VOLUME XV.

PERRYTON, OCHILTREE COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, JULY 7, 1932.

NUMBER 24.

NO. 117 PAVING TO START SOON

STATE HIGHWAY COMMISSION WILL LET CONTRACT FOR NO. 117 TO HANSFORD LINE ON JULY 13

Actual work on the construction of the state highways, east and west and north and south through Ochiltree county should be under way not later than August 1. The state highway commission is now advertising on bids for the construction of the caliche and limestone base courses on No. 117, southwest from Perryton to the Hansford county line. The mileage covered in this highway is 17.549. The grading and drainage structures on this highway have been completed for some time. Proposals will be received by the highway body at their offices in Austin, Texas, until 9:00 a. m. on July 13.

This is the first unit to be let under the program for which funds have been provided, calling for the paving of No. 117 from the Hansford county line northeast through Perryton to the Lipscomb county line at Booker, where bonds have been voted by Lipscomb county for paving across that county to the Oklahoma line. No. 4, or Federal 83, which enters Texas at the state line directly north of Perryton, will also be paved through Perryton, thence south and east toward Canadian where it meets the pavement now under construction in Hemphill county.

The announcement under date of July 5 from Austin stating that the highway commission would no longer require counties to participate in the cost of construction of state highways means much to Ochiltree county. Our bonds are voted and this county is in line to get our highways completed at once. Through an agreement with the highway commission, Ochiltree county was not required to sell any bonds until the bond market was better, the state advancing funds for the building of the roads. It is very doubtful if Ochiltree county will ever be required to issue any of the bonds recently carried by such an overwhelming majority. It is very evident that the commission expects some legislation providing for the reimbursement to counties which have already sold bonds for state highway improvements or they would not have made such a ruling.

SCHOOL VALUATIONS LOWERED

ALL PROPERTY VALUATIONS PERRYTON INDEPENDENT DISTRICT LOWERED TWENTY PERCENT

Valuations of all property in the Perryton Independent School District was lowered twenty per cent at a meeting of the trustees of the district on Thursday of last week. The new low valuations will apply to the tax rolls for the collection of 1932 taxes.

By a strict watch on all expenditures, Superintendent Irvin and the members of the school board, have been able to reduce the expense of operating the school of the district to a minimum. Their policy is to practice the utmost economy in the administration of the schools without any impairment in the efficiency of the work. The budget for the coming year is now being arranged so that a full term will be possible.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Edwards and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Claybaugh spent the week-end at Eagle Nest Dam, fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Hooper and daughter, Abby, and Miss Luella McMillen were Borger visitors Sunday. Miss Virginia Bengtson returned home with them and will visit this week with Miss Luella.

Carter Pens at the Herald Office.

July 11-12-Adolphe Menjou, Minnie Gombell, Joan Marsh and Arthur Pearson in "Bachelor's Affairs".
July 13-14-Peggy Shannon and Theodore Von Kitz in "Hotel Continental".

Liquor Charge Arrest

Claude Tennyson Arrested While Making Alleged Liquor Delivery to Prisoner

Claude Tennyson, local police character, was arrested Sunday by City Officers R. H. Gamel and Ed Littleton and lodged in jail to await the action of the grand jury on three charges. Officer Gamel brought the charges before County Attorney Max Boyer for sale of liquor, possession of liquor and delivery of liquor to a prisoner in county jail.

Tennyson was arrested as he was making an alleged delivery through a window at the jail. Reports from arresting officers state that they were concealed in the old coal shed south of the jail when Tennyson attempted to make the delivery. The alarm was given by prisoners in the jail who saw the officers to Tennyson, who is alleged to have pulled the cork of the bottle, dashing some to ground. The bottle did not break and it, with most of the contents, was recovered by the officers and is being held as evidence.

RECOVER HORNS STOLEN SCHOOL

THREE BOYS TRY TO SELL STOLEN HORNS; BROKE IN LOCKERS AT SCHOOL

Three horns, belonging to members of the high school band were recovered during the past week when three boys who were said to have stolen them attempted to sell them at the Rifenberg second hand store. C. C. Rifenberg called the attention of officers to the case and a check up showed three horns missing from the locker in the music room in the junior high building. The boys were picked up by officers and the band instruments recovered. County Attorney Boyer questioned the boys who admitted entering the building by breaking a small window glass and unlatching the window and prying open the locker doors. The robbery occurred on May 23 but the horns were not missed due to the fact that the band leader, G. Ward Moody had been out of town since that time.

No formal charges have been filed against the boys but the case will be referred to the grand jury at the next term of district court.

HIGHWAY COSTS PAID BY STATE

RULING OF HIGHWAY COMMISSION WILL RELEASE COUNTY FROM ALL COST

Ochiltree county will not be required to furnish a part of the cost of the paving of the two state highways through this county according to a policy adopted by the Highway Commission on Tuesday of this week at which time it was announced that the entire cost of construction would be paid out of state funds provided by the tax on gasoline.

According to a statement made by W. J. Van London, Amarillo, district engineer in charge of construction in the Panhandle division of the State Highway department, this ruling is not requiring local or county aid in further construction will lead directly to the completion of an 18 mile strip of Highway 117, running from the Hansford county line to Perryton in Ochiltree county. Bids for this paving construction have already been advertised and will be opened and contracts let at Austin on July 15.

This ruling will also effect the other paving projects in Ochiltree county in the same manner and this county will probably be the first county to have paved highways without the issuing of county highway bonds. While the bonds have been voted they have not been issued and this ruling will do away with the necessity of issuing them. The wisdom in voting the bonds is now very apparent, in that the highway program will be the first to come under this ruling, yet the county will not be required to participate in the construction costs.

A. B. Hammon, manager of the Ideal Food store, returned to work Monday, after a vacation of two and one-half months.

Larry Joe, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Dodd, was able to be removed to his home Wednesday after several days treatment at the Perryton hospital.

WILL DISCUSS CELEBRATION

FINAL PLANS AND ARRANGEMENTS TO BE ANNOUNCED AT CHAMBER MEETING TUESDAY

Final plans and arrangements on Perryton's birthday celebration to be held August 22 will be made at the monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce to be held at the Legion hall on Tuesday evening, July 12. The regular monthly meeting date has been set up a week in order that the committees in charge of the affair may start working.

Every business man and employee, whether a member of the Chamber or not, is urged to be present for this meeting. The Chamber of Commerce is planning to finance the celebration this year without the customary solicitation of funds and needs the active cooperation of every one in helping stage the affair. Jack Allen has been appointed at the head of the celebration committee and his group of co-workers have outlined a splendid one-day celebration. Complete plans for this program will be announced at the general membership meeting next Tuesday evening.

ELLIS STAGES BEAUTY SHOW

AUDREY MOBERLY WINS FIRST WITH JANICE MURPHY AND JUANITA MORGAN AS MAIDS OF HONOR

Miss Audrey Moberly was selected as "Miss Perryton 1932" and was presented with the loving cup, being picked as the winner of the beauty contest at the Ellis Theatre last Thursday night. Miss Moberly is employed by the Delco-Frigidaire agency and was representing the Perryton Creamery in the contest. Miss Janice Murphy, representing the Perryton Cleaners and Miss Juanita Morgan, sponsored by Wolford's Sweet Shop were selected as the maids of honor.

L. H. Painter, Dallas, H. A. Bragg, Amarillo, and Harold Poart, Salina, Kans., were the out-of-town judges that picked the winners.

Twenty-one young ladies, representing as many business firms, were entered in the contest. Those entered were Miss Sadie Clark, McLeellans Store; Miss Irene Hoghland, The Texas company, L. B. Ranson, agent; Miss Tommie Lea Hoghland, Men's Wear Store; Miss Juanita Morgan, Wolford's Sweet Shop; Miss Fern Leatherman, L. T. Hill company; Miss Odessa Trolinger, Rogers & Few Service Station; Miss Bessie Littleton, Phillips "66"; Glen McGibson, agent; Miss Helen Buckland, Hurn Dry Goods company; Miss Elizabeth Richardson, Palace Drug Store; Miss Audrey Moberly, Perryton Creamery; Miss Janice Murphy, Perryton Cleaners; Miss Margaret Rupprecht, Edwards' Toggery; Miss Georgia Lee Probasco, Crisp Jewelry Shoppe; Miss Elsie Gambell, Louise's Beauty & Cosmetic Shoppe; Miss Lois Blue, McLarty Mercantile company; Miss Maurine Causler, Hotel Perryton; Miss Bess Crum, The Perry Studio; Miss Gertrude Glasgow, Club Cafe; Miss Louise Previtt, Perryton Motor company; Miss LaFern Wooten, Stewart Printing company; and Miss Augusta Mae Stark, Perryton Coca-Cola Bottling company. The W. C. Bryan & Son entry failed to materialize.

Fred Carter added comedy to the beauty contest with his impersonation of a demure and blushing damsel.

Max Boyer spent Sunday and Monday in Canyon, visiting with friends.

PLEADS GUILTY TO SWINDLING

"VOLUNTEER GOSPEL" WORKER LAYING OUT FINE IN JAIL; CHARITY GRAFTER

W. P. Bailey, Preston, Kans., "tamborine shaker," who has been lodged in the county jail since Tuesday, June 28, entered a plea of guilty to a swindling charge placed against him by County Attorney Max Boyer before Justice of the Peace Dewey Allen, Wednesday afternoon, and is now laying out his fine of $5.00 and costs, amounting to $16.00.

Earlier in the week, Bailey pleaded not guilty and the date of trial was set for Thursday, July 14. In the meantime Bailey changed his mind regarding his guilt and started serving out his fine at the rate of a dollar a day.

Along with the administering of the fine, Justice Allen notified Bailey that at the expiration of his jail time he was to leave Perryton and never return to the Panhandle. County Attorney Max Boyer is holding two certificates of a certain so-called charity organization which Bailey admitted signing himself giving him authority to solicit funds and Bailey was warned that if he was ever heard of again in this part of the county, forgery charges would be placed against him. Some thirty-four different certificates were found in Bailey's possession when arrested by Officer W. J. Pottorff, giving him authority to solicit funds, issued by five different "charity" organizations. These certificates will be forwarded to the Council of Allied Churches of America for further investigation.

Bailey, wearing a cap similar to that used by Salvation Army workers, has been making Perryton at intervals for some years, collecting funds for the Gospel Christian Volunteers and other organizations. He carries credentials from a number of different orders giving him authority to collect money. Officers believe that very little, if any, of the money collected goes to any charity work.

Thousands of dollars are collected annually by bogus solicitors and officers here feel certain that the man under arrest is of that type. The Herald urges that the people of this vicinity give to no person unless they have been investigated and found worthy. Too many people are making a good living by preying on the public in this manner. In times like these, we are a firm believer in charity at home first. If we take care of our own unfortunate and needy, our own churches and societies, and then find that we have a surplus, then donate to the worthy away from home organizations.

Back With Ideal Store

A. B. Hammon Returns To Store Following Absence Of Nearly Two Months

A. B. Hammon, who has been out of the Ideal Food store for the past two months, was checked in again as manager on Monday of this week. Mr. Hammon was granted a leave of absence because of his health but is now able to return to the store.

Smith Herring, who was in charge of the store during Mr. Hammon's absence, has returned to Elk City, Okla.

H. M. Douglas, a former resident of the east part of the county, is here from Plainview, Texas, looking after the harvest of crops here and near Gruver.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown of the Hardesty, Okla., community, are happy over the arrival of a son born Sunday, July 3.

Mrs. Billie Beardsley came in Sunday from Arnett, Okla., and is visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Gamel.

Mrs. H. T. Bengtson and daughter, Doris Louise, and Arless Carey of Borger were guests for the day Monday in the W. E. McMillen home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cowthan and family, Mrs. Frank Powell and Mr. and Mrs. William Pattison and children, Amarillo, were here Saturday for the funeral of Mr. Bud Gilliam. Mrs. Cowthan and Mrs. Powell are sisters of Mrs. Gilliam.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wickham returned Monday to their home at Wichita, Kans., after a week's visit in the R. T. Correll and Abbie King homes.

Band Rehearsal Sunday

Director G. Ward Moody Invites All Musicians To Join New Municipal Organization

G. Ward Moody, director of music in the Perryton schools, has been employed by the city council to organize and direct the new municipal band. Mr. Moody was to have assumed this work on June 1, but on account of sickness, he was forced to spend five weeks in Muskogee, Okla., where he was a patient in the Veteran's Administration hospital. Mr. Moody returned home last Sunday.

The first rehearsal of the municipal organization will be held in the band room at the new Junior high school building, Sunday afternoon, at three o'clock. Mr. Moody states that an invitation is extended to all musicians to join the band. Public concerts will be held weekly during the remainder of the summer, the first being on Tuesday evening, July 12.

There is a wealth of good musicians in and around Perryton and Mr. Moody expects to have at least forty in the band. Many of the members of the high school band will join in with the older and more experienced players in making the Perryton municipal band the best in this part of the country.

SHOWERS DELAY WHEAT HARVEST

SCATTERED SHOWERS DURING WEEK DAMAGING WHEAT; YIELD AND TEST VERY LOW

Wheat harvesting has been delayed during the past week by scattered showers over the Panhandle, and although some wheat is being cut, the yield is very low, running from three to twelve bushels to the acre.

The rainfall in Perryton for the week was recorded at 26 of an inch, falling early Friday morning. Several other nearby communities have reported rains during the week.

A rank growth of weeds in the wheat fields is hampering the harvesting of the grain as much as the rains and in many fields the harvesters are bothered with new green heads which have grown out since the late rains in June.

GRUVER TAKES SUNDAY'S GAME

LOCALS LOSE 9 TO 7 GAME PLAYED AT GRUVER ON SUNDAY; TO BEAVER THIS WEEK

The Perryton ball club lost at Gruver last Sunday afternoon by a 9 to 7 count, both clubs rapping the opposing pitcher for ten hits each. Reynolds and Davis formed the battery for the Gruver club while Franklin and H. Caylor served for the locals.

The game was full of changes and upsets and the outcome of the game was in doubt until the last man was out. Gruver took a one score lead in the first inning with the locals coming back in the second to beat clear around. Gruver however overcame this advantage by their steady scoring in the following innings.

The local club will go to Beaver, Okla., this Sunday for a game. Beaver and Perryton have played one game this season on the local grounds, the Beaver club winning by a 1 to 0 score. A return game some weeks back was postponed because of the rain and the engagement this week made to fill that appointment.

R. T. Shindler and Howard Holt are on a fishing trip in New Mexico. They expect to be gone about a week. Ed Brophy, Woodward, Okla., is staying at the Shindler Drug while Mr. Shindler is away.

Mrs. W. B. LaMaster and children, Kathryn, Pauline, Philip and Kenneth, returned Thursday from a months visit with Mrs. LaMaster's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Tandy, Carrollton, Ky., and with other relatives. Mrs. Roger Tandy of Ghent, Ky., accompanied them home and will visit for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Blakemore and son of Liberal, Kans., spent the day Sunday visiting in the home of his sister, Mrs. A. B. Hammon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Harris returned Monday evening from a few days visit with relatives and friends in Wichita Falls.

ACCIDENTAL GUN SHOT ENDS LIFE

H. T. "BUD" GILLIAM KILLED BY ACCIDENTAL DISCHARGE OF GUN WHILE GOING THRU FENCE

H. T. "Bud" Gilliam, pioneer citizen of Ochiltree county, was accidentally killed at his farm in the southwest part of the county by the accidental discharge of a twenty-two caliber rifle last Friday morning. It seems that Mr. Gilliam, who was recovering from an illness, had taken the rifle and left the house about 10:30 a. m., starting for the field to kill some rabbits. About thirty minutes after he left, his brother-in-law, Mr. Powell, went into the garden at the rear of the Gilliam home, where he discovered Gilliam's lifeless body. The body was entangled in a wire fence about 200 yards from the house and from all appearances, the gun was accidentally discharged as the deceased was either climbing over or through the fence. One bullet had passed through the head. Sheriff Talley was immediately notified, but as it was such a clear case of accidental death, no inquest was held.

The deceased was a native of Texas and had lived in Ochiltree county since about 1900. He was born January 2, 1873, and was past fifty-nine years of age at the time of death. He leaves a widow, formerly Miss Alice Forbes, a sister of C. E. Forbes of this city; and two children, Mrs. Edwin Simmons of this county, and Jim Pryor, a son who lives at home. Two brothers, Wm. and Walter Gilliam, and one sister, Mrs. Lily Armstrong, all of McAllen, also survive.

Funeral services were held at the Black school, Saturday afternoon with Mrs. E. A. Greever officiating. Interment was at the Ochiltree cemetery.

Mrs. C. B. Rogers and little son are both improving after several days of illness.

Mrs. W. A. Askew and daughter, Carol Geddes, of Amarillo, are guests this week in the Ed Forbes home. Mrs. Askew is a sister of Mrs. Forbes and Miss Neita Westbrook.

BETTER YARD CONTEST ENDS

ENTRIES TO BE JUDGED ON WEDNESDAY OF NEXT WEEK; MANY ARE ENTERED

The yard and garden contest sponsored by the Sorosis club of this city will close on Wednesday of next week at which time the yards will be judged and the winners announced. Out of town judges have been secured for the selection of the winners in the two divisions.

Two prizes of $7.50 in cash will be awarded the winners in the two divisions, the prizes being put up by the Sorosis club.

Late entries in the contest not listed before include Mrs. G. K. Reading, B. B. Kent, Mrs. Lula Franklin, Mrs. A. J. George, Mrs. J. H. Myneer, G. R. Wilson, J. A. Terhune, Mrs. M. South Shell and K. K. Thomas.

A special cooked food sale will be held at the Plainview Hardware and Furniture company store on Saturday, July 9, by the Methodist League members. A variety of dishes may be bought, so pay them a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Crow and daughter, Jewel, and her children of Boham, N. M., were in Perryton last week visiting with friends.

Mrs. H. H. Hyten and son, Don, and daughter, Lila, of Wellington, Kans., were in Perryton on Thursday and Friday of last week and visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Blue.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Whippo and their house guests, Mrs. Whippo's sister, Mrs. Pauline Peacock, and her daughter, Mrs. Sarah Ann Comer, and son, John, of Glendale, Calif., were Sunday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Thurman.

"BACHELOR'S AFFAIRS"

OPENING HERE SOON

"Bachelor's Affairs", the Fox production, with Adolphe Menjou in the featured role, comes to the Ellis Theatre next Monday and Tuesday. Based on James Forbes' successful stage play, it tells the story of a middle-aged bachelor who, through the machinations of the girl's sister, marries a youthful flapper. Events soon prove to him that he has made a serious mistake and he sets about to extricate himself from the entanglement in which he finds himself.

Minna Kambell, one of the outstanding comedienne of films, appears in the leading role of the gold-digging sister, and Joan Marsh, one of the most beautiful blondes in motion pictures, portrays the role of the girl. Other favorites in important roles include Allen Dinehart, Herbert Mundin, Arthur Pierston, Irene Purcell and Don Alvarado.

Your Teeth

Their Relation To Your General Health

By the Educational Committee of the American Dental Association

A LESSON FROM FOLKLORE

From the world's folklore the enlightened modern world may learn a lesson in dental hygiene, according to Dr. Alfred Walker, chairman of the educational committee of the American Dental Association.

Despite the great strides taken forward by modern scientific research, Dr. Walker says, thousands of persons believe today that you can cure a toothache by running three times around a church without thinking of a fox.

That is just one of hundreds of strange cures recommended by folklore. If it doesn't work, you can try what Dr. Walker considers the prize of them all, which specifies that you fill your mouth with water and sit on a hot stove until the water boils. This is guaranteed to eliminate toothache entirely.

Carolina Negroes believe in teaching tooth charms to the young. They put a dog's tooth in a bag and tie it around a baby's neck. This is supposed to save the child trouble while teething and assures healthy teeth when the child grows up.

German peasants, who recommend the walk around the church as a solution of your teeth troubles, also think that you can cure a toothache by kissing a donkey. Some Bavarians believe that camphor wrapped in cotton and placed in the ear will cure bad teeth, while others offer this prescription: Open a hen's egg, remove the white cuticle surrounding the yolk, wrap it around the little finger of each hand, and leave it there until it dries. Pain will disappear promptly.

Commenting on the folklore findings, Dr. Walker says that moderns, with the tools of science at their command, may take a lesson from the humble folk who devised the strange formulas.

"The German peasants who use the fox 'cure' at least indicate that they are giving some thought to their dental health," Dr. Walker says, "and that is more than we can say for most of us modern Americans."

"We can well take a page from the folklore of simple people the world over and learn that we should place more importance on the condition of our teeth as they affect our general health."

Think of your teeth when they do not ache and they will not ache and make you think of them. Clean them, give them the proper food and have them checked at regular intervals, and you will save yourself worry, pain, poor health and dental bills.

(This newspaper will be glad to receive questions from readers about teeth, mouth hygiene or dental health. The questions will be answered authoritatively but anonymously by outstanding dentists selected by the American Dental Association. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope for reply.)

Because of "unadmitted" items the above statement shows $640,192.34 less Surplus than statement made to stockholders

This special statement has been prepared with the greatest possible care. The securities have been values by independent financial houses as of May 14, 1932. The values of stocks of our Companies are arrived at by using Market Values for the securities owned by this Companies.

We have set up special reserves for every item concerning which there is the slightest doubt. Our Directors, Stockholders and Agents can depend upon the conservatism and accuracy of this statement.

The underwriting loss is not disturbing. January, February and March are rarely profitable months, and we have had many losses lately which we feel have quite likely arisen from prevailing business and financial conditions.

We hope that our showing as to the ability of the Company to carry out its contracts will make a very strong appeal to our Agent.

Here is the swollen Guadalupe river, near Kerrville, Texas, which rose 30 feet, caused half a million dollars damage and latest reports are that four were drowned. Two others were drowned at Pecos, Texas, and the body of an unidentified infant was washed up on the Neches river. The picture above shows the Guadalupe a raging torrent. Ernest O. Thompson Opens Railroad Commission Campaign

Spring, July 2.—Ernest O. Thompson, member of the Texas Railroad Commission and candidate for reelection, opened his campaign here today. He has never been a time in history when it was more necessary for our people to study and know about our public problems. Very democracy is daily being tested by the onslaughts of the world. This coming July 23, the people of Texas will rise up, and a strong will say that the people themselves shall rule.

The Railroad Commission has real power and real authority to protect and preserve to our people their just and legal rights and hopes and ambitions.

The Railroad Commission can hold hearings and prescribe rules, and then require them to be strictly followed. It can do this promptly and give real relief when needed.

There is already too much concentration of business. What we must do is to retain the good old Texas rule of equal opportunity for all, and keep the opportunities at home—not in a far country.

The Railroad Commission can do more than anyone to help develop Texas industrially. Cotton and wool textile mills should dot our countryside, and the rate structure should encourage the placing of employment near the people and not require our folks to trek into the big cities to find work.

The ideal balance of industrial and agricultural life comes when you bring the factories to the farms and restore the normal, natural way of living to our people. A happy boy, in boyhood surroundings with a good job and a garden and a cow, a sow, and a hen, will stop the flow of population from the country to the city.

Factories located near the cotton, wool, and mohair sources will solve the problems.

The Railroad Commission regulates the railroad, trucks and buses, and the oil and gas business and gas utilities.

Because of the great importance of these industries, and the Commission's part in developing our great natural resources, the office of the Railroad Commissioner directly affects the economic welfare of each individual citizen.

I stand for a fair deal to all concerned, keeping always in mind that the people's interest should come first. Every side of all questions will be given a fair hearing and cases will be promptly decided.

There is a dangerous tendency in America at this time to concentrate and consolidate too much—too much merging.

It is not my aim or purpose to destroy or embarrass big business, but rather to see to it that equal opportunity be given to all, be they big or little. The best way to help big business is to require a fair deal to the people; because big business, more than anybody, needs the good will of the general public. Now, of all times, capital and labor must co-operate to the end that prosperity may again return.

The railroads have learned a lesson. It took forty years to get over the "public be damned" attitude, which has cost the railroads untold millions in the past. We need the railroads, and the railroads have found out that they need the good will and the favorable patronage of the people.

My policy is to help the railroads so long as they are trying to help the people they serve.

Trucks and buses fill a very important gap in our transportation system. They are here to stay and I will treat them as a vital and necessary part of our system, and will see that they get a fair deal before the Commission.

Also I promise you that I will see to it that wild and reckless driving by a full road-taking truck or bus will be stopped. They will be properly regulated.

The oil and gas business has become so important that general business in Texas now depends very largely upon the prosperity of this industry.

In our regulations with the oil business it will be my aim to treat the little fellow, with one well, just the same as the man who represents the biggest company on earth. Size of an outfit in itself does not necessarily mean that they are bad, but size also does not endow them with any halo, with me.

I have been told that certain men simply stay all the time in the office of the oil and gas section, to keep watch on and find out all about the other fellow's business. That sort of thing will be stopped if you keep me on the job.

All should be given equal opportunity but nobody should be given special privilege. I will not stand for it. I don't believe you people want it.

The Commission regulates the gas utility business of Texas. Last week a certain company was seeking to increase gas rates in certain small towns without having a hearing before our body. They wrote their customers and told them that July 1 their rate would be increased. We stopped that by injunction and that injunction covers 90 little towns of 500 population or less in Texas. We will ask now that they come before the Commission and we will set a fair rate.

I have had a lot of experience in this utility rate business. When I ran for Mayor of Amarillo I promised to cut the light, water, telephone and gas rates.

Every platform promise was performed. We got materially reduced rates in every utility serving Amarillo. The gas rate was 45c per thousand feet. We got it down to 27c per thousand for domestic gas and as low as 9c for industrial gas. They may say to you, "Oh yes, but Amarillo is near a gas field." My fellow Texans, I tell you that I know that Texas gas is being taken from the Panhandle of Texas in a 45-million dollar pipe line all the way to Chicago and being sold at the city gate for 18c per thousand. I hope you will elect me to stay on this job for the next four years. I like to fight for the folks.

TEXAS INDUSTRIAL ACTIVITIES

The Schroeder-Young refinery at Pilot Point will have a daily capacity of 500 barrels of crude oil with barrels possible by only a slight 1,000 chance. It will turn out gasoline, kerosene, engine oil and road oil, using the crude from the nearby Denton county field.

Valuable asphalt deposits have been found in Anderson county, according to a Palestine dispatch. A company is being formed to use the asphalt in the making of dyes, analysis showing the mineral to be particularly rich in chemicals essential to the dye industry.

Texas hardwood is on its way to Oporto, Portugal, the shipment of a carload of Texas hardwood lumber being made from Mount Pleasant.

The Ranger Fruit and Truck Growers Association canner is being operated on full time and a considerable increase is expected in this season's total over last. This Smithville Chamber of Commerce has set up a small canner for use of farmers in that community.

The Mount Pleasant plant of the Texas Milk Products Co. handled nearly 1,000,000 pounds of milk in April and exceeded a million pounds in May.

South Texas Cotton Oil Co. has been incorporated at Houston. Alamo Boiler and Machine Works, Waco, has increased its capital stock to $25,000. Nolting Refinery Co., Sweetwater, has increased its capital to $100,000.

The W. F. Akin Canning Co. at Groesbeck, subsidiary of a Missouri canning concern, starting just a few days ago, already has put up 100,000 cans of beans grown on 150 acres planted by farmers who received from $50 to $75 an acre for their produce. Tomatoes have been contracted for from growers at $10 a ton and later on cabbage for kraut and turnips, mustard, spinach and sweet potatoes will be canned. The plant has a capacity of two carloads a day and is giving employment to 150 workers.

The long leaf and loblolly pine, both of which Texas has a large supply, are usable in the making of newsprint was demonstrated by the Savannah, Ga., research and experimental paper mill, operated under grants from the Georgia Legislature. The demonstration is of untold value to Texas and the entire Southern pine belt with its 100,000,000 acres of pine lands. Private experimentation in Texas by E. L. Kurth and others at Lufkin has proved that Texas trees can produce good white newsprint, and development of the idea into a paper mill seems now only a matter of time and more auspicious economic conditions.

Out-dor Panto Co. is a new incorporation at El Paso. Plans for a carbon monoxide plant are announced by the J. S. Bell Helium Interests, Amarillo. Peyton Bros., Inc., Mexia, is manufacturing casinghead gasoline and will market dry gas from the East Texas properties.

Growth of the mineral crystal business is seen in a letter from George Barber, manager of the Mineral Wells Chamber of Commerce, who says there are now seven hundred such plants making mineral crystals from the well of that city by open kettle evaporation. The largest plant is shipping 7,000 pounds of crystals daily.

Additional machinery is being installed at the sodium sulphate plant of the Ozark Chemical Co. near Monahans, Ward county, further to refine the product which is obtained from the lake carrying heavy deposits of the chemical. Six hundred tons have already been produced by evaporation for further refining by the new equipment.

Earth Products Co., Houston, is a new corporation which has acquired a cite on the Ship Channel for erection of a plant devoted to bleaching earths; manufacture of stucco, plaster, high-temperature refractories, asbestos, natural colored sands and aggregates; and to custom grinding and processing of non-metallic materials.

SPEAKING ABOUT "BIG FARMERS"

Congressman Richard M. Kleberg, of Texas, who was chosen at a special election to fill the unexpired term of the late Harry M. Wurzbach, has the distinction of being the chief owner of the largest family ranch in America. "Our place," as Kleberg calls his ranch, contains 1,600,000 acres. It is twice the size of the state of Rhode Island, half the size of Connecticut, and a quarter as large in area as the Kingdom of Belgium.

The ranch has about one hundred miles of Gulf coast for its southern boundary, and it takes a railroad three hours to cross it. One "field" has ninety miles of fence around it. It is needless to say that Kleberg is a cattle man. The number of cattle on his ranch is unknown, but from 25,000 to 35,000 head are shipped each year to the cattle markets of the country.

Kleberg who is forty-four years of age, is a graduate of the University of Texas, where he studied law. However, his entire active life has been spent in the cattle business.

BARGAIN COUNTER ROADS

Like many other commodities, roads are now on the bargain table. A fair quality road can be bought for as little as $2,000 a mile. Prices range up to $40,000 a mile for the magnificent super-highways designed to carry an excessive amount of traffic. For $5,000 a mile a general utility road, of high quality, may be had.

These low cost roads are the answer to the farmer's social and transportation problems. They are suitable for all but the heaviest traffic and are as weatherproof, skidproof and generally useful as their more expensive brethren. According to an article in the New York Times, there is a crying need for 1,200,000 miles of such secondary roads—building them is a job equivalent in size and scope to the building of the Panama Canal.

The United States Bureau of Public Roads has published specifications for the ideal farm-to-market road designed to carry between 1,000 and 2,000 cars daily. The beginning is a properly graded and drained 20-foot road bed. A foundation of broken rock, slag or gravel, six inches deep, is then laid. This is compacted by rolling, and a three-inch layer of crushed stone is laid next. Traffic is allowed to hammer this for a time. It is then bituminously treated and smoothed. The final operation is to lay a top layer of stone chips, tied together by asphalt, which provides the skidproof, long wearing qualities required.

Money cannot buy a better secondary road than this—yet its cost varies, depending on the locality, from only $3,000 to $6,000 a mile. Such roads, by stimulating tourist travel, put farms and small and isolated towns on the map.

STILL ACTIVE AT NINETY

The oldest employee of the United States Senate is Theodore P. Shuey, dean of the official reporters of debates. He is close to 90 years of age and entered upon his duties when Abraham Lincoln was President. He is endearingly known as "the Senate's Recording Angel". His home is at Staunton, Virginia.

Mrs. Ernest Records and children, Mary Lee and Keith, and Mrs. C. E. Cooper and children and Thad Callaway of Canadian spent the week-end visiting with relatives in Okeene, Okla.

Miss Lois Blue was a week-end guest with friends in Amarillo.

More Views of Kerrville Flood

The airplane view above shows the city of Kerrville, built on a hill by the Guadalupe river. The swollen condition of the stream, which took four lives and did $500,000 of damage over the week-end, is plainly shown. The lower photo, taken two miles below Kerrville on July 3 shows how the water spread out for miles, inundating everything. At this point the water had to be 40 feet above normal to reach the windows of the house in the foreground, according to its owner, M. Meadows.

State Secretary of Legion Auxiliary Writes of Guadalupe River Flood Conditions

Mrs. Van W. Stewart, President of the Texas Department of the American Legion Auxiliary, has received the following letter from Mrs. C. J. Austin, state secretary of the organization, who was in Kerrville last week-end when the Guadalupe River went on a rampage, resulting in the loss of thousands of dollars worth of property and a number of lives. The American Legion and Auxiliary maintain a health center building at Kerrville where they render service to the families of the veterans who are patients in the government hospital at that place.

July 4, 1932.
Mrs. Van W. Stewart
Perryton, Texas.
Dear Mrs. Stewart:

I arrived in Kerrville about noon, Friday, July 1st, in pouring rain. Stopped at the Health Center. Went to the hospital for dinner with Mrs. Stark, Social Service worker at the Health Center. After lunch I went to the O. T. Shop and worked with Miss Eads on report. Miss Holbrook came and left at 4:30, then came running back and told us the river was up to the hospital gate. Miss Eads and I went with Miss Holbrook to the gate. There we found hundreds of refugees whose houses had been up and down the river bank on both sides of the road and the houses were being brought down the stream crashing to pieces on the big cypress trees. There were some 40 or 50 houses in sight of the hospital gate that were either washed down stream or left with only the roofs sticking out. Mrs. Stark had gone with the janitor of the Health Center Building to bring in a bed-ridden man, woman and three children, and we did not have a report on Mrs. Stark until she walked in at 12:30 as white as a ghost, telling us that she and Gardner had been caught in the mill stream but had been able to climb out of the car and swim to safety but the car went on down the stream. Mrs. Stark was given dry clothing at the Airport and when the water receded enough she came in six miles. Dr. Wescott, Commanding Officer of the Hospital and Mr. Lundquist, business manager of hospital, had been on a tour notifying everybody that the water was rising and to get out of the way, and had gotten about five miles from the hospital, when the water caught them. They, too, climbed out of the water shoulder deep and saw their car go under but not down the stream. The water rose up over their car but they were able to get it the next day. Mrs. Stark's car was brought in next day and it was a complete loss with the exception of the tires which can be used as they were brand new and had just been put on the car. She also lost a pocket book with $20.00 in it. She had on good shoes and galoshes, and was not able to pull out of the mud and had to leave the galoshes. Although a log had struck her in the back and she was badly bruised, nurses and all say she is not hurt at all, only muscular bruises. She worked all day Saturday and Sunday contacting the families up and down the river and in isolated sections, taking food where food was needed. The hospital took in and fed between 100 and 150 of the refugees Friday night. On Saturday night only about half of these had remained in the hospital. So many of them had found friends who would take them in town.

Of the 50 left, we were able to provide a change of clothing for all of the children, while the nurses and the hospital aides were able to give a change of clothing to all of the adults.

The Relief Organization was formed at Legion on Saturday morning and consisted of representatives from the Masons, the D. A. V.'s, the Legion and Auxiliary at the hospital. Miss Eads, Mrs. Stark and I had been invited. I was made Honorary Chairman and later Dr. Wescott and Dr. Moore were added to the list of Honorary Chairmen. The three of us formed an Advisory Board. This committee decided upon the following: the name of the organization—The Legion, Texas, Flood Relief Committee. Mr. Pugler, President of the Gavel Club (Masons) was made acting chairman. The Legion post master was made treasurer and one of the patients was made secretary. It was decided to collect funds through the hospital and to call on the Legion and the D. A. V. for whatever aid was required above the amount raised on the grounds. A telegram was sent to the 10th District Convention which was to meet in Austin Sunday asking them to send a truck load of bedding and clothing for women and children through the first open road, and a telegram to the State Headquarters of D. A. V. asking for a check to aid in the relief work. Committees were formed to list the families, numbers and ages of children, whether or not they were patients or employees. Housing Committee, Committee on Collection of Funds, and second meeting of the committee as a whole met Sunday morning at 8:30 and reports from all of the committees showed the work well in hand. Representatives of the committee met with the Kerrville Red Cross Disaster Committee at 11:00 o'clock Saturday morning and again at 3:00 o'clock Saturday afternoon and the reports of the committee showed the work well organized.

Reports were given from all of the camps. Swimmers had been sent to ascertain the fact that no lives had been lost in any of the camps. The Housing Committee had arranged to open every rent house on Monday at half price and the rest of the committees were asked to place the families who were homeless in houses according to needs, the first month's rent to be taken care of in cases where the family did not have the income. Salvage Committee were organized with the lumber yards as places of storage and the work of collecting furniture up and down the river began. On Sunday I saw dozens of loads of furniture being taken in from General Electric Refrigerators to frying pans. The men, women and children were salvaging all up and down the river and much in the way of cooking utensils were salvaged. In the houses that did not wash away there was some stuff that could be used. Of course, all bedding, and all mattresses were classed as a loss since the drying out process will not prove very satisfactory. So the greatest need at the present time was found to be a place for the people to stay, some bedding and change of clothing, a frying pan and a few provisions. Two committees were then organized on this, one from Legion and one from the Kerrville Red Cross. When I left Kerrville Monday morning, arrangements had been completed for placing every single one of the families reported to the committees. Of course, most of this was temporary but it means that no family is left in the hospital which was generous enough to let the emergency continue through Saturday and Sunday.

Doubtless every home in Kerrville is taking care of tourists. Every person I heard speak told of having every bed full. Of course, most of the tourists will clear out as soon as roads are open and the campers will go home also, leaving only the resident families to be taken care of. The worst condition exists among the families of the patients in Legion Hospital. Mrs. Carpenter, Department Child Welfare chairman, has authorized a check for $200.00 to go to Mrs. Stark to use in taking care of the children by rehabilitating the mother, giving her the necessities for taking care of her children. Many of the families have as many as four children, some even more.

The Health Center was closed until today. As the water had come up to the Health Center, all usable bedding, mattresses and everything of the kind was stored in a warehouse at the hospital but will be taken out today and put back in the center.

Mrs. Lough, Department Rehabilitation chairman, was en route to meet me at Kerrville at 1 o'clock Friday afternoon. A telephone message came saying she had gotten as far as Comfort. I called her home by long distance upon my arrival here and was told by Miss Chiles who is living in her home that she had not yet arrived home and that she had not been heard from, so it is pretty certain that she is still not able to leave Comfort.

Most sincerely yours,
Mrs. C. J. Austin,
Dept. Sec.-Treas.

IS MOST EXPENSIVE PICTURE EVER MADE

Made more vivid by sound synchronization, with many of its spectacular scenes enhanced by color and accompanied by a beautiful musical score, "Ben-Hur", the most sensational picture in cinema history, makes a triumphant appearance at the Ellis Theatre where it will be shown Sunday matinee and night.

As a novel, General Lew Wallace's story had a circulation as large as that of the Bible; as a play, it ran for twenty-two seasons and is annually being revived in various parts of the world. The pictureization cost $4,000,000, three years' time and the labors of 150,000 persons in Italy and California.

The insertion of sound gives the spectacular scenes even greater power and vividness. The shouts of the multitudes, noise of the racing chariots, clash of arms in the battle scenes and other sound effects add a breathtaking naturalness.

PUBLIC SALE

Closing out sale of the Grand Old Party. As our lease with Uncle Sam will expire on March 4, 1933, and our titles to the political Jack Pot will be transferred to the "Sons of the Wild Jackasses", we have decided to hold an auction sale on the White House lawn, in Washington D. C. on November 8, 1932.

and sell to the highest bidder all of our political machinery and our entire stock of supplies now on hand, to wit:

One political machine, 1921 model, badly in need of repairs. Can only be recognized by its whistle.

One moss-grown platform, with all its Farm Planks broken. Classed as frozen assets.

One large ever-bearing Melon vine, with several small branches badly frost bitten.

One one-billion dollar crime wave, made to order. Old enough to wear. Sired by Volstead and damned by everybody.

Fourteen million moonshine stills, all operating at full capacity.

Seven hundred rum-running vessels, just learning to swim, but know all the dives.

Eleven million dinner pails. ALL EMPTY.

Twenty-one thousand miles of bread lines without a vacant space. One seat on the Board of Trade, good for any amount of wheat. No profits guaranteed.

Should the present prosperity continue, we reserve the right to sell under the Hoover moratorium plan. Free lunch at noon. Doughnuts without holes will be served by the Farm Board.

The Board of Temperance, Prohibition, Public Morals, Society of Reforms, and others will serve Roast Crow to the Wickersham Committee.

The Army, Navy, Coast Guard and all available stool pigeons will be in formation at the lunch, to assure Dolly Gann of her rightful place at the table.

If the chief executive arrives in time to assist at the sale, it is respectfully requested that all present who still have a hat, stand uncovered while the band plays, "God Help the King".

Terms: See your bank before the sale. Positively no foreign bonds accepted, although they are okeh by the state department. The boys just put that okeh on them so that Coon Lobo, Jappee Morgun and some of the other international bankers could slip them out to the suckers. It really amounts to fourteen million dollars, and all of our Wall St. friends are rid of them, so we are no further interested.

Anvil Park Rodeo

Tenth Annual Frontier Celebration and Reunion at Canadian July 20-21-33

Canadian, Tex., July 7.—Back in 1922, the Anvil Park Rodeo was first held in Canadian. It was produced and managed by J. C. Studer and Sons, who still manage it, but have incorporated the association. On July 20-22 inclusive, Canadian will celebrate the 10th anniversary of her famous Frontier Day Celebration and Cowboy Contest.

It promises to eclipse anything that enterprising western city has ever done in this line, and that's doing something. Everyone, everywhere interested in cowboys and their sports, or the days of the frontier west knows about the Anvil Park Rodeo, at Canadian. When it was first organized, as a small show, J. C. Studer saw the possibilities and built a large grandstand on the "Anvil Park" Ranch, and it has remained there ever since. Cash prizes have been increased each year until today it draws the best talent from over the entire Southwest.

The attendance has been increased from a few hundred in 1922 to a good many thousand in 1931. The top riders and ropers and exponents of cowboy sports in the rodeo world have "done their stuff" in the Anvil Park Arena. All in all, "The Anvil Park Rodeo" in 1932 will be a knockout. An effort will be made to have as near as possible all the old time contestants of previous years back for a reunion.

The Anvil Park Rodeo is not a wild west show, put on by a few hired promoters, but instead is a true western contest rodeo, where hundreds of cowboys and cowgirls assemble from all sections of the United States to compete for the numerous and valuable prizes offered. Here you will see only the best professional range talent and the greatest riders, ropers and bulldoggers in the world.

Rodeos of this sort, which are kept clean and up to the standard are doing more than any other known agency to promote western-mindedness in the people of the middle west. Thousands of people from all over the Southwest witness this rodeo every year and no one has been heard to adversely criticize it yet. It is conducted under the strict rules of the game. The top notch rodeo talent will be in attendance and no doubt there will be some World's records broken in the various events because none but the fast ones have a chance, there with the fast range athletes from the wide open spaces.

NEW POSTAL LAWS

Pursuant to Order No. 2562 dated June 7, 1932 amending the Postal Laws and Regulations, postmaster shall, on and after July 6, 1932, see that postage is paid at the rate of 3 cents an ounce or fraction thereof on letters and other first class matter, except postal cards and private mailing or post cards; and also except drop letters mailed at offices where letter carrier service is not established and the addressees are not served by rural or star route carrier.

Drop letters, that is, letters mailed for delivery from the office at which posted, are required to have postage paid on them at the rate of 3 cents an ounce or fraction thereof when mailed at letter-carrier post offices, including offices where village delivery service by carrier has been established, or at offices which are not letter-carrier offices if the persons addressed are served by rural or star-route carrier; and 1 cent for each ounce or fraction thereof when mailed at offices where letter-carrier service is not established, provided the addressees are not served by rural or star-route carriers. There is no drop rate on mail other than letters. When any person or persons of any city or place send their letters in bulk for mailing in another place the 1-cent drop letter rate is applicable, such letters are not drop letters and are not entitled to the 1-cent drop letter rate, but subject to postage at the rate of 3 cents an ounce or fraction thereof.

Letters mailed at a post office for delivery to patrons thereof by rural or star-route carrier and those deposited in boxes along a rural star-route are subject to postage at the rate of 3 cents an ounce or fraction thereof.

Letters in business reply envelopes are subject to postage at the rate of 3 cents for each ounce or fraction thereof plus 1 cent addition for each letter.

When a letter or other first class matter subject to the rate of 3 cents an ounce or fraction of an ounce is prepaid less than 3 cents, the letter, or other matter shall be returned to the sender, if known, for the deficient postage. If the sender is not known, it shall, if prepaid at least 2 cents, be rated with the deficient postage and dispatched to its destination for collection of the amount due upon delivery to the addressee. Letters and other first class matter prepaid less than 2 cents shall be treated as prescribed by section 529, Postal Laws and Regulations.

Postmasters at offices of address shall be careful to rate up with the proper amount of postage due all mail reaching their offices with the postage insufficiently prepaid.

The failure of any postmaster to observe the foregoing shall be reported to the Third Assistant Postmaster General, Division of Classification.

It is of the utmost importance that every patron of the postal service become familiar with the increased rate of postage on first class matter as above set forth. Failure to prepare the proper amount of postage will delay the dispatch and delivery of mail, cause confusion, annoyance and inconvenience and impose upon the Postal Service unnecessary labor and expense. Therefore, postmasters are requested to give the foregoing the widest possible publicity in every practicable manner.

F. A. Tilton,
Third Assistant Postmaster General.

COOPERATION WORKS

"Can cooperative marketing of farm products be made to work successfully?" asked Alexander Legge, former Chairman of the Federal Farm Board, recently.

He answered his own question with an emphatic Yes. Long before there was a Farm Board the California citrus fruit and walnut growers were achieving success through cooperation. Now thousands of co-operators, large and small, with millions of members, have been established and are gradually working out their difficulties.

Cooperation is simply a matter of intelligent self-interest. That type of "independence" which prevents a farmer from joining with his fellows to better the common lot becomes, eventually, a synonym for bankruptcy. Many things have contributed to the present plight of the farmer—and one of the most important of these has been the refusal of a multitude of farmers to adopt modern methods of cooperative selling.

Every individual farmer is responsible for the rise or fall of the cooperative movement. Success or failure depends upon his loyalty to the cause—or his lack of loyalty. Time after time the cooperatives have demonstrated that they alone can save the farmer from ruin—and the future of agriculture lies in their hands.

PROGRAM At The ELLIS THEATRE

Friday-Saturday, July 8-9

Richard Dix with Gwili Andre, Arline Judge and Zasu Pitts in—

"Roar Of The Dragon"

A nerve-tingling, heart-throbbing drama of life! A vivid story, bristling with action, cramful of soul-gripping suspense. The story of a little group of white people, surrounded, in a little wayside Chinese inn by a roaring group of heartless, yellow-skinned bandits.

Sunday Only, July 10

Ramon Novarro and May McAvoy in—

"Ben-Hur"

The great thrills of this masterpiece come to you now greater than ever—with sound! You hear the thunder of hoofs, the shouts of frenzied spectators in the hair-raising chariot race! You'll go wild over the terrific sea fight—seen and heard in all its fury. There are hundreds of other thrills in this picture—the greatest motion picture ever made.

Monday-Tuesday, July 11-12

Adolph Menjou, Minna Gombell, Joan Marsh and Arthur Pierson in—

"Bachelor's Affairs"

The hilarious adventures of a gay old dog who tries to learn new tricks. He woke up to find his dream girl was a headache. She lured him into double harness—but he kicked over the traces. There wasn't a kick in a carload of his kisses—but his bankroll packed a wallop.

Wednesday-Thursday, July 13-14

Peggy Shannon and Theodore Van Eltz in—

"Hotel Continental"

Tragedy and mirth, conniving and trickery—and with it all—suspense from beginning to end. Back to get the money that he had stolen and for which he spent five years in the penitentiary—only to find another gang after it and the hotel in which it was hidden about to be torn down. Can you imagine what happened? A saga of human courage and fear... a romance that is new and beautiful.

CHURCHES

METHODIST CHURCH

Teachers, and all concerned in the school, were very thankful for the loyalty shown last Sunday. The school was nearly up to the top in the face of harvest. You may find a class to your liking. It meets at 9:45 a. m. on time.

It is our motto. Always, under all circumstances, we can be found for not our duty. His Sanctified Master leaves us shy of this material—excuses. He is ex-such creation, is an artist setting them in feasible ways; there is but one thing which we us from them: A will to do it.

will offer two periods of publishing next Sunday, morning and evening. The pastor will meet you there with the will be in rehearsal to present in song. The pastor will at the morning hour, "What is a Famine?" These are of the questions he will try to answer. Are famines sent of God? Does he come to lands because of lack of them? Why do we have famines in U. S. A.? Is seasons, climate, and such? The way to get in on it: pass the big south doors about turn left at the first hall. Leaders will escort you to a simple and easy?

evening the pastor will use subject, "On Being Half-Breed." This is the same as and last Sunday, but we all went to hear the boy preacher. The 8:15, and the way is in the is just as easy as in morning same way exactly. The will be with us. People meet at 7:30 p. m.

CHURCH NOTES

Nature or God—Which? Isaac Newton, the great English mathematician and scientist, a skillful mechanic make an appeal called a lunar tellurian by simply turning a crank, illustrate day and night and the moon about the sun. One unbelieving assistant did not before completion. Then he in wonder, "Who made that?" said, "Nobody." The assistant asked his question, and Newton repeated his answer. Finally, the assistant, becoming impatient, "What is wrong here? What is trying to tell me? I can feel that instrument. Some made it. Who did?" Then the scientist, who was a devout man, replied: "That? Why only a poor imitation of the thing; you say nobody made it, yet you insist that some made this instrument." The assistant was unusually quiet the rest of the day. And we may surmise that thereafter, whenever he spoke of the wonders of the marvelous phenomena of nature, he remembered Newton's and gave serious thought to the great and omnipotent Creator, maker of heaven and earth. Subject for next Sunday at ten o'clock will be "That God, Not Nature, Feeds and Sustains All Creatures". Come and hear the proof from Holy Scriptures. The voting members of the congregation will meet for their quarterly business meeting immediately after the morning service. There will be no services held Sunday night.

H. W. Hartenberger, pastor.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

The lesson-sermon subject was "GOD" in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday, July 3.

The golden text was from Exodus 20:2-3, "I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. Thou shalt have no other gods before me".

Included in the passages read from the Scriptures was the following from Deuteronomy 6:4: "Hear O Israel: The Lord our God is one Lord". The service also embraced the following citation from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures", by Mary Baker Eddy (p. 340): "One infinite God, good, unifies men and nations; constitutes the brotherhood of man; ends wars; fulfills the Scripture, 'Love thy neighbor as thyself'; annihilates pagan and Christian idolatry—whatever is wrong in social, civil, criminal, political, and religious codes; equalizes the sexes; annuls the curse of man, and leaves nothing that can sin, suffer, be punished or destroyed".

WAKA BRETHREN

O. H. Feller, Pastor
Sunday, July 10:
Bible school at 10:00 a. m.
Sermons at 11:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m.
Themes: "Christ's Message to the Church" and "The Foundation of God is Sure".
Believe in your fellow-man, in your children, in the church and in God. The wonder of life is not that men should believe in God, but that God should believe in men.

LEAGUE NOTES

The young people of the Methodist church had a very enjoyable worship service at the regular League hour Sunday morning, July 3. About forty enjoyed the pictures portraying the life of Christ. Miss Arlean Pattison, leader, gave the name of each painting, scripture was read by William Gray while Mary Madolyn Sherman softly played appropriate hymns.

Following the showing of the pictures, a vocal solo, "Satisfied With Jesus", was sung by Miss Claudia Zirkle. This closed one of the most impressive and inspiring devotional services we have had.

Miss Esther McLarty, chairman of the committee on Missions and World Friendship, will be in charge of the program for next Sunday evening.
All those who wish to attend the Young Peoples district meet at Dalhart Saturday night and Sunday, July 9 and 10, are urged to do so. Our young folks are well known for their good attendance and enthusiasm. Let's keep it up.
Saturday, July 9, beginning at 9:00 o'clock, in the Plainview Hardware and Furniture Company store, the League will sponsor a food sale. The soliciting committee guarantees you lots of pies, cakes, candy, salads, and dressed chickens. Let us help you with the Sunday menu.

HOW TO OBTAIN TREATMENT FOR CANCER

The selection of a physician is always the most important factor and is frequently the greatest problem in the care of cancer cases, since a favorable outcome often depends so much upon accurate diagnosis and competent treatment from the very beginning.

The family physician is generally the first person with whom the patient makes contact. Upon his judgment the final result often depends. He usually finds it necessary to refer the case to a specialist who is more familiar with this type of disease and possesses the required skill and suitable equipment for its accurate diagnosis and correct treatment.

If there is no family physician, reliable advice may usually be obtained from the local medical society, the local hospital, the local nursing association or other local health agencies. In rural areas the county nurse or the state health department may be helpful.

Lack of funds need not discourage a patient from seeking competent medical service. All physicians of recognized ability give due consid-

The following are excerpts from some of the newspaper comments made at the time of his recent appointment:

"... his decisions in style and texture and force won for him a high place among the lawyers and litigants of Texas. ... In his boyhood he brushed his way through the snow to the little red school house miles from his home where he obtained the first rudiments of an education and in time became one of the scholars and successful lawyers of the land that was wilderness when his father first invaded it to wrest from nature its virgin soil and to build a home for his dependents and those who come after him."

—The Austin American.
"When he moved to Austin he resigned from the board of regents of the state teachers' colleges, on which he had served for ten years. He brought to that board a broad understanding of the problems of the boys and girls from the homes of the common people of Texas. ... His struggle for an academic education and for preparation for the profession of law was not forgotten by him while he served the state on the board of regents of the teachers' colleges. In 1920 he created a loan fund at West Texas State Teachers' college for the use of poor boys and girls, retaining supervision of the fund during his life time. It has grown to approximately $3,000.00, has aided more than a hundred boys and girls. ..."

—The Plainview Herald.
"Selection of Hon. A. B. Martin of Plainview, as associate justice of Court of Civil Appeals of the Seventh Texas District at Amarillo, is a pleasing one to South Plains people. A former commissioner of Criminal Appeals at Austin, as a practicing attorney and a prominent citizen of Plainview and this area, Mr. Martin has made an enviable record. He typifies the right kind of man for the post to which he succeeds."

A. B. MARTIN

Present Associate Justice Court of Civil Appeals at Amarillo Appointed April, 1932

Candidate to succeed himself at the coming Democratic Primaries

His recent appointment was unopposed, and was made in recognition of the distinguished record he made as an Appellate Court Judge at Austin. He lives in the southern part of the Judicial District which contains more than one-third of the population. It has been the custom to select the three judges of this court from different parts of the district, which comprises forty-
