WHITE HOUSE

Marines To Get Nation's Top Honors

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has summoned two Marine veterans of Vietnam to the White House to present them with the Medal of Honor.

Newest recipients of the nation's highest military decoration are Maj. Robert J. Modrzejewski and 2nd Lt. John J. McGinty III.

Modrzejewski, who with his wife and son lives at the U.S. Naval Academy, won the medal for combat valor while a captain in Vietnam in 1966.

Although suffering painful wounds, he rallied and inspired his surrounded company, ignoring exposure to enemy fire.

McGinty, then a staff sergeant, was cited for rallying his platoon during a four-hour battle although he also was painfully wounded. His citation said that he killed five of the enemy, firing at point-blank range with his pistol.

McGinty, his wife and two sons live in Laurel Bay, S.C.

Sniper Routed

NEW YORK (AP) — Police fired a barrage of tear gas today to rout a 20-year-old sniper, described as a Vietnam veteran with a history of mental illness, from a Queens funeral parlor where he had holed up for seven hours.

Dennis O'Connor Jr. was taken from his parent's apartment over the funeral home five minutes after the police fired the gas and went in after him. During the capture O'Connor was shot in the right arm.

There were no reports of injuries but the youth had fired a number of shots from a high powered rifle during the pre-dawn siege while resisting the pleas of his family and girl friend to give up.

Rate Increase

WASHINGTON (AP) — American railroads are seeking their second freight-rate increase within a year, with the new requests ranging from three to 10 per cent generally and five to six per cent on most food items.

The request was filed Monday with the Interstate Commerce Commission, which approved a three per cent rate hike, worth about $300 million, last July 31. This increase was made permanent last month.

LANDSLIDE

200 Are Killed

KINSHASA, The Congo (AP) — Two hundred Congolese villagers are feared killed by a landslide which crashed down on a village near Bukavu, in the eastern Congo.

The official Congolese news agency the entire village was engulfed in earth and "disappeared."

A day of national mourning was ordered.

The rain-sodden earth of Mandjwi Hill broke loose during Sunday night and thundered onto the village below.

Few details were available. The village is in a heavily forested rural area near the Rwanda border.

Three Drowned

FT. HOOD, Tex. (AP) — An armored personnel carrier with five soldiers aboard sank in a lake at Ft. Hood military reservation, drowning three men.

Two others were rescued and were in satisfactory condition at a Ft. Hood hospital.

The personnel carrier was attempting to ford the lake when the vehicle sank, an Army spokesman said. The three bodies were recovered.

Fire Across River

TEL AVIV (AP) — Israeli and Jordanian forces exchanged machine-gun fire across the Jordan River for the second straight day today after an Israeli patrol killed an Arab saboteur in a brief clash, the army said.

A communique said Jordanian gunners opened up about an hour after the rest of the Arab band had fled back across the river from the Israeli-occupied west bank about four miles north of the Allenby Bridge.

Israeli forces fired back, the communique said. It mentioned no Israeli casualties.

In Jerusalem, Israeli Housing Minister Mordechai Bentov announced that in the next two or three years about 10,000 Jews will be able to move into homes in East Jerusalem, the Arab quarter captured from Jordan in the June war.

Texas Shaking Off Effects Of Storm

By The Associated Press

Texas started shaking off the effects today of an end-of-winter storm which blanketed a vast expanse of the state under snow and brought moisture nearly everywhere else.

Traffic and other accidents linked to the weather were blamed for at least 10 deaths.

SHARP WINDS

Sharp winds accented the chill of temperatures dipping into the 20s through the Panhandle and in the 40s across southern areas.

Six to seven inches of snow fell in a few places before the departing storm edged toward the northeast, virtually crippling much of Oklahoma. Authorities reported all major highways closed in Oklahoma.

Continuing through the night and into early morning, the snowfall at one time covered a belt from El Paso eastward through Abilene, San Angelo, Fort Worth, Dallas, Sherman and Kaufman, with flurries ranging south past Waco and Austin as far as College Station.

Most of the Panhandle-Plains section was blanketed previously as the storm moved in from New Mexico early Monday.

BLIZZARD

Near blizzard conditions gripped the Wichita Falls area into Monday evening and winds gusting to 48 miles per hour helped cut visibility to zero as an estimated six inches of snow descended. Scarcely two inches remained on the ground by this morning.

At one time an estimated 100 cars were stalled between Wichita Falls and Burkburnett, and all except emergency traffic was barred from roads out of Burkburnett.

City buses stopped operating for hours in Wichita Falls and most schools in that area remained closed today.

Snow also was heavy in the section from Big Spring to Abilene, varying from three to five inches and piling into drifts as high as three feet.

TRAFFIC HALT

Traffic came to a virtual halt also on US 83 between Abilene and San Angelo, with numerous trucks stalled in drifts, and the route between Abilene and Albany to the northeast was blocked.

Hazardous driving warnings remained up this morning for Northwest Texas and to the south and east in adjacent sections of the South Plains and North Central Texas.

Streams still ran high, meanwhile, in South Central Texas, where rains measuring up to 3.78 inches at Burnet and 3.75 at Lampasas poured down Monday. Forecasters issued flood warnings for areas along some streams.

Big crests were promised today on the Sulphur River at Hagansport, Chambers Creek at Corsicana and Richland Creek near Richland.

FLOODING

Levels topping flood stage were promised by Wednesday on the Little River at Cameron and on the Trinity at Cayuga, near Palestine, and the Sabine was expected to go on a similar rise by Thursday at Mineola.

Winds gusting up to 50 miles per hour toppled a wall in a building being erected in North Dallas Monday and the collapsing concrete blocks fatally injured Paul Buseck, 68, of New York City in his parked car.

Traffic accidents attributed to rain or snow Monday killed Mary Joiner, 45, walking on a Dallas street; Mary Apple, 47, of Haltom City in a collision near Euless; Gary Moore, 14, of Coahoma in a train-car crash in the snow at Coahoma; Gene Schwegel, 25, of Pasadena, Calif., as his car ran off the road near Comstock; Judge Stafford of Commerce in a collision near Cooper, and Ronald Gorman, 22, of Fort Worth in a three-car pileup west of Weatherford.

FORECASTS

Forecasts called for clearing skies throughout the state and a little warming by Wednesday after a cold night.

Low temperatures early Wednesday were expected to range down to 18 degrees in the Panhandle and parts of Southwest Texas, and below freezing in most other sections.

Airliner Hi-Jacked

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A National Airlines plane was hijacked today and flown to Cuba, the Federal Aviation Agency reported.

The plane, Flight 28 from Tampa to Miami, was diverted while flying over Fort Myers, on Florida's southwest coast, according to Paul Boatman, area manager of the agency.

The DC8 landed in Cuba at 12:26 p.m. EST, Boatman said.

The plane carried 52 passengers and seven crewmen, the agency said.

It left Tampa at 11:32 a.m.

N. Koreans Want Apology For Pueblo Incident

TOKYO (AP) — North Korea said today it will deal with the captured crew of the USS Pueblo "leniently to a certain extent" if the United States "makes a due apology for its crimes and gives assurance against the recurrence of similar hostile acts."

The North Korean position was carried in a commentary broadcast by the official Pyongyang radio.

After repeating its charges that the Pueblo intruded into North Korean waters and committed acts of espionage, and citing "confessions" purported to have been made by its crew, the commentary went on: "The criminal acts perpetrated by the crew of the armed spy ship are grave. But heavier responsibility rests with the U.S. authorities which ordered them to conduct espionage and hostile acts against our country.

"Taking this into consideration, we may deal with the question as far as concerning the crew of the Pueblo leniently to a certain extent, if the U.S. side makes a due apology for its crimes and gives assurance against the recurrence of similar hostile acts. This is a stand for solving the question in a practical way, and there is a precedent for this."

The commentary did not say what the precedent was.

Rusk Offers No Hope For Peace

Sen. Fulbright Wants Pledge Of Consulting

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk said today he can offer no present hope that Hanoi is interested in a peaceful settlement of the Vietnam war.

He also balked, despite heavy pressure from Sen. J. W. Fulbright, at pledging consultation with Congress prior to a presidential decision on whether to send more troops to Vietnam.

MORE MEN

There have been reports President Johnson is considering sending up to 200,000 additional men. A total of 525,000 is now authorized.

Rusk told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee: "There is room for indignation over the repeated rejection by Hanoi of even the smallest step toward peace."

Rusk commented in his second day of testimony before the committee, headed by Fulbright, a critic of the administration's Vietnam policy.

Rusk told the committee: "I cannot lead you to hope that we see at the present time any clear interest by Hanoi in a peaceful settlement in contrast to their persistent efforts to take South Vietnam."

REJECTED

He said the North Vietnamese government at Hanoi had rejected, among other approaches, proposals for a mutual de-escalation without formal negotiations.

"We have deliberately held our hand in the bombing of the North" at times in attempts to bring about an easing of the military effort, Rusk said but he noted no results were forthcoming.

The idea, he said, was to gradually expand the areas of de-escalation. He called it "peace by infiltration."

In an apparent peace feeler to the committee, Rusk proposed private meetings to determine "those elements on which we are in agreement and try to narrow the range" of disagreements.

Fulbright said the conflict had arrived "at a crucial turning point." He demanded consultation before the President makes a final decision.

PLANS

"What I want to talk about is the exact precise plans you have on escalation," Fulbright said. He spoke while presiding over the second day of questioning of Rusk by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, which he heads.

Rusk declared President Johnson has not made a final decision. Fulbright said he took that to mean the committee would not be informed until a decision was reached and then it would merely be informed.

FIRST PRIMARY

Write-In Votes May Set Tone

By The Associated Press

New Hampshire voters launched the 1968 presidential selection drive today with a primary in which the size of the write-in vote may set the tone for the rest of the campaign.

The write-in for President Johnson was the first crucial test of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy's protest campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination.

WRITE-IN

And a write-in effort by New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's backers was the first test of voter strength for former vice president Richard M. Nixon's presidential bid.

Nixon, already looking beyond the New Hampshire primary, challenged Rockefeller Monday to announce as a candidate and meet him in the Nebraska and Indiana as well as the Oregon primaries.

There were indications Rockefeller—who has said he would accept a presidential draft—might permit his name to remain on Oregon's May 28 free-for-all primary ballot.

Rockefeller invited members of the draft-Rockefeller movement in Oregon to meet with him in New York next weekend. An aide said they asked to apprize the governor of their efforts before he decides whether to take his name off the Oregon ballot.

Voters in Mississippi also were at the polls today—where white conservative Charles H. Griffin was the heavy favorite in a runoff against Negro leader Charles Evers for a vacated congressional seat.

McCarthy ended his New Hampshire campaign by accusing Johnson backers of broadcasting a lie and "attacking the motives and loyalty of any man who dares run in an election against the President."

The Minnesota Democrat said Sen. Thomas J. McIntyre, D-N.H., was claiming in radio advertisements that McCarthy would "honor draft dodgers and deserters"—and demanded McIntyre take the radio spots off the air.

OTHER

In other political developments:

—Four Republicans and four Democrats were placed on Oregon's presidential primary ballot. The Republicans are Nixon, Rockefeller, Sen. Charles Percy, R-Ill., and California Gov. Ronald Reagan. The Democrats are Johnson, McCarthy, Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., and former Alabama Gov. George Wallace. Any of the eight can withdraw their names by declaring they are not candidates.

—Wisconsin Atty. Gen. Bronson C. La Follette announced he will be a democratic candidate for governor. His grandfather was the late Sen. Robert M. "Fighting Bob" La Follette Sr. and his father was the late Sen. Robert M. La Follette Jr.

Floods Toll Up

BELO HORIZONTE, Brazil (AP) — Rain-swollen rivers have flooded wide areas of northern Minas Gerais State, killing an estimated 15 persons and leaving some 200,000 homeless, a report to the state's governor says.

Gold Rush Builds Up; Pound, Dollar Improve

LONDON (AP) — A renewed gold rush built up in Europe's bullion markets today. Demand in Paris set a high for the year.

Zurich, London and Rome reported heavy sales approaching last week's high level, but still below the crisis rate of November and December following Britain's devaluation of the pound from $2.80 to $2.40.

Paris sales included 10 tons of 2.2-pound ingots, gold coins, and 40 27.5-pound bars. This compared with the 1968 high of eight tons.

The speculators and hoarders were continuing to drain away the trading resources of the western banking nations despite Sunday's Basel declaration of the international gold pool's central bankers committing their resources to defense of the present price level of $35 an ounce.

Despite the heavy gold buying, the pound and the dollar improved.

British financial experts estimated that hoarders now hold more gold than the combined supply of the United States and the other six of the international gold pool.

Demand at today's price fixing in London was said to be about double that at Monday's opening, when just under 10 tons was bought. The day's total was believed to have been more than 25 tons.

GROUND WAR DWINDLES TO A LULL

One Plane Lost In 76 Missions

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. warplanes knifed through overcast skies Monday on 76 missions against targets in North Vietnam, including another attack on the radio communications station 10 miles southeast of Hanoi.

One Air Force F4 Phantom was downed during the raids, a spokesman said, and the two crewmen are missing. It was the 808th U.S. combat plane announced lost in the air war against the Communist North.

CLAIMS TWO

Hanoi claimed two U.S. planes were shot down during Monday's raids.

Navy A6 Intruder pilots attacked the radio communications receiving station with 500-pound bombs, using their radar to attack through the 2,000-foot ceiling. They reported their bombs were on target and said they also hit a nearby antiaircraft missile site.

The radio station had been hit for the first time Feb. 10.

The American fighter-bombers ranged from the Yen Bai airfield 78 miles northwest of Hanoi to the southern panhandle with these other major targets: The Dong Trieu army barracks 46 miles northeast of Hanoi, the Nam Dinh barracks 45 miles southwest of Haiphong, the Ha Dong barracks eight miles southwest of Hanoi, the Thanh Hoa thermal power plant and the Cam Pha thansformer station.

Over South Vietnam, the Air Force's giant B52 bombers flew eight raids late Monday and today, including six against North Vietnamese troops ringing the U.S. Marines' Khe Sanh combat base in the northwestern corner of the country.

The bombs from the high-flying Stratofortresses crashed into suspected enemy positions within two miles of the besieged Marine base.

The other B52 strikes were against Viet Cong fortifications 25 miles northeast of Saigon and in the central coastal plains 270 miles northeast of Saigon.

The ground war dwindled into a lull for the first time since the Communist command launched the lunar new year offensive Jan. 31.

In the only ground action of any size reported Monday by the U.S. Command, troops of the 196th Light Infantry Brigade scored a lopsided victory in a 7½-hour coastal battle, killing 78 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese at a cost of only two Americans killed and 29 wounded.

The battlefield was on the coastal plains near Tam Ky, 113 miles southeast of the DMZ.

The GIs called in reinforcements and jet fighter-bombers to stagger the enemy for the second time in three days in the area. On Saturday American infantrymen killed 129 enemy troops near Tam Ky; no Americans were killed and only 18 wounded.

The South Vietnamese 2nd Regiment was battered by enemy artillery and rifle fire Monday in a pocket of scrub-brush country six miles south of the DMZ near the U.S. Marine outpost at Dong Ha.

CORNERED

The day before, the South Vietnamese troops cornered a North Vietnamese battalion of about 600 men north of Dong Ha and reported killing 102 of them in an eight-hour fight. South Vietnamese troops maneuvering between Dong Ha and the DMZ have reported eight stiff encounters in the past two weeks.

To the west, North Vietnamese troops encircling Khe Sanh hurled 150 more rounds of mortar, artillery and rocket fire into the Marine combat base Monday. Light casualties were reported.

Barrera Takes Oath

AUSTIN (AP) — With his family—wife, five children, parents, in-laws, aunts, uncles and "innumerable cousins"—overflowing the governor's reception room, Roy Ramiro Barrera was sworn in today as Texas' first Mexican-American secretary of state.

Barrera, 41, of San Antonio, took the oath from a longtime friend Judge John Onion Jr. of the Court of Criminal Appeals.

"I certainly thank God for all the benefits that he has seen fit to bestow upon me and on my family," Barrera said.

"I want to assure Gov. (John) Connally and the people of Texas I shall never hold lightly the oath which I have just taken."

Civil Rights Bill OK Asked By LBJ

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has received a Senate-passed civil rights bill and an appeal from President Johnson to enact the measure which includes landmark open-housing and anti-riot provisions.

House leaders met Monday night, a few hours after the Senate passed the bill 71 to 20, to map plans for getting the measure through to the President.

PROTECTION

The House originally passed the administration bill as a measure concerned only with providing federal protection to Negroes and civil rights workers.

But after seven weeks of Senate debate, the new version provides:

—A ban on discrimination in the sale or rental of all housing except owner-occupied single-family homes sold without the aid of a broker, or portions of dwellings sheltering up to four families provided the owner retains residence. This would mean about 80 per cent of the nation's housing would be covered by 1970.

—Federal law against interference with Negroes and others in the exercise of specified rights, including voting, jury service and use of public accommodations.

—A federal law against crossing a state line and committing other acts to organize or aid in a riot and against involvement in the use or manufacture of guns and explosives for use in a riot.

COMPROMISE

The House must accept the Senate changes or seek a conference to reach a compromise version. The House also could delay action altogether.

Chairman Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., of the House Judiciary Committee, and House Democratic Leader Carl Albert of Oklahoma met for 90 minutes Monday night with Speaker John W. McCormack on parliamentary maneuvers aimed at winning enactment.

In the Senate vote, 29 Republicans voted for the bill, while only three voted against it. Forty-two Democrats voted for it while 17 Democrats—a 11 Southerners—opposed it.

Bill To Remove Gold Cover On U.S. Currency Due Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic leaders express confidence they can send to President Johnson shortly the bill to remove the gold cover on the nation's currency.

The measure, already passed by the House, was due to be considered on the Senate floor today.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield moved it up ahead of schedule at the urgent request of administration officials.

DEVALUE RUMORS

These officials said they were hopeful final congressional action on the measure would contribute stability to the international gold markets, unsettled in recent days amid rumors the United States might be forced to devalue its dollar.

Officials said the world money system—based on a gold price of $35 an ounce—is strong enough to withstand the current gold-buying rush in Europe and any potential shock waves from British devaluation of the pound.

To weather the present gold rush, U.S. officials are relying on the weekend affirmation by key bankers in Europe the gold price would be maintained at $35 an ounce, a similar affirmation by Frederick L. Deming, undersecretary of the Treasury for Monetary Affairs, and quick removal of the gold cover.

GOLD PICTURE

One official said the gold picture might return to normal once the speculators realize the United States is serious about holding the price at $35 an ounce.

Under present law, each $1 in Federal Reserve notes—the only paper money made—must be backed by 25 cents in gold. Lifting this requirement would free over $10 billion in U.S. gold to back the dollar internationally.

Sen. John J. Sparkman, D-Ala., floor manager for the bill to remove the gold cover, was prepared to argue that it must be passed promptly and listed these two major reasons:

—Expected normal increases in the supply of Federal Reserve notes will require a progressively larger reserve requirement in subsequent years. Maintaining the current 25 per cent gold reserve requirement could ultimately interfere with business and unduly limit necessary domestic economic expansion.

—There must be adequate assurance the full amount of U.S. gold reserves would be available if needed to maintain the stability of the dollar at $35 per ounce of gold.

However, several senators promised a fight against the measure, including Frank Church, D-Idaho, and John J. Williams, R-Del.

Leftist Students Try To Reoccupy University

ROME (AP) — Two thousand leftist-led students with a red banner 30 yards long marched into the University of Rome soon after it reopened today and threatened to occupy the entire institution.

Police had been guarding the campus since riots in wich 200 students and police were injured two weeks ago, but they were pulled out during the night. Rector Giovanni D'Avack ordered the university reopened this morning.

Studnet groups demanding a voice in the administration moved in fast. Leftist students reoccupied the faculty of architecture, scene of the bloody fighting two weeks ago.

NO TO BOSSES

Two thousand others formed near Rome's central railway station and marched half a mile to the main campus, carrying signs reading "No to the school of the bosses" and "The university is ours."

They marched under the rector's office windows, shouting "D'Avack get out" and "Occupation! Occupation!"

They moved into the law and physics buildings, scuffling with other students there. Loudspeakers blared out a call for a student rally to decide which buildings to occupy.

Rome University students have been demonstrating sporadically demanding improvement of Italy's antiquated, inadequate university facilities.

Students at other big universities in Milan, Turin, Pisa, Padua, Bologna, Genoa and Palermo joined in the protest demonstrations. Some buildings at these universities still are occupied.

Injured Driver Is Recovering

Joe Porras Jr., of Brownfield, who was injured in an automobile accident early Monday morning, is reported to be in fair condition today at Hall-Bennett Memorial Hospital. Porras, who underwent surgery Monday morning, was the driver of a car that collided with a fence and gas meter at the home of V. T. Gonzales, 303 NE. 9th, at 1:09 a.m. Monday.

City Court Fines Top $550 Mark

Filings were heavy in Corporation Court Monday with 50 charges filed and fines assessed totaling $557. One charge each of theft and driving while intoxicated were transfered to county court.

Twenty-two traffic violations brought $157 in fines and 20 charges of being drunk were fined $375. One charge of minor in possession of alcoholic beverage was filed and fined $25.

Charges dismissed included one traffic violation, one vagrancy, one disturbance and one being drunk. One charge of disturbance was set for hearing on March 14.

MIXED DRINKS, HORSE BETTING, MILK MARKETING

Texans Get Chance To Speak Out May 4

By GARTH JONES
AND
TOM JOHNSON
Associated Press Writers

Texans who think something should be done about the state's confusing liquor laws get a chance May 4 to speak out.

The state Democratic and Republican executive committees readily approved Monday a public opinion poll on legalization of liquor by the drink. The referendum question to be printed on the Democratic and GOP primary ballots along with state and local candidates, is the first chance voters have had to express such opinions statewide since the repeal of prohibition in the 1930s.

LOCAL OPTION

Also on the ballot will be two other straw votes—one on horse race betting after local option elections and one for creation of a state agency to regulate and fix milk prices.

None of the public opinion polls will be binding on the legislature or state officials, even if voted or defeated overwhelmingly by the May 4 voters.

On the mixed drinks question, both ballots will say: "This proposition is only an expression of public opinion and has no force or effect as law" then ask the voter if he is for or against "enactment by the Texas Legislature of a law permitting the legal sale of liquor by the drink in wet areas only after approval by local option elections, and which sale would be subject to strict regulation, effective controls and taxation thereof."

RACING REVENUE

The mixed drink issue was brought up by a subcommittee report that said the referendum was needed because of "the recent developments in the state concerning the Texas liquor laws and the obvious public interest in the Texas liquor laws and the enforcement thereof."

The horse betting poll was directed by a bill passed by the 1967 legislature. The voters will vote for or against enactment of a state law "permitting horse racing with pari-mutuel wagering on a local option basis; creating a Texas Horse Racing Board with the power to regulate pari-mutuel wagering on horse races; granting two per cent of the total pari-mutuel pool each day to each county where there is a licensed race track; and apportioning among all other counties one-half of the total state net revenue from the source."

MILK PETITIONS

The milk marketing poll was brought about by petitions signed by 133,000 persons and presented policy makers of the two major state political parties. Voters will be asked to approve or disapprove "enactment by the Texas Legislature of a law creating the Texas Dairy Commission with the power to regulate and fix the retail and wholesale price of milk."

Spokesmen asking the poll, who said they represented a group of independent milk producers and super market grocery stores, frankly said they hoped the dairy commission idea would be voted down "so we won't have to fight it in the next legislature." A similar commission plan failed in the 1967 legislature.

Prospects For Liquor Revisions Loom

AUSTIN (AP) — The prospect of liquor law revisions during this year's special legislature was raised Monday at a hearing on the Liquor Control Board's proposed $5.7 million budget.

Bill Cobb, Gov. John Connally's chief budget officer, fired questions at the board and its staff about both liquor by the drink and liquor law reform.

LOOSE LAWS

"Do you feel there should be a tigher law passed by the special session to aid and abet you in enforcing the law?" Cobb asked.

"We can operate under the laws as they now exist, but they are loose and ill-defined. We would like to see a strong new act passed by the legislature. The bill introduced by the governor last session would have cured a lot of problems that exist," said board member O.R. Crawford of Jasper.

Crawford, board member Alfred Negley of San Antonio and acting LCB Administrator O.N. Humphreys Jr. were among LCB officials that appeared at the hearing.

MONEY REQUEST

The LCB's money request for the fiscal year starting Sept. 1 is nearly $2.4 million larger than the agency's current appropriation. The hearing on the request was before Cobb and representatives of the legislative budget board.

Connally said later that Cobb's questions about liquor legislation during the special session the governor must call this year did not signify anything in particular. The governor has indicated he might submit liquor law reform, including liquor by the drink, to the special session. He failed last year to get floor action on a bill to legalize public sale of mixed drinks.

"Is this budget adequate to enforce a tighter liquor law and liquor by the drink?" Cobb asked. "Will a tighter liquor law solve the problems Texas is confronted with?"

MORE EMPLOYES

Crawford said liquor by the drink would decrease enforcement problems.

"One way it would reduce the problem is that when a person wants a drink he won't have to buy a fifth . . . But even the new budget and new liquor laws won't cure all our problems," Crawford said.

The board's budget includes funds for 79 more employes, including 30 more liquor inspectors, a personnel director, director of programs, chief of staff services and chief of identifications and fleet management.

Funds are sought for 244 cars, costing $585,600; 232 pistols costing $11,600; 203 in-car radios costing $137,025 and 202 portable red lights, $4,040. Agents now provide their own cars and firearms. There are no radio communications.

Houston Woman Says LCB Is Ignoring 'Moral Issue'

AUSTIN (AP) — A Houston woman told a special House committee studying Texas liquor laws Monday that the Liquor Control Board is not concentrating on the "moral issue."

"Instead, the board seems "to be more concerned about collecting taxes," said Mrs. Ruth Godbey.

The state should not enrich itself "by the degradation of its citizens," she said.

"I have failed to be impressed by the Liquor Control Board," she said.

'BONE DRY'

Mrs. Godbey's community, Houston Heights, she said, is "bone dry. It has always been dry, and I'd like to see it kept that way."

She was the first private citizen to appear before the five-man panel named by Speaker Ben Barnes to examine weaknesses in the state liquor laws.

Rep. R. H. Cory, Victoria, chairman of the committee, said others who want to testify in the near future should appear at the next meeting, March 18, because the committee will hold a series of work sessions after that before taking any more testimony.

BOOZE TESTS

Dallas lawyer Don Cates, representing the Texas Alcohol and Narcotics Education Commission (TANE), recommended several changes in the law, including:

—Increased penalties for sale or service to minors.

—Removal of the word "knowingly" from the law as it pertains to sale or service to minors.

—Graduated penalties for repeated violations of any section of the law.

—Raising the smaller permit and license fees "four or five times" and the larger fees "at least double, maybe triple in some cases."

—Include veterans and fraternal organizations, now exempt, in the act.

—Require local option elections to determine if private clubs may operate in dry areas.

—Legalize chemical tests to determine the alcoholic content of the blood of persons suspected of driving while intoxicated.

—Make all LCB records public.

Inducted as assistant cubmaster and Webelos leader was Bill Splain. Mrs. W. C. Garver was introduced as den mother. An inspection was held by Michael McMullen of Troop 300.

All parents of Scouts are requested to be at the North Birdwell Lane Methodist Church to recharter the pack Friday at 7 p.m., according to Cubmaster M. H. Conner.

Reward Offered By Shop Owner

Oscar Glickman, owner of the Record Shop, 211 Main, has offered $100 reward for information leading to arrest and conviction of person or persons involved in the burglary of the Record Shop on Sunday night.

Merchandise, valued at over $2,500, and $46.38 were taken. Items stolen included 300 stereo tapes, six stereo players, and one record player-radio combination.

Washington Trip Winners

Names of winners of an oratorical contest sponsored by Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative were announced this week by James Hull, manager of the cooperative.

Winnrs whose oratory qualified them for all expense paid trips to Washington, D.C., are Sue Bell, of Westbrook High School, and Ricky Hester, of Ira High School. Sue is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bell, Westbrook. Ricky is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hester, Ira.

The Washington trip winners were among eight high school students from the area served by Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative who delivered an oratory on the subject "Full Speed Ahead Rural Youth," Hull explained. Alternates were Pam James, Ira High School, and Woody Anderson, Colorado High School.

Sue and Ricky will be among 100 young people from all over the state participating in the fourth annual Government - in - Action Youth Tour to the nation's capitol city, June 6 to June 18.

Judges for this year's contest were Jim Eiland and Chuck Elmore, from Stanton, and J. C. Galbreath, from San Angelo.

'Snake Dens' Look Added Attraction

An added attraction of the sixth annual Jaycee Rattlesnake Round-Up March 22-24 will be daily tours to known "snake dens" in the area.

Dr. Harold Smith, who is coordinating publicity for the Round-Up, said bus transportation will leave the Big Spring Fair Grounds four times daily during the three-day festivities. Times and fees have not yet been decided upon, he said, but would be announced before Sunday.

Smith said that photographers were especially encouraged to attend the hunts, as Dalton Carr, longtime Big Spring resident and veteran snake handler will demonstrate the technique of trapping snakes.

Another Small Nation Is Born

PORT LOUIS, Mauritius (AP) — The Union Jack came down on the British island of Mauritius today and another small nation was born, free but poor and rent by feuds.

British Housing Minister Anthony Greenwood stood in for Princess Alexandra as the royal representative at the last minute because of the threat of violence between Moslems, who support independence, and Creoles opposed to it.

MANY JOBLESS

Mauritius, the Indian Ocean island where the flightless Dodo bird became extinct 250 years ago, is "too poor and too small for full independence," says opposition party leader Gaetain Duval, political leader of the Creole mulattoes.

Few Creoles saluted the new flag or paid much attention to the 31-gun salute. Duval estimates unemployment on the island at 20 to 25 per cent in a population of nearly 800,000 squeezed into just 720 square miles. The island's economy is entirely dependent on the sugar crop. Each year about 2,500 of its citizens emigrate to Australia.

A British army spokesman said five unoccupied houses were burned today in various parts of Port Louis. About 250 dwellings have been destroyed by fire since violence broke out in January. That brought in a contingent of British troops, of which 300 remain. At least 30 persons have died in feuding since January and scores are missing.

VIOLENCE

The current wave of violence stems from long simmering racial friction between Creoles and Moslems and began with clashes between prostitution protection gangs. Heavily armed British troops are to patrol Mauritius for at least another month.

The British Commonwealth Office announced in London that the two governments have signed a six-year mutual defense and assistance pact. It provides for consultations in case Mauritian security is threatened, British retention of facilities at the Mauritius communications center and Pleasance Airfield, and the assignment of some British personnel to serve with the Mauritius police.

As God's dear children, try to be like him, and live in love as Christ loved you. (Ephesians 5:1, NEB)

Breathing Room For Urban Finance

An impressive measure of the financial pressure on American municipal governments to meet mounting urban needs is the sharp increase in cities' outstanding debt. That jumped from $23.2 billion in 1960 to $33.7 billion by 1966 and is still rising at about that rate.

Any sound way to make that municipal debt load more manageable should be welcomed. There are ways available, and one is a unanimously Senate-passed bill now pending in the U.S. House.

That bill (S.1306) would allow commercial banks to underwrite and deal in state and local revenue bonds. The resulting increase in competition to handle such bonds could reasonably be expected to help lower their interest rates, now rather high despite the fact that such interest income is federal income-tax free.

Texas cities and counties can now issue revenue bonds to finance projects that produce sufficient income (as in user fees) to pay off the principal and interest of the bonds. Unlike the regular general obligation bonds, which have first call on tax revenues, the revenue bonds are not secured by tax assessments—a bondholder's risk that makes the interest rates higher.

Revenue bonds are an excellent way to finance sound and needed income-producing public projects. And projects have to be reasonably sound for such bonds to be marketable at all. With more favorable interest rates on revenue bonds, state and local governments could use more of them for progress with less burden on taxpayers.

Inexplicably, bills for commercial bank handling of governmental revenue bonds have been twice rejected by the House, but the current bill is the first to be backed by all banking regulatory agencies, including the Federal Reserve Board. The bill is in the House Banking and Currency Committee, headed by Rep. Wright Patman, D-Texas, who also is chairman of the economic progress subcommittee of Congress' Joint Economic Committee that has for two years been studying municipal credit problems.

Remember The Alamo

For the first time the Daughters of the Republic of Texas are asking the public to help maintain the Alamo and improve its facilities. The response should be no less generous than that state shrine is inspirational.

In 1903, Miss Clara Driscoll of Corpus Christi bought what was left of the Alamo when it was about to be demolished. The Texas Legislature later reimbursed her and turned the Alamo over to the DRT to be restored, maintained and operated at no cost to the state. They have done a great job, but now they need help.

Last fall the DRT state board voted to maintain the laudable admission-free tradition of the Alamo, despite the higher operating costs expected from increased visitors during Hemis-Fair. More money is needed to improve the Alamo library, which now holds a million-dollar collection of manuscripts and rare books; especially needed are vaults to protect that treasure and more reading space to add to its usefulness. And additional funds also are needed to complete the new Alamo museum recently opened to the public.

DRT resources are strained, the Alamo income from book and souvenir sales is not much help. So the Charles S. Taylor Dallas chapter has chartered a foundation to raise a million-dollar endowment to provide about $50,000 annually for Alamo maintenance and improvement.

The Dallas chapter is counting on support from the other 60 or more chapters in Texas and from all other Texans who value the Alamo as one of the world's outstanding historic sites. Surely statewide support will be forthcoming.

Signs Of Stormy Weather

WASHINGTON — The District of Columbia will never rank with other municipalities as a "convention city," but sometimes — as last week — it becomes a sudden storm center of partisan politics.

THERE WERE three areas of disturbance. The national governors meeting saw Nelson Rockefeller toss away the mask of non-candidate and take up the mistletoe of a kiss-me draft-seeker. The Kerner Commission on Civil Disorders went into hysteria in reporting what everybody already knew about American race relations. Across town the 400 members of the Young Republican leadership-training school refused to be stampeded by the foregoing events. They welcomed Richard Nixon to their reception, having already polled heavily for Nixon (160), Ronald Reagan (85) and Rockefeller a poor third (42) as presidential choices. While these happenings were mounting to their separate climaxes, President Johnson flew off on his broomstick to make unannounced and excessively cautious campaign appearanced at places where there was maximum security but minimum votes.

THESE MOVEMENTS of political air-masses forecast the thunderheads, tornadoes, drouths and rainfall to be anticipated in the electoral season. Rockefeller found that more than half of the 26 Republican governors smiled upon his candidacy, but that only a half-dozen were willing to go beyond that. This comes out to mean that Rocky is no more strongly supported after announcing his availability than he was beforehand.

THE KERNER REPORT made its unsurprising revelation that whites and Negroes don't get along very well, and that there exist "separate and unequal" economic segments in our population. It issued a clarion call for instant miracles which no candidate can produce but which most of them will promise. This is a situation that invites the howling winds of demagogy in the campaigning ahead.

TO MAKE THINGS worse, the Commission flailed the white majority for its "racism," its economic superiority and its alleged responsibility for creating the Negro slums. It seems a pity that no presidential aspirant, unless it's George Wallace, is likely to protest this hysterical indictment of the American majority. None of the major candidates shows signs of addressing the problem with any fair apportionment of biracial blame for these undoubtedly horrendous conditions. Instead, we are apt to hear shrill competition among them to out-lament and out-shout the Commission.

THE YOUNG REPUBLICANS, holding training seminars on get-out-the-vote practicalities, were examples of admirable restraint but were not immune to the schizophrenia of their party. The practicalities of '68 call for find-a-winner, but it comes hard for the YR's to choose sensibility above sentiment, to accept Rockefeller who penetrates the Democratic rnaks over Nixon who doesn't. And with all the need to break into the middle-class Negro vote, the YR's did not show me a single black face at either the dinner or the panel where I was their guest.

STORMY WEATHER is the prognostication — perhaps not so much because the elements are in tumult as because they are rushing to fill in a political vacuum.

The Republicans have one man who hasn't proved he can win an election, and another who hasn't proved he can win the nomination. The Democrats have a President who can't openly campaign for fear of the mobs. The country has a Negro problem and no solution except rhetoric.

It is a time without heroes, and that is the most fearsome vacuum of all.

Billy Graham

I have a dear friend whose son was injured in a car accident. She is taking her despair out upon God, just when she needs Him most. My own father suffered a stroke and was left crippled, but his faith was such an inspiration and challenge to all of us. What can I say to my friend who is trying to bear her burden all alone? E. N.

It is strange that some people turn from their only Source of help in time of great need. If I were you I would try to point out to her that her son, who is the one really being hurt by her vindictiveness, needs to know that God loves him. The one comforting thing to me is that God is concerned for us, loves us and never will forsake us. If I did not believe this, I too would be a victim of despair. I well sympathize with your friend who is undergoing this anguished experience. But it is a great mistake to alienate ourselves from the One we need most at a time like this. We should always remember that God has more reason to be disappointed in us, than we have to be disillusioned with Him. But, despite our unfaithfulness, He is always faithful. Despite our sin, He is always forgiving, and despite our heartache, He is always ready, able and willing to heal the brokenhearted.

My favorite text is the one my mother taught me when I was a little boy: John 3:16. I like it because it so simply and wonderfully spells out the unfeigned love of God. We are all suffering, perishing men and women. But the Bible tells us that "God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him, should not perish, but have everlasting life." Your friend has tasted deeply of pain, but Christ wants to bear the heavy end of her burden, but as long as she remains bitter against God, she cannot be a recipient of His love and grace.

Integrated Education Essential?

WASHINGTON (AP) — The report by the President's riot commission lends support to those agreeing with U.S. Commissioner of Education Harold Howe's contention that "for an American citizen, segregated education cannot be excellent."

Howe's recent statement refers to the racially unbalanced schools of the North as well as to segregated Southern schools.

THE RIOT commission report contends integrated education "is essential to the future of American society. In this last summer's disorders, we have seen the consequences of racial isolation at all levels, and of attitudes toward race on both sides, produced by three centuries of myth, ignorance and bias."

But the government not only has no authority to move against racial imbalance as such, it is barred from doing so by an amendment to the 1964 Civil Rights Act.

It can—and does—provide federal funds to help schools, by busing or other means, to overcome racial imbalance for educational reasons.

FEDERAL officials acknowledge the actions of local school districts in attacking racial imbalance have been small in view of the large-scale racial separation in the big cities of the North.

But Dr. Gregory Anrig, director of the Office of Education's equal opportunity operation, says "we're hearing of an awful lot of school districts that are trying to do something" to reduce imbalance.

THE GOVERNMENT soon will begin its first major investigation of discrimination against Negroes in Northern school systems. Discriminating districts will lose federal aid.

But this effort cannot be directed head-on at racial imbalance. It will be limited to requiring school boards to assure that Negro pupils are treated equally with whites.

CONGRESS could pass a law authorizing federal action against imbalance. But that seems highly unlikely for now. Even liberal Northern Democrats would shy away from such action because of powerful pressure from white voters against enforced mixing—and the busing that often goes with it.

The open-housing law under consideration in Congress clearly would lead to more school integration. But federal officials say housing patterns would change only very slowly.

WHAT HOLDS back any big national move against racial imbalance is that the 1954 Supreme Court decision and the 1964 Civil Rights Act struck down school segregation by law but not segregation that comes about because of where people live.

Many federal officials believe racial imbalance in the North will not be changed for many years unless the federal courts, and finally the Supreme Court, rule against it.

SOME officials predict that may well happen within the next year or two.

Derrick Bell, a legal expert of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, predicts the Supreme Court will in effect rule against all school segregation.

HE PREDICTS the court will conclude that Negro youngsters cannot get an equal educational opportunity in schools that are all or mostly Negro.

Yet even such a decision would hardly bring instant, nationwide mixing of white and Negro pupils. The government still hasn't brought about complete compliance with the court's decision of 14 years ago.

Stella Lands Sexy Role

NEW YORK (AP) — The American male who has trouble thinking of Stella Stevens without remembering that she posed nude for a men's magazine should think about this: She plays a nun in her next movie.

Stella has appeared three times in Playboy magazine layouts, but she says she's still hard put to figure out what all the fuss is about. "What really is the big deal about it?" she asks.

SHE SEES IT strictly as an investment. "If some of the people who see the layouts remember your name and see you in a movie you couldn't buy that kind of publicity for any amount of money."

But when she is pressed she does admit that she is a little bit pleased by the fact that many people still find nudity shocking. "If nudity was just really so passe, you know, that would take all the fun out of it," she said.

ANYONE who's seen Stella in the magazine may not recognize her immediately in her next film. The nun's habit she wears is rather concealing—although she did wear a bikini underneath when it got too hot on location filming in New Mexico.

The movie, a comedy called "Where Angels Go . . . Trouble Follows," traces the peregrinations of several nuns taking a group of girls across country on a school bus to a youth rally in California.

"I play a nun who is kind of a mod nun. The kids in the school call her a groovy nun," she said.

MISS STEVENS, sitting in her hotel suite, wearing a chocolate brown micromini skirt and sipping a cola drink, said that despite the pictures she has never played a sexy role on the screen. That comes next in "Doctors' Wives."

"I really get to play a bad girl in it," she said. "I play a girl who has six affairs in the movie. So, she's really a terrible girl and a wonderful girl. I'm looking forward to this.

"It's like the old Bette Davis movies, I guess, where everybody hates you, you know, but still has to love you in some way. These people are always the most exciting to play."

Can Gout Be Fatal? Here's The Answer

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: Can you settle a dispute which involves what might be an important question: Can gout ever be fatal? "A" says it can be frightfully painful but is never fatal. "B" says it can cause death. Which is right? — J. A.

You are correct in saying that this can be an important question.

I don't think that anyone ever died from a swollen, exquisitely tender big toe (the favorite place for gout to strike). In that sense, I guess we can say it isn't a "fatal disease."

But it is important to look at it another way. Gout is the result of an excessive build-up of uric acid and urates in the body. Tophi, or crystals of urates can form in the joints, and pain can strike elsewhere than in the toe.

But the dangerous aspect, aside from the pain and disability, is that the buildup of uric acid also can cause kidney stones to form, and a substantial number of deaths are reported each year from kidney damage gradually caused by stones.

The deaths may go on the death certificates as "kidney disease," but the real, underlying cause is uric acid, the same thing which causes gout.

Therefore the person who takes effective steps to reduce his uric acid very often is lengthening his life as well as protecting himself from attacks of gout. I have seen figures as high as 10,000 for the number of deaths attributed in a year to kidneys damaged by stones traced to high uric acid.

Modern drug treatment can bring down the uric acid to a safe level and keep it down.

Dear Dr. Molner: For about four years I have been drinking cola drinks the way an alcoholic drinks liquor, sometimes a case a week.

I have never heard that they could hurt a person, but lately it seems I have been very nervous and shaky and am wondering if that could have anything to do with it. — K.S.

The cola drinks contain caffeine, just as coffee and tea do. It's the caffeine that gives any of these drinks their pick-me-up effect. But also too much caffeine can make people jittery. Some folks can tolerate quite a bit; some very little. So why don't you cut out the cola, or other sources of caffeine, and see whether your nerves calm down? If they do, you've had the message: Limit your caffeine intake.

"Tips On How To Stop Smoking," by Dr. Molner, will help you give up the habit. To receive a copy of the booklet, write to Dr. Molner in care of The Herald, enclosing with your request 10 cents in coin and a long, self - addressed, stamped envelope.

Dr. Molner welcomes all reader mail, but regrets that due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible.

Around The Rim

Pair Of Homicidal Maniacs

I never actually met the notorious pair now so widely in the spotlight and known too admiringly, it seems to me, by the names "Bonnie and Clyde."

I was very much around when these gunhappy hoodlums were on a rampage over the Southwest and I was handling news copy on a daily newspaper from the time they first broke into print until that day when they were eliminated on a rutted country road in Louisiana.

I HAD NO admiration for the pair then and even less now.

I remember an April 6, 1934, when Bonnie and Clyde were in the vicinity of Commerce, Okla. Commerce had a 60-year-old constable whose last name was Campbell. He was not a professional lawman — he was constable because the Depression, then very much with us, had put him out of business and he had to take any job he could to feed his family. His pay was $15 a week.

He heard that a car had broken down near town and being goodhearted, he drove out — not to arrest or harass anyone — but to help the motorist get his car going. He and another policeman drove up to the scene. As they stepped from the car, glamorous Clyde and Bonnie opened fire with shotguns. The constable was killed and the other man badly wounded.

AUG. 5, 1932. The town was Atoka, Okla. Ruined by the Depression, a man, 31 years old with a sizable family, had accepted a job as a deputy sheriff. He and another officer were checking out a dance at Stringtown. Their car got stuck in a rut. They walked over to a parked car to ask the occupants to give them a hand. The occupants were that "romantic" pair, Bonnie and Clyde. They opened fire with shotguns. The deputy was killed; the other man was left a cripple for life. Oh, yes, my little pals, Bonnie and Clyde were fine admirable people and the lawmen were pushing them unjustly around without due regard for their rights.

ON JUNE 23, 1933, the city marshal of a little Arkansas town called Alma got a call that somebody had robbed a store. He and another officer were asked to block a road. The Parker-Barrow gang rammed into another car just as this Alma marshal and his fellow officer reached the scene. As the two got out of their car they were blasted by Bonnie and Clyde with their trusty shotguns. The marshal was hit ten times.

UP AT SAGINAW, Mo., (pop. 189) on April 13, 1933, a constable who got no regular salary — just fees — was asked by Joplin police to serve a warrant on some persons they suspected of being the Barrow gang. As the constable stepped onto the porch of the house with the paper in his hand — guess what?

Bonnie and Clyde were inside with their shotguns and blew the man to pieces. Why not — they were the great Bonnie Parker and the greater Clyde Barrow and no one could push them around.

THESE ARE just a few. Add two highway patrolmen they shot down without warning on a Texas highway. Add numerous others who were slain just to make Bonnie and Clyde crash the front pages.

Make a movie about them and portray them as glamourous and admirable?

Not for my benefit. I remember them as they were — homicidal maniacs with no saving graces that I can recall.

Division Among The Democrats

WASHINGTON — Massachusetts and Minnesota have given the rebel forces of Sen. Eugene McCarthy a great lift. They are looking beyond New Hampshire to Wisconsin as the next big jump to assure their candidate for the Presidency a formidable bloc of delegates.

Of the 15 states with Presidential primaries Wisconsin is the trickiest. When the voters go to the polls on April 2 they can ask for either a Democratic or a Republican ballot. They can write in the name of anyone they choose or they can vote no signifying they don't like any candidate.

SINCE RICHARD M. Nixon will have no contest, following Gov. George Romney's withdrawal, a sizable number of Republicans are expected to cross over and vote against President Johnson in the Democratic primary. John McIver, Nixon chairman in Wisconsin, said he believes the crossovers will be at least as heavy as they were in 1964. Four years ago George C. Wallace of Alabama got 34 per cent of the Democratic vote and a large share of this was put down to Republicans intending to embarrass the President.

McCARTHY lieutenants are saying that with the crossovers their man may get as high as 40 to 45 per cent of the vote and possibly as many as 16 to 20 delegates out of the 40 to be elected in the state's 10 districts. Another 20 go to the candidate with a majority of the popular vote.

The Presidential primaries are like an obstacle race with a rapid succession of menacing water jumps. They are fine for the challenger as John F. Kennedy demonstrated in 1960, but they are hell on the incumbent seeking re-election.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON is discovering the hazards of the primary route. Whether the blame lies with the fumbling mysteries of the tribal politics of Massachusetts Democrats or with Washington, the President's managers holding the option until the 59th minute of the last hour let the 72 delegates go by default to McCarthy. Only where the law makes it mandatory — in Wisconsin, Nebraska and Oregon — will the Johnson name stay on the ballot. In the end the McCarthy delegates, even if there are several hundred, will count for nothing at the Chicago convention. That is the comfort the President's managers cherish.

WHATEVER THE gimmicky nature of the primaries, as with the crossovers in Wisconsin, every sounding indicates that the McCarthy vote expresses a deeply emotional protest against the war in Vietnam and the Johnson policy. Not in this century has a party in power seeking a return to office encountered such a profoundly divisive issue.

JOHNSON SAYS that once the convention chooses the candidate Democrats will close ranks and unite behind the leader. But will they? That cannot be said of the thousands of dedicated young people working for McCarthy. They can hardly vote for Nixon. But they can stay home and, along with a large majority of the intellectual community, they can deny the Democrats the yeast of ideas and enthusiasm they have supplied in the past.

Red Power Instead Of Black Power

WASHINGTON — Belsky, my Negro friend, was not impressed with the riot report that Gov. Kerner and his commission have just issued.

"The trouble with the riot report," said Belsky, "is that there was no Communist threat implied in it."

"What on earth do you mean, Belsky?" I said.

"Congress isn't going to act on a report that doesn't have a Commie threat in it," Belsky said.

"BUT THERE were warnings in the report of riots and turmoil unless something is done about the ghettos."

"It's not the same thing," Belsky said. "You can talk about threats, frustration, inequities, poverty, joblessness and anything you want to, but nobody is going to take notice unless you have a Communist menace thrown in somewhere."

"But that doesn't sound right," I said.

"LOOK, MAN, we're spending hundreds of millions of dollars each day out there in Vietnam to win the hearts and minds of people we don't even know or understand. Why? Because they are being threatened by communism. Every time the President goes to Congress and says 'I've got to have a few billion dollars more, or else the Commies are going to take over that poor little country,' wham —he gets the money."

"Of course, and he should. You don't want to fight communism on the shores of Hawaii, do you?" I said.

"NO, SIR. But what I'm trying to say is that you aren't going to get any action in this country until you can prove that the Commies are fighting to win the hearts and minds of the black people. You get that message over to Congress and they're not going to filibuster very long."

"Then you think if the Negro could prove that there is an international conspiracy to win over the Negroes to godless communism, we might start a crash program to improve the conditions of the ghettos?" I said.

"I'M SURE OF IT. America can live with poor people, it can live with jobless people, it can even live with angry people, but it can't live with Communist people. If the Negroes say to the Establishment, 'Hey, fellows, we got a Red threat in this here ghetto and we need some dollars to straighten it out,' there would be so many Brinks trucks trying to deliver the money that there would be a traffic jam."

"It sounds good on paper, but would Congress go for it? After all, it's one thing to have a threat 10,000 miles away and help people out there to improve their standard of living. But if you start doing the same thing in your own country, you're going to get an awful lot of people mad at you."

"I DIG," Belsky said. "But the best record the United States has since World War II is in helping out any country threatened with communism. When we make a commitment to a country to prevent it from going Communist, we honor it, no matter how much money it's going to cost. Now if the Negroes and the white do-gooders would stop talking about all the social ills in the ghettos, and just harp on the theme that all the black people in this country want is to keep from going Communist, the white people are going to take a second look at this problem."

"It probably would make them sit up."

"You bet your life it would make them sit up. You go to Congress during an election year and talk about 'Red Power' instead of 'Black Power' and even George Wallace is going to be scared."

A LOVELIER YOU

Allergenic Cosmetics Help Skin Problems

By MARY SUE MILLER

A Lovely mother writes: My young daughter is just beginning to use cosmetics. I now suspect she is allergic to something in her make-up. After applications she often sneezes and coughs for a long time. How serious is this? Could a cosmetic allergy ever bring on asthma or other respiratory ailments?

The Answer: According to Dr. Itkin of the National Jewish Hospital at Denver, an institution specializing in the most difficult asthma cases, cosmetic allergies seldom result in asthma. Rather cosmetic allergies make persons already suffering with asthma more uncomfortable.

Actually about seven million Americans are susceptible to some form of cosmetic allergy. The number grows as more men use more cosmetics. The symptoms well may be sneezing and wheezing, plus itchy eyelids, skin rash, scalp irritation and peeling lips.

The first step to relief is a visit to your doctor for a proper diagnosis. What appears to be a "simple" allergy may be something more serious. Vice versa, what looks like an acute problem may be an allergy that responds quickly to treatment.

Of course there is an extra measure of safety and an equal measure of glamor in the use of hypo-allergenic cosmetics. The best of brands rule out 60 known irritants in their formulations.

AUSTIN (AP) — There will be a pre-nuptial party a day this week for Miss Sharon Connally, daughter of Gov. and Mrs. John Connally. Miss Connally will marry Robert Ammann III of Austin at the executive mansion March 23.

"The effervescent young bride is planning a traditional wedding and everybody at the governor's mansion is busy with consultations about flowers, cakes, clothes, music and a myriad of details that must be decided," the handout from the family said.

Miss Connally, 18, was a freshman and a Delta Delta Delta sorority pledge at the University of Texas last semester. She left school this semester to prepare for the wedding. She and Ammann, 21, both attended Austin High School.

The family said the wedding may be held in the newly landscaped garden of the mansion if the weather permits.

BUYING TIPS

Gets Money's Worth When Buying Range

By GENEVIEVE S. WOOD

Now that so many conveniences are standard equipment throughout most of the price lines of ranges, homemakers are turning their attention to features that hitherto have not received much attention. One of these is larger ovens, and another is a range that is easily cleaned.

The demand for larger ovens is causing many women to choose the 30-inch range, which is made with one capacious oven and a broiler underneath. They prefer this model to the wider range with two smaller ovens, an oven and a broiler, or the style that has a storage compartment beside the oven.

This desire for more oven space also is contributing to the popularity of the newest model range with the eye level oven—that is, with the oven built above the cooking top. This also means a much larger single oven. The necessity of lifting a heavy roast or turkey up to or down from the oven is compensated for by the fact that the cooking top immediately below provides a place to set the roasting pan.

The problem of lifting heavy roasting pans and carrying them to a resting place—sometimes across the kitchen — has dampened the enthusiasm of many homemakers for the separate oven. So if you are building or renovating a kitchen, this is a point you will want to keep in mind. If you are considering a range with an eye level oven, be sure to check whether the space above the back burners is high enough to permit cooking in a good size sauce pan or pot.

EASIER CLEANING

Easy cleanability is getting to be a must in ranges. A giant step in this direction was the pull-out ovens introduced several years ago. Now "self-cleaning" electric ovens are available—ovens in which the grease is burned off at extremely high temperatures. All ovens have removable bottoms, grids and racks, and some have sides that will slip out. Every practicing housewife knows that even with today's cleaning preparations some scrubbing is necessary, and that it is the hard-to-reach top and back of the oven that is their Waterloo.

Another new feature that is available now in many lines is the pull-out cooking top. These cooking tops slide back under a cover when not in use that creates more counter space. They also give a kitchen a smart streamlined appearance.

Today ranges are actually selling at lower prices than they were 10 years ago. Many conveniences formerly restricted to higher price models are available through entire price lines. Ranges are better built and considerably better designed than they were some years ago. For one thing, they are simpler in design and therefore are easier to keep sparkling clean.

Some of the newer features that mean greater convenience are:

When the gas valve is opened an electric spark ignites the pilot light. This contributes to the coolness of the kitchen since the pilot light does not burn all the time.

THERMOSTATIC CONTROL

Gas ranges have top burners that can be set at the temperature desired. This makes for economy in the use of fuel, and the elimination of burned foods.

A timing device turns the oven on at a predetermined time, then turns it off later.

SMOKELESS BROILING

High heat in broilers consumes grease and largely eliminates smoke. Deeper pans reduce grease spatter.

CONVENIENCES

Clocks, dual purpose griddle-rotisserie equipment, doors with see-through glass sections, salt and pepper shakers, deep wells, clocks, and lights, are older, secondary conveniences. All these make cooking easier—if you use them.

International Club Has Anniversary

The International Wives Club observed its seventh anniversary Friday evening in the First Federal Community Room with Mrs. Glen Burton, president, extending the welcome to honored guests.

Guests, other than husbands of members, were Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Marshall and daughter, Nancy, Mrs. Ed Keller and Mrs. Jerry Martin.

Background music from different countries was played during the social hour, and a variety of foreign dishes were served from the hors d'oeuvre table. Club officers were hostesses, and members were attired in colorful costumes representing their homelands.

The next meeting will be at 7:30 p.m., April 11.

Show Lines At Pearl Pavillion

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Fashion creators unveiled luxury lines of evening gowns and sophisticated daytime wear here last week against hte quaint background of a German beer garden.

In an event staged at the Pearl Pavillion of Hemisphere '68, member designers of the Texas Fashion Creators Association introduced their lines for the summer season.

A pacesetter of the Clifton Wilhite Co. collection was a party dress of black cascading ruffles dropped from a perky bow. Shoulders were bare except for tiny cord straps.

Dorcia Originals made a fall style prediction in a cinnamon straight line woven wool dress that slipped to a V-point in front and back. It was complemented by a sweeping ruana cape jacket. The firm acknowledged that this design was for "high steppers only."

Buttons were used by several designers as accents and by all for practical purposes, but Cupaioli-Leeds, Ltd. made them do double duty in a unique creation. The three-piece light green cotton ensemble featured a diagonal front opening with large contrasting buttons below a spread collar. A self-belt bowed across the back.

The midi-length skirt made its appearance in a Charles Dickey design of a hound's tooth checkered jumper. A black ruffled V-neck drew the eye to the wide black patton belt at the waist.

Earl R. Shepard's collection included a frilly feminine dress with a flaring skirt below a ruffled neckline and tight self belt with the new round buckle. The sleeves were a unique cup design.

One of the designers of the step-in bra, Henson-Kickernick, showed a silky beige chemise with a built-in shape called the "Teddy bra." The slip is of a static-free nylon which helps prevent knits from stretching.

Miller-Randazzo drew applause with a white textured weave cotton Jacquard ensemble trimmed in black satin at the cuffs, neck and pocket. It was fastened with gold rimmed pearl buttons and a black belt.

A collection from Mike Benet was keyed to luxury and elegence for the high school and college set. Prominent ruffles adapted to the designer's little girl look. In a Benet creation for the modern southern belle, a large lace-edged ruffle flounce at the neckline was repeated in a five-tier ruffled skirt.

Johnson's Vietnam Policy Due New Hampshire Test

CONCORD, N.H. (AP)— New Hampshire voted today with Richard M. Nixon's Republican prospects and Eugene J. McCarthy's Democratic protest—as well as his political bankroll—at stake in the nation's opening presidential primary.

NIXON LEADS

The first trickle of ballots, from the ski country of the White Mountains, sent McCarthy and Nixon off ahead.

In the tiny village of Waterville Valley, there were eight votes for McCarthy and two write-in votes for Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y. President Johnson didn't get a vote in that hamlet, where the ballots were cast moments after midnight.

'GAMESMANSHIP'

Nixon received eight Republican votes, there were four write-ins for New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and one Republican wrote McCarthy's name on his ballot.

Even before the ballot casting began, Nixon acknowledged that "gamesmanship" would be a major factor in determining who were the winners and who were the losers in the lead-off voting of the 1968 presidential race.

Nixon's only Republican challenge was the late-starting write-in move for Rockefeller and the only real question for the former vice president is the margin by which he runs ahead.

"I figure this," Nixon said, "if we win two to one I'll be happy."

There may have been a bit of gamesmanship in that. By forecasting Rockefeller would get 30 per cent or more of the vote, Nixon was setting a target far higher than that chosen by the New Yorker's supporters. Former Gov. Hugh Gregg, promoting the write-in, said 15,000 Rockefeller votes would amount to success in New Hampshire. Nixon said that could not be considered a serious estimate and had to be rated too low.

The same thing was going on in the Democratic race. McCarthy said he hoped to obtain 30 per cent of the vote and added it was "probably a little too much" to forecast a victory in his campaign of protest against Johnson's course in the Vietnam war.

BIG SPENDERS

Johnson's promoters said McCarthy might get up to 40 per cent of the vote against the write-in effort being staged for the President.

McCarthy men acknowledged they needed a substantial showing in New Hampshire to get the campaign contributions they will need for the primaries still ahead. New Hampshire has cost McCarthy's campaign organization at least $150,000 probably more. Gov. John W. King, chief spokesman for the Johnson effort, claimed the figure was nearer $250,000.

In any event, McCarthy, with five primaries still ahead, needed a sizable showing in New Hampshire to encourage financial backers. One McCarthy aide said a 30 per cent share of the vote probably would guarantee a continuing war chest for the challenge to Johnson.

LOOKING AHEAD

Nixon was looking ahead too, to a possible confrontation with Rockefeller, unannounced but on the brink of candidacy for the Republican presidential nomination.

"I have chosen to submit my case to the people in the primary states," the former vice president said, challenging Rockefeller anew to do the same. Nixon said Rockefeller cannot prove his vote-pulling power by contesting only the Oregon presidential primary, due May 28 and rated the most likely spot for a confrontation.

"After all," he said, "Oregon would not be representative of the country. That is the only state he has ever won outside of New York."

Work On Dam At 60 Per Cent

Work on the dam for the Colorado River Municipal Water District above Robert Lee is nearing the 60 per cent completion mark.

The contractor, Clement Bros. of Hickory, N.C., has moved nearly 8,000,000 cubic yards of dirt so far. Of this, 1,824,261 cubic yards are in core trench excavation and another 6,067,642 cubic yards are in wetted, rolled embankment for the dam. By the time the job is finished, more than 13,000,000 cubic yards of materials will have been moved.

In addition to the core trench and embankment, the contractor has put 31,080 cubic yards of crushed rock blanket on the face of the dam, topped by 69,332 cubic yards or heavy rock rip rap.

Work on the big spillway through the center of the dam is estimated at 55.42 per cent of completion.

Weather has slowed work within the past month, but the contractor remains ahead of schedule. The target date for starting closure of the dam is by the first of September.

Police Check Minor Mishaps

Six minor accidents were reported to police Monday. Two hundred yards west of the city limits on IS 20, Dora Casbeer Long, Slidell, and Raymond H. Matthies, Route One, were in an accident. Lola Graves Johnson, 2216 Lynn, collided with a parked car in the Highland Shopping Center parking lot.

Richard Alan Stone, Route One, and Faustino T. Aguilar, 1201 Lamar, were in collision at Fourth and Birdwell. Clyde William Massey, 1708 S. Monticello, and Oswald Cryus Wetzel Jr., San Angelo, were involved in an accident at 413 E. 3rd.

At Fourth and Gregg, Roger Dale Peacock, 3623 Dixon, and Billy Jack Kuykendall, Sterling City, were in an accident. Benjamin T. Cannady, Jackson, Miss., and James Thomas Hicks, San Francisco, Calif., were in collision at US 80 west and Wright.

Two Guilty Pleas In County Court

Two guilty pleas were accepted in Howard County Court on Monday.

Billy Lee Sexton, charged with DWI, was fined $100, assessed costs in the case and placed on three months probation.

Virgil Peter Faltysek, charged with DWI, drew a fine of $100, costs and placed on three months probation.

Picture Removed From Road Maps

SANTA FE, N.M. (AP) — Gov. David Cargo has consented to having his picture removed from New Mexico highway maps.

Cargo said Monday several thousand maps have been thrown away in the past due to changeovers in administrations. Maps without pictures of the incumbent governor will mean longer use of expensive plates and art work.

Vietnamese House Kills No Confidence Proposal

SAIGON (AP) — A move to force the South Vietnamese House of Representatives to consider a no confidence vote against the government has been killed for the time being, House officials said today.

The officials announced that a number of representatives had withdrawn their signatures from a petition which would have put on the House agenda a discussion of whether or not to call a vote of no confidence.

Last week, backers of the petition had collected more than 50 signatures, well above the one-third of the 135 members required to bring the petition before the house.

Several politicians thought the government of President Nguyen Van Thieu had pressured some of the representatives into withdrawing their signatures.

A few signers said they had decided this was not the proper time to bring a motion of no confidence. They added, however, that they could decide to sign again later.

Meanwhile, informed sources said today the Thieu government plans to remove as many as 15 of South Vietnam's 44 province chiefs. The government announced Monday that six province chiefs had been fired.

Snow Breaks Power Lines

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — An air-borne avalanche of wet snow descended on Oklahoma and blanketed the state several inches deep from border to border Monday.

At least three cities—Coweta, Broken Arrow and Haskell—were reported without electric power for varying times. Sporadic power losses in parts of other towns were reported all over the state as power lines snapped under the wet, clinging snow, ice and high winds.

An estimated 3,500 homes in Tulsa were left without power.

Scores of schools suspended classes Tuesday.

Travel was discouraged by the highway patrol, and what little movement there was on state roads was in slow motion.

Tulsa's airport closed during the afternoon and Will Rogers World Airport at Oklahoma City reported only one flight had left since mid-day.

Snow was drifting seriously in many areas because of wind gusts 40 to 50 miles per hour. The snow continued in all areas Monday night.

Drifts four feet deep accumulated at Lawton in the southwest, where four inches had fallen.

At least three traffic deaths were connected with the storm.

Hotels and motels across the state were jammed, many guests unable to get home from their jobs.

Thai Ammo Blast Kills U.S. Airmen

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — An ammunition dump for U.S. bombers attacking North Vietnam blew up in northeast Thailand Monday night, killing two American airmen and wounding 10 others, the U.S. Embassy announced. Three Thai guards also were wounded.

An embassy spokesman said the cause of the explosion had not been determined, "but it is presumed to be accidental." There was speculation, however, that the blast was set off by Communist terrorists who are active in northeast Thailand.

The U.S. spokesman said a bunker containing 3,750-pounds bombs exploded at 9:30 p.m. four miles south of the big U.S. air base at Korat, 125 miles northeast of Bangkok. The dump serves the F105 fighter-bombers of the 388th Tactical Fighter Wing.

Heart Committee To Name Slate

Dr. Joseph Spano, internal medicine specialist at Webb AFB Hospital, presented a report on his attendance at the American College of Cardiologists convention in San Francisco, Calif., to the board of directors of the Howard County Heart Association Monday night at the Veterans Administration Hospital.

Mrs. Donald D. Van Meter, association president, announced that Charles Butts, treasurer, had reported $2,900 collected in donations for the Heart Fund. She said that this total excluded memorial contributions and that donations and special gifts are still being received.

A nominating committee was selected to recommend a slate of officers for the April election. Chairman is Mrs. Coy Nalley; other members of the committee are Jack Little, Mrs. Jan Nelson and K. H. McGibbon.

Plans were made to hold a dinner on April 4 for the installation of new officers and presentation of special awards.

Tina's Condition Fair, Gary's Funeral Slated

Tina Bristow, 10-year-old stepsister of 15-year-old Gary Moore, who was killed in a car-train collision at Coahoma Monday, spent a comfortable night at Malone-Hogan Hospital and is now listed in fair condition, according to Dr. Carl Marcum.

The girl was a passenger in the car driven by her stepbrother when it was hit by a Texas & Pacific Railway train early Monday morning. The two were en route to Coahoma School, where they were students. Investigating officers said the boy apparently did not see the train approaching due to the heavy snowfall and bad weather conditions.

Services for Gary Moore will be held Wednesday at 10 a.m. at the First Methodist Church, with the Rev. Leo Gee officiating. Burial will be in Trinity Memorial Park, under the direction of the River-Welch Funeral Home.

Survivors include his father, Carmel Moore, Sand Springs; his mother, Mrs. James Kerby, Odessa; two sisters, Melody Moore and Darja Moore, both of Odessa; his step-sister, Christina Bristow, Sand Springs; the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Moore, Big Spring; and the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Jones, Lee's Store.

Pallbearers will be Martin Frayer, Charles Cooper, K. L. Brady, Alford Ham, T. A. Harris and Tommie Williams. Honorary pallbearers will be members of the freshman class at Coahoma High School.

Pow-Wow Plans Will Be Made

The Cub and Boy Scout Roundtable for Howard County will meet in the conference room at the Veterans Administration Hospital Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

Bob Brooks will be in charge of the group meeting for the Cub leaders and plans will be made for the Pow-Wow.

The Boy Scout leaders group will be under the direction of Gene Vaughn, field director of the Buffalo Trail Council. The monthly theme, camping and camping skills, will be discussed.

Yank Defectors Return To Units

STOCKHOLM (AP) — Five American military defectors who sought asylum in Sweden have returned to their units or home, officials said today.

Only one was named. He is Ray Jones, 21, Detroit, the first U.S. soldier to defect to Sweden in protest to the war in Vietnam, the usual reason given by other American defectors.

EXPRESSED REGRET

American informants said Jones returned to his unit in West Germany today. He had been granted permission to remain in Sweden after arriving in January of 1967 and had been teaching ballet.

Jones called at the U.S. Embassy this morning and requested assistance to return to his unit. The sources said he was provided funds for the air fare to Frankfurt. He was accompanied by his German-born wife and their child.

The sources declined to discuss his reasons for returning to his unit, but Jones recently appeared on a Swedish radio-television program in which he expressed regret that he had ever come to Sweden.

Two other American defectors, who had been absent without leave from their units in West Germany for more than a week, also turned themselves in to the U.S. Embassy here Monday.

They, too, asked for assistance to return to their outfits and were given the necessary financial help, sources said. Their names were withheld.

TOO COLD

They were quoted as having said that they met some of the estimated 35 American defectors now in Sweden and that they were being used by Swedish organizations supporting the Viet Cong.

A New York Reservist who had been called for duty in Vietnam, turned up at the U.S. Embassy a couple of weeks ago and was given his air fare to return home. Informants reported another defector reported to Swedish authorities, told them he found Sweden too cold and announced he was returning to his military unit in West Germany.

'Thanks A Lot'

PETERBOROUGH, England (AP) — A railroad fireman was freed from a wrecked locomotive today after lying trapped for 10 hours beside two dead engineers.

"Thanks a lot," said Aubrey Dolman, only slightly injured and puffing his pipe. "I appreciate this."

Dolman's legs had been pinned under the wreckage. The fireman and the two engineers were in the cab of a diesel engine which ran into the back of another freight train on the outskirts of Peterborough.

Former Actress Is Proud Mama

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A 7-pound, 3-ounce boy was born Monday night to former actress Elizabeth Ashley and actor George Peppard. The couple named their first child Christian Moore Peppard.

Miss Ashley retired from motion pictures when she married Peppard on April 17, 1966. Peppard, who starred in "The Carpetbaggers," "The Blue Max" and other films, has two previous children by a first marriage.

Negro Children Return To Integrated Schools

CHICAGO (AP) — Negro children return to eight newly integrated elementary schools on the northwest side today as participants in a bitterly debated busing program that started Monday.

A fire bomb was hurled through a window of one of the schools hours before classes began Monday and absenteeism was above normal at some of the eight schools involved.

But otherwise, 249 pupils, almost all of them Negroes from two overcrowded West Side schools, were bused to the eight less-crowded schools without any problem.

Crowds of white adults gathered at three of the schools, and there was some shouting and jeering as the neatly dressed children filed from buses and carried their books through a cordon of onlookers.

Schools Supt. James F. Redmond reported the program was going "very well, with no confrontations and no interference with the children."

Officials reported 709 pupils were absent—almost double the normal—and 4,016 were present at the eight schools.

The busing program was proposed by Redmond and approved by the Chicago Board of Education last week in a reversal of a previous stand. Redmond advanced the proposal in an attempt to halt the slide in numbers of integrated schools in Chicago.

In 1963, there were 57 integrated schools in the city. The number dropped to 45 until Monday when the eight schools were added.

Bids Opened Today On District Project

Bids were opened here today on pumps and a filtration plant for the Colorado River Municipal Water District. Low bids aggregated $182,000, but awards will not be made until an evaluation of pump bids has been completed. O. H. Ivie, general manager, said he hoped this would be before the CRMWD directors meet Thursday at 10:30 a.m. in Odessa.

J. D. Jones Construction Company of Big Spring had the low bid of $95,200 on the installation of the filtration plant to serve the Humble Oil and Refining Company IAB field in Coke County. Second low was Decker Construction of Abilene with a proposal of $97,200. Elm Fork Construction of Dallas was the other bidder with $100,800.

Johnston Pump Co. of Glendora, Calif., appeared to be the low bidder on pumps to serve the diversion works on the Colorado River just above Colorado City. The proposal for one pump lifting 1,500,000 gallons per day, one lifting 5,000,000 GPD, and three lifting 25,000,000 GPD each was $86,810. Second low bidder was Layne-Bowler of LaPuente, Calif., and submitted through Wells Company of Odessa with a proposal of $99,040. Fairbanks-Morse of Dallas bid $103,071 on the combinations and cut this to $101,628 if awarded all. The top bid of five submitted was for $142,160.

Lee Freese, Fort Worth, representing the consulting engineers, said the bids would be checked for performance, also for ability to deliver from heads varying from 30 to 60 feet in the well sump at the river. The proposals included motors but not controls and starters.

The controls and starters will be hooked to a conductivity meter which will cut the pumps off when water in the river falls below 500 ppm chlorides. This will permit better water to go on down stream into the Robert Lee reservoir now under construction.

Miss Dogwood To Be Chosen

PALESTINE, Tex. (AP) — Dates for the annual Texas Dogwood Trails have been set for March 23—April 7, Trails officials have announced.

A parade will start the festivities March 23, with the selection of "Miss Dogwood" to follow that event.

The winning young lady will also later compete in the Miss Texas contest in Fort Worth as a representative of Palestine.

Other events scheduled during the three-week festival include a square dance festival, an art show, an iris show, a "coffee break" of citizens band radio operators from over Texas and Louisiana and a performance of a Broadway show by the Palestine High School choral department.

But the prime attraction remains the display of dogwood blossoms over the miles of trails in Anderson County and dogwood blossoms are expected to be in abundance this season according to trails leaders.

Claims Hippie Movement Dead

BANGKOK (AP) — Ravi Shankar, India's master of the sitar and cult hero of the hippies, says the hippie movement is dead.

Shankar, who arrived in Bangkok Monday for a series of sitar concerts, said he thought the drug-taking movement was on its way out too.

"The Yanks like to do things as on a big wave," he said. "I have been saying to some self-appointed gurus in America that drugs have nothing to do with music.

"I've been against it for years," he said.

DEATHS

W. M. Martin, Rites Wednesday

W. R. (Abe) Martin, 63, died at 4:12 a.m. Tuesday in a local hospital. He had been in ill health for two years.

Mr. Martin, who came here from Enid, Okla., in 1942, was a retired bell captain at the Settles Hotel. His wife, Lois Irene Martin, died in January, 1966.

He was born April 12, 1904, in Coleman, Miss. When he first came to Big Spring, he was bell captain at the old Crawford Hotel and when the Crawford closed, he transferred to the Settles where he worked until ill health forced his retirement.

Services are to be at 2 p.m. Wednesday in the Rosewood Chapel with the Rev. Jack Boyett of East Fourth Street Baptist Church officiating. Burial is to be in Trinity Memorial Park with Nalley Pickle Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Pallbearers are to be Leroy Fife, Bill Wilson, Elvin Jones, F. D. Mosier, Sam Peters and Charles Bradley.

Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. Kay Pruit of El Paso, a step-son, Ronnie Wiley, Las Vegas, Nev., one sister, Mrs. Vernon Bittle, Childress, one brother, Howard Martin, Childress, one grandchild and one great-grandchild.

Olympic Funds Probe Asked

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress was asked Monday by Rep. Earl Cabell, D-Tex., to inquire into what he said is a seeming disappearance of $72,000 collected for the U.S. Olympic Committee in Texas.

The Dallas congressman also asserted that legislation should be enacted to require management audits and controls.

Cabell said only $5,000 of the $72,000 collected in Texas reached the Olympic Committee with the "balance having been drawn in cash by the woman in charge of the public relations firm."

A Dallas advertising concern, Dodson & Co., was in charge of solicitations throughout Texas for the Olympic Committee, according to Texas Atty. General Crawford Martin.

Cabell said the woman—whom he did not identify in his speech on the House floor—answered when questioned that her contract called for her to receive a commission of 20 per cent after expenses.

"To date, no information has been obtained that any limitation was put on the item expenses," he said.

"The obvious question at this point is—is this action duplicated throughout the country to the extent that collection fees for contributions to this committee nationwide amount to 97 per cent of all contributions and does this same condition prevail on the other congressional chartered nonprofit, tax free organizations?" he asked.

Cabell said he was not impugning the integrity of the Olympic Committee members "but I do charge them with gross mismanagement and an utter disregard for their true objectives as set forth in their charter, and incompetent handling of monies contributed to them by public spirited citizens."

Five Facing Weed Counts

LAREDO, Tex. (AP) — Smuggling charges have been filed against five young persons, four of them identified as college students.

They are Lawrence Bresso, 20, and Clyde Hallberg, 21, both of the University of Corpus Christi; Drake M. Lawson, 21, of Fort Worth, a student at Texas Wesleyan; Marybeth Holloway, 18, of Fort Worth, a student at East Texas Baptist; and Ronald Lundy, 21, of Marshall. Bond of $5,000 each was set by a U.S. commissioner.

Custom officers said they found five pounds of marijuana in the fender wells of a car in which Bresso and Hallberg were riding when it crossed into the United States from Mexico last weekend.

Officers said they seized two pounds of refined marijuana and 375 barbituate pills in an automobile occupied by the other three persons.

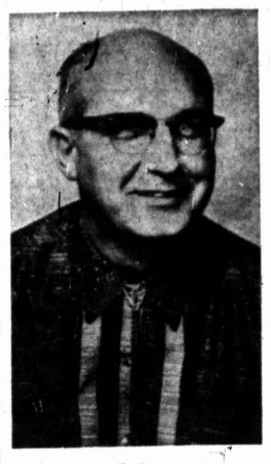

Bearded Postman Is Reinstated

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Bearded, long-haired postman Bob R. Barnum, 25, was reinstated Monday after a two week layoff, while higher echelons in Washington decide whether he wears his hair too long.

Barnum, a two-year career employe, was put to work at an inside desk job away from the exposure of his usual delivery route.

Postmaster Lim P. Lee sent a photo of Barnum to assistant postmaster general Richard Murphy who was taken aback at the getups of some postmen on a visit to San Francisco in January.

New regulations governing appearance of employes were issued last week banning bells, beads and bangles. But they failed to give any specifications on the length of hair except to say it must be kept reasonable as judged by community standards.

New Director

Paul Kasch, partner in Kasch Bros., Inc. and A. P. Kasch & Sons, was elected Monday to the board of the Security State Bank. A graduate of Big Spring High School and SMU, he was associated with his brother and late father, A. P. Kasch, in contracting work. He also served two terms on Big Spring city commission. Kasch succeeds R. W. Andrews, who resigned when moving to Rockwall where he has the Ford agency.

Two Married Coeds Killed

COOPER, Tex. (AP) — Two married coeds at East Texas State University were killed and three others were injured in a two-car collision on US Highway 24 near Cooper Monday.

One of the dead was Mrs. Bruce Stafford, 19, of Commerce a step-sister of religious singer Anita Bryant. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Bryant of Gainesville.

Also killed was Mrs. Karen Lee of Paris.

In critical condition at Baylor Hospital in Dallas was Mrs. Sandra Karen Border of Paris. Less seriously hurt were Mrs. Peggy Foster Wise and Mrs. Elizabeth Grissom, 19, both of Paris.

The five young women were on their way from Paris to Commerce when the accident occurred.

Officers said Mrs. Stafford's car broke in two from the impact. The rear portion was 200 feet from the remainder of the wreckage.

Home Real Estate Offers To Help Sell Your House

Home Real Estate is selling Big Spring — at least parts of it.

"Selling Big Spring" is the slogan at Home Real Estate. To prove this point, Home Real Estate salutes the following new home owners, the agency arranged all of these sales: Mr. and Mrs. Lee Denton, 2503 Cheyenne; Capt. and Mrs. David Hemminger, 2500 Lynn; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Noblitt, Sand Springs area; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Walker, 1306 Colby; Mr. and Mrs. Dean Marchant, 2610 Carleton; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Phillip, 1306 Virginia; Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Cobb, Midway Road, Big Spring east; Mr. and Mrs. Randell Morton, 2204 Merrily; and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lamb, Silver Heels Addition.

These sales are proof positive that Home Real Estate continues to sell Big Spring. If you want to sell your home, Home Real Estate suggests that you list it for sale, "where the action is," in the office located downtown in the Permian building.

Home Real Estate is entering its fifth year of serving the real estate needs of Big Spring. Jeff Brown is the realtor-broker and the sales staff also includes Marie Price, Sue Brown, Lee Hans, B. M. Keese and Jane Watson. One of the staff is available at all times to serve your needs.

Now is the prime time to sell or trade your home. Due to the scarcity of mortgage loan money and the lack of new homes under construction, equity sales have been good lately through Home Real Estate. Residential sales for the firm exceeds $200,000 for the past 60 days.

Home Real Estate offers this word of caution to the homeowner, who may attempt to sell his own home; selling a home means attracting the right "prospect" — people who are ready, willing and able to buy, not just those who are curious to see the inside of a house. The best way to market a home —probably a family's most valued asset — is the professional way through a realtor.

An interesting point to home buyers is the fact that Home Real Estate maintains a large number of homes for sale in all price ranges and in different areas in Big Spring. The prospective buyer may arrange by appointment to view almost any home of his choice, day or night, after work hours or on weekends.

The staff of Home Real Estate encourages home owners to consider "trading up" if they are going to continue living in the Big Spring area and want a different home.

The personnel of Home Real Estate are members of Big Spring Board of Realtors, Texas Real Estate Association and National Association of Real Estate Boards. Lee Hans is currently serving as secretary to the Big Spring Board. Jeff Brown is serving his second year as director for the state association; he is also chairman of the PR and advertising committee for TREA.

The entire staff stands ready to help sell or buy a home for the customer at the best price obtainable. Investigate the one-stop shopping offered by Home Real Estate with offices in the Permian Building. If you forget the phone number, simply dial 3-H-O-M-E.

SURROUNDED BY BALDWINS
Clyde Green, manager at White Music Co., at a Baldwin organ

Baldwin Pianos, Organs Featured At White's

Have you ever taken a good look at a Baldwin piano? Or a Baldwin organ?

Baldwin pianos and organs have the look of perfection for the sound of perfection. You'll have trouble taking your eyes off the perfectly matched wood veneers, the distinctive sculptured styling, the smooth - as - glass hand rubbed finishes.

Then let the sensitive key action and crystal - clear tones prove to you that here, at last, is the most beautiful furniture you've ever heard.

So add the right touch of beauty to your home and do it with music — Baldwin music. A Baldwin piano or organ is beautiful music to decorate your home.

See beautiful Baldwin pianos and organs at White Music Co., 1307-B Gregg. While you are there, pick up a copy of the colorful decorator booklet prepared by House Beautiful magazine. It is free and it will give you a lot of good ideas about Baldwin.

Clyde Green, manager, is often asked about giving a child piano lessons. He believes it makes a child more popular and a home more attractive to desirable young people in the neighborhood. It develops personal charm and cultures, providing self - expression, promoting mental alertness, raising ambitions, and providing pleasures that continue for life. It helps eliminate self - consciousness, improves poise and manners, gives the child the dignity of accomplishment. It promotes peace - of - mind and happiness, develops imagination, inspires love of beauty, and provides a potential for pleasant time in later life.

What else can you buy for your children that promises even a fraction of such benefits?

The entire world is at your fingertips when you own a Baldwin home organ, another of the fine instruments offered at White Music Company. It is the only instrument that's whatever you want it to be — a majestic cathedral organ, a singing violin, a lighthearted banjo, a spirited theatre organ, or a wailing saxophone.

Just a flick of a stop tab, you control both the traditional organ tones and authentic orchestral voices of the Baldwin organ.

As an instrument primarily for the home, each Baldwin home organ teams up musical quality with a fine furniture look that will accent any room. Perennially charming styles, choice woods, hand-rubbed finishes are designed to harmonize with all current decorating trends.

With an organ in the home, you'll multiply the joy of making music and with a trip to White Music Company, you'll find fun and entertainment for the entire family.

Udall Books Houston Talk

HOUSTON (AP) — Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall addresses the North American Wildlife and Natural Resources Conference today.

Prior to the secretary's banquet speech, discussions will center on parks and small animal resources at the conference sponsored by the Wildlife Management Institute.

Speakers at the opening session Monday agreed that mankind has become one of the most endangered of all species.

"Man is indeed a threatened species, faced by the twin spectors of maldistribution of population and unbridled technology, said John Baker, U. S. Assistant secretary of agriculture.

He said civilization is entering a new era and a great fork in history's highway—"A fork that can lead to man's destruction by his own acts or to continued progress through intelligent use of the geographic space in the world."

Dr. Ira Gabrielson, president of the Wildlife Management Institute, said several obstacles block progress toward balance and effective action and "most of these can be traced to government."

"Government moves toward correction of mistakes rather than toward preventing mistakes," he said. "It is geared to what happened yesterday instead of what will happen tomorrow."

'Stone Face' Back To UN

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Jacob Malik, one of Joseph Stalin's ace diplomats, returns to the United Nations today as the Kremlin's chief spokesman.

Since the announcement almost two months ago that he would succeed Nikoi T. Fedorenko, U.N. diplomats have been trying to assess the significance of Malik's return. Some have asked whether it means a return to the cold war in which Malik played a key role.

Malik was the chief Soviet delegate from 1948 to 1953. During the first summer of the Korean war he became known in the press as "The Great Stone Face" because of his grim, unsmiling appearances in televised meetings of the U.N. Security Council.

Other diplomats think of Malik differently. He was the man who negotiated the lifting of Berlin blockade and who dropped the first hint in a speech in 1951 that the Communists were ready to begin negotiations to end the Korean war.

Since he left New York 15 years ago, he has been a deputy foreign minister and Soviet ambassador to London.

Sheppard Joins 'Radio Watch'

One more unit has expressed an interest in participating in the Community Radio Watch being coordinated by the police department.

W. J. Sheppard of Sheppard Real Estate has signed up, according to Leo Hull, assistant chief of police. Police Chief Jay Banks, Mayor Arnold Marshall and City Manager Larry Crow are in charge of the program, which is aimed at encouraging local residents who own two-way radios to assist law enforcement officers by reporting street crimes, accidents or fires. Over 100 units are participating in the watch.

Stock Show Opens Wednesday

Howard County's 31st Annual 4-H and FFA Fat Stock show swings into action at 3 p.m. Wednesday at the Howard County show barns west of town. It will end when the last lamb has been sold at auction Friday night.

Fifteen steers and perhaps 120 lambs are expected to compete in the show. All 4-H Club and FFA members are eligible to compete.

In addition to the ribbons, rosettes and trophies awaiting the top animals, cash prizes in the sum of around $400 will also be awarded to the young showmen. Trophies go to the best steer showman and the best lamb showman.

Paul Gross, county farm agent, is superintendent of the show.

He said that weighing and tagging of animals to be entered in the show starts at 3 p.m. The deadline for entering stock in the show is 7 p.m. Animals offered after that hour will not be accepted.

Judging is set for Thursday evening. Lamb judging begins at 5:30 p.m. with Oliver Werst as judge.

Steer judging takes over the ring as soon as the final lamb has been removed from the scene. This will be about 7:30 p.m., Gross estimates. Buddy C. Logsdon will be the steer judge.

The auction sale — highlight of each stock show — starts at 7:30 p.m. Friday. All of the steers entered in the show will be sold and 70 of the lambs.

A barbecue dinner for all exhibitors, their families, buyers who are to take part in the auction, and special invited guests will be served at 6 p.m. at the fair barn.

This year's show, as will be noticed, will be staged in the late afternoon and evening. In the past the entries have been accepted starting at noon on opening day. Judging has been held in the morning and afternoon.

The night schedule has been worked out to reduce the interference with school activities of the young exhibitors and likewise in the hope that more spectators will be attracted to the show. All events of the show are open to the public and spectators are especially urged to attend the judging and the auction sale.

Four lamb breeds are to be shown with lightweight and heavyweight divisions for each breed. They are Fine Wool, Crossbred, Southdown and Medium Wool.

In each of the eight divisions, cash prizes totalling $20 each and covering the first 10 places will be awarded.

First prize will pay the exhibitor in each division $5, second $4 and the placings from fifth through tenth will pay $1 each.

A grand champion will be chosen in each of the three major breeds. The prize for the grand champion is $5 for each breed. A special trophy will be awarded to the best lamb showman.

Steers will be classified into three groups — heavyweights, mediumweights and lightweights. Prize money will be paid through the first 10 places in each division. First place winner in each weight category gets $12, second place $10, third place $9. The tenth place pays $2.

A grand championship award will be made for the best steer — highlight of the show — with a cash prize of $25 for the winner. Reserve champion will pay $15.

Entry fee for lambs in the show will be $2 and for steers, $5, with all entry money pooled as prizes.

The sales committee of the show has arranged for buyers to be on hand at 7:30 p.m.

A special event in connection with the steer show, is the presentation of the Loy Acuff Award. Acuff, widely known Hereford breeder, awards a $100 savings bond each year to the exhibitor who shows a first place steer bred in Howard County.

Another award, much coveted by the young exhibitors, is the trophy for the best showman. The major awards will be made at the auction sale Friday night.

These annual shows are jointly presented by the Howard County Junior Livestock Association and the Big Spring Junior Chamber of Commerce.

C-C Directors Adopt Budget, Hear Reports

A budget for 1968 totaling $31,869.28 was adopted Monday by directors of the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. Milton Talbot Jr., president, presented the budget which included expenditures for rent, utilities and parking, $2,620; salaries, $18,700; taxes and retirement, $1,500; and adminstrative expense, $9,049.28. Items listed under admistrative expense included supplies, printing, stationery, postage, telephone, car rental, and signs on IS 20.

A report on the membership drive indicated total strength of 517. Forty-four new members have joined the chamber, 203 have raised their annual dues, and 37 have cancelled.

All workers were urged by Dr. Talbot to complete their cards in the membership drive and report on them as soon as possible. He pointed out that many were in the process of securing memberships and investment raises from home offices and it would be a while before a complete accounting could be made.

The Texas Highway Commission meeting in San Angelo April 1 was announced. The Benton Street overpass will be the first item on the agenda.

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce Area Leaders Workshop will be held in Midland March 20. This meeting is designed to assist chamber committee chairmen and leaders of the community.

Quarterly meetings of the C-C membership was suggested as one means of better acquainting the community with the actual functions of the chamber. Other suggestions included combined committee meetings and estimates of money left in the community by visitors to events sponsored here.

'Cool' Thief Grabs Gems

DALLAS (AP) — Under cover of a chilling rain, a thief pried open a display window at a big downtown store and made off with gems valued at $73,675 Monday.

City detective J. R. Helm said this was accomplished by chipping putty from the edges of the glass and removing a triangular section 20 inches high.

A silent alarm alerted a guard service, which alerted employes of Linz Bros. Jewelers. Store employes found nothing missing from electronically protected vaults and showcases.

Not until the guard service men drove to the store through late afternoon rush hour traffic was the looted window discovered.

West threw away the rule book in selecting an opening lead against South's three no trump contract; however, his choice was based on a logical line of reasoning and proved to be a lethal thrust.

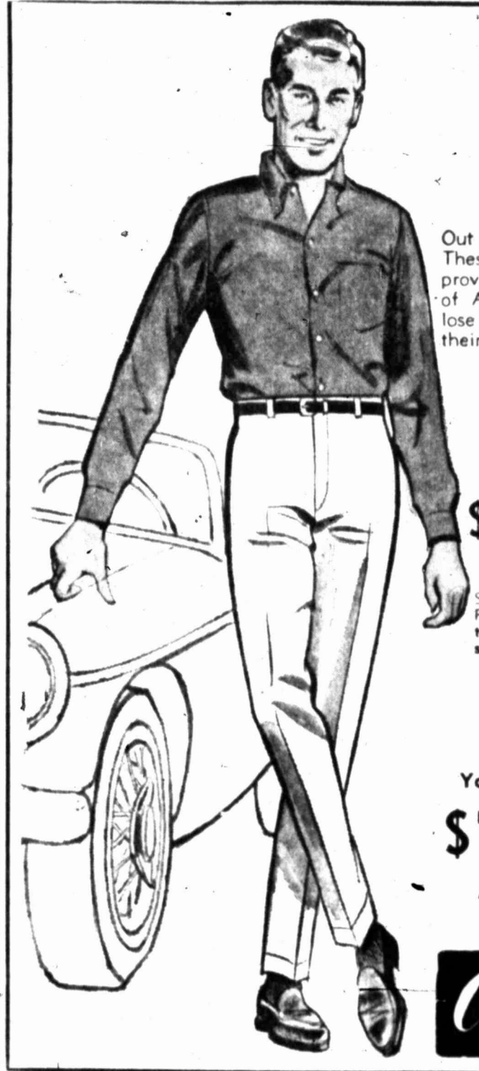

West realized that inasmuch as he had a reasonably good hand himself, his partner could not be counted on for very much. The bulk of the defensive commitment, therefore, must be produced from his own resources. It would be necessary then to rely on the heart suit to develop the setting tricks, and the issue reduced itself to a question of which card to select for the opening assault.

North was marked with four or five hearts for his bid, so that the other players rated to be short in that suit. If all of the outstanding heart honors were in the dummy, then the defense might as well abandon hope. However, if one of the other players held a high heart, it might be important to prevent that card from hindering development of West's suit.

West decided to lead the king of hearts. South put up the ace from dummy and took a club finesse. West was in with the king and continued with the jack of hearts to pin down the ten. South ducked but, when West continued with the nine, the queen was played and declarer led a diamond. West was in against with the ace, and he cashed the eight and seven of hearts to set the contract.

Observe that, if West makes the normal lead of the fourth best heart, declarer can win the trick in his hand with the ten and proceed to develop nine tricks with no strain. The jack of hearts would have been just as effective a choice as the king in the present case; however, if South had the singleton queen of hearts — then West must lead the king in order to profitably develop the suit.

Dear Abby

Too Much 'Girl Talk'

DEAR ABBY: For the last few years I have been the secretary to an unmarried man, almost young enough to be my son, but not quite. Because he lives alone, I do many personal things for him in addition to my regular secretarial duties.

Last summer we took a European vacation at the same time, and since he is well-acquainted there I was entertained royally by his friends, along with him. Believe me, all of this was perfectly innocent, and it was with my husband's knowledge and approval. But I know there is talk among my co-workers, and little understanding on the part of my friends. Should I ignore the talk, and go on as I have?

TROUBLED

DEAR TROUBLED: If everything is on the up-and-up, and your husband understands and approves, it appears that your only problem is the "talk." If this is the case, just make sure you aren't inviting the talk — by talking too much yourself.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I just had to write when I read about the "creepy" girl nobody wanted to bother with. Did they ever stop to think why she was that way?

I was a girl like that. I had an alcoholic father and a mother who didn't care. I was never taught to wash and keep myself clean and neat. The only room in the house with any heat was the kitchen, and we didn't have hot running water, so I wasn't about to take a bath in the kitchen with the whole family looking on.

I didn't have any friends because of my dirty appearance. But two girls in my class took me under their wing. They taught me how to dress and fix myself up. They even helped me get baby-sitting jobs.

They let me come to their houses to take a bath and wash my hair, and they didn't care what people thought. They told me they knew I was a nice girl that needed help. That gave me an incentive to never do anything wrong to make them sorry they gave me their friendship.

I have been married for 20 years to a good man, and I have always taught my children never to make fun of anybody because of their appearance.

BEFRIENDED IN BERKSHIRE

* * *

DEAR ABBY: The letter from "The Troubled Trio," who didn't want that "queer, homely, creepy" girl hanging around, trying to be friends with them, prompted me to write this:

A "homely, creepy" girl needs more than anything else to be taken in, given friendship and taught how to dress, to fix her hair, and to use make-up, if her religion and the school allow it.

And I would ask "The Troubled Trio" — the popular girls at school "in" with the crowd — to read Christ's words in the 25th chapter of Matthew, verse 40:

"And the King shall answer and say unto them, 'Verily I say unto you, inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren ye have done it unto me.'"

County Scores High Honor With Pen Of Five Best Steers

Takes Lots Of Workers To Stage Annual Show

A lot of work and a lot of manpower is needed to stage the Howard County FFA and 4-H Club Fat Stock show. The 31st annual edition opens Wednesday night.

The event is sponsored annually by the Big Spring Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Howard County Junior Livestock Association. The cooperation of the County Commissioners Court, the city officials of Big Spring, and the 4-H Club executive committee is also required to make the wheels of the show turn smoothly.

Paul Gross, county farm agent, is general show superintendent this year. His assistant superintendent is Truitt Vines. Ray White is the superintendent of the steers, assisted by Skipper Driver. Jesse L. Overton will serve as lamb superintendent, with J. W. Overton and Gerald Oakes as his assistants. Slick Boatler will be the official weigher.

The Jaycees will be out to a man lending a hand at each of the three nights the show is under way and particularly on the night of the auction sale. Louis McKnight is the president of the Jaycees. Ben Faulkner and Charles Bell are vice presidents; Jerry Delatour, secretary; Royce Scott, treasurer.

Delbert Donelson is the Jaycee general livestock show chairman.

The Howard County 4-H Club executive committee comprises Lloyd Robinson, Raymond Phillips, James W. Shaw, Harold Coleman and Joe Mac Gaskins. All will be on hand and at work with the exception of Coleman, who is seriously ill.

Gross said that rules for this year's show are much the same as those for last year with the one exception of the time changes. This year's show will be an "evening" event — with animals showing up for entry late Wednesday afternoon, judging of lambs and steers at night Thursday, and the auction sale Friday evening.

Last year's steer buyers, who took part in the auction sale, were:

Grand Champion — Hall-Bennett Hospital, Malone and Hogan Hospital, Cowper Hospital and Medical Arts Hospital;

Reserve Champion — First Federal Savings and Loan, Mrs. Tom Good, Mrs. Modesta Simpson and Big Spring Savings and Loan;

Other buyers were Hemphill Wells Co., Furrs, Inc., Fairview Gin, Co-op Gin of Big Spring, Planters Gin, Vincent Co-op Gin, Security State Bank, Big Spring Wholesale Meat Co., Piggly Wiggly, Inc., R & R Theater, Texas Electric Service Co., First National Bank, Coahoma Telephone Co. and State National Bank.

Horoscope Forecast

—CARROLL RIGHTER

GENERAL TENDENCIES: The oncoming Full Moon brings many difficulties, conditions unless you are now prepared to be very conscientious, to carry through with the promises that you have made, to refrain from criticizing others and do your job with the care that you put into the things that really do mean a great deal to you. Avoid chip-on-shoulder.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) You have some worry and much work that could cause you to be impatient, but keep busy at labors and all works out all right. Someone needs your assistance. Show that you are the soul of generosity.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Don't get so excited about having a good time because of the Full Moon that you do oft on some tangent or other. Get busy getting duties out of the way. Then happiness can come by being with an admirer later in the week.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Showing gentility and thoughtfulness at home will bring some very fine results. Show that you are really devoted. Begin that new uptrend in all of your affairs but do so quietly and don't take any risks.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Avoid traveling at such a rapid rate of speed that you could get into a bad accident and be laid up for some time to come. Partner could make an uncalled for remark. Ignore it.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Instead of trying to buy your way out of some present problem, find a more easy, ethical and logical way. Don't trust a business expert who today could give the wrong advice. Use your own good judgment.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Strive for self-control instead of ranting and raving about something that cannot be helped right now. Be loyal to associates. Doing for others is important; don't expect so much help.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) There is much private work for you to do that you are afraid you will not be able to get ahead so fast as you had anticipated. Take time for health treatments. Do something about your appearance, too.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Others are very much in the mood to assist you in gaining aims, but it behooves you not to be demanding. However, avoid attending some social affair that could mean trouble in p.m. Study instead.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Whatever you have to do in the world of activity is fine, so follow through with the order of higher-ups! Some new piece of machinery can be very helpful in your work. Be more efficient in the future.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You would like to jump right into some new outlet, but this requires further study for best results. Corresponding with out-of-towners can bring fine results. Show appreciation for their efforts.

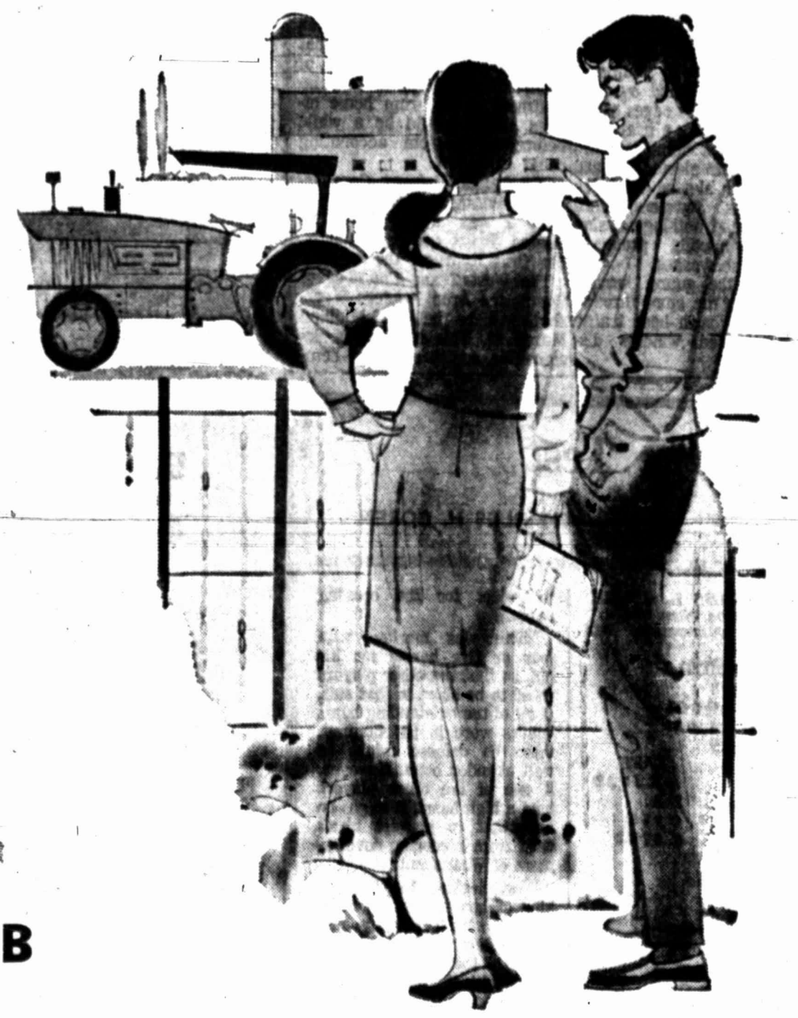

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Follow that intuitive hunch that can help you to add much to your present routines that makes them more efficient, operative. Be sure you get your bills paid. Then do what mate expects of you in p.m.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) Don't argue with an associate who does not care to follow through with your ideas right now. Get busy with others and improve harmony everywhere. Do whatever is of a constructive, helpful nature.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN tomorrow he, or she, will be one of those individuals who will do well in personnel work, getting others into the right groove in life, etc. Therefore, slant the education along such lines. The field of psychology would also be fine here. Teach early not to be so critical of others. Give religious training very early in life.

GRAND CHAMPION STEER OF THE 1967 COUNTY STOCK SHOW
Dolores Lankford, who also won the 1966 grand championship at the show, displays her prize animals which topped all others at last year's exhibits.

Top Showman Will Compete

For the first time in several years the Barr Brothers—Mark and Maxwell—will not be competing in the Howard County 4-H and FFA Fat Stock Show this week.

The Barrs have disposed of their current crop of show calves at the numerous state and district stock shows in which they have already competed and have no animals left.

Dolores Lankford, however, now 16, will be in the competition in a big way. She won the grand championship of last year's show and also the grand championship in the 1966 show.

Dolores has a good-looking calf she will show here and endeavor to make it three championships in a row.

James Shelton, assistant county agent, said that the top exhibitors of the county 4-H clubs have had an exceptionally good year on the state show circuit.

Max Barr showed the reserve grand champion of the Odessa show to kick things off. Mark had a first place summer yearling in the Fort Worth show.

Mark then topped the year's achievements by showing the grand champion steer of the San Antonio show. The Hereford was sold at the auction for $11,000.

Last week Dolores showed the reserve grand champion at the San Angelo show and was paid $750 for her entry.

The kids also showed the best pen of county - bred steers at both Odessa and at San Antonio.

This year will terminate the show activities for three of the top county 4-H club showmen. Mark Barr, Mike McClain and Robert Haney, all of whom have been top winners in the past several years at shows all over the state, are winding up their 4-H club careers this season and will be missing from the ranks in 1969. They will be in college next year.

Dolores has at least two more years if she wants to continue.

Four other kids have been coming up fast as showmen, according to Shelton. They are Steve Foster, and his sister, Linda, and Marty Brooks and his sister, Iva Jo Brooks. And a number of other youngsters are showing promise of being top hands in a year or so.

Another achievement this year of more than passing interest was the victory of petite Patty Peugh in winning the master swine showmanship trophy in El Paso. Patty was showing the pig of her fellow 4-H clubber, Dixie Coleman, which won a championship at the El Paso exposition, at the time she took the showmanship honors.

Houston Winds Up In Catbird Seat

By The Associated Press

Houston, which has held the top position since upsetting defending champion UCLA Jan. 20, wound up in the No. 1 spot today in the final Associated Press major college basketball poll.

The Cougars, who have romped past 29 opponents without a loss this season, received 253 points, 12 more than UCLA, which was a clear-cut choice for the top spot last season when it went unbeaten.

Houston's total was built on 19 votes for first and seven for second. UCLA's figures were the exact opposite.

St. Bonaventure, at 23-0 the only other undefeated team in the country, placed third, but only one other team, No. 9 Louisville, retained its spot from last week.

Kentucky, which was idle last week, and North Carolina, winner of the Atlantic Coast Conference tournament, switched places, Kentucky slipping to fifth and North Carolina moving into fourth.

Duke, the 12-10 victim of an effective North Carolina State stall, plummeted from sixth to 10th, creating a shift among three other positions.

New Mexico climbed into sixth and Columbia into seventh, each advancing one notch, while Davidson leapfrogged past Louisville, from 10th to eighth.

St. Bonaventure, Columbia and Davidson also won first-round NCAA contests.

The final Top Ten with first-place votes in parentheses and total points:

1.	Houston (19)	253
2.	UCLA (7)	241
3.	St. Bonaventure	185
4.	North Carolina	179
5.	Kentucky	147
6.	New Mexico	85
7.	Columbia	82
8.	Davidson	77
9.	Louisville	70
10.	Duke	42

Monterey Tests Bovines Today

Lubbock Monterey, owning a 7-1 won-lost record and carrying with it the favorite's role in District 3-AAA, comes to town today to square off with the Big Spring Steers in a 4 p.m. baseball game at Steer Park.

The Plainsmen, coached by Bobby Moegle, won seven in a row before losing the second part of a doubleheader to Abilene Cooper last weekend, 14-1. Monterey had won the first game, 12-2.

Big Spring broke even in two starts at El Paso last Saturday, losing first to El Paso Burgess, 3-0, and then coming back to topple El Paso Jefferson, 7-4.

The Steers were to have played in the Border City Friday but heavy rains washed out that contest.

Big Spring will carry a 4-1 record onto the field against Monterey. The Steers defeated Andrews, Lubbock High and Odessa Ector before shoving off for El Paso.

Coach Oakey Hagood will send his team onto the field four times this week. The Steers return to play against Lubbock High in Lubbock Friday afternoon and then hops over to Snyder for two contsets Saturday.

This is the final home game for Big Spring until it plunges into District 2-AAAA competition against Midland Lee March 26.

Next week, the Longhorns are entered in the three-day Andrews tournament.

Either Junior Mendoza or James Newman could get the mound call against Monterey today.

Zeke Sanchez Wins Welter Boxing Title

FORT WORTH (AP) — Houston's Jesse Valdez tucked away his fourth state Golden Gloves title and looked ahead today to defending his national light middleweight crown.

The poised, fleet belter heads an experienced Texas team that moves into action nationally next week at Salt Lake City.

The 10 champions were crowned Monday in Will Rogers Coliseum as an audience of 7,332 pushed the four-night attendance total to a record 30,189.

Here are the winners:

Terry Daniel, Dallas, heavyweight.

David Harmon, Temple light heavyweight.

James Sullivan, Austin, middleweight.

Jesse Valdez, Houston, light middleweight.

Zeke Zanchez, Odessa, welterweight.

Jessie Avalos, Corpus Christi, light welterweight.

Gus Macias, Houston, lightweight.

Lorenzo Trujillo, Corpus Christi, featherweight.

James Busceme, Beaumont, bantamweight.

Rudy Barrientes, Fort Worth, flyweight.

Houston and Fort Worth, with 16 victories each, shared team honors and Houston received the trophy as the visiting team. Houston and Corpus Christi each had two champions.

Dallas and Corpus Christi tied for third in the team standings with 12 victories each while Beaumont and San Antonio shared fifth with 10 each.

The most resounding roar for the concluding night came for light middlweight Joe Cokes of Dallas, brother of the world welter champion.

Cokes, ousted Saturday night in a classic duel with Valdez, received the second Flem Hall Sportsmanship Trophy. The crowd came to its feet in tribute.

Valdez wrapped up the championship by outpointing Gilbert Avalos of Corpus Christi, a crafty, aggressive fighter who was simply outclassed by the talented Houstonite.

In addition to Valdez, four other titlists own previous state trophies, including light welterweight Jessie Avalos, Gilbert's brother, now a three-time winner.

Klondike Will Play Sundown

Klondike, winner of the Region VI-B girls' basketball tournament here last weekend, will oppose powerful Sundown in the first round of the state tournament at Austin this week.

The two teams square off at 8:50 p.m. Thursday, with the winner returning to play Friday against Weatherford Bronck.

Klondike defeated Trent in the finals of the local tournament, 44-41, and will carry a 33-4 record with it to Austin. One of the defeats suffered by Klondike was at the hands of a college team.

Only one other Class B team has beaten the Cougars this season. That was Borden County.

In other Class B games at Austin, Slidell opposes High Island at 7:30 p.m., Thursday and Carmine - Roundtop against the survivor of the Slidell-High Island encounter at 8:55 a.m. Friday.

SAN JACINTO WINS, 71-63

NACOGDOCHES (AP) — San Jacinto of Pasadena is going back to the national junior college basketball tournament at Hutchinson, Kan., to see if it can improve on 1967.

It will take only one point because San Jacinto lost in the championship game by that margin.

Rated No. 1 in the nation, San Jacinto Monday night beat Tyler 71-63 in the third and deciding game of a playoff for the region 14 championship. That entitled it to the return trip.

San Jacinto wound up the season with a 40-2 record.

Veterans Find Going Rough In Hill Tests

By The Associated Press

Three pitchers who have known better times—Dick Radatz, Jim O'Toole and Steve Barber—ran into roadblocks Monday along the baseball comeback trail.

Radatz, the once-mighty Monster of the Boston Red Sox' bullpen, is trying to win a spot on the Chicago Cubs' relief corps. He came on in the fourth inning with the Cubs trailing San Francisco 2-1 in their exhibition game.

Radatz walked the first three men, uncorked two wild pitches and hit a batter and two runs were in. Manager Leo Durocher yanked him when he walked the first two batters in the next inning. The Giants went on to a 7-2 victory.

FARES BETTER

O'Toole, a 19-game winner in Cincinnati's 1961 pennant push and now trying to catch on with the pitching-rich Chicago White Sox, fared somewhat better. But he still was clipped for two runs in three innings and was the losing pitcher as the Los Angeles Dodgers trounced the Chisox 7-2.

Barber's misfortune took the form of an eight-run second inning in the New York Yankees' 11-7 loss to Washington. Barber compiled a 10-18 record last season with Baltimore and New York and showed signs of regaining his 20-game form of 1963.

But Washington teed off on him with two-run doubles by Paul Casanova and Eddie Brinkman and a 450-foot, three-run homer by Mike Epstein.

One player received the pink slip Monday. Tito Fuentes, who has spent the past few seasons at shortstop, second base and on the San Francisco bench, was optioned to the Giants' Phoenix farm club.

Fuentes was last heard of in the Dominican Republic several weeks ago and a Giants' spokesman said he had missed too much training to catch up now.

Otherwise, the Grapefruit and Cactus League developments were what you might expect after less than a week of exhibition games. The Oakland Athletics started their first-stringers in a so-called B squad game and then had to call on the scrubs to beat Pittsburgh 4-3.

Someone forgot to tell the pitchers they're supposed to be ahead of the hitters. The world champion St. Louis Cardinals edged Boston 6-5 in 10 innings in a rematch of last October's World Series.

RAUDMAN HOMERS

Besides the Senator-Yankee slugfest, there was another 11-7 game with Bob Raudman's pinch three-run homer propelling Cincinnati to victory over Pittsburgh's 'A' squad. And Detroit, with Jim Northrup and Ed Mathews driving in three runs apiece, walloped Philadelphia 9-5.

Orlando Cepeda, the National League's Most Valuable Player, outlegged an infield hit to drive in the winning run for St. Louis. Cepeda had homered earlier, along with teammate Mike Shannon and Boston's Reggie Smith, Mike Andrews and Gene Oliver.

The big Red Sox guns—Carl Yastrzemski, Tony Conigliaro and George Scott—failed to hit in seven at-bats.

The Mets edged Houston 4-3 in 11 innings on a bases-loaded walk to Jerry Morales, a rookie outfielder. Woodie Held drove in one run and scored the other as the California Angels edged Cleveland 2-1.

Atlanta beat Minnesota 6-4 in an error-filled night game.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Sports dialogue:

REX BAXTER, touring golfer:

"I'm not playing well at all. This is my worst start yet. My driving, my iron play and my putting have gone bad. So there's nothing left."

* * * *

ELVIN HAYES, Houston basketball great:

"You'll notice that the guys who never complain to the officials are the guys who are always getting fouls called on them. If the ref calls goal-tending on me I'll say, 'Hey, ref, I thought my hand was away from the basket. Did I get it up there too quick?' He'll say, 'Yeah, maybe so.' I'm not really complaining, see, and I'm just trying to get him off my back. Being No. One and all, everybody wants to knock us off."

* * * *

GROVER (DEACON) JONES, veteran member of the Chicago White Sox, on why he is against boycotts by Negro athletes:

"I don't go for people intimidating their own people. I like life and had my own troubles when I played minor-league ball in the South. But we've got to think, too, of what sports has done for us, prestige-wise and economically. We're far from the social and equality that we deserve, but we've made some strides. I know if I could make an Olympic team, I'd go."

* * * *

CLIFF SPEEGLE, commissioner of officials in the Southwest Conference, on why basketball is more difficult to call than football:

"About the only real difficulty in football is the question on pass defense whether the defender hit the intended receiver before the ball got there. You have the same type of judgment call 50 or 60 times during a basketball game.

* * * *

LUMAN HARRIS, manager of the Atlanta Braves:

"I don't want any guy to come to practice with a sunburn. Swimming is out, too. Golf in spring training is okay. It can be helpful, when those muscles feel a little tight, to go out on the golf course and walk a little. But during the season, I don't want them playing golf."

* * * *

BILL VEECK, former club owner-general manager in big league baseball:

"Unless something is done, baseball soon will make even cricket seem like an exciting game. Baseball has to be speeded up. We're playing a 1901 game in 1968, when society is expecting more speed and excitement. It isn't the total time that matters so much — its the period of inactivity that has to be squeezed out. We've added 30 minutes to the length of the average game in 25 years. But we've cut down tremendously on the number of runs scored, base hits and scoring situations. It has become a game of pitch and catch . . . How many people are fascinated by watching a pitcher and catcher toss the ball back and forth?"

* * * *

Playwright ARTHUR MILLER:

"Football is a metaphor for violence and war, both of which are very big in our society today. Baseball interest is declining because it is too civilized."

* * * *

ARCHIE MOORE, former fight champion, discussing Cassius Clay's greatness:

"No heavyweight ever threw more than six punches in combination until Clay came along. He would throw as many as 30 punches in a flurry — and sometimes he'd hit you with all 30."

Chicago Bulls Are Step Closer To Playoff Spot

By The Associated Press

Flynn Robinson's last-minute heroics pushed the Chicago Bulls a step closer to a playoff berth, but his former Cincinnati mates didn't appreciate the move.

Robinson, who came to the Bulls from the Royals earlier in the season, flipped in a basket and a pair of free throws in the final minute, sending the Bulls to a 104-98 National Basketball Association victory over Cincinnati.

In the only other game Monday night, Boston topped Seattle 119-112.

In the American Basketball Association action, Kentucky defeated Oakland, 120-107 and Denver stopped Dallas, 119-105.

Chicago's magic number — a combination of Chicago wins or Seattle losses — for a Western Division playoff spot is now two over the fifth-place SuperSonics. The Bulls have seven games left, Seattle six.

Cincinnati, battling for the last playoff spot in the Eastern Division, dropped to fifth place, and trails Detroit by one game. Baltimore is only one percentage point behind the Royals in the torrid race.

Oscar Robertson kept the Royals in contention with 37 points, including 13 in the last quarter when the Royals got within four points with a minute remaining to play, after trailing 84-73.

But Robinson, who had 19 points, then came through with his key points. Barry Clemens added a bucket at the buzzer for the Bulls.

Bob Boozer also had 19 points and McCoy McLemore 18, in the Bulls' balanced scoring attack.

John Havlicek paced the Celtics over Seattle with 27 points. Boston took a 62-53 halftime lead but the Sonics bounced back and early in the final quarter went ahead at 95-94 on Rod Thorp's jumper.

Lumberjacks Play Today

NACOGDOCHES, Tex. (AP) Stephen F. Austin makes its bid today in the NAIA basketball tournament at Kansas City and local fans can't see how the Lumberjacks can possibly lose.

Seeded No. 2 in the meet, the Nacogdoches team meets Eastern Michigan and its home town of 23,000 is in a most pleasant stew.

In the first place the team has a 27-2 record, is champion of the Lone Star Conference and whipped St. Mary's of the Big State Conference two straight in a playoff.

In the second place it's one of the youngest teams you'll ever see in college basketball. The average age is 19. It is made up of four sophomores and one junior.

It's something of a family proposition, too. The Polnick Twins, Marvin and Ervin, are regulars.

Coach Marshall Brown has his son among the first line substitutes. This boy, Terry, is a freshman.

Sens Likely To Wind Up In First 5

POMPANO BEACH, Fla. (AP) — If basketball or football was the Washington Senators' game, they'd be a tough bunch to bring down.

Physically, the 1968 Senators should dwarf American League rivals—from 6-foot-5 Jim Lemon, their rookie manager, down the line. If they stand half as tall against opposing pitchers, Washington could muscle into the first division for the first time in 22 years.

Gil Hodges accomplished a minor miracle last year, piloting the Senators to a share of sixth place. Then he moved on to New York, where the Mets were sorely in need of a miracle worker.

LOW IN BATTING

Lemon, former Washington outfielder and Minnesota coach, inherits a team that batted .223, worst in the majors, and had the second lowest pitching rating in the American League.

Big Jim could sustain the upward swing started by his predecessor—if the king-size Senators add a few points to their ERAs.

Frank Howard, the man mountain of the Washington outfield at 6-7 and 260 pounds, provided most of the offensive punch last season, batting .256, slamming 36 homers and driving in 89 runs. He'll be back in left field after a 10-day holdout that netted him a $47,500 salary—highest in the club's history.

First baseman Mike Epstein, who fell short of his rave rookie notices after Baltimore dealt him to the Senators, stands 6-3½ and has trimmed down from 230 to 220 pounds. Rookie second baseman Frank Coggins is 6-2 and 185; recently acquired shortstop Ron Hansen, 6-3 and 200, and returning third sacker Ken McMullen, 6-3 and 195.

Meeting Set For Friday

More teams are needed, if the City Softball league is to function this summer.

For that reason, another organizational conclave will take place in the offices of Bill Reed Insurance, 211 Johnson, at 7:30 p.m. Friday.

Only two teams are definitely committed to operate at the present time. League commissioner Francis Johns said the ideal circuit should have at least six teams.

If the league materializes, the season will probably open sometime in April. All games would take place on the City Park diamond.

Johns succeeded Huck Doe as league commissioner at a recent meeting.

Sgt. Wolfe Gets Marriage Offers

PHU CAT, Vietnam (AP) — More than 10,000 miles from his six motherless children, Air Force Sgt. John L. Wolfe is still getting letters offering to care for his temporarily fatherless brood. There are even some offers of marriage.

Not wanting to give up his Air Force career, Wolfe turned down a hardship discharge and arrived in Vietnam at the end of February.

PEACE OF MIND

He left three of his children with relatives and the two oldest boys in a children's home until his return. A boy born a week before his wife died of a brain hemorrhage in March, 1966, has been adopted by Wolfe's brother.

"I think the children will be all right," Wolfe said at the air base here, where he is supervisor of sentry dog handlers. "This gives me great peace of mind."

Shortly after his wife died, the Air Force offered Wolfe a hardship discharge. But the 36-year-old sergeant already had 13 years in the service and decided to stick it out for at least seven more, until he could retire on a pension.

Orders to Vietnam came while Wolfe was stationed at the air base in Columbus, Miss. When the news of his plight hit the papers, he was flooded with offers to care for his children. He said he had hundreds of calls from 31 states.

OFFERS NIXED

"I didn't realize there were so many good-hearted people in the world," the sergeant said. But he declined all the offers.

Wolfe's sister in West Point, Ky., took George, 5, and Ralph, 4. Wanda, 10, is in Valley Station, Ky., with Wolfe's brother, who adopted the baby boy.

Jonathan, 7, and David, 9, are spending the year at a Baptist orphange in Middletown, Ky., 13 miles from Valley Station.

Wolfe said he has received 15 letters from women who want to mother his children since he arrived at Phu Cat.

"You can't get much better than that," Wolfe said, pointing to the picture of a widow from Dothan, Ala.

But Wolfe says he has no plans to accept any of the offers of matrimony.

"Maybe if all the ladies read this they will stop writing me and calling my mother," he said.

Probation Revocations Asked For 3 Defendants

District Attorney Wayne Burns said today he will seek to get the court to revoke the probation of Carol Ann Scaggs.

Judge Ralph Caton has set a hearing on Burns' motion at 2 p.m. March 22.

Mrs. Scaggs pleaded guilty March 4 to a charge of forgery and on the district attorney's recommendation she was sentenced to five years in prison. The sentence was probated on the stipulation she repay in nine months the $120 face value of the check she admitted to cashing.

A charge filed Monday alleged that Mrs. Scaggs was guilty of taking $30 from C. R. Sherman, 70, Abilene. He claimed he was robbed at knife point.

Burns' motion for revocation of probation was filed the same day, Justice of the Peace Jess Slaughter set bond for her at $5,000.

Two other defendants, who were given probated sentences by the court, are also to be taken before Judge Caton to show cause why their probations should not be revoked.

One is E. E. Banks, who pleaded guilty to an indictment charging assault with intent to murder on Sept. 1, 1966. He was accused at the time of shooting and wounding Annabell LaBrew. His 10 year sentence was probated. Now, the district attorney alleges Banks has violated the terms of his probation. The district attorney wants him sent to the penitentiary. The hearing is set for 2 p.m. Friday.

Joe A. Nunez, under probated 10 year sentence for burglary given him on Jan. 20, is also slated to lose his freedom. He is accused of numerous abuses of the terms of his probation. Hearing on his case is set for the afternoon of March 15.

Harvard To Dig Yard For Books

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — The Harvard library plans to dig up Harvard Yard to make way for more books, the University has announced.

Four levels of underground space to store 1,100,000 books will be excavated on the east side of the yard by the library, already the largest university library in the world and the third largest library in the United States.

President Nathan M. Pusey said Monday a national committee will seek $5 million for the construction and re-landscaping of the yard when the construction is completed.

Copper Strikes Break Is Fading

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chances of a breakthrough soon in the eight-month-old copper strike have faded after union negotiators delayed action on a $1.07 per hour contract offer and renewed demands for company-wide bargaining.

The 40-month contract offer by Phelps Dodge Corp., one of four major strikebound copper firms, would have covered some 5,000 workers at its Arizona mines and El Paso, Tex., refinery, but not at its other operations in New York and Arkansas.

BEST EVER

The offer, which Phelps Dodge termed the best ever made in the copper industry, was "neither accepted nor rejected at this time" by several hundred leaders of the AFL-CIO United Steelworkers union. Copper workers were averaging $3.28 an hour when the strike started.

The Steelworkers set another meeting for Tuesday night and ordered its union negotiators to return to the bargaining table meanwhile to demand simultaneous contract expiration dates at all Phelps Dodge operations.

But a Phelps Dodge spokesman said "there is nothing else to bargain about" until the unions accept or reject its wage offer. He said the company would continue negotiations for the other plants not covered by the contract offer.

KEY PROBLEM

Kennecott Copper Corp. was reported near a similar contract offer to the unions, but a Kennecott spokesman said, "The issue of company-wide bargaining is still our No. 1 problem."

The 26 striking unions, representing more than 50,000 workers, are bargaining jointly for the first time in the industry's history and their demands for company-wide bargaining, similar wage hikes and simultaneous contract dates has dragged out the longest copper strike in history.

The other two firms, Anaconda Co. and American Smelting & Refining Co., were reported still far from settlement.

All four copper firms have rejected union demands for company-wide bargaining and simultaneous contract expiration dates, insisting on holding to the old pattern of negotiating separately for their various mines, smelters, refineries and fabricating plants.

President Johnson called the negotiators to the White House eight days ago and said the strike was hurting the nation's economy and could threaten supplies of weapons and ammunition for Vietnam if it continued.

Will Introduce Bills To Cool Off Tension

MEMPHIS (AP) — Councilman Lewis Donelson III planned to introduce measures today to cool off racial tension that has developed during Memphis' 30-day-old sanitation strike. Most strikers are Negroes.

Attention of school officials, meanwhile, was on Northside High School. They were watching for a repeat performance by pupils who cut classes Monday noon to support a strike march.

The action by 91 militant Negro pupils caught nonviolent backers of protest demonstrations off guard.

ROWDY TACTICS

Police and the pupils verbally clashed in the rain Monday evening after 70 of the children used rowdy tactics into a downtown march by about 50 sanitation workers, ministers and civil rightists.

Earlier in the day there had been a second incident at Carver High School. Police were called and arrested two boys.

School officials said both boys who were charged with disorderly conduct and resisting arrest, had been trying to get fellow pupils to walk out of classes.

Children in the rainy downtown march chanted, linked arms and walked six-abreast down the sidewalks, switched and walked against direction of the main column and splintered into groups that ran down alleys.

STREET SHOUTING

At one point, about 15 ran down a one-way street shouting, and squad cars pursued—against the traffic flow.

City officials especially mayor Henry Loeb, remain steadfast in their contention that the strike is illegal.

Donelson's resolutions would not end the strike, but were supposed to ease tension by clearing the way for hiring of more Negroes on all levels in city government.

His other proposal creates a city manpower commission to work toward employment of greater number of Negroes in private business.

Interest-Free Loan Aids Bank

CARLINVILLE, Ill. (AP) — When officials opened the Farmers and Merchants National Bank Monday they found the bank vault wouldn't open.

So they went across the street and borrowed a substantial amount of money from the Carlinville National Bank. The money—an interest-free loan—carried Farmers and Merchants through until noon when experts arrived from St. Louis, 50 miles south, and opened the vault. The loan was then returned to Carlinville National.

So What's New In Politics?

LONDON (AP) — A paper written 256 years ago will be auctioned at Sothebys next week and it seems to suggest one of the oldest questions in the game: so what else is new in politics?

The item is a first edition copy of a discourse entitled "A Treatise on the Art of Political Lying," to be sold March 18, by the estate of British financier Harley Drayton, whose widow is selling off his library.

PRIVATE TRUTH

There is some doubt about the author but most believe it was Jonathan Swift. In any case, the conclusions are, in this day and age of hot political campaigns, enough to give at least pause. For example:

1. Man should be granted the right to the truth with his family.

2. He should be entitled to economic truth which deals with cash money.

3. He has no right at all to political truth.

4. If lies are flung back at lying politicians in order to bring the regime down, it's what the regime deserved.

The treatise says: "The people have a right to private truth from their neighbors and economical truth from their own family but they have no right at all to political truth.

OUTLIE ADVICE

"The right of inventing and spreading political lyes (lies) is partly in the people; there is no other means left to the good people to pull down a ministry and government they are weary of but by exercising their undoubted right . . . That abundance of politcal lying is a sure sign of true English liberty. As ministers sometimes use tools to support their power, it is but reasonable that the people should employ the same weapons to defend themselves or pull them down.

Swift's advice (if it was Swift) to the public vis-a-vis the government under fire is to outlie them.

Says the treatise: "Whether a lye is best contradicted by the truth or another lye; considering the great propensity to believe lyes in the generality of mankind of late years, the properest contradiction to a lye, is another lye."

It's March 12th again, and we, as your Equipment Agency, would like to extend our best wishes on the 56th Anniversary of the Girl Scout movement.

We are proud to be associated with the Girl Scouts and hope we have contributed to the building of responsible, young citizens. Serving this fine organization has been a pleasure . . . and we look forward to continuing our relationship of mutual satisfaction.

Once again, happy 56th to all and may your wonderful organization have many more growth years!

Soap Opera Fans Miss Their Favorite Shows

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television - Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The televising for more than six hours by NBC Monday of Secretary of State Dean Rusk's appearance before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee was a massive and worthy piece of public service.

The hearing, which raised the many conflicting views on the subject of war in Vietnam, made disturbing, provocative viewing and indicated the width and depth of differences within the government. NBC dropped much of its daytime schedule to televise the hearing.

CBS HIGHLIGHTS

CBS presented highlights of the hearing in a special hour program at night, pre-empting "The Carol Burnett Show."

The special concluded with Eric Sevareid talking with Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., chairman of the committee, and Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., chairman of the preparedness investigating subcommittee.

The liveliest and perhaps most enlightening post-mortem on the session was an educational network round table discussion that included two journalists, two college professors and a Marine Corps general recently returned from Vietnam.

The viewer who sat through the hearings—and began to feel sorry for the committee and the secretary at the end of a grueling day under bright lights—had a chance to react to evidences of deep concern and dissatisfaction shown by the committee members.

The 18 members of the committee asked questions ranging from the size of allied and enemy forces and the broad military conduct of the war to such matters as corruption in South Vietnam. They even pressed upon him suggestions such as using scrip instead of money to better control the currency situation.

But the major concerns seemed to be about reports of escalation of the war and means of opening channels for negotiations.

ELECTION RETURNS

The questioning, while occasionally sharp and blunt, generally had a sober, civilized tone. It was interesting to note that while Fulbright and other critics of administration policy favored the public discussion of the vital questions, at least two senators with different views felt the open, televised hearing with the criticism of policy, hurt the U.S. position.

Perhaps NBC will receive the usual complaints from disappointed soap opera fans who missed their favorite shows, but the network should be complimented by concerned citizens.

Recommended tonight: New Hampshire primary returns, NBC and CBS, 11:30-12, EST; ABC, 11:30-11:45.

Shot Fired At Officer

A police patrolman escaped injury early today, when burglars fired a gun at him as he surprised them at the Sky Light Lounge, 800 W. 4th.

Jim Wells, patrolling the area, heard breaking glass coming from the lounge, then saw a man run from the east side of the building. As he followed in his patrol car, two more men began running from the rear of the building. When he stopped his car to give chase, someone fired a bullet through the patrol car windshield.

He used his radio to summon help, but the officers did not locate the fleeing men. A window glass was found broken at the lounge and a piece of pipe was lying inside.

TURNING YOURSELF ON

Can We Face Disaster By Using All Of Our Life?

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The Big Spring Herald is sponsoring a Dale Carnegie Course as a means of retaining and developing leaders in the community. This article is one in a series written by Warren Quinlan, director of the Dale Carnegie Training Programs in West Texas.)

Mental health authorities tell us that one of our greatest challenges is the way we condition ourselves to face disaster. Jack Enso was a living example on how disaster-facing should be applied.

From the moment Jack walked onto the stage in a high school play, he was in love with the theater. When he didn't have grease paint on his face, he had a stage-book in his hands. He was a producer's dream — a triple threat entertainer who could act on stage, work well backstage, and direct in the front.

As Jack's experience broadened, he developed a reputation for his versatility. After his radio workshop received national recognition, he was lured into the position of a radio-producer for a national network. Seven years he handled his duties with skill.

One day, at the peak of his career, Jack became ill and collapsed at the studio. An ambulance rushed him to the hospital. Jack's desire to live helped him to rally for two days, but the disease was too deep, and he died peacefully in less than a week.

Nearly all of Jack's co-workers and legion of friends were shocked. "How could a man with so much energy pass on so quickly?" they asked. Those of us who were fortunate to know Jack through his career knew that he had lived on borrowed time for more than 11 years . . . since the morning his doctor told him of his incurable ailment.

Our point here is one of courage. Jack, in knowing how to face disaster, didn't succeed because of his sentence to die, but in spite of it. A second point for us might be, are we using all of our life, as Jack did, while we still have it?

Beal's Creek Funds Listed

An "interim report" on flood control for Beal's Creek has been included in President Johnson's budget request for Fiscal Year 1969, which begins July 1, according to a letter from Cong. Omar Burleson to Big Spring Mayor Arnold Marshall.

This project has been in the works for a number of years and funds for any needed construction was included in the Master Plan bond issue of 1960. However, the project has been held up pending a major study of the Colorado River and its tributaries by the U.S. Corps of Engineers.

Burleson said the interim report, which was requested by Marshall to be prepared ahead of the complete report, has been approved and the study will be completed as expeditiously as possible. The funds are not available for the current year, he said.

Staff Manager To Attend Meet

J. H. Rackley, local staff manager of the National Life and Accident Insurance Co., will attend a regional business conference next month. He and his wife will attend as guests of the firm as sales leaders during 1967.

Rackley will attend a regional meeting at the Roosevelt Hotel in New Orleans, La., April 24-27 as a member of the firm's 1967 Career sales club.

The National Life and Accident Insurance Co. is the nation's fifth largest combination life insurance corporation with more than $9 billion of life insurance in force and assets over $1.4 billion.

Fiery Foes Fail To Ruffle Rusk With 'Hot' Questions

WASHINGTON (AP) — The questions at times were as hot as the television lights, but Secretary of State Dean Rusk never lost his cool in six hours before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Even at the end, when he and Chairman J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., dueled verbally over whether the secretary would come back to finish his testimony, Rusk's voice remained calm and his demeanor placid.

THREAT

"I wonder if it isn't really possible to finish tonight?" Rusk said, adding that he has a busy schedule the rest of the week.

"We all have busy schedules," Fulbright said. "Everyone is exhausted, particularly with the lights." Five shone steadily in Rusk's eyes, and, unlike Fulbright, he had left his sunglasses home.

Finally—facing a threat from Fulbright to scuttle the administration's foreign-aid bill unless he returned—Rusk, still speaking without apparent rancor in his soft, Southern accent—agreed to extend his Monday appearance into today.

Occasionally mopping away perspiration caused by the lights, Rusk sat blank-faced through a number of scathing denunciations of the Vietnam policy he has helped to forge.

And his impassive expression remained as constant when several committee members rose to his defense.

TONGUE-LASHING

Even a 10-minute tongue-lashing by Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., a fiery opponent of war policy, failed to noticeably ruffle Rusk's steadfast composure.

Morse shouted at Rusk that history would prove the United States provoked the 1964 Gulf of Tonkin incident, in which U.S. ships reported being attacked by North Vietnamese torpedo boats.

The incidents led to congressional adoption of a resolution the administration has often pointed to in explaining its subsequent escalation of the American military efforts.

Rusk quietly disagreed with Morse and painstakingly retraced the administration version of the incident.

The only sign of the evident pressure in such an encounter came outside the hearing room during the luncheon break when a reporter asked Rusk if his statements about Vietnam peace talks represented any change in U.S. policy.

"Please don't ask me any more questions," the secretary shot back as he strode away. "I've been answering questions all morning."

Unrest Mushrooms Into Worst Riot

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — Lights burned late in the Polish Communist party headquarters Monday night after student unrest over censorship of a play mushroomed into Poland's worst riot since 1957.

The Gray, slit-windowed party headquarters was one target of several thousand demonstrators who fought running battles with police on downtown streets for seven hours Monday, the third day of disturbances.

'GESTAPO'

Party workers watched from the windows as the students hurled rocks, sticks and bottles at police ringing the building and shouted "Gestapo!", "Democracy!" "Freedom!" and "Constitution."

Police finally drove the demonstrators away with tear gas, rubber truncheons and a water cannon.

Stefan Cardinal Wyszynsky, Poland's Roman Catholic primate and long an opponent of the Communist regime, canceled a sermon at St. Ann's Church near the university to 'avoid worsening the situation," a spokesman said.

NERVOUS CALM

By nightfall, a nervous calm prevailed. Police cars cruised downtown streets littered with bricks, glass and spent tear gas canisters, and guarded against looters at stores with smashed windows.

Censorship also touched off three days of rioting in 1957 as young people demonstrated against the closing of a student magazine.
