber of Commerce for example. The week started out with the Manager giving a talk to the Rotary Club on Union Power in a Free Society. That evening it was necessary to postpone a scheduled class session for the Action Course in Practical Politics because of the sugar beet report meeting.

Tuesday morning the Government Affairs committee under the chairmanship of Dr. Larry Beyer discussed the status of labor legislation. Wednesday morning the Directors met for their regular monthly session. Thursday a community leaders workshop was held in Plainview, with Cleo Meharg and Ernest Kendall attending from Hereford. Friday morning the special committee, planning the Spring Smorgasbord of values agreed on the final details for that big sales promotion event. Friday noon the membership committee met to hear a report on the progress of that drive.

Every day on the calendar is filled with at least one meeting in addition to the administrative work needed in an organization having over three hundred bosses. But the calendar alone does not tell all of the story for every scheduled meeting there must be preparation. The agenda must be reviewed and planned with the chairman. Cards must be sent to the committee members setting the date and time and then each member must be called and reminded just before the meeting.

Following the meeting, minutes must be recorded so that future committees will know of the actions taken. Each of these details is important to the success of the organization.

Two of the big activities coming off in the immediate future, activities which have required many committee meetings and much planning, are the Spring Smorgasbord of Values and the Clean Up-Paint Up-Fix Up Week campaign. The Smorgasbord was planned by a committee headed by Neil Cooper and included Mrs. Bess Moore, Tom Newberry, Clyde Cave and Monk Johnson. Be sure to see the ad appearing elsewhere in this issue giving the details of this big event. This is one of the most unique sales promotion events ever developed. It has wide participation amongst retailers of Hereford. Be sure to visit all of the participating stores Friday.

As for the Clean Up-Paint Up-Fix Up Week little needs to be added to the stories appearing elsewhere in this and previous issues. Mrs. Jimmie Gilentine has done a tremendous job in organizing community support of this annual project. I think, Sam, that everyone should get behind the effort of this committee to place Hereford in the national competition for America's cleanest city.

Can't conclude this report without mentioning the tremendous job being done by the membership committee. These are the new members since I last reported to you two weeks ago: Lucille Posey, Helt on's Army Supply, I. B. Aguilar, Sr., Frank Garcia, Scott Seed

The Hereford Brand, Hereford, Texas, Thurs., April 20, 1961

Company; Shep's Barber Shop, Rev. H. L. Thurston, Hereford Chiropractic Clinic, M & M Plumbing, Cecil Braly. All in all, since March 1st, the Chamber of Commerce has increased its dues income by $1,020. This week, Sam, is just $80 short of the budget requirements and the committee gives every indication that they may double this amount before they are through. That's my report for this week, Sam.

PERTINENT QUESTION

MEMPHIS (AP)—A busy lawyer strode into the waiting room at his office, trailed by his young son. Around the crowded room, heads lifted hopefully.

The counselor stopped at his secretary's desk and said, in ringing tones: "Afraid I'll have to be out in the county all afternoon, taking depositions." The patient waiters wilted. The lawyer marched sternly toward the door. At this point his son spoke up plaintively. "Daddy," he asked, "does that mean we aren't going fishing after all?"

How Can I?

By Anne Ashley

Q. How can I make sure that my hand-knit garments will stay in shape when laundering?

A. Wash these garments in mild suds, then pat into proper size and shape. Dry thoroughly. When dry, hold your steam iron an inch above the garment, and move it slowly back and forth over the entire surface until the steam penetrates it thoroughly—never actually touching the garment.

Q. What can I do about the dents in carpeting, caused by heavy articles of furniture which have been moved to other spots?

A. You can fluff these dents in your carpeting back to shape by covering them with a damp cloth, then applying a hot iron, following this with a brushing with a stiff brush.

Q. How can I keep my household sponges fresher and sweeter-smelling?

A. Make a practice from time to time of soaking these sponges in cold salt water.

Q. What can I do about bacon droppings in my oven?

A. Turn off the pilot light, place a bowl of ammonia inside the oven, and close the door. The ammonia fumes will loosen the charred droppings and make your oven much easier to clean.

PHOTOGRAPHIC PITCHMEN'S PLEA:

Your Baby Ought To Be In Pictures

BY RENE CAPPON
Newsfeatures Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—New parents-to-be are usually poured full of well-meant advice on all sorts of subjects, from nursery decor to midnight colics and diaper rash.

But no one prepares them for another inevitable problem—the baby photographer, a special breed of snake oil pitchman and child psychologist who is as ubiquitous as a virus.

The beginnings of infant portraiture are hazy, but most likely go back to the barbaric dawn of humanity.

When the first ingenious cave dweller scrawled an infant's physiognomy on the fire-lit wall, he must have been rewarded with an extra mastodon's steak by the mother. The artist instantly realized he had a racket, and there's been no stopping him since.

Today, thanks to Mr. Daguerre, his craft is refined and rationalized and that birdie our parents watched has matured into a full-grown vulture.

The baby photographer may creep into a maternity ward to snap a musing arrival "on speculation," which is about as chancy as an election in an Iron Curtain country.

They acquire your name off some list or other and ply your wife with sales talk over the telephone.

And they'll materialize as the voluble strings attached to the offers of one(1) free baby photograph by companies purveying infant services or furnishings.

You didn't fail to stock up on Baby's First Picture in the hospital—how could you?—and you're equally helpless while that gratis photo mushrooms into additional orders for a dozen others.

"They change every day at this age," the visiting lensman says, "so while we're at it, we might as well..."

Any feeble indication of sales resistance is drowned in baby oil. Your child, the photographer purrs, is the most beautiful he's photographed in years. This assignment isn't work, it's sheer pleasure (though not to the point of giving you those additional prints at cost).

Well before our daughter consented to smile at her doting Dad, a hulking, leather-jacketed, cigar-chomping cameraman reduced her to paroxysms of grinning delight. His presence even quieted her objection to being dressed up.

So now our daughter in three months of life has been photographed professionally more often than Elizabeth Taylor in a year. There are scores of pictures, in color or black and white, square-shaped, oval or round, in albums, baby books, on desks and mantel pieces, in Obviously, it's long past time to call a halt.

In fact, I've developed some cunning defenses against further inroads on our balance of payments position, but I'll have to tell you about those some other time.

Right now we're having the baby photographed, courtesy of a high chair manufacturer, and the man says he'll let us have six extra prints for a mere $7.50 each.

"TELEPHONE TALK" from

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company

Dear Telephone Customers:

Since I didn't get a chance to say goodbye to all of you before I left, I thought I might use the column for that purpose. Your new manager here in Hereford is an old friend of mine by the name of Gene Adkisson. I know when you get acquainted with Gene you'll like him as much as I do. He's been with the telephone company for the past 12 years, and worked at Dallas, Lubbock, and Sweetwater before he became manager here. His wife's name is Virginia, and like Gene, she's a native Texan. They have one child, Gena, who is four years old. Chances are you may run into Gene on the street or at a civic club meeting. When you do, don't be hesitant about going up to him and saying howdy. Like I say he's a real friendly fellow and I know that he will enjoy meeting you.

As for me, I am now in Lubbock. When you get down that way give me a call at the division office of the telephone company - or drop by our offices. I'll be mighty glad to see any of you that happen to be down on the South Plains for a visit. It's been a real pleasure serving you as your telephone company manager and I really mean it when I say I'm going to miss seeing you and the rest of my many friends here.

Sincerely,
Al Leach

SPRING PHONE FAIR

Well, by now most of us in Hereford don't need the weather man to tell us spring is here. There are signs of it everywhere. Have you noticed the kids lately... skipping rope, swinging bats, and chasing pop flies?

The grown-ups, too, are busy around the house. Painting and rearranging rooms, even adding on to the house itself to make it more comfortable for the family.

We're busy at the telephone company, too, getting ready for spring with an event called Spring Phone Fair. It is to be our way of reminding you about the many new telephone services we have to help you make your home more convenient and attractive.

For instance, how about a new phone in color for a bedroom? Or a wall phone for the kitchen, playroom or work area? Perhaps you'd like the smart Princess phone for your living room... so little, so lovely and it lights. Or maybe you'd prefer the soft musical tones of the bell chime. You can see all of these new telephone services on display at our Spring Phone Fair in the Hereford telephone business office.

If you don't get a chance to see them and would like more information, just call EM 4-1000 - or ask any telephone service man.

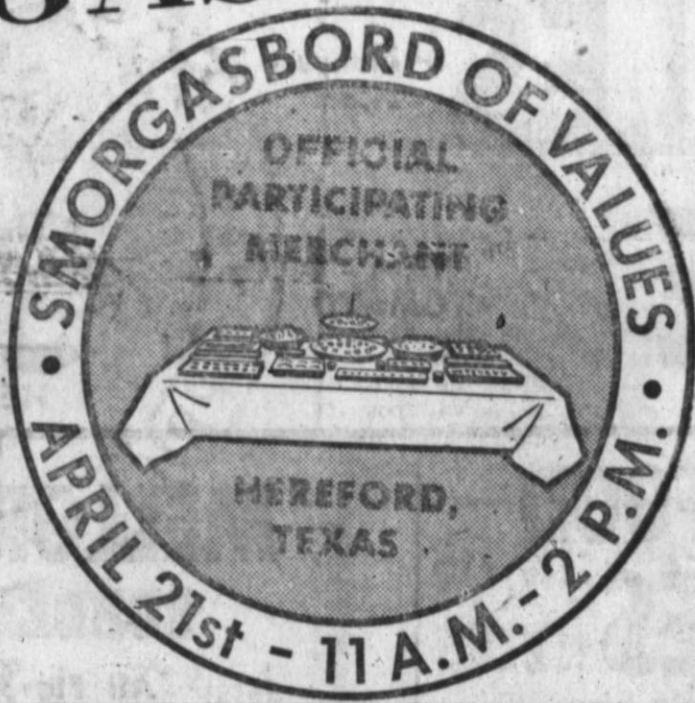

A booklet describing the variety of programs available - films, talks, lecture-demonstrations, telephone tours - is yours for the asking. Just call the telephone business office, EM 4-1000.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

It's Spring, And Baseballs Fill The Air

Monday was THE day for all of Hereford's young, aspiring baseball players. That was the day they start workouts for the summer program. And what seemed like thousands, although it was just a couple of hundred, swarmed over Dameron Park to throw and catch. Some had sparkling new gloves, others carried well-worn ones. While the little ones tried hard just to catch a ball, the "old pros" of 11 and 12 worked seriously on pitching from digging hot grounders out of the grass with studied nonchalance.

Hundreds of boys, 8 to 12, fill the park for Little League try-outs.

Some throw, others eye the competition.

Hold Annual Athletic Banquet

BY MRS. R. L. PINNELL

The Adrian High School's annual athletic banquet was held Friday night in the school cafeteria, sponsored by the parents and teachers. Master of ceremonies was Paul Robertson, newly-elected president of the PTA.

He introduced the guest speaker for the evening, Hatcher Brown of the West Texas State College athletic department.

The tables were decorated with maroon and white, the school colors. The head table was decorated with trophies won through the years by Matador athletes.

Invocation was given by Sidney Blankenship. The menu included ham, baked potatoes, salad, green beans, beets, strawberry shotcake and coffee.

After Brown's talk, coach Jim Clark introduced the junior high girls team members. They are Phyllis Heaton, Linda Pridmore, Jolene Betts, Doris Horton, Myrna Zarling, Ina Sue Ferguson, Linda Pinnell and Suzette Sisk.

High school girls who lettered include Gail Brown, Sue Johnson, Betty Frasier, Peggy Sifford, Glenda Homfeld, Michele Hayes, Madeline Weidner, Paula Creitz, Kathy Kromer, Donna Brownlee, Phyllis Peters, Sue Brownlee, Coralee Fortenberry and manager Linda Gruhlkey.

Coach Don Johnson then introduced his junior high boys: George Harwood, Ricky Gruhlkey, Tommy Loveless, Carroll Weidner, David Whitten, Bucky Clark, Mack Fortenberry, Mike Horton, Billy Perry and James Whaley.

The "Mr. Rebound of 1961" trophy went to Bill Gudge. "Mr. Defense" award went to Sidney Blankenship. Gary James was presented an appreciation trophy, entitled, "Manager of the Year."

Hubert Bronniman was crowned basketball king by Glenda Homfeld. Gail Brown was crowned basketball queen by Bill Gudge.

Ricky Gruhlkey gave the benediction. Adrian boys were named volleyball winners of District 1B after defeating Channing at Hartley Saturday night. Boys participating were Sam Brown, Jerry Homfeld, Hubert Bronniman, Sidney Blankenship, Harvey Bronniman and Bill Gudge. The boys won in a best-of-three series.

A special assembly was held at Walcott School Friday morning. "Unchained Frontier," produced for the American National Bank of Amarillo by KGNC's Farm and Ranch Dept., was shown. It starred Jill Russell of Liberal, Kan., who was chosen the 1960 Wheatheart of the Nation at Perryton, Director and narrator was Cotton John, and photographer was Bill Rhew. The United States and Canada have long had lasting peace and friendly ease in crossing the border either way, the film explained. Niagara Falls is a sight to behold, the narrator said. Other Canada stops were: Toronto, Montreal, Quebec City, etc. Then back in New England the historic spots in Boston and New York were shown.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bass and Charles spent Friday night with his brother, Wayne Bass, in Shamrock. On Saturday they visited her father, Ed Whipkey, at Mayfield, Okla. That night they stayed with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bass, at Texola, Okla. After a pleasant weekend, they returned home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Collins had dinner and visited Sunday in the home of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Read, Eloyce and Mike in Amarillo. Her step-mother, Mrs. P. M. Read of Kingham, Kan., was visiting in the Read home also.

Mrs. O. M. Read came home that evening with the Collins family for an overnight visit. On Monday she visited Walcott School and had lunch in the cafeteria. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Read drove out from Amarillo for her during the noon hour. She then returned to Kansas.

Joe Monroe was a year old on April 1, and Thornton Monroe was two years old on Saturday. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Monroe, Tom and Paul and these boys went to Clovis, N. M., on Saturday to visit their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Monroe. Mrs. Elsie Howell of Fort Sumner, N. M., met them there and accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Buel Monroe and family, home for a visit until Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rader and Mrs. Marvin Payne of Hereford drove to Littlefield on Sunday afternoon to attend the funeral of Mrs. Elvie Harrison of Spade, a friend who was killed in a car wreck. The Church of Christ in Littlefield was where the funeral was held. They visited her mother, Mrs. J. M. Thomas, in Littlefield that afternoon.

Assembly was held at Walcott School on Wednesday morning. Thomas L. Collins read Psalms 148. Four films were shown. "Marine Land" was taken in Florida. The law of the sea is like the law of the jungle: each animal depends on other animals to survive, the film pointed out. Various kinds, colors and sizes of fish were shown in their natural habitat. "How Nature Protects Animals" showed each animal has the color or shape to blend with its surrounding or has a form of defense to protect itself. "The Avalanche" was filmed by the U. S. Forest Service in a national forest in Utah. Here the beauty and fun of much snow was contrasted by its dangers. "An Arctic Adventure," another film produced for the American National Bank by the KGNC Farm and Ranch Department for the entertainment of the people on the Golden Spread with Bill Rhew as photographer and Cotton John as director and narrator, was shown. The interesting totem poles for which Alaska is famous are really records of family history and not forms of worship, it was explained. Blanket toss sure looked like real fun and entertainment for those watching in the frozen land beyond the Arctic Circle.

Fishing is still a major industry of Alaska but not as important as in past years, the film said. Noisy fur seals gave a last farewell. Sitka is a city of contrast, showing ancient Russia and Modern America. Juneau, capital of Alaska, Nome, Point Barrow, Fairbanks, Parnier and Anchorage has the world's busiest air terminal.

The next P.T.O. meeting will be on Friday night, April 21, at 8 p.m. The fifth and sixth grades are busy working on two plays, "Princess and the Rose Colored Glasses" and "Just as Strong," and to present them. Bring sandwiches for refreshments.

Walcott's School Board met Tuesday night to get themselves organized. Glenn Burrus will serve as president, G. V. Hall as secretary and Jim Monroe as a member. Thomas L. Collins, principal, was present.

Educational Building At Dawn Church Is Dedicated

Dedication services were held Sunday at the Dawn Baptist Church for the new $16,000 educational building. Homecoming was observed as part of the activities of the day and guests from Amarillo, Canyon, Way-side, Dumas, Hereford and Oklahoma City were present.

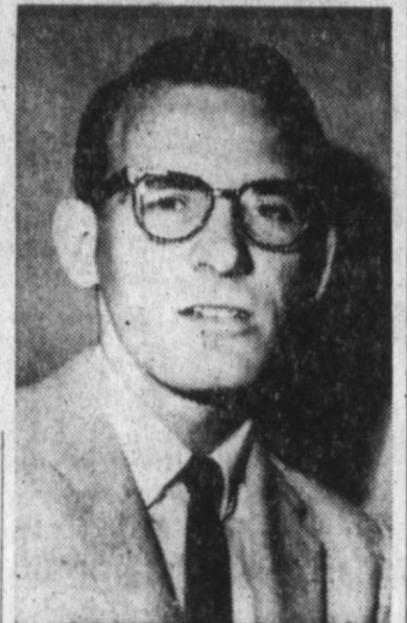

Special services of the afternoon were directed by the Rev. Charles Davenport, pastor. The invocation was given by A. A. Burnett, an Amarillo missionary for the Amarillo Baptist Association. The Rev. Strauss Atkinson, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Canyon delivered the dedication sermon.

Mrs. R. T. Stewart directed the music.

The Dawn Church was the outgrowth of the Sunday School organized in 1940 by the Rev. Clarence Wyle of Canyon Presbyterian Sunday School Missionary. In late 1942 a group of local Baptists asked and received permission from the First Baptist Church in Hereford to establish a self-supporting mission from the Hereford Church. The Rev. Hardy Stevens, a student at W.T.S.C., was called as pastor.

On September 12, 1943, a church was organized with 27 charter members, 21 of whom were from the First Baptist Church in Hereford. Seven of the charter members still remain. These are Mrs. L. M.

Rev. Charles Davenport
... church pastor

Harris, Mrs. N. R. Miller, Walter Lemons, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Lemons and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wimberley.

Construction was begun in October 1945 on the sanctuary on land which was donated by W. E. Neal of Amarillo. The building was occupied in April 1946. The meetings had been held in the Dawn School until that time. The building for the parsonage was purchased in 1946.

From the beginning of the mission, emphasis was placed on systematic giving and tithing; and the church has operated on an approved budget and well-rounded program of giving. Incomplete records of the years of 1943-1960 show gifts to missions totaling $14,990.49. The total budget for these years was $126,684.41. The church property is valued at more than $50,000.

Present deacons of the church are William Wimberley, H. S. Fuller Sr., Carl Wimberley, Edgar Lemons and R. T. Stewart.

The program committee for the dedication was composed of Reece Stewart, Mrs. R. L. Johnson, Mrs. R. T. Stewart, Rea Cox and Mrs. Walter Lemons.

On the publicity and history committee were Mrs. Carl Wimberley, Mrs. C. C. Stewart and Mrs. Edgar Lemons.

ROTARIANS CERTIFIED

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Tucson Rotarians carry their small pox vaccination certificates now when crossing the Mexico border.

Recently 76 of them had to be vaccinated again when they crossed into Mexico for a one day trip. They'd left their certificates behind and immigration authorities insisted on giving them the shots.

WITH A STRONG EFFORT, Dennis Hodges of Hereford cleared nine feet in the District 1-AAA track meet at Amarillo Saturday. But that wasn't nearly good enough as Hereford failed to place in any event. (Staff Photo)

Hereford Fails To Place In District 1-AAA Track Meet

BY WAIN MILLER

Hereford High School tracksters failed to place in the District 1-AAA field meet held Saturday at Dick Bivins Stadium in Amarillo.

Dumas amassed a handsome total of 220 2/3 points to run away with the district track title. Far behind came Littlefield with 93 1/2 marks for second honors, followed in turn by Levelland, Phillips and Hereford.

Out of six scheduled meets for the Whitefaces during the season, the weatherman afforded little corporation by cancelling all but the Amarillo Relays and the District meet. He was slow to help Saturday, also, with cold winds greeting cindermen Saturday morning. Finally conceding, however, near-perfect weather prevailed during the afternoon.

Six District 1-AAA records were discarded during the finals, five replaced by Dumas efforts, and one rewritten by a Levelland relay team.

Fourth place was the best the Hereford squad was allowed by the record-setting competitors, in any event.

Jerry Curtsinger and Austin Hodges cleared five-four to tie each other for fourth place in district high jumping. Roy Sage of Levelland jumped five-seven for first. Dennis Hodges of Hereford scaled five-two for fifth place.

Mack Cansler turned in a 10.4 hundred to place third in his heat during preliminaries. Cansler placed sixth in the finals, with Charles Dean from Dumas setting a new district mark event in 9.8 seconds.

Cansler again placed third in the preliminaries, this time in the 220. Dean again won first in the finals, removing Cansler to sixth.

Johnny Welty was the only other Herdsman to qualify for finals. Welty took second in the 440 prelims with a time of 54.3. Shortening the time to 53.6 in the finals, Welty ranked fifth. Demon Jerry Collier paced out a 51.1 to score first place.

Out of a field of 13, Ronnie Welty placed sixth and Austin Hodges eighth in the 880-yard run. Setting a new record, Billy Slaton of Dumas clocked 2:01.9 in the event.

In the 440 relay, a team composed of Dennis Hodges, Charles Kelly, Butch Walters, and Mack Cansler ranked fifth. A Dumas squad reset the record for the relay at 44.1.

Levelland cinderman clocked 3:28.6 to revamp the mile relay mark, as Ronnie Welty, Randy Dowell, Jerry Curtsinger, and Johnny Welty formed the fifth place Hereford team.

Unable to qualify for the finals in the 100-yard dash were Charles Kelly, running 10.5, and Fred Martin in 11.1. Butch Walters had the misfortune of tripping only yards short of the finish line while running fourth place in the 220.

Extraordinarily strong opposition and lack of experience added up to limit Hereford to only six and one-sixth points in Saturday's rare outing. Totals for other district teams read Dumas, 220 2/3; Levelland, 89 1/6; Littlefield, 93 1/2; and Phillips with 75 5/6 points.

LOCKPORT, N. Y. (AP) — His station wagon is becoming a repository for other people's purchases, Douglas Stuart complained to police.

He returned to his car recently, he explained, to find two rolls of heavy duty rope and a claw bar inside. A few months earlier, he discovered $45 worth of groceries in the car.

Stuart said he located the owner of the groceries. Now he would like to find the owner of the rope and tool.

Senior Play Set For April 24-25

Climaxing five weeks of rehearsals, and four years of high school dramatics, the Senior class presents "Smilin' Through" as the annual production of the graduating class.

"Smilin' Through" will run Monday and Tuesday, April 24-25, beginning at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium. Advanced tickets are available from any senior, and tickets will also be sold at the door.

This Broadway hit by Allan Langdon Martin contains a stirring meaning of love and loyalty, blended with joyous laughter and dispirited tears. Although the drama does have a somewhat serious theme, it contains an ample amount of side-splitting antics.

When events aren't "smiling through" too well for her pending romance with the boy who is dispirited by her uncle, young Kathleen finally declares that it is a cruel world!

"Somebody's always loving somebody they have no right to love, and as soon as they tell you you can't have someone, that is the person you have to have," wails heart-broken Kathleen.

And then, to the astonishment of many, she finishes by acknowledging, "It's a darn nuisance — this love business." As Cupid returns, however, she is soon to change her mind again.

The seniors have spent many weeks in preparation for their coming production of "Smilin' Through."

Often neglected in the mentioning of dramatic productions are the people backstage who make things ready-for-the-actor's acclaimed roles. Without sets, lights, costumes, make-up, and music, the actors might find themselves "up the creek without a paddle."

Not only are acting talents essential in "Smilin' Through," but seniors had to call out their carpenters, painters, seamstresses, and musicians to get this show on the road.

In charge of all this is Bobby King, stage manager. Assisting him with the sets are Frank Dutton, Charles Burrus, Ronnie Botkin, and Charles Thomas, along with the masculine portion of the cast. Some of their artistic abilities may be noted in the flowers on the garden wall. (Painted of course.)

The girls were assigned the more tedious task of sewing the huge transparent curtain which was needed, and making the artificial flowers from tissue paper, which adorn the garden in which the entire play is staged. These pains-taking girls included Paula Moore, Sandy Blythe, Pam Clay, Joy Wiman, along with the cast members.

Robert Bell has charge of lighting and sound effects.

Tommie Kay Robinson will furnish organ music during the play. The theme song, "Smilin' Through," was written especially for the Broadway production.

Because of the nature of this drama, actors and actresses are called upon to portray character with more emphasis than in "slapstick comedy." Many changes in mood

Scholarship For NHS Announced

National Honor Society members were told on April 13 that the Kiwanis Club had decided to sponsor the society and that every year a senior in the society would be presented with a $250 scholarship. The society has been selling candy for the past few weeks in order to give three members small scholarship funds.

Jess Robinson, Kiwanis president, attended the meeting and presented all the details that were available. "We are very glad to be of assistance to students and especially to the 'cream of the crop,'" Mr. Robinson told the group.

In an attempt to help students become better acquainted with the many various careers available, Hereford High School, in coordination with the Kiwanis Club, will sponsor the fifth annual "Career Day" at Hereford High School Friday.

People from approximately 23 varied walks of life will visit with students to explain the assets, requirements, and rewards of their chosen profession.

Students Like Career Day

Some of the sophomores, juniors and seniors were asked their opinions of the Career Day to be held in Hereford High School on Friday, April 21.

Judy Fowlkes — I believe Career Day is very helpful if the students are really interested, but for most it's just a good way to get out of school.

Lavonne Thompson — Career Day is a very good idea. It is interesting to learn the basic facts on the different careers.

Jimmy Kassahn — I think I'll like it because we get out of school.

Shari Prowell — I enjoyed it very much last year and I think it helps you find out what you would like to do.

Brenda Beasley — I think that Career Day is very good and can help you a lot.

very interesting.

Audni Miller — I am looking forward to Career Day very much. I am glad to have the opportunity to learn more about careers in many fields.

and emotion occur, placing added strain on the part of the people on stage.

Edwin Thomas is cast as John Carteret. At first glance, Carteret appears to be a "bitter" old man, holding a meaningless grudge against young Kenneth Wayne, providing the plot for "Smilin' Through."

James Gentry fills the part of young, gay, John Carteret on his wedding night 50 years before in a reminiscent "flash-back" occurring during the second act.

Cherry Holt is cast as Moon-vean Claire, the girl John was to marry during his youth.

Sam Saul portrays Jeremiah Wayne, who, in a rage of drunken jealousy, commits the unforgivable sin so long remembered by John Carteret.

Jerry Clark acts as young Dr. Owen, the poor best man who is more of a nervous wreck than the patient groom. Ken Betzen takes over the part of old Doc Owen, who remains as John Carteret's best friend, when they are on speaking terms, that is!

Kathleen, the young "Irish Juliet," is enacted by Sandra Moore, complete with accent. Clint Conaway characterizes innocent Willie Ainley, who is completely unaware of the fact that he is fighting a lost cause in his lasting love for Kathleen. Franklin Watkins appears as Kenneth Wayne, who along with Kathleen must bear the blunt end of the hate existing between John Carteret and Jeremiah Wayne.

Understanding Ellen is played by Ruth Wagoner as the young Ellen, and Karen Sue Davis as the older lady.

Carol Sneed and Kylene Hodges appear as spirits to expose the precarious state of affairs in the play's plot during the opening prologue.

"Smilin' Through" is under the direction of Miss Delores Wall, senior sponsor. The drama opens Monday night at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

According to Miss Wall, all seniors are participating in the production either by acting, or working on the crew, or selling tickets, or all three.

supper in Friona on April 13. The Friona FFA chapters invited the girls so that they could become better acquainted. Approximately 200 girls and mothers attended the supper. A group of FFA girls sang "Mother" and "He Taught Me How To Pray." A minstrel show and group singing was conducted for the remainder of the evening.

The formal installation of new officers is to be conducted in the high school auditorium on April 20.

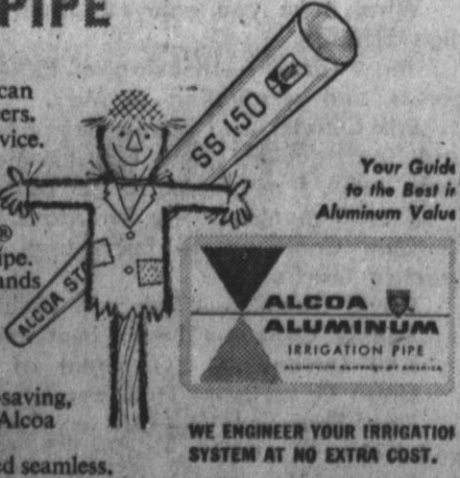

As a national project each year, red roses are planted on the west and east sides of the high school. Pat Ranspot, Helen Hoffman, and Sharon Bezner dug the holes for the planting of the roses. Patsy Campbell, Maribeth Gililand, Judy Rowland, Terry Smith, Terry Anderson, Joyce West, Glenda Furman, Cecilia Wilhelm, and Phyllis Bezner participated in the rose planting ceremony held during activity period on April 24.

These projects can be applied to degree work.

Jimmy Reinauer — I don't think the talks given by the different people are too informative. I think we already know the answers to most of the questions answered by these people. However, I think it will help sophomores a great deal.

Bill Steele — What I've heard of it, it seems like a good thing. You get to learn a little about something you're interested in.

Tommie Kay Robinson — I think Career Day is fine, and if we use it in the right way it is a great advantage. I wish we had more fields from which to choose with more qualified speakers.

Mack Cansler — I think it is very educational and helps someone who doesn't know what he wants to be in life to decide.

ning to enter another field. Homemaking will always benefit her and the people around her," stated Miss Loreta Fowler, assistant home demonstration agent.

Miss Fowler will head the study group on homemaking on April 21, "Career Day" at Hereford High.

One of the reasons that Miss Fowler chose homemaking in school was that her mother was a good homemaker and she wanted to be one also. After taking it in high school, she became more interested in it, which ultimately led her to her present position.

Miss Fowler majored in music and homemaking at West Texas State. She decided that homemaking offered her many more satisfying opportunities than music.

Her work as assistant home demonstration agent is primarily with 4-H club members. This work combines teaching techniques and guidance with organized skills. In this profession she is doing two of the professions that she considered — teaching and home demonstration work.

"Being a country girl, I love to get outside. This work gives me many opportunities to get back to the 'wide open spaces,'" Miss Fowler commented.

Some of the different fields of work available to home economics majors are teaching, home advisors for public utilities, or work in research kitchens. Miss Fowler also plans to discuss the formal education required and many other interesting subjects in her group on Career Day.

Having had trouble in deciding the profession from which to choose, Miss Fowler believes that a Career Day such as Hereford High is planning would have been of great help to her in making that decision.

"Each of us have many interests and there are many professions that would be right for us. I think, with the help of people who are happy in their professions to give guidance and counseling, many graduates would not have to spend their first years out of school in search of the right profession for them," commented Miss Fowler on the importance of a Career Day.

Pharmacy Described

By Kenneth Coker
Mr. Kenneth Coker, pharmacist at the City Drug in Hereford, will be teaching pharmacy on Career Day, April 21.

He says that in his speech to the students, he will cover the advantages and disadvantages of practicing pharmacy, and also the opportunities it offers in other fields besides in the retail drug store. He says he thinks Career Day is a good idea because it gives the students a chance to learn something about careers before they decide which field they want to go into.

Mr. Coker has had a four-year course in college, plus one year of practicing pharmacy after which he obtained his license. He has been practicing for thirteen years in Hereford.

Mrs. Steele Tells Of Modeling Jobs

Mrs. Joe Steele of Hereford is going to explain modeling on Career Day in H.H.S.

In her speech she plans to include such information as: the age to start modeling, the schooling needed, the possibilities for job placement, and the money made.

Mrs. Steele says the information and training gained from modeling will also help you in every day life.

Mrs. Steele took a six-weeks course from a branch of the Pat Stevens School of Modeling at Lubbock. Then she was a professional model for seven years.

Mrs. Plank Says Art Is Rewarding

"I feel that art contributes to personal fulfillment and adds to the development of a high quality of citizenship; that art is a creative process. If there were no art, there would be nothing to urge people on to explore, to experiment or to learn," commented Mrs. Earl Plank, one of the career conference leaders for Career Day at Hereford High School. Mrs. Plank will discuss employment opportunities in the field of art and co-related types of work.

Mrs. Plank's paintings hang in several states and in Canada. She has exhibited with the Hereford Art Guild at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo and Texas State Fair. She has sent paintings on invitation to the Art Directions Gallery in New York City and to the Water Color Society of Alabama at Birmingham, Ala.

Mrs. Plank is a member of the Hereford Art Guild, the National Art Education Association, the American Craftsmen's Council and the Texas Art Education Association. At present Mrs. Plank is a private instructor, teaching art classes for both children and adults.

On Career Day Mrs. Plank plans to discuss art and the related types of work, such as architecture, mechanical engineering, landscaping, photography, crafts, fashion design, industrial design, cartoons, interior decoration, film arts, academic work, sculpture, commercial art, retailing home furnishings, retailing fashions, theater and stage, radio and T.V., cartography and art as an occupational therapy.

A special interest table will be set up containing materials in the form of pictures, books, periodicals and journals, pertaining to the various occupational fields.

Advantages and disadvantages of these various professions will be discussed; also qualifications and scholastic requirements, basic aptitudes and interests, training facilities, employment opportunities, classification and remuneration and possibilities for men and women in certain fields. Mrs. Plank states, "The graduate student of art is not limited to any certain fields open to him, many of which are extremely lucrative."

Interior Designing Told by Mrs. Revel

Mrs. W. D. Revel will discuss interior decorating on Career Day, Friday, April 21. She has worked as an interior decorator for a number of years. She graduated from Tom S. Lubbock High School in Lubbock and received her degree from Texas Tech with home

Prospecting

...has been part of the American Romance — always frontiers that beckon — the pot of gold at the foot of the rainbow. Forever the call of the wild; the mountain to climb; the vision for change, for movement, for progress... a stake in copper, silver, gold, oil and uranium. We owe those prospectors much.

They blazed the paths, those harbingers of wealth, civilization and culture. We are their successors but our vision differs. We must prospect for even greater good... for a new mountain pass from one country, one people, to another. We seek the gold of mutual understanding. We look for land where the new order of the ages may grow. Our Kingdom of the future must be the Kingdom of God, where love, joy and peace, will be the precious values. The Book of Books and your church offer information and inspiration for this new challenge.

Whiteface Whims

(By Whiteface Staff)

There's a Texas yarn about the woman who called her husband and asked, "Will you please get the car out Tex, and drive the kids to the back yard so they can play?"

One man said to another,
"We are a non-profit organization. We don't mean to be, but we are."

Little Tommie took a long look at the old man and asked,
"Were you in the Ark, Grandpa, when the flood came?"
"No, certainly not," replied the aged man.

"Then why weren't you drowned?"

"I just ran over your rooster," said the tourist, "but I am willing to replace him."
"Fine," replied the farmer,
"let's hear you crow."

If your wife wants to learn to drive, don't stand in her way!

In her lecture the teacher said, "Iceland is about as large as Siam."
In his notebook Willie wrote,
"Iceland is about as large as Teacher."

"The best way to get a job done," says Gary Moore, "is to give it to a busy man. He'll have his secretary do it."

I sent my boy to college
And nothing did he lack;
I spent ten thousand dollars
And got a quarterback.

Ideal Boy

Audni Miller's ideal boy would be as handsome as Gary Tanna-hill and as cute as Jimmy Kassahn. He would have eyes like Grady Persons, hair like Dan McDowell, and a nose like Charles Kelley. His teeth would be like David Dowell's, and his mouth like Troy Don Moore's.

His physique would be like Mack Cansler's. He would be as mannerly as Ken Walser and as much fun as Jimmy Reinauer.
He would have to be as daring
as Jim Barnett.

He would be as neat as Bill
Miller and as well dressed as Ronnie Gray. He would walk like Dickie Bob Mason. He would have a smile like Austin

Jim Pavlick. Jackie Oldham

NO TIME or MILEAGE LIMIT

Should tire fail for any reason, you get a new tire, with full credit for unused mileage, based on Gates standard adjustment schedule.

It's a fact—proved by 10 million road test miles—that Gates new nylon tire of low profile design delivers 25% to 30% more miles than 1st line conventional nylon tires.

Even though this tire delivers many more thousands of miles, it does not cost you one cent more than you'd pay for a conventional 1st line tire. So you actually save 25¢ on every tire dollar!

The reason for this remarkable increase in mileage is interesting. The tire is lower, wider—closer to the true shape of a running tire. Sides flex less; tire runs cooler; tread scuffs less. You get more mileage—and a big saving in tire costs!

Plan Seminar On Alcoholism

(By Whiteface Staff)

Sooner or later in almost every home the problem of whether or not to drink comes up. Against that day, every parent should know the basic facts about alcohol and where its dangers lie. On Wednesday, May 3, school will be dismissed so that the teachers may attend a seminar on teaching and educating today's youth about alcohol.

The meeting is open to the public and Bill Hardwick, director of the seminar, will emphasize the importance of knowing the facts about alcohol and its effects. Knowledge about alcohol is a safeguard to the lives of all.

Teen-agers are in danger unless their parents know the facts. Knowledge in many cases can prevent a family tragedy. It is a parent's duty to impress his children with the knowledge that drinking is no sign of manliness and certainly not of womanliness.

The knowledge that alcohol is potentially dangerous could keep people from falling prey to the excesses which destroy so many lives today. The danger lies in the fact that it is so widely accepted and used, that people lose sight of the fact that it can be a dangerous drug.

The executive director of the Texas Commission on Alcoholism, Frank Campbell, will be the principal speaker. His profession is public education. Accompanying him from his home in Austin will be an associate from the Commission.

Since alcoholism affects so many people and so many families in communities everywhere, it is a health problem which deserves the intelligent attention of all. The nature and problems of alcoholism are better understood today than ever before.

With increased understanding and united community effort it will be possible for everyone to know the facts about alcoholism and to overcome the prejudices and superstitions that have been linked with the disease.

Swiss Film At Recent Assembly

(By Whiteface Staff)

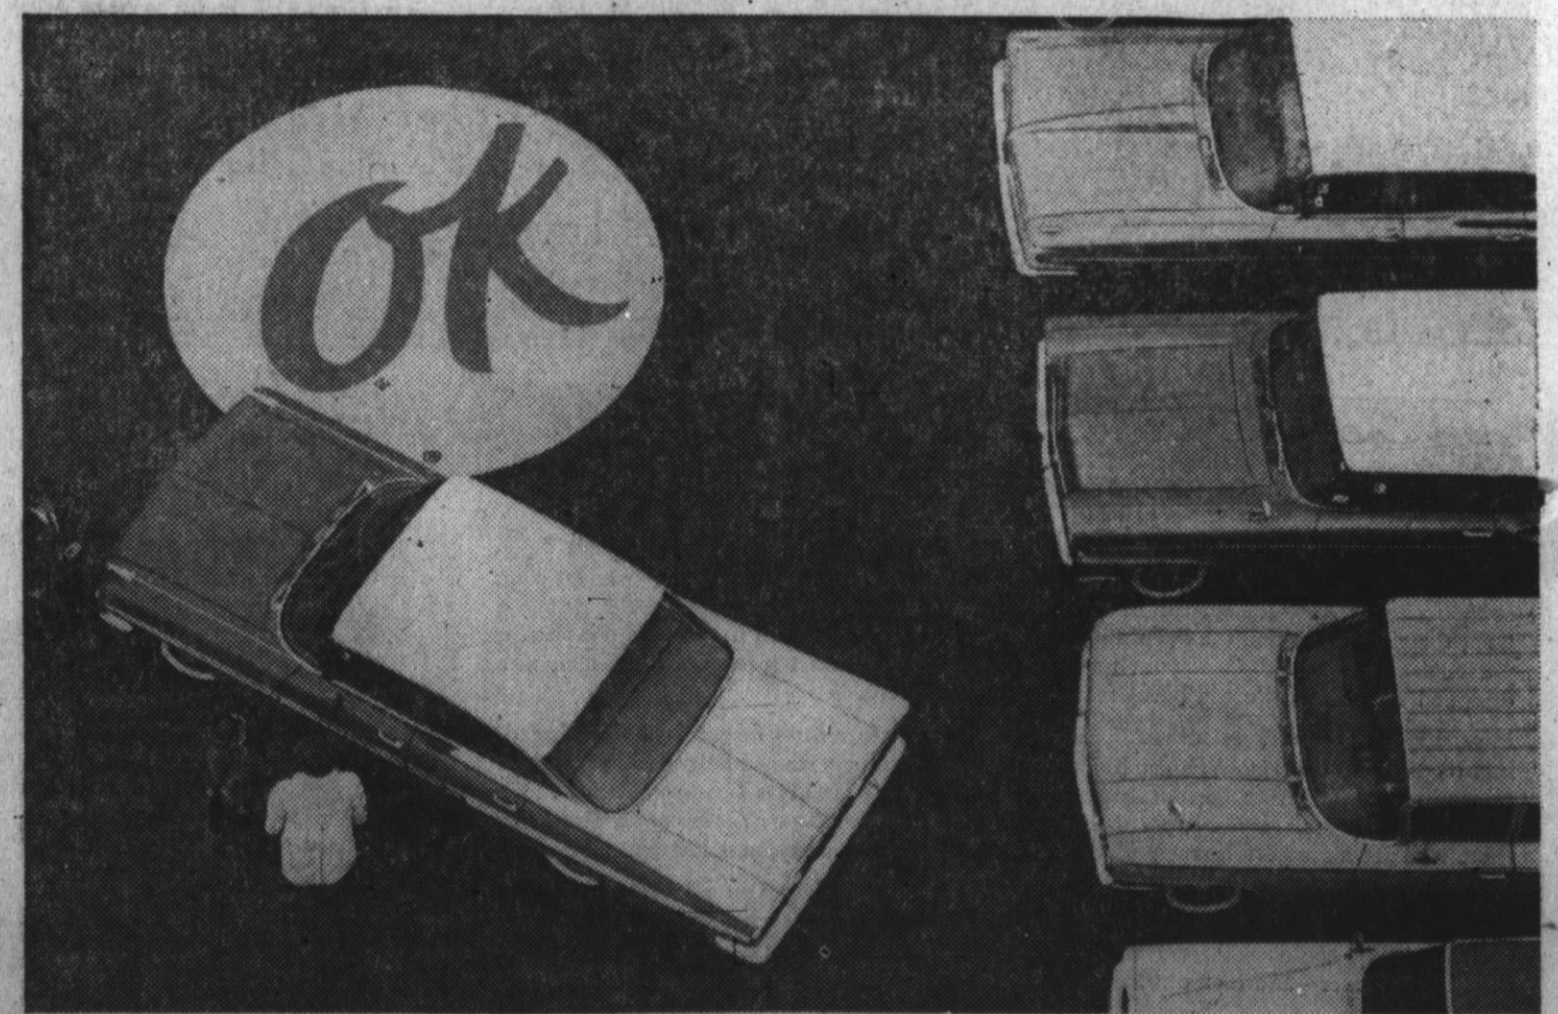

"It gave a picture of all the customs that are still alive. Especially in mountain countries or cantons, but not so much in my part of the country," commented Heidi Rutishauser about the film, "Colorful Switzerland." The film, which showed many of the customs still used in Switzerland, was shown in assembly Tuesday, April 11.

According to Heidi, the folk music and the customs shown in the film are typical among the country people, especially the grandparents. Teenagers prefer music more like teenagers here listen to.

The film, sent from the Swiss National Tourist office in New York, was shown for the purpose of acquainting the students more with the country from which Heidi comes. Of special interest to some of the students of Hereford High School were the colorful costumes and the typical Swiss music.

Stanton Junior High School's eighth grade cindermen earned first place in the Golden Spread Conference track meet held Saturday in Plainview.

Taking the championship with flying colors, the tracksters racked up five firsts, four seconds, and broke one conference record for a total of 128 7/12 points.

Kenny Justice discarded the old record mark for the 75-yard dash in favor of his time of 8.3 seconds, for a new conference record. Justice and Stanton's Johnny Dowd shared honors for high-point man in the conference with 25 points each.

Following Hereford's winning total of 128 7/12 points, came Coronado of Plainview with 116 points for second honors. Plainview's Estacado trailed with 106. Levelland had 97 3/4, and Littlefield managed only five markers.

Winning first in the 50-yard sprint was Kenny Justice with a mark of 5.8 seconds. Dan Thomas stepped across in fifth position.

Justice again took first place with his record-breaking run of 8.3 in the 75. Placing third was Gary Roberson. Justice placed second in 100-yard dash with a time of 11 flat. Winning third was Johnny Dowd, and sixth went to Johnny Allen.

Allen's time of 25.1 earned him second place in the 220 dash. Second place in the 440 relay was taken by Dan Thomas, Johnny Dowd, Gary Roberson, and Lynn Warren in 51.9 seconds. The same relay team won fourth place in the 880 medley relay.

Dick Rogers took first place in the shot put event with a heave of 40' 13". Dowd placed third with 39' 10".

Lynn Warren and Gilbert Sims tied for fifth place in the high jump contest. Lynn Cook sailed 5' 11" to capture fourth place in the broad jump. Gary Roberson took sixth.

Johnny Dowd won first place in the discus throw by tossing 129' 11". Dick Rogers threw for second, and Lynn Cook won fifth.

Gilbert Sims tied for first place in the pole vault as Dan Thomas also tied for the fourth position.

Following the 28 points of Dowd and Justice, scoring went as follows: Dan Thomas, 11 1/3; Gary Roberson, 13; Johnny Allen, 8; Dick Rogers, 18; Lynn Warren, 7 1/2; Gilbert Sims, 10 1/4; and Lynn Cook with six points.

Stanton's eighth graders attended only two meets this year. Coached by Jerry Don George, the Dogies returned with top honors at both the conference meet and a dual contest with Dimmitt.

REP. WALTER ROGERS WRITES

Study Changing Laws For Nation's Narcotics Users

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT:

A number of doctors had discussed with me the possibility of a Federal law providing free clinical treatment for drug addicts. Their point was that by doing away with the huge profit to illegal dealers, the narcotic problem could be substantially reduced.

They explained to me that the actual cost of the drugs was infinitesimal. Hence, they argued that if the hopeless addicts and those who were still within the realm of being cured, could obtain free treatment, the cost to the government would be far less than the present cost of enforcement of criminal laws applicable in such cases.

They further argued that such a program, by destroying the illegal and high profits, would leave these illicit dealers without customers and therefore destroy them. Other points raised were to the effect that such a program would help to solve much of the crime that was being committed by addicts for the purpose of obtaining sufficient money to pay the high prices exacted for the illegal drugs. Also, that once the program got under way the present addicts would not be trying to get new customers for the dealers who were supplying them.

These doctors felt that the more rigid criminal laws which have been adopted in recent years would not get to the root of the problem because it was primarily a health problem.

I wrote to the American Medical Association and asked for the views of that group on this subject. This organization advised me on March 29th that its Council on Mental Health did not believe that the problem of narcotic addiction could be solved merely by removing "the profit to the dealer," and that such approach to the problem by some physicians was mistakenly interpreted as that of the American Medical Association. The Association advised that a study was being made of the possible substitution of civil actions rather than criminal actions with relation to the commitment of addicts.

It recommended that where civil commitment procedures could be used, criminal sentences for addicts who are guilty only of illegally obtaining and possessing opiates, marijuana and cocaine should be abolished. It also recommended that criminal sentences for illegal sale of narcotics should be retained but persons who are addicts and who are sentenced for such offenses should have the same opportunity for probation and parole as is afforded offenders against other laws.

A joint committee of the American Bar Association and the American Medical Association studied the problem and this study was the subject of an editorial in the Jan. 31, 1959, issue of the Journal of the American Medical Association. In that editorial it was stated as follows:

"The situation in Europe differs from that in the United States in at least three ways: the number of known addicts is much smaller than in the United States, so the problem is far less acute; the penalties provided for persons convicted of violation of the narcotic laws are far less severe than those provided by our recent laws; there is more disposition on the part of the legal authorities to regard the problem as a primarily medical one and to turn a larger portion of it over to the doctors."

This observation was the result of a study of the European situation which was, no doubt, prompted by the fact that proponents of the clinic plan had argued that the United Kingdom has only a very minor problem of opiate addiction, primarily due to the fact that there was no artificial barrier between the physician and the addict; that is, in England it is possible for a physician to maintain an addict on narcotics under certain circumstances.

The joint ABA-AMA report was clearly skeptical that there was an easy solution along the lines of clinical distribution of drugs, but indicated that they were tempted by the possibility of a limited experiment conducted by experts to shed more light on this important aspect of the problem. The editorial referred to in the Medical Journal advocated an extension of the medical attack on the narcotic problem by the establishment of outpatient clinics devoted to the problem in the centers of population where addiction is prevalent.

There is much more that could be said on this subject, but time and space will not permit here. I did want to call it to your attention because of its gravity. It is a responsibility which we in this country must face. We should not be disheartened by the progress that we have made; however, our progress must be increased. During World War I it was discovered in Selective Service examinations that there was one addict in 1,500 draftees. During World War II this rate was approximated at one in 10,000 draftees. This is considerable progress; but I am sure all of you join with me in the hope that the percentage can be reduced much more.

Senior Class Personalities

(By Whiteface Staff)

"Before you make a decision, view all possible facts both for and against the issue." is the advice Barbara Tiefert gives to all underclassmen. Barbara, an 18-year-old senior, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Tiefert. She was born in Oklahoma City and now lives at 124 Ave. J.

Barbara, whose hobby is music and painting, and whose pastime is sewing, admits her secret ambition has always been to go to Hong Kong.

Some of her favorites are: food, barbecue; color, dark blue; movie, "A Man Called Peter"; book, "War and Peace"; and song, "Medicine." Barbara says her favorite teacher is Mr. Virgil Young. She even admits her pet peeve which is two-faced people.

She laughingly remembers her most embarrassing moment as when she fell into a cactus bush at Palo Duro Canyon.

When asked her opinion of Hereford High, Barbara said, "Since it's the only school I've ever gone to, it's my favorite."

After graduating from high school, Dorothy Stewart plans to attend Baylor University. She chooses this college because it is the only college in Texas that has a four year nursing plan with a Bachelor of Science degree. Dorothy was born on April 28, 1943, to Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Stewart at Clovis, N. M. They moved to Hereford when she was two weeks old.

Dorothy went to school at Dawn through the sixth grade. She is glad she attends a large high school because "there are more courses offered, and you have a better chance to have competition in school work."

Dorothy thinks going steady is fine if you're going with the right boy. The only secret ambition she has is a favorite of most girls — to get married.

Dorothy has had a lot of fun during her high school days. Looking back she advises all underclassmen to study hard and get the most out of high school. If she were a freshman starting over, she would take more math and study must a little harder. She thinks Hereford High School could be better, and if she had anything to say about it, the seniors would have more privileges.

(Dorothy is a member of the Future Nurses of America.) She would like to be a nurse because she likes the opportunities and you can help people that way. She is superstitious about starting anything on Friday that cannot be finished. Dorothy plays the piano and she enjoys listening to music. Her favorite song is "You Are the Only One."

The best advice ever given to her was by her mother. It was "Anything worth having is worth waiting for and working for."

"When you graduate from Hereford High School you are considered to be better qualified for college than from schools of other localities," states Sylvia Sparks on behalf of H. S. Sylvia is the 17-year-old daughter of Mrs. Leatrice Sparks.

Sylvia's hobby is oil painting, but since she has no time for it during school, it has to be confined to summer vacation. She enjoys painting because it is relaxing. She doesn't paint just one particular kind of subject, but anything that happens to be handy.

As for choosing a favorite movie, Sylvia promptly said that "A Man Called Peter" was hers. She likes French fried steak and the color blue. She doesn't have a particularly favorite song, but classical music is what she enjoys listening to. Her favorite book is Exodus and her favorite subjects are English and advanced math. As a pastime, Sylvia enjoys reading and watching T.V. Her biggest disappointment was when she was dropped from N.H.S. and her pet peeve is "people with a better - than - thou attitude."

To have a ranch and raise horses and cattle has always been Sylvia's secret ambition. Advising underclassmen, Sylvia says, "Take easy subjects your senior year. Don't overload."

"It's fun. Have you ever thought of electrocuting a teacher?" is J. V. Perrin's reason for having electronics as one of his hobbies. He goes on to say that he likes electronics because he enjoys building radios, seeing how they work, and experimenting.

J. V. is 18 years old and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Perrin. His birthday is Nov. 29. After graduating, J. V. hopes to attend Texas Tech and later become an electronics engineer. Some of J. V.'s favorites are: food, steak; color, blue; movie, "Unforgiven"; book, "Citizen of the Galaxy"; pastime, getting out of work; and subject, physics. It seems his biggest disappointment is "living so far from town" as he lives on Rt. 4.

To underclassmen J. V. says, "Work hard the first two years and have fun the last two years."

WITH FOOT OR HAND and a strong determination, Hereford first baseman Charlie Burrus was going to put out this runner in Friday's game at Nazareth. And, sure enough, he tagged catcher Norbert Gerber for the put out during the third inning. Hereford won 5-0 in a wind-shortened game. (Staff Photo)

AUSTIN HIGHLIGHTS

Decision Due On Big Money-Raising Bill

BY VERN SANFORD

AUSTIN — Sometime between now and Aug. 31, the Texas Legislature must come to a showdown, do-or-die, back-to-the-wall decision on a big new money-raising bill.

But many lawmakers believe the situation will have to have reached the desperate, no-choice-left stage before such a decision can be made. To meet current needs, say some lawmakers, the tax bill will have to be a big one and it's bound to bring static from voters.

Only way they can survive, said one, is to be able to say, "Look, I don't like this bill either. But what can we do, close the schools?"

In this climate, the House postponed floor action on the general sales tax measure by Reps. John Allen of Longview and Forrest Harding of San Angelo. Gov. Price Daniel attacked the bill as "obnoxious and inequitable," hitting everything "from the cradle to the grave."

Governor Daniel urged compromise through a "package" bill. Ingredients for the package, he said, might be gotten from Rep. George Hinson's omnibus tax bill and Rep. Ben Atwell's selective sales tax measure.

Hinson's bill would hit in many areas — watches, jewelry, power tools and machinery, construction materials, natural gas, restaurant meals, non-essential beverages, etc.

Atwell's bill is akin to a general sales tax except that it names the hundreds of items it would tax rather than making a blanket provision.

SENATE COOL TO TAX — With less than bubbling enthusiasm, Senate State Affairs began hearings on the first tax bill sent over by the House.

It is Rep. Charles Ballman's "loophole bill" designed to raise some $43,000,000 toward retiring an expected $63,000,000 deficit in the general revenue fund.

Senators listened with seeming sympathy to witnesses who criticized the bill's provision for a revised franchise tax formula and a gift tax. They listened, too, to a lengthy pro-sales tax discussion by Tom Sealy of Midland, chairman of the Citizens for a Sales Tax group.

Under the Ballman bill's broad caption, the Senate could add extensively to its revenue-raising features, but most observers doubt the Senate will be eager to seize the initiative at this stage.

CAMPAIGN LIMIT KILLED — A bill to limit campaign expenditures to $25,000 in a race for the U. S. Senate or congressman at large was killed by the House, 83-to-50.

Sen Martin Dies Jr. of Lufkin was sponsor of the bill which passed the Senate.

Supporters of the measure said that as things are "a rich man can buy his way into office." Opponents said the limit was unrealistic and that a newcomer to politics could never become known with such restrictions on a statewide race.

INSURANCE CHANGE FLOUNDERS — Sen. Grady Hazlewood's bill to set ground rules for the state's merit rating auto insurance has had at least a temporary set-back.

Senate voted 16-to-13 to take up the bill. However, a two-thirds majority is needed to begin floor action.

Prior to this action, the State Board of Insurance announced extensive changes in the rating plan, effective August 1. Such violations as running a red light or stop sign, illegal passing or turning, negligent collision and breaking of drivers' license restrictions were removed from the list of actions causing a driver to pay higher insurance rates.

Senator Hazlewood was not satisfied with the changes. He criticized the removal of red light running from the list and the keeping of penalties for speeding, no matter how slight.

FREIGHT RATE BILL PASSED — A bill to simplify rate setting for railroads, and truckers was passed on second reading by the House.

Under present law, the Railroad Commission has to pass on every rate change request, no matter how trivial. Under the proposed measure, the rail or truck line would publish the proposed new rate and if no one objected, it would go into effect. If there were objections, the Railroad Commission would call a hearing and decide the matter.

CONSOLIDATION PAYMENTS OKAYED — A bill designed to encourage consolidation of school districts received final Senate passage.

It provides that common school districts which consolidate into one will continue to receive, for 10 years, the same amount of state aid they would have received if they had not merged.

Sen. Thomas Creighton of Mineral Wells is sponsor. He said it would promote better schools and, in the long run, economy.

JEFFERSON REPORT "BLOWS IN" — Release of the House General Investigating Committee's report on its study of vice in Jefferson County blew the lid off a long-smoldering controversy.

Report accused Atty. Gen. Will Wilson of failing to follow up vigorously on reports to him of flourishing prostitution and rackets in the Beaumont-Port Arthur area.

It also criticized Liquor Control Board Administrator Coke Stevenson Jr. for merely demoting an agent accused of failing to stop liquor law violations by private clubs in Jefferson County.

The Hereford Brand, Hereford, Texas, Thurs., April 20, 1961

House committee completed its study last year and was automatically dissolved at the beginning of this session, but the report was delayed.

Wilson hotly denied that he had failed or refused to take any action within the power and scope of his office. He said the criticism of him was "politically motivated" by Rep. Tom James of Dallas, vice chairman of the committee.

Meanwhile, the House — rather wearily, perhaps — voted against a bill that would set up House and Senate investigating committees every session, as a matter of law. Better, they decided, to establish such committees by resolution when special circumstances seem to warrant.

HOURS CUT APPROVED — A bill to cut the work week of state hospital employees from 44 to 40 hours was voted out unanimously by the Senate Committee on State Departments and Institutions.
